Hope Evangelical Lutheran Church was the scene Saturday afternoon of the wedding of Esther Natalia Bohm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis William . Bohm, of Berkshire, and Mr. Walter Marvin Dailey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marvin Dailey, of ing reviews for church, club and Hillcrest.

The bridal gown of white satin was of period decor with leg of mutton sleeves. The bodice was trimmed with seed pearls. Her illusion veil of Cathedral length fell from a Juliet cap trimmed with orange blossoms. A spray of white carnations and gladiolus, centered with two green orchids, formed her bouquet.

Mrs. Howard Neale attended ner sister as matron of honor, wearing a pink faille gown and carrying a bouquet of blue carnations, with a headpiece of the same matching flowers.

The two bridesmaids, Mrs. Samuel C. Laux and Mrs. Harold Bohm were gowned alike in blue faille with bouquets and headpieces of pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Raymond Paul Bandemer as best man, and those seating the guests were Samuel C. Laux, Richard Taylor, Robert E. Curtis, and Robert Wesley Tomb.
