"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

Looking at 1947

There is a saying, or perhaps it is a song, which goes something like this: "We've come a long way to get here."
That's the way we like to think about this community. Certainly the workers, bankers, professional men, merchants and this newspaper—with its subscribers and advertisers have come a long way together.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Retailing Accepts Its Responsibilities

The attitude of the progressive retail industry toward the public is well illustrated in a report made by a committee of the National Association of Food Chains. It recommended that all its members consider and adopt a series of suggestions, of which the most important are:
1-The responsibility of public good goes with operating a business.
2-Food chains should know and understand other retailers of all types, compete fairly with all.

"We're just a very happy middle-aged couple." -The Duke of Windsor, re, life today with the Duchess.
"Thank you judge, justice is wonderful." -Mrs. Minnie Binstock, 65 after Judge John J. Griffin had collected $25 in courtroom donations to replace her stolen radio, originally purchased after years of saving from her small monthly pension.

DEAR FATHERLAND, DEPT. QUIETLY, by Margaret Bourke-White, with Photographs, Simon & Schuster, New York, 375 pages, $5.

BEAUTIFUL HISTORY
Should any author attempt, in some of the twenty years, to write an interpretive history of the world conflict from which we have recently emerged, it would have little difficulty doing so by reference and source material.

His most tiresome task, probably would be to sift all the immense literature that has been written about World War II, separate the wheat from the chaff, and then, finally, begin the study in earnest. It would be no small feat, for the record, I think, would be equal to the labor involved.

Well, future historians will be able to do just that when they have read DEAR FATHERLAND. It will be their inheritance from the men and women like Margaret Bourke-White, who lugged her camera and lenses into Germany at the heels of the conquering American soldiers.

RUIN AND REVOLT

She arrived just in time to photograph the last standing towers before they, too met the fate which Herr Hitler bequeathed to them.

Dus Vaterland was breathing its final weak breath as an organized government. Its once haughty Nazi leaders were preparing — or making use of — their capsules of poison. General George Patton was hammering at the Rhine. And everything else seemed fit for the lens of the author.

In the Editor's Mail Box
Dear Sir:
As the Holders come again we want to tell you how much we appreciate your confidence and cooperation. Your friendship has been largely responsible for having made our work in 1946 pleasant and productive.

It is our earnest desire to sincerely thank you and to wish you a Merry Christmas together with the hope that you will find much success and happiness in the coming year.

"Step aside," says the Cherub 1947 to Father Time, and it's New Year's, with its gayety, its brightness, and its new hope. Which reminds us! You have been very liberal with your patronage in 1946, and we are very grateful indeed. May the New Year be for you an exceptionally happy one.

A Message to ALL COAL USERS
DON'T LET current conditions tempt you into a hasty decision to change from coal to a less satisfactory type of heating. Coal has been the principal source of heat in this country since we became a nation and will undoubtedly remain so by reason of its many superior advantages.
The importance of coal as a fuel and as a vital industrial factor has not lessened through the years, though ailments and temporary difficulties attendant upon its expanding use have occasionally frightened the timid.
For example, calamity-howlers 50 years ago were predicting that coal would be superseded and outmoded as a fuel, at a time when there were not quite 125 million tons per year mined in the United States. This year, despite the lamentable stoppages, there will be better than 500 million tons of coal mined. That doesn't look as though coal were "on its way out" as a fuel, does it?
One of the best arguments for the tremendous superiority of coal is the nationwide concern felt when there is momentary interference with coal production. If there were a satisfactory substitute, this deep concern, from the top reaches of government to the smallest individual user, would hardly be necessary.
Current difficulties will be overcome as in the past and you will again be able to obtain the quantity, quality and type of coal you want when you want it. Have confidence in your Government and in the 5 billion dollar Coal Industry in general, upon which over 2 million people depend for their livelihood. Remember that these are powerful friends you have as a coal user who will exert maximum effort to guarantee your supply.
The automotive industry has been beset by work stoppages and lack of materials, which made it impossible for you to pursue normal car-buying habits and even left many of you completely without cars. Yet you haven't turned to the horse and buggy, nor to vehicles propelled by jet power or solar energy. You're continuing to use automobiles, old or new, and are "swearing out" a new car, because automobiles are the most practical and satisfactory form of transportation.
Be as logical and as fearless in your decisions about your heating problem. Don't make a hasty, ill-considered decision you will later regret. Take advantage of the improved power devices for better and more economical use of coal, such as dynamically engineered furnaces, automatic stokers, heat controls and other advances. Remember that more than 200 retail coal merchants in the Detroit area will be always stand ready to supply you with the coal you want.
Stick to COAL... the safest, and most economical fuel yet discovered.

Christmas Plants May be Kept Healthy All Winter Long

Whether you received a poinsettia or another kind of plant for Christmas, you probably are wondering right now how to keep it looking fresh and healthy.

C. E. Wildon, research professor of horticulture at Michigan State college, says that plant care is a simple matter of watering and fertilization.

If the question of when to water the plant bothers you, tap the side of the pot. If the sound is dull the plant does not need water. A hollow sound means the plant needs a thorough watering. All plants are better if watered with rain water.

Poinsettias suffer from wide changes of temperature and from dry air. Most plants should have air with a relative humidity of 40 to 70 percent. You may need additional pans of water if the one in your heating system is not sufficient. Poinsettias are also sensitive to gas fumes.

Cyclamens like fresh air and cool temperatures. When in flower they need plenty of moisture. You may need to water it twice a day—ordinary well water will do. As a precaution against mites, wash a mothball into the surface soil around the plant.

Asclepias do best in cool temperatures—about 20 degrees lower than room temperature. Never water them with hard or acidified softened water. Every two or three months use water treated with a pinch of slaked lime or a pinch of acid to the quart. In May you can set it in a cool, shady place out-of-doors.

Christmas begonias require frequent watering until the flowers drop. Then allow them to dry off gradually for two or three months.

Grant Baker of Grosse Pointe is seen at the controls of the plane which he flies for Pan American World Airways. Baker, whose home is at 896 Lincoln road, is a junior pilot on the Pacific-Alaska division of Pan America. He first joined PAA as a junior pilot on Sept. 27, 1943 in Miami, Florida. Baker is a graduate of Michigan State College and there his fraternity was Delta Sigma Phi. He is a member of the Air Line Pilots Association. His hobbies are fishing, and believe it or not, flying.

Non-Voters Face Loss of Registration

About 250 electors in Grosse Pointe City who failed to vote within the past two years have had their registration cancelled and more than 750 others are liable to have their names removed from the list of registered voters, Norbert P. Neff, City Clerk, has announced.

Mr. Neff's statement warning voters to make sure they remain on the list is as follows:

Section 22 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1945, No. 201, requires the City Clerk to "revise and correct the registration records as follows: During the month of Dec. in each year he shall examine the registration records and shall suspend the registration for all voters who have not voted within a period of two years..."

Examination of the registration records of the 4,374 registered electors (the largest single voting precinct in Michigan) revealed that more than one thousand electors had failed, for some reason or other, to vote within the two year period ending in December, 1945, according to Norbert P. Neff, City Clerk.

Accordingly, each such voter was sent the card "Notice of Suspension of Registration," and, up to the present date, about 250 such electors had returned the stamped, self-addressed card: Application for Continuation of Registration, required by Law to be sent to the Clerk if such voter desired to have his registration continued in effect.

Returned of such application card is required to be made within thirty days after receipt of the same by the elector. However, discretion is used in handling the cancellations and arbitrary action is unusual, the voter being given every opportunity to reinstate himself upon the active records.

Every effort is made to keep the registration records in proper shape, but, in a municipality having a high percentage of tenancy or rental dependency it is exceedingly difficult to properly maintain records which unfortunately many electors consider casually—if at all—of state or national importance.

When a specific voter has failed to vote within the two year period, the City Clerk will determine of their right to registration and for voting school elections. Does not qualify electors for voting any local state or national election. Proper understanding and awareness of this fact would reduce a great deal of existing confusion.

Residents of the City having any question in mind as to their voting status at any time are invited and urged to consult the City Clerk at 5800, or personal application, at 17150 Maxmear avenue.

Woods Cubs 290 Enjoy Party

At the Christmas party of Cub Pack No. 290, Grosse Pointe Woods at Faxon School there was a huge stand which stood row after row of glistening toys.

A short time ago they were rusty, bent and minus a wheel or two. For the past seven weeks their slogan has been "New toys from old" and the major part of each den meeting has been devoted to repairing and repainting them so that they could be sent to the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic, an affiliate of Sigma Gamma Clinic and the Detroit Community Fund.

Also under the tree were magazines, books and gifts collected for the United States Marine Hospital. The party was a grand success. The entertainment program was highlighted by the performance of a group from the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club.

The cast consisted of Lois Banta, soloist; Donna Jean, doll; Bobby Joe, Jack-in-the-box; Jody Evans, tin soldier; Nancy Gregory, May Gheche, Baton twirling; and Lois Arnold, Meredith Arnold, Crystal Gregory and Phyllis Campbell, dancers. Mrs. Liddle Den 12 were outstanding in depicting the Nativity Scene.

Mrs. John Riehl led the Pack in singing carols, and Walter Thome again came through with a fine job as "Santa Claus" in distributing gifts to the Cubs and their younger brothers and sisters.

During the regular meeting Den 11 won the yelling contest with Lauren Wilds, Scoutmaster of Troop 290, acting as visiting judge. Den 12 again took the attendance flag.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

By PAULA BRAUER

With the bustling holidays about to disappear, teen-age societies have colored their final week. At hand is a year which promises to be a shining one as far as the social life is concerned.

Early Christmas morn MARY ANN BACKMAN gathered together some of her best friends and satisfied their appetites with a delicious breakfast of waffles, maple syrup, sausage and fruit cocktail.

The merry-makers included Jim Williams, Mary Lou Gouth and Nora Schweitzer and Shirley Williams and Cheri Cholera.

Friday was university night at the Detroit Yacht Club. The girls were covered with pennants representing colleges from all over the country. Soft music, fragrant scents and swifty forays all added to the dreamy atmosphere.

Waiting 'neath the colored lights were Joyce Alf 'n Ken Marshall, Henrietta Sutton 'n Bill Dale, Sally Curran 'n Truman Baker and Joan Weidman 'n George Sand.

Saturday also was the Christmas dance sponsored by the St. Paul High School Alumni Association at the Lockwood Club. This was the first project planned by the club since its re-organization.

Hot music and his orchestra put everyone in the mood for dancing.

Helping make the affair a success were Mary Ann West and Eugene Stein, De Backman and Bo Bry, Lottie Hyde and Nan Robinson (Glen Koenig and Warren Spacie, Betty Marchand and Bob Marshall, Martha Lou Mueser and Bill Ernie, Harriet Furten and Jim Backman, Shirley Alford and Jerome Gant, Jess Kennedy and Johnny Tamm, Mary Jane McCabe and Don Backman and Joan Theobalds and Bob Frazier.

Martha Lou Mueser was hostess at another one of the many holiday parties. She chose to entertain with a tea on Saturday afternoon when her best friends gathered at her home on Sanddown.

Helping in on the conversation which always plays a big part of any Christmas gathering were Carolyn Englehardt, Jean Allmaras, Nan Stahl, Debra Backman, Joe Maanline, Betty May, Jo Fritsch and Yvonne Hillier.

On Monday last week JOANNE KERSCHENROCK and MARGY WICKWOOD shared honors at a party at Nancy's home on Washington road for all junior girls. Main events on the evening of fun were the bingo games and a huge magic show which thrilled the spectators. Seasonal decorations put everyone in a festive mood.

Now, to all the readers of "Hi-Lite" I would like to wish a happy and prosperous NEW YEAR and may you keep all those warm and beautiful memories during 1947.

It's The Egg Not The Cooking

When you prepare hard-boiled eggs for deviling and stuffing and the yolks end up too far off center, don't blame it on your cooking. J. M. Moore, Michigan State college extension poultry specialist, says the fault is that of the egg—or perhaps the person who failed to gather the eggs soon after laying.

That's one reason why poultrymen urge gathering of eggs three times a day. An egg, in a nest for four hours at 100 degree temperature and then not marketed for a week, may have a thin white by the time it is sold and used.

Auto Club Presses Campaign to Ban Young Drivers

Legislation to reduce the slaughter on Michigan highways by raising the minimum driver's license age from 14 to 16 years old is not aimed at curbing capable and qualified rural youths, Automobile Club of Michigan asserted.

According to Richard Harist, Auto Club general manager, the statewide motoring organization will spearhead the campaign to raise the minimum age to 16 in the 1947 legislative session, but will recommend that any amendment to the operator and chauffeur license law provide for conditional licensing of farm youths who must drive to school or to market.

Conditional licensing of farm youth under 16 years old would assume that applicants possessed the basic qualifications of a good driver and that necessity or public interest would be served, Harist said.

"There are two very sound reasons for differentiating between the city youth and the farm youth," Harist asserted. "First, the farm boy's driving of farm cars and other vehicles is highly important in these days of manpower shortages and the necessity for maximum farm production. Second, the farm boy, in the very nature of his rearing and everyday life, is 'older' than the city boy of corresponding age."

Although they represent a minority group — 10 per cent — and average only one-fifth the annual average mileage of more mature motorists, the driver under 16 years old is potentially 116 per cent more dangerous on the highways than motorists 45-50 years old, Auto Club maintains.

Principal arguments for banning many of the teen-agers are:

1.—There are 1,988,915 drivers in Michigan licensed by the Secretary of State. Of this number, almost 2,500 or 10 per cent are 14-15. (Only three other states permit 14 year olds to drive.)

2.—In 1941, the last representative year of unrationed mileage, this 10 per cent accounted for 311 out of 3,548 fatalities or 12.3 per cent of all traffic deaths in the state. Auto Club admits, however, that state police accident figures reveal a lower rate of fatalities for rural youths in the 14-15 age group than for urban youths.

3.—Since this ratio of fatalities to teen age drivers is 28 per cent above average, and AAA surveys show teen-agers drive 116 per cent more miles than any other group.

4.—Most youngsters between 14-16 years old are too young to possess basic good driving qualities such as experience, acceptance of responsibility, advanced social attitudes, caution and mature judgement.

5.—In a series of tests conducted with 7,000 drivers by AAA, the 14-15 group rated lower in emotional stability, strength of grip, muscular coordination, excitability and observation than any other group.

Ann Mitchell Bride of H.M. Campbell III

In a very fashionable wedding at St. Paul's on the lake shore, Sherman Mitchell and Ann Mitchell married at noon Friday.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Joseph J. Bohr and was witnessed by about 200 close friends of the two families, including members of the Spalden, Bonbright, Ford, Newberry, Warren, Seyburn, Tolstol, Douglas, Deming, Derrick, Joy, Zeder and Kelley families.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Mitchell of Ridge Road, and the groom is the son of Munroe Campbell of Lakeland avenue.

The bride's gown of mellow ivory satin was reminiscent of the Victorian era with its overskirt and bell sleeves of silk net. The deep bertha was of rose points lace embroidered in seed pearls and the same lace fashioned the cap which held her full-length tulle veil in place.

Ann carried a delicate sheaf of white spray orchids and gazer book. The two bridal attendants carried Christmas arrangements of ivy, mistletoe and holly branches. Christmas greens brightened the church.

John O'Keefe was her sister's matron of honor and Mrs. Francis C. Farwell II was the only other attendant.

Their gowns were light green and white, gathered flounces on the material forming bustles at the back. Their headpieces were made of dark green velvet and tied in bows at the front.

George L. Campbell was his father's best man and the ushers were William F. Bonbright, Sherman Mitchell, Douglas Campbell Jr., John Dykema and James Finkenstaedt.

At the Little Club breakfast Mrs. Mitchell greeted the guests wearing a cocoa brown crepe dress with yellow orchids. Her hat was made of filmy tulle of the same brown and gold.

Mrs. Campbell wore slim black tulle for the occasion, her matching hat lighted with pink spots.

They will make their home in Chicago.

Josephine Shepherd Becomes Bride

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude F. Stofflett, of Beeboldt Ave.

The bride's Hattie Carnegie candlelight satin gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline long skirt and a skirt cut on the bias.

Her full length veil fell to the end of the long train. It was caught to her head by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a spray of white orchids with her prayer book.

The attendants were gowned alike in aqua silk Jersey with aqua hats trimmed in bronze ostrich feathers. Their mainline muffs were in bronze.

Kathleen Shephard, the bride's sister and honor maid, pinned two green orchids to her muff. The maids were Isobel Hawley and Joan Loranger.

Edwin McCauley was best man and the ushers were Hasen Wilson, Egan Mallick, George Hammond, William Snyder and John Mitchell.

Mrs. Stofflett chose a purple sheer wool dress for her son's wedding. With it she wore a matching hat and a pink orchid.

For traveling to Fort Lauderdale the new Mrs. Stofflett wore a gray wool suit with a beaver collar, a beige hat, brown accessories, her beaver coat and an orchid corsage. They will live in Ann Arbor.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a capulet of satin and lace. The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white violets centered with a white orchid.

All the milk drivers of Greater Detroit have joined in the campaign to help the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation fight polio.

A paper collar with coin folder will be placed on milk bottles for delivery on routes Friday and Saturday, January 3 and 4. Customers will be asked to put their contribution in the folder and leave it with the empty bottles for their milkman to pick up on his next delivery.

When you sit down with your family and reflect on the joys of the holidays just past, take a moment to think of all the things during the past year that we have to be thankful for. Sure, maybe there have been some things that could have been better for you: but the good will more than blot out the bad. Then, let's give thanks that we live in a grateful nation — one that always helps those in distress.

Right now, there are thousands of children and grownups afflicted with this terrible disease, infantile paralysis. These victims are suffering the pain of affected muscles and are fighting to get well so that they may live normal lives without twisted bodies, braces or wheelchairs.

Sister Kenny and her new concept of treatment have brought new hope to those afflicted with polio. Her record is outstanding in recoveries: over 85 percent of all patients given her treatment at the Kenny Institute in Minneapolis have fully recovered, compared with the 15 percent under the former orthodox treatment.

Many fully-trained Kenny technicians are needed so that a clinic can be established right here in Michigan where the dread disease has been an all-around terror. This is where everyone of us can help.

Surely every family would gladly give $1.00 toward helping someone with polio to walk again.

State Innates Make Own Soap

The State of Michigan through the Department of Corrections keeps itself clean and saves taxpayers a substantial sum of money each year by its soap manufacturing activity.

Toilet soap, soap chips, floor wax, D. D. T. spray, and other soap products are manufactured in the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia by inmate labor and the finished products are used exclusively by various state institutions and agencies.

Keeping state agencies supplied with soap is a big job, calling for the use of tremendous amounts of many materials. Over 400,000 pounds of fat and oil, 70,000 pounds of caustic soda, 30,000 pounds of salt, 30,000 pounds of silicate of soda, and more than 100,000 pounds of powdered abrasives, silicates, phosphates, and other alkalies are expended annually.

Michigan State Industries, a division of the Department of Corrections, supervises the long involved process of soap manufacture. The animal fats and vegetable oils are carefully selected, blended, and treated.

Purity is assured by running the soap stock through a filter press. Finally comes the cooking process which consists of five separate operations and requires several days.

Civic Opera Art School Graduation Held

A unique graduation took place at Masonic Temple, the final examinations and awarding of diplomas to the young people of the Detroit Civic Opera Theatre Arts School.

Since Nov. 1, a class of 280 youngsters have been enjoying free training in voice and ballet in preparation for the much coveted jobs in the ten operettas presented by the Civic Light Opera Association of Detroit.

Every week-day night, these talented young people have received instruction from Dan Eakley in ballet dancing, or from Albert Hurley in voice training.

After weeks of work under these professional, a chorus of thirty and a ballet of twenty were selected at the "graduation" exercises.

As their examination, the corps de ballet performed in individual exhibitions and group dances. The chorus enacted the old Gilbert and Sullivan "Trial by Jury." At the end, the choices were made by Mr. Barrie O'Daniel, managing director and producer of the operettas.

Not only were these young people selected solely from try-outs offered all Michigan youth, but the winners will start immediately after New Year and continue until April 13 on full professional pay for work of this character.

January will be devoted to intensive instruction for the ballet and chorus choirs of the first three operettas... "Firefly" the week of February 10-16 followed by "Rio Rita," Feb. 16-16 and "Countess Maritza" the week of Feb. 17.

By the time "Firefly" is playing, the young people will be rehearsing "Desert Song," the fourth operetta. And so it goes all through the ten weeks. The other six operettas are "My Fairyland," "Vagabond King," "The Merry Widow," "The Merry Widow," "The Merry Widow," and "The Merry Widow."

Barrie O'Daniel, who has just completed the production of a new operetta, is now on his way to Los Angeles to produce another new operetta.

Got any of these on your Christmas tree?

WE HOPE there'll be a lot of presents on your tree this year—everything your family asked for!

But what about the things they want, and didn't ask for?

What about that trip around the world for your wife; those years at college for your children; the farm you've always hoped to own? Will those be on your tree?

They can be—if that tree holds a U. S. Savings Bond for every member of the family!

For Bonds are the finest gift of all. Each one brings closer the day when your family's dreams will come true—when there will be money enough to give them the things they really want.

If you're like millions of other wise Americans, you're piling up just such funds for the future with regular, automatic Bond purchases on the Payroll Savings Plan.

But don't forget that every extra Bond you can tuck away is another big step toward your goal!

So this year, make sure there's a Bond on your tree for each of the family circle. Then, in just 10 years, when all those $75 Bonds have grown to $100, you'll be set to celebrate the merriest Christmas a family ever had.

Tom Dewey Will Captain '47 Blue Devil Gridders

Coch Ed Wernel applied to the finishing touches to Gross Pointe High School's 1947 football season when he announced the letter winners and called for the election of a captain for 1947.

Tom Dewey, a regular guard, was given this honor. Of the boys on the squad, that finished the season with three wins and five defeats, twenty-five will receive letters.

The following boys will receive them: Jerry Allen, Alex Hardy, Lee Harlow, Dan Beck, Paul Drabb, Bruce Gray, Louis Giampino, George Cherpella, Charles Peterson of the reserve squad, announced the nineteen of his players are to receive reserve letters.

They are: Cliff Ammon, Tom Anton, Bill Desardelle, Rich Balo, Ed Almond, John Corfield, Jack Fife, Tom Pollis, Bob Hansen, Jim Hosking, Ed Laitner, Don Miller, Clark McPhail, Cal Purdy, Henry Reay, Dick Snel, Bert Switzer, Bob Temple and Stuart Vach.

The first ballot that was cast for the election of the captain received a tie between Tom Mumford, an end, and Dewey. The second one cast gave the nod to the latter.

Lessons Never Over For High School Graders

Michigan Mirror

The Michigan State Medical Society, one of the most progressive state medical groups in the Nation, has added another "first" to its long list of achievements. During World War II medical funds that 7,000 Michigan youths were selected for military service because of cardiac trouble, due largely to rheumatic fever. Records also prove that rheumatic fever kills more children than any other disease.

Armed with this factual ammunition Michigan physicians and surgeons have established diagnostic centers in nine cities—Lansing, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Bay City, Traverse City, Jackson, Ann Arbor, Flint and Marquette. Family doctors are invited to bring cases to these centers for diagnosis, laboratory tests and consultation. Detection of the fever is extremely difficult in early stages.

Lab. Gov. Vernon J. Brown suggests that the legislature impose a three-mill property tax to guarantee adequate financial support to state-supported colleges. Such action is needed, he says, in view of the projected diversion of 70 per cent of the sales tax to local governments, including the

Sportsmen Seek Nominations for 18 Club Posts

Nominations of candidates for five executive offices and thirteen directorships in the Wayne County Sportsmen's Club will be made at the regular membership meeting, Wednesday evening, Jan. 4, at the American Legion Memorial Home in Dearborn.

The seven State Senators and 27 State Representatives are being urged to vote for an increase in the State Game Commission to carry on its anti-stream pollution work. The Wayne County Sportsmen's Club was instrumental in getting a $25,000 appropriation through the Legislature for the establishment of an emergency field office in Wyandotte and patrol boats on the river and now seeks permanent establishments not only in the Detroit area but in other pollution infested areas in the state.

MORE LIGHT FOR YOUR MONEY

ELECTRIC LIGHTS work overtime when the nights are long and the days are dark. They don't do their best work, either, unless the lamp bulbs are kept free from dust and dirt . . . unless they're the proper size—neither too large nor too small . . . and unless they have shades that provide maximum glareless light.

Be sure you have plenty of spare light bulbs on hand, too. Your dealer has them or you'll find them at any Edison office—in all sizes—all modestly priced. Remember, a call to Randolph 6800 will bring you a fresh supply in exchange for your burned-out bulbs. Or you can exchange them at your nearest Edison office. There's no charge for this service. Just bring an Edison service bill for quick identification.
