THE BABE WILL BE ALRIGHT

Grosse Pointe joins the work over-mourning the death of the one and only Babe Ruth.

Those of us who were fortunate enough to know the "Babe" can feel that his name will be a perpetual inspiration to Young America. His spirit will never die.

The nation's most talented and gifted writers poured their hearts on their finger tips in expressing their tribute to the "Babe."

Yet one local 10-year-old in an unrestrained or unprepared comment to his young father seemed to carry the message simply and sincerely.

"The Babe Will Be Alright, Dad—Don't worry—he always loved kids and us kids will always love him."

RECREATION IS A HUMAN NEED

Recreation is a basic human need.

The need for recreation has been intensified by modern life with its increased strains and its increased time for leisure. We seek some recreation through reading or listening to the radio or tinkering about the house and garden but we need more than this.

We need to seek the companionship of our fellowmen to obtain the exchange of ideas which keep us from getting tired of ourselves. Most people, particularly younger ones, have a chance to enjoy themselves with people who share what to be part of a small activity group. They want to share their same interests.

JUST COMMENT

Vacation tragedy—He returned unexpectedly surprising his girl friend and her escort.

Absence makes the heart go flounder.

We notice where several local dealers have constructed beautiful and modern showrooms—now if they only had some new autos.

The old saying beautiful but dumb is out-moded—We notice where two local lovelies will cast their first votes for society.

Over 500 Woods residents attended the picnic, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Woods Civic League, and held at the village's new Lakefront Park last Thursday.

The new grills, provided by the Kiwanis Club, were used by many.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Westerville were directors of the successful recreational program, in which youngsters and oldsters participated.

Among the prize winners were Patty Kavanaugh, Paul Lodewyck, Sharon, Ernest, and Janet Kaal, in the "under-seven" group. In the "eleven to fourteen" group were Carl Schneider, Gerald Peterson, Ken Chalmers and Norman Soper.

Adult male prize winners were Jerry McCarthy, Harold Totten, Russell Near and Ed Anderson.

Any winner who was absent when his name was called is asked to call Larry Westerville at TU. 1-0463.

Among those assisting to make the affair the success it was, are Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Kalember, Ben Brothers, Harry Pratt, Ross and Larry Marr, and Norm Soper.

E. St. Elmo Lewis, nationally known advertising expert, defines salesmanship as "the ability to make people want what they already need." The World Book Encyclopedia informs us.

Hobby May Pay For Localite

An activity that started as a pleasant pastime may turn into a profitable enterprise for Mrs. Vivienne Kitson of Sunningdale drive. She expects her line of hand-made original ceramic jewelry to be placed on sale at a well known Detroit shop very soon.

With a friend assisting, Mrs. Kitson turns out these attractive and novel pieces in her home. They will retail under the trade-name of "Cerami-Linx".

Mrs. Kitson's Grosse Pointe friends and well-wishers are prophetic that her wares will sell like the proverbial "hot-cakes".

Rites Held For Russell A. Dossin

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Russell A. Dossin at his home at 805 Trombley. Entombment rites were held at White Chapel Cemetery.

Mr. Dossin, vice president of Dossin's Food Products, Inc., died Sunday night after a heart attack at his home. He had spent Sunday at Algonac, observing test runs of the speedboat, Miss Pepsi, a Gold Cup entry owned by himself and his two brothers.

He was a member of the Detroit Yacht Club.

Surviving are his wife, Anna; his sons, Ernest J. and Thomas R.; a daughter, Mrs. Sidonie D. Knighton; his sisters, Mrs. Glenn Burgan and Mrs. A. T. Phillips, of Toledo; his brothers, Walter and Roy, and five grandchildren.

Phoney Friend Accosts Woman

A young matron who resides on Linville road in Grosse Pointe Woods told police Monday night that a man entered her auto and attempted to drive away.

She said that the man had followed her home from the Woods theatre. He parked his auto directly behind her as she attempted to park.

Police said that the woman accepted the man's offer to park the car for her. However when he got behind the wheel, he drove down the street instead.

The woman immediately became frightened and was preparing to jump out when the driver stopped and ran away.

Police said that the woman and her husband peering out the window of their home later saw the man return to his auto and drive off.

Special Police Told To Get Gun Permits

Men employed by the Sterling Police Service will not be allowed to carry armed weapons in the Farms unless they obtain permit from village police.

Det. Sgt. Elmer Labadie reported that Sterling has three men on duty in this area and an investigation revealed that two of them had expired permits, the other had never received any.

Labadie said he conducted the investigation at the request of James N. McNally, Wayne County prosecutor.

Review Poll Finds Local Teen-Agers Favor Midnight Restriction

With only one or two negative replies, a poll of Grosse Pointe residents revealed that "it would be a fine thing," should Grosse Pointe follow Detroit's proposal to adopt a midnight curfew for children under seventeen.

The teen-agers, especially, agree that it would be best for their own protection to have an ordinance to help prevent juvenile delinquency. A Review poll discovered, with the exception of the somewhat negative attitude of Ronald Horsley, 26 McKinley, the attitude of Ronald Horsley, 26 McKinley, the attitude of year-old Review Carrier. Ronald believes the curfew should be lowered to fifteen instead of seventeen because "date" dances which sometimes end at twelve and "date" dances which sometimes end at twelve and even one o'clock, and making it difficult to reach home before curfew.

This was also expressed by Frank J. Arthur E. Louwers, who, however, believed they would follow Detroit's decision if only to defend their close proximity from having the teen-aged gangs come over there to escape the curfew.

"It would be rather difficult to segregate or tell apart Detroit and Grosse Pointe teen-agers and handle the situation correctly if only Detroit children must be in before midnight and not their Grosse Pointe companions," Chief Louwers explained.

"But I do think it a fine thing to help control the teen-agers. And as far as the viewpoint of the curfew being later than the parent's own set time, I believe that should be argued out between the family," he concluded.

Seventeen-year-old D. Aller, of 134 Kirby Road, however, is of the opinion that younger teen-agers could get home before curfew they tried. And 16-year-old Nancy Georgi, of 338 Millan, sees no harm in that all because "most of us are in before twelve, anyway."

This viewpoint definitely concurred in by Mrs. H. Hoyt, eighteen-year-old daughter of Farms Police Chief Hoyt, of 314 University Pl. Mrs. Hoyt, who spoke for her daughter, said Marie was given too many privileges by over-indulgent parents and abused them, therefore casting a bad light on teen-agers.

U-D Offers Course For Dental Aides

A course in fundamental training for dental assistants, inaugurated last February by the University of Detroit's School of Dentistry will be offered again this fall.

"The course was installed as an experiment last year, at the instance of the Detroit Dental Association," Dr. Rene Rochon, Dean of the School, said. "The semester course offered last year to girls already employed in dental offices proved to be so popular that we are continuing it this fall on a full-year basis," he went on.

The only requirement for the course this fall is that the student be a high school graduate.

Walch's 'Bounty' race honors Youngblood Hits Truman

Representative Harold F. Youngblood, Republican of Michigan's 14th District last week picked up the cudgels in defense of the 80th Congress in the first post-special session political skirmish with President Truman on inflation.

Referring to the anti-inflation credit control measure, passed during the special session, which the President called a "feeble compromise", Youngblood asserted: "In restoring controls on consumer credit and providing an increase in reserve held against Federal Reserve bank deposits we have gone as far as we can go without depriving the American people of a whole raft of their inalienable rights. I, for one, refuse to give Mr. Truman extraordinary powers over the standard of living of the people I represent—powers which he himself has branded as methods of a 'police state'."

Local Lovelies To Cast First Vote For Dewey

Come election day in November and two local young lovelies will be among the first to vote for Dewey.

They are Millicent Duane, of 1019 Bingham and Virginia Hoyt, of 64 Lakepointe. Both of the young ladies admitted turning 21 recently to Don Goodrow, Township clerk, when they entered his office Monday to register.

Miss Duane, expressing unusual foresight by registering early and riding the last minute rush, she has definitely decided who would receive their initial vote.

Though it took a little persuasion on the writer's part to have the girls name their man, they did—Dewey all the way.

Veteran GOP campaigners may be refreshed to note in the fury of this presidential year that such charming femininity is on their side.

Miss Duane, a graduate of Georgetown university, is currently a model for a Detroit store.

Miss Hoyt is member of the AAA staff at the Grosse Pointe branch.

Both girls feel that the present administration needs a rest—at least for the next four years.

New Spray May Eliminate Rat Menace

The answer to the "rat control" problem may be found in a spray offered by Earl W. Miller, of 6554 Hamilton, Detroit.

According to Miller his product, sprayed over refuse utensils, will kill all insects and odors. It will also keep rats and other animals away from refuse.

He advises that this spray which he labels "Quel" be sprayed at every remote rat hole, nest or any place where a rodent may find food.

After watching demonstrations in Detroit and Grosse Pointe, health officials believe that this product may eliminate the rat menace in this area.

Among the officials who have seen "Quel" demonstrated is Dr. T. S. Davis, Township health officer.

"The two most potent methods of removing the rodent is to prevent it from getting food and to remove its nesting places. Judging from what I saw at a local demonstration I feel that Miller's spray effects the aforementioned methods," said Dr. Davis.

Detroit health officials were scheduled to witness a major demonstration at their dump plant at 1551 Erskine, Thursday, August 19 at 10 a.m.

FIGURES TELL STORY $9 Per Week Clerk Rises To Top Executive Position at Packard Motor

Most people believe accounting is an exact science—cut and dried, in other words.

But Grosse Pointe's Eugene C. Hoelzle, vice-president and comptroller of the Packard Motor Car Company, says that just isn't so.

"Before adding two and two, an accountant has to use good judgment and common sense, which makes for only part of the answer," Hoelzle points out.

Most people also believe financial matters are dull and colorless. But not Hoelzle. To him, they're exciting, challenging, even adventuresome!

"The view of a company's operations from a comptroller's desk is broad and stimulating," he declares. "You see everything that goes on—something like looking out hundreds of windows. Other departments, as a rule, are engrossed with just what they're doing—something like looking out only one window."

Hoelzle is far from the popular concept of a man who deals daily with intricate finance. He could be mistaken for a person in any one of a half-dozen other professions—a family doctor, for example.

Five feet six inches tall and weighing 165, he bowls twice a week in the Winter. His average is 162, but his high game last season was 254.

He enjoys fishing so much that he joined a golf club—so he could fish from the club's private lake. He smokes cigars and, like nearly everybody else, thinks he smokes too much.

He's an avid follower of baseball and softball; rarely misses the All-Star football games or the Kentucky Derby.

He doesn't like to talk about himself, but has a well-developed sense of humor which he uses in talking to others. He makes friends easily.

His public speaking, by the way, didn't come naturally. In fact, he was active for years in the American Speakers Club, a Detroit organization of professional people who meet once a week to silver their tongues. Hoelzle became so proficient that he won many awards for forensic excellence. In May, 1948, the club made him an honorary member and passed a resolution commending him for his outstanding contributions to public speaking and his profession.

Hoelzle likes to read, mostly philosophy. He has been interested for years in character study—and applies this knowledge to the selection of employees. He talks and practices the betterment of employe-management relations. Hardly anything makes him more proud than the successful development of an employe, who measured up to the Hoelzle character-yardsticks at the outset.

He appreciates loyalty—and recognizes it.

EUGENE C. HOELZLE

Born March 22, 1892, at Lansing, Mich., he first aspired to become a physician. His father—the late G. M. Hoelzle, a merchant tailor for 50 years—strongly suggested a career as a mining engineer. So the younger Hoelzle moved to neutral ground, leaving Lansing High School and taking up a course in business.

One day, he ran into a neighbor who was office manager of the Oldsmobile plant in Lansing. The executive was so impressed by Hoelzle's earnestness that he gave him a job as clerk in the accounting department — at $9 a week!

The office manager devoted three or four nights a week to teaching Hoelzle the ropes—from elementary accounting to the most complicated financial problems. Hoelzle made the most of the unusual opportunity, rising from a clerk to cashier and general bookkeeper and, finally, to traveling auditor at the age of 20.

The following year, he was promoted to office manager of Oldsmobile's Detroit branch — another important post to which much older men were assigned, as a rule.

The word about him got around—and, on Dec. 15, 1913, he accepted an offer from the accounting department of the Packard Motor Car Company.

During the next three years, Hoelzle got all kinds of experience. Anxious for still-broader training, he served as assistant treasurer of the Parker Rustproof Company of Detroit for nearly two years, returning to Packard in August, 1918, as assistant auditor. He was appointed general auditor in 1919—at 27 years of age.

Hoelzle became comptroller in 1929 and a vice-president in 1945. His ability was recognized nationally when he served as director and member of the advisory council for the Controllers' Institute of America.

He and Mrs. Hoelzle live at 666 University road. Their son, Eugene, who served in the Signal Corps overseas during World War II, is an electronics engineer and located in Dayton, O. Their daughter, Virginia Mae, teaches English at the Grosse Pointe High School.

He's a member of the Lutheran Church, Masons, Detroit Athletic Club and the Detroit Economic Club, among other organizations.

Throughout his rise in the specialized field, Hoelzle always has remembered how he was helped at the outset by a sympathetic and understanding superior. He tries constantly to do the same for persons working under his supervision.

Thus, it's hardly surprising that he feels he has a team second to none.

Sherman Uges Rerpeal of Price Support Program

Persons living on fixed income are the ones who suffer most from the federal agricultural price support program, according to Arthur G. Sherman, candidate for Congress in the 14th District. Rerpeal or modification of this program is urged by Mr. Sherman, who is stressing this issue in his campaign.

This program was designed to guarantee a substantial income to the farmer through providing for an ever increasing parity price on which to base farm prices so that the farmer's purchasing power will fall no lower than it was from 1909 to 1914, Mr. Sherman explains.

Optimists Hold Lead

Judging by the first three weeks of play the Optimists Club is the team to beat in the Pointe Junior Baseball League.

After completing the first half of the season in first place, the Optimists have won their first four encounters in the second half. Last week they beat Lions 6 to 5.

A second contest last week saw Metropolitan trounce Kiwanis 15 to 9.

Both games going two extra innings.

Hammels Return

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hammel and their daughter Dolores of Sunningdale drive returned to Grosse Pointe this week after a short stay at the Grand Hotel at Mackinac Island.

Urge New GPHS Students To Register Early

"New students entering Grosse Pointe High School this fall are requested to enroll the week before Labor Day" announced W. R. Cleminson, Principal of Grosse Pointe High School. At Grosse Pointe High School the Assistant Principal and Dean of Girls will be in their offices to enroll new students beginning with the afternoon of August 30 to and including Friday, September 2. The Deans and Counselors will not be available to enroll new students Tuesday, September 7 or Wednesday, September 8 because of teacher meetings.

New students transferring to Grosse Pointe High School from a school other than a Grosse Pointe public school are requested to have their last school attended forward immediately a transcript of their complete record to Grosse Pointe High School. It is very difficult to place a student in the proper grade and with the correct selection of subjects when his record from the previous school cannot be studied. This is disadvantage to the new student and adds to his orientation difficulties.

Turner Uges Rerpeal of Price Support Program

Persons living on fixed income are the ones who suffer most from the federal agricultural price support program, according to Arthur G. Sherman, candidate for Congress in the 14th District. Rerpeal or modification of this program is urged by Mr. Sherman, who is stressing this issue in his campaign.

This program was designed to guarantee a substantial income to the farmer through providing for an ever increasing parity price on which to base farm prices so that the farmer's purchasing power will fall no lower than it was from 1909 to 1914, Mr. Sherman explains.

Grosse Pointe Eyes Legion Championship

Grosse Pointe Post 303 took another step closer to the Metropolitan Detroit American Legion Baseball title by virtue of a 3 to 2 win over Alger Post Friday at Belle Isle.

The victory was the local nine's second in the two-game knockout playoff. Last week they beat Highland Park 7 to 5.

Harry Edsall hurled six hit ball for the Tom Boyd entry. He also fanned ten to bring his total for 12 games to 140. It marked his eighth win in 11 starts this season.

Grosse Pointe was scheduled to make its first playoff appearance here Friday at Kerby field against Hamtramck, beginning at 5:30 p.m. They were also scheduled to meet Larned Post at Palmer Park Wednesday afternoon.

With two wins and no defeats thus far, the local nine is a good position to capture the coveted title. Of the 15 teams that qualified for the playoff, six remain.

The title would be particularly welcomed by the Coach Bill Du-Rocher and Sponsor Tom Boyd, who were highly disturbed by the manner in which league officials slighted local players in the selections of the All-Star team which played at Briggs Stadium last week.

Lions batboy Mike Carrier may be asking his favorites Tom Pelky, left, first baseman, and Roger Mulier, catcher, for their autographs. And that only as it should be for Tom and Roger were named "Sandlotter of the Week" by the Review. Tom was picked two weeks ago while Roger captured the award this week. Both players will receive Tiger autographed baseballs.

ROGER MULIER

"A Holler Guy" With Ability Wins Sandlotter of the Week Award

"A holler guy with plenty of zip in his voice and arm is the Review's "Sandlotter of the Week" this week. His name is Roger Mulier, 15, of 1212 Lakepointe. He is the stalwart catcher of the Lions Club in the Junior Baseball League.

His batting average of .360 for 14 games places him high among the league's leading hitters. In 50 trips to the plate, he has hit safely 18 times, including two home runs and three triples.

His Coach Lou Hunter said that despite the numerous chances Rogers gets in each game he has made only one error this season.

The youth has a bullet-like arm which keeps runners at bay. To date only three bases have been stolen on him.

Besides his outstanding play, the youth has an aggressive spirit which adds "hustle and fight" to all his teammates.

"Roger is an encouraging youngster to have around a ballclub," said Hunter, "particularly now when we're running into some tough breaks. We lost our last three games by one run."

The catcher proved his versatility this spring by earning a varsity award on the Grosse Pointe High School nine. He played the outfield. Last fall he was a reserve halfback on the school eleven. He hopes to win a starting berth this year.

Roger is the second Lions player to win the Sandlotter of the Week award; two weeks ago Tom Pelky, outstanding first baseman was named.

Roger and Tom will both receive Tiger autograph baseballs shortly.

Watch the Review for next week's "Sandlotter of the Week."

Splash Party At Yacht Club

Friday, August 20 from 7 to 11:30 p.m. has been marked as "Junior Splash Party" time at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The program will begin at 7 p.m. with open swimming followed by several aquatic events. Later supper will be served in the Fo'castle.

Dancing will complete the evening.

DBC Crews Complete Good Year

The Detroit Boat Club brought a successful 1948 season to a close in Chicago on August 14 and 15, as they won three of six events to finish second to the Ecorse Boat Club, in the 36th Annual Central States Amateur Rowing Association Regatta.

The DBC captured the senior heavy four oared shells with and without coxswain, and the senior 145 pound four without sox. Grosse Pointers were members of all three crews.

It was the senior heavy four without sox that brought the DBC its first trophy. This crew won the Canadian National junior and intermediate titles at the Royal Canadian Henley two weeks earlier. There are two Grosse Pointers, stroke John Hutton and 2 man Rich Winkler in the crew.

They whipped an Ecorse BC crew by two and a quarter lengths in 5:33 over a very slow course. They led from the start and were never seriously challenged.

The DBC's second win came in the senior heavy 4 with sox event when local George Hubbard coxed Detroit's "Iron Man" crew to an easy 4 length victory over Lincoln Park B.C. of Chicago. The time was a good 4:56. It was the last race in the careers of Hubbard and veteran stroke John Eichenbaum. Both retired with a victory, Hubbard because he is too big to continue as a coxswain, and Eichenbaum because he is well past thirty, an age which marks him as an old-timer as an oarsman.

Detroit's final victory came in the senior 145 pound 4 without cox, when the crew stroked by Fred Palmer, finally threw off the mantle of hard luck which it had been wearing all season to win a 3 length victory over Ecorse in 5:54. This boat was a junior crew, but stepped into the senior class because there was no junior event. Grosse Pointer Jim Ryan rowed two seat in this crew.

The DBC finished second in the senior heavy 8, junior 145 pound 8, and senior 145 4 with cox.

The loss by the senior heavy 8, of which Hubbard was a member, was a big upset. They finished 2nd to an Ecorse crew which they had beaten badly in two previous contests.

Three Grosse Pointers, Dick Ryan, cox, Bill Queen, 3, and Jim "Red" Connors, bow, were in the Detroit 145 pound 8 and the 145 pound 4 with cox.

Ecorse completely dominated the Regatta. They entered all 14 events and won all except the 3 which Detroit took. The 165 1/2 points Ecorse won was followed in 2nd place by Detroit with 94. Clubs from St. Louis, Chicago and Minneapolis foundered far behind.

In his first season at the DBC, Coach Bob Toomey directed almost entirely green crews to a far more successful season than even the most optimistic observers had hoped for.

Dan Cupid Breaks Up Local Sister Act

The talented and lively Easter Sisters who have been entertaining thousands of local country and South America with their colorful numbers of the dance have two years ago parted.

Dan Cupid is responsible for the break.

That popular fellow has arranged for Midge to be the younger of the two to give up her promising career for matrimony. Saturday evening she will marry George Ernest Palmer of Detroit. A third sister is also expected.

Meanwhile, Lois 21 will continue to carry the family name in the show business. But not before she attends Midge's wedding at mid of hour.

This year Lois will tour with the Holiday in the Heartland as extravaganza. The show is scheduled to cover White Plains, New York in September. It is also booked for plays at New Mexico, Havana and Honolulu.

Among Lois' numbers is a dance specialty which she has skates changed to five other dances.

The show is under the promotion of G. D. Tyson of New York. Rehearsals are currently underway at Toledo, Ohio.

Lois and Midge joined the Tyson shows in 1946 after numerous local appearances. Their numbers were highly received in 1946 and 47 as the show toured cities in this country and also principal parts of South America.

Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Easter of Barrington road, the girls attended Defer school and Pierce Junior High School.

They were members of the Windsor Skating Club, and they also studied tap and acrobatic dancing at Elaine Arndt's.

Blackhawks Win Defer School Softball Title

Led by the effective hurling of Bobbie Yerge, the Grose Pointe Blackhawks won the Defer School Class D Softball title last week.

The team, comprised of local youngsters 13 years of age or under, defeated Turbo-Japs 6 to 2 in the championship contest.

They entered the title game after eliminating Warriors 12 to 10 in a semi-final contest.

Coached by Mr. Edward Kay of Balfour road, the Blackhawks completed the regular season with 19 wins in 11 starts. Young Yerge was on the mound in all of the 11 games.

According to the Blackhawks 15-year-old manager, John Brabb, "Blackshire road, the hitting of Bill Holmes, first base, was a major factor in the team's fine showing."

"Bill seldom failed to come through for us in the clutch," said Brabb. "He's the club's best hitter."

Other members of this title team are infielders, Jim Starck, Ronnie Walker, Ed Kay, Donald Huffaker, Dick Zanders; outfielders Tom
