Honesty is the best policy exclaimed Elizabeth Sullivan, 18, of 1307 Beaconsfield, as she admired her beautiful gold Bulova wrist watch.
Miss Sullivan, a St. Ambrose graduate received the watch from Ed David of Ray Whyte Motors, for the safe return of $3,425 in cash.
An employee at Whittier Cleaners, Elizabeth found the cash in David's suit.
Ken Moore, Grosse Pointe's popular historian, plans publication of a book telling the story of Grosse Pointe.
Grosse Pointe Theatre's Jane McClure will appear in the Civic Light Opera's "No No Nanette" next week.
Is there anything to the rumor that Licavoli, Tocco and Berrilli have invested a great deal in the Lake Shore Coach Lines.

ST. PAUL DRIVE CHAIRMAN

Detroit's Top Award To Farms' Joe Parker

Detroit's "outstanding young man of 1949" lives in Grosse Pointe Farms.
He is Joseph R. Parker, 34, of 41 Hendrie Lane, secretary-treasurer of J. L. Hudson's.
Parker received the 9th Annual Distinguished Service Award from the Detroit Junior Board of Commerce.
The award is given annually to the Detroit area man, under 35 years of age, who had made the greatest contribution to the welfare and progress of the community during the past year.
Though Parker was primarily cited for his efforts in Detroit civic campaigns, he has been very active in his hometown community.
He was one of the members of the Farms Charter Commission that worked so diligently to prepare the Farms' present charter.
Currently, he is co-chairman of the drive to raise $600,000 for the St. Paul's School Building Fund.

Police Called To Quell Riots At Prep Games

Grosse Pointe High School, St. Paul and St. Ambrose school authorities took disciplinary action on those who helped create riots at basketball games at the public school gym and Neighborhood Club.
Players, fans and police were involved in several outbreaks during the contests.
At the Neighborhood Club, St. Paul and St. Ambrose engaged in a bitterly fought game, which saw fans join in.
City of Grosse Pointe Police were called to quell the disturbance. Two fans were put out of the building by police.
A disturbance also followed the GPH-Wyandotte game.

Woods Police Chief Walter Goulette said that Lake Shore Lines bus drivers, Edward G. Long, of 815 Beaconsfield, and Frank Webb, of 913 Lakewood, Detroit, were ordered to appear before Judge George Beauchamp at the next session of Traffic court.

A family on Nottingham reported to Police that their dog was bitten by a rat.

Throngs Hear Tale of Pointe

An overflow crowd forced Ken Moore, president of the Grosse Pointe Historical Association, to give two presentations of his illustrated lecture, "The History of Grosse Pointe," at the Memorial Center Friday.
Many reminiscing sighs were heard in the audience as Moore depicted the development of Grosse Pointe.
Sides of early Pointe settlers and homes included such names as Grant, Newberry, McMillan, Moran, Kerby, Muir, Alger and others.
Moore said that no one can say just when white people began to live in Grosse Pointe, but it was certainly at least 200 years ago.
It began as a farming and hunting community, the women doing most of the farming, the men the hunting and trading.
"Just when Grosse Pointe received its name and what territory it included is unknown," Moore said. "The name was used long before the Americans took over in 1796, and it undoubtedly referred to the board flat point, which culminates at the Windmill Pointe Lighthouse."
He said that the first clearings on the waterfront were largely devoted to orchards and what fame Grosse Pointe enjoyed up to 1850 attached mainly to them.
"From 1850 to 1900 the lumbermen took away the woods and wealthy Detroit business men took away the lake front."
According to the veteran resident, the early settlers do not appear to have benefited greatly from either operation.
For a half-century, Grosse Pointe was Detroit's foremost summer resort. Bigger and better summer homes, with impressive French names and unlimited scroll-saw trimmings, blossomed.
Roadhouses filled the usually impassable roads.
The "Elegant Eighties" gave way to the "Gay Nineties," and electric railways began to make the Pointe accessible. Then came the auto age and a good road, and one decade saw Grosse Pointe become the year-around suburb of a rapidly growing city.
Subdivisions broke out like a rash and villages were organized.
In view of the demand for the historical lecture, the Memorial Board plans to have him back.

Carl Schweikart Charges Park Citizens Committee Is "Clique" for Fritsch

The lid is off in what promises to be the most stirring elections in the history of Grosse Pointe Park.
Major developments center around Carl Schweikart, Township supervisor, who seeks to replace Homer C. Fritsch as village president, March 13.
Schweikart launched his campaign without pulling any punches. He said:
1—"The Village Citizens Committee was recently organized to support the incumbents."
"It's nothing more than a clique for the men in office," he added.
2—"The Township should be abandoned for a home rule government."
"Other agencies have taken over Township functions it would be an imposition on Park taxpayers to continue to support the Township," he explained.
Schweikart charged that the Citizens Committee cannot fairly and adequately judge any candidate because of its personal relationship with Fritsch, and Councilmen Peter J. Koenig, A. Bloodsworth and Karl Goddard, all seeking re-election.
The Township supervisor wanted to know what the committee was doing.
"When 5,500 citizens illegally lost their franchise to vote?"
"When the assessment was raised without knowledge of taxpayers?"
"When only an average of 566 (Continued on Page 2)

Supervisor Now Favors 'City Rule'

Goddard, former Village president, fears that the Township supervisor, if elected, would wreck the present efficient city manager plan of administration, under Everitt Lane. Goddard contends that Lane has done a very efficient job as city manager. He fears due to differences between them, Lane would resign if Schweikart was elected.
Schweikart said he favors a strong mayor administration like Detroit.
Lane refused to enter the political controversy. He had no comment to make.
When it was pointed out to Goddard that if the city rule is accepted, the electorate will decide on what administration would best meet the needs of the community.
"Yes," said Goddard, "but the charter commission which would draw up a city plan could easily be influenced or guided by the man in the Village president's chair."
Fritsch would favor the city manager plan.

Park To Elect City Charter Commission

Nine citizens will be elected at the March 13 election in Grosse Pointe Park if the "home rule" proposal is accepted to prepare a city charter plan.
All residents who have lived in the Village for at least one year, are eligible to take out petitions, 25 names are required.
Deadline for filing is Feb. 25, according to William Stamman, Park clerk.
Stamman said that the last filing date for candidates for Village office has been moved up to Saturday, Jan. 28.

2 St. Ambrose Veterans Get Bonus Checks

Two St. Ambrose High School graduates were reported the first Grosse Pointe veterans to receive their G. I. insurance bonus checks.
Al Thielemans, 25, of 1256 Wayburn, plans to save his check of $209. Dick Van Goethen, 25, of 1343 Nottingham, will use his $250 for his wedding May 13.
Both, ex-G.I.'s received their checks on Friday, Jan. 20.
Thielemans and Van Goethen served in the army together for three years.

Car Strikes Careless Girl

A child who failed to look before she crossed the street was run down by an auto driven by Richard Schrage, of 385 Chalfonte, at Jefferson near University Place.
The victim, Patsy Langs, 10, of 281 University, was carried home by Schrage. She was not seriously injured.
Police said that Mr. Langs blamed Patsy for the accident.
"Patsy never watches for cars before she crosses the street," police said Mr. Langs reported.

Evola Reports Stolen Auto

Sam Evola, 1175 Bishop, reported to Park Police that his auto was stolen from his garage. Investigation revealed that the car was taken by a Detroit constable. The reason was not disclosed.
Evola was among those arrested recently by the FBI in connection with a nation-wide counterfeit ring.

Scout Training Saves 2 In Lake

Scout training was credited for saving the lives of two Grosse Pointe Park boys who fell through the ice at Waterfront Park.
David Cook, 14, of 1037 Maryland, told police that training received as a boy scout prompted him to reach for his pal, Gordon Soyener, 17, 1032 Wayburn, who was struggling in ten feet of water.
David, who was in water up to his shoulders, said he reached for Walter's hair and pulled him to safety.
The boys were taken home by Park Police.

Have You Registered to Vote?

"Stop Schweikart" is the campaign slogan of incumbents Homer C. Fritsch, Park president, and Peter J. Koenig, A. Bloodsworth and Karl Goddard, Village councilmen, all seeking re-election.
All veteran public servants, the foursome planned to retire from office until they heard that Carl Schweikart would seek the top office.
Goddard, former Village president, fears that the Township supervisor, if elected, would wreck the present efficient city manager plan of administration, under Everitt Lane. Goddard contends that Lane has done a very efficient job as city manager. He fears due to differences between them, Lane would resign if Schweikart was elected.
Schweikart said he favors a strong mayor administration like Detroit.
Lane refused to enter the political controversy. He had no comment to make.

"Yes," said Goddard, "but the charter commission which would draw up a city plan could easily be influenced or guided by the man in the Village president's chair."
Fritsch would favor the city manager plan.

'Keep Lane' Is Hope of Incumbents

When it was pointed out to Goddard that if the city rule is accepted, the electorate will decide on what administration would best meet the needs of the community.
"Yes," said Goddard, "but the charter commission which would draw up a city plan could easily be influenced or guided by the man in the Village president's chair."
Fritsch would favor the city manager plan.

Plan More Lighting for Mack

Grosse Pointe Park Council authorized Everitt B. Lane, Village manager, to expedite plans to improve public lighting on Mack avenue.
Lane has been negotiating with Detroit Edison for bids for better lights on Mack.
Last week, a Review editorial termed Mack a death trap for pedestrians. Several people have been killed crossing that dark highway within a short period.
Lane said that a special committee is studying a general public lighting program to cost about $500,000.
The council also heard a complaint from the Mack Avenue Business Men's Association signed by E. C. White of 806 E. Grand Blvd., president.
White termed Mack a traffic hazard under present lighting. He urged immediate improvement. The Association is comprised of Detroit and Grosse Pointe Business men.
The Detroit Public Lighting superintendent assured Lane that he would cope with any improvement made by Grosse Pointe Park.
Detroit is responsible for the north side of Mack while Park, City, Farms provide for the south side.

POINTE'S TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM

Grosse Pointe Park's Planning Commission undoubtedly has been working very hard in preparing a master long-range plan for the community. There is no uncertainty in our mind that they will leave no book unopened or no survey incomplete in moulding a long-range development program. However, their mountainous task would be lightened considerably if top-flight men experienced in the various phases of public utilities, would be asked to contribute their suggestions. We have particular reference to the transportation situation which has been a major problem to the commission. But after a lengthy study, the commission is ready to make recommendations shortly. The commission's recommendations may be worthy of acceptance—but more important is the fact that Walter Schweikart, president of the Lake Shore Coach Lines and an authority on public transportation, was not asked for any suggestions or opinions. We contend this was a grave error in the part of the commission. We contend that the knowledge and experience of Schweikart should have been sought and considered before any new transportation plan was formulated. Like Dagwood, we feel the commission missed the bus on this issue.

stimulated elections during those years. We wish to point out that we have almost every year prepared and mailed to all the residents a bulletin containing a biography and sketch of each candidate and recommendation as to their qualifications for office. We feel we are rendering a service to the community in publishing these bulletins. In the same bulletin we urge people to register have not done so and also the people to vote and to vote as they see fit. We cannot control the voters, nor do we have any desire to do so, and after our urging them to vote it is up to them. It is generally recognized that people in Grosse Pointe display a certain amount of apathy towards municipal affairs. A review of the election returns in the previous years will show that where there have been questions of importance and spirited contests for public office, a larger number of people have voted. However, during the last several years there has been little contest for office.

time inquired as to the condition of the registration list. Last fall we realized that because of the small number of people who have voted in recent elections undoubtedly many of them had lost their right to vote and urged the commission to notify the people in the village of the fact that they would lose their right to vote if they had not voted at an election within the last four years or had re-registered. We firmly believe in the prin-voted at Village elections during the last four years?"

Schweikart said that he would not fill out the committee's questionnaire seeking general information.

His letter to the committee appears below:

Other council candidates are Ray J. Dierickx, Gilbert W. Groehn, Irwin G. Alfes, Lansing Pittman and Homer Cudia.

Six will be nominated at the primary, Feb. 13. Three will be elected.

Schweikart's letter to the committee:

With reference to your letters of January 17 and January 18, 1950, in which I received two questionnaires, one relative to the qualifications of candidates and the other a questionnaire on city incorporation, please be advised that I am returning the questionnaire on city incorporation with an expression of my feelings on that matter. I have stated my reasons for being in favor of incorporating the Village of Grosse Pointe Park to Home Rule because I realize that several of the important functions of the Township government have been absorbed by other governmental agencies and that it would be an imposition on the tax payers of this community to continue the support of the Township government which has so capably performed these functions in the past.

With reference to your questionnaire on my candidacy, I might state unequivocally and with a personal knowledge that the so-called Citizens Association of Grosse Pointe Park is composed of a self appointed group of interested people whose interest in the candidates of this Village blossoms forth a few weeks before an election and that during the preceding years show little of no interest in the matters vitally important to the tax payers of his community, and that these same men show little or exhibit a lack of interest in matters of which, if they were honestly and sincerely interested in the welfare of this Village, would advise the people of this community on questions that affect their future residency in this Village.

Please feel free to call upon us any time for any additional information, call Edward H. Zerbe, 1238 Whittier, secretary.

In addition many members of your Association are connected personally with the present officials of this Village; and further, the present officials have been supported, recommended, endorsed and preferred by your Association, and I cannot see how your Association can fairly and honestly, as a self appointed group, give a fair, equitable and an unbiased report to the citizens of this community on any other candidate.

There is not a citizen in the Village of Grosse Pointe Park who does not know of my record in public office, and I am proud to say that I have been an honest, conscientious public servant, and I defy any member of your organization to cite one instance when I have done anything to prevent or preclude myself to run for any office in this community. My record speaks for itself.

Tall Dark and Colorful

By JOHNNIE BACHELOR
Men, the revolution is here. According to the Men's wear authorities "stuffed shirt" apparel has been given the bum's rush. That collar button that always gave you so much trouble has joined the ranks of the unemployed. The experts guarantee that even the snootiest yacht club affairs will accept informal dinner jackets in plaid or red cotton.

For the under-wear, that is the feet, the truly high-fashion male can buy loafers lined with red.

Experts predict that March will mark the first vividly colored fashions for men since Louis XIV.

"Pardon me, but who is your technical friend?" would be the question of the day.

However, the authorities warn that white would be still right for shirt wear.

Claim Charm Begins at 50

The woman who has passed her fiftieth birthday may not win a beauty contest, but she is likely to have a poise and assurance that a 19-year-old beauty queen can envy but not emulate. Maturity can not only be the most serene but also the most creative period of life, according to Rebecca Perry in the February Journal of Living. A woman of fifty has time to develop her potentialities as never before. There is less fretting over trifles, more tranquillity of spirit, more understanding. A mature personality is more bewitching in its own way than the mere physical attraction of youth.

Many women today demonstrate that maturity increases one's effectiveness. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Ethel Barrymore are outstanding examples. Emily Post and Mary Roberts Finch have had distinguished careers in the years well past fifty.

Qualities associated with youth are determined not by one's years, but by one's mental outlook. If middle age tempts you to get into a rut, warns the Journal of Living, don't do it! Queen Victoria began to study Hindustani at the age of 80. Lady Mendil was just past 60 when she learned to swim. Adeline Reynolds graduated from college at 70, made her debut as an actress at 78 and became a star at 82!

How should the woman of fifty accent her charm? It's easy, says Miss Perry. Don't try to look years younger than you are or you'll only look ridiculous. Stop apologizing for your age. Make the most of your assets gained by your practice in the art of living. Keep your mind alert. The years hang lightly when you continue to seek new experiences.

Why Should a Dollar's Worth of Travel Continue to Cost You $1.15?

"IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?" you were asked in 1941, when every inch of space was needed for troops and war supplies.

To discourage travel then, a tax was added on your travel dollar, a tax that grew to 15% during the war. The Federal Government collected it through the railroads. The Government still collects it, though your travel need not be rationed now.

Today, the original purpose of this tax is as obsolete as an Air Warden's helmet. But, four years after the war's end, YOU are still paying the Government at the rate of $250,000,000 a year in travel tax.

And, of the billion and three quarters collected since 1941, over half came out of your pocket after the green light on travel went on again.

You don't have food rationing today... you don't have gasoline rationing today.

Yet, a very real brake is still being put on travel. On a coach trip from New York to Chicago, for example, YOU are still paying $4.61 in Federal tax.

And the same with the goods that are shipped to your home community. On every dollar you pay for freight, you pay the Government an extra 3 cents (4¢ a ton on coal). That means YOU are still paying over $500,000,000 a year — freight tax alone.

This tax should be repealed NOW. There is no longer any reason you should pay $1.15 for every dollar's worth of travel... $1.03 for every dollar of railroad freight.

"THIS I REMEMBER"
by Eleanor Roosevelt

A WAY from the crowd—out of the limelight—what kind of a husband was Franklin D. Roosevelt? What were his private thoughts? Did he bitterly resent the illness that left its lifelong mark? How did his strong ties to his mother affect his relations with his wife and his children? You'll find the absorbing answers in "This I Remember." You'll see treasured family pictures in Mrs. Roosevelt's private album. You'll learn what a man gains, what he gives up, when he becomes President, and the price his family pays for his service to the nation. You'll enjoy every picture of Eleanor Roosevelt's own revealing story of America's most talked about man, before and during the world-stirring days in which FDR played a major role and helped to shape history.

"There are some things I know that nobody else could tell!"
writes Mrs. Roosevelt

Leo Kennedy, Dick Gallagher, Anne Martz, Larry Hollerbach, Rieszki, Marie Couvreur, Al Susella, Carol Staub and Pete Anger, Ed Quirk, and Dan Campau were seen spinning around the ice at the Grosse Shores Park, Friday night.

Joining in the fun, as well as the spills, were Chuck Alaska, Tom Marchand, Pearl Frontera, Janet Kingsbury, and Anna Klein.

Following the game Friday night Janet Oxley, John Huette, Jack Trombley, Glenn Walters, Donna Mayo, Connie Molitor, Carroll, Tom McLaughlin, Mary Margaret Van Damme, Mari-Sutherland, Tim Champine, and Jim Hoskins returned to Dee's home for a tasty snack of sandwiches, ice cream, and cokes. Afterwards they played ping pong and did some square dancing.

After the boys left, the girls began pushing away furniture and unrolling blankets in preparation for their slumber party.

Mary Ann Burlingame's home was the center of attraction Friday night. As a farewell party for Kay Sutherland, who will be leaving St. Paul's, Mary Ann invited Marg Lynch, Pat Carroll, Carol Staub, Barbara Van Tiem, Peggy Hyde, Betty DiPaola, Ardittio, Barb Houlihan, Anne Dungan, Sally McKernan, Mary Doyle, Margie Heidt, Nancy Downey, Gerry Kirchner, Sue Morrow, and June Allard over to watch television and to play nasta. SPIKE QUIRK

Ace Center Lost to GPH; Seek League Cage Title

Grosse Pointe High School cagers will meet Royal Oak Acorns Friday, Feb. 3, on the Fisher Road court. The game will be the Blue Devils' second encounter against the Acorns this season, the Devils having beaten them earlier 35-29. Grosse Pointe will be without the services of Spike Quirk, their star center, who is graduating. Quirk has helped to put Grosse Pointe in first place in Border Cities League standings and will be missed in league competition and even more in the Regional Tournament.

Playing against Wyandotte in the GPH gym Friday, the Blue Devils won their fifth league game by a score of 56-44. Quirk led Grosse Pointe scoring with 18 points topped only by Jim Leighty, Wyandotte guard, who sank 19 points.

During halftime the Blue and Gold Hi-Y Chapters at Grosse Pointe High held a wrestling match which the Blue won three to nothing. Skip Pessi beat Dean Fosmo; Ed Anderson beat Sam Armstrong; and Peter Van Oostenberg beat Buddy Allen.

Blue Devil reserves won against Wyandotte by 50-24. La Beau, Wyandotte reserve guard, dominated scoring making 16 points, many from midcourt. Harden, Bray, and Brogan scored high for Devil reserves making 11 points, 15 points, and eight points respectively. Grosse Pointe fast moving plays showed up to good advantage against the Wyandotte reserves who could not get the ball into close range for layups.

Emil Deprest Leads Mondry 5 to Rotary Top

Mondry Cleaners, scoring six shutouts out of the last seven times out, stopped only by Middle Atl. Transp. Co., who shut them out, became the new leader in the Rotary Club Bowling League. Emil Deprest, captain of Mondry, blazed away with 225 and 211 for a 595 total, followed by Bill Mertz who gathered 552 pins. Mondry takes on Farms Market Friday and what a battle that will be.

G. P. Review lost the top post when Harrison Carpets knocked them off for 4 points.

Middle Atl. Transp. Co., took over third position by trimming Earl Holzbaugh, 3-1. Grossmeyer for the winners came up with a 234 game.

Motor City Tires dropped three points to the Auto Club but hung on to their fourth place position.

Houston Bros. Inc., had Farms Market on the ropes but Ed Taube's conversion of the 5-7 split evened the series at 2-1.

Piches Barber Shop took a 3-1 decision from Punch & Judy Cocktail Lounge. Bob Gross carried the most timber for the winners.

Typos Earn Nod in 1st

Grosse Pointe Business Men's League bowlers began the second half of their 1949-50 season Wednesday after completing a "closely contested" first half pennant race last week.

Final standings saw Grosse Pointe Printers and Oak Cleaners in a first place deadlock. However, officials gave the top honor to the Typos by virtue of a league ruling which states that in event of a tie the winner would be determined by total pins and handicap.

Packers' Opening

Thousands of Grosse Pointers thronged into the new Packers Super Market at 107 Kercheval in the Farms for the "Grand Opening" this week of the company's fortieth store in the growing chain.

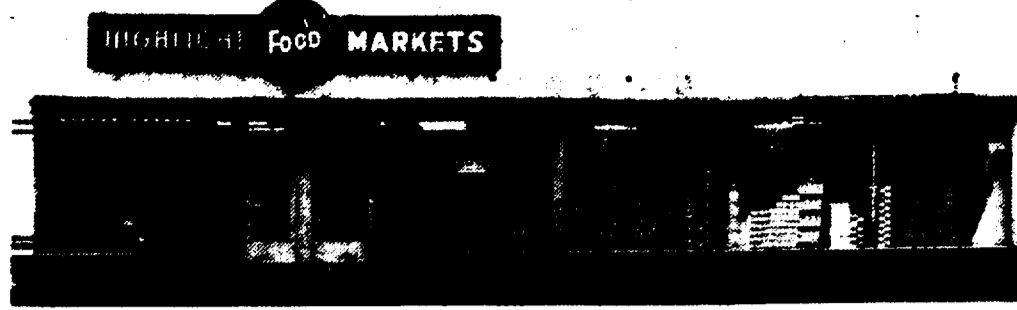

Definitely designed, arranged and furnished in keeping with other fine stores in the Pointe, the new Packers food center embodies every modern innovation in fixtures and arrangement for customer convenience and satisfaction.

On hand for the "Grand Opening Week" are distributors and factory agents offering samples to visitors and the entire brilliantly lighted store is bedecked with scores of floral arrangements from well-wishers.

"The spontaneous response to our grand opening justifies our unswerving efforts to bring the people of Grosse Pointe the finest store possible, with the best of foods at the lowest possible prices," Mr. Robert Schwartz, Packers advertising manager, told The Review.

The new food center is departmentalized for easier shopping convenience, with refrigerated produce cases, smoked and luncheon meat cases and dairy products cases, a separate department houses the renowned Arvey's baked goods, there is a full-line delicatessen and frozen food department, huge stocks of nationally-known groceries are conveniently arranged and a giant meat department is staffed by expert butchers and features Packers' pride in fine meats and poultry.

Formerly the Schervish Food Market, the Highlight Market is pledged to offer the finest in foods and services at the lowest possible prices, according to Mr. Nagher, who has just completely restocked the store.

Blue Devils Beat Strong Dearborn

Dearborn High, the conqueror of Lansing Sexton, Jackson, Ann Arbor, and every team in her league, fell to Grosse Pointe Blue Devils by 39-46 in a close and exciting basketball game Tuesday.

Playing in the spacious Dearborn High gym, the Blue Devils proved they had the spirit, the aggressiveness, and the accuracy needed to cope with the best teams in the state.

The score was tied five times during the game. In the first period the Dearborn Pioneers gained a lead of six points but increasing Blue Devil aggressiveness hurried them so much they began to miss attempts that had made sure points only minutes before.

Grosse Pointe High reserves lost to Dearborn reserves by 30-35 in another close battle. Ben Gray, center, led the Devil reserves with 12 points. Larry Parks, Dearborn reserve forward, showed the greatest skill on the reserve court making 20 points.

ST. CHARLES, ST. AMBROSE Title Bound Flyers 5 Clip 2 Loop Opponents

St. Paul maintained its winning ways on the basketball court by taking two league opponents in one week. St. Charles fell to the Flyers 51 to 41 and St. Ambrose hit the skids 38 to 24. These victories kept St. Paul at the head of the league with five starts.

St. Charles was host at the Tuesday evening affair but failed to take advantage of their better knowledge of the home floor. After seeing the St. Charles squad move into an early lead the Flyers finally got their eye on the hoop.

By the fourth period it looked like St. Paul would win in a run-away, but St. Charles tightened and started a scoring spree. The home squad finished with flash and were going fine at the final whistle in spite of a ten point deficit. Pete Belanger led the victors with 15 points.

The game Friday night, at the Neighborhood Club, was a contest all the way. This is home-court for both teams and the players had their eyes sharp from the jump.

In the St. Ambrose game, Belanger was high point man with 13, closely followed by Pelkey and Tom Marchand. The Flyers Reserve missed their bid to glory in contests. In the curtain raiser, St. Charles they went down 19 in a low scoring game. They also dropped a close one to St. Ambrose Reserves 36-34.
