All-Star Pitcher Killed In Traffic Crash

Smash-Up Kills 1 Hurts 4

A fatal accident Friday night ended the day-long engagement celebration of two young people. Dick DeYonker, 21, of 1115 Wayburn, was killed when the car he was driving on Lincoln road failed to stop for Maumee road striking a car driven by Mrs. Charles Tindle, 45, of 99 Lakeshore drive.

FIANCEE HURT
Shirley Mayott, 18, 4890 York-shire and Shirley Leidy, 18, Newport, passengers in DeYonker's car were taken to Bon Secour hospital. Miss Mayott, who was engaged to DeYonker, was pronounced earlier during the day, is in critical condition. Miss Leidy's injuries were reported serious.

Also hurt were Mrs. Tindle and her passenger, Mrs. William Has-kin, 50, of 1 Woodlane. They were taken to Cottage hospital for bruises and shock.

Both women are married to chauffeurs who are employed at the Lakeshore and Woodlane addresses.

According to Tom Trombley, Chief of Grosse Pointe Police, DeYonker was driving at a high rate of speed. The impact of the crash sent the car hurtling off the curb, knocking down an iron street sign and up-rooting a tree which fell over the car.

TRAPPED
Police worked more than ten minutes to release DeYonker who was pinned between the tree and the steering wheel. Police said he was pronounced dead upon admittance to Bon Secour hospital. DeYonker's car, a 1941 Ford convertible was completely demolished. Mrs. Tindle's car, a 1936 Chevrolet, was considerably damaged.

A graduate of St. Ambrose High School, DeYonker served with the Navy for more than three years. He was discharged in 1946.

Highly active in recreational activities in the Pointe, Dick was scheduled to pitch for the local all-star softball team in a game against the Briggs-All Stars Wednesday at Defer field.

Christened Francis M. DeYonker, Dick was the son of Mrs. DeYonker and the late John F. DeYonker.

Police Make A Goose Out Of Gosselin

Earle J. Gosselin, 21, of 897 Beaconsfield, who was warned by Grosse Pointe police last week to discontinue his "stunt" maneuvers on his motorcycle, was found lying asleep on the grass at Lake Shore Road near Moran, at 3:40 in the morning, last Friday.

Police woke him and asked him what he was doing there. Gosselin said his motorcycle wouldn't start. They sent him home.

Driver Takes Nap Tree Awakes Him

While driving west on Jefferson early Saturday morning, Auburn Chaves of Detroit, fell asleep at the wheel. His car out of control, traveled diagonally across the street, striking a tree near 17100 Jefferson.

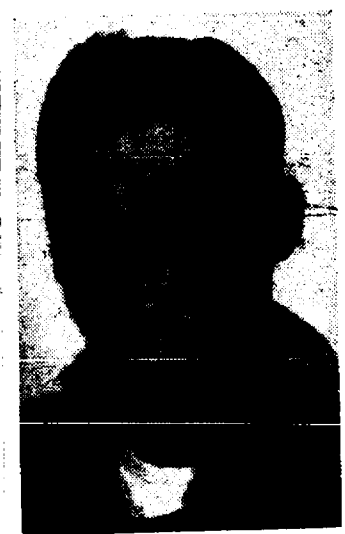

Other than a mild awakening, Chaves escaped with slight bruises and cuts. His car, however, was seriously damaged. Grosse Pointe City police issued Chaves a ticket for reckless driving.

"DEATH" CAR WRECKAGE

The smashed car pictured above was once the property of Dick DeYonker. Now the car is in a village lot, on the corner of Neff and St. Clair, put there by the Grosse Pointe City Police as a lesson to Pointe Motorists. Over 5,000 people have been there to see the wreck.

G. P. To Vote On $8,000,000 Building Loan

The Wayne County Board of Supervisors agreed to place before the voters a proposal for an $8,000,000 bond issue to finance construction of a City-County office building.

Carl Schweikart, Grosse Pointe Township supervisor, and of the Wayne County board, said that the proposal will be on the ballot Nov. 4. In townships where there is no regular fall election, the County will underwrite the cost of the special election.

Truck Turned Over By Woman Driver

A woman driver who failed to stop for Vernon highway struck a truck, turned it over and sent the driver and herself to Bon Secour hospital.

Mrs. Ethel Foley, 23, of Detroit, and Elmer R. June, 45, Detroit, driver were taken to Bon Secour hospital late Friday night for slight injuries.

Mrs. Foley, riding with her husband, on Audubon, attempted to cross Vernon without stopping. She hit June's truck, causing considerable damage.

Grosse Pointe Park police issued a ticket to Mrs. Foley for going through a stop street.

PARK MAY CHANGE TO CITY GOVERNMENT

The feasibility of Grosse Pointe Park changing from a manager form of government to a city form of government, to a city council authorized the Michigan Municipal League to conduct a city incorporation study.

Corner Stone Set In Woods

The first church corner-stone laying of a permanent building in Grosse Pointe Woods was held Sunday afternoon at Mack and Torrey road.

The Rev. Andrew F. Rauth, minister of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, led the assembly in a devotional service.

Many documents and papers were placed in the copper-box, including a copy of the Grosse Pointe Review which carried an announcement of the ceremony. The box was soldered and placed in the Indiana Lime-Stone Corner-Stone.

All persons present signed their names to sheets of paper, which were collected and placed in the stone.

The following persons bought words of greetings and remarks at the service which marked an important mile stone in the organization growth of the church. Dr. Frank Pitt, Minister of Memorial Church; J. Nelson Pyie, Chairman of the Board of Church Extension of Detroit Presbytery; A. A. Ghesquiere, President of the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods; and Hugh W. McTavish, Chairman of the Building Committee.

Organized in October, 1939, the church and church school has met in the Mason School with a committee working on plans for their own site.

The result is the building of one unit of an English Parish Church. This unit will cost $100,000. It will be furnished with pews, complete chancel, church school equipment, nursery and kitchen.

Farms' Burglars Sentenced

Judge R. W. Jayne, sentenced William D. Pittenger, of Detroit, to serve from 5 to 10 years in prison for assault with intent to commit robbery armed at the home of Mr. Ben E. Young, Lakeshore road in May.

Also sentenced by Judge Jayne was William H. Miller, of 460 Madison. Found guilty of breaking and entering into the home of Mr. Marshall Troester, 462 Madison, on the night of April 2, Miller was sent to prison for 2 to 15 years.

Miller's aide in this robbery, William J. Reid, of Detroit will be sentenced shortly.

Both cases were handled by the Grosse Pointe Farms police department.

Woods Boy Held For Looting

A 16-year-old boy from Grosse Pointe Woods is being held by Wayne County Juvenile officials for breaking and entering in a business place in St. Clair Shores.

His apprehension was set up by the Grosse Pointe Park police who believed that the boy was responsible for the looting at 1320 Grayton recently.

Investigating the boy's room, police found cartons of cigarettes and several Buick radiator ornaments. The boy confessed to taking the cigarettes from a St. Clair Shores store.

Police are continuing the investigation.

Police Arrest 2nd Juvenile

A second juvenile was placed under custody by Grosse Pointe Park this week for breaking and entering.

The delinquent, a 16-year-old, who lives in the village confessed to take a small amount of cash from the home of Mrs. Gordon Teakle, 968 Nottingham, Saturday evening. He gained entrance through a basement window.

Investigation conducted by Detective Arnold Hough, led to the boy's arrest Sunday afternoon. He confessed immediately.

Dr. Essert Prepares To Leave

Dr. Paul Essert, who has served for the past six years as Grosse Pointe's Superintendent of Public Schools, will leave August 1, for New York, where he has accepted the appointment of Professor of Education, and Head of the department of Adult Education at Columbia University's Teachers College.

Dr. Essert will begin his work in the new capacity, on September 1, and spend the coming year in traveling and developing plans for leadership training in adult education. For these purposes, he will have no instructional work to do in his first year at Columbia.

Also during his first year, Dr. Essert will write a book on adult education, leadership training and consolidation.

"Education begets education," said Dr. Essert, and cited the Gallup Poll showing the increased interest in adult education and advanced work. He added that the field is becoming increasingly important, especially as the educational level of the nation is rising.

PURCHASE EXPLAINED

Unbiased Park Story Told By Woods Head

Editor's Note: The following letter was received from Mr. Sam Barr, president Grosse Pointe Woods Civic League concerning the villages "Lakeshore Park."

We would appreciate your giving space in the Review to publish a clear and unbiased picture concerning our park.

When our land-locked village faced the task of building an inside park, with a swimming pool large enough to meet our needs, it became apparent that the cost of such a project, its construction and maintenance, would impose impossible taxes on us. We then searched for a more reasonable solution along the lake shore and found that we were years late in the move. Zoning acts in the neighboring Grosse Pointe Villages completely shut us off. So we selected the first property east of these zoning restrictions, which also happened to be the closest lake front property to our village limits. Through the public spirited attitude of Mrs. Ford we were able to make a purchase.

These are the salient features of this purchased property as a Lake Park:

1. The price was modest, $60,000 for 43 acres.
2. 600 feet of shore line, giving us the largest lake front of any neighboring parks.
3. Over 1/2 mile of frontage on the Lake Shore Road, presenting excellent subdivision possibilities should we desire at a future time to sell some of the land.
4. Over 2,000 feet of paved road.
5. A $15,000 bridge featuring the center of the property.
6. Many beautiful trees ideally located.
7. Ten acres of blue grass ready to mow into lawn.
8. 1/2 mile of river bank, one third of which gives a tie up for boats. The other part mooring in such a way as to present a vista unsurpassed anywhere in Grosse Pointe Township.
9. Thirty acres of area with deep rich black tillable soil that would cost $50,000 to replace.
10. In other words improvements costing more than twice the price we paid for the entire area.
11. 43 acres of land that permits inside parking for every car in the Village, a feature of great importance. The big objection to other Grosse Pointe Villages is their lack of parking area for handling holiday crowds. We can solve our problem, they can never solve their parking problem.

Project Upped To $400,000

Property owners of Grosse Pointe Farms who turned down the proposed $350,000 sewage project at an election last February will get a chance to vote on it again on September 18 only this time the project has been upped to $400,000.

HIGH COST

The increase is largely due to rising cost of construction includes appropriations amounting to $17,000 for repair of sidewalks and streets after the sewage work is completed. This factor was not included in the original proposal.

The Farms council set the date for the second election after considerable discussion at a special meeting Monday evening.

MASS PROTEST

The action came as a result of a mass protest from village residents whose basements are constantly flooded by rain storms causing considerable damage. They virtually demanded another election be held.

If the feelings of the protesting property owners are echoed throughout the village, the Council feels confident that the people will accept the issue at the polls. If they do the following work will then get underway:

The installation and construction of (a) Additional structures and improvements at the Kerby road Pumping Station, (b) Alterations to Lake Shore Storm Water Overflows, (c) Vendome road Area Storm Water Relief Sewer, and (d) Fisher Round-McKinley Avenue-McMillan Road Storm Water Relief Sewers.

MUST REGISTER

Any person not already registered who possesses the qualifications of an elector or who will on September 18, possess such qualifications may make application for registration to the Farm Clerk of office on any day other than Sunday or a legal holiday during the regular office hours to and including August 26, and on August 29, at the same place between the hours of 8:00 o'clock a. m. and 6:00 o'clock p. m.

DETAIL REPORT

A detail of the new estimates as presented by the consulting Engineers are as follows:

1. Kerby Road Pumping Station additions $144,000.00.
2. Alterations to Lake Shore Storm Water Overflows $20,000.00.
3. Vendome Road Area Storm Water Relief Sewers $131,000.00.
4. Fisher Road-McKinley Avenue-McMillan Road Storm Water Relief Sewers $105,000.00.

The only other business transacted at the meeting was the denial of the property owners request to omit sidewalks in certain of the cul de sacs in the Stephens Hill Subdivision.

YOUNG SPEEDSTERS

The reckless and foolish manner in which some of our younger motorists race through the streets of Grosse Pointe is a serious threat to the community.

The threat is broadened by the fact that there are more youthful drivers in Grosse Pointe per population than any other community in America.

The majority of these drivers accept the responsibility of a licensed operator with full respect of the state traffic laws and regulation.

However, a small percentage of them persist in taking chances endangering their own lives as well as the lives of others.

Though this percentage is small, it is still far too large for the safety of our people - particularly our children playing in residential districts.

Parents are urged to incorporate their efforts with the police to keep these violators off the streets.

Parents, who are aware that their son or daughter is a speedster or a "folly" driver should deprive him or her of the usage of the car. For their own sakes they should be reported to the police, who in turn should take definite disciplinary action.

Such action is drastic but it must be taken if we are to avert future tragedies.

AIR POWER IS PEACE POWER

The experiences of World War II and the growing smallness of the world brought about by the continued improvements in aviation underscore the vital necessity for maintaining strong air forces. Today, without question, our air power is in a position to serve as an effective guardian of the peace.

The basic theme of Air Force Day August 1, "Air Power Is Peace Power" - thus holds meaning for all Americans.

Our air power, supporting the policies of peace-loving nations, is insurance against war. The Army Air Forces, with the air units of the National Guard and the Organized Reserves, will provide our air power.

In our common search for world security, we must support adequate air forces and two important elements which contribute to air strength - virile aviation industry and an expanding program of research and development.

Letter Box

To The Editor:

The co-operation already accorded the National Guard educational program by the American press has been truly gratifying, and I would like to express my personal thanks to every newspaper executive.

I think you will agree that national defense is one of the most critical problems now confronting the country. The National Guard offers a chance for your community to do something about this problem. As you know, the Guard has been assigned a vital role in the Nation's defense program. Every community capable of supporting a National Guard unit has an opportunity to share in this role and contribute to the Nation's security.

This opportunity carries with it a measure of community responsibility for the effectiveness of the National Guard units allotted to the community. Local newspapers throughout the country have taken upon themselves a generous share of this community responsibility. Their contributions to community support of the National Guard already have proved immensely valuable, and the National Guard Bureau would like to co-operate with them by making available full information on the mission, activities and organization of the National Guard.

Adequately informing the public about the National Guard and the important part assigned to it in national defense is one of our most pressing problems, and one in which your co-operation is most deeply appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

BUTLER B. MILTONBERGER, Major General, Chief, National Guard Bureau.

'Claudia' Delights Pointers

By SHIRLEY ALLARD

Grosse Pointers are finding Rose Franken's now famous play, 'Claudia' both endearing and entertaining. The play is continuing its two-week run at the Music Hall, and the star of the title, Kim Hunter the versatile young actress of Hollywood fame, seems to be as at home in her birthplace as she must be in the "Movie City."

BIG HIT

The wistful, pretty brunette has made a great hit with the audience, and she was well-supported by an excellent cast. Worthy of mention among the cast are Olga Baclanova, as the immortal but beloved opera singer; Audrey Ridgwell, Claudia's world-weary sister-in-law; and Frances Starr, Claudia's mother.

For the benefit of those few who have never read Miss Franken's book, or seen Claudia's antics on the screen, the play is the story of a young married couple, scatter-brained Claudia and sensible, dependable David Naughton. Claudia has a mother complex which both David and her mother fear will injure the couple's life together. Claudia is childish and immature, and delights in listening in to other people's conversation on the party-line.

The action all occurs in the span of two days but in that time Claudia has been nearly seduced by a neighborly Englishman nearly sold their home to an excitable Russian, discovered the fact that she is to have a baby (she's confident of twins), and found that her mother is slowly dying of an incurable ailment. It is this last development which causes Claudia to accept her maturity and make friends with pain.

LOVE HIM

After the opening night performance, Miss Hunter received tremendous applause, and each night she has continued to delight audiences. Kim Hunter was born in Highland Park, went to Hollywood, and came up the hard way. She recently went to England in conjunction with the production of her latest film, "Stairway to Heaven," with an almost all-British cast. The movie is showing in Detroit at the present time.

Students Conduct Vigorous Campaigns

By MARY GRATZER

Mix together a couple of clever slogans, a trio or two, some blackboard campaigning. Season well with clapping and cheering. Lastly, flavor with staunch promises—and you end up with a typical Student Association election campaign in Grosse Pointe High style.

No longer is it considered proper to be modest by keeping your hat out of the ring. Like their elders, Grosse Pointers feel that if someone considers himself capable of holding an office that it is not only his duty to run but that he has all the right to tell the world no one else can fill the position quite as well as he can.

SEVERAL METHODS

At Grosse Pointe High there are several methods by which a prospective office holder can apprise people as to who's the man for the job.

Before the final election, an all-school assembly is held. The candidates are introduced to the student body. Each office seeker is entitled to have some student to speak for him. This speech usually covers the qualifications of the candidate, his contributions to the school, and what he expects to accomplish once he attains office.

The election speech is often concluded with a slogan, which is the easiest way of reminding student of their "best bet." Slogans such as "Davis will save us," and "L.S...MFT—Lindh Should Make a Fine Treasurer," and the comeback of the opponent "L.S...MFT—Let Spider Make a Finer Treasurer," have been constant reminders.

SWOON APPROACH

At the election assembly last semester, a quintet of boys took the stand and sang the praises of a boy presidential candidate to the tune of "Marge." Then there's the swoon approach. It works like this: a boy candidate walks onto the stage and about five of his comrades become so overcome by his irresistible charm that they fall in a dead swoon (or so they claim). The object of this act might be to attract the votes of "femmes." This seemingly light-hearted approach of the election campaign.

LOST PURSE

A blue purse containing $44.20 was lost by Emma Childs, somewhere between 181 Merriweather and 126 Moran; she is employed as a maid at both places. The loss was reported on Monday, July 28.

PURSE FOUND

The Pointe City Police found a brown change purse in front of Wrigley's Market, containing $40, on Saturday, July 28. There was no mark of identification on the purse.

RADIO NEWS AND VIEWS

By JAMES H. QUELLO

In the latest six-months Hooper survey, Detroiters picked the Bob Hope show as their number one program with Lux Radio Theatre second. Of the top fifteen programs in Detroit, seven are heard on WJR-CBS, seven on WWJ-NBC, and one on WXYZ-ABC. However, ABC makes a better brackets with a strong daytime line-up.

Hope didn't rate first in a survey at Michigan State college, however. A recent survey of college tastes preferred Henry Morgan to Bob. The Lux Radio Theatre outclassed all other drama with "Hit Parade" as the favorite college musical show.

One of the four network shows regularly originating from Detroit will be heard another year. Henry Reichhold has renewed sponsorship of the Sunday Evening Hour for another year over WXYZ-ABC.

George Cushing closed his "In Our Opinion" program with a five clown, five ring, performance. In his last program of the summer, five Ringling Brothers clowns joined Cushing in a round table discussion of vital current problems. Radio row gave the unusual pitch a rave.

What happens to radio when it does away with the much-maligned commercial? Here's Exhibit "A": Several months ago WQQW in Washington, D. C., launched a daring campaign to de-emphasize commercials and soap operas. They kept commercials down to 1 minute per quarter-hour and toned down all plugs. They started building high-brow programs of classical music, forums, and drama. The experiment was watched nationally for its novel approach to advertising. Result: Shortage of revenue; excess of expenditures, with stockholders now pulling the station on the auction block. So you'll probably hear more Chicquitas singing you out of refrigerating your bananas! So there's commercials in your future.

Thou you've damned them in the past Without them moola dwindles So you can bet they're gonna last!

Tom Harmon who started in radio assisting Harry Wismer over WJR, has been signed to give a weekly sportscast on the new Jimmy Durante show. It will premiere Wednesday October 1st over WWJ-NBC.

Disc companies aren't afraid that the AFM will enter the record manufacturing business. Most name artists are now under contract and new names or "no" names are difficult to sell to the public.

Kenny (Senator Claghorn) Delmar will use a microphone that talks back when he appears at the Massachusetts fair next week. The mike was rigged and "voiced" by Ken's secretary. It tells him off, right and left.

Colonel Stoopnagle, substituting for Bob Hawk on the letter's quiz Monday nights, tells the take about the two race horses who were having conversation. One confided, "I've simply got to win this race because my own-er said if I do there'll be 30 extra bales of hay for me... and 30 bales of hay ain't money!"

"No one is definitely immune to poison ivy, and there is no section of Michigan in which the plant cannot be found," Dr. William DeKleine, State Health Commissioner said today when he advised care in avoiding the plant. "Leaves three, let it be," he said, is a good rule to follow, for while many people seem to minimize the danger of poison ivy, it can be serious, causing month-long illness in a hospital.

NEW RECORD

The U. S. Navy's XM-1 airplane, which set a new world record of 170 hours in the air without refueling, had 200 balloons of fuel remaining at the end of its flight.

Teen Talk

Green's Gates!! Since so few parties have been going on during these few last warm weeks, and those that have been given are so far apart, the subject of entertainment will be temporarily curtailed, and this issue will deal with music for millions.

For those teen-agers who believe in going steady and often find themselves in sentimental moods: Page Cavanaugh's Trio, ALL OF ME, should rate tops as it is soft, mellow, and just right for Saturday night dancing on the back porch.

Of course there are always those people who remain as wanderers, and are only interested in meeting people AT NO SPECIAL PLACE, and they hope you'll BE THERE AT NO PARTICULAR TIME. King Cole trio does this up in fine style with a very pleasing rhythm.

Willy, The Wolf, can always be heard by his symbolic whoop of BOIN-N-NING, and Kay Kyser is satisfying his needs to a T, by recording this for Columbia.

Chain smokers will enjoy their cigarettes even more listening to JO STAFFORD, and PERRY COMO, serenade them with Smoke Dreams. Or the RCA Victor version of it by the Satisfiers plus Helen Carroll.

The Dining Sisters take you way back into quaint Mexico with an elite recording of MY ADOBE HACIENDA, put on the market by Capitol.

Sompin' new is Betty Hutton's arrangement of RUMBLE, RUMBLE, RUMBLE, taken straight from the Paramount Pictures, Perils of Pauline.

ANDY RUSSELL fans will be hanging on to the flying disc of the Anniversary Song which will still be popular for quite some time.

Those gals and gobs who are missing their favorite companions can accompany their lonesome mood by weeping to Same Donahue's sweet and soft version of I CAN'T BELIEVE IT WAS ALL MAKE BELIEVE LAST NIGHT.

JE VOUS AIME, and AS LONG AS I'M DREAMING, are two more records to slide into your Andy Russell albums. All his songs carry that south-of-the-border warmth that is oh so welcome by most Teen-agers.

It won't take more than one listen to Charlie Barnets, CARAVAN to convince you that it rates a space among your favorite albums. Along with this you might include CHEROKEE and RED-SKIN RUMBA.

For a bit of humorous relaxation spin a platter of TONY PAS-TOR's Get Up Those Stairs Mademoiselle, produced by Columbia at your favorite record bar.

Girls take heed—No red silk stockings or green perfume from now on, seems it gives people the idea that you're a witch and not the angel that you really are if you adorn such stuff. At least that's what most people think after listening to RAY MACKINLEY's wax disc of RED SILK STOCKINGS AND GREEN PERFUME.

Hoagy Carmichael once again returns to local music stores with SHRI!! THE OLD MAN'S SLEEPING, which traditionally carries a good blues theme assisted by the Chickadees.

SENATRA SINGS!! Frankie's tonals seem to be in perfect shape, and just to prove it have you heard I CONCENTRATE ON YOU, or ALL THE THINGS YOU ARE? If not hurry to the nearest juke box to find out how smooth and suave they both are.

Calpeo tunes have always been done to perfection by the ANDREWS SISTERS, and again they have produced another recording equal to rum, and coca-cola, with their, HIS FEET'S TOO BIG FOR DE BED.

ELLA LOGAN is quickly climbing the stairs to success with the charm and personality she expresses in DEVIL MOON and LOOK TO THE RAINBOW.

Number one on jitterbug jamboree is Ella Mae Morse, turning out some fine rhythm in HOODLE ADDLE.

Margaret Whiting again has popped up with a pleasant bit of song in WHAT AM I GONNA DO ABOUT YOU? and ranking along with this one is GIVE ME SOMETHING TO DREAM ABOUT, which just hits with her special charm.

Ever popular Dinah Shore does a fine job with MY BEL AMI, from the motion picture, The Private Affairs of Bel Ami. And so winds up this pleasant platter of chatter, so till next Thursday, See ya!!!

Home Gardens Will Profit From Water

Despite a rainy spring, many home gardens would benefit from regular watering now, advises Jack Rose, garden specialist at Michigan State college. Curling of leaves or browning of lower leaves is a sure sign that the plants need water.

Water should be applied at the rate of about one inch per week. One inch of water usually moistens the soil to a depth of three or four inches. Care should be taken that the soil receives a full inch of water each time you sprinkle. Do not set the sprinkler in one place for a half-hour and moisten the top half-inch of soil. Shallow watering encourages roots to grow in the very top layer of the soil where they fail to gather nutrients they need for growth. Garden sprinklers which attach to the hose do a good job and range from small outfits to ones which will cover a square fifty feet on a side. Canvas hose can be used for watering by placing it in the rows between the plants. It is made so that the water oozes out slowly. This type of hose comes in convenient lengths.

FAMILY DUTY

With a world food shortage and with canned goods at their highest cost ever, it becomes a duty if not a necessity for every Michigan family to preserve as much of its winter supply of foods as it is able, the Michigan Department of Health advised.

Well lubricated cars give better and far more economical performance... without such attention any car is headed for trouble and costly repairs. Rumpelstiltskin Reviews

By ISABEL RONEY
The first comprehensive edition in the English language of Russian folk and fairy tales, selected from Afanasiev's famous collection

The Russian counterpart of Grimm's Fairy Tales — was published in 1945. The translation is by Norbert Guterman, with 100 illustrations by A. Alexieff. Pantheon Press is the publisher. There have been other English editions published before this time, many of them, but none with so complete a range of the most colorful and traditional tales of the Russian people. In its magic pages we are introduced to the Russian version of such universal fairy tale figures as witches and heroes, talking animals, wicked women and pious maidens, shrewd peasants and saintly men of God, as well as such unique Russian creations as the splendid golden 'Firebird' and Koshchey the Deathless.

This collection of "Russian Fairy Tales" is a storehouse of information about the psychology and character of the people who dwell in the land of wide rivers and steppes and who know wild winters that howl about their doors. They are tales about the Russia of an earlier day, aglow with beauty and charm, and make delightful reading for the young as well as old.

Other editions of Russian folk and fairy tales are: "The White Duckling and other Tales," translated by Nathan Haskell Dale. Published by Thos. Y. Crowell Co. It contains seven popular stories including: "Vasilisa the Beauty," a Russian version of the Cinderella theme. Eight colored drawings by Bilbin.

"Old Peter's Russian Tales" by Arthur Ransome, and illustrated by Dmitri Mitrokhin is another one with fine form and phrasing, containing many humorous touches. Published by NeNison.

"Picture Tales From the Russian" by Valery Carrick and "More Russian Picture Tales" by the same author are funny old animal tales told by nurses to Russian boys and girls. Two de-

G.P. Protege Gets National Recognition

The following article about old Charles Treger, boy violinist who is widely known in Grosse Pointe "Violins and Violinists," a national magazine published for those who love the violin and its kindred:

William H. Engel, of Grosse Pointe Park who has been teaching the violin for some twenty years, has particular reason to take pride in a work being performed by one of his young students, eleven-year-old Charles Treger.

This precocious youth has already appeared in public and radio performance numerous times, his most recent on June 5, when he played a well rounded program including such numbers as Handel's Sonata in E major, Vioti Concerto in G major, and smaller works, with Berruce Nelson at the piano, in Foch Intermediate School, Detroit.

Charles is a seventh grade student at the school; he had previously played three concerts there for his fellow-students, some fifteen hundred boys and girls attending at each, all of whom are members of music classes or "good citizens" in the school.

The fine achievements and the example set by this young artist is one which his colleagues and friends must recognize and which many doubtless desire to emulate.

Masterpieces Acquired By Institute

The Detroit Institute of Arts announces the acquisition of two masterpieces by the Italian painter Giovanni Paolo Pannini (1691-1765).

They are the two large companion pictures "View of the Forum, Rome" and "View of the Colosseum, Rome." They are added to the collection as the gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Whitcomb.

Edgar P. Richardson, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, said:

"These two pictures are masterpieces of one of the most delightful Italian eighteenth century painters. The great development of landscape in the eighteenth century was what you might expect from a century so pre-eminently social in its tastes and habits. It was the painting of cities rather than of the views of nature.

Paula Writes About Her Interview With Guy Madison

Two 'Guys' And A Girl!

Paula's Hi-Lites

by PAULA BEAUPRE

July 31, 1947

Dear Jeanne:

Here's a big surprise for you! Remember that night just before you left for your vacation in New York? You were telling me how much you enjoyed the acting of Guy Madison and how he rated A-1 on your Parade of Movie Stars, just as he does on the lists of lots of other fellows and gals. Well, now, here's the surprise!

GUY MADISON was appearing in Detroit at the Fox Theatre last Friday, Saturday and Sunday for the Detroit opening of the much-publicized picture, "Duel in the Sun." As a reporter for the Grosse Pointe Review, I was granted an interview with him. I know you'll want to hear everything, so I'll start right at the beginning and relate every exciting detail.

PAULA

Instant we had arrived at the fifth floor and were watching the numbers on the doors as the hall turned first in one direction, then another. Suddenly there it loomed—Room 530!!!

We summoned up all our courage (after all, we were nervous) and knocked on the door. The man who opened it listened while we stated that we were supposed to be interviewing Mr. Madison at that very moment! He claimed that he didn't know anything about it, but said that he would inquire. When he returned, we were admitted to the room, but were also informed that our interview was to be cut short because Guy was due at a radio station in a very short time.

At this point, GUY made his appearance. He looks just the same as his pictures show him and just as you would expect him to look. He is 24 years old, of average height, with light eyes and he has a curly crop of dark blonde hair. He is a very gracious down-to-earth person—just like any boy you know—and did everything he could to make us feel at home. After a few minutes, our nervousness has completely disappeared.

And so we started popping questions at the idolized MR. GUY MADISON!!

- Q. What is your favorite form of entertainment or fun?
- A. I like a variation. Sometimes I like to go to a night club while at other times, I like the mountains or the ocean.
- Q. Do you worry about what people think of you?
- A. To some extent, I do. But not as much as I used to. I'm finding out that you can't please everyone.
- Q. What one word would you use to describe your personality?
- A. Lacking!!
- Q. On what subject do you consider yourself most un-informed?
- A. I really don't know, there are so many of them.
- Q. What is your favorite off-screen attire?
- A. Slacks and a sport shirt.
- Q. What do you think you have that gets the girls swooning?
- A. Nothing. I think it's all in their minds!
- Q. Have you ever resorted to a disguise to escape a crowd of fans?
- A. No!!
- Q. What is your honest opinion of your more hysterical fans?
- A. I think it's wonderful that they show such interest in me. If they get enjoyment from it, then I don't mind.
- Q. Do you like "bobby sox" and "sloppy Joe" sweaters on girls?
- A. Yea. They're nice.
- Q. If you weren't an actor, what would you like to be?
- A. I'd like to do any work where you work hard and earn lots of money, then take a vacation. I don't like to work 12 months a year.
- Q. What is your greatest fault?
- A. Oh, I've got lots—too many!!!
- Q. What is your prime virtue?
- A. Who knows?
- Q. What one thing do you wish your fans would do?
- A. I wish they would understand our problem more.
- Q. What is your ambition for the future?
- A. To be successful in this business.
- Q. Who in Hollywood made the greatest impression on you?
- A. Gail Russell.
- Q. What is your favorite song?
- A. I have lots of favorites. Not one in particular.

Just at this point, GUY'S advisor warned him that he had only a few minutes before the broadcast was to begin. So that was the end of our chat! Offering sincere apologies, GUY explained that he couldn't be late, so he had to end our interview. We were accompanied to the door where we thanked LUY for his perfect cooperation, while he thanked us for being so interested in his career.

So ended our interview with MR. GUY MADISON—a very fine person.

And now, Jeanne, how about a letter from you telling me all about everything you've been doing. 'Til next Thursday, then.

VALETE FOR NOW,
Paula

Joan Beaupre and I arrived at the Statler Hotel around 11:00 on Saturday morning. After making our way through the crowd of fans and autograph hunters who were crowding around while waiting for a glimpse of the elusive Mr. Madison, we approached the information desk where our inquiries were graciously answered. The hotel phone was our next try in the attempt to find a certain person who simply couldn't be located.

Our interview was scheduled for 11:15 on the dot and it was almost that already, so we jumped into the nearest elevator, and in answer to the operator's request, responded "Five, Please." The next

GIRLS FIND

Pointe Youth Is Just Another 'Guy'

Jack Sorter, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sorter, of 1323 Somerset, went to the Fox Theatre last Friday to see the movie "Duel in the Sun." But he was interrupted. And not long after the interruption, he was meeting the new bobby-soxer idol, Guy Madison, and actress Jacqueline White. Here's how it all happened, and why.

Jack was sitting in the theatre watching the beginning of "Duel in the Sun" when a small girl came up to him and asked him for his autograph. He asked her why she wanted his autograph. The little girl said, "you're Guy Madison." Sorter said he wasn't, the little girl said he was, and a long argument followed, during which the two drew a big crowd around them, mostly of bobby-soxers!

Mr. Tucker, manager of the Fox, came from backstage to find out the cause of the commotion. He talked to Sorter, and asked him if he'd like to meet Guy Madison. Jack said, "Sure," and the two went to the Statler rooms of the movie star.

Jack met and talked to Guy and Actress Jacqueline White. "Both were friendly and likeable," he said. A Detroit Free Press photographer came over and took the picture which you may have seen in Monday's Free Press and which appears on this page through the courtesy of that newspaper.

There is a pretty close resemblance between Guy and Jack, and the Free Press labeled Jack Guy's "Detroit Double." Asked what he felt about the whole thing, Jack said he was very surprised. But he finally convinced the small girl. And he still hasn't seen all of "Duel in the Sun!"

Jack is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, and he and his parents have lived here for eight years.

He is single.

By VICTOR HUGHES
More inquiries have recently arisen from other schools and interested Grosse Pointe parents concerning the Honor Court of Grosse Pointe High School, than concerning any other phase of the school's program.

It is quite exceptional for a group of students to be allowed to have the responsibility of enforcing school laws by means of a student court.

Essentially the Honor Court serves as the judicial branch of the Student Association, a division which very few schools have felt it possible to establish in student government.

JUSTICES

Every grade is represented by one justice, each of whom has one vote when indecisive cases arise. In addition there is a chief justice whose job it is to preside over the hearings, deliver sentences, cast the deciding vote in case of a tie, and act as an influence to the offender.

The justices get their positions after being nominated by the president of the Student Association, who submits their names to the senators for approval. Members of the school in good standing having a scholastic average of C or better are eligible.

Handling all minor infractions such as smoking on school property, running in the halls, discourtesy to teachers, disorderly conduct about the school, and refusal to obey a Service Club member, the Honor Court has established a remarkable record in settling its cases: for while a decision made by the Honor Court may be appealed to the principal, such cases rarely arise.

CASE OF ALEK

To exemplify the course of procedure and the philosophy employed by the Honor Court let us take the case of an anonymous offender.

Alek V. is found smoking in the school vestibule by a service club member. Immediately he issues Alek a violation ticket on which he writes Alek's name, the offense, and his own name. The slip goes immediately to the Honor Court.

Investigation proves the reliability of the issuer, whom the court questions personally. Telling Alek nothing of the evidence presented them, the Court listens to his side of the story.

In all probability Alek confesses; if he denies the accusation after repeated questioning, a vote is taken to determine guilt or innocence. Of course no faculty member is ever present during court proceedings. Justices are influenced by no one other than the chief justice, who in the event of a denial weighs the evidence for the court.

If Alek is found not guilty he is of course dismissed. Otherwise the court proceeds to decide the penalty.

Generally the court corollates the punishment with the offense and determines it with the frequency and seriousness of the infraction. Perhaps Alek will be compelled to police the campus 45 minutes each day for two weeks.

Although the secretary keeps a record of all cases, the principal remains uninformed of Alek's offense. Consequently Alek's record is kept clean.

Ideally, the Honor Court is not a disciplinary force of the school.
Rather its objective is to entrench in the mind of the student the idea that student government is distinguished as democratic and the laws it enforces are for the benefit of all. Student rule is founded on a trust in youth's rectitude and reliability and it is, indeed, a teacher of democracy.

POINTE SHARP SHOOTERS

At the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron, some of the highest scores of the season in archery are being shot by the trio shown aiming for the target: Joan Hollister (kneeling), 903 Grand Marais, Grosse Pointe; Janice Sutton, 15881 Monte Vista, Detroit; Carol Kretschmar, 916 Lakepointe, Grosse Pointe. Pat
Pat McCutcheon of 16811 Lawton, Detroit.

Archery Is Popular At Girls' Camp

Archery is very popular with 150 girls at Camp Cavell, according to Margorie Magee, director.
However swimming in Lake Huron is still considered the greatest thrill of camp life. Riding, tennis, crafts, dramatics and nature lore are also popular.

Camp Cavell, for school girls 10 to 17, is owned and operated on a non-profit basis by the YWCA of Detroit. There are still openings for the camp's final two-week period which opens August 9. To register, girls and their mothers should go to Central Branch YWCA, 2230 Witherell.

Community Chest Drive Dates Set

The 1947 Community Chest campaign will be held from Oct.
15 to Nov. 12, John R. Davis, chairman of the Red Feather drive, announced Thursday.

In revealing the dates of the campaign, Davis pointed out that in previous years the drive had extended over a two-week period but that the new, longer campaign would give door-to-door solicitors a better chance to cover their neighborhoods and allow better campaigning in industrial plants.

"In a community project such as the Community Chest all citizens should have a chance to contribute," Davis said. "Since Red Feather services are available to everyone should be given an opportunity to help in the support of those services."

"There are 125 Red Feather services in Metropolitan Detroit which are meeting community needs daily," the chairman stated.
"These services are giving family aid, helping children through recreation and protection in institutions and foster homes, providing health services and assisting the aged."

"The twelve blue stars which surround the Red Feather, symbol of the Community Chest, indicate that Chest agencies are on the job twelve months of the year, serving the people of the metropolitan area," Davis said.
"One month of the year they ask your support in maintaining their invaluable services."

Red Feather Revue Honors Pointe Woman

For volunteer services to local social agencies which began in 1917, Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, 1008 Yorkshire, Grosse Pointe, has been awarded the Red Feather lapel pin by the Community Chest of Metropolitan Detroit.

Presentation was made on Fran Harris' "Red Feather Revue" over Radio Station WWJ on the weekly program Wednesday at 5:15 p.m.

Mrs. Grawn, who served as president of the board of the Visiting Nurse Association during World War I, has devoted the greater part of her volunteer efforts to nursing services. She serves on the Nurses' Training School Committee and is on the board of Cottage Hospital. She is a member of the Community Nursing Bureau, Cottage Hospital and the Nursing Bureau are both Red Feather agencies of the Community Chest.

An ardent supporter of the Community Chest, Mrs. Grawn is a vice-chairman of the 1947 Red Feather drive which will take place here from Oct. 15 to Nov.
12. She is in charge of recruiting of volunteer solicitors.

Distinguished Picture At Art Institute

The Detroit Institute of Arts has acquired, as the gift of Mr.
and Mrs. E. Raymond Field, a distinguished example of Annibale Carracci's painting, "The Virgin and Child with St. Francis." Carracci (1560-1609) painted the gallery of the palace of Cardinal Farnese in Rome.

The picture, 18 1/2 inches high and 14 1/2 inches wide and painted in oil on copper plate, comes from the collection of Sir Thomas Barning and the Earl of Northbrook In 1942, Mr. and Mrs. Field gave the Art Institute another Italian painting from that collection, "St.
Jerome" by Pietro da Cortona (1596-1669).

"Our new painting," said Edgar P. Richardson, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, "shows the qualities of grace and lyric sentiment which characterize the art of Carracci. He was a master of the form of expression, once so prominent in western art but now so rare, of the human form in movement.

"His color, though clear, fresh and pleasing, was primarily a decorative effect. But the movement of the figures, accentuated by the soft radiance of the light and shadow, forms not only an intricate and graceful grouping but creates an inner relationship — a vivid interweaving of the figures into an intensely animated psychic unity—which is the mark of a great master of the wonderful Italian tradition of narrative composition."

Swimmers Itch Warning Given

Cold weather has delayed the appearance of swimmers' itch in Michigan waters until now its appearance is coinciding with the height of the summer resort and swimming seasons, the Michigan Department of Health said today.
The itch has been reported from 15 counties so far this summer.

The Department gave the following suggestions for avoiding lines. Take a shower and wash water, do not puddle near shore-with soap immediately upon leaving the water, if possible. If the infection. Swim only in deep fully and dry with a rough towel.
Do not just lie on the beach, on a dock or diving tower, or in the sun to dry yourself.

Swimmers' itch is caused by a parasite, the natural host of which is shoreline snails. While the itch gives extreme discomfort for a week's time, it is not a dangerous infection in Michigan, the Department added.
The Michigan swimmers' itch parasite dies within a week after contact with the human body.

merous appearances with orches-

YOUNGSTERS LEARN TENNIS ABC'S

William Matson Tobin, a chairman of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, is shown giving pointers on tennis to a group of youngsters at the Neighborhood Club. Local Tennis Needs More Instructors

By BEA WILSON
"Detroit is the poorest tennis city in the nation," said William Matson Tobin, a chairman of the National U. S. Junior Tennis Development Commission...

Tobin made a comparison between Detroit and Chicago, as tennis cities. "The facilities in Detroit are practically nil," said Tobin...

SOLUTION OFFERED
"Detroit's main solution," Tobin continued, "is getting the personnel for supervisors and instructors. They need not be specially trained..."

U.S. Youths To Support Violinist

Twelve American boys and girls, members of the Chinese chapter of the Young Neighbors Institute of California, have volunteered to support a student at China's Yu Teal School for Gifted Children.

Yang Bing-sun, talented violinist, has been selected by the children and they have already raised a fourth of his expenses for the year.

Other gifted children, those who will be the leaders of the future, received aid through one of the agencies supported by United Services to China, says Glenn Coulter, Detroit chairman of the organization.

"Keeping A Maid" Tips Offered By Agencies

Little human courtesies go a long way to keep a competent maid happy and on the job according to an article appearing in Sunday's Detroit Free Press.

The article, expressing the opinion of domestic employment agencies managers said that if people only realized that maids were human beings and treated them accordingly, they wouldn't have any trouble getting and keeping good domestic help.

A minority of those whom employ maids know how to make them happy and contented," one manager was quoted as saying. "Those maids stay with one family for years and the relationship is mutually enjoyable."

The article strongly advised against sudden requests for her services on her regular days off. Show consideration by not carelessly tossing articles of clothing she would not be lagging behind in this respect, he added. The United States Lawn Tennis Association, of which Mr. Tobin is a member, has another solution for Detroit's problems. It plans to divide Detroit into two sections, with a tournament and trophy for each section, and a final playoff for each section.

Mr. Tobin gave a needed explanation of the USLTA (United States Lawn Tennis Association) and its aims. The Association divides the nation into 13 sections known as associations. These are sub-divided into districts. The western Association, consists of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, and Illinois, and is in turn, divided into such groups as the South Michigan Association, which covers Grosse Pointe and Detroit.

A non-profit organization, the USLTA pays salaries only to its executive officers, at headquarters. It maintains three funds of $35,000 each, $135,000 of which is kept in the Treasury. All profits are sent back to the sections, then to the districts for the development of junior players. Mr. Tobin estimated that the USLTA would spend about $45,000 on the estimated 12,000 registered boys and girls this year.

The USLTA not only sponsors the regular and junior Davis Cup squads (men) and Wightman Cup teams (women), but sponsors tennis clinics, in which outstanding players can practice and teach, and takes care of special training, intercity matches, trophies and medals for all the areas.

The promotion of international tennis and the handling of the Davis and Wightman Cup matches is the principle aim of the USLTA. Its second purpose is to schedule tournaments, of which there are 1500 to 1800 throughout the U. S. Service to member clubs, the devising of tennis development programs for its boys and girls, and the building of citizenship and sportsmanship throughout the tennis world, constitute the remaining three aims of the USLTA.

around the room, which she must pick up and you will gain your maid's co-operation. The article continued: "There are only a few persons who observe those simple rules," according to a woman who has supplied Grosse Pointe homes with domestic help for many years. "If more of them were considerate, there wouldn't be such a rapid turnover of maids — and there would be more girls looking for that type of a job."

Report of Annual Meeting of Grosse Pointe Board of Education

Grosse Pointe, Michigan June 9, 1947

An annual meeting of the qualified electors of Rural Agricultural School District No. 1, Grosse Pointe Township, Wayne County, Michigan, with the Board of Education being present, was held at the Grosse Pointe High School, 11 Grosse Pointe Boulevard, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan, on Monday, the 9th day of June, A. D. 1947 which meeting opened at the hour of 7:00 o'clock A. M. Eastern Standard Time and was convened for the purpose of submitting by organization and ballot the questions of:

- 1. Electing two members of the Board of Education to hold office for the ensuing three years on the Board of Education of Rural Agricultural School District No. 1, Grosse Pointe Township, Wayne County, Michigan and
2. The approval of library expenditures for the year 1947-48 in the amount of $45,270.00, and such other questions and propositions, if any, as are required by law to be submitted to the vote of the electors of the District voting in precincts.

On roll call the following trustees were present: Trustees Clark, Parcels, Poupard, Sheaffer, Wicking. Five (5). Attorney Coulter was also present.

Notice of the call of the meeting and affidavit of posting was read and approved as was the notice of registration.

Election officials were appointed and sworn in with instructions to open the polls of the various precincts at 8:00 a. m. and close same at 8:00 p. m.

The meeting was reconvened at 9:15 P.M., with the following trustees being present: Trustees Clark, Parcels, Poupard, Sheaffer, Wicking. Five (5). Superintendent Essert and Attorney Coulter were also present.

Secretary Clark read the minutes of the Annual Meeting of June 10, 1946.

It was moved by Mrs. Patterson, supported by Mr. Allen, that the minutes of the annual meeting of June 10, 1946 be adopted as read.

Motion carried unanimously.

President Parcels then gave his report.

The Superintendent was called upon to give his annual report:

During the Superintendent's report, Mr. Don Campbell, presented a gift to Mr. Parcels from the staff in appreciation for his long and faithful service.

Mr. Parcels responded as follows:

"I have loved it. It has been a tremendous source of satisfaction and I don't want anyone to feel that I am any less interested in the continued growth and excellence of achievement of these Grosse Pointe Schools. There is no more satisfaction in the world, I think, than in having something to do constructively in a work that really gets into first class and I think that we all together, we members of this Board, we citizens of this community, you teachers and staff have built something in Grosse Pointe that really is a source of satisfaction and pride to us all. People come here from all over the United States. They marvel at our buildings. Our students go out to the Universities and make outstanding records. Students go into work and do a fine job. City and State Department records show that those having come from Grosse Pointe High School have just stood out more and more as the years have gone by and I hope that the spirit of service to this community and to this city and to this state and to this country will continue to grow as the most highly desirable thing that can be instilled into the minds and hearts of the boys and girls coming along in our schools.

"Thank you very much. This is unexpected." The President then called on Treasurer Poupard to give his annual report.

It was moved by Mrs. Thompson, supported by Mrs. Leverenz, that the Treasurer's report be received and approved and ordered spread on the record of the meeting in full.

Motion adopted unanimously.

It was moved by Mrs. Baldwin, supported by Mrs. Schumann, that the following named banks and such others as shall be designated by the Board of Education of Rural Agricultural School District No. 1, Grosse Pointe Township, Wayne County, Michigan, shall be approved as depositories of the moneys and funds of the above named school district:

- Grosse Pointe Bank, Grosse Pointe, Michigan
National Bank of Detroit, Detroit, Michigan
Detroit Bank, Detroit, Michigan
Manufacturers National Bank, Detroit, Michigan
Industrial National Bank of Detroit, Detroit, Michigan
Motion adopted unanimously.

It was moved by Mrs. Hirt, supported by Mrs. Schumann, that the salary for Trustees for the coming year be Two Hundred Dollars and that the salary for the Treasurer for the coming year be One Thousand Dollars and that the salary for the Secretary for the coming year be Four Hundred Dollars.

There was a discussion from the floor on the salary question.

Mr. Johnson moved that the salary for all members of the School Board be fixed at two hundred dollars with no specific amount in excess of that for the Secretary and Treasurer.

The motion being duly seconded, the President called for a counting of hands on this motion and upon canvass, the motion failed to carry.

The President then put the former motion that the salary for Trustees for the coming year be Two Hundred Dollars and that the salary for the Treasurer for the coming year be One Thousand Dollars and that the salary for the Secretary for the coming year be Four Hundred Dollars and upon counting of hands, the motion carried.

It was moved by Mrs. Jacobi, supported by Mr. Johnson, that the budget for the public library be set at $45,270.00 for the year 1947-48 and same be approved and spread upon the records in full.

There was a discussion from the floor regarding what this amount entailed and President Parcels explained the library budget and suggested that it might be well in the future to have a detailed analysis of the library budget proposed under this expenditure in order to present it at the annual meeting.

Motion adopted unanimously.

Secretary Clark read the report of the election inspectors which was as follows:

Motion adopted unanimously.

It was moved by Mrs. Savage, supported by Dr. Loranger, that all funds exclusive of necessary balance on hand for 1947-48 accounts payable be transferred to the Building and Site Fund when all bills had been paid.

There was a question from the floor as to whether or not some of this money could not be used for library purposes.

President Parcels explained that it could.

President Parcels then called on Mr. Wendin, one of the successful candidates, but he had left the meeting and Mrs. Wendin responded as follows:

"Mr. Wendin appreciates the trust the citizens have placed in him. I know he will do his very best as the other members of the Board have done before him."

President Parcels then called on Mr. Dougherty who responded as follows:

"I haven't much to say except I am very happy for this opportunity to serve on the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and I only hope that I will be able to contribute to the continuation of the fine work the Board has done in the past. I am certainly sorry to see Mr. Parcels leave the Board but the Board will do the best they can to carry on as they have in the past. Thank you."

Latest Highlights From Hollywood
Bette Davis' first starring vehicle on her return to Warner Bros. will be "Winter Meeting" from the best-selling novel by Ethel Vance. Miss Davis retired temporarily from the screen some months ago to await the birth of her first child.
"Winter Meeting," a story of a woman's Atlantic Coast rendezvous with a returned veteran, is scheduled for filming early this fall by producer Henry Blanke.
Actor Sam Wanamaker's wife, Charlotte Holland, and their 5-year-old daughter Abby, have been given a humorous acting assignment in United States Pictures' "Ever the Beginning" at Warner Bros. In a picnic sequence for the film, they are to interrupt "Daddy" Sam when he tries to kiss his co-star Lilli Palmer for the first time.
Wanamaker, who makes his screen debut in the picture, re-

By the usual reckonings, Mary Patton, talented actress heard on CBS' "Aunt Jenny," should have been a doctor. Her father is a physician, her mother a registered nurse. Mary does, however, have a keen interest in the field and likes to pore over medical journals in her spare time to keep up with newest developments.

Derek Scott, 5-year-old actor, was sitting low slowly down a banister for a scene in Warner Bros. Technicolor comedy classic, "Life With Father."
"Whatever the idea," complained director Michael Curtiz.
And Derek slyly replied, "This way I can steal more of the picture!"
Jack Carson, famed Warner Bros. comedian, has invented a brand new game for "unrestrained picture was released!

Ruck Pitches Farms To 2nd
Victory, 3-1

Last week was the second of the last half of the Metropolitan League's baseball schedule. The Parks team was forced to forfeit to the Shores, due to some misunderstanding. But on the same day at Kerby Field, the City and Farms tangled in a pitcher's battle, between Bob Ruck and Allen Bryant. Ruck of the Farms was victorious, allowing only one hit and striking out 13 batters. Score, 3-1.

Bryant allowed only two hits, but coupled with a few base-on-balls these proved to be fatal to the City team. This is the second straight victory for the Farms in the second half.

On Friday, July 25, Parks was again forced to forfeit to the Woods at Kerby Field.

At Vernier field, the City team defeated the Shores, 8-4 with their new pitcher, Ted Barnes, allowing the Shores only six hits, while his mates collected ten off Jim Law. Farms play Park at Kerby, and Woods play Shores at Vernier School, on Friday, August 1. On Wednesday, August 6th, City plays Woods at Mason Field, and Shores will face Farms at Kerby Field.

Boyd Holds Lead In Junior Loop

Tom Boyd holds the lead this week in the Class E division of the Grosse Pointe Baseball League, as the team defeated Grosse Pointe Valet, 7-1, on July 22. On the same date, Kiwanis downed Harper Auto, 8-3, and kept their even 500 mark.

The results of July 24, show that Tom Boyd again came out on top, by edging Kiwanis, 4-3, and Harper Auto defeated the News by a score of 7-6.

On August 5, Tom Boyd is scheduled to play G. P. Valet at Kerby Field, and News and Harper Auto will compete at Grosse Pointe High School. Harper Auto will face G. P. Valet at the High School on August 7, and Kiwanis will meet the News at Kerby Field on the same day.

COUNTRY CLUB HOLDS
