Mack Park Subject of Controversy

Drawing major interest in the Grosse Pointe Woods election March 8 is the proposal to give the Woods Council authority to sell the Mack Avenue Park Site between Kenmore and Huntington.

Highly objecting to the sale of this property in favor of the Lakefront Park is Alois A. Ghesquiere, village president, George M. Burgess, village commissioner and the village Park Commissioner.

COUNCIL ACTS

The council acted to place the issue on the ballot at a recent meeting in which the president could not vote, and Burgess and the Park Commission, comprised of Woods citizens were not present.

In a statement to the Review, Ghesquiere stressed the need of more time to study the matter before taking any action.

Burgess claims that it is to the advantage of the village to keep the parksite and build a swimming pool there. He feels that the Lakefront Park due to lake pollution.

GROSSE POINTE'S HEALTH TRAIN

The Mobile X-Ray Trailer entered Grosse Pointe City Tuesday after a successful 10-day survey in Grosse Pointe Park.

Health officials stated that during the trailer's stay in the Park close to 3200 adults took advantage of the free X-ray service in the fight to check tuberculosis.

Though results of the Park survey have not been completed, officials stated that no new cases of TB have been discovered as yet. They added that a person should receive the result of his X-ray in approximately 10-days after it was taken.

Officials explained that one should not become alarmed in the event he receives a letter requesting him to report for a second X-ray. This is usually caused by a deficiency in the development of the X-ray and not the individual.

Meanwhile the mobile unit will be at the Neighborhood Club this Thursday and Friday and at Jacobson's in the village shopping center on Saturday. The schedule appears below.

Starting March 2 the Survey, which is being sponsored by the Wayne County Health Department, the TB and Health Society, and the Township Health Department, will move to the Farms.

The arrival of the unit in the Farms has been heralded by officials and volunteer workers with meetings formulating plans for extensive coverage of the village.

Mrs. Adam Kiskall, district chairman, called a meeting of her volunteers at the village office Monday. Thirty-seven men and women have expressed willingness to participate in that district in a house-to-house canvass notifying all residents of the forthcoming survey in their neighborhood.

Mrs. Cameron Waterman, III, another district chairman in the Farms, held a similar meeting with her committee Tuesday.

The village office was also the meeting place for Mrs. Herbert Micou and Mrs. M. Wm. Mason, district chairmen, as completing plans for home calls within their territory.

Plans for the survey in the Shores started Tuesday, when Thomas K. Jefferis, Village Superintendent and chairman of the Neighborhood Committee in that area, invited volunteers to attend a meeting.

Woman Driver Hits Scout Car

Attempting to pass on the right hand side, a woman driver side-swapped a Park Police scout car early Sunday morning on Jefferson near Westchester.

The woman driver, Miss Virginia G. Beaupre of Oxford Road, was issued a ticket for the traffic violation by Sgt. Anthony Mead and Officer Gerard Kesteloot who were riding in the patrol car. Their car was slightly damaged.

HE'S SORRY NOW

Woods Police gave first aid to Enoch Snyder, 15 of 1547 Rossignol Road who burned his finger while playing with fire crackers.

Political Foes Gird For Jobs

Monday, March 8 will be Election Day in Grosse Pointe Park, Farms and Woods. Each Village will elect a president and three commissioners. The Farms will also include a clerk, a treasurer, and an assessor.

Park Commissioner Homer G. Fritsch has no opposition for the Park's presidency. James R. Watkins seeks re-election over Jack R. Sutton, former Farms official, for the top village office and Woods President Alois A. Ghesquiere will be opposed by Earl C. Mohan, Woods businessman.

HOT SEAT

However of the three villages, the Farms promised to be the hot seat of the elections as heated controversies have flared between incumbents seeking re-election and the Farms Better Government Association.

In a statement to this newspaper the FBGA indicated that Mr. Watkins and Trustees, Neil S. McEachin, Richard L. Maxon, George L. Schlaepfer, Clerk Harry A. Furton and Treasurer Alonzo J. O'Connor, are guilty of undue table administration.

TREMBLEY TALKS

The statement, released by Gerald Trembley, secretary of the FBGA and which was distributed as a news-letter throughout the village is as follows:

"Here are a few pertinent questions for every citizen: 'How long do the citizens of this Village propose to put up with the 'public be ignored' attitude in our Village government? 'How long must we continue to make suggestions to the Council, and be told without exception that the matter is 'ill advised,' 'un-sound,' 'inappropriate,' or we are 'misinformed?'"

"How long must we put up with periodic Village labor troubles resulting in the necessity of burying our own garbage, carrying it to a Village pit (one resident fell in) and disposing of your own rubbish? 'The manner in which the present administration handles the Village is a disgrace to any community in this country of ours. Let's rid ourselves of these conditions. Let's clean house. Let's do it at the polls on Monday, March 8th, by electing a new Village President, three new Village Trustees, and a new Clerk and Treasurer.'"

ASK QUESTIONS

"Farms residents are fortunate indeed to have as a candidate for president a man of the caliber and experience of Sutton. Although not affiliated with the Association, we strongly urge his support. Sutton has long been a resident of the Farms and is a former Trustee, and former Commissioner of the Police and Fire Department."

WOMAN'S WRATH

Spurned Love Leads To Arrest

Sweet love which turned sour led to the arrest of Dan Czaplacki, of Hamtramck, for leaving the scene of an accident at 15406 E. Jefferson on Sunday, Feb. 1.

Appearing before Judge Don Goodrow, in Grosse Pointe Park court Thursday morning Czaplacki pleaded guilty and was fined $55. His license was revoked for one year.

Riding with Czaplacki at the time he smashed into a car owned by John Varty of the Jefferson address, was Edna Nelson of Detroit, who suffered leg bruises.

According to police, Miss Nelson agreed that she would not say anything of the accident to any one. However when Czaplacki failed to assist in her medical expenses or show any interest in her, the perturbed woman placed a phone call to Park Police.

Her conversation with Police Officer Thomas Vaughan led to her boyfriend's arrest.

Bus Driver, 70, In Accident

A 70-year-old Lakeshore bus driver was innocently involved in a traffic accident at Moss and Ridge Road last Wednesday.

Farms Police said the accident was caused by J. C. Jenkins, 28, of Detroit, who unable to stop due to the icy pavement, smashed into a bus driven by William J. Phelan, of Detroit, who has had 55 years of driving experience.

Phelan, 32, also of Detroit, Jenkins' passenger, was taken to Cottage Hospital with minor injuries.

Police said that they issued a ticket for reckless driving to Jenkins.

ORNAMENT TAKEN

Walter Mayer, 1120 Maryland reported to Park Police last Thursday that someone removed the radiator ornament from his car which was parked in front of his home.

GOP Groups Aim For 'White House'

At a recent meeting between representatives of the Grosse Pointe Womens Republican Club and Republican Voters, Associated, plans were laid to assure close cooperation between the two groups in the important campaigns this year.

In a statement to the REVIEW after this meeting, Richard Duran, Chairman of the Operations Committee of Republican Voters, Associated, said, "The Grosse Pointe Womens Republican Club and ourselves have one common aim in view. We intend to see that every possible Republican vote is cast this November so that a Republican President may steer the country to sanity."

TAFT SPEAKS HERE

The Women's Republican Club heard Senator Robert Taft, candidate for president speak at the home of Mrs. Harley J. Earl, of Touraine Road.

"Republican Voters, Associated, is a new organization; nearly all of our members are young people. We therefore felt that we should get in step with the Womens Club, which for 15 years has been an important factor in Republican activities. The ladies have experience, enthusiasm and know-how—there is much we can learn from them. Working together, we can go through the Pointe with a fine tooth comb for every Republican vote."

The manner in which the present administration handles the Village is a disgrace to any community in this country of ours. Let's rid ourselves of these conditions. Let's clean house. Let's do it at the polls on Monday, March 8th, by electing a new Village President, three new Village Trustees, and a new Clerk and Treasurer."

Village Holds Traffic Court

William Bert Tow, of Detroit, was placed on 60 days probation and fined $5 for reckless driving by Judge Leslie P. Young in Grosse Pointe City Traffic Court last Tuesday evening.

During the evening Judge Young found Avis Worder Sterling, of 1005 Kensington, not guilty. He was charged with reckless driving causing an accident.

Other motorists drawing fines Tuesday included, Robert F. DeSiempiel, of 1261 Buckingham and Harry O. Bowen, of Detroit, both were fined $10 each for failing to stop at stop streets.

"WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW"

PAVEMENT NEEDS REPAIR

A motorist driving on the roads and streets of the five villages cannot help but enjoy the scenic beauty of Grosse Pointe.

In fact the area is so picturesque a driver is distracted from the road ahead and sometimes fails to miss one of many holes in the pavements.

The result maybe a wrecked tire or a broken spring, but it does not enter into one's thoughts while he's waiting for the tow truck he's too enthralled by the beauty of it all.

Besides there's always the possibility that Pointe officials may speed up action to repair the pavement—particularly on Jefferson Avenue.

IT'S RED CROSS TIME

When March 1 arrives, in Grosse Pointe and across the nation the men, women and children of America will rally to the support of this great humanitarian organization...

In 1948, Red Cross seeks, nationally, $75,000,000. Grosse Pointe's and Detroit's quota is $1,660,000 as against the 1947 campaign of $1,334,000.

COMMUNITY NEEDS COUNCIL

We advocate the formation of a Grosse Pointe Council to represent the five communities—with one object in mind—better living in Grosse Pointe.

The council could be made up of people from the Parent-Teachers Associations, from churches, from women's organization from labor groups, from schools, from service groups, from public office, from among businessmen and professional men.

Once or twice a month members could meet to discuss and help solve community problems, such as lakefront pollution, educational facilities, traffic problems, recreation sites and programs, health services, parking meters, street paving, and other issues.

Their suggestions and recommendations then could be offered to each village's council for further consideration and action.

A recession is a period in which you tighten your belt. In a depression you have no belt to tighten, and when you have no pants to hold up, it's a panic.

In the old days, the man who saved money was a miser; nowadays he's a wonder.—Sunshine Magazine.

Feel Bad About the Outcome Of Your Income?—Read This

Consolation for the millions of Americans who are sweating over their income tax was offered by J. Morris Jones, managing editor of the World Book Encyclopedia, who recently returned from England.

According to Jones, the British are at least twice as unhappy about income taxes as we are. They worry twice as much, complain twice as much and shed twice as many tears when they part with the money.

The reason for all this, reveals Jones, is that the British pay twice as much income tax as we do.

An Englishman with two dependents, earning $6,000 a year, must pay a tax of $1,655 a year. The U.S. citizen with the same income and the same number of dependents pays only $804.00.

Officers of the Association include Phillip Moran, 164 Morosa Road, President; and Martin A. Minicky, 489 Touraine, Treasurer.

SUTTON DENIES

In a telephone interview Sutton denied making any statements to the FBGA. He said the reason he left office was that he was too tired after 12 years of public service.

The insurance executive stated that he is seeking public office again only at the request of civic minded friends who feel the village needs a change.

The charges made by the FBGA were branded as ridiculous by Jerome H. Remick, Jr. of Ridge Road, spokesman for a large group of citizens who are supporting the incumbents.

He urged the voters to analyze the implications made by the group and also to compare the Farms service and management with any other community.

"Their questions are to ridiculous to answer," said Mr. Remick.

MORE CANDIDATES

Other candidates up for re-election on March 8 are Park Commissioners Peter J. Koenig and A. John Bloodworth. They will be opposed by Karl B. Goddard, former Park president; J. Willard Carpenter, Edward A. Kelly and F. W. Lindeman.

Seeking re-election to the Woods Council are George W. Gardner and Arthur H. Post. Opposition will be furnished by Arnold L. Diesing, Jeremiah McCarthy, John H. McPherson, Harry C. Pratt, Leon D. Ritchie and Howard B. Wolff.

Commissioner Albert Beaver whose term expires this spring will not seek re-election.

2 Motorists in Freak Accident

Three cars were involved in an unusual hit-run accident in Grosse Pointe Park Saturday evening. A car with John E. McDonald, of Detroit, at the wheel, was being pushed by another auto driven by James J. Goodwin, also of Detroit, when it smashed in a parked car on Trombley road.

Police who apprehended McDonald and Goodwin said they issued tickets to the pair for leaving the scene of an accident.

The parked car which was seriously damaged, is owned by A. C. Richardson, of 961 Trombley Road.

Letter Box

TO THE EDITOR:

Because of your interest in Pioneer House as expressed by your generosity to us last year, we thought you might like to have a brief report of the program made by this project.

We are happy to tell you that the results have been even better than we expected.

The boys themselves, though still far from perfect, have made tremendous strides toward normal behavior. Last year's truancy from school has disappeared. They are attending regularly and exhibiting a real desire to learn. They are beginning to be cooperative and helpful in the house. They are also able to look back on their own past behavior, and feel that they don't want to repeat it. In short, they are healthier in mind and body and much happier in spirit.

The interest and enthusiasm that Pioneer House is creating all over this country and abroad is most gratifying. Our own U. S. Public Health Service under the Department of Mental Hygiene has issued a grant of $18,000.00 a year for three years to Dr. Redi for compiling and publishing the results of this experiment and his other group-work projects. Mr. Kadi Detzer of the "Reader's Digest" staff spent three days with us for the purpose of getting material for a story to be published in that magazine in the near future. We have had social workers from London, England; Bombay, India; Warsaw, Poland; and Canada—just to mention a few. As for this country, they have come, literally, from coast to coast, and we have become a required field-trip for the social work students of several universities.

There is still a long way for these boys to go before they reach the point where the cure is final and the danger of recurrence is past, but their great improvement shows us that we are on the right track and that this method of treatment works.

In addition to the help we are giving the little group of boys living at Pioneer House, we are demonstrating a method which larger institutions may in turn apply, and thereby help great numbers of pre-delinquent children who up to now have been hopelessly drifting toward ultimate confinement in either penal or mental institutions. Our personnel is being trained to that end, and already we have one staff member who has gone to a large child-care organization to carry out our findings there. The purpose of our Junior League project is to show by demonstration, for a limited time, how a need in the community may be met, with the hope that it will be eventually absorbed in the community undertaking.

In conclusion, Pioneer House is making a real contribution toward the curing of one of mankind's greatest ills—delinquency. Through your kindness and generosity this has been made possible, and we wish to extend to you our sincere and heartfelt thanks.

Very sincerely yours, Mrs. James McEvoy, Jr., President, Junior League 15 Kercheval Avenue

TO THE EDITOR:

I can not understand how anyone who rides a bus at 10 A.M. could assume the role of a fair critic of the Lakeshore, D.S.R., or any other line in the area. The gentleman in question, seemed to make a big point of the courtesy extended to him by the Lakeshore drivers. This fact I do not deny. However, I would like to point out that a bus driver is not a robot, as many seem to think, but a human being with the same emotions and reactions as his passengers. Therefore, a driver is only as courteous as those with whom he comes in contact.

I am in full accord with the passenger who criticized the conditions during the "Rush Hours." I would like to know, not when can I get a seat, but when can I get a bus? In this area, we have beautiful parks and schools, new shopping centers and theaters, etc. With all these advancements, we now have little or no transportation. If you leave the Seven Mile-Mack area after 6:45 P.M. you are forced to take the Charlevoix coach to the City limits and wait there 20 minutes for a through coach to take you down town. Do you call that good service? On your return trip you must catch a bus by 11:00 P.M. or be left stranded as far as the Lakeshore line is concerned. Even if you make it out to the Limits a short time later, you are still stranded. Do you call this good service?

Of course you can always take the D.S.R. as suggested, especially late at night. I think most of us think too much of our wives, daughters, and sisters to accept that method as a solution to the problem.

Mack Park Fight Looms

NO POOL

The Park Commission, whose job it is to study village recreation facilities, agrees and disagrees with Burgess.

The Commission advocates that the village keep the Mack Avenue Park Site, selling only the 13 acres which lie in Gratiot Township.

They advise against the erection of a pool in the park as it would cost too much.

Instead, they recommend the installation of a chlorinating machinery system at the Lakefront Park which will offer safe and season long swimming at less than $10 per day. The cost of installing such a system is less than $5,000.

Two other issues will also appear on the ballot.

1—To authorize the sale of $40,000 worth of bonds to finance an addition to the Municipal Building on Mack avenue at Anita.

2—To amend the Charter to provide paying of a salary to the President of $800 a year and to the Commissioners $400, a year, each.

OFFICIALS AGREE

Officials agreed that the municipal building which houses the general office and the police and fire department is inadequate.

Officials also agree that members of the administration should receive some small remuneration for the time and effort required in conducting the village business. No salaries are paid at the present.

If the salary proposal is accepted only candidates being elected in March will be placed on the payroll. It will not include the members of the council whose terms do not expire.

... and there's much more than just a beautiful building

Teen Talk

By SHARON FORD

Greetings all you swell people! Well the weather is getting nicer and just about everyone kinda feels the first little breath of Spring come where around the corner. Why last weekend even the tennis courts were almost dry. (Almost that is!) But with the temperature where it was, the courts weren't too crowded.

Well, every week rain or shine, some social body gives one pip of a party. This week the honors go for the most original to the sophomores. A good old fashioned taffy pulling party. DIANE WUERKER gave this fun at her charming home in Grosse Pointe Woods last Saturday afternoon. She invited some of her fun-loving girl-friends, including Mary Lou Meininger, Deisy Sawash, and Jean Swan. We hear the stuff was all over the house and everything including Jean Morrison, Joan Trefry, Elijan Mattice, Ann Packer. The gals barely got straightened out in time for their Saturday night dates. Sounds like they had a pretty swell time.

On the sharpie list of places you should have been, comes this item from last weekend. We know you all heard that STAN KENTEN, the mad maestro of the progressive jazz, was in town for a cocko CONCERT at the Masonic Temple, and a couple of his progressive fans grabbed at this chance. They say it was really terrific, something you shouldn't have missed. The word comes from those men about Grosse Pointe, Bob Bolo, Jim Lemon, Russ Anderson, Joe Manino, and Chuck Mackris who enjoyed last Friday night's concert.

Something that is too super to overlook even though we are a little late is the winsome VALENTINES TEA given by JULIE HIBBERD at her home at 1207 Buckingham. Her table was adorned with the prettiest of pretty Valentine hearts, lace and fine china. Julie, popular with so many of the gals 'n' boys, invited just about everyone of the social-trotting tea-loving girls. To mention just a few, Bev Crane, Trudy Klemman, Louise Lee, Anne Packer, Bonnie Riets, Kathy Gregg, Margie Walling, Muriel Kitcher, Carolyn Kleth, Sandy Findley, Babe Mann, Bonnie Sonnenman. Why, there were so many, just isn't room to name them.

On the agenda for next week is a huge party. A bridge luncheon at the Detroit Yacht Club, and MARY BAUMEN and JEAN DOWESER are giving the alluring affair. Bet you can't wait to hear all about it.

To finish up this weekend, have to mention a few more little odds and ends. There was a thrilling home basketball game last Friday night and the whole school, (about) turned out to cheer. Of course we can't name all of them. Another means of spare time enjoyment which about every guy 'n' gal took advantage of was the opening of the "WOODS." Saw really everyone there sometime over the weekend. Keep on having those super parties, and be sur to let me know!

Theatres Plan Special Shows For Children

Special children's Saturday matinees, featuring motion pictures of assured merit from the Children's Film Library, are virtually assured for Grosse Pointe under a plan presented to Pointe-area theatres by the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council.

Eight theatres in the Grosse Pointe district are expected to participate immediately, and others may be added in the near future, Mrs. Daniel Hembel, president of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council, said.

"Now that we have persuaded many of the theater managers to hold special children's matinees, we feel that we have won a great battle," said Mrs. Hembel. "For complete success, the plan must have the co-operation of parent-teacher and church groups, and participation by all parents and children in the Grosse Pointes."

The plan was presented to the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council at the February meeting, and Mrs. Hembel urged all members to explain it to the PTA or church groups they represent, asking all parents to interest themselves in it.

Under the new system, the Grosse Pointe theaters will be participating in a city-wide booking arrangement whereby 80 theaters in Greater Detroit, divided into four groups of 20 theaters each, will show Children's Film Library pictures at special children's Saturday matinees.

The Children's Film Library, a nationwide project, selects an ever-growing number of children's favorite films suitable for such showings. Organizations representing religious, educational and parental interests, participate in the selections. But in every case the films must be previewed and approved as good entertainment by groups of unselected public school children between the ages of 8 to 12. Thus, the films in the Library are high in educational value, but at the same time are the "pictures the children love."

"If parents will encourage the screening of these pictures, their children will be enriched in literature, adventure, fantasy and fun," said Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America.

Among the 42 films in the Library today are "Huckleberry Finn," "Anne of Green Gables," "Young Buffalo Bill," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Henry Aldrich," "Unlabeled Pacific" and "Green Pastures."

The eight theaters in the Grosse Pointe area that are expected to participate in the plan from the outset are: Punch and Judy, Esquire, Shores, Aloha, Vogue, Alger, Colony and Uptown.

The children's performance is generally to last for two hours, and the theater is to be cleared at the end of this period. The program will be rounded out with selected short subjects such as cartoon comedies, sports reels, travogues or musical shorts.

Pointe Lites At Silver Tea

Mrs. Kins Collins, 757 Westchester, first vice-president of the YWCA of Detroit, is chairman of the refreshments committee for the February 28 silver tea to which YWCA members and their friends are invited. The tea is to be at the home of Mrs. Allen B. Crow, 135 Chicago Blvd.

Proceeds will help send delegates from the Metropolitan Board of the YWCA to the 12-state Regional Conference of YWCA's scheduled for Milwaukee, March 2-5.

Another Grosse Pointe serving on the committee with Mrs. Collins is Mrs. Edward F. Gehrig, 1230 Balfour Road.

MARK GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

A family gathering on Sunday, Feb. 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John DesRocher, 1212 Maryland honored the couple's golden wedding anniversary.

Woods Thespians Present 2nd Production of Plays

Three one-act plays will be presented by the Woods Players at Grosse Pointe High School Auditorium on Thursday and Saturday, March 4 and 5 at 5:30 p. m.

Since this growing group of Amateur Players is sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Adult Education Program, no admission fee will be charged and no ticket or special invitation is required.

The plays, which are under the direction of M. Haythorn Bambas, and their respective casts are as follows:

VARIETY

"Mrs. Harper's Bazaar," by Beattie Hughes is a satirical character play produced through special arrangements with the Dramatists Play Service, Inc. Anne Apple, Maybelle Bombard, Beatrice Cook, Norma Cheatham, Cardella Diers, Joan Hall, Marjorie Horn, and Wilma Her present various character studies of women who experience divers problems with a movie star, the statue of a mule, several fur pieces, and a stage actress.

"Elizabeth's Young Man" by Louise Seymour Hasbrauck is a quaint, cameo-like farce involving such dramatic irony. The characters are portrayed by Helen and Reginald Howe, by Doris De Witt, and Myrtle Daugherty.

RUMORS FLY

"Rumors Wanted" is a typical small town comedy by Jay Tobias.

Attend YWCA Conference

Mrs. George A. Schemm, 16845 Maumee, president of the Board of YWCA, and Miss Helen D. Beavers, metropolitan executive director, will head a group of 36 local Association volunteer and staff leaders who will leave Monday to attend the YWCA regional conference in Milwaukee, March 2-5.

Mrs. Kins Collins, 757 Westchester Road, and Mrs. Thatcher W. Rea, 1413 Longfellow (6), vice-presidents of the metropolitan board of directors, will also attend the meeting.

At the Milwaukee conference will be representatives of 142 Community and 182 Student Associations of the 12-state Central Region of YWCA. This is one of five regional get-togethers scheduled in the U.S. this spring.

Delegates will discuss needs of the times, and policy to be followed on questions which will come up before the national YWCA convention which is scheduled for 1949 in San Francisco.

Mason Pupils Meet Teacher From Sweden

Miss Anna Lisa Hasselblad, a teacher from Gothenberg, Sweden, was a guest at Mason School recently. She visited the various classes and had a snack with a kindergarten group. She also spoke about life and schools in her native country.

Mason School pupils also heard a lecture "Isn't Nature Wonderful" given by Mr. James Nessle, a student of nature for many years. His showed numerous photographs of birds and flowers.

The Mason School children are busily engaged in activities which will help unfortunate people in other lands. The School Council, a student organization which fosters better citizenship, is leading this project. Representatives from all classes attend the weekly meetings with their reports from their groups. These reports contain ways of stimulating interest and desires to help CARE.

The 3A grade has arranged a bulletin board in the upstairs hall on which pictures are displayed which illustrate needs of children in other lands. The 4B grade made posters which are reminders for children to save for CARE. These posters have been placed in the halls.

This week the council reported a collection of approximately forty dollars and decided to send food packages to schools in Greece, Norway, Poland, and England. The enthusiasm which the council members exhibit indicates cooperation as well as a sincere appreciation of the problems of other children and the desire to help.

Election Planned By AAUW

New officers of the Grosse Pointe-American Association of University Women will be elected at a general business meeting Thursday, March 4 at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Pierre Heffler, 1154 Grayton Road.

Mrs. Hubert Goebel, president, will introduce as guest speaker, Mrs. W. M. Milligan, State Fellowship Chair. Her subject will be "Some Phase of the A.A.U.W. Fellowship Program."

All presidents and fellowship chairmen have been invited to attend. Tea will be served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Heffler, assisted by Mrs. William Klebs, Mrs. John Harding, Mrs. George Horvath, and Mrs. William Wilsiter.

The Craftsman's Guild is offering a total of $65,000 in awards, including eight university scholarships, to the boys who design and build the best model cars this year. Entrants are between the ages of 12 and 20, and are divided into junior and senior divisions.

James and Rudy 11th graders will compete first for the 14 state awards offered in Michigan. Deadline for shipment of models is July 1.

THE University Set CLUB NEWS

By G. PUC.

Travel news is foremost in everyone's mind at this time of the year. Although most of us are forced to stay right here in Grosse Pointe and accept whatever the Weather Man wishes upon us, there are SOME fortunate people who can escape this bleak, dreary weather and seek respite in sunnier climes. Many of the university set are setting out for points south or west. Marilou Carr departed from Detroit with Mexico as her destination. Flying to Miami, Marilou proceeded from there to Mexico for a few months' vacation. She will resume her studies at the University of Detroit when she returns in June.

Mary Pat Millenbach has been attracted by the beautiful Florida sunshine and she will leave with her parents for the southern climate in two weeks.

Elmer DeSimpel hosted a surprise farewell party last Friday night for Gloria Laughna, who left Wednesday for California. Gathering around to wish her a pleasant journey were Jim Barker, Jean Drolahagen, Nobyn D'Haene, Joe Padelt, Pat Ospalek, Jim Dirkes, Joan Roney, Martha Rabaut, Bob Frear, Mary Ann Staudt, and Jack Williamson. Gloria has planned to drive out west, stopping at all the points of interest along the way. She will return sometime in the latter part of May.

Members of the GROSSE POINTE UNIVERSITY CLUB who attend the University of Detroit have worked out a unique system for transportation. Bob Lewis, who is in charge of the "famous" car pool, has just about the busiest phone in town. Bob, however, has done a marvelous job in averting any car shortage. Bob Connelly, Dave Smith, Joan Lynch, Lois Fischer, and Johnny Martin are some of the crowd who remedy this. It's not strange, nevertheless, to see a car leave U. of D.'s campus loaded beyond capacity, even so far as the trunk's carrying passengers. Joe Keane can give voice to this.

Future dentists Al Howe, Paul Sloane, and Jack Tocco were seen Friday night attending the Junior American Dental Association meeting at Wayne University. The Valentine Dance at the Detroit Boat Club provided a gala evening for many. Among the Grosse Pointers enjoying the music were Jim Riehl, Carol Diedrich, Mal Sutherland, Carol Hawksworth, Jack Wettlaufer, Marge Holland, Dick Wing, and Pete Field.

SECOND GRANDSON Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taylor of Providence, Rhode Island, announced the birth of a son, Christopher, on February 12th. Mrs. Taylor is the former Thelma Elworthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Elworthy, 160 Kercheval.

Growers Find Redwood Bark Is Great Aid To Gardens

EDITOR'S NOTE—This article is reprinted here through the courtesy of Collier's because of its special interest to the host of Grosse Pointe residents who have gardens.

If you happened to have been around a million or so years ago, there are a few things living on earth today which you would recognize almost immediately. Among them are the giant redwood trees (Sequoia sempervirens) of California.

The redwoods were among the principal plants of the Dinosaur Age, huge trees against which the big reptiles rubbed their backs, and whose foliage those that weren't meat eaters reached up to nibble. Drought and the glaciers put an end to the dinosaurs, but some of the redwoods lived on. For some unknown reason, these trees survived only on the west slope of the Pacific coastal range, although at the time Columbus came to America, a few still grew in New England. The redwoods are unlike any modern tree. They are gigantic strangers from a lost world, and they possess all the characteristics of the mysterious age which produced them. Their life span is longer than anything else on earth. Some redwoods are 6,000 years old, and many of those now standing were healthy trees at the time of Christ and maybe even Confucius. They contain no pitch. Redwood lumber is water-proof and fire-resistant. Houses built of redwood lumber withstood the San Francisco fire remarkably well. And the redwood bark has properties found in no other bark. It not only withstands heat, cold, water and time, but it actually has an antiseptic quality which keeps insects and fungi away from the tree as well.

All this, of course, was extremely interesting to the scientist and the tourist, but it was a pain in the neck to the lumber companies. The redwood lumber was fine and brought a good price, but the redwood bark, a waste product which had to be stripped off, presented a problem. The bark had no commercial value, and it was almost impossible to get rid of the stuff. It possessed the same indestructibility that caused the redwood to survive for millions of years. When left lying around, it didn't decompose like other self-respecting barks. It wouldn't burn. Termites wouldn't eat it. So for 85 years, the redwood bark just piled up.

Then, in 1940, a few smart lumbermen began to look around. They noticed that wherever the waste redwood bark had piled up on the forest floor, it soon was covered with a dense growth of new scrub. Whenever a redwood log was left lying in the woods, fresh vegetation sprouted from the bark. Obviously, there was something in the redwood bark which promoted the growth of young plants.

These lumbermen ground up the redwood bark, mixed it with different types of soil and began to experiment. They discovered some interesting things, especially the fact that any plant will grow in redwood bark mixed with any kind of soil. They took hard, baked, alkaline adobe earth from the California desert, a clay in which not even cactus could grow. They added the ground redwood bark. Then they planted seeds. A few months later, delicate Astromeria plants were growing beautifully and healthily in the adobe. The lumbermen - experimenters immediately formed a company in Santa Cruz, California, bought up the waste piles of redwood bark for almost nothing, and put the product on the market for agricultural use.

According to the U.S. Bureau of Soils, practically all soils contain sufficient plant foods for good crop production. It is the texture of the soil, rather than its chemical composition, which counts. The indestructible redwood almost permanently gives any soil the loose, fluffy, spongy texture which holds water and air in the proper proportions, and allows the microbes to perform their all-important work on the plant roots. It does not decompose rapidly and become a part of the soil, like manure and leaf mold (earlier soil "conditioners"). It does not sink in wet weather the way sand, another loosening agent, does. And it does not itself absorb the water, which was the principal complaint against peat moss. Redwood bark, after two years in the soil, is as sprightly as it was on its 2,000th birthday, except for giving off a slightly acid reaction. This neutralizes the excess of alkalinity generally present in bad soils.

No sooner did the redwood bark get on the market than encouraging reports came in from all over the country.

Frank Reinelt, a well-known horticulturist from Capitola, California, was trying to raise begonia seeds for the Los Angeles and San Francisco markets. Capitola is in that section of California which experiences heavy dews. In fact, the dews were so heavy that they nearly washed away his greenhouses several times, and each year they destroyed as much as 60 per cent of his begonia seedlings.

It wasn't so much the moisture that proved fatal to the sensitive little plants as a certain fungus which thrives on dampness in the soil. This fungus attacks the tiny seedlings when they are young and very weak and literally smothers them to death. Ordinarily nothing can be done about it. But Reinelt had heard about the redwood bark, and he got an idea. He mixed 80 per cent leaf mold and 20 per cent redwood bark into the seed beds. Then he lightly spread more redwood bark on the surface. This was in January, 1942. That spring, Reinelt got the finest crop of begonias ever seen in that part of California. In fact, he got 100 per cent germination. Not a single seedling was attacked by the fungus, just as, for 1,000,000 years, not a single redwood tree had been attacked.

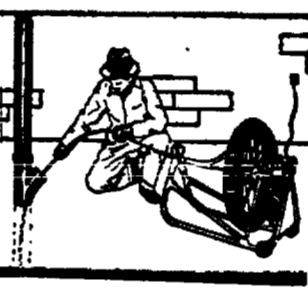

After the Reinelt discovery, other reports poured in. A rose grower in Pennsylvania was losing all his roses one summer because of the unusual heat. He spread a one-inch thickness of redwood bark over the soil in one bench of greenhouse roses. The redwood bark acted as an effective insulation against the heat. Not only that, but the redwood-treated rose stems were two inches longer than any he had produced before and they were completely free of "black spot," a rose disease caused by high day time temperatures followed by cool evenings and nights. Another grower in Minnesota had the same experience in reverse. "The only thing that saved my bulbs from the excessive cold of last winter," he wrote, "was the unusual and unexpected insulating quality which I discovered in redwood bark."

An amateur gardener in Lakewood, Ohio, found that redwood bark in the soil completely eliminated the moss coating that had been ruining his chrysanthemum beds. A nurseryman in Fredericksburg, Virginia, wrote, "Without the redwood bark, I could not have saved my pompons through this hot President Burnett said that the local Rotary Club was organized weather with only one shower in 80 days."

A nationally known horticulturist in Santa Barbara, California, discovered that you can grow practically anything in a flowerpot merely by placing a little redwood bark in the bottom of the pot. One of the country's best-known orchid experts, E. O. Orpet, went on record shortly thereafter informing all the horticulturists of America that he had had amazing results with redwood fiber. "Orchids," he wrote on July 3, 1943, "generally are watered to death. It is impossible to overwater orchids growing in redwood fiber. Furthermore, there is no decay."

With redwood bark, housewives are now raising corsage orchids for themselves in flowerpots at home.

Michigan Consolidated Gas

thanks

Detroit Industry

The industrial plants of Detroit deserve the gratitude of everyone for their complete cooperation during the critical gas shortage. Industry recognized the necessity of keeping homes supplied with gas.

Rather than jeopardize the health and comfort of half a million families, plant after plant shut down to save gas. There was no hesitation.

Three great Detroit firms made contributions of unusual generosity. Great Lakes Steel Corporation and Chevrolet Motor Division of General Motors Corporation dipped into their oil reserve to furnish us with hundreds of thousands of gallons, as the oil stocks for our manufacturing plants were rapidly decreasing. Ford Motor Company, from its own plant, pumped into our lines millions of cubic feet of much needed gas.

We publicly express our thanks to our valued customers, the industries, and their employees, who helped protect Detroit's homes from the hardships suffered recently by many in less fortunate cities. You gave us magnificent cooperation.

Gratefully,

Blue Devils Gird For State Title

By ROB PHILIPS

Champions of the Border Cities League for the second straight year, the Grosse Pointe High School Swimming team is now eyeing for the State championship. The meet will be held at Ann Arbor on Saturday, March 6.

Coach Frank Banach's boys won the Border Cities' title last Tuesday when they extended their victory streak to 30 at the expense of Royal Oak. It marked the last meet of the regular season.

Coach Banach is counting on Bob Jenks, breast-stroker, who has been undefeated this season; and Walt Flanders, fancy diver, to more than hold their own in the state competition.

Other formidable contenders for state honors include Jerry Nay, Bud Lang breast-strokers; Chuck Machris, free-stylist. The speed relay team composed of Ted Munford, Chuck Machris, Burt Spurrier and Rich O'Connell, although defeated for the first time this year early last week, is expected to be a threat to other teams.

Campus Rivals Battle In G. P. Rotary League

Farms Market, sporting a 5-3 season point advantage over Monday Cleaners, their next door neighbor on Fisher Road, met in their final round last Friday night, at the Woods Rec. Monday set the Farmers back on their heels in the first two games, but Capt. Ed Taube, Farms' anchor, came back in the third game with a fancy 258, in 591, to save his team from a shutout. Gene and Bill Mertz, again sparking the drive for the Cleaners with 550 and 572 apiece. Charlie Castle clipped 225 in the opening stanza, to also help the Monday cause. These two teams are now deadlocked for the season and we suggest a roll-off to decide the "champs."

Houston Bros. Inc., their lead dwindling, resperately fought off Piche Barbers, to win 3-1. Forrest Piches' 212, averting a shutout for the Barbers. Irv Schoof, Houston anchor, came up with 570. Holzbaugh Motors climbed back into contention when they blanked the G.P. Review, 4-0. With heavy pins bothering the boys, scorers were held down, although Peplinski for the Printers Co., defeated the Motor City Tires, 4-0, to gain one important point on Houston, who now hold a two point advantage in the win column. The young, up and coming Dick Palmer, his first year in league competition, came thru with another 200 series to help the six-wheelers. Bruce Allor led the tire boys with 214.

Martin Outboard Motors caught the Punch and Judy Cocktail Lounge boys in a slump and pushed over a 3-1 victory to hold their third place position. Capt. Geo. Loersch and Russ Wilton came through for Martin with a couple of 200 games.

Wolverine Pot. Chips, dropped the opener to Harrison Carpets but came on to take the next two and 5 total pins, to defeat Harrison 3-1. Carl Thompson, league treasure, quintet last Friday evening to remain in third place in the Border Cities League.

It marked the second victory within a week for the local team. Last Tuesday at Hazel Park they beat the Parkers 55 to 33 in a non-league contest.

In the Monroe game, Grosse Pointe scored five points in the first minutes of play, Vince Schoek, "Spike" Quirk and Bayard Johnson netting the points. Led by this threesome, the local team ended the first period leading 20 to 8.

Throughout the second quarter, the Blue Devils continued to play heads up ball with every man doing his job. The half ended with Grosse Pointe still in the lead 29 to 16.

The third quarter was marked with the changing quickly and often from one end of the court to the other. The period ended 37 to 25.

In the final period the Pointers lost one point of their lead to the eager but struggling Monroe team.

Tony Pitock, speedy Trojan guard poured on the steam this quarter to come from behind to capture top scoring honors with sixteen points. A rally in the closing minutes fell short of tying the score. Vince Schoek grabbed high scoring honors to lead the local aggregation with eleven points.

The Grosse Pointe reserve team again defeated the Monroe "B" squad 39-38 earlier that evening.

Bob Hafer, acting captain of the Reserves turned in sixteen points for the evening.

The Blue Devils will travel to Wyandotte next Friday evening for their next scheduled contest.

Flyers End Cage Season In 7th Place

By JOHN SUTTON

After breaking even in two games last week, the St. Paul Flyers will meet St. Francis De Sales in a non-league game on Friday, February 27, on the St. Paul court.

The Flyers avenged an early season defeat by whipping D. U. S. 25 to 16 in a non-league contest on Tuesday, February 17, at the latter's home floor, but on Saturday, February 21, St. Paul went down 34 to 26 to the St. Martin Cadets at Grosse Pointe High in the last game of their 1948 league schedule.

The defeat left the Pointers in 7th place in the Parochial League's nine team East Side Second Division, with a record of 3 victories and 9 defeats in league competition. St. Bernard and St. Philip, both of whom the Flyers defeated, finished behind the local cagers. The high scoring Annunciation Cougars captured the East Side Championship by defeating St. Charles.

In League competition the Flyers Reserves finished with a record of 6 wins and 6 defeats. To date they have a seasons record of 7 victories and 8 defeats.

St. Paul, DUS to Continue Sports Series

By BILL HAMILTON

The long sport rivalry between St. Paul and D.U.S., has never shown signs of waning as the two teams meet every year in the three major sports: football, basketball, and baseball. St. Paul has always managed to jump from their league competition to battle D.U.S. with both teams having a grim competitive spirit.

Last year the two teams were unable to work football in their schedules but met in two practice games.

Last week they completed their second cage tilt breaking even, D.U.S. winning the first 23-22, and losing the second 25-16. The two teams are scheduled to meet this season in baseball as in previous years.

This rivalry, which may even be called a tradition, we hope will never die, for it has shown the highest degree of sportsmanship and friendship.

Friday, Feb. 27, D.U.S. brings their regular season to a close with New Baltimore after winning 6 and losing 7. Starting March 5, they enter the annual state tournament at Ferndale.

St. Ambrose "5" Avenges Defeat

By YVONNE VANDENHEEDE

Much to the regret of St. Ambrose students, the Cavaliers brought their basketball season to a close last week with a victory over St. Rose, 55-33. St. Rose had defeated them earlier in the season.

The previous Friday St. Ambrose won over St. Bernard at St. Ambrose gym, 38-30; and the Tuesday before that, defeated St. Philip by a record score of 109 to 17.

It was disheartening to all students to realize that this St. Rose game was their last this year. It has been a good season, the Cavaliers losing only three of the fifteen games played.

St. Ambrose Students Plan Senior Prom

Proof of the coming of spring and the gradual approach of graduation time are the plans the Ambrosian Seniors are making for their prom.

Plan include the Lochmoor Club which will be the scene of the festivities taking place on Monday, March 29th. The orchestra is yet to be decided upon.

CONFESS STOLEN CAR VENTURE

Four Grosse Pointe youths 18 years of age, confessed to Farms Police to stealing a car of paint, an automobile and to wrecking the front entrance of a private home.

The paint was used to paint the car stolen from Mr. Charles Palmis, 78 Lakeshore Road, on April 12. A few days later the boys abandoned the car after it struck the front porch at the home of C. F. MacMahon, 252 Merriweather.

Their confession marked the end of a six-month investigation by Farms Police.

Final disposition of the matter is in the hands of the Juvenile Court.

Plan May Cost 3 Million

Grosse Pointe officials attended a meeting in Detroit last week at which motor city officials explained plans for a new sewage development at Fox Creek which may cost local communities 3 million dollars.

The plan, which is a result of an extensive study by engineers employed by Detroit to eliminate the sewage problem and curb pollution.

The engineers offered two proposals: 1 - A 6 million dollar project enlarging Fox Creek sewage facilities.

2 - An 8 million dollar project erecting vast underground sewerage. Currently Grosse Pointe Park City and Farms use the Fox Creek at the foot of Alter Road for disposal of a high percentage of the sewage waste and storm overflow.

Fontbonne Auxiliary Plans 10,000 Members

The committee will discuss ways and means of securing 10,000 members for the auxiliary whose purpose is to assist the Sisters of St. Joseph in running the Hospital.
