PARK PRESIDENCY FIGHT LOOMS

Civil Board Here Faces Shake-up; New Names Seen

A shake-up in Grosse Pointe Park's Civil Service Commission is expected shortly when its three members come up for re-appointment, according to Everitt Lane, Park manager. The Park Council will decide whether to re-appoint or replace Carl Graul and Victor Wehmeier. The Park Fire Department will act on the third member, John C. Staudt. Recent disagreement and allegations around the three-man board caused the Park Council to conduct a probe of their actions. The investigation supported the recommendations for Fire Department appointments made by Graul and Wehmeier. The pair were accused of being prejudiced and unfair by Staudt. The Civil Service Board makes municipal and Fire Department appointments and promotions.

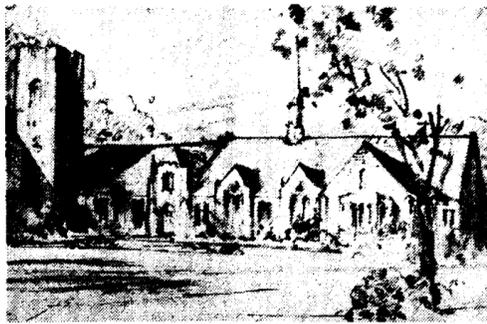

LEADER

Miss Helen Kenyon, of New York, first woman moderator of the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches will speak at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church dedication service Sunday, Jan. 15. See story on page 4.

Park Eyes Vast 1950 Program

The most ambitious civic improvement program in the history of Grosse Pointe Park is expected to get underway in 1950 by Everitt B. Lane, Park municipal manager. Under a "pay-as-you-go" six-year master plan, he expects work to begin or plans to be completed on the following projects:
1—Civic Center.
2—Street Lighting.
3—Balfour Sewer Relief.
4—Transportation (re-routing of bus routes and street improvements).
5—Off-Street Parking (Parking Meters).
6—Recreation Facilities.
He said that the annual budget would provide the major share of the cost. The over-all cost as yet is not determined he said. "We plan to undertake this project without increasing the tax rate," he disclosed. Lane said that the most important issue before the Village in 1950 is the proposal to leave the Township. The question will be placed before the voters in March. Meanwhile, he stated that the Planning Commission, which has been studying the aforesaid projects, will make some recommendations at the January 23rd Council meeting.

NEW METHODIST CHURCH

Cornerstone ceremonies were held Sunday for the new Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, 211 Moross road. See story below.

NEED MORE ROOM

'Too Much Business' Is Headache To P.O.

Unlike other endeavors, Grosse Pointe Post Office has a problem because it is doing "too much business." "We just don't have the facilities to meet the growing demand," said Leland Lindow, superintendent of the office, located at 17140 Maumee in the city of Grosse Pointe. Serving the five Grosse Pointe municipalities and East Side Detroit, the post office has averaged $150,000 business a year since it was established as a branch in 1945, Lindow said. He expects to pass the $250,000 mark this year. He said the staff of Russell Mantel, Neal Dodson, William McDougall and Ray Neely handled 36,000 parcels in December alone.

"Our major problem is the lack of room. Sometimes we don't even have space to lick a stamp." The office, about the size of a two-car garage, was built in 1900 as part of a cement housing project.

Congressman Louis Rabaut, (D), 14th District, who has been pushing plans for a post office at Seven Mile and Mack said that it is unlikely that any relief would come in 1950.

Present Federal grants do not include funds for a post office for East Side Detroit and Grosse Pointe, said Rabaut, who is a member of an Appropriation Committee.

The Pointe Post Office was first used in December of 1943 and 1944 to meet the holiday rush. It became a permanent branch in August, 1945 by public demand.

A campaign led by Norbert Neff, city of Grosse Pointe clerk, saw hundreds of letters and wires pour into the hands of congressmen and postal authorities.

Commenting on the recent problem, Neff said: "Officials have been talking about a new post office for several years but nothing has been done about it. Perhaps it is time for Detroit and Grosse Pointe citizens to write or wire again."

Rites Held for New Methodist Church Here

The cornerstone for the first unit of the new Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, 211 Moross road, was laid Sunday by Bishop Marshall R. Reed, Bishop of the Detroit Area of the Methodist Church. The pastor, the Rev. Hugh C. White, presided.

The first unit as shown in the picture above, beginning with the center entrance and proceeding to the right, includes a sanctuary, social hall and kitchen in the basement and an education unit with 10 classrooms, the front wing of which can double as a church parlor.

The architect for this $153,368 structure is Mr. David H. Williams, A.I.A., president of the George D. Mason Architectural Firm. The general contractors are the Arthur O. Misch Co.

The ultimate unit, the tower of which is also shown in the picture, will have a sanctuary seating 700 and complete educational and recreational facilities.

The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church had its inception on September 9, 1945, in the old Kerby School under the leadership of Rev. White.

Citizens Appeal to Council

A hearing on the possibility of including a Gratiot Township district to Grosse Pointe Woods will be held Tuesday, Jan. 10 at the Woods Municipal building, Mack near Vernier, A. A. Ghesquiere, Woods president announced. Ghesquiere said that the hearing will be held at the request of Gratiot Township residents who would prefer joining Grosse Pointe Woods rather than submit to city incorporation of Gratiot Township.

The Woods official refused to comment on whether the Village would favor such a merger.

"We'll hear what they have to say Tuesday and then decide," he said.

He added that such a transition would entail many problems — particularly the drainage system of both municipalities.

The request for the hearing was made by Gordon Spoor, of 21175 Hunt Club, president of Gratiot Woods Association. They hope to gain information and approval to carry out annexation proceedings.

He said that the aim of the group is to protect property values within the area bounded by Harper, Kingsville, Mack and the County Line.

Under the plan the area of Gratiot Township, east of Harper would become part of the Village. This territory constitutes approximately 25 per cent of the present area of the Township and one-third of the total assessed valuation.

A petition requesting a special election of incorporating Gratiot Township into the City of Harper Woods will be before the Wayne County Board of Supervisors Monday for approval.

Grosse Pointe Woods is also eyeing a change to city government.

Trombly Is Awarded AAA Safety Cup

Trombly school will be among 80 Michigan elementary schools cited for their outstanding traffic safety education programs during the 1948-49 school year when Automobile Club of Michigan presents it with the Traveling Safety Cup award shortly.

"Michigan's child pedestrian death rate in the 5-14 age group has been cut 44 per cent in the past 12 years—in the face of a 53 per cent increase in Michigan vehicle registrations," Ernest P. Davis, Auto Club's safety and traffic director, pointed out. He singled out classroom traffic safety education activity including patrols as largest factor in this fine showing.

"It is fitting that once a year motorists should express appreciation to administrators and teachers—and student safety patrols—in Michigan's elementary schools for this splendid record. Were it not for their extra effort in pedestrian safety teaching and practicing, our child accident toll would be much greater," Davis stated.

Fritsch Opposed By Schweikart For Top Office

Homer C. Fritsch will seek re-election for a second term as president of Grosse Pointe Park at the spring election, March 13.

Fritsch will be opposed by Carl Schweikart, Township supervisor.

Both men announced their candidacy for the Village's top position Tuesday.

Fritsch and Schweikart both have years of public service behind them.

Mr. Fritsch, who is a vice-president at Parke-Davis, served ten years as a member of the Park Council, prior to his election to president in 1948.

Mr. Schweikart has been a Township official since 1937, serving the first four years as clerk and the rest as supervisor.

He said that if he is elected he will continue in both official capacities.

The March election, which promises to be one of the most interesting ones in the history of the Village, will also see the electorate name three commissioners and decide on "city rule" proposal.

Incumbents seeking re-election to the council are Peter J. Koenig, and A. John Bloodworth.

They will be opposed by newcomers, Ray J. Dierickx, Gilbert W. Groehn and Irwin G. Altes. A third incumbent, Karl Goddard is undecided.

No other candidates were reported by William Stammen, Park clerk. Deadline for filing is Jan. 30.

Missing Boys Return Home

Two boys, who had been reported missing on Dec. 29, returned to their homes Monday after hitch-hiking to St. Louis and back, City Police reported.

Back home with their parents are Robert Bell, 15, of 450 Cadieux and Edgar E. Bugan, Jr., 14, of Detroit.

Smashes City Shop Window

Barber Leonard Norris has a "brick" on display at his shop at 18020 Mack avenue.

The story behind the brick as related by an anonymous cab driver who phoned police: "A woman entered my cab at a Detroit intersection and directed me to 18020 Mack. When we arrived there, she stepped out, threw a brick through the plate glass window and jumped back in the cab."

The cabbie continued, "Then I took her back to where I picked her up. She paid her fare and left quickly."

"It happened so fast I didn't know what was going on or what to do," he confessed to police.

Norris had no explanation either, police reported.

Escapes Injury

Bicyclist Leonard Allor, 13, of 170 Muir road, escaped injury when he was struck by an auto driven by Evelyn Owen, 893 Vernier road, at Kercheval and McKinley, Farms Police reported.

CRITIC

Both men announced their candidacy for the Village's top position Tuesday.

Mr. Fritsch, who is a vice-president at Parke-Davis, served ten years as a member of the Park Council, prior to his election to president in 1948.

Mr. Schweikart has been a Township official since 1937, serving the first four years as clerk and the rest as supervisor.

They will be opposed by newcomers, Ray J. Dierickx, Gilbert W. Groehn and Irwin G. Altes. A third incumbent, Karl Goddard is undecided.

Woods Names City-Rule Committee

Grosse Pointe Woods Council at a regular meeting Tuesday approved a special seven-man committee named by president A. A. Ghesquiere to study the advantages and disadvantages of a city government.

The committee is comprised of four private residents and three public officials.

They are David Crawford, Earl Cramer, businessman; Byron Burchby, civil engineer; Harry B. Miller, employed at the Wayne County Bureau of Assessments; George Beauchamp, Township judge; Leon Radcliff and Rex Johnson, both members of the Woods Council.

Mr. Ghesquiere, who will act as chairman of the group, said he will call a meeting early next week.

The committee's report will be made public.

Parent Clubs Confer With School Heads

Officials of Grosse Pointe High School's Mothers' Club and Dads' Club will confer with School Board heads concerning school building needs at a closed session at Grosse Pointe High School Sunday noon, a reliable source told the Review Tuesday.

It was also disclosed that the regular School Board meeting scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 3 was postponed to Jan. 9.

POINTE ARAGRAPHS

Grosse Pointe's pioneer citizen, Ken Moore, who is also president of the Grosse Pointe Historical Association, will give a public lecture on the historical background of this community at the Memorial Center, Friday, Jan. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Oldham, of Hunt Club drive, after watching the Rose Bowl game, visited Mr. Oldham's brother, P. G. Oldham of Fontana, California.

It marked their first reunion in 20 years.

Grosse Pointe Theatre's Jane McClure and Pat Morris are reading for parts in the Detroit Civic Light Opera's presentations this season.

It cost David Richardson of Lothrop road, $200 for a package of cigarettes last week. He stopped at a drug store at Mack and Touraine to buy his favorite brand, but his errand was cut short by an armed thug who demanded his wallet. The bandit fled with $200 in cash.

Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, 73, mother of Fred M. Alger, Jr., secretary of state, had bad luck on New Year's Day. She broke her left leg in a fall at the home of Edwin Barbour, of 147 Lakeshore drive. Her condition is reported fair.

1,000 Kiddies At Kiwanis Party

Grosse Pointe Kiwanis reported that more than 1,000 kiddies attended their annual Christmas party at the Woods Theatre last Thursday.

The program included two hours of movie cartoons and a clown cyclist who capered about the stage much to the delight of the children.

Special guests were about 35 children from the Protestant home.

The Kiwanis expressed their appreciation to Earl J. Hudson and James Eason of the Woods theatre for the use of their building.

HEY MR. STORK

Diaper Derby Still Wide Open

Although several candidates have been rumored to be in the running, no official contestants have entered The Grosse Pointe Review's 8th Annual First New Year's Baby Contest. Consequently the diaper derby is still wide open to parents residing in Grosse Pointe.

There's an array of valuable gifts awaiting this area's first 1950 baby and his or her parents.

Traffic Experts to Explain New Uniform Ticket to Police

The Uniform Traffic Violation Ticket, adopted by Grosse Pointe Park recently, will be the subject of classes conducted under the auspices of Michigan State Traffic Commission at the Park Municipal building, Jan. 20 to 26.

Traffic experts will explain the uniform plan, designed to help the violator, to Park Police. The new plan is being adopted throughout the State.

Officers from the City, Farms, Woods and Shores are also expected to attend.

Traffic experts from Northwestern University, Michigan State Police and the sponsoring body will conduct the classes.

"The classes should be very educational for all police officers," Arthur Louwers, Park chief said.

Officials Seek Health Dept. Answer

City of Grosse Pointe has invited officials of Grosse Pointe Park, Farms, Shores and Woods to attend a closed session relative to the Health Department problem here.

The meeting will be held at the City Municipal building, 17140 Maumee, Friday at 8 p.m.

John T. Barnes, superintendent of schools; Dr. T. S. Davies, Township Health commissioner, and Dr. David Littlejohn, Wayne County Health officer, have also been invited.

City Councilman Chester Carpenter expressed hope that the session would clear up the health department muddle.

Couple Mark 40th Year

A family dinner at the Stockholm marked the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Coelius of 1331 Bedford. They were married on Jan. 3, 1910 at the Detroit City Hall.

The couple have four children, including Mrs. Allen Raymond of 1245 Beaconsfield, and six grandchildren.

Council Cuts Insurance Rate for Cabs

Grosse Pointe Park Council reduced its high public liability insurance rate required of cabs operating in the Village at a special session last week.

The rate which threatened to put local cab companies out of business was reduced from $10,000 per cab to $5,000, in accord with a State law.

Park Council took this action after they received a request from the Veterans Cab Co. and the Grosse Pointe Cab Co. to reconsider their ruling.

Officials of the taxi companies said that Detroit cabs are required to carry only $2,500 per car.

The new ruling was accepted by the local cab officials and each company registered 14 cars.

To Sub-divide Marter Area

Plans to subdivide the north-east area of Grosse Pointe Woods between Marter and the Village limits were presented to the Woods Council Tuesday by George Jerome, engineer, representing the Bayview Building Co.

According to the plans, a series of single homes will be erected.

The Council tabled plans until some assurance is given by Bayview that they will adequately provide drainage facilities needed and furnish dirt to fill in most of the property.

Police Record 1950 Firsts

The first 1950 report in the Grosse Pointe Park Police book was a false fire alarm at Grosse Pointe Bar, 15316 E. Jefferson. It was recorded at 12:03, Jan. 1.

The initial traffic accident of the new year was reported by Mary Smith of Grosse Pointe Cab Co. She said that one of the cabs struck another auto at Maryland and Vernor.

The first business place found with its door unlocked after hours was Farms Market, 355 Fisher. Farms police called owner William Moir.

Officials, Leaders Predict Banner Year

By DORIS MILATZ
The New Year was welcomed with warmhearted optimism and hope by Grosse Pointe officials and leaders who look forward to reaching goals for the betterment of Grosse Pointe.

One of the main issues that a great many Pointers are wondering about is the school building problem, which is why School Superintendent

John Barnes is hoping that 1950 will see a favorable election for the School Board.

"I do know for sure what is going to happen in the Pointe in the coming year," he said. "We're going to have more children all the time, and therefore more and more crowded conditions in our schools and less adequate facilities to handle them. If our voters do accept the Bond Issue planned by the Board of Education, then we can get underway in 1950 to provide the needed additional facilities."

His hope is more of a belief for Board of Education President Sigurd Wendin, who forecast: "I expect a successful outcome for our Bond Issue '50, because I think the people understand our

"CAUSE FOR ALARM"

Dr. Frederick H. Oler, minister of the First Presbyterian Church and president of the Detroit Council of Churches in an address before the Detroit Downtown Rotary Club, used the shameful number of registered voters in Grosse Pointe Park as an example to cite the laxity of the American people towards their government.

When Dr. Oler, who resides on Lincoln road, read the story in last week's Review that authentically stated that only 2,800 Park citizens were registered voters in that community of more than 15,000, he was very surprised and alarmed.

He checked with the Review to confirm the story. We told him the facts were based on a report received from the Park Citizens Committee which also stated that during the last four village elections an average of 566 ballots were cast out of an electorate that approaches 10,000.

He expressed amazement and alarm that a group of intelligent citizens should be so disinterested and negligent towards their own government.

We completely agree with Dr. Oler. We believe it is a disgrace to Grosse Pointe Park that only 566 have exercised the privilege of voting.

It is dangerous—because this laxity in voting has spread across the nation. And today, we find a very small percentage of our qualified citizens accepting the responsibility of voting.

This is indeed cause for alarm because such slackness is the life-line of incompetent officials and the Red Menace which shadows over this country.

Think it over!

HEALTH DEPARTMENT MUDDLE

The meeting called by Chester Carpenter, City Councilman, to discuss the health department problem is a step in the right direction.

Behind closed doors, Carpenter hopes to find the means of clearing-up the muddle concerning health service.

Behind closed doors, the officials will be able to exchange opinions and ideas without fear of being recorded in the Review.

When and if they reach a decision, they plan to make a public announcement.

We'll go along with the officials, and keep away from their session Friday which incidentally is closed to the press anyway.

Our objective, as stated in an editorial here two weeks ago, was to have Carpenter and other officials get-together and iron this thing out.

If a closed session facilitates their purpose, the Review is content for the time being to stand by.

SLASH GOVERNMENT COST

If your personal or business expenses go up and your income and efficiency come down this year at the same rate as that of the Federal Government, you will be in the hands of the sheriff at an early date.

Workers, farmers, and businessmen from Maine to California know this. The answer is in the Report of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government. This twelve-man, bit-partisan Commission was unanimously created by Congress with the approval of the President. At the suggestion of Mr. Truman, former President Hoover was made its Chairman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Vice Chairman. The late president Franklin D. Roosevelt long had advocated such a reorganization of the government.

There is a two-fold purpose behind the effort to reorganize the Executive Branch of the Government: One—the elimination of inefficiency caused by overlapping and duplication; two—this should lead to a reduction of your taxes. If our Government can save from three to four billion dollars a year by more efficient methods of conducting our business, failure to act is stupid short-sightedness.

Action, however, depends upon the President and Congress. The President has already submitted a number of reorganization recommendations. The Congress has adopted several of these, most important having to do with the house-keeping of the armed forces, which save the taxpayer more than $500,000,000 a year. But these are only first steps. There will be more ahead if Congress is made to realize Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer want more tax-saving economies. Congressmen and Senators will vote for just so many of the Commission's recommendations as you, their constituents, demand.

What can you, as an individual, do about it? The answer is to write your Congressman and Senators. Tell them you want the Recommendations of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government made the law of the land. Join the non-partisan Citizens Committee set up to obtain the necessary action to make the Commission's report work. Write to the Citizens Committee for Reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Government, 1421 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 2, Pennsylvania, for more information about the Commission Report. Tell your neighbors about it. Make speeches! Make your representatives in Washington act—now!

FEDERAL SPENDING EXPLAINED

If anyone wonders why the cost of the Federal government is just about the most critical domestic issue we face, a tabulation recently printed by Reader's Digest will make the reason clear. It simply shows the amounts of money spent by each of the Presidents from the beginning of the nation up to September 30, 1949.

In the early days, Federal spending amounted to peanuts compared with modern standards. Washington and Adams each spent a little more than $34,000,000. Lincoln had a war on his hands, yet his budgets totaled only $3,252,000,000. Thereafter, expenses went down again. McKinley, for instance, spent just over $2,000,000,000.

The first really big budget came with the first world war and the Wilson Administration — nearly $47,000,000,000. Again expenses dropped, with Coolidge and Hoover together spending around $34,000,000,000.

Then came the depression. President Roosevelt and the New Deal. During his first eight years in office Mr. Roosevelt's administration cost some $67,500,000,000. The grand total for all the Presidents through 1949 was $179,620,000,000. And that total, it must be remembered, covers more than 150 years of our history.

Reader's Digest leaves out the extraordinary expenditures of the World War II years—1941-45. It then lists President Truman's spending from the 1946 fiscal year to the end of September, 1949. It adds up to over $191,000,000,000—nearly $12,000,000,000 more than all his 32 predecessors spent except for the 1941-1945 period.

Here is a very revealing picture of the way the nation has gone. It is true that conditions have changed over the years. But it is also true that the government has expanded in every direction to a point far greater than most of us realize. Mr. Truman is now a symbol of that expansion, but he is not the major cause. Pressure groups of every kind have grown infinitely more adept and powerful, and officeholders of both parties have fallen into line. The results are our huge budgets, with recurring Federal deficits in spite of these budgets.

A noteworthy development is the concern over our fiscal affairs which is being expressed by people who are not conservatives. Speaking of taxes and deficits, Dorothy Thompson says, "This appalling discrepancy between what is spent and what is raised occurs when the national income is near the highest in history!"

UNDER THE MISTLETOE

"Heart Suffers Hangover"

By JOHNNIE BACHELOR

Our romance received a revolting reverse on New Year's Day.

Some swift moving suitor popped the $64 question to our favorite girl friend and she accepted.

Like 1949, we're out of the picture. They say, "All is fair in love and war" but how can one fight an unknown enemy.

Without being formally introduced, he came in the side door to make a grand exit with a bride, her parents' blessings and a spinster aunt's bonds.

He hit the jackpot.

And all he had to offer is that he excels at canasta.

We call it a miss deal. But you can't blame us for procrastinating. Marriage and FHA are serious undertakings. We wanted time to study the elements before signing any long term contracts.

We should have seen the danger signal, though, when our girl friend scoffed at our promise to build an addition to her hope-chest.

We know now that, "Time, tide and red-heads wait for no man."

Our only hope now is that the editor does not push the assignment of their wedding story on our desk. If that happens, we will sell our mill and join the Foreign Legion.

Meanwhile, where is that little black book.

Letters To Editor

TO THE EDITOR:
Couldn't help but swing again at the "Cities of Progress" and the peoples' interest in the future of those "cities."

The Board of Education sponsors a couple of mass meetings as regards the need for school. Merchants sponsor a great commercial program completely submerging the meaning of Christmas. Result: a complete success for the merchants. Possible failure for a school or schools badly needed to give better opportunity to children in those "progressive cities" and a little more submerging of the true Christmas Spirit.

About 75 people attended where if people were interested there would have been thousands. We can even better that at one of our PTA meetings where we average 80 people to a meeting and the total pupil population at the school is 190 and you must remember that it isn't uncommon for people to have as many as 6 to 10 children in a family. Guess the real difference is that here people are interested in their children and doing all they can to cooperate to make the child's future a little more secure by taking an interest in them during the stage when the guidance of parents can mean so much.

Being a School Board member can be a pretty good sized headache and the men who serve do so usually in a public spirited way for monetary gain is small. When people are invited to attend they too must look at it in the spirit of being public minded and help seek out the answer to a problem that demands continuous study due to everchanging conditions. To fail to do so only hurts the future structure of these United States. The child of today is the protection for our tomorrow. Let him seek his own way and we all suffer. Help him find his way and we all gain. Personally I think all of us could do a little housecleaning within ourselves. Possibly a little less elbow bending, a little less "great I am" would add up to those extra hours which could be used to promote a better future by spending a little time with problems which concern your child and your neighbors. By doing this we might overcome that "let the other fellow do it" attitude and with surprising results for the better.

Sincerely,
Bill Fritchard,
Lake Leelanau, Mich.

TO THE EDITOR:
It's just a natural tendency to take one last look at the old year, to let our memory wander back to many pleasant days and events, isn't it?

Over here at the TB and Health Society we don't have to wander back too far in 1949 to pick out the very best thing that happened to us. Your cooperation during the year and during our recent Seal Sale was certainly one of the outstanding highlights. Our drive is not yet complete, however, as we will receive contributions through February and at late as March, but the outlook for success is good and we know this is due in no small measure to the cooperation you have given us.

Our sincere thanks and our very best wishes for 1950. Sincerely,
Eleanor Howard

Ace Camera Man Addresses Local Club

Grosse Pointe Camera Club will commence the new year with a lecture Tuesday by LaVerne Bovair, noted table top photographer.

Mr. Bovair has prepared an extensive talk on Creative Thinking for table top photography. He will make various set-ups and lightings for the club, showing the ease with which the small objects can be made to come to life. The speaker is well known for his works with the Detroit Photographic Guild.

Following the program, Dr. Gordon Aldrich, president of the club, has arranged for a showing of prints submitted by the club members. There will be a judging of those photographs.

The public has been invited to attend the meeting which will be held at the club rooms in the neighborhood Club at 8 p.m.

Banner Year

Needs and requirements much better than they did last May through the information presented so well by the Review and other papers. The municipal Councils have indicated they favor our program, and more people have told us they think we will be successful this time, so that is my forecast for '50.'

Another official stressing the expectation for more school classrooms soon for his village was Woods' President Alois Ghesquiere "along with some further improvements in our lake park, widening of our Mack Avenue from the south to the north end of the village, and a continued steady growth out here with the same kind of people like we have been having who are all very friendly and are good neighbors."

Not expecting as much, perhaps, was City Mayor Ralph Wetting, who hoped that the new year would see people take an interest in civic affairs. "I hope they will take an interest and find that government is costing them more than they can afford. Then they will do something about it. I hope, putting people in office who will do something about public expenditures. And if they can do that—that will be plenty for a year."

While Mayor William Conolly, who hopes to achieve the goal of a more efficiently city-ruled Farms with no increase in cost, has a desire for "the Farms citizens to take more interest in the new municipal affairs than they have done in the past—more so."

That "city rule" would benefit his village with better government efficiency, also was the thought of Homer Hirsch, President of the Park, who foresaw the Park becoming a city in 1950.

And with the aid of some new village plans, Shores' president Ernest Putnam optimistically plans "to make Grosse Pointe Shores the Garden Spot of the World."

Township Supervisor Carl Schweikart, is hoping that some day there will be one large city out here—everybody together. "Then we can have some money and give the people a relief on taxes."

Plans to expand activities and offer more service to the community is the New Year resolution of the War Memorial Center, according to director Alger Sheldon who reports their 1950 program will keep them "busier and busier than ever."

With the past year as the biggest year the Pointe has ever had, William Moir, Pointe businessmen's Association president, is looking forward to a better year in 1950. "I hope for a better year," he said. "and I think everyone that I have talked to feels the same way about it, seeming to believe that 1950 will be a banner year for business. If we eliminate some of the strikes and other setbacks, we are figuring on a wonderful year."

Health Commissioner Dr. S. Davies anticipates a fair-weather health year for the Pointe—at least as healthy as the past. "We may have an epidemic like polio one year and not another, because it is supposed to come only in three or four year periods—but we get fooled on occasionally."

The first automobile trip across the United States, in 1901, took days.

Schweikart's Future Hinges On City Vote

Carl Schweikart told the Review that he would leave his office of Township supervisor if the Park votes to become a city at the next Village election in March.

He added that he would remain in office until Park, Woods and Shores had established individual bodies to carry out the Township functions.

According to Schweikart, who resides on Nottingham, a city resident cannot be a Township official.

He was elected to his sixth two-year term as supervisor last March. He first became supervisor in 1942, succeeding the late Norbert

1949 State Police Report Shows Fewer Traffic Deaths

A favorable change in Michigan's traffic death rate is reported by Commissioner Donald S. Leonard in a year-end resume of State Police activities.

The steady upward rise in highway fatalities which began in August was reversed in November, when the death toll of 138 represented a reduction of 16 per cent, or 27 under the same month of 1948. Although final figures are not yet available, it is believed December will reflect the same trend.

There were 3,650 persons injured in November, an increase of 100, or three percent, over November of 1948. Reported accidents totaled 12,818, a gain of 922, or eight per cent.

As it stands, a net decrease of four per cent in traffic deaths is expected for the year, Leonard said. In 1948 there were 1,512 killed against an estimated 1,550 in 1949. On the other hand, there was a one and one-half per cent increase in both accidents reported and injuries. Accidents in

Square Dance Club Seeks Sets for Next Sessions

The Hayloft Square Dance Club is organizing sets for its next session of meetings which start January 9, according to its director, Arthur C. Erwin.

The club completed its first session the week before Christmas. The membership, consisting of five sets, learned Western square dancing and expressed great enthusiasm for it.

Anyone interested in joining the Hayloft Club for its second session may contact Arthur C. Erwin at TU 5-0713.

Mr. Erwin attended the Lloyd Show Cheyenne Mountain Square Dance School at Colorado Springs, Colorado, last summer. There he studied the technique of square dancing with experts from all over the nation.

A group of teen-agers, instructed by Mr. Erwin, will put on a demonstration of square dancing at the Golden Anniversary celebration at Eastern High, January 14.

Sponsor Dance

An evening of square and modern dancing will be sponsored by St. Mathews' Auxiliary at 9 p.m. Friday, Jan. 6 at Central YWCA, Grosse Pointe is a member of that council.

Denby Books Time Writer for Lecture

This week Congress has reconvened in our nation's capital, and the political leaders of both parties will be striving to outmaneuver their opponents in making a record that will mean victory in November's "mid-term" election. "The Spotlight on Washington" is the title John Metcalfe has chosen for the talk in which he will give us the "low-down" on the Washington scene next Tuesday, Jan. 10 at 8 p.m. in the Denby High School Auditorium.

Formerly Washington's correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune and Time Magazine with 21 years of reporting experience to his credit, John Metcalfe is a veteran of some 1500 lectures and is also the recipient of many foreign medals, including the Chilean Legion of Merit decoration and the St. Olaf medal for journalistic services during World War II. His investigations of subversive activities in this country at the beginning of the war aroused Congress to immediate action in the prosecution of many enemy aliens.

Mr. Metcalfe is currently giving all of his time to lecture work. No part of England is more than 100 miles from the sea.

Children Need Sunshine Vitamin Source In Winter

In the few months of summer sunshine, Grosse Pointe children become brown and sturdy, but then come these dark winter months and the "sunshine vitamin" disappears.

Because the sunshine vitamin, or vitamin D, is important for bone growth, it is important that children be given another source of the vitamin. Mary Lewis, foods and nutrition department, Michigan State College, says it can be given through drug store sources or milk to which vitamin D has been added.

Since the minerals in milk important to bone growth are used more effectively with vitamin D present, it has been added to milk to the extent of 400 international units per quart. This is enough for the majority of children and is the most convenient way for parents to make certain their children secure enough.

Children, drinking milk which has not been fortified with vitamin D, may need to have some drug store source until they can again play long hours in the sunshine.

There are various forms of vitamin D available in drug stores. It is not necessary to purchase an expensive form but to choose one which the child will accept. It should provide about 400 international units per day. This is the one known vitamin not supplied in adequate amounts by natural foods commonly eaten. Thus during the winter months the use of vitamin D milk or a drug store source is necessary.

Teen Talk

By JOYCE CLEMENTS

New Year's celebrations are over, and 1950 is well on its way, missing to be a good year for all. Time was irrelevant as Grosse Pointe young people prepared to welcome the New Year. Starting early with a dinner party at Jimmy Barker's were Jim's date, Fordon, Rich O'Connell 'n Kathie Strek, Mary Ann Schmit 'n Barty, Sue Martin 'n Spike Quirk, "Chubs" Lawler 'n Phyllis 'n, and Roger Mulier 'n Char Smith.

JOYCE

beginning the evening with "cocktails" at Mary Harleben's, then moving on to Mary Hodges' for dinner were Dan Barrett, Kingswood, Mary Lou Meininger 'n Jim Rogers, Janet Joyce 'n Mack, Joan Massey 'n Chuck Ghesquierre, and Judy Nellis 'n Jerry Strek.

Alumni Trims GPH Varsity Cagers, 44-40

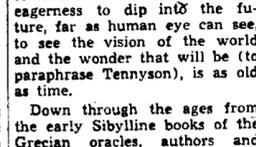

The Grosse Pointe High Alumni beat the Varsity squad in the second meeting of these two teams 44 to 40. It was the second Alumni win in the two years these teams have been meeting, but the Varsity squad looked much stronger than last year.

The game, held at the High School on December 29, again drew an overflow crowd. The Varsity squad faced nine players formerly from their own ranks who are now playing college ball. Jim Schroek scored high for the Varsity with 12 points, followed by Johnson with 9. Leroy Guaresimo topped the Alumni with 14 points, followed by Tom Wilson with 12 and Herb Gehard with 10.

The other Alumni players were Bill Isbey, Marv Weaver, Barry Munro, Sparty Farquhar, and Jerry Allen.

The Varsity included Hafer, Bruce Allen, Dick Lowery, Al Mann, Bud McCulough, and Leroy Peplinsky.

Library Spotlight

By JEAN TAYLOR of the Grosse Pointe Public Library Staff

Now that the old year is out and the New Year is in, we pause at the half century mark to look ahead and wonder. This eagerness to dip into the future, far as human eye can see, to see the vision of the world and the wonder that will be (to paraphrase Tennyson), is as old as time.

Down through the ages from the early Sibylline books of the Grecian oracles, authors and scientists have attempted to predict the road that lies ahead. Jules Vern in his Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea, published in 1870, tells of Captain Nemo and his ingenious electric submarine boat. Thirty years or more ago, H. G. Wells concerned himself with the future in two novels, War in the Air, and Men Like Gods. (A library patron once asked us where she could find Men Like Gods. We haven't yet found the answer to that one.) In 1933 Wells' Shape of Things to Come, based on a collection of papers of Dr. Raven, sold widely. About the same time Aldous Huxley wrote his Brave New World, a satire of a future mechanistic universe destined to rob the world of all beauty.

Sinclair Lewis followed with It Can't Happen Here, picturing what would happen to America if a dictator came to power. A recent book by George Orwell, Nineteen Eighty-Four, depicts a totalitarian state thirty-five years hence; not a pleasant book but one which gives food for thought. What the future holds for the Jews is treated by Robert Nathan with gentle irony in his Road of Ages. He pictures a final exile of all Jews from all countries and their slow march eastward to the Gobi desert offered by the Mongolians as a haven.

With the end of World War II there has come a deluge of science-fiction, fantastical stories of tomorrow, concerned with the theme of interplanetary travel. The Humanoids by Jack Williamson has been a popular one. Among more factual books of the future are The Shore Dimly Seen and What the People Want by Ellis Gibbs Arnall and The Rest of Your Life by Leo Chene. Whatever the future, Emerson Fosdick speaks truly, "It's a great time to be alive."

In concluding our Library Who's Who, we are proud of the fact that two members of our staff, Joyce Woodcock and Jean Carr began their library careers as small patrons of the Grosse Pointe Library. They now view the world from the other side of the library desk. Miss Woodcock attended the University of Michigan, Miss Carr Penn Hall Junior College, after which she was graduated from Michigan State. Miss Woodcock is our peripatetic librarian. She is in charge of the Farms and the Shores Station and the balance of her time is divided between the Main Library and the Woods Branch.

We hope Santa Claus brought Joyce a paid of seven league boots. She needs them. She also needs and has infinite patience and understanding of small fry, since the Farms Station functions solely for children and the Shores station too is largely used by the teen age or under. We do not point with pride to our Farms station. It is located in a room about one quarter the size of an ordinary classroom in the Old Kerby school.

The children of this school come to the library in a continual stream all day Friday, with little time for a breathing space. The station remains open until five o'clock to permit children in the district from other schools to use it if they wish. The present arrangement is inadequate and leaves much of that area with no library service. We look forward to the time when this will be changed and the adults of this section as well as the children from other schools will be properly served.

After working with a Chicago advertising firm for a period, Jean Carr returned to Grosse Pointe to be with her family and serves the library on a half time basis. A versatile person, she is helpful in various roles and is a boon to our under-staffed library. Last but not least is the baby of our staff, Mrs. Elaine Lindsay. She is Mr. Orr's secretary and the library's sole clerk.

The library staff regards the public whom it serves as its friend. In concluding our Who's Who, we hope you will now feel better acquainted with each member of our staff.

librarian. She is in charge of the Farms and the Shores Station and the balance of her time is divided between the Main Library and the Woods Branch. We hope Santa Claus brought Joyce a paid of seven league boots. She needs them. She also needs and has infinite patience and understanding of small fry, since the Farms Station functions solely for children and the Shores station too is largely used by the teen age or under. We do not point with pride to our Farms station. It is located in a room about one quarter the size of an ordinary classroom in the Old Kerby school.

The children of this school come to the library in a continual stream all day Friday, with little time for a breathing space. The station remains open until five o'clock to permit children in the district from other schools to use it if they wish. The present arrangement is inadequate and leaves much of that area with no library service. We look forward to the time when this will be changed and the adults of this section as well as the children from other schools will be properly served.

After working with a Chicago advertising firm for a period, Jean Carr returned to Grosse Pointe to be with her family and serves the library on a half time basis. A versatile person, she is helpful in various roles and is a boon to our under-staffed library. Last but not least is the baby of our staff, Mrs. Elaine Lindsay. She is Mr. Orr's secretary and the library's sole clerk.

The library staff regards the public whom it serves as its friend. In concluding our Who's Who, we hope you will now feel better acquainted with each member of our staff.

GEORGE BOOS Woods Dealer Assumes Duties As New Police Commissioner

A Grosse Pointe Woods car dealer is Detroit's new police commissioner.

He is George F. Boos, 52, who with his brother Charles owns the Boos Dodge Sales, 19391 Mack.

Boos was named by Mayor Alfred E. Cobo to succeed Harry S. Toy as police commissioner.

Boos, who retired as district chief of the United States Secret Service in 1943 after 25 years service, worked for Michigan's Senator Ferguson during the senator's probe into the disposal of surplus war materials.

During the last presidential campaign, the new commissioner managed Candidate Tom Dewey's special train.

Boos earned numerous citations during his long career with the Secret Service. On many occasions he served as a bodyguard for such illustrious personages as Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover and Franklin Roosevelt.

He was in charge of arrangements for Roosevelt's safety at the historic Quebec meeting with Winston Churchill.

A veteran of both world wars, Boos was graduated from Central high school in 1915 and joined the Marines in 1917. He entered the Secret Service in 1919.

After his retirement in 1943 he was drafted by the government for a special mission in China and served until the war ended.

Boos lives at 19129 Lancaster with his family.

Speaks At Club

Don Wattrick, WXYZ sportscaster, will speak at the Family night program planned by Denby Mothers' Club for 7:45 p.m. Thursday, January 5, in the Denby High School auditorium.

"Good News" Next for Light Opera

"Good News," that jolly, joyous musical comedy that made the Twenties roar with glee and delight while it strutted the infectious Varsity Drag, is the third presentation of the Civic Light Opera, which will be installed at the Masonic Temple for one week starting Monday, Jan. 9.

"Good News" has a brisk book by Laurence Schwab and B. G. DeSylva. The musical score by Ray Henderson, with lyrics by B. G. DeSylva and Lew Brown, effervesces with such ingratiating tunes as "The Best Things in Life," "Varsity Drag," "Good News," "Lucky in Love," "Happy Days," and "Just Imagine."

Sonny Tufts, the popular screen star, heads a distinguished cast that embraces Jack Goode, Bobby Jarvis, Kay Kenton, Lou Willa, Jr., Earle MacVeigh, Joe Macaulay, Donald Burr, Billie Worth and Gail Manners.

To quote a Detroit critic a score of years ago when "Good News" enchanted our local populace, "There is almost every ingredient that could be desired—comedy in abundance, talented performers, book of substantial proportions, peppy lyrics, a musical score of unusual tunefulness, settings which glisten with color and costumes of every hue and shade."

Council Lists Approved Film

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council recommends the following pictures for January:

For Children: "My Dog Rusty," "Blondie's Reward," "The Tulsa Kid," "The Adventures of Icabod and Mr. Toad," "Down Dakota Way," "Henry the Raimaker," and "Post Office Investigator."

For Teen-Agers: "In the Good Old Summer Time" and "That Midnight Kiss."

La Paz, Bolivia, is the highest national capital in the world.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

By MARIAN SMITH

New Year! Goodbye to hello to '50. By the looks of things, the days of '49 were well lived by everyone. The Holiday House at the War Memorial Center Tuesday afternoon, 7, was packed with Grosse Pointe. Some seen there were Zemper, Lee Elsey, Denny Catherine West, Jack Br. Alice Weot, George and Brady, Jeanne Sharrow, Margaret Van Damme, the Blondell, Kay Andre, the Klein, Pat West, and Daley.

Kennedy entertained a lot of his friends at his home Tuesday night. Dancing to his were Annie Marks and Barr, Winnie Shiferly Hans von Bernthal, Dor Marcereau and Bob Leider, Mary Lou Casper Tom Palmer, Marie Couv, and Jerry Marschall, and his date, Sally Valade.

Thursday evening Shirley Garudy Hutter, Betsy Burnett, Piche, Frances Paye, Shir Martin, Marie Couvreur, and Anne Slimon played bingo bunko at Betty Lou Ko's home. Afterwards baked and ham was had by all.

Friday Heidt, Peggy Hyde, Frontera, June Allard, Pat Dorothy Fitzgerald, Sally Bernan, Betty DiPaola, and Ann Burlingame trooped to Carol Staub's house Friday for some holiday festivity. Girls spent the afternoon eating chips, cookies, sipping and chatting about holiday activities.

Very many were at St. School Friday night to the two high school vs. games. Cheering for (I know which side) were Mary Allor, Dave McCarron, Barbara Van Teim, Janet Oxley, Ann Reed, Doug Kerick, Mary Ann Doyle, Delores Chillems, Beverly Labadie, and Dick Hoskins.

Those who danced afterwards to Roston Clark's band were Sally McCarron and Bill Allard, Joanne Schummer and Chuck Wylie, Margie Heidt and Dick Mot-schall, and Mary Ann Burlingame and Don Williams.

New Year's Eve found parties everywhere. Jack Carroll's home was one place where a few Sophs congregated. Anxiously awaiting the clock to strike twelve were Nancy Kottentette and John Huetteiman, Frances Shillings and Jim Hoskins, Joan Hoek and Pat Champagne, Marilyn Sutherland and Tim Champagne, and Jack and Connie Molitor.

The War Memorial Center was another place of noise-making and gaiety. Carol Staub and Pete Belanger, Mimi DuBruz and Mike Foster, Sally Rooney and Bill Kennedy, Pat Zimmers and Larry Reynolds, and Dot Arditto and Dan Carter were some of the couples enjoying all the fun that accompanies every incoming new year.

Others who spent their New Year's Eve by tooting horns, throwing confetti, popping balloons and dancing were Eleanor Wade and Tom Baker, Dee Wise and Stu Freisma, Betsy Burnett and Dick Gallagher, Sally Valade and Leo Kennedy, Pat Underwood and Bob Barie, Pat Gant and Al Schweitzer, and Sally McKernan and Jan Drake. They rang in 1950 at Grosse Pointe High School with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

The port of Duluth, Minn., and Superior, Wis., though not on salt water, is the second busiest in the United States.

TV Round Table Elects Pointer

New officers for 1950 have been elected by the Detroit Television Round Table. President will be William W. Bryson, 84 Moross road.

Dr. Paul Rickard, 18254 Rosemont, Detroit, has been named vice-president; Miss Nan Winik, Detroit, is the new secretary; and Walker R. A. Graham, 16899 Village Lane, was re-elected treasurer.

Three new members were elected to the Board of Directors. They are N. A. Corbett, Detroit; Ralph Hotchkiss, Birmingham; and A. C. Nutting, 2567 Bewick, Detroit. The retiring president, Paul Penfield, Birmingham, also becomes a member of the board. The Detroit Television Round Table is made up of people from all branches of the television industry and includes station personnel, distributors, retailers, advertising agencies and independent producers.

Wrestling Card

A tag team match will top the wrestling card Friday night at Chesterfield Arena, Gratiot near 10-Mile road. Bert Ruby and Walter Roky tangle with "Tiger" Jack Moore and Ted Perva in this bout. The Sheik of Araby meets Al Warsawski in the semifinal. A 30-minute preliminary will get the program underway at 8:30 o'clock.

Olympia Bout

Charlie Fusari and Tony Janiro—two of the world's best welterweights—will headline the International Boxing Club's next fight offering at the Olympia Wednesday, Jan. 11. The card will mark IBC matchmaker Nick Londe's initial show of the new year.

Valet Trims St. Clair 5, Hold Lead

Though Paul Erickson hit the net for 29 points, St. Clair Scores was unable to stop Grosse Pointe Valet, losing by the score of 71 to 51 in a Neighborhood Club Major League Basketball game Tuesday.

The victory enabled Valet to keep pace with St. Clair CYO which earned its fifth straight win by defeating Riley Motors, 46 to 41. Bol Schott, of St. Clair, set the scoring pace with 16 points.

Valet and St. Clair now share first place with five wins and no defeats each.

Boos Shows Dodge Models

The new Dodge cars, introduced Wednesday, have a fresh styling, appeal, new low body lines and many refinements in design, according to Charles F. Boos, of Boos Motors, 19391 Mack, near Woods Theatre.

"Dodge's production and retail deliveries this year have been the highest in Dodge history," he said. "We're confident of doing even better next year with the new improved models. They're beautiful cars. I personally believe they are the finest values we've ever had."

Mr. Boos cordially invites everybody to his open house through Saturday, Jan. 7.

"Hey Days of Music" Series Begins Jan. 12

The "Hey Days in the History of Music" evening lectures will begin Thursday, Jan. 12, at the Memorial Center.

Described as the most ambitious cultural venture undertaken by the Center, the series will be conducted by Louise E. Cuyler, Ph.D., assistant professor of Musicology at the University of Michigan.

There will be six programs, each beginning at 8 p.m. The cost is $3.00 and reservations can be made by calling the Center, TU, 1-6030.

Manager Talks

George Campbell, owner-manager of the Colony Theatre will be among the speakers at Albion College Wednesday, Jan. 11 on "Movies and Their Significant Role in Contemporary Life."

TOUR OF TRIESTE
View of Trieste waterfront shows the free city's port area, looking into Adriatic from shore. A RICH prize of war as well as a bone of contention between nations for centuries, Trieste today still is in the middle in a tug of war for possession of the Adriatic port. Once an Italian port, and once a great Austrian naval base, most of the territory of Trieste was taken by Yugoslav troops during World War II. When the West prevented occupation, the UN interceded and the Free Territory of Trieste was set up with Yugoslav, American and British troops policing the area. Then, the three powers could not agree on a governor to administer with UN authority. Now Trieste is split into two sectors: Anglo-American and Yugoslav. Dividing Trieste is the iron curtain, through which only Triestines can pass.

At Trieste's American information office, Cpl. E. Frank of Helena, Mont., shows six-year-old Nicillano American books.

STRUMMING SPANISH GUITARS AND MEXICAN MUSIC serenade songstress Frances Langford as she arrives in Puerto Rico for a vacation in the island's newest luxury hotel.

Headquarters for TRUST, Trieste United States Troops, is picturesque old Miramare castle.

From western side of Trieste tourists can peek into no-man's land between the Yugoslav and Anglo-American border.

PUTTING FINISHING TOUCHES ON the striped peppermint candy sticks he makes for children in Springfield, O., is Frank Rosenberry, Wittenberg college maintenance man, whose typical child-like love for candy started him making candy before the turn of the century.
