No Accidents Mark Pointe Celebrations

Safest 4th In History

While deaths and injuries on the "Fourth" hit a new high in Detroit, and other cities throughout the country, the five Grosse Pointe communities were free from any fatalities or accidents to mark their celebrations. There were no traffic accidents or injuries caused by firecrackers.

The consensus of opinion among the five police chiefs was that this Fourth of July was the safest in the history of the town-ship.

Though thousands gathered at beaches and parks for picnics, swimming and fireworks, not one casualty was reported.

The nearest connection to a mishap was provided by a Park boy who became ill from spending too much time in the water. He was taken home by police.

KIWANIS SHOW

The day marked the ninth annual fireworks program of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis that attracted more than 15,000 to Mason field.

Highlighting the gala program was the awarding of a new car to D. Dwight Struthers, 2072 Lochmoor, holder of the lucky ticket.

Baseball games and novelty races were also on the Kiwanis schedule. Members of the club were pleased and grateful for the wonderful reception of the program by their many friends. The proceeds will go toward the many charitable activities sponsored by the Kiwanis.

PARK

Over at the Park's Waterfront, close to 8,000 residents and their guests turned out for the Park's post war renewal of celebrating the Fourth.

While thousands littered the park and beach, Bill Smith, world's swimming champion and other top acts performed in an aquatic exhibition that more than held its own with the colorful fireworks display.

TRIBUTE

During the program all those present paused in a moment's silence in tribute to Elliot Morris and Bud Barlow and other heroes who gave their lives in World War II. Elliot and Bud were once life guards at the Park.

REGATTA

Other activity on the fourth saw competitive sailing hit a new peak in Grosse Pointe when the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's 18th Annual Regatta drew 165 starters, the largest fleet ever to sail in fresh water regatta.

Those who did not compete watched the races from the yacht club docks and aboard crafts.

After the regatta, the club held its first outdoor dance.

FIELD DAY

A trend to "Old Fashioned Fourth Celebrations" was offered by the Grosse Pointe Optimist Club at Kerby field where more than 500 boys and girls competed in novelty races and pie eating contests.

Grosse Pointe Park police after going through the Fourth of July without one traffic mishap reported an accident on July 5 which sent two persons to the Bon Secours hospital.

Struck down as they attempted to cross Wayburn at Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Connell, 6203 East Jefferson, were treated for leg, arm and head injuries. They were taken to the hospital by St. Joseph's.

Police said the driver of the car, Mr. John W. Gieber, 716 Birch, was ticketed for careless driving.

Accident Sends Couple To Hospital

Grosse Pointe Park police after going through the Fourth of July without one traffic mishap reported an accident on July 5 which sent two persons to the Bon Secours hospital.

Kiwanis Car Awarded To Woods Accountant

NO COFFEE — BUT LOTS OF PIE

These youngsters are not only sitting down on the job, they're in it up to their necks. They are some of the boys and girls of this area who participated in the program of pie-eating contests and novelty races given by the Grosse Pointe Optimist Club for their Fourth of July Field Day at Kerby Field.

Son Tells Dad Of Big News

More than 15,000 persons, defying the heat, attended the 9th Annual Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club Fireworks program at Kerby field. Each one hoped to be the lucky person awarded the new automobile offered by the club.

However, the person who did hold the lucky ticket, D. Dwight Struthers, was at his home at 2072 Lochmoor at the time taking a bath.

Mr. Struthers was informed of the good news by his son, Dave, 12.

"Boy was I surprised when I heard my Dad's number called out," said Dave, who plays ball on the Kiwanis Junior Baseball team. "I lost no time in telling Dad over the phone."

7-11 WINS

The lucky number was 7-11. Still refusing to believe his good fortune, Mr. Struthers, an accountant at J. J. Bright, said that this marked the first time in his life that he ever won anything.

"It certainly was worth waiting for," he said smilingly as he polished off the fender of his new 1947 Ford sedan.

Mr. Struthers had been trying to purchase a new car for several months to replace his 1939 Buick. "I guess I'll get rid of Old Faithful now," he told B. R. Brothers, president of the Kiwanis Club who dropped in to congratulate the winner.

HAPPY FAMILY

The happy one's enthusiasm over the prize was shared by his charming wife and two sons. Dave was particularly pleased because he induced his father to obtain a few tickets for the program.

Mrs. Struthers added that the car was not the only recent arrival to the family. A few weeks ago they announced the birth of a daughter, Jo Ellen.

Other lucky ticket holders were Harold Dean, of Nine Mile road, who received a radio and J. C. Poyner, of Yorkshire, who took home a Kerby Cleaner.

Farm's Fire Chief Warns Residents

Grosse Pointe Farms residents are warned by Fire Chief George F. Dansbury to take more precaution when using incinerators to burn waste.

INCINERATORS

"Too many fires have been caused recently," said the Chief Dansbury, "by faulty use of incinerators."

Chief Dansbury's announcement followed in the wake of a fire at the home of Mr. Charles H. Bliss, 23 Beverly road, Thursday afternoon.

$80,000 HOME

According to the fire official, the fire was caused by sparks from Mr. Bliss' incinerator falling on the roof. Damages estimated at $10,000 were confined to the roof and third floor of the $80,000 home.

The Farms fire department was assisted by Grosse Pointe City firemen in fighting the flames.

Incinerator Starts House Fire in Park

A faulty incinerator caused a fire at the home of Mr. George M. Mann, 1007 Bishop, last week. Grosse Pointe Park fire officials reported that the damages, confined to the roof, were slight.

HOLIDAY SPENDER

The only traffic violation ticket issued by the Grosse Pointe City Police department on the Fourth of July was given to Donald P. Murphy, of St. Clair Shores.

Police reported that Murphy was traveling 50 miles per hour on Mack.

NEWLY ELECTED OFFICIALS

Mr. Bert H. Wicking and Mrs. Alice Moody Sheaffer were elected president and secretary respectively of Board of Education at the trustees meeting last week. Mr. Wicking has been a board member since 1943. Mrs. Sheaffer began her service as a trustee in 1942.

Pointe Shoemaker Cited In Belgium

The shoemaker, Isidore-Amey, who lives above his store at 15004 Mack, arrived in Tilt, Belgium, his native town, bearing a memorial wreath and cash for the town's 17 underground war heroes who were executed by the Nazis.

TOWN HERO

In a ceremonial program which had the aspects of a colorful holiday, Amey presented the wreath and the cash amounting to $1,000 to the town officials. The money is to be used towards a war memorial.

Amey, who is 65 years old, has been in Belgium for several years. He is a native of Grosse Pointe Park and is a member of the Grosse Pointe Park American Legion.

He expects to return to his store in the Park late this month.

Employees Buy Bonds For Pension

The City of Grosse Pointe municipality employees purchased three $10,000 U. S. Government bonds recently with their pension funds.

Added to previous bond investments, the recent purchase brings the pension fund investment to a matured value of more than $70,000.

The City pension program, which retires members of the police and fire departments at the age of 55 and all other municipal employees when they reach 60 years of age, was started a little more than a year ago.

The system calls for each employee to give 5 per cent of his annual income towards his retirement pension. In addition, the city contributes 11 per cent of each employee's annual income to the fund.

Benefits are paid in accordance with years of service and income earned.

To date, three former employees are receiving benefits.

Shopping Mystery Set By Unknown Woman

An expectant mother went on a shopping spree at J. L. Hudson's department store Saturday with someone else's credit card.

The merchandise amounting to $70 in value, was charged to the account of Mr. Ray Cashman, of 721 Lincoln road and was ordered delivered to 914 Lincoln road, the home of Mr. Arthur Woodbridge.

A suspicious store manager, unknown shopper.

Succeeds Retiring President

Grosse Pointe school district's board of trustees elected Bert H. Wicking, president of the Board of Education at the election of officers held last week at the Board of Education building.

Mr. Wicking, serving as a trustee since 1943, succeeds Dr. Chas. A. Parcells, who retired after spending more than 20 years on the board.

WOMAN ELECTED

Other persons elected to office were Mrs. Alice M. Sheaffer who was voted secretary and Mr. Chas. A. Poupard who was re-elected treasurer.

Mrs. Sheaffer, marking her sixth year on the board, succeeds Ralph M. Clark, who was defeated in the recent school district trustee election.

Mr. Poupard, on the board since the school district was organized in 1922.

Other members of the board of trustees are Franklin D. Dougherty and Sigurd R. Wendin.

After the election a meeting followed in which the board ruled to retain Glenn M. Coulter, as attorney for the School district.

FAMILY MAN

A native of Owosso, Michigan, Mr. Wicking received his education at Owosso High, University of Michigan and the Detroit College of Law.

He is now a vice-president of the Detroit Trust Co., a firm which he has been with for more than 23 years.

He lives with Mrs. Wicking and their two daughters and one son at 781 Trembley road.

Buffie and Bert, Jr., are students at Grosse Pointe High school while Barbara, the eldest, was graduated in 1946. She begins her second year of college next fall.

Barnes' Job To Selmeier

LeRoy Selmeier will be the Director of Instructions of Grosse Pointe Public School beginning February 1, 1948.

The position at the present time is being held by John R. Barnes, assistant superintendent, who succeeds Dr. Paul L. Essert as superintendent on August 1.

Board of Education officials announced that Mr. Barnes will carry the responsibilities of both positions until Mr. Selmeier arrives.

Mr. Selmeier, a former teacher at Grosse Pointe High School is currently completing his studies at Yale University for a Ph.D. degree.

Board officials indicated that no assistant superintendent has been named to succeed Mr. Barnes when he assumes Dr. Essert's duties. The latter resigned to accept a post at Columbia University.

Mr. Selmeier has been interested for many years in the field of curriculum development and instructional improvement. He has had recent training both at Wayne University and at Yale University in the field of elementary education. His work at Yale during 1946-47 has included seminars in Educational Research, Basic Educational Issues, Elementary Education, Secondary Education, and Educational Administration.

Dr. F. M. Brownell, former superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Schools and now a professor at Yale, reports very favorably on Mr. Selmeier's record. Mr. Selmeier's dissertation problem is in the curriculum.

No One Gets "Peep" At "Peeping Tom"

A peeping Tom is still at large in Grosse Pointe because no one has been able to get a good "peep" at him in order to identify him for police.

Several Park residents who reported a "peeping Tom" at their windows, were unable to identify a suspect held by Park police.

Police believe the suspect, a 23-year-old youth who lives in the neighborhood, is the guilty person. However, they were forced to release him because of lack of evidence.

DR. CHARLES A. PARCELLS

This week marks the passing of Dr. Charles A. Parcells as president of the Board of Education.
His retirement concludes twenty-one years of continuous service, sixteen of these years he served as president of the board.
Without any thought of personal gain, Dr. Parcells worked tirelessly and unselfishly toward developing our public education system. His efforts have been highly responsible for our splendid school program today which is rated with the best in the country.
Serving through hectic years, Dr. Parcells has been a guiding light to his associates on the board and to the people of this township as they worked together to meet the educational demands of a growing township.
His service will live long with the people of Grosse Pointe.

HIGH PRICE TAGS

The argument over the causes and cures of commodity price inflation has degenerated into a buck-passing contest. Labor blames capital and capital blames labor. Various segments of business blame other segments of business. Government officials attack industry, and industry counter-attacks in turn. And a good many consumers seem to feel everyone save themselves is at fault.
The truth is that the guilt must be shared by all elements in the American economy. And the cure, if there is to be one, can be achieved only by unified attack on the fundamental forces that push prices up — and the value of the dollar down.
First of all, prodigal government is a very strong inflationary influence. The terrible burden of debt the country now has makes this danger infinitely greater than it ever was before. We must put our fiscal house in order.
The productivity of labor is all important. A basic reason for high prices is that output per man in producing industry has gone down while wages have gone up. This philosophy of more money for less work is one of the best friends inflation has.
The attempt of some businesses to earn excessive profits comes into the same category. It is an inexcusable form of consumer exploitation. Fortunately, it is gradually being corrected as competition becomes more intense.
The type of prodigal buyer who will pay anything for what he wants made the black market in the past — and is a dangerous influence still. However, the easy money seems to be running out, which is a blessing to the country.
These factors contribute to the high price tags you see on goods in stores. They indicate why efforts of retailers to reduce prices cannot produce much in the way of results under present conditions. Reform must begin at the source — and until that happens the price problem will loom large in American life, so don't blame the retailer!

Crash Victim Faces Nose Operation

Jack Whiting, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whiting of 903 Fisher, was struck by a car while attempting to cross McKinley at Ridge, recently. He was taken to Cottage Hospital by Farms police.

The boy received first aid treatment, and was released by hospital physicians. A few hours later the boy complained of pains and was taken by his parents to Harper Hospital, where examinations revealed Jackie was suffering from a fractured nose, a two inch cut across his stomach, and other painful injuries. An operation has been recommended, as the result of X-rays.

Police said no disciplinary action would be taken with Thomas Mercier, 18, 1255 Buckingham, driver of the car that struck Jackie. In a statement to Dr. George Champine, Farms police, Mercier said that he was traveling not more than 15 miles an hour, at the time of the accident.

Robert Desimpe, 20, of 1264 Buckingham, who was riding with Mercier, was the lone witness. He substantiated Mercier's story.
Mercier was driving his father's car.

The Unfailing Cure for Strife and Lack

That "as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them" is not mere moral counsel but an intimation of inescapable natural law—law which unfailingly enriches all who observe it—becomes unmistakable in Christian Science.

Anyone at any time can improve his position, can improve his health if that is his need, or any other aspect of his experience—can find peace and full satisfaction—by better understanding and use of the law set forth in these words of the Founder of Christianity.

This great fact and all the technique for proving it—technique already proved by countless thousands in all walks of life—are made wholly clear in the Christian Science textbook.

freshmen was the stiffest in history. Naturally, we are extremely pleased with the exceptionally high college record of this great number of students which represents such a high per cent of our graduates. At the University of Michigan alone we had 65 of our recommended graduates enrolled as freshmen. That represented nearly 20 per cent of our normal graduating class," commented Mr. W. R. Cleminson, Principal.

Re-Open Marine Grill on River At St. Clair

Announcement is made this week of the re-opening of Russ Sillman's popular Marine Grill at the foot of St. Clair.

Always a favorite eating and drinking spot, the Marine Grill promises the same fine food and drinks for which they are famous. Its location provides a beautiful, cool atmosphere.

Mr. Sillman, is well-known as a purveyor of fine foods, having previously been associated with Capt. Shumway's and Pete Moors.

Noon business men's lunches and complete evening dinners and late snacks will be featured from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m., with emphasis on steaks, chops and sea foods, with the finest of wines, liquors and beers.

Doggie Wash Gives Pooches the Business

Ruth Murray, librarian, and Norma Hahn, ex-Wac, have organized a Doggie Wash on Pennsylvania off East Jefferson. From doing the neighbors dog they found out just how profitable a Doggie Wash could be so they pitched right in and got one.

They have individual towel service, each dog is washed with pure castile soap, and all brushes, combs and sponges are disinfected after each wash.

PERFUMED
After their baths the male dogs are sprayed with cedar pine and the females are sprayed with a delicate sweet scent. They are then given a dog biscuit as a reward and placed in a clean white stall to await the return of their owners, or their delivery.

The Doggies Wash has been such a success so far that a refrigeration system has been installed to enable the owner to keep fresh horse meat, both ground and in chunks, on hand at all times. There is a pick up and delivery service on the dogs and a delivery service on the meat for people who are too busy to make a special trip.

Prices are in accordance with the size of the dog, the length of his hair, de-fleing, combing, brushing, etc.

New Bank Will Aid Woods and Gratiot Citizens

Opening of a new bank in St. Clair Shores on Mack, near Nine Mile, will present new banking facilities for the convenience of residents of that area, plus Grosse Pointe Woods, Shores and Gratiot township.

The board of directors of the First State Bank of East Detroit announce the opening of this modern new bank at 23400 Mack avenue on Thursday, July 17th.

No expense has been spared to bring the area one of the finest and most up-to-date banks in the entire Detroit area.

New innovations will include a night depository, and a drive-in deposit or withdrawal window, by which customers may transact business from their car through a turtle, located beneath a large curved bullet-proof glass window. The teller inside can communicate by means of a transmitter.

The safety deposit department houses more than a thousand safety deposit boxes, with room for another thousand, as customer demand increases. Modern private rooms are provided for safety deposit customers. The cash and record vault is provided with an emergency ventilator.

Eleven cages are equipped for complete customer service.

Of brick and stone construction, the building contains a spacious lobby and all of the latest improvements throughout.

Mary Hodges Weds Emmet Scott Rumely

Mrs. Emmet Scott Rumely

In a lovely ceremony at Christ Church in Grosse Pointe Mary Elizabeth Hodges became the bride of Emmet Scott Rumely, Saturday afternoon.

Mary Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hodges, Jr., of Kenwood Road. The bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Rumely, of La Port, Ind., and New York.

The Rev. Francis B. Creamer officiated at the ceremony. Ann Crouse was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Carter Randolph Andrews, of Alexandria, Va., and Honolulu; Mary Taylor, of Garden City, L. I.; Jean Crawford Wilkin, of Melvin Village, N. H.; Mary Tiedeman and Joan Henry.

Deep salmon geraniums were carried by the honor maid and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink geraniums.

ESCORTING THE BRIDE to the altar was her father. Her

Rumpelstiltskin Reviews

By ISABEL RONEY

This week our survey of folk and fairy tales takes us to the land of vikings and fjords. Norwegian tales are not filled with gaiety and laughter as are the folk tales of Italy. The leprechauns of Ireland, and some of the fragile creatures of other lands would be blown away by the high winds that sweep its fir forests. The turbulent sea that pounds the rocky coast of Norway would dash to death any creature less than a giant. True, there are tales of mermaids and the North wind, of kings and simple folk, of snakes and storks and the flatterer fox, but Norse tales, for the most part, are of epic character. They are cast in an heroic mold. Life and death struggles between gods and giants are the hardy materials that go into them; battles fought upon the plains of Niplheim with rocks and ice-blocks in the beginning before weapons were known and later with weapons of steel while the earth belched fire. These are the tales told long ago by the Norse folk of old—of Odin and Frigg, his wife; of Thor and his hammer; of Freya the beautiful; of Tyr and the Fenris Wolf; of Loki and the mischief he made; and finally of Ragnarok, the twilight of the gods when the last mighty battle was fought by Odin and Thor and Vidar and all the gods against Loki, the Midgard Serpent, the Fenris Wolf and all the forces of evil arrayed against them. Though most of the gods were destroyed they were victorious in that they destroyed the forces of evil gathered against them — and a new and better world came into being.

aquamarine crepe with a soft rose hat. She pinned a corsage of gardenias at her shoulder.

Afterward, the couple left on a two weeks' honeymoon. For traveling, the new Mrs. Rumely wore a tan gabardine skirt topped by a sand-colored linen jacket. Her blouse was fashioned of brown and white polka-dotted silk and her accessories were brown.

She wore the white spray orchids from her bouquet.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Rumely will make their home in an apartment in the Ford Foundation in Dearborn.

Optimists Stage 4th of July Field Day

Success marked the Grosse Pointe Optimist Club first annual Fourth of July celebration at Kercheval field.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Mariner News: "The Grosse Pointe Mariner Ship, Neptune, set its course for the flats at 1 o'clock on June 18. Commander Richard Weber of the Power Squadron had as crew, Sidney Boules, Dianne Tompson, Janet Weinheimer, Alice Schlaepfer, Marejane De Cou, and Red Cross Lifesaver Mrs. Craig.

"Commander Robert Weber had a crew, Ora Lou Harnden, Pat Craig, Dolores Hammel, Madeline Hackman, Red Cross Lifesaver Pat Liddle, and our Skipper Mrs. Fred W. Lines.

"The trip took 3 1/2 hours. We docked near Commander Richard Weber's cottage, ate dinner, and held a brief meeting. We left the flats about six-thirty, and docked at Keen's Landing just after sundown.

"We are sincerely grateful to the Webers for the use of their boats, and appreciate the time they spent with us," Marejane De Cou, Mariner Scribe.

News of end-of-the-year activities: Troop 385 went on a hayride; horses, wagon, hay provided by Ridgmont Stables. The girls were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Edward Kay; Mrs. Orville Ashton, Assistant Leader; Mrs. George Savage, Troop Committee Chairman, and Mrs. H. Walgenbach. Afterwards at Mrs. Kay's house, an informal Court of Awards was held. Refreshments were hot dogs, popcorn.

Leader Mrs. James O'Brien took her Troop 234 on a trip to Bob-L.

Though the occasion was arranged for the entertainment of boys and girls of this area as they participated in old fashioned "4th" activities, older folks joined in the gaiety and spirit of the day.

The day's program of novelty races and pie eating contests began with colorful flag raising ceremonies led by Donald and Sel-don Burchenal, veterans of World War II.

BALLGAMES

The afternoon was marked by a ballgame between the Optimist Junior Club and The Firemen's Championship nine of Detroit, with the latter team winning 10 to 6.

The public address system was furnished by John Riegler, Jr., and the music by Larry Korte.

Metro Teams Start Tenth Week of Play

The League - leading Grosse Pointe Woods nine will play the Farms team on Friday, July 11, at Mason School in the tenth week of play. The Farms nine is in fourth place.

Also on Friday the 11th, the third place City team will play the Parks nine, which is in second place. The game is scheduled to be played at the Grosse Pointe High School field.

Only two games were played in the Metropolitan club league last week, and both turned out to be hard-hitting contests.

The Farms team put on a five-hit spurge in the 4th inning and, coupled with three bases on balls, scored seven runs. Jim Scheck, Pete Belanger, Hil Pierce, Bill Mason, and Clare Weaver all came through with clean hits. Bob Hayer hit a homer in the 5th.

The pace-setting Woods nine met their first defeat of the season at the hands of Harold Edsall, who pitched the City team to a 9-4 victory. Woods pitcher Eddie Martin allowed only five scattered hits to the City, but some costly errors proved disastrous to the first-place team.

Waterfront Park Director Plans Ambitious Program

A young man with raven hair and a determination to do things is winning favor at Grosse Pointe Park's "Waterfront Park. He is Dave Beauvais, pronounced beau-va-yay) the new recreation director.

Taking over his responsibilities only recently, Dave lost no time in hatching out a wide recreation program for both young and old residents of the Village.

Outstanding in his plans thus far are the tennis tournament that gets underway Monday and a swimming meet set for early in August.

ATHLETE

A native Detroit, Dave is a graduate of Southeastern High School and Wayne University. He won letters at both schools in football and track. While at Wayne he set a Mid-West hurdle record.

Besides his athletic prowess, Dave was an outstanding student at Wayne where he majored in Physical Education. He holds a masters degree.

Dave, who lives with his wife and two children at 14393 Piedmont, is a health and physical education teacher in Detroit during the school months. He also finds time to officiate at football and basketball games and swimming meets. He resigned his position as Boy Scouts' Camp Director, which he held for seven years, to come to the park.

POPULAR

The gregarious Dave, who is winning friends rapidly, has nothing but praise for his associates who work with him at the beach and the people who come there for recreation.

"It's swell to belong to a group which works so co-operatively and sincerely towards bringing enjoyable recreation to those who come here," said Dave.

Working with Dave at the park are Frank Bielman, head master life guard, of Detroit and ten life guards, who reside in Grosse Pointe Park.

They are: William Rogers, Harold Merrill, John Huddins, Earl Lapp, Robert Desaurpe, Don Kelly, Thad Joas, Tom Blacklock, Lee Walker, and Carl Stain.

LEE CULVER

When the new Grosse Pointe Council of the Royal Arcanum is officially instituted on July 22nd, Mr. Culver will be installed as Regent and will guide the destinies of this new group for the coming year.

Mr. Culver will have a very select group of officers to work with him. He is married and lives at 14543 Liberal.

The new council will hold its meetings bi-monthly in the Community Center Bldg. on East Jefferson Avenue.

Play Begins Monday

Grosse Pointe Park will conduct a tennis tournament at the Waterfront Park courts beginning Monday, July 14. Entries, limited to Park residents, will close Saturday, July 12.

The announcement was made by Dave Beauvais (pronounced beau vay) erstwhile recreation director, who said that the tournament will be divided into four classes, men, boys, women and girls.

The men will vie for honors in singles and doubles while the other contestants will play in singles only.

The junior divisions are limited to boys and girls 18 years of age or under (birthday must be on or after January 1, 1929.)

Coveted awards will be given to the four champions.

Proceeds from the entry fee will go to defray expenses which include cost of tennis balls to be used in the semi-finals and finals.

Contestants must furnish their own tennis balls in preliminary matches. Lawn tennis rules will prevail in all matches.

The event marks the first time since 1933 that a tennis tournament has been sponsored by the Village. One held in 1933 had limited success.

Hoping to have a large turnout, the young recreation director said that even though every contestant cannot win, the competition will be a grand experience for all players.

Here to follow is an official entry blank. Fill it out, and bring it with .25 to Dave at the Waterfront Park. Mailed entries should be addressed Dave Beauvais, Grosse Pointe Park 30, Michigan—remember entries close Saturday, July 12.

'Summer Incident'

Editor's Note: The following story was written by Elizabeth Robinson of 153 Ridge road, who has been very active in writing about girl scout activities in this area. Though she has been writing a hobby for years, this is her first attempt towards a professional literary career. We hope you enjoy reading "Summer Incident" as much as we did.

It was a hot July day. Sergeant Murphy, just back from his two weeks' leave heavily against the drug store cigar counter, shoved his hat up on his perspiring forehead, and wiggled the little toe inside his right boot; the toe with the corn on it.

He called across to the soda-jerk. "Make me a banana split, Joe."

Then he saw the tall man and the four children sitting at the fountain. They were drinking chocolate sodas, the youngest sucking noisily through a straw. All were clad in bathing suits, which were wet and dripping profusely. Around and beneath them were puddles of water.

DUTY CALLS

Sergeant Murphy knew his duty. He tried to ease his corn into a place where it would hurt the least, and strolled over to the fountain. He addressed the tall man.

"It's against the law in this town to appear in a public place in a bathing suit, Bud."

The tall man stopped eating ice cream and raised his head. His eyes were peculiar; slightly glazed. They seemed to be fixed not on Murphy, but on something beyond him. Murphy curbed a desire to look around. For an instant, he wondered if the man were drunk.

"Oh," said the tall man, in a flat voice. "I did not know it."

"Are these your kids?" Murphy asked.

"Yes," said the tall man.

"Well, all of you had better get along home and put some clothes on, or I'll have to report you," said Murphy.

The tall man glanced at his children, who were busily eating. He turned back to his own soda.

"We will leave when we have finished," he replied.

UNUSUAL

During Sergeant Murphy's ten years on the force he had come up against all kinds of people, but never had he been dismissed in such a cool, off-hand manner.

The extreme heat, his tight shoes, and now, this nonchalant brushing aside of his authority, were too much for him.

He grabbed the tall man's shoulder. "You'll come along with me to the station," he said, against his teeth. "All of you. Right now!"

The peculiar glazed eyes were looking through and beyond him again. Something in the tall man's face caused Murphy to relax his hold. With obvious effort the tall man got to his feet.

"I'm sorry," he said, in the same flat tone, "but that is impossible. . . tomorrow, perhaps, or the next day. You can get in touch with me."

While Murphy's mouth hung open, and his muscles refused to coordinate, the tall man gathered his children around him and calmly walked out of the drug store.

Murphy sank down on one of the wet stools. Joe slid the banana split in front of him.

"Fizz, or plain water?" asked Joe.

"What? Oh, yeah. Plain. Say Joe, who in Hell was that guy? The one with all the kids."

Joe pressed a shiny handle. Water hissed from the spigot.

"That's Reverend Cummings, Minister. Here for a vacation."

"Yeah?" Murphy drank deeply. "Pretty fresh for a minister."

"He's not fresh," said Joe, "he's sad."

"Sad, huh?"

JOE TALKS

Joe leaned across the counter, and spoke softly, "I couldn't tell you before, Murph, but you shouldn't have bothered him."

Seeing that he had the Sergeant's undivided attention, Joe continued. "Couple of hours ago his sail boat capsized off Barrow Point. His wife drowned. He and the kids hung onto the boat for thirty minutes, then some fisherman picked 'em up and brought 'em ashore. They came in here. The Rev. said he wanted to take the kids thoughts off what had happened by giving 'em a little treat."

Sergeant Murphy slowly stuck a spoon in the gooey mound in front of him; then he pushed it away. For the first time in his life he was sorry that he was a policeman.

To Honor J. C. Nelson

James C. Nelson will be installed as Sitting Past Regent of the Grosse Pointe Council of the Royal Arcanum, which will be instituted at 8 p.m. July 22, in the main ball room of St. Clair Community Center.

Mr. Nelson has been the organizing and guiding hand during the formation of this new council. He is an active member of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis and resides at 1981 Van Antwerp, Grosse Pointe. Mr. Nelson has recently been appointed co-chairman of the Juvenile Dept. of the Royal Arcanum of this district.
