COAL HOARDING HALTED

POINTE PARAGRAPHS

Herman Fischer of 464 Fisher road in the Farms made Thanksgiving a happy day for 52 disabled veterans from Percy Jones Hospital.

Mr. Fischer provided all expenses, including transportation to bring the group in from the Hospital Thursday morning and out to his restaurant on Washington boulevard where they started with a sumptuous "brunch."

They had intended seeing the Lions play Boston Yanks at Briggs stadium but the weather changed their plans, so they went to the Fox Theatre in the afternoon instead.

Then back the boys came to Fischer's Restaurant for that big turkey dinner they had been waiting for. There was refreshment "on the house," too.

Frank Lister of 881 Loraine, who does his daily chore in the Detroit office of the Sante Fe Railway, has been honored with the presidency of the "Passenger Club."

When Leonar C. Sauer was given a farewell party at the Detroit-Leland by his former boss Jack Schafer, president of Peter Pan Bakeries, Mrs. Sauer and their daughters Mary Jane, 15, and Barbara, 12, had a ring-side seat at the affair, though they remained in their home at 1222 Bedford.

Illness kept Mrs. Sauer from attending so Schafer had a direct telephone hookup made and the ceremonies and fun were transmitted to the Sauer home and put out on an amplifier.

Amendments Aim to Tighten City Zoning Ordinance

Residential restrictions in the City of Grosse Pointe will be tightened through two amendments to the zoning ordinance it was decided by the City Council at a meeting Monday night.

One of the amendments is designed to prevent construction of apartment houses or hotels in residential B areas. The other is to nullify the practice of cutting up lots from the size they were originally platted into separate, small homesites not in conformity with existing residences.

Toy Club Pushes Drive for Members

There is still a long way to go to guarantee that the Grosse Pointe Toy Club will be able to carry out its slogan of "Not a Kid without a Toy."

While memberships are selling rapidly and donations are being sent in to all police and fire departments in the five Grosse Pointe communities and in Gratiot Township, Chief Arthur E. Louwers, president of the club, said that the club still has a long way to go.

Police and firemen selling Toy Club memberships throughout the area report a generous response from those contacted.

The council plans on adopting the amendments after a public hearing on the night of Jan. 20, when objectors to the proposal will be heard.

APARTMENT PROPOSED
The move to tighten restrictions came when it was learned plans were underfoot to build a four story apartment house in the residence C area on the south side of Little Kercheval between Cadieux and Notre Dame.

The amendment would change this area to a residence B district, which forbids hotels or apartments or commercial buildings.

WILL STOP SPLITTING
The proposed amendment to prohibit dividing lots from their original size would halt cutting up of properties on Neff, Notre Dame, St. Clair and Rivard boulevard which have been affected particularly, according to Norbert P. Neff, city clerk.

Goodfellow Day Aides Named by Lions Club

Toy H. DeBacco, president of the Grosse Pointe Lions Club.

As in the past 17 years since the Goodfellow Day paper sale was begun in Grosse Pointe by the Lions Club, the Grosse Pointe Review is co-operating by publishing its 18th annual Goodfellow issue on Dec. 17.

The Lions Club members who will act as newsboys in the street sale of the Goodfellow issue will be assisted by members of the police and fire departments.

$5,000 OBJECTIVE
Objective has been set at $5,000, the money to be used for charitable purposes at Christmas time and throughout the year.

Mr. Schweikart pointed out that much of the success of the Goodfellow Day paper sale is due to the excellent work of the policemen and firemen of the five Grosse Pointe Communities selling the Goodfellow newspaper on the streets.

He stressed that while the Goodfellow Day only takes place one day a year, the charitable work of the Lions and the Goodfellows goes on 365 days a year.

MAIL CHECKS
Mr. Schweikart asked that those who may be out of town on Goodfellow Day, Dec. 17, mail or bring their checks to him at the Municipal Building, Grosse Pointe Park.

Checks should be payable to the Grosse Pointe Lions Goodfellow Fund. Donations may also be left with James N. McNally, co-chairman of the campaign.

Members of the Goodfellow Day paper sale committee are: C. H. Kretschmar, C. C. Lisch, Otto Lonsky, Lee Mason, Peter H. Moor, L. E. Radford, Fred Steinheiser, Albert Van Hill, Sr., Dr. Wm. Watkins, Loren Hagen, Dr. W. Kersten, Fred Meyer, Geo. Elworthy, Ernest Putnam, Raymond Dierickx, Leo A. Gibson, Edward Biederman.

Other Lions Committees named by President DeBacco to assume their duties immediately are:

ENTERTAINMENT including entertainment on Goodfellow Day: Chairman, Philip Skillman; committee, Joanne King, Ben Young, William Ludwig, Julius Berns, Lee Mason.

PUBLICITY: Chairman, L. B. Oldham; committee, Lorne Ayling.

ATTENDANCE: Chairman, Dr. W. Kersten; committee, Raymond Dierickx, William H. Melcher.

House to Rent for Review Advertiser

The housing situation is tough all right but it would be a lot worse if it were not for the "Wanted to Rent" advertisements in the Grosse Pointe Review.

Lots of folks need a house, apartment or flat. Those who get them first are those who advertise in The Review Want Ads.

Like the woman on St. Clair avenue who phoned us Tuesday asking us to cancel her ad.

"I got a place yesterday through the advertisement in your paper," Mrs. M— fairly sang over the phone.

No, Mrs. M— didn't get her house the first week she ran her advertisement.

It's a good time of year, too, to sell unused toys for Christmas or clothing which you and your children have outgrown.

Want Ads in The Review are read in 11,200 homes in Grosse Pointe and Gratiot Township. They are taken by telephone at Lenox 1162 up to 5 p.m. Tuesday for publication Thursday.

Captain Elected

In the patrol group a captain is elected each Fall semester. This year's captain is Dennis Kopp, 11, of 581 Neff road. He is a 6B student and has been a member of the safety patrol for two years.

Another officer of the safety force is Harold Drinkaus, 10, of 1029 Yorkshire road. He is a lieutenant and is a one year man.

The Green Pennant Safety campaign sponsored by the Times has brought awards to 125 schools of the 240 elementary and parochial schools in Greater Detroit.

A school which maintains its safety record is given a pennant. If a pupil has an accident it loses the flag and must go 60 days without another accident to get it back.

Pointe Resumes Emergency Fuel Rationing System

Operation of an emergency coal rationing system born in wartime has been resumed in the five Grosse Pointe Communities as a result of the present coal strike.

Meanwhile new efforts to conserve existing coal supplies came from the Board of Education, which announced suspension of all evening and adult activities in coal burning buildings. This followed the brownout ordered in the business districts last week.

The Solid Fuels Administrator for Wayne County has asked the clerks of the Pointe communities to set up the same procedure they began during the war whereby people with less than five days' supply of coal may apply to the clerk and be given a certificate entitling them to order one ton of the fuel.

This emergency organization also operated in Grosse Pointe and throughout Wayne County during the last coal strike.

TO PREVENT HOARDING
Its present purpose is to prevent people from buying coal they do not need or will not need within the month so that available supplies will be spread about the community where fuel is needed most.

The Board of Education also cancelled church services in coal heated schools and directed them to oil heated ones.

For instance, Grosse Pointe Park Church, 11000 Park Road, will have its services on Sunday, Dec. 15, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Effective Monday, Dec. 16, through Friday, Dec. 20, Grosse Pointe post office will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Leland Lindow, superintendent of the branch, announced today.

Speeding Boys Have Gin, Beer

Four boys of 14 and 15 years of age were brought to the city police station Saturday night after they had speeded through city streets chasing some girls in a car.

In their car police found two bottles of beer. A pint of gin had been thrown from their car just as police caught up with them.

The juveniles were given a warning and turned over to their parents.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

Business Will Add 5,000,000 Salesmen

An interesting study of what some businesses are planning and what trends they foresee is provided by William Rados of Schenley Distillers Corporation.

Business organizations, anticipating a full-scale buyers' market in most fields by 1948, plan to employ an additional 5,000,000 salesmen next year.

Those companies which contemplate hiring additional sales personnel are committed to a policy of scientific selection, utilizing aptitude tests and standard interviewing procedures with a view toward making certain that personnel engaged are really qualified for entrance in the "forthcoming titanic distribution struggle," Mr. Rados emphasized.

"The day haphazard hiring of salesmen by harassed sales executives, pursued by so many companies prior to the war and during the long wartime sellers' market," he said, "is over. Sales management is determined to build permanent personnel just as production executives by careful screening prior to employment, have been doing for so long. We face the same situation as factory production faced successfully 50 years ago and we shall meet the challenge."

By securing men with adequate education, satisfactory selling background and other essential qualifications, management will eliminate one of the greatest risks faced by salesmen—loss of employment for failure to produce, he pointed out.

"It is obvious that adherence to scientific selection will work out to the best interests of salesman as well as management. Here at Schenley, for example, we are committed to this policy even in the case of a veteran competing for a job with a non-veteran."

"If both are equally qualified, the veteran definitely gets the preference. But if the non-veteran is the better man, we feel that hiring him is to the advantage of the person who will not last as long if engaged."

Many concerns are devoting much study to elimination of salesmen's risks by establishing basic salaries in the industry. Mr. Rados said this is especially true in the retail specialty field but added that commissions as added incentives for superior salesmen are not being eliminated by any companies. Retirement and hospitalization plans also are being instituted or enlarged.

Woods Park Commission Hears Expert

Clarence E. Brewer of the National Recreation Association met with members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Park Commission on Friday evening. The Park Commissioners present were: Lawrence Marr, John Zimmerman and George W. Gardner.

It had been suggested by the Grosse Pointe Woods Park Civic League that the Park Commission retain the National Recreation Association to design the layout of the newly obtained lake-front park-site.

Brewer first told the members of the Commission the history, purposes and function of and the services offered by the Association. The rest of the meeting was devoted to general discussion.

ORGANIZED IN 1907

The National Recreation Association was organized in 1907 for the purpose of giving advice on recreation activities to any community or industrial or social organization desiring it. It is a non-profit, privately endowed organization.

Some of the many services offered by the National Recreation Association are park planning, development of recreation program, placement service for qualified recreation personnel.

Brewer strongly emphasized the importance of having a complete plan for the Park. He pointed out the necessity of tennis courts, and baseball diamonds being located in the proper direction with respect to the sun; that sewers and water mains of sufficient size should be installed at the beginning; and many other factors might be overlooked by designers not expert in the field of recreation.

The total cost to the Village for a complete plan for the Lake front park site, he estimated to be approximately $500.

When asked for his opinion regarding outside swimming pools, he said he did not recommend their use north of the Ohio River, because the shortness of the swimming season makes the cost of operation prohibitive.

In support of this opinion, he gave examples of several installations in New York State with which he was familiar.

Brewer is well known in this vicinity, since he worked for 23 years as Commissioner of Recreation for the City of Detroit just prior to his affiliation with the National Recreation Association.

Romeo Denies Morals Charge
James D. Walker, 26, today was held under $10,000 bond after pleading innocent to a charge of attempting to attack a young divorcee in Grosse Pointe Shores.
Grosse Pointe Shores Justice Victor H. DeBaeke ordered Walker, who in October was sentenced to serve two to four years for marrying four women without a divorce, bound over to circuit court.
The divorcee charged that Walker attempted to attack her after volunteering to drive her home from a party.
Walker told police he was free under $1,000 bond pending retrial in the bigamy case.

Suspect Held for Break-ins
Description published in the newspaper was credited with leading directly to the arrest of a man charged with burglarizing several homes, Chief of Police Arthur Louwers of the Park told The Review.
Louwers said that Willy B. Owings was arrested at noon Saturday by Patrolman Patrick Conlon and Gustave Boone on Barrington where he is alleged to have tried to enter several homes.
A woman living in the 800 block on Barrington phoned police and said that a youth answering the description of a burglar suspect reported in The Review was acting suspiciously in the neighborhood.
Owings is charged with larceny from the dwelling of Walter Van Goetham, 1343 Nottingham on Nov. 15, where a $20 bill was stolen, and from the home of Mrs. Alice Plath, 726 Barrington road, where a purse was stolen.
A recent arrival from the cotton country, Owings is blamed by Detroit police for some dozen jobs in the Fifth Precinct.

Cubs Prepare Xmas Toys
Cubs of Pack 290, Grosse Pointe Woods, are busy repairing or finishing discarded toys and books to be given to less fortunate children at Christmas. The major part of each den meeting is devoted to this work.
The following message was received by the Pack from Amos R. Shields, Scout Executive. It was addressed to L. R. Montgomery, 1242 Vernier road, and reads as follows:
"This is to acknowledge receipt of check for $44.76 from Cub Pack 290 of the Mason School, earmarked for the World Friendship Fund.
"It is heartwarming to know that so many members of the Boy Scouts of America make their promise of friendship a reality.
"Scouting and Cubbing, as everything else in the war-torn countries, have suffered greatly, and it is our hope that our contributions may be of real use in rebuilding this great program.
"Please express our gratitude to each and every one who made this contribution possible, and our hearty congratulations for conducting such a successful minstrel show."

Board Explains School Tax Increase
Board of Education is advising the taxpayer on the uses of the school tax rate increase in a letter which Grosse Pointe Township and the City of Grosse Pointe tax collecting authorities have permitted the school board to enclose in each December tax statement.
The leaflet enclosed with the current statements from the office of Township Treasurer Adolph L. Damman as in past years is of an informative nature and is designed to help the taxpayer to understand the values of his school tax.
Warned of INCREASE
Residents who received their tax statements in the mails today and yesterday (they were mailed Tuesday) had been warned by Township officials more than a month ago that the new rate was $22.62 per thousand dollars of assessment and that it was the highest in several years.
The increase is chiefly from the five-mill school increase. The Township rate did not increase. The rate last December was $16.94.
This year, because of the five-mill increase in taxes voted by the taxpayers last March, the Board has used this opportunity to give a brief summary account of what the increase is being used for.
The Board of Education letter follows:
"To The Taxpayers:
You will note a considerable increase in your school tax this year. This is due to the five-mill increase in an election held on March 4, 1946.
The Board of Education made every possible effort, preceding this election to inform each individual taxpayer of the issues involved.
Contacts were made with every taxpayer by mail, by providing public meetings for discussion of the issues and by reviewing the issues in a series of six articles in the press.
TWO MAIN PURPOSES
This five-mill increase is now being used for two major purposes:
(1) Construction of the first wing of a new school building on Vernier and Mack has already begun and construction of a section of a new building for elementary children on Kerby and Beaupre will begin by September, 1947.
These two buildings, when completed during the next four years, will house 1,400 children, approximately 300 of which are now without adequate school housing in their own school district and the balance of the space will be needed for new growth before the ultimate buildings are completed.
(2) Necessary increases of teacher salaries have been made as a result of this election in order to provide teachers of this district with a better and more equitable salary for the services they are rendering.
In brief, the five-mill increase which you now find on your tax bills for schools has been added after careful consideration by the entire community in the most democratic manner and you have generously responded, through the election of March 4, to the appeal of your Board of Education to maintain a high standard of public education in this community.
CO-OPERATION PRAISED
The Board of Education wishes to express its sincere

Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

The main event last week-end was, of course, Thanksgiving, with all the trimmings. However there were a few lads and lassies who drummed up the ambition to do a bit of entertaining.

The highlight of POLLY WILTON'S party Saturday night was the hot supper she served to Pat Ferone, Shelia McRae, Janet Johnstone, Janet Hobson, Marcy Wetherbein, Susie Johnson, Merry Bauman, Nancie Georgie, Ginny Granse, and Sally MacDonaid.

After everything was consumed the girls curled up in comfortable chairs and wasted a few hours chatting.

Climaxing the CHI RHO COPPER on Wednesday night was the moment when everyone was sent scurrying around to gather a helium balloon to take home as a souvenir.

The chaperons, Mr. and Mrs. Hittle, Mrs. Yeoman and Mr. and Mrs. Ames and Mr. and Mrs. Chapin were well entertained and quite amused by the whole affair.

Partaking of the fun were Kasie James 'n Bob Bassett, Joly Ford 'n Rich Lantz, Joyce Clemen 'n Dave Bodycomb, Dolly Fisher 'n Paul Terrigan, Sue Woodruff 'n Frank States, Alice Neville 'n Bruce Kirohner, Al Singler 'n Carl Romano.

Others were Carroll Geylla 'n Vince Shrock, Barb Bauman 'n Bill Pierce, "Joey" Johnstone 'n Jack Wilson, Joan van Baclere 'n Jim Mast, Rosalin 'n Bud Spurrier, Marcy Wetherbee 'n Lloyd Murray and Yours Truly and Bob Solo.

FLORENCE GRESQUIRE was hostess to a surprise birthday party for JIM LONG on Saturday night. Pepsi, potato chips, ice cream and a beautiful birthday cake topped with candles designating Jim's age were the refreshments.

Those present were Ernestine Grant, Ship Drane, Patsy Williams, Dave Hegarth, Dona Green, Floyd Rodes, Sparky Field, Dick Stahl, Izy Zimmerman and Jack Rowe.

Ending the week-end festivities in a lovely way was the tea of DOLORES JACKSON on Sunday. It was given in honor of the senior girl, Lois Mehling, Artyce Bookbinder, Betty Kishigura, Dona Green, Barbara Glase, Marilyn Gates, Shirley D'hondt, Miriam Ryan and Marion Hoyt.

Bridge was the main entertainment at CARROLL GEYLLA'S house Saturday night when Carroll gathered a group of girls together for a few rubbers and then served hot dogs and pop.

Norma Neeb, Doris Dising, Mary Joan Sawyer, Mary Ann Donnelly, Gail Wright, Jane Lundgren and Nancy Georgie were there.

That's all for now—hope to see you at the basketball game coming up Friday night and at the SA dance Saturday night!

Many Parties Will Follow U of M Glee Club Concert

When the Men's Glee Club of the University of Michigan is scheduled for 4 p.m. in Pierce School. This is one of the 30 members of the club who are scheduled to bring their talents to the stage. The concert will be followed by a reception by the alumni for university officials. The Grosse Pointe High School singing ensemble will play at the reception in Pierce school. There are many cocktail parties and dinners scheduled for members of the alumni in conjunction with the concert. Dr. and Mrs. John C. Porter, club president, will entertain at cocktails before and a dinner party following the Glee Club concert. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rife, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Carl Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Everts, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lichtwardt, and Dr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell. Mary Jane Scheaffer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Scheaffer is entertaining five of her classmates from Ann Arbor for the week-end. Following a family dinner she will take her guests to the Glee Club concert. Mr. and Mrs. William O'Neill Kronner will entertain their family, their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. John T. Wheeler, Jr., their son and daughter-in-law William O. Kronner, Jr., and their daughter Patsy. After the Glee Club they'll all go to the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club for dinner. Another family group planning to attend the Glee Club concert is the Dan H. Buell, Jr. The Buells and their daughter and Mr. Buell's father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Buell. Among others entertaining will be Mr. and Mrs. Wallace A. Temple, Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Wishropp, and the Richard W. Larwins.

Christian Service Group Will Meet

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will meet at 2 p.m. at the church house. Mrs. Merrill O. Bates will read Christmas poems. Miss Jean Taylor of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will give some Christmas readings. The musical program will be directed by Mrs. William Bradshaw, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Gerathy. Mrs. E. D. Pratt, soloist will sing two Christmas songs. The hostesses for the tea hour will be Mrs. William Thompson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. A. DeValenzuela, Mrs. John H. Fincher, Mrs. Harold A. Simon, and Mrs. Lot Hamlin, Sr. Allan Chase Plays in U of M Symphony Allan Chase, 261 Lewiston Road, Grosse Pointe, was among the 88 students from the University of Michigan's School of Music participating in the presentation of a symphony orchestra concert at Hill Auditorium last evening. Mr. Chase plays the trombone. VISITED CLEVELAND Mrs. George Mutter of Grayton road was the house guest of Mrs. J. Gordon Turnbull of Cleveland during Thanksgiving week.

University Women Plan Benefit Concert

A benefit concert will be sponsored by the metropolitan branches of the American Association of University Women, Dec. 17 at Music Hall. The performing artist will be eighteen-year-old Leon Fleisher, pianist, one of the nation's outstanding musicians. Proceeds from the concert will be used for the twin projects of sponsoring schools in deprived areas in Europe and assisting in international study grants to foreign students who wish to study in the United States. The branches as a unit have adopted a school in Vitre, France, while individual branches have schools in France, Belgium, Holland and Norway under the Save the Children Federation plan. Mrs. Taylor H. Seeber of Grosse Pointe is general chairman of the event, assisted by branch chairmen. Mrs. Kenneth R. Beardslee is chairman of ticket sales for the Grosse Pointe Branch. Telephone TU. 2-6523 for reservations.

RESUMES STUDIES

Cadet K. Ross Himes, son of Mrs. Madalynne M. Himes, who spent the Thanksgiving vacation with his mother and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Martin, of Lakepointe avenue, has resumed his studies at the Hall of the Divine Child at Monroe, Mich.

A Bride . . . and a Bride-lect

Left—Mrs. Charles W. Weiler, Jr., the former Virginia Catherine Purdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Purdy of Three Mile drive, was married Nov. 23 in St. Catherine's Chapel, St. Peter and St. Paul's Church. Right—Engagement of Suzanne Gray Cote to John Early Brink was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lafayette Cote at a pre-Thanksgiving open house in their home on Bishop road. Mr. Brink is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brink of Berkshire road. The bride-elect went to Edgewood Park School in Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., and her fiancé has resumed his studies at University of Michigan after having served as a captain in the Army Air Forces.

Woman's Alliance Will Meet Tuesday

The Christmas meeting of the Woman's Alliance of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the church house. Mrs. Merrill O. Bates will read Christmas poems. Miss Jean Taylor of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will give some Christmas readings.

Alice Rinz Married to Harold Chargot

Alice Rinz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rinz, 9803 East Outer Drive, became the bride of Harold Chargot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Chargot of 1010 Balfour road, at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral Saturday. The bride was attractive in white satin with fitted bodice. White plumes with her veil formed her headpiece. Her flowers were orchids and rubrum lilies. The maid of honor, Shirley Rinz, sister of the bride, wore a tulle (crepe bustle) gown with apron front. Her flowers were royal blue mums.

Methodist Church Plans Pot-Luck Day

The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will hold a church family pot luck dinner and open board meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee S. Walker, 885 Bedford road. This occasion is for the entire families of all the members and friends of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church. Gordon Bugbee, 1002 Kensington, will show movies to the children during the open board meeting, which will follow the Pot Luck Dinner. Mrs. Dan M. Guy, 420 Rivard, is in charge of arrangements for the pot-luck and Mrs. Lee S. Walker, 885 Bedford is hostess.

Feb. 1 Deadline for Scholarship

An opportunity to qualify for a Regents-Alumni Scholarship at the University of Michigan awaits one or more graduates this Spring from every accredited high school in the state. Full information about the necessary qualifications and the application procedure has been placed in the hands of high school administrators by the University's scholarship committee, Feb. 1, 1947 has been set as the deadline date for receiving applications. The scholarships are designed to serve two main purposes. One is to help students of ability and promise who could find it difficult or impossible to gain a University education without assistance. The other aim is to contribute to the development of leadership and productive citizenship in all parts of the state. A Regents-Alumni Scholarship carries a stipended equivalent to semester fees for the freshman year, with provision for renewal through the sophomore, junior, and senior years if satisfactory work is maintained. One scholarship is available for a qualified candidate in each accredited high school in the state. There are additional scholarships for assignment in those high schools where more than one student meets the scholarship qualifications.

Rumney - Krentler Nuptial Vows Read

At a 4 o'clock ceremony in Christ Church Friday, Mary Susan Krentler exchanged marriage vows with Lt. Mason Pittman Rumney, Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Krentler of the Whittier, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mason P. Rumney of St. Paul Ave., and the late Mr. Rumney.

and decorated with the tiered wedding cake, flowers and candles.

Afterward, the couple left for Fort Knox, where the bridegroom reported back to duty Saturday. The bride traveled in a gabardine suit of robin's egg blue with a beaver trimmed black coat and black accessories.

Best Books Reviewed

By WALTER BIESS

Among the countless books people buy each month, there occur, some that deserve to be read. American literature is now being poured into the yawning mouth of a book-thirsty public like oil into a funnel.

Every couple weeks, some ten or fifteen new "best sellers" take the place of last month's hits on the nation's bookshelves.

The natural result has been confusion. We don't know what to read. And sometimes the literature we DO read is foul.

Yet, we admit, there are rare good novels among the many poor. Some are exceptionally worthwhile.

The purpose of this column is to discriminate between the fair and the foul, to give its readers a glimpse of the latest books before they reach the stage where they read them "just because everyone else is reading them."

If it succeeds in doing that, this column will have accomplished its purpose.

DOWN-TO-EARTH
Weegee's People. By Weegee. Duell, Sloan & Pearce, New York. $4.

Weegee, now New York's most famous photographer, quit his job as a newspaper cameraman to take pictures of the common people. His book, Weegee's People, contains nothing of the spectacular.

Greenwich poets selling their writings, Harlem jazz bands, lovers walking in the park—these are portraits of everyday life in the Big Town, New York, "where seven and a half-million people live together in loneliness."

What most readers will like about Weegee's pictures is their honest simplicity. His cross-section of New York isn't designed to start you giggling. The first one on your mind, Weegee is down-to-earth.

IN A NEW LIGHT
Don't think Weegee's work is common. The whimsical, cigar-smoking gent is a master with his lens. Years of labor with a camera form the background of Weegee's People. The grill of a Park Avenue auto, or the tired looks on the faces of back stage girls dreaming of stardom, filmed from the angle of human interest, make this volume entirely different.

That is where art comes in. The common scenes of daily existence are portrayed in a new light. The smiles and scowls, the laughing and crying, listening, seeing, are the subjects for Weegee's artistic eye; and they become simple, unaffected, and fascinating heartbeats of life.

Take it or leave it, this is one good book.

Shirley Koebel Wed to Leonard A. Duval

Shirley Marie Koebel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Koebel of Windmill Point Drive, was united in marriage to Leonard A. Duval in St. Ambrose Church Saturday morning.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Anthony Duval of Cleveland.

Candlelight satin fashioned the bridal robes which were accented with a seed pearl design. A matching coronet of seed pearls held her illusion veil and her flowers were white roses and stephanotis.

Betty Koebel came in from Ann Arbor to be her sister's maid of honor. She wore an ecru velvet gown and carried bronze chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, wearing ecru velvet and carrying yellow chrysanthemums, were Mary Jane Bell, of Birmingham; Penny Burdane, of Cleveland; Phyllis Buehler and Shirley Buehler. Cyrus Duval was his brother's best man.

Art Renner, captain of the University of Michigan football team, headed the group of witnesses, which included William Koebel, who is included with the bride's family.

After the ceremony the wedding breakfast and reception was held at the Lochmore Country Club.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

by PAULA BEAUPRE

The first and foremost affair on this week's calendar of events was the 888 Ball, "Stairway to the Stars" during which the king and queen were crowned.

Following the grande marche led by Prefect, Ray Huettner and his date, Joanne Athanson, the coronation took place which proclaimed PAUL DEROCHER and FRANCIS ARDITTO as the royal couple to rule throughout the evening's festivities.

The gym was lavishly decorated with gold, blue and silver materials which were draped majestically from the backboards. Bees and music adorned the room, transforming it into a royal ballroom.

Many couples were soon walking around to the silvery strains provided by the ARISTOCATS. All the girls were decked out in their finest array with swishy formals completing the ensemble.

The officers and key chairman of the affair with their dates were PHIL VAN HOLLENBERG with Mary Lou Thibodeau, JOAN KRAMMAN with P. J. Donovan, ALDA MARIE CROWE with Tom Kadish, ALICE FAUSER and Parker Minger, AL MOIR with Betty Sheridan, JOANNE WEIDMAN with George Saad and PAUL BEAUPRE with Dan O'Connor.

The eight candidates for the title of King and Queen included JOHN FUSEMAN with Nan Stahl, MARY STARR and Al Campenbush, RITA LEITHAUSER with Bonnie Carroll, JERRY HOLLERBACH with Det Hillebrand, CAROL STAUB with Tom Marchand, FERRIS BELANGER with Judy Senace, and ELLIE WADE with JIM MCARTHY.

Others dancing included: Ray Albor and Elaine Wujek Pearl Frantz with Bob Sharp, Do Backman and Wally Brey, Clara Koenen and Warren Smale, Marilyn Otto with Bob Lucas, Bob Herman with Rita Lannigan, Joanne Beaupre and Jimmy Purton, Jane Lodewyk with Bill Stevens, Sally Curran and Bill McCarthy, Ralph Beaupre with Virginia Kaiser, Ann Dungan with Ray Bieski, Gerry Kitchner with Jack Trombley, Mary Ann Burlingame with Don Campen, Betty DePaula with Jim Cronin, Barb Van Tiem and Jack Bower, Jerry Leback and Marilyn Smith, Dot Arditte and Chuck Alaska, Margy Heidt with Don Williams, Barb Houlliband with Jerry Turcotte, Tom Wylie and Peg Hyde and Pat Norman with John Pappeler.

A gay group of saps went to the abode of SALLY MURPHY for a "before the dance" snack of "punch," sandwiches and cookies. Joanne Schumaker entertained the guests by singing their favorites for them until 9:00 and dance-time came around.

Sally's escort as Jim Mann and Joanne was there with Dick Mochter, Harry Gammage and Pat Trombley, Judy Ahman and Joe Cavanaugh, Dick Hoskins with Marjorie Patski, and Ann Meathe and Jimmy Law, were there dressed in their "party best."

RALPH SCHNEIDER was one of the many who opened his home of Staller road to his friends after the dance. The group was comprised largely of seniors. Neida Hoffmeyer was Ralph's date. Saw Ted Vernier in Stu Rooney, Carolyn Trapp with Howie Meathe, Joanne Weidman in George Saad, Don Simpson with E. McDonald, Art Smith in Sandy Sittinger, Mary Sparr with Al Campenbush, Chuck Tanner with Helene Mauer, Ralph DeCender and Mary Smith and Kathleen Schneider with Tom Fluhner.

A group who were carrying on a lengthy conversation was made up by Dee Backman and Wally Brey, Nan Stahl with Johnny Frushman, Marty Mezer with Bob Browning and Ray Huettner with Joanne Athanson.

JANE O'CONNOR, HARRIET FURTON and CHARLIE BAUER arrived home from Selma Heights College in Adrian Wednesday night to celebrate the Thanksgiving holidays with their families. They returned Monday to resume their studies.

Some like just about everyone took advantage of the dance and returned to the gym after 9.

NOBA ALLARD and TIM CARMERGAN were two more who arranged for fun-fests on Friday.

Wena and her friends didn't have enough dancing so they gathered at her Lethrop road dwelling and continued their fun there. We observed that Tom Deitz, Betty Sheridan and Al Bink, Sally Nacy and Vince Oliver and Jean Bering and Jack Walker were all on the great list.

Tim's session was one that will long be remembered by his companions. He provided hot dogs and "pepsi" for his "amigos" who then took to dancing to finish off a delightful evening. All of Tim's special friends attended, including Chris West with John Carpenter, Rita Leitnauser in Ronnie Carroll, Sally Murphy with Jim Mann, Marie Meldrum and Larry Gelineau, Mary Helen Venmulan was Tim's date.

On Thanksgiving morn at 10 sharp, the St. Paul and St. Ambrose Alumni met at the Neighborhood Club Field for their pig-skin contest. It was a perfect football day and so, of course, crowds of fans turned out for the encounter.

The proceeds of this game are going to the Athletic Fund.

The players included Tom and Joe Belanger, Jim Sheridan, Bill DeBeau, Joe Barton, Pete Allard, John GBchrist, Paul Kerby, Jim Bingham, John Imesch, Frank Kerbat, Don Piche and Jimmy Cavanaugh.

Among those present to see the "ex Flyers" defeat the Ambrose gridsters by 15-0 were Paul DeRoche, Charlene Bauer, Catherine Barton, Harriet Furton, Mike Ferguson, Jim Cronin, Jim Furton, Chuck Wylie, Bette Marchand, JoAnn Enser, Margaret Babcock, Jerry Murphy, John Hutton, Jim Law, George Heidt, John Clark, Tom Geist, Dona DeBeau, Joan Whyte, Joan LaBelle, Myra Beckman and Bill and Bob Sharp.

On Friday last, JOANNE WEIDMAN gathered together some of her friends at her Fisher road home. The "fellas" and "gals" spent the evening playing pool, ping-pong and dancing to the latest recordings from Joanne's collection.

Later on chips and pop were served to Henrietta Sutton, Ralph DeCender, Mary Smith, Art Smith, Eleanor Allard, Jo Mannino, George Saad, George Heidt, Ralph Schneider, and Pat Van Tiem.

Robert Opens Fur Salon for Grosse Pointe Area

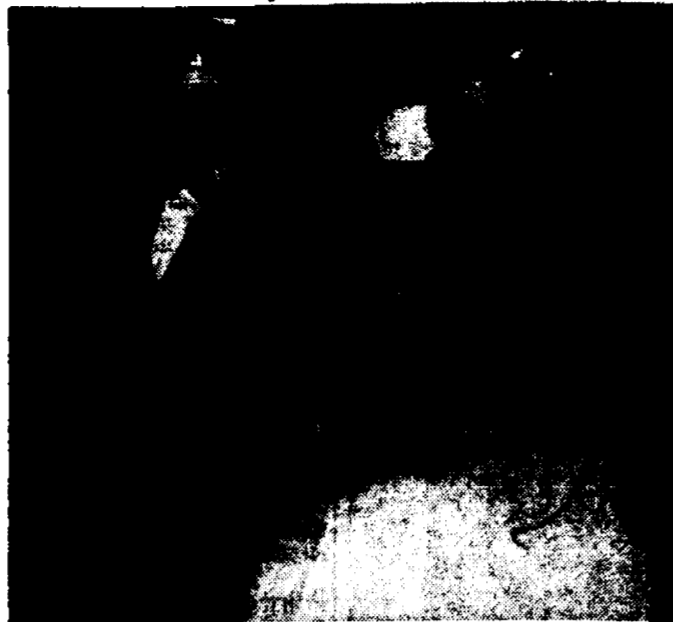

The new Grosse Pointe branch store of Furs by Robert opened to the public today. It is located in the Punch and Judy Building on Kercheval avenue at Fisher Road.

Wallace J. Newton, Detroit decorator, executed the interior, which is simple Grecian classic in theme. The display salon as well as the individual salons are Parisian gray, and furnishings conform with the interior, all covered with dovegray textured fabrics. The salon features a special display window which makes it possible for people within the store to see the windows as well as people on the street.

As a feature in addition to their fine furs, Robert is bringing into their new branch store Miss Jeanne Lasky, Detroit millinery stylist and costume designer, who will design special hats to harmonize with the fur originals by Robert. Jeanne will also carry originals by New York "name" designers. There was a special press preview and fashion show on Wednesday.

Bert Lahr Stars in New Play

Bert Lahr, beloved star of stage and screen, will have the stellar role in Jean Dairymple's production of "Burlesque," the famous comedy, which arrives at the Shubert Lafayette Theatre for a two week stay, beginning Monday, prior to a Broadway opening at the Belasco Theatre on Christmas night.

In support of Mr. Lahr will be lovely Jean Parker, also of the stage and screen, who recently scored a personal triumph in the Ted Harris production, "Loo."

Mr. Lahr will play the role of 'Skid,' which was first created on Broadway by the late Hal Skelly. The part is a character study of a screw-ball comic, whose talents take him to the top in his field, but whose love for whiskey, slowly forces him back to obscurity.

Jean Parker, remembered for her many motion picture roles, will play 'Bonnie,' his show-girl wife, whose devotion and loyalty survive the long ordeal by alcohol.

It is particularly fitting that Mr. Lahr should play a burlesque comic, since his theatrical career had its lusty beginnings in that field.

Others in the cast include: Jerri Blanchard, Bobby Barry and Kay Buckley. The settings will be by Robert Burns Kiddell. Jimmy Holbrook will do the dances. The costumes will be created by Grace Houston.

The entire production will be under the personal direction of Arthur Hopkins, the well-known producer and director, who, with Edward Mankers Waters is co-author of "Burlesque." Mr. Hopkins will be assisted by Sylvia Friedlander.

St. James Ladies Plan Christmas Program

The Ladies Guild of St. James Lutheran Church will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Zerkie, 1009 Balfour Road on Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Ada Dickey will be co-hostess.

Following a brief business meeting, a Christmas program will be held.

Newly elected officers for the coming year are: president, Mrs. Wm. Fenske; vice president, Mrs. Ernest Muelier; financial secretary, Mrs. Walter Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. Warren Wressell; recording secretary, Mrs. Ada Taylor.

Christmas Party for Teen-Agers

A pre-Christmas party for teenagers in the Northeastern area will be held Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. on the second floor of the Grosse Pointe Motor Sales Inc., Ashland and Jefferson.

Refreshments will be served with the McClellan Junior Bureau and with other merchants in the area, is arranging the affair.

Admission will be free and there'll be entertainment by dancers from the Elaine Arndt studio. Refreshments will be served.

There'll be dancing to the music box.

Northeastern Women Will Meet Monday

The Detroit Story Tellers League will provide a program of Christmas stories on Monday for the meeting of Northeastern Women's Club.

Mrs. John Riehl, 2032 Country Club Drive, will sing a group of songs accompanied by Gilberta Mitchell.

Preceding this meeting the club will hold a pot-luck luncheon in St. Mark's Methodist Church's dining room at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. R. J. Sanderson of 14227 Glenfield is social chairman.

Will the members please remember to bring donations of canned goods for the pantry shelf of Goodwill Industries.

At the meeting of Nov. 26 the club provided 11 guest tickets to the Percy Grainger concert at Music Hall on Dec. 3, sponsored by the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs.

Christmas Party for Teen-Agers

Ethel Mary O'Connor Weds Moore Kelly, Jr.

In a Thanksgiving Day ceremony at St. Catherine's Church, Ethel Mary O'Connor became the bride of Moore J. Kelly, Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John O'Connor of East Grand Boulevard and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Moore J. Kelly of University Place, Grosse Pointe.

Dr. B. L. Conway, of New York, officiated. John O'Connor gave his sister in marriage.

Her gown was fashioned of heavy white satin, with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt extending into a long train. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of beaded satin and she carried a satin prayer book showered with white orchids.

Mrs. Howard T. Springer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a royal blue crepe gown with a draped skirt. Her headpiece was fashioned of a matching ostrich plumes and she carried an arrangement of pink bebe mums.

Mrs. Orville Thill and Mrs. Robert Maniere, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of fuchsia crepe and they wore matching halos of ostrich plumes. Their flowers were deep pink bebe mums.

Richard Wiggins was best man and the ushers were Donald Hoskins, John Smith, Orville Thill, Arthur O'Connor, Robert Maniere and Donald Farnea.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. O'Connor wore a gown of royal blue and an ostrich tipped hat. Her flowers were orchids. Mrs. Kelly, mother of the bridegroom, wore rose lame and a brown velvet hat. Her flowers were also orchids.

After the wedding breakfast reception at the Detroit Athletic Club, the couple left for Chicago on their wedding trip. Upon their return, they will make their home in Dearborn.

For going-away, the bride wore an aqua gabardine suit and a matching hat trimmed with black Persian lamb. She planned an orchid from her bouquet to her Persian coat.

How Christian Science Heals

To be not only interested and enlightened, but to be profoundly refreshed and even healed of disease, has been the experience of countless thousands in reading the Christian Science textbook.

SCIENCE & HEALTH with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy

For the book shows clearly that our thoughts determine our health and other experience, and it supplies the thoughts, the concepts of ourselves, our capabilities, and our relationships, of life and of God as its source, which makes experience harmonious.

The complete explanation of Christian Science and its scientifically Christian method of overcoming sickness and other distresses and limitations is given in this volume. A book for everyone to understand and use.

Couple Observe Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Anton P. Boekema

A Solemn High Mass at St. Ambrose Church on Nov. 22 began the observance of their Silver Wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Anton P. Boekema.

The bride of 25 years ago wore for the ceremony a gray gabardine suit with smoke-white hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Boekema residence on Maryland avenue. The table was attractively decorated with silver candles and a centerpiece of white, baby mums.

Vases of yellow and white chrysanthemums and red roses gave the living room a bridal atmosphere.

Telegrams and best wishes kept arriving to congratulate the happy couple.

That evening a six o'clock family dinner was served in the dining room at American Turners. Twenty-one guests sat down at the table which was decorated with flowers and centered by a large wedding cake.

Mrs. Boekema wore a white jersey Grecian-type gown, embroidered in silver sequins with an orchid corsage for the dinner.

Later in the evening a formal reception was held at Turners for 110 guests. An orchestra played for dancing throughout the evening.

After midnight a buffet supper was served.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Boekema mentioned that the day would have been perfect if their son Felix could have been with them. He is serving with the Army in the Philippines. Their other son Ludwig was present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Boekema have lived on Maryland for 25 years.

Legion Plans Gifts for Vets

To present a Christmas gift box to every one of the 12,000 hospitalized war veterans in this state: That's the high goal of American Legion and Auxiliary members now engaged in their third annual "Gifts to the Yanks Who Gave" campaign.

A recent Legion survey shows that 80 public and private hospitals in Michigan now list veterans among their patients. The number varies from one or two in certain small hospitals up to several thousand in some of the larger institutions.

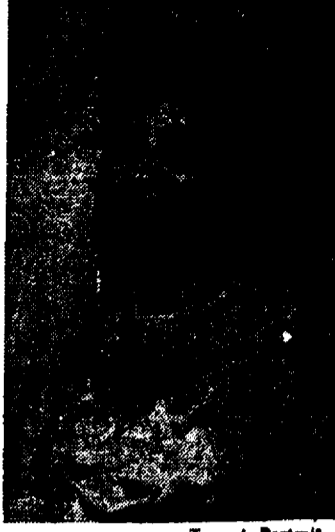

The task of purchasing gifts, packing and wrapping 12,000 Christmas boxes, and delivering them to the hospitals is a big one, but with the cooperation of a generous public the goal will be met again this year.

The value of each box will be from four to five dollars, or a total of approximately $50,000 for the 12,000 required. Donors may contribute cash or purchase gifts and prepare their own boxes. All Legion posts and Auxiliary units will act as receiving stations for the donations of money or gift boxes.

The following gifts are needed and desired: Pen and pencil sets, cigarettes, cigaret lighters, billfolds, box cameras, toilet kits, pipes, leather belts, cigaret cases, writing kits, watch straps, bed lamps, books, key cases and many other useful articles for the veteran patients. There must be no edibles in the gift boxes, no liquor or no safety razor blades.

On December 10 all Legion and Auxiliary committees will be instructed where to send their gift boxes for distribution in the hospitals.

Reyntens - Genrich Rites Solemnized

Flower Show Plans Made

Plans have been begun for a United Nations exhibit in the 1947 Michigan Flower and Garden Exhibition which is to be held in Convention Hall, March 15 through March 23.

Landscape architects in the Parks and Recreation Department and flower show officials met with Dr. Edgar P. Richardson, director of the Institute of Arts and Prof. Harlow O. Whittemore head of the landscape department of the University of Michigan to formulate plans for what is expected to be the exhibit ever staged in Detroit.

The exhibit is to include a Court of the Nations, ten small gardens, each one representing one of the United Nations and a large modern garden representing all nations.

The nations to be represented with small gardens are Poland, Italy, China, Great Britain, Holland, France, the Near East, Mexico, the Scandinavian countries and America. It is hoped to enlist the aid of nationality groups in the city to make each representation authentic.

Attending the meeting in addition to Dr. Richardson and Prof. Whittemore were William E. Bachman, landscape architect, O. C. Johnson, Associate Architect and James Fisher, technical advisor in the garden division, Parks and Recreation Department, John D. Skilton, Jr., assistant to Dr. Richardson, William Lattin, designer of the flower show and Werner M. Hoy, show manager.

ed by Rev. Lawrence Hammel, Nov. 23 at 10:30 a.m.

The fitted bodice of the ivory satin gown, worn by the bride, was fashioned with a marquise round yoke edged with a design of seed pearls. Her three tier finger tip illusion veil was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms.

As her "something old" she carried a silver rosary, an heirloom in the Reyntens family. She also carried lilacs and shattered carnations on a white prayer book. Her only jeweled ornament was the groom's mother's diamond lavelier.

The maid of honor, Patricia Buchholz, cousin of the bride, wore a pastel pink jersey-net gown. Bridesmaid, Marian Genrich, also a cousin, wore a blue jersey-net gown. Both girls carried red roses.

Mr. Reyntens had as his best man Richard Van Goethem and Milton Wiese as usher.

Mrs. Martha Reyntens, the groom's mother, wore a light purple crepe dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Breakfast for the immediate family, followed the marriage ceremony in the Colonial Room at the Savarine Hotel.

After the reception in the evening at the groom's home the newly married couple left for an extended trip to Santa Barbara, Calif., where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Kingley, formerly of Detroit.

For her trip the bride wore a gray gabardine suit with black accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses and shattered carnations.

When they return the newlyweds will reside at 1375 Lakepointe.

Defer School News

The 3A's of Defer School presented a Thanksgiving Assembly program for their mothers and children of the Kindergarten through grade four on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 26.

They wrote the invitations in their language class. Evelyn Geisler and Elsie Scherer blacked in the background of the scenery and the entire group took turns painting it.

Dick Fulford and Jim Wyse took care of the curtain. Betsy Ottman was the announcer.

Following is the program:
A Pilgrim Child by Judy Stefani.

The First Thanksgiving Day, with Betsy Ottman; Joan Galdoni, JoAnn Van De Ginste, Glory Wernet, Charles Cameron, Dick Fulford, Larry Hamilton, Bert Lamb, Michael Mohn, Tom Saunders and Kenneth Solterisch.

A group of Thanksgiving Songs.
Two selections by the class orchestra.

Always A Thanksgiving with Beverly Reeves, Jim Wyse, Evelyn Geisler, Peter Gissing, Ronnie Reid, Elsie Scherer, Judy Usher, Gilbert Ziegler, Jane Tapert, Bill Glanert and Suzanne Newton.

The program was enjoyed by all and the children gained many new experiences through giving it.

Girls Help Santa Help Servicemen

Starting off the "Santa for Servicemen" campaign in Grosse Pointe, these girls are seen making their contribution to the fund to provide Christmas cheer for the wounded veterans in Michigan hospitals.

Highlights from Hollywood

Did you know that Dane Clark, the Warner Bros. star, once was a sculptor's model in Greenwich Village?

Lilli Palmer is doing an oil portrait of her husband, Rex Harrison... Signs of the times: Local concern called the Junior Stork Club is mixing and delivering baby formula to busy young mothers.

Warner Bros. has grounded Wayne Morris, Navy air hero, until at least the conclusion of his current picture, "Deep Valley." Just recently, Wayne wanted to test a new jet plane gadget and to attempt a flight from Hollywood to San Diego—upside down!

By adding given names to Powell, O'Brien, Morgan and Smith, how many cinema celebrities can you identify? The answer is 16.

Strange as it may seem to fans who have shuddered and chilled under the spell of his artistry as a horror-man, Peter (the b-r-r-r) Lorre is a witty sort of wag to those who know and work with him.

The following samples of the nightmare-maker's waggishness were collected while he was co-starring with Sydney Greenstreet at Warner Bros., in that studio's forthcoming mystery-thriller, "The Verdict":

Greenstreet emerged from a foggy sequence, wherein the fog had been made with smoke. "Hmmm... Smoked ham," said Peter.

When the author of the screen play came on the set one day, coughing violently from a bronchial disorder, Lorre quickly quipped, "Ah! Definitely a hack writer."

The Lorre wit popped out again on the day Greenstreet lost the button clue with which he was to tag Lorre as a murder suspect.

"Here's another button," said Peter, quickly cutting one off his coat, "and don't forget that without that button I could remain an innocent man."

On another occasion Peter turned a ready wisecrack to his own disadvantage. Thrice he flubbed a line, saying "I fired and made a mistake," instead of the correct reading, "I fired and missed him."

After the fourth attempt, when he again "fired and made a mistake," he quickly added, "and these mistakes will get me fired."

National release date for Warner Bros. "The Man I Love," starring Ida Lupino, Robert Alda, Andrea King and Bruce ("Mildred Pierce") Bennett, is Jan. 11, next.

Kirk Douglas, who gained stardom in "The Strange Love of Martha Ivers," tried to peer into his incinerator last week and lost his eyebrows.

'Santa for Servicemen' Backed by Pointe Women

Under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Glenn Anderson of 329 Merriweather, the Santa for Servicemen program is again under way to provide Christmas cheer for veterans in Michigan hospitals.

Assisting in the project in Grosse Pointe are Mrs. Roy Freuhauf, Mrs. David Marantette, Mrs. Jerry Lynch and Mrs. Charles A. Manning.

R. H. Van Dyke, manager of Hawthorne House, and his staff have donated to the fund and are co-operating in the drive. Contributions from the Grosse Pointe area should be left there.

The following article was written by Jerry Pettit, Detroit Times Staff Writer, especially for the Grosse Pointe Review:

The Army's Percy Jones General Hospital in Battle Creek still resembles an evacuation hospital not far behind a battle line, suffering and trying to cover from internal wounds of war are still crowding the institution.

These men won't go home for Christmas, for the reason they are not physically able to do so. Through the Santa for Servicemen program, however, the true Christmas spirit will go to these men — direct from the hearts of patriotic and public-spirited citizens of Grosse Pointe and the entire metropolitan Detroit area.

Now in its sixth year, the Santa for Servicemen campaign, sponsored by The Detroit Times and assisted by The Grosse Pointe Review, will see that an attractive, utilitarian gift goes to every patient at Percy Jones, as well as to every other hospitalized serviceman and woman in Michigan.

Mrs. Glenn Anderson, of 329 Merriweather, Grosse Pointe Farms, again is general chairman of a civic committee which annually administers the Santa for Servicemen Fund.

This group purchases all the gifts — guided by results of a "Santa" poll taken among the patients — and directs the wrapping of colorful Christmas packages which are handed out Christmas day at Percy Jones' and the various veterans' hospitals in the state.

A number of organizations this year are sharing the huge task of packaging these thousands of Christmas presents. Between now and Christmas, they will be working far into the night.

Every resident of Grosse Pointe and the entire Detroit area can become an active Santa to a Serviceman, however, simply by making a cash contribution to the Santa for Servicemen Fund.

You can do your part by making your contribution of two dollars or more — as soon as possible. It may be mailed in, in check, money order or cash, or may be brought in.

Send or bring your donation to this worthwhile cause to the Santa for Servicemen Fund, The Detroit Times, 1370 Cass, Detroit 31, or to the Hawthorn House, 17 Kercheval.

Become a Santa to a Serviceman — today!

FILM FACTS

New contracts — Clark Gable, another long-termer at MGM; George Montgomery at 20th-Fox and Richard Walsh at Warner Bros. The latter is an ex-Marine. Gable has been with MGM since 1930... Alan Ladd is scheduled to sing a song or two in "Varsity Girl."

Humphrey Bogart is going to try something new in the way of menace in his current starring at Warner Bros., "Dark Passage." In several sequences, only his hands and his feet are to be seen.

Right to screen the "Prince Valiant" comic strip, followers of which are believed to exceed 16,000,000 has been purchased by Eagle-Lion.

Creighton Hale, romantic matinee idol of silent picture days, is doing a character role in "Night Unto Night" at Warners... RKO's "Katie for Congress," starring Loretta Young, is now titled "The Farmer's Daughter." Studio feels that the GOP has more or less extracted the former title's drawing power!

International Institute Is Training Pointe Women

Men, women and children from all over the world come to Detroit. They are being visited by a corps of Grosse Pointe women recruited by the AWWS and given special training by the International Institute.

The first four lessons in the training were completed this week, with lectures and discussion on "How to Visit," led by Professor Eleanor Cranfield of the School of Social Work of the University of Michigan.

In opening the series, Mrs. Alice L. Sicksels, Executive Director of the International Institute, said, "The world has come and is continuing to come to Detroit. We have the unique opportunity of learning to know and understand people of all different origins, cultures and religions without leaving our own city."

"Good international relations begin right where we are, here at home. The International Institute has been set up by far-seeing people of Detroit to help our foreign-born residents become fully participating American citizens."

"Out of 30 years experience the workers in International Institute know that people of all origins can become equally good Americans, given the same opportunity. The doors at 2131 East Grand Blvd. are open seven days a week and the lights are on every night to welcome people who are lonely or in difficulties because they were born in another country."

"This center, maintained by you and your Community Chest, is a service bureau and a meeting place for people of all origins."

At another meeting of the course, Professor Thelma C. James of Wayne University, related the folk background and history of Detroit. Mr. O. T. Moore, Director of Citizenship of the Chrysler Corporation, and former U. S. Naturalization officer in this district, explained the procedures of the Immigration and Naturalization laws.

The training course will continue on the second Tuesday of each month, beginning Dec. 10. Each volunteer will visit one afternoon a week, accompanying a foreign-speaking member of professional staff from the International Institute. They will leave the Institute at 12:30 and return at 4:30.

It is not necessary for the volunteer visitors to speak foreign languages but, since the Institute does not own a car, the use of the volunteer's car is an important part of her services.

On the second Tuesday in the month all visitors will have lunch together at the International Institute at 11:30, preceding an exchange of experience and a lecture. They will call in the homes of new arrivals for the remainder of the afternoon. Visits will be scheduled on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons from 12:30 to 4:30.

Mrs. William Keese is serving as Chairman for the Corps, and Mrs. William Robert Bryant is the Recorder.

The initial group has been organized under the sponsorship of the Grosse Pointe AWWS, of which Mrs. Frederick C. Ford is Chairman.

Other women who are interested in serving as International Institute Visitors may apply to Mrs. Keese or to Mrs. Sicksels at the International Institute, 2431 E. Grand Blvd., Madison 7341.

THE CAMERA CORNER

Composition Is Just Good Sense

You can't get very far, if you're a chronic reader of the know-how of photography, without running into the bewildering subject of composition. A lot of it is pretentious nonsense and downright confusing to boot.

Composition, and let us face it, is nothing more than the arrangement of stuff in a picture.

Before it will do you much good, a sense of composition has to become second nature. You can't make fool-proof rules for it the way you can for baseball or bridge because you rarely meet the same problem twice when you're shooting or cropping pictures. A few general principles can, however, be laid down.

Balance Those Subjects

Take the matter of Balance. If a picture makes you feel like a tight-rope walker losing his balance over Niagara Falls, it's a pretty good sign that it's a bit lopsided. On the other hand, perfect balance is strictly for the tight-rope walker and not for you. Don't put the most important object in the dead center of the picture; don't let the horizon line cut the picture in two equal parts and don't think you have to balance that big oak on the left with an oak of the same size on the right.

Emphasis is another composition word and is the same thing as saying that the principal object of interest should get the most attention. Whether it's a barn or a baby, don't hide it in the northeast corner of the picture. Size, too, is emphatic—a large object is more noticeable than a smaller one, as if you didn't know. Also the lines of a picture should lead the eye into the center of interest and not away from it.

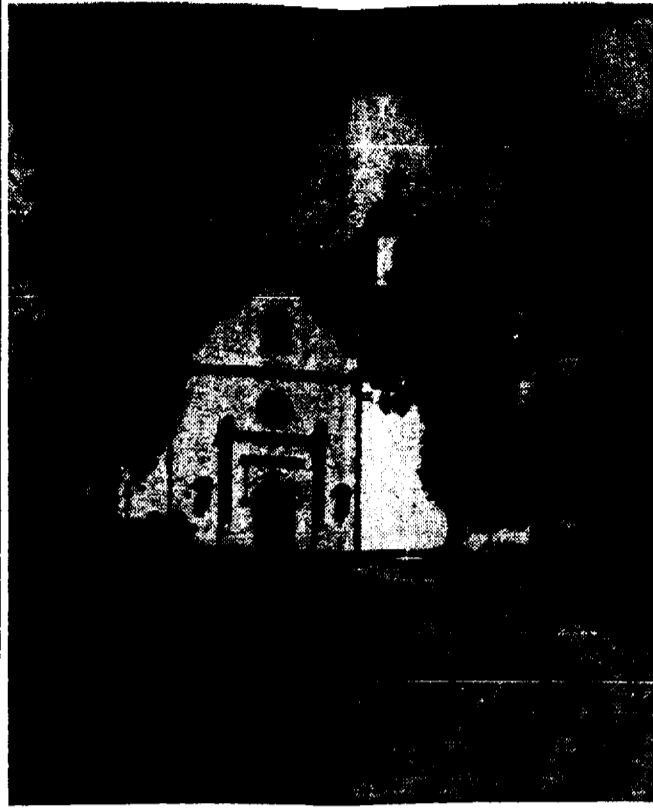

As a photographer you don't usually have the artistic freedom of a painter who can always change nature's arrangements to suit himself. But you can control the point of view that will give you the best effect.

Avoid Junky Backgrounds

There are a few more precautions such as throwing out of the picture junkyard backgrounds and out of focus backgrounds that not only distract attention from the main feature, but too often make two or three pictures in one.

Nobody in his right mind slings his camera around his neck and goes out looking for an S-curve or an A or L composition study. A good photograph is arrested action or a slice of life with a hint of what went before and what comes after. It tells a story; it says something. Make sure it says it simply and clearly. Make the important things stand out—by filling space or getting the brightest light or sharpest focus, by being pointed to by lines or gestures or looks.

You'll have a good chance that you can control the point of view that will give you the best effect.

PICTURE OF THE WEEK. When your eye is drawn as irresistibly to the center of interest as it is in this splendid picture of Mission San Luis Rey, you know that the composition is successful. The curve of the road leads swiftly to the door of the church and the balance of trees keeps your attention from wandering from the point of the picture. Sharp focus has been achieved from near foreground all the way to the church. Taken on superme film with an exposure of 1/50 second at f 11. A medium yellow filter was used.

Photo Forum

1. Some of my prints are stuck to my ferrotype tin; my friends tell me they are lost. Is this true?

ANSWER: They will be lost only if you attempt to pull them off. The prints may be soaked off and re-ferrotyped on clean, polished tins after they are rewashed, with no ill effects. If this is a recurrent problem, be sure that you are using an acid hardening fixer, such as Anso 204. Also, check to see that the wash water is not too high a temperature.

2. Some of my negatives appear to have very fine pinholes in them, although there is actually no hole in the negative, but only a small clear area. How can I prevent this?

ANSWER: Pinholes, as they are called, have two sources. Some are caused by dust on the film at the time of exposure. This prevents the light from reaching the emulsion, and is responsible to very small air bubbles which do not allow the developer to reach the film. This may be corrected by washing the film prior to development, or by giving thorough agitation during the first 2 minutes in the developer. In any event, it is better to give recommended agitation in all solutions.

Clifton Webb, Fred Allen and Libby Holman were scheduled to appear at the Wilson Theatre in "Three's a Crowd." It ran one year in New York.

Butter sold at 35c a pound, leg of lamb 21c; leg of veal 14c; bacon 39c; dated coffee 24c; picnic hams 19c.

FIVE YEARS AGO

LeRoy W. May of 310 Moran resigned as member of the Village Commission of Grosse Pointe Farms. He gave as his reason, pressure of business. He was elected four times.

Dr. John Dismara, dean of the Eastern Deaconry of Detroit, laid the cornerstone of Bon Secours Hospital, 468 Cadieux at Mautree.

Loss of a fur coat and a diamond studded pin valued at between $800 and $1,000 was reported to Grosse Pointe Police.

ported to Grosse Pointe Farms police by Mrs. George Johnston-76 Lothrop. Mrs. Johnston told police she had left the coat and pin in the coat room of the Little Club. An hour later they were gone.

A committee was organized to send Christmas gifts to the soldiers in the army camps.

ONE YEAR AGO

James N. McNally was welcomed home on his return from 4 1/2 years of service in the U. S. Navy. He is justice of the peace in the township. He plans on resuming his law practice and may enter politics.

A fire which took more than three hours to quell practically destroyed the city of Grosse Pointe salvage plant at Radnor and Warren.

Basing their arguments on the belief that 95 per cent of Grosse Pointe township is over-assessed and five per cent are over-assessed representatives of approximately 50 owners of large homes on the lake shore appealed to the Michigan State Tax Commission to bring about a reduction in their assessments.

The Woods Village Commission decided to throw the question of rezoning the western part of Mack avenue from business into residential area into a referendum vote.

For aid to weary farmers, there's a weed electrocutor—an outfit which can rid 10 to 15 acres of land in a day of all weeds for a cost of $10 per acre.

Honors Given

At the first official function to take place at the new British Government House on Lakeland, the British Consul General D. F. H. Brickell gave out honors to 17 Michigan people who had worked hard for British war relief.

He decorated Col. Berrien Eaton with the Order of the British Empire and gave Sgt. W. A. Flesch the D.C.M.

Others who were honored were Arthur Senior, Mrs. Malcolm MacQueen, Harry Turrell, Roderick P. Frazer, the Rev. Francis Creamer, Mrs. Howard Baldwin and Phillip K. Watson.

FRUIT FERRY

An U. S. airline plans to fly 60,000 lbs. of fresh fruit and vegetables a week to Alaska from California.

Veterans Face Long Wait For State Bonus

"Hold everything!" This is the advice from the Michigan Office of Veterans' Affairs to veterans desiring to apply for the newly authorized state bonus.

The O. V. A. explains it this way: Before a bonus can be paid, the cash must be raised. Before the cash can be raised, bonds have to be sold to the investing public. Before bonds can be sold, they have to be printed. Before they can be printed, the legislature must specifically authorize the State Treasurer to have this done. All of which adds up to the conclusion that it is going to be quite a while before Michigan World War II veterans will get the cash.

Veterans who had planned on spending their bonus money for Christmas presents better plan on using it for a new Easter wardrobe, the O. V. A. says. Or maybe to finance a vacation trip in the summer—and maybe late summer, at that.

Another thing, the Office of Veterans' Affairs explained, is the matter of handling the work involved. By the terms of the referendum, the legislature must designate the agency to do the job and must provide what will be a sizable appropriation for dozens of clerks, typists and other workers and for the printing of three-quarters of a million application blanks, envelopes, postage and the like. If a special session were called now, it might complicate matters, capitol observers say.

Dramatic Guild
Staging Comedy
"The Royal Family"

Of lively interest to theatergoers and those seeking holiday entertainment, is the coming Dramatic Guild presentation of the sparkling comedy "Papa Is All" at the Music Hall for five nights beginning Dec. 28.

Charles D. Adams, prominent theatrical producer for Detroit's Dramatic Guild, and director of the Guild's two recent productions—"Personal Appearance" and "Out of the Frying Pan"—continues in his capacity as director of the Christmas week offering.

Backed by Detroit business and industrial leaders who are interested in bringing more good plays within reach of the Motor City's theater-loving public, the Dramatic Guild offers, in "Papa Is All," an outstanding cast of Detroiters of stage, screen and radio experience.

In bringing this story of a colorful Pennsylvania Dutch family rebelling against its tyrannical father, director Adams has cast Florence Steep, William Saunders, Robert Dale, Jan Koete, Virginia Glasgow and Ivan MacDonald in the important roles.

Robert F. Hampton Productions, new acting company headed by Hampton, will present for their first play of the season, "The Royal Family." This hilarious comedy will be given at the Detroit Institute of Arts on Jan. 4.

Members of the cast include ISABEL TODD, ROBERT MCKENNA, CONNIE HENDRICK, FRANK DAVIS, NORMAN E. STONE and LEWIS ZWEIF.

If you are interested in any phase of theatre, you may call University 2-3327 for information regarding future productions to be presented by Mr. Hampton at the Institute.

Saratoga Trunk
Plays Sunday at Shores Theatre

One of the top ten films of the year, "Saratoga Trunk," is scheduled for next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the new Shores theatre, Mack at Nine Mile Road.

Ingrid Bergman is the love in Gary Cooper's life in the hit attraction and both screen stars turn in a masterful performance.

Because the film Saratoga Trunk is extra long, the management has booked a color feature, along with a newsreel and cartoon, instead of a second feature length picture.

RADIO NEWS AND VIEWS

By JIM HENRY

NEW YORK—We saw a number of programs here in Radio City that we regularly mention in the column and had an opportunity to meet, greet, or eat with a number of radio stars including: Harry Wisner, Eddie Duchin, Frank Sinatra, Happy Felton, Vera Holley, Jinx Falkenburg, Cliff Edwards, Galen Drake, Walter Winchel, Bert Lahr, June Havoc, and even Toots Shor who is more famous with his menus than many radio stars are with their programs.

SIDE LIGHTS

Here are a few sideline observations:

Restaurateur Shor, notorious needer, sitting with Joe DiMaggio and calling Eddie Duchin a "crumb-bum" while hearing distance of everyone and remarking the famous handheader he didn't want his business.

Shor's typical greeting to top talent: "Come in and get robbed, ya suckers!"

Two sports commentators and a sports writer agreeing that domestic trouble was responsible for Joe DiMaggio's poor showing on the diamond this year. (The brunette he was sitting with at Shor's should make anyone forget his domestic difficulties).

Detroit Harry Wisner opened a telegram and learned that he had just received the Sporting News award as the outstanding sports commentator for the fourth consecutive year . . . on the same Saturday afternoon he sat in his New York suite with Grosse Pointe's Allen Campbell listening to rivals Stern and Husing because ABC started the Metropolitan Opera broadcast that Saturday.

Light Opera
Starts Feb. 3

The Civic Light Opera Association opens its fourth annual season Feb. 3, at Masonic Auditorium, Detroit with the performance of The Firefly, starring Allan Jones, Leo Fitzpatrick, Association president, announces.

Nightly performances and Saturday matinees are to be given during the ten week season with a change of operetta each week, beginning Monday evenings.

Favorites in the light opera field have been selected for the 1947 performances. Besides The Firefly, season opener, they are: Rio Rita, Countess Maritza, Desert Song, My Maryland, Vagabond King, Mikado, Balalaika, New Moon and Wizard of Oz.

Season reservations may now be made at J. L. Hudson Company, 13th floor Music Store.

Efforts are under way to secure for leading roles such outstanding stars as Dorothy Kirsten, of the Metropolitan Opera Company; Bert Lahr, Irene Manning, and Wilma Spence who delighted Detroit audiences in past years. Barrie O'Daniels has been brought on from Hollywood as managing director.

The Association's Theater Arts School got off to an enthusiastic start last week with the auditioning of hundreds of young stage aspirants. Students of the school receive free professional training under Dan Eckley, choreographer, and J. Albert Hurley, voice instructor, and the singing ensemble and ballet of the operettas will be chosen from graduates of the course.

Star-Studded
Films Coming to Colony Sunday

The management of the Colony theatre, 16535 Mack avenue, has booked two current film sensations for the double feature program playing there next Sunday and Monday.

The first attraction stars Gloria deHaven with Frank Sinatra and George Murphy in the fast-moving comedy, "Step Lively."

The screen version of the smash stage hit, "Something for the Boys" brings together the South American bombshell, Carmen Miranda, and Vivian Blaine. This is one of the most lyrical comedies of the current film season and is built around a clever and unique love plot.

SAVE COAL!
Through AUTOMATIC HEAT CONTROL

7 THOUSANDS of users of coal and coke are saving fuel and money, getting more comfort and using less precious energy through the installation of automatic heat controls on their furnaces. These controls automatically regulate heat to the proper temperature for various times of day and changing weather conditions; permit regular, fuel-saving firing of your furnace twice a day, save dozens of trips to and from the basement and make every pound of coal produce the maximum heat needed for your comfort . . . and not a wasteful degree more.

All this may mean less cost and more ease for the homeowner, and at the same time conserve important fuel. The cost of installing automatic heat controls is frequently more than defrayed by savings in a single year. If you have no automatic heat control in your home, see or call your Coal Retailer at once; he will take your order for immediate installation. Remember, coal and coke are the efficient fuels; make your furnace an efficient instrument for transforming them into comfortable, economical heat by installing automatic heat control.
