"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

An American Story

We tend to forget the fact that "big business" was "little business" a few years ago. The true American story is the chronicle of people succeeding, prospering and developing through their own efforts.

The history of one of the country's principal chain grocery systems, the Safeway Company, is a case in point. Its importance lies in the fact that the history of most successful American enterprise is essentially the same.

In 1915, a man opened a hole-in-the-wall grocery store in the West. Little by little, as his resources permitted, he started additional stores. In 1926, he merged with another system operating in California.

There is no mystery to the secret of success. The chain simply offered the public things it wanted the way it wanted them. It was an pioneer in the self-service idea, which reduced costs and gave the customer a chance to browse about in making his purchases.

Other retail systems have had a similar record. Somewhere, today, there is a small-store operator who will be the big-store operator of tomorrow—if inequitable taxes and governmental interference don't stand in his way.

President Champions Family Week

President Harry S. Truman championed the American home as the nation's first line of defense, in peace as in war, in a letter giving his endorsement to the continent-wide observance of National Family Week, May 4-11, by Protestants, Catholics and Jews. Following is the President's letter:

My Dear Friends—The American home, in peace as in war, stands foursquare as our first line of defense. It is therefore encouraging to know that National Family Week is again to be observed during the period from May 4 to 11, 1947.

It is of happy significance when three great groups representing differing religious convictions and allegiances in our American life can unite in a common undertaking. It is, I firmly believe, decidedly in the national interest that representatives of the Synagogue Council of America, representing the ancient Jewish culture; the National Conference on Family Life, representing the Catholic faith; and the Intercouncil Committee on Family Life, representing the Protestant faith, can unite in the observance of National Family Week. This joint effort gives the Nation and the world an example of the spirit of toleration and forbearance which must prevail if we are to maintain our democratic institutions. Not the least of our freedoms is freedom of conscience.

I trust that the forthcoming observance of National Family Week will emphasize the principle that in all that affects our well-being as a Nation we strive for unity in essentials; liberty in non-essentials; in all things, charity.

Very sincerely yours, HARRY S. TRUMAN

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor: The Mothers Club of Grosse Pointe High School do so appreciate your loyal co-operation and publicity you have given us for all our meetings and parties.

Words just do not express our gratefulness as all the affairs sponsored by the Mothers Club have been very successful this year, thanks to The Grosse Pointe Review.

Sincerely MRS. W. HURST MONTEE Corresponding Secretary.

To the Editor: What America Needs to Prevent Degeneration and Promote Production:

More production at lower prices to insure larger distribution to all. Streamline distribution system. Abundance is prosperity—scarcity is poverty. Eliminate much business and government overhead and costly non-essential advertising. Maintain only moderate business profits.

Outlaw closed shop, curb unions and their leaders to prevent disrupted production and inferior products. Eliminate and modify many laws, government bureaus and regulations and lower taxes to create business incentive. Compiling therewith, keeping voluminous unnecessary records entails excessive costs, continuance thereof will destroy business and industry which made great progress when laws and regulations were few. Business cannot longer tolerate all government red tape.

Lower taxes drastically by real government economy, reduce certain government salaries and costs, consolidate government agencies and units and school districts to provide better education at reduced costs enabling the taxpayers to actually pay reasonable costs. Abolish the numerous taxes and tax collection agencies thereby releasing thousands of employees from government payroll for actual useful production. Maintain a single income tax modified to support all reasonable and economical government units and to better equalize individual incomes, taxes, pensions for all and prices. Eliminate double taxation-tax corporate earnings but not again on dividends. Limit by law and taxation executive and administrative salaries and bonuses commensurate with profits and dividends paid to shareholders to provide for secured investment incentive. There are too many living off tax money—it costs too much to be governed. Excessive taxation prevails in America. It has contributed to the decline and fall of all nations. Let's reduce taxation and preserve America.

Conserve America's assets and natural resources—export only surplus products for needed imports. Withdraw from costly foreign entanglements; avoid war. Build a strong home defense.

Edward W. Vincent, Grosse Pointe Park.

Editor's Note: Mr. Vincent is a former manufacturer, engineer and a student of economics.

LAST RITES

Funeral services were held for Mrs. August C. Spieks, who died last week at her home at 1787 Stanhop, Grosse Pointe Woods. Mrs. Stanhop was the wife of the late August C. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Margaret Boekle, Mrs. Hedwig Taylor, Mrs. Gertrude Miller, and Mrs. Hilda Reed; four sons, Adolph, Carl, August and Arthur and 10 grandchildren.

D. D. Douglas Heads D&C Ship Line

D. Dwight Douglas, of 4 Rathbon road, a veteran resident of Grosse Pointe, was assigned to the task of getting the six-ship fleet of the D&C line back on the Great Lakes this spring.

The company, nearing the century mark in navigation, announced last December that wage demands would force discontinuance of service.

Douglas, a Navy officer in World War II, was named to the new post of chairman of the board at Tuesday's meeting. He is a new figure in D&C management which in recent years has been rife with discord.

LEAVE PAY CEASES. Entitlement to terminal leave pay for World War II veterans will cease on September 1, 1947 unless a claim has been filed before that date. Dependents may file for terminal leave pay of deceased veterans.

Runaway

Grosse Pointe. He felt that he had two strikes against him at school. After the worker pointed out that it took three strikes to put a person out, Butch allowed her to call his mother. The mother was horrified that her son had traveled so far. She admitted that she had been hard on Butch recently and would give him a hearty welcome home.

The Travelers Aid bought him a ticket and sent him back to his mother. His father phoned the Travelers Aid Society later to report that Butch was doing well in school and was happy and contented.

Butch was only one of the problems that this Red Feather agency is called upon to solve in bus and railroad stations in Metropolitan Detroit. In observing the 30th anniversary of the founding of the National Travelers Aid Association Saturday, April 26, Mrs. Valentine pointed out that back of the Travelers Aid service is a tradition founded in the covered wagon days. In 1851 Bryan Mullanphy died in St. Louis and left one-third of his million dollar fortune to assist those traveling to the West.

The local society will receive $43,680 of its 1947 budget of $48,019 from the Community Chest. The Neighborhood Club of Grosse Pointe is a Red Feather Agency.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

by PAULA BEAUPRE

This has really been a fun packed weekend with the theme of the spring season being worked into all the parties and gatherings which filled every minute of the time.

Dreamy couples filled the room On Friday eve and Monday 'noon. Art McHugh provided the beat For Friday's many dancing feet. On Monday, Frankie and Bing were 'round, But, of course, 'was the Juke Box On which they were found! And, naturally a wonderful time was had, By every St. Paul Lassie and Lad!

The spring season was ushered in in grand style last Friday night by the JUNIORS SPRING DANCE. The class members put their heads together and came up with plans for a wonderful dance.

FRANNIE ARDOTTO and RAY ALLOE, Decoration Committee Chairman, filled the gym with baskets of lovely spring flowers while black lambs frolicked on the backboards.

The huge attendance at the affair proved that NANCY ROCKWOOD had carried out her duties as Publicity Chairman very well.

AL MOIR and TOM GEIST saw to it that everyone had cokes aplenty, and as the couples came in they were greeted by JOANNE KREHNBRINK and BUTCH DUROCHER of the reception committee.

Art McHugh's music put everyone in a dreamy mood and, so the evening passed quickly and happily for everyone.

Greeting their friends and admiring the decorations throughout the affair were Bob McBride and Anne Dungan, Chuck Tanner and Ellie Wade, Do Backman and Wally Brey, Joanne Athanson and Ray Huetteinan, Betty Sheridan and Al Moir, Marty Mauer and Frank Burns, Nora Allard and Bernie Brewer, Sally Nacy and Vince Oliver, Al Campenhou and Mary Sparr, Carol Staub and Jim McCarthy, Connie Curran and

On Monday afternoon, the Junior Hi students were honored with a social hour. When asked what they wished to do the unanimous response was: "Let's dance." And that is exactly what they did!

Refreshments were provided for the participants and we heard it said that everyone was having such a wonderful time, that they hated to leave.

Picking out records for the juke box and graciously accepting invitations to dance were Gerald Lubicki, Tom Marchand, Helen Cook, Jo Camella, Jim Shane, Tom Backman, Bob Baker, Judy Beaupre, Norma Boxrud, Louis Dansbury, Eugene Clarke, Leo Kennedy, Pat Fraser, Dennis Furton, Betty Lou Kosecke, Celestine Krumholz, Richard Limburg, Sallie McCarron, Gerard Marschall, Dorothy Marcareau, Frances Paye, Joan Piche, Thomas Palmer, Charlotte Marchand, Helene Mauer, Duane Streb, Mary Jo Trombley, Sharon Sweeney, Joan Rabaut, Catherine West, Diane Zemper, Marc Couvreur, Joy Kelly, Jack Lemieux, Theresa Lyford, Dolore Wise, Tom Zilly, Harriet Marchand, Jack Trombley, Mary Del Barba, Bill Mason, Bev Labadie, Peggy Sharpe, Louis Geist, Pat Danaher, Bob Vernier, Frances Schilling, Dolores Slater, Bob Magee, Connie Molitor, Tom Tapert, Marilyn Sutherland, Chuck Dupuis, Janey Oxley, Dolores Chelens, Bill Fisher, Retha Geyman, Ann Reed, Jeffery Huetter, Joan Hagan, Robert Clark, Rita Blondell, Martha McLaughlin, and Phyllis Van Baeleere, Sally Valade and Sally McKernan, Betty De Poala, Chuck Boulit and Jack Boomer.

A big birthday cake with pink icing was the first thing that NANCY SCHUMACHER noticed when she walked into the room last Saturday night in which a group were planning a surprise for her. Jeanne Kulka, Peggie Wortley, Frannie Arditto, George Heidt, Johnny Fushman, Ray Huetteinan and Al Compeneut kept the whole affair a secret until the moment she walked into the room where the festive occasion was to take place.

Decorations and popular music helped to provide a very happy time for all the schemers.

The bride's gown of white satin was fashioned with a tight fitted bodice, sweet heart neckline, long fitted sleeves which came to a point over the hand, and a full skirt extending into a train. Her finger-tip veil was edged with lace from her mother's veil. A necklace, that belonged to the bride's great-great aunt, of hand carved gold set with pearls and diamonds was her only jewelry. She carried a white prayer book adorned with a white orchid.

Lorraine Kruse, sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor. She wore a pale yellow faille dress with tight bodice, round neckline, cape sleeves and full skirt with a bustle. Her flowers were orchid color irises.

The bridesmaids, Eileen Kruse, sister of the groom, and Jane Bryant, cousin of the bride, wore dresses of pale green fashioned like the maid of honor and carried yellow irises.

Tiny Joanne Ropp, flower girl, wore a yellow long dress, with square neck-line, puff sleeves and full skirt. She carried a basket of rose petals. Little Dennis Dahneke, brother of the bride, was ring bearer and carried the same pillow used at the wedding of the bride's parents.

All attendants wore matching head dresses the same color as their gowns.

Don Kruse, served his brother as best man and Ollie Smitt, Bob Kruse, Neil Kruse and Don Gill were ushers.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the Jefferson Room at the Whittier, and open house on Sunday at the home of the bride's parents.

Christ Church Is Scene of Randall Wedding

By MARY LONDES

All those gowns of yellow and white. They were designed with off-the-shoulder necklines, long sleeves and full skirts. The yellow maline hats they wore large wide brims.

Charming violet bouquets tied with violet streamers were carried by the bridesmaids. The flowers of the bridesmaids were made up of maiden hair fern and white primroses centered with dashes of yellow.

Best man was Stewart Davidson of Boston. Ushers were Blanchard Randall III, John Randall, Brian Randall, Page Nelson, Charles Elliott, Harry Slack, and David McDougall. All came from Baltimore for the wedding.

A beige crepe gown was worn by Mrs. Mateer and was matched by a violet flowered hat. Mrs. Randall chose turquoise.

A reception was held at the Country Club after which the couple left on their wedding trip. They will reside in Baltimore.

Rumpelstiltskin Reviews

By ISABEL RONEY

about the ripe old age of most children begin to show improvement in their reading ability. Their interests extend in several directions and positive preferences in one matter begin to be apparent. To a large extent these preferences are conditioned by the reader's temperament and alertness.

The types of literature most frequently chosen are most frequently mentioned in fairy tales, myths and legends, hero stories, animal tales, fiction, poetry and art, historical, biographical, scientific books, practical and religious books.

For the next several weeks we will list several titles under each of the above classifications, for children from ten to fourteen years of age. Our first classification will begin with Folk Fairy Tales:

Arabian Nights. A collection of Oriental stories, which are supposed to have originated in Persia, India and Persia. Care should be taken in selection to be certain that it is an edition for children. One of the best texts edited by Padraic Colum, illustrated by Eric Pape. A Macmillan publication. Another scholarly edition for older children, is edited by Andrew Lang and published by Longmans, Green and Co. Kate D. Wiggin and N. A. Pfaendler have edited a very acceptable one. It is illustrated by Max Parrish and is a Scribner publication. Recently, a beautiful and colorful Arabian Nights has been published by Grosset and Dunlap Co. It is illustrated by the Goodenow and is one of the classics completed in their illustrated Junior Library. (Ages 11).

Sea of Cortez. by Arthur Huxley, illustrated with over 100 illustrations, by Elise Hassel. It is a series of fascinating sea stories, imbued with the spirit of Chinese life and thought, published by E. P. Dutton and Co. It was awarded the Newbery medal as the most distinguished contribution to American children's literature during the year 1925. (10-14).

English Fairy Tales. by Grandmother, translated by Gustav Hein, published by Crowell, is a good

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Mariner Girl Scouts of Grosse Pointe held their investiture ceremonies in Miller Hall recently. A. B. Buchanan, commander in the Detroit Power Squadron, presented the Mariner Flag to the troop.

Richard F. Weber, also a Commander in the Power Squadron, gave an inspiring talk on the eight points of the Mariner wheel. Parents and Wing Scouts attended the affair, and watched 12 girls receive their Mariner pins. A special guest was Miss Mary Barker, Program Director for the Metropolitan area. Refreshments were served.

One aim of Girl Scouts is to render service to the community in which they live. Brownell Scout Troops 201 and 299 contributed largely in this respect by setting up approximately 130 tables for the Mothers' Club Scholarship Fund Benefit Bridge held April 10 in the High School.

About two weeks ago, twenty members of Troop 299 visited the flower exhibit in the Belle Isle Conservatory. April 24th this same troop will make a trip to the Pewabic Pottery Company in Detroit, and near the middle of May will enjoy three days of troop camping at Metamora.

Intermediate Troop 377 is busy making yellow oilcloth ducks for the Children's Hospital. On March 14th girls from this troop prepared an attractive showcase in Richard School depicting Home Safety.

The Brownies are active, too, and very much on the beam. Joanne Ortwein, 8-year-old, pint-sized Scribe for Brownie Troop 327, describes in an interesting letter just what makes her troop tick. She writes, "Brownie Troop 327 was organized in October, 1945. Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Koelbel are our leaders. The first year we learned the meaning of being a Brownie; to give service where service is needed.

"We had our investiture in January, 1946; then we were truly Brownies. We had a tea for our Mothers who all came for the ceremony. We received our pins, and our troop received the American and Brownie Flags, which we now have at all our meetings.

"In the first year we made gifts for our parents, and little surprises for the children in Children's Hospital. We collected fat to help raise money for the Girl Scouts, and we also learned some pretty and funny songs."

Elmer Boyd Sings with Denison Chorus

Elmer Boyd, senior at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, was among the 50-voice Women's Glee Club which sang over radio station WOSU, Columbus, April 20. The Club also presented its annual home concert April 17. Miss Boyd is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Boyd of 1016 Harvard road.

Dean's Honors Won By Pointe Youth

Stanley Worth Jarvis, 415 St. Clair, senior in the School of Engineering and Architecture, University of Kansas, is on the Dean's Honor Roll, which includes the highest 10 per cent of the class for the last semester. Grade standings required last semester were the highest in the school's modern history.

N. W. Diedrich Takes Bride

Janet Evans Gram, daughter of Mrs. H. James Gram of Alden Park Manor, was given in marriage by her brother, H. James Gram to Norman William Diedrich. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Diedrich, Jr., of Bedford Road.

The ceremony took place at 4:00 Saturday afternoon in Grosse Pointe Memorial church.

The bride wore aqua crepe fashioned with short sleeves and a V neckline. Her hat was made of aqua illusion tulle, and white orchids were her flowers.

Elizabeth and Margaret Gram, sisters of Janet acted as bridesmaids in beige crepe. Nougats of vivid roses were their flowers. David Scully was best man and ushers were Hugh Laughna and Jack Deho.

A reception was held at the Whittier and the couple later left for a two week's trip South. When they return, Mr. and Mrs. Diedrich will reside in Birmingham.

"Certainly, anyone who says there is no romance in business just does not know about the motor car."

STOREKEEPERS!

"CRIME INCREASE BIGGEST IN 15 YEARS"

J. EDGAR HOOVER
Director F. B. I.

The F.B.I. reports crime on the upswing! Robberies up 23.6%. Burglaries up 17%. The biggest increase in years.

Other people's holdups, burglaries and safe crackings are just statistics. But it can happen to you, too.

The business-like storekeeper insures himself against such losses. A Storekeepers Policy gives 7-hazard protection.

STOREKEEPERS BURGLARY AND ROBBERY 7-HAZARD PROTECTION

- SAFE BURGLARY
- INSIDE HOLDUP
- STORE BURGLARY
- DAMAGE TO STORE AND FIXTURES
- BURGLARY OF CUSTODIANS HOME
- KIDNAPPING
- OUTSIDE HOLDUP

This policy covers losses up to $250.00 for each of the seven hazards included, yet it costs only a few cents a day. Such protection is not an "extra" or a luxury. It's a normal part of the operating expense of a well run business. Additional policies can be purchased at decreased cost.

SAFE BURGLARY

A tragic "Good Morning"! But the insured storekeeper collects for the loss and the resulting damage.

INSIDE HOLDUP

It comes as a surprise and is all over in a minute or two. But how much will sales have to increase to make up the loss if there is no insurance?

STORE BURGLARY

Money and merchandise are covered under this policy as well as the resulting damage to the store and fixtures.

OUTSIDE HOLDUP

A routine trip to or from the bank can be a costly one when deposits and payrolls are not insured.

G.P. Coaches Invited to Tiger Clinic
By CHUCK ALEXANDER
Members of the Detroit Tigers will show their baseball tricks to high school and American Legion junior baseball coaches of Michigan this summer.

High school baseball coaches from Grosse Pointe who are invited to attend are: Pat Kaultitz, Grosse Pointe High; Ed Lauer, St. Paul and Ed Palumbo, St. Ambrose.

The Tigers, in collaboration with The J. L. Hudson Company, have announced the sponsorship of the three-day coaching clinic, to be held in Briggs Stadium June 26, 27, 28.

The coaching school will emphasize high school coaching techniques and methods, Ralph L. Yonker, Hudson's publicity director, said in the announcement.

Every major phase of baseball strategy will be covered, in addition to coaching methods themselves.

Every high school and American Legion junior baseball coach in Michigan will be invited to attend the clinic. The complete program will be announced later, Yonker said, but added that it was planned to devote the mornings of the three-day school to lectures and demonstrations.

"The coaches will be invited to the Tigers' games against the St. Louis Browns Friday and Saturday," he added.

"Hudson's welcomes the opportunity to collaborate with the Tigers in furthering the development of high school and junior baseball in Michigan," Yonker said. "Nothing, it is felt, will do that better than the indoctrination of a competent, capable body of coaches."

There will be no fee for the school.

Baseball Loop Wants More Sandlot Nines
The Grosse Pointe Sandlot Baseball League, which is expected to get under way Sunday, May 11, has six teams in its fold. They are Bob Drugs, Graf Scherer, Jefferson-Lincoln and Woods Merchants in Class B (no age limit), and Tom Boyds and East Warren Merchants in Class E (limited to boys 16 years of age and under).

League officials hope to open its Class B schedule on the afore-said date with the Class E nines beginning play on Wednesday, May 14. Class E teams will play only on Sunday.

Entries of new teams are highly encouraged. Sandlot meetings are held every Monday night at the Graf Bike Shop, Mack at Anita. All managers and players are invited to attend.

Qualified men who would like to join the League's Umpire Staff are invited to call James Sutton, secretary at NL 2769.

Junior Order Plans Eastwood Dance
The Aleph Zadik Aleph, junior order of the B'nai B'rith, will present its eighth annual Spring Dance at the Beautiful Eastwood Gardens, on Saturday, May 10, Regional office of the B'nai B'rith 1947.

Tickets may be obtained at the Youth Organization, 11718 Dexter Blvd., near Webb. There will also be a limited amount sold at the gate.

About 15% of the high school graduates enter college. This is equivalent to about seven per cent of the total public school enrollment.

Batter Barry Munro and Catcher John Rommel of Grosse Pointe High's Baseball team are both eagerly waiting for the next pitch. The nine composed of virtually all veterans is looking forward to a successful season this year in the Border Cities League.

Devils Down Fordson Parker Netters Next
By KEN VENDERBUSH
A well-balanced Grosse Pointe High School tennis team easily won their 66th consecutive meet by downing the Fordson Tractors eight matches to one Tuesday.

It was really a moral victory for the Tractors since it was the first time they had scored a point against a Grosse Pointe tennis team in recent years.

A different plan was used for this meet. Instead of the wartime plan of playing four singles and three doubles matches the Devils and Tractors played six singles and three doubles.

Coch Lawrence Westerville of Grosse Pointe favors the new system because his team is strong all the way through in comparison to many of its opponents who rely on one or two outstanding players.

In the six singles matches Paul Grubbs, Tom Willson, Bill Penoyer, Bob Schneider, Bruce Kirchner and Marvin Weaver easily overcome their opponents.

In the doubles, Dan Guy and Don Broadbridge, George Kennedy and Hugh Dill also won by a wide majority, and Bob Stritzinger and Bud Golla playing number three doubles were defeated by an extremely close score giving Fordson their only match.

The Devils play host to the Highland Park team, Friday, April 25. Because it is the first time the local lads have met the Parkers, Highland Park having just recently joined the league, little is known of their tennis prowess. It will undoubtedly prove to be an interesting meet.

Pointe High Holds Edge In Trophy Race
Grosse Pointe now holds a slight edge over Wyandotte in the point standings for the Border Cities League Sweep Stakes Trophy. It looks as though it's going to be a close race for the trophy however, since Wyandotte and Fordson are both strong in spring sports.

Let's have a look at the spring sport picture.

It is almost a sure thing that tennis will be the same old story. Grosse Pointe should walk off with a first but they had better look for trouble from Monroe. Wyandotte is also strong and should be near the top, but Fordson is very weak.

Wyandotte took the league championship in track last year, and it is probable that the Bears will be strong contenders in the current season. Fordson almost always produces good track teams. The Devils, however, can be counted on to take at least a third in track and probably better.

Actually the sport which is likely to decide the race will be baseball. Last year the Devils were weak in baseball while Fordson and Wyandotte were among the leaders. This year it is probable that the baseball picture will be much different. Grosse Pointe has a lot of material and should come up with a winning nine. If last place Highland Park lives up to their publicity in baseball they should come through to lead the league.

The race for the trophy will depend mostly on what Wyandotte does in track and baseball. Even with medium success however, Grosse Pointe should retain the coveted award.

According to the Detroit News, Tom Blacklock, who was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in June '45, is stroke on Wisconsin's junior varsity crew. Tom was an outstanding performer here, and he won a letter in crew at Wisconsin in his freshman year. He is now a sophomore.

Another Grosse Pointe graduate who is on the Wisconsin squad is freshman Floyd Nixon, January '45.

Neighborhood Club Gets Girls' Coach
The Grosse Pointe Girls Softball team has a coach. Thanks to the Grosse Pointe Review.

He is Tony Moustakas, 22, of Detroit, a physical education student at Wayne University.

This newspaper answered the Club's desperate plea for a coach by checking with Physical Education departments of local colleges. Moustakas volunteered for the job.

Moustakas, a Navy veteran, has had several years of experience in baseball and softball and in training athletes for competition.

The team will meet its new coach Thursday at the Neighborhood Club, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

All girls wishing to try out for the team are cordially invited to attend. All positions are still open.

Stamp Club Sets Meeting
The Grosse Pointe Collectors Club will hold their next meeting at the home of Ma John Frurip, 886 Nottingham, on Friday, April 23, at 8 p.m.

All stamp collectors in Grosse Pointe wishing to join this club may contact the secretary, Richard Langworthy by calling MURray 6035.

Approximately 200,000 youth (both boys and girls) belong to "character building" youth-serving organizations in Michigan. It is estimated that at least an equal number within eligible age limits are not affiliated.
