Name Carson To Police Radio Job

Warren Carson, 32, of 451 Alford road, was named to assume all maintenance responsibilities of the Inter-Municipalities Police Radio System to be in service here June 15.

Carson brings years of experience in radio to his new position. He holds a radio telephone first class license and radio amateur class "A" license. He served as radio technician and relief operator at the Township radio WRDR and was also with General Motors Radar Project Engineering Division.

Since his discharge from the Marine Corps in 1943, he has been employed as chief operator of WRDR.

Carson, who was highly recommended by officials of adjoining communities, will receive approximately $4,000 per year.

The new system will be operated on a co-operative basis by the Farms with Park, City, Shores and Woods. It will replace WRDR.

According to the Farms Council, Carson was the only person who applied for the position.

Four other operators at WRDR will seek employment elsewhere. The new system will be under the control of the five police chiefs of Grosse Pointe.

NORMAN

Scout Aims for West Point, Wins Coveted Awards Here

Another Grosse Pointe High School student, whose main determination is to earn an appointment to West Point, received The Review's "Young American of the Month" for his outstanding endeavors in church, Scout, community, and school activities.

With high hopes that his school and scout service record will aid his winning a scholarship to the West Point Academy, Norman Harden, of 433 Madison, last Sunday received the rare God and Country Award for serving more than 150 hours as an acolyte in service to his church.

The award, given to fewer than a dozen Scouts in the Detroit Area Council, was presented to the Eagle Scout of Troop 156 by the Rev. Edgar Yeoman in the morning service at St. Michael's Episcopal Mission, which was attended by the entire Troop body.

This high achievement was made possible by his conscientious attendance at the church services, explained his mother, Mrs. Harold Harden. "When Norman gets home from school dances at 1 a.m., he still gets up at 7 a.m. to attend church the next morning. Because of this, he has had to forego many an opportunity to enjoy his hobby, sports. While maintaining a good record on the GPH football and basketball teams he had to give up many a morning's golf on Sunday to go to church!"

A sophomore at Grosse Pointe High, Norman has also achieved perfect attendance records at Sunday School and Scout meetings. Because of his four and one-half year unbroken attendance at Scout meetings, he is now working toward earning the most unusual honor of receiving a five-year perfect attendance record this coming November.

Norman is the fourth Grosse Pointe youth to be awarded the honor of "Young American of the Month" by the Review. The citation is given in cooperation with churches, schools, and civic organizations as part of this newspaper's program to recognize the constructive deeds of youth.

Self Assigned Cub Gets First Story
Self assigned cub reporter Johnny Yerges, 11, of 1046 Lakepointe, covered a small fire on Alter road recently. He brought the following story to the editor: "May 16, Sunday afternoon, 3 p.m. The fire at 596 Alter road started by the let. No one was injured."

"The Detroit Fire Department is always willing to lend a helping hand," said Karl J. Cerman, captain. Editor's note: Johnny said that he took several action pictures of the fire. He promised to bring them in as soon as he got them back from the corner drug store.

Officials of the City of Ann Arbor invited Farms council members and other village officials to attend the opening of a new three-deck public parking structure on Thursday, May 26.

Ilanes Waste Plan Shunned By Officials

The combined disposal of garbage and rubbish plan proposed by Park Municipal Manager Lane met with conflicting comments when the issue reached the councils of City of Grosse Pointe, Farms, Woods and officials of Grosse Pointe Shores, early this week.

Lane suggests that the five municipalities join forces to facilitate disposal of all waste material here at a reduction in cost.

According to reports his plan includes the erection of an incinerator in this area. At the present time, the five communities cart waste to distant incinerators.

Though all of the officials indicated that they would join in further study of the matter, only the City Council favored the plan. The rest are completely satisfied with present arrangements.

Murray Smith, Farms engineer, who has made a complete study of the plan, made this report to his council Monday:

"The combined disposal of garbage and rubbish as proposed by Manager Lane of Grosse Pointe Park, will not result in much if any saving so far as I can determine. It is not very likely that we could find a location where they would permit the building of an incinerator plant in this area much closer than our present rubbish disposal pit on the 14 Mile Road; which would mean that there would be no saving in mileage and whereas there is no cost in the operation of our present dump there would certainly be some cost to the operation of an incinerator plant."

"So far as garbage is concerned we again would not be able to shorten our haul very much and at present are being paid $50.00 per month for the Village garbage whereas the incinerating of it would be costly. I talked with Mr. Lane about this matter and believe that the only way any saving might be effected would be through a contract for these services with a private concern who might bid to perform them cheaper than we are presently doing it with our own forces. There might be some advantage in studying these matters jointly with the other communities, but I can see no use in employing consulting experts to plan an incineration plant unless we could first find a site reasonably close where such a plant could be built with the permission of the community in which it was to be located."

Woods Council is definitely not interested in the plan at the present. However, President A. A. Ghesquire named Councilmen Paul Rowe and Arnold Dising to keep abreast with further developments.

"We want to be in on the ground floor just in case suggestions are made to erect the incinerator in our village," commented Dising. "We'll kill that motion before it goes any further."

A Shores official said: "Detroit handles our disposal problem for $900 per year, and we get exceptionally good service."

Lane plans to call a meeting in the near future.

Open Letter Offers Answer to School Housing Problem

Two school districts to meet the controversial school building problem here is suggested by three private residents in an open letter to the Review and the taxpayers of Grosse Pointe.

The authors, Mary Fisk Bryant, of the City of Grosse Pointe; Thomas L. Lott, of Grosse Pointe Park; and John L. Pottle, of Grosse Pointe Farms, urge taxpayers to sub-divide the present school district comprised of Park, City, Farms, Shores, Woods and a section of Gratiot Township into two districts.

The Woods, Shores and Gratiot Township, where more schools are needed, into one district; and Park, City, and Farms, where school facilities are adequate, into a second district.

Following is the letter.

"While the recent election demonstrated a lack of confidence in the School Board, it also gave a clue to the solution of the school problem which confronts the community. In Trombly, Defer, Marie, Richard and Kerb, the vote ran from three to one to as high as six to one against the proposal to float a bond issue and raise the taxes for new schools. In Vernier the proposal lost by a slight margin, but in Mason it carried by better than two to one.

"What is the explanation for this vote—for the striking split along geographical lines?"

"The people of the Park, City and Farms have already paid for their schools. They resent being called upon to build schools a second time—schools for children from homes yet to be built and homes which have not contributed a penny to the present schools. The Shores and Woods and the fraction of Gratiot Township, where the new homes are being built, have up to now made but a negligible contribution to the school system. And they naturally welcome a proposition which gives them schools at the expense of others. This inequity was so obvious that, of course, the proposition was defeated.

"Naturally the Woods, Shores and Gratiot Township will need more schools as they continue to grow. A constructive solution must be found to build these schools. The election shows a solution which is workable and fair:

"LET US SUBDIVIDE THE SCHOOL DISTRICT INTO TWO PARTS:

- 1) The Farms, City, and Park will be one School District.
- 2) The Shores, Woods, and the fraction of Gratiot Township will be the other School District.

"In this division the school properties would be divided between the two new districts in proportion to the tax contributions each has made to the school system (with a cash adjustment if necessary)."

"Upon the adoption of this plan, the Shores, Woods and Gratiot Township will no longer be outvoted and they will be in a position to carry out their own school program at their own expense."

"This is the plan we offer for the serious consideration of the citizens of the Grosse Pointe Rural Agricultural School District No. 1."

200 Richard Parents at School Boundary Hearing

More than two hundred parents attended a meeting at Richard school Wednesday night, which was called to permit them to discuss proposed school boundary changes with members of the School Board and Supt. John R. Barnes.

Principal Clarence Messner introduced Supt. Barnes who explained the current and expected future over-crowded conditions in the Richard school district. Mr. Barnes stated that the Board had three alternatives, namely, first, to do nothing to reduce the pupil load per room, which is now higher than the average classroom throughout the system.

Second, to move the entire sixth grade out of the building and transport them by bus to the Trombly School; and, third, to change the school boundaries, sending all children on Moran except those who will be in 6-A next fall to old and new Kerby schools, and all children on Lakeland and University to Mare school. Children in kindergarten through 3-B would go to old Kerby and those in 3-A through 6-A to new Kerby from Moran road.

Mr. Barnes stated that the Board leaned toward his last recommendation, but would not make final decision until after parents so affected were heard. Strenuous objections were lodged by a large delegation from Moran road, who had no practical remedy to offer except temporary building additions to Richard, which the Board had already considered. A few, and more mild objections were heard from parents on University and Lakeland.

Other spokesmen said that any change the Board found necessary would satisfy them as long as the interests of the children and the school system in general were served.

Curbside discussion after the meeting brought out the comment, "It would be interesting to know how some of the Board's critics voted in the recent School Bond Issue election."

English Vicar to Preach at Local Church

This coming Sunday at Christ Episcopal Church the congregation at the eleven o'clock service will have the privilege of hearing the Rev. Austin Bodycombe, Vicar of Kirkburn Parish, Yorkshire, England. Mr. and Mrs. Bodycombe came to the United States early this month for a six weeks' visit with relatives in various parts of the country, and are at present in Grosse Pointe, guests of his brothers, Robert Bodycombe of Nottingham Road and Abe Bodycombe of Lincoln Road.

After the service the Rev. Mr. Bodycombe will baptize two children, Barbara Lynn, three-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bodycombe of Neff Road and Kay, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Henderson of Cleveland. Barbara Lynn is the grandchild of the Rev. Mr. Bodycombe and Kay is their niece.

Mr. Bodycombe, a native of Wales, is devoted to his adopted country, England, but loves the United States. The Parish of which he is Vicar is an ancient one, having a history that goes back a thousand years. Proudly showing pictures of the church, with its litch-gate and its baptismal font carved by Saxon craftsmen of the tenth century, he reminds us that his was "a going parish five hundred and fifty years before America was known."

Police Stop 695 Cars for Safety Test

The Chiefs of Police of Grosse Pointe announced the results of the first five weeks of the accident prevention program aimed at reducing accidents due to vehicles being driven in an unsafe condition.

They stated that 695 of traffic violators had been stopped and that checks by their men had turned up 40 cars with faulty brakes and 103 with defective lights. The fact that their men, after five weeks of work, are still finding cars being driven in an unsafe condition is the obvious reason why the program is being continued through the month of May, they added.

State-wide figures show 83,910 violators stopped, 5,825 cars with bad brakes, 18,745 with defective lights and 5,015 with other defects, according to the Michigan State Safety Commission.

The Chiefs also warned the motorists of the Grosse Pointes, that driving conditions through the State are becoming increasingly dangerous. In March, for the 5th month in a row deaths throughout the State followed the upward trend of increasing traffic. This summer as the motorist drives around the State, he will have to drive more carefully than he did last summer unless he wants to increase the chances of being involved in an accident, the Chiefs concluded.

Water Main Job Assigned

Farms Council awarded the Chalfone Avenue 12" Water Main construction project to Nelson Sharrow, Marine City contractor.

Sharrow's bid of $38,094 was low among 13 firms bidding for the job at a village council meeting Monday.

Murray Smith, Farms engineer, stated that Sharrow's offer was 5 percent less than his nearest rival.

The contractor will be asked to furnish a construction bond that will meet with the council's approval.

County Helps Woods, But Says No to Farms

Wayne County Road Commission agreed to erect sidewalks on Mack between Roslyn and Ridgemont in answer to a request from the Woods Council.

The same Commission, however, turned down a similar request from the Farms Council due to lack of funds.

School Problem Needs Co-operation

The proposal to sub-divide the school district into two districts has some merit and should be given due consideration by all concerned.

This suggestion, made by three sincere residents, may not be the answer to the building problem here but it focuses renewed attention on the issue. This in itself is a highly important factor.

Their efforts should encourage others who may have been a bit perplexed about the entire issue during the recent election to look into the matter a bit further. Let's keep this matter in the limelight until an acceptable answer to our school problem is reached. Perhaps the school board, working with municipal officials, civic leaders and private residents, may be able to prepare a plan in time for the regular school election in June.

Let's work together to ascertain that all Grosse Pointe children have the best educational facilities available at all times. Your co-operation is needed.

The Airlift Story

The agreement between the Soviet Union and the Western powers to lift the blockade of Berlin and to reopen mutual discussions of the German problem, is generally considered to be a major victory for the West in the "cold war." It would be manifestly unwise to believe that the situation is susceptible to no other interpretation—the Kremlin has pulled many a clever trick in the past, and things are not always what they seem to be on the surface. However, the Russian blockade failed entirely to get the planned result, and the Soviet policy makers have apparently accepted that as a demonstrated fact and are embarked in a new tactical direction.

The Berlin blockade will make a colorful page in history if for only one reason—the way the air lift broke it. No one, save a few American military experts, and they had their doubts—believed that a great city, war-torn and with few resources of its own, could be indefinitely supplied by air. But the air lift did the near impossible. Food, coal, and all the rest of the necessities came in by thousands of tons each day, whether notwithstanding. The British helped materially. Every possible plane was pressed into service and kept flying. The job was done without regard to cost or risk. At times planes arrived and departed from Tempelhof airdrome at two-minute intervals day and night. Berlin was fed and sheltered.

The air lift was the weapon that made the blockade untenable. But, if Russia has really decided it is necessary to come to terms with the West, there must be other reasons back of it. One may be that the Bear has bit off all and perhaps more than he can chew for the time being. The job of consolidating the countries behind the iron curtain is incredibly difficult. It is no secret that millions of people in Czechoslovakia, Hungary and elsewhere are restive under Soviet dictation. Russia is making an all-out effort to increase her industrial production, particularly in the heavy-goods field. The drain of her military establishment on her resources is enormous. Under these circumstances, the Politburo may have understandably decided that a prolonged truce with the West, if not a real peace, is desirable.

No one should minimize the reverses the West has received in China. It will be a miracle if the Nationalist government survives as an effective influence. However, it is doubtful if the Chinese reds will do much for their Russian friends. Stalin is said to have compared Chinese communists to a radish—red outside and white inside. They have a job on their hands within China, without trying to help extend the Soviet ideology throughout the world.

Just Comment

A burlesque show is where actors assume everybody in the audience is from Missouri.

If the American Indian had enough votes, there would be a vigorous campaign begun to restore his lands to him.

You can estimate the number of automobiles that the average family needs if you can't count the number of people in it.

It won't be long now that a citizen will be a sorry specimen without either a job, pension or subsidy from the government.

What we cannot understand is why any Russian would want to come into the U. S. A., even on a visit, if everything is so good in the Soviet country.

Labor leaders have made some big mistakes, and they may be making them still, but nobody can erase the fact that organization had improved the lot of the workers in the United States.

If the people of Grosse Pointe could compare their condition to that of hundreds of millions of people in other countries they would not get excited over what they hear.

Advocates Union of World Groups

Mrs. Juliette Graefie who just returned from spending three years in Geneva, Switzerland, addressed a group of Baha'is and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George True on Tuesday evening.

"There are hundreds of organizations who have their headquarters in Geneva," she said. "There are dozens of world peace movements such as World Federalists, the World Citizens, the World Parliaments, the Universal League for World Federation, and so on. There are many groups for international relief of refugees, orphans, widows and religious representatives.

"If these groups would work together and collaborate, they could accomplish a great deal more with much less time and money. But all these groups are based on human intelligence. Their measuring stick is their own ideas and opinions. This type of measuring stick limits them from uniting with other groups and being more effective.

"The Baha'is have a divinely revealed Peace Plan, and in the Baha'is group you will find the essentials for world peace. They are working for a world super-state, a world legislative, executive and judicial body, a world police force, the relief of the suffering, a world language, a world educational system, as well as the unification of the religions of the world.

"Baha'is all over the world are agreed to these provisions, and are all pulling in the same direction. They do not argue as to how it shall be, for it is, they believe, God's Plan for world peace."

WHAT! PLAY THAT ROUGH GAME?

FOR REARING DAUGHTER

Educator Rebukes Parents' 'Old Fashioned' Ideas

A prominent educator condemns many parents today for trying to rear their daughters as "old-fashioned girls" and thus failing to prepare them for life.

He is James L. Hymes, Jr., Professor of Education and Co-ordinator of Earl Childhood Education at the New Paltz State Teachers College, New York.

In an article written for CHILDCRAFT books, Mr. Hymes declares that "the old-fashioned girl may have been Grandfather's ideal, but she has no realistic place in modern society. Today's woman is expected to take an active part in the affairs of her family, community, and the world. When she has been unprepared to assume a role of responsibility in childhood, she is apt to be both unhappy and unsuccessful as an adult."

"Many parents still hold the model of the 1900's for girls of today. They rear daughters who are over-protected, under-informed, and confined in their interests."

In the CHILDCRAFT article, Mr. Hymes points out that "history has proved the pattern set for women is almost invariably conditioned by environment, economic necessity and tradition, rather than by anything basic or essential in the nature of women themselves."

Medical Procedure Denotes Progress

(Editor's note: What the expansion of Cottage Hospital will mean in increased hospital care and better health for the residents of Grosse Pointe is told in a series of articles, of which this is the ninth. Toward this project $750,000 has been allocated by the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund now beginning a campaign for $1,720,000. The Fund's over-all program embraces ten existing hospitals in Greater Detroit to be enlarged and improved and four new ones to be built and equipped.)

"I had the same operation years ago and I know just how it will be..." Your friend is wrong. If he had a similar operation years ago, he cannot tell you what to expect when you go to a modern well-equipped hospital such as Cottage. Medical techniques and hospital procedure have changed.

"They put a cone over your face and pour ether on it out of a bottle..." Your friend is mistaken. The technique of administering anesthetics has changed. Once ether and chloroform were most commonly used to produce sleep suitable for an operation, but now many other anesthetic agents are also used, and the surgeon and anesthetist decide in consultation which is most suitable for a particular patient and particular operation. For certain operations an anesthetic agent is injected into the spinal canal and the patient, although awake, is insensible to pain.

Your friend may tell you about his discomfort after the operation. But remember that was years ago. Much of the discomfort of the recovery period has been eliminated by the anesthetics now generally used, and besides the actual anesthetic drugs and gases used to produce sleep during surgery, there have been numerous new drugs discovered which make the recovery both safer and more comfortable for the patient. These agents are always readily available during all operations in a well-equipped hospital.

"They'll keep you flat on your back for ten days..." Wrong again. The practice of "early ambulation," which may have originated in Detroit hospitals, has been generally adopted by hospitals everywhere. It has been found that patients who get out of bed soon after their operations recover much more rapidly than late risers.

For most operations, doctors advise patients to get out of bed and move about very soon. Early risers suffer less from gas pains, nausea and weakness than those who remain in bed and fewer pain-relieving drugs are necessary. They eat and sleep better, for this early exercise, and suffer less from weakness. Most patients return to work in less than half of the time previously required.

If you are admitted to a good hospital such as Cottage, your stay will probably be much more comfortable and shorter than your friend predicts, who had his operation long ago. But Cottage Hospital must be enlarged to take care of the growing needs of the community.

The Greater Detroit Hospital Fund was organized to assemble funds for the enlargement of Cottage and nine voluntary hospitals in Greater Detroit and construct four new ones.

I want to thank you and Myrlers Florist for the beautiful orchid you gave me on Mother's Day. I enjoyed it so much. I also liked my picture in your paper. The young mother was so sweet and she has a darling baby.

By the way, I nearly forgot to mention I have the orchid you gave me last year. It is pressed in a book and it looks lovely. I am going to put this one in another book.

I had a lovely dinner at my granddaughter's and we all enjoyed the day. Thanking you again for all your kindness. I hope I will see you next year.

Name Dr. Kolb Rector for Christ Church

The appointment of the Rev. J. J. Kolb, D.D., chaplain and boardman lecturer of Christian Church at the University of Pennsylvania, as rector of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, was announced by Wendell W. Anderson, senior warden.

Dr. Kolb, 48, who was graduated cum laude by Harvard University in 1925 and who received degrees from the Harvard Divinity School and the University of Pennsylvania, will assume his new office on June 1.

He succeeds the Rev. Francis Creamer, D.D., who resigned his position last January because of ill health after serving as rector from 1933. Prior to that, for many years, Dr. Creamer had been assistant minister and vicar of the church.

Dr. Kolb has served at his present position for the last eight years. Before that, he was rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit in Mattapan, Mass., a suburb of Boston.

He was also curator of St. Stephen Church, Lynn, Mass., for many years. He is married and has two children.

Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman, vicar of St. Michael's chapel, will continue to preside at Christ Church until Dr. Kolb arrives.

Local Boy In Washington

WASHINGTON, D. C.—These young public servants found the sights in their nation's Capital and a round-trip from home by special train a worthwhile reward for keeping schoolmates from traffic mishaps in all kinds of weather. They were among 87 Michigan safety patrolers who were taken on a four-day all-expense tour to Washington by Automobile Club of Michigan from Thursday through Sunday (May 12-May 15). From left to right they are: Robt. rt Emson, Oxford school, Dearborn; Bernard Wilson, St. Raphael school, Garden City; Lawrence Clark, Pierce Jr. high school, Grosse Pointe; and Russell A. Bobcean, Dickinson school, Mt. Clemens.

Pierce Band to Present Annual Spring Concert

On Wednesday evening, May 25, at 8 p.m., the Music Department of Pierce Junior High School will present its tenth annual Spring Concert in the Pierce Auditorium. The Chorus, under the direction of Gwen Brockmiller, and the Orchestra and the Band, conducted by Herbert Nuechterlein, will participate. The accompanist for the choral numbers will be Don Paquette.

Schubert's "Rosamunde Overture," played by the orchestra, will be the curtain-raiser. The opening choral group features compositions of three masters, Handel's "Thanks Be to Thee," Tchaikovsky's "Pilgrim Song," and Rubinstein's "Song of the Angels," based on his familiar "Kamerai Ostrow." Frances Crowley is the soloist in the Rubinstein composition. The string section of the orchestra then continues with Tunes and Dances from "Dioclesian" by the sixteenth century master Purcell.

Also included in the choral portion of the program are excerpts from the popular opera "Faust," by the French composer Charles Gounod, the Negro spiritual, "Ain't That Good News," and two light opera selections, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" by Herbert, and "Hallelujah" by Youmans. Bonnie Glasgow and Keith Rowan are the other vocal soloists.

In a Latin American vein, the orchestra plays Lecuona's "Si-boney," which is followed by the first movement of Symphony in F Major, by Johnson, a symphony written in the classic style of Mozart and Haydn. The chorus and orchestra conclude the first half with the chorale, "Now Thank We All Our God," from a Bach Cantata.

After the intermission, the band opens with the spirited march by Holmes, "Marche Courageous." Lilly's "Concert Overture in G minor" then follows.

GPH Concert Band Promises Variety

Everything from symphonies to marches will be included at the annual spring concert by the Grosse Pointe High School Band Saturday, May 21, at 8:15 p.m. at Pierce auditorium.

Mr. D. D. Kalember will direct.

Vet Groups Plan Annual Poppy Sale

With another Poppy Day just before us, patriotic organizations are preparing to distribute the memorial flower throughout the nation. Citizens of Grosse Pointe are asked to place a poppy on their lapel, when We American Legion and Ladies' Auxiliary distribute the crepe paper poppy in the Grosse Pointe area on May 26, 27 and 28.

The significance of the poppy, which originated during the first World War, became known as the memorial flower of the war dead, because it was the only flower which grew and bloomed between grave crosses row on row. In the poppy was found a way to link the honoring of the dead with service for the living of both wars. The dimes and dollars which go into the funds will continue to aid in the vast supporting program of relief for disabled veterans.

In observance of the national tradition, the Grosse Pointe Councils have granted permission to Grosse Pointe Post 303, Alger Post VFW 995 and their auxiliaries to conduct their poppy sale here.

Pointe Personalities

By TONI EBNER

The highly polished sea chest, the ship's model, and the bells which stir the air with their magic chimes of nautical rhythm are in accordance with the tastes of Mrs. D. Dwight Douglas. Her tang for sailing has been fostered by her husband who served as a Naval captain in the recent war. Last summer they packed their seabags to scour the Eastern seaboard in their fancy Mackinaw sloop, Maski II.

This summer they will hoist the sails once again and cut into such ports as York Harbor, Marblehead, Newport, and Long Island Sound, departing from their main base at Edgartown, Mass., where the ship is docked. Mrs. Douglas' attachment to salt air has not precluded her from establishing a beautiful home on Fairbairn Place which is only a few sparings from Lake St. Clair.

In the community Mrs. Douglas is recognized as a spark plug for the War Memorial Center. This involves the conversion of the Alger House to a commemorative monument of the war dead in Grosse Pointe. This Memorial will also serve as a personal tribute to her son, Henry Chesne, Jr., who was killed at Guadalcanal while a member of the Marine Air Corps.

As the former Josephine Alger, she is on the board of directors of the Memorial as a representative of that family. It was in this home that she spent her childhood, romping on the kept lawns which stretched to the lakefront.

The home which is more recently remembered as a branch of the Detroit Institute of Arts can some day be the cultural center of residents, perhaps stimulating outdoor music festivals, informal dramatic presentations, or a recess for diverse hobby enthusiasts.

"I am delighted to be a member of the War Memorial Board," she says, "which has great possibilities for development of the interests of the young people of the five Grosse Pointe communities."

Mrs. Douglas has carved her niche in the success of many community projects. When the Thrift Shop was in its infancy on Maumee Road she promoted its prosperity as president. The Shop is in part a financial crutch for the Neighborhood Club, which lists her mother, Mrs. Russell Alger, in the roster of its founders. Presently her sister, Mrs. Sidney T. Miller, Jr., is chief commander at the Club.

A native of this soil, Mrs. Douglas was schooled at Liggett and in the East. She frequently attended the horse shows at Bloomfield Hills and the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, and cantered regularly along these bridle paths. She is a golfer and likes hunting and fishing. At one time armed with the palette and the easel she dabbled in oil painting. In this vein Mrs. Douglas has associated herself with the Artists Market, which fosters the sale of paintings by young artists.

A favorite excuse to pack their traveling bags, Mrs. Douglas and her husband can give their wanderlust to visit their children. Daughters, Mrs. William E. Wiles, Jr., and Mrs. Harry H. Kern, are residents of Long Island and California respectively. And a son, Alger Chaney, is in the lumber business in Oregon.

To Show Films At May Tea

Movies of the Netherlands in color will be shown by Earl Brink at the Annual May Tea of The Women's Association of The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Tuesday afternoon, May 24, at 2:30 o'clock at the church. Mrs. Lewis L. Smart, president of the association, will introduce Mr. Brink who will talk on his travels as the pictures are shown. Following the program, which was arranged by Mrs. Clarence L. Fox, there will be a tea for members and their friends for which Mrs. Floyd Straith has been chairman. Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson is planning the tea table d'oeuvre arrangements.

Among those who will alternate at the tea service will be Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, Mrs. Frank Pitt, Mrs. Gaylord W. Gillis, Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Mrs. Henry Newman, Mrs. Herbert Mandel, Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, Mrs. Earle R. Bridge, Mrs. William F. Arnoldy and Mrs. Ray Jacobs.

An interesting feature of the day will be the Preview and Sale of articles made for the 1949 Christmas Fair which will open at 11 o'clock in the morning in the women's parlors. Gifts and articles for summer living on porch and terrace will be sold or may be ordered including linens, knitted-wear, books for summer leisure hours, and the many beautiful hand-made specialties that women of the church have been preparing for several months. This Preview opens in the morning to enable friends in the Pointes to have an opportunity to stop in for a look at this display. There will be a showing of the hooked rugs done this year by the parents, Mrs. Ora Max, who will start a class in hooking in the fall at Memorial Church as a part of the Fair activities. Anyone wishing to enroll in the class may notify the co-chairmen, Mrs. Stanley MacKenzie and Mrs. Ward Peck.

Teen Talk

By NORMA NEEB

Look ahead and you will see, The fun that was for you and me. The first, was Friday, round about eight. The last, was a picnic—a Sunday date.

"Sweet Sixteen"—know what that means, don't you? Why, another surprise birthday party, of course! As the clock neared eight, over at SHIRLEY BUTHE'S house Friday night, Nancy Newton, Babe Mann, Leona De Stefano, Betty Nelson, Caroline Gayarato, Nancy Van Denbussche, Irene Biasiola, and Doris McTroy were lighting the candles. A few minutes later, when FRANCES PALOZZOLO walked in, she realized that ALL Fridays the 13 don't turn out so bad.

For some time, now, NANCY WETHERBEE has been waiting for that perfect day to take her pals to her cottage at the "flats." I guess Saturday was "just that day" cuz the gang frekked all the way, in cars, of course, for an all-day picnic. "Sure was swell" thought Butch Edgar. Barb James 'n Bud Lang, Janie Dalton 'n Bill Macauliffe, Sally Owen 'n Johnny Murphy, Jeannie Orebrough 'n Bill Joop, Barb Rose 'n Dick Fordon, Ginny Allor 'n Bob Ruck, and Margaret Guy 'n Danny Burke, as they headed for home.

Saturday night CARM VENITE and COLLIE Jones cooperated on a picnic at Belle Isle. After roasting hot dogs over an open fire, Andy Quartuccio, Jim Radawski, Bernice D'Hondt, Don Weidyke, Jeannie Parfit, Tom Denke, Judy Gardner, Barb Weidyke, and Perry Frontiera spent the remaining part of the evening at Jefferson Beach and then at Collie's house for dancing.

A DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT???
Yep, and the Junior Prom, too. "Guess we'd better start right from the beginning . . . GORDON FAUST was certainly a big help to his date, JULIE FORD, when she served Suzie Johnson 'n Bill Pierce, Jackie Whittenburg 'n Hill Pierce, Ginny Granse 'n Dave Pethick, Sally MacDonald 'n Tom Hoffman, Nancy Georgi 'n Dick Guehler, Meg MacKenzie 'n Frank Swartz, Jeannie Webb 'n Bob Bordon, Donna Steenrod 'n Roger Hammer, Carol Krause 'n Harry Essling, Suzie Martin 'n Bayard Johnson, Twig Wright 'n LeRay Peplinski with cokes and lots of sandwiches.

Over Westchester way, MARLENE HUTTON made a super thing out of her cokes tail party. SPARKY FARQUHAR played host to Jan Hobson 'n Dick Fordon and many, many people who came from Julie's house.

BETTY NELSON—no other cocktail party—more fun! Whoops, this one's different—the kids were sipping cider instead of the ol' stand-by, coke. Doing so, were Nancy Newton 'n Johnny Ryan, Shirley Buehne 'n Bob Ward, Babe Mann 'n Don Bennett, Nancy Vanderbussche 'n Tony Grillo. Kenny Walkers was her date.

JACK GOODSON DID IT TOO! FRANCES PALOZZOLO WAS TOPS OF ALL the hostesses, ever, as she led the line of kids—Sue Essington 'n Noel Melville, Barb Bethel 'n Tom Nelson, Nancy Logge 'n Russ Haskin, Carolyn Elmore 'n Larry Friar, Kathy Strek 'n Rich O'Connell, Janie Fordon 'n Jim Barker, Sally Andrus 'n Bill Turrell, Ginny Allor 'n Gary Long, Don Randolph 'n Judie MacMahon, Jay Cope 'n Gloria Clima, Sal McNeff 'n Barry Munro, and Sally Owen 'n Kirk Walsh, around the dining room table to get the best of everything to eat and drink.

Nearly the whole Junior Class stopped in at DOLLY LIM-BROCK'S house on Lake Shore Road for cokes, etc. before continuing on to a dinner party. "Caught a glimpse of Johnny Mack, Joan Massy 'n Chuck Guesquire, Jeannie Morrison 'n George Turnouli, Mary Ann Schmitt 'n Bob Jenks, Ellie Corfield 'n Dave Ramsay, Joyce Clements 'n Dan Manson, Carolyn Hohn 'n Don Schmitz, Sue Kitson 'n Bo Fugar, Phyllis Frank 'n Dick Smart, Jeannie Swan 'n Larry Swartz, Judie Gehlert 'n Jerry Strek, Jeannie Giles 'n Larry Wilson, Jim Stewart 'n Billy Denim, Janet Joyce 'n Don MacLean, and Connie Baker 'n Bill Brown as they were just leaving.

AND THEY HAD DINNER TOO!!!
DAVE DONNELLY was one who served the best of all ham dinners to his guests, Jan ZurSchmeide, his date, Madge Winters 'n Bob Armstrong, Twig Wright 'n LeRoy Peplinske, Diane Thompson 'n Nowie Clark, Sue Martin 'n Bayard Johnson, Nancy Russell 'n Wayne Peterson, Jeannie Salmon 'n Spike Quirk, Char Smith 'n Roger Matier, Chris Orr 'n Skip Downey, and Jeannie Swan 'n Larry Swartz, before heading for the prom.

Roast Beef was the main dish at the EVAN'S household—hmm, good, too! With BOB and his date SUZIE RIGGS, at the head of the table, the others sitting around were Jim Swift 'n Peggy Dickens, Dave Conell 'n Marianne Trombley, Sherb Brown 'n Carroll Grylls, Bob Allen 'n Marcia Booth, and Tommy Auch.

A pot-luck dinner of ham and potatoes—deluxe special—was the order of JANICE SKILLMAN when she planned her pre-prom dinner—it was just that too! After eating, Larry Hittle, Polly Wilton 'n Milt Setzer, Janie Lundgren 'n Don De Keyser, Marilyn Walters 'n Jerry Ewart, Joannie Rollings 'n Don Osborn, and Meeky VanZanen 'n Dick Redmond went to Meeky's house for bridge and cokes. Others seen there were Betsy Waldbott 'n Jim Goebie, Margie Walling 'n John Sandford, and Jeannie Webb 'n Bob Bordon.

P.S.—JANIE LUNGRON had a breakfast of waffles 'n sausages for the same crowd, plus Bill Jackson 'n Cathy Droegle, following the dance.

Seen out at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club having dinner were Mary Hardleban 'n Danny Barrett, Dolly Limbrock 'n John Mack, Jeannie Morrison 'n George Turnbull, Mary Hodges 'n Jim Rogers, Joan Massy 'n Chuck Guesquire, and Judy Gehlert 'n Jerry Strek. All were guests of Danny Barrett. Others they saw were Barb Orphan 'n Fritz Blox, Annie Candler 'n Jim Williams, Janie Fordon 'n Jim Barker, Kathy Strek 'n Rich O'Connell, Ginny Granse 'n Dave Pethick, Mary Mohr 'n Kenny Rice, Meg MacKenzie 'n Frank Swartz, Carol Krause 'n Harry Essling, and Joyce Clements 'n Dan Manson.

Jim Mast 'n Marti Watkins, Dick Lord 'n Bonnie Reitz, and Fred Linneman 'n Gail DeGurse spent the first part of the evening at the Hawthorne house. Afterwards the dance was number one on the entertainment list.

One more club was the place of a dinner party—this time, The Women's City Club, with BOB PLATE as host. BEV MARTIN, right-hand gal, seated the guests, Sue Kitson 'n Bo Fugar, Marion Orloff 'n Bob Peters, Felice Thorne 'n Terry Thomas, Barb Wescott 'n Ford Slater, and Phyllis Frank 'n Dick Smart. Bev invited the same crowd to her house after the dance for more fun.

CDS Students Honor May Day Queen

Grosse Pointe Country Day School held its annual May Day, on the front lawn of the school this past Tuesday. Reigning in regal splendor was the May Day Queen, Jane Kuhlman. She was surrounded by her court attendants—Susan Wheelock, Betty Lou Givens, Sarah Weed, Mary Kate Worcester and Anne Schreiber. Wearing organdy gowns of pastel shades, they helped accentuate their attractive Queen who was crowned in white tulle. Miss Kuhlman's train, trimmed with eyelid embroidery and scattered with blue bows, was capably managed by her Train Bearers, Phillip Pittman and Bobby Wood.

Fix Schedule for Summer School at GPH

Summer school will begin on Monday, June 20, and close on August 12. Courses are available for those in the elementary grades, junior and senior high students.

Providing enrollment warrants, the following courses will be offered:

Typing I-IV (open to those who have completed the eighth grade or above); 9B-12A English; French II and IV; Latin II-IV; Spanish II-IV; 4B-6A mathematics; algebra I-IV; geometry I-III; trigonometry; instrumental music; 4B-6A reading; civics III; history I-IV; economics; and 4B-6A spelling.

Registration begins on Friday, June 17, in room 114 from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock. Saturday, June 18, students may enroll from 9 o'clock to 12 and on Monday, June 20, from 8 o'clock to 4. It is strongly urged that enrollments be made promptly on Saturday, rather than Monday. All enrollments will be made on a "first come, first served" basis.

Preference in all enrollments will be given to residents of the Grosse Pointe area while non-residents will have a conditional acceptance until 3 o'clock on Monday, June 20.

For students living in the Grosse Pointe school district the fee per course is $7.00 and the non-resident fee per course is $14.00 which must be paid in full when enrolling.

Anyone withdrawing from summer school during his first week will be refunded 80 per cent of his fee and will receive 50 per cent of the fee if he withdraws the second week. No part of any fees will be returned to anyone making application for a refund after July 1, 1949.

The school day is from 8:00 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. It is divided into three periods of one and one-half hours each.

Since the amount of work which must be covered in the eight week period is so great and because the average assignment is approximately three times the length of a regular school assignment, it is recommended that a student take only a reasonable amount of work, thirteen hours at the most. With special permission students may take fifteen hours of work provided one course is either for "no credit" or to raise an already passing mark.

SCHOOL NEWS

RICHARD

Believing that the conservation of the beauties and natural resources of our great America is one of the most crucial issues of our time, Richard School pupils are frequently given rich experiences in nature study and conservation. Recently, in order to celebrate Arbor Day, the pupils of the entire school planted several elms on the grounds. The program was divided into three parts with nearly 200 children participating in each part. Grade group chairmen, Miss Weyrauch, Mrs. Stringer and Mr. Hammel planned and directed the programs.

For the kindergarten, first and second grade program the pupils sang the Richard School song. The first graders read the poem, "Planting a Tree" by Louise Kessler. The principal, Mr. Messner, made some remarks about beauty in nature. A pupil from each room placed a shovel full of dirt around the newly planted tree. The program closed by the singing of "America the Beautiful."

Mary Wardle acted as chairman of the third and fourth grade program. The tree dedication was made by Christie Hatch. Some facts about trees were stated in brief talks by Audrey Schmidt, Susan Kimball and Barbara Henderson. Frank Girardin presented a tree joke. Two other talks were made by George Durcan and Robert Peterson. Under the direction of Miss Raynal, the children of the 3B sang, "In the Leafy Tree Tops."

The children of grades five and six also had their separate program and planted the third tree. Gretchen Klein talked on the history of Arbor Day. Paul Arnold gave a talk on trees. Suzie Leach presented a poem. Under the direction of Mrs. Nelson, the upper grade music teacher, all of the pupils sang "Sweet Spring."

Quite a number of classrooms have small gardens, either in sand tables or in small pots withing the rooms, among them being: the rooms of Miss Weyrauch, Mrs. Holt, Miss Raynal, Mrs. Drew. The kindergarten children of Mrs. Arends have an outside flower garden on the front lawn.

Al Mann Helps 200 Attend Beat Monroe Tennis Squad

Grosse Pointe extending its undefeated season by defeating Monroe in a return match 5-2. This is the 27th consecutive match to be won and the 95 out of 96 since 1941.

Al Mann played No. 1 singles and trounced his opponent 6-2, 6-0, showing a strong brand of tennis. All four singles players won quite easily. Bruce Kirchner, Bob Allen and LeRoy Johnson played in that order.

The No. 1 and No. 2 doubles team lost their matches to account for the two points Monroe garnered.

Bob Allen and Ray Leonard continued their winning ways 6-3, 6-2, in the final doubles match. This is the same team that put on such a good performance at Wyandotte.

Whereas the match was extremely close at Monroe when G. P. won 4-3, the return match played on the G. P. local courts was in the "bag" from the very start. Interesting enough, this time Coach Schultz put his strength in singles and Coach Tambling placed his stronger players in doubles which the score indicates. In the first three Grosse Pointe lost the first three matches and won all the doubles. This time the local netters won all the singles and lost two out of three of the doubles.

Singles Matches

Local Man Returns for Naval Course

NEW ORLEANS — To keep abreast of the latest developments in the Navy's Supply Corps, Ens. Robert H. Frahm, USNR, of 1314 Lakepointe, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., has reported here this week for a two-week refresher course with a "traveling" supply corps school.
The school, which is convening at the U. S. Naval Station here, was designed by the Navy to facilitate instruction of scattered supply corps reservists throughout the U.S.
Conducted by two officer-instructors from the Navy Supply Corps School at Bayonne, N. J., the school's curriculum offers technical demonstrations, field tours of industrial areas and lectures on nearly every phase of naval supply and accounting.
After two weeks here the school will continue its schedule of classes in other major cities across the nation.

HONEY - RUM CURED

decorating of his own home with original motifs which are believed to be at least ten years ahead of present fashions, according to a famed interior decorator.

In fact, when he was not working on his racing car during these past months, Olson was dreaming up new schemes for the large rooms in his rambling mansion which he began remodeling just before he started on the car.

An exterior of light gray with ox-blood and copper trimming houses an interior that can only be described as moderne Olson. A chaise longue compliments the dark-green living-room walls with its leopard trimming and panther portraits on the walls an idea table book-ends. Its sectional furniture is accented by the red-trimmed white piano and a mural picks up all the colors in a harmonious whole.

His master bedroom is a blend of acrol-leopard tangarine, and beige. A leopard-spread covered bed is framed with leopard drapes on either side of a gold mottled panel, and a tangarine drapes frame the window.

Two of the cerise walls of his private den is covered with drapes having a rose flowered design against a white background. The furniture is done in black, with the single exception of the television set and a brown and green eight-foot sofa.

Mirrored sliding doors have been installed in the butler's pantry which is also carried out in the red plaid wallpaper which trims the kitchen's olive-green and white walls.

The bedroom's leopard theme is also carried out in the bathroom, with its leopard drapes contrasting against hie cocoa-brown and tangarine walls and cocoa-brown mats, while in his dressing-room Olson has built a special wardrobe. Its sliding mirrored doors close on special compartments for all types of male attire.

And when he returns in June from the Indianapolis race Olson is planning to do some very interesting landscaping around the grounds of the house. He is especially concentrating on building the theme around a beautifully designed fountain, which he had imported from Italy.

His thoughts now, however, are completely centered on the race. He has been staying in Indianapolis since May 6 for the event and predicts that his car could be worked into the 130 mph bracket.
