

SCHOOL CLOTHING DRIVE IS MAY 1

POINTE PARAGRAPHS by The Pointer

The Lions Club met for their regular luncheon on Thursday, April 27, at the Van Dyke Club. Al Tucker, popular maestro about town, entertained the crowd.

Mrs. Kins Collins, the first woman elected in the Park to help draft the city charter, will begin her appointed task this week when she returns from a month's tour of the south and west.

A dusty sign hanging in the window of an east side barber shop reads, "We can use your head in our business."

The Birmingham Eccentric began many years ago, so the story goes, when a couple of well-informed bachelors decided to print a scandal sheet for their friends. The paper became so popular that today it is a thriving newspaper which serves the entire population of Birmingham.

Tuesday's torrents were welcome to many people who had more muscles Sunday and Monday from working on their lawns over the week-end. We wonder how many tons of grass seed and sod were benefited by April's showers.

Tiger ballplayer Hoot Evers would like to bring his family back to Grosse Pointe for the baseball season again this year. Through the efforts of friends, he located a furnished home on Rivard two years ago. Last summer, he was near but not in the Pointe. The Evers can be reached through friends at TU. 2-2753.

A long line of disappointed people waited last Thursday for the Skyes, new lake carrier in Great Lakes operation, to make her maiden voyage up Lake St. Clair.

To a fortunate few who gathered at the waterfront Park Friday at 1 p.m., the Skyes slid majestically by and greeted her audience with a series of blasts.

Cars Damaged in Collision

Two cars were badly damaged in an accident that resulted when Douglas Morris, of 184 1/2 Strop, failed to stop for a stop sign on Beaconsfield and Vermont Highway and collided with another car driven by James Emerson Meek, 23, of Wyandotte. Meek, a student at Michigan State College, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of injuries.

A passenger in Morris' car, Dorothy Faulds, 29, of 2564 Marlborough, was also taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of knee injury.

Park Accepts Wayne County Health Move

Grosse Pointe Park, by a vote of the Council meeting, officially accepted the health services from the Wayne County Department of Health. Other municipalities had previously passed this resolution to their Councils.

Juvenile Gang In PoliceNet

A 15-year old Denby High School student admitted to Grosse Pointe Woods and Gratiot Township Police officials yesterday that he and a gang of eight boys from Gratiot High School had stolen five cars since last Saturday.

The juvenile told police that he had stolen a car Monday from the Woods Theater parking lot and driven to Clawson with four of his friends to skate at a roller rink.

The stolen car belongs to John P. Butterfield, 19282 Linville. Clawson police found the car abandoned in front of their station.

On the return trip the boys stole a second car and abandoned it at Washtenaw and Rossiter, Gratiot Township.

Police also recovered the car of Michael J. Kovalick, 7859 Concord, after it had been stolen from the Woods Theater parking lot.

The eight other boys were rounded up for questioning Wednesday by Gratiot Township police.

Detroit Says Fox Creek OK for Sewage

Three Grosse Pointe municipalities have received the nod from the Water Resources Commission of Michigan to use Fox Creek for sewage disposal purposes, providing certain control measures are enforced.

This report was made at the Grosse Pointe Park Council meeting Monday night and concerns the Park, Farms and City. Originally the City of Detroit had proposed a $6,000,000 plan for a sewage disposal system.

At the present time Detroit is diverting their sewage into a sewer on Essex Avenue. As soon as possible, Detroit will begin construction on a sewer that will be 16 feet in diameter, and will be located near Manistique and Essex.

Park Approves Appointments

The Grosse Pointe Park Council met Monday night and approved two Civil Service Commission posts for the Fire Department. Stanley L. Fildev, of 1105 Harvard, was appointed for a six-year term, and Karl E. Graul, 1030 Nottingham, was re-appointed for a two-year term.

In accordance with the state statutes on the Civil Service Commission, a third member will be appointed by the Fire Department.

The duties of these men will be to test and grade applicants for positions in the Fire Department, and select new candidates when vacancies occur.

Clean-Up Week Gathers Momentum As Crews Invade Neighborhood

Clean-Up Week in the Pointes has received much valuable co-operation from the Board of Education, according to Mrs. Arthur Fleming, Education Chairman for the committee launching the program. Both gold and blue chapters of Hi-Y boys at Grosse Pointe High School have formed eleven crews of six boys each to clean up public properties over next week-end.

The locations at which they will work are being assigned by the municipalities. The debris thus collected will be carried away by regular collection trucks. Captains have also been assigned at the High School to oversee the appearance of grounds and classrooms, and a plan has been formed for continuous surveillance

SAFETY PATROL RECEIVES HONORS

Richard School was honored by the Automobile Club of Michigan for being named the best safety patrol in its area this year. Captains for this year are being sent on a tour of Washington, D. C., from May 11 through

Dog Owners Are Warned By Dr. Davies

Two children are being given the Pasteur treatment after their eight-month-old puppy died Monday of rabies. They are Robert, Jr. and Richard, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cruger, of 122 Kerby Lane.

A positive test was registered on the dog by the Michigan State Department of Health. Dr. Thomas S. Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner, issued a warning to other dog owners in the vicinity of Grosse Pointe Farms. He urged that all dogs be watched for signs of abnormal nervousness or frothing at the mouth.

"It is possible," Davies said, "that other animals in the neighborhood may become affected. The incubation period for rabies may vary from three weeks to two months or longer."

Dr. Davies warned residents to keep dogs off the streets or, if they are outside, to keep them on a leash since the source of this rabies case is unknown.

Chief Walter Hoyt, of the Grosse Pointe Farms Police, issued a special warning to all dog owners. He said, "An ordinance prohibits dogs from running at large and we must take every precaution to enforce the ruling. We ask 100 per cent cooperation," he said, "from all dog owners in Grosse Pointe Farms and particularly those in the Kerby Lane area. Extra precautions may prevent injuries to unsuspecting citizens."

Safety Patrol Boys at Richard School Congratulated for Their Good Record

Richard School of Grosse Pointe Handy, and David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manfrey, White, of 290 McKinley.

Richard school will receive the honor and trips along with 100 other Michigan elementary schools as recognition from Auto Club's safety and traffic division for its outstanding safety patrol work during the 1949-50 school year.

"Supt. John R. Barnes, Principal Clarence Messner, local police and the safety patrols of Grosse Pointe are to be congratulated for their work this year. They and leaders of 200 other Michigan schools in this program are the largest reason why the state's child traffic death rate is so very low," Davis said.

One requirement in selecting schools for this honor was that its safety patrol had to be operating on first day of school. Educators, police and club safety workers are encouraging all schools to select safety patrols for next fall before school ends this spring.

"One of the most dangerous child-accident periods is when fall term begins, requiring children to cross many unfamiliar streets. They must be re-alerted to traffic dangers each fall, and safety patrolmen can do this while protecting them," Davis said.

All expense of the 100 patrolmen's trip by special section of a crack train to Washington, D.C. will be borne by the Auto Club as a small reward from the motoring public to Michigan's 33,000 AAA safety patrols.

Patrol boys at Richard School are:

Safety Traffic Advisory Committee for Pointes

Municipal officials and the Automobile Club of Michigan joined hands yesterday noon at the Memorial center to create a Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee which will act in an advisory and study capacity on traffic and safety problems common to the Pointe municipalities.

The committee will be headed by Arthur W. Knoske, Safety Engineer with the Auto Club and George Measel, manager of the Grosse Pointe Division of the AAA is secretary. Meetings will be held on the fourth Wednesday of each month.

Ernest P. Davis, director of the safety and traffic division of the AAA acted as host at Wednesday's meetings and introduced General Manager Richard Harfst of the Automobile Club, who detailed the work of his organization on safety during the past twenty-six years.

More than 700,000 youngsters have served on safety patrols since 1924 and in 1949-50 there are 42,500 serving at some 2,257 schools in Michigan. Safety literature and instruction is supplied to a total of 5,339 schools which do not have safety patrols.

Guilty Thieves Put On Bond

Michael Duda, Jr., age 21, of 4698 Coplin, and Marion Curtis, 25, of 1193 Dickinson, were arraigned before Judge C. Joseph Belanger in Grosse Pointe Park Court on charges of larceny from a motor vehicle.

Both parties pleaded guilty and were placed on $1,000 personal bond. The case will be bound over to Circuit Court for sentencing.

In a contest of the guilty parties admitted that they had removed a tire and wheel from an auto belonging to James D. Morris, 184 Lothrop.

Mrs. Matthew Houghton, Chairman of Clean-Up Week, has received a number of telephone (Continued on Page 3)

Park Court Fines Eight Violators

Eight persons were arraigned before Judge C. Joseph Belanger in Grosse Pointe Park Wednesday and paid fines and costs totaling $122.20.

Lawrence J. Cataline, 4338 Ashland, paid $10 for causing an accident on Mack and Buckingham. A fine of $5 was paid by George P. Shancoff, 1175 Three Mile Drive, for making an improper right turn at Kercheval and Three Mile Drive and causing an accident.

Costs of $5 were paid by Robert B. DeCaire, 329 Grosse Pointe Blvd. for improper passing and causing an accident.

Donald J. Schilling, Jr., paid $30. He was involved in a stop street accident at Charlevoix and Somerset.

Other parties and their fines were: Carl Luttenbacher, 18935 Rackcastle, $20; Julia Allor, Manistee, $22.50; Louis Duell Gascoigne, 1063 Beaconsfield, $20; and Rankin P. Peck, Jr., 880 Lakeshore road, $10.

St. James Anniversary Sunday

Rev. Kleiner
Anniversary services of St. James Lutheran Church will be held April 30, with the pastor, Reverend George E. Kurz, conducting the services.

The guest speaker at the morning service at 11 a.m. will be the Reverend Hugo G. Kleiner, of North Tonawanda, New York. Speaker at the evening service at 8 p.m. will be the Reverend A. T. Tong, pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church, Detroit, and Chairman of the District Mission Board.

Collections To Benefit Needy Child

A Save the Children "Bundle Day" drive to collect serviceable, used clothing will be conducted in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, during the week starting May 1.

The drive, which is part of the Ninth National Children's Clothing Crusade is sponsored by a national committee of school superintendents. Clothing obtained will be distributed by the Save the Children Federation in its program of assistance to children in isolated rural areas of the United States and in seven European countries, namely, Austria, Finland, France, Greece, Germany, Holland and Italy. The European distribution is mainly to refugee children.

In America clothing is distributed in low income rural areas of eight southern and midwestern states and on the Navajo Indian Reservation. Most of the children in the American areas served come from families with cash incomes of less than $400 a year. If it were not for the Bundle Day collections, thousands of these children would not be able to attend school during inclement weather.

Dr. W. Howard Pillsbury, former President of the American Association of School Administrators and Chairman of the Federations National Advisory Committee of School Superintendents, points out "that this drive teaches youth in our schools to share with the less fortunate. A sense of brotherhood will be developed and a foundation laid for international good will among the youth of the world."

Wearable clothing of all types in both baby's, children's and adult sizes; blankets, sheets, and other bedding and pairs of outgrown shoes are needed. Leaflets will be given to all children in the school system to take home during the week, stating the purpose of the drive and asking the cooperation of parents.

Families without school age children can join in the effort to clothe needy children and their families by contacting any child in your neighborhood who will be glad to take any contributions of shoes, clothing or baby garments to school.

For further information call the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, TU. 5-2000, Extension 25.

Warn Parents About Drivers

The recent upsurge in requests for driving permits, from an age group ranging from 14 to 16 years, has prompted police officials in Grosse Pointe to issue a warning to parents.

Since all Drivers' License Bureaus are operated under the supervision of the Secretary of State's office in Lansing, every community must comply with the standard ruling.

To operate a motor scooter or motor driven bicycle the ruling states, the operator must have attained the age of 16 years; and carry an operator's license.

When attaining the age of 16, the applicant must apply at the local police department for his license. A guardian must be present, either the father or mother of the child.

Operating a scooter or any motor driven vehicle without a license is in violation of the law.

METROPOLITAN OPERA

Living in a mecca of industry, where men sometimes become like the machines they operate—cold, hard, without resource—a spark of culture could easily burn and die away forever.

This is not the case for a little group of music-loving Italians who have banded together to promote their ideas. Under the name of the Grand Opera Spring Festival, they will present a series of five operas in Masonic Auditorium beginning May 14 through May 18.

So much do these people thrill to the songs of the Metropolitan Opera that they have gambled much of their own money and time to bring Met stars to Detroit.

A New York director is being imported who will train a local chorus for certain opera roles.

To help them with this gigantic undertaking the Junior League of Detroit has pledged its support. If more people shared the faith and enthusiasm of the Opera Festival, the task at hand might not be so difficult.

This small group so firmly believes that the Metropolitan Opera belongs in Detroit that they have undertaken the project at their own expense. People are beginning to realize that a city of this size yearns for a taste of art and culture.

TEACHING IN AMERICA

In one of his Newsweek columns, Raymond Moley dealt with the people who have been convicted of serving Communism as espionage agents. Two of them, he observed, "were educated in institutions provided by the profits of the very economic system that Communism is determined to destroy."

Then he said this: "Let us be slow in condemning our educational system for these failures. These people were exceptional. But it may well be considered by those who direct higher education in America whether there is not a need to reexamine their responsibilities and the way they are carried out. The danger is not that there is too much taught about what is right in Communism, but that there is too little taught about what is right in America."

We all prize academic freedom. But that freedom, like all others, involves grave responsibilities. Education must cleanse itself from within. There can be no question but what a certain amount of teaching has been Communist inspired. Some has come from fellow travellers who religiously attempt to follow the tortuous turnings of the Soviet line. And much of it seems more concerned with searching for what may be bad in our form of government and our economic system than in describing what is good.

The young men and women who are attending our universities of today will decide what this country is to be like a generation from now. Unless they know "about what is right in America," education will have served itself a ghastly failure—and academic freedom itself will die of a disease of its own creation.

COAL'S NUMBER ONE PROBLEM

One of the best editorials on the President's request for a commission to study the soft coal industry appeared in the New York Times. It pointed out that nothing is wrong with the industry that a change in the anti-monopoly laws wouldn't cure. Then the Times said: "The coal industry's problem stems from the fact that it has to dispose of its production in a highly competitive market, while its costs are determined by a dictator who holds a complete monopoly on its labor supply. Wages, which represent the principal element in the cost of producing coal, are not established through collective bargaining, and they are not established with reference either to the market or to the desirability of providing a maximum number of jobs. The result is constantly mounting costs, a steady shrinkage in the market for coal, and a continual decline in the number of work-hours for labor."

In conclusion, the Times made this extremely significant observation: "It may be desirable to make a fresh study of coal, but that does not lessen the necessity of dealing realistically with the problem of John L. Lewis. As a matter of fact, if we really solve this, the industry's number one problem, we shall have made further study largely redundant."

The cost of labor in the coal industry is out of all proportion to that of its competitors. This is one of the economic facts of life, whether Mr. Lewis and his union like it or not. Under these circumstances, it is virtually inevitable that employment in the coal industry will decline—and that many of the "victories" Mr. Lewis has won will vanish as jobs disappear. The coal labor monopoly is an ominous threat that political finaglers can no longer cover up or excuse.

REPORT ON VETERANS AFFAIRS

It has been charged that the Hoover Commission report on veterans' affairs amounts to a "ruthless campaign to sell the veterans 'down the river'" and that the report is "another knife in the backs of the men and women who have honorably served our country in time of war."

A complete reply on a matter so involved as this would take many pages. However, the caliber and backgrounds of the men who were on the task force that framed the report, or assisted in a consulting capacity, provides an effective answer in itself. Among those men were: Colonel Franklin D'Olier, first National Commander of the Legion; the late James Forrestal, former Secretary of Defense; Generals Eisenhower and Doolittle, and Admirals Nimitz and King.

Actually, even a cursory reading of the report provides beyond question that it is designed to protect and maintain every legitimate service to the veterans and, wherever possible to improve the service—especially in the medical field. At the same time, it is designed to eliminate the waste and overlapping of agencies and functions which are needlessly using up too much of the money appropriated for veterans.

The Hoover Commission report on veterans' affairs, like all the other reports, was the result of searching study of the problem. It was made by men who are vitally interested in the well-being of former service people. In its essential at least, it should be adopted.

DE LA SALLE SHOWS MOVIES ON CAMP

Movies on life at the De La Salle camp on Lake Simcoe will be shown Monday, May 1, at 8 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

The camp is under the supervision of the Christian Brothers, whose life work is the education of the boy. The public is invited and there is no admission charge.

Letters To Editor

Dear Editor:
Will you please renew my subscription to the Review for another year. I read it with great in-

Sign 'Em!

From time to time, we have cautioned authors of "Letters to the Editor" that all communications must be signed. Names will be withheld from publication upon request, but ALL communications for publication MUST be signed as evidence of good faith.

Two unsigned letters were received this week. Sorry, they are not published, in keeping with the above clearly stated rule of publication.

Efforts are often made to secure publication of libelous or slanderous matter by requesting publication of a "letter to the editor." Michigan's libel law makes the author equally liable with the publisher of a newspaper. It is rather obvious, therefore, that a publisher will not print unsigned letters, thereby assuming for himself all liability in the event of legal action for libel or slander.

Very sincerely,
Florence Severs.

(Note: Miss Severs was formerly Grosse Pointe Librarian. She is now living in Portland, Oregon.)

Decline In Measles

Measles in Detroit is on the wane, Dr. Joseph G. Milner, commissioner of health, says. So far this year, 9,499 cases and five deaths were reported, compared with 2,753 cases and no deaths in 1948, which was the last year of high incidence.

Total communicable disease cases reported: 1,142. Maternal deaths since January 1, 1950: 4. Infant deaths under one year of age, since January 1, 1950: 371.

THE PLAY'S THE THING

Properties Are Pressing Problems to Players

"It's almost large enough to be able to stage a workshop production on, using it as the stage," laughed Nancy DuBrul.

"What in the world will we ever do with it?" puzzled her sister, Mimi.

"We could cut it up and use it as sectional furniture," came a serious reply.

"Oh don't worry," commented Russ Werneken, practically, "we'll find a use for it."

And find a use for it they will, they being members of the Grosse Pointe Theatre. The object in question was a seven foot long sofa recently received by the theatre as a donation to the theatre's properties department.

The sofa is only one of a number of articles that the theatre has received and hopes to receive more of in its current drive to acquire more materials for its properties department. Stressing a need for rugs, curtains, drapes, bookcases, and, in general, furniture of any kind, Russ Werneken, president of the group, added, "We hope that, through the medium of spring cleaning, members of the community will come across old furnishings in their attics, basements, and garden houses that they can no longer use and would be willing to donate to us. To most people, things they would normally throw away seem no good, but to us, those things are useful because we can repaint, re-model, or re-finish them and use them in our productions."

"Style or period of the furnishings means little to us," he continued, "because we are in constant need of all types of furniture for use in period productions. Therefore, we strongly urge Grosse Pointers to donate to us articles and furnishings which they, in their spring cleaning, come across and feel they no longer want. No matter how large or small, such donations are always greatly appreciated."

A self-supporting, non-profit organization open to all age groups, whose purpose is to offer better theatre at nominal costs to the metropolitan area while serving as a healthful channel to young and old alike, the theatre is forced to rely largely upon donations of properties for the majority of its productions. In some instances, the theatre has had to rent various properties, so short of properties are they. Therefore, in an effort to cut such costs, the membership recently decided to stage a spring cleaning-properties drive. Persons wishing to donate old furniture or other articles which might be useful are urged to contact Russ Werneken at TU. 2-8811.

Clean-Up Week Hits Stride Throughout Area

At the Municipal Officials' monthly luncheon held Wednesday, April 19, at the War Memorial Center, Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann, representing Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, expressed the hope of many when she said that Clean-Up Week might easily result in a full-term constant effort to keep Grosse Pointe one of the most beautiful of Michigan's communities and a completely satisfactory place in which to live.

Rabaut Takes Stand Against Appropriation

Rep. Louis C. Rabaut (D. Mich.), Chairman of the Central Sub-Committee on Appropriations, has taken a strong stand in denouncing inflationary amendments to the current $2 1/2 billion appropriation bill which would require the expenditure of funds above the amount set by the Appropriations Committee.

THANKS FOR TORCH WEEK

Mrs. Edward S. Evans Jr., chairman of the Neighborhood Club's board, congratulates John Barnes, superintendent of the Grosse Pointe public schools (left) and George Elworthy, director of the Neighborhood Club. The public schools and the club were presented institutional awards at the "Torch Drive Thank You Week" tea in the War Memorial recently. The public schools received an award for outstanding success in exceeding their quota. The club was honored for its cooperation in making its facilities available for the drive.

Rabaut Urges Bill to Aid Citizens

Over WJR last Friday night, Rep. Louis C. Rabaut, (D. Mich.) urged support of the bill, now pending in the Senate, which would restore the citizenship rights of those Americans who lost them by voting in Italian elections.

"They voted," he said, "upon the advice of high American officials, writers, radio broadcasters, relatives and friends in the United States who urged action to prevent the Communists from taking control of the Government in Italy."

Under the Nationality Act of 1940, American citizens who voted in political elections in Italy lost their American Citizenship for so doing, and the bill would enable them to regain their lost status.

Rep. Rabaut attributed the error of these Americans abroad regarding the consequences of their acts to the disruption of communication facilities during the war. "The paramount importance of the war left little newspaper space, if any, for such items as a change in the nationality laws of the United States."

Rep. Rabaut concluded with the hope that "the Senate will take favorable action on this measure during this session of Congress, thereby extending to these former American citizens the enviable right of repatriation."

Accident Total 257 in Farms

A report from the Police Department in Grosse Pointe Farms, for the fiscal year ending February 28, indicates that 257 traffic accidents have caused damages amounting to $33,854.

A total of 39 persons were injured in traffic accidents and one pedestrian was killed. Accidental injuries, such as home injuries, totaled 37.

Out of 15 grand larceny cases reported, loss or damages were estimated at $2,037. Simple larceny cases numbered 107 with a loss of $1,514. Total number of complaints received by the police was 1680.

New Real Estate Office in Woods

The Lander Realty Company opened offices this week at Mack and Norwood under the ownership of veteran real estate man Kenneth Lander, 2150 Van Antwerp.

Mr. Lander has been associated with a prominent realty firm in Grosse Pointe for a number of years and has had wide business and real estate experience. He has been a resident of the Woods for many years.

Business and residential property together with insurance will be handled by Lander realty. Mr. Lander states that he will have as his associates real estate men who reside in the vicinity and know east side and Grosse Pointe property values.

Youngblood Attacks Poor Mail Service

A former member of the House Post Office Committee today charged U. S. Postmaster Jesse Donaldson with playing politics with civil-service jobs and with Veterans' securities.

Harold F. Youngblood, a member of Congress from Detroit's 14th Congressional district during the 80th Congress, said that, "The Postmaster is reducing mail service and laying off men only to increase his appropriations."

Youngblood explained that if Donaldson were sincere in his efforts toward economy, he would have enforced the laws already in the books to require the U. S. Motor Vehicle service to carry mails to and from Willow Run instead of doing it out to private carriers at exorbitant rates.

Youngblood is the author of this bill HR 2588.

"The saving effected is estimated at from 65 to 100 thousand dollars per year in the Detroit area alone," Youngblood maintained.

"Not only do I charge Donaldson with insincerity," Youngblood concluded, "but I challenge the Postmaster to make public in its entirety the results of the investigation made in Detroit some two years ago."

School Children to Present Annual Spring Concert May 14

The All City Band, under the direction of Mr. William Ferry, and the Children's Orchestra under the direction of Miss Martha Ream will present their annual Spring Concert on Sunday, May 14, at 3:00 p.m. at the Pierce Auditorium.

This is the fourth presentation of this sort and the enthusiasm of parents and children attending this annual music event, has increased with each performance. The band is composed of 78 children and the orchestra has 78 members. Eight adults will be playing with some of the children in a string orchestra.

The band follows the usual pattern, long accepted in Grosse Pointe of having membership composed entirely of elementary school children, while orchestra membership includes some of the Junior High School students, who have volunteered their assistance in lending a hand helping train the younger children.

This young band has one boy from the fourth grade, who plays a tuba. Much of the time he can't even be seen from behind that big horn. This shows that the blowing power of a little boy has nothing to do with his size. Mr. Ferry reports, "That he plays this big bass beautifully."

The band is featuring the alto horn section in this concert, for the alto horn section will be the solo part in a selection which is accompanied by the rest of the band. This alto part is very important in the balance of a good band, but is not well known, as their range is between the upper and lower parts. They do much in building tone quality and strengthening of the rhythm of the group.

The director of the young band, Mr. Ferry, deserves much credit for his painstaking work with these children. A teacher of young children works slowly, guiding his students carefully over each faltering step.

Other band numbers include a flute solo, a Brass Quartette and a Clarinet Quartette. Many of the Band and Orchestra members are also contributing to the community this young age, as they play in the scout groups, church orchestras and studio bands.

The public, the parents and the pupils of all of the school should attend this free concert.

The Children's Concert is to be given at the Pierce Auditorium, Sunday, May 14, at 3 p.m.

Scouts Honored With Cub Awards At Meeting

The monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 74 was held at Richard School the evening of April 25. Inspection of all members of the Pack was conducted by Mr. Douglas Simpson, representative from the Boy Scout Council of District 3.

Cub Scout awards were given to the following boys by Mr. Lou Hunt, Cubmaster: Den 1, Robert Hoder, Richard Granse, Charles Dobbins. Den 2, Bob Macadown and John Smith were given their Webelos Award by Mr. James Lowmaster, Scoutmaster of Troop 96. Mr. Howard Westfall, Scoutmaster of Troop 74 presented Webelos Awards to Charles Michalik; George Duncan and Robert Reuther. C. A. Ducharme III, also received a gold arrow addition to his Bear Badge.

In Den No. 3, awards were given to Philip Noer, James Carne, Ernest Fontaine, Robert Hunt, James Rieth and John Thorne. Others in Den No. 3 are Carl Von Mertens, Jack Whiting and Robert Wicks.

Den No. 4: Robert Rein, Tony Hermann, and Madison Morrison. Den No. 5: Robert Niederost, Norman Danaher, Andy Critchfield, Remington Purdy and Patrick Meathie.

Den No. 7: Fred Baker and Thomas Little.

Following advancement ceremonies, the Cubs together with their families and guests enjoyed taking part in entertainment provided by carnival side shows such as is found in country fairs. Each of the seven dens put on their own attraction which ranged from shooting out candles with squirt guns to testing strength with a mallet on the "Ring the Bell" machine.

Of particular interest to all Cub Scout mothers is the television program to be seen on Thursday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. over station WWJ-TV. This is one in a series of six programs sponsored by the Detroit Area of Cub Scouts and is shown through the courtesy of the Detroit News on the Jean McBride Show.

Thursday, April 27, Pack 74 of Grosse Pointe will be represented by Mrs. Daniel Hembel and four Cub Scouts from Den 3, Robert Hunt, James Rieth, John Thorne and Carl Von Mertens. The boys will show some of the Cub Scout ceremonies and Mrs. Hembel will give practical demonstration of Cub handicraft, using models made by boys from this district.

Area Attention Focused on PTA Country Fair Sat.

A Marionette Show will bring to the younger audience at the "Country Fair" the tales of fairyland. The show will be under the direction of Betty Rypsam, (left) distinguished for her Famous Fairy Tales on television, and her assistant, Marion Parker (right).

The Country Fair

We dedicate this page to the greatest group of people with whom it has ever been our privilege to work. This is a group of City folk who have gone back to the good old days to recapture the good old American custom of doing things together and in so doing, creating a feeling of good will and neighborliness which seems to have disappeared beneath the surface in this good old country of ours.

In creating the Fair and all the component parts of its exhibits, capital has worked side by side with labor and they have laughed together and played together as all free men should do. They have found a common ground and in so doing have created something which will long be remembered in this community.

It is to be hoped that our business leaders and our union leaders will from this small affair take the large lesson which lies behind the Country Fair.

We sincerely believe that all good Americans can be happy in working together, but most certainly the hope of this country lies not in the battle for personal gain, both corporate and natural, but in an honest effort to build something good which our children will have cause to remember with pleasant memories and not with shame.

When you attend the "Country Fair," you will say as I have said, "It is Good."

Fascinating Dolls Shown At Fair

By MRS. CHARLES PORRITT

An exhibit destined to bring back memories and delight to both young and old may be seen in the Doll House at Pierce Junior High School Country Fair. We are fortunate in having in Grosse Pointe many fine private collections of dolls which the owners have graciously allowed to be on display.

One of the attractions in Sally Distin's Collection will be the daring French Baroness Pontalba who thrilled old New Orleans with her costumes and curious custom of wearing a garter in her hair. Sally also has replicas of dolls shown in the Smithsonian Institute.

An unusual French Bride doll has been carefully preserved by its owner, Mr. Charles Leavitt. Brought to this country in 1860 the little bride shows in duplicate her lady's trousseau. A wardrobe in exact detail with her lady's jewels, canopy bed and lovely little chest are fascinating to see.

In Mrs. Wallace Caldwell's large collection of unusual dolls are many character dolls from foreign countries and antique American dolls. Mrs. Caldwell's Scotch baby doll is especially interesting. Merry Sharrer will show a doll whose face exactly resembles her own and Mrs. Hubbard Mitchell will loan a French doll over a hundred years old. The doll belonged to her great aunt Louisa and is dressed in its original clothes.

Lovely bisque dolls, dolls with kid bodies, hand made wooden dolls and, of course, a collection of the modern Story Book dolls. All this may be seen in the Doll House which is being cleverly decorated by Mr. Lester Thomi. The are of fine handwork and ageless imagination preserved by these collectors will long be remembered by those visiting the Doll House.

A beautifully dressed baby doll and a show case for the Story Book dolls will be among the prizes to be given on Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Mr. Charles Leavitt, principal of Pierce Junior High, will make the drawing for prizes.

Fortunes Are "As You Like Them"

Mrs. Vincent Leach has organized a group of Fortune Telling girls. They guarantee that your fortune will please and the good madames promise not to delve into your past.

For atmosphere and a carnival air, you must visit this fine exhibit of the mystic arts.

Good Luck Charms and all of the usual Hocus Pocus will make this booth a rare treat.

For your coupon these girls may inspire you to greater things. Who knows?

A collection of dolls to delight the young and old will be shown Saturday afternoon and evening at the Pierce Junior High School "Country Fair." Many of the dolls were loaned from collections by private parties in Grosse Pointe.

Ponies to Ride

Watch the signs to the Pony and have the time of your life. As you are ready to dismount, if you would care to put this ride in your memory book, we will snap your picture for a small consideration. We'll furnish the Western atmosphere.

Vince Leach Again A Medicine Man

As so often in the past our old friend Vincent Leach, former Druggist in Grosse Pointe, has pitched in to make the Country Fair A Whopping Success.

Vince's friends are all glad to see him in the harness.

Last Carnival, Vince was for the Boy Scouts . . . he painted 10 signs in one night . . . bet he breaks all records on the Country Fair.

Vince has no particular job in the show . . . no part of it could operate without some of his good (fun) medicine.

Offer Prize Antiques At Lowest Prices

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Genthe, in conjunction with their committee, will offer to the customers of the "White Elephant Sale" an assortment of merchandise unsurpassed in the history of such sales. Articles from the finest homes in the Pointe will be on their shelves.

Mrs. Genthe says that newly-

weds could furnish a home with some of her finer articles.

Prices will definitely be reduced for one day only — Saturday, April 29.

Mr. Genthe says he'd like to close shop early so he could go to the Fair.

"Don't forget, with each fifty cent purchase you have an opportunity to win a beautiful Nesco Roaster."

Marionettes Tickle Young, Old Alike

In procuring the services of Miss Betty Rypsam and Miss Marion Parker, the show committee, headed by Mrs. Gilbert Groehn, has guaranteed to the young folks a most pleasant afternoon and a variety of characters which few Marionetteers are able to create.

Miss Rypsam has the distinction of being one of the pioneers in television Marionette shows. Her Famous Fairy Tales have kept many a young Grosse Pointer from finishing his dinner. Her characters fairly breathe life and it is not hard to live these stories with the such lovable characters as the Santa Claus who appears annually in her "Night Before Christmas."

In helping us to carry out our Country Fair with your generous purchase of space on Main Street, you have made a real community project of our affair.

We express our appreciation for your cooperation with a warm feeling in our hearts for "The Main Street Merchants," "Country Fair."

Main Street Committee

College, has recently added her dramatic talent to this team and a completely new type of television show will be born on Saturday, May 6. It is our guess that this team will go far in producing better shows for our kiddies than any yet seen on the lighted screen.

You will not want to miss this big show and to miss this interesting pair.

The Marionette Show committee, in addition to Mrs. Groehn, are Mrs. David Stapleton, Mrs. Florence Mohr and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Dorsey. In addition, many other members of the group will serve in handling the expected crowds at the show which will be presented twice hourly at the "Country Fair."

As an added attraction, your admission to this show will entitle you to an opportunity of winning the complete Marionette Show offered as a door prize.

The Farmer's Daughter

Mrs. L. A. Sadi, in cooperation with the school, has organized a group of 9th Grade girls who will sell you a beautiful Sunday flower.

These flowers will be gorgeous and a flower on your shoulder will give you a feeling of being one of the farmer's who has gone out on a spree.

The prices charged will amaze you. So, save and spend at the "Farmer's Daughter."

Mrs. L. R. Martin Sparks Country Midway To Success

With her charming personality and unending energy, Mrs. Martin has taken a group of over 140 people and welded them into a group which will offer the biggest midway show ever seen in any school affair in the country.

In building this show the effort has been toward a development of games which will require skill

The Farmer's Wife . . .

Mrs. Leonard Slowin and Mrs. Hoover, in cooperation with most of the mothers of the P.T.A., will offer for sale Baked Goods, Candy and Sweets, which will tempt your palate.

We pride ourselves on our homemakers and we know you'll like them, too.

Their prices will be most reasonable and the quality will be supreme.

You had better be there early because there is sure to be a rush for the Farmer's Baked Goods Corner.

In a section of this sale you will find a display of hand-made and artistic aprons which you will want to own. For a small consideration we will wrap them beautifully and send you away with the knowledge that you have purchased a bargain.

Ben Kushner Shines in the "Fun House"

Little Benny finally got himself a job which he really likes. I can't tell you all about it but it has to do with "Fun House."

If you know Benny as we know Benny, you won't want to miss the laughs.

Benny says when you quit getting a kick out of life it is time to quit living.

Clare Boothe Luce to Lecture May 9 at U. of D. High School

Keynoting an address to these turbulent times, Clare Boothe Luce will lecture at the U. of D. High School auditorium, May 9, at 8:30 p.m. on the subject of "How to Be Happy Though Successful."

Mrs. Luce, distinguished journalist and Catholic writer, war correspondent, editor, former Congresswoman, outstanding playwright, and author of the recent delightful film "Come to the Stable," is appearing under the auspices of the Jesuit Seminary Association of Detroit. There will be a question and answer period following the lecture.

Proceeds will go to the Jesuits

Lochmoor Golfers Hold Luncheon Meet

A Luncheon Committee meeting is scheduled for May 5, the opening day for golfers, at Lochmoor Club.

Attending the meeting will be Mrs. Virgil Walling, chairman; Mrs. Paul Jerome, vice-chairman; Mrs. Paul R. Baldwin, recording secretary; Mrs. Sidney M. Harvey, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Curtis L. Moody, treasurer.

The Sports Autograph Shop

Mr. Mel Collinson and Mr. Nick Londe have cooperated in making this shop a most interesting exhibit to all lovers of sport.

There is a strong possibility that some of our Stanley Cup Red Wings will be present to receive your congratulations on their fine victory.

The greatest second baseman in baseball history, Detroit's own Charley Gehringer, has been kind enough to autograph 12 big league balls for us. You will certainly want to see this wonderful exhibition of Sports Trophies with a grand opportunity of coming home with a valuable trophy. For along with the baseballs will be autographed by our champion Red Wings. And many other gifts courtesy of Olympia Stadium.

To The Faculty

There is honor in your chosen duty, that of teaching kids, but in doing what you all have done with us . . . Warren . . . Sam . . . Jim . . . Howard . . . and to all you others too, we have learned to know you better and we'll surely say to you . . . in all the ships of education, there is no better crew.

A City Fellow Looks at the County Fair

This is the story of a city lad who got himself into the gosh-darnedest affair he had ever managed to muddle into. Seems as though he met some country people and they got to talking about barn-raising, husking bees and harvest festivals and the conversation could not help but lead up to "Country Fairs."

Well, now it appears that the city lad belonged to an organization called the P.T.A. Somehow or other, after listening to the country people talk, the city lad thought it would be nice to put on a "Country Fair."

Being city bred he didn't get on the party line and call for help as his country friends would do. But he did send out a nice friendly letter to 750 of his fellow P.T.A. members asking for their help. He thought probably he would get about 75 answers, but you see, he forgot that most of these people were from the country somewhere along in the line and when he mentioned "Country Fair" all of the old desire to be a farm boy came right to the surface and before he knew it, there were 690 people clamoring for action.

Now he was stuck and good, but then what would you expect of a poor city lad? Now don't be too sure . . . this fellow just went to the country and got himself some good advice.

Old Uncle Zeke got him into a corner and explained to him in just a few words how the Country Fair was run. "Son," he stocking the novelty business, George Bahars has done a remarkable piece of procurement. No greater variety has ever been offered at any show.

Ed Pongracz will leave his jewelry business and will entertain the boys with his remarkable "Sling a Dart."

Dan Tanner will test your skill with Ring a Canoe.

Harold Marsh offers Clown Ball, and Harry Lowe will have a new slant on "Pitching Pennies."

"Pa" DeVos will create a great deal of excitement with the ever interesting throwing sponges at "Live Dummies."

Many other interesting games and much excitement will prevail on the "Midway." Our motto: "Spend Your Dime with Us and You'll Never Miss It."

We're just a bunch of farmers. "Come on City Slickers, Take Us to the Cleaners!"

"We'll love it."

Tintype Shop

When you come to the fair with your sweetheart, I'm told the custom of old was to sit stern and bold and look the photographer right in the eye. We'll do the same, but if you're lucky that day, you may win a prize for you see, with a picture we're giving a chance on the camera and forever you'll say that's me at the fair in Grosse Pointe. Expert attention will be given and authentic backgrounds furnished.

In the Halls at Pierce School . . .

By "BEA" MOORE

"How far did our monkey climb this morning?"

"How much does it take to push him up one inch?"

"Look at that poor 9A monkey almost in the bottom of the cage. He must feel left out."

"They'll have to build a new cage for this 8A monkey soon. He's going right out through the top!"

Such is the interest around the front hall display case at Pierce this week. Twenty-five little purple monkeys, representing the school's twenty-five homerooms, record the daily progress these groups are making on the ticket sale for Saturday's Country Fair, sponsored by the P.T.A.

Three hundred and fifty-five boys and girls have signed out tickets to sell and have already brought in over $2,000.

"Did you know that this picture was painted by Joe Fazio, a former Pierce Student Government president—now a talented art student?"—refers to a large panorama of a carnival painted for the adjoining front hall display case.

Joe Fazio also worked out the idea of the cage of 25 monkeys, each climbing a brass pole at the rate of one inch for every 4 tickets sold for the aforementioned homeroom contest.

"I didn't know your father was a banker. Mother says he's going to be a real help in planning how the cashiers will collect and count money and tickets taken in."

"Yes, and mother's handling the candy booth. I believe your mother has signed up to work at her booth Saturday."

"Yes, and Sally's mother is having a busy time preparing for the Doll Exhibit. She says the dolls that have been offered for display by more than 100 parents should make a fascinating exhibit. Some are very old, and others are dressed in beautiful foreign costumes."

"Dad said there were 6 committees of parents all meeting at the same time right here in our classrooms at Pierce the other night. He told us he met many people he'd never known before."

"Gee, my dad's been over at Pierce every night this week!"

"Well, I guess if our parents are doing all that—we can do tickets!"

"My dad is going to let me bring an autographed baseball for the Sports Exhibit. Did you know that some Red Wings uniforms and equipment are being loaned through the courtesy of the Olympia Stadium?"

"Mother says many of the faculty are taking an active part in the Fair, too."

"Oh, yes—Mr. Seibel and Mr. Poe are going to help Mr. Kuehn set up the Fun House."

"Yes, and Mr. Horneier and Mr. Anderson will be running the movies."

"Miss Rhodes, Miss Lewis, and Mrs. Miller are selling hot dogs and pop corn."

"Miss Hollins, Mr. Jorgensen, and Mr. Cary are working on the Midway, and Miss Wog is helping Mrs. Sadi selling flowers."

"Well, this is the last night to sell tickets for the homeroom prize—so, here goes to pass the $200 mark."

"Has your homeroom sold many tickets already?"

"Sure, everyone in the room is a salesman, and we intend to tomorrow. We've already sold 190 tickets, but 4 other homerooms are very close to that record, too."

Good luck! Don't forget to wear jeans and overalls tomorrow. Remember that announcement. We are all to dress Thursday as farmers, to get really into the spirit of the biggest the Pierce ever attempted — a "P.T.A. Country Fair."

The Morelands Will Offer Country Menu

Paul and Charlotte Moreland are announcing that their business address will change for a

St. Clare Awaits May 5 Debut of Thespains

The St. Clare Genesians are awaiting their theatrical debut in the realm of community theatre groups. "Seven Sisters" is the initial production of the newly-formed group and will be presented at Grosse Pointe High School at 8:15 p.m. on May 5 and May 6.

A merry three-act comedy, "Seven Sisters" are played by Ruth Mariele Becherer, Jayne Boyle, Jeanne Valentine, Nancy Schumacher, Muriel Hollerbach, Joan Jenuwine, and Maryanne Garney.

Mrs. Gyurkovics, the girls' mother, is portrayed by Marjorie Allor.

The men in the cast are Philip McGahey, P. J. Donovan, Jr., Patrick orrien, Richard Wimmer, John Wagner and Paul Duclos. "Seven Sisters" is directed by Germaine Dorr. Charles Raubaut, Jr. is production manager. Louis Raubaut II is stage manager.

To "Bea" Moore

In a most efficient manner our Bea has watched our tickets and she's sold them too, by gosh. When she's asked to help out, she gives her all to it and we want you all to know it. She is our favorite helper.

Rummage Sale Slated

The Women's Alliance of Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will hold a Rummage Sale on Saturday, April 29, in the store at 15122 Mack. Sale opens at 9 a.m. and will continue through the day.

Mrs. Nelson Frolund is president of the Alliance.

To Charles Leavitt

In his quiet unassuming way, Charles has been an inspiration to a full generation of Grosse Pointe youth. We can never remember any boy who didn't respect him.

He fills one with confidence and the boys are shamed by his quiet dignity.

Give us more educators like Charles Leavitt . . . we truly love and respect him and it has been a joy to work with him on all of our committees.

A SPECIAL NOTE OF THANKS

To Mr. James Mitchell and the construction department of the J. L. Hudson Co. for their most wonderful and unexpected help in building up an appropriate setting for our Fair.

This kind offer of help will long be remembered by all those connected with "Country Fair."

hot dogs to those folks who like them with the greatest sort of zest.

You will see many famous people, much too numerous to say, calling out their wares.

In procuring all this merchandise, Mrs. Moreland has done a job, I'll say. So pitch right in and eat it up, it's all for you and me.

Quality is their motto, but just for this one big day, the portions will not be modest . . . cause it's COUNTRY FAIR TODAY!

Mrs. and Mrs. Ed Kay Lead Country Dance

In securing the services of Bob Tauber as caller and teacher, the "Kays have assured the people of this community that those who wish to "Country Dance" will be able to make a day of it if they wish.

Mr. Tauber will teach you "Country Style at the lowest possible prices."

For those who like the fancy big barn style he will offer "Country Music."

Get the hay out of the barn, Paw, we're comin' runnin'.

In this booth, a large album of Country Music will be the Door Prize.

Teen Talk

By JOYCE CLEMENTS

Hope the boys had fun at the Hag Dance. If they didn't, it certainly wasn't the girls' fault, judging from all reports of festive dancing. A large crowd gathered at Ann Hoffman's for cocktails, including her date Harvey Fisher, Ann Hoover 'n Sam Shaw, Lyn Huntington 'n Phil Rahm, Marilyn Reich 'n Don Coury, Suzie Siebert 'n Dave Pethick, and Janie Joachim 'n Gene Holbrook. Leaving Ann's, the group moved on to the main course of their progressive dinner, served at Alice James'.

Nancy Ramsey 'n Bob Howe, Carol Fredericks 'n Tom Lister, Donna Steenrod 'n Dally Kitchen, and Loa Bae Sheridan 'n Hank Walker were a few more present. Last stop before the dance was Carol Fredericks for dessert, and the list goes on and on, including Pattie Lee 'n Winnie Likert, Janet Holtz 'n Neil Smith, and Elaine Brodeur 'n Dave Carr. To make sure every minute was provided for, Janet Holtz invited them back to her house after the dance.

Gay, new cottons brightened the gym at the Spring Fever dance. The decorations committee must be commended on their adorable drawings. Walt Disney-like animals with obvious spring fever (You know, "In spring, a young man's fancy often turns to thoughts of...") decorated the walls. Claiming a small space on the crowded dance floor were Nancy Newton 'n Jerry Wardrip, Barb Wescott 'n Larry Swart, Mary Hodges 'n Bill Whittingham, Judy Nellis 'n Dan Manson, Betsy Huette 'n George Turnbull, Bonnie Reitz 'n Howie Clark, Laura Lou Smith 'n Corky Lecklider, and Patti Lawler 'n Jerry Lynch.

Birthday greetings to Marilyn Brown. Their best wishes for Marilyn's continued happiness came with Pat McKinney, Barb Strauss, Marilyn Axford, Genie Salmon, Sally Noble, Mel Hoover, and Terry Donohue, when they met at Ginny Hitt's to celebrate.

Spring is here, and so is prom time—that most wonderful time of all times. The date for the Junior Prom is May 13, and decorations chairman Elaine Kihen, Mary Carey, Jill Read, Nancy Crowe, George Beauchamp, Russ Etter, and Diana Nylund promise something really terrific, but as usual, what's terrific is a well-kept secret. Barb Wescott is in charge of invitations, and the bids should be out any day. Ann Glasgow and her publicity committee are busy planning ways to use you in, (As if they had to?) and Bill Winkler and his committee are planning the refreshments. Pat Brodeur and the clean-up squad will be on hand, early the morning after, to pick up the remains. Johnny Titus and his band will furnish the music, and over-all chairman Tom Lamb isn't hesitant about presiding one of the best proms ever.

Don't forget the variety open house at the Memorial Church, sponsored by the Tuxis Club, this Friday.

St. Paul Hi-Lites

By MARILYN SMITH

Entertaining friends at a home Friday night with a pre-dance cocktail party was Dee Vise. Potato chips, tiny sandwiches, cake and cokes were served to Mary Margaret Van Damme and Dave McCarron, Marilyn Sutherland and Glen Walters, Connie Yoltor and Tom McLaughlin, Ann Reed and Tom Appert, Jack Trombley and Jeanne Sharrow, Mary Allor and Bill Lodewick, Jack Carroll and Ann Hennecke, and Kay Kottenette and John Huette.

John McCarthy, Dee's date, helped her serve tidbits to other guests. Judy Fordam and Tim Champagne, Carol Cooper and Mike Price, Barb Flowers and Jim McCarthy, Rexa and Delores Chellens and Frank Stack, Corrine Broughton and Bill Erick, Mary Kay Boomer and Joe Stack, Joyce Gardiner and Jerry Reynolds, Elaine Wujek and Marcel Laquere, Sue Merder and Ray Bieski, Mary Ann Burlingame and Eldon Marwede, Billy McKernan and Jan Drake, Earl Frontera and Don Maceri, Janet Kingsbury and Jerry Lucchi.

Beautiful decorations, a wonderful orchestra, and a grand banquet made "The Spring Frolic" one of the best dances ever held at St. Paul's.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

A fiftieth wedding anniversary was recently celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snell, of 1263 Alter Road. Joining the festivities was their son, J. Edward, a Grosse Pointe Board of Education employee.

Mt. Clemens Whipped

Grosse Pointe High School entertained Mt. Clemens Monday afternoon in a tennis match for the first time in six years. The local boys won 5-0 but only after some close matches. The No. 1 singles match was the most closely contested with Bill Whittingham playing for the Blue Devils finally edging Tom Johnson of Mt. Clemens 4-6, 6-3, 7-5. This was victory No. 34 in the current string of consecutive matches.

Bill Whittingham, G.P., defeated Tom Johnson, Mt. Clemens, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5; Cort Lecklider, G.P., defeated Doug Ward, Mt. Clemens, 6-4, 6-3; Ray Leonard, G.P., defeated Jack Albee, Mt. Clemens, 6-2, 6-4.

Al Mann and Bobb Hardies, G.P., defeated Sam Girson and Rich Magee, Mt. Clemens, 6-3, 6-3; Jim Barker and Bob Peterson, G.P., defeated Al DeShano and Harry Hootman, Mt. Clemens, 6-0, 6-2.

G.P. Printing Enters Playoffs for Bowling Championship

With two nights to go in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League it looks like a four team race, although eight teams have a mathematical chance to win.

Champions of the league will be determined by a playoff between Grosse Pointe Printing team, winners of the first half, and the winners of the second half.

Whyte Oldsmobile caught Boutin's napping as they took three points to gain a tie for first place. Gil Sarkison was high for Whyte with 532.

Both Whyte and Boutin's were aided in their hold on first place by a series of games. Cramer Electric swamped oar's Bar for four points. Ernie Bernie led Cramer's with 542.

Mack-Nottingham routed Imperial Cleaners for four points. Captain Marvin Lagarus had 558 for Mack-Nottingham. Bob Gross had a 608 series, including games of 200 and 233 to lead Turner Buick to three points over Oak Cleaners.

Blue Devil Tennis Squad Whips Cooley High in Practice Game

In a practice match last Wednesday, Grosse Pointe High School defeated the Cooley High School tennis team from metropolitan Detroit by the score of 6-1. This match was not a scheduled match and therefore does not count in extending the winning streak of the Blue Devils.

Most of the "Big Ten" were left at home with the result that Dick MacKenzie played No. 1 and Bill Rossiter No. 3. These were the only letter winners taken along. Both came through with a victory.

The only match lost was by George Parker and Ted Hinchman, two tenth graders, who just couldn't cope with the wind, rain, and the playing style of their opponents. Parker shows indications of improvement and may be a replacement for the many seniors who will graduate this spring.

FINAL SCORES
Dick MacKenzie, G. P. def. C. Domalske, Cooley 6-3, 6-4.
Bob Peterson, G. P. def. N. Beck, Cooley 6-1, 9-7.
Bill Rossiter, G. P. def. Tom Hall, Cooley 6-0, 8-1.
Tom Lamb, G. P. def. Norm Wood, Cooley 6-3, 6-0.

Harry Eason and Bob Hardies, G. P. def. Roger McGuinness and J. Bigly, Cooley 6-4, 6-4.
Jim Thayer and Ken Webb, G. P. def. Norm Taylor and B. Bigly, Cooley 9-7, 6-4.

G. Grenrod and P. Gruner, Cooley def. George Parker, Ted Hinchman, G. P. 6-2, 4-6, 6-2.

Al Mann is still holding on to No. 1 spot on the tennis ladder although his game is not as consistent as last year. Skip Pessl has been trying hard to dethrone him but so far with little success. Of the newcomers, Bob Peterson is showing the way. He has outclassed several boys (Bruce Terris, Jack Westphal, Tom Lamb, Bobb Hardies) and has moved himself ahead of several letter winners of last year.

GARAGE

for that big investment in your automobile is a must. Why not build it yourself. We show you how and give you a blueprint with complete layout. Materials for a 1-car garage $195 as low as with clear fir siding

FENCE SEASON IS HERE

Install one yourself or let us do it for you. Your material cost including plain fence posts, woven wire and fir 2x4 rails at top and bottom, staples and nails as low as per lineal foot.

(Posts 10 feet apart) 47 1/2c

PICKET FENCE

4-foot high, including pickets, fence posts, cross rails, nails, etc., ready for assembly. (Posts 10 feet apart.) Per lineal foot 59c

Bring in your list of material for estimating purposes or let us help you compose a complete list when doing your own building or repairing. We also have a list of competent carpenters for you to choose from should you want to hire your own men.

COMBINATION DOORS

of beautiful white pine. Buy this double duty door instead of a screen door at very little extra. Save yourself the disagreeable job of exchanging the complete door for winter or summer season—By a simple twist of the wrist, this door is converted from a storm door to a screen door. We have them in all sizes including Circle Top $12.95 each for as little as—depending on size
