WINGED CONTENTERS

Among the close to 10,000 pigeons that will race in the Schimmer Pigeon Race from Lafayette, Indiana to this area, Sunday are this pair of entries of Louis Ghesquiere, 15119 and Henry Van Steelant, 1321 Lakepointe. More than 3000 birds will be entered from this vicinity. Leo Wanket, of Maryland, who entered the prize winning bird last year, will be seeking top-honors again Sunday.

3 Confess of Big Tip to Police

The Detroit Police Hold Up squad arrested three men this week who confessed to the robbery of the home of Ernest Bockstanz, 1320 Grayton road on Sunday, July 31.

Charged with robbery armed are Gordon Fraser, 18, Gerald Bouschard, 18, and Richard Lammons, 17, all of Detroit, who told police that they were looking for $10,000 supposedly hidden in Bockstanz' home.

"I received a tip from a pal that the money was in that house," said one of the youths. He refused to give the name of this pal.

Park police investigation revealed that the only money in the house was $10 which constituted the entire loot taken by the three.

Police reported that Mr. Bockstanz was highly surprised when informed that the thugs were looking for a large sum of money allegedly hidden in his home. "Someone certainly gave them a bum steer," Mr. Bockstanz is reported to have said.

The three are reported to be held in Wayne County Jail under $10,000 personal bond each.

JUST ONE BIG HAPPY FAMILY

Grosse Pointe Park plans to erect an outdoor swimming pool to assure residents season-long swimming — pollution or no pollution.

Village officials said that the cost of converting present "Waterfront Park" swimming facilities into a controlled-water pool and maintaining it would be at a low figure.

They agreed that some immediate action be taken to assure full usage of Waterfront Park facilities as it costs Village taxpayers $25,000 annually to maintain.

PLAN ACCEPTED

The plan, submitted by Village Manager Everett B. Lane, was unanimously accepted by the council at a meeting Monday for further study and action.

It is based on the fact that the swimming area at the present is completely closed in by a substantial revetment wall of solid concrete construction which gives the Village direct control of the water used for swimming. Lane's plan calls for the re-designing of the system and making mechanical changes so that the water in the pool can be sterilized by chlorination.

TENTATIVE PLANS

Tentative plans are as follows:— It will require a new intake pipe at the up-stream side of the pool, sufficiently large to fill the pool in a five or six hour period. (Lake water will be pumped in or will flow of gravity.) At the intake point, chlorine will be fed through an automatic control apparatus, dissolved in a relatively small quantity of water and then mixed with the main flow. All water entering at this point will be chlorinated sufficiently for swimming purposes.

The water in the pool will be circulated by a continuous flow, or pumped full and pumped out at intervals for proper turnover. (This is to be determined after a study of the turbidity and the rapidity of sedimentation is made.) Suction pipes at the down-stream toe inside the pool will be installed and connected to vertical lift pump for cleaning purposes and de-watering the pool.

Lane reported that the general plan of design and operation has been endorsed by the Bureau of Engineering and the State Health Department as sound and practical.

He said that the Health Department is vitally interested in the plans and has offered its assistance in design and computation.

Upon completion of the plans with cost estimates, the project will be presented to the Park council at a later date, with a recommendation from Lane that it be accepted and installed early next Spring in preparation for the swimming period beginning June 1, 1948.

DETERMINED EFFORT

Lane's plan is the most determined and most immediate solution in fighting pollution which has been a menace to Grosse Pointe swimmers for years.

It comes in the wake of Dr. Thomas Davies', Health Commissioner, order on Aug. 23 banning all swimming for the year due to a high bacteria count in Lake St. Clair.

Acting under the authority of Commissioner Peter J. Koenig, additional tests were made by private chemists who found the water unsafe to swim in.

It was also reported that the United States Public Health Service has been making water tests in this area for some time and has found the water between Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and Fox Creek completely unfit and unsafe for bathers.

Pointers Prepare Birds for Annual 250 Mile Race

There will be something in the air Sunday—when close to 10,000 birds race in the Annual Schimmer Pigeon Race from Lafayette, Indiana to this area.

Juveniles Held for Car Theft

Two juveniles on a wild escape in a stolen car were arrested Monday in Lexington, Michigan and returned to Grosse Pointe Park the scene of their crime.

The pair, 14 years of age, of Detroit, with long juvenile records, confessed to taking a new car from McLean Motor Sales at 15210 Mack late Sunday night.

Park police said that the boys entered the building through a roof window. After sawing the lock off of the garage door, the pair drove off with a 1947 Pontiac, which had a mileage of less than 10 miles.

The arrest was set up when the youths drove into a ditch in Lexington. They asked a gas station attendant for assistance but when he became suspicious, the pair fled.

They were picked up by Lexington police who released them to Park police. They also returned the car, which was not damaged, to its owner.

Questioned by police the boys also confessed to breaking and entering in a radio store at 14204 Mack and a furniture store at 13047 East Warren. They are held in Juvenile Detention Home.

Accident Sends Man To Hospital

Hurriedly crossing Mack avenue at Warren to catch a bus, Leslie K. Edwards, 57, of Mt. Clemens, was hit by a car driven by Frederick Edwin Alter, 20, of Detroit, last week.

It was reported by Farms police who took Edwards to Cottage hospital where he is said to be in serious condition.

Alter, who is employed at an appliance store at Charlevoix and Lakepointe, told police he was traveling less than 25 miles per hour at the time of the accident. He was released pending final outcome of Edwards' injuries.

Witnesses told police that Edwards, who was on his way home from his job at a Detroit treating company, had left a Vernor bus and dashed into the street to catch a Mack bus when he was struck.

Children Wreck Home, Parents Pay

Two boys, 11 and 12 years of age, were apprehended by police destroying property at a home under construction at 741 Lincoln road.

The boys confessed to cutting electric wiring, denting heating fixtures and turning water on in the basement. The parents agreed to pay the damages.

Prankster Sends Fleet of Cabs to Neighbor

If you were unable to get a cab in Grosse Pointe City last week here's why they were all over Mrs. Lillian Dirksen's home at 834 Rivard.

More than 25 cabs were sent there at regular intervals by some high school prankster at one time. Mrs. Dirksen reported that four cabs arrived simultaneously.

Explosion Cripples Youngster

The latest developments in the explosion which cost the right hand and eye of John Allmand, Jr., 14, of 88 Touraine road are: 1—John, still in critical condition in Cottage Hospital, is facing another major operation. 2—His playmate, Edward Butler, 13, of 33 Hendrie Lane, who was with John in the Allmand basement where the explosion occurred, was released from Cottage Hospital with slight facial injuries. Doctors say he will completely recover. 3—Farms police have taken all chemicals out of the Allmand home and have released them to Grosse Pointe High School laboratories to be destroyed. 4—Farms police are investigating to learn where John purchased the chemicals. Police have been seriously hampered in this investigation as they have been unable to question the injured youth. 5—Farms police issued a warning to all druggists to be highly cautious about selling any chemical substance to minors. John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Allmand, have been at their son's bedside since the accident occurred last Friday.

Boys Placed On Probation For One Year

Two youths, who pleaded guilty to reckless driving and being dangerously driven were handed stiff sentences by Judge George Beauchamp in Grosse Pointe Farms Court last week.

Charles O. Bartlett, Jr., 17, of 520 Lincoln, and Russell Anderson, Jr., 17, of 334 McMillan were placed on one year's probation during which time they must not be outdoors later than 9 p.m.

Farms police reported that the youths must report to them every two weeks.

Judge Beauchamp also revoked Bartlett's driver's license for one year and fined him $25.

Bartlett was reported driving the car that smashed into a tree on the night of August 28.

The pair, who had just returned from a party and were reported to have been drinking, attempted to flee from the scene of the accident. They were apprehended by Farms police.

Building Sewage Development Mark Park's Progress Report

Building and sewage development marked the progress report of Village Manager Everett B. Lane to the Park Council Monday.

Following is Lane's complete report covering July and August.

BUILDING REPORT

Single residences — $260,500, minor buildings — $4,150, alterations and repairs — $24,700, commercial buildings — $18,000. Total — $307,350.00. This past week controls on building construction covering certain amusement and recreational facilities were further exempted from regulations requiring Federal construction permits.

Among the types of construction removed from controls are swimming pools operated by municipalities, seasonal camps, rodeos, dude ranches and certain structures operated by educational institutions or churches. This latter group includes assembly halls, athletic field houses, gymnasiums, indoor stadiums, theaters, bleachers and grandstands. At the same time a list of structures requiring permits are dance floors and stands for orchestras in restaurants or other establishments, buildings used in connection with fraternal organizations or lodges, service bars, night clubs and outdoor skating rinks.

Police Seek Hoodlums

Grosse Pointe police are seeking a gang of young hoodlums who are responsible for malicious destruction of private property in the five Grosse Pointe communities.

With no other intentions than to destroy private property, this gang is responsible for numerous windows being broken in Grosse Pointe homes causing considerable damage.

Police believe that this gang is the same one responsible for the repeated destruction of windows at public schools and business places.

Sewage Vote At Village Draws Near

The polls for the Grosse Pointe Farms special election will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on election day, Thursday, September 18.

The announcement was made by Harry A. Furton, village clerk, who said that the Village Municipal Building at 90 Kerby road will be the only polling place for the election.

Qualified voters will be asked to decide on the proposal to issue $400,000 in bonds for the installation and construction of new sewage.

In an election earlier this year, the voters turned the proposal down.

Children Please Keep Off Walks

Farms officials are hoping to complete the Village sidewalk repair program, which got underway this week, before cold weather sets in.

Village residents are asked to expedite the completion of the program by warning children to refrain from stepping on or defacing any of the new sidewalks.

MISCHIEF MAKERS

Mrs. John E. Newman, 1882 Lancaster, reported to Woods police that children are invading her home every Sunday evening when she is away.

Attacker Fined $25

Dan Bartola, alias Danny Bruno of Redford road, was fined $25 by Judge George Beauchamp in Grosse Pointe Park court Wednesday for his assault on William Rogers, 19, of 1121 Buckingham last week.

Bartola's brother, Mike, also of Redford, was released due to lack of evidence when one of the witnesses failed to appear in court.

The brothers were involved in the brutal beating of young Rogers after their cars nearly collided at St. Paul and Redford.

Rogers was taken to Bor Secor Hospital with head and face injuries as a result of the attack.

Millions of fish flies invaded Grosse Pointe shores this week. Veteran Pointe fishermen reported seeing the largest swarm of fish flies since 1932 during the Harnsworth Trophy races.

These fishermen have a pet name for the flies, Canadian soldiers, while the Canadian fishermen call them American Soldiers.

LABOR LOOKS AT FREE ENTERPRISE

In a recent editorial, the newspaper Labor said: "If 'free enterprise' fails in the United States and Canada, it's gone with the wind." This newspaper would not like to see that. Labor believes in the American system.

This is a very mild statement of the case. Free labor has never existed except where free enterprise has existed. In every country where total government has been established, the workers have been among the first to be enslaved.

The newspaper Labor states that free enterprise has been guilty of many crimes. So, of course, has organized labor. But in a democratic society these crimes can be corrected without destroying our economic system, or infringing on the basic liberties of the people.

THOSE PRICE TAGS

Don't look to your village retailer to put into effect the major price reductions that people are always talking about and which never occur.

Retailers, large and small, chain and independent, dealing in every kind of commodity, have fought one of the most aggressive battles against price inflation. They are on the firing line—they get every consumer complaint and have an intimate understanding of consumer economic problems.

But that arsenal is limited. Retailers must pay the going price for goods at wholesale. Like all other business, they must carry heavily increased overhead, in the form of higher wages, rents, taxes, supplies and everything else.

Retailers will reduce prices if—and when—wholesale prices and the unavoidable costs of running a store come down. Competition, which grows stiffer every day as more and more goods are produced and the "easy money" dwindles, will take care of that.

Two friends met on the street. One friend asked the other. "What have you been doing?" "Oh, I've been working in the Atomic Bomb plant," said the second friend.

Communist—One who has given up hope of becoming a capitalist.

Pool Planned for Park

Under the existing conditions there can be no assurance that safe swimming water will be available in any area at any time.

"It is reasonable to believe that for a number of years it will be impossible to clean up, and compel municipal and private corporations to install sewage disposal and treatment plants in the metropolitan area.

"During the interim, it will be necessary for each community to protect themselves by abandoning swimming or devising other means of protection."

Disgusted Robbers Steal Car

The car belongs to Lewis Bowen, of 10628 East Jefferson, who had left it there for repairs. The car was found abandoned and undamaged in Detroit, Tuesday morning by police.

Park police, who investigated, said that the men had entered the building through a window in the rear garage late Thursday night. After working on the Packard safe without being able to open it, police said that the thieves went to work on a safe belonging to the Automobile Club of Michigan, which has an office in the same building.

Despite the fact that the intruders used torches, crow bars and other garage tools, they also failed to open the second safe. Reports indicated that there were large amounts of money in both safes.

Police said that the total loot outside of Mr. Bowen's car was $3.00 that was taken from an office desk.

Sewer projects installed north of Jefferson Avenue during 1946-47 show excellent results. In areas where new sewers have been constructed no basement flooding has been reported. Several floodings were found to be the result of the house sewers and drains being plugged with roots and foreign matter which is the responsibility of the owner.

On April 8th, July 15 and 16th and September 1, 1947, Grosse Pointe Park experienced rainfalls of extremely high intensity. In some cases the rainfall almost equaled 10 year frequency rainfall rate for which our storm water system was designed. On the above dates, inspections were made during the heaviest rainfalls and all new sewers were found functioning properly, relieving all intersecting laterals and drains.

Inspections were made on the dates mentioned of the new backwater gate at Jefferson and Barrington and the rain gauges indicated that on the west side of the gate on the Detroit side, the height of the water in the manhole was far above the top of the 7 ft. sewer while on the east side of the gate in Grosse Pointe Park, the height of the water in the 7ft. sewer at any time has not exceeded 4 1/2 ft.

This is an indication that the backwater gate is functioning properly and the relief connections are carrying the surplus water to the intake chamber in the Pumping Station.

We are well ahead of our sewer construction by combining the Beaconsfield, Lakepointe, and Maryland in one project. We plan on completing the projects south of Jefferson in 1948-49 if funds can be made available for this work.

Teen Talk

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

Did ya have a nice summer? Huh? Well don't all scream at once, in fact you don't even need to answer, for by the look on your faces you thoroughly enjoyed it. Well sure am glad you did, and now to get down to business.

Those ever popular parties that SHARON FORD gives. Take the one she threw Friday night. For breaking the ice it sure was a huge success. Gery Rounds, Helen Plath, Mary Ann Mann, Mary Gratzler, Barb Mann, Sue Cruikshank, and Felice Thorpe were the gals there to feast on the hot dogs, potato chips, cokes and cookies. And if you promise not to tell, we hear that she and the gals are kinda planning a stupendous hay ride and barn dance in the near future.

MEEKY

Chris Helin, and Dick Lower, popped in at her home where her mother had prepared sandwiches, cokes, and a lovely birthday cake that just twinkled with burning candles.

FROM what we hear "Twas loads of fun!! After school was out on Thursday we trekked down to the bookstore line to see if per chance we might run across some of the kids we hadn't seen yet, and who do you suppose was the first person we bumped into.

Well after looking for a corner to hide in we decided to give up when BURT SPURRIER and his sister Sue, spotted us and shouted out their greetings. Both of them looked sprightly as ever, and then farther down, (in the line that is) who should smile at us very coyly but DIANE THOMPSON, fresh over from Peirce, and along with her stood MADGE WINTERS. Then we raced into homeroom to return our schedule cards afore it got too late and running in the opposite direction and right into us was BILL ISBEY, shoulders and all. Someone came barging into locker when we were gathering my books to leave and who was it? Why none other than "GLASSES" JIM STOVER himself, and DICK MITCHELL could easily be seen not too far behind. While waiting for the bus, and old beat up or should we say beat down car drove up and blast forth it's horn, which nearly made the automotive fall apart and sitting behind the wheel with a big grin on his face was GENEY STEBBINS, of course BEV MARTIN was seated pertly next to him.

When we got out we accidently bumped into BARB CARTER who is almost ready to catch the fastest plane down to SULLEN'S COLLEGE in Virginia, where she will continue her studies.

Ultra-attractive BUNNY SHIPTON has just returned from a delightfully pleasant summer vacation at her grandparents, Barb informed us, and after chatting for a few more minutes, we were home tired and dreading the chapters of home work to follow.

Of course we talked on the phone before starting right in MAR-TIE WATKINS, was the gal who called and from the tone of her voice and the theme of the conversation, she too had a wonderful summer.

IT'S COMING!!! SEPTEMBER THE 13th, at 8:00 in the Pillar Recreation Hall, on Kercheval and Philip.

Yes, the most spectacular dance ever staged in Grosse Pointe will be given by JOE MANNINO and his orchestra.

Come and enter the circular dance floor 'neath a rose laden trellis. Sit out a number at one of the cozy tables placed around the edge and let the serenaders serenade you!!!

Gaze beneath dim lights on the rock garden beneath the band, or cast admiring glances between dances at the tall trees lending enchantment to the evening.

You won't want to miss such features as LEE WALKER, on bass, RANDY ZIEB, beating out rhythm on the drums, GEORGE HUGHES, AND RALPH ALLURED swinging in the sex section, DICK SHALVOY, tooting a trumpet, and last but not least your favorite piano player JOE MANNINO, who will let his fingers send for liting lyrics from the ivory keys.

In all there are fifteen players all who will suit you to a T when it comes to fine music.

THE PRICE? SMALL — for such wonderful entertainment the whole evening long. ONLY — 1.10 per couple or if you prefer stag.

START YOUR FALL OUT RIGHT!!!! Get in the swing and attend this wonderful dance with JOE MANNINO and his orchestra.

DEAR JEANNE:
GOOD TIMES, UNLIMITED
Chapter One

Days are shorter, the air is crisper, and the beginning of school brings a new round of fall festivities. And this season you'll want to be in on the entertaining yourself. Even Elsa Maxwell had to start, you know, and who can tell, your parties may be famous, too, some day. However, success in the party line isn't just luck; it comes from careful attention to the basic rules.

Make preparations ahead of time. Perish the thought of guests catching you with your hair still pinned up. Be smart; make a schedule so as to get everything done beforehand—the necessary shopping and housecleaning out of the way; refreshments prepared; games or records ready; even check on what you're going to wear. And speaking of refreshments, always try out new recipes well in advance, so that by the time the big day comes you'll have them down to perfection.

PAULA

Keep your party simple, complicated arrangements have a way of bogging down and getting jammed. They also take the hostess' mind from guests, who after all, deserve first consideration.

Watch to see that everyone has a good time. If a boy or girl is left alone, ask this guest to give you a hand—at passing out cookies, for instance. Something to do has a wonderful way of creating something to say just when it's needed most.

Take it easy. A calm and pleasant hostess can ease the most embarrassing situation; nothing is gained by acting worried or cross.

CHAPTER TWO

Bill doesn't plan parties. They just sort of happen at his house. When Bill feels sociable he checks with the headlady, then lifts the phone and says, "Come on over . . . sure, bring her along. We'll round up the whole crowd." His mother doesn't hear what follows—she makes a bee-line for the kitchen to put pop bottles on ice and check the sandwich makings . . . that crowd gets hungry—no, ravenous.

Does this sound familiar? There's a boy like Bill (luckily) in almost every crowd. Now Sue is different. For Sue, a party is a jewel to be polished. She has as much fun planning the event as on the day itself. Her invitations are ingenious—sometimes it takes three looks to understand them. She picks a scheme and carries it through.

CO-OPERATION

Still when Bill comes to one of Sue's planned events, he adds something—a brand new stunt; a sudden switch of records for the Virginia reel; an idea that leads everyone through some breathless laugh-packed session. And Sue arrives at one of Bill's parties she's the gal who remembers to refill the empty candy dishes, who checks the soda bottles and re-stocks the refrigerator. Which brings us to our point—an idea for a get-together that switches the usual order of things. The boys will shine, if the girls help.

This is a story about a party by a fellow—you, Bill or Red or Jim. Call it a plan for a party without a plan, if that's the kind you like. First requisite; Reserve the family parlor (all right, then, the recreation room) for the night. Next step: You'll have to shop for food if you expect to feed the crowd. And before you decide how much to buy, you should know how many will come. Hold on, now—don't cancel this scheme—this is easy enough to do. How many of you get together often? How many girls have invited you to parties? How many on your ball team? Who drops in at Francois with you every Saturday? Add the score—what have you? About twenty-four guests make a good crowd for most homes—more or less may jam into your living room.

IDEAS GALORE—

Everyone is popping up with ideas, but you want to run this by yourself. It'll be like—let's see, a hot-dog stand. You'll serve wieners and toasted rolls from a long table. All the extra's will be handy—catsup, mustard, relish, etc. French fried potatoes are not hard to cook, are they? And ice cream for dessert, something like a sundae with chocolate syrup. Oh yes, lots of pop—and that's all.

Dawns Saturday, and mother practically beats the birds in routing you out of bed. She seems to think everything ought to be done immediately. But, it's early and you have a morning date at the tennis court. Fine—remember to get back early, though. Even without the feminine frills, this hosting deal takes a little preparation. For instance, if you do want to try your hand at French-frying those potatoes, remember, they need peeling, too. If you decide to stay out for the afternoon, dip into next week's allowance and buy potatoe chips instead.

We'll skip lightly over the tussel with the potatoe peeler and the hot fat pan. Now we'll leave while you get yourself all ready for the big event. Finally you are all prepared.

You could catch the radio sport scores while you wait or try out a couple of new dance steps. We have no business standing at your elbow and you can just ignore us—it's our personal opinion, though, that you ought to line up something to keep early-comers happy.

OPEN THE DOOR, RICHARD

Is that someone at the door? Fine! Turn on the music for the dancers, and—you don't stall any longer—better open the hot-dog stand for business before the frankfurter-stand buffet is invaded. If you need some help, share a chef's cap with the hungriest-looking guest of the lot. He can nibble while he helps you dish up the food.

Looks good; smells better. More wieners and potatoes are coming up. Change shifts behind the "stand" so that you all get a chance to dance.

When everyone has reached the point where even those sizzling franks have lost their appeal, bring out the gallon of ice-cream; the cookies, plates and spoons—and let the sundaes pile up on each guest's taste.

All right, you've fed them well. And now you can just turn on the music and let everyone dance or come back for food seconds. Sure, it's a swell party.

Good? It certainly is. And just think, all you need do, Bill, is lift the phone and say, "Come on over . . ."

Mr. Robert True, of Saginaw, served his brother as best man.

Mrs. Norman True, mother of the bridegroom, wore a suit of gold colored gabardine, with grey hat, and brown accessories. Her corsage was of Belmont gardenias also.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served for the immediate families, at the Old Ways Club, after which the young couple left for a two weeks honeymoon in New Orleans.

MRS. SYD ROBERT SCOTT
The leaves of brown that came shining down helped the setting of the September wedding of Margaret Jeanne Erne and Syd Robert Scott.

The rites were read at the Christ Church, Grosse Pointe amidst vases of white flowers and glowing tapers in low candleabra.

The former Miss Erne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Erne, of Fisher road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Syd R. Scott, of University Place.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a gown of candlelight fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, small peplum edged with seed pearl embroidery, long fitted sleeves and a full skirt which ended in a train.

A halo of antique lace held her French illusion veil in place. She carried a white prayer book and a white orchid tied with showering satin ribbons.

The attendants' gowns were of white and gold moire. They had fitted bodices, sweetheart necklines, cap sleeves, full skirts and small peplums which formed bustle bows in the back.

Nancy Flintermann, maid of honor, wore white and the matron of honor, Mrs. Reynold William Semmler, Jr., was gowned in gold.

Gold moire was used for the bridesmaids' gowns worn by Cynthia Book and Jean Malcomson, while Jacqueline Ewing and Virginia Lowe, of Shaker Heights, O., wore white. Miss Lowe was a roommate of the bride at Marjorie Webster Junior College in Washington, D.C.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the DAC. The wedding party received in the Pontchartrain Room, which was decorated with arrangements of white flowers.

A ceremony held at East Ta-

Mich., Sally Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Watkins of University Place, became bride of William S. Stipe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Stipe, Clarinda, Ia.

The best man was Edwin Eul, Chicago. Ushers were James Watkins, Jr., Fernando Leon, Saginaw, and Herbert Stacy, Jr., Saginaw.

After their wedding trip, Pat and Bunny will make their home in Hancock while he completes senior year at the Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Houghton.

Lecture Series Dates Announced
The fifth annual Tuesday evening Series of Grosse Pointe Lectures to be held at the John D. Pierce Junior High School will open on October 14th with Louis P. Lochner as the speaker. Mr. Lochner is recognized as the outstanding news correspondent of the past 25 years. He was Chief of the Berlin Bureau of the Associated Press for 15 years, is author of "What About Germany," a Pulitzer Prize winner in 1939. One of his greatest honors was to have been selected by Ex-President Herbert Hoover to assist him in making his latest survey of the occupied countries of Europe. Mr. Lochner will be followed in order by: Teresta and Emilio Osta, who will present a program of Latin American dances and folk music; Ex-Governor Arnall of Georgia, the South's greatest leader since Abraham Lincoln; Henry L. Scott, hilarious virtuoso of the piano, featured in both Collier's and Life during recent months, and one of the greatest box office attractions in the country today; Carl Van Doren, long recognized as one of the ten most important contemporary writers in the United States, a Pulitzer Prize winner in 1939 and author of many books, will conclude this outstanding series in which only the personalities who are recognized as leaders in their field have been selected to appear.

Palistine Poses Critical Problem, Speaker Declares
"Palestine in Today's World" was eminently discussed by Dr. Hartman A. Lichtwardt, medical director of Woman's Hospital at the noon meeting of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club Monday at the Whittier.
A million Arabs, half a million Jews and 100,000 Christians, packed into 10,000 square miles, an area the size of Rhode Island, is truly a world problem, today, said Dr. Lichtwardt.
Palestine, under League of Nations mandate to Great Britain for the past twenty-five years, is a "hot potato" of great magnitude, not only to England, but to the rest of the world. If some 100,000 British troops were to be withdrawn, the greatest massacre of all time would result, said the speaker.
For the present, the Jews are better armed and would have the upper hand for about a month, but if the troops were withdrawn, Ban-Moslem countries pledged to aid the Arabs would send in regiments and then more than likely Russia would enter the picture and another World War would be precipitated.
A committee from the United Nations has been investigating the situation and is preparing a report on recommendations.

SPEAKER'S BACKGROUND
Dr. Hartman A. Lichtwardt, who spoke on "Palestine in Today's World" at the Grosse Pointe Rotary meeting Monday, is one of a smaller group of doctors, who through the years, without the glamor of war, through medical missions, have been serving in out-of-the-way places in little-known lands.
He was born and educated in Detroit, where he graduated from the Wayne University College of Medicine, and interned in Harper Hospital. For one year he served as a doctor in Berea College in Kentucky, where he had been a student some years previously.

Other attractions to be presented in this series include Sasha Siemel, "The Tiger Man," recently featured in Collier's. See and the Magazine Section of the Detroit News. Mr. and Mrs. Siemel and their three children have been in the Brazilian jungle for the past nine years during which time the film "Jungle Family" was produced. The film includes camera studies of beautiful flowers, strange birds, tigers, mountain lions, anteaters, tapirs and wild boars, in addition to the dangerous life of the Siemels. Karl Robinson will bring "China Journey," one of the very few travel pictures of China. Robinson has long been a favorite of illustrated lecture goers. Robert Friers with "Cuban Holiday" will conclude the series. This story of our sister country to the south will show scenes of Havana, Rio Cristal, Varadero Beach, Santiago, Isle of Pines in addition to a hurricane at its height. To see a Friers picture is to see the best.
Information or reservations may be secured by calling the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, N.E. 2000, Ext. 25.

and from there joined the United States Army Medical Corps, as a first lieutenant in World War I. SERVED IN IRAN
He and Mrs. Lichtwardt, a graduate nurse who had served with the armed forces in the same war, went to Meshed, Iran, in 1919, in which city they were stationed until 1933. They were attached to the American Christian Hospital of Meshed, situated not far from the borders of Afghanistan and Turkestan, and they treated rich and poor, peasants and princes, Turks and Afghans, Russians and Indians, Armenians and Assyrians. All types of medical work had to be done, as well as surgery of all sorts, for all types of people, and on occasion for horses, cows, sheep and camels.
In Meshed, Dr. Lichtwardt started the first work for leprosy in Iran, and his interest in leprosy has continued through the years. He is an associate editor of the International Journal of Leprosy, and one of the founder members of the International Leprosy Association. In 1938 he attended the International Leprosy Congress in Cairo, Egypt, as an official delegate of the United States and unofficially representing Iran. He is now the president of the Detroit branch of the American Mission to Lepers, Inc.
Since 1934, Dr. Lichtwardt has been stationed in Hamadan, Iran, the ancient city of Ecbatana, where one can still see the tombs of Avicenna, and of Esther and Mordecai. He is one of the few surgeons who has been ordained to the ministry, and often conducts religious services. Public Health Work has claimed a good measure of his time and interest and he has written numerous health pamphlets in Persian, which are distributed to various hospitals throughout the land, and has many films on public health activities, which he shows to groups both lay and professional, in Iranian cities.
