James J. Mehan of the Farms is one citizen who appreciates the protection and services given by the police. Mr. Mehan sent the following copy of a letter which he sent to Chief of Police W. H. Hoyt of the Farms this week:

"Dear Chief: I wish to thank you for the check for the 10 to be applied to your pension fund. It was possible to donate more as I feel police officers render exceptional services and protection to home and property during the year. I sincerely hope other property owners feel as I do in this regard. Wishing you and your entire personnel a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year. Sincerely, James J. Mehan."

Santa Claus arrived early for the employes of Grosse Pointe Park when the President and members of the Commission presented the Christmas bonus checks today. District Marshall and members of the Commission praised the employes for their faithful service during the year. First presentation, to police and firemen, was this morning. Office employes received their bonuses noon and department of Public Works employes were given theirs in the afternoon.

Technician Fifth Grade John Nelson, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, is returning to the West. Dr. William Campbell, Kentucky where he is assigned as an Artillery Sergeant, following the completion of the Artillery School, Mechanics Course at the Artillery School, Philadelphia, Pa. While at Fort Pitt, he is advanced with the 1st Detachment Basketball team. His team is now playing in the West and has just completed its eighth straight win. Nelson was well known at the Grosse Pointe high school where he was graduated in 1915. The 1st Detachment is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson of 283 Lincoln Road, Grosse Pointe.

Remember?

20 YEARS AGO Pupils in B.S. at Defer school who had a record of being neither absent nor tardy for a three month period were Margaret Carolin Paul Henning, Mary Hyatt, Ruth Metcalf, Margaret Reed, Elsie Reed, Clara Doris Schmitt, June Voorhies, John Walton, Charles White, Lucille Wilson and Ellen Campbell.

Three booster pumping stations will be built, one at a near Mound road, one near Cadillac road and one near Ashland and Jefferson.

A Christmas dance will be given at the Grosse Pointe High School by the Girls Club. Admission will be 15 cents.

TEN YEARS AGO Two men were found guilty of first degree murder for the slaying of two Grosse Pointe Park school children. The officers killed in the line of duty were Patrolmen Claude Lanstra and Edward Meyer.

A social note said that the Baccini family, Italy, will arrive in a day or so to be the guest of her brother Henry Leidy and High Lady of the Farms.

William K. Lanier, proprietor of Ford Cleaners, died in Deaconess Hospital.

TEN YEARS AGO Business has improved more than 100 percent in the space of two years in Grosse Pointe Park, according to an announcement of results of a survey conducted by the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Attendance at St. Ambrose Parish bazaar was tremendous and brought in net proceeds of $7,500 as was announced.

Douglas Chase and Sanford Orr opened a new electrical shop.

Grosse Pointe May Be Victim of Big Jewell Theft Ring

Possibility that some of the $900,000 of jewels stolen from the Duke and Duchess of Windsor Oct. 9 may have been brought to Detroit from England is seen by police in Grosse Pointe.

Thrifts of gems are by no means rare in Grosse Pointe and in the past two months more than $200,000 of jewels have been reported missing, at least $15,000 of them are known to have been stolen.

Courts May Make McNally Prosecutor

A hearing before the state Supreme court may give to James K. McNally of Grosse Pointe the office of County Prosecutor which he appeared to have won on election day when the results gave him a 1,400 majority over Gerald K. O'Brien, Detroit, his opponent. McNally's forces have drawn up their ammunition for a legal fight to put him in office. The results gave O'Brien a 22 vote majority over McNally. Although O'Brien is the apparent winner today, a hearing before the state supreme court Monday on a petition filed by McNally's forces may put McNally in the winning column and sound the signal for a U. S. Supreme Court battle.

In the course of the recent election, McNally's forces had "double straight" ballots counted, and O'Brien made substantial gains on the double straight ballots. McNally's attorneys appealed the board's decision to the state supreme court and obtained an injunction restraining the county board from certifying the election of O'Brien. If the supreme court reverses the county board's decision, "double straight" ballots, which have been segregated, will be re-tallied.

In this event, Beattie says, O'Brien may appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court for a ruling on counting ballots that were not tallied by election officials, a second trial issue of the recount. A survey showed that O'Brien lost heavily when it was decided to count untabulated ballots. Attorneys for O'Brien claim that failure to count the untabulated ballots is disfranchising the voters and thereby becomes a federal matter.

Mean Thief Steals Christmas Spirit

Sixteen took a lot of the Christmas cheer from the home of E. Schaubert at 251 Middlesex. Mr. Schaubert complained to Park police that five cases of beer, four bottles of champagne and 15 bottles of cocktail mix had been stolen from the garage at his home.

Goodfellows Started Early on Their Paper Sale

Out in the gray of dawn, three enthusiastic Goodfellows are seen with their special Goodfellow editions of the Grosse Pointe Review when they started on their paper selling last Tuesday. Left to right they are Clive Inglesby, of Grosse Pointe Shores, Circuit Judge Theo. J. Richter, who is running for re-election, and Judge Victor H. Dulacke, of Grosse Pointe Township.

Toy Club Hits All-Time Record

There isn't a kid in Grosse Pointe without a toy this Christmas and much of the credit is due to the excellent work of the Toy Club which has distributed toys to more children this year than any time in its history.

Camera Club Resumes Jan. 7

New Year season of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club will commence Tuesday evening, Jan. 7, with a detailed lecture and demonstration of oil coloring of photographs. Stanley Koen, President of the Club, has made arrangements with several outstanding color artists to appear before the meeting on that evening and show the various mediums used in coloring and was asked to appear in order that perfection be reached in that line of work. The artists will bring with them many photographic prints, including landscapes and portraits which will be used as subject matters of the coloring.

The demonstration will be under the direct supervision of Mr. Don Thomas, professor of photography and well known for his local portraits. The meeting will be open to those of the public who may be interested in oil coloring of photographs.

Grosse Pointe Pupils Assist Play at Valparaiso U.

The Grosse Pointe Review will publish early again next week to bring you the news of Grosse Pointe on Tuesday, the day before New Year's.

Dr. Vera Hahn, faculty director of dramatics at Valparaiso university, has announced that four productions will be given by the university players during the winter season. They include the sponsoring of a Shakespearean play and the presentation of "Family Portrait" by Lenore Coffee and William Cowan.

Plans for modernization of the stage and the construction of a new building for the university are included in the enlarging and renovation of the Valparaiso university additions to accommodate the growing student body. A completely new set of curtains and back drops and the installation of a remote control system of operating the lights will make the stage one of the best equipped for university theatricals in the country, Dr. Hahn stated.

Valparaiso university is engaged in a drive for $1,000,000 during the present fiscal year. The total sum is set as the goal for a nation wide effort among the 4,000 congregations of the Methodist Episcopal church during January, 1917. The erection of two $75,000 dormitories is one item on the current program.

Five From Pointe Students At Central Michigan

Five students from Grosse Pointe have helped give Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant, Mich. the highest registration in its ever had from Wayne County. Of the 1927 enrolled, 143 are from Grosse Pointe. They are George A. Alford and from the City of Grosse Pointe are Nancy Louise Anderson, Mary F. Curtis, John F. Atkinson and Stewart M. Byfield.

Circuit Court Will Try Koerber for Manslaughter

Thomas E. Koerber, 25, of 601 Merrilweather, was bound over for trial in circuit court on a charge of manslaughter by Justice C. Joseph Belanger at an examination Friday afternoon.

Koerber is charged as the driver of the car which collided with a Grosse Pointe Park Police Scout car Dec. 13 killing Sergeant Frank J. Smy, only occupant of the police car at the time.

Pair at Yale in Navy ROTC

Two Grosse Pointe students have been selected for training in the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps at Yale University, New Haven, Conn. They are J. T. Woodhouse of 225 Lake Shore road and R. S. McGraw of 34 Lakeside.

As contract students in the ROTC they differ from regular students in that they bear the expense of college work themselves. Regular students are paid $100 a year under the Holiday plan, but are required to serve from 15 to 24 months on active duty after commissioning. Upon graduation from college and completion of their ROTC course, they will receive a commission in the U.S. Naval Reserve or U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. They will be placed on inactive duty, will retain their commission in an inactive status, and will be called to active duty only in a national emergency should occur.

Lt. Comm. Fair Is Given New Honors

Lt. Comm. Fair Warren Fair, USNR, husband of Mrs. Gloria Fair of Grosse Pointe, Michigan, has received a permanent citation for his Gold Star in lieu of holding plants for a rank as Secretary of the U.S. Naval Reserve of the President.

Lt. Comm. Fair, currently serving in Fighting Squadron 75, Atlantic Fleet, received the award for performance in flight against Japanese forces in the Philippine Islands, Formosa, and Indo China Coast Area. During the war citations were temporary, or incomplete, for security reasons.

Part of the call citation for Lt. Comm. Fair's Gold Star is as follows: For meritorious achievement in aerial flight as pilot of a plane in Fighting Squadron 80, attached to the USS Hancock during operations against enemy Japanese forces in the Philippine Islands, Formosa, and Indo China Coast Area, from Nov. 5, 1914 to Jan. 12, 1915.

Participating in numerous strafing and bombing missions, Lt. Comm. (then Lt.) Fair destroyed three enemy planes on the ground and scored direct bomb hits on the runway of a major enemy airfield and on a large railway warehouse. His gallant devotion to duty contributed materially to the success of his squadron and was in keeping with the highest standards of the United States Naval Service.

Hit and Run Driver Will Be Charged

A hit and run charge will be laid against a Detroit motorist who clipped the front fender and bumper of a car driven by August Salen, 12415 Loring, Detroit, on Lake Shore boulevard. Salen told police the other car cut short in front of him and struck his car and kept on going. He gave police the license number.

Realty Association Entertains on Friday

Dave Franklin, President of the Eastern Detroit Realty Association, announced today that the Association will hold its annual Open House party from 4 p.m. to midnight, Friday, Dec. 27, at the Veteran's Hall, 12909 Harper avenue, Detroit.

A buffet lunch and refreshments will be served to all. All broke-up salesmen and members of allied professions are cordially invited to attend this party.

Some of the residents in the Millington area in the Park want that rank for the youngsters and are planning on doing something about it despite the action of the Park Commission in holding plants for a rank as a recent lot there.

Classification also will be accepted until Monday at 10 a.m.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

A Merry Christmas

On Christmas Day we repeat the old familiar greeting that, each year, in some mystic way rings fresh and true

"Merry Christmas." Like such words as "hello" and "good-by", there really isn't anything else to say that pulls at our heartstrings as do these old dear words.

Merry Christmas—to the littlest ones who skip downstairs in the gray dawn to explore their stockings and the wondrous tree and to look at Christmas with the special radiance of youth

Merry Christmas—to father who'll strain a point any day to give us all the things we want

Merry Christmas—to mother who really calls the tune for the holidays and does the planning and pulling together

Merry Christmas—to the butcher, the baker, the candlestick-maker, not to mention all those who sold us shoes and ships and sealing wax

Merry Christmas—to dear friends far and near who've sent us greetings and gifts

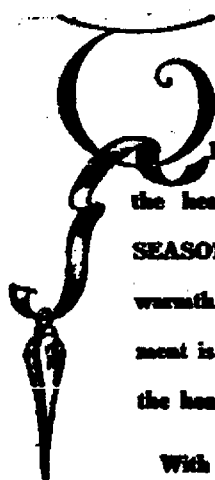

Merry Christmas—to the droppers-in who come with holiday cheer and friendship

Merry Christmas—to myself, for that matter. But then we feel pretty sure that we'll have one for we've put so much work and excitement and loving getting-ready-into-it.

The word "chiffonier" comes from the French word for "rag gatherer" according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

These days an excuse for a girl to say she can't get married, as the woods are full of single men, asserts a Census Bureau official. Come out of hiding in those woods, you cowards, and give the predatory females a sporting chance to catch you.

HERE is no restraint in the heartiness of this year's SEASON'S GREETINGS—the warmth of peace and contentment is everywhere.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

(Editor's Note)

Copy of the following letter addressed to Norbert Neff, Clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe, from the Board of County Canvassers of the County of Wayne was sent to the editor of The Review.

The letter reads as follows: Dear Mr. Neff:

Re: City of Grosse Pointe Precinct No. 1

Our recent re-count of the above precinct showed a registration of 4,374 with 2,944 people voting.

The ballot boxes were properly locked and sealed and the bundles of ballots were properly wrapped, tied and sealed, and the re-count showed but six ballots uninitialed.

Having in mind this precinct is equal to six normal precincts, this board wishes to commend you for the splendid work performed by your inspectors.

Very truly yours, Board of County Canvassers

Marguerite A. Montgomery, Philip J. Neudeck, Frank C. Padzieski.

Ed. Note: Copy of the following letter addressed to the mayor and council of the City of Grosse Pointe was sent to the Editor of The Review by James N. McNally, concerning the recount of the ballots for county prosecutor.

Your community should be congratulated in the manner of the tabulation and correct canvassing of votes. I am informed by my challengers that for accuracies and all-around general appearances your voting boxes were the best observed during the entire recount.

Credit should be given to your Clerk, Norbert Neff, and my hearty congratulations to Ed West and his fine group of election workers who directed and were responsible for the fine showing.

For your kind consideration, I shall always be grateful, and wishing you all the joys and happiness during the years to come, I remain

Sincerely yours, agd. James N. McNally

Editor's note: the following letter from James N. McNally was sent to the editor of The Review by Mr. McNally.

Dear Mr. Neff:

The writer wishes to thank you and the entire Township Board for the fine election officials that were appointed by your constitutional Board.

When you take into consideration that in a 12,000 vote cast my net loss over that number of ballots was minus three, it speaks the highest for your honorable body and for the officials who worked so hard during the election.

Sincerely yours, James N. McNally

Trombly School News

On Tuesday, Dec. 17, the 2A and 4th grades presented a Christmas play, "The Prophecy Fulfilled." The characters in the play were Joseph played by John

McCabe; Mary, Marcia Murphy; King Herod, David Reimer; his guards, Walter Eversman and Wendel Faulk; Priest, Bobby McCabe; Scribe, Robert Bell; attendant, Peter McKee. Angels were portrayed by Patsy Miller, Marjorie Hoye and Judy Grady.

Shepherds were Robert Schrieber, Nelson Sherbourne, and Thomas White and the Three Wise Men were Jerry Tobeler, Bruce Rockwell, and Frank Crane. The narrator, G. H. Hoffman related the events in the life of Christ.

The remainder of the children in these grades made up the chorus which sang many Christmas songs.

This play was under the direction of Olga Martin, Bette J. Craver and Mae Fuller.

The parents who attended enjoyed the program as it had such of the true Christmas spirit. The play retold the story of the birth of Christ and His message to the world.

The 5th and 6th graders of Trombly School presented a play, "Christmas Eve with St. Francis," written by the Department of English classes. The time was the Thirteenth Century.

The scene opened with St. Francis and the Monks on the way to Greccio. Ernest Nigg was the part of the Narrator, Joe Lens played St. Francis, Ronald Nelson, Bill Morrison, Norman Soper and David McKee were the Monks.

The second scene showed St. Francis inspired by the Shepherds with Gretchen Schroeder, Jean Leete and Merwyn Keyes as the shepherds.

The climax of the play came in the third scene with Don MacPartland as St. John and the illegals chosen from the 5th and 6th grades in the courtyard of St. John's Palace in Greccio. They were worshipping the baby Jesus in the manger as St. Francis retold the Christmas story.

High points of the evening were a solo by Frances Crowley and Jesus' Lullaby sung by Cynthia Martin, Mary Alice Zamboni and Terry Kuhn.

Best Books Reviewed

By WALTER HESS
Out on a limb. By Louise Baker. McGraw-Hill Book Co. New York. 213 pp. 1936. $2.00.

LIFE OF AN AMPUTEE
At the tender age of eight, Louise Baker took her first, last, and only whirl on a bicycle. Being evidently a daring individual, she navigated a friend's vehicle to the peak of a tempting hill, and with her feet changing helplessly above the pedals, she flew down the grade, screaming her delight as she went.

She swerved around the corner at the bottom of the hill, and smashed herself and the neighboring boy's bicycle into an automobile, at the wheel of which sat a man and a woman was learning how to drive.

Ten days later Louise Baker awoke in a hospital, without, as she puts it, the "orthodox number of legs." Her right was missing.

You may think that this review has spoken of a tragedy in too light a language; that Louise Baker's misfortune is nothing to be dealt with humorously.

And then you should also expect that Louise Baker's autobiography, Out on a limb, would be only a good deal of sentimental reminiscence for your snigger moods. Such is definitely not the case. Not having read her previous book, Party Line (in best seller also), I was surprised at how sprightly she attacks the bicycle incident... almost as if the affair was not a tragedy at all, but merely another youthful experience.

... IF YOU HAD TWO FEET
And, speaking candidly, Louise had no reason after conquering her first, natural fear of crutches, to lament for less—unless you are inclined to think that roller skating, swimming, dancing, tennis-playing, roasting about in open Arizona air, and other sufficiently vigorous activities, are marks of a handicapped invalid. That's the kind of life she led, doing all the things that normal people do, and having more fun at them than most any other person with the orthodox number of limbs ever had.

And besides, what could she have put in her autobiography says she. If she had two feet with these feet she couldn't have enjoyed herself more. The urge to conquer her handicap (but she hated that word!) led her into experiences which two-legged mortals seldom meet.

These experiences, strung loosely together in a volume that makes no pretense to being anything more than a friendly chat, make Out on a limb unusual, though not important reading.

You may balk a little when you turn the first pages of the book. But one thing is sure: that by the time you reach page 213, you'll like Louise Baker a lot. She's generally funny, interesting to the end of her crutches, and one of the few writers we know of who can use the pronoun "I" fifty times in a page and still sound modest. It must be her personality.

RADIO NEWS AND VIEWS

By JIM HENRY
Detroit, the city where many network broadcast are sponsored and too few originate, will again become an original point for a large concert program that local audience will have an opportunity to see as well as hear.

Henry H. Reichhold, President of the Radio-Hill Club and the Musical Digest magazine, will present a new Sunday evening hour from 8 to 9 o'clock with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under direction of eminent Franz Traver. It will premiere Jan. 10 over the ABC network.

The program will originate from the Detroit Music Hall over station WXYZ. Approximately 1,000 Detroiters will have the opportunity to be in the audience each Sunday, but the method of distributing tickets is still under consideration.

When Ford was sponsoring its Sunday Evening Hour, an average of 30,000 requests were received each week for the 1,000 seats.

An unusual radio trade show is that Reichhold, who sponsors the symphony hour, also owns the Music Hall as well as the Detroit Symphony of 98 men.

Well known as a lover of good music, Reichhold recently purchased "Musical Digest," a magazine catering to symphonic tastes.

"Our Sunday Evening Hour program," he said, "will attempt to bring the concert hall directly to radio. There will be no commercial breaks to interrupt the orchestra. Neither, as has been the case in many previous series of serious music programs, will the standard classical works be cut and mangled in an attempt to cram them into radio time."

"Instead, the program will be built directly for the millions of people who want great music under the best possible conditions. We will bring them that music at home."

ABC was very happy to add Reichhold's hour to its family of classical music. With the Boston Symphony, the Metropolitan Opera, and now the Detroit Symphony on its coast-to-coast net, the net is in good position to do some legitimate home-programming to let everyone know the big ABC music van is coming.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU!

So many rumors have been flying about Christmas gifts that certain kids just had to drum up entertainment to keep themselves busy so they wouldn't snooze before the eventful hour of Santa's coming.

Heading the list was the CHRISTMAS CONCERT on Wednesday night at Grosse Pointe High, which used the combined voices of students to entertain the interest crowd.

Among the selections of the junior chorus were "When the Winter Sun" and an old French carol, "What Child is This." Others included "The Coventry Carol," "Oh Holy Night," "O Sanctus," "Twas the Night Before Christmas" and "Toyland." ANNE PACKER was the accompanist.

During intermission the orchestra played "Angelus," by Massenet and "Comatina" by Clementi.

The senior high chorus the A capella choir blended their voices in a very beautiful processional. Accompanist was DOUG KRECHER who played his own arrangements of Silent Night and DECK THE HALLS, which gave the sound of a quaint music box.

Soloists included BETTY BRADY, MARION BLACKMORE, MARGARET RYTT, IRAN COLLINSON, LAURA COTTER, FRANK KNOFF AND FAY PANKOW.

The BOLO family really entertained BOB and RAY'S friends in a big way on Friday night when they gave a dinner party at TURNER'S. Snowman place cards and a centerpiece of bells and holly lent an air of Christmas to the whole affair.

The girls were presented with white carnations and white carnations and white carnations. Among the many there Tommy Shover, Phil McKee, Jack Reich, Dick Cell, Pat Van de Velde, Mary Granger, Dick Nightingale Dick Gallagher, Jim Loman, Gerry Rowland, Rose Mary Roe, Dick Ferguson and Tom Arthor.

JACK FIVE also served a dinner to Sally Andrus, Pete Van Osdol, Frits Bloy, Barb Orphal, Carroll Grylla, Lloyd Murray, "Marry" Wetherbee Annie Candler, Gary Langseth, June Moffett, Bill Hester and Jim Vrooman.

The feast took place at the DAC, where the kids danced after dinner and then returned to JACK'S apartment for cokes. Using PAT DAY'S house, CYNTHIA BLEAN and GERRY QUIRK combined their efforts to give a tea for the entire 123 class. Punch, tea, cookies, sandwiches, candy and nuts headed the list of refreshments.

A few of those invited were Heana Lark, Pat Ruth, Sue Johnson, Mary Lutz, Sallie Stearns, Marilee O'Brien, Jess Fargusson, Mary Neel, Elsie Hewitt, Annie Davis, Lois Wilson, Bertha Davis, Verena Roberts, Sis Skan, Betty Townsend, Virginia Blake, Pat Gullberg, Yvonne Wegman, Dottie Lander, Sally Dalton, Gerry Morse, Marie Ballerina, Marilyn Smith, Bertha Guyre, Dolores Jackson, Diana DeSham, June Clemens, Barbara Oester, L'Amour Neeme and Dolores DeCoster.

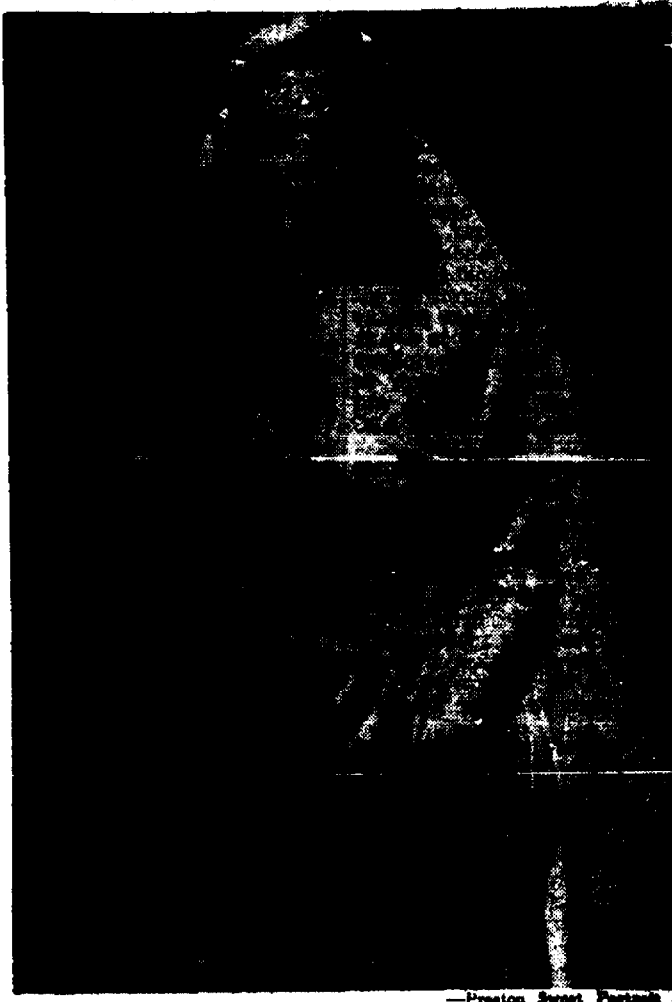

Serenading the Grosse Pointe Homes with Christmas carols on Sunday night was the group of kids MYRA HARN gathered together. The kids were clad in ski suits and carried sleigh bells down the streets. Dodging between snowfalls were Marian Blackmore, Betty Brady, Les Yeager, Sus Campbell, Helen Hanson, Sandy Malcolmson, Barb Stoerkal, Marge Stoerkal, Kay Kemnamp, Sally Valasick and Sallie Stearns.

After the singing they trekked back to MYRA'S for hot chocolate and wafers.

MISS MACKENZIE will honor PETE VAN OSDOL, who recently returned from Lawrenceville School, with a party tonight at the Pointe Hot dogs, coffee, potato chips and popcorn will be served.

And now I wish to take up a little space to wish all my faithful (?) readers the Season's Greetings and I hope you all enjoy your Christmas vacation to the utmost.

Bernadine Simonds Married

Mrs. John K. McEvoy

Bride Carries Mistletoe Bouquet

Bernadine Simonds was united in marriage to John K. McEvoy Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was performed in front of the French windows overlooking the garden at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Simonds of Lewiston road.

The groom is the son of Mrs. James McEvoy of Seattle, Wash., and the late Mr. McEvoy.

Wearing an ivory satin wedding gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline outlined in seed pearls, with the long sleeves also cuffed with seed pearls and a full skirt gathered at the sides, the bride was escorted down the staircase to the altar by her father.

Her full length ivory pointed dupont veil was etched in lace and held by a spray of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of mistletoe and green leaves.

Barbara Simonds was her sister's maid of honor in a love bird blue gown buttoned from neckline to waist. Her Juliet cap was of matching material and she carried long stemmed purple anemones.

Alice B. White came from Englewood, N. J., to be bridesmaid. Her gown was of Alpine rose velvet with a v-neckline and turned back revers. She wore a Juliet cap and carried pink poinsettias.

In a Juliet cap and bouffant pink taffeta gown was flower girl, Wendy Colby, daughter of the Frederick L. Colby, Jr. In her small basket were pink cyclamen buds, lavender primroses and African violets.

James McEvoy, Jr., was his brother's best man. The bride's brother, Ralph W. Simonds, Jr., and Richard K. Simonds were ushers.

For the home ceremony and reception Mrs. Simonds wore a two-piece blue and silver brocade gown with a darker blue skirt. Her navy blue crown hat was trimmed with light blue ostrich plumes and her corsage was of pink cyclamen.

Mrs. McEvoy chose a brown tulle gown accented with lime green. With it she wore a halo of pink and yellow orchids. When they return from their wedding trip to Woodstock, Vt., the couple will make their home in a garage apartment on Semholo Ave.

Bloomfield Girl to Wed Pointer

Engagement of Marjorie Booth of Bloomfield to Victor Charles Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Albert Koch of Cloverly road, was revealed at an openhouse Saturday at the home of Marjorie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth.

Two silver trees in the hallway told guests the romantic news. The couple's names attached to the top branches were joined with silver ribbons.

For the occasion the bride-elect chose a sparkling gown of gold lame complemented with Vic's orchid corsage.

Marjorie, a graduate of Kingswood and a senior at Smith College, made her debut in September at a dinner dance in her home.

Victor, a graduate of Cranbrook School, returned last spring after serving with the Navy in the Pacific.

Bright as the Star of Bethlehem are our wishes for a happy, joyous and wonderful Holiday season.

Marilyn Alice Wall Will Wed Bill Breer

Engagement of Marilyn Alice Wall and William Zeder Breer was told at a cocktail party Saturday evening in the Green Room of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The debutante guests and their escorts read the news at match box covers handed them when they arrived.

On the mantel, pictures of Marilyn and Bill framed in roses were further evidence of the romantic news.

Marilyn is the daughter of Albert F. Wall, of Devonshire Road, and Bill's parents are Carl Breer, of Windmill Point Drive.

For the party, the blond-haired miss chose a black velvet dress with a Branley collar embroidered in seed pearls. Her flowers were orchids.

Yule Party Held By Women Underwriters

The Women's Group of the Detroit Life Underwriters Association gave their annual Christmas Party at the Women's City Club.

A dinner was served with humorous Christmas gifts adding to the gaiety of the evening. Dorothy Reynolds, Provident Mutual, program chairman, was the guest of honor.

Marilyn was graduated from Grosse Pointe Sacred Heart convent and Miss Hewitt's in New York. She completed her studies at DuChesne School in New York.

Bill attended Detroit University School and the University of Michigan before entering the Army. He has resumed his studies at Michigan where he is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

The couple will be married Feb. 1. Bill will graduate from Michigan in the June class.

HAMMELS TO ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hammel of Sunningdale Drive have invited 100 guests for open house next Sunday. They will be hosts also at a costume party on New Year's eve.

Christmas trees and bright lights, ancient carols filling the chill air, and church bells ringing out the seasons glad tidings are all a part of Christmas, 1946. The days before were packed with festivities that had the teen-agers scurrying round in preparation.

The day before Santa Claus makes his annual visit, DOLORES BACKMAN has invited her friends over to her Lakeview home for a huge sledding session. After the cold outing, the girls will be refreshed with hot chocolate topped with marshmallows and hamburgers.

Festivities who will take spills in the snow include Nan Stahl, Vera Alford, Marty Mauer, Betty Newman, Jo Manning, Mary Ann Backman, Jeanne Athanase, Sue Johnson, Laura Lee, Fran Shaw, Eddie Carroll and Your Hi-Lite.

SALLY CURRAN also is doing the honors on Tuesday nite by hosting a gathering that should put Santa in his jolliest mood. First the Curran Christmas tree is to be decorated with bright bulbs and lights and then the Yuletide merry-makers start out to do a little caroling.

All the beautiful, old, traditional hymns of joy and cheer will be joined in by Dave Roth, Mike Eastman, Ha Ross, Jay Ann Fisher, Sis Thibault, Truman Fisher, Renay Thibault, Lee Curran, Jean Crowley, George Curran, Ann Armstrong, Kay Shepherd, Jean Armour, Bryan Brisson, Sue St. Amour, and Bob Curran. On their return to the Curran household, nourishment and hot chocolate will be provided to warm up the chilled carolers.

BERT MILLER'S party at his Berkshire home is one that will long be remembered by his friends. Bert's beautiful recreation room with its Christmas-y decoration was the scene of his memorable get-together. The guests were entertained by recorded holiday music while they made themselves comfortable in front of the huge fire.

After a while, we heard Mary Helen Verbeist (Bert's date), Bob Hildebrand and Jerry Hildebrand, Sally Murphy and Dick Wertheimer, Marion McLaughlin and Dick Hoskins, Ann Meathie and Joe Cavanaugh and twins Rosalie and Mary Ann who were escorted by Joe Pickerville and Chuck Ardello joining in on the choruses of those old favorites.

A luncheon party took place at ALDA MARIE CROW'S home on Saturday afternoon. A big Santa filled with gifts for the invited was the main item of decoration. After the delicious luncheon of chicken pie, olives, salad and ice cream and cake was disposed of, the gifts were presented. Gifts included perfume, a lapel pin, stationery, and hankies. Still later, the girls got in a few games of Bunko.

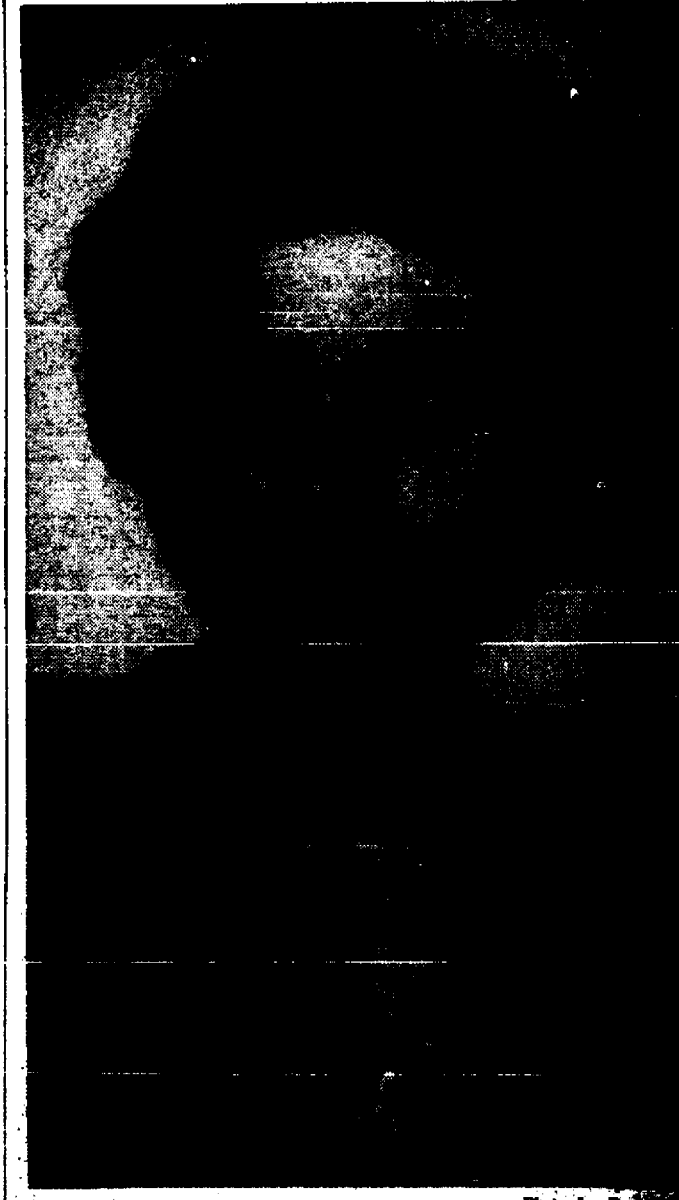

The grand prize winners were Pat and Mary Lou Thibeaux and Jean Krausman. The "booby" prize was taken by Mary Ann Hildebrand. Others in the afternoon of fun were Joan Beaupre, Betty Ann Huettnerman, Jean Kulka, and Alice Palmer.

On Friday nite, another group started out their evening with carols. They gathered at JUDY HENNEKE'S Merrivether home afterwards for a completely feminine get-together.

Friends and others were passed around to Carol Stahl, Anne Dungan, Gerry Kistner, Nancy Downey, Pat Gant, Sally McKernan, Mary Ann Burdick, Jo Camacho, Marilyn Smith, Jane Alford, Pat Alford Kay, Catherine, Elie Wade, Ruth Van Thom, Mary Vozari, Betty DePaula and Mary Ann Stahlbrober, who were also participants in the caroling.

And now before closing, Your Hi-Lite would like to wish you all a very MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR. So till next week, it's VALENTINE FOR NOW!!!

Santa Claus Tells Engagement News

Jean Campbell

A life-sized cardboard Santa Claus holding a large imitation diamond ring in his hand with a tag on it reading "To Jean from 'Bear'" told of the engagement of Jean Campbell to Arthur Compton Beaumont Jr. The betrothal was announced at an eggnog party Monday evening by Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence D. Campbell, at their Harvay road home.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beaumont, Dody and Ted Thomas, and Sheldon Strong, Michigan, and Howard Walton; and Louis Williams. The table was decorated with a large centerpiece of white-tipped holly, red and green.

Jean wore a dress of wool background with a tian print; bolero style, accented with coral blouse and sash. Her hair was white.

Curtis Zieglers Breakfast Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis T. Ziegler, of Bishop road, entertained 80 of their friends at a buffet breakfast at the D.A.C. on Sunday.

Yuletide greens decorated the ladies' dining room of the club for the festivity, with arrangements of greens on the small tables at which guests were seated. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hughes, the E. J. Frawleys, the Rufus Clarks, the Cage W. Coopers, the Leo J. Fitzpatrick, the Gilbert H. Wiedens, the Thomas P. Archers, the Gerald Hahn, and Mr. and Mrs. Leigh B. Middleditch. Others were Mr. and Mrs. William C. Rand, Jr., the W. Leslie Millers, Dr. and Mrs. MacKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jacobs.

Highlights from Hollywood

Add Humble Beginnings: Young, a young actor who now on the Warner Bros. roster, once was a night clerk in a small town hotel. . . . Hutton home from the hospital with her new baby. . . . Mary Pickers, one of the lovely young stars in "The Time, The Place and The Girl" is either engaged or mightily close to being wearing one of those "My Intentions" . . .

Holiday Week Is Big Show Week At The Colony

The management of the Colony Theatre, 16535 Mack avenue has scheduled a full week of holiday entertainment, beginning with a Christmas Day Matinee at 2 p.m.

The Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday show will be Roy Rodgers and Gabby Hayes in "Along Navajo Trail" plus the Disney full-length feature "Make Mine Music."

Friday and Saturday will be "Smoky" with Fred McMurray and Anne Baxter, plus "They Made Me a Killer" with Robert Lowrey and Barbara Britton.

Sunday and Monday, Ray Milland is co-starring with Olivia DeHavilland in "The Well Groomed Bride" plus John Garfield and Geraldine Fitzgerald in "Nobody Lives Forever."

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will see Phyllis Calvert and Stewart Granger in "Madonna of the Seven Moons" plus "Down Missouri Way" with Martha O'Driscoll and William Wright.

Raymond Scott Bringing Band to Music Hall

The holiday season is scheduled still another top-attraction, which is coming in to Music Hall as a direct response to the requests of hundreds of young folk who will be home from schools and colleges for the Christmas vacation.

On the very night after Christmas, Thursday, Dec. 26, that very gifted composer—bandleader Raymond Scott will bring his orchestra to Music Hall . . . to prove that he has something new and revolutionary up his musical sleeve.

Doing something revolutionary in modern music is never a accident with Raymond Scott, who is known for his knack of getting into a musical groove—and as one who is constantly seeking new paths to to be invited in the past, in order to ward off mental decay, will be available again on prescription.

started by this short-winded message: "Put on the coat, it's dear. I'll be home by six!" . . . was Squadron Leader Wayne Morris, the Warner star, talking to his wife, who has an asexual talkie at home. . . .

Noelalgic note: Inverness, Pa., parents of Shirley Geer, who is now at Warner Bros. studio to make her debut as a show girl in "My Wild Irish Rose," wouldn't consent to a career for their lovely daughter until she solemnly promised to attend church every Sunday.

Certain wosome lines of Warner Bros. current romantic drama, "Night Unto Night" has to be spoken by Ronald Reagan after he scratched a match to light his pipe and before the flame got close enough to his fingers to burn them.

After several rehearsals Mr. Reagan stamped off to the studio infirmly mumbling something about "sadistic scenarists!" His thumb and forefinger were painfully scorched.

Though specializing as a chilling menacer on the screen, Sydney (the fat man) Greenstreet has the gentlest kind of a hobby in private life.

New Year's Party At East Warren

The cocktail lounge of East Warren Recreation will be the scene for one of those rip-roaring, old-fashioned parties on New Year's Eve.

Activities are scheduled to start around p.m. and last until around 4 a.m., and the bowling management, bartenders and waitresses plan to go all out in making it a grand evening for their guests.

There will be a minimum charge per couple, a buffet lunch and dancing. Jack Thayer will be on hand with his hilarious style of emceeing. Jock Spence will be at the organ.

Grandma Could Make Soap

If you are having trouble getting soap these days or paying higher prices for it when you can get it, you should have a talk with your grandmother. She knew how to make her own soap like you know how to make pancakes, and without much bother.

But if she doesn't remember, here is just about the way she made it and the way you can make it today at the cost of a cent or two a cake. All you need is a can of good quality lye, such as Lewis', Eagle, American Indian Head, or Dixie, which you can get at your corner grocery store, and six pounds of clean grease, lard or tallow.

Slowly empty the contents of the lye can into two and a half pints of cold water in an enamelware or iron vessel (never use aluminum ware). Stir until the lye is dissolved. It will heat up. Then let it cool to room temperature (about 70 degrees). Then melt the six pounds of fat and let it cool sufficiently so that you can hold your hand in it (about 100 degrees) or until the fat offers resistance to a spoon. Add the cooled lye solution to the grease in a small, steady stream with slow, even stirring. Pouring in the lye too fast or stirring too vigorously is apt to cause a separation of ingredients.

Continue the stirring until the mixture becomes thick and syrupy, then pour it into a mold. A wooden or heavy cardboard box lined with damp cloth is best. Cover this with a blanket or carpet and let it set in a warm room for several days, then cut it up into the size cakes you want. Age 10 days or two weeks.

One important thing — your fats must be clean. Salt and other impurities can be removed by boiling the grease in water and skimming it off the top after it cools. The soap you get from this recipe will be suitable for toilet, dish washing or laundry use. If desired it can be perfumed or colored. This mixture makes about nine pounds of soap.

Lenox Phones Will Change to New Exchange

Commencing April 8 all Lenox telephone numbers will be changed to Valley 2, the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. announced.

The statement from the company is as follows:
Technical improvements in dial service will, within the next few years permit direct dialing to most suburban points around Detroit and, at a little later period, to other points within the United States.

To accomplish this it will be necessary to make changes in certain of the telephone prefixes now in use in Detroit. However, because of the amount of work involved, it will be inadvisable to make all the changes at one time.

Accordingly, starting with the next Detroit Telephone Directory we are going to change the names of three of our central offices.

Lenox is one of the offices to be changed at that time. The Lenox prefix will be changed to Valley 2 and the rest of the telephone number will remain the same; for example, the number Lenox 1599 will be changed to Valley 2-1599.

Your telephone number is one of those to be changed because it has a Lenox prefix. Effective with the start of delivery of the next Detroit Directory, now planned for April 8, 1947, use of your new Valley 2 number will begin.

For some time after the Lenox name is discontinued, calls to the old Lenox numbers will be transferred automatically to the new Valley 2 numbers.

Wassail Bowl Scottish Custom

The Wassail bowl goes around in Scotland — and elsewhere — at New Year's time.

The origin of the custom is the best of antiquity. It is a bowl of ale, sugar, spices, sweetened wine was added by hosts who could afford it. Apples floated on top of the concoction, sometimes called "lamb's wool" or the "old man's beard."

The poorer classes carried a bowl decorated with ribbons around the neighborhood, begging that it be filled, so they, too, might enjoy the Wassail.

MANY LANGUAGES

The Bible was first written down in Hebrew and Greek, and England came to deeper knowledge of Christianity through a Latin translation of it. The alphabet is Roman, the numbers are Arabic, and the ideals are drawn primarily from Palestine.

The Conservation Department has decided to install a trap field at Pointe Mouille at the request of the Wayne County Sportsman's Club and the Trenton Sportsmen's Club.

Bethany will observe the post-Christmas and New Year holidays with services of worship on Sunday, December 29, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Day.

Vicar Walter Riese' theme on the Sunday after Christmas, following the thought of Rev. Oswald Riese' Christmas Day sermon, "CHRISTMAS IS IN THE HEART," will be "CHRISTMAS PART II," based on St. Luke 2, verses 15-20. Services begin at 10:30 A.M. The Vicar will preach again on New Year's Eve, December 31, in the service beginning at 8:00 p.m. "TIME" is the title of Riese' meditation. His text will be taken from Psalm 90.
 Rev. Oswald Riese has chosen as his theme for New Year's Day, "BE OF GOOD CHEER," a sermon on St. Matthew 9, verse 20. New Year's Day worship will be held on January 1, at 10:30 in the morning.

Christmas Now and Then

"Emma, with your long hair—keep away from that Christmas tree!" And Emma, of the long curls and last summer's fluff dress, stood back, for once, while a helpful male lighted the candles of the Christmas tree.

Yesterday's Christmas was a personal and not a civic affair. It didn't mean a Santa Claus parade, or a Community Christmas tree or a dozen different Santas in the stores. Christmas was an all-embracing family occasion, and a warm home was the stage where each assumed his favorite role.

Mamma fixed the turkey. Papa hitched Duke to the "buggy" and went into the country with the boys for mistletoe. Aunts made candy openly, and doll clothes secretly, while Uncle worked late in tool sheds.

But unfortunately these were often an unmissy atmosphere in the gateway of the holiday. Those lovely little candles among green fir branches always caused damage in someone's home. Between Christmas and New Year's the local papers carried the stories. And it was always just the hand-made lanterns that went up in flames.

Even with the electric Christmas tree lights of today, many fire hazards must be recognized during the holidays. Many persons smoke than in other days.

Gorgeous cellophane and tissue paper wrappings are the inevitable accompaniment. Fireplaces and wastebaskets quickly fill with the residue of the holidays — papers, string, stubs, string, and dried pine or holly.

So, be careful this Christmas.

DP's Celebrate Last Christmas Under UNRRA

In more than 300 refugee camps across Europe, some 800,000 displaced persons — many of them alone in the world and all of them still far away from their homes as a result of the war — are celebrating the second Christmas of peace.

These "displaced persons," the remaining few of some 10,000,000 people who were caught in the backwash of the war, are former slaves of the Germans, the persecuted minorities and innocents who fled from the destruction of battle. They have been depending for their survival on international relief, administered by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA).

UNRRA, the 48-Nation agency which has borne the brunt of relief work in the non-enemy countries of Europe and Asia for more than three years, is celebrating its last Christmas in Europe. At the end of this year, its European program will come to an end.

Permanent United Nations agencies will replace UNRRA, which was designed only for temporary duty in helping people help themselves. UNRRA's work in China, however, will continue until April 1.

UNRRA's supply pipelines furnished the poverty-stricken peoples of Europe with food, clothing, shoes, medical and sanitation supplies, agricultural machinery, livestock and seeds and industrial and transportation equipment. UNRRA D. P. Camps was time. The old danger of candle is largely over but new fire dangers can make the Holiday Season a time of tragedy.

were established for those whose entire resources had been wiped out. As rapidly as possible, the D. P.'s were resettled so that they could begin independent life anew.

UNRRA's operations in a new area began with emergency relief to keep people alive. Relief was followed with rehabilitation measures so that they could stand alone.

As soon as military conditions permitted, UNRRA's activities swiftly accelerated. For instance, some 37,000 tons of supplies were shipped by April, 1945, but a year later, the cumulative total had reached 9,793,000 tons.

UNRRA's dynamic Director-General, Fiorello H. LaGuardia, summed up the agency's work in these words:

"The total program of UNRRA up to December, 1946, will be $2,937,000,000. That is our total program and there isn't any more. The fact that we end on December 31, 1946, does not mean that shipments not yet completed in the program will cease. We will end all our procurement, all our buying by the end of the year, but the shipments that are in the pipeline or not yet shipped will be delivered to each of the receiving countries."

When the pipelines are emptied, the agency that U. S. President Harry S. Truman called "the proving ground for the capacity of the United Nations to work together to relieve suffering, prevent starvation, and restore hope to the people who have borne and resisted fascist invasion" will go out of existence, to make way for UNRRA's permanent machinery adapted to the long-range needs of peace.
