Suspect Is Arrested in $10,000 Park Jewelry Theft

Police Recover $1,000 of Foot Pawned for $25

A $10,000 jewel theft from a Grosse Pointe Park home is believed solved with the arrest in St. Louis of Russell D. Barclay, Chief of Police Arthur E. Louwers revealed.

Chief Louwers has recovered $1,000 of the lost stolen from the home of Mrs. Harriet Evans, 842 Three Mile Drive, by a burglar who entered the house Oct. 23 while Mrs. Evans was out of town.

POINTE PARAGRAPHS

Someone picked up a charming Christmas gift Saturday when they found an envelope containing a dozen embroidered finger-stitch dolls.

Mrs. Staudahl Backus of 725 Lakeshore reported to City police that she lost them Saturday when she was shopping on Riverchapel near Cadillac.

What's the most dangerous intersection in Grosse Pointe Park? Many of the policemen are of the opinion that it is the intersection of Riverchapel and Kerechaval, particularly during busy hours it is almost impossible to cross the street at that corner, one patrolman observed.

They recommended a traffic light at Wayne or at After to read to break the stream and give cross traffic, pedestrian and vehicular, a chance.

So balmy was the weather last week, one man apparently decided to take a sun bath and make like a member of a nudist colony.

Any way, a woman living in the 1400 block on Wayne, reported to Park Police that, as she returned home last Saturday afternoon from a Christmas shopping trip, she saw a man sitting on the steps of her next-door neighbor's home.

The nudist ran at her and when she screamed he turned and fled toward After road, the woman said.

With the end of the coal strike, resumed regulations in the Pointe were called off and business resumed normally.

The Board of Education schedule of activities returned to normal with the exception that the adult education and Veterans education classes will continue at Pieter and at Maire schools until after Christmas. Churches will return to the schools they have been using. They had been transferred last Sunday.

Bars which had been ordered closed early Friday night were allowed to stay open as usual Saturday night. The High School Junior prom and the winter music concert will be held at the High School.

Remember?

20 YEARS AGO Gift of a $750,000 home and school for student nurses at Providence Hospital, Detroit, by Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Fisher was announced. Mr. Fisher is president of the Fisher Body Corporation and prominent in the operation of General Motors Corp.

At Trembley School, under the direction of Miss Mahoney, the school nurse, and Mrs. Cowie, the principal, four baskets of food and clothing were distributed to needy families.

Toy Club Presses for More Funds

Membership list of the Grosse Pointe Toy Club is increasing but it is not nearly large enough yet, Chief of Police Arthur E. Louwers of Grosse Pointe Park, announced.

Chief Louwers pointed out that to carry out its objective of "Not a Kid Without a Toy" the club would need a wider support from the entire Grosse Pointe.

Policemen and firemen of the five Grosse Pointe communities and Grosse Township are selling memberships and are meeting with a good welcome from their fellow citizens. However, donations by mail are not coming in sufficiently.

FRANK SEABURN IS MOURNED

Funeral services were held Saturday at Verheyden Funeral Home, 1899 Mack, for Mr. Frank W. Seaburn, 38 of 254 McKinley.

Mr. Seaburn was associated with Babcock and Wilcox Tail Co for 15 years and was district manager of the American Society for Metals, and the Masonic order.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, and two daughters, Olivia and Cheryl. Burial was at Beaver, Pa.

County Raises Sewerage Rates by 16% in Woods

A 16 per cent increase in sewerage rates for the year beginning January 1, according to notice given the Woods Village Commission by Wayne County.

The county notified the Commission that the charge for pumping sewerage into the Wayne County interceptor sewer would be increased five cents per 1,000 cubic feet of water consumed. The present rate is 92 1/2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet and the rate beginning the new year will be 37 1/2 cents.

Cubs Do Good Deed for Orphans

Protests Kill Rink Program in the Park

Because residents in the area protested, Grosse Pointe Commission has curtailed its program to provide outdoor skating rinks throughout the village.

The skating facilities had been planned to provide recreation for the young children and teenagers but the program was cut after three rinks. In three after objections were raised by residents.

PETITION RECEIVED

Petition from those living on Nottingham between Jefferson and St. Paul was received asking that the plan to put a rink in there be abandoned.

Another rink site at Jefferson and Bishop also was objected to so council agreed to abandon those two.

However, they authorized the maintenance of rinks at 3 Mile and Grosse Pointe Woods, Essex, and in the swimming pool at the park.

WILL VISIT SCHOOLS

The Commission asked that Peter J. Koenig, commissioner of parks and recreation, meet officials of the board of education and attempt to work out a program for skating facilities on school playgrounds.

The municipality would give no assistance through flooding or otherwise for private skating.

Lions Will Sell Papers on Street for 18th Year

Shouts of "Extra Extra" will be heard at the main street corners throughout Grosse Pointe next Tuesday morning at the eighteenth annual sale of the Goodfellow papers by the members of the Lions Club of Grosse Pointe and by their helpers, members of the police and fire departments of the Points communities.

The Goodfellow "newspapers" all veteran campaigners in the name clearly, will be selling their eighteenth annual official Goodfellow edition of the Grosse Pointe Review.

They hope to take in enough money in donations to cover their charitable program for next year and particularly for this Christmas season.

Distribution of the Review's Goodfellow edition will begin early Tuesday and will continue every day until the first of January.

At the corners and in the business districts the businessmen "messengers" will about the city and gather in the sheets.

The goal this year has been set at $500 and the co-chairmen, Carl Schwartz and James M. McNally, are confident that this year's program will be a success.

For Christmas, baskets of food, toys, clothing and household goods will be distributed to the needy of this area.

During the balance of the year the charitable work of the Lions includes optical and dental care for children where needed, as well as assistance in medicine, fuel, food and clothing.

Check Asked on Auto Club Building

The Park commission will list that the Automobile Club of Detroit is not in compliance with the terms of the agreement which provided that the Club's proposed building be erected at the same distance from both streets as the existing Mack building.

The writer objected to the Automobile Club being allowed to increase the size of its building.

NO PERMIT YET

Mr. Lane, village manager, advised the commission that he had received no notice that the club intended to change its building. He said that no application had been made yet for a building permit.

Mr. Lane said that when the Club submits its plans with its application for a building permit, the commission will have to determine if these plans comply with the building code.

The zoning ordinance had been amended to permit the Auto Club to build there. The agreement with the Contract Investment Co. to amend the zoning ordinance contained a provision that the Company would build a substantial residence on a southeast corner of Somerset and Jefferson to maintain the area's residential character.

Woods Calls Drain Parley

Solution to drainage troubles arising with the construction of the new school at Mack and Vernier will be sought at a meeting of representatives of Grosse Pointe Woods, the Board of Education and the Lochmoor Club.

Woods Commissioners learned at their December meeting that the property where the school is being built will not have a drain properly because the Lochmoor Club had filled in a ditch that formerly drained the land.

It was the contention of the Commission that the Club was obliged by law to reopen the ditch or to share in the expense of building a new sewer.

A representative of the Drain Commission's office may also take part in the discussion.

St. Clare First to Get Pennant

St. Clare of Montefalco School on Auburton was the first to purchase a pennant in 1915. The Green Pennant safety award was won by St. Clare's in a match with St. Clair's on Nov. 1.

The increased rate put the sewerage charge at $50 per million gallons instead of the present $45 rate.

City Stores Set Monday Night for Men Shoppers

"For Men Only" is the sign hung by a group of City merchants in the shopping district on Kerechaval between Cadillac and Jefferson roads Monday night.

These merchants will keep their stores open until 9:30 p.m. Monday night so that male shoppers can buy their Christmas gifts without the distraction of having women shoppers around.

"There'll be no place for women here in the after-noon shopping here and most of the ladies to come back and see them. Drug stores of course will serve women during those extra evening hours.

Stores taking part in the "For Men Only" night Thursday from 7 to 9:30 are Jacobson, Ryan's Shoe Store, Pomarez Jewellers, Hamilton Treasure Chest, Moore-Dane Pharmacy, Peppers, Peck and Peck, Kamps Property, York Jewellers, Louis Fair Styles, McMillan's Junior League Little Shop, Jutz's Gift Shop, Grosse Pointe Book Store, Henri's Market, Davidson's Market, Linsenger Florists.

For emergency cleaning and repairs, Royal Cleaners, (Kerechaval & Mack), Green 1088-1089.

Patrolmen Hunt Zeeb and Willard

Four juvenile "night riders" from Detroit made a mistake when they decided to spend Christmas Eve in Grosse Pointe. Patrolmen Harold Zeeb and Willard, Hunt a car of the quartet in a scout car but three times they refused the police order to pull their car to a stop.

The gang was turned over to juvenile authorities. They had stolen the car in Highland Park Friday night.

GRAITIA TOWNSHIP BUYS FIRE TRUCK

Graitia Township will have a new fire truck with the Grosse Pointe Park Village Commission accepted the bid of $1,000 by Green Township for purchase of the present 1925 ladder truck in use now. All equipment will go with the truck.

Delivery will be made about December 20th. The truck has been on order for some time.

"Not a Kid Without a Toy for Christmas"

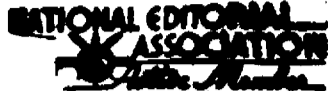

I want to belong to the 1946 Toy Club. I believe in the above slogan.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

Everyone Is A Goodfellow

Merry Christmas!

How easy to say and, if you really mean it, how easy it is to be sure that you yourself have a Merry Christmas by helping others.

Members of the Lions Club assisted by the police and firemen of the Grosse Pointe communities will give everyone the opportunity to help Santa Claus this Christmas and to see that the Lions Club can continue its charitable works throughout the year.

You'll have that warm feeling inside you of a good deed well done if you are not niggardly about your Goodfellow contribution. Not only to give but to give generously with the true spirit of Christmas is the appeal of the Goodfellows to you.

Everybody reads the newspapers and the special Goodfellow edition is everybody's paper — just as the work of looking after the poor and unfortunate is everybody's job and lasts 12 months.

So lets all be good fellows on Goodfellow Day, Tuesday.

"To yearn for the average times of 1930s is equivalent to asking for depressions in the 1940s and 1950s."—Stanley S. Surrey, U. S. Treasury tax legislative counsel.

"As the second year of peace begins, the national economy is in a position of great promise, and of great danger."—John R. Steelman, director of Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion.

AUTO CLUB

Representatives of the Auto Club stated that the building would cover only a portion of the lot and that the remainder would afford parking space for employees and customers having business with the club.

There can be little question but that many cars will be parked in adjacent residential streets of Grosse Pointe Park. The Park Commission acted unwisely, I believe, in not heeding the objections of residents to the erection of a business building on property restricted to residences.

It seems now that the Commission may allow further injury to residents' interests if it approves an increase in the size of the building.

The Club committed itself, in the event that the building code were changed, to erect an outstanding residence of considerable size on the corner opposite the new office building in order to impede the spreading of business eastward on Jefferson.

ing code were changed, to erect an outstanding residence of considerable size on the corner opposite the new office building in order to impede the spreading of business eastward on Jefferson. It would seem that no building permit should be issued for the Club's office building, and further, that no increase in size over that originally planned, should be approved.

Yours very truly, Sgd. A. F. Lecklider, 948 Berkshire Road, Grosse Pointe Park

Nola Birthplace Of Church Bells

The use of church bells is said to have been inaugurated during the fifth century by Bishop Palladius of Nola, in Campania. Although the derivation is doubted by some authorities, it appears that the Latin word for bell — campanula — was derived from the bishop's town, Nola, and district, Campania.

Township Supervisor Edmund C. Vernier explained the increase in tax rate from $14.30 per $1,000 last year to $16.94 as follows:

The increase of $2.64 in the township tax rate may best be explained by calling your attention to the increase in the school rate of $1.71, to the increase of the township tax of 90 cents to the Health fund of 9 cents and to the increase in the state and county tax of 24 cents.

At the fourth annual art exhibition of Grosse Pointe Artists at the Neighborhood Club prizes were awarded as follows: Edgar Yager, first prize, still life; John S. Vogt, second prize, landscape; and Grace DeForrest, third prize, peonies.

The High School Glee Club presented the "Mikado" to a large audience. The leading parts were played by Edward K. Ketterer, Thomas Groehn, Ellene Beaver and Roy Kaiser and Inez Hansen.

TEN YEARS AGO
Damage to a two-family dwelling at 1087-89 Lakepointe was estimated at $4,000 when an overheated chimney started a fire in the second floor. The building was owned by the Adolphus Payne estate.

Mixed nuts for Christmas sold at 19 cents a pound, oysters at 25 cents a pint and California grapes at three pounds for 25 cents.

Requiem High Mass was held at St. Clare's Church for the soul of A. Weigel, former chairman of the Board of G. P. and the official of the Mack Island Business Men's Club.

FIVE YEARS AGO
The Japanese bombed Harbor. U. S. declared war on Japan.

Machinery for civilian use moved into high gear in Grosse Pointe with police and fire chiefs and local government officials meeting to lay plans for the safety of the area during the war.

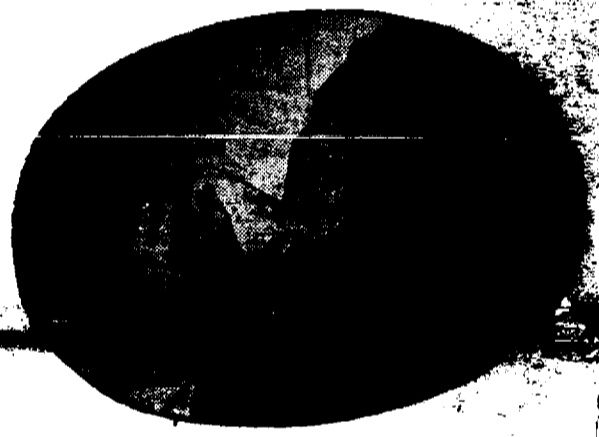

Lethargy that characterized the first call for volunteer civilian defense service in Grosse Pointe was given a shot in the arm by the news of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, George K. Worthly, head of the local unit, said.

Uniform traffic regulations for the five Pointe municipalities were passed at a meeting Monday evening in the Neighborhood Club. Representatives of civic, religious and organizations together with national leaders met and adopted a plan urging the municipalities in adopting uniform ordinances, the location of position of traffic control, a no-fix traffic ordinance.

ONE YEAR AGO
Two men were killed when crossing Mack Avenue when they were struck by cars in separate accidents. The victims were Henry E. Mark, 44, of 908 Washington road, and Ole Berg, 77, of 4135 Buckingham.

A request to establish a tax cab service in Grosse Pointe Woods was enthusiastically received.

NEW GAS PIPE LINE APPROVED
Federal Power Commission Gives Permit to Build
A new natural gas pipe line will be built from Texas to Michigan which will make available to our customers in the Detroit District three times the amount of gas used during 1945.
The Federal Power Commission, after months of investigation, has issued a certificate granting Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company authority to construct the line.
When financing plans have been approved by the necessary regulatory authorities, construction will be rushed to completion as fast as materials can be procured.
When completed this line will give us a supply for all of our customers for a long time to come. In the meantime, our company has not depended alone on new pipe line construction to meet the present emergency. To take care of the peak days of this and next winter, we are spending more than $2,000,000 in enlarging our standby manufacturing plant and building a new liquid petroleum plant to aid in meeting our peak winter load, pending completion of the new pipe line.
This company will continue to do everything in its power to give the best possible service to the communities it serves at the lowest possible rates.

Watch Grades To Be Sure of Egg Bargains

If it's eggs you're buying — do you know a bargain when you see one?
Jeanette Lee, assistant to the dean of home economics at Michigan State college, says that most of us seem to prefer large white eggs these days. Medium size and small eggs are plentiful and may be more economical than large ones. That depends on the price for each — and you'll have to do a little arithmetic to decide which will save you more money for the same amount of food value.
A dozen large eggs weigh at least 24 ounces. A dozen medium size eggs weigh 21 ounces and the small pullet eggs 18 ounces. So a dozen pullet eggs is equal in food quantity to three-fourths of a dozen of large eggs — then they're a better buy.
With medium size eggs if the price is more than one-eighth lower than large eggs — then they're a better buy. Brown eggs are a bargain at any season if the price is lower than white ones of the same size. The food value of eggs is the same whether the shell is brown or white.
Watch for the prices of different grades of eggs too. Remember lower grade eggs have just as much food value as better grades. Grade AA and A eggs are most satisfactory for boiling, poaching, or frying. Grade B and C eggs, which are usually cheaper, are essentially satisfactory for many cooking and baking purposes.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

By HELEN KLAVER

The traditional Christmas Tea, given every year on the first Thursday in December by members of the Grosse Pointe Council at Miller Hall, was attended by over 50 mothers of Girl Scouts and Council personnel. Mrs. Ralph Netting and Mrs. Senff, and Mrs. . . . were responsible for the beautifully appointed tea table, and the mantle decorations, all of which reminded everyone that Christmas was really just around the corner.

Miss Katherine Richards, head of Detroit Girl Scout staff, was introduced by Mrs. Sidney Morgan, president of Grosse Pointe Council. The subject of Miss Richards' informal talk was "Recipe for Youth," and the point emphasized was that the secret of staying young is frequent association with youth—the sharing with them of their problems, their fun, and their hobbies. This method is not only more enjoyable than constant visits to the beauty parlor, but is also much cheaper!

Our newly organized Senior Scouts are making the most of their Saturdays, acquiring a good background for the future development of their chosen projects.

Last Saturday 20 Mariners visited the Gregory Boat Works, and after a thorough tour of that establishment they went on to Belle Isle where they were shown through the Coast Guard Station.

The same Saturday, 17 Wings, all dressed up in brand new Senior uniforms, arrived at the Detroit Airport, accompanied by their instructor, Miss Helen Pelto, a member of Club 9.

The girls were shown through the station, and then went up into the observation tower. They even had an airplane ride — at least they "taxied" to the hangar in an American Airline Flagship, and that provided them with plenty of thrills.

All our Wing Scouts are looking forward to the meeting Thursday at the "Y" where all Detroit Wings will get together after school. A speaker from the Aero Club will talk to these budding fliers after they have shared their experiences and talked about future plans over their "nose-bag dinners."

Mothers Honor Past Presidents

The annual Christmas Tea was given by the Mother's Club of the Grosse Pointe High School last Thursday, honoring the founder, Mrs. J. M. Fuchs, and the past presidents: Mrs. W. F. Mohrroff, Mrs. Fred Harding, Mrs. W. E. Neumeier, Mrs. Claude Hayward, Mrs. Harman Deuster, Mrs. Catherine Weddell, Mrs. Chas. Ellis, Mrs. J. C. Danforth, Mrs. J. Sidney Hall, and Mrs. E. F. Gehrig. The tea was a tribute to the work of the Mother's Club.

Leaders in the arrangements were Mrs. Leon Jacob, president; Mrs. Andrew Fuchs, program chairman; Mrs. M. Johnson and Mrs. Harman Deuster, hospitality chairmen; Mrs. Harold S. Davis, secretary.

The room was decorated with colored paper and streamers, and nine red candles on each side of the cherry burning fire in the fireplace.

To one side of the fireplace was assembled the Grosse Pointe High School Ensemble, composed of Ellen Jane Worley, Helen Schultz, Alice Corey, Judith Lyndrup, Jean Corey, Harriet Cotton, Barbara Coulter, Ken Christenson, Ann Palmer, John Titus, Martha Fischer, Paul Terbruggen, Milton Setzer, Elaine Severin, Doris Duncan, and Sheila McComb.

Knights Hold Buffalo Dinner

Eugene Fisher, District Deputy of the Knights of Columbus, is seen with Mrs. Fisher at the Buffalo dinner of the Lake Shore Council No. 2733 of the K of C at the club rooms Sunday evening. It was the council's 16th anniversary. Proceeds are donated to Catholic Education. Mr. Fisher acted as toastmaster. Glenn Horwood of the Wood was chairman of the committee in charge. Chief sealer was State Secretary Vincent O'Meara. Rev. Joseph Lawton stressed the necessity for the Knights to share in the work of Catholic Action.

It is also time for the annual Christmas Carolers of the Neighborhood Club to gather on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 8:30 to 9:30 to practice their carols so all will be in readiness for the night of December 22nd when they will carol throughout Grosse Pointe.

This group is under the direction of Miss Mildred Knaggs and is open to anyone interested in caroling.

This is a traditional affair for the girls of the Neighborhood Club and no donations are accepted.

United Advertising Co. requested permission to give out samples and credit slips from door to door. It too was denied.

Auditions Start Saturday for Children's Theatre

The Vesper Players Children's Theatre announces that it will hold auditions for new talent, Saturday, December 14, 9 a.m. to 12, at Burton School, Cass at Peterboro; and Tuesday, December 17, 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Cathedral House, Woodward at Hancock.

Auditions will be held for dramatics, singing, and dancing. Children who pass an audition will enter either the tap, ballet, or singing groups and all have an opportunity to compete for dramatic roles.

Children are accepted between the ages of 3 and 17. The Children's Theatre is not a school but a production unit. It does not compete with instructors. It aims at the highest ideals of professional theater to prove that it has the best trained and most talented children in the mid-west.

The Vesper Players are a non-profit group dedicated to presenting "new theater" techniques in the best and most original dramatic works of this century.

They presented W. H. Auden's "For The Time Being" last summer and received national acclaim. The Children's Theatre has just presented a new rendition of "Cinderella." The next production will be "Rip Van Winkle."

Casting for "Rip Van Winkle" will take place Wednesday, Dec. 12, 7:30 p.m., at St. Paul's Cathedral House. Anyone wishing to appear in the production must be auditioned and accepted for talent in one of the following: dramatics, singing, tap dancing, or ballet, on Dec. 14 or 17.

The Theatre is headed by David Farlow, producer, and John Everitt Booty, associate producer.

CYO Plans Dances For High Students

Second in the series of dances arranged by and for Catholic high-school students of the East Side will be held at the C.Y.O. Community Center, Mack Avenue at Maxwell, on Dec. 27, from 9 to 12 p.m. Detroit's "better orchestras" are being engaged for the last Friday evening of each month—Robby Grayson's music will be heard on Dec. 27.

Back of this new venture is a desire to help young people have the kind of fun they want. Representatives of about fifteen East-side high schools are planning the details of the monthly dances in co-operation with the C.Y.O.

Invitations, ticket-sales, decorations, music, added entertainment are all in the hands of the young people themselves. More than 1000 are expected to attend the December 27th "Holiday Frolic."

Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

Hi Ya, Kids! Parties, dancing and basketball rated high on everyone's list last week-end.

Congratulations COACH WERNET on your success in the first basketball game of the season. The crowd was jamming the gym while our Blue Devil team defeated Pontiac. Tom Anton led the mobs in some team-inspiring cheers.

Also on Friday night was the party at BARE GLASEY'S. The air of Christmas filled the recreation room which was decorated in red and green. Main event of this shindig was the scavenger hunt and also the delicious food, hot dogs, tuna sandwiches, potato chips, candy and pepsi.

Among the young enthusiasts were Jack Campbell, Betty Townsend, Dorothy Geiser, Bill Bolster, Don Behrens, Virginia Van Dyke, Bill Beck, Barbara Gough, Pat Horsley, Bob Campbell, Rowland Dixon and Sue Campbell.

After the basketball game MARTY FAIRLESS opened her house to her many gal friends for a few hours of dancing, eating, and gabbing.

Triping the light fantastic were Pat Hammond, Norma Neek, Gladys Osterman, Lois Holtz, Janice Skillman, Annie Candler, Nancy Georgie, Jean Webb, Meg MacKenzie, Jane Lundgren, Carol Grylls, Marilyn Walter, Jean Dowzer and Gail Wright.

Candy canes and lollipops lent Christmas spirit to the TOY-LAND FROLIC dance in the Pierce gym on Saturday night.

Swirling and dipping to the sweet tunes of Eddie Marshall's band in PARTY BEST were Di Faulk 'n Dick Wuerker, Dolly Patterson 'n Bill Duster, Marie Watkins 'n Dick Ford, Gerry Jacobsen 'n Bob Slade, Helen Stevenson 'n Randy Zeeb, "Dee" Lindquist 'n Bucko Penoyer, Lois Bieck 'n Bob Essert, Lois Olen 'n Bob Randall, Mary Baumen 'n Barry Munro, Sally Andrus 'n Jim Vrooman, Russ Dieging, Jane Lundgren 'n Tom Pierce, Sheila McRae 'n Jim Swift, Ginny Granes 'n Buster Knope, Sylvia Teeg 'n Doug Long, Margie Stoerkal 'n Jim Brown, Barb Stoerkal 'n Phil Skillman, Barb Orphan 'n Jack Fife, Jan Skillman 'n Jack Ede, Barb Baumen 'n Danny Burke, June Moffett 'n Bill Hester, Carroll Grylls 'n Vince Shooek, Minnie Hewitt, Lorne Norton, Barb Elliot 'n Don Lewis and Sandy Britt 'n Frank McBride.

Hamburgers, salad and milk made up the luncheon served by JANET JOHNSTONE on Sunday night before Xmas to Ginny Granes, Patty Ferome, Mary Baumen, Nancy Georgie, Jean Webb, Fely Wilton Sheila McRae Marry Wetherbee and Janet Bobson.

MARION BLACKMORE'S party Saturday night was strictly for the gals and complimented MARY CRAY of Col Gables, Florida. Highlight of the evening was when everyone said something on a record and then presented the finished product to MARY.

Among those invited were Betty Brady, Kay Kernkamp, Barb Rising, Shirley Drake, Myra Hahn, Sallee Slocum, Barbara Hasleblad, Vonnie Wegman, Dottie Lander, Gerry Morse, Martie Smith, Marilee O'Brian, Lois Bieck, Barbara Stoerkal, Marge Stoerkal, Sallee Smith, Betty Lillgren, Betty Graham, Sheila McComb, Phyllis Sherman and Helen Manson. So long for now!

Best Books Reviewed

By WALTER BIESS

HAPPY THE LAND. By Louise Dickinson Rich. J. B. Lippincott Company, New York. 1946. $3.

THE CHOICE

When her husband, Ralph, died "between one breath and the next, on a still and snowy December night," Louise Rich faced two opportunities. She could leave the Maine woods, or stick to a hard life close to nature, raising her children without the aid of a husband, and at the same time caring for her Forest Lodge home.

Her friends, in all kindness, advised her to use her head and make a quick exit to the city. The happy days she had described in her best-selling "We Took to the Woods," said they, were gone forever.

But Louise Rich loved the Maine country dearly, even without running water and thermostat heat regulators, so she stayed on at Forest Lodge, never doubting the wisdom of her decision.

Ralph's death, she soon learned, made living in the open more strenuous, but hardly less exciting.

HAPPINESS

We would expect the tone of her second book to be less pleasingly humorous than what she wrote before Ralph's death. But somehow the same sharp wit and boney philosophy make this volume as readable as her first, and even more so.

This is the kind of book you'd want next to your favorite armchair, ready to clean your blood of the city's street car bells and factory time clocks and blaring car horns and sooty smoke.

It's the kind of book you'd mark with a conspicuous X, like I did, which means you want to read it a second time, and a third.

Perhaps we forget too often that the little things in life, the red brick fireplace, the dog, the white wood fence in our back yard, are responsible for a good part of any real home happiness we can find.

"It's the little things that count," is Louise Rich's summary of successful life in Maine.

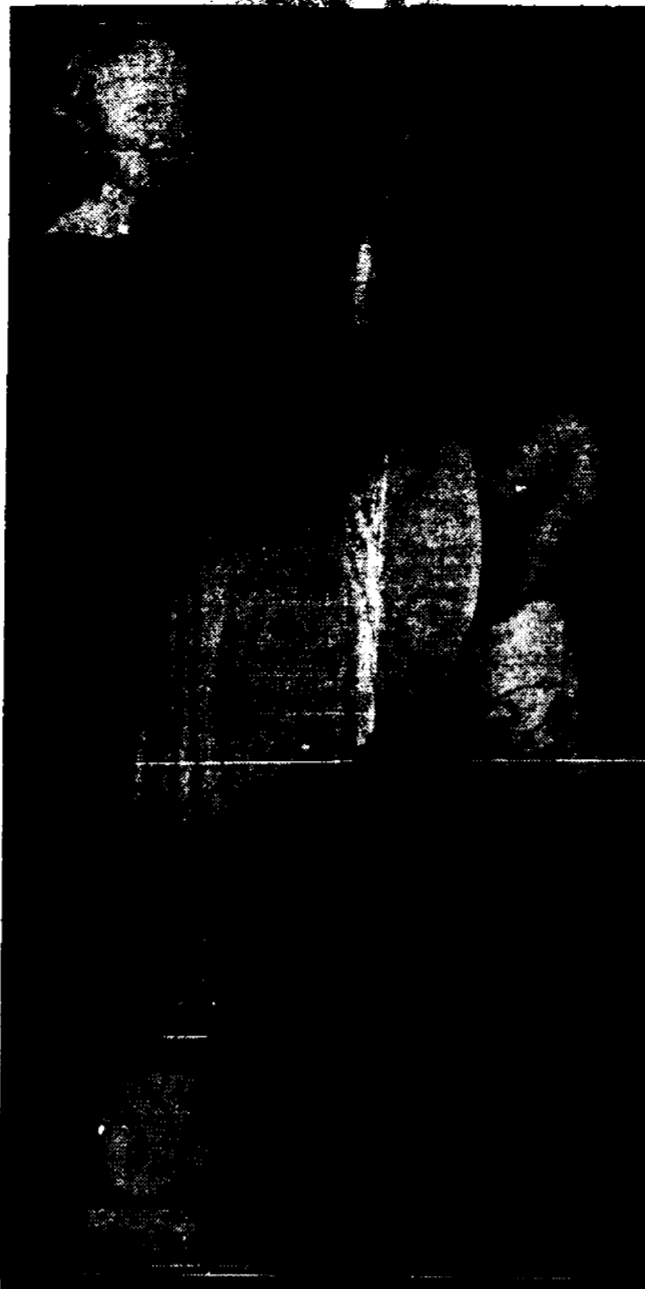

Not a large bank account, or social standing, or overwhelming advance in business, but a thorough knowledge of, and confidence in, yourself; a feeling that you are capable of something.

Her happiness consisted in getting the most out of herself and her neighbors. In loving everything and everybody, and seeing her investment returned double.

If this book is, as we think, a journal of its author, and the history of the human race in the author, Louise Rich's story is one of courage, humor, and a life filled to the brim with vigorous happiness.

Check it as a book that will edge its way into many a home, and into the heart of any person who realizes the enjoyment he can get from the little things in life.

Fashion Fantasy Revealed at DAC

Highlighting the annual March of Dimes which begins January 14 will be a fashion fantasy, "Have a Heart," at Music Hall, Saturday, January 25 at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, January 26, at 2:30 p.m., according to plans revealed at a press luncheon at the DAC Tuesday.

Presiding at the luncheon was Abner E. Larned, chairman of the Wayne County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Patronesses were Mrs. Edsel Ford, Mrs. Arthur Buhl, Mrs. Longyear Palmer and Mrs. Roy D. Chaplin.

Donald M. D. Thurber, assistant to Mr. Larned, acted as toastmaster. Mrs. Robert P. Oldham, Detroit regional director, The Fashion Group, Inc., William Merrill, producer of "Have a Heart," and Mary Morris, publicity chairman of the 1947 March of Dimes Fashion Fantasy were the speakers.

Also at the speakers' table were Miss Dorothy Durham, council member and regional director-elect of Fashion Group, Inc., and Miss Celia Merrill, composer of the original music for "Have a Heart," scintillating synthesis of modern art, harmony and design, is being written and produced by William W. Merrill, with original music by Celia Merrill. It will feature ahead-of-the-headlines fashions, talented singers and dancers, many guest celebrities.

The Fashion Group of Detroit presented its first "March of Dimes" show last January with tremendous success. In fact, it was the only group outside of New York to tackle such a project in conjunction with the "March of Dimes" campaign.

In view of the Detroit achievement the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis this year requested the New York Fashion Group to work out a plan whereby regional groups all over the country could stage shows during the 1947 drive.

"Have a Heart" will feature the same gorgeous costumes New Yorkers will see during their "March of Dimes" parade, plus many fashions being created by top-flight designers especially for the Detroit production.

William W. Merrill, the producer, has been associated with the theater all his life. As a youngster he performed consistently at the Bonstelle Playhouse with many big-name stars of the past and present. In California he played in movies, on the radio and attended Pasadena Playhouse. During the summer of 1940 he opened his own theater, "Will-o-Way," at Bloomfield Hills.

Recent Bride from the Woods

Jean LeBlanc, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton LeBlanc of 1651 Hollywood, in the Woods, was married recently to Edward Kohfeldt, Jr., of East Detroit, in the chapel of St. Joan of Arc Church. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kohfeldt, Sr. Following the ceremony a supper was held for the bridal party at the Harvard House. The bride's sister Dolores was maid of honor and Martin Heise assisted the groom.

Christ Church Choir Boys Sing at Tea

Choir boys from Christ Church Chapel in their striking wine-colored robes sang their Christmas carols with a special flourish Monday afternoon at the Candlelight Tea of Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Association at which Mrs. Alvin Macauley was hostess Monday afternoon in her home.

Mrs. Frank W. Goldie invited the boys to sing and it was especially nice that two were sons of members in the audience — Mrs. Stanford Phelps and Mrs. Hugh Stalker.

Christmas presents for veterans, which members brought in gaily-wrapped papers, filled the hall tables with a bright array.

Mrs. Robert Hurt won a blue ribbon for hers tied up in cyclamen with two cigarettes and package of matches on top — both decorative and useful to the recipient!

Mrs. Charles Delbridge assisted Mrs. Macauley as hostess and many of the members were there as this Christmas affair is always one of the loveliest of the year.

A few noted who attended were Mrs. George A. Bigley, Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, Mrs. Henry P. Williams, Mrs. Charles T. Bush, Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. Russell E. Dexter, Mrs. Ben Young, Mrs. A. Boynton Hartz, Mrs. J. Robert Lilley and Mrs. John F. Keys.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

by PAULA BEAUPRE

Seems like just about everyone planned get together last week with the result that memorable parties were taking place every minute of the time.

One of the spotlight events was the senior Ring Day ceremony and breakfast. As the honored students filed into the banquet hall they were aware of the lavish and impressive decorations which the hostess sophomores had so diligently prepared.

After the senior and sophomore presidents, HARVIE KEATHE and JERRY ROLLEBOCH had exchanged a few words the delicious breakfast was served.

Later on we saw lots of seniors having their pictures taken, including Theresa Luffy, Nora Allard, Joan Weidman, Rose Marie Cook, Al Campenbout, Phyllis Rapp, Carolyn Englehardt, Beatrice Marchand, Ellen Bault, Marion Rabaut, Joyce Alef, Josephine Princiola, Mary Sparr, Pat Van Tien, Sally Curran, Dolores Berges, Thelma Ficke, Joan Betsing, Sally Nacy, Virginia Miklavich, Joanne Murphy and Henrietta Sutton.

On Saturday night JO MANNINO invited some of her best friends to her dwelling on McKinley for a few hours of sleep after gossiping away until 3 a.m. Before settling down for those forty winks the girls took in a movie at the Punch and then trekked back to Jo's "rec room" and feasted on the refreshments.

Nancy Stahl, Jo Backman, Marty Mower, Joanne Athanson and Yours Truly took part in making the affair a success.

The coked crowd turned out in full force for the YOUTH CLUB DANCE again this week. Some of the people picking out their favorite recordings on the juke box were Pierre Belanger, Freddy Maddock, Judy Athman, John Auckland, Ralph Beaupre, Joe Cavanaugh, John Carpenter, Peggy Labadie, Rita Leithauer, Marion McLaughlin, Chris West, Ted Vernier, Bill Huettman, Eleanor Wade, Charles Boutt, Ed Rotarius, John Poppelreuter and Donna Klein.

Numbered among the week-end parties was DAN O'CONNOR'S gathering Friday eve. Joan Beaupre, Wally Liebold, Anna Marie Tamm, Bill Gouin, Jean Gray, Jerry Moons and Myra Denny all arrived at Dan's home to listen to the newest additions to his record collection. They also heard their host's piano renditions of the latest hit parade tunes. Later in the evening ping pong was added to the entertainment.

JERRY LEINBACHER arrived home from Connecticut for a two week stay with his family. On Thursday he left Grose Pointe for Seattle to continue his work as a radioman.

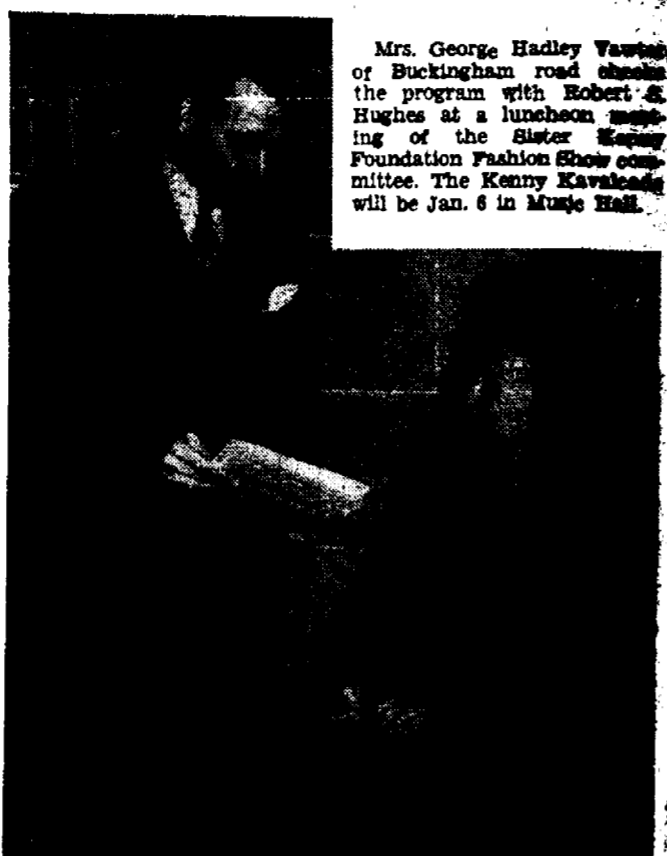

Another week-end session was the card party planned by BETTY ANN HUETTMAN for Saturday night. After a few hands, coke 'n cookies were passed around to the hungry group, which included Joanne Krehnbrink, Joan White and Jean Kulka.

A banquet in honor of the football team took place on Thursday evening at the Whittier Hotel. The Flyers were congratulated on their excellent playing throughout the season and were treated to a tempting dinner.

The guest list included Art Smith, Ted Vernier, Johnny Clarke, John Hutton, George Heidt, Ray Huettman, Howie Menchie, Dan Simpson, Pat Hamlin, Bob McBride, Vince Oliver, John Bingham, Stan Jurek, and Dutch DuRoche.

Valets for now.

Fashion Show Plans Discussed

Mrs. George Hadley Vawter of Buckingham road discussed the program with Robert S. Hughes at a luncheon meeting of the Sister Kenny Foundation Fashion Show committee. The Kenny Kavalade will be Jan. 6 in Music Hall.

Pointe Women Lead in Sister Kenny Show

Plans are underway for the "Kenny Kavalade," which will be presented as a combination fashion and floral show on Monday evening, Jan. 6 in Music Hall. Proceeds of this style event will aid the Sister Kenny Foundation 1945 appeal.

Mrs. George Hadley Vawter and Mrs. Phillip S. Wood are the co-chairmen for the fashion show, having been named by Mrs. Owen E. Skelton, chairman of the Women's Committee for the Kenny Drive in the Detroit area.

Aiding Mrs. Vawter and Mrs. Wood are Mrs. Frank P. Book, Mrs. William N. Mayo, Mrs. Glendon H. Roberts, all Grose Pointers.

Others in the committee include Mrs. Carl W. Neumann, Mrs. R. O. Mead, Mrs. Walter S. Hall, Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, Mrs. Vickery Edwards and Mrs. Arthur F. Jackson, all from Detroit and vicinity.

Robert S. Hughes, of Chicago, will direct the show. Miss Mary Ward Dillon and Vincent Gage will act in an advisory capacity to the committee.

Gay Poinsettias Bloom at Belle Isle

Belle Isle Conservatory dons its Christmas garb to bring to the public its annual holiday display featuring poinsettias and other Christmas blooms starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, it was announced by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The queenly poinsettia, most gorgeous of Christmas flowers, will flash its vivid red, delicate pink, and rare white blooms against the rich green of its foliage.

Other plants on display will include exotic orchids, cyclamen, red, white and salmon varieties, camellias, begonia, buddleia and Christmas cherries.

The flowers can be seen from 9 a.m. until dark daily in the conservatory, and after dark the display may be viewed from the balcony of the adjoining aquarium until 9 p.m.

All plants in the show were grown in the department's greenhouses. There is no charge.

The population of the United States, the statisticians predict, will be 150,000,000 by 1980; 21,000,000 will be in the 65 years and over age group.

Combined Choirs Offer Messiah

The Messiah will be presented by the combined choirs of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ at Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church, E. Jefferson and Marlboro aves., Sunday, December 15th, at 4:30 p.m.

The choir will be assisted by the Detroit Community Symphony Orchestra and featuring the following soloists: Esther Salominer, soprano, Wilma Kennedy, contralto, Paul Herbster, tenor, William DeMaria, bass.

This Christmas music program was started in 1939 and presented annually until 1942.

Due to popular request it is to be resumed this year and will be given under the able direction of Verna Scharr and Joseph Roy Lanyon, conductors. A free will offering will be taken.

"Save the Children" Unit Plans Meeting

The "Save the Children's Federation" Unit 1, of Grose Pointe Woods, will hold its monthly luncheon meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Sam Lewis, 1824 Hampton road on Dec. 19.

"Hansel and Gretel" Offered for Children

Young people throughout the Detroit area are being offered a golden opportunity to attend a series of musical programs beginning Saturday afternoon, Dec. 21, when the Junior League of Detroit, in co-operation with Music Hall will present the Humperdinck version of the traditional Christmas opera, "Hansel and Gretel."

This will be the first of a series of three programs, the other two being young people's concerts, played by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and conducted by Mr. Valter Poole on Saturday mornings, Jan. 4 and 18. All three events will take place at Music Hall.

Seats are on sale now at Music Hall at regular box office prices for the entire series, and are available to any and all music lovers.

Applications for tickets are also available at the Junior League Little Shop.

Mr. Poole will describe the instruments and explain the music which will be played at the morning concerts. He has been most successful in planning programs which are of particular interest to children.

The colorful "Hansel and Gretel" opera is known for its dancing sequences as well as its musical score, and is the immortal grand opera of Christmas time.

Coming as it does at the start of the holidays, it offers a joyous beginning to Christmas festivities.

Mrs. Lewis S. Robinson, Chairman of the Concert Committee, points out that this opportunity for young peoples' education in music appreciation is rare in Detroit, and suggests that tickets to this series "constitute a fine Christmas present for the young."

The Junior League concert series committee includes Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. John Garinghouse, Mrs. William Tedyard, Mrs. George Fink, Mrs. Alexander Wiener, Mrs. Daniel Goodenough, Mrs. Dexter Ferry, Mrs. Morley Morgana, Mrs.

Defer School News

After weeks of studying the history of Michigan the 5B class visited the Detroit Historical Society, Tuesday afternoon.

"I saw many interesting things which were passed from one family to another and ended up in the museum," Donald Huffaker.

"The fan room dazzled me. There were feather, paper and ivory ones," Joyce Katros.

"When we arrived a guide showed us around. He called 'the fans' women's artillery," Jimmy Stark.

"I think trips are very educational. There were many things to see. The room that attracted me was the one just filled with fans. It was all so wonderful," Barbara Reeves.

"You will like all the rooms in the museum when you visit them," Richard Sadler.

"The Detroit Historical Society was a very nice place, but the thing that caught my eye was the fire engine room. The engines were old and new. One was about a foot and a half long. Boy, was it neat," David Stapleton.

New England Women Arrange Luncheon

The Christmas meeting of the New England Women, will be held Wednesday at the English Club, with luncheon at 12:30 o'clock preceding the business session at 1:30 o'clock, which the president, Mrs. Edward J. Savage, will conduct.

Mrs. H. B. Bogrette, chairman for the day, will add a Christmas story to the book-review by Mrs. Mary Miles, of the Main Library. A social hour, with Christmas carols and a gift exchange will conclude the program.

St. Lucy Honored Throughout Sweden

St. Lucy's Day, on December 13, inaugurates the Christmas season in Sweden. On that day the priestesses in the household lit the imperishable lamp, the Christmas candles, and through the house awaiting the household and giving each person a cup of coffee or some sort of sweetened beverage.

Liturgically, St. Lucy was martyred about 300 A. D. The story goes that Lucy gave her dowry to the Christians-whose courage she admired-instead of turning it over to her fiancé. The enraged young man informed against her and she was condemned to be burned at the stake; unharmed by the flames, she did not die until thrust through with a sword.

Lucy is commemorated somewhat diversely in Switzerland where she is the legendary wife of Father Christmas. Wearing a round cap over her long braids, a laced bodice and a silk apron, she marches around the village with Father Christmas and distributes gifts to the girls while he looks after the boys.

St. Clare Women Oppose Planned Parenthood Group

The Archconfraternity of St. Clare held its monthly meeting last week. During the meeting services the annual reception of new members took place. Lealle L. Smith, of 1392 Chalmers Road, presented the new members and they were formally received into the ladies organization by the Rev. J. A. ... O.S.A.

Following the reception many was a "membership" in the auditorium with Mrs. Farrell, of 1316 Kensington, acting as chairman.

A brief business meeting was conducted before a session of interesting entertainment.

The purpose of the meeting was to pass by unanimous consent a vote of protest against the activities in this locality of the League for Planned Parenthood. According to an article published recently in a local newspaper, it was stated "ch-spacing services be made available to all who desire them."

At the Archconfraternity meeting it was pointed out that to protect the health of mothers and to safeguard the welfare of children are noble objectives, and deserve the thoughtful consideration of every true American.

But it was asserted that these objectives cannot be obtained through the use of immoral contraceptives as advocated by the League of Planned Parenthood.

Such procedure, it was stated, will result only in degrading the marriage state in jeopardizing the happiness of family life, and in ruining the moral fiber of America. The words of an outstanding spiritual leader were recalled: "Any use of matrimony exercised in such a way that the act is deliberately frustrated in its power to generate life is an offense against the law of nature."

This protest against the method of spacing children proposed by the League of Planned Parenthood has received the hearty endorsement of the following Catholic clergymen resident in Grosse Pointe: the Reverends P. L. Colgan, J. A. Smith, E. J. Sweeney, J. D. Clark, M. R. Foley, L. J. Kaszynski of St. Clare Parish; Reverends F. F. Van Antwerp, L. H. Des Longchamps, L. V. Hamel, V. F. Schuster of St. Ambrose Parish; Reverends J. P. Jordan, C. O'Neill of St. Joan of Arc; and Reverends A. L. Melvin, J. J. Bohr and R. T. Parrish of St. Paul.

Art-Ed Pupils Plan Christmas Show and Sale

Ceramics, stuffed dolls, Christmas cards, and other attractive items will be featured in the Wayne University art education department's 14. annual Christmas show and sale Monday and Tuesday, in the art education building, at 5015 Cass.

"Our purpose is not only to show the public the things our art education students can make, but also to give the students experience in handling every phase of a large-scale project such as this," explained Dr. Jane B. Welling, chairman of the department.

"Our theme this year is 'Handmade Detroit—Christmas is what you make it.' We are attempting to show Detroiters the many possibilities of making things for themselves," she added. "The show will be centered around our Art Activities Almanac, which contains 60 pages of ideas on making objects of wood, leather, clay, and paper."

In conjunction with the show, which will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. both days, demonstrations by students will be given. Demonstrations in clay will be given at 2:00, 4:00, and 6:00 p.m. both Monday and Tuesday.

Tips on block printing will be presented at 3:00, 4:00, and 7:00 p.m. both days, as will ideas on Christmas tree ornaments, gift wrapping, and jewelry making. Puppet shows written and staged by students will be shown at 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday.

Community singing, music by Marvin Corgiat and his accordion, Christmas songs by a student chorus and solos by Erika Ochsner and Pat Gardiner will highlight the show.

"We want to make it clear that the public is under no obligation to buy," said Dr. Welling. "They are welcome to come in, look around, and watch the demonstrations without buying a thing. This is as much a show as a sale."

Erika Ochsner is general chairman and committee members include Bob Durma, Annelita Hatcher, Gwen Chase, Carmella Aiello, Cherry Koenigsmann, Christy Rice, Rose Downer, Bill Wilke, Marvin Corgiat, Betty Enfield, Memorie Upper, Val Colombatto, Alex Zawacki, Dorothy Sibley, Carolyn Salyards, Alpha Raphael, Doris Chapman, Doris Lemke, Alice Hartwick, Harriet Berg, Thomas Stevens, Pat Gardiner, and Cledie Collins.

Says Advertising Aids Employment

Advertising's role in helping maintain a high level of employment and national income was lauded by Arthur R. Uppren, vice president and economist of the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis, before the annual meeting of the central council of the American Association of Advertising agencies here last week.

"It is an accurate observation when we say that the well-advertised consumer's goods, especially the consumer's durable goods, give the American more of what he wants for his dollar than any other product he buys," Uppren said.

"Why is it the most unadvertised industry — housing — yields the American so little for his dollar?" Uppren emphasized that high employment is necessary for a sound economy.

Wise Men Patron Saints of Travelers

The Three Kings of Cologne have become patron saints of travelers, and very appropriately, too, since the Wise Men traveled considerably even after their death.

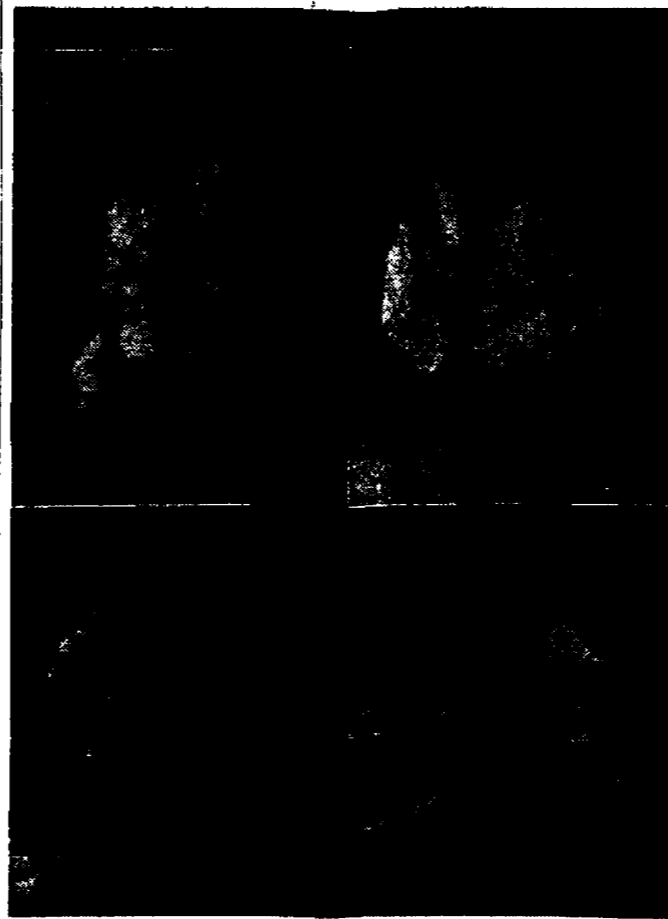

Biblically we know very little about the Wise Men. Church tradition, based on the three specifically mentioned gifts, has established three Wise Men and identified them as Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar; the Kings of Tarsus, Arabia and Ethiopia respectively.

Legend advances that on their way to Bethlehem, the Magi met at Ur and St. Mathew states that having adored the Christ Child, they departed into their own country by a different route. Whether each returned to his own country or whether all three journeyed into one country are matters for conjecture. Legend continues that they were baptized, distributed their wealth among the poor, and went about preaching the doctrine of peace and repentance; all three seem to have suffered martyrdom.

In the fourth century Empress Helena, mother of Constantine, arranged for the transfer of their bodies to Constantinople. When the Greek Emperor was overpowered by the first crusade in 1096, the holy remains were sent to Milan where they were enshrined until the latter part of the 12th century when Frederick Barbarossa ordered their removal to Cologne.

The Archbishop of Cologne adorned the relics with precious jewels and enshrined them within the Cologne Cathedral; in time anything which touched the skulls of the Three Kings was considered as a charm against accidents, hence, the Wise Men became popular patron saints of travelers.

Accent on Youth Is Xmas Theme

The secret of exciting Christmas flower decorations is the young girl's view, declares Alva Wynn, gifted stylist of Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association. Upper right—The clove-scented carnation crownman's eyes and trimming are simply red dress buttons. The hat and umbrella are borrowed from little sister's doll collection. Since each flower is in water, the snowman's good for several days. Top left—Santa and baby take it easy among white gladiol, poinsettias and red berries—a nursery arrangement or equally suitable for almost any part of the home. Below—The symbol of Santa's fabulous exploits is recreated in this sleigh and reindeer arrangement of pink roses, blue ink-stevia and pine banded upon pink stockings and angel glass. The reins and harness crossing the satin bow are made of elf roses.

Latest Highlights From Hollywood

Martha Vickers, youthful and beautiful Warner Bros. actress, was advised by a friend to give her hair a beauty treatment of raw eggs and lemon juice. The result, however, looked like something out of a custard-pie comedy, because Martha made the mistake of rinsing with hot water. She found herself wearing an omelet.

Kathy Young, Paramount starlet, claims to be a direct descendant of the prophet. Alene Dahl, recently upped from obscurity to a featured role in "My Wild Irish Rose," at Warner Bros., admits a "warming friendship" with Baltimore's Bonnie Bonifay. He owns an airline and a couple of hotels.

Inflation notes: Fancy Hollywood hot-dog emporium is selling them for $1 per each—with a dash of caviar!... For $5-49.50, Barbara Stanwyck has added one room and a bath to the back of her garage. "And," says Barbara, "it's just a plain old room and a bath; nothing fancy at all, unless it's that 56 cent."

Startling statistics: Of 13,000 musicians listed by the local union, some 8,000 are unemployed, including 1,000 trumpeters. Hollywood, right now, isn't the best place for striving young tunesters.

Sydney (the fat man) Greenstreet claims to be a sterling example of what happens to an athlete when he stops being athletic. Before he started scaring people on the stage and in pictures like "The Verdict," Sydney was a whiz at rugby and cricket.

Out of the mouths of babes... A young lad do last week, a young lad complained, "God! All I've done is see actors. I wanted to meet the horses."

Paul Henreid proposed a startling plan for world peace while co-starring with Bette Davis and Claude Rains in "Deception," at Warner Bros.

"All nations should enter an agreement that no man under 50 could fight," said, said Mr. Henreid.

"How many men over 50 would want to put on a uniform and carry arms, while their sons and grandsons stayed home? By 50, the fight left in a man is more spiritual than physical and older armies wouldn't be very effective on the battlefield."

Admitting his solution to the problem of permanent peace was offered with his tongue deep in his cheek, Henreid also pointed out that in recent conversations with young men—actors, bellboys, students, etc.—he came to the conclusion that they, at least, are willing to do everything possible to avoid another world war.

Pretty dancing beauty on the "Love and Learn" set at Warner Bros., was raehtd to remark,

"Darling, you sound so pre-atomic!"

Bette Davis and husband, William Grant Sherry, are enroute to the star's New Hampshire home, where they will remain until after the birth of her expected baby, sometime late next spring.

Bill Williams and Barbara Hale have been given new contracts by Warner Bros. Williams has been offered directing chore at U-I.

"Dark Passage," starring Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall for Warner Bros., is to start rolling this week. It will be a melodramatic thriller... "The Huskaters," to be Clark Gable's first picture in nearly a year is slated for a January start at MGM.

After completing long vacation at Sa-Island, Ga., and Nassau, B.W.I., Mark Hellinger has hought Forrest Rosaire's "East of Midnight" as a starter for John Garfield.

Sign of the times: Production department at Warner Bros., after six months of diligent searching, has rounded up 17 English horseless carriages, era 1851, for "My Wild Irish Rose". It had been decided that Chauncey Olcott, whom the story is about, couldn't ride in any other kind of a buggy without destroying the picture's romantic authenticity.

Movie miracle: For "The Homestretch" in Technicolor at 20th-Fox, technicians mixed grey-blue, cobalt-blue, blending white, turkey red, raw umber, green, pink, apricot and mauve. The result, on a giant background drop, turned out to be a truly beautiful blue.

Economists Expect Farm Income Drop

Farm commodity prices will be among the first to decline when the downward adjustment of the general price level occurs, Michigan State college farm economists predicted today.

Although this downward movement in prices will probably be of short duration, it likely will be followed by a period similar to that in the "twenties." Such a period will be one which is generally prosperous but during which time agriculture will have some serious problems.

That is the opinion of Dr. Clifford M. Hardin, speaking for the farm economist preparing the 1947 farm outlook information.

The period of inflation, which still exists, has brought or will bring most farm product prices to an all-time high. The downward adjustment in the general price level seems likely for mid-year of 1947.

Federal farm price supports will cushion the downward adjustment. Corn, wheat, hogs, eggs, butterfat, milk, chickens, turkeys, dry beans, soybeans, flaxseed and potatoes are included in the support program. Absent from the list are cattle and lambs.

Hardin pointed out that as consumers' goods—such as automobiles, refrigerators and radios—become available in greater supply, the consumer will spend less on food and more on these commodities.

The per capita production and consumption of agricultural produce is at a very high level. Prospects are for reduced foreign demand for agricultural products along with reduced expenditures by domestic consumers.

Good management will be needed for farmers to show a profit from farming in 1947. In the last five years farm receipts were high and although expenses likewise were high, it was easier to make money. Income is likely to drop in 1947, while most expenses will continue at or above the 1946 level. This means a considerable drop in net earnings.

In 1659 the high court of Massachusetts held that "anybody who is found observing, by abstinence from labor, feasting or any other way such day as Christmas Day shall for each and every offense be fined five shillings."

Season's GREETINGS

Christmas is more than just a day! It is the hopes and prayers of people everywhere who have tasted fear and pain and want, as well as security and comfort and plenty. Christmas is the memory of all memories within the hearts of all, the recollection of little things and great things that make up the lives of each of us.

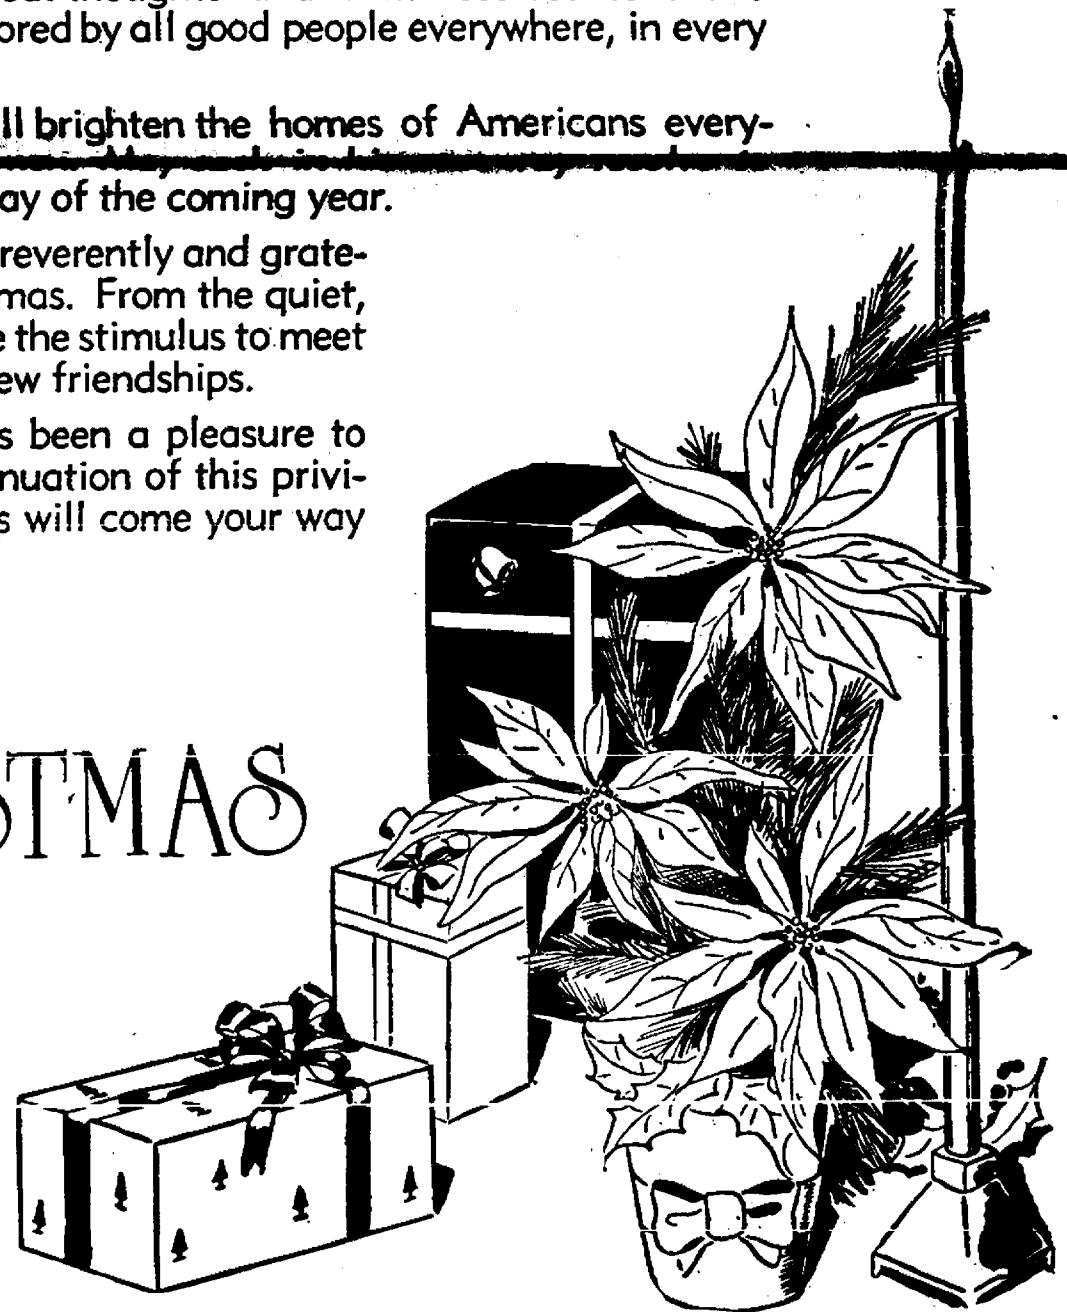

Christmas can be, and should be, the rebirth of great thoughts and firm resolves to make ideals and ambitions come true. It is a day to be honored by all good people everywhere, in every city, in every village, in every home.

Twinkling lights and gleaming Christmas trees will brighten the homes of Americans everywhere. ~~The spirit of good will~~ keep the spirit of Christmas alive throughout every day of the coming year.

Let us celebrate this great occasion thoughtfully, reverently and gratefully in keeping with the true significance of Christmas. From the quiet, comforting happiness of the Yuletide may we receive the stimulus to meet the New Year with new ambitions, new hopes and new friendships.

Please accept our Greetings of the Season. It has been a pleasure to serve you in the past and we look forward to a continuation of this privilege in the future. It is our wish that all good things will come your way this season and for many seasons to come

Faith, Peace Are Eternal

Twenty centuries have passed since the inn at Bethlehem was overcrowded because of Caesar Augustus and his census.

The bigwigs who crowded the inn were committed to oblivion by their contemporaries and, except for the census and resultant conditions at Bethlehem, it wouldn't matter too much if Augustus completely vanished from the history books.

It is generally immaterial that, as puppet king of Judea, Herod fortified the kingdom and kept it out of the clutches of Cleopatra, rebuilt the city of Samaria, and endowed several pagan temples long since crumbled into dust. Few people know, and fewer care, that his wife and two sons were murdered at his command. This sort of a Romanised Jew, is remembered chiefly because of his hypocritical treatment of the Wise Men and because he authorized the slaughter of the Holy Innocents — and even this deed of incredible cruelty might have been forgotten if the Innocents were not associated with the Babe of Bethlehem who grew in to the Christ and bequeathed a new philosophy of love and peace to all mankind.

Some men question what has been accomplished during the 20 centuries since Bethlehem.

True enough, some of the records have been written with indelible inks of hatred and prejudice and splattered with much blood; but cynics had best not rest their argument too confidently upon the gory records written or provoked by men who either did not know Christ or openly rejected his commands.

On the other hand, the glad tidings announced to a few shepherds at Bethlehem have inspired courage and faith and love such as no earthly decree or proclamation has ever called forth.

Faith and Peace are eternal quests — and twenty centuries are mere fleeting moments of Eternity.

Michigan Mirror

How to maintain public services of government, at home and elsewhere, despite today's postwar inflation which is yet to reach its crest, poses a top problem of acute proportions for Michigan's new state legislature.

Governor-Elect Kim Sigler will deliver his inaugural message to legislators on January 2.

At a good will dinner in Detroit the governor-elect told legislators that it was up to them to lead Michigan out of the financial wilderness created by the voters' diversion of 76 per cent of state sales tax revenues to home governments.

Regardless of what the legislature finally decides to do, it is apparent that a lot of people are going to be dissatisfied. They will be dissatisfied because they are dissatisfied with today's inflation — the root of the trouble.

Actually, the voters' dissatisfaction on Nov. 5 was prompted as much by the AFFECTS of inflation as by anything else.

We registered our protest against shortages, strikes and high prices by marking our ballot accordingly. Government is blamed for affects of inflation. In hard times the reverse has been true: Business is held responsible.

It is doubtful that the sales tax amendment would have been adopted if it had not been for the affects of inflation. Retail prices are mounting, ever higher. Department stores expect an all-time record in sales this year — which means more tax revenues for the State Treasury at Lansing. This spiral in prices has kept tax revenues ahead of operating costs. On July 1, 1945 the state treasury had a surplus of $5,219,000. Twelve months later the surplus had grown to $21,532,000 — an increase of more than $16,000,000.

Proponents of the sales tax amendment made capital of the fact that the treasury had cash balances in excess of $125,000,000 — all of which was sufficient proof, it was implied, that the state had too much money on hand. These idle millions, so the logic went, should be returned back home to pay for increased costs of cities, schools and other home governments.

While it was true that the cash balances at Lansing were in excess of $125,000,000, it was equally true that only $21,532,000 of this sum was available to the legislature for appropriations. All other funds have been tagged, restricted, appropriated, ear-marked — choose your own word for it. The veterans' trust fund, for example, is $50,000,000; state highway fund, $11,453,000; primary school fund, $14,417,000; appropriation balances for buildings and improvements (delayed due to lack of materials, etc.), $27,881,000.

Inflation caused higher prices, and higher prices caused more taxes to be collected. The surplus at Lansing — built to unrealistic heights by emphasis on the $125,000,000 cash balances — collided squarely with inflation in operating costs.

The result was a voters' dissatisfaction with affects of inflation. It is very doubtful that this amendment would ever have been adopted in normal times. Inflation created the condition whereby voters acted as they did.

Now comes the news at Lansing that inflation of operating costs — higher cost of food, supplies, labor, etc. — will require higher appropriations for state department and state institutions, such as prisons, hospitals and colleges. Requests for legislative appropriations have risen to $212,000,000 for the coming fiscal year. However, revenues are estimated at only $144,000,000 because of the diversion of 76 per cent of the sales tax revenue back to home governments.

The difference is $68,000,000. The final amount may be less or more.

Clarence W. Lock, deputy revenue commissioner, estimates the prospective deficit at $65,000,000. He points out that state aid to local governments and public services has mounted from $41,000,000 in 1933 to $120,000,000 last June 30. It is expected to go higher next year at a time when the state is expected to maintain facilities for education of veterans at colleges, and otherwise provide services all of which have been authorized by state legislators elected from home communities.

The state's current dilemma is much the same as the inflation problem confronting all business and industry. James D. Mooney, president of Willys Overland explained the paradox of inflation the other day in these words: "During October, we operated at a loss because our sales prices were out of line with increased costs. Prices are too high because costs are too high. Costs are high because we are spending too much money for too little production."

Irving Fisher, noted economist, warned Nov. 20 that we are living in a fool's paradise due to governmental mismanagement of money — sale of too many government bonds to banks in return for newly created credit — checkbook money or "invisible greenbacks" — which now total $110 BILLION DOLLARS. The banks' demand deposits last week were in excess of $39 BILLIONS. That's a lot of money, a lot of pressure, at a time when shortages are widespread.

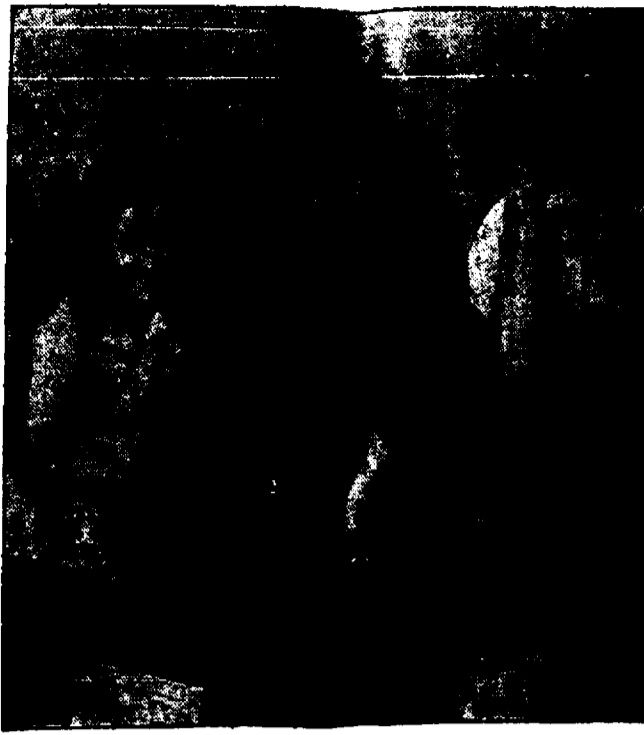

James Truslow Adams, noted historian and writer, declared Nov. 19 that "the next crash will make 1929 look like a piker." Listen to this: "After every war, eventually the loss of capital goods has to be made good, and it can only be made good the hard way. In this World War we have destroyed more capital goods than ever before in the history of the world, and the crash will be correspondingly great."

Randall R. Penhale, state director of the school savings program sponsored by the U.S. treasury department, dropped in at the writer's office last week to discuss the need for thrift in today's period of fantastic inflation. Penhale's remedy: Buy only what you actually need; save as much money as you can. Today's inflation is certain to be followed by times of great distress.

We extend to the legislature our personal sympathy in their efforts to allay Michigan's financial distress. Regardless of what they do, it will be wrong to some persons.

JOY FOR A GREEK FAMILY

YOUNG MISS GREECE — and her sister, too — eagerly watch grand-mother Kakavia of Corinith open a Greek War Relief Association 35-lb. food parcel. Any American, the generous person who helped the Kakavias, wanting to supply food to starving Greece merely sends the Association in New York City and that night his order is telegraphed overseas. In a few days a hungry Greek family is eating nutritious, staple foods. In addition to the parcel service, G.W.R.A. launches this winter a $12,000,000 food-raising campaign to build 40 health centers; to house and feed 375,000 war orphans; and to supply a warm, noonday meal to almost 2 million hungry school children.

Historians Dispute Over First Christmas Card

"Which came first?" and "who thought of it first?" are the two questions asked since time immemorial. These questions have baffled historians, challenged detectives, caused law students to burn the midnight oil—but most of all—have intrigued the public. For the last few years there's been a big to-do about the "first" Christmas card and the subject has fascinated many greeting card collectors, art dealers, museum curators and a sizable portion of the American and British public.

The earliest Christmas card on record, in the light of recent findings, appears to be that of W. M. Egley, dated 1842. Discovered in a mass of printing proofs by the British museum, it is indisputably a Christmas card and seems to have preceded all other Christmas cards.

It is still in excess of 100 years old. Compared with modern Christmas cards, it is approximately 900,000 as rich-half-gothic, half-rustic, trimmings as 1939.

Germans Hold Family Christmas

Christmas is a family affair in Germany and preparations begin well in advance of the holiday.

The Advent Wreath is hung on the first Sunday in Advent. This large wreath has one red candle to begin with; an additional candle is added each Sunday until Christmas and paper stars are added daily. The stars are inscribed with Bible passages which are memorized by the children of the household.

Everyone occupies precious moments making gifts for loved ones; perhaps a soap rose, a paperweight, toys for the younger children, an embroidered handkerchief or table cover; there are dozens of cookies and special cakes to be baked and everything must be finished the day before Christmas — stores and restaurants are closed, too—so that servants and tradespeople may spend Christmas Eve with their families.

After church services on Christmas Eve, one of the family goes into the parlor — where the Christmas tree has been set up and decorated with ornaments treasured from year to year. At the first notes of "O Tannenbaum," the whole family rushes in and gathers around the tree; several familiar carols are sung, and then the presents are distributed.

Sometimes Christmann—Father Christmas — joins the festivities and asks each child to say a verse; correct recitations are awarded by Christmann from pockets bulging with goodies and trinkets.

Southern Customs Remain at Christmas

Negro families of Virginia have their own traditional method of gift-giving.

On Christmas Eve a large sheet is spread over the dining room table with a box placed here and there to raise the sheet above table level. Each member of the household writes his name on a slip of paper and pins it to the sheet.

Gifts are sneaked in during the night and placed under the names of the persons for whom they are intended; even the youngest child forbear to "snoop" until the morning and removal of the sheet reveals all the presents.

Legends Tell the Story of Christmas Tree, Crib

Christmas trees and cribs, within respective spheres of influence, provide focal points for observances of the season.

Various legends claim to tell the story of the first Christmas tree; actually, evergreen decorations were so closely associated with pagan celebrations that they were banned by many ecclesiastics of the early church.

According to literature, the first Christmas tree was set up at Strasbourg, Germany, in 1604; even then, the cry rose against heathen customs and, as late as 1851, the Rev. Henry Schwan was severely criticized for setting up a Christmas tree in his church in Cleveland, Ohio.

St. Francis of Assisi received special permission from the pope to present a tableau of the nativity scene. This first crib, set up at Greccio, Italy, in 1223, was an immediate sensation; the renaissance endowed the cribs with ornate pageantry and, modernly, the crib is to southern Europe and Catholic countries what the tree is to America and northern lands.

Eighteenth century Italians were fond of a fantastic decoration called the Ceppo, Pyramidal in construction, the Ceppi were made on a framework of lathes with transverse shelves rising to three or four stories, depending on the over-all size of the Ceppo.

The whole thing was covered with colored paper, tufts, tassels, fringes, tiny pine cones, and little flags; a manger scene was represented on the lowest shelf, while the upper ones were covered with small gifts, etc.; wax tapers were placed along the sides and a large gilt cone ornamented the top. Although the original designer probably never saw a Christmas tree, the Ceppo — aided by a little imagination — bridges the gap between Christmas cribs and trees.

Allied Youth Group Plans Year-End Ball

The Allied Youth reunion ball, to be given at the Masonic Temple this New Year's Eve from 10 till 2, marks the 18th annual party to be staged by Allied Youth, an organization whose purpose is to provide wholesome recreation and a character building program for the young people of Detroit and vicinity.

The group has taken a stand for total abstinence, and its annual affairs at the Masonic Temple, staged in the three large ballrooms, represent the largest "dry" party in America.

The finest in music is always provided for the 5,000 or more young people who attend the semi-formal affair. This year, three top bands from Orchestra House will set youthful feet dancing.

Tickets may be obtained by calling or writing the Allied Youth office, Downtown YWCA Bldg., Montcalm at Witherell, Cherry 6194.

Artificial hands, fingers, and even parts of the face may be provided for disabled war veterans by a manufacturer's new and versatile synthetic rubber plastic.

Dentists Studying Immediate Dentures

The twelve-hundred and fifty dentists belonging to the Detroit District Dental Society are meeting at the Rackham Building today to study the latest developments in dentistry's newest chapter.

The entire scientific meeting is to be devoted to clinics and lectures on immediate dentures — a technique by which a patient is fitted with a carefully pre-constructed plate immediately after his remaining natural teeth are extracted. So much improvement in this dental procedure has been made that it is rapidly becoming the method of choice of most progressive dentists.

It is now possible for the socially active patient to undergo transition from natural to artificial teeth without losing step with social or business activities. Results have been extremely gratifying in the countless cases that have already been constructed.

This meeting has, as its function, the education of the Dental Society members as to the advantages of and latest improvements in the scientific construction of immediate dentures. Seven eminent clinicians are taking part in the program. They are headed by Dr. Charles Jamieson and include Dr. Horton Kimball, Dr. Louis Fenech, Dr. B. F. Goodman, Dr. H. J. Herpel, Dr. Paul Kowalchuk, and Dr. J. J. Jablonski.

Dr. Louis Braun, President of the Detroit District Dental Society, is presiding at the meeting.

This is the third of a series of seven scientific meetings sponsored by the Detroit District Dental Society and offered to its members in a spirit of determining professional self-betterment.

Sheng Dan Jieh — A Holy Festival

The celebration of Christmas is gradually becoming widespread in China as more and more families are converted to Christianity.

Sheng Dan Jieh — literally, Holy Birth Festival — is the Chinese name for Christmas. Private homes are decorated with large white posters inscribed with Chinese characters meaning Peace, Good Will, etc. The Christmas tree is also popular: symbolically called the Tree of Light, it is usually made of papier mache and trimmed with paper flowers and ornaments; it is not artificially lighted.

Gifts are exchanged within family circles and there are "surprises" for the children: American lead pencil, picture books and even castoff Christmas cards are exceedingly popular.

Early mass on Christmas morning is the focal point of the religious observances. Lantern-lit processions enter dark churches before dawn and, after mass, wend their way home singing Chinese translations adapted to the original melodies of "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "Silent Night," and other traditional Christmas carols.

It has been a pleasure, indeed, to have been of service to you in the year just ending... May we continue to merit your valued Good Will!

Illegal Possession
 Of Christmas Trees
 Increases Greatly

The State Department of Agriculture with the cooperation of the State Police, has so far found a great increase in violations of the Christmas tree law over previous years, states Director Charles Figg. To date inspectors have gotten 58 convictions, most of these involving persons having from one to five trees.

In Dickinson County in the Upper Peninsula one violator was found taking trees from property without the permission of the owner. The trees, numbering 400 in all, were consigned for sale out of the State. This violator paid a fine of $164.00.

C. A. Boyer, Chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, whose staff of inspectors is assigned to the Christmas tree inspection work, reports that very few violators have been found among commercial tree handlers and as usual many persons apprehended appear to be unfamiliar with the Christmas tree law.

All Christmas trees in transit without roots must be accompanied by a bill of sale designating the property where the trees originated and bearing the signature of the property owner. Bill of sale forms are available in many locations in the deer hunting area, particularly at County Agents' offices, Sheriff's offices and all State Police posts.

Upon being questioned many violators relate they pulled the trees out of furlows where they had been planted by State, Federal or private agencies for reforestation purposes. A great amount of damage to the reforestation program can be done by individuals promiscuously removing trees wherever they find them planted.

Trees with roots come under the State nursery law and when being transported must be accompanied by a tree inspection certificate. Inspection must be made by an inspector of the Department of Agriculture before the trees are removed from the premises on which they are growing.

Few people realize the size of the Christmas tree industry, which now involves several millions of dollars each season. From 1,350,000 to 1,500,000 Christmas trees and from 1500 to 2000 tons of evergreen boughs are cut annually.

California Has Mile
 of Christmas Trees

The trees comprising the mile long Avenue of Christmas Trees in Altadena, Calif., are descendants of the Deodar Cedars of India which grow upon the slopes of the Himalayas.

While traveling in India in 1882, Capt. Frederick J. Woodbury gathered the seeds which he planted later on his rang in California.

When the seedlings were about two feet tall, the captain's sons transplanted them to line the wire driveway leading to the ranch residence.

The once private driveway at the foot of the Sierra mountains is now a busy public thoroughfare and Captain Woodbury's seedlings, illuminated each year at Christmas, attract thousands of visitors annually.

RADIO NEWS AND VIEWS

By JIM HENRY

Despite the vigorous minority sniping at radio's commercialism, 82 percent of the American people believe radio is doing a good job according to the latest survey report of the National Opinion Research Center of Denver.

Throughout this continuous debating of radio pro and con, one thing is apparent—the industry is not kidding itself. Major radio executives realize broadcasting's shortcomings and have welcomed fair and informed criticism. At the same time, they have sharply counter-punched the snap judgments of uninformed hecklers.

With a view of enlightening the public at large, the Columbia Broadcasting System (WJLB) recently started a series of programs called "Time for Reason—About Radio" every Sunday 1:30 to 1:45. It's a worthwhile series for all us home critics to hear because it explains radio's basic operations and inherent problems.

In the words of William S. Paley, CBS Chairman of the Board, "We want intelligent thinking about radio from all the kinds of listeners there are in the American public, because we try to serve you all as far as possible."

But we want you to know what you're talking about; we want you to know more about this business of broadcasting. You can then make your own judgments on the facts... We believe that the ultimate decision about radio will be given through the informed opinion of the people themselves."

RADIO CLASSROOMS
 We have previously discussed some of the distasteful commercial aspects of radio, let's look on the credit side of the ledger here in our own community. Detroit has its share of commercials, but it has its share of programs devoted to schools, churches, veterans, and to civic projects. The public service features are not as entertaining a topic of conversation as the corny commercials and, thus, too often are not discussed by the public.

During the election night walk-out among Detroit daily newspapers, Detroit stations moved or cancelled commercial programs to make certain the people would receive election news promptly.

When it became apparent that the morning paper would not appear, station WXYZ produced a 1 1/2 hour program in the morning called Radio Free Press to show the public the opportunity to hear the morning news features they were denied to read because of curtailment of deliveries. (WXYZ is not owned or controlled by any newspaper.)

A more timely example is the national coal strike which had closed down schools in some states and threatened to close schools in Detroit.

Kay Lardie, Director of Radio for our school board had received a commitment from every Detroit station signifying their willingness to broadcast current events, history, geography, and literature for various grades so that education can be continued by radio in event the schools were closed.

However, radio didn't wait for the School Boards to initiate the request or to make the first move. The National Association of Broadcasters sent letters to station managers throughout the country urging stations in areas where schools are closed

Miracle Play in Texas Town

"LOS PASTORES," the hybrid Spanish-Indian miracle play introduced to Mexico centuries ago by Spanish monks and presented in San Antonio during the Christmas season, is enacted primarily for its spiritual value.

A group of amateur actors go from house to house by invitation and because it is traditional that no one prompted by idle curiosity should witness the performance, only the initiated can find the scene of presentation.

Usually someone's back yard becomes the stage; the doorsteps serve as background for the Nacimiento. Manger scene: various objects are set on the stairs; pieces of crockery, tinseled, pin cushions, patron saints—anything the household considers especially beautiful.

At the center of the lowest step, the Christ Child (a life-sized doll placed on a platter with divers gaudy candy) is surrounded by plaster shepherds, donkeys, etc.

A tent opposite the Nacimiento gives evidence of representing hell; a bonfire has been built within and live devils emerge therefrom.

The play has no definite time for beginning, but finally, a girl starts to walk back and forth reciting. Overdressed shepherds drone a seemingly endless song. Ermitano, the comic relief, carrying a rosary of spoons, also represents the soul of its earthly journey and is often accompanied by the white winged Archangel Gabriel.

It is a never-ending performance: seven devils, six in sequined black with animal masks and the fork-tailed Lucifer in brilliant red, are finally vanquished; likewise, a wild Indian is overcome and kisses the Christ Child; the shepherds and all in attendance kiss the Child solemnly and as slowly as possible.

Lamb Prices
 May Stay High

More favorable lamb prices, but probable declines in present high prices received for hogs and cattle in 1947 are predicted by Michigan State college animal husbandry and farm economics specialists.

The livestock outlook analysis was made by G. A. Brown and G. A. Branaman of the animal husbandry department and D. H. Stark and M. E. Craven of the agricultural economics department.

Meat supplies in 1947 appear adequate, although about two percent less than the 144 pounds per person in 1944. The supply, however, is 15 percent above the 1935-39 average. The tonnage of hogs, lamb and mutton slaughtered in 1947 is likely to be below, while beef and veal will be above 1946 levels.

The cattle market could become affected by a more-than-normal liquidation due to an economic or drought situation. The large number of cattle on farms is possible because of continued good crops and pasture conditions. A drought could result in heavy marketing and depressed prices. Feeder cattle at present are high and farmers are cautioned that lower prices are probable by the fall of 1947 because of an increased laughter of cattle and hogs.

High hog prices and the large corn crop will result in a large pig crop in the spring of 1947, although fall litters this year are about 20 percent below 1945. The heavy spring pig crop may result in heavy fall marketing and cause a decline in the fall market. Economists, however, say present high levels may continue until late 1947. Farmers are advised to plan early litters and feed for earliest possible marketing.

A 14 percent decline from pre-war numbers of lambs and sheep may result in more favorable prices in 1947 for lambs than other meat animals, the MSC specialists report.

Karkantzaris Fear Burning Leather

Christmas fires burn brightly in Greek households throughout the holiday season and Macedonians save their old shoes for the purpose of burning them at Christmas time since the odor of burning leather is said to be offensive to the Karkantzaris.

The Karkantzaris are mysterious creatures which wander about the rural communities of Greece between Christmas and Epiphany.

Dreaded because their grim-lin-like frills make life generally miserable for everybody, the Karkantzaris are particularly fond of attacking and beating persons who are a bit drowsy after an unusually hearty meal.

Of course, the orthodox Greek priest effectively banishes the Karkantzaris when he comes around with his copper vessel of holy water and cross entwined with sprigs of basil.

The priest dips the cross into the vessel and sprinkles each room with the holy water after which the Karkantzaris are expected to disappear and not return until the following Christmas.

Pythians Sponsor Public Speaking

In an effort to solve the ever increasing problem of juvenile delinquency the Knights of Pythias are appealing to those closest to the problem, the youth themselves. The Supreme Lodge of the World and the Grand Lodge of Michigan join in announcing The Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Public Speaking Contest, 1947.

The contest is open to all boys and girls in the United States and Canada who were born on or after September 1, 1928 and to all regularly enrolled students in high schools or parochial or preparatory schools of high school rank without regard to age, except first prize winners in previous finals.

To the winner of first prize in the final contest the Supreme Lodge is offering a scholarship of $750 at any college or university to be selected by the winner. Second prize will be a $500 scholarship, third prize will be a $300 scholarship and fourth prize will be a $200 scholarship.

Hunting The Wren
 In Old Ireland

Once upon a time in Ireland the wren was hunted and killed on Christmas morning; a branch of holly and bright ribbons were attached to his body which was carried from house to house by wren boys who sang songs and expected to receive a dole from each household.

The story goes that during the Danish-Irish war, the Danes were resting after an arduous march and the Irish were creeping up quietly. All of a sudden a wren, spying a few crumbs which the drowsy Danish drummer had dropped on the drumhead, swooped down and began to peck at the crumbs. The pecking awakened the boy, who aroused the camp; the Irish, driven off and defeated, blamed the wren.

Modern Irish, ashamed of the once-honored tradition, say the guilty bird may have been a starling or a sparrow anyway, and now welcome the wren to their farms and homes.

FAVORED ASH YULE LOG
 The Yule log, which used to be part of every home on Christmas, was nearly always an ash log, because the legend avers that it was before an ash fire that the Holy Babe was first washed and dressed by his mother.

Saratoga Trunk Plays Friday At Colony Theatre

One of the top ten films of the year, "Saratoga Trunk", is scheduled for next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Colony Theatre, 16535 Mack Avenue.

Ingrid Bergman is the love in Gary Cooper's life in the hit attraction and both screen stars turn in a masterful performance. Because the film Saratoga Trunk is extra long, the management has booked a featurette, along with a newsreel and cartoon, instead of a second feature length picture.

A treat is in store for the kiddies on Saturday afternoon when the Colony will present five cartoons during the matinee only. Doors open at 1:45 on Saturday and 12:45 on Sunday.

Christmas Pageant At Messiah Church

An impressive and inspiring Christmas Pageant entitled, "Gloria to God" will be presented by the young people of Messiah Church on Sunday, Dec. 15, beginning at 8:00 p.m. A chorus of mixed voices, under the direction of Miss Vera Loeber, with Mr. Theodore Albrecht at the organ, will provide the musical background. A speaking choir, led by Rev. M. L. Martin, will relate the Christmas Story. The Manger Scene will be depicted in solemn manner, showing the coming of the shepherds and the Wise Men to worship the Christ-Child. Many of our beloved Christmas Carols, including "Silent Night," "Joy to the World," and "Angels We Have Heard on High," will be sung by the chorus. Following the pageant, an informal gathering in the church basement will be held, with the singing of Christmas Carols by the assembly, and the serving of refreshments. Messiah Church is located at the southeast corner of Kercheval and Lakewood Avenues, Rev. A. H. A. Loeber, Pastor. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of the community to attend.

Abrasha Brodsky To Play Saturday

Abrasha Brodsky, European pianist on his first American tour, will be heard in recital at Music Hall, Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Mr. Brodsky made his debut in Vienna before the war, meeting with great success. He played numerous concerts in Paris, Salzburg and other continental cities. He served with the United States Army during the war as an instructor in physical education and gave many concerts for enlisted men on the West Coast. Following his Detroit appearance, Mr. Brodsky's itinerary will include Chicago, Toronto, Cincinnati, Boston and other eastern cities. He will conclude his tour in Carnegie Hall in New York City on April 24.

Berlin's 'White Christmas' Is a Modern Day Carol

Irving Berlin's "White Christmas" has definitely joined the procession of Christmas music! Let us hesitate to admit so recent a creation to the inner sanctum of cherished traditions, let's see just how old some of our Christmas favorites really are. Denmark launched the annual Christmas seal campaign against tuberculosis in 1904; Dickens' "Christmas Carol" was written in 1843; Samuel Clement Moore wrote "The Night Before Christmas" in 1822; W. C. Dibson, one of Queen Victoria's favorite artists, designed the first Christmas card in 1845, and historically, the first Christmas tree was set up in 1604. One can imagine the first Christmas carol—the "Gloria in Excelsis" of the angels. However, of our popular Christmas carols today, "Adeste Fideles" is undoubtedly the oldest. Its origin is uncontroverted; some say it was a graduate of the Glastonbury, others date its composition variously—from 1250 to 1680. Even accepting 1680, "O Come All Ye Faithful" antedates for example — "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing" (1770), "Silent Night" (1818), and "O Little Town of Bethlehem" (1868). There's a lot of Christmas tied up in the confident expectancy of childhood and the nostalgic memories of grown-ups; so, "May your days be merry and bright And may all your Christmases be white."

Saint Nicholas Day Observed in Holland

When Christmas rolls around in Holland, it is quietly and religiously observed. The "Saint Nicholas Day, December 6, is the day of gift-giving and justification. For weeks, life-sized figures of St. Nicholas have decorated shop windows and men dressed as Nicholas have stood in front of business establishments, and driven around in horse-drawn carts delivering parcels. At last the great day arrives; if there are several children in the household, sometimes they are gathered together from neighboring households, Bishop Nicholas (dressed in full vestments and accompanied by his Moorish servant) attends the children's party and impresses them by his knowledge of their shortcomings and chides them fatherly before distributing the trinkets and gifts he has brought for them. After the youngsters have had their fun, the grown-ups sit around a festive table and open their "surprises." Small gifts are baked in loaves of bread, packed in enormous crates, wrapped in bales of paper—each wrapper directing the present; the longer the donor and final recipient remain unknown, the greater the general justification. Indicative of the spirit of the season, packages containing gifts are often entrusted to strange passersby who are instructed to leave the parcel on such and such a doorstep and ring the bell.
