POINTE PARAGRAPHS

The park in Grosse Pointe Woods had the busiest day in its entire history last Sunday. A crowd of 3,900 persons played, swam and cavorted in the baking sun as temperatures hovered in the high eighties.

A feline from Grosse Pointe stands a good chance of being selected as the cat of the year. A cream Persian male, with the title of Eden's Cafe au Lait de Lee's High Hat, owned by Mrs. Walter Meyer, 1417 Beaconsfield, was placed in the running at the fourth annual All-Midwestern Show.

Chief Arthur E. Louwers of the Grosse Pointe Park Police left this week to attend a Convention for Police Chiefs at Harbor Springs.

Ty Tyson, veteran sports-caster, has an avocation as life guard. Ty frequently spends his spare hours watching his grandchild Kathy go through her aquatic paces at the waterfront park.

New building in Grosse Pointe Shores during the past two months has exceeded the figures for the whole of 1949. Last year new construction was estimated at $212,000, compared with $222,000 for May and June of 1950.

Pedestrians are sighing nostalgically when they see the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club's latest contribution to the local highways. The "Welcome Wanderer" as it is dubbed by Rotarians, is a 1915 Model T.

County Lays Kercheval in Pointe's Lap

The maintenance of Kercheval Avenue was officially dumped into the hands of Grosse Pointe Park and the City of Grosse Pointe by action of the Wayne County Road Commission.

A letter received by Park Manager Everitt B. Lane, who had asked the Road Commission to reconsider when first word of their intention was known, stated that on June 1 Kercheval had been abandoned and discontinued as a County road and jurisdiction reverts to the City and Park.

Lane said, "We have no redress in the matter" since we have been served notice in compliance with the State Act No. 283 of the Public Acts, State of Michigan.

In 1935 Wayne County improved Kercheval Avenue and the City and Park in turn pledged gasoline and license tax receipts for seven years to cover the cost of improvements by the County.

Since this time the County continued to repair, clean and maintain Kercheval even after the tax remission pledge had expired.

"In the language of the County," City Clerk Norb Neff stated, "Kercheval is not a through street and is used as a local avenue of traffic."

"The County claimed that Kercheval serves no purpose in their system," he said, "since they have no jurisdiction west of Grosse Pointe or east of Fisher Road."

"We feel that although the jurisdiction may be divided, Kercheval is an important arterial highway that links many of the Wayne or Macomb County residents with the City of Detroit," Neff claimed.

Neff stated that the maintenance of Kercheval would cost approximately $6,000 in the City alone. This would include services formerly performed by the County, such as tree trimming, cleaning, sweeping, snow removal, salting and care of sewers.

In the Park the cost would be proportionately larger. Kercheval Avenue from Fisher Road to Provençal has always been maintained and repaired by Grosse Pointe Farms.

New Charter Commission Is Organized

Nine newly elected members of the Grosse Pointe Charter Commission met Monday night at the Woods Municipal Building for their first organizational meeting.

Chief order of business was the selection of five meeting dates for the month of July.

Officers of the Commission elected at the meeting were Harold O. Love, Chairman and Russell M. Harkness, Secretary.

The Commission was elected Monday, June 19, at a special election which saw the Woods abandon the Township for City government by a vote of 863 to 361.

In addition to the two members elected as officers, the following are members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Charter Commission which will draft the Charter for the City of Grosse Pointe Woods:

George A. Beauchamp, Arnold L. Diesing, George M. Burgess, Waid H. McKnight, Herbert N. Savage, Albert Beaver and Albert L. Eyre.

Beaconsfield Parking OK'd

A petition from 100 residents requesting that parking between Kercheval and Mack on the west side of Beaconsfield be eliminated from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily was denied by the Grosse Pointe Park Council at their meeting Monday night in the Municipal building.

Within the next few weeks police will enforce a new regulation in this area prohibiting parking from 2 to 5 a.m. so that the Department of Public Works will have an opportunity to clean the streets.

A police investigation disclosed that adequate parking facilities were available for car owners to put their vehicles in driveways or garages overnight.

Morning, Vespers, Evening Services Mark Dedication

St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Congregation will dedicate its new church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, Grosse Pointe Farms, in special ceremonies next Sunday.

A second service, Vespers with Organ Recital, will be held at 3:30 with the Reverend Harold L. Yochum, D.D., President of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio, preaching. The organ recital will be played by Miss Rogene Hartje, B.A. in music, organist and parish worker, St. Paul Church.

The evening service which is scheduled for 7:30 will feature as speaker the Reverend Emmanuel Poppen, D.D., president of the American Lutheran Church. Dr. Poppen will speak on the theme, "Glorifying With God's Inheritance." Special invitations have been extended to all those confirmed in St. Paul to attend this service. A class of new members will be received during this service. A social hour with light refreshments will follow in the Fellowship Hall.

Other dedicatory events include a congregational dinner on Thursday, July 6; confirmation and Baptisms on Sunday, July 9 at 10:30; and a special concert by the Senior Choir at 7:00 o'clock on this date.

For the past five and one-half years, St. Paul congregation has been worshipping in the Jackson School, Marlborough and Waverly. Prior to that, for 74 years, the church was located at Jos. Campau and Jay.

The new church, of modified Gothic design, offers attractive and modern facilities for Christian worship, education, and fellowship. Parking facilities are provided on the property. Future plans call for the erection of a parish house adjoining the church.

The new church with its furniture and the property represents an expenditure of more than $250,000. The builder was the Arthur O. Misch Co. and the architects, Merritt and Cole.

The Liturgist at all Dedication Services will be the pastor, the Reverend Charles W. Sandrock. The choir which will sing at all services are directed by Mr. C. J. Wickwire and Miss Hartje. Dr. Alfred E. Seyler was the chairman of the Building Committee.

Milk Wagon Changes Route

On his regular Sunday morning milk route Ray Connarts halted his truck on Kerby, between Charlevoix and Beaupre to make a delivery. While he was away, the emergency brake on the vehicle slipped and the wagon started to roll down the hill.

The unsheddled top of the milk truck was stopped when it passed into a light pole and damaged the globe.

4th Offers Variety of Activities

Plans are underway to give residents of Grosse Pointe a special colorful holiday program on Tuesday, July 4.

Highlighting the Independence Day program is the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis 12th Annual Field Day Festival at Mason School, Vernier and Mack. More than 15,000 are expected to attend.

The program will get underway at 3 p.m. with the ball games and field events for the youngsters. Children will be given an opportunity to participate in numerous contests and cash prizes will be awarded.

Refreshment stands are being erected at various points on the field and they will be operated by boys from Sea Scout Ship 690 who are sponsored by Grosse Pointe Kiwanis.

Shortly after dark, a spectacular display of fireworks has been promised by Chief Gunner Arnold Diesing, who engineered the first program here in 1939. Diesing is the First Vice-President of Kiwanis.

No admission charge will be made. Proceeds from the event will go to the Underprivileged Children's Fund of the Club.

Awards will include a refrigerator, electric range and a television set.

The program is under the direction of Paul Deeley, Kiwanis president, and Don Goodrow, general chairman.

Park Tables Off-Street Plan of Verheyden

Grosse Pointe Park's Council Chamber was filled to capacity Monday night for a spirited public hearing on the petition of Charles Verheyden, Inc., funeral directors, for vacation of an alley at the rear of the property and the conversion of the three adjacent residential lots to business parking district.

After nearly two hours of discussion on the matter, Park President Homer C. Fritsch stated that the meeting had accomplished its end in that all parties concerned were heard and that the Commission would take the matter under advisement for final decision at a later date.

No less than half a dozen petitions were submitted to the Park Commission as evidence of property owners' sentiments in the matter. Verheyden's attorney submitted petitions of consent from all but one resident or property owner in his block and from more than 50 per cent of the property owners on adjacent streets.

Attorney George F. Mehling, representing the Scripps Grosse Pointe Park Subdivision property owners association, stated that his group was opposed to Verheyden's petitions, from the standpoint of changing residential property to business property and because it might establish a precedent which could affect the Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, 402 St. Clair, at 1:30 and from Grosse Pointe Memorial Church at 2 p.m. Tuesday for Julius Nagel, veteran Grosse Pointe business man, who passed away suddenly last Saturday.

A native of Leipsig, Germany, Mr. Nagel came to Grosse Pointe near the turn of the century and established the Grosse Pointe Hardware, oldest business establishment in Grosse Pointe, at 281 Rivard, in the building now entirely occupied by the Grosse Pointe Bank. Mr. Nagel was an active member of the Grosse Pointe Lions Club, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and the Kiwaning Lodge of the Masonic Order.

Our national income—the sum of everyone's wages and other income, all added together—has tripled in the past ten years. It's now about $220 billion a year, compared to only $72½ billion in 1939. And some experts say we can boost it to $300 billion before long.

She and three other prominent Detroit women journalists addressed the 41st annual convention of Theta Sigma Phi June 24 on "Food As We Find It."

Flavorful

Here is a noodle ring recipe worthy of a place in your active recipe file. Plan to use it the next time you have dinner guests who appreciate unusual, flavorsome dishes.

- NOODLE RING WITH CHEESE
 1½ cups noodles
 2 egg yolks
 ¼ cup of milk
 2 tablespoon butter
 ¼ teaspoon salt
 ¼ teaspoon paprika
 ¼ teaspoon nutmeg (optional)
 1½ teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce
 ¼ tablespoon catsup
 ¼ cup grated cheese
 2 egg white

Cook noodles, rinse and drain them. Beat egg yolks, milk, butter, salt, paprika and nutmeg, then combine this mixture with the noodles. Add to this, Worcestershire Sauce, catsup, and cheese. Beat egg whites until stiff, and fold them into the noodles.

Butter a 9-inch ring mold or individual ring molds, and fill them with the noodle mixture. Set in pan of hot water, and bake them in a moderate oven (350° F.) until done, about 45 minutes.

Invert contents of molds on hot plates and fill centers with creamed spinach, peas, mushrooms, stewed tomatoes, etc.

We have a lot more time for play than our fathers did. Most of us now work 8 hours a day, 5 days a week. Only 50 years ago factory workmen averaged 53 hours a week. That's nearly 8 hours a day, 6 days a week.

NEWS IN SIGHT

How often should the eyes be examined?

Almost everyone would profit by a complete visual analysis once a year. At certain ages eyesight makes more rapid changes than it does at others. Between the ages of ten to twenty and between forty to sixty, the once a year rule should be faithfully observed.

Furthermore, if one's work or hobby is such that perfect vision is of vital importance, he should have, not only his eyesight checked once every year, but he should also have his eye-glasses inspected, tightened and adjusted frequently, as well.

He that gathereth in summer is a wise son; but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.—Proverbs 9:16.

Dr. Majester's hobby is such that perfect vision is of vital importance, he should have, not only his eyesight checked once every year, but he should also have his eye-glasses inspected, tightened and adjusted frequently, as well.

This week 150 excited school girls are busily packing shorts and shirts, sun tan lotion and tennis rackets, and counting the days until July 1—the opening date for the YWCA Camp Cavell on Lake Huron.

Forty-five camp staff and counselors who have been at Cavell for a week's orientation are now all set for the big day, according to Marjorie Magee, camp director. The camp itself is ready too—every cabin has been cleaned and scrubbed, and the 40 acres of woods and meadow have had a double spraying, once for poison ivy and once for mosquitoes.

Girls 10 to 17 are separated by age into three units at Camp Cavell. The season consists of four periods of two weeks each. Girls may still register for the last two periods, according to Miss Magee. The registration office at Central Branch Witherell at Montclair, is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and Saturday until 12:00 noon.

Recipe for Refreshing

Try this recipe for a wonderful home-made bubble bath. Measure a quarter cup of detergent or soap flakes into a sauce dish, and sprinkle over the granules a tablespoon of any cologne or toilet water.

Let stand a few minutes. Then use like any other bubble bath preparation. This mix is a grand way to use up stray bottles of cologne, and your bubble bath will be as fragrant as a flower garden.

Couple Bound For Georgian Bay After Ceremony

St. Clare of Montefalco was the setting for the nuptial high mass on Saturday which united in marriage Mary Louise Leszczynski and Linus Michael Shea.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of ivory satin designed with an all chantilly lace beeches. The off-shoulder neckline was edged in satin scallops embroidered with rhinestones and bugle beads.

Her very full skirt fell from a smooth fitting waistline and swept into a circular train. Folds of the skirt formed a large butterfly bustle which fell into the train.

The bride wore a finger tip veil of silk illusion held in place by a close fitting cap of matching lace. She carried a white satin prayer book on which lay a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Joan Barbara Leszczynski, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Alfreda Sowa and Mrs. Jack Cummings, sister of the bridegroom.

Gowned in sea-foam marquisette, the attendants carried bouquets of daisies.

Attending the bridegroom were his best man, Carl J. Makowski, of Flint, Edward Zick and James C. Leszczynski.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Leszczynski, of Whittier Road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shea, of Flint.

Wearing a georgette and lace floor length dress of green, the bride's mother carried matching orchids on her rsvp.

The groom's mother chose a gray floor length gown of georgette with hat to match. She wore a purple orchid.

Following a reception at the bride's home, the newlyweds left on a Georgian Bay cruise. They will also visit points in Canada.

For her going-away outfit the new Mrs. Shea wore a lightweight pink suit with accessories of matching pastel shades.

Proper Storing of Garments Can Prevent Moth Damage

Do you know what moths love better than ordinary wool? Fabrics of camel or mohair. Although it isn't generally known they will also eat silk. Moths will attack any material containing any portion of animal fibers but will not touch cotton or rayon.

It is important to keep fabrics as clean and stain-free as possible, according to Loren Farrell, executive director of the Dry Cleaners Institute of Detroit, because moths and other insects attack soiled fabrics first.

Incidentally, moth damage doesn't always show until after cleaning loosens the weakened fibers. Nothing in the cleaning process can make a hole like a moth's.

Dry cleaning kills all forms of moths, including the larvae, and if you want to keep winter draperies and wool blankets at home during the summer, they may be stored after cleaning in well-sealed unbroken paper bags or cardboard boxes.

It is absolutely imperative that all openings be sealed air-tight. Gunned paper stripping or Scotch tape can be used for sealing, although heat and humidity sometimes loosen these and they should be checked regularly.

Begin Bike Racing At Speedway

Bicycle racing, long absent from Detroit, and for the entire United States for that matter, will be resumed in the Motor City Area Sunday night, July 2 at the newly-built Michigan Cycling Speedway at Ten and One-Half Mile and Ryan Roads.

A group of Detroiters, headed by Fred Cappy a veteran bike racer, purchased one of the finest portable tracks ever built and brought it to Detroit.

Motorcycle Racers Return July 1

Motorcycle racers, rained out last Saturday, return to Motor City Speedway this week-end (July 1) to renew one of the most bitter rivalries ever seen at Motor City Speedway.

Reggie Mull, of Lansing, winner of three 15-lap feature events, will be back in an effort to extend his string. But he'll have plenty of competition from Russ Peterson, the 25-year-old Flint rider who holds the track championship; Allan Davis of Howell, recent winner of the state championship at Ionia, and a host of others.

Her Dowry Was Weight in Silver

In 1852 the mint was set up in Boston and John H. Hall, a Boston silversmith, became its master. For his services, Hall was allowed to keep one shilling out of every 20 coined.

He saved the shillings he earned and when the time came for his daughter to be married, he gave her a dowry consisting of a pile of shillings equal to her weight.

Bride Carries White Orchids For Ceremony

Gretchen Winifred Battle became the bride of Walter Alvan Albrecht, Jr. at 1:30 o'clock on Saturday in St. John's Episcopal Church in Mount Pleasant. The Rev. John Vincer officiated. The bride chose for her wedding, a floor length gown of pearl white Dutchess lace styled in the Colonial Period. The off-shoulder neckline was distinguished by an appliqued lace edging which was carried out again at the neck suggesting a neckline and forming points over the hands from the long fitted sleeves. The very bouffant lace skirt edged in natural lace scallops fell softly over three tulle underskirts making a Dresden like appearance. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a matching lace Flemish cap with turned up edging of lace scallops. She carried a prayer book covered with white orchids attached to white ribbons leading from the prayer book.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Battle of Mount Pleasant, Michigan. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Albrecht of Balfour Road, Grosse Pointe.

Gretchen's sister, Harriet Battle, was her maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Elaine Albrecht, sister of the bridegroom, and Carol Peabody of Detroit. All of the attendants were gowned identically in nylon tulle, opera length dresses of the bitter-sweet shade. They were styled with fitted strapless bodices topped by a stole formed by soft folds of hte tulle. They wore matching hair braid hats with a detailed fold at the crown, and carried Gerber Daisies.

Mr. Albrecht's best man was his father and the ushers were Roy Siewert and Richard Dossin, both of Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Battle wore a white nylon opera length dress with sapphire blue accessories and baby yellow orchids. The mother of the bridegroom wore an opera length gown of blue lace and baby white orchids on her white bag.

The reception was held at the Doherty Hotel in Clare, Michigan. Following the reception, the bride donned a white and black checked suit with matching accessories to set out on their two-week trip through Canada and Northern Michigan.

A frock of sheer organdy over turquoise faille was the choice of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Samuel Cutler, who was matron of honor.

Elizabeth Ann Hicks and Margaret Barie wore identical gowns of turquoise faille and carried all-pink bouquets for their duties as bridesmaids.

William Krauthoef was best man for his brother, and ushers were Charles McConnell, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Eisten Neuffer, of Evanston, Ill.; and Samuel Cutler and Arthur Jordan, both of Milwaukee, Wis.

Genius in Family

Even the child who protests against his music lessons may be a musical genius. To prove it, Childcraft books tell us of the Norwegian composer, Edward Grieg, who never wanted to practice his music—but liked to make up tunes. His melodies provide us with some of our best radio listening.

Oven Poaching

Oven poaching is cooking in the oven in a dish set in hot water. The method is used for cutbacks, souffles, and other egg mixtures of delicate texture which are cooked in the oven.

Figures Show Good Prospects for Marriage

For girls with marriage in mind, statistics show that prospects are better than ever. There have always been more boy babies than girl babies (the ratio is 105 to 100), but now more boys are living into maturity.

Girls with marriage in mind can stop worrying about that extra million women in the population and get on with their man-hunt. This is why:

Our country's birth ratio is 105 boy babies to 100 girls. It always has been, but now more boys are living into maturity. Mortality rates of the sexes before middle age are equalizing—so much so that by 1955 the break-even point will be pushed into the 30-to-35 age group.

The break-even point now is in the 25-to-30 group. Up to age 25 there are more men than women. Between then and 30 they run equal. By 35 the excess of women begins to show.

Over half the Americans who intend to marry do so before they're 25. Another 28.5 per cent locate spouses by 30. Only 8 per cent make a first marriage after 36.

"YOU'LL LOSE MONEY IF YOU WAIT!"
THERE'S every indication that you'll lose money by putting off buying your new car.
Here's why:
Your present car isn't getting any younger. You may have to spend more money for repairs. And right now we can give you a G-I-A-N-T trade-in allowance.
Wise buyers are taking advantage of these conditions by getting their new cars now.
Any way you figure it, you'll agree that to wait longer to get your new car is to run the risk of losing real money.

Red Cross Says Men Top Women As Blood Donors

Women in the United States own over 40 per cent of all real estate, buy over 80 per cent of all consumer goods, own over 50 per cent of industrial corporation stock, according to statistics.

There is, however, one area in which men seem to take a commanding lead over women. Registration records at Red Cross blood centers show that men outnumber women as donors three to one. No doubt, this will surprise many. "In the first place, it will be said, 'Weren't women the principal donors all through the war?' Oddly enough, no. During the war, despite the fact that millions of men of donor age were away in the armed forces, donors were equally divided, about half male and half female.

It will be argued by some that women have more free time, are more interested in health and safety for the community, etc., than men. This appears logical on the face of it, but it is contradicted by the fact that a greater understanding of what the blood program means in terms of human health or simply a greater willingness to go out of their way for others, men continue to furnish better than three-fourths of all blood collected. This is generally true in all parts of the country but markedly so in the southeast and southwest.

A clue to the mystery perhaps lies in the case of one male donor who said, "I don't believe my wife should give blood. She's on her feet all day, whereas I have a desk job and don't get tired as easily." (Unknown to him, his "fragile" wife, while holding down a difficult job at which she worked 48 hours per week on her feet, had made 13 blood donations during the war.)

Actually there is no logic to support such an idea. The blood gives—one pint—is quickly replaced in the donor's veins by the most natural process in the world. The plasma or fluid content of the blood is replaced within a day or so, the red cell content within a couple of weeks. Medical men believe that the absence of one pint of blood will not weaken the individual or predispose him to any harmful ailment. A possible exception might be mild fatigue of short duration.

Donors are, of course, carefully screened. No one who has recently had any serious illness is accepted. Women who are pregnant or recovering from childbirth are automatically rejected. Temperature, pulse, blood pressure, and other physical "registers" are checked before each donation. If any are above or below normal the person is rejected. The medical profession itself sets these standards and they are rigidly adhered to.

Finally anyone in doubt either about the urgent need for blood or his own ability to be a donor has only to call his family physician for advice. Doctors support the Red Cross blood program wholeheartedly, realizing that it is a feasible way of being sure that patients in need of blood will get it when they need it and not be burdened by an expense which might cost them a large part of their life savings.

No nation, corporation or individual can long live at the expense of past efforts. God helps only those who are willing to help themselves.—Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker.

PRINCIPALS IN CHURCH BUILDING PROGRAM

Cool Salads Are Tempting Warm Weather Favorites

A big cool salad as the mainstay of a meal always sounds tempting during warm weather, and the idea is appealing to the person who does the cooking. Whether a menu built around a salad satisfies the family's appetite and meets the food requirement depends on wise choice of the makings.

Main dish salads must be filling. That's an easy requirement to meet because they all contain a generous amount of crisp, bulky greens.

A stick-to-the-ribs quality is essential for these salads. It's well to make sure that they contain a gooey portion of foods such as meat, cheese, poultry, eggs, or fish which will give them a satisfying flavor and at the same time help to meet the day's need for tissue and blood building protein.

Because these combinations usually take the place of meat, dish, vegetable and "side dish" salad, they must be big—big enough so everyone can have two generous servings at least. Unless this is the case it's necessary to add enough other dishes to the menu so no one will be shorted.

Salad Rules

1. To have the salad greens temptingly crisp, wash them quickly but thoroughly and store them in the refrigerator until ready to mix the salad. The Food and Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross suggests this procedure not only for the best flavor but as a means of retaining the vitamins A and C in the greens.
2. Meat, fish and cooked vegetables which are rather bland in flavor make more interesting salads if they stand in French dressing or seasoned vinegar for an hour or more before being added to the rest of the salad. To avoid intermingling of flavors and colors keep them in separate mounds during this marinating process.
3. Mix the crisp salad ingredients with the other ingredients and dressing shortly before serving. The dressing wilts greens if added too early.
4. Have all ingredients in pieces small enough to handle easily but not so small that diners can't tell what they're eating. Distinct shapes and colors make the salads more attractive to see as well as taste.
5. With a few exceptions, salads must be cold to be good. Chili all of the ingredients, and if the weather is extremely hot, chill the bowl in which you plan to mix and serve it.

It's a good idea to have one hot dish in a salad meal. Make it soup for a starter, a hot buttered vegetable, a casserole of creamed or scalloped potatoes, a beverage or hot bread. One of the easiest is garlic bread prepared by slicing French bread about 1/2 inch thick, leaving it attached to the loaf at the bottom. Spread with butter flavored with garlic and bake in a moderate oven for 15 minutes to heat through.

SAUCY SAUCER

Two cups diced cooked veal or park, 1 cup sliced celery, 1/2 cup diced green pepper, 1/2 cup diced tart apple, 1/2 cup French dressing, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons chopped chives or green onion, 1 head salad greens, 2 tomatoes, 2 hard cooked eggs.

Add French dressing to meat and let stand, covered, in refrigerator for about 30 minutes. Shortly before serving add celery, green pepper, apple and half of the mayonnaise which has been mixed with the chives or onion. Toss lightly until mixed, adding more French dressing if needed. Serve on crisp salad greens, garnishing with wedges of tomato, sliced hard cooked egg and rest of the mayonnaise. Serves 4.

Kidney Bean and Cottage Cheese Salad

Two and one-half cups (No. 2 can) kidney beans, 1 1/2 cups diced celery, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 1/2 cup chopped sweet pickle, 1 1/2 teaspoons prepared mustard, 2 cups salad dressing, 1 tablespoon pickle juice, 1 pound cottage cheese, 1 cup grated carrot, greens.

Combine all ingredients except greens, carrots and cheese. Season to taste. Line bowl with greens and arrange bean mixture in it around a mound of the cheese which has been well seasoned and mixed with grated carrot. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Minted Lamb Salad

Two cups thin, small slices of cooked lamb, 2 cups sliced, cooked potatoes, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon chopped mint, French dressing, salad greens.

Combine potatoes, meat, salt, mint, and enough dressing to moisten well and let stand for about 1 hour. Remove from bowl, leaving dressing in it. Add broken lettuce hearts or other greens to dressing and toss lightly. Add meat mixture, garnish with mint springs and serve. Makes 6 servings.

EYE-CATCHING as a flying disc this summery chapeau resulted from the combined efforts of Alvin Wayne stylist of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association and Irene, Inc. It is designed to keep milday cool even in a heated discussion about strange saucers in the air.

Detroit YMCA Lists Summer Activities

The Detroit YMCA has planned a very detailed summer program to keep its 15,000 boy members, their guests and friends busily occupied in constructive and fun packed activities. Each of the 11 branches has arranged for outdoor activities such as bike hikes, hostel trips, picnics, educational tours, attendance at the baseball games, Bob-Lo excursions, ball boat races, archery tournaments and some baseball schedules.

Indoor activities in the seven Y branches with gym and pool facilities are planned in addition to the above program: learn to swim campaigns, swimming tournaments, family and Dad-Dad nights, social events in the gym and other building centered activities such as hobby shop, crafts, library, game room, sports and movies.

Continued Tours
One of the main activities of each branch will be conducted to such places as Edison Institute, Greenfield Village, the Ford Rouge Plant, Windsor YMCA, Detroit Zoo, County Jail, Firemen's Training School, Detroit Creamery Co., Detroit Fireboat, Belle Isle, Tiger baseball games, Continental Baking Co., Cranbrook Institute of Science, Children's Museum, Penobscot observation tower and other points of local interest as well as visits to some Michigan State Parks.

The second outstanding feature of the Detroit youth activities schedule for the summer is the operation of four outstanding camps. The Royal Oak and Birmingham branches of the Y conduct daily camps for younger boys and girls. A varied program is provided of activities including hikes, cook outs, nature trips, outdoor games, swims, sports, archery, handicrafts, movies, plays, stories, songs, treasure hunts, and mystery trips, etc. The Detroit Y also operates two major summer camps: Camp Ohlyesa and Camp Nissokone.

Camps
Camp Ohlyesa is located on Fish Lake near Holly, Michigan, accommodating approximately 200 boys from 9 through 15 years of age for three periods of two weeks each and two for ten days. This camp offers excellent facilities in leadership and reservations must be made now. Camp opened June 26. Other periods will be open July 10-24, July 24-August 7, August 16, and August 15-25.

Camp Nissokone on Lake Van Etten near Oscoda, Michigan, is the Detroit Y's north woods camp where boys may stay for one or two four week periods. One hundred twenty-six boys from eight through 15 may attend each of the four week periods. This camp is considered one of the finest in the country. It has an excellent reputation for leadership and the finest quality accommodations. Camp opens June 29, the second four-week period will begin July 27.

Reservations should be made through John L. Stone, Metropolitan YMCA Boys' Work Secretary at WO. 2-1500 or through the nearest Y branch.

Stop in or telephone your nearest Y for detailed information on specific program dates and activities. Boys from nine to 18 are urged to participate in the Y summer activities. Wanda Y. Y.M.C.A. is located at 2747 E. 12th. The phone number is 4700.

WATER BABY LIKES TO TAKE HIS DAILY DIP

A Grosse Pointe water baby in every sense of the word is 10-month-old Timothy Wilson, elected. Tim comes to the Waterfront Park nearly every day for a refreshing swim. At the right are his mother and brother, Michael, age two. Tim and Mike are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Wilson, 1000 Beaconsfield.

Ball Players To Test Skill For League

Grosse Pointe boys who are interested in a professional baseball career will have a chance to test their skill on June 28, 29 and 30 in Ann Arbor. On these dates the Philadelphia "Phillies" will conduct a baseball tryout camp at West Park Field.

The camp is open to all players between the ages of 17 and 22 except those now playing on American Legion Teams who are covered by Major-Minor Leagues Agreement with the American Legion.

The camp will open at 10:00 a.m. each day and will be under the direction of Eddie Kramlik, Chief Mid-West Scout of the Phillies. Players attending should bring their own uniforms, glove and shoes.

Players who are signed to any of the "Phillies" farm clubs will be reimbursed for their expense.

Those still looking for living quarters may find it hard to believe, but there are now eight million more homes and apartments than there were only ten years ago. Trouble is, there are seven million more families too!

EXHIBIT STAMP COLLECTION

Neil Crandall and Dale Albers tied for first prize with their stamp collection, at the hobby show held in the First Church of Understanding, corner of Vernor and Coplin. The show was held to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the church and the fifth birthday in its own building.

"WITCHHUNTINGS" George S. Kennan, chairman of the State Department, warns that "witchhunting" of Communists in this country has diminished considerably our understanding of the Russian people—a people that is "cultured" with liberal and moral concepts that "must some day" assert themselves and lead to the collapse of the present Soviet regime.

Drowning Toll Rises; Teach Children the Art of Swimming

Michigan's mounting toll of drowning brought serious warning today from the Michigan Department of Health.

Keep your children out of quarries, water holes, creeks and rivers, the Department advised.

Teach your children to swim, but teach them swimming and boating precautions as well. If you cannot swim yourself, now is a good time to learn. National studies show that the majority of drownings are avoidable, and that eight out of ten who drown do so within fifty feet of shallow water or safety.

Be wary of boating accidents. In the fishing and boating season just ahead, boating accidents in Michigan waters took 82 lives last year, more than any other form of recreation.

Be sure that any boat you use is in good repair. Don't overload it or attempt to run it or lean way out of it. If you can't swim well, take along a life preserver or an old inner tube. Stay out of the swell of large boats and out of any swift current. Put for shore when a storm threatens.

Be sure that you are properly equipped for it to come up, take hold of it and stay with it until help arrives or you drift ashore.

Swim always with at least one companion and, if possible, only at a public beach during daylight hours.

Wait two hours after a meal before you swim. Most drownings result from stomach cramps. Don't go in swimming when you are overheated, tired or intoxicated. Go in slowly. Quick plunges into cold water can be fatal.

Know the water in which you swim. Its depth, currents, tides, drop-offs, underwater holes and temperature. Obey warnings and the instructions of the lifeguard. Never swim in swift water or dive into water of unknown depth.

Drowning toll in Michigan rivers last year was 75, in Michigan lakes, 60.

Remember that drowning often occurs in shallow water. It is an invitation to tragedy. Don't over estimate your swimming ability. If you must race, race toward shore. If you swim distance, be sure that a boat accompanies you. Never swim so long that you become chilled or exhausted.

If you get in trouble, keep your calm may save your life. If you have a cramp in your leg or arm, grab the nearest object. Water will almost support your weight. Alternate floating and treading water will teach you to stay afloat until help reaches you. Where there are waves, breathe in through your mouth and out through your nose.

Unless you are a skilled and powerful swimmer, do not attempt rescue. You may injure articles in the swimmer in trouble—inflated tubes, boards, or rope.

Many of the 310 drownings in Michigan last year and many of the recent drowning could have been prevented if these simple precautions the Department said.

OPEN NEW MEDICAL CENTER

Modern medical facilities to serve the community.

Formal opening of the Woods Medical Center, 10623 Mack avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, has been set for Friday, June 30.

Village officials, headed by President Alos A. Chesquiere, are among those invited to participate in the dedication ceremonies, which are scheduled for 3 p.m. The public will be welcome.

The Center, for which ground breaking began in November, 1928, is a self contained unit, completely equipped to render complete and complete medical and diagnostic service and treatment.

Unlike the average clinic, which provides office space for individual practitioners, the new facility will have a joint consulting staff of seven medical doctors and three dentists, each with post-graduate training in a specialized field of his profession.

In this respect, the Center's functions are similar to the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, N.Y., after which it is patterned, according to A. Sill, M.D., and H. M. Sherman, D.D.S., who together planned and developed the project to completion.

The building, all on one level, provides 6,000 square feet of floor space and houses 40 separate offices and clinical rooms. It is air conditioned and most of the rooms are connected for radio reception. A pharmacy, with William O'Neil, Ph.D., in charge, occupies one entire wing.

Now in partial use as a private parking lot, the 10,000 feet of grounds are more than adequate for building expansion in accordance with future need.

Other members of the original staff in addition to Dr. Sill and Sherman are Dr. W. W. Matney, radiologist; Dr. S. Meyers, gynecologist-obstetrician; and Dr. William G. Sell, surgeon.

Dr. Sill, whose specialty is internal medicine, is now medical director of the Detroit Alcoholic and Guidance Center.
