ARE WE GULLIBLE?

Dr. W. W. Bauer, editor of Hygeia, recently observed that, "There is a large scare campaign underway by the proponents of socialized medicine to convince people that their health is degenerating."

High standards of health result from preventive medicine—from the elimination of the causes of disease. In this field, as in curative medicine, the American doctor has no superior.

JAILS CAN HOLD BOTH

The proposal, made by Philip Murray of the CIO, that profiteers be jailed, poses a number of complex questions. The most important of those questions is, Who are the profiteers?

Mr. Murray, going by all his published statements, clearly feels that big business is out to exploit the country, while big labor, as represented by the CIO, is blameless.

The Wall Street Journal, for instance, recently ran a series of articles on why homes cost so much. One conclusion reached is that "building labor is doing 30 per cent to 50 per cent less work than before the war."

Many other industries have reported similar declines in labor output—every penny of which must be paid for by the ultimate consumer. That kind of profiteering is costing this country untold billions a year, and is one of the primary reasons for price inflation.

G. P. Squadron Hears Radar Specialist

Microwave relay system whereby long-distance telephone calls will be beamed across the country by high frequency radio supplementing present day cables and wires was forecast Tuesday by William J. Banks, customer relations assistant for the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Speaking before the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Banks demonstrated the characteristics of microwaves with laboratory apparatus. The subject of his talk was "Radar and Your Telephone."

STRAIGHT BEAM With his specially designed microwave transmitter and receiver, in effect a miniature radar, Banks showed how telephone conversations could be sent out in a narrow, straight beam of radio waves. He reflected the beam around corners and over obstructions to illustrate the flexibility of high frequency radio.

Banks pointed out that during the war, the Bell System was the largest single source of radar equipment. Radar, he said, was an out-growth of research into radio with which the Bell laboratories had long experimented in an effort to continually improve telephone communication.

Many peacetime users of radar and microwaves were envisioned by Banks. Collision of planes with other objects would be avoided. Ships and planes could operate at full speed in the thickest fog. Navigation would be made as simple as reading a road map.

NEW TOWERS "When we've completed a series of towers of high hills between Philadelphia, New York, and Boston, and between New York Chicago, we'll start relaying long distance messages by shortwave radio from one tower to the next, sending several hundred of them simultaneously," Banks said.

The Bell System also uses radio waves in coaxial cable for television network transmission and for sending hundreds of simultaneous long distance telephone calls over just two wires.

"We're already using two microwave radio links in the regular long distance network — linking Cape Cod and Manhattan in the East, and joining Catalina Island to the California mainland in the West, Banks said.

"The possibilities," Banks concluded, "seem endless."

Rotarians See Marine Epics

Highlighting the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club meeting Monday at the Whittier Hotel was the showing of the official Marine Battle films "Tawara" and "To the Shores of Iwo Jima."

The guest speaker of the afternoon was the Marines' Colonel William T. Whitaker, Michigan instructor inspector. The entire program was dedicated to the Marine's 172nd birthday which was celebrated last Saturday.

'Teen Talk'

By MEEKY MARIE VAN ZANEN

Since half the semester is almost over, and the social whirl slackened a bit, this week's column will be devoted to TIMELY ADVICE. Would you like to be one of those students who always gets their homework done, and constantly pops up with no less than B's on their report cards, and yet enjoy all the parties and dances?

Sure you would! Everyone would, but how to do it is the question.

Well now lets analyze the day. 8:30 to 3:30 every spare minute is occupied in school. And after school there's a football practice, or camera club meeting that you wouldn't miss for the world. Then comes dinner and whether you're a girl or a boy, dishes usually precede.

8:00 brings a telephone call or else making one, and by 9:00 the day has ended and you're all fagged out.

But now what about that last statement. Is there any reason why you should be all fagged out? Of course you're a person who eats an apple a day, along with three other well balanced meals.

It's not lack of energy that does it. Lack of time and proper coordination are the two main factors.

Learning to budget your time and organize your thoughts will prove very helpful in a good solution, not only for high school, but for college, and work.

When 3:30 comes tomorrow why not go over your classes and assigned homework, while your standing at your locker, and pick out the needed books for the nights work. Set them in the top of your locker so they won't get confused with the rest of your books, so when you come back from meeting they'll be waiting for you.

On your way home observe your surroundings and other incidents for the journalism story that's due tomorrow. When you arrive home don't wait till the evening to write the story. Do it right away. In no time at all it will be over with.

There's still an hour to go before dinner, in which to do your history and strike out on an attempt at geometry.

Relax and enjoy the fine food your mother has prepared during the next hour, and discuss current affairs with the rest of the family to broaden your outlook.

Dishes will be over in no time flat if you get right up and do them. Which will leave an extra half hour to finish up that geometry.

8:00 means time for Jim to call. Why not make it short for a change. He has homework too, you know. Who knows maybe he'll appreciate it more if you do, and that's a point for your side.

By 8:30 your ready to settle down again, and memorize those chemistry phrases. Try turning your radio off an see how much better you can concentrate. Maybe the family would even appreciate being alone for a change, so your bedroom would be an appropriate place to resort to for ideal quiet and solitude.

So end this tale, but heed the moral SET ASIDE A DEFINITE TIME TO DO YOUR HOMEWORK. Make no exceptions and see if your grades don't start taking an upward turn.

And people will begin to take notice of you too, for everyone admires a person with a good report card.

School Holds Open House for Parents

In cooperation with the theme of American Education Week, St. Paul grade school held open house Tuesday. Not only for the mothers and dads of the children, but also for anyone in the community interested in education.

In order that they might better understand the talents and deficiencies of their children, the visitors were shown a typical school day. They were invited to sit through recitation classes where they were able to make comparisons, noting the responses of their own boys and girls in relation to others of their own age.

HUNDREDS VISIT
Hundreds of parents viewed the students' cumulative folios, holding the work of the first quarter. Parent-teacher conferences were booked from 3:30 p.m. to 6:00 and from 6:00 until 9:00 p.m.

Besides the exhibits of the pupils' work the parents also received literature from the Board of Health which the school nurse had on display, background by attractive health posters. Student monitors also passed out book notices of the latest and best books with Christmas shopping lists supplied by the VanAntwerp Library.

Another feature of Education Week at Saint Paul was the students' American Education Bulletin, which held a resume of the activities of the week.

FATHER SPEAKS
Included among the speakers was a Maryknoll Father who talked on the value of training for future vocations, professions, and avocations. In the course of his talk Father brought out the fact that youth is very dear to Christ and that God has great work in the future for modern youth. . . . They need help, guidance and most of all they need to be edified by good example. . . . And this is where the teachers and parents come in.

He said "The Catholic schools' observance of American Education Week emphasizes the fact that Catholic schools and public schools are partners in American Education. Side by side, they function together in preparing boys and girls for the responsibility of American citizenship."

AIM TO IMPRESS
"It is the aim of the Catholic school system to impress upon students the fact that there are thousands of less fortunate American youngsters who are deprived of an opportunity for a decent education."

"The nation faces an educational crisis as both public and parochial schools are beset with financial problems. Only a better understanding and a greater appreciation of the school's function in American life will arouse the public to an active interest in the needs of the Nation's schools."

Defer Pupils Busy With Varied Activities

The 3A children in Miss Walsh's room have enjoyed the flowers that were contributed by Frances Fazio, Nancy Donovan, and Margaret Sims during the month of October.

Charles Freeman gave a large cotton plant that was grown in the cotton fields of Texas. It is now in the science collection.

Otto Scherer gave a report to the class on the Marble Quarries which he had visited in the eastern part of the United States.

Defer is happy to welcome the following people back to school. Daniel Dyer, Patricia Lindow, Leigh McFerrin, Bonnie Averill, William Cameron, Jean Stefani, and Margaret Sims. These children have been absent because of illness.

The interest of the Junior Kindergarten in Miss Hill's room has been centered about the home. They have built houses and a garage. The kindergarten in Mrs. Quinn's room is responsible for the November Bulletin Board. It is entitled, "Let Us Give Thanks." Paintings and free hand paper cutting are the mediums used to illustrate their idea of gratitude.

A snack period has been organized in the Kindergarten department. This was started under the leadership of morning

Trombly Staff Plans Unusual PTA Meeting

An unusual type of P.T.A. meeting has been arranged for Wednesday night, November 19, at 7:45 p.m. The teachers of Trombly School will conduct discussions for the parents of the respective grades. They will endeavor to clarify the goals of today's elementary school, so that parents will understand more thoroughly what the children are striving to accomplish during the school year. These discussions will be held in the classrooms for the parents of each grade. There will be an opportunity for questions or discussions by parents.

The meeting will open with the parents assembled in the auditorium for a short business discussion. Refreshments will be served by the social committee in the gymnasium later. During the social hour there will be an opportunity to select children's books for Christmas buying from a book exhibit arranged by Mesdames Melville Collinson, and Sven Hellstrom, Ways and Means chairmen.

3rd Graders At Vernier Fete Parents

The Third grade at Vernier School gave a tea for their parents recently. The Homeroom Mother, Mrs. R. Mertz and her committee which consisted of Mrs. H. Klingelhofer, Mrs. B. Martin and Mrs. C. Totte arranged a very attractive tea table. A large pumpkin was placed in the center of it and two smaller ones on each side, surrounded by goodies for both parents and pupils. There was a short program which included Halloween songs, poems, the rhythm band and a play.

Following a trip last week to Greenfield Village, the fourth grade wanted to tell their parents about the interesting things they saw.

The parents were invited to a program. Each child reported on the particular exhibit or display which he had most enjoyed. They sang several favorite songs, including three which demonstrated their talents in two part music. Tommy Kaser played the "German Waltz" on his cornet and accompanied the children as they sang "America". Robert Morae announced the program.

Mrs. Murray MacDonald, room mother, with her committee arranged a very lovely tea table and served much enjoyed refreshments to both mothers and children.

The Knitting Ladies of the Neighborhood Club have been meeting regularly on Wednesday mornings for the last 6 years. They have made approximately 250 afghans which have been sent to the Armed Forces overseas, to a French School, to Old Peoples Homes and to the Cancer Clinic. These afghans have been made from scraps of yarn and old sweaters which the ladies raveled. The ladies have had many fine responses to their plea for old scraps of yarn, but this material is used so fast they are again asking you for help. If you cannot bring your yarn to the Club, members will be very glad to pick it up—just call NL 4600. In the picture above are from left to right: Mrs. Samuel Fittes, 240 Provencal; Mrs. Donald Corey, 278 Kenwood; Mrs. Fred West, 408 McKinley; Mrs. Robert Millar, 436 Kercheval and Mrs. H. B. Gardner, 350 McMilan.

Paula's Hi-Lites
by PAULA BEAUPRE

This is the season when you're aware of the brisk weather and the bright, clear blue skies. It's the month when you weigh the advantages of just moving into the beautiful out-doors and spending just as much time as possible there, just having fun with your crowd. What to do? Well, one thing for sure — something you've probably been doing for quite some time, and, while you've still got the chance should continue to do.

No doubt you've already guessed what that would be. With touchdowns and penalties spread over all the local papers, who wouldn't want to be an avid football fan? Especially since football has a lot to offer besides grand fun. A lusty football game can be the perfect ending of a day in the out-doors, and a fresher-upper before the evening's dating and dancing, and most of the time, that game will be viewed under a beautiful blue sky on a brisk fall day, which just happens to be the time of day that my story takes place!

While trying to get a better view of the team's captain running for that touchdown. We accidentally (honest, it was) overheard a group of fellows discussing girls as football dates and we noticed that not one of them had asked a female to attend with them. So, we thought there must be a reason.

What did the fellows say? "Well, said the first one," the average male takes his football seriously, and takes only the girl who knows her game." Asking simple questions may make you think you're being terribly cute, but it makes Harry think next Saturday he'll leave you home. So before you dream of accepting Harry's invite to the Michigan somewhere classic be sure you have at least a general knowledge of what's up. Said gossip number two, "With papers full of the stuff, how could any one be ignorant of what's going on?" He seemed to think that if you're one of those "any one's", the least you could do would be to sit tight and keep mum!

Harry couldn't understand why girls would imagine, even for an instant, that the price of admission included free pennants, programs, and hot dogs!! He thinks that if his wallet can stand it, he'll buy those extra unasked. If he doesn't offer then you should understand, and not embarrass him. They were outspoken too, about girls who come prepared for any weather. It'll rain for sure if you wear your brand new hat, and if it doesn't, Harry'll wish it would. And dress warm. They were all very emphatic in their remark that the Unforgivable Sin is to leave the game early — though they could use you for chopped ice. Not all last minutes touchdowns have been made in the movies. And it would be just your luck to miss one. And to miss Harry at the next game.

Our number one gossip chimed in again just then to say, "O.K. So you made it through the game. But what about that girl that has to spoil a swell date by screaming at every Tom, Dick and Harry she even remotely knows?" He seemed to think that if you were such a queen the fellows would spot you in the crowd. Besides, just for this afternoon Harry would like to imagine that you're just his date!!

A Lady Likes to Be Treated Right

Ask any little girl who has exchanged burned-out lamp bulbs at an Edison office. She'll tell you she was treated like a debutante shopping for sables. For, although Detroit Edison supplies eight million new lamp bulbs to its customers annually, the Edison clerk never seems too busy to give her a smile and a cheery greeting.

Next time you need lamp bulbs, take your burned-out ones, along with a recent electric bill for easy identification, to your nearest Edison office. You'll find that the clerk is genuinely concerned with your needs and viewpoints. And you'll find a willingness to go out of the way to help a customer, whether it be a little girl or a great-grandmother.

Former Shut-In Tops New Sunshine Hour

It takes a fellow who has been bedridden to know what shut-ins would like to hear, and that's the reason WJKB's new Program Director, Judith Lawton, selected Mel Truitt to handle the station's newest public service program, "Sunshine House."

Truitt had been confined to hospital care for more than two years, due to an illness discovered by the draft examination in 1942.

"Sunshine House" is a half-hour mid-afternoon musical program, offering bits of sunshine in the form of friendly talks, poetry, and music for the shut-ins of this area.

the charming Teresita an artist of the dance, but an artist of costume as well for each of her costumes is authentic in every colorful detail, many of them having been presented to her by admiring mentors in Spanish America as a tribute to her skill and versatility as an impromptu pupil.

The Osta's were among the first in the entertainment field to realize the role that music and dancing play in furthering Inter-American understanding. Their program members, genuine in every way, reflect the traditions and customs of the Latin-American countries where they originated, and give North Americans a true picture of the culture to the South.

Symphony Notes

Pearl Harbor

"Pearl Harbor Day" sometimes called the "Blackest day in American history" will be commemorated this year by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Karl Kreuger, conducting the ensemble on WXYZ-ABC's "Sunday Evening Hour," has chosen the work which was hailed by allied leaders during the war as the "Victory Symphony," the No. 5 of Beethoven, because of its "motto" theme in the first movement.

It will be heard on Sunday, December 7, the anniversary of the day when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor.

Houston Bros. Inc. strengthened their grasp on first place in the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club Bowling League Friday by beating the Grosse Pointe Review squad 3-0, to 1. Howard Frazier with 250, set the pace for Houston.

Marlin Culbreth continued their steady climb, taking four points from Harrison Carpets. Russ Wilton supplying 200 in (187), for the Public Jumpers. Cos. Leorch's boys now have three straight victories to their credit.

Middle All. Transp. Co. put on a good show, after losing the first one by a few pins, came on to take the Holzbach Motor, 5-0, displacing Holzbach as runner up. Wolverine Pot. Chips, still in the running, lost a chance to gain on the leaders, by losing three points to Ed Traub's Farms Market, all games being very close.

Punch and Judy Cocktail Lounge, bounced back to take Piche's 3 bars, 5-0. Ovesen, supplying the power with a (370) series, for the winners.

Graders Win Grid Title

The St. Paul Grade School graders have upheld the school's football tradition this fall. The team has just completed a successful season during which they won the Catholic Youth Organization South East Division Championship. They captured the crown last week by defeating St. Philip 12 to 0 at Chandler Park. Billy Mason tossed two touchdowns, passes to Louis Giest in the second half.

Their glory was short lived, however when they were trounced 22 to 8 last Friday night in the "mud at Mack Park by Gretto, the South West" team, who St. Paul was meeting to decide the Southern Division Championship.

The big Gratts team averaged 127 pounds to St. Paul's 105 pounds had little difficulty in whipping the Grasse Pointers. Billy Mason again stood out for St. Paul. He passed to Tim Champing for the Flyers only score to the last quarter.

The Flyers had lost only one game in taking the South East title, while winning four.

OPEN TO VETERANS
Veterans will receive appointments to between 350,000 and 400,000 permanent Federal Government positions within the next two years.

"WE WANT A TOUCHDOWN"

Whether it's professional, college or sandlot football the last five yards to a touchdown are the hardest. And to prove that fact here is little 12-year-old Harry Huck struggling and skimming his way through the final few yards to "putt" in a scrimmage contest between youngsters at St. Ambrose School.

Blue Devils Close Grid Season at Mt. Clemens

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devil gridiron squad will close their football season with Mt. Clemens on Saturday. The game will be played there and the kickoff is at 2:30 p.m.

Catch Ed Wernat expects another tough game when he said, "Mt. Clemens loves to beat what they consider — 'the millionaires'. They are always ready to meet Grosse Pointe."

Last year Mt. Clemens was victorious over the local boys at 23-0.

Last Saturday the Blue Devils were trounced by a tough and determined Port Huron eleven — 12 to 0 at Chandler Park. Billy Mason tossed two touchdowns, passes to Louis Giest in the second half.

Their glory was short lived, however when they were trounced 22 to 8 last Friday night in the "mud at Mack Park by Gretto, the South West" team, who St. Paul was meeting to decide the Southern Division Championship.

However this defeat did not hinder the Border Cities League standings for Grosse Pointe as it was a non-league game.

The big upset of the week was the Foriston-Wyandotte battle. Wyandotte was picked by one or two touchdowns. When the final gun ended the game the score stood at Foriston 8, Wyandotte 0.

This contest put Grosse Pointe in third place leaving Wyandotte and Foriston to battle for first place honors.

In reference to next Saturday's game Coach Wernat pointed out, "We are hoping Grosse Pointe can come back mentally after that terrific shattering of last week." Wernat also stated, "If we have a

St. Paul Ends Grid Season at Mack Park

The St. Paul Flyers returned to the grid wars last Sunday after a week off and battled to a 4-0 tie with the Ann Arbor Cougars in a strong wind at Water Works Park.

The tie destroyed the Flyers' last chance of finishing the season with a 5-0 average. They have won 2, lost 4, tied one and have one game left to play.

However, it made the Flyers more determined than ever to conquer St. Bernard in the final game next Sunday night under the lights at Mack Park. The game starts at 8:00.

RAH! RAH! RAH! Nation's Football Heroes To Get 40,000 Trophies

More than 40,000 little gold and silver footballs will be presented to the gridiron heroes of the nation before the 1948 season ends, according to a survey made by the Jewelry Industry Council.
 These watch chain trophies will be awarded by high schools and colleges, by newspapers, magazines and others selecting all-American teams, and for certain championship games such as the Tournament of Roses football Classic in Pasadena on New Year's day and the Orange Bowl game in Miami.
 The 1948 season also sees a large increase in the number of jewelry items for personal use awarded to individual players, the survey shows.
 Wrist watches appear to be the favorite award for individual players. They will be given, for example, to players in the Sugar Bowl game to be played on New Year's day in New Orleans, and the Cotton Bowl Game in Dallas, and the East-West Game in San Francisco. Players in the Sun Bowl Game in El Paso will be given silver belt buckles suitably engraved.
 Other items of jewelry popular for individual awards this year are cuff links, identification tags and gold and silver pen and pencil sets.
 Trophies for teams was another subject covered in this survey. It was found that cups and bowls of precious metals are making a strong showing in the list of such awards.
 Among the most famous of these team trophies is the large sterling silver bowl awarded to winners of the Orange Bowl Game, the silver cup of the Sun Bowl association which goes to the winners of that Classic for one year, the replicas of the original Sugar Bowl which go to the two teams contending in New Orleans, and the August V. Lambert memorial trophy of ebony gold and silver which goes to the outstanding eleven of the Eastern United States each season.

Quello's Radio Quips

The high cost of living and the limited family food budget have their repercussions in radio sponsorship.
 Standard Brands, a top radio spender, dropped Fred Allen to save the company 1 1/2 million dollars a year in talent and radio time because of anticipated retrenchment in food buying throughout the country.
 In the meantime, Ford Dealers Association snapped up the Allen Show effective the first of the year. Currently tied with Bob Hope for the No. 1 Hooper radio audience, Allen's program is heard by 20 to 30 million people every time it hits the air. Once you get into the position where you can attract that many people to the dial or box office, you have people bidding for your services.
 The Un-American Activities Committee is expected to swing the spotlight over to radio early in 1948. It's reported that they are already monitoring alleged "Red" radio scripts.
 Since the investigation of the movie colony, columnists and executives are receiving thousands of letters from people threatening to boycott movies and radio programs in which communist-tainted actors or writers appear. The consumer's dollar can win the fight against subversives... All the people have to do is refuse to go to "Red" movies or dial "Red" radio programs.
 Television is progressing in Detroit. WWJ-TV has 15 sponsors for its shows and the city has 3,000 television receivers. Other major stations are well along in the planning stage.
 Information from the better niteries in New York indicate that radio actors are better tipsters than the Broadway legit performers.
 Present hostilities toward Russia and recognition of the latter's heavy radio propaganda will probably result in more money being made available to Voice of America broadcasts.
 Groucho Marxmanship: "Russian newspapers seem to be printed on rapping paper."
 Dispelling all various rumors among the daily columnists, Harry Wismer, Assistant to President G. A. Richards of WJR announced Conrad Noll Jr. as new Operating Manager in charge of the Station. Noll has wide experience in business management. He is a college graduate of engineering, law, and business administration and a former superintendent at Willow Run.
 Have you noticed that the radio listings have the "Fat Man" immediately followed by the "Thin Man"? They are on different networks... The "Fat Man" is on WXYZ; the "Thin Man" on WJR.
