Expedite Projects for Parks

"Every effort will be made to install as many improvements at our Village parks as possible for the coming season" said A. A. Ghesquiere, Grosse Pointe Woods president.

Ghesquiere made the statement following the Village election Monday which saw the voters approve an $81,000 bond issue for parks improvement.

Elected to his 12th successive one-year term Monday, Ghesquiere felt certain that a concrete wall will be built at the swimming pool before the summer months arrive. The wall will guard against pollution.

Other improvements to be financed by the bond issue include a bathhouse, restrooms, tennis courts and baseball diamonds.

Monday's election saw a new member enter the council. He is George Heckendorn, of 1010 Roslyn, who unseated Arnold Diesing, veteran civic figure. Two other incumbents, Leon Ratcliffe and George Gardner were re-elected.

Joy, Sherer Recovering from Crash

Two prominent Grosse Pointers are recovering this week from injuries sustained when their cars collided Monday in Warren Township.

They are Richard P. Joy, 37, of 60 Renaud, who was transferred from Saratoga General Hospital to Jennings Hospital, and Joseph S. Sherer, of 190 Ridge Road, who was taken to Jennings Hospital and released after examination.

According to Township police, Sherer reported that Joy, driving west on Ten Mile, failed to stop at Hoover, a through street, and struck his car.

Joy was pinned beneath his open car door when both vehicles hurtled into a ditch.

Joy is president of the Multi-Hydraulic Welding & Manufacturing Co., Warren Township. Sherer is the son of a former president of the Reo Motor Co.

REPORTS PROVE

Never A Dull Moment On Police Beat

Police work never gets monotonous.

For instance here are some of the reports that Grosse Pointe Woods police made this week:

Anthony Gramer, 7, of 1228 Roslyn suffered a bad cut on his thumb when he pushed his hand through the storm door.

Someone threw paint around the floors and stuffed glue in the key holes at a new home at 1681 Sunningdale.

H. P. Cousemont, 55, of St. Clair Shores, missed the driveway of a gas station on Mack and drove his car in a ditch.

Three boys, reported as suspicious persons by neighbors, at 1528 Hampton, explained that they were waiting for a baby sitter to get through.

A burglar who helped himself to a key in the milk chute absconded with two wash basins valued at $75 from Cecil Patterson's home, 1717 Prestwick. He also threw a brick through a $45 plate glass window there.

Officials to Hear Shores Report

Officials of the five Grosse Pointe municipalities will meet with the Water Resource Commission of Michigan at Haven Hill, Milford, Tuesday, March 21.

Thomas Jefferis, Grosse Pointe Shores superintendent, is expected to report on a Village sewage project.

Rob Church of $25

The Rev. Charles W. Scheid, pastor of Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, 240 Chalfonte, reported the theft of $25 from a church box Saturday.

Park Voters Support City Rule, Incumbents

Grosse Pointe Park's electorate gave a vote of confidence to four incumbents Monday when they were re-elected by a decisive margin.

President Homer C. Fritsch, was elected to his second two-year term. He defeated Carl Schweikart, Township supervisor, 1,554 to 1,101.

Here's how they ran in the council race: Karl B. Goddard, 1584; Peter Koenig, 1511; A. John Bloodsworth, 1493; Gilbert W. Groehn, 954; Raymond J. Dierickx, 850, and Erwin G. Alfes, 821.

Goddard, Koenig and Bloodsworth will serve two-year terms.

The ballot to abandon the Township for City government ran true to form, 2,167 voted for city rule, while only 458 were opposed to it.

Elected to the City Charter Commission were C. Joseph Belanger, who led the entire ticket with 2,032 votes; Howard P. Parshall, 1669; Margaret E. Collins, 1520, first woman to hold public office in the Village; Victor Wehner, 1496; William Gillet, 1449; Robert McKean, 1439; T. Edward O'Connor, 1404; Clarence H. Koebe, 1280 and John L. Potter, 986.

The Commission will draft a city charter that will best meet the needs of the community. They will get underway shortly. The people will vote on the Commission's recommendation.

Defeated in Charter Commission race were: Bennett Burgoon, Jr., 969; Stephan Walker, 956; Milton Wortley, 927; Harold Pheips, 893; and Floyd M. Beitzel, 775.

Monday's election was described as the largest turnout in ten years, by William Staman, Village clerk. He said that close to 2,700 voted.

Though this number does not compare favorably with the 8,000 that are registered to vote, it is a great increase. During the last four years an average of 560 voted at Village referendums.

Staman said that people were in line as late as 9:30 p.m. Monday night.

Social Register Editor Gets Tall Tales

BY VINCENT GAGE

"People call me on the telephone for the doggoned things!" exclaimed Mary Ward Dillion, editor of the Michigan Social Register, popularly known as the blue book of Detroit and state socialites. "For instance," she continued, "a lawyer called to ask how he could get a client of his into society and just recently one of Detroit's post-war millionaires—a steel broker—called for a similar request."

These calls are just a few of the problems Miss Dillion has to deal with in reading the Michigan Social Register for yearly publication. She has extensive files and watches the newspapers like a hawk to keep up with the new marriages and changes of residence. New babies are also a problem for the Michigan Social Register, for this book lists babies at birth. In fact, this social index of Michigan is probably the only social volume published today that includes children before they are 14 years old.

Police said the man jumped at the girl from behind bushes at Ridgemoor near Mack a short distance from her home.

The girl screamed and broke away.

Shores Ordinance

Grosse Pointe Shores Council adopted a gas burner ordinance Monday at a council session.

Opposes Low-Cost Housing

A civil suit to prevent Charles Babcock, builder, from erecting $11,000 homes in a subdivision where dwellings are valued upwards of $20,000, is being heard in Circuit Court before Judge John V. Brennan.

The complainant is Gerald Murdock, of 339 Chalfonte, who purchased his present home from Babcock for $28,000.

Murdock claims that at the time of the purchase, Babcock assured him that only "higher price" homes would be built in that vicinity.

Babcock's construction of low cost dwellings on Hillcrest has been stopped by an injunction issued by Judge Brennan.

Harry Furton, Farms clerk, said that the proposed homes do not violate the zoning ordinance, but they do conflict with subdivision restrictions.

Murdock feels that Babcock's buildings would reduce the value of all homes in that area.

Murray Smith, Farms engineer, testified at Wednesday's hearing. The case was to continue Thursday morning at 11 a.m.

McMillan Cites Six Patrolmen

Six Grosse Pointe Park patrolmen received citations from James McMillan, Village Police Commissioner for the arrest of three armed bandits and four burglars operating in the Village.

Cited were Eugene Miller, William Crandall, Alphonse Boone, Arthur Conlan, Marcel Vervacke and Lawrence Cools.

Miller and Crandall prevented a holdup when they stopped three men on a traffic violation. Investigation revealed a loaded .32 revolver in the car.

Boone and Conlan surprised two burglars in an auto sales in Turner Motor Sales, 15103 Kercheval. Boone was forced to shoot down one of the men.

Vervacke and Cools arrested two men sought for robbery.

McMillan gives citations each month for meritorious police work.

Police Arrest Houseman

Jessie George, 37, of 917 Grand Marais, where he is employed as a houseman, was locked up by Grosse Pointe Park police Tuesday. He was charged with assault and battery.

Robert Godwin, 30, of 2431, Hamtramck, who is also employed at the Grand Marais address, told police that George attacked him with a knife.

Police said that George had been drinking.

General Declares Teamwork Is More Potent Than Bombs

"A solid unification of our armed forces would be more potent in the next war than the H-bomb or A-bomb," Major General Stanley E. Reinhart, USA (retired) told a Grosse Pointe audience at Memorial Center Monday.

"Team work is more effective than any one weapon," he said at the open meeting sponsored by the Grosse Pointe American Legion Post 303.

Military preparedness is a business matter and should be conducted as such, according to General Reinhart, who is a veteran of both World Wars.

"A businessman hires help to carry out his orders," said General Reinhart. The American electorate should place in office men who will follow the wishes of their constituents.

"We have too many individualists in key positions today," for a consolidated program of defense," he said.

General Reinhart's decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal and the Legion of Merit.

He has ten battle stars. He participated in operations which ended hostilities on Guadalcanal. He was retired for physical disability in 1946.

Broadcast Review Editorial

Ann Arbor—An editorial that appeared in the Grosse Pointe Review on March 2 was heard over WUOM, the University of Michigan FM station, on "The Editors Speak" program Monday afternoon.

The weekly program features outstanding editorials in Michigan newspapers on current problems of local, national and international importance.

The Grosse Pointe Review editorial selected concerned "Wartime Excise Taxes".

Compiled in the WUOM newsroom, "The Editors Speak" is broadcast over three other Michigan stations WEAR and WKAR-FM in East Lansing and WJW in Wyandotte.

Rabaut Spurs Excise Tax Revision

Rep. Louis C. Rabaut, 14th District congressman from Grosse Pointe, has introduced in the House a bill, H.R. 7333, to reduce or repeal the discriminatory wartime excise taxes.

As the powerful head of the new "Appropriations Screening" Committee, Rabaut has advised local constituents that "no one can foretell the will of Congress, but it is hoped that favorable action will be taken during this session to remove these unjust taxes, and you can count on my continued active support."

Discriminatory wartime excise taxes are sought to be repealed or reduced by the bill on the following items:

Toilet preparations, admissions, passenger automobiles, trailers, trucks, buses, motorcycles, automobile parts or accessories, gasoline, lubricating oils, tires, inner tubes, furs, light bulbs, jewelry, telephone, telegraph, radio, and cable facilities, transportation of persons, and photographic apparatus.

"The House Committee on Ways and Means, of which I am not a member, is currently conducting hearings to consider a general tax revision including excise taxes," says Rabaut.

Stark to Speak Before Local History Group

George W. Stark, Detroit News columnist and official historiographer of the City of Detroit, will be the speaker before the Grosse Pointe Historical Society at the Memorial Center Friday, March 24 at 8 p.m.

The Board of the Historical Society invites all interested in history to hear Mr. Stark. There will be no admission charge.

A native of Detroit and engaged in newspaper work most of his life, Stark comes well-qualified to discuss his subject, "History on the Home Front."

In recent years, his writings have taken on an historical direction and, as a result, he became involved with the Detroit Historical Society, of which he was president during the years the society was promoting a new historical museum.

He is now president of the Detroit Historical Commission, charged with the building of that project, which will shortly emerge on the land between Woodward and Cass avenues on Kirby avenue, just north of the Public Library.

The new Detroit Historical Museum will be completed in time for dedication on the 250th anniversary of the founding of Detroit, July 24, 1951.

Stark is the author of two books about Detroit, "In Old Detroit," and "City of Destiny," a history of Detroit. On the completion of that he was made City Historiographer by the Council.

Licavoli Case Tabled Again

Circuit Court Judge John V. Brennan, Monday tabled the Pete Licavoli warrant hearing until March 28. He asked the defense counsel and the prosecutor to submit briefs on the case for his study.

Licavoli is charged with having gambling paraphernalia at his home, 1154 Balfour, where he was arrested Jan. 4.

Defense Attorney Joseph Louisell appealed a ruling of John L. Potter, Grosse Pointe justice of the peace, who found the warrant valid.

Monday's adjournment marks the sixth time the case has been delayed.

Cleans Cleaner

Seven dollars were taken from a cash box at Imperial Cleaners, 15326 Mack, by a burglar who forced his way in through a rear door.

FILM FOR P-TA

Grosse Pointe's globe circling photographer will show movies of his color film of "Switzerland" Monday, March 20, at 7:45 p.m. at the Trombly P-TA meeting.

A social with Mrs. Arnold Lungehausen as chairman, will follow the movie.

13-Year Career To End

Carl Schweikart, Township supervisor, said that he would retire from public office as soon as Grosse Pointe Park adopts a city charter.

Schweikart, an attorney, defeated in his bid for the Village presidency Monday said he would return to private practice.

He, John L. Potter and C. Joseph Belanger, justices of peace, will have to resign their Township positions as soon as a City Charter is accepted according to state law.

The ruling prevents residents of one community to act as officials in another. Schweikart, Belanger and Potter live in the Park.

Both Potter and Belanger were elected to the Commission that will draft a charter.

Schweikart said that Grosse Pointe Woods and Grosse Pointe Shores would have to name a new Township supervisor to preside until they adopt City Charters.

A. A. Ghesquiere, Grosse Pointe Woods president, said that a special election for city rule would be held in May.

Thomas Jefferis, Shores superintendent, indicated that Shores would also vote on the switch to city rule in June.

The retirement of Schweikart would mark the end of a colorful 13-year period as a public figure. He served ten years as a Township clerk and supervisor. He also was an assistant County prosecutor.

He was chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors last year. He is chairman of its Ways and Means Committee this year.

Commenting on Monday's election, Schweikart said:

"I extend my appreciation to the large number of persons who voted. They have expressed their views and I will cooperate in such as I can with the men they placed in office."

"If nothing else," he added, "I stirred some interest in our Village election."

Bandits Tell How They Spent $13,000

Two Detroit bandits told police how they spent $13,000 of the $18,000 they took from the home of Pete Corrado, 765 Middlesex according to Arthur Louwers, Grosse Pointe police chief.

The pair said they paid bills, bought clothes, and purchased a 1948 Cadillac.

They are William Pospeshill and John Ladin, both of Detroit. Police found about $2,000 in their possession at the time of their arrest. They were picked up trying to pawn some stolen jewelry.

The men also admitted looting the homes of James Passanante, 1024 Buckingham, and Dr. J. T. Pohle, 1330 Audubon.

Pospeshill and Ladin are charged with breaking and entering.

Ladin linked his brother Arno with the Corrado theft. Arno received $500 from the pair for holding the safe.

He pleaded guilty before Judge John L. Potter Thursday morning.

CHARTER COMMISSION FACES TASK

It was an electorate with an eye towards solid government that went to the polls in Grosse Pointe Park Monday.

A City Charter Commission was elected consisting of nine candidates who are distinguished for their civic experience and interest. Their background will be an invaluable asset for the task they have been selected to do.

Howard P. Parrash as a past president of Grosse Pointe Park has wide political experience. Other members of the board include: John L. Potter, C. Joseph Belanger and William Gillett who also have administrative experience in government.

To give balance to the Commission Mrs. Margaret E. Collins was able to present the woman's point of view.

The task which lies before the City Charter Commission is not an easy one. Many of their spare hours will be spent in research and study.

The City Charter Commission for Grosse Pointe Farms had close to 100 meetings before their recommendation received final approval by the voters.

The voters of Grosse Pointe Park are to be commended for their wise selection.

IN MANY OF THE GROSSE POINTE BUSINESS AREAS

Parking in many of the Grosse Pointe business areas has become a problem which needs immediate attention.

An exception to this statement is Grosse Pointe Farms. They have already installed parking meters and have made parking lots available to the public.

Merchants are finding that inadequate parking facilities are creating ill will among their customers. Some case light and prevents complications, but it gives the child a lasting immunity to the disease. Prevention of the disease gives only temporary protection.

the main avenues in the business district. To accommodate the overflow they purchased two large plots of land and installed parking meters. These meters, they know, will pay for the purchase and upkeep of the property.

Grosse Pointe has property available near all the business areas. It might be well to consider this as a means of parking. In time they, too, could pay for themselves.

The parking in Grosse Pointe should be given prompt attention before the situation becomes acute.

ONE CITY-GROSSE POINTE

Grosse Pointe Park's switch to a city is another step towards consolidation of the five municipalities into one metropolis.

There is no doubt that such a merger would save thousands of dollars to taxpayers here.

However, the union is still several years away.

It may become a reality after the switch to the city government is completed by all the Pointes and people fully get the costly impact of operating five cities that virtually overlap one another.

WARN PARENTS ABOUT MEASLES

This is a "Measles Year" in Michigan; cases are appearing at the rate of 2,500 a week, throughout the state.

Measles is especially dangerous in small children. Watch your older children for symptoms so that you will know if the young child is exposed. Call your doctor at once if your child is exposed to measles.

Doctors recommend modification of measles cases in all children under six years of age, and the prevention of measles in infants and young children.

The physician can use gamma globulin for either modification or prevention of the illness but its success in either case depends on the parent's knowledge of the time of exposure to prevent measles. It must be given immediately after exposure. To modify measles, it must be given on the fifth or sixth day after exposure. Modification of measles makes the case light and prevents complications, but it gives the child a lasting immunity to the disease. Prevention of the disease gives only temporary protection.

Gamma globulin, the product used to modify or prevent measles, is a blood fraction distributed through the local health departments to the physicians of the state.

It is provided free of charge through the cooperation of the American Red Cross and the Michigan Department of Health.

A child who has been exposed to measles usually develops cold-like symptoms in about ten days; the rash follows in about four more days. The disease is most communicable in the three or four days before the rash appears. Complications of untreated measles cases may include damage to the eyes, ears, glands, throat and brain.

Measles cases and those suspected of having the disease should be isolated in the home. The home is not quarantined and, providing the case is adequately isolated, no restrictions are placed on others living in the house. A warning placard may be placed on the house if the health officer believes it advisable.

POLICE WARN

'Improper Passing Causes Accidents'

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth in a series of six articles on traffic safety and how the City Traffic Enforcement Policy, which has been adopted, should reduce accidents.

The most difficult driving maneuver to make is safely passing another vehicle.

This is because most streets are so narrow that passing requires you to pull across the center line on the wrong side of the road, thus risking a head-on collision with any vehicle moving toward you. Trying to judge the speed of a vehicle coming toward you is several times more difficult than judging the speed of a vehicle or traffic going in the same direction.

In addition, you have to judge the speed of the vehicle you are trying to pass. You must estimate how far ahead it will be by the time you can get beyond it and pull back on the right side of the street. You must be able to do this and not exceed the speed limit yourself.

Then there is the added difficulty that you can't see through the vehicle ahead of you, so you pull back to get ahead of the vehicle or pedestrian may not cross in front of it and thus be right in your path.

When you put all this together, judging the speed of three different vehicles simultaneously, one of them extremely hard to estimate, plus constant possibility of a hidden pedestrian or vehicle moving right in front of you, it is easy to see that any one of several errors will cause an accident.

Taking these four chances is not worth while unless the vehicle ahead of you is going much slower than the legal speed limit. The amount of time you hope to save it not worth it.

The least serious violation printed on the new traffic ticket is "pass" at an intersection. Here the hazard is one of the vehicle you are trying to pass being forced over in your lane, or of the hidden pedestrian or vehicle pulling out in front of you.

The more serious violation is that of "cutting in" where you fail to get ahead of the vehicle you are passing before you pull back into the right lane. This "cutting in" may force the other driver to slam on his brakes and cause a rear-end collision, or swerve to the right and into a parked car or a pedestrian.

The most serious violation is passing on the wrong side of the street on a four-lane highway. This is because, with four lanes available to driver, experts believe another driver cross the center line in order to pass another vehicle.

It is always annoying to have the vehicle ahead of you traveling at a speed more slowly than you wish to go and some drivers let this annoy them into making an illegal pass. If officers fail to stop them from doing this, sooner or later they will cause an accident.

The Alamo, noted for its heroic defense during the war between Texas and Mexico, was built as a mission chapel.

Thank You-

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the residents of Grosse Pointe Woods for their support in the March 13 election.

I will strive to merit the confidence you showed in me.

WASTE HIGHER AND HIGHER TAXES SOCIALISM SPENDING GOVT. DEFICIT

State Losing Industry By Heavy Taxes

Deep concern over the unfavorable Michigan tax structure was expressed by Mr. Willis Hall, Manager of the Industrial Department of the Detroit Board of Commerce, in a speech on "Where is Detroit Going?" before the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club meeting Monday at the Memorial Center.

Industry is moving out of Detroit for three reasons, said Mr. Hall, who is also president of the City Planning Commission and Secretary of the Board of Commerce. First, high taxes; second, high wages; and third, low production; the latter making operation in Michigan too expensive.

Efforts are being made, said the speaker, to effect an equalization of taxation on personal property, inventories, etc., in order for Michigan to compete with other states who have tax policies more favorable to industry.

Freuhauf, Budd and Timken-Detroit Axle are only three of the local industries who are setting up large plants out of Michigan, because of the tax structure.

Detroit Industrially has grown from within, said Hall, citing Ford, General Motors and Chrysler, having not much to attract outside industry, especially under present tax conditions. We must keep our industries to grow.

The speaker dwelt at length on the importance of future plans for the City of Detroit by Common Council and Mayor Cobo who wants expressways and parks completed now when they are needed.

Vitaly important to Detroit and surrounding communities who own, work in or control and direct local industry is a program of alert, far-sighted, well-situated building for the future of Detroit, declared the speaker.

Home Owners Have Stake In Census

Building contractors, real estate firms, and home owners have a vital stake in the 1950 Census of Housing. It will be taken here in April as part of the United States Census of the United States. The importance of accurate housing statistics was pointed out Monday by Albert E. Truist, identified in local real estate circles.

The April housing census will collect information on the number of dwelling units, their condition, their principal facilities, types of utilities, whether owned or rented, value of owner-occupied homes, rent paid for tenanted dwellings, and the number of occupants per dwelling unit. Questions on facilities will determine the number of dwelling units with piped water supply, installed tub or shower, and kind of toilet.

Review advertisements included a four-family flat to rent, reasonably; George O. Runde offering piano tuning service at 1164 Maryland; and American Art Restaurant announcing complete dinners at 65 cents.

15 YEARS AGO
Re-elected Park officials, Alfred J. Garaka, president; Louis A. DeHovey, William P. Stromaker, and John B. Renaud, commissioner, expressed their appreciation to voters for returning them to office.

11 YEARS AGO
At a Lockwood Village election, 478 votes to change the village name to Grosse Pointe Woods, 293 voted against the transaction.

William McKinley's appeal for a recount on the recent Township election brought this result: one less vote for Adolph Lamman in a dozen years.

Aid Handicapped

A musical variety and dance show sponsored by the St. Andrews Society, will aid two crippled youths, Saturday, March 25, at 8 p.m. at St. Andrews Hall, 421 Congress, Detroit.

After serving on the police force for 33 years, the major portion of police chief, Weigand retired in 1913.

He is survived by his wife, Louella; a son, William Jr.; three daughters, Mrs. Grace McConell, Mrs. Marian Hoover, and Mrs. Myrtle LaVoie.

Soviet Russia claims to have boosted its literacy rate 30 percent to 81 percent in 1949—in a dozen years.

this new DuMont gives you a BIGGER picture
a BETTER picture
at a LOWER price

You'll be surprised at the great size of the picture—the 15-inch direct-view tube has a screen face of 132 square inches.

You'll be surprised, too, at the exceptional picture quality—better even than you can expect of a DuMont. There's new inventiveness—new freedom from interference in the Hastings that gives a clear, steady brilliant picture, even in areas where reception is normally poor.

The Hastings, like all DuMonts, has FM radio—not as an accessory but as an integral part of the television receiver, taking full advantage of DuMont's fine tuning, its powerful audio circuit, and fine-tone speaker.

You'll like the simple, dignified cabinet of fine-grained mahogany veneer—and last, but not least, you're going to like the price tag, which is exceedingly modest for a receiver of such screen size and of DuMont quality.

Among the Bible citations is this message, 1 John 2: 15, 16: "Love not the things that are of the world, if any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him; for that which is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world."

Were the Gods of Art, and Fellowship, to alight on Lakeshore Road someday before the portals of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, may they look sharp upon entering? So caught up would they be in the maelstrom of arts, crafts, skills, and social activities that the God of Fellowship may find himself posing for a Sculpture Class while the God of Art might be caught in the midst of a Mothers' Health Council.

While the Center's library usually resonates with the teen-age and younger adult students of popular ballroom dancing each Wednesday and Thursday evening, this Thursday evening the library will hear instead the more sedate tones of Mrs. Benjamin Warren's lecture to the Garden Center. The Dancing Class will be heard from the dining room, and yet another type of music will be under discussion in the second of a series on "Structure of Music, or What Makes the Wheels Go Around" by Miss Louise Cuyler, in the Veterans Room below.

If possible, Friday will be even more confusing, if one is planning to dash off to the Center for an afternoon Tea. Don't start upstairs to Room F for the Village Garden Club of Detroit and Grosse Pointe Tea if you want to get to the Junior League Exhibit and Tea in the dining-room, lounge, and library downstairs—or vice versa.

Then there is to be an informal Square Dance for young adults Friday evening, a Card Party for Alpha Xi Delta on Saturday night, with Sunday afternoon featuring its regular Musical by the Stanley String Quartet of Ann Arbor.

The Pointe Artists Association have their weekly Painting Class in composition on Monday afternoon, starting soon after the noon Rotary Club luncheon and meeting, and an evening Class in Sculpturing, which opens just before the meeting of the Pointe Ladies Auxiliary Post 303 at 8 p.m.

And Tuesday's schedule of an Optimist Club luncheon, a Mothers' Health Council afternoon Tea, and an evening Modern Art Lecture Course on "Montmartre and the Parisian Scene" is just another example of the hectic and heterogeneous activity sponsored by the Memorial Center in its ever-widening scope of programs of interest to the community of Grosse Pointe.

Youth Groups to Hear Talk by Ken Moore

Mr. Kenneth L. Moore has consented to present his illustrated talk on "The Background of Grosse Pointe" to the combined meeting of the C'n'C Club and the U.D.C.'s, the youth groups of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church this Sunday, March 19, at 6 p.m. The talk will be given in the social hall of the church, 240 Chalfonte.

Mr. Moore uses specially prepared slides showing prominent Grosse Pointe homes, clubs, private buildings, maps of the territory and drawings done by a leading Pointe artist to help bring to life Grosse Pointe's history. It is believed that Mr. Moore has made a deeper study of the Grosse Pointe past than any other person in the community, and because of his intense interest has been active in establishing the Grosse Pointe Historical Society.

Members of the youth groups have invited their parents and friends to attend. A family recreation program has been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Morgan, adult advisors of the C'n'C Club, to follow Mr. Moore's talk.

Sorority Plans Benefit At Center

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Center will be the scene of an eight o'clock dessert card party Saturday, March 18, sponsored by the alumnae members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Proceeds will go to the national philanthropy, the 1950 Child Welfare Program. Tickets may be secured at the door.

Mrs. Arthur Bersey, of Devonshire Road, is general chairman. Her committee chairmen are: table prizes, Mrs. Frank Scott; hostesses, Mrs. Earl Hertenstein; prizes, Mrs. Gordon Sleeper; tickets, Mrs. Jack E. Fleury; refreshments, Mrs. John Kirilin; reservations, Mrs. Hubert Todd; checkroom, Ruth Bowman; publicity, Helen Geisbuhler and Mrs. Harold Dillow.

AAUW Speaker

The International Relations Study Group of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women were to meet this Thursday noon at the home of Mrs. Clark L. Bassett, 77 Lochmor Blvd. Mrs. Bassett was to talk on her trip to Guatemala.

Epicure's Delight Aim of New Packers Dept.

(See Picture Page 10) In keeping with Packers' policy of constantly improving customer service and convenience, promotion manager Bob Schwartz this week has come up with another innovation, very aptly named "Gourmet Paradise," in the new Packer Super Market at 107 Kercheval in the Farms.

Thirty feet of sparkling shelves are jammed with every conceivable type of hors d'oeuvre, fit for the most discriminating gourmet.

The epicurean haven contains elaborate and extensive stocks of delicate viands which will please the most fastidious. And, should the gourmand find the selections still lacking in some particular item, Manager Francis Franzen will gladly order and stock the delicacy desired.

The merchandise range of "Gourmet Paradise" includes everything from bitters to imported caviar, with a cracker bar featuring dainty cocktail crackers, melba toasts in white with celery, rye, whole wheat, also round.

NEW MATRON

On the Silver Wedding Anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Volz of Yorkshire Road last Saturday, Lois Virginia Volz was married to Robert F. Hill, son of the Arthur Hathaways of Chicago Blvd. W., Detroit, in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church. The bride was attended by maid of honor Florence Harned, and bridesmaids Shirley Remington, Irene Blascola, Ruth Williams, and Jean Gratopp, while Roberts' best man was Russell Volz, and groomsmen were Matthew Donoghue, John Harned, Robert Van, and Richard Dingle. The couple will live at 5814 Chalmers, Detroit.

Pointe Colony Plans Pre-Congress Meeting

Members of Grosse Pointe Colony, National Society of New England Women, will attend their last pre-congress meeting Tuesday, March 21, at the Grosse Pointe home of Mrs. O. W. Shannon, American Defense chairman, on St. Clair Avenue. Co-hostesses at the twelve o'clock dessert-luncheon will be Mrs. J. Cullen Kennedy, also of St. Clair Avenue, and Mrs. Henry M. Booth, of Pacific Avenue.

Fine Arts Group Plan Spanish Program

Mrs. Otto Mann, 1173 Nottingham, will be hostess to the Sigma Eta Fine Arts Group at 11 a.m. Friday, March 17.

The program chairman, Mrs. Herbert Arbogast, has arranged a program on Spanish Art. Mrs. Robert Veit, vocalist; Mrs. P. C. Chamberlain, pianist, and Mrs. J. C. Davis and Mrs. Arbogast, speakers, will be heard.

There are peppers, pickles, olives, relishes, pickled onions and, of course, pears in creme de menthe, cantaloupe rings, kumquats, sweet pickles, cucumber and watermelon pickles, red and green maraschino cherries, nettles, antipasto hors d'oeuvres, smoked oysters, caviar, both imported and domestic and many other delicate viands, too numerous to mention.

Epicures are reminded that Packers selections of cheese and fancy lunch meats are the most complete available, with important varieties of domestic and imported brands always in stock.

Motorists should give pedestrians more consideration. After all, the pedestrian is a motorist who finally found a parking space.

Committee Announces "Doll Tea"

On Tuesday, March 21st, from 2-5 p.m. the Projects Committee of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, 240 Chalfonte at Lothrop will present an exhibition of dolls at a "Doll Tea."

What could be more gay for the first day of spring than the women of the church and their friends to get all dolled up and visit the interesting display of dolls. However, this exhibit should be of great interest to the younger lassies of the community as well as all ages.

Many of the dolls are from foreign countries representing the children of other lands, others belonged to our Great-Aunt Netties. A few modern dolls are also in the collection but for the most part they are either very old with clothing made in the 19th century or dolls depicting the life of other countries. Many are from valuable collections loaned for the occasion. Should you be a collector and would like this opportunity of displaying your family of dolls, Mrs. James Huette of Yorkshire is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Ernest Ray has charge of the arrangements for the Tea. Provisions are being made for refreshments for the small guests.

Mrs. James K. Watkins Is 'Volunteer of Week'

Mrs. James K. Watkins has spent her life in community activities. For her sincere efforts to help make Detroit a better place to live the Central Volunteer Bureau of the Council of Social Agencies has named her Red Feather "Volunteer-of-the-Week."

Mrs. Watkins, who resides at 210 Cloverly, Grosse Pointe, has been a member of the board of the Visiting Nurse Assoc. for many years. In addition her interest in seeing that the residents of Detroit and its suburbs get adequate health protection has led to great interest and activity as a member of the board of directors of the Detroit Council on Community Nursing, a Red Feather service of the Community Chest, which seeks to recruit student nurses and increase public knowledge on the career of nursing.

One of the pioneers in the Community Chest movement, Mrs. Watkins has been a member of the Community Chest Women's Committee for many years. She is also a member of the Tau Beta Assoc. which sponsors the Tau Beta Community House a Red Feather service in Hamtramck.

A recounting of the number of boards of social service agencies to which Mrs. Watkins has belonged is only a small indication of the interest that this outstanding volunteer has in seeing that social services meet the needs of Detroit's citizens.

The Central Volunteer Bureau is proud to present Mrs. Watkins with a Red Feather lapel pin signifying her being named "Volunteer-of-the-Week."

Daughters of 1812 Elect State Officers

Detroit area members of Michigan Society, U.S. Daughters of 1812, were elected to six of the 12 state offices, at the State Council held recently at Saginaw. Three of these were new and three were re-elected. Mrs. C. Clayton Lanier was elected state chaplain and Mrs. Harold M. Hastings, corresponding secretary. Re-elected were Mrs. Luella B. Rogers, of Van Dyke Ave., first state vice-president; Mrs. Mithurn E. Rice, state recording secretary; Mrs. Roy W. Fitch, state flag custodian. Another new officer is Mrs. William Moore Roberts, formerly of 976 Barrington Road, now of Plymouth, who was chosen state historian.

Resolutions adopted opposed World Government, Federal Aid to Education, and Socialized Medicine; and favored Legislation Protecting Employers Who Discharge Communists, and the Equal Rights Amendment, although there was debate on the last-named. They also went on record as favoring limitation and strict screening of displaced persons, by immigration authorities.

Three Party Theme Draws Smart Set to Yacht Club

When three party themes are rolled into one, the result is bound to be spectacular and such was the case at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's St. Patrick's Gay Nineties Millionaires Party Saturday.

The main lounge of the Club was practically redecorated for the event with gaslight chandeliers, plush Napoleonic carpets and the long windows hung in heavy red velvet draperies.

Members and their guests gathered first for dinner in the Club dining room, where strolling musicians featured requested tunes.

Continuous entertainment played on the staged in the lounge, identified by showcards on the easel at the side and built up by the shrill pronouncements of the master of ceremonies.

Charles J. Glasgow was chairman of the committee which produced the extravaganza: Mrs. Elgan Taylor, Rex Regan, J. Earl Fraser, Anthony R. Mottschall, Club entertainment chairman.

Enjoying the party as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Alin Maxon were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caskey, the Joe Durbers and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Gaskin were hosts to Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Barkley.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony R. Mottschall's party were entertained at cocktails by Robert E. Mottschall in his Indian Village apartment. Dorothy Porritt, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Little, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Herz, Mr. and Mrs. George Horstul and the Michael MacFaddens were in the group. Also in the party were Rex B. Regan, James Danaher and Ralph Lesher, all of whose wives are in Florida.

In the get-together headed by Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Fraser were Mr. and Mrs. George Domine, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Simmons and the Frank Jenkins.

Among the foursomes at the Millionaires Party were Mr. and Mrs. David B. Ireland Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Hesse; and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Butler with the Simpson C. Leonard.

Attending the event as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Payne were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bolo, the Jack Kennelys and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Sturm.

Annual Lenten Tea At Messiah Church

DE. NY BAY, a collection of short stories and BLIND RAFTERTY AND HIS WIFE. Blind Rafterty is a singer and weaver of verse. Says one Byrne enthusiast, "This book should be read aloud, if anyone does read aloud these days, that the music of its rhythm may echo like the strings of the blind singer's harp."

If it's a lift you're wanting small blame to ye, something gay and light and amusing, ye should be after knowing that delightful Irishman, Maurice Walsh.

His DAMSEL DEBONNAIRE, set in Northern Ireland centers about the descendants of two ancient families with their castles and their blooded horses and their romances.

And if ye'd be whisked away from strikes and H. Bombs for an evening, completely, 'tis William Butler Yeats, Padraic Colum, John M. Synge, Lady Gregory and Lord Dunsany, who with their plays and their poetry and their story telling can lay the spell of Ireland on ye entirely.

If ye're thinkin' all the Irishmen are in Ireland, God rest their souls, 'tis plain to be seen ye've never read Ruth McKenney's hilarious story of her Irish grandfather, THE LOUD RED PATRICK.

'Twas Kipling who said — "For where there are Irish there's loving and fighting — and when we stop either, it's Ireland no more."

And again if there are any books 'twould please ye to have, telephone the library and we'll reserve them for ye. 'Twill be no trouble at all, at all . . .

The "Leprechaun Leap" is the title of the S.A. dance to be held tomorrow night, March 17, to celebrate St. Patrick's day. Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Co-chairmen Mary Hodges and Joan Massey are busy supervising Dan Manson's choice of records for this gay, giddy affair.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

By MARILYN SMITH

Mary Ann Burlingame's home was the center of attraction for many of her friends Thursday night. Watching TV, dancing, and "canasta-ing" were Pat Gant and Al Schweitzer, June Allard and John Kramer, Betty DiPaola and Larry Reynolds, Carol Staub and Pete Belanger, Sally McKernan and Duke Dukka, Mary Ann Stuhldreher and Frank Detloff, Mary Lou Vernier and Jack Pollack. After the boys left the girls rearranged furniture and spread out blankets and pillows on the living room floor in preparation for their slumber (2) party.

The next day these same girls, deciding to make the most of their free day, went downtown to the Woman's City Club for a refreshing swim. Their enjoyable afternoon was topped off with supper at Sanders.

A birthday party was in session at Kay Andre's home Friday night. Celebrating Fred Baumgart's birthday with ice cream, sandwiches, cokes, and the traditional birthday cake were Fred and his date, Joan Hackenberg, Rose Ann Blondell and John Clancy, Charlotte Klein and Joe Melton. Kay's date was George Dekoske.

Many thanks to Carolyn Floer, Marg Lynch, Joan Hock, Bev Sutherland, the St. Paul cheerleaders, who did a terrific job in supporting the Flyers on to their East Side basketball title.

Congratulations to the Paulites who won honors on the recent personal traits cards!

St. Paul's third C.Y.O. championship basketball game was played with St. Casimir Sunday afternoon. The winning of this game, with a 28-14 victory, assured the St. Paul girls continued playing in the regionals. This being St. Casimir's second loss, they were automatically disqualified from the remaining regional games. The two versatile players largely responsible for St. Paul's conquest were Peggy Hyde and Phyllis Van Becelaere who scored 12 and 11 points respectively.

is needed to keep this valuable reference work as accurate a blue book as possible.

New registrants should also be very accurate in submitting family data on their first questionnaire.

Charming, titian haired Miss Dillion has been dealing with Detroit social doings ever since her teen-age days at Liggett. It was after she was out of school and was working with the Library Unit of Harper Hospital and with the Sophie Wright Settlement House, that she discovered there wasn't a complete state social register or any equivalent of that type in Michigan and harbored the idea of such a book while identified with the social service project.

During the summer of 1941 she received the chance to realize her dream when she became a member of the editorial staff of the Michigan Social Register, which had made its formal debut as a publication in 1940. In 1942 Mary Ward Dillion took over the editorial direction of the Register.

Many Detroit critics and observers found that they were mistaken in their predictions. For the Michigan Social Register proved as a silent source to many socially prominent folks from Detroit and Michigan and was a big success right from the time Miss Dillion took over the editorial duties.

Now she supervises the policy of the Register. Names for the MSR—which are proposed for a listing are passed on by a secret committee.

As a rule the information sent in is accurate and truthful, but sometimes on checking Miss Dillion finds that an applicant has put his name down as a member of a club to which he does not belong—and once she received a man's name preceded by a high military title to which he was not entitled. The lady-editor, who always endeavors to be fair, wishes to remind the registrant, that in cases like these, the individual only makes a fool of himself—not the publication.

Going to press with the Social Register is a hectic business. "Naturally, I like to have the information as up to date as possible and often put in brides and bridegrooms-elect whose marriage will not take place until the Register is off the press. I breathe a sigh of relief when the wedding comes off as scheduled!" Then she added: "It's the same with the page proofs of former Detroiters, they sometimes make another move as we go to press."

As an ending to our feature, John Lawrence Oliver, erstwhile Detroit society editor and now, one of our best-liked publicists, and Miss Dillion are basking in the Florida sun. They are the houseguests of Detroiters Virginia and Rex Jacobs in Homestead. This southern holiday is a "breather" for Miss Dillion before she starts on the last round-up of bringing the Register out for 1950.

Many from Grosse Pointe, which has the largest representation in the Register, have praised the editorial efforts of Mary Ward Dillion, who, we should add here, is an adopted daughter of Detroit—for Wheeling, W. Va., is her native hamlet. She came to Detroit at the age of three with her father, J. Dean Dillion and the late Mrs. Dillion.

While in California recently, the writer was talking with William Hord Richardson, editor of the Los Angeles Blue Book, which is the Society Register of Southern California, on the task of editing a book of socialites. And after viewing the MSR, he mar-

MARILYN Labadie, Carol Staub, Jeanne Sharrow, Janet Hock, and Marilyn Sutherland, the St. Paul cheerleaders, who did a terrific job in supporting the Flyers on to their East Side basketball title. Congratulations to the Paulites who won honors on the recent personal traits cards! St. Paul's third C.Y.O. championship basketball game was played with St. Casimir Sunday afternoon. The winning of this game, with a 28-14 victory, assured the St. Paul girls continued playing in the regionals. This being St. Casimir's second loss, they were automatically disqualified from the remaining regional games. The two versatile players largely responsible for St. Paul's conquest were Peggy Hyde and Phyllis Van Becelaere who scored 12 and 11 points respectively.

veled at the well-done compilation and congratulated Miss Dillion on doing such an excellent job in an area that surely contains a complicated social pattern for the rare group known as "society." And the thing that amazes your scribe is Miss Dillion not only did a fine social register, sponsored by Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Countess Cyril Tolstol and Mrs. Henry Boonroy Joy, all from Detroit's top drawer society, but still finds time for a sideline business venture, that of being a Social Consultant. She'll plan and arrange your debut, wedding, or any other type of party. Encouraged in her new project by many of Detroit's wisest hostesses, Mary Ward Dillion feels it's a privilege to play a dual role in the motor metropolis' social world as a successful young career woman. The 1950 MSR will reveal the fact that as yet no one has topped Mrs. Joy in the number of organizations with which she is affiliated. As in past years, she and Mrs. Charles Gay Maywood of Saginaw, have split the honors about evenly.

NAY NETS 12 POINTS

Blue Devils Earn 3rd Place In Michigan Swimming Meet

By JOE REDFIELD

Grosse Pointe High tied with Battle Creek and its league rival Royal Oak for third place in the State Swim Meet Saturday at Ann Arbor. Lansing Eastern retained the Class A crown with 34 points, a much smaller lead than its score of 56 last year, placing power in the relays. Saginaw Arthur Hill took second place just one point ahead of the three-way tie for third.

Port Huron Stops GPH Cagers 35-42

Grosse Pointe Blue Devil cagers were stopped in Regional competition Saturday by Port Huron. After edging out Pontiac Wednesday by 43-41 and overwhelming East Detroit 57-20 Thursday, the Devils lost their vigor and accuracy. Port Huron, in contrast, played its best against the Devils.

The Port Huron team had a remarkable amount of height which it took advantage of in keeping control of rebounds and passing. Bayard Johnson led the Devil scoring with 15 points against Port Huron. Devil accuracy in shooting was notably low in comparison with their earlier games. Lorne Walker and Wallace Fox of Port Huron sank shot after shot to keep their team comfortably enough ahead throughout the game.

'Bad' Boys on Mat

Two teams of villains will be featured in the tag wrestling event Friday night at 8:30, at the Chesterfield Arena, Gratiot near 10-Mile road.

Jerry Nay brought in half of Grosse Pointe's 24 points with two firsts, in the 100-yard breast-stroke and in the 150-yard individual medley, finishing a body length ahead of his closest opponent. In the individual medley Nay missed the record time by one second, having lost time on one of his turns.

Ted Shannon took third place in the diving between two other Border Cities League divers, Moody of Monroe in second and Atkinson of Royal Oak in fourth.

The medley relay team of Chase, Hesse, and O'Connell came in third. The Blue Devil free style relay team of Watson, Nielson, Pear, and Rogers, captured a third.

St. Clair Sportsmen Present "Show"

A District 8 meeting of the Sportsmen's Clubs in Macomb County on March 18 at Eberhardt's Restaurant, Muttonville, will present their local current conservation problems, to be later taken to the Board of Michigan United Conservation Clubs.

Their local St. Clair Sportsmen's Association, Inc., are also planning to present a big Variety Show on March 24-25 at South Lake High School for the public.

Boutin's 5 Sets Record For 3 Games

Rolling 2734 a new season's record for three games, Boutin's Service took four points from Cramer Electric to gain second place in Grosse Pointe Business Men's Bowling League last week at Maple Lane.

Captain Harry Nelson and Sponsor Marvin Boutin contributed to the clean sweep with 585 and 572 respectively.

Herb Heger's 544 paced Grosse Pointe Printers as they took four markers from Grosse Pointe Curtaints.

League leader, Imperial Cleaners beat Belding Cleaners, 3-1. Backer Harold Benner bowled a 588 series for Imperial.

Men who posted scores of 200 or better include:

Marvin Boutin, 234; Bill Ford, 231; Len Ostrowski, 222; Bernice Rose, 220; Ed David, 218; Fernan Howe, 216; Angelol Petracci, 210; Joe Higgins, 209; Hal Benner, 209, 208; George Azar, 207; Richard Lundberg, Harry Nelson, Henry Cramer, 204; Bob Keher, 203; Jim Donnellan, 202; Al Comyn, 201 and Bill Gilmore, 200.

PACKER'S NEW "GOURMET PARADISE"

Connoisseurs of delicate viands will find a veritable heavenly aisle in "Gourmet Paradise" in Packer's Super Market at 107 Kercheval, in the Farms, where thirty feet of shelves are stocked with hors d'oeuvres. Manager Francis Francen was caught by the cameraman, while arranging some of the foods.

Houston Posts Clean Sweep In Rotary Row

Just to make the chase for the bunting a little more interesting, G. P. Review and Houston Bros. Inc., scored sweeps over P&J Cocktail Lounge and Motor City Tires last Friday night at the Woods Recreation. The printers moved into second place and Houston, from 8th place to 5th, only a stone's throw out of first.

Monday Cleaners were able to down Earl Holzbaugh 3-1, thereby holding their position at the top of the league. Monday's position at the helm will be challenged when the printers meet up with them Friday.

Middle Atl Transp. Co. took three from the Auto Club and they too have an excellent chance to move up, should they trim P&J Cocktail Lounge tomorrow night.

Piches Barber Shop had another good series but Harrison Carpets were able to hold the match to a draw. Piche meets Kops and Harrison takes on Farms Mkt. tomorrow night. With six weeks of competition left and the teams in the league all evenly balanced, a merry chase for the cup can be expected. Any one of the first nine teams have a chance.
