First In Woods' History

The first permanent church cornerstone laying ceremony in the Grosse Pointe Woods area for the Woods Presbyterian Church, will be enacted on Sunday, July 27, at 4 p. m. The historic event will take place at the wooded lot on Mack avenue and Torrey Road, where the first unit is being built at this time.

Mrs. H. N. Torrey and the late Dr. Torrey gave the splendid two-acre plot for the building of a church. Through the efforts of Dr. Frank Pitt, minister of Memorial Church, and the work of interested local residents, a Church School had been organized in March 1937. The Church was completely organized and named on October 2, 1939.

During the war years the Church and Church School met in the Mason School on Vernier Road, which is also the present home of the congregation. During this time, committees were at work on plans for the new church. The result is the building of one unit of an English Parish Church, costing $100,000.00.

In addition, it will be furnished with pews, complete chancel, Church School equipment, nursery, kitchen, etc.

Many of the furnishings have been planned for through organizations and individuals as memorials. Sidney J. Bockstanz is chairman of the memorial committee. Other committee members are as follows: executive, Alois A. Ghesquiere; financial, William F. Beckley; and building, Hugh W. McTavish.

The Briggs All Stars, one of the nation's leading softball teams, will play the Grosse Pointe All Stars Wednesday, July 30 at Defer Field, Kercheval and Nottingham. The game is scheduled to start at 6:15 p. m.

The Briggs club is practically the team that plays under the banner of E and B in the National Softball League.

All Grosse Pointe players were selected from the teams playing in the Class A division of the local playground league by a committee of managers.

GOOD FOE

According to the caliber of ball displayed by the players in the Pointe league, the local all-star aggregation should provide the Briggs team with formidable opposition.

Police Chief Suggests New Parking Plan

Tom Trombly, Chief of Grosse Pointe City, police offered a solution to the parking problem here.

He suggested that each village municipality take over privately owned lots located near congested traffic areas, for free parking lots.

For the use of these properties the villages would pay the taxes on them.

Pointe Youngsters Get Big Thrill When They Meet Tiger Favorites

By BEA WILSON

Sue Gorenflo, 15, of 622 University, and Paul Geffert, 13, of 1702 Stanhope met their baseball favorites Thursday, July 17, and saw one of the best Tiger double-headers of the season, as guests of the Grosse Pointe Review, and as winners in the Review's essay contest, "Why I Would Like To Meet My Favorite Major League Ballplayer."

BIG MOMENT

Sue, accompanied by her mother, and Paul, with his brother, sat in one of the front boxes at Briggs Stadium, a stone's throw from the Tiger dugout. Before the start of the double-header with Washington, the two youngsters had their picture taken in front of the dugout with their heroes, Hoot Evers and Freddy Hutchinson. A picture will be given to each of the youngsters.

Both were as nervous as a cat on eggs! Sue's mother and Paul's brother, both great baseball fans themselves, were almost as excited as the prize winners.

The Tigers provided quite a day for the youngsters and all the fans by coming up with a couple of homers, some double steals, and a terrific steal of home by the ever-reliable George Kell. Every Tiger has his day, and they all seemed to land on last Thursday. Unfortunately,

Freddy Hutchinson was not in the ballgames, but Hoot Evers was, and made one or two spectacular catches in centerfield.

GREAT FANS

Both Sue and Paul said they had never had such good seats, and both were so anxious to get to the stadium on time that they wouldn't eat lunch. "Sue is a great Tiger fan," said Mrs. Gorenflo, "and she has three or four huge scrapbooks full of pictures of the Tigers. Why, the family can't throw a paper away until she's cut out the Tiger pictures and articles!"

Paul watched the great "Prince Hal" Newhouse giving a small fan an autographed baseball and a few minutes talk, and he turned around and said, "Gee, isn't that great?" Paul's hero, Hutchinson, was so pleased with the youngster, that he arranged for him to have a baseball autographed not only by himself, but by the whole Bengal team as well!

Bob Howe, 13, 2064 Beaufait; Allen Burnett, 12, 1391 Oxford Rd.; and William Mason, 12, 455 Belanger, will meet their favorites when Cleveland plays Detroit, in August. Bob and Bill will be introduced to Bob Feller and Lou Boudreau, and Allen to "Doc" Cramer. Harry Heilmann, who acted as judge in selecting the best essays.

Veterans Get Results From G. P. School Service

By DON CHUBA

The desire of veterans to take advantage of the G. I. Bill of Rights by continuing their education has resulted in an amazing go-to-school movement throughout our land.

Grosse Pointe's part in this movement is fostered by the Grosse Pointe High School Veterans' Institute under the direction of Mr. Vincent L. Peterson, field counselor.

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education, co-operating with the Veterans' Administration and the State Department of Public Instruction, organized the Veterans' Institute to enable former G. I. in this vicinity to complete their high school education and, in many cases, go on to college.

STARTED IN 1946

The first session of classes under the Institute opened October 7, 1946, and closed June 13, 1947. During this time an approximate enrollment of 146 veterans was handled.

Investigating officers found the motorcycle, answering the description given over the phone, parked in front of Earle's home.

THE UNPALATABLE TRUTH

The people of the United States have reached a point where they must face facts. We have been taught to look upon our country as a land of inexhaustible resources. We have lived in sort of a dream world created by our own wishful thinking.

Now we face the Frankenstein we have built. We have found that more wages for less production per man raises prices enormously. We have found that when we loaned money to ourselves in the form of government bonds, interest on that money has to be collected in taxes and paid to ourselves - this in turn adds greatly to the cost of living.

General Eisenhower has now told us in plain language that with the present condition of the world, it is possible we will be in another war within 12 months.

There is only one way the people of the United States can save themselves. As workers we must learn that an increased income can only be made permanent through increased production per man; we must learn that only by work and saving and economy can we maintain a solvent government, i.e., save the money we have "loaned" to ourselves.

Today we are like a giant who has become soft due to his own excesses. Unless we correct our method of living, we are simply inviting trouble. We have had our warning. We have seen the inevitable results of policies we have pursued. Are we intelligent enough to correct our errors?

A RIDER WITH SPURS

When socialism gets into the saddle, it is almost impossible to unseat it.

That is the gist of an editorial in the Portland Oregonian, which said: "In a democratic country such as the United States, private ownership is always on the uneasy seat. Election after election can be ordered on the same issue - say, on government ownership of power. Private ownership may win overwhelmingly today, yet tomorrow it faces the effort all over again. But public ownership if it wins just once is for practical purposes secure..."

The essence of this lies in the fact that the abuses of private enterprise can always be corrected, and capitalism can be controlled. The people, through their government, wield the ultimate power. But socialism is in a very different category. Once it captures the government, it becomes in itself the ultimate power. It can conceal its mistakes. It has charge of the public purse-strings, and it can use them as it wishes. It can dominate elections through patronage and bureaucracy. It becomes a mass employer - and the livelihood of millions of people are dependent on its perpetuation. And once that happens, little short of revolution can change it.

This has been demonstrated too many times to need argument. It is taking place now in England, precisely as it has taken place throughout most of Europe. If the American people learn only one fact from history, it should be this: the preservation of all liberties can only be insured in a social and political system in which government regulates but never competes, and in which the state is never permitted to become a mass employer.

G. I.'s GOOD RISKS

The Wall Street Journal recently described what has happened in the case of the 67,000 government-backed business loans made to veterans since January, 1945.

By and large, the G.I.s have proven good risks. As of May 25, the last reporting date, only 1412 loans had defaulted, through 3118 other borrowers were behind in payments.

Blackest spot has been loans made to start little trucking businesses. Percentage of failures has been very high here, due largely to the fact that the ex-service people ran their equipment to death and didn't service it properly. This seems to have been a hangover from the war experiences, when motor equipment was expendable.

LABOR AND THE FUTURE

The idea that the interests of capital and labor are inimical is both wrong and ridiculous. Labor wants high wages - and to pay them business must earn fair profits. Labor wants a high standard of living - and to have that it must produce effectively so that reasonably-priced goods become abundant. Labor wants an important place in the councils of the nation - and it must earn that by proving its interest in the national welfare.

The best and most aggressive unions the country has known have fought militantly for benefits for their members - and, at the same time, they have cooperated with business to maintain and broaden markets, to get the work out, and to do assure jobs. They have understood that no group can longer prosper if the rest of the people do not. The future strength of the American labor movement will depend upon its acceptance of such principles as these.

Farms Report Submitted By Clerk

Farms Clerk Harry A. Furton submitted the first report of Revenue and Expense under the 1947 budget, at the Farms Council meeting Monday night. Following is the report as it was submitted by the Clerk:

REVENUE Explained by way of comparison, the 1947 revenue to date of $21,689.76 (Ref. 18) is $9,428.06 higher than receipts at the same time in 1946, most of which is accounted for by sales tax receipts of $11,547.20 (Ref. 16) as against none in 1946 and a reduction of $3,800.00 in liquor tax receipts to date as compared to 1946.

On the matter of 1947 revenue it might also be well to explain that the Village will receive in 1947 approximately $14,000.00 for which no appropriation was made. This results from final decisions of the legislature, leaving intangibles tax revenue unchanged and revenue from the hard liquor tax for four months. An additional 5-60 per capita which would have come to the Village under the new 01c gas tax passed by the Legislature was vetoed by the Governor.

EXPENSE Departmental expense of $161,116.48 (Ref. 28) is approximately $10,000.00 higher than in 1946 at the same time. However the percent expended to date, of 32.4% is practically the same as that of 1946 for June 30th when the figure was 32%.

CASH, INVESTMENTS AND RESERVES

The Village is in a good cash position with cash and investments, totaling 194,973.21 (Ref. 31-32-33-34), in excess of reserves and bills payable by $47,790.00, after deducting cash receipts of approximately $28,000.00 not anticipated in the first four months. The excess in 1946 at the same time was $44,217.45.

New Sewage Plans Proceed

Despite the rejection of the $350,000 sewage proposal at the March election, the council realizing the need of new sewage, appropriated $10,000 in the budget this year for new sewage plans and specifications.

Following is the latest development in these plans.

The Fisher Road to Lothrop Road area sewer relief plans have been completed, also the Sewer Pumping Station addition including pump and motors are now complete. The Stephens Road to Moross Road area sewer relief has been completed with the exception of locating and designing the outlet section proposed through Mrs. H. B. Joy's property on Lakeshore road.

Approval for the cost of taking test borings to determine ground conditions through Mrs. Joy's property was given. The width of the necessary easement and the possibility of tunnel construction is dependent on ground conditions and should be determined before the final location for the sewer outlet from this area to the lake is determined.

Health Department Marks 74th Year

The Michigan Department of Health, one of the pioneer organizations of its kind in the United States, will observe the 74th anniversary of its founding July 30.

The fifth health board established in the country, it began work at a time when sanitary science was in its swaddling clothes, the germ theory of disease was struggling for recognition, and more people believed in spontaneous generation of disease than in living contagion. The work of Pasteur and Koch was just underway and patient medicines were huckstered from street corner platforms, to correct all the body's ailments.

WOODS PAVING

The firm of McDonald and Moore will handle the Grosse Pointe Woods $30,000 bond issue for pavement of Kenmore and Oxford roads which is expected to begin soon.

120 Business Leaders Seek Unity of Welfare Groups

First step in a program to form a United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan was taken July 15 at a meeting of 120 business, industry and community leaders, called by Henry Ford II in Detroit. The new organization will have as its objective the uniting of many national health and welfare agency appeals into one annual drive.

Last Rites Held For C. Lingeman

Hundreds of Grosse Pointers were among the City, County and State officials and friends who attended the last rites of Casper J. Lingeman, 69, 858 Lake Shore at the Verheyden Funeral Home. Mr. Lingeman, Wayne County Clerk, since 1936, died in his sleep of a heart attack Sunday morning.

The Rev. Father Richard Parish, assistant pastor of St. Paul's Church, Grosse Pointe Farms, administered the last sacrament. A native of Detroit, Mr. Lingeman was forced to leave school at the age of 15 by the death of his father and take charge of the umbrella business established by his grandfather.

In 1915, he gave up the umbrella business for real estate. Among his better known developments was the area around the University of Detroit. It was one of Detroit's extensive well-organized residential areas.

Mr. Lingeman was elected as a Democrat to the State Legislature in 1934. Two years later, he was elected to his first term as County clerk.

Though as clerk, Mr. Lingeman issued hundreds of marriage licenses, he never married. He cared for his mother since his father's death in 1902. His mother's death last May at the age of 84 had an adverse effect on his health.

Surviving are a brother, Cyril A., an English instructor at the University of Detroit; and four sisters, Bernice, Vera, Mrs. Lucille Wilson and Sister Marie Raymond, of the Emmaculate Heart of Mary Order.

Over the buildings and grounds of Grosse Pointe High School the lofty tower stands like a vigilant sentinel of the domain of learning and enlightenment.

NEWSPAPER
The other Tower is the weekly school newspaper, product of the creative efforts of the high school journalism students under the supervision of Miss Doris K. Trott, instructor.

Mr. W. R. Cleminson, as principal of the high school, has the authority of publisher; and Miss Trott, as journalism instructor, is the editorial director.

INCOME
The Tower has its sources of income like any paper. Approximately a half of the cost of the publication is derived from advertising.

WIDE INTEREST
First of all, as with all newspaper readers, each usually turns to the department of special interest to him. With many it is the sports page, with some the "Did You Know" column, and with others the feature entitled "Quotation Marks."

DEAN TALKS
James B. Edmerson, dean of M's School of Education, said public schools should increase the present emphasis on civic training and character education but should not invade the field of religious education.

OPEN DOOR
Grosse Pointe Park police reported that they found the door open at Regal Cleaners, Kercheval at Maryland, late Friday night.

Paula's Hi-Lites

by PAULA BEAUPRE

Dear Jeanne:

Well, here I am again, all ready for our weekly chat! It's been cold here and there has been quite a bit of rain so most of the kids cancelled their parties until warmer weather comes around again, but of course a few groups went right ahead with their plans.

Last Tuesday, JEANNE KULKA invited lots of her girl friends to her home to observe Green Holiday. Everyone arrived with a gift which was later to be presented to one of her friends. The girls were served a tempting lunch of hamburgers, potato salad, and lots of other good things and the entire meal was topped off with watermelon. Some of the kids then played bridge and later on they all opened their presents. It was really one of the most delightful summer parties we've seen. We saw Joan Beaupre, Mary Lou Thibodeau, Pat Thibodeau, Alda Marie Crowe, Betty Ann Huetteman, Alice Fauser, Frannie Ardito, Marilyn Otto, Mary Ann Hillebrand, and Joan Krausmann, thanking their hostess for the wonderful afternoon.

PAULA

Here was another birthday miss who kept her fingers crossed when the day of her Splash Party and Wiener Roast dawned dull, dreary and very, very cool! Well, JUDY BEAUPRE just went on hoping for the best and when five o'clock rolled around, there was still no rain falling so the Wiener Roast was on! As the guests started arriving, Judy noticed that they were all warmly bundled in jeans and sweaters so she thought that naturally, the Splash Party was to be forgotten. Much to her surprise, a few of the invited brought forth swimming suits and exclaimed that they would swim even if they froze to death! (And I think a few of them actually thought they would!) Anyway, when everyone had arrived, Judy began opening her gifts and what beautiful presents they were! She received pins, bracelets, hair clips and many more lovely things. I'm sure she will remember her 14th birthday for a long time. Then the whole crowd marched to the Farms Pier and those few afore-mentioned guests pushed a couple ice floats out of the way and proceeded to take a short (very short) dip in the water. In order to warm themselves up, the swimmers and others joined in on a fast game of baseball which continued until the first was blazing and the lunch was prepared. There was a mad scramble and the next minute everyone was roasting a hot dog, sipping a coke, or munching on potato chips. As you can well imagine, the food disappeared in no time at all and the guests then turned to a Treasure Hunt. Everyone ran around in a search to find the treasure by first finding the hidden clues. The two who came out on top in this game were Sally McCarron, who was given note paper, and Larry Sullivan, who was awarded a miniature flashlight. Before leaving the pier, Tom Kelly, Joy Kelly, Duane Streb, Kathleen Weot, Leo Kennedy, Phyllis Van Beclars, Jack Lemieux, Diane Zemper, Larry Sullivan, Marie Couvier, Sharon Sweeney, Mary Jo Trombley and Theresa Lyford, gathered up all their belongings and then left for home.

Yesterday morning the mailman brought me a letter from SHIRLEY ALLARD. She said that she and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Allard, were at Muskegon — they're first stop on a six day trip through Muskegon, Pentwater and Baldwin. Seems like everyone is going or coming from vacations. Sure hope you're enjoying yours!

Well, I've run out of news again so that means that its time to close. See you again next Thursday, Jeanne. Don't forget to watch for the mailman!

Valets for Now, Paula

Catholic Theatre Bids For New Memberships

The Catholic Theatre, of Detroit is engaged during the months of July and August in its Eight Annual Subscription Membership Drive to raise funds to underwrite current expenses and to guarantee the opening of the 1947-48 season. Subscription Memberships are $5 per year and entitle the holder to the exclusive subscription rate of 50% discount on all tickets purchased for major productions. A season of light, entertaining and enjoyable plays is being planned. Subscription Members are invited to attend all meetings and social activities of the theatre.

NON-PROFIT

The group has continued in existence for seven years as a non-profit organization receiving no subsidy or support from any fund or agency. It is entirely dependent upon the income derived from ticket sales and Subscription Membership fees.

Many have heard of The Catholic Theatre. A great number have seen the productions and many more are now aware of the accomplishments of the group. The acting and staging of the plays have frequently received complimentary reviews from Detroit's professional drama critics. Newspaper feature stories, rotogravure picture spreads and numerous radio interviews have further helped to acquaint the public with the efforts of The Catholic Theatre. Yet with all this favorable publicity the theatre has not been able to build an audience large and consistent enough to meet increasing production costs.

OVER $00

The Catholic Theatre has over 300 in its adult membership and 285 in The Children's Stage. It provides an opportunity for Catholics from 6 to 60 to mingle and have a wholesome outlet for mutual interests. The group offers an activity in which all members of a family may work in unison.

Help to keep The Catholic Theatre an important part of Detroit's cultural growth — stimulate and create more and better theatre — bring the finest possible plays. Make your check in the amount of $5.00 payable to The Catholic Theatre and mail it to 1234 Washington Blvd.

Pointe Bride-Elect Is Honored Guest

Mrs. Wilma Shields Pratt and Mrs. Mary Shields Ambrose, 582 Neff Road, were co-hostesses at a one o'clock dessert luncheon and "Bed Room" shower on Tuesday afternoon, July 22nd, honoring Miss Betty Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen M. Pratt, 258 Meriwether Road, who will become the bride of Mr. Fred W. Beltz Saturday afternoon, July 26th.

Since blue is the favorite of the bride-to-be, blue predominated in the decorations, being combined with white. A linen tablecloth covered the dining table which was centered with a bowl of garden flowers, with ceramic candle holders and a blue candle placed on each side. (These were the gift of Mrs. Shields to the bride couple.) Ceramic flowered place holders held the large white cake which was placed at each end of the table, each topped with a blue bed. A satin gowned bride doll graced one, while the groom dressed in satin P J's was on the other.

During the afternoon, a scrap book was made, depicting the various ages and events of the bride and groom; and each guest wrote words of advice and wisdom in an autograph album, which, if she needs, the bride will become a model wife. The climax of the afternoon was reached with the opening of the ribboned gifts. These had been placed before the living room fireplace, centered by two varied sized hat boxes, draped with light blue tulle, veiling and tied with a six inch satin ribbon, topped with a blue flowered corset. Since the interest of the two mothers equaled that of the honoree, they sat on each side of her so that they might share in that first exciting "peek."

A refreshing iced fruit drink, brought to a close a most delightful afternoon.

Guests invited to the dessert-luncheon and shower were Mrs. Glen M. Pratt, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Fred W. Beltz, mother of the groom; Mrs. Jesse W. Shields, Mrs. Edwin M. Pratt, Mrs. Robert Pratt, Mrs. William G. Wahl, Mrs. R. R. Rector, Mrs. R. L. Hart, and Mrs. A. C. Danneker.

Other guests were Miss Ray Knight, Miss Harriet Gelhaar, Miss Margaret Downing, Miss Bonnie Rink, Miss Edith Walther, Miss Jean Neff, Mrs. William Carleton, Miss Betty Wahl, Mrs. Cameron Kiskadden, Miss Barbara Hart. Also Mrs. Leon Jacob, Mrs. Ralph Netting, Miss Mary E. Stewart, Mrs. Dr. Mead, and Miss Sarah

The maid of honor, wore a white linen dress, with pink and blue accessories and carried white and pink carnations.

The young couple left for Franklin, Minnesota where they plan to make their home.

Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

This issue of Teen Talk will be devoted to girls only, but don't feel put out, boys, we'll let you peek if you're not too bored at the first line!!!

Starting off, the theme of this little hag session will be what the "keen teen" will be wearing come school in the fall.

On Monday, opening day, you'll still be wearing sweaters and skirts for every day wear, but this year there's a new twist. They'll either be pegged to a T, or swish with thin knife pleats all the way around. Of course only skinny Minnies, will be able to claim those for their pets.

And when it comes to sweaters, there isn't much to say, because they'll still be all wool (only maybe a little better than last year's), and the sizes will be much the same.

Loafers will look new and prim with a strap across the front, buckling on the side with a small gold buckle, and of course you'll include a pair of red, or green ones for extra dash.

Shapely legs will be sporting knee length socks to show them off, and the colors will match or contrast with sweaters depending on the wearer's choice.

Chesterfield coats will again do their best to keep the cold air out, only on the outside they'll be tailored gabardine buttoning up to the neck with either full backs, or princess styles, the later again will be claimed by Slim Sues.

Babushkas will be loud plaid, imported from Scotland, and of the very finest wool, with mittens to match.

The young sophisticates of the school however will stick to their tailored pigskin gloves with harmonizing whip stitching. Some stores feature them with sheepskin linings too!!!

Stadium boots will protect those pink toes to the utmost, and for extra protection manufacturers will coat them with rubber.

So there is your school costume, but the week has ended, and now it's Saturday night. You've turned down the living room lights to a low dim glow, and shoeed Mom, and Dad off to the movies. The whole house lifts with the heavenly aroma of your latest perfume, your hair is clean and sleek, with a rhinestone clip tucked in the back and what are you dressed in to expect your handsome idol?

MEEKY

Well, here there is a change from last year's glad rags!!!

Your feet are clad in pumps instead of those oh-too-comfortable ballet-shoes, and your hose are suave, with dark seams, and the color is light sheer black, replacing suntan shades.

The hem of your dress swoops down, way below your knees, perhaps a little longer in back.

Your dress is made of new shimmer satin, and the color is called gunmetal. The neck is high and adorned by a single strand of pearls that are turned around to reveal their pretty rhinestone clasp. The reason that it fits so well is because the zipper is in the back right above that pert bow bustle that gathers the extra material that is swathed around the front.

On your wrist you wear a small rhinestone bracelet, and your finger sports a single rhinestone set in a high mounting with blue stones flanking the sides to match, the clasp of the bracelet.

Behind your ears tingles the sweet fragrance of perfume. Something like One Night for Love, or some romantic title similar to that, but caution here! You only dab it on so that it's only faint, and feminine.

And now the doorbell has rung. You cautiously balance yourself as you stride to the door and greet him. Now, you give him your coat, soft wool gabardine, black of course, with a silver button in the front to close it. The back is full and swinging, a little longer at the hem.

The car is pulling away now, you're on your way and HE hasn't remarked about your clothes yet, oh—well, they're different. Please remember it takes time where men are concerned, but after a while he'll think back and remember how neat you looked and how good your perfume smelled. Then the phone will ring and he'll be there asking for another date, and there you are on the other end smiling, happy, proud, and busy wondering if your next costume will do as much for you as the last one did!

Painting By Rosa, Gift To Institute

The Detroit Institute of Arts announces the acquisition of a great painting by the famed Italian artist, Salvator Rosa (1615-1673). It is "Landscape with the Finding of Moses," the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Whitcomb.

It is a large painting, measuring 79 1/2 inches wide and 48 1/2 inches in height.

Edgar P. Richardson, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, writes:

"Salvator Rosa is a central figure in the story of European landscape painting. Born in the little village of Arenella near Naples in 1615, he spent his youth painting the majestic scenery in the Bay of Naples, which reappears in this picture transposed into a plane of grandly imaginative and dramatic poetry.

"In his youth he wandered through the wild scenery of the south of Italy, living for a time, it is said, among bandits. He brought into Italian painting a love of the wild, dramatic and grandiose aspects of nature which make him a precursor of romantic landscape painting.

"In 1649 he moved to Rome where his painting of furious battle scenes or bandit-haunted and stormy landscapes were in strong contrast to the idyllic landscape of Claude Lorraine and the sober classical taste of Poussin. He had discovered a new aspect of nature and brought it to artistic expression.

"This painting is one of a pair of landscapes painted for Prince Prince Colonna in the late 1660's, at the height of the artist's mature style. The two paintings are brought to England about 1800 and were separated in 1801 when this one was sold to the Duke of Buckingham. The other one of the pair a "Landscape with Mercury and Woodmen", found its way in 1837 into the National Gallery, London.

"Our painting, passing through various private collections, was brought to America in the late 19th century. It now takes its place in our collection as one of the monuments of Baroque landscape painting and a masterpiece of Salvator Rosa's grandeur and decorative power."

The painting was acquired through Durlacher Brothers of New York.

Defrost Your Refrigerator To Save Food

When the foods in your refrigerator don't seem to cool as quickly as they should, it may be that the frost line has reached the danger point.

For the sake of your refrigerator and the foods stored in it, Irma H. Gross, head of the department of home management at Michigan State College, says to defrost it often. Defrost it before the frost becomes a quarter of an inch thick.

Thick frost slows down the cooling of foods and may send the temperature up even though the refrigerating system works harder than usual. Before defrosting, remove the freezer trays. Be sure the drip tray is empty and in place to catch the water as the frost melts.

Don't try to speed up the defrosting by putting hot water in the freezer trays while the control is set at "defrost" or "off" unless it is recommended by your manufacturer. Check the directions booklet or check with the manufacturer before using hot water.

Never use anything sharp to chip frost from the evaporator or to loosen the ice-cube trays, because this may injure the coils that hold the freezing fluid.

Rumpelstiltskin Reviews

By ISABEL BONEY

The tragic sufferings endured by the Polish people throughout the greater part of their history is not generally mirrored in their folk and fairy tales. Many of these are surprisingly free of struggle and sorrow and are famous for their fun and merriment.

"The Polish Fairy Book" by Elsie Byrde, and illus. by Livia Kadar contains a pleasing selection told in a simple vivid style. Published by Stokes.

"The Gypsy and The Bear" translated by Lucia Merecka Borski and Kate B. Miller, illus. by James Reid is an animal tale that is amusing and charming.

The gayety of the Polish folk tale is again apparent in "The Jolly Tailor and Other Fairy Tales," also translated by Lucia Borski and Kate Miller. Mr. Joseph Nitechka, the merry little tailor was so thin he could eat nothing but noodles. With this lively beginning the tale goes merrily on its way.

"Nine Cry-Baby Dolls," a folk tale adapted by Josephine Bernhard, illus. by Irena Lorentowicz is a humorous folk tale that will enchant the younger child. Little Tolu Bartosh, who always cried for no reason at all and poor Mother Bartosh who drew on the sagacity of a wrinkled old granny to quiet him are characters that will amuse as well as teach the young reader a good lesson. Mrs. Bartosh learns at last that she can't get rid of her troubles by passing them on to others—in the guise of nine cry-baby dolls.

"The Trumpeter of Krakow" by Eric P. Kelly, illus. by Angela Pruszyńska is a good tale of fifteenth century Poland for older boys and girls. A rare crystal brings mystery into the story. The book was awarded the John Newberry medal for excellence. Published by MacMillan. Other books by the same author are "The Land of The Polish People," written with knowledge of Poland, past and present, and familiarity of that country's rich store of legend and tradition. Fine photographs. Published by J. R. Lippincott 1944. "The Blacksmith of Velno," "From Star to Star," and "The Christmas Nightingale" are other examples of this author's fine work for older boys and girls.

"Prince Godfrey" by Halina Gorska translated by Roman Braun and published by Roy Co. is a lovely book of twelve wondrous tales concerning Prince Godfrey. They will remind you of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table in the gallant adventures and the miraculous happenings, and in the beauty and dignity with which they are written. Illuminated by Irena Lorentowicz.

Scouts Busy With Summer Program

By canoe and bus, bicycle and train, private automobile, and even Army transport, Scouts of this area are looking forward to a grand vacation season this summer, according to A. M. R. Shields, Executive of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America - one of the many Red Feather Agencies served by the Community Chest.

Canoe trips officially started on Monday of this week. Fifteen District Executive Arthur J. Lusty, started the first of a series of eight weekly trips thru lakes and rivers of Southeastern Michigan. Several Troops chartered buses for their transportation to summer camp sites. Some Units will travel two to three hundred miles to reach their favorite spot. Camping in the old Fort on Mackinac Island will be enjoyed by at least four local Troops this summer. One Troop is already on its way to Yellowstone Park as part of a two thousand mile educational journey. Another small Troop took off in a station wagon for Washington, where they will spend ten days in the Nation's Capitol.

Bicycles are a very popular conveyance for short term camping trips of only twenty to thirty miles distance. The method of transportation is very popular with small groups of Scouts using the buddy system or under patrol leadership.

ARMY A regular Army transport will be used by nearly 1100 Scouts and Leaders for their journey to the Sixth World Jamboree in France, this August. The Local Council's delegation (of ten Scouts and one Leader) leaves here on Monday, July 14 on the first leg of their two thousand mile journey into several European countries.

Short train trips are very popular with Scouts and Leaders alike. Many city-born boys experience their first train ride on some Scout activity. The twenty-five local Senior Scouts scheduled for a tour of Philmont (in New Mexico this August) have not yet decided whether to travel by bus or train.

How To Drink From a Public Fountain

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Grosse Pointe Review in its efforts to encourage original and creative writing welcomes stories, essays, and poetry for publication from its readers. The following humorous article was written by Jack Dekker, a student at Detroit University School

By JACK DEKKER The act of drinking is undoubtedly one of the simplest in our everyday life. One just opens up one's mouth and lets whatever liquid it may be slide down his or her gullet. If one is lucky, the liquid is Scotch, or if one is even luckier, it is champagne, but we won't go into that here as this article is on drinking receptacles. Drinking receptacles differ in different countries, but the one that concerns us most is the American drinking fountain.

Public drinking fountains also differ, but the particular one we have in mind is the contraption which requires no cups or glasses. The matter of drinking will be taken up later. With this devilishly clever type of drinking fountain, one merely presses a button or lever, and the liquid squirts out and up into the air from a gun-like faucet. The drinker then bends over, if he or she is not troubled by lumbago and catches the stream of water in his or her mouth.

Some people, unaware of the dangers that lurk around this "fountain of youth," are very apt to suffer painful surprises, to say nothing of ending up in a watery grave. Therefore, it is the purpose of this article to show our many friends how to handle the great American fountain in six easy lessons.

While her Daddy was busy racing his craft over the water of Lake St. Clair, Little Gail Cross was having a wonderful time listening to the funny chatter of Clyde the Clown who was a visitor at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club recently. Gail is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton O. Cross, Jr., of Hampton road.

- 1. Approach the fountain, and bending over at an angle of forty-five degrees, press the lever gently. When the stream of cool, refreshing water strikes you in the eye and cascades down your face and collar, take a pocket handkerchief and wipe. Note: 1. It is advisable for beginners to carry several handkerchiefs or even a bath towel. 2. Approach the fountain perfectly erect and press the lever. After the stream of water is coming out smoothly, bend over. This will cause the hand to grasp the lever too tightly. Repeat wiping process. 3. Approach the fountain backwards in an endeavor to catch it unaware. Try holding the lever with both hands in order to keep the stream steady; then bend over. By this time you will find the floor around the base of the fountain is quite slippery, which will cause you to slip into the pool of water. Repeat wiping. 4. At this juncture you are apt to become a bit grim, but don't give up. The Johnstown Flood didn't take place in a day. If you have a friend, and by this time you certainly need one, who owns a diver's helmet, by all means borrow it, and approach the fountain in the same spirit as when you began. 5. Discarding all other aids, take the fountain itself firmly in both hands and tip it over on its side. Lie down on the floor next to it and press the lever. 6. When trying Lesson 5 you will undoubtedly discover that by this time there is no more water in the fountain. WALK, don't run, to the nearest store and borrow or buy an ordinary pail. Remove your clothes and wring them out over the pail. Drink the water.

Radio News and Views

By JAMES R. QUELLO Gadgearing never stops in the radio-telephony field!

A few months from now you may be able to drop a small coin in the slot and hear a radio program while riding on the bus or street car.

It's still very much hush, hush, but rumors have a national company headquartered in Cincinnati and making deals with DSR's and radio stations in various cities. It would probably be tried in other cities before hitting Detroit.

When it does arrive here, WWJ will have an opportunity to score another "first".

However, the Bud Guest noon-day forum posed several questions:

- 1-Do people want to pay for someone's radio advertising? 2-What if someone takes a portable radio abroad? 3-In event, there is no charge for the passenger, who pays? 4-Can one station dominate this gimmick for promotion without having employees and followers of other stations take to roller skates? What do you think?

A number of local radio personalities have appeared in these columns the past several months and it's high time we got around to mentioning one of the real Detroit pioneers - Herschell Hart. He has conducted a "Gossip of the Stars" program five times a week for fifteen years over WWJ (still going strong) and he was one of the first radio editors in the nation.

We never thought we would ever join a "Boost Hart" club. Towering, caustic, Herschell mistreated us unmercifully during our earlier days of radio press agency (and still does occasionally for ol times sake). He would roar out against late releases, my stertious program changes, and needless luncheon invitations. There was a time when we considered the day a success if only Hart wouldn't call. Only trouble was that we found he was almost always right; later we discovered that he was inexorably honest with his treatment of news releases. Then we learned he devoted all his spare time to raising and loving the twins - twins left fatherless when Herschell's only son, Ted, was killed earning his seventh infantry decoration in France. The twin girls, Colby Ann and Mary Chandler, are now four. They have nothing to worry about as long as Herschell can hang a typewriter or find a spot on the air. And based on the job he's been doing, he'll be around for a long time.

Rox DePermo Hurls 3 Hitter for Gragg

Pitcher Rox DePermo strengthened Gragg - Scherer's hold on first place with a brilliant 3-hitter against Joe Mocerri's team, to win 5-1. A triple by Hahn, and a single by Gervais in the second inning netted the only score for Mocerri. DePermo struck out 15 of the 29 batters to face him, and Ernie Roberts had a perfect day at the plate.

G. P. W. E. beat St. Clare YPC, 6-5, and came through with the close victory by scoring their big run in the top of the ninth, by a hit, error and walk. Elmer Knope got a homer with bases loaded in the first, starting off the G.P.W.E. team with a bang.

The N. E. Harper Merchants defeated Bob's Drug, 5-3. It was a close game with Bob Dalamielle's effective relief work the deciding factor.

Joe Mocerri will play G.P.W.E. at 1 p.m. on Sunday, July 27, while Gragg-Scherer, still leading the Class B division, will face Bob's Drugs at 3:30. Both games will take place on Kerby Field.

N. E. Harper Merchants will compete with St. Clare at 2 p.m. on the Grosse Pointe High School field.

On Saturday, July 26, the N. E. Harper Merchants will play off against G.P.W.E. at 1:30 on Kerby Field.

TENNIS QUEEN

Virginia Collins won the women's Tennis Tourney of Grosse Pointe Park last week.

Jack Dillon, V. Collins, Win Honors

The Tennis Tournament conducted by Grosse Pointe Park, and supervised by Dave Beauvais, recreation director, ended Tuesday, and brought a fair turnout. The event marks the first time since 1933 that a tennis tournament had been sponsored by the Village.

Honors in the Men's Singles went to Jack Dillon, who downed Ken Frantz, 6-0, 0-6 and 6-0. Dillon also teamed with Mickey Mikuler to take the Men's Doubles championship from opponents, brothers Bruce and Bill Rogers.

Virginia Collins defeated Marion Runkle, 6-0, 6-2, to win the Women's Single title, and Penny Londres became Junior Girls champ by virtue of the fact that she was the only entrant.

The Junior Boy's championship went to Tom Anton, who won over Hugh Blecki, 6-1 and 6-3.

MEN'S SOFTBALL

The Neighborhood Club's Men's Softball League did not see action last week due to rain. All games were scheduled to be played this week.

Park Girds For Big Swim Meet

Weather permitting, Grosse Pointe will conduct its swimming meet at its Waterfront Park Sunday, August 3, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

All persons competing must reside in the village. Entries close Tuesday, July 29.

Dave Beauvais, recreation director, announced that the competition will be divided into four classifications: Juniors, under 12 years of age; Intermediate, ages 12 to 15; Seniors, 15 to 18 and the Open class.

Ribbons will be awarded to all winners. Entry blanks can be obtained at the Waterfront Park.

Sylvia Plays Joan

By virtue of special permission from the William Cagney studios, with whom she is under contract, Sylvia Sidney has been enabled to desert Hollywood for a brief period to make a stage tour in Maxwell Anderson's stirring and provocative drama "Joan of Lorraine" which was one of the top-grossing hits of the recent New York season. Miss Sidney and "Joan" open July 28th at the Shubert Lafayette.
