

ALGER, McNALLY ELECTED

POINTE PARAGRAPHS

Patrolman Frank Dilloway has been keeping a secret from his mates in the Park Police Department. It appears that Officer Dilloway is quite a juggler when the occasion demands. And the occasion did so demand Monday noon when the officer was attempting to answer three phones at one time in the police office.

The Review reporter watching the performance was amazed at the dexterity shown.

Anyone caring to indulge in his boyhood ambition of driving a fire truck has the opportunity of realizing that ambition. All he has to do is buy that old 1928 model service truck which Grosse Pointe Park has offered for sale.

Municipal Manager E. D. Lane of the Park is advertising the truck for sale in the classified section of the Review. He expects the successful buyer will be given delivery by July.

Twelve-year-old Barbara Sauer came trudging home from Pierce Junior High School last Wednesday carrying tenderly in her arms a bulldog.

She found her lying on the road on Kercheval where the pet had been struck by a car and a callous driver had driven on.

Barbara and her mother, Mrs. Leonard Sauer of 1222 Bedford, looked after the dog and helped her recover from her injuries.

Saturday Mrs. Sauer phoned the editor of the Review in considerable distress. "What should I do; I cannot turn this dog over to the Humane Society."

The editor suggested calling the Park Police Department.

Sure enough, a resident at Kensington and Kercheval had reported a bulldog "Babs" as lost or stolen. The reunion was a happy one.

Remember?

20 YEARS AGO

Phil Franço was elected president of the East Side Republican Club at the annual meeting. The club planned a barn dance and also arranged to help needy families.

All Pointe communities were represented at a meeting in the office of the Commissioner of Public Works to discuss steps to solve the drainage problems of East Detroit and the neighboring villages.

Some 30,000 blue lodge Masons were expected to assemble at Cass Park to participate in the dedication of the new Masonic Temple, first sod for which was turned six years ago.

15 YEARS AGO

The conduct of children using the school buses daily to bring them to schools in the Pointe will be under the direction of a monitor named to enforce discipline on the buses. Dr. S. M. Brownell, superintendent of schools announced. Members of the teaching staff will be monitors.

The decision was made following investigation of a school bus crash in which seven children were injured.

A bride party for the benefit of the Women's Organization of National Prohibition Reform was scheduled by the group. Mrs. Henry Kay of 1115 Balfour was in charge of tickets.

"The Sun of Madelon Claudel," starring Helen Hayes, was the feature film at the Paramount Theatre.

In the classified advertising section of the Review, the following advertisement appeared: "Young lady will care for children at home. Half days 25c, whole day, 50c."

'Gold Coasters' Plan to Appeal Dismissal of Suit

An appeal by 34 residents of Grosse Pointe Township's "Gold Coast" will be filed in Michigan Supreme Court this week, their attorneys said following dismissal in Circuit Court of their suit to recover $76,000 taxes from the Township.

Judge Frank Ferguson dismissed the claim of the 34 plaintiffs after hearings of their suit to have the assessments on their lakeshore properties reduced by a total of $2,100,000.

Judge Ferguson, in his decision pointed out that the Township Board of Review and the State Board of Tax Commissioners had reviewed the assessments of Township Supervisor Carl Schweikart.

Members of the congregation of Eastminster Presbyterian Church have contributed $5,600 to help build a hospital in China, the children's ward of which will be a memorial to little Anne Louise Schenk.

The two-year-old child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Schenk of Kensington road, prominent members of the Eastminster congregation died recently. She had been crippled since birth.

It was in an unusual manner that the Eastminster Presbyterian Church took up the project of rebuilding a hospital in China. Before the funeral of their small daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Schenk asked that all who intended to send flowers in remembrance of Anne, send the amount of money they would spend, to the Presbyterian Res-torian Church. The church members agreed to contribute $5,600. The children's ward of this hospital will be a memorial to little Anne Louise Schenk.

Since the child's funeral many other members of the church and their friends have expressed a desire to contribute to the Restoration Fund. Dr. Moldenke, pastor of Eastminster Presbyterian Church, said that enough donations are expected from his congregation to completely rebuild the hospital and fully equip the wards and rooms.

Members of the congregation, when they heard of the Schenk's suggestion, were so enthusiastic, that they contributed about $5,600 to be used in building a hospital at Hengyang in Hunan Province, China.

The President of the Board of Education, Charles A. Parcels, dug the first spadeful of dirt signifying the beginning of construction of the 18-room section of the proposed new combination elementary-junior high school building at Vernier and Mack last Thursday.

Beside him as he turned over the first spadeful of dirt stood the huge caterpillar bulldozer and crane read to start in on the work of constructing this school building.

A fairly representative crowd gathered in the early morning for the initial ground breaking, including children from several of the older grades at the Mason School and their teachers, officials of the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipality and of the Grosse Pointe Woods Civic League, and interested parents and citizens of the community.

Mr. Parcels made a brief statement about the significance of the beginning of this building.

"This step this morning," said Mr. Parcels, "signifies the culmination of many years of planning, beginning eight years ago when the Board of Education purchased this sixteen-acre site with the thought in mind that at some date in the future it would provide an excellent site for a complete junior high school."

"Now we come to the beginning of the actual construction of such a plant. In the intervening years, there has been much planning and thoughtful work on the part of members of the Board of Education and cooperation from you people in the community in your active interest and effort along the line of securing this realization.

"We begin here the first section of ultimate building which is completely planned and will eventually go up here. This first section will contain 18 classrooms, three of which will be finished without the partitions, providing a temporary auditorium for small groups but which will be easily convertible into regular classrooms when they are needed.

"We are building at a high cost, it is true, but the need for some relief in our school building is pressing, particularly in

Winners in Republican Sweep

Dad's Club Arranges Football Party Nov. 26

An "appreciation party" for the boys of the football squad is being arranged by the Dad's Club of Brownell Junior High and Grosse Pointe High Schools on Nov. 26 at 8:15 p. m.

In a letter to Paul Blackburn, advertising manager of the Review, the club members stated that they wanted to provide a party for the boys of the football squad who had worked so hard during the season.

The party will be held at the home of Mrs. Blackburn, 1234 Kensington Road.

All boys of the football squad are invited to attend the party.

Police Rout Gin-Dizzy Boys in Gang Fight

A gang fight in which more than a score of teen age boys — and three girls — were mixed up, was broken up by Woods police early Sunday morning.

The police arrived on the scene at about 2:30 a. m. and found the boys scattered around a vacant lot.

The boys were taken to the police station and held for a few hours.

The police reported that the boys were very intoxicated.

Rat Defeated by Youngblood in GOP Landslide

Grosse Pointe gave big majorities to all Republican candidates as the rest of the State and country turned back many Democrats in a GOP landslide.

Frederick M. Alger, Jr. was elected Secretary of State in the boom which swung Kim Sigler into office as governor. Alger's majority in Grosse Pointe City and Township was 10,690.

James N. McNally defeated the present county prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien, by more than 2,000 votes.

The Grosse Pointes gave Harold F. Youngblood a majority of 8,842 to help him unseat Democratic Congressman Louis C. Rabaut in the Fourteenth Congressional District.

Mathew F. Callahan was elected state senator in the First District. With three polls unreported he had 77,740 votes to 50,845 for Charles N. Youngblood.

Graiot Township gave Rabaut a majority of 310.

The results of the major offices in the 26 precincts of Grosse Pointe Township were: Governor; Sigler 10,303; Van Wagoner 1,821.

Lieutenant Governor: Eugene C. Keyes 10,030; Kelly 1,673. Secretary of State: Alger 10,697; Bannigan 1,519.

Attorney General: Eugene F. Black 9,986; Doyle, 1,588. State Treasurer: D. Hale Brake 9,981; Kozaen 1,611.

Auditor General: Muri K. Aten 9,840; Coon 1,603. For United States Senator: Arthur B. Vandenberg 10,905; Lee 1,359.

In a similar way, the various police departments handled the problems of community safety in an effective manner. Arthur Louwers was the chairman of the safety committee.

As in past years, the Grosse Pointe High School Mothers' Association, under Mrs. Leon Jacobs' leadership, will be sponsoring a party for the young people.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

War . . . Armistice . . . Peace

We hope the United Nations General Assembly now in session at Flushing Meadows, New York, takes time out from its serious business of peace-making on Monday to Remember.

We hope that they will pause and Remember that another generation died on battlefields for four years from 1914 to 1918 in a war to end wars and to bring peace and justice to all mankind.

Today's peacemakers would do well to Remember on this Armistice Day of 1946 that their predecessors, the Peacemakers after World War I, failed.

Some today fear that the United Nations must bring about changes within itself and its members if it too is to members if it too is to be spared the accusing finger of a succeeding generation bathed in the blood of World War III, which might become the War of World Oblivion.

May the UN delegates Remember on this November 11 that selfishness, greed, ambition and Godlessness among nations and among men lead only to more Armistice Days, More V-E Days, more V-J Days.

May these Legislators of World Security promulgate international laws to bring about a just and lasting peace so that all the World will Remember that at last those who died in war died not in vain.

2 Pointe Students Accepted at Wayne

Two Pointe students were successful applicants for study at the Wayne University College of Engineering, officials of the university announced.

Frank W. Loafman, Grosse Pointe Park, who lives with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Webster H. Loafman at 911 Barrington Road, was a successful applicant for study in the metallurgical engineering program at Wayne.

After graduating from Southeastern High School in Detroit, in the June class of 1943, Loafman entered the United States Army and served as a Pfc. until his release this year.

Harry W. Bedard, Jr., 1351 Woods, was a successful applicant for study in the electrical engineering program at Wayne.

A graduate of South Lake High School in St. Clair Shores, Michigan, in the class of 1939, Bedard married the former Miss Gertrude Fraser of Detroit in 1944. In April of that year he entered the United States Navy and served in the Philippine Islands as a Radio Technician 2/c until his release in January of this year.

A large number of returning veterans have shown a preference for the engineering program at Wayne University. Over 75 per cent of those enrolled in the College of Engineering last semester were veterans.

Regular four-year programs of study are offered in aeronautical, chemical, civil, electrical, industrial, mechanical, and metallurgical engineering. A shorter, non-degree course leading to a certificate is also offered.

The College cooperates with the College of Education in industrial education training, with the Law School for work in engineering law, and with the School of Business Administration for a combined program.

Close relationships with Detroit's industries are maintained both in the placement of graduates and in the instructional

Ervin A. Steiner, Jr. Takes Special Course

Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., representative of the Aetna Life Insurance Co. in Detroit, is now at the company's home office in Hartford, Conn., attending a special training course.

Mr. Steiner was educated at Denby High School and Oregon State College. During the war, he served three years in the Army, connected with Special Services.

Mr. Steiner is Adjutant of AMVETS Post 17, and a member of the Detroit Yacht Club and Alpha Kappa Delta Fraternity.

Colored Picture Tours Offered at Art Institute

Color motion picture tours of Florida, Isle Royale and Costa Rica are on the public lecture program of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Louis Marden, ace photographer and staff writer for the National Geographic Magazine, will show his new color pictures of "Glamorous Costa Rica" at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

He presents a gay Latin-American land of beautiful women, immaculate cities and villages, banana and rubber plantations, and gorgeous birds and flowers of the deep jungle.

At 8:30 the same evening Maj. Dennis Glen Cooper, nationally recognized authority on this newest of America's national parks, will present his new color pictures filmed last summer of "Isle Royale Vacation."

The trip begins abroad the S. S. SOUTH AMERICAN at Detroit. It's an adventurous combination of shipboard life during a Great Lakes cruise, and the moose, deep sea fishing, comfortable camps, mountains, virgin forests and mysterious prehistoric copper diggings on glorious Isle Royale.

"Vacation in Florida" is the natural color motion picture subject of Bob Stanton, globe-trotter from Boston, at 8:30 next Wednesday evening, Nov. 13.

Stanton covers both coasts and the interior, showing St. Augustine, Daytona Beach, Fort Lauderdale, Palm Beach, Miami and other famed holiday spots, as well as sailfishing in the Gulf Stream, Seminole, the Everglades, tropical gardens, alligator farms, and the rest of the novelties that make Florida a vacation paradise.

Packard Earnings Set at $1,387,316 for Nine Months

Transfer of funds from a wartime reserve, application of a tax carryback under provision of the Revenue Act and profitable operations of car and parts distribution subsidiaries combined to show net earnings of $1,387,316 for the Packard Motor Car Company during the first nine months of 1946, as disclosed by its financial report released today.

This compares with net profit of $1,000,000 for the same period of 1945. Both sets of figures are computed after taxes. Sales and billings were $44,358,312 as against last year's comparable total of $305,018,074.

"Loss on normal factory operations was $6,060,235," stated Packard president and general manager Geo. T. Christopher. "This was due to lack of volume and labor inefficiency as well as material shortages and work stoppages both in vendors' plants and our own."

"Termination of war contracts resulted in $1,769,910 fees paid the company this year. This non-recurring credit cuts the loss to $4,290,325."

"Without the benefit of the tax refund, our operation for the year would be much less favorable," said the Packard head.

"During our heavy war production, we paid excess profits taxes according to law which did not give consideration to deferred costs of war production and expenses of the transition period. This same law provided a partial return of these taxes to cover certain excessive costs of rehabilitating our return of peacetime business."

"These costs have been incurred, as our gross loss shows, and it is only by an estimated tax credit of $3,668,000 that we can reduce the loss to $622,325."

High School Grad Studies Business

Richard H. Johnson, Grosse Pointe, who lives with his parents Mr. and Mrs. John M. Johnson at 984 Nottingham Road, was a successful applicant for study at the Wayne University School of Business Administration this autumn, officials of the University have announced.

Johnson is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School where he was active in such extra activities as the Red Cross and War bond drives.

Of the twelve colleges and schools at Wayne University, veterans have shown a decided preference for the School of Business Administration.

Organized in the fall of 1945 in response to growing demand, this School had the largest veteran enrollment in the University during the past year, in proportion to its size.

Through its location in one of the most important production and distributive centers in the country, the University has been able to draw upon the facilities of many cooperating business organizations in building the program of the School.

Hidden River pilots in a normal year have an average income of $190 weekly.

Sportsman's Club Will Celebrate Hunters Night

Members of the Wayne County Sportsman's Club will celebrate "Deer Hunters Night" at the regular monthly meeting, Wednesday at the American Legion Memorial Home in Dearborn.

Many will come dressed in their deer hunting clothes prepared to shove off into the north woods in search of their bucks when the meeting adjourns.

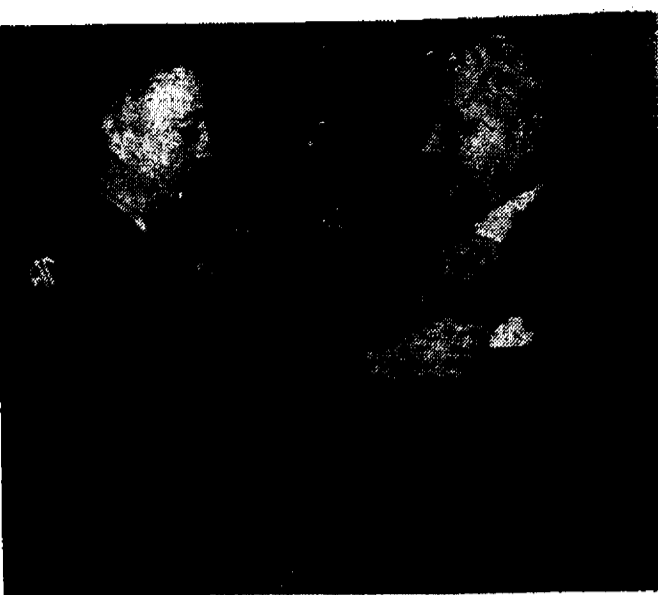

Larry A. Davenport, of the game division of the Conservation Department, will talk on the deer hunting prospects and show the movie "Whitetails" and a new color talkie "Safety On," in the interest of safety.

A report will also be made on the new emergency field office of the Stream Control Commission in Wyandotte, and patrol boat on the river checking on stream pollution. The WCSC spearheaded the campaign for the $25,000 appropriation for the office and boat by the Little Legislature.

Since the WCSC has publicized the telephone number, Wyandotte 2284, as the number to call to report instances of stream pollution, members of the staff have been kept busy with calls from industrial polluters asking information and advice as to how they can best cure their pollution waste problem, according to Larry F. Oeming, Sanitary Engineer.

Chester Harvey, Stream Control Inspector, has been making trips from one end of the river to the other twice weekly since October 1 and several emergency runs have been made by outboard motor boat. A chemist has been kept busy analyzing water samples.

Mr. Burke resides at 798 Trombley Road, Grosse Pointe Park.

Mason School News

The Halloween party given at Mason School for the children was different. Instead of giving a big party, as they did last year, with stage acts, movies, etc., the party was held during the day and the result was a very successful whole-school party.

The children wore their costumes to school in the afternoon, and everyone enjoyed that treat. Usually the darkness of Halloween night does not allow the children to show their costumes, but the day time party permitted this.

At the beginning of the afternoon a grand parade of all the children in their costumes was held. There were Indians, cowboys, clowns, dancing dolls, witches, old-fashioned ladies, etc. The only regret of the staff was that there was no one around who owned a movie camera. The children gathered in their former air raid positions in the halls to view the spectacle.

There were shouts, cheers, handclapping, etc. as some unique costumes were shown.

Six hundred and fifty children were in the parade from the kindergartners to the fourth graders.

After the parade, there were simultaneous activities of a peanut hunt, room parties, and movies. The peanut hunt was on the front lawn and it did not take much time for the children to gather the ten pounds of peanuts scattered there by the custodians.

The movies consisted of the children's favorites of "Little Black Sambo" and "Jack-in-the-Beanstalk."

The treats for the room parties were supplied by the Room Mothers and the P.T.A. There was a lollipop for each child with extra for the best costume. The Room Mothers supplied apples, and the peanuts gathered were shared. For those who had found the most peanuts, there was a reward of a whistle or a balloon.

RADIO NEWS AND VIEWS

BY JIM HENRY

Network fear of transcribed shows was emphasized last week when NBC banned references to the Bing Crosby platter show. Report is that several gags about Bing's transcribed series scheduled for the Rudy Vallee show were cancelled by NBC executive order.

However, friend Bob Hope either didn't hear about the NBC Bing-Ban or else ignored it. He plugged Crosby with the usual entertaining insults. Future shows will tell the story. There are a few topnotch radio artists that can call their own shots in radio—even to the point of ignoring distasteful executive edicts.

GANGING UP ON BING

However, networks opposing ABC Wednesday nights are ganging up on the Groaner and his "Pot-O-Gold" and Henry Morgan running mates. Star-laden NBC and CBS plan both inter and intra network parleys and exchanges of big name attractions to build audiences who will stay away from the Crosby show.

To reconvert Bingsday back to Wednesday CBS (WJR in Detroit) has a powerhouse lineup of Jack Smith, Jack Carson, Frank Sinatra, Dinah Shore, Academy Award Theater, and even a heavier Hooper line-up end to end with Gilderlove, Duffy's Tavern, Mr. District Attorney, Frank Morgan, and Kay Kyser.

In the first audience rating Bing steam-rolled over all opposition. His second rating will be announced anytime now and will eliminate confusion as to whether or not the initial score resulted from the royalty, the promotion, the records, Bob Hope, or Bing.

KILO-CYCLING

Harry Wismer received the nod over Bill Stern for the Army-Navy game broadcast in Philadelphia Nov. 30. Stern has broadcast the annual service contest for the past twelve years—but wasn't with the right sponsor at the right place for the game this year.

WJR's Coffee Club schemers Walter Koste, Dave Zimmerman, and Lanny Pittman are planning some novel prize surprises for the club's holiday audience.

WJR's Man O Sports, Don Wattrick, is added another sport to his already loaded schedule. He will broadcast all the Detroit Falcon basketball games. He is now doing football, hockey, and two sport summaries.

Bob Anthony, WJR promotion director, has a WXYZ tie-in or, perhaps, we should say, potential tie-up. His girl is secretary to Forrest U. Webster, husband and advertising consultant of WXYZ's Lady of Charm. Incidentally, Miss Melrose (Mrs. Forrest Webster) in private life has completed her new book on feminine charm. It is expected to be on the book market in early 1947.

FREE LANCING

Bud Watson, veteran sportscaster and script-writer, is now free-lancing. He has three radio shows and another on the air.

American television station with Detroit's WDDT providing a signal from their Penobscot Building operation.

Diminutive Dave Abodahar, Jack and master of all radio program trades, has a new soother in "Memories in Melody" over WXYZ at 11 a. m. But he turns off the resonant dreamy tones and goes into a rapid-fire staccato in his sport show over WJLB.

Bob Hope confessed recently that he is having trouble finding a suitable postwar formula for his radio show. Critics with "homicidal" instincts have been sniping at his show lately, while Fred Allen seems stronger than ever.

KILOBY: ANOTHER VERSION

Radio gagsters are seeing their share of "Kilroy Was Here" markings on the studio walls. The version I get of the current fad was that Kilroy was a fighting infantryman who took objectives first and then wrote in prominent spots "Kilroy Was Here." Everyone marvelled at his ability to get around to so many different places ahead of the others.

Kilroy has now become a mythical character written more often by the last one out of the rest room rather than the first one to take an objective. It's used extensively by comedians of stage and radio to revive sagging punch lines.

Until next week this is Jim Henry wishing you all good luck and good dialing!

SYMPATHY STRIKE

The first "sympathetic" strike in the United States occurred in 1709 when shoemakers, belonging to an organization known as the Federal Society of Journeymen Cordwainers, were compelled to lay down their tools in order to aid the bootmakers who were seeking an increase in wages.

Victory Gives St. Paul Ti for First Place

By George Heidt

In a tie for first place in the East Side division in the Catholic Schools football league, St. Paul will meet St. Bernard in their last home game of the season at 2.30 p.m. Sunday at Grosse Pointe High School Field.

Fresh from their 20-6 victory over Annunciation at the week-end, St. Paul will be seeking its sixth victory of the season.

The Flyers jumped into an early lead against Annunciation when Meathe took the ball on a reverse and handed it to Ray Huetteman, who ran 75 yards on the slippery field for a touchdown. Meathe then went off right guard to gain the extra point and put St. Paul ahead 7-0.

They were never behind. SCORE ON LONG PASS In the second quarter Du-Rocher picked off a long pass from Huetteman and outran three Annunciation tacklers in a total gain of 60 yards on the play to cross the goal line for St. Paul's second touchdown. The extra point was missed by inches, and St. Paul led 13-0.

The visitors started a drive that took them to St. Paul's one yard line but there the Flyers' line tightened and Annunciation lost the ball on downs with seconds left to play.

The half ended with St. Paul in possession on their own 10 yard line after their powerful fullback, Bob Cucchi had gained nine yards on a plunge.

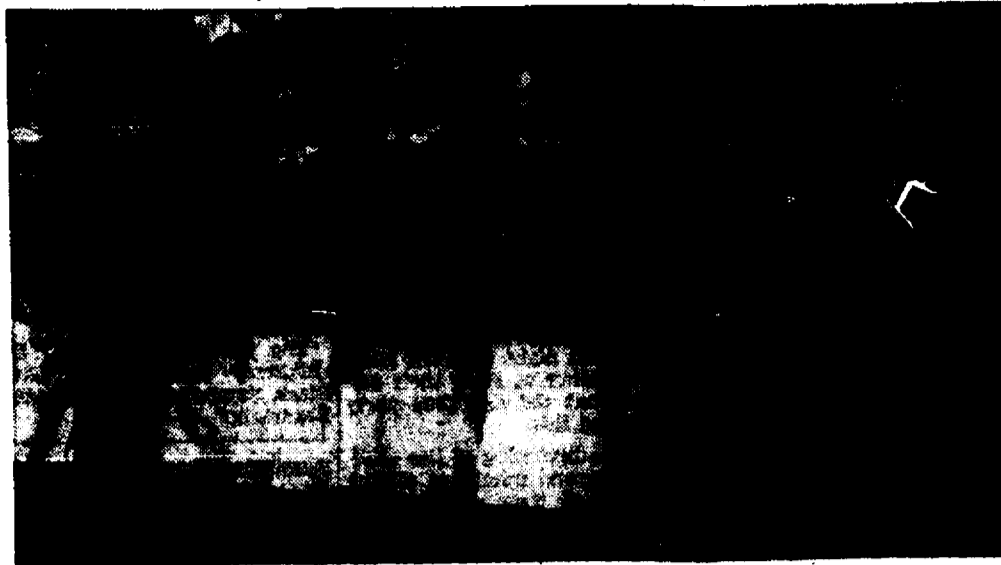

MISS SHUTOUT Annunciation continued its offensive in the third quarter and a minute before the end of the quarter they drove over the line for a touchdown from two yards out. They missed the extra point and trailed 13-6.

Meathe, Cucchi and Smith led a St. Paul offensive which gained 65 yards in the fourth quarter and brought them to the one yard line. Smith went over for the touchdown on an off-tackle run.

Cucchi went off tackle for the extra point, making the final score 20-6.

The teams were battling at midfield when the game ended.

They'll Lead Cheers for Blue Devils

Here are some of the cheer leaders who will be urging the Grosse Pointe High school team to victory against Port Huron at the Grosse Pointe High field Saturday afternoon. Left to right they are: Doris Wilson, Bunny Shipton, Joan Groves, Peggy Clemens, Gerry Johnstone, Joan Ghesquire and Tommy Horrigan.

Blue Devils Lose 27-0 to Big Fordson Team

Before a capacity Homecoming crowd on a rain-soaked field the Fordson Tractors overpowered the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils 27-0 Saturday afternoon.

Realizing that the slippery field would hinder Grosse Pointe's offensive centered around end sweeps and passes, Coach Webber of Fordson started a team outweighing the Pointers nearly 20 pounds per man. However the Blue Devils only gave up seven points until late in the third quarter when the Tractors power began to tell.

Isbey ran the opening kickoff back to his own 40-yard line and on the second play of the game the Pointers nearly scored when Isbey's pass to Beck was just out of reach of the racing Grosse Pointe end. Beck had eluded the Fordson secondary and could have scored easily.

TRACTORS SCORE EARLY The Tractors scored the first time they got possession of the ball on a sustained march from their own 35-yard line. Burton plunged over from three yards out.

For the remainder of the first period the Blue Devils played Fordson better, than when.

In the second period Grosse Pointe had a good opportunity to score after Brabb had blocked a Fordson punt and Beck recovered for the Pointers on the Tractors 15-yard line. However, Fordson held and took over on downs on their own five-yard line.

The teams exchanged punts, and once more the Devils showed their mettle.

Isbey drove from his own 37-yard line to the 37-yard line. Three more running plays and the ball was resting on Fordson's 49-yard line. Christenson completed a short pass to Mumford on the 43-yard line as the half ended.

Grosse Pointe bounced back strong in the third quarter after Isbey had returned the kickoff to his own 41-yard stripe. A forward lateral Garman to Mumford to Isbey gained 20 yards and Mumford picked up ten more on an end sweep but again the heavy Fordson outfit dug in, forcing the Blue Devils to kick. Rummel booted out of bounds on Fordson's seven yard line.

BLOCKED KICK An important break later in the third quarter was directly responsible for Fordson's second score. Punting from deep in his own territory Rummel's blocked kick was recovered by the Tractors on the Pointers 25-yard line. Ortliff scored five plays later plunging over his own right tackle.

A fumbled punt and a pass interception set up the two other Fordson touchdowns. The Tractors recovered the fumble on the

Badminton Club Resumes Activities

Back from their wartime duties the Grosse Pointe Badminton Association is looking forward to its biggest year since 1941.

Play started Friday with a round robin. The very informal round robin has always been the most popular feature of the club. Under the direction of Roland Gray, for many years professional of the club, experienced players and inexperienced players are paired, giving the younger players a chance to learn from the oldsters.

Round robins are held each Tuesday and Friday evenings from 8 to 10. In addition the courts will be available for open, match and tournament play on Wednesday evening, Saturday afternoon, and from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. on Sunday.

Many requests have been received for information regarding membership in the club. Such requests should be addressed to Mrs. Martin Hayden, Chairman of the membership committee, at 610 University Place, phone Tuxedo 1-1194.

Ex-St. Ambrose Back Stars at U. of D.

A former star St. Ambrose High School athlete has solved one of the major problems faced by him has turned out to be one of the most valuable players on the University of Detroit football team this year.

He is Jack Simmons, whose home is at 4697 Lakewood. A big fellow Simmons is playing top grade football at center on the Titans and gets better every game.

He is expected to continue his sharp play when the Titans meet Villanova at U. of D. Stadium Friday evening.

Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons, left St. Ambrose in 1941 after playing four years on the football team, four on the basketball team and three on the basketball team. He was a fullback in those days and was a catcher in baseball. The big fellow also shone as a center on the basketball team.

One of the major problems that plagued Coach Chuck Baer when he began early drills for the football campaign at the University of Detroit appears to be solved. That problem was an adequate replacement for Gene Malinowski, last year's scintillating center who was moved into the backfield.

After watching Simmons in action, and then carefully reviewing his play as seen by motion pictures, Baer was more than satisfied.

"Simmons played a remarkable game at center against Wayne and Scranton, he said.

Baer's use of the motion picture in grading his players is probably unique. He grades each player for his performance on each play, as seen by the camera; with scores ranging from five to zero. When all plays have been graded, Baer strikes an average, and that's the player's ranking for that particular game.

"Simmons came out of the first two games with a grade of 4.8," Baer said. "That is the top grade among the linemen. Since he is on the field most of the time that's a remarkably high score."

Simmons was a fullback last fall for the Titans, and was shifted to the line this spring, to strengthen the pivot spot. Football is not Simmons' only sport. He led his baseball team in batting last spring, and he was a weight man on the track team. Nor is that his only claim to prominence.

Simmons is one of the Titans' war heroes who came back. He came back after being severely wounded and blinded. He became a star athlete again after his blindness was removed. It had never recover from his Simmons came to Detroit as a freshman in 1942, and was a member of the Titan squad that season. Shortly after, he enlisted in the Navy, and was a combat scout in the amphibious forces.

He was shipped to England, as a member of those commando forces who probed the coast of France during daring — and dangerous — pre-invasion thrusts in order to feel out the strength of German defenses.

The raids were perilous missions as the Dieppe casualty lists will testify, and few of the commandos were asked to make

Directors are Charles Fox, Frederick Stevens, Paul Sutherland, Mrs. John N. Failing, Jr., Franklin Robinson, Harold Tanner, Charles Bartlett, Frederic Rising and Mrs. Martin Hayden. John N. Port Huron Team Coming Saturday

Port Huron High School will provide the opposition for Grosse Pointe High School Saturday afternoon at the High School Stadium for the Pointers' final game on the home field.

So far this year Port Huron hasn't shown too much strength but came up last week with a 6-0 victory over Birmingham of the Southeastern league.

The Blue Devils want this game badly to average a 12-7 defeat by Port Huron last year.

Care Urged in Storing Gladiolus Bulbs

Paul R. Krone, of the horticultural department at Michigan State College, says there is a way to protect gladiolus bulbs against thrips when you store them for the winter.

The use of 3 to 10 per cent strength of DDT dust to cover the corms thoroughly will do the job. Gladioli should be harvested after the first frost. The tops should be cut off immediately and foliage destroyed.

The DDT may be left on the bulbs all winter without injury.

PLANT TULIPS NOW

If you have not planted your tulips for those early blooms next spring, you had better do so now. Paul R. Krone, Michigan State College horticulturist, advises getting tulips in soil where there is good drainage. They should get a little start before the ground is frozen.

EASY HALLOWEEN

Chief Trombley of the City Police complimented the children in his jurisdiction for their good behaviour on Halloween.

He's a Terrible Grouch!

As a matter of fact, he has a kind and gentle heart. He doesn't understand himself, why he is so cranky. The truth is that the poor man's nerves are so on edge from eyestrain that he's not himself. Defective sight is often the cause of jangled nerves. When the defects are corrected and clear vision restored, good temper is restored, too.

'Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

Last week was a busy one. Halloween was the main attraction. However it curtailed no one's activities, as this list of parties will prove.

Everyone in Grosse Pointe and vicinity celebrated HALLOWEEN over at the High School on Thursday night. Dancing was provided in the two gyms, each with its own band, and the cafeteria overflowed with good things to eat.

Seen in the crowd were Andy Londez, Paul Naour, Barb Orphal, Lloyd Murry, Marion Moses, Carl Romano, June Moffett, Bill Hester, Barb Carter, Don Drader, Annie Davis, Ed Lube, Sallee Slocum, Dick Heidrich, Barb Brown, Bill Joop, Kathy Strik, Doug Krieger, Mag Schulte, Bev Pohl, Christie Hoare, Tom Anton, Phil McRae, Mary Frevo, Myrna Trodan, Jean Richards, Bob Hanson, Laura Cotter Frank Wilton Bud Hersley Martie Fairless, Gladys Ostermann, Jan Skillman, Ralph Allured, Joan Van Baclcare, Quirk Walsh, Clune Walsh, Julie Dickson, John Murphy, Marilyn Wroblek, Buster Knope, Joe romm, Edris Simpson, Floss Bardy, Jane Bundy, Gall Wright, Jane Worley, Carroll Grylls and Al Singler.

'Nother party on Thursday night was held over at MERRY BAUMEN'S house. This was strictly hag, and all the girls wore jeans and shirts. The kids went out begging and then gathered back at Merry's for cider and doughnuts.

The list of Merry Makers was made up by Nancy Georgie, Janet Johnstone, Janet Hobson, Sheila McRae, Patty Perone, Ginny Granse, Norma Neeb, Sally MacDonald and Martha Weiberbe.

Friday night SUE CRUIKSHANK gave a "come as you are" party. The whole thing was very hilarious for the party was not announced in advance and everyone had to come in the clothes they wore when invited. The main event of the evening was the fortune teller, who said everyone star gazing before the night was over.

Those who were caught in obnoxious clothes were Gerry Rounds, Jim Lemon, Ed Karrer, Joan Blanchard, John Titus, Mary Graizer, Doug Turnbull, Sharon Ford, Dick Nightingale, Barb Mann, Helen Plath, Dick Van Holtern, Lou Ellen Marks, George Marshall, Helen Myers, Herbie Gehrait, Nancy Schmidt and Roy Mageman.

SALLY SMITH 'n Don Drader also chose Friday night to entertain their friends. Peggy Fenley Weds Henry Vaughan, Jr.

Margaret Anderson Fenley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Greene Fenley, F. became the bride of Henry Frieze Vaughan, Jr. at 4 p. m. ceremony in Christ Church, Saturday.

Rev. Francis E. Cramer performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers.

The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Henry F. Vaughan of Ann Arbor.

Peggy's candlelight satin gown was adorned with heritium lace belonging to her maternal great grandmother. The gown was simply fashioned with the rose pointe lace forming a ruffled collar around the bateau neckline. The bodice was fitted with long sleeves and the full skirt ended in a long train.

The "something borrowed" was Peggy's lovely veil combining old lace with fell from a satin band around Peggy's red golden hair. Clusters of orange bolssoms held the band on either side. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and bouvardia centered with white orchids.

Carol Fenley, maid of honor for her sister and Mrs. Edward H. Cook, of Cambridge, Mass., matron of honor, wore identical gowns of pastel yellow faille. The four bridesmaids, gowned in ice blue faille, included Esther Palmer, Janet Finnie, Mary Anderson Coombe, of Cincinnati, a cousin of Peggy's and Mary Louise Hackstedde, also of Cincinnati.

All six attendants wore head-resses of astrich tips to match their gowns. They carried showery bouquets of chrysanthemums shading from beige to bronze.

David N. Mills was best man. Ushering were Robert E. Milligan, Jr., Dr. Edward F. MacKenzie, Dr. Alexander W. Blain III, Greene Fenley, III, Peggy's brother; Sherwin B. French, Herbert W. Hewitt, Jr., Harry Calcutt, of Ann Arbor, and Edward W. Brightwell, of Cincinnati, Henry's former roommate at Yale.

Mrs. Fenley's pastel and gray crepe gown was fashioned with a draped skirt and belt of silver and gray. Her hat was of matching gray ostrich trimmed with brown velvet ribbon bows. Her corsage was of shaded brown and yellow orchids.

Mrs. Vaughn chose a soft green crepe gown with the skirt draped in back to end in a slight train. With it she wore a small matching green crepe hat covered with brown tulle and trimmed with a brown pom pom covered with sequins.

At the wedding reception held in the Fenley home, the bridal party received in the sun room decorated with white flowers. Later Peggy and Henry left for a honeymoon at the Farmington Country Club at Charlottesville, Va. Peggy's traveling suit was of powder blue gabardine, but her hat and top coat were in brown.

When they return, the couple will occupy the garage apartment on the Fenley grounds on University Place.

Russell A. Alger House was thronged Monday morning for Josephine Antoinette's Morning Musicale recital, which opened the second year of the series.

A buffet luncheon followed. Mrs. Frank W. Goldie and Mrs. Henry B. Joy, were checking reservations and handing out programs.

Mrs. Joy was hatless and was wearing a simple gray printed frock for her duties at the door. Mrs. Goldie chose a costume suit of clear forest green, her small felt hat exactly matching.

Near the door, where she could call a greeting to everyone was Mrs. Richard P. Joy, a fur jacket around her shoulders.

Miss Sara Burnham, in a trimly fitted coat checked in beige and wine, sat net to Mrs. Joy and a little farther down the row. Mrs. Eugene Lewis, whose black postillion hat had a trembling pouff of beige ostrich feathers in front.

At right angles to this row was an attractive trio composed of Mrs. B. E. Hutchinson, with her daughter, Mrs. William D. Laurie, Jr. and daughter-in-law, Mrs. ohn M. S. Hutchinson.

Mrs. Laurie's high-flaring black black portrait hat was "that added touch" in her severely tailored black outfit—a man-tailored suit with a primly-styled striped silk shirt.

Shirley Young brought her house guest, Betty Lou Brown, both girls wearing gray striped suits for the bright, autumn day. Betty Lou has been here from her home in Newtown, Conn., since Friday.

After the program, people eddied out to the room where Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren's flower achievement came in for lots of admiration. Flanking a bronze urn full of tawny chrysanthemums, stuffed of course but look-alike enough to take wing any moment.

Mrs. Oscar Buhr, Mrs. H. Hunter Williams and Mrs. George Hefferan found the most advantageous place of all for their lunch. They sat down on the door sill of the sun porch and calmly consumed turkey steak and fruit salad with a nice warm sun on their backs.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

BY PAUL BEAUPRE

The traditional witches and black cats were seen aplenty this Halloween season. Hardly an hour passed without a party occurring to remind everyone that it was again time for the goblins and ghosts to be free.

JOANNE BEAUPRE really kept in the Halloween spirit while making plans for her party. Her home on Moross road was transformed with grotesquely-faced pumpkins, corn stalks and black cats.

The guests all appeared in costumes which helped to make the festive occasion even more enjoyable.

The lunches, brought by the gals, were packed with sandwiches and dessert which suited the menu of the hostess perfectly. Doughnuts, popo, potato chips and apples filled right into the mood. Fantomime was the game that held the spotlight at this get-together. Some of those who joined in were: Anna Marie Tamm, Billy Genin, Jean Kula, Darryl O'Connor, Mary Ann Hillebrand, Myro Duvney, Pat Thibodeau, Vince Turcotte, Alice Fauser, Dick Compau, Jean Gray, Jerry Moons.

Others taking their turn at biting the apple were: Marilyn Otto, Wally Liebald, Aida Marie Crow, Bob Lucas, Jean Krausman, Ralph Beaupre, Betty Ann Huettman, Larry Hirschfeld, Veronica Tamm, Leo Drolshagen, and Bill Shauser.

After the "Spinsters Spin" on Friday, DANNY O'ONNER entertained the same group of "chilluns." Hamburgers, doughnuts, coke, and potato chips were on the refreshment list. Before the party-goers started for home, they gathered 'round the piano where they were favored with a tune by their hoos.

A group of fellows in the JUNIOR CLASS put their heads together and came up with plans for a hayride. The group started out from Knacks Stables to begin their frolicsome evening. After the ride some of the kids whiled away the rest of the willight gathering at the Grosse Pte. High School dance.

Some of the star-gazers were: Alec Moir, and Betty Sheridan, Sally Nacy and Vince Oliver, Ray Allor and Elaine Wyjek, Ronnie Reno and Pearl Fronterra, John Hoey and Judy Athman, Stan Jursek and Rita Lighthausser, Bob Sharpe and Ellen Kelly, Bill Sharpe and Mary Fowler.

The Sophomores decided on something different in the line of fun. They all gathered at Eastwood Park to follow up the hayride with a bit of roller skating. A few seen whirling around the floor were: Ann Meathe and Dick Morketter, Joanne Schummer with Jim Law, Judy Athman and John Hoey.

Nother Moon-ride was the one given by JOEN MANNINO on Thursday. Joe and his friends started out at Ridgemont Stables and wound up the evening with a dance. His date for the gala session was Marion McLaughlin. Others on the wagon-load of fun were: Marge Kelly and Tom Freeman, Paul DeRoche and Frannie Aritto, Rod Villeneuve and Doris Rempter, Bud Car with Mary Andrews, Tom Verbiest and Pat Johns, Bill Gooseberry and Rose Ann Smith, Tom Bass and Pat Murray.

The "Coke Crowd" turned out full-force for the Halloween dance at Grosse Pte. High. The music from the gyms attracted some while others chose the stage show and movies for their evening's entertainment.

A few of the many, many who attended the merry affair were: Chuck Chielen, Ellen Boult, Nora Allard 'n Doug Styles, Joanne Weidman, George Sadd, Al Campenhout, Bob McBride, Pat Van Tiem, Mary Lou Vernier, Pam Harwood, Norm Berlin-game and Ray Huettman.

Others tagging it included George Heidt, Johnny Fushman, Ted Vernier, John Hutton, Carol Staub, Judy Henneke Herb Vernier, and Tom Smith.

The attractively decorated gym was the trysting place for the huge crowd at the SPINSTERS SPIN last Friday nite when the gals did the escortin'. Each fellow wore a beautiful corsage of flowers provided by his date.

Some of the crowd seen swingin' and swayin' to the music made of Glenn Young, Tom Freeman, Peg Weidman, and Rocky Evans, Jo Mannino and Lee Schmitt, Peg Weidman, and Norma Burlingame, Rita Leithausser and Stan Jursek, Rita Bannigan and Bob Herman, Tom Dietz and Jean Lemieux, Bernice Van Tiem and Phil McGahery, Wally Liebald and Dodo Backman, Ray Huettman and Mary Lou Master, Mary Lou Gouin with Frank Bara, Mary Ann Backman and Kay Evans.

Others were noticed wearing their "hooker" hats their dates were getting the refreshments. The fellows and their escorts included: Mary Ann Burlingame and Don Williams, Betty McKernan with Jack Smith, Pat Norman and Tom Palmer, Ann Dungan with Jim McCandary, Debrae Baraka 'n Guss Suppawetter, Jane Lockyer with Frannie Macdonald, Paul O'Connell with Ray Bieszki, Peggy Hyde 'n Tom White, Marilyn Smith and Gerry Lubowski, Kris West 'n John Thompson, Barb Van Tiem with Jack Boomer.

After the dance, party was the reason for the huge crowd that thronged to JOSEPHINE MANNINO'S home on McKinley. The group remained in a mellow mood by playing the latest records. Some fellows and gals were also noticed feasting on hot dogs, potato chips and coke.

People who coupled up for these big doings were: Paul DeRoche and Frannie Arditto, Don Simpson and Kay McDonald, George Heidt with Carol Staub, Ralph DeCenter 'n Mary Smith, Ted Vernier and Marilyn Otto, Dodo Backman 'n Wally Liebald, Marty Mapur and Ray Huettman, Lee Schmitt with Marion DeSutter, Pat Nix and Marge Kelly, Al Campenhout and Mary Sparr, Phil Van Hollebeck and Mary Lou Thibodeau.

"Veterans' Villa Village" Provides Homes for Pointe Families

Desperate young ex-service men from Grosse Pointe are moving their wives and children into "Veterans' Villa Village," a double row of small, one-story comfortable and attractive bungalows on Doremus boulevard off Lake Shore road. The subdivision has a lake frontage and the lots extend back to the Edsel Ford estate. It is on the edge of Grosse Pointe Shores. The 43 acres just sold by Mrs. Edsel Ford to Grosse Pointe Woods for a park gives the Veterans Villa Village the feeling of living on a private estate. A boy and girl are pictured some of the homes already occupied and two of the occupants. Nine months old Susan Tracy likes her new home. With her is her mother, Mrs. James D. Tracy, whose husband is a lawyer and served three years in the South Pacific. They live at No. 28235.

Nov. 15 Deadline Set for Mailing Parcels Overseas

Residents are reminded that Nov. 15 is the last day on which Christmas parcels may be mailed to members of the armed forces and civilians serving overseas.

"In order to avoid disappointment to both those at home and overseas, parcels should be mailed at once to insure their delivery by Christmas," the Post Office advises.

Parcels weighing up to 70 pounds and measuring up to 100 inches in length and girth may be mailed.

After Nov. 15 it will be necessary to present a written request from members of the army overseas when mailing parcels. No request is necessary if the parcel is mailed on or before Nov. 15.

Missionary Coming from Dutch Indies

Capt. Carel Hamel will speak on the real issues between the Dutch and the natives of the Netherlands East Indies.

No one is better qualified to speak on the subject than Capt. Hamel, who spent most of his life in Borneo, Sumatra, Java and other East Indies.

As captain of the Chaplains in the Netherlands East Indies army he is well acquainted with the Dutch point of view. As former President of the East Indies Synod, he traveled throughout the islands visiting hundreds of native Christian churches, and is thus most familiar with the yearnings of the natives for independence.

The earliest Protestant missionary work and the most successful was done by the Dutch in the East Indies, though surprisingly little of this great number of Christians is known by the American public.

Those who would like to know about the present situation in the East Indies and of the church of Christ there are invited to come to Eastminster Presbyterian Church, Manistique at East Jefferson, Sunday, at 7:30 p.m.

Essert Urges Education Week School Visits

American Education Week, Nov. 10 to 16, the Community Chest Red Feather Campaign, and the observance of Armistice Day, will be tied in together in Grosse Pointe schools, Dr. Paul L. Essert, superintendent of the board of education, announced.

At the high school an assembly will be held Monday. Peace through education will be the Armistice Day theme. The Community Chest and its application to the building of the community will be stressed.

"MINUTE MEN" Discussions will be held in classes and members of the speech classes will act as "minute men," giving brief addresses throughout the school. Appropriate articles will appear in the high school paper.

"Our purpose will be to teach the children to become a part of the community in relation to the social problems they face," Dr. Essert said.

Parents are being urged to visit the schools during Education Week and see classes during instruction periods, he said, pointing out that hundreds of people in the community talk about the schools and yet have never been inside one since their own school days.

"VISIT YOUR SCHOOL" "Visit Your School" posters are being displayed in the buildings and pupils are being encouraged to have their parents watch them in action.

"People who have not been inside the school building for 30 years cannot know much more about them than if they hadn't been in a grocery store for 30 years and expected to find the old cracker barrel in the same place near the stove," Dr. Essert commented.

"Business has changed and so have the schools."

Congregational Women Will Meet Tuesday

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Emerson Davis, 844 Whittier boulevard on Tuesday.

A dessert luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock by the co-hostesses Mrs. A. D. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. William M. Browne, and Mrs. John F. McComb.

Mrs. C. Benjamin Rush will present to the church, on behalf of the Women's Association a slide projector to be used in religious education work.

The guest speaker will be an American educator in India, Mrs. Mildred H. Hess who has just returned from American College, Madras, India.

The American College is the only distinctly American college in South India which is making a special contribution through its emphasis on science and the humanities.

in education the superintendent cited the growth of the role which music plays in the system today. He said that all teachers teach music, whereas in the old days one music teacher used to go from class to class giving a half hour music once a week or so.

"Today music is a vital part of education for the American way of life," Dr. Essert said. "Similarly Art has changed from a hit and miss subject to one which is woven into the day to day studies."

NOTES ADVANCES

"The biggest advance in the schools today," he said, "is that we have learned that there are more ways of learning than just the old method of the pupil reading or the teacher telling."

"We have learned more about how people learn and we are using that knowledge in our schools. Pupils learn things by seeing them, by feeling them, as well as by hearing them."

"The second major advance is that we have learned that school life is a laboratory in citizenship," the superintendent said. "Throughout the 12 years of instruction we emphasize the socialization of children—try to teach the child how to get along with his fellow beings and how to be a respected citizen in a group."

"What seems to be mere play in kindergarten is learning to be a part of a social group. That grows to a student government in high school where the pupils manage their own organizations and activities."

"Some ask 'why' all this play—why the recreation, fads and frills, so-called. The 'why' of all this is important."

PRESTIGE PYRAMIDS

"We think the healthy, normal person in life is one who has some prestige—and prestige pyramids are built in school through these groups and activities."

"A child can get prestige of his fellow students through sports, dramatics, safety patrol, flag patrol and other activities."

"It is through such programs that a youngster gains respect among his colleagues which keeps him a healthy, decent kid."

"That was a feeling we used to get in the old days by being a teacher's pet and cleaning blackboards and brushes, or by heading the class in spellings. But there were such a few forms of prestige in those days that other pupils looked down on them."

"Today because we have these many other forms of gaining prestige so that you seldom hear of teachers pets."

"The purpose of American Education Week are to teach you to know your school by visiting them and know the value of them."

Dr. Essert said that several elementary schools are sponsoring teas during Education Week with Parent-Teacher Associations inviting new mothers to the schools.

Education week literature will be passed out at all schools.

The development of education will be discussed in the history classes at the junior and senior high schools.

Scout Auxiliary Arranges Card Party

Strikes, paper shortage and increased enrollment have prevented many students from obtaining books. College officials are asking former M.S.C. students to contribute college texts. All books received will be distributed to veterans free or be placed in the library. Contributed books can be mailed to M.S.C. Book Store, Veterans Books, East Lansing.

There will be a live program which will keep things moving right from 8:15 through to the end.

The Cheer Leaders, the Glee and parts of the Orchestra and Band will be present to add their contribution and keep things at a high level. After the formal program is over there will be "eats" which will be in sufficient quantity and variety to satisfy everyone.

REPEAT IN SPRING

It is hoped that sufficient funds will be obtained through this one solicitation, so that not only can the Nov. 26 party be an outstanding one, but so that it will be possible to have a similar one in the Spring which will honor the boys who have taken part in all types of athletics.

We do appreciate the fine "play" which you have given the teams of the various Grosse Pointe Schools, and want you to know that the Dads' Club does realize and appreciate the value of such publicity.

Not only is it good news reading, but it has a very definite part in building the moral of the boys who play and in making them more anxious to build strong bodies and make the principles of real sportsmanship a part of them.

Cordially yours,
D. L. BECK.

Contributions to the Dads' Club of Grosse Pointe High School should be mailed to the Club, 956 Maccabees Building, Detroit 2.

'The Green Years' Comes To Shores Theatre Sunday

One of the most talked about films of a decade of fine pictures will be seen on the Shores screen Sunday and Monday as Charles Coburn and Tom Drake co-star in "The Green Years." This touching, moving and human epic of modern times will be relished by everyone who remembers his or her youth. A brilliant supporting cast supports Coburn and Drake. Coupled with "The Green Years" is another sterling film, starring versatile Chester Morris and Jeff Donnell.

A new Walt Disney cartoon and late newsreel complete the program. The Shore opens week nights at 6:15 and Saturday and Sunday matinees are at 1:15.

Symphony Guest

Rudolph Firkusny, young Czech pianist, will be introduced to Detroiters in the Brahms Concerto No. 1 at the fourth pair of subscription concerts by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra on Nov. 14 and 15. Karl Krueger will direct the orchestra in a program to honor Brahms at Music Hall.

Noted Harpsichordist Will Be Guest Artist

Ralph Kirkpatrick, noted harpsichordist, will make his first Detroit appearance Wednesday evening, at Music Hall as soloist with the Detroit Oratorio Society, Arthur Gnau, director, announces.

Kirkpatrick will play the Bach D. Minor Concerto for harpsichord and orchestra. He also will play the harpsichord part as the Detroit Oratorio Society presents Bach's Magnificat, for chorus, soloists and orchestra.

The third number of the program will be the Fsalms Hungaricus by Kodaly.

Goddard Turns in Fine Acting Job in "Kitty"

Paulette Goddard turns easily one of the finest performances of her career in the current hit, "Kitty" which comes to the Colony screen Friday and Saturday in a double program with the film version of Gene Stratton Porter's "Girl of the Limberlost."

Effervescent Ray Milland as the worthless noble, who discovers "Kitty" is also at his slipperiest in a role which he handles masterfully. Many persons who have seen both films, declare that "Kitty" is far superior to a similar film, "Diary of a Chambermaid." Ruth Nelson and Dorinda Clifton are costarred in "Girl of the Limberlost." Added feature is "Polar Playmates," a color cartoon. Saturday's matinee begins at 1:45.

Pictures Sponsored by Campfire Girls

Edward Eichstedt, president of the Detroit Audubon Society, assisted by Clarence Messner, president of the Michigan Audubon Society, will show nature pictures at the John B. Pierce Junior High School auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Nov. 15. It is sponsored by the Southeast District Campfire Girls, their families and friends. All young people interested in nature are invited.
