The recent grand opening of the Major Pool and Company has introduced a new person who was participating in the construction had no intention of leaving the park and killing a half hour out of his day to go to a place next to the pool. Garden Plots Depend On G.P. Requests

It will be possible to have community garden plots again this season if enough Grosse Pointe residents desire them. A survey of the situation made at the last meeting of the Victory Garden Council, while not a final report, indicated that space for a few plots is definitely available in the Park, on Harcourt and it may be available; Grosse Pointe Farms will not have a community garden plot. The School Board property on Beaure is not available.

Gratiot GOP Plans Dance

Gratiot Township Republican Independent party will reach the climax of their campaign to elect the present Democratic administration, on Saturday, March 29, when they present a social dance at Eastwood hall, 4516 Erie and Shakespeare.

Among those present will be Edminston Martin, candidate for supervisor, Carl Hodson, building for treasurer and Mrs. Laurel A. Boyer, candidate for clerk.

Martin, who is making a determined fight for office, is unsurpassed in his efforts to get the Republican candidates to the polls on election day, April 7.

It is certain that if all the people of Gratiot Township who are eligible to vote would exercise that privilege, the Republican party would be elected.

Martin said that due to the Democrats never having any opposition at the polls, since the development of the Township, citizens have just interested in their election.

"The Democratic party has been in office too long," said Martin. Anyone who will need this sentiment to get out and vote for the Republican candidates, the determined candidate would provide transportation to the polls and return to any voter in Gratiot Township.

Francis R. Line

Epic to End Pointe Series

Francis Raymond Line will present "Sheep, Stars and Solitude" on Sunday, March 23rd, 3:30 P.M. at the John D. Pierce Auditorium. This is the final number of the 1946-1947 Travel and Adventure Series sponsored by Grosse Pointe Community Lectures.

"Sheep, Stars and Solitude" is a motion picture epic of the great Arizona sheep trek through some of the wildest country in America. With the trek as a "narrative theme," the film depicts science, desert life, wild animals, nature studies, Indians in their remote surroundings, a "lost community" in central Arizona, camp life, courage and the heroism of the herders.

There are also sequences of night photography, among the first of this kind ever attempted. Francis Line has skillfully captured the solitude of the night in scenes of camp life, of stars twinkling in the southeast, even the Milky Way.

This is an intensely interesting picture possessing a spiritual value far unparalleled by any other film. The authentic and documented story as narrated by Francis Raymond Line will give you a new view of the theory that "truth is stronger than fiction."

Youngblood Opposes Vandenberg

The Grosse Pointe Review related the following dispatch from Congressman Harold F. Youngblood, of Grosse Pointe and the 14th district:

As recently as last January I committed myself to the campaign of Arthur H. Vandenberg for President. In my statement of last Wednesday I found myself in disagreement with the question of aid to Greece and other European countries.

Senator Vandenberg has spoken courageously and forthrightly for President's policy with reluctance to helping Greece and Turkey as proposed by the President in his message to the Congress but I feel that in view of the mail and telegram which have reached me expressing a strong sentiment on behalf of the people of the 14th District, I must reluctantly oppose Mr. Vandenberg's views on this question.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

THE FLOWERING OF SOCIALISM

Federal ownership of power is a perfect example of the flowering of socialism in the United States. We have looked at Russia's "five-year plans" for government development of industrial activities.

Private enterprise and private capital would develop all the power in the United States needs, as in the past, if again given a chance.

No Congressman says in good plain English that the more the government gets into business, thereby removing all kinds of taxable assets from the tax rolls, the more remaining taxpayers will have to pay in taxes.

Taxes can be reduced if there is a desire on the part of Congress for government to get back to governing, get out of business, and cease the trend of taking over the obligations of local governments and financing all manner of local activities.

LESSON FROM BRITAIN

Winston Churchill, Britain's great wartime Prime Minister, recently said that the English people are "and have distinguished themselves by their intolerance of Socialist pretensions, the fallacies of their (the Labor Government's) doctrines and the incapacity of their management."

Mr. Churchill speaks as leader of the opposition in his country, but the truth of what he says seems self-evident. So far, at least, the great socialist experiment upon which England embarked with apparently high hopes, after voting Labor into power by a heavy majority, has been the most dismal of failures.

The first major step was to socialize the coal industry—and the result of that has been reduced production, even more worker discontent than in the past, and a coal shortage that has forced all kinds of curbs on the use of coal.

Certainly there is a grim lesson here for Americans, who have been flirting with the ruinous doctrines of the socialist state. May we learn in time.

STARTING AT THE BOTTOM

Do great businesses spring full-growned into being? The answer is a decisive "No!" They almost invariably begin as extremely small enterprises, financed on a shot-string—and their principal asset is the ambition, ability, and drive of a man with an idea.

Chin Store Age recently ran an article on S. H. Kress & Company, one of the country's leading mass-distributors of merchandise, which vividly illustrates the typically American way in which small business becomes big business.

That was fifty years ago—a hole-in-the-wall store, and an idea put into practice. People liked the idea because it gave them more goods and better goods for their money. The result is the national system of today which numbers its customers in the millions.

In all its countries, the United States is the story of the other great chain systems and independent stores which have grown from one-room outlets with a few cases of merchandise to multi-floored department stores carrying practically anything one can think of.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

Spring arrives officially Friday, March 21, and there are sure to be lots of spring parties on the agenda for next week, but now the teen-agers are still thinking up cold weather specialties. But we must admit they have an eye on the calendar and are anxiously waiting for the first signs of spring weather.

Opening this week's festivities was the huge session planned by BEATRICE MARCHAND at her home on Mack Ave. This was another one of those ever-popular "no boys invited" parties. Seems that some of the fellows misunderstood (?) however, and dropped around to join in on the fun. They added their touch by claiming the hot dogs and the girls thought that it was going to be a party minus refreshments. The boys must have gotten hungry though because later in the evening they descended to bring forth the missing morsels, and everyone commenced to consume the hot dogs, chips and coke. Nancy Stahl, Mary Sparr, Thelma Piche, Pat Van Tiem, Pat Rabaut, Isable Rabaut, Normie Schaefer, Martha Mauer, Joanne Athanson, and Ellen Boulit were the lassies who were very busily engaged in a talk-fest until interrupted by Don Simpson, Ray Huettman, George Heidt, Ralph DeCender and Bob Dwyer.

The HILLBILLY HOP over Grosse Pointe High way beckoned to lots of people who arrived attired in their most comfortable garb. Huge drawings of a jean-clad mountain boy and his "gal in calico" adorned the walls of the gym and provided a perfect setting for the dancers. Recorded music kept the couples dipping across the floor throughout the evening but during intermission, Phil Skillman and his Musical Maniacs provided some very entertaining arrangements of appropriate songs while the dancers gathered 'round and found time to catch their breath.

Greeting their friends during the affair were Do Backman and Wally Brey, Judy Hennecke and Jerry Jenkins, Sis Collins and Bob Sunne and Meeky Van Zaben and Parke Brown.

The MELODIERS, six girls who are well-known around St. Paul for their vocal harmony, trekked over to MARILYN MEURER'S menage to get in a little practicing on Saturday afternoon. The girls soon abandoned their music to feast on the delicious chocolate cake baked by the hostess and ended up with a record session.

Members of the group include Marilyn, Dot Hillebrand, Rita Leitbauer, Nancy Bergmann, Joanne Schummer, and Marg Clark.

SPIKE JONES and his City Slickers are currently appearing at the Masonic Temple. Six fellows and gals heard so much about him that they decided to see for themselves. The group was composed of George Heidt and Carol Stanb, Art Smith and Sandy Stittinger and Ralph Schneider and Nedda Hoffmeyer.

JOYCE ALEF decided that it was time for her to entertain again so she got together a few of her friends for a dinner party. The tempting meal won many compliments for Joyce from Henrietta Sutton, Pat Trombley.

Richter Has Fine Record

Judge Theodore J. Richter, of Grosse Pointe Park, candidate for re-election as Circuit Judge in the April 7 election, first came to the Circuit Bench by appointment of former Governor Alex J. Groesbeck, filling the vacancy created by the death of Judge George S. Hosmer. His fine record has kept him in office ever since.

During his entire period of service, Judge Richter has continually applied all his skill and experience in the exercise of the important duties of a Circuit Judge. He has given all litigants his impartial sympathy and understanding, and has always administered justice impersonally and humanely, in accordance with the dictates of justice and the long-established principles of our law.

Born in Harbor Beach, Michigan, Judge Richter has lived in Detroit since he was two years old. He graduated from Eastern High School and from the Detroit College of Law. He practiced law until he was appointed deputy county clerk under the late Judge Morse Rohmert.

Judge Richter was elected Justice of the Peace (now known as Common Pleas Court Judge) in 1915 and held that office for eight years.

The first ironclad undertaken by the U.S. Navy was the "Stevens Battery," which was begun in 1842 but never completed.

FASHION DEGREES

KEY COAT STYLE for spring and summer is again the abbreviated topper — the shortie that teams with varying daytime dress and suit lengths, tops short or long dinner gowns and appropriately lines up with sports slacks. Armholes for one of these hard-working pastels, neutral or white coats should be just deep enough to fit comfortably over padded shoulders. Fingertip length is most generally becoming. A multitude of models from cutaway to straight boxy with swinging or half-belted backs offers a wide range of silhouette choices. Colorwise selection of Joan Tompkins is a collarless, cocoon brown suede wool, lined in matching dull crepe, with fairly wide sleeves that can be turned back to bracelet length when worn with short sleeve dresses and long gloves. Base with which complexion flattering tones of cocoa brown accompany all their popular shades of gray, pink, navy and even black explains the future of this season's most pampered fashion shade.

CAPE-ABLE dresses increase in number as the summer and late spring showings progress. Their undeniable complement to liberated skirt fullness registers in many print and pastel models. If the skirt is accordion pleated, the cape or capelet repeats the pleating and falls from an epaulet band from neck to shoulder tip; if the skirt is circular, the rhythmic shoulder coverage echoes the soft bias draping. Dress bodies are smooth and torso fitted to give correct proportions to the swinging contour.

ON THE WAY to replacing the old button box in the sewing cabinet is a new Dot Snapper Kit which WJR singer Ruth (Here's to Ya!) Reynolds tells us holds the greatest time-saving equipment for attaching laundry-dry-proof garment closings. Sturdy nickel-plated brass snaps on children's play clothes, slip covers, dressing table skirts and house dresses can be attached to last the life—Ruth Reynolds time of the fabric articles. Instead of sewing with needle and thread, these metallic snappers are pounded into place with a hammer. Ruth says it's so simple that even her young son can do the trick.

RAINSOX, transparent Vinyl plastic sock that fits neatly over the fore part of the foot as high as the instep, was invented with the main thought of providing protection against snow, rain and slush for women who wear open toe, high platform and sandal type shoes. The skin-thin Rainsox are slipped over the stockings and worn inside the shoe.

New Hats Important In Spring Parade

With Spring and Easter only a crocus throw away, the subject of clothes is likely to occupy the uppermost realm of consciousness in the minds of most women these days. The first whiff of soft breeze is a favorite excuse to trot out the latest in what is wearable and gay.

A new hat is always an important part of the spring picture, and this year millady's choice is limited only by her own whim. Styles and materials should be varied enough to meet the demands of the most discerning. Pure silk and nylon maline and velvings are again available, along with the finer handmade silk and rayon flow-ers.

INDIVIDUALIZE Fashion's only dictum is that the hat individualize the wearer and the costume. Open and closed crowns are both in evidence, and while the closed backcare a little newer, a little morefashion wise, the open air styles are still good, and very comfortable.

The most knowing hats hug the head closely. Cloches go hand in glove with the longer torso, the longer slimmer skirt, and the entire silhouette which seems to be taking us all back to "23 skidoo."

SILHOUETTE There is a general emphasis on the silhouette of the hat this year, and its appropriateness with the dress or suit it is to accompany. The full wide cloak type coat calls for a small, closely fitted hat; with the fitted torso jackets, the hat should have a sense of width, and wider proportions; The aforementioned sailor, worn plunk on the brow, dramatizes the straightline coat.

Don't think that the tradition of flowers and furberlows of spring have been overlooked in the silhouette melee. The pretty-pretty styles are very much in evidence. For the lady who likes her hat to be her most gracious accessory, there are many flower laden brims, good in either peaked or rounded shapes.

CHAMPAGNE Champagne is very popular in this type of hat. It is worn with matching suits and coats, to achieve the all-over beige look, although this accent color does equal justice to brown, black or any of the spring shades.

Small off the face bonnets with a band of flowers are also much in evidence, and although they were fashion's favorites last spring, they still have a fresh young look and a way of blending with any daytime costume. Heavy tinted colored straws and the finer milans are good in this type of hat.

White pique hats spell s-p-r-i-n-g when worn with any costume. The fashion authorities say a clear dash of white is a necessity with the perennial navy, and that a white bonnet is the best means to this end. White with a neutral, either pale gray or beige, is also seen on the smartest of heads.

PALE FELTS Many of the pale felts this spring are piped and trimmed in white pique, with a feather or flower trim of the pique. Although these are strictly one season, and few and far-between styles, they add a gay note to your suits and coats.

Although close-to-the-head is the general silhouette rule, the wide brimmed picture hats are to be found here and there, and are good for wear right through the summer. They dress up your prints and fitted coats now, and look well later with light cottons. The return of the fine bakus and milans is especially welcomed in this type of hat.

Designer Victor calls this new silhouette, "Big Flip" gives a Pegasus touch—winged trim in supporting colors. Smaller version of the same shape bears name "Little Flip". Crowns of both rest at a single point just back of the line.

By L. A. BOYER

The Wayne County Council of the Parent Teachers Association held their regular meeting at Maple Grove, Michigan on Tuesday, March 11. Representatives who attended this meeting from Beacon School P. T. A. were Mrs. Wm. Sommersville, President, Mrs. Laurel A. Boyer, Secretary, and Mrs. Anthony Gottler, committee member. Miss Georgina Reid was in charge of the program.

First on the program was election of officers for the year 1947-48.

This was followed by an interesting film on Red Cross activities, directed by Mr. Masters. The speaker of the evening, Dr. Joseph C. Moirer, assistant health commissioner of Detroit, was introduced by Mr. Charles Brake. Dr. Moirer delivered a very interesting and educational talk on the general health of mothers and children.

The Egg And I Rule Pointe Homemakers

With Easter time here, and eggs so plentiful, Grosse Pointe homemakers are remembering the rule, "Serve eggs every day."

Beatrice Grant, foods and nutrition specialist at Michigan State college, says eggs are tops in protein and contain so many vitamins and minerals you can't afford not to eat them these days.

You can serve eggs in so many ways that your family will not realize how often they are served. Use them in any recipes you possibly can and use them as just plain eggs.

Baked eggs are delicious and simple to prepare. Slide the eggs into a shallow greased baking dish, add a little milk, fat and seasoning. Cover and bake in a moderate oven. For variety, omit the milk and sprinkle the eggs with bread crumbs mixed with grated cheese.

For scrambled eggs that are different, combine 4 beaten eggs with one cup of cooked tomatoes. Season with salt and pepper, cook and serve on toast.

Don't overlook omelets. Flat ones and fluffy ones are both good. Dress them up with mushroom sauce, tomato, cheese or Spanish sauce, or top with creamed vegetables. For tomato omelets, substitute tomatoes for the milk. If you like sweet omelets, add jelly or citrus marmalade just before rolling the omelet.

Souffles are an extra-special egg dish and can be plain or made with cheese, vegetables, or fish. Egg salads are always delicious. Hardcooked eggs sliced on lettuce and served with a salad dressing are a taste treat. And don't wait for summer picnics to serve deviled eggs!

Florists Taking Wreath Orders

Grosse Pointe families who have sons or brothers in U. S. military cemeteries overseas can place floral wreaths on individual graves this Memorial Day by arrangement with their nearest neighborhood florist.

Except for a few isolated cemeteries, such as Iwo or Kwajalein, nearly all now lie within special service range of America's familiar flowers-by-wire system, which has been extended worldwide post-war.

As requested by many families throughout the U. S., floral delivery service has been arranged for military graves in Europe or Iceland, Hawaii or the Philippines on the same guarantee basis as domestic orders, according to Edward J. McCarthy, of Brooklyn, president of Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association.

Nearly 7,000 member shops in 48 states have been instructed, he said, regarding the few isolated cemeteries for which no orders can be accepted, and exact procedure for expediting delivery to all points now covered by FTD's new foreign service system.

Families who desire to employ this military decoration service, McCarthy explained, must supply to their local neighborhood florist, when orders are placed the name of the cemetery and combat theater, plus plot, row, and grave number forwarded to next of kin by War Dept. This information has been sent on all soldiers, sailors, and civilians buried in U. S. military cemeteries anywhere in the world. Orders must be placed with local florists before May 22.

The St. Patrick's Day Dance

at Beacon School on Friday evening March 14 was a bang up affair. The kids all had a grand time dancing, eating hot dogs, potatoe chips and drinking pop. Do you know if more of you parents would come to these dances and parties held at the school the children would enjoy it even more. Lets make these parties a family affair and get together with our sons and daughters for a good time. The few parents that were there enjoyed the party as much as the children.

Lets have more parents at the next party. They are a lot of fun and it makes you feel young young all over again. We are sure if we would do this, we would have less talk about juvenile delinquency. Lets discuss it at the next P.T.A. meeting.

We are sorry our chairman of the P.T.A. committee, Ethel Murhlein has been ill. He miss Ethel who as you all know is a hard worker, but we hope she will be well enough to assist us in our dinner preparations for the Wayne County Council P.T.A. to be held at 6 o'clock the evening of April 8, at Beacon School.

We wish a speedy recovery for the Wesley Quandt's baby who has been very ill for the past few weeks.

The Republican Independent Organization have completed plans for another party to be held Saturday, March 29, at Eastwood Hall, 16715 East Nine Mile road, near Gratiot. Everyone attending the last party had such a good time, tremendous requests were made for another of these good time get together affairs. Ernie Solassa will furnish the same good music. Everyone is cordially invited. Tickets may be obtained through any member of the organization.

Dr. Karl Kruger Is In Big Demand

Dr. Karl Krueger, conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, has received invitations from orchestras in various parts of the world which, if he accepted them all, would keep him busy from April to September. Even though the Thursday - Friday Subscription Series of the Detroit Orchestra is over, Dr. Krueger will conduct the nation-wide Sunday Evening broadcasts of the orchestra through March and April.

Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

Even though school occupies most of everyone's time there are always a few ambitious kids that take time off to plan a party or a dance.

Singing and playing cards topped off ALICE SELLARS all girl party on Friday night at her home on Hampton Road. Joining in the fun were: Betty Brady, Shirley Drake, Betty Graham, Fay Gulberg, Myra Han, Betty Lilligrin, Vonnie Wegmen, Sally Valasick, Barb and Marge Stoerkal, Lois Riech, Gerry Morse and Helene Manson. Even though AL's birthday was a few days previous to the party the gals all chipped in to buy her a beautiful red cardigan sweater in honor of her many years. On the "eat" list were: sandwiches, cokes and lemon tarts, which were served buffet style in the recreation room where a fireplace was set aglow with blazing logs to complete the scene.

Another birthday celebration was given on Friday night only this one was for JACK REICH.

green shamrocks, and green cardies. Sipping pop and munching on potato chips were: Cathy Droegge and Ken Cinder, Izzy Zimmerman and Wally Swain, Laurel Cotter and Dave Hogarth, Bill Duster and Mary Patterson, Dorena Schroeder and Dave Pascoe, Maggie Murphy and Jack Rowe, Nancy Mainard and Ed Buckridge, Betty Keith and Bryson Sutton, Mary Schultze and Dick Stahl, Hags and Stags were: Bill Degraw, Norma Wenzel, Donna Green, Skip Drane, Floyd Redes, Jack Hinkelghter, Hugh McTavish, and the chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. W. Orr.

The regionals that took place on Wednesday and Friday nights claimed just mobs of kids! Wednesday night all went home in a happy frame of mind because we won but even though we lost to Dearborn on Friday night the kids felt that they had witnessed a good game and that the boys and Coach Wernet had provided some good entertainment all season long. Among the winners were: Bob Jenks, Dick Fordon, Martie Fairless, Gladys Ostermann, Barb Baumen, Dick Wuerkler, Di Faulk, Bill Carruthers, Bill Hester, Sally Macdonald, June Moffat, Bill Gallagher, Betty Ostermann, Martha Armstrong, Harry Mack and oh, many more than space gives to mention.

HILLBILLY HOP

Come rough and tough, in your ragged old clothes and shoes with the heavy wool socks was the plea sent out to all hillbillies before the HILLBILLY HOP on Saturday night, G.P.H.'s gym was masked in rugged cover with mountain critters decorating the walls and with PHIL SKILLMAN'S musical maniacs doing up the honors to the decreet people. Gaping at the decorations were: Dale Stevenson 'n Lois Melring, Mary Prevo 'n Skip Parker, Dick Mitchell 'n Jane Lundgren, Barbara Mann 'n Bill Trueter, Sharon Ford 'n Bob Snider, Sally Smith 'n Dick Katen, Pat Hammond 'n Rob Phillips, Bev Martin 'n Gene Stebbins, Dolores Jackson 'n Chuck Givson, Ginny Grasse 'n Bob Coleman, Jo Ann Russell 'n Birdie Spurrier, Marilyn Smith 'n Doug Buck, Lois Riech 'n Bob Essert, Di Faulk 'n Dick Wuerkler, Lee Barlow 'n Carol Roemer, Ellen Jane Worley 'n Bob Gal, Charlene Salmon 'n Tom Wilson, Sue Rogers 'n Ray Sawush, Cynthia Blean 'n Gerry Thiede, Sue Wheelock 'n Calven Purdey, Doris Diesing 'n Ed Karrer, Mary Patterson 'n Bill Suster, Bill van Zanen 'n Doris Harmsen, Jane Gehlert 'n Bill Wolfe, Barb Stoerkal 'n Phil Skillman, Joan Kirkland 'n Lee Walker, Carol Chadwick 'n Kirk Walsh, Peggy Hatch 'n Cluene Walsh, Marge Stoerkal 'n Jim Brown, Betty Mitchell 'n Chubs Lawler, Barb Brown 'n George Davis, Sally McNeill 'n Bruce Davenport, and Cork Dykstra 'n Stagging it were: Don Drader, Paul Frieze, John Mack, Bob Serge, Barry Munro, Bob Bolo and Jack Reich and your scribbling scribe 'n Parke Brown.

After this MILTON SETZER threw open his doors for his open house where pop, potato chips and cake provided refreshments. MILTON'S DATE WAS MARY STOVER. Others were Madge Winters 'n Hill Pierce, Merry Baumen 'n Bob Fosmo, Marcy Wetherbe 'n Bud Golla, Lois Buck 'n Vince Schoeck, Helene Mauer, Larry Frenz, Sheila McRee 'n Jim Swift, Susie Johnson 'n Butch Edgar, Bill Kibey 'n Marianne Trombley and Christiana Hoare 'n Carl Romano. Independent makes were: Gerry Dauen, Larry Reynolds, Barry Munro, Bill McCauley, Tom Pierce, Dick Hiedrich, Bruce Kirchner, Herman Von Arx, and Jim Williams.

POPULAR BOY

RANDY ZEEB was quite the popular boy at PAT MARTIN'S party after the dance when he concocted some simply wonderful egg nog for refreshment. The food was all served buffet style in PAT'S lovely kitchen and helping to consume it all was: Joyce Schrieber Randy's date, Ted Latner PAT'S date, Carol Grylls, and Bob Hanson, Joe Fromm and Marilyn Wroblor, Marion Renie 'n Bill Jopp, and Katie James and Bob Bassett.

Still more food was consumed over at MARY PREVO'S abode on Lakepointe when she served chocolate cake and milk around the blazing fireplace in the living room. Watching the blazing logs and listening to recorded music were: Mary Waterfall 'n Bob Campbell, Buffy Wickin 'n Fred Bahr, and MARY'S DATE SKIP PARKER.

Trekking into Grosse Pointe for Spring vacation this week came SKIP PARKER, who hails from Mount Herman Prep school, and PARKE BROWN, from Howe Military School. Both boys received a hearty welcome from all and are spending their time with a group of boys and girls who are trying to show them a good time for the few weeks that they are home.

Sigma Lambda has set MARCH 21st as the date for their semi-formal dance. The place will be Lochmoor Club and tickets may be purchased from any member. The dates for Pointe Players Production for "You Can't Take it with You" are MARCH 26, 27, and 28.

Let's have a good turnout for both of these doings kids! So-Long for now!!

Rumpelstiltskin in Reviews

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles written to assist Grosse Pointers in selecting the right books for their children and for themselves.

By ISABEL RONEY

Children are introduced to the world of books long before they are able to read. Many impressions, which last for a lifetime begin to take root during these early years. This is one reason why it is important to give them good books at the very start of their journey through Book-land. Even though tiny tots know very little about the important qualities of good pictorial or literary art they generally give eager approval to a thing well done, and can begin to acquire even at a very early feeling for "the good, the true and the beautiful."

"Good" books need not be "expensive" books, though it is true that many of the better books are often prohibitive in price. On the other hand some expensive books are trivial and valueless from the standpoint of building a worthwhile library. The books in the "Little Golden Library" for instance, are examples of inexpensive books nicely done, the retail price of each being twenty-five cents. They are a better value than many books which retail for well over that amount. The art work in these little books is not commonplace—and is done by such delightful illustrators as Tenggren, Rojankovsky, Masha and Gergely.

Frequently the first book put into the hands of a child is made of cloth; usually when he is about eighteen months old. During the war such books were scarce, or not to be had at all. The Eliska cloth books were available only in limited quantities. The Holiday House went out of print. Several satisfactory ones are available now.

The Peggy Cloth Books, Inc. have three titles, retailing at $1.25 each. They are "Let's Be Friends," "Let's See The ABC" and "Oh Look." All three are done in brightly colored pictures, in clear childlike designs, and printed on fine quality (double-fold) muslin. The dyes are fast and harmless, and the bindings firmly sewn. They are washable. My own favorite is "Let's Be Friends," good pic-

"Dear Ruth"

Numerous Grosse Pointers are being attracted to the Schubert Lafayette theatre these nights where the gay romantic comedy, "Dear Ruth" is being presented. Starring in the title role is Anne Henderson, pictured above and Anthony Carr, who as the aggressive lieutenant wins the heart of "Dear Ruth." The play, which has just closed a three year run on Broadway, will remain at the Lafayette for three weeks.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

To honor the founder of Girl Scouting in America, the Juliette Low Friendship Party was held in Miller Hall on March 16 from 3 to 5 p. m. About 100 attended, including two Juliette Low representatives from each troop, members of the Council and their daughters.

The Rev. Francis Creamer opened the ceremonies with a prayer, after which the girls joined in singing "Girl Scouts of Grosse Pointe" to the tune of "Bells of St. Mary's."

Mrs. Mark K. Edgar was made an honorary member of the Grosse Pointe Girl Scouts, and presented with a gardenia corsage. Intermediate Scout Gail Lowery, whose birthday is the same as Scouting's March 12, made the presentation.

Mrs. Edgar spoke to the girls, telling the story of Juliette Low, including several amusing anecdotes springing from her personal friendship with Mrs. Low, and stressing the international aspect of Scouting.

Representatives from each troop then came forward with green bags containing contributions to the Juliette Low Friendship Fund, a fund used for practical aid to Girl Scouts in other countries. Needles and thread to be sent abroad also were collected at this time.

Occupying a prominent place was a large green and white trimmed cake, topped by 35 lighted candles, denoting the birthday years.

Piano selections were rendered by Arlene and Dianne Koebel, and Suzan and Sally Litchfield.

After refreshments of ice cream and cake, the girls sang songs, and closed proceedings by forming the Scout circle and singing "Taps."

Committee responsible for the affair's success were Mrs. Milton Clements, Mrs. Ted Davidsson, Mrs. Sydney Morgan, and Mrs. Kline.

Catherine Marick, daughter of Leader Mrs. L. Marick, Intermediate Troop 579 at St. Paul's School has received a letter from a girl in Hungary. She writes that she is a Girl Scout, speaks English a little, is in High School, and lives with her mother, father, and two brothers near Budapest. She expresses thanks for the Christmas package that Catherine sent her. She says, too, "I like that we can exchange letters."

Rev. Andrew F. Rauth welcomed Girl Scouts to the worship service in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on Girl Scout Sunday, March 16. Thirty-one Brownies, Intermediates, and Seniors attended the special service, and heard Mr. Rauth's sermon, which was a message to Girl Scouts.

Big Easter Seal Sale Underway

The most active plans for what promises to be the biggest Easter Seal Sale for crippled children since its inception 14 years ago are underway this month.

Percy C. Angove, Executive Director of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Disabled Adults, Inc., 449 W. Ferry Avenue, Detroit 2, Michigan, reports that ninety million Easter seals have been distributed to all of the 83 counties in Michigan. Committee members and co-workers totalling upwards of 2,000 under the leadership of 92 volunteer chairmen, are generously giving of their time to assure a successful campaign.

Jack A. Tompkins, district sales manager of American Airlines today announced that commercial air service will be inaugurated to Reykjavik, Iceland on Monday, March 17, 1947.

The Sam Gabriel cloth books which have about the same subjects as the others are available again. They are well-made and moderately priced.

In addition to the washable cloth books mentioned, there are the linenized books, but these cannot be guaranteed to last much longer than the ordinary paper book. The others should be able to take whatever the toddler set dishes out.

Next week: Mother Goose Books.

It seems like yesterday

It seems like yesterday that Nancy was playing with dolls. Now she's pushing her own baby carriage. Yes, there's been a lot of change in the last 20 years—most of them so gradual we hardly notice them at all.

Nancy didn't grow up all at once. A tooth a time—a curl at a time—an inch at a time—and suddenly a little kid sister was Mrs. J. Jones, mother of Joe, Jr.

Like Nancy, the use of electricity has grown a lot in the last 20 years. But the price of electricity has been going down steadily. You may not have noticed it because your bill probably stays about the same—but how many appliances have you added to your home since '27? Now, you are getting nearly twice as much electricity for your money as you did then.

Honeymoon in Bermuda for Grosse Pointe Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Daniel are on a wedding trip to Bermuda after a Friday afternoon ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynn Peirson, 11111e Place, Grosse Pointe Park.

The bride, the former Mary Elizabeth Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clay and Mrs. Mary E. Ward of Paris, Ky., wore her wedding gown, and was accompanied by her bridesmaids, Misses Edwina Lines, and play ivory satin dress, brocaded in rose bow-knot pattern. Her slim pointed bust was accented with a deep blue duchess lace, reserpine and a border of lace which belong to her paternal grandmother.

Mr. Daniel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Braun of Sheboygan, Wis., a college roommate of the bride was matron of honor.

Mrs. Braun wore a gown of daffodil watered silk with matching grauntlets, and carried blue irises.

Maid of honor, Miss Nancy Peirson was attired in green. Paul Peasley of Stamford, Conn., was best man.

Because Mr. Ward was unable to attend the ceremony, the bride was given in marriage by Mr. Peirson.

Mrs. Ward wore a street-length, robin's egg blue gown of silk crepe. Mrs. Peirson was attired in a black print. Both mothers had camella corsages.

The newlyweds will make their home in Waterbury, Conn., upon their return sometime in April.

Married In March

At recent candlelight wedding ceremony Miss Betty Jean Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Willis Thompson, of Beaconsfield avenue, became the bride of Mr. Jack R. Copeland, son of Mrs. Zoe and the late Harry J. Copeland of Cherrylawn avenue.

Pointe Flower Lovers Attend Spring Show

Breaking all attendance records, Detroit's preview of spring at the Flower Show in Convention Hall continues drawing huge throngs of flower lovers. The show opened Saturday and will continue through Sunday evening.

Many Grosse Pointers are going to the Flower Show and each visitor finds something of personal interest. If he favors roses, the Rotunda of Roses in which over 10,000 blooms are being displayed through the week will keep him spellbound. If he is looking for suggestions for the development of his own home grounds, he will spend a lot of time at the bud-et gardens.

By far the most unusual, the most varied and exotic are the United Nations gardens illustrating the culture of ten nations with a modern American garden symbolizing the unity of all nations. Garden features in the form of pieces of sculpture, garden furniture, vases, etc., loaned to the exhibit by nationality groups in the city lend authenticity to the gardens.

Much attention is centered around the flamboyant exhibit of orchids shown daily from Honolulu and displayed in their native setting by Frank Okana, Hawaiian florist who came here for that purpose.

Throthals

Attracting wide attention in Grosse Pointe this week was the engagement of Joan Wilk to Herbert Estroff, of Lakeland, Fla. The troth announcement was made by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wilk, Canterbury.

Miss Wilk will receive her degree from the University of Michigan in June. She is affiliated with Alpha, Epsilon Phi, and is women's editor of the Michigan Daily.

Mr. Estroff was graduated from the Citadel Military. He attended the University of Michigan where he was a member of Pi Lambda Phi.

Recent Weddings

Mrs. William Baker Johnson, the former June Wiseman Martin, daughter of Floyd Wiseman, was married Friday at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson of Lakewood avenue.

At an informal wedding on Saturday afternoon many Grosse Pointers were present when Vileta Cella Andrade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julio Andrade, of Birmingham, was married to James A.V.F. Aldridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Aldridge, of Leland, Miss.

The wedding was solemnized in St. Pauls Chapel of Christ Church, Cranbrook, with the Rev. Walter Young officiating. White gladiol and stephanotis were used on the altar.

Arrival of Spring Urges "New" Touch

By NANCY DuBRUL
Spring is here. You can tell it by the way flower hats blossom from village store windows, and the mailman comes whistling up Pointe walks. Yes—and spring gives you the urge to do something different with your room. You want to perk up a bit, add a ruffie here and there, hang some new prints, in short you want spring to come into your bedroom and make you smile. So—here are a few hints for giving that personal touch to your furnishings.

If you are fortunate enough to live near a dairy, see if you can get some wooden butter tubs, two of them. Paint them white, and decorate with decals of spring flowers, or try some fat saucy bluebirds painted free-hand, and wreathed with green leaves and red roses. One tub can be your wastepaper basket, and the other a magazine holder.

An old fashioned wooden recipe box, with the top and hinges removed, then painted white, and decorated to match the butter tubs, can brighten your desk and hold your mail.

The addition of an occasional ruffie is a wonderful sprit-lifter. To dress up your dressing

Women's Club To Hear Betty Roberts

Guest speaker at the meeting of Detroit Colony, National Society of New England Women, Wednesday, March 20, at the Ingleside Club, will be Betty Roberts, women's news commentator on Station WJBK, who will present an illustrated lecture on Guatemala. Colored slides to be shown were made from pictures Miss Roberts took on her trip there last summer. Guests may attend the lecture, set for 2:30 o'clock, each member being limited to three guests.

Mrs. Edward J. Savage, president, will conduct a board meeting at 11:30 o'clock, preceding the 12:30 o'clock luncheon, and the business session opening at 1:30 o'clock.

Reports will be given of the recent benefit-bridge party, and plans made for the observance of the 23d. birthday of Detroit Colony, which occurs in April. Reservations for luncheon should reach Mrs. Albert C. Pasini, of Bedford Road, corresponding secretary, by Sunday evening, March 23.

table, buy a plain mirror in a wooden frame. Stitch gathered eyellet to a strip of bias tape the length of the perimeter of the mirror. Tack this to the wood and you see your smiling face in a lovely frame.

To carry out the ruffles, you can slipcover your cardboard wastepaper basket. If your basket is 20" around, for example, and 15" high, you will need a piece of heaven white cotton 20" long and 15" wide. To this material stitch gathers of the same eyellet edging the length of each end, and cover your basket. It takes but a few seconds to put on, and a few seconds to take off and wash.

It will be spring in your heart and your room when you pep up your surroundings by putting your imagination and your fingers to work.

Spring To Arrive At 6:13 a.m., Friday

Spring is almost here! It will arrive at 6:13 a.m. tomorrow (Friday) according to Hazel M. Losh, assistant professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan.

It's just 365.24219 days from one spring to another, Prof. Losh says. Spring occurs when the plane of the earth's equator passes through the sun, she explains. The equinox, when days and nights are equal in length, also occurs at the same time.

The Greeks first determined the date of the equinox by measuring shadows cast by a stick thrust into the ground, Prof. Losh indicates. Since then the time of spring has been determined so often that astronomers can easily figure its arrival mathematically.

RADIO NEWS AND VIEWS

BY JAMES QUELLO
 Topic "A" among radio executives these days is the large number of network cancellations the past two weeks. Nationwide economy drives prompted by realization that wartime spending is over (plus corporation tax reductions in 1947), has caused many radio sponsors to cut budgets and drop expensive radio shows. Many feel that the industry will face a terrific upheaval within the coming 18 months — the greatest since radio became an accepted advertising medium. The general trend for sponsors will be toward more returns for his dollar and cheaper radio shows.

To give you an idea of the scope of cancellations or exits, following is a list of the better known programs (not to mention hundreds of lesser airings):
 Eddie Bracken (being replaced with Tony Martin show), Bob Burns, Joan Davis, Hildegarde, Hollywood Players, It's Up to Youth, Maisie, Frank Morgan, Pot O' Gold, Meet Me at Parky's, Buck Rogers, Kate Smith, Rudy Vallee, Vox Pop, Sparkle Time.
 Some of the stars in the above list will return to the air with different shows but many will have to scramble for new sponsors.

IT LOOKS like fifteen more top ranking shows will hit the auction block, unless the stars are willing to shave their fee from a third to a half. If the stars refuse to shave their big fees, we may see sponsors developing their own new stars. It would give young new talent its biggest opportunity in radio.
 Margaret Truman gave Detroit its most important network origination when she made her radio debut over WXYZ-ABC last Sunday. Special Hooper audience surveys indicate she broke all records for symphonic music. It was the first time a President's daughter broke into the ranks of professional artists since President Wilson's daughter back in 1918-19.

"AGENT ON YOUTH" on WJR Saturday afternoon is a juvenile production featuring an amateur chorus of youths between 14 and 18 years old. No professional choral group could sing any better. The entire program is fast paced with musical numbers skillfully selected for teenage appeal. The very professional sounding Encee is seventeen years old! We are reminding you because when you hear the program you wouldn't believe it. . . . WJR producers believe it is a natural for a CBS net summer replacement. The program would be a credit to Detroit radio production if heard over a nationwide network.
"MICROFUNSTERS"
 Amos 'n' Andy's query: To offset the predicted recession, why not a national Make-More-Money Week?
 The Great Gildersleeve's quip: Hate is the benevolent feeling Florida has for California and vice versa.
 Happy (Pot O' Gold) Felton's banter: Some men dislike women without any reason, while others like them that way.
 Don (Perry Mason) Briggs' entry: Marriage is a process that is both broadening and flattening for a man.
 Sherman (Exploring the Unknown) Dryer's fun: It's impractical for a puglist to try counting to ten to regain his temper.
 Bob Hawk's comment: Maybe it's just as well that the meek inherit the earth: no one else would pay the income taxes.
 Vaughn Monroe's sally: A well-budgeted home is one where the only things they ever get on time are the meals.
 Henry J. Taylor's note: Human intelligence reaches its maximum at 16 years, after which there is nothing left to do but learn how to use it.
 Penny (Blondie) Singleton's smile: The middle generation is raising the younger generation for the older generation to worry over.
 Sammy Kaye's definition: Spring cleaning time is when the housewife cleans out the medicine cabinet in order that her husband may have a place for his shaving things for a few days.

ADVENTUROUS TYPE

Mary Hull, talented young CBS actress, frequently is featured in important roles on Columbia's Thursday "Tales of Adventure" series and other popular dramatic programs.

Latest Highlights From Hollywood

Contrary to Mark Twain's famous assertion that nobody ever does anything about the weather, Mr. Na-ho-de-cladie-begay, a Navajo of New Mexico, can, has and will do something about it, for the movies, that is, and for er-r-r money.
 Recently, Mr. Begay contrived, by incantations and assorted gestures, to keep rain from falling upon scenes in his native state for "Pursued," the United States Pictures' epic starring Teresa Wright, Robert Mitchum and an assortment of wild and rugged villains.
 For this seeming miracle (or accident of nature, depending upon the way you look at it), Mr. Begay received $5 per rainfall day — and never missed.
 Impressed by his success, and profit, Mr. Begay has now officially notified every producer in the film capital that his professional services are available to all, that he is a free-lance practitioner under exclusive contract to nobody, that his influence upon the rain-gods is incomparable (at $5 per comparison) and that rainless satisfaction is guaranteed, positively.
 Mr. Twain, according to Mr. Begay, was wrong!

Dean Jagger, chief villain in the western epic, "Pursued," was a school teacher in Ohio when 16 years of age!

Harry M. Warner, Jack L. Warner, producer Milton Sperling and director Raoul Walsh have been appointed Colonels on the staff of New Mexico's Governor, Frank L. Mabry.

Commissions were in recognition of services rendered New Mexico by the filming there of United States Pictures' western epic, "Pursued," which stars Teresa Wright, Robert Mitchum and the impressive scenery of that state, and which was produced for release by Warner Bros.

Presentation concluded a visit here by the Governor and party for conferences with Mayor Fletcher Bowron and the local press regarding the value of New Mexico for future film settings.

A Band Rating Significance of Band, Not Music

The Grosse Pointe High School Band is a class A organization. To most students an A thing is synonymous with excellence. This is not true in classification of Michigan school bands.
 A class A rating does indicate musical accomplishment, nor does it denote equal incompetence.
 Bands are classified according to school enrollment, school with a population of 750 and more is eligible for class A rating.
 Bands from smaller schools usually have less strength, variety of instrumentation. Since bands compete according to alphabetical classification in interschool contests these ratings protect the testants against unfair competition.
 New York City's subway are scheduled to average miles an hour as expressed 15 miles an hour as local actual running speed is from 50 miles an hour.

The Grosse Pointe High School cagers concluded their basketball season Friday night when they met and lost to a swift and accurate Dearborn quintet in a close contest 44-41. The game was the second round of the Class A state regional tournament held at Ferndale.

Two days previous the Pointers defeated a tough Royal Oak team 44-32 to reach the second round. Dearborn drew a bye that night.
