"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

The Right To Work

Fair rules and fair play applied to everybody constitute the only solution to the nation's labor troubles.

The right to work should no more be decided on a partisan basis than should the determination to go to war when the nation is menaced by aggression from outside.

Curtailed of the right to work through the unusual power acquired by labor unions over the last 15 years is a most serious threat to our liberties today.

Business And The Price Problem

President Truman's recent remarks on inflation, in which he appealed to business to hold down and if possible reduce prices, pose some difficult problems.

Some manufacturers have recently announced price decreases, which is a favorable sign. And it is a safe bet that the manufacturer who deliberately overprices his wares is very rare indeed.

The buyers for large retail organizations, such as the chain systems, are being extraordinarily careful in making their purchases now. They will not buy unless they are satisfied that maximum quality is offered at minimum price.

Business, at both the manufacturing and retail levels, knows that nothing can be so destructive as unbridled inflation. It knows that reasonable prices are essential to the mass-production and mass-sales on which our economy depends.

It is encouraging to note that Grosse Pointe merchants are doing their share in this fight.

Meeting Fire's Threat

The President's Conference on Fire Prevention, which will meet May 6-8 in Washington, D.C., has a series of specific objectives.

It will study building construction, operation and protection, with a view to finding means of eliminating present dangers.

It will consider the wide field of fire prevention education, with particular emphasis on instructional aids for schools and colleges.

It will analyze the adequacy of fire-fighting facilities and personnel, and make recommendations for needed improvement.

It will explore the broad question of laws and law enforcement as they relate to fire prevention and fire safety.

It will recommend a plan for obtaining organized, aggressive public support of fire prevention activity in all its phases.

It will establish a program for continuous research with respect to fire, which will provide information on which laws and regulations can be based.

The Conference will mark the start of the most intensive drive against the fire menace ever undertaken. President Truman called it to meet a grave and immediate emergency. And it can do its job only if it receives the widest possible public support.

Grosse Pointe will be represented at this important conference by George F. Danabury, veteran chief of the Grosse Pointe Farms Fire Department.

Every citizen should be highly interested in the developments of this meeting.

Today's Youth

Down the alley and over the fence—woops—go! now Johnny needs a new pair of pants. Such, is one of many ways our teenagers have of dispersing that excess energy.

The youth of today—tomorrow's fathers and mothers, doctors, lawyers, merchants, and criminals, and all that goes to make this complex society of ours ask only for a chance to develop mentally as well as physically.

Where may we find this true Christian guidance? The source begins in the home—like branches of a huge tree, reaching out to the community centers, such as the schools, churches and YMCA's; where the first breath is taken in the development of organized group play.

The proper tempering of our tool steel today will bring better finishing productive dies for a-morrow.

Did you hear about the man who advertised for a wife in the newspapers and received letters from 200 husbands to the effect that he could have theirs?

U.S. Presidents Devoted To Mothers

The 33rd national observance of Mothers' Day, May 11, will find mothers throughout the nation honored by church and civic groups and by their sons and daughters personally.

The prominence given in the news recently to President Truman's dramatic visits to see his mother calls attention to a heart-warming historic fact—that down through the years the majority of our Presidents have been extremely devoted sons.

When Martha Ellen Truman's son made the headlines by flying in bad weather in order to spend holidays with his mother, he was, in fact, continuing a tradition of parental devotion first established by George Washington.

Washington made a similar, if not a spectacular, visit to see his mother. While en route to take part in his inauguration ceremonies in New York City, our first President made a point of stopping off at Ferry Farm, the family homestead at Fredericksburg, Va., to spend time with his mother, Mary Bell Washington.

Washington's thoughtfulness in taking time to see his mother on this occasion was especially fortunate since it proved to be the last time he saw her alive.

The first mother to realize the ambition of actually seeing her son inaugurated was Ella Ballou Garfield, a widow who raised four children. President Garfield was, according to one biographer, "the most affectionate and devoted of sons."

When mortally wounded by an assassin's bullet in 1881, he showed his affection for his mother by immediately sending her a note in which he made light of his wound.

Lincoln's deep respect for his mother inspired his now-famous remark: "All that I am or hope to be I owe to my angel mother." In 1818, when Lincoln was nine years old, he was at his mother's bedside to hear her last request which was, prophetically, "Be something, Abe."

G.P. Graduates Win Top Honors At Ann Arbor

An all-time record of 65 recommended graduates of Grosse Pointe High School entered the University of Michigan in 1946.

Nearly half of all the marks they received in their first semester courses were honor marks of A's and B's.

John Hinder, January, '45, made an all-A record. Also achieving honor mark averages were Thelma Fife, Harry Jordan, Ted Kidd, Robert Reese, Thomace Rice, Robert Seeber, Clarence Skau, William Weldon, and James Wimsatt.

The honor point average for all first semester marks of Grosse Pointe High School graduates, not including physical education, is 1.36, a high C.

Only 12.7 per cent of the marks they received were below C and only four marks were failure.

"This record of achievement for first semester grades at the University of Michigan we consider exceptionally good," stated Mr. W. R. Clemmison, principal, "in view of the great number of the group who had been away from their studies two, three, and four years."

Because of the influx of returning veterans this 1946 group tops the previous high of 40 Grosse Pointe graduates who entered the University of Michigan in 1943. Only 22 entered in 1944 and 38 in 1945.

Navy enlistments are accepted every day and Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the Naval Armory.

To the Editor: We want to express our appreciation for the fine way you have been featuring our stories on page one.

The story on Dr. Fitz-Simons couldn't have been better placed and the feature story on Travelers Aid looked good in the make-up. Although we suspect that the bold face "Red Feather" in the story may have been a typographical error it was an appreciated error, as we are trying to identify the Red Feather with Community Chest agencies in the public mind.

If there is any information or story that we can give you on the work of the Community Chest or any Red Feather agency please call on us.

Sincerely, VIRGINIA PATRICK, Public Relations.

(Editor's Note: No typographical error in this case, Miss Patrick. The bold face was an intended boost for your organization.)

To the Editor: Though I have only lived in Grosse Pointe for six months I have come to the conclusion that the girls in this area are too forward and too easy to date.

It seems the ones I had the fortune or I should say the misfortune to meet, drank and smoked excessively and their conduct was strictly unbecoming. Where are the nice girls in this Grosse Pointe?

Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

Even though last week-end weather was not exactly made to order for teenage fun, the kids still provided something to write about in the line of entertainment.

JIM STOVER and ED KARRER were the first to think up something new in the era of original fun, and so on Friday night they asked your scribe, Doris Diesing, Phil Robertson, All Sellars, Dick Mitchell, and Jane Lundgren to trek down to the Michigan theater to see Tex Beneke, before dancing and dining at the D.A.C.

All the crowd had a marvelous time listening to Tex swing out with his renditions of Rhapsody in Blue and Meadow Land before munching on refreshing sandwiches and sipping tall cool lemonades.

Then on Saturday night BARBARA BETHEL, gave another one of those stupendous open houses for all her crowd over at Pierce. Potato chips and pop sufficed for nourishment, while the kids danced the night away to recorded music and also sang around the player piano.

In on the fun were: Pat Goyette, Bill Elder, Carol Krause, Bob McEchan, Sharon Crawford, Roger Ellis, Anne Young, Ford Slater, Char Smith, Bill Turrell, Brenda Winner, Larry Erteden, Skip Downey, Chris Masansky, Clyde Lemay, Dolores Mong, Joyce Slack, Doug Michelson, Madge Winters, Dave Donnelly, Mary Murray, and Roger Muller.

JEAN SWAN chose all girls to invite all girls to her hag affair on Friday night. The girls came clad in jeans to enjoy the chicken salad sandwiches, potato chips, pepsi's and angel food cake, before settling down to some fast chatter and pratter.

The conversation was well monopolized by, Sally Reynolds, Anne Packer, Clair Kehler, Carol Ericson, Jean Morrison, Delcie Sawusch, Joan Trefry, and Pat Underwood.

Grosse Pointe High's Spring Concert, took place on Sunday afternoon, and all who attended claimed the students did a wonderful job of entertaining the public with their lovely music.

JOHN E. FINCH, musical director, led the Boys Glee Club, The Girls Glee Club, and The A Capella Choir, through the selections in Pierce Auditorium.

Italian Street Song, with Soloist GAY STEPHENSON, was outstanding in everyone's mind. While "Stout Hearted Men" also received a marvelous applause. These were done by the Boys' Glee Club.

Green Cathedral, starring AUDREY COLLE, as soloist, was also welcomed heartily by the audience along with My Beautiful Lady, by the Girls Glee Club.

Along the Navahoe Trail, was magnificent, with Sandy Britt, and Don Osborn doing the leads. Barbara Coulter supplied the proper background with her drum noises that much resembled horses hoofs.

It was hard to believe that Fred Waring's arrangement of Onward Christian Soldiers was not done by his own chorus, because the A Cappella Choir did such a splendid job with it.

Other solos were taken by BETTY BRADY, and MARGE REST, who also supplied much to the entertainment of the afternoon.

A gala time was held by all who attended the All-Sports Spring Roundup, sponsored by Grosse Pointe High School Dad's Club, and honoring Grosse Pointe High and Brownell Junior High athletes, Friday at the high school's auditorium.

A colorful program of school yells, remarks from coaches and movies of the 1945 World Series packed the evening with stimulating entertainment.

A buffet supper in the cafeteria followed the program.

"Something New" Added To Schools' Spring Concert

By JUNE CLEMENTS
A blend of serious and modern rhythms... something new in the line of programs... a review of the contest material performed at the recent Ann Arbor Festival.

This is what Director Dewey D. Kalember and his musical cohorts have pledged for their annual Spring Concert this Friday evening at the Grosse Pointe High School Auditorium. Teamed with those connoisseurs of musical callisthenics, the Swingmasters, the senior bandmen have styled a program to pamper the ears of the audience.

Among the pieces billed for band interpretation are: E. Granados' "Jota"; the bombastic Festival Overture by Gibbs, and Matt Callen's narrative novelty entitled "The Dangerous Dan McGrew." SM musicians reveal that their brew of jive is too potent to preview on paper.

Bandmen will accompany Robert Cogan in a clarinet solo. A five man horn ensemble will also make its debut. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Curtain at 8:15.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

by PAULA BEAUPRE

This week, we are treating
With a music meeting,
And a birthday greeting, too,
We want to review it,
In your minds renew it,
So now we will do it, for you.

An Early-Bird Graduation party provided the reason for crowds of June graduates thronging to the Lincoln Road dwelling of JOYCE ALEF on Sunday from four till nine. The affair took place in Joyce's beautiful recreation room which had very suitable decorations adorning the walls for the occasion.

The guests were treated to a buffet style dinner consisting of potato salad, spaghetti, and ham topped off with delicious punch and chips.

Games and dancing took up the biggest portion of the time, with the remaining minutes being taken care of by Phil McGahey and his impersonations.

Another crowd of students were seen hurrying downtown to the Music Hall on Saturday morning for the Hudson Fashion Show entitled GRADUATION TIME.

Four St. Paul students were members of the cast and so there were plenty of students there to view the St. Paul talent.

Taking part in the production were BETTY ANN HUETTETMAN, ART SMITH, RAY HUETTETMAN, GEORGE HEIDT.

Spectators included Nan Stahl, Do Backman, Carol Staub, Nancy Sittinger, Alice Fauser, Joan Krausmann, Phyllis Rapp and Anne Romzick.

RALPH SCHNEIDER laid out the welcome mat on Friday for another of his popular get-togethers.

Throughout the session, the couples consumed hot dogs and chips between dances and games of pool.

Having a wonderful time were Ralph's date Nelda Hoffmeyer, Ted Vernier and Shirley Cozart, Bob McBride and Kay, Ralph De Corder and Mary Jane Smith, Carol Staub and George Heidt, Elvive Meathe and Carolyn Trapp, Art Smith and Sandy Sittinger, Al Campenhou and Mary Sparr.

The annual State meeting of Musicians, which took place at Dominican High School on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, was the meeting place for all the choral students who sang their selections to the Music teachers of Michigan.

"Vidi Aquam" and "Ave Maria" were the selections chosen for the St. Paul choir.

Joining their voices in the beautiful music were Dona DuBeau, Peggy Wanger, Peggy Wortley, Butch DeRoche, Phil Van Hollenbeck, Josephine Frizola, Josephine Mannino, Martha Mauer, Ted Vernier, Don Simpson, Joan Whyte, Joan Beaupre, Joyce Alef, Joan Weidman, Mary Sparr, Elin Kelly, Nancy Schumacher, Do Backman, Sue Burke, and Margaret Kelly.

A birthday Miss, who was receiving many congratulations on her 15th anniversary, was NANCY DOWNEY on Wednesday last. She gave a party at her home on Yorkshire to celebrate and invited all her closest friends.

Gathered to make the day a memorable one were Gerry Kirchner, Carol Staub, Betty DiPoala, Mary Ann Burlingame, Mary Ann Schildreher, and Judy Hennecke.

ATTENTION:
Come prepared for a gay time at the Sophomores MAY FIESTA on May 16. The Sophs promise all who attend a wonderful time. Tickets can be purchased from any Sophomore fella or gal.

"Barefoot Boy" Of Radio Lives In Woods

"How you gettin' along with your music?" Those are familiar words to WJR-Detroit listeners, especially if they tune to that "barefoot boy," Ross Mulholland, during the morning hours.

Mulholland, fast talking disc jockey extraordinary, also conducts various women's participating shows on the Goodwill Station. One of the most popular is "Meet the Missus."

Grosse Pointers are particularly interested in radio's "barefoot boy" because when he does actually take his shoes and sock off it's at 1675 Faircourt. His home in Grosse Pointe Woods where he lives with his wife and son.

He was born in Toledo, Ohio, and attended the Ohio State University. Having studied piano and arranging in the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, this young showman, soon directed a dance orchestra, playing for college parties. His radio career began at WHKC, Columbus, Ohio, as an announcer back in 1937. He later joined the staff of WKRC, Cincinnati, and then came to Detroit, where he handled major programs "Matinee at Meadowbrook" for CBS until he joined the coast guard.

Since his discharge he has been with WJR working up tremendous audiences for his various programs... his early morning "Music Hall" program and the "Meet the Missus" audience participating program.

Pupils Visit Greenfield Village

Defer 6A-2 class visited Greenfield Village Museum. The trip started with visiting the Fine Arts collections, including wall cases of early silver, glassware, ceramics, clocks, watches, and period furniture.

Beyond the agricultural section they were directed to the manufacturing division which traced the development of steam and other heat power from the earliest times to the modern electrical era.

The last unit which the group visited was the Transportation exhibit. This included the horse drawn vehicles, trains, automobiles, bicycles, airplanes, and the model and miniature locomotives.

Sixty girls and boys from the 3A, 4A and 6B Science classes have joined the Michigan Audubon Society.

Each clubmember will receive six colored plates of birds, six leaflets, and six drawings to color. The Defer School Club will receive four issues of a Junior Club paper and teacher's guide.

Pointe Chapter To Name Delegates

At the regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of the Reserve Officers' Association May 9th, the delegates to attend the annual state convention in Lansing May 17 and 18 will be selected.

The chapter, whose membership includes the East Side of Detroit, will meet at 8 p.m. in the Naval Armory.

Doctors Install Candler

On the evening of May 5th, members of the Wayne County Medical Society gathered at the Detroit Art Museum for an auspicious occasion. The ninety-ninth president of the Society was installed, Dr. Wynn E. Harm, retiring president, presenting the gavel to his successor.

The new president is Dr. Clarence L. Candler, of Harvard road, whose thirty-five years of practice has been studied with positions of leadership.

After receiving his degree in medicine at Wayne University in 1912, Dr. Candler spent several months in post-graduate study abroad. His studies took him first to Berne, Switzerland, then Paris, Vienna and London.

Equipped with this extra curricular, Dr. Candler returned to the United States to intern at a New York hospital, entering private practice in Detroit in 1914.

During the first World War, Dr. Candler served overseas as a captain of the 310th Ammunition Train.

Returning home in 1919 he set about rebuilding his practice, devoting many hours in the interest of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In 1923 his outstanding service to this organization was recognized when his comrades elected him State Commander. He was re-elected in 1924 and again in 1925. During his long tenure of office as Commander of the V.F.W., Dr. Candler started and saw completed the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home for widows and orphans at Eaton Rapids, a lasting monument to his sterling leadership. He is still active in Veteran affairs.

In 1940 Dr. Candler was made president of the Detroit Board of Health, where he also left an enviable record of accomplishment.

A few years ago he was honored with the presidency of the Eastside Medical Society, a branch of the Wayne County Society. Here again his qualities of leadership were recognized by his fellow doctors who last year paid him tribute by naming him president-elect of the fourth largest Medical Society in the world.

His elevation to president is automatic but no less an honor by that fact. If past accomplishments are indicative of what's in store for the Society, their 100th year should be one to remember.

Mrs. Wylie's Home Is Scene of Meeting

The May meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will be held at the home of Mrs. C. R. Wylie, 1253 Kensington Road, on Wednesday, May 14, at 8 p.m.

This meeting is for all groups of the Society and will feature Kodachrome slides of the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service the world over. This will be the first showing of these slides in the Detroit District. Mrs. V. I. Bailey, 315 Hillcrest Road, will read the descriptive material concerning the slides and Mrs. Francis H. Brown, 1007 Yorkshire Road, will be in charge of the devotions.

Mrs. Ernest D. Brutschy, 1371 Oxford Road, president of the Society, will preside over the business meeting.

Luther League To Hold Party

A Progressive Party has been planned by the Senior Luther League of St. Paul Lutheran Church for Saturday evening, May, 10th.

The party will include special programs arranged at the homes of Miss Elaine Meier, Mr. Robert Brandau, and Miss Marian Graham. Miss Meier is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

The girls are among the many from this area who have volunteered to aid nurses at Grosse Pointe hospitals.

Fox Hunters Warned Of Rabies

"Handle all foxes, even little kits, with extraordinary care, if you must handle them at all," Dr. F. S. Leeder, Director of the Bureau of Disease Control, Michigan Department of Health warned Michigan fox hunters today. "Do not put bare hands into den which may be occupied."

"There is possibility of rabies (hydrophobia) infection from foxes in southern Michigan," Dr. Leeder said. While no positive heads from this state have been transmitted to the Michigan Department of Health, one county in Ohio has reported 14 positive heads and more than 100 dead foxes.

"Foxes are extremely numerous this year and when rabid they will attack dogs, livestock and humans," Dr. Leeder pointed out. He recommended the use of heavy leather gloves as a precaution when it is necessary to handle the animals.

The rabies of foxes is communicated to humans and other animals through their saliva. In case of fox bite or tooth scratch, or if there is possibility of having gotten the animal's saliva into an open wound, a physician should be consulted at once.

"It is well to presume at this time that any animal biting a human or other animal may be rabid," Dr. Leeder said.

Heads of queer acting or sick foxes should be sent to the Michigan Department of Health for examination. Do not shoot the animal through the head. County law enforcement or health officials will prepare the head for shipment.

Dr. Leeder re-advised the vaccination of all dogs in Michigan since many new cases of rabies were reported in the first 25 days in April.

Reports to the Department of Health this week revealed that in some communities dog vaccination clinics are being held under the auspices of sportsmen's groups. In these clinics the cost of vaccination is less, and the vaccination, itself, is expedited.

Troth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wurm, of De-wenshire road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Clifford R. Dueweke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dueweke, of Detroit.

It will be the country's first large showing since 1881 of this great artist who was considered the best American painter during the Romantic Period following the Revolutionary War.

National Music Week Observed

The week, May 4 to 11, has been designated as National Music Week, a recognized national institution celebrated each year at this season. No less a person than President Harry S. Truman has lent it his support. In a letter requesting its observance, President Truman states that it is of special significance this year "as the nations of the world work toward that better understanding which is the basis of a lasting peace. One way to achieve a mutual understanding is to break down the barriers of communication between the peoples of the world."

Music, as the only universal language is an effective medium for use in attaining this goal. We have discovered that the building of international good-will calls for harmonizing influences in which all nations, regardless of their language, culture or political beliefs, can share. Music is one of those influences.

Latest Highlights From Hollywood

Craig Stevens, the husband of glamour-girl Alexis Smith and a busy featured actor for Warner Bros. in his own right, is a man with frustrated fists.

"I want to fight my way to leading man roles," said Craig. "I have a yearning to win a few brawls, rescue maiden and wind up at least one picture with some gorgeous blond (preferably Alexis) cuddled against my errr-manly chest for that fadeout clinch!

"So what happens to my ambition? Well, you can believe it or not, but I have yet to win a cinematic brawl! And that isn't right—not for a 6 foot 2 inch man, it isn't.

"Why, I've been whipped by so many smaller men that I'm developing an inferiority complex! I've been kayped for the count by at least a half-dozen guys who in a real scrap couldn't worry my chin with anything short of a hickory club.

"In my latest picture, 'That Way With Women', I get it again. I rebelled. I said to director Fred Cordova, 'Look here, pal, I don't want to win this brawl or anything like that. But can't we skip the regulation kayo just for once and let me be waited to sleep and by a falling chandelier or something less disgraceful?'"

"He gave me no satisfaction and no sympathy. He just grinned and said, 'Nopel! The script isn't like that. You've been a bad boy and you're gonna be thrashed!'"

Eleanor Parker, one of the stars in Warner Bros. filming mystery-thriller, "The Woman in White," recently came face to face with her life's most embarrassing moment.

She took her small niece to a matinee symphony after cautioning the little lady that she must be very, oh so very, very quiet! She was, too, through one long number and then another after which she suddenly said, "Well I guess it's all right for me to scream now!"

And she did.

To complete his comedy role in "My Wild Irish Rose" at Warner Bros., George Tobias was encased in a corset extending from shoulder to hips. Three of his ribs were fractured when he was thrown from a horse while holidaying in Nevada.

Peter Lorre, currently more horrific than ever in Warner Bros. "The Beat With Five Fingers," once did a repertoire of Shakespearean plays in Vienna, portraying almost every character from Puck to Shylock?!

After judging 200 educational programs screened from initial national entries of over 600, one feels that radio is fulfilling its obligations to the public.

Then too before criticizing commercial broadcasts one should keep in mind that rating surveys and research are constantly used to find out what the listener wants to hear. The results are reflected in the type programs broadcast. Programs are the result of proven listener preference, not the production whims of network or advertising agency braintrusts.

"Laura" Thriller At Schubert

The mystery story rates tops among the hardy perennials of the stage.

But few—if any—such plays have dared wander as far from the straight and narrow of conventional mystery plays as has "Laura," the story of a strange and perilous experiment in love and murder—which Harry Clay Blaney in association with S. F. and Roy Steckler presents and which stars John Loder, K. T. Stevens and Hugh Marlowe, now at the Schubert-Lafayette Theatre.

LAST RITES

Funeral services were held late this week for A. Russell Keys, 70, retired manufacturer, who died Tuesday at his home, 17721 E. Jefferson, after a short illness.

Surviving are two sons, John G. and A. Russell Keys, Jr.; a brother, John F. Keys, and a sister, Mrs. F. G. Lawton, of Houston.

Brother And Sis Honor Students

Louis and Mary Helen Charbonneau, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Charbonneau, 1044 Kensington, were named to the honor role at the University of Detroit for the term ending February, 1947. It was announced by the schools' faculty. Both are seniors majoring in English. Louis recently won the oratorical championship of Michigan Colleges, a contest which is sponsored annually by Hearst Newspapers. In 1946 Louis won the national championship.

Miss Elizabeth Wolf of the Denby faculty will continue to be faculty advisor.

Michigan Dentists Return to School

Michigan dentists soon will go to school at home.

To allow dentists the benefit of education in the latest theory and practices and to afford the educational benefits of this education while not depriving the community of the services of its dentists, a three weeks program of continuing education for dentists throughout the state is being sponsored by the Michigan State Dental Society and the Bureau of Public Health Dentistry of the Michigan Department of Health beginning May 12.

Weekly Radio Grams

By JAMES H. QUELLO

Seeing so many radio columns conducting "slam radio" without a rebuttal, it seems that so audible a media as should be so inarticulate in its own defense.

radio programming meretricious spokesman on its own became apparent while we were judging 200 public service programs at the National Institute for Education by Radio last week. Programs being judged were submitted by stations throughout the country.

Often the listener or critic berates radio commercialism, too preoccupied dialing commercial programs to hear the real educational and public service presentations on the airwaves in every city throughout the nation donate free time hundreds of sincere producers of great cultural and educational value. For example, in places where schools were closed by the coal strike, stations broadcast varied classroom instruction on the air. Teachers supplied the material and wrote programs under supervision of station producers.

When children in polio epidemics were warned to remain in bed for six weeks, stations in afflicted localities substituted entertaining programs with great juvenile appeal for their regular programs.

Several stations are broadcasting UN conferences providing the public their only opportunity to hear the great international sessions. Great stations went through great trouble and expense to broadcast the cardinal vestiture ceremonies direct from the Vatican. It not only pleased the local Catholics, but was cited as an intercultural project fostering better understanding of religions.

A New York station is conducting congressional debates and discussions with radio adaptations directly from the congressional record—all at its own expense. This educational program could well be instituted in other cities.

Programs teaching practical psychology of current application are appearing on more and more stations. The programs are classified by listeners as good entertainment rather than academic teaching by air.

Hundreds of special news broadcasts, forums, quiz programs, are produced to promote national and international understanding, to foster better inter-racial relationship, to stimulate interest in good literature, or to bring to people significant events they would not have the opportunity of witnessing.

After judging 200 educational programs screened from initial national entries of over 600, one feels that radio is fulfilling its obligations to the public.

Then too before criticizing commercial broadcasts one should keep in mind that rating surveys and research are constantly used to find out what the listener wants to hear. The results are reflected in the type programs broadcast. Programs are the result of proven listener preference, not the production whims of network or advertising agency braintrusts.

Christianson Is Pointe Nine's Star

By KEN VENDERBUSH
The weather man is against the Grosse Pointe High School baseball team.

Its games with the two strong baseball powers of the Border Cities League, Highland Park and Wyandotte had to be postponed because of rain and resulting wet grounds.

Unless the weather jinx continues, the Devils will journey to Monroe Friday. The Trojans are traditionally weak in baseball, unless the unexpected occurs, the Devils will return victorious.

The Grosse Pointers will be out for revenge Tuesday when they meet Fordson here for the second time this season. On April 25 the Devils lost the first game they played to Fordson.

With two games already played the all-around star of the local team so far has been Ken Christianson, the Devils' pitcher.

He has been outstanding as a hurler, turning in a three-hitter against Royal Oak although he did lose his first game to Fordson. Ken has a batting average of .600 for the two games including a home run.

Other players batting over .300 are Joe Hipfel with .429, and LeRoy Guaresimo with .375.

Border Loop Fetes Coaches At Banquet

The coaches of Grosse Pointe High School will be among those honored at the Border Cities League banquet at the Warren Valley Golf Club, Monday, May 19 at 7 p.m.

The League, sponsors of the party, is comprised of high schools from Royal Oak, Fordson, Highland Park, Wyandotte, Monroe and Grosse Pointe. Their coaches will be the honored guests.

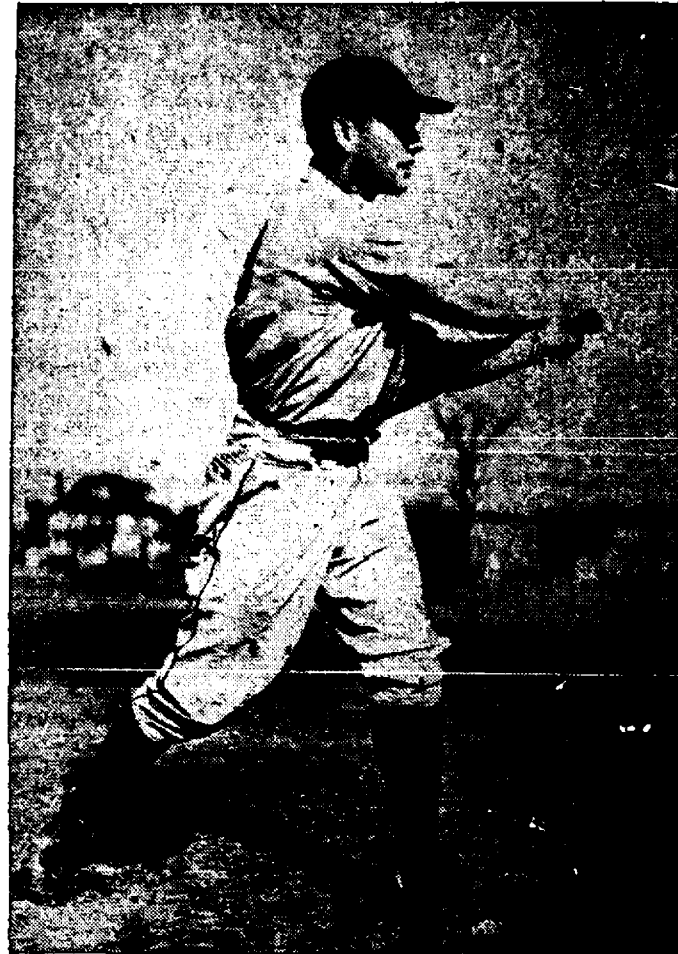

Blue Devil mentors who will attend are Ray Kaulitz, Ed. Werner, Harold Fisher, Judson Ross, Charles Peterson, Frank Banach, Lawrence Westerville, Stirling Shoemaker, Harry Christenson and John Finch.

School superintendents, members of the Board of Education and representatives of the press will also be present.

APPROVED FILMS
The Grosse Pointe Motion Pictures Council recommended the following pictures for minors for May:

Wake Up and Dream, Angel and the Badman, 13 Rue Madeleine, Song of the South, Beginning of the End, Mighty McGurk, Sister Kenny and My Pal Trigger.

Athlete of the Year

Young athletes who are now engaged in varsity competition on High School teams in Grosse Pointe and who hope to continue their athletic careers at college can cast an envious eye at Joe Wright, a three sports star, who was named the "Athlete of the Year" at the University of Detroit.

Sandlot Loop Prepares For Big Day

Weather permitting, Sandlot baseball will get underway in Grosse Pointe a week from next Sunday with six Class B (no age limit) nines expected to see action.

Arnold L. Dising, president of the Grosse Pointe baseball league, announced that although only five teams have entered the loop's top division thus far, he is very hopeful of another entry before opening day.

Dising said that it is more than likely two more teams will join the Class B division which is limited to boys 16 years of age and under. The class now has four entries.

The Class E schedule is tentatively set to get underway on May 20 or May 21.

The games are to be played on the diamonds of Grosse Pointe High, Mason Field and Kerby Field.

Authorities have promised Dising that the diamond will be in condition for play.

The sandlot baseball league meets every Monday night at the Gragg Bike Shop, Mack at Anita. All managers, players and other interested persons are invited to attend.

Following is the list of teams entered in the league to date as received from Dising:

- CLASS B

Grosse Pointe Girls Meet Tiger Players

Paula Beaupre and Meeky Marie Van Zanen, members of The Grosse Pointe Review interscholastic staff, interviewed their favorite major league ballplayers at Briggs stadium, Saturday.

Paula quizzed Hoot Evers and Meeky interviewed Georgie Kell.

The interview was arranged by the Grosse Pointe Review in accord with its announcement of the "My Favorite Ballplayer and Why I Would Like To Meet Him" essay contest.

Writers of winning essays will also meet their favorite ballplayers in person.

Following is Paula's and Meeky's articles on their interviews with Georgie Kell and Hoot Evers of the Detroit Tigers.

Georgie Kell Is Proud Pop

By MARIE VAN ZANEN
Meeting a big-league ball player was really a thrill!!! And meeting Georgie Kell was even more so because he says he takes a great interest in Detroit and the opportunities it holds for everyone.

Of course, meeting and talking with Georgie Kell left many memories but the one that stands clearest in my mind was the fact that he was very proud of his wife and son, whom, he claims, has blue eyes just like his daddy's.

He spoke well of his fellow players and was very sure that Hal Newhouser was going to win, regardless of his bad start.

His goals are set high, and the two he is most striving for are batting at 300, and also being a member of a pennant winning team.

Hoot Evers Likes G. P.

By PAULA BEAUPRE
The first meeting between my favorite ball player and I was much different than I had expected it to be.

When I arrived at Briggs Stadium, Mr. Walter A. "Hoot" Evers was warming up on the field, but as soon as his teammate, Georgie Kell, called to him, he came over to the dugout immediately for our interview.

Since Mr. Evers is an American League baseball player, I thought that our conversation would be very short and to the point, but I found Mr. Evers very cordial and interested in my questions and in no hurry!

During the course of our interview, he told me many interesting things about himself. To begin with, this 6' 1", blonde-haired fellow resides in our own Grosse Pointe, and, incidentally, he likes his neighbors very much.

He thinks that the whole Tiger team will be playing better ball when the warm weather comes around and he also has high hopes of batting .300 this season. We'll keep our fingers crossed for you, Hoot!

Before bringing our conversation to a close, Mr. Evers said that he first started thinking about playing Big League baseball when he was about 19 or 20 years old and when asked if he had any advice for teen-age boys who were interested in playing ball, his reply was, "I don't know whether I'd tell them to play ball or not. It's hard work but it's really a swell sport."

Grace Wenz Wins Scholastic Honors

Grace M. Wenz, of 4430 Yorkshire, has been named to the high honor of the College of Commerce and Finance of the University of Detroit, for the first semester of the 1946-47 term, it has been announced by Lloyd F. Fitzgerald, dean.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wenz, she is a freshman studying secretarial science.

Weatherman Sets Back St. Paul

By DON SIMPSON
Last Friday's game, which was to match St. Charles and St. Paul at St. Charles will be played at a later date, due to unfavorable weather conditions. Of the four games on St. Paul's schedule to date only two have been played. In the first played contest, St. Paul set back St. Ambrose 5-2. The second game saw the Flyers smother St. Bernards 13-2.

Last Tuesday the Flyers were idle, as the schedule gave them a bye. Weather conditions are making adequate practice impossible and all teams are playing under par.

This Friday, provided there are playable conditions, St. Paul will meet Annunciation at the Neighborhood Club. Next Tuesday the Flyers travel to St. Rose to tangle with them on their local diamond.

Monroe Upsets Blue Devils' Tennis Team

By KEN VENDERBUSH
After remaining undefeated for six years, a total of 69 consecutive victories, the Grosse Pointe High School tennis team was beaten, 4-3, by a powerful Monroe team Tuesday.

The best the Devils can do is tie for the Border Cities League championship this year, providing they beat Monroe when the two teams again meet on the Devils' home courts May 16, and providing neither team is beaten by another B. C. L. team.

In past years the Pointers have always performed better against Monroe at home than at Monroe.

In Tuesday's meet Tom Willson lost the No. 1 singles to Vic Braden, who was state singles champion last year, 2-6, 2-6.

Paul Grubbs, playing No. 2 singles also lost to Brenton of Monroe, 1-6, 1-6.

Dan Guy won the only singles set for G. P., defeating Eunclichman 6-3, 6-2. In the No. 4 singles Bill Penoyer of GP lost to Rufus of Monroe, 5-7, 3-6.

The Devils fared better in the doubles. Bob Stritzinger and Don Broadbridge defeated their opponents, Allen and Gessner, 8-6, 6-4. Hugh Dill and George Kennedy, playing No. 2 doubles also won, 6-4, 6-1 against Golubic and McIntyre.

Jon Walton and Marvin Weaver lost a close set to Paul Braden and Pawlak of Monroe, 2-6, 7-5, 2-6.

The Devils next play Royal Oak and Wyandotte, both of whom have defeated them this season. The Royal Oak meet is Friday at Royal Oak and the meet with Wyandotte will be played Tuesday on the Devils' home courts.

Both of these meets will be preliminaries for the big tilt with Monroe on the following Friday.
