"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

Taxpayers Are Satisfied

That there is no organized attempt to oust the present administrations in Grosse Pointe Township and in the municipalities is tribute not only to the present officials but also to the wisdom of the electors.

At the same time the voters will be given some opportunity to exercise their franchise in the contest for justice of the peace and for the office of clerk of the township.

No taxpayer has the right to criticize his government, local, state or national, if he has failed to register or, if registered, he fails to use his ballot.

Whether the issues in dispute are great or small, it is the duty as well as the privilege of the elector to vote. Opportunity to perform such duty awaits all.

Garman Files for Gratiot Supervisor

Confident that he will gain the support of the majority of Democrats and of many independents in Gratiot Township, Harry J. Garman is appealing for support in his bid for township supervisor in the primary, Feb. 17.

Garman's opponent on the Democratic ticket is Victor Van Hulle.

The Independent Republican candidates for supervisor are Edminston Martin and Aden Newton.

In a statement announcing his candidature, Mr. Garman said that he has been a resident of the Township since 1936.

"During the entire time of my residence here I have always for support in his bid for township supervisor in the primary, Feb. 17.

"For the past three years I have spent every second and fourth Friday of the month from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. with no thought of gain to myself, at the Township Office aiding the Wayne County Sheriff's Department in issuing drivers licenses.

"For the past 5 1/2 years, I have served as a Justice of the Peace and have been available to the residents and the Police Department at all times of the day or night.

"As a candidate for Supervisor I am opposing no one. I seek the office because I think I can be of service to the people of the Township. I make no rash promises as to what I will or will not do but I do promise to do my utmost to obtain any and all improvements for the community.

"I have my own business and have unlimited time to devote to the office. I worked for 17 years for the Chrysler Corp. and five years ago set up my own insurance agency here in the Township.

"I feel that I have many old and new friends in the community and leave my campaign in their hands. They know my past record as a citizen and as a servant to the people and it has pleased them I hope they will pass the good word along.

"I am looking forward to an honest, clean and enjoyable campaign, and may the best man win."

Services for Thomas Joseph Bedore, who died at his home, 1212 Maryland avenue, Grosse Pointe, were held at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Verheyden chapel, 16300 Mack avenue.

POINTE GRADUATE Included in the list of 502 candidates for degrees conferred at Wayne University's midyear commencement exercises was William N. Fritz, graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

Annual hobby show of Country Day School and Detroit University School attracted a great deal of interest among students.

Many Enter Hobby Show at Country Day, D. U. S.

By MARGARET BARNARD Grade X Student Country Day School

The thirteenth annual Hobby Show was probably the most interesting and worthwhile show ever held by Country Day and Detroit University School.

The exhibitors included: Lynn Johnston, Mimi Kenover, Elizabeth Ledyard, Catherine Joan Le Gro, Gay Mercer, Martha Sattley, Elanore Staiker, Mack Jones, Frederick Ollison, Richard Prouty, James Wallace, Jane Bragaw, Elizabeth Buell, Ethel DuPont and Anne Phean.

Winning exhibitors were: Upper School — first, Nicholas Barclay Phelps, artistic models in clay; second, Jeanne Whittaker, paper scenes from famous operas; third, Robert Barie, collection of stamps and coins.

Intermediate School — first, Kittle K. Smith, dolls and doll clothes made by herself; second, Skip Wallace, photograph, pictures, camera, etc.; third, Robert Bevan, model planes.

Lower School — first, Barbara Fruehauf, artistic caricatures; second, Judy Mann, Cynthia Quayle, Jeanne Whittaker, Joe Buell, George Johnston, Jr., Nicholas Barclay Phelps, Conrad Proctor, Peter Staiker III, Elsa Barr, Nan Dryden, Jane Ottaway, Carolyn Kyes, Florence Phean, Judy Shipman, Sally Smith, Vickie Wehmeier, Sue Quayle, Doris Ann Shover and Frank Wilton.

Under the previous coverage the annual cost was $6,900 and under the new coverage, five year budget plan, the annual cost is $7,295.

The report said that under the Marshall System of evaluation it was found that some municipal buildings were over insured in varying degrees from $14,000 down to $250 and others under insured.

It stated that the pumping station was under insured approximately $105,000.

"In case of a serious loss we would be required to pay at least one-third of the amount because of the penalty of the co-insurance clause," the report said.

Under the new form our value has been increased $165,800, giving total coverage of $588,700 at an annual cost of $2,338.95.

A new form of coverage not previously carried by the Village is now being carried insuring the insured's legal liability for bodily injury to members of the general public including liability for damage to property to others arising out of all activities necessary or incidental to the operation of the village.

The coverage provides $50,000 bodily injury, one person, and $100,000 any one accident. Property damage is $5,000 in any one accident.

MUNICIPAL PARLEY Village Manager Everett B. Lane was voted an allowance of $25 by the Park Commission to attend a meeting of municipal managers at Lansing.

Adjustment of all insurance policies covering new rates for over all protection was submitted to Grosse Pointe Park Village Commission Monday night.

Harvard Road Owners Protest Parking Ban

Frank Jenny of 1222 Harvard headed a delegation of residents in that neighborhood protesting against the restriction of parking to one side of the street only there.

He said that while parking on both sides may have created a fire hazard it overcame a traffic hazard by slowing up autos.

Jenny said that traffic on Kercheval swung across Harvard to Mack and that the speeding cars were a danger.

The Commission advised him to take the question up with Chief of Police Louwers.

Plan Teas to Aid Girl Scouts

Checking the list of hostesses and planning for the benefit bridge parties to be given this week for the Grosse Pointe Girl Scouts are, left to right, Mrs. John R. Harding, Mrs. Sidney H. Marzan, Mrs. Ray H. Wertz and Mrs. Ernest Lamb.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

About the middle of this month the sun came out and the thermometer climbed but, luckily, not high enough to keep Troop 377 from holding a skating party at the Farms Pier. Accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. H. M. Craig and Mrs. H. T. Watson, plus some of the mothers, the girls skated until four.

Afterwards they stopped for refreshments at the home of Mrs. Wesley Robinson on Ridge Road. According to the troop scribe, Sally Snowday, "We all had a wonderful time."

Brownie Scout Troop 327 held its formal investiture at Richard School Thursday. After Janet Turner gave the address of welcome, the girls sang the Brownie Smile Song. Pamela Henry and Beverly Manzelmann acted as color bearers.

Sarah Reid gave a brief resume of the Brownie Story, then the following girls were invested: Sally Anderson, Judy Cook, Marion DeKeyser, Susan Evelyn, Patty Galanos, Carole Henry, Pamela Henry, Ann Macaulay, Beverly Manzelmann, Peggy Proctor, Sarah Reid, Janet Turner, Mary Wade, and Ann Wells.

The girls received their Brownie Scout pins from Leader Mrs. C. Sutton, and Assistant Leader Mrs. A. Koelbel.

One-year certificates were presented to Florence Craig, Diane Koelbel, Carole Ann Hollidge, Diana Messner, Joanne Ortwein, Sally Jo Rich, Carolyn Sutton, Marla Wade, and Peggy Young. A mothers' tea followed with refreshments served by the Troop Committee: Mrs. H. Young, Mrs. A. Wade, Mrs. M. Ortwein, Mrs. S. C. Turner, and Mrs. A. Evelyn.

Woods Woman Has Role In Theater Farce

Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall of 1580 Fairholme, Grosse Pointe Woods, will play the role of the lively maid, Toinette, in the Catholic Theater's forthcoming production of Moliere's hilarious farce, "The Imaginary Invalid." The play will be presented at the Art Institute tonight, Friday and February 6, 7 and 8.

The trickery and clever wit of Toinette, as enacted by Mrs. Marshall, romps through the play—ridiculing her employer's imaginary illness, playing up the stupidity of his doctors, revealing his wife as a mercenary shrew, and opening the path of true love for the invalid's daughter and her young suitor. One humorous situation follows upon another in the manner of a typical Moliere farce.

Mrs. Marshall has long been active in the Catholic Theater, serving as publicity director for several seasons. She has written, directed and acted in radio programs and served on the playreading and casting committees.

Tickets for the three evening performances of "The Imaginary Invalid," February 6-7-8, may be obtained at the Catholic Theater office on Washington Blvd. or at Grinnell's ticket office.

St. Paul Drops Pair to Annunciation '5'

Although they played their best game of the season, St. Paul Flyers Varsity team lost by 41-30 at Annunciation in a Catholic League East Side Second division basketball game.

St. Paul Reserves were drubbed in the curtain-raiser by 29-9.

The Flyers battled the strong Annunciation squad all through and opened the scoring in the first period when Law sank a one handed shot. Huettman brought the Flyers back on even terms with a set shot from the middle of the floor after Annunciation had scored two baskets.

A charity toss put the home team ahead 5-4 at the quarter.

Bryson Sutton Guards Ford School Natators

Bryson Sutton of 1877 Brys Drive will graduate from the Ford Trade School Feb. 18 and will return to Grosse Pointe High School for one term to get his high school diploma.

Bryson received his life saving certificate from Frank Banach at the G.P.H.S. night course.

The Sutton family lives at 1877 Brys Drive. Bryson's father, Jim, is associated with Paul Rowe, Real Estate.

Bryson is the lifeguard during the swim sessions at Henry Ford School. He obtained his American Red Cross Senior Life Saving Certificate in a special night course last May. The swimming instructor at Denby High School took special interest in Bryson and to develop his swimming talent he created a hydro-obstacle course for him.

Bryson had to swim 300 yards with his feet tied, 300 yards with his hands tied, and rounding out an even 108 yards, he swam the remaining 400 yards free style. After this training Bryson was able to swim 40 yards in 21.2 seconds. The record time is slightly over 18 seconds.

Blue Devil Swimmers Pass 100th Victory

When the Grosse Pointe High swimming team defeated the Royal Oak Acorns Wednesday last week it marked a momentous occasion in the life of their coach, Frank Banach. It marked his one hundredth victory in a coaching career that has covered seventeen years thus far.

In the locker room amongst numerous congratulations, Coach Banach jubilantly said, "It's a great feeling! A hundred victories don't come too often."

Banach's record, including Friday's win at Lincoln Park, now stands at 101 VICTORIES, 43 LOSSES, and 1 TIE for a percentage of .897. He lone tie was with Wyandotte several years ago.

For many years there were only from four to six meets a year. It was not until two years ago that more than eight meets were scheduled for a single year. This year's schedule calls for fourteen meets, an increase of one over last year.

Jefferson Slows Shores Threat

Jefferson No. 1 staved off the threat of the second-place St. Clair Shores Post Office team by scoring a 3-1 victory over their postal opponents and increasing their margin in first place of the Detroit Post Office East Side Bowling League to four points.

DeSantis Undertakers and E. Holzbaugh Ford climbed within one point of the Shores and share third spot.

The Morticians defeated G. Wilshe Studebaker 3-1 while the Holzbaugh boys shut out Fox Creek Meats 4-0.

Grosse Pointe Cab Co., leaders in the early stretch of the League, slipped further back when they failed to get a point against Altes Lager. The cabbies are in a seventh-place tie as a result of their loss and the 3-1 victory which O.K. Hat Cleaners scored over Meyer

Pharmacy.

Kercheval Clerks defeated Welding Gas and Equipment by 3-1.

It seems as if everyone is planning parties and gatherings these days and all these festivities have the teen-agers scurrying round in preparation.

Red and white balloons and streamers adorned the walls of the party room when a huge crowd met at HOWIE MEATHE'S place. They were his best friends gathered round for a colossal surprise party celebrating Howie's eighteenth birthday.

CAROLYN TRAPP made all the plans for the party and saw that all Howie's friends were on the "invited" list.

The traditional "Happy Birthday to You" was then joined in by Ted Vernier and Thelma Piche, Mary Smith and Ralph DeCender, Al Compenhout and Mary Sparr, Ray Huetteman and Joanne Athanson, Kay McDonald and Don Simpson, Sandy Sittiger and Art Smith, Johnny Fushman and Joan Wild, Do Hoffman and Kenny Ames, Carol Staub and George Heldt.

The action-filled game between St. Paul and Annunciation on Friday night was cheered on by a tremendous crowd. Among those watching their favorite players from the sidelines were Kay Sutherland, Dot Ardito, Nan Schumacher, Iranny and Norma Ardito, Pat Norman, Mary Gerard, Ray Allor, Sue Burke, Peg Hyde, Dot Hillebrand, Rita Leithauer, Pat Trombley, Myra Lou Backman, Martha West, Eleanor Wade, June Allard, Ralph Beaupre, Marg Crowley, Marion DeSutter, Tim Stevens, and Nancy Stahl.

JUDY HENNEKE'S home on Merriweather Road was the scene of much activity on Saturday night when a few of her friends dropped in to try out some new records and get in a little dancing.

A few of the committee members put your reported "in-the-know" on the tremendous plans being made for the SENIOR PROM taking place this Friday night.

The Social Chairman of the affair are JO MANNINO and GEORGE HEIDT, HOWARD MEATHE, the class president, and MRS. ATHANSON, MR. and MRS. CURRAN and MR. and MRS. CAMPENHOUT, MR. and MRS. CURRAN and MR. and MRS. TENBUSCH.

A few who will be dueting for the gala session include Alice Fauser, and Parker Munger, Sally Nacy and Vince Oliver, Jo Mannino and Ray Evans, Mary Ann Hillebrand and Bud Baker, Betty Huetteman and John Fushman, Marilyn Otto and Bud Kulka, Henrietta Sutton and Dave Lonergin, Nancy Sahi and Louis Hyde, Martha Lou Mauer and Bill Ernie, Do Backman and Wally Brey, George Heldt and Jane Lodewyk, Sally Curran and Ray Rochelle, Betty Sheridan and Al Moir, Ted Vernier and Sis Rooney, Mary Perrone and Kenny Van Wynsburg, Phyllis Rapp and Jack Horn, Marion Rabaut and Eric Johnston, and Ellen Boulton and Bob Fritz.

A group of five girls took advantage of the semester holiday on Monday and wended their way downtown for the afternoon. The movie, "It's a Wonderful Life" was first on the list of entertainment and then a tempting dinner at the City Club completed the social angle.

RADIO NEWS

By JAMES H. QUELLO

The tightening of public purse strings reflected by a drop in night-club, movies, and other entertainment revenue throughout the nation has boomed latest radio audience ratings to new season highs.

This week both Bob Hope and Fibber McGee hit 30.2 Hooper ratings for the first time in recent months with other top-notch programs close behind. More people are staying at home listening to the radio — they like the price of radio entertainment.

However, increased audiences notwithstanding, the business end of radio is taking its belt in a notch or two. Networks and stations are launching economy drives in realization that the easy money and spontaneous spending of the wartime era have disappeared.

There are other reasons behind the economy drives despite the recent growth of radio audiences. The percentage of net profit to gross intake in 1946 was off compared to previous years. Broadcasting costs have increased throughout the past year and will probably continue to do so with new union demands for pay increases. The general business uncertainty is also affecting radio.

Broadcasting will require capital investments during the next few years for expansion in both FM and television and money must be saved for this purpose. Then too, the revision of the excess profit taxes now enables corporations to sock funds into surpluses, a virtual impossibility during the war. All these factors explain why radio budgets and a few heads are being chopped even though network business last year was bigger and better than ever.

RADIO OVER - GLAMORIZED?

A University professor told his students this week that radio is over - glamorized as a profession, there aren't as many jobs as the students think, and the pay isn't as good.

The average pay of U.S. radio workers last year (aside from stars) less than $45 a week.

The professor's statement conflicts with the latest announcement from the Department of Commerce in Washington indicating that huckstering pays. The Commerce department announced that radio ranked among the top three industries in earning power with the average annual take for fulltime radio employment $3,560.

It was exceeded only by earnings in the water transportation and securities and exchange industries.

Both statements are well founded. It depends on your training, talent, ability, and (background: polite term for connections). Unless you have all four, don't make the mistake of hitching your star to a $1,000 to $1,500 per week job. The big contracts are widely publicized, but awarded to very few top-notchers. The frustration won't be worth it.

Defer School News

The Defer School combined upper grade groups held an open forum discussion on Friday, January 17th.

The meeting was called to order by Billy Brabb, president. The minutes were read and approved. The president read to the group a list of regulations governing the use of the skating pond during the school day.

These regulations had been devised by the individual rooms, approved by the Presidents' Council and were presented to the group for discussion and acceptance.

After a very lively discussion from the floor, the regulations were accepted by unanimous vote. Printed copies will be sent to each room.

Plans for future group and room meetings were discussed, including suggestions for a more efficient Service and Safety.

The girls and boys in 2B have been very busy making two murals for the bulletin boards in the hall, one picture is a skating picture showing the blue sky, bare trees and many skaters.

Harry Bowlin and Joey Reebel made school buses. Teddy McRoberts made an ambulance in case of an accident.

In music we are studying the story and music of the opera "Hansel and Gretel." We have learned the "Evening Prayer," "Susie, Little Susie" and "A Little Man" and "The Dancing Lesson."

The 2A's are dramatizing three stories—the first one is "Drakesbill."

The cast is: Drakesbill, Betty Brownell; King, Charles Freeman; King's Guards, Larry Stuart, Bill Cameron, Anthony Ruff, Dee Dyer, and Tommy Myers; Fox, Robert Demrose; Ladder, Karen Wilhelmsen; Water, Bonnie Averill; Wasps, Frances Fazio, Richard Curl, Patsy Ann Lindow, Otto Scherer, Jimmy Dekorse; Hens, Jean Stefani, Gail Smith, Peggy Sims, and Vicki Steiner.

The cast of the "Twelve Silents:" Dee Dyer is the biggest silly and Jean Stefani, Carol Kaiser, Otto Scherer, Tommy Myers, Patsy Ann Lindow, Peggy Sims, Bonnie Averill, James DeKorse, Francis Fazio, Robert Demrose, and Ronald Thomas.

The soldier is played by Larry Stuart. Leigh McFern is the announcer.

ONE YEAR AGO

A special election of qualified voters of the school district was scheduled for March 4 as the result of a resolution adopted unanimously by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

The election will be to permit the board to levy taxes up to $5 per $1,000 of assessed valuation above the 15-mill constitutional limitation for a five year period. It is proposed to set aside $3.50 of every $1,000 assessed valuation to establish a building sinking fund.

THEATER PARTY

Attention all boys and girls ages 8 to 12. This Friday night, January 31, at the Neighborhood Club we are having a Theater Program especially for you. The movies will start at 7:30 p.m. and the admission will be 10c. Bring all your pals along and plan to spend an hour packed full with lots of fun. PEACE EV. LUTHERAN CHURCH
East Warren and Balfour
Detroit, Michigan
Enno G. Claus, Pastor
Clarence Cizek, Vicar

Services are held at Peace Lutheran Church, E. Warren and Balfour, at 8:30 and 11:00 A.M. Next Sunday, February 2, the pastor, Enno G. Claus will begin a Series of Sermons from the Sermon on the Mount.
This section of Scripture, Matthew 5: 1-12, is receiving much publicity in our day. It is, however, that many are in the dark as to the real meaning of these Beatitudes. To offset this, the pastor will preach a series of eight sermons.
The first sermon is on the Beatitudes: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of God." Matt. 5: 3. Make a point to hear every sermon in this series.
The Girls' Choir will beautify the service with the anthem, "Holy Father in Thy Mercy" by Bakke.
Sunday School and Bible classes begin at 9:45 A.M. The lesson to be studied is, "The Raising of Lazarus." A nursery is provided for the younger children in the School.
