Reporter Tells Santa What Forgotten Male Wants For Christmas

By DORIS MILATZ
Grosse Pointe Review Staff Writer

Dear Santa: How about the other side of the story? For now you've been listening to the wishes and wants of all kiddies—and most of the Mamas and sweethearts. But what about the Men?

To call your attention to this somewhat neglected species of humanity—and HIS hopes and desires, the Review is giving you the results of a poll taken of prominent Grosse Pointe officials—a slight inkling of what causes the manly bosom to rise with long sighs of wistful yearning.

Starting out with the heads of the municipalities, City Mayor Netting considers health and happiness as the prime wishes for a Christmas present. Farms President James K. Kinney believes he could use a nice long rest, while Park President Homer Fritsch desires "close cooperation between all the agencies of Grosse Pointe for the forthcoming year."

"I'd like Peace on Earth," said Shores President Ernest Putnam and Alois Ghesquiere, pray for the Woods echoes his heart-felt wishes for continued Goodwill in the community.

"The main thing I would like to have is a closer relationship between the problems facing Grosse Pointe settled—that everyone know all the problems of all the officials out here so there'd be closer harmony of all the officials," signed Township Commissioner Carl Schweikart, adding, "and I also would like to lower taxes out here."

"Well, I sure could use a million dollars!" declared Don Brown, Township Clerk, and Township Treasurer Adolph Damme, who dreams of a brand new blue Packard arriving at his door on Christmas morn.

What could—and really does—make a Merry Christmas for Clerk Norbert Neff is to "have all of us do what little we can in our own little way for those folks like the crippled children, underprivileged who have no other type of Christmas; and, by any means least of all, those who have lived their lives away waiting only for that little final summons that comes to all someday. And that is the only kind of Christmas I care about."

One who is easily satisfied is Farms Clerk Harry Furton. He decided that "as long as I'm healthy and can work hard every day, I don't know as there is anything particular that I'd like for." In the other extreme is Woods Clerk Phil Allard, who

Community To Observe Christmas

All schools in Grosse Pointe are closed for the holiday season. Studies will be resumed on Monday, January 3.

Meanwhile the college set, attending schools across the nation, has been returning to the community by planes, trains and autos.

Local churches will observe Christmas with special services on Saturday and Sunday. Complete announcements appear on another page of this newspaper.

Colorful holiday parties and reunions have been planned in many homes and private clubs.

Municipal offices will close on Friday noon, Dec. 24, for the Christmas weekend.

The majority of local business establishments plan to close Friday, Dec. 24 at 5 p.m.

New Farms Pension Plan To Voters

Farms voters will be asked to decide on a new Farmers and Policemen Pension Plan at the March 2nd election, the village council announced. It marks the second major issue to be placed on the annual village ballot.

Last week the administration announced that it will place on the ballot the question of withdrawing from the Township.

The council took the action to place the pension plan before the voters on the recommendation of a special study committee.

With Commissioner William G. Kirby, presiding as chairman, the group held five meetings, completely studying the existing plan and several proposals offered by A. G. Gabriel, nationally known actuary and a professional consultant.

Features of the new plan are:

1. Management—Vested in a Retirement Commission of five, two from the Board of Trustees, two from the employees, and one from the Village at large.

2. Voluntary retirement age—In the case of a new member it is age fifty-five (55) years. In case of an original member it is the age at which he completes 25 years of service or age 55 which ever occurs first, subject to the condition that the age may be raised in time of war or national emergency.

3. Compulsory retirement age is 60 years which may be extended upon written request and approval of department head and commission to 65 years.

4. Retirement benefits—Upon retirement a member shall receive a retirement pension payable so long as he lives of 2% of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service credited to his service account not to exceed 25 years, and limited to an amount not to exceed 60% of the average final compensation of a full time patrolman or fireman. Original members may retire before age 55 after 25 years of service at a reduced amount.

5. Cost to Village—An actuarial valuation prepared by Mr. A. G. Gabriel shows an annual cost to the Village of 17.1% of pay roll.
6. Employers contribution—5% of salary of pay for regular work which is refundable in case of separation or death.
7. Other features—The plan has provisions for a war service credit, optional retirement allowances, duty and non-duty disability benefits, as well as other supporting provisions to make the plan complete.

8. Pensions under present system—Will be adjusted to the percentage of the proposed system should it be approved.

In concluding his report to the

"AND DON'T FORGET SANTA—I WANT!"

Among the hundreds of local small fry that visited Santa Claus this month was little Jimmy Connors, who recently became three. It was Jimmy's first visit with Santa and at first he was a bit dubious but St. Nick's warm friendly welcome soon had the youngster at ease. Jimmy, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Connors, 970 Beaconsfield, told Santa that he wanted an electric train a toy truck, etc.

Hike Water Bill For City, Shores

Farms water supply to City of Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Shores has been hiked 12 cents to 62 cents per cubic foot. Farms officials reported.

This measure was taken to meet the increased cost of operation of the Farms Water Plant. It was recommended by the village's Public Works committee.

The present rate for Farms residents will not be changed.

Officials disclosed that the new rate for outside consumers is still four cents less per cubic foot than the rate charged by Detroit.

Farms Council Thanks Special Study Group

The Farms Council adopted a resolution extending a vote of thanks to citizens members of special committee's appointed by the Council.

These include Remington Purdy, Joseph R. Parker, Harry Doy and Renville Wheat of the City Government Plan group; and Glen M. Coulter and John N. Lord, of the Policemen and Firemen Pension Plan Study Council.

The National Office of Vital Statistics recently stated that, based on 1946 figures, life expectancy of the white male is now 65 years, the woman 70 years. In 1846 life expectancy was only 40 years.

(Editor's Note:—The following letter was received by a Grosse Pointe service club and promptly published in its weekly letter to members in the hope that some member might offer a solution. The Review is taking the liberty of reprinting it, also in the spirit of wanting to help, especially during this Christmas season.)

Gentlemen

I am hoping I have turned to the right organization to help me in a solution that is unusual. Please believe me it isn't charity I am asking, and would continue in the thing I have been trying to do since I came from the Hospital last July, but feel every day the end is one day nearer as I have incurable cancer.

I have been trying to find a dwelling for a dear little nurse, with three children 9 - 10 - 11 the eldest will be 11 Xmas day, and how I love to see her in a home of her own even four rooms. She is so deserving, one of the finest nurses I have ever known, I know as I also am a nurse, but was fortunate enough to have her take care of me during 3 months in Bon Secour Hospital. Most organizations try to do a good deed for someone for Xmas, and I can assure you she can pay and does not need financial aid. But she is living in such miserable circumstances that her health cannot stand over a long period of time.

She rented a place in Grosse Pointe very badly furnished

POLICE FIND

No Girl Outlaws No Trouble, But Lots of Spirit

After having a few holiday drinks with several friends, Mr. Camiel Tavelly, 45, of 1339 Maryland was merrily on his way home late Saturday night.

When he approached Maryland and Charlevoix, a girl jumped out from behind the bushes and said:

"Put 'em up—this is a stick up."

Before the celebrant could say or do anything, two more girls leaped up before him and echoed the first one's remarks.

"Suddenly Mr. Tavelly took a swing at the first intruder and sent her sprawling and screaming to the ground, meanwhile his other two disturbers fled. A few minutes later the one on the ground got up and also ran away.

According to Park Police this is the story that Mr. Tavelly told them when they arrived at the scene. Investigation revealed no traces of anything unusual.

This led police to believe that perhaps Mr. Tavelly was just the victim of an accelerated imagination.

2nd Village Accepts New Radio Plan

At a special meeting held Tuesday, Dec. 14, the Farms Council adopted a resolution for a new Inter-Municipal Police radio system to replace the one presently conducted by the Township.

The resolution is similar to one adopted by the Park Council last week.

The new system will be established and operated by the Farms for all five Pointe municipalities, all costs to be shared on an equitable basis.

Under this plan the entire area would be served by one radio system under municipal control and each police station would be in direct and immediate communication with its own cars.

BULLETIN

At a regular meeting Tuesday, Grosse Pointe Woods Council decided to waive final action on the Inter-Municipal Police Radio System proposal until its next meeting in January, 1949.

The present Township service which covers Park, Farms, Shores, and Woods, is based on a relay system through station WRDR. City of Grosse Pointe has its own receiving and broadcasting unit.

Shores and Woods are also expected to adopt the new plan, which is the result of many discussions among representatives from all the Pointes and engineering officials.

Annual Bonus Paid At Local Party

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boyd played host to all Boyd's Ford Sales and Service employees last Thursday night at their home on Windmill Pointe for the company's annual Christmas party for employees and their wives.

During the evening, each member of the Boyd organization received a generous bonus, which is given annually to all employees.

REALTORS MEET

The Eastern Detroit Realty Association will hold its 28th annual Holiday Party at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, December 28, at Roosevelt Hall.

Officials Agree On New Plan

Grosse Pointe Township's proposal to convert Alger House to a Community Center for the five Pointe municipalities received a green light at special meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Detroit Club. Carl Schweikart, Township supervisor disclosed.

According to Mr. Schweikart, James K. Watkins, Farms president; and Alger Sheldon, War Memorial Association chairman, were present and both joined in a lengthy discussion to complete the Township plan.

Other officials present were Jules Berns, Township attorney; and Renville Wheat, Farms attorney.

The Alger Family was not represented.

The group ruled to join in a comprehensive study to ward off any legal or technical discrepancies that might develop before presenting a complete plan to the Alger Estate.

Though the Alger Family has not made any public statement since their gift of the mansion was rejected by the School District, officials feel that they may favor the Township proposal.

A tentative plan is for the Township to take over Alger House and operate it as center for all of the people of the community and to join in furthering the aims of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library.

Mr. Watkins' reported support of the proposal adds to the possibility of its acceptance. He originally opposed any plan that would involve Township politics.

Dads Name H. R. Pierce

Hillyard R. Pierce was elected president of Grosse Pointe High School Dad's Club at the annual election held Wednesday at the school immediately following the Football Round-up. He succeeds Harry N. Phillips

Other officers elected were, Clark Swart, vice-president; Cornelius Borgan, secretary; and Leon Engelhart, treasurer.

Past president Phillips was named to serve as director.

The club is comprised of fathers of children attending Grosse Pointe High and Bronwell Junior High Schools. It has more than 700 members.

On the average, automobile workers are among the highest paid in the nation, government figures show.

The baskets will contain food, clothing and also toys for the younger members of the family.

The Lions are able to distribute these baskets by the money raised during their 20th Annual Goodfellows' Day newspaper sale, Monday, Dec. 15. More than $6,000 was realized.

A great portion of the proceeds will go to support the Lions year around goodwill party.

"YES, VIRGINIA"

NOTE: Reprinting of the letter below, together with the original editor's note, has become a Christmas tradition with The Grosse Pointe Review because it carries a significant message to adults and children alike.

(Back in 1897, little Virginia O'Hanlin wrote the following letter to the editor of the New York Sun: "I am 8 years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says, 'If you see it in The Sun it's so.' Please tell me the truth—is there a Santa Claus?" The editor wrote this newspaper and literary classic in reply to this childish plea.

"Yes, indeed! "Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age—they do not believe except what they see—they think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds.

"In this great universe of ours, man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

"Yes, Virginia, there IS a Santa Claus.

"He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias.

"Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there—nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders that are unseen and unseeable in the world.

"You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, or even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside the curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond.

"No Santa Claus! Thank God!—He lives, and he lives forever—a thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."

JUST COMMENT

Drive carefully or you may have a white Christmas in a hospital.

Now that the Holiday counter attack is virtually over, merchants are readying for the invasion of their exchange departments.

We sympathize with the man who made a bet that he could introduce himself to a girl picked at random and marry her within 12 hours. He won this bet. Since then he has sworn off from gambling.

Unlike the other carolers, the spirited celebrant appeared before the judge singing, "Sweet Adeline."

Unselfishly mother spends Dad's last penny for his Christmas gift.

After a number of years of research it has been found that the price of coffee has nothing to do with the number of drunken drivers on the highway.

'Thank You' Note To Post Office Is Unusual News

How many people have ever stopped to pass along a word of gratitude to the busy postman, particularly during the hectic holiday rush?

Not many that's why when one person comes along who goes out to his way to express his appreciation to the postal men — it makes news.

Following is a copy of a letter sent to Leland F. Lindow, postmaster of Grosse Pointe's little post office that has been doing a record volume of business during the past weeks.

The letter was written by Mr. Kenneth L. Moore, 422 Neff road. He asked that it be published in this newspaper.

Dear Mr. Lindow:

I am taking it upon myself to write you not only on behalf of my family but of all those in Grosse Pointe who gave much occasion to use the Post Office. It is to wish you and Messrs. Mantell, Dodson, McDougall and Neely, who work at the windows, a Merry Christmas and to give you our sincere thanks.

Our thanks have been richly earned. You have all been unfailing patient and good natured; your service has been fast and helpful, and you know the answer to all the questions on foreign packages.

As far as I am concerned you are, collectively, the exception that proves the rule about government and private operation of business. No one could run a better Post Office.

Again — a Merry Christmas to all of you, and a very Happy New Year.

Sincerely, Kenneth L. Moore 422 Neff road

Still Time To Join Toy Club

While it's only a short time until Christmas, it's not too late for all you Grosse Pointers to become members of the Grosse Pointe Toy Club—so there will be a Christmas Day for all kiddies in this community.

There is still just enough time to fill out your application and send it along with your gift or cash contribution to help provide toys for needy children, and become a member of goodstanding assures Park Dr. Hasan Hennig who is in charge this year.

And don't forget that it is your membership and contribution which is so helpful to those kind-hearted people who are joining the members of the police and firemen in Grosse Pointe and Gratiot Townships in distributing Christmas toys to less fortunate youngsters.

Last year the Toy Club was responsible for 350 gifts received by these children on Christmas, and the need has not lessened this year. So hurry your membership through in time, to aid the Toy Club in insuring a sufficient number of toys in time for every kiddie's Christmas. You will find an application on another page.

council, Mr. Kirby expressed his appreciation to Messrs. Glen Coulter, John N. Lord, James Furton and M. William Mason, Harry Furton and Mr. Gabriel for their splendid work and complete cooperation.

He added a note of appreciation for President Watkins for the time spent in completely reviewing the plan and advising the committee in its final work.

Pastor Tells of Great Duty That Faces Men

Editor's Note: At the request of The Grosse Pointe Review this Christmas message was prepared by Rev. Hugh C. White, pastor, Grosse Pointe Methodist Church.

God had just one gift for humanity on that first Christmas Day. In the economy of creative love God put aside all the glitter and tinsel we usually associate with gift giving, and concentrated all of his love, all of his imagination and all of his creative ability on the one great gift of the Christ Child to the world.

We have taken that gift and the results of that gift far too much for granted. The idea of a Saviour who is an only son sent here to dwell among men as an older brother is not easy to achieve. The Creator gave Himself completely on that first Christmas day. He had given all that He possibly could. There was nothing left over.

We can, perhaps, begin to understand the love of God when we understand that God gave the gift knowing full well that it would be unwelcome to the great majority of the people and only partially appreciated by a very tiny group of men.

When we stand back from our handiwork on Christmas Eve and look at our Christmas trees and the profusion of gift around them, it is true that we have labored out of a sense of love for our children and our families, but we feel that we have a right to expect that these gifts will be appreciated.

Sometimes in order to make sure that efforts are appreciated we purchase the type of gifts that glitter and dazzle the eye and guaranteed to produce the "Oh's" and "Ah's" which are our reward for our hard work at Christmas time.

Not so with God. He gave the kind of a gift which He was certain would not be appreciated. Not that the gift had not entailed eons of preparation and sacrifice, not that the gift was cheap or second rate. The gift was so wonderful that this human race was actually incapable of appreciating it or using it properly. So great was God's Love, however, that He gave it in spite of all of these factors of which He was fully aware.

We do not need to dwell at length on what the gift was. It was no great mystery wrapped up in an enigma, it was a Baby wrapped in swaddling clothes—a Baby with all the potentialities of human life coupled with the Divine will. God gave his personality—yes, even His person, to us on that first Christmas.

The great duty that faces man, therefore, is to learn how to use the limitless power that God's love has placed at our disposal.

Reader Recommends Conversion Of Alger House To a Mausoleum

To The Editor: On this blue Monday I'm very sad, yes, very sad indeed. This morning I feel like a good fellow, for a change, and what do I do? Why, I dig down in my jeans and pop for a Review. Then I become very upset because I notice that the Alger House battle is becoming worse and worse. Grosse Pointers are saying nasty things to one another and such action is certainly not typical of well trained "Pointers."

I hope the makers of disparaging remarks gave themselves a good "Palmolive Gargle" when they arrived home. All day I have been bothered by this Alger House problem, when all along I thought it was a "dead mansion," and was to be turned into a mausoleum. Just think what a beautiful mausoleum it would make. Peaceful, quiet, beautiful surroundings, and in general an overall air of breathless beauty. Do I get the $24 or is my thought ridiculous? Well, it's not any more ridiculous than the Memorial Library idea and far less costly from a conversion standpoint. If you don't believe me, ask any undertaker for a figure. I know there will be many Library patrons, who will not patronize the Alger House as a library, but as a mausoleum, I think I can safely say that the patrons will not object.

By now, I'm sure you know my sentimental thoughts on this extremely volatile subject, and that I concur with the difficult but wise action as set down by the school board. The issue must and can only be settled as all such controversies are, — by the ballot. Personally, I'm itching for the opportunity to express my negative opinion via voting booth. I also feel that the majority of taxpayers and library patrons have sufficient confidence in their superintendent, Board of Education, and librarian, to support and abide by their decision not to accept the Alger estate for library purposes. Santa Claus' bag isn't big enough to hold the amount of Christmas spirit the Board of Education would need to accept the Alger House and "Oh, Boy! What a Headache!" Sincerely Yours, "Old Grosse Pointer"

Rotarians Hear Story Of "Silent Night"

Gifts were exchanged during a colorful Christmas program last Monday for the noon meeting of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club at the Whittier.

Dr. Everett K. Seymour, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church, was guest speaker and told fascinating story of the origin of the traditional Christmas song, "Silent Night."

The meeting was concluded with group singing of familiar Christmas songs.

New Lighting For McMillan Planned

Additional street lighting for McMillan avenue between Kercheval and Kerby will be installed as soon as The Detroit Edison, over burdened with work, can get to location, the Farms Council disclosed. It may take six months.

The area is considered a rather dark section at the present.

From 1944 through 1946, only three-quarters of a million automobiles were scrapped in the U.S.—the lowest scrapage rate in history.

15 YEARS AGO Thomas McCutcheon, 1087 Lakepointe won first prize in a contest held here. Other award winners were Mary Monaghan, 1024 Maryland, and Mrs. Herbert Maloney, 795 St. Clair. Following a ten-day stay at New York, Mrs. J. L. Barrett returned to her home on Kensington road.

10 YEARS AGO Alfred J. Karaska, Grosse Pointe Park president, announced that he would seek re-election in March. Candidates for council include John B. Renaud, William F. Shoemaker, and L. A. DeHayes.

FIVE YEARS AGO William N. Fritz enlisted in the army. He is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Fritz, of 1329 Beaconsfield to enlist.

Mrs. Henry C. Brooks, formerly of 1360 Somerset, who lost her household effects in a fire which swept the 2-family dwelling asked the Review to express her thanks to friends and neighbors who helped her.

ONE YEAR AGO Localities were hoping for a break in the weather to go skating. Paul Defereux, 51, 472 Neff, road, died suddenly after a heart attack at his home.

KIWANIS SPEAKER Reverend Everett K. Seymour of the St. Mark's Methodist Church will address the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Riverside Kiwanis Club on Thursday, December 23 at the Hotel Whittier. Members of the Northeast Club will also be guests at an inter-club meeting.

THE RUSSELL HOUSE

"POINTE ON PARADE"

Editor's Note: This is one in a series of illustrated articles entitled "Pointe on Parade" conducted by Leslie P. Young, veteran resident of Grosse Pointe. The article features stories and pictures of many of Grosse Pointe's first buildings.

Located at 16109 Jefferson Avenue, just East of Three Mile Drive is the home of Mrs. Harold F. Wardwell. Mrs. Wardwell is the daughter of Henry Russell. Her family acquired this property, including the residence, in the 1850's when it was known as the Seitz farm.

The central part of the house is of brick and was the original residence built in the late 1700's. Later additions were added to the back and to the sides to enlarge the residence to its present size.

The original foundations are of flat stones mixed with mortar and the beams of the old section are hand hewn and the nails used in this early construction were all hand-made. At the time one of the additions was being made, an old French coin was found in the rubble that was used to fill air spaces between the thick walls, thus showing that the building dated back to the early French period of Michigan history.

Like all of the old French farms along the river and lake, the old Seitz farm, of which this property is a part, consisted of a narrow strip of land, approximately 600 feet wide (or 3 arpents, according to early French terminology) and 3 miles deep, running back from the Lake to Gratiot Avenue. It was because of this unusual depth that Mr. Russell requested that the street be named Three Mile Drive.

The house is claimed to be, not only the oldest standing residence in the Grosse Pointe area, but perhaps the oldest in southeastern Michigan.

Because of its age and its unusually fine Colonial architecture, President Roosevelt, in 1939, sent three architects to study, examine and photograph this home. Mrs. Wardwell has a certificate from the Department of Interior stating that this home is an Historic Building included in the Historic Buildings Survey of the country, and that plans and photographs of the house have been deposited as a permanent reference in the Library of Congress in Washington.

Xmas Tree Bandits

Armed Thugs Invade Home, Mother Pleas for Child

"Please don't hurt my son," said an alarmed mother as two armed thugs bound and gagged her and her husband in their home, 1078 Nottingham late Friday night.

"We won't harm your boy," the intruder told Mr. and Mrs. Alex Phillos as long as he keeps quiet.

With the husband and wife tied down in different bedrooms, the pair ransacked the house, escaping with $400 in cash and checks and 12 quarts of liquor.

Park Police said that the pair conducted a thoroughly search looking for a large sum of money that Mr. Phillos was to have brought home from his business, the Detroit Sausage Co.

Their search which lasted about 45 minutes was interrupted by a visitor. One of the bandits answered the door and according to police promptly bound and gagged the surprised caller.

No one suffered any injury.

Police said the robbers entered the home pretending to be Christmas tree salesmen.

Mrs. Phillos answered the door to find an aggressive salesman described as rather slim, with a Christmas tree. The woman said she was not interested. However the caller persuaded her to allow him to enter the house.

He entered the home holding the tree in one hand and a gun in the other. He was followed by his accomplice who was also armed.

"I used to bring the day's receipts home," Mr. Phillos is reported to have told police, "but after this I'll never do so again."

Police link the crime with a similar theft in Hazel Park which saw two men enter a home by proxy and torture a woman in an effort to find the hiding place of the money her husband was supposed to have brought home from his place of business.

LATE BULLETIN

Park Police disclosed late Tuesday that one of the men has been identified by Mrs. Phillos and an early arrest is expected. His name was withheld by police.

"A way to combine effort in all the Grosse Pointe communities to accomplish certain purposes for the benefit of all the citizens and the taxpayers in the Grosse Pointe area," is the hope of Park Manager Everett Lane, while Peace, in itself, would make just about the best gift possible, according to Thomas Jefferis, Superintendent of the Shores.

A most important present to City Police Chief Tom Trombly would be "a better means of transportation so that we would have less accidents." And a similar proclivity that would interest Park Police Chief Art Louwers is a deathless Christmas and New Year holiday.

Walter Hoyt, Chief of Police of the Farms, joins the plea of doubtless many more with his aspiration to own a nice new home, preferably in the vicinity of Grosse Pointe, "and with a great big red, white, and blue ribbon around it."

"A new Buick. I was looking at one in that new color of Bahama Blue the other day and I fell in love with it!" revealed Park Fire Chief Edward L. Rector as his special longing, as Ledger Schavuin, Fire Chief of the City, thought that about all he hankered for was an abundance of health and happiness.

And Farms Fire Chief George Dansbury sought to eliminate a lot of worry for himself and all Fire Chiefs by openly declaring that the public could give him a good Christmas season if they would:

"When doing a lot of Christmas decorating, especially such as Trees in public assemblages, should spray them at least 72 hours before they are erected, and then put it in a pail of water containing calcium chloride, which will aid in keeping the needles constantly moist. The electrical wiring should also be checked to be in perfect condition, and above all, no old fashioned candles should be placed on the Tree, or that the Tree should block any exits."

The Woods' Police and Fire Chief declined comment, and the Chief of these departments for the Shores was not available because of illness. But the others should give you at least idea of what to pack into your Hale compartment come Christmas Eve, eh, Santa?

Oh, yes! And don't forget Santa, that men will be men." And—well, according to a few of the more impulsive replies, given before a bit more serious consideration, indicated a few luscious young blondes scattered here and there in various masculine stockings certainly would be appreciated.

Ruth Ann Phillips Is December Bride

The former Nancy Jeane Brothers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brothers, of Hampton road, was married recently at Peace Evangelical Lutheran Church to Charles W. Cassube, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cassube, of Courville road, Detroit. After a reception at Club Lido, the couple flew to New York City for their honeymoon.

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was chosen for the scene of the nuptial rites exchanged by Ruth Ann Phillips, of 612 Lincoln Road, and Arlon Brayton Quigley, of Saginaw, last Saturday afternoon, with the Rev. Paul Ketchum officiating.

Attending her daughter's wedding with her husband, Mrs. Harry N. Phillips wore Peacock blue formally fashioned, with a dove grey hat and gold amethyst rose gown and matching accessories chosen by the groom's mother, Mrs. Fred K. Quigley, who arrived from Saginaw with her husband.

A delicately fashioned chantilly lace yoke styled the ivory satin which gowned the bride, with a beaded net Juliette cap topping a veil of illusion, and she carried white poinsettias.

White moire, with hunter's green bows, composed the maid of honor gown worn by Janice Cary, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with matching green head plumes, while red velvet bows and plumes complimented the white moire worn by bridesmaids, Marion Morris, Phyllis Carl, and Marguerite Hamme of Bay City.

Red poinsettias composed the bouquets of the bride's attendants excepting the flower girl, Julianna Beach, who carried a basket of rose petals.

Honeymoon At Sea Island for New K.W. Cunninghams

A winter honeymoon trip to Sea Island, Ga., climaxed the Eastern wedding ceremony of Tirmah Anne Briggs, daughter of the Roger Beach Briggs, of Stratford, Conn., and Kenneth Wallace Cunningham, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Cunningham, of Berkshire Road, last Saturday.

The exchange of vows took place in the bride's home town in the Christ Episcopal Church, with Tirzah appearing in candlelight slipper satin, with long circular train, and her grandmother's heirloom Viennese lace veil. A white orchid adorned her white prayer-book.

English holly composed the bouquets and hunter green trimmed headbands worn with white tissue taffata gowns by the bridal attendants. Mrs. Charles S. Yost, of Pennsylvania, was matron of honor, with Suzanne Kimcald, of Connecticut, Jean Cook, of Massachusetts, Nena Cunningham, Mrs. Stuart Whiteside, Jr., of New York, and Mrs. William Ingram, of New York, were chosen as bridesmaids.

Announce Patroness Committee

Socialites are getting their ski boots and heavy winter garb ready for the MASK & WIG CLUB'S musical extravaganza "Alaska Right Away" which will give a single performance at the Art Institute Theatre January 4th, 1949. This return of the famous MASK & WIG CLUB of the University of Pennsylvania marks the sixty-first year in which great musical productions have been staged. It will be the first local performance since 1925.

The locale of the new production is Alaska and the characters include "Sou'w'gers" and tenderfeet, and include two "Senators"—a Southerner and a Yankee—trying to locate a short road to Alaska.

A large singing and dancing chorus will have many mappy hit tunes to work with and the dialogue, according to eastern critics, is of the "aisle rolling type." The club is famous for great productions and this year's show is said to eclipse all past productions.

Mrs. John J. O'Brien, Chairman of the Patroness Committee of the local Pennsylvania organization of Alumni announces the list of her helpers to include:

- Mrs. Richard W. Webber, Mrs. Julian P. Bowen, Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, Mrs. Earl M. Gove, Mrs. John H. Buell, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. Edwin Olney Jones, Mrs. H. S. Here are some of the more than 500 boys and girls who attended the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club Christmas Party at Mason School Saturday afternoon. The small fry met Santa Claus in person, watched a magician, enjoyed funny cartoons and received candy and balloons. Kiwanis president George Gardner directed the program. Members of Sea Scout Ship 690, led by Werner Von Allmen and Byron Runde, arranged the colorful decorations and supervised the crowd.

Bride Wears Veil Flown From England

An ivory brocade gown, simply styled and trimmed in rosepointe lace, was chosen by Rosalie Packard to complement the two hundred year old heirloom silk veil which was flown from England for her marriage last Saturday to W. T. S. Digby-Seymour.

Carrying a white prayer book, Rosalie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cope Smith, of Washington Road, spoke her vows with the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Digby-Seymour, of Worcester, England, before the Rev. Francis Creamer in Christ Church.

Her heirloom veil, which belonged to the groom's mother, cascaded from a tiny cap of net, and an added touch to her bridal prayerbook was stephanotis with a sprig of white heather.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Dick, and bridesmaids Mrs. Richard Wood, Leviah Lucking, and Mary Louise Kilpatrick, appeared in faille taffeta of forest green, simply fashion, and carried bouquets of red carnations and ivy.

Warren Packard served as best man while Duncan Allen, of New York City; Grant Wedthoff, Richard Dick, and Richard Wood ushered.

The couple are planning to sail in a couple of weeks for Malvern, Worcestershire, County, England, after a honeymoon in the south.

Children Visit Temple Bethel

The children of the Junior Department of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church School have just completed a quarterly study of the early life of Jesus. Their devotional theme for the same period was "My Brother," which included the study of all races. The climax of their study came when the children experienced a visit to Temple Bethel where they attended a Jewish service for Junior members conducted by Rabbi Akseard. The Rabbi guided the Pointe children through the Temple and explained the many symbols of the Jewish religion.

Party Honors Local Nurses

The Board of trustees of the Cottage Hospital of Grosse Pointe gave a Christmas dinner party for the nurses and staff of the Hospital on Tuesday evening, December 21, at the Nurses' Residence on Ridge road. Dinner was followed by a Bingo Party, and one of the nurses, dressed as Santa Claus, distributed presents to her colleagues.

The committee in charge of preparations was chairmanned by Mrs. Eugene du Pont III, and included Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Jr., Mrs. William M. Joy, Mrs. Ledyard Mitchell, Jr., Mrs. John N. Lord, Mrs. James McMillan, Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener, and Mrs. H. Hunter Williams. Members of the Board of trustees and Executive Committee, of which Mrs. Burdette E. Ford is president, attended either the dinner or Bingo Party, or both.

Come one, come all—with food, that is! Friday night before the basketball game, JEAN PARFITT decorated her home in latest Christmas fashions and invited many of her friends over for a pot luck supper. Evie Gough and Earlie Gepp brought relatives, Rusty Troden and Colie Jones furnished an Italian pastry, Neice D'Hondt chose the French bread to bring, and last but not least the main dish, the tuna and potato chip casserole, which Sally McNeef and our hostess clipped in on.

OLD TIMES HERE AGAIN

The high school gym was swelled Friday night by a large crowd of college kids watching the Blue Devils play Fordson. Among the alumni and the present-day attenders were Dan Guy, Bunny Kitson, Bertie Spurrier, Jerry Thiede, Art Beck, Barb Doherty, Joy Hiedrick, Phil Robertson, Bob Stritzinger, Bud Golla, Tom Fenske, Bill Gallegor, Jim Stover, Barb Elliot, Nancy Hodges, Joe Hipful, Joan Kennard, Katie Wieland, Joan Kirkland, Bill Anderson, Jeanie Morrison, Jan Johnston, Woody Giest, John Rummell, Arnold Arends, Dennis McKellar, Vicky Conway, Murial Kitchen, Jean Swan, Jim Hosking, Bill Joop, Meg MacKenzie, Jim Bailey, Bill Kerr, Bob Beatupre, Danny Burke, Bob Fosmoec, and Bill Macaulley. SHERB BROWN did the expert broadcasting job over his own special station WSCB.

MOBE FUN

BOB HAYS' party out at the Lockmour Club after the game won't soon be forgotten by the gang who was there. To break the ice in the beginning of the night, a conga line, which took them under the piano and over chairs, was formed and soon everyone was in a true holiday spirit. Having loads of fun were Carroll Grylls 'n Tom Auch, Barb Bauman 'n Sparks Farquhar, Suzie Johnson 'n Bob Allen, Joanie Massey 'n Jim Henning, Buckle Buck 'n Vince Schoeck, Marlene Hutton 'n Bill Pierce, Suzie Martin 'n Bayard Johnson, Sally Renolds 'n Tom De Gurse, Gail De Gurse 'n Jack Swift, Marianne Trombly 'n Dave Connell, and Barb Odphal 'n Sherb Brown.

Another party following the game was that of ANNIE BARKERS. Among the 12 A's she invited over for cokes and hot dogs were Bob Coleman, Bob Bassett, Elton Banford, Dave Ramsey, Tom Anton, Bob Wallace, Jerry Webster, Add Smart, Bill Beardslee, Stu Ward, Nan Gabriel, Elaine Cabot, Marion Rennie, Carol Stewart, Char Salmon, Betty Fosmoec, Pat Martin, and Joyce Culehan.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

With Christmas only away, the Hi-Y Club decided to put on a carnival. The gym was filled with booths around the outside. Someone stood near each one yelling, "Step right up ladies and gentlemen. Try your luck at darts, test your strength, use the ping pong balls, or have your picture taken." The specialty, though, was the band composed of Add Smart, Butch Edgar, Bob Phillips, Ralph Allard, Joe Mainino, LeRoy Johnson, and a few more. Some of the G. P. pupils coming for a good time were Barb Doherty 'n Paul Grubbs, Suzie Johnson 'n Bud Lang, Sheila MacRae 'n Bob Fosmoec, Nancy Weatherbee 'n Jim Henning, Joanie Massey 'n Chuck Gequire, Joyce Culehan 'n Ed Karrer, Annie Candler 'n Tom Auch, Suzie Riggs 'n Bob Evans, Brenda Winters 'n Ron Knope, Kathy Strek 'n Rich O'Connell.

Backward, turn backward, O time in thy flight
Make me a little girl again just for tomorrow night.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, EVERYONE!

Sampson's Caravan Leaves On Colorful Holiday Trek

Chet Sampson, Grosse Pointe's vagabond, left Tuesday with 14 Grosse Pointe High School seniors on a colorful holiday trek that will find them spending Christmas Eve in Tallahassee. They plan to return, Jan. 4.

The group will travel in three station wagons and sleep out in sleeping bags and do their own cooking.

Sampson said that they intended to spend six days in the Miami area. Brief stops will be made at Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Marineland Studios and Daytona.

One of the six days is marked for a drive down to Key West. From there the caravan will go to New Orleans for one day and two nights.

Like the trip to Mexico last Christmas, this trip is an award to those seniors who have outstanding character and personality and who have contributed something to the school. There is no charge for the trip. Sampson is offering his station wagons and services, and the boys will split the actual costs of the gas, oil and food.

One representative of each Border Cities League schools, will also make the trip.

Each was chosen by his principal as being the senior who most deserved such an award. In each case the boy named was president of the student government or senior class and also a prominent athlete at the school.

Assisting Chet is Mart Marsack, U-M student, who was graduated from Grosse Pointe High in 1944.

Jenks Sets Pace, Wins New Honors

Stepping over their first hurdle toward their third straight Border Cities League swimming championship, the Blue Devil tankers swamped the Royal Oak Aces with surprising ease. 54-30 last Friday. Coach Frank Banach had picked Royal Oak as one of the teams to beat this season and his boys came through with flying colors.

Bob Jenks further established himself as Grosse Pointe High's all-time swimmer by gathering his third individual record, this time in the 100-yard freestyle. His time of :54.6 broke the old record of :55.9 set by Bill Kildow in 1947.

Jenks was also a member of the record breaking 160-yard speed relay team which chopped 7 tenths of a second off the old record of 1:18.2 set in 1946 by Fred Laferte, Paul Friese, Bill Kildow, and Bill Wolfe.

Holder of the 120-yard individual medley in 1948, the 100-yard breast-stroke in 1948, and a member of the record setting 180-yard medley relay team in 1947, Jenks is the greatest record holder in Grosse Pointe High School's history.

pays $80 and fires the furnace for the whole four family flat as well as allowing kitchen privileges to someone living on third floor, who leaves the kitchen in a deplorable mess.

This woman is a fine character and a lonely mother and after working 6 days a week 8 hours a day, to have to pay out $80 for the privilege of coming home to another days work, just isn't right. She came from Ireland May 30, 1947 and cared for me for three months of last summer and I feel as if she were my own daughter she has been so good to me. I have advertised, called on everyone I know but the moment you mention children, you might as well say you had lion cubs. Hasn't some one a place to rent, I shall get my friends together and see if they haven't a spare piece of furniture to help get started. So she will not have to much strain on her purse at this time of year.

You can get in touch with me as at present, I am with my Mother who is 89. If I lived on the East Side it would be easier to get out and see what I could do as I am not yet bedridden. What a Xmas gift this could be for her. God knows she deserves it.

She has been a widow since the youngest was ten days old. She has had a lovely home of her own and this is not easy to come to this great land of our and find life so hard. This is one thing I want to accomplish before I go God grant me that. My phone is TYler-0350 after 11:30 a.m. as I do not get up early.

Most Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Ethel Dougherty

GPH Varsity Cagers To Meet Alumni Championship Squad

By JOHN SANFORD
Review Junior Correspondent
The Blue Devil varsity cagers will take on a new foe this Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the high school gym in the form of an alumni basketball squad made up of members of the 1946-47 Border Cities League Championship team.

It was the 1946-47 team that gave Grosse Pointe its first league championship title in ten years. Members of the squad were John Rummel, Bob Olsen, Paul Grubbs, Dick Wuerker, Ed Isbey, Tom Wilson, Herb Gerhard, Jerry Allen, and Leroy Guaresimo.

Last Friday the Devils lost a terrific battle to the towering Fordson Tractors 35-33. The score was tied or changed hands 13 times throughout the fray.

It was the Tractor's surge in the last two minutes of play that nipped the valiant Devils. Dick Kennedy, the Pointers nemesis of last season continued in true form by scoring the winning basket.
