LIFT BAN AT WOODS BEACH

Services Held For Local Youths Killed by Train

Term Area Free From Pollution

The Grosse Pointe Woods Lakefront Park beach is open for swimming. Dr. T. S. Davies, Township Health Commissioner, lifted the ban Friday after numerous tests disclosed the water was free from pollution. According to Woods officials it marks the first time in the history of the village that residents were privileged to enjoy the bathing facilities of their own park.

Prior to the purchase of the Lakefront Park in the fall of 1946 from the Ford Estate, village officials had an agreement with Grosse Pointe Shores which allowed Woods residents to use the Shores beach. Pollution in the area, caused by Milk River flow, prevented swimming at the beach before last Friday.

While other Pointes were able to enjoy their respective beaches this summer, Woods residents were again forced to others shores for their bathing. Mr. Phillip Allard, Woods clerk, said that work on the new chlorination system being installed at the beach will continue. When this project is completed it will assure season-long swimming at the beach.

Mr. Allard added that guards are on duty and that the beach will be open daily and Sunday, pending continued favorable reports. The removal of the ban falls in line with a general recreation program engineered by village officials.

New swings, slides and other facilities have been added to the Lakefront Park and the village's other park at Mack and Kenmore. According to officials the Woods will soon have the more complete recreation program and facilities for its residents than any other municipality in Grosse Pointe.

Council Keeps "Hands Off" Group Control

The Park Council waived a recommendation by village manager Everett B. Lane, to form an ordinance controlling group meetings and use of public address systems. Lane's motion was influenced by the Progressive Party meeting held last Sunday at 1411 Bedford which according to Lane caused considerable disturbance in the village.

However the council ruled to keep hands off such an issue, so closely related to "civil rights," until the Supreme Court establishes a sound ruling on the matter. At the present time, three cases which deal with public groups are awaiting final hearing in the high court.

Still Time To Enter Contest

With August 26 the deadline for the Grosse Pointe Photographic Contest, contestants have only two more weeks left to submit their entries in the three groups: Senior, Intermediate, and Junior, which will be judged by officials of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club and professional photographers associated with the Review.

All entries must be submitted to the Photo Contest, Grosse Pointe Review, 15121 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe 30, and the pictures must be taken by the contestants, but may be developed and printed by outside sources. Sponsored by the Review, the Contest will have the Senior grade, the Intermediate for 17 and under, and the Junior for 13 and under. Subject matter must be of some activity within Grosse Pointe, and size limitations are 5"x7" for the smallest prints and not to exceed 11"x14".

Plus valuable prizes, each winner of the three groups will receive a personality portrait at the S. C. Burr Studios in Grosse Pointe Woods.

WOODS NOW HAS ITS OWN BATHING BEAUTIES

Lovely Crystall and Nancy Gregory, of Hawthorne road were among the first to enjoy swimming at the Woods Lakefront Park beach last Friday, shortly after the ban was lifted. The day marked the first time in the history of the village that residents were able to swim at their own village beach. The pretty sisters enjoyed the water so much—the photographer S. C. Burr claimed he had a difficult time persuading the girls to come out for this photo. See additional picture on Woods recreation activities on inside page.

Accept Bids For Village Improvements

All-State Landscape, of Detroit, was awarded the contract to trim 176 village trees by the Park Council Monday. The company's bid of $2,100 was low among three offers received. Greater Detroit Landscape, a local firm, which has been doing the work for a number of years bid $4,268. The council also accepted a low bid of $21,266 from the Cadillac Asphalt Company for 68,000 square feet of street seal coating. The company will do the work on the various village streets.

Park Manager Lane informed the council that he recommended that the smaller residential roads be improved at this time rather than Vernor Highway or Cadieux. Plans to improve the latter roads will be completed in accord with additional budget appropriations. The meeting saw the council enter into a one-year agreement with Central Service Co. distributor of Sinclair oil. Central will supply the village's need for motor fuel at 15.4 cents a gallon. Park used 41,400 gallons last year.

BREAK FOR OFFICE GIRLS

"No Saturday Banking" Hits Right Note With Pointers

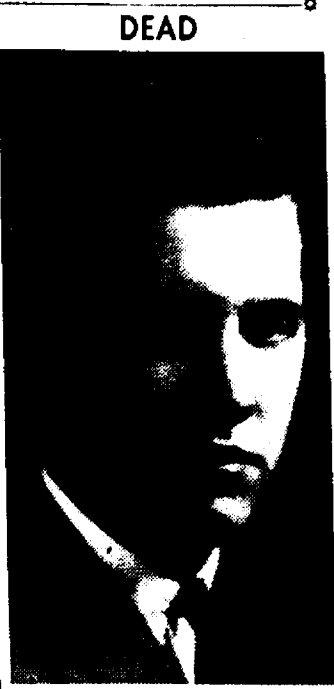

Grosse Pointe bank's discontinuance of Saturday banking for a new schedule, which includes long hours on Friday finds a favorable response in a cross section poll taken by the Review. "It's just wonderful" was the reply of Miss Agatha Richardson, manager of the Grosse Pointe Cab Co., when asked for her opinion. "It's ideal for office workers who won't have to bother with their own banking now."

"Every time I get ready to go to the bank, it would always be closed, it seems, and I never did get there before on time," reported Mrs. Seyvyn Bliss, of 884 St. Clair, wife of Fireman Bliss of the Grosse Pointe City Fire Department. Another housewife who has this opinion is Mrs. Sam Spire of 1127 Yorkshire. Mr. and Mrs. Spire consider it far more convenient for the younger folk, she said, who go away on week-ends. The Spires believe that the new hours on Friday will allow folks to accomplish much more than otherwise.

Shores Superintendent Tom Jeffries, of 801 Lakeshore Rd., also expressed himself in favor of the new schedule, as did Mrs. Joseph V. Carle, housewife, of 1470 Hollywood. The only unfavorable report came from William Stuart, 761 Fisher, who is manager of the Grosse Pointe Drug Store. Mr. Stuart objected because of the business angle. With no banking service on Saturday, merchants will find it rather difficult to obtain money change whenever they run short. The new schedule becomes effective August 16. On Monday through Thursday, the bank will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 3 p. m. The short Wednesday period adopted last year will be discontinued and Friday banking hours will be extended to 6 p. m. Officials of the bank feel that the new schedule will be especially helpful to those who are unable to transact their banking business at other hours during the week. Saturday closing has become increasingly apparent in recent years and many banks, particularly those in the large metropolitan areas, have already adopted this plan according to local officials.

JAILED BIRD'S HAVEN "You have a nice jail," was the comment of officials from the Department of Correction, Lansing, who inspected the Park jail recently.

Boyhood Pals Die In Crash

Three young men who were friends and companions in Grosse Pointe since boyhood were buried this week. They were Francis M. Slater, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Slater, of 1347 Audubon; Daniel Leithauser, 21, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Leithauser, of 847 Whittier; and Robert Peipper, 24, son of Mrs. George J. Peipper, of St. Petersburg, Florida. The youths were killed when their car crashed into the middle of a Canadian National Railway passenger train near Kincardine, Ont., 150 miles north of Detroit. Also killed was Norma Ferguson, 21, of Sarnia, Ontario, a friend of the Slater family.

The group was enroute to Barrow Bay, Ont., to visit another boyhood pal, Jack Porter, who was vacationing with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Porter, of 966 Lincoln road.

A close relative reported that hills and a poorly marked railroad crossing made the intersection a very dangerous one. He added that residents told him there had been several previous accidents there including three fatal ones in 1947. The spokesman said that according to time involved since leaving Grosse Pointe they were traveling at a normal rate of speed.

He said that Ontario Provincial Police were unable to determine who was driving as the occupants were thrown from the car and there was no way to know in what positions they had been riding. The auto belonged to young Slater. Francis and Robert were graduated from Grosse Pointe High School. Daniel was an alumnus of Cranbrook.

Besides his parents, Francis is survived by his wife, Patricia, two brothers, Lynn and Ford, and three sisters, Betty, Mrs. Lucille Graham, and Mrs. Martha Randle. Services were conducted at Verheyden Funeral Home.

Surviving Daniel are his parents, a brother, Thomas, and a sister, Mrs. Leo Sanocki. Rites were held Tuesday at Hamilton Funeral Home in Detroit.

Robert, whose family recently moved to Florida, is survived by his mother, Mrs. Gladys Peipper, two brothers, Russell A. and George Jr., and one sister, Mrs. Harold Hickson, all of St. Petersburg, Florida. Funeral services were held Tuesday at Fred G. Marshall & Sons Funeral Home in Detroit.

Large Gifts Swell Fund for Library

A $5,000 gift from Mr. and Mrs. George Fink and another $1,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Hooker brought the local War Memorial Library Fund closer to its goal this week as the campaign eyes the fall prospects for further additions to the total of over half a million dollars. Additional impetus was given to the drive this week as the ladies auxiliary of the Gen. R. A. and F. M. Alger Post No. 995, VFW turned in a sum of $200 from their group through President, Mrs. Dorothy Frick.

Conceived by Navy veteran Edward Marcus, Jr., of Oxford road, the model was first exhibited publicly at the executive meeting of the War Memorial Library Fund on Tuesday night, August 3 at the Neighborhood Club. And, it was voted at the meeting to have a committee, with John R. Barnes, Supt. of Schools as head, plan to place the model on exhibit throughout focal points in this community.

Headquarters of the War Memorial Library Fund were moved to a permanent station in the offices of the Board of Education this week at 389 St. Clair. Persons wishing to contact the office may call NI. 2000.

SEEKS HONORS

Frankie Foguth, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foguth of 2008 Lennon road, a gifted drummer, will be among the talented local boys and girls auditioning for places on the WJR-Review street dance, stage show and radio broadcast on September 8 at the Neighborhood Club. Auditions will be held at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo on Friday, August 13 and August 20 at 7:30 p. m. All contestants are asked to bring their own music.

Shores Superintendent Tom Jeffries, of 801 Lakeshore Rd., also

Builder Digs Up New Task For Council

Mr. Howard Grant, of 16829 Cranford Lane, building a new home on his property at Cadieux between St. Paul and Maumee has dug up a problem that has stumped the builders, the village engineer, the village manager and even the village council.

Mr. Grant cannot locate his main sewer connection.

According to Park zoning maps a link connecting the property to a main sewer should be there. But come maps, shovels and several extra trenches it could not be found.

Manager Lane and Engineer Heger have dug into the problem and come up with one answer. The sewer just isn't there. Someone slipped up on the job.

A special committee will decide who's to blame and who's to pay for the installations of the proper sewage facilities.

Final Rites Held For Girl Suicide

Final rites were held Monday for Patricia Ann Coffey, 17, of 853 Beaconsfield road from Marshall Funeral Parlor on E. Jefferson. She took her life Thursday night, August 5, with a gun shot. Park police reported that Patricia Ann, a senior at Grosse Pointe High School died a short time after police rushed her to Bon Secours Hospital.

A fear that she may have been afflicted with cancer was believed to be responsible for her action. Mr. Coffey said she underwent a major operation in 1947.

Park Police said she used a .45 army revolver which was issued to Mr. Coffey during World War I. The girl was described as friendly and easy to get along with at school by class mates. Mr. Coffey remarked that she had been cheerful until after dinner Thursday when she went up to her room. A few minutes later they heard the shot.

Besides her parents, she is survived by a sister Barbara and a brother Graham, who is a corporal in the Army Air Forces. Her death marks the third local youngster to have committed suicide in less than a year.

Last month Thomas A. Hedges, 21, took his life by hanging himself in the garage of his home at 323 Rivard Blvd.

Early in April, Dudley Christensen, 19, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Christensen, of Middlesex, killed himself with a shot gun.

Alert Driver Averts Blast

An alert and cool-headed Highland Park Oil Co. truck driver averted a serious explosion and fire last week at the Mohan Gas Service, 20805 Mack, near the Woods municipal building.

Mike Tuohy, of Detroit, filling the huge tanks at the service station from his truck which contained hundreds of gallons of fuel tanked the hose was on fire.

Without wasting any time, Tuohy disconnected the hose and then drove the truck away. Meanwhile Earl C. Mohan, proprietor, called the fire department.

Harry Duross, assistant fire chief of the village, complimented Tuohy for his action.

"His quick thinking prevented a serious mishap," said Duross. He said that the fire was started by friction in the flow of the fuel.

STILL AT IT

Elmer Clinton, junior at the Grosse Pointe City municipal building reported to police that two boys threw stones through an office window. He said that the boys were about 12 years old.

NO SEWER PARAGRAPHS

It may appear amusing to you, but Mary Ann Butler, of Beaconsfield road, sees nothing funny in her case of "mumps". She contracted the disease while supervising children's play at the Neighborhood Club, forcing her to cancel a plane trip to Cuba.

Local Kiwanis have taken an interest in the Review-WJR "Neighborhood Frolic" at the Neighborhood Club on September 8. The members will distribute posters announcing the gala event.

Discussing the "You Must Be 21" problem, Pete Moore recounted an experience to a few of his guests.

Three young ladies walked in, ordered a drink," began Moore, "before I served them I asked for their identifications."

Two revealed their birth certificates which proved they were age. In fact they were twins of Moore," celebrating their 21st birthdays.

The one sitting between them was rather hesitant about showing identification and I had to ask a second time. "Imagine how I felt," retorted Moore, "when it turned out that was the mother of the twins."

The Hawaiian hospitality was extended to Midshipman Dick Flanagan, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Flanagan, 176 Trombley road when he visited the Hawaiian Islands recently aboard the aircraft carrier USS Hancock.

Nettie bands and hula girls greeted the ship with colorful aloha's and entertainment in the form of parties, dances and tours of the islands were conducted to provide a welcome for Dick and his mates.

The voyage was part of a two-month Naval Reserve Officers training Cruise.

Healthy and anxious to get away this summer vacation, Mr. Harry Phillips, of Lincoln road was somewhat setback when he noticed a item in a local publication which referred to him as the late Harry Phillip. "There must be some mistake," decided Mr. Phillips, who is president of the GPHS Dads' Club.

Beautiful Grosse Pointe Memorial church and other scenic and additional buildings appear in the Metropolitan Club's 8th Annual Yearbook as portrayed by gifted photographer Paul Gach. The Metropolitan Club will hold field day program for local youth at Grosse Pointe High School August 28. During that evening dance for adults will be held at the Club Eagle, Gratiot at 8 Mile.

A Father's Day Window Display in Kopp's Drugs Store, arranged by Mrs. Fred Kopp in her husband's drug store on Kercheval, brought her $50 second prize money in a nation-wide contest.

Report $1500 Jewel Missing

A clip, valued at $1,500, was reported lost or stolen by Mrs. James L. Wierdsma, of New York St. to Farms Police early Tuesday.

According to the police, Mrs. Wierdsma reported that the clip contained 100 small diamonds. She said that it must have been lost when she was visiting friends on Provincial road on July 10.

Police said the jewel was insured.

To Study Outlines of Radio Systems

City and police chiefs of Grosse Pointe are being mailed outlines of the two radio systems being considered for Grosse Pointe. The outlines are pointing out the advantages and disadvantages of each system.

Frank M. Hartz, of the Detroit Police Dept. who has made a thorough study of police radio, prepared the outlines. A meeting will be announced shortly.

WOODS FACES FIRE TRAGEDY

On April 15 the Grosse Pointe Review in an editorial stressed the need for additional fire protection in Grosse Pointe Woods. It advocated:

- That the present joint operation of police and fire departments be abandoned.
That at least two fully trained firemen be added to full time staff immediately.
That action be taken to replace the volunteer crew with full time completely trained men.

That a non-partisan group be named to study the village's needs for adequate equipment and full-time personnel. That the body be instructed to obtain the advice of local and state fire marshalls and make all necessary studies to return a comprehensive and conclusive report to the village commission.

The residents were aroused and the officials promised action. The Fire Commission was instructed to make a closer study and present a full report to the council within 30 days.

That was in April and according to the Woods municipal office the findings of that report have not as yet been disclosed.

Meanwhile the 8,000 residents who live in the 2,000 or more village dwellings must depend on one fire engine and a volunteer crew for protection against fire.

No one can deny that the menace of fire is always present. State officials revealed that fire losses in Michigan reached an all-time high of $25,231,852, in 1947.

Fire-fighting authorities tell us that the first five minutes are the most important in the control of a fire, once it has begun.

It is true that Woods officials are aware of the need for increased protection but apparently they are in no rush about providing it.

They have purchased some hose, a few ladders, and other minor equipment but the fact still remains that the present system is not adequate to fulfill its tremendous responsibilities.

We wonder what would happen if two serious fires occur simultaneously in the village. To who's house would the engine go first? Mr. Smith's on Anita or Mr. Jones on Torrey.

It is true that neighboring departments have agreed to aid the village whenever needed, but is this sound administration and ample protection to depend on a neighbor to assume your responsibilities? Remember their duties come first.

Today's procrastination may effect tomorrow's tragedy.

AN ITEM IN THE NEWS

A short time ago an item appeared in the Review which, while it didn't make banner heads, is an example of the kind of arduous progress that serves us all.

Last year, the item said, the death rate from tuberculosis dropped to a new low throughout the nation. For the first time in our history, the number of fatalities from this cause was under 50,000.

That wasn't the result of chance. It was, instead, the result of decades of hard and often unrewarding work by doctors and other scientists. A long list of factors had a part in the achievement—better preventive medicine, infinitely improved treatment for the afflicted, a generally higher standard of living, and so on.

We in the United States are leading long, healthier lives. Diseases which were almost sure killers not so many years ago now offer little danger. A system of voluntary prepaid medical care has been built up which brings the cost of treatment and hospitalization within the easy reach of the majority of people. These are achievements of free medicine which must not be forgotten.

Act To Rid Village Of City Dump

Frederick Reinstine, of 971 Lake Shore drive, is planning to take action to rid the area of the contaminated condition present at Alger road near the County line.

According to reports the property in question hovers on the borderline of St. Clair Shores and Grosse Pointe Woods. It is used by Detroit as a city dump.

Mr. Reinstine and Dr. T. S. Davies who conducted a survey of the area believe that a small part of the land is in the Woods and that village officials should study the issue towards preventing the continuance of this practice.

The place is a collection of filth and flies and is a menace to public health according to Dr. Davies.

Johnstone and Johnstone, realtors are reported to be the owners of the property.

Seeks To Oust Youngblood

Boniface Maile, past State Commander of the Disabled American Veterans, will head a committee of war veterans backing the Republican Congressional candidacy of Arthur J. Madar in the 14th District.

The drive is the first concerted effort to mobilize veteran votes since the Raymond J. Kelly candidacy for governor two years ago and the 1947 campaign of Mayor Van Antwerp.

Madar is seeking to dislodge Rep. Harold Youngblood.

Associated with Maile are Andrew Irvine, Jr., Martin Teasdale, Sr., Irving Reif, William Vermeylen, J. Carroll Kay, Carl Z. Millen, Michael A. Whalen, William Allen and William O'Meara.

All are acting in private capacities, but all are affiliated with service groups.

Madar, 43, is a former state commander of AMVETS, and resides at 9166 Yorkshire, Detroit. He has been active in the administration of the Veterans Trust Fund and in a wide range of civic and community projects.

He is vice president of the Michigan Veterans Republican Club, vice president of the East Side Republican Club, is a member of the Detroit Area Rent Control Board, and has been active in state wide veterans affairs.

To Be Represented At Baha'i School

Youths from seven states will attend the Senior Youth Session of the Baha'i School near Davison, Michigan. Students ranging in age from 15 to 20 will attend sessions in Comparative Religion, Personal Life and Understanding, and the Baha'i Teachings for a new world.

Teachers at this session will include Michael Jamir from Philadelphia, a student at Michigan State College who saw service in the Philippines and Japan, Paul Becker of Chicago, and Firuz Kazemzadeh of Iran, who has also spent part of his life in Russia and France.

Col. Bolwer Training At Fort Bliss

FORT BLISS, Texas—Col. Webster L. Bolwer, of 414 Belanger street, is attending a two-weeks course for National Guard and Reserve Corps officers at the Artillery and Guided Missile Branch of the Artillery School at Fort Bliss.

The course is designed to indoctrinate the student-officers with the latest plans and developments of the Army Field Forces in guided missiles. Col. Bolwer served on active duty from 1940 until 1946. He is commanding officer of the 1st Provisional GM Battalion, with headquarters at Detroit.

FIND MOTOR Woods Police said that they recovered a 16-horse outdoor motor at 2016 Lochmoor. It is owned by Floyd Redyes.

LOW MAN ON THE TOTEM POLE

JUST COMMENT

Judging by recent developments the only thing one-way disturbing Whittier residents is the thinking of that beligerant gentleman.

The boys break the windows and the parents get the pain paying for pane.

With the Woods' beach finally open for swimming, village businessmen will now get their share of cheesecake.

If residents in the Cadieux-St. Paul area hear strange sounds. They needn't be alarmed. It will most likely be Park officials looking for that sewer.

Scouts Seek Disabled Vet For Good Post

A splendid employment opportunity as Manager of the Boy Scout Trading Post at 51 West Warren is open to some pleasant appearing young man (preferably an ex-GI) according to Amos R. Shields, Local Scout Council Executive. The position of Trading Post Manager is a full-time career," said Mr. Shields, "and would be quite suitable for some ex-servicemen, who because of physical disability, has not found his place in business, commerce, or industry." The job qualifications call for cheerfulness, patience, and a real desire to be of service to others. The applicant must be physically able to do simple clerical duties, including phoning, writing, or typing.

The position of Trading Post Manager offers helpful training in purchasing, record-keeping, merchandise display, and salesmanship. More valuable experience would be in the field of human relations, as thousands of Scouts, Leaders, parents, and friends visit the Trading Post annually. In reality, the post is a "service station" to the many volunteers in need of official badges, and such restricted supplies, not attainable at regular Boy Scout outfitters.

Should you know of a handicapped man capable of dealing with the public, you may do him a real favor by calling this full-time employment opportunity to his attention. Appointments should be made by phoning Mr. Shields at the Scout Office (A Red Feather Agency of the Community Chest), Temple 1-1600 at any time of the day.

Park Hearing Set For Monday

Park council will conduct a public hearing in the village's municipal building Monday at 5:30 p.m. to act on a proposed amendment affecting village physicians and dentists.

The proposal will permit the establishment of new residential offices only in homes located on Mack. It will also curb medical practice to not more than one third of the private home area.

Medical men who have established offices in the village will not be affected by proposal.

Park Pays $19,000 For Sewage Work

Payment of $19,000 to A. Rossi, contractor, for completion of sewage construction in the village, was approved by the Park council Monday.

A balance of $470 was withheld pending Rossi's repairing any damage to public or private property during the course of the construction.

MEAT Remove restrictions on purchase of Canadian and South American meat. Large quantities are available at low prices.

POTATOES Stop government purchase and destruction of potatoes. Right now our government is buying millions of bushels to keep prices high.

EGGS Stop government purchase and hoarding of eggs. Stop killing of egg-laying hens on government order. Some 3,000,000 eggs have been taken off the market in the last 18 months through government price support purchases. Many of these have spoiled in storage.

BREAD Stop government purchase of grain; crops to keep prices artificially high. Grain is plentiful—record world crops are predicted for 1948. Only government controls keep bread prices high.

articles were also taken. Det. Sgt. Elmer Labadie disclosed that the burglars were very professional and systematic as they ransacked the residence.

Using blankets, the invaders covered the windows of each room they searched. They also cut the phone wires.

The cash was in Mr. Courreau's desk in the basement. $620 of the stolen sum was in 50 cent pieces; the balance was in silver dollars.

Mr. Courreau and his son Albert were visiting friends at the time of the burglary. Mrs. Courreau and a daughter Maria are traveling in Europe.

Maj. Howard Starrett

Starrett Aims To Aid Citizens

Howard Starrett, candidate for Congress in the 14th District and former Reemployment Director of Michigan, announced this week that if elected he will sponsor legislation aimed to place American home ownership within reach of all its citizens who aspire to own their own home.

Before the war Howard Starrett, as Research Engineer for the United States Government and expert on low cost homes, conducted a survey covering thirteen states. He invented new designs, developed new methods of construction and new materials in building experimental homes for the government at a fraction of their normal cost.

Starrett, himself a disabled American veteran of World War II, said: "The problem of proper homes for veterans and others can best be supplied and financed by private enterprise through the use of new products and more modern methods of home construction."

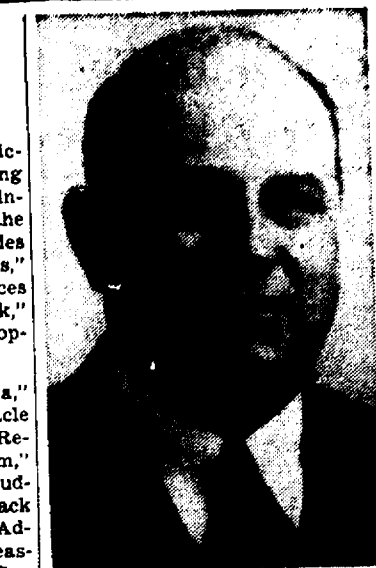

"Research in lowering the cost of housing I promise I shall support," Starrett said.

Starrett's residence is 19586 Pelkey, LA. 7-8556.

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council lists the following movies as being suitable entertainment for children: "Back in the Saddle Again," "Bar 20 Rides Again," "Billy the Kid Returns," "Come on Cowboys," "Four Faces West," "Fury at Furnace Creek," "Heart of Virginia," and "Hop-along Cassidy."

Also "I Remember Mama," "King of Wild Horses," "Miracle of the Bells," "Miss Marker," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "Robinhood of Monterey," "Scudda-Hoo! Scudda-Hay," "The Black Swan," "Tarzan's New York Adventure," "Tarzan's Secret Treasure," "Tycoon," and "Trail to San Antonio."

A. W. HALDEMAN

Rites Held For A. W. Haldeman

A veteran Grosse Pointe, Albert William Haldeman, of 1037 Beaconfield, died at St. Joseph's Hospital on Saturday, August 6, after a short illness. He was 60.

Funeral rites were held from his home Monday morning. Burial was at Forestlawn Cemetery.

Born in California, Mo., Mr. Haldeman came to Detroit early in his youth and began a successful career. He was a manufacturer's agent at the time of his death.

A veteran of World War I, he was active in the founding of Charles Learned American Legion Post.

Besides his widow Pearl, the deceased is survived by a son, John M. and a daughter Mary Lou.

Tragedy Stalks Widow's Home

Tragedy placed its ugly mark at the home of Mrs. Marie Correa, 10412 Mack avenue for the second time this year.

Her three-month-old daughter died Saturday. The Wayne County coroner termed the cause of death as suffocation effected by food particles clogging the infant's throat.

Four months ago, Mr. Correa was killed in an accident while working.

2 Injured In Mishap

Park Police said they issued tickets for reckless driving to Robert R. Dedrick, of 5036 Maryland, and Mrs. Fairy B. Cassil, 717 Middlesex road. Cars they were driving were involved in an accident at Barrington and Avondale.

Mrs. Cassil and a passenger, Richard Van Derherde, 4345 Wayburn were treated at Bon Secours Hospital for slight injuries and shock.

Police said that both drivers approached the intersection at too fast a speed.

TICKET SPEEDSTERS
Police issued tickets to speedsters John Dorosh, of Detroit; and David B. Mann, 15, of 64 Meadow Lane. Dorosh was reported traveling 50 miles per hour on Jefferson. Young Mann is alleged to have been speeding on Waterloo.

Local Writer Recommends Day at Greenfield Village

Editor's Note: E. Denslow, a local free lance writer, was assigned by the Review to author the following article for stay at home vacationers.

By E. DENSLAW

To repair our nature with comforting repose. —Shakespeare.

Would you like to be transported to a pleasing, restful world in sharp contrast to high voltage life today? You can be. Your magic carpet and major requirement: a pair of sturdy walking shoes.

Vacationers in town, and others, will find Greenfield Village easily accessible, educational, inspiring.

Founder Henry Ford said, "... by looking at things people used and that show the way they lived, a better and truer impression can be gained..." A day in the Village and adjacent Edison Institute Museum produces greater knowledge for those who seek it; fierce pride in America's forbears; stronger belief in American courage and enterprise.

The Village schools are important. Motto is, "Learning to do by doing" for 260 Dearborn children enrolled. Older boys work as apprentice machinists; girls in office jobs, always alongside employees of regularly operated shops in Village.

Thomas Edison's laboratory in the Menlo Park group is a treasure house of inventive genius. Clock downstairs has no face, no hands; Edison measured time, not in hours, but in accomplishment.

Picturesque Rose Cottage has stone walls several feet thick; stout, severe, but adequate furnishings; flower gardens enhance cottage exterior. Early pioneers left this kind of home in England for rustic one-room cabins...

Across the Village Green Town Hall and Chapel face each other, as in early communities. Tower of chapel contains bell cast by Paul Revere's son.

Courthouse holds Lincoln's assassination chair. General store stock includes skirt hoops, cracker barrels, "cure all" remedies, horehound candy. The Inn boasts rag carpet, horsehair (ouch!) furniture; tap room where local gossip abounded and weary travelers paused to quaff and quench in hearty company.

Stop now to gaze up at ponderous stone figures of Gog and Magog; yourself, perhaps, a-gog. High on the facade of old London jewelry shop these legendary warriors move, striking soft-toned bells every quarter hour.

Refreshments and rest in the shade before trekking thru the mills. Weavers work at hand looms in one of these.

On now to the museum. Feet may tire, but interest won't lag for here lies an enchanting world of yesteryear. You have but to enter Edison-Institute Museum and a mantle of peace descends upon you. Wandering along cool corridors viewing the fine arts collection is like passing among friendly ghosts from the past, each with a story to tell.

In the Main Exhibition Hall the cavalcade of cars claims attention. Agriculture, manufacture, transportation exhibits are here... proudly displayed on 8 1/2 acres of teak-wood floor laid in herringbone design. Wonderful! Smells good, too... of polishing oil.

Craft shops line one end of this massive room. Represented are toymaker, gun and locksmith, turner and carver, cabinetmaker, tinsmith, blacksmith, wheelwright... names to stir imagination. Linger by Gurdlestone and Son, East India merchants, reverie brings forth a man perched on the high stool by the drafting table bending over charts. Around him are relics of American sea adventure and industry.

Time to tear away, head home, rest tired limbs. There'll be many moments of nostalgic remembrance of Greenfield Village... what it represents... the message it offers.

Cancer Of Eye Survey In State

Information on every case of cancer of the eye in Michigan during the past ten years is being sought by the University of Michigan Heredity Clinic.

Dr. Harold F. Falls of the Heredity Clinic is directing the study with Drs. James V. Neal and Charles W. Cotterman as co-workers. The three hope to visit the families of every person in the state who has been afflicted with cancer of the eye, known to doctors as retinoblastoma.

Their study is expected to provide a broader knowledge of the disease and they have hopes that this additional knowledge may help some day to provide a cure. Retinoblastoma is tumor of the retina of the eye which gradually destroys the vision.

The three researchers are contacting all possible sources to locate the present and past cases of this nature. A special appeal is made to the families of children in which the disease occurs to cooperate by writing to Dr. James V. Neal, Heredity Clinic, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

The study is financed by public contributions to the annual Fight Cancer drive, Dr. Neal said. The funds are administered by the American Cancer Society and this study is only one of many supported in this way.

Sherman Pushes Food Price Fight

The prices of food, as everyone knows, have spiraled far higher than those of any other items. Moreover, some 50% of the average income is spent for food.

Yet, Congressional action to curb inflation leaves food prices untouched and attacks only durable consumer goods through extended control of credit purchases. This will have a dangerous deflationary economic effect, according to Arthur G. Sherman, candidate for Congress in the 14th District, without any substantial reduction in food prices.

The credit curbs will result in fewer purchases of durable goods, with a corresponding decrease in business and employment, Mr. Sherman points out, from which the producer, retailer and consumer will all suffer.

"What John Q. Public needs is not restriction on credit purchases, but a means by which his purchasing power can be transferred from food, for which he is paying exorbitant prices, to durable goods, so he can buy these items for cash and not on time.

"I fully recognize that credit purchases are inflationary, and that credit controls do have a stabilizing effect, but I strongly believe that they should be used only as a last resort, and not when there is another more sound means of curbing an inflationary spiral," Mr. Sherman states.

"Since food prices are by far the most inflated, steps must be taken to reduce these first. If food prices drop, credit control and the resulting job layoffs and loss of sales of durable items will be unnecessary."

The question therefore arises: what can be done about food prices? Mr. Sherman believes these prices can be reduced drastically and quickly by discontinuance of the government farm price support program, which he points out, maintains food prices at an artificially high level. This is both unnecessary and dangerous in a time of inflation, but both major parties hesitate to tackle the problem for fear of alienating the farm vote, Mr. Sherman continues.

"Thus we have the anomalous situation of Congress' passing legislation with one hand to keep food prices artificially high, an inflationary tactic, while the other hand tries to foster deflation by restricting purchase of durable goods.

"Never before has it been so important to send men to Congress who are capable of evaluating economic effects of seemingly unrelated government legislation. Only by a drastic reduction in food prices and not through credit controls, can inflation be safely halted and a return to a sound economy be effected," Mr. Sherman concludes.

FUNNY CLOWNS TO APPEAR HERE

S. C. Burr Photo

These three funny clowns will appear in the gala fun and frolic program provided by the Metropolitan Club at Grosse Pointe High School field on Saturday, August 28 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The program will include field day events and competitive sports for boys and girls from 5 to 17 years of age. Prizes will be awarded. But to get back to the happy men, they are actually members of the Detroit Police Department who performed during the Detroit Police Field Day at the U-D stadium Saturday. Dan Nold is playing horse, his rider is Jack West. Offering more than slight encouragement is Joe Stephens.

List Numerous Services Of Local Community Chest

Have you heard the address, 51 West Warren? Do you know the telephone number, TEmple 1-1600? If you have, you know they stand for "community service."

This is the address and the telephone number of the Community Chest Building, housing many of Detroit's social services which are a vital part of the lives of thousands of people.

In the building are the Community Information Service, an organization whose trained social workers know just what can be done to help solve your personal problems. They know all the community social organizations that are designed to help you.

The Family Service Society has part of the first floor. They help individuals and families when troubles arise which threaten marriages, when growing children become problem children, when a wife or husband needs counseling to help him adjust to a certain situation. They are good "listeners" to personal problems and they are good "solvers."

The Legal Aid Bureau, where competent lawyers wait to help those who need but cannot afford the legal advice of a personal lawyer, is also on the first floor.

There are several youth organizations. The Boy Scouts office takes up a major portion of the third floor. A trading post is a lure for thousands of boys who come in to buy their scout knives or kerchiefs or just talk with the staff members they admire. The Camp Fire Girls also are in the building. The Girl Scouts' office was there, too, until the rapid growth of their organization forced them to seek larger offices.

Nurses are at 51 West Warren, too. The Visiting Nurse Association offices are the hub of the district offices from which over 100 Visiting Nurses make their daily calls of mercy. The Detroit Council on Community Nursing maintains its office from which it recruits the hundreds of students that are needed to keep up the practical and registered nursing schools of the metropolitan area.

The Central Volunteer Bureau, from the offices on the second floor, assigns the invaluable volunteer workers who want to serve in Detroit's social agencies to the agency which can use them.

The Council of Social Agencies, an organization which is made up of representatives from all social services in the area, is also on the second floor. The Council knows what is going on throughout the city in welfare work and it helps plan Detroit's social services so that they best serve its citizens.

On the fourth and top floor is the Community Chest of Metropolitan Detroit. The organization whose small staff represents the thousands of citizens operating the Chest through boards and committees. The Community Chest is a fund-raising organization. It raises the money that supports 125 Red Feather services both in and out of the Community Chest building by its annual Red Feather campaign in the fall.

Since 1880, when a lone Scotchman named James Thompson donated the site of the Community Chest building to the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children," 51 West Warren has stood for "Community Service."

Dogs Bite Two, Car Kills Pet

Van Derrug, 5, of 1344 Wayburn was bitten on the left right wrist by a dog owned by Mrs. DeRychere, 1354 Wayburn. It was reported by Park Police.

A second victim was Charles Loebel, 50, of 793 Drexel, Detroit. While washing windows at the Wendel home at 1246 Harvard road, a dog owned by G. E. Taylor, 1251 Harvard, bit Loebel on the right leg.

Both animals were ordered confined for ten days. Meanwhile, George Flanders, 20, 784 Barrington road, reported to police that his auto struck and killed a dog on Yorkshire road.

The pet, which was owned by David Liddell, 961 Westchester, ran in front of Flanders' car. It was reported.

Dunk Doughnut Plans Expansion

Yum Yum. BURBANK, Calif.—Script for a novel romantic scene in Warner Bros. comedy, "The Girl From Jones Beach," specified that star Ronald Reagan was not to kiss his lovely co-star, Virginia Mayo, upon her luscious, ripe and ruby-red lips! There was to be kissing, all right, but just no lip-ping! At first, Mr. Reagan said, with heat, that the whole darn business was calculated cruelty to an actor. Afterwards, however, he smirked and declared that he had no grounds for complaint, not really. Before the take was finally completed, what with rehearsals and assorted angle shots from above, behind, in front and both sides, Mr. Reagan rang up a staggering total of 63 osculations—25 on Miss Mayo's soft hands, 20 on her softer arms, and 18 upon the bewitching back of her neck!

Presses Need United Nations Group

United Nations workshops by the League of Women Voters as a beginning of the "Know Your United Nations" year were the subject of a message received last week by Mrs. Isadore Sobeloff, local League president, from Miss Lord Straus, president of the National League.

Letter bore the stamp commemorating the centennial of the Women's Rights Convention in Seneca Falls and was mailed here by Miss Straus on July 26. She took part in the centennial ceremonies at which the year was first put on sale. Miss Straus is a great-granddaughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and Carrie Chapman Catt. It was Mrs. Catt who led the fight for woman suffrage to a successful conclusion and who led the League of Women Voters to its victory in 1920.

Workshop mentioned by Miss Straus in her special letter to Sobeloff are a part of a nationwide movement by the League of Women Voters to acquaint people with the United Nations and how it can be helpful. A number of such workshops have been set up for Detroit with Mrs. Jack Monroe as Director. Monroe believes, according to the League, that much of the misunderstanding and impatience with the United Nations stems from a lack of understanding of what it is and what it is not, what it can and cannot do, and what it has and has not accomplished.

Such an understanding by citizens is dangerously lacking in the United States today, is essential if the United States is to use its influence wisely toward strengthening the United Nations," Mrs. Monroe said.

Pointe Bride Leaves For Georgian Bay

Following a ceremony Saturday at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church which united them in marriage, Dr. George Dunbar Stilwell and the former Louise Eleanor Whitcomb left for a honeymoon in the Georgian Bay area.

The new Mrs. Stilwell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis K. Whitcomb of Harvard road. Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Stilwell of Rosedale Park are the parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. Paul E. Kethum officiated. The bride's gown of candlelight satin had a cathedral train, yoke and sleeve trimming of rose-point lace. The full length veil was held by a halo of heirloom rose-point lace. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis. The maid of honor, Mary Kathryn Whitcomb, sister of the bride.

Miss Ray Is Married

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arthur Davey are at Clark's Lake, Michigan, for a month's stay after their informal wedding on July 31 at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Ray, of York-shire road.

The bride, who is the former Elizabeth Anne, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robert Benya. Donald Cunningham of Jackson was best man for the bridegroom whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davey, also of Jackson.

A reception in the Ray residence followed the ceremony. After their wedding sojourn the couple plan to settle in Miami, Florida, where Mr. Davey is studying at Miami University.

Local Son Freedom Gardens Move Claims Bride Ahead of 1947 Record From Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Lamont of McKinley road were at St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Detroit Saturday afternoon to see their son Gene Donald be united in marriage to Margaret Hamilton Gage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe M. Gage, of Manassah, Ohio.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William C. Hamm. Mrs. Robert L. Summerhays, of Rochester, N. Y., sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Present as best man was William C. Healy and ushers were Keith T. McKenney, Frank Munger, Alan C. McManus and William Griffith, of Ann Arbor.

The bride's dress was fashioned of white tissue taffeta, the leg-omnium sleeves ruffled at the wrist. The tulle collar was a ruffle of the taffeta and the long full skirt formed a train in back. A Juliet cap of seed pearls held her fingertip-length tulle veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and a handkerchief of heirloom lace.

Margaret Wood, chose a navy silk print dress and navy accessories. A gray taffeta gown, pearl gray hat and black accessories formed the bridegroom's mother's costume. Each had a corsage of rubrum lilies pinned to her purse.

Following the reception at the Detroit Boat Club, the couple left for two weeks in Northern Michigan.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Lamont wore a navy fallie suit with matching accessories. She tucked a printed scarf of blue and gold at the neckline. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

More home gardens were planted in 1948 than in 1947, the National Garden Institute found in a nationwide survey just completed. Freedom gardeners are doing a good job, the Institute announced, in spite of unfavorable weather that prevailed earlier in the season. Reports have been received from 36 states, based on a questionnaire mailed in June to garden chairmen, state extension workers, farm radio stations, garden editors and other garden leaders.

Thirty seven percent of the replies indicated an increase in number of gardens, thirty-three percent reported the same number and thirty per cent reported fewer gardens than in 1947. Reasons given for an increase in the number of gardens were the high cost of food in almost all cases. Where there was a decrease it was due to bad weather or the inability of families to find suitable ground for a garden. In the East and South-east it was too wet, and where gardens were planted they are rather late but catching up because of recent hot weather. In the Middle West a late spring was followed by drought which had a retarding effect, but gardens are now in good shape because of recent rains. A severe drought in California wrecked a promising garden season since there was no water for irrigation. The Northwest, on the other hand, had too much cool, wet weather preventing many gardens that had been planned from being planted.

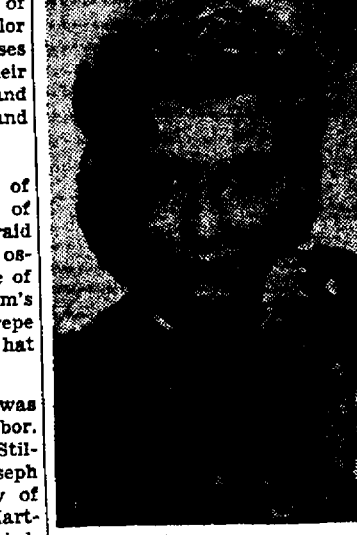

It is too early to determine whether the goal of 20,000,000 Freedom Gardens set last October by the then Secretary of Agriculture, Clinton F. Anderson, will be reached. However, the Institute points out, there will undoubtedly be more food gardens than in any peacetime year, and the production will be greater. In fact there may be as large a tonnage of vegetables produced this season as in some of the war years if the recent favorable weather continues.

Institute returns check with the report made recently by the National Garden Bureau which shows that packet seed sales are up this year and are currently running double what they were before World War II. On the question "Are your gardens in good shape?", sixty-four percent of the replied reported "Good," eighteen percent "Fair"

Social Security Cards Unsafe Identification

Every year many business people are defrauded by individuals who pass worthless checks, using social security cards for identification purposes, according to Mr. Francis L. Pendergast, social security office manager at 8720 Mack Ave., Detroit 14, Michigan. The Social Security Administration frequently issues warnings to businessmen not to accept a social security card to identify a person cashing a check. Possession of a card doesn't mean a person has a bank account, nor does it always mean he is the individual he claims to be, for many cards are lost or stolen each year.

Boyd Nine Begins Play For Title

Chalking up a 2 to 1 win over Roose Vanker last Sunday at Belle, Tom Boyd's entry in the American Legion League completed the regular season in second place, behind Briggs Post, with 12 wins and 6 losses.

The local nine also indicated that it will be a serious contender for the Metropolitan Detroit title by virtue of its 7 to 5 victory over Ford Highland Park Post in the first round of the playoffs at Belle Isle Tuesday.

The game went 12 inning with Bob Ruck on the mound for the locals hurling three hit ball behind poor support. All the markers against him were unearned. He fanned 12. Ruck was relieved in the 11th with the score tied at 5 runs by Bob Breen, who held the Parkers hitless for the two innings he worked. He received credit for the win.

Art Duffy's single in the first half of the 12th sent Breen home with what proved to be the winning run.

In the second round Coach Bill DuRocher's boys will meet Alger

Shores Books "Naked City"

Mark Hellinger's great story "Naked City" comes to the screen of the Shores Theatre, Mack and Nine-Mile road Sunday, Monday and Tuesday on a double feature program with the hilarious hit "Campus Sleuth."

Barry Fitzgerald is teamed with the new Garfield-type star, Howard Duff, in the tense drama of murder in the big metropolis, the "Naked City." Fitzgerald turns in his characteristically fine performance as the lieutenant of Gotham's fine detective force, which leaves no stone unturned in crime investigation.

Every moment of "Naked City" is packed with tense suspense and fast-moving action.

On the lighter side, Freddie Stewart and June Preisser are impressive in "Campus Sleuth." A newsreel and cartoon complete the program.

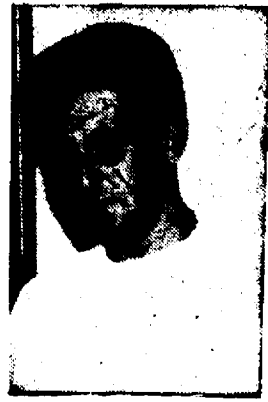

Doors open for the Sunday matinee at 1:15.

Post this Friday at Belle Isle diamond two at 5:30 p. m.

Sunday's victory was marked by the brilliant pitching of Bob Breen. He limited the strong Vanker team to a pair of hits as he struck out seven.

BILL DUROCHER

Award Sandlot Honor To Modest Coach

Bill DuRocher

In an unprecedented move, the Review this week names Bill DuRocher, capable coach of the Tom Boyd team in the American Legion League, the "sandlotter of the Week."

This honor which is usually reserved for local players was awarded Bill for the brilliant showing he has made with the Grosse Pointe team in a very tough league.

The nine which finished the season in second place with 14 wins in 17 starts is considered a serious threat in Metropolitan Detroit title playoffs now underway.

When Bill accepted the assignment, Sponsor Tom Boyd knew Bill had a job on his hands. Never before had a local nine dare enter the fast Detroit legion league.

However, under Bill's guidance, youngsters whose only league experience was limited to local organizations were moulded into a fine team. A team that has made a ballgame out of every contest played, win or lose.

The coach, who is a Navy veteran, was a star athlete at St. Paul High. Later he starred on sandlot and professional diamonds.

Shortly after he was discharged from the service he accepted his present position as athletic director at the Neighborhood Club.

Bill does not lose any time to boast about any of his players. It was through his recommendations that Bob Breen, Bob Ruck, and Russ Gragg received the sandlot award.

However about himself, Bill is very modest. When he reads this he will most likely say "they should have given it to some youngster."

But youngsters who know Bill or who have come in contact with the good natured coach will agree with the Review. In fact they will tell you that DuRocher is more than a "sandlotter of the Week." He's strictly a "big league fellow."

Experiments With Polio Serum

A serum, made from the blood of a person who has recovered from polio, may be an effective means for treating the dread disease. Doctors are now experimenting with the serum which is injected into the spinal column of the polio victim.

Dr. Paul R. Cannon, pathologist, University of Chicago, in an article written for the 1948 World Book Encyclopedia, reports that the value of the serum treatment is yet to be established, and must be considered experimental.

Retains Park Tennis Title

For the second successive year, Virginia Collins emerged champion of the women's singles in the Grosse Pointe Park tennis tournament at Waterfront Park court completed recently.

Miss Collins defeated Lillian Radke in the finals, (6-3) (3-6) (6-4).

However in the men's singles Jack Dillon, 1947 champion, failed to reach the finals this year. The new title holder is Robert Kleinsmith. His opponent in the finals was Ken Frantz, (6-4) (6-4).

Dillon teamed with his brother Frank came back to capture the men's doubles. In the final match the Dillons beat Kleinsmith and Bill Patryn, (6-2) (2-6) (6-4).

Last week Patryn paired with Mrs. Patryn annexed the mixed doubles honors.

Top honors in the junior boys play went to Hugo Beckl.
