Meanwhile, it was learned that some $100,000 would be required to remodel the present Sales property at Lincoln and E. Jefferson, to adapt it for library purposes. And, another $100,000 would be required to build a War Memorial 205 Muir Road, not affiliated with wing. Although no definite architectural plans for the proposed Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library have been determined, it is an impressive rotunda would be incorporated in the main entrance, carrying suitable memorials to service men and women and their war records alongside tribute to those who gave their lives in conflict.

It has also been aptly pointed out that the structure will be so designed as to permit the addition of wings to the original building, which may be donated as memorials later or be built by some method, as the growth of the community demands.

Housed in the proposed memorial, most appropriately, would be Grosse Pointe historical data and records, as well as any relics or mementos of the early days of this community. It has also been hinted that it is not impossible that many valuable private libraries or collections may be donated to the care of the library, once a suitable steructure is in sight. The letter accompanying the

"Meet every adverse circumstance as its master"

Whether the difficulty is disease, loss, grief, dislocation, strife, lack of progress, lack of opportunity, insufficient ability, or any other evil condition; Christian Science brings to the one or ones concerned the unqualified assurance backed now by the experience of countless thousands, that the difficulty is not insuperable.

Christian Science not only counsels such a one to meet the "adverse circumstance as its master,"+ but shows him how to do it. To people in all walks of life - people who were already manifesting extraordinary ability, as well as those who were manifesting little - this Science, through its revelation of Truth, has supplied the courage, strength, and enlightenment necessary for riding above misfortune and limitation, and attaining the fullest experience of good they have known. The complete statement of Christian Science and its scientifically Christian method of conquering disease and other evils is given in the Christian Science $CIENCE and HEALTH
