More than 25,000 persons are expected to attend Fourth of July celebrations in Grosse Pointe.

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club will hold its ninth annual fireworks show at Mason School Field on Vernier Road, beginning at 8 p. m.

Last year more than 10,000 attended the ceremonies marking the freedom of America and Kiwanis officials expect even a larger turnout this year. Prior to the gala display of fireworks, a 1947 Ford will be given to the holder of the lucky ticket. Music will be provided by a top flight orchestra and community singing and entertainment and novelties have been planned for the program.

In its postwar renewal of Fourth of July activities, Grosse Pointe Park has invited the swimming stars of the world to join in a colorful aquatic exhibition which will be followed by a wide variety of fireworks later in the evening. Outstanding of the swimming stars to appear in the Park waters is Bill Smith, the world's champion. Appearing with Smith is Dick Holliday, University of Michigan ace and Wally Ris, National champion. Gil Evans, collegiate diving champion, will also perform. The exhibition is scheduled to get under way at 8 p. m. The fireworks at 9 p. m. More than 5,000 are expected to attend.

Detroit Boat Club officials reported that the Powerboat Regatta originally scheduled for July 5 on the Detroit River has been set back to July 12. No reason for the postponement was announced.

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will mark its Fourth of July celebration with its 18th Annual Regatta. 145 crafts will compete in 23 different classes, beginning at 10:30 p. m. Many are expected to watch from the St. Clair shore line. Others will see the colorful program aboard cruisers, sailboats and other crafts.

Dineau, a bachelor, admitted he solicited and enticed boys to come to his room where he showed them obscene pictures and became intimate with them. His confession marks the end of a long investigation by Park police to obtain enough evidence on Dineau for a conviction. Dineau was arrested by Park police in cooperation with Det. William Stapleton, of the Detroit police. He faces a term of 2 to 5 years.

An outboard motor boat, valued at $290 was reported stolen from Park's municipal pier last week was found on Peche Island. Fred Rozelle, 14155 Harbor road, Detroit, said he moored his boat at the pier late Wednesday night and when he returned the following morning it was gone.

Appeals To High Court

The Grosse Pointe Woods-St. Clair Shores feud over the lakefront parksite property of Edsel Ford will go to the Supreme Court.

Julius L. Berns, Woods attorney said that St. Clair Shores officials have appealed to the higher court the recent ruling by Judge Russell Holland, of Oakland County, that gave the Woods exclusive use of the parksite. The case was heard in Macomb County's Circuit Court.

NEXT FALL
Berns said that the appeal would not reach the higher court until sometime next fall. Meanwhile Woods residents will have exclusive use of the lakefront parksite.

In making his decision, Judge Holland, who was designated to hear the case in accord with an agreement by both parties said that the St. Clair Shores zoning ordinance expressly permits usage of the property as a public park.

He added that Woods is landlocked and the property afforded the most suitable site for a park for that municipality.

REASON GIVEN
The property, which is located in St. Clair Shores, is not assessable if it is used as a park for a municipality. This factor is more or less responsible for St. Clair's Shores opposition.

In the meantime the Woods attorney said he is waiting for word from the State Tax Commissioner for a hearing regarding the tax exemption problem.

The men behind the gala Fourth of July program for the town are Commissioner Peter J. Long and Manager Everitt B. Long.

Another hard-working citizen on the Fourth is Arnold Diesing, who heads the Kiwanis shows at Mason School field. His first show in 1939 attracted 5,000. This year Mr. Diesing expects 15,000.

Several golf enthusiasts were changing stories in the locker room of Golf Club. One of them recounted a recent experience.

Ordered lunch at the club," said the speaker, "without lifting my head from a newspaper. As I was reading the paper, I was making various replies, the waitress's voice appeared strange. I decided to ask her where we had met somewhere before. However, when the waitress repeated I looked up at her for the first time, the question was unnecessary. She was my wife. I was spending so much time at the club, continued the man, that the little woman took the time she could see me once in a while."

The Police Department is asking each citizen to take special precaution in an effort to save lives and property over the Fourth.

The Chiefs predict that traffic will be unusually heavy during this year's celebration, for thousands are still catching up on the pleasure they had to forego because of the restrictions on travel during the war years.

The Civil Aeronautical Association is investigating the identity of a pilot who has been endangering the lives of bathers at Farms pier, by flying low in his piper cub plane.

One woman reported to Farms police that the plane repeatedly flew low over the pier and at one time it came so close that she was able to read the numbers on the wings. She did not remember the numbers.

The Aeronautical Association officials told police that they will deal very severely with the pilot responsible for such dangerous flying.

It cost Guy Albert Piralli of Roseville a fine and a day in jail for selling fireworks in Grosse Pointe City Sunday afternoon.

Piralli made the mistake of trying to sell his unlawful wares to Police Officer John Ostwedder at Rivard and Jefferson, Ostwedder, a member of the Grosse Pointe City Force was off duty at the time. He brought the salesman in.

Investigation revealed that Piralli had 50 packages of fire crackers in his possession. He said he purchased them in Ohio.

Pointe Man Invents Gun-Carrying Vehicle

The United States Patent Office recently granted a patent on a "Gun-Carrying Vehicle" to Ernest P. Lamb, of 1137 Audbon.

This invention pertains to a novel gun carrying vehicle for military purposes, and its principal object is to provide an assembly wherein the ammunition boxes, carried by the vehicle, are all within convenient reach of the gunner.

Vehicles of this type are so constructed that each of the rear wheels has a well located forward of it and in rear of it, thus making a total of four wells for the entire body. These wells are adapted to receive an ammunition box or rack.

In order to accomplish the purpose of his invention, Mr. Lamb positions the gun mount so that it is located in the longitudinal center of the floor, but nearer to one pair of wells than to the other. For example, if the gun is to be fired generally over the rear end of the vehicle, the pedestal of the gun is placed nearer the two rear wells. In this position, the gunner, standing somewhat before the weapon, is approximately equidistant from all four ammunition boxes and capable of reaching any one of them with equal facility. Similarly, if the gun is discharged over the front end of the vehicle, the pedestal would be placed nearer the two forward wells.

Mr. Lamb also states that the ammunition boxes are provided with hinged covers that open away from the gunner's position, so that there is no interference with his access to the crew boxes.

In securing the gun mount structure to the floor, he makes use of reinforcing webs which are so placed that they constitute a protective shield for the gunner.

This patent has been assigned to the Chrysler Corporation, Highland Park, Michigan.

Man Facing Prison Term Ends Life

Grosse Pointe Park police reported the suicide of Frank Shydzynski, 51, of 1043 Beaconsfield.

Arriving at his home early Saturday morning police found Shydzynski in critical condition as a result of self-poisoning. He was rushed to Bon Secours Hospital where he died.

His body was taken to Wayne County morgue for an autopsy. Police said that Shydzynski faced a felonious assault and he was to appear in court last Friday morning.

The charge grew out of his attacking Mrs. A. Moore, 1043 Beaconsfield, his tenant and her friend, Mrs. Roy Lichard, 1019 Somerset, with an iron bar. Police said that Shydzynski had been trying to force Mrs. Moore to move.

The "gallant lady of the waves, Josephine III, a Class sailboat owned by Tom Petzold and E. L. Eccleston of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, defied the storm and choppy waters Sunday to take a cruise in Lake St. Clair in preparation for the Club's 18th Annual Regatta, July 4th. Fred J. Gebstadt, manager of the Club, announced that more than 145 crafts will complete in 23 classes.

SAFETY FOURTH

The long holiday weekend, the festive spirit of the holiday and more motorists on the road will make the Fourth this year a time of real hazard. Lets all work together to make Grosse Pointe one place where the Fourth of July does not mean death and disaster to any of our people. Instead, let's make it a day of joyful and safe celebration of the independence which it commemorates.

JOHN PAUL JONES

On July 6 we celebrate the Bicentennial of the birth of John Paul Jones whose versatile genius and burning ideology can not fail to inspire every American. We recall with pride his notable victory when he led the crew of the Bonhomme Richard to the deck of the Serapis, forced the enemy to surrender, and from the captured vessel saw his own ship sink with the colors still flying.

POINTE STREET SIGNS NEGLECTED

According to the signs Kercheval becomes Harvard, Bishop, Yorkshire and other Pointe roads. To add to the confusion of strangers and even veteran residents, many streets and roads do not have any signs at all.

DEMOCRACY AT WORK

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual ways of preserving peace." This simple truth, phrased by George Washington, shines forth more brightly today to guide the United States than it did when he uttered it 157 years ago. History emphasizes and reinforces his wisdom.

TWO CONCEPTS OF MEDICAL CARE

The American people must choose between two diametrically opposed systems of providing medical care. That was the gist of a recent address by Dr. Harrison H. Shoulders, president of the American Medical Association. One system, Dr. Shoulders said, "would vest in some agency of the federal government the power to tax, the power to spend, the power to regulate, the power arbitrarily to determine need . . . and finally the power by regulation to direct . . . That proposition has its origin in a totalitarian philosophy of economics and can lead but to tyranny."

12 Pointers Get Degrees At Wayne

Included in the list of 787 candidates for degrees conferred at Wayne University's June commencement, held recently, in the Masonic Temple auditorium, Detroit, were 12, residing in this vicinity. The June ceremony, being the second of two 1947 commencement exercises, brought the total degrees awarded to 1,291 for the year. Faced with an estimated 1,300 students to be graduated during the college year, Wayne authorities were obliged to split the group into January and June sections in order that Masonic Temple auditorium, the largest available, could accommodate the graduates and guests. MAJOR SPEAKS The commencement address was delivered by Major General Paul R. Hawley, chief medical director of the Veterans Administration and retired Army officer. General Hawley served as chief surgeon of the European Theatre of Operations during World War II and had Wayne University's General Hospital 36 under his command. Those receiving honorary degrees at the ceremonies were: Prentiss M. Brown, Doctor of Arts in Business Administration; Henry M. Butzel, Doctor of Laws; Harry F. Kelly, Doctor of Laws; and Paul R. Hawley, Doctor of Science. POINTEERS LISTED Grosse Pointers receiving Bachelor of Arts degrees were Celia L. Christianse, 515 Middlesex; Alice M. Knapp, 1540 Hawthorne; and Leatrice L. Robinson of 418 Manor. Bachelor of Science degrees went to Margarett E. Collins, 757 Westchester and Jean Vlasic, 1052 Devonshire. MARRIED STUDENT Mrs. Jeannie Dombrowski, 767 Rivard Blvd., obtained a Master of Education degree while Harold L. MacLaughlin, 207 McMillan and Mary L. Watson, 365 McKinley were honored with Master of Art degrees. Arthur L. Kretschmar, 829 Beaconsfield; Guy K. Lawrie, 920 Beaconsfield; and Richard R. Royer, 791 Lincoln road, received Doctor of Medicine degrees. R. L. Zenker, 714 Washington road, was given a Master of Science degree.

Hudson Co. will serve as head of the Individual Gift Committee and vice-chairman of the 1947 Community Chest campaign, John R. Davis, chairman announced. He formerly was a member of the national budget committee of Community Chest and Cousins, Inc. Active in many civic affairs Webber is a member of the board of directors of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, a Red Feather service, and a director of the Detroit Board of Commerce. Charles Verheyden, Joseph Marshall, Major Mack Laggart and Leonard Barglin who saw the accident said that Mr. Sheehan's horse stumbled causing the mishap.

Summer Pests Banished By Single Application

A new fly spray, guaranteed effective for an entire season, is the latest weapon on the market for the inevitable summer war against musca domestica (alias house flies). The product is offered by the Pest Control Service of Detroit. N. C. Snare, 1055 Lakepointe, local manager of the company said the spray originated in England where a spray, the active ingredient of which is Gamezane, has been used with truly amazing results. It is a residual type spray which retains its fly killing power over a period of several months. use, colorless and odorless, stable, and the result of their research was called the Chemists Fly Proofing Process. PROCESS PROVEN Mr. Snare said that more than 100 prominent Michigan firms, institutions, and private homes, have used this product with satisfying results. He said that the company unconditionally guarantees in writing that a thorough application will keep premises free from flies for the duration of the season. This ironclad guarantee, Snare points out, is revolutionary but it is thoroughly sound, being based on exhaustive practical tests. PERFECT RESULTS Two young men from Chicago, George Chamlin, a chemist, and Harold Stern, an experienced exterminator, were impressed with the astounding effectiveness of the Gamezane preparation in killing flies and other insects. The insecticide was superior to DDT because it was more powerful and at the same time non-toxic to humans, safe to use around foods and non-staining. Disadvantages were an objectionable odor and that the expensive basic ingredient had to be imported. However, the two young men set to work blending this super-powerful insecticide to make it safe, economical and simple to use. Rites Held For Two Pointers Services were held at Verheyden Funeral Home Saturday for two prominent Grosse Pointers. Adolph Vocelle, 82, who died Thursday at his home at 1312 Devonshire and Maurice G. Waterbury, who died Wednesday in Cottage Hospital. Mr. Vocelle was with the Dodge Brothers Corp., for 40 years until his retirement in 1925 as general superintendent. Burial rites were at Mt. Olivet Cemetery. He is survived by his wife, Agnes, and a brother, Joseph. A veteran teacher in Detroit schools, Mr. Waterbury came to the city to teach at Eastern High in 1908 after teaching at Jackson and Charlotte. He retired in 1945. Burial services were held at Forest Lawn Cemetery. Surviving are his wife, Daisy; a son, Lawrence K.; a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice L. Bohner; two brothers Jay and Wade C.; and a sister, Mrs. Theodore Brown.

Sharon Ford Wins Honors At Girls' State

Sharon Ford, of Grosse Pointe High School, received "most artistic" honors as the Wolverine Girls' State wound up its seventh annual meeting at the University of Michigan last week. The girls, more than 200 of them from high schools from all sections of Michigan, had convened at the University to participate in an eight day program designed to help them decide what was to be their goal in life. High spot of the program was the meeting Monday evening in the Rackham Lecture Hall when awards, certificates of attendance and Girls' State pins were presented. Miss Ford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Ford, 1823 Hawthorne.

Summertime Picnic Meals Suggestions

Now that summer is here everyone wants to get outside and picnics are the order of the day. The Visiting Housekeeper Association, a Red Feather agency of the Community Chest, suggests to the Grosse Pointe housewife not to forget the rules of balanced meals even when her family is eating at the picnic table. If vacuum jugs and casseroles are available soup, stew or chili can be kept warm and furnish a basis for the meal. A covered casserole of scalloped potatoes, tomatoes of mixed vegetables will hold its heat for an hour or more if it is tightly wrapped in newspaper. Raw vegetables as a relish or salad are important. Before starting on your jaunt wash the greens and crisp them in the refrigerator. Wrap them in wax paper and pack in a paper bag. Take tomatoes whole and slice them at the picnic. Carrot and cucumber sticks, celery and radishes make good "hand" foods and require no dishes. Potato salad and deviled eggs are better if made some time in advance and chilled as soon as prepared. Among the items to be avoided are foods with cream pies, cream puffs and creamed hot dishes spoil easily and hot weather hastens their spoilage. Cookies, tarts or turnovers are easier to pack than aniced cake and are just as good. Fruit is the ideal dessert and apples, bananas, grapes, peaches and plums put as good finish on what is often a heavy picnic meal. Milk for the children should be in a vacuum bottle and coffee, iced tea or lemonade for the adults should be kept hot or cold as desired, in a vacuum jug.

Independence Day By DOROTHY R. McWOOD And deep in our hearts it is sepulchered; Freedom is a beautiful word, It exalts men's souls to such a degree That they willingly die for its imagery. It was hallowed for us many years ago By a ragged few, braving blood and snow; It was won at a cost no words can pen So that now it may glow in the hearts of men. Toll the bells for our honored dead! Ring the bells as we lift our head And reverently vow to God on high That freedom gained shall never die!

Health Department Pollen Survey

Michigan's resident pollen survey will begin about July 15 and continue through September. The Michigan Department of Health will conduct its annual ragweed pollen survey.

Information on where the pollen is concentrated in the state and pollen counts for 24-hour periods will be made available through papers and radio.

1946 ragweed pollen counts were the lowest and the pollen was the shortest of any of the years during which the survey has been conducted. This was due to a combination of weather conditions. Lack of rain in the late spring lessened the number of plants growing. Drought conditions kept the plants' development slow. Heavy frosts killed the plants at the height of the pollen season.

1946 ragweed pollen season in Michigan usually begins August 15 and continues until frost. Its limits, locally, are usually judged by the number of days the pollen count in excess of 100 grains per yard of air.

Areas, those surrounding Mackinaw City, Newburg, Rogers City, and St. Ignace. No ragweed pollen season last year was recorded in Alpena, Cheboygan, and Sault Ste. Marie. Day seasons were recorded in Isabella, Mackinac Island, Munising, and Petoskey. The season ran only three days in Baldwin, Cheboygan, and Marquette. In Ironwood and Marquette, only four days at Eagle Lake and Escanaba; and five days at Grand Marquette and Marquette. The season was six days long in Detroit.

During the year the upper peninsula, the northern half of the peninsula, the thumb tip, nine or ten southeastern counties of the state and some of the west central shoreline areas had the longest pollen season.

The highest pollen counts at the collecting stations came between August 26 and September 15. In only one case, Waterford, did the count reach 100 between August 15 and the count drops below 100 each year following the killing frosts.

POINTE RECORD
Grand Rapids had the longest season with 27 days; followed by Bay City with 23 days; Benton Harbor, 22 days; South Haven and St. Ignace, 19 days; Flint, 18 days; Port Huron, 17 days; Bay City, 16 days; and Mount Pleasant, 15 days.

The 1946 pollen situation in the area is indicated by the fact that in Grosse Pointe, the nearest station where pollen was collected, the ragweed pollen count first reached 100 on August 18 and was high 6 days during the season. Grosse Pointe had the highest concentration of ragweed pollen August 26.

A special summer feature of the Grosse Pointe Review will be the production of a Detroit Stage production.

After interviewing more than 50 girls from all sections of the state, Michigan, Detroit Stage selected Mrs. Patricia Sunderland of 1737 Larkwood Boulevard, Berkley, to play the role of Miriam with Lucille in "Dream Girl," which will be the initial presentation, at the Hall, of what is hoped to be a permanent Detroit Theatre.

Mrs. Sunderland, who is married to David Sunderland, an employee of General Motors at Pontiac, is no stranger to the stage. She was the first American girl to receive a scholarship at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London, where she studied two years. Upon the outbreak of the war, she returned to this country and entered upon a career in the theatre. It was while in the theatre, where she was appearing with Allen Jenkins and Lynn in "Three Men On a Couch" that she met her husband.

Mrs. Sunderland, whose stage name was Pat Deering, retired from the stage and entered the important career of motherhood upon the arrival of her son, David, in 1942.

The members of the cast include: Mrs. Kay, Suzanne Jackson, Mrs. Bourke and Andrew. The lighting are by Mrs. E. J. Radlock. The production will open Tuesday night with performances on Wednesday and Saturday for two weeks. The matinees on Wednesday and Sunday of the production will be on July 22, Detroit's own theatre will appear in "The Story of the Three Men On a Couch" with Frances Starr, Olga Petrova and John Craven of the Broadway cast.

Girl Engineer Set For Career In Man's World

With the excitement of commencement and the warm feeling of being a truly unique student at the University of Detroit hardly worn off, Elise Mosten, 21-year-old Grosse Pointe girl who was the first woman ever to be graduated from the College of Engineering, is now out on her own.

A petite and well-liked student, Elise had been rubbing elbows with male students since she first entered the University at the age of 17, in an attempt to hold her place in the domain of technology almost exclusively dedicated to the male.

She first began her studies at the University in the architectural engineering department, but transferred to civil engineering when the war necessitated closing the former department.

Her activities on the campus have been varied, but she is especially remembered as the president of the University of Detroit chapter of the American Society for Civil Engineers. She held this post during her senior year, representing the organization at various out-of-state conventions. In addition she is a member of the Sigma Delta science professional sorority, and has the distinction of having been named in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Church Plans New Building

The branch church of Eastminster Presbyterian Church which has been meeting for the past year in Denby High School has so rapidly developed that it has outgrown its quarters in the cafeteria of Denby and temporarily will meet in Christopher Columbus School, Brock and Spring Garden, until a building can be erected on their newly acquired property on Morang between Maple Ridge and Parkgrove.

It is the hope of the congregation that they may be able to start building their church edifice on Morang this summer. Architects have drawn plans for a beautiful church building.

The Sunday School at this branch church meets after the church service at 10:45 a.m. This branch church has already a very active women's organization, as well as an enthusiastic Men's Club.

Quello Gives Audition Tips For Radio

By JAMES H. QUELLO

Only about one out of every sixteen people requesting a radio audition has sufficient talent to make the grade with a large city station. This from an experienced program director. It applies to singers, announcers, and actors. The one that does have the talent usually must start a long, rugged sponsor-hunt, but there are always a few with exceptional talent, background (connections), and staying power that make the grade.

If you are starting out and have your star hitched to an announcer's or newscaster's career here are nine excellent rules: from Bob Barred Ace CBS-WJR newsman:

- 1—Get all the elocution, public speaking, singing and dramatic instruction possible.
- 2—Do all the speaking and reading aloud you can.
- 3—Clear enunciation is even more important than correct pronunciation, but don't stilted.
- 4—Critique your own work severely, and use a good recording machine to listen to yourself.
- 5—Offer your services to non-commercial broadcast to showcase your talent.
- 6—Don't try to break into big time first; start at the smallest nearby station and learn everything possible there before moving up.
- 7—Never try to be other than yourself.
- 8—When on your way, get a reliable agent to represent you; you can't sell yourself alone.

Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

Since the social whirl of parties and dances has more or less come to a stand still, probably everyone is looking for some interesting things to keep them busy during their spare time. So here are a few suggestions along that line.

The tennis courts at G.P.H.S. are open day and night to those ambitious persons who enjoy the sport. The parks of course feature swimming and the already mentioned. Which brings up to the point of suntans and sunburns. For an easy quick tan, and to prevent the skin from peeling try a bottle of baby oil with a few drops of iodine before taking that sun bath.

Those who prefer to set sun tan lotions aside and live a cool indoor life, the Neighborhood Club lounge is open for playing bridge, or why not enroll in one of their jewelry or ceramic creating classes?

Grosse Pointe Woods residents will be glad to know that the YWCA swimming pool will give instructions to those who are interested. Or if you already know how, you can just have some water fun.

The sub-deb club room at J. L. Hudson's offers numerous activities for the junior set, if you aren't a member of one of these clubs why not organize your own with all your favorite cronies? The Ladies Home Journal will provide necessary information. On their summer program they include a course in sewing, knitting, and a very interesting class on charm, and personality. Tunis and Chi-Rho still hold their regular Sunday sessions, and their always planning something in the line of fun.

Of course if you'd like to earn some money, everyone has a lawn to cut, and all you need is a lawn mower and a bit of muscle.

However if you like less strenuous work place an ad in this paper to watch dogs, or sit with children, and in no time at all your telephone will keep you busy replying to responses.

Your home is also a good place to find odd jobs. The budget would more than appreciate a little assistance by having you supply fresh vegetables from a little garden. Or just for fun weed mother's flower patch, and watch how proud she will be when she shows the back yard to friends.

Speaking of mothers, those of you who have teen-age daughters will be happy to know that Singer Sewing Centers now have classes in which you can learn how to whip up those oh-so-ooooo-attractive mother and daughter dresses in no time at all. The singer people will also help you with button holes and belts, if you make your own clothes at home.

Now since you have participated in so many things during the day, relax a bit and listen to a few new records like: Stella by Starlight, Ivy, and Stars Fell on Alabama. All these can be purchased at the Electrozone Record Bar on Mack.

And for the final touches, make some ice tea with a spicy tang to it by adding a few cloves and a half of stick of cinnamon for a more refreshing flavor.

That's all for now, but don't miss more newswy tips in next weeks summer scope!!!!

Rumpelstiltskin Reviews

By ISABEL HONEY

At this time when the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the "Hiawatha Festival" (July 3 to July 6) this column feels that a short discussion of Longfellow's famous epic poem, "The Song of Hiawatha" may not be amiss, especially since it was neglected in our earlier list of Indian Folk and Fairy Tales.

POPULAR POEM

Most everyone who has ever gone to school has had to memorize parts of the familiar poem, whose scene is among the Ojibways on the southern shore of Lake Superior, in the region between the Pictured Rocks and the Grand Sable. Is there an adult in the land who has not spent part of his childhood "By the Shores of Gitchee Gumee, by the shining Big-Sea-Water?" To Longfellow can be attributed a major share of credit for what love of poetry great masses of our people cherish. His poems are part of our heritage, and we read them with a nostalgia for our youth and an appreciation for his place among the great lyricists of our national literature. There have been greater poets but few as popular.

PRESERVATION

Main credit for the preservation of the legends which Longfellow embodied in blank verse form must go to Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, an Indian agent, whose "Algonic Researches" published in 1839, helped to make him known as one of the major authoritative sources of information about the American Indian. In his diary Longfellow records: "I pored over Mr. Schoolcraft's writings nearly three years." The frontier settlement of Sault Ste. Marie, which Schoolcraft saw for the first time in 1820, decided for him what his life work must be, and gave him his Indian bride. It was here that the eminent American ethnologist gained his detailed and intimate knowledge of the life and legends of the Ojibway Indians. From these legends Longfellow created his famous narrative poem "The Song of Hiawatha," which "wowed" them in Boston in 1855—and which will be enshrined forever in the memories and hearts of generations of American school children.

Although pyramids have always been thought of in connection with Egypt, there are actually more of them in Mexico, built by the Incas and the Aztecs.

Mary Berns Is Wed

Mary Louise Berns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Berns, of Bedford road, became the bride of William A. Reddin at a Saturday noon ceremony at St. Clare de Montefalco Church. The Rev. Father James D. Clark officiated. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Reddin, also of Bedford road.

Traditional white satin formed the bridal gown. A panel of lace banded the shoulders of the long bodice which was made with a sweetheart neckline.

A pepum of the lace topped the full, trained skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a poke bonnet of illusion caught at each side with clusters of orange blossoms.

Mary Louise carried a white prayer book and white orchids.

Mrs. William Conway, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor with Mrs. Harvey Miller, of Hilldale, and Mrs. J. Edward LaCombe, Jr., as maids.

They were gowned alike in pale pink marquisette made with shirred bodice, full skirts and cap sleeves.

They wore mits of the same shade and carried shower bouquets of pink carnations and blue delphinium. The cowl necklines of the dresses converted to form their headresses.

Richard Reddin was his brother's best man and seating the guests were William Berns, brother of the bride, and J. Edward LaCombe, Jr.

At the wedding breakfast, held in the Wardell Sheraton, Mrs. Berns received her guests in a suit of pale blue faille, worn with matching hat and an orchid.

Mrs. Reddin wore an acque ensemble with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

When the newlyweds left on a motor trip to California, the bride was wearing a light gray wool suit, gray hat and red accessories.

Roses Cut Later Will Keep Longer

Better late than early is advice you can safely follow when it comes to gathering roses. Recent experiments show that blooms cut late in the afternoon keep longer than those cut in the early morning.

Use a sharp knife and make a long slanting cut. A smooth-cut surface allows the water to flow easily into the stem according to Paul R. Krone, flower specialists at Michigan State college. The slanted cut will keep the stem from being closed off if it is pressed against the bottom of the vase. After cutting the roses get them in water immediately. Remove the leaves from the lower part of the stems because they will decay in the water. Most of the water is taken in through the stem and the growth of bacteria which plug up the tubes so that the flowers wilt from lack of water.

Put the cut roses in a cool place—in the refrigerator if there is room—for several hours or overnight. This will help them keep longer, too.

Salute to the Fourth

A pretty girl, sunny weather, and a noise-making cannon are all the ingredients needed for a bang-up Fourth of July celebration. The lovely lassie pictured above is Elaine Rost, fast-rising young radio actress, frequently featured on ABC's "My True Story." The cannon? Just something borrowed from a passing Baby Parade.

A camera crew is being sent to Germany by Milton Sperling's United States Pictures to make background footage to be used in the film version of Peter Viertel's sensational story of displaced persons in Europe, "The Children."

The crew will be in Germany a month for scenes to be made at Dachau, Buchenwald and other detention camps.

Weekly Radio Grams
By JAMES H. QUELLO

Bing Crosby and Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians have been teamed together on wax for the first time with a Decca recording of "The Whiffenpoof Song" and "Kentucky Babe." It took an hour and a half to record the first side to everyone's satisfaction.

Culminating all the rumor's, Al Jolson finally has signed as a star of his own radio show. He will take over the key spot of the Kraft Music Hall 9 p.m. Thursday starting October 2nd following the final broadcast September 25th of the KMH summer series starring Nelson Eddy. He will be heard on NBC-WWJ.

Jolson, the son of a Jewish cantor, was born in what is now Leningrad, Russia, and came with his parents to the U.S. when he was a child.

Gabriel Heatter, starred over CKLW-MBS Sunday night on "A Brighter Tomorrow" was a newspaperman and editor before he turned to radio. He claims that the letters received in those days were as unusual as some that have come his way since becoming a radio star.

He likes to tell about a note written by a New York woman which read: "We've subscribed to your paper for many years and I thought you might want to print a story about my husband. He's a wonderful man, doesn't smoke nor drink, never uses strong language, he is a model citizen and has never stepped inside a theatre. He has no bad habits and tomorrow he's going to celebrate his 60th birthday."

Heatter wrote her a brief answer. It simply read, "How?"

Paul Whiteman who initiated his $5,200,000 disc jockey show this week over WXYZ-ABC plans to intersperse the record-spinning and reminiscent chatter with interviews of entertainment greats and of potential new stars. He hopes that his recorded program can springboard some fresh talent to fame just as his orchestra did. Among the Paul Whiteman alumni are Bing Crosby, Henry "Hot Lips" Busse, Jack Teagarden, Composer Ferde Grofe, both Dorsey brothers, Morton Downey, Mildred Bailey, Ramona, Helen Jepson, Jane Froman, and Joan Edwards, Nuff said.

Richard G. Hubler, novelist and screenplay author, has been added to Warner Bros.' roster of writers. Hubler's fourth novel, "The Quiet Kingdom," will be published next fall by Rinehart and Company.

The Army is seeking men, but its recruiting program will be emceed by woman. Dorothy Lamour has been set in the spot and the program will start July 6th on NBC-WWJ in the Fred Allen time slot.

Except for appearances with the San Francisco Symphony on the "Standard Hour," June 22 and 29, Meredith Willson is cancelling all other summer radio commitments to concentrate on his new (Ford) "Showroom," which opened on CBS-WJR Wednesday night.

Agile-minded students have found a valuable use for the new Ronald Colman "Favorite Story" program heard on WXYZ Thursday nights. As most of the works in "Favorite Story" adapted for radio appear on high school and college approved reading lists, students can listen to the half-hour radio presentation; then write their book reviews. They save hours of reading time. The first two plays were "Wuthering Heights" and "Cyrano De Bergerac" with "Connecticut Yankee" next.

Latest Highlights From Hollywood

Lois Maxwell, young Canadian actress discovered in London by Jack L. Warner, and recently signed Kyle MacDonnell, former Conover model and Broadway stage actress, will make their screen debuts in key roles in "Mary Hagen," Ronald Reagan-Shirley Temple starrer now before the cameras.

Miss Maxwell, a willow redhead, went to England during the war to entertain Canadian troops and won the Lady Mountbatten Scholarship at London's Royal Academy of Dramatic Art. Talented and blonde Miss MacDonnell was recently seen in the Broadway musical hit, "Park Avenue."

Bretaigne Windust, famed Broadway stage director of "Finnian's Rainbow," "Life With Father," "State of the Union" and other hit theatricals, has checked in at Warner Bros. to begin his directorial contract.

Warner Bros. has signed 19-year-old Lila Leeds, a native of New Mexico, and Barbara Bates, 1-year-old blonde actress from Denver, to term contracts, bringing to eight the number of young players added to the studio roster this year.

Other players signed in Warner's 1947 new-talent drive include Kyle MacDonnell, former Conover model and Broadway stage star, Forrest Tucker and four European discoveries: Yves Montand, Steven Vincent, Lois Maxwell and Robert Douglas.

Dorothy Latta, blonde New York stage actress recently seen in the Broadway musical hit, "Finnian's Rainbow," has been signed for a featured role in United States Pictures' "Ever The Beginning," now being filmed at Warner Bros.

Jane Wyman, currently starring in Warner Bros. "Cheyenne," has signed a new straight 10-year contract which will continue her association with that studio to a total period of more than 20 years. The new pact becomes effective Jan. 1, 1948.

The young actress joined Warner on May 7, 1938. She was an Academy Award nominee this year for her performance in "The Yearling."

She is a native of St. Joseph Mo., the wife of Ronald Reagan, also a Warner star, and the mother of two children with another expected this fall.

Delmer Daves has been assigned to direct Warner Bros.' forthcoming "To the Victor," a post-war European melodrama. Viveca Lindors, the studio's Swedish star, has been set for a leading role.

Jerry Wald will produce for Warners. Richard Brooks is preparing the screenplay from his own original.

A loving clinch scene between Eleanor Parker and Gig Young for "The Woman in White," at Warner Bros. Studio this week, was ruined by a stay in Miss Parker's 1935 corset. It snapped. The sound apparatus recorded the "ping!"

Chiller characters in "Seven Keys to Baldpate" at RKO are to wear ghostly glowing hands in the darker terror sequences. Makeup experts have perfected a new cream which harmlessly lights up the skin.

Raymond Massey was signed to a five-year contract by Warner Bros. after completing his role as Joan Crawford's husband in "Possessed" ... Pauline Stark, once a big-time star in silent films, is testing for the top role in "Violence" at Monogram.

During a scene for "Deep Valley" at Warner Bros. Studio a trained pooch, supposed to seize a bed cover from Ida Lupino, took a deeper bite than the script called for and broke the one shoulder strap holding up the tattered overall-shorts in which the star was garbed.

"That's no pooch, brothers," quoth Ida, hastily wrapping herself in what was left of her blanket. "That's a wolf!"

Red Feather Show Offers Rosemary Rice

Lovely Rosemary Rice is the star of "Double Exposure," sixth play in the "Return of the Red Feather Man," heard every Saturday at 5 p.m. over WJR.

Co-starring with her are Peggy Wood, internationally famous star of Noel Coward's "Bittersweet,"

ROSEMARY RICE and Patricia Kirkland, daughter of the author of "Tobacco Road."

Each week a Red Feather drama is heard over WJR, bringing listeners the drama behind the scenes in Red Feather services. On Wednesdays at 5:15 p.m., Fran Harris leads the "Red Feather Revue," broadcasting on the spot from agencies supported by four Community Chest dollars. The Fran Harris show is heard over WWJ.

Henry Ford II Heads Community Committee

The Corporation Gifts Committee of the full Community Chest drive will be headed by Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Co. John R. Davis, chairman of the campaign, announced Wednesday.

Ford will also serve as a vice-chairman of the Red Feather drive. Previously, he was co-chairman of the Industrial Unit in 1945 and served as co-chairman of the Corporation Gifts Committee in the 1946 drive.

U. of M. COURSES

For the second summer, the University of Michigan Extension Service and the School of Music are offering a series of six lecture-recitals and complete concerts in Detroit at the Rackham Memorial. Artists will be guest and regular faculty members of the School of Music. Programs will be given on consecutive Tuesday evenings beginning July 1.

Good Soil Needed For Your Garden

The first ingredient of a successful home garden is good soil. E. D. Longnecker, soils specialist of Michigan State college extension service, says that poor garden soils can often be built up so that better crops are produced.
The ideal garden soil is loose, granular and spongy. Water and air can penetrate to the roots easily in this type of soil. Home garden soil, however, is often sandy or heavy and tight and hard to work.
A few basic materials will help
Grosse Pointers to improve poor garden soils. Longnecker lists: Manure, compost, sewage sludge, fertilizer, and income cases, lime.
Liberal supplies of manure will improve most garden soils. The manure should be spaded or plowed under if it is fresh and contains much straw.
Compost can be supplied by turning under the sod. Big clumps of sod and heavy vegetation should be broken up and then spaded under. A compost pile, started this year, will supply future needs.
Lime counteracts the effect of soil acids and furnishes the calcium and magnesium needed by plants. Longnecker warns that soils should not be limed unless a soil test shows a definite need.
Chemical fertilizers are needed unless the soil has been built up with lots of manure. Tests show that fertilizer is most effective when it is placed in bands 2 inches on either side of the row and slightly below the seed. Fertilizer may also be broadcast over the surface at the rate of 25 pounds per 1000 square feet and then worked into the surface layer.
Fertilizer analysis such as 4-12-8, 3-12-12, 4-12-4, and 2-12-6 should prove satisfactory for the home garden.
