Bon Secours Hospital Drive Success

Original Goal Is Set at $121,120, Topped by $35,000

Contributions substantially over the original goal of $121,120 needed to furnish and equip the new Bon Secours Hospital in Grosse Pointe have made the drive a complete success, Lou R. Maxon, chairman of the Bon Secours Special Gifts Committee, announced today.

The drive, which began last December 1 and ended today, is expected to yield the hospital between $155,000 and $160,000 when all checks are in, Mr. Maxon said.

"The way in which folks of every creed and in all walks of life responded to our appeal is certainly a wonderful thing," he added. "On behalf of the Special Gifts Committee and the Bon Secours Sisters, I'd like to thank every one again and again."

"As a result of the public's generosity, our community will have a completely equipped, thoroughly modern hospital which will give all of us comfort and protection in time of need."

"My thanks would not be complete without a public expression of gratitude to my fellow members of the Gift Committee. Each one gave unselfishly of time and effort and deserve the credit for the drive's success. The business men and merchants of Grosse Pointe also made very substantial contributions."

Launchings of the campaign attracted city-wide attention, since it is probably the first time that a Protestant has been asked to head a fund-raising effort on behalf of a Catholic hospital. Mr. Maxon's association with Bon Secours began last year, when his daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Ware, was taken there with serious injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

When he experienced the warm, friendly atmosphere and observed the skill and efficiency of the Sisters and staff, he became an enthusiastic supporter of the hospital, culminating in his selection as chairman of the Gifts Committee.

Patients are already being placed in the new hospital and more will be added as fast as furnishings and equipment are delivered. Rev. Mother Mary Alice, in charge of the hospital, sets March 1 as the date by which the entire building will be ready for full-scale operation.

Among the additional facilities to be available are: the only Out-patient Department in the Grosse Pointe area; a new maternity section; a new emergency department; and two new operating rooms. The bed capacity is doubled.

As enlarged and equipped, the new Bon Secours Hospital qualifies for recognition by the American College of Surgeons. This will permit it to build a staff of internes and resident doctors, which it has been unable to do until now.

The Bon Secours Hospital is completely self-sustaining, depending for its existence upon fees and charges collected from patients and upon the generosity of private individuals. It does not receive money from the United Foundation, Greater Detroit Hospital Fund, the city, state or county.

Governor Williams was present at the Bridge of Honor Saturday evening at the Edison Boat Club to pass out honors to Sea Scout Ship 690, which is sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club. Postpone Hearing on City Charter

The Circuit Court hearing scheduled for February 9 on the validity of the Merit System as established in the new City of Grosse Pointe Park charter has been postponed.

The hearing will be conducted on Friday, February 16, pending the completion of a current case before Judge Robert M. Toms, a Circuit Court spokesman told a Grosse Pointe Review reporter Wednesday afternoon.

Norman T. Bohrer, of 1230 Lakepointe, and Marvin L. Viger, of 987 Nottingham, in their case claim the Merit System is "invalid, void, illegal and unconstitutional" since a Civil Service program was already in use and had been established through legislative channels by voters in 1937.

Until the charter went into effect on December 14, 1950, members of the Grosse Pointe Park fire department were under the jurisdiction of Civil Service.

Farms Building Half Million in January

Permits for buildings valued at $524,000 were issued during the month of January in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Murray M. Smith, Farms City Engineer reported that 21 of the permits issued were for residences which would cost approximately $516,000.

Open Bids on New Garage

Bids for the proposed Public Works garage in Grosse Pointe Farms will be considered at a meeting of the Council on Monday, February 26.

Air Patrol Forms Training Squadron

An organization which earned its laurels in World War II began to hold weekly meetings at Grosse Pointe High School on January 11.

Every Thursday at 7:30 p.m., Civil Air Patrol cadets meet at the high school for a training session. Members range from 14 to 18 years of age.

Classes in civil defense and aerobatics are taught by well qualified men. Cadets occasionally get actual flying experience in the Piper Cub owned by several of the members.

Each summer the Air Force sponsors a two week encampment for CAP personnel. Last summer the boys trained at the Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio.

The most recent pursuit to CAP's was an extensive course in meteorology taught by Captain Santilli, and Air Force Navigator and CAA instructor.

Fire Causes $1,000 Loss

Smoke and fire damage mounted to over $1,000 before the blaze at the George L. Guidmond residence at 1838 Hawthorne was arrested Wednesday evening.

Cease Standby Service

A contract offering emergency standby service by the Detroit Fire Department at $1,000 per year was turned down flatly by the City of Grosse Pointe Park Council at their meeting Monday night.

The new contract was offered to 38 municipalities by the Detroit Fire Department this year. Elyse and Hamtramck are the only communities to date believed to have responded to Detroit's offer.

In addition to the thousand dollar fee, Detroit asked $100 for the first hour each piece of equipment was put into service and $75 per hour for each piece after that.

Chief Edward Rector of the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Department stated that the five Grosse Pointe fire departments have a mutual understanding should any emergencies arise.

In past years, Rector said, Grosse Pointe Park covered the area on the west side of Wayne and Barrington and in return Detroit rendered emergency service to fires which occurred up to the west side of Lakepointe.

Rector added: "We are certain that through the co-operation of all the Pointe fire departments, that residents will have adequate protection."

In the case of a Civilian Defense emergency, there will be no boundary limits, he said.

Icy Pavement Causes Five Car Smashup

Five autos, including a Grosse Pointe Farms police scout car, were involved in a freak accident early Tuesday morning on an icy stretch along Lake Shore road.

As William Stockard, 456 Calvin, was making a right turn from Kerby road into Lake Shore, his vehicle collided with a car driven by Mrs. Geneva Wells, of St. Clair Shores.

As Patrolman Joseph Miller was reporting the accident, his scout car was struck in the rear by Joseph Simon, of 2446 Fischer, Detroit.

Simon's auto slid to the center of the street and into the path of an approaching vehicle driven by James E. Salmon, of East Detroit.

The drivers were uninjured.

Otto Wismer Dies on Cruise Ship

Otto G. Wismer, 59, chairman of the Bankers' Equitable Trust Co. and prominent Detroit financier, died aboard a cruise ship Friday in the Atlantic, two days out of Rio de Janeiro.

His son, air force Lt. Fred Wismer, learned of the death via cablegram.

Mr. Wismer had been in general good health, members of his family said. They assumed he suffered a heart attack.

EMBARKEED JAN. 9 He and his wife, Adelaide, embarked on the South American cruise Jan. 9 and were en route home. The family residence is at 456 University, Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Wismer was made chairman of Bankers' Equitable in 1948 when that firm was formed through the merger of the Bankers' Trust Co. and Equitable Trust Co. For 17 years before that Mr. Wismer was chief executive officer of Bankers' Trust.

HEADED RATION BOARD He was an officer of several other Detroit financial institutions. He was president of Bond-

Project Favors Off-Street Areas, Time Zone Limit

The proposed parking plan for the Kercheval shopping area in the City of Grosse Pointe met the general approval of the public at a hearing February 7 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Representatives of a dozen business establishments in the area attended the meeting which was conducted by City Councilman John Kenower, Chairman of the Parking Authority.

In general, the plan calls for overall parking facilities for 600 vehicles. Emphasis was placed on a parking zone for employees in the neighborhood.

Norbert P. Neff, Clerk in the City of Grosse Pointe, stated, "By actual count over 200 persons who work in the 'Village' drive their cars regularly to work. We feel that an all-day parking area for these employees will be a very important part of the project."

Oscar Gunderson and John Dobelek, Traffic Engineers, were present at the meeting to explain the details of the proposed plan.

They said much of the parking area would include off-street lots where limited parking restrictions would be enforced.

Many of the parking areas will be located at the rear of existing business places.

One of the features of the master parking plan in the Village would be graduated time zone traffic control. It was pointed out at the meeting that in certain areas the demand for parking space could be supplied by establishing time limits on parking.

Thomas Hanson, an engineer from Mason L. Brown and Sons Co., and Norbert Neff have been assigned the task of preparing estimates for the City on the cost of improving certain properties which could be leased for parking areas.

The first contract has already been let for the first municipally owned area. It is located near St. Clair on the north side of Kercheval. The work will be completed in May, weather permitting, Neff stated.

Auditor Election on Monday

The electors of Grosse Pointe will go to the polls Monday, February 19 to elect a County Auditor. Voting booths will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Democrat Jacob P. Sumeracki, 715 Balfour, is seeking re-election to the county post.

Others in the race are Republicans Joseph F. Bruzy, Albert E. Fry and William A. Lau.

Democrats on the ballot include James F. Hayes, James McNamara, Robert E. Murphy, Jr. and Thomas A. Ralston.

Clerk William G. Stamman of Grosse Pointe Park said that the 15 precincts formerly operated by the township would be open in their regular locations.

Rotary Gives Diamond Pins

In a special ceremony at the regular Grosse Pointe Rotary Club Meeting this week diamond pins were awarded to two Rotarians for their regular attendance records.

Dr. Norman Bonney, who is a charter member of the Grosse Pointe Club, received his award for having a perfect attendance for ten years.

For five years of perfect attendance the pin was awarded to Reverend Andrew Rauth, Pastor of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

In Rotary special emphasis is placed on attendance at meetings, and the winning of diamond pins for this achievement is considered quite an honor.

Sea Scouts Honored by Governor Williams

The attendance of Governor G. Mennen Williams at the First Annual Council Bridge of Honor and Ball for Sea Scout Ships of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America held special significance for Grosse Pointe Ship 690.

Young men who received their Apprentice Seaman rank were: Von Allmen.

The presentation of five "Long Cruise" badges to Arnold J. Diesing, George Cope, Wayne Von Allmen, William Wilson and Jack Graham was personally made by Governor Williams, who shook hands with each recipient.

The Governor spoke briefly on the importance of the Scout movement and commended the fine leadership the boys were receiving.

Grosse Pointe Sea Scouts Ship 690, under the direction of Werner Von Allmen, Chairman; Daniel Vinci, Skipper; Daniel Vinci, Mate, had the largest representation with fifteen Scouts in Grosse Pointe.

The Ship is sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club.

Student Panel to be Heard at Library

Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will hear a discussion of library service from a panel of high school students at the next meeting to be held on Tuesday, February 27, at 8:30 p.m. in the Main Library.

Students representing Grosse Pointe High, Country Day, DUS, St. Paul's, and St. Ambrose have been invited to participate, together with representatives of the Grosse Pointe High School Library and the Public Library.

The program is designed to let the students themselves say what they like and what they don't like about library service in Grosse Pointe.

The Friends feel that the high school point of view is a very important one and that the students should contribute some valuable criticisms and recommendations.

Everyone interested is invited by the Friends to be present and to participate in the discussion.

Donald Shaw Army Recruit

Donald Shaw, 20, a June, 1950 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School enlisted in the Army in January and has been sent to Fort Sheridan, Illinois.

Shaw was a star football player in High School and received All-State mention.

He also participated in track events and competed in a high school meet at East Lansing.

The recruit is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Shaw, of 887 Beaconsfield.

Nice Trick if You Can Do It!

Library Spotlight

By Jean Taylor

"So you have been to a convention! And what," said the kindly gentleman with eyebrow slightly raised, "do librarians do at a convention?"

"Well... we have never attended a gathering of the Elks, the Knights of Pythias or a political round-up of the legion but Elks are people, the Knights of Pythias are people and librarians too, are people... so... our guess is that a convention is the same in any man's language.

There is some work; there is some play. We sit through the occasional boring hour and groan "Why conventions?" But before this idea has a chance to crystallize, the picture changes.

We are plunged into a battle of wits... new ideas are bandied about in prodigious fashion and we find ourselves being thoroughly dusted off.

We decide conventions are stimulating after all. At this point, whom should we run across but our old friend Bill whom we haven't seen in years.

His hair is thinner and he has put on some weight but when he looks at me he says "Bill, this and are away to the races. Did we say we were again conventions? Of course not... we're for 'em one hundred per cent!"

ONE OF 1,500 privileged librarians from all points of the compass to attend the Midwinter convention of the American Library Association in Chicago last week, we returned with abundant enthusiasm for our chosen job.

With the mercury at 15 below, it was well named midwinter, as opposed to the larger annual convention held each year in the early summer.

What is the American Library Association and what does it do? It was organized in 1876 and now celebrates its 75th anniversary. It is an international organization of over 1,500 librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries.

The association acts as a clearing house for public libraries, school, college, hospital, prison, business and special libraries as well as for library schools throughout the country.

The association is concerned too with the operation of American libraries in foreign countries.

AS A LIBRARIAN, we are always interested in the distribution of books whether at home or abroad and we are particularly enthusiastic about the recently ren's Book Fund program.

Designed to promote understanding among the children of the world this program was developed cooperatively by the American Library Association, The National Congress of Parents and Teachers and The Association for Childhood Education.

The Care-Unesco Children's Book Fund solicits contributions to provide new books to be sent to schools, libraries, orphanages and other institutions serving young people overseas, so that they may have a true picture of America.

Please note that it is the money to buy books and not the books themselves that is requested. This money is then used to the best advantage to buy carefully selected titles.

The books are packaged in units, priced at $10 each. Five units comprise a Book Shelf, of which there are two types. Shelf A, picture books for young children, Shelf B, books written for older boys and girls who are learning English as a second language. It is our hope that a committee to advance this worthwhile program may be formed in Grosse Pointe soon. As plans progress this column will have additional information on the Care-Unesco Children's Book Fund.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Carol Easton, scribe of troop 848 of Parcels School, says her troop has just completed "My Community Badge." They visited the library and the Grosse Pointe Woods Community House and had talks given by men from the sanitation department and the Board of Education. These girls enjoyed a tobogganing party on Cooke Road recently.

Judy Westphal entertained her troop—703—with dancing and refreshments at her home, after a sleigh-ride at Findlay's riding stable. Each girl had a boy as her guest.

Seven mariners of Mrs. Roeglin's troop 301 became 1st class scouts recently—Joanne Hargis, Millicent Rowe, Nancy Ryan, Lorraine Schroeder, Nancy Seydler, Audrey Sneiger and Carol Vestal.

Brownie Scouts of troop 777 at Maire School had a treat the last week in January in the form of an interesting trip through the Grosse Pointe Florist's place on Kerby Road.

Mr. Farquhar conducted the girls through his greenhouse, identifying and explaining characteristics of the different plants and flowers.

On leaving, each was presented with a potted grape-hyacinth and told how to care for it. Mrs. John B. Palmer, Mrs. N. Bennett and Mrs. L. I. Ruby provided the transportation. Mrs. E. Beeman, Mrs. C. Taylor and Mrs. F. Verbeke are the troop's leaders.

Brownie troop 612 of Mason School invested the following girls on January 31: Jean Hohenstein, Ann McLaughlin, Susan Kernjack, Cathy Wilkie, Mary Ann Wrigley, Nancy Smith. Year

Pendants were presented to Regina Britton, Sandra Craig, Kathy Eyre, Beth Hiller, Karen Lancaster and Nancy Mizer.

Mrs. Winston Lancaster and Mrs. Wm. Shealy are leaders of this troop.

A wonderful winter week-end was spent at Camp Metamora from January 26 to 28 with ice skating, tobogganing and skiing. The lucky scouts were from troops 327 and 799 of Brownell Junior High, with Mrs. Arthur Koelbel, Mrs. Marvin Ortwine, Mrs. C. R. Sutton and Mrs. L. Orebaugh chaperoning.

Michigan Mirror

Following a series of visits to Washington by Governor Williams and his executive secretary, Larry Ferrell, a State Defense Production Council has been formed. In theory it will do for production what the Defense Council does for defense preparation.

Actually this new organization is designed to help channel defense contracts into Michigan, to keep everyone working during conversion—and to take care of the little industry. It's too young to predict its success.

But Williams' attempts to bring production to Michigan has gained a bit of attention in Washington. Observers there feel he is taking a bold (and commendable) step in overtly campaigning for national business.

This doesn't mean he is looked upon with any more favor so far as the vice-presidency is concerned. Our national politicians still look upon Williams' campaigning as "juvenile and childish." But they also look right in the teeth of his reelection—with a Republican cabinet.

MICHIGAN'S DEER HERDS have been fortunate this year. While the annual kill is expected to be up this year because of deep snow (and the subsequent loss of forage) periodical snows have kept the toll below the danger point. In 1947-48 more than 100,000 of the animals starved.

Michigan produced minerals valued at $277,000,000 in 1949—second highest production year recorded. It was three percent less than the 1948 all-time high. Iron and copper accounted for more than 31 percent of the production valuation.

Newspapers all over the state have been shocked recently by a series of juvenile crimes. It is popularly thought that during periods of war and stress this type of crime increases. But what can be done to prevent such outbreaks? The pendulum now is on the upswing.

Michigan budget parers, looking frantically about, have seized on one bone on which they can chew—the state colleges. Michigan State College and the University of Michigan have asked a total of $18,000,000. Conservative estimates figure at least $3,000,000 will be lopped off.

But the U. of M. will get its new medical center and possibly M. S. C. will be given a library since that money comes under capital outlay and not the general appropriation.

WITH DEFENSE ORDERS tightening the automobile market, officials are predicting car shortages in six months. That is, of course, if the present trend toward defense production continues.

Michigan's 114 bureaus, long the target for pungent remarks, have been referred to lately as

by Dr. Arthur M. Majester, O.D.

The very small lenses in the glasses worn by George Washington gave only partial correction at the center. How our First President would have welcomed some of the modern lenses for their wide angle of vision and their perfect correction.

A hundred years ago such lenses as we use today would have been actually worth their weight in gold. Today the cost is insignificant.

Everyday you and I gaze upon the current photographs of famous men and women and look at people we meet every day, and wonder where they ever got such ridiculous looking glasses as they wear.

Years ago, these glasses may have been in style, but today, moreover it is not necessary to have glasses of this type. In our offices we have hundreds of styles, sizes and colors in frames to choose from.

The modern laboratories and DR. MAJESTER manufacturers of optical supplies are devising frames and lenses that actually add to the look of distinction and the real beauty of those who wear them.

We have seen many a face that would be materially enchanted in its appearance and attractiveness if suitable glasses were provided.

fact became evident last Saturday when Gen. Lester C. Maitland, Michigan Civil Defense director, met with about two score Civil Defense directors in the metropolitan area for an emergency feeding demonstration.

The demonstration followed the stockpiling of some 2,000,000 paper cups and containers for disaster use only by the Paper Cup & Container Institute. The paper service is being stockpiled without cost to the State by 16 paper manufacturing companies in the Institute.

Use of paper service is essential, of course, when bombs knock out water and gas supplies for dishwashing, hospital, restaurants, and hotels are left helpless in such emergencies after their dishes have been used once.

The fourth annual observance of National Crime Prevention Week will be held February 18-24, it was announced today by C. Reid Berkey, president of the Exchange Club of Detroit, which will sponsor the event here.

"Crime—Treason's Ally" has been selected as the slogan for this year's campaign to alert the public to the need for year-around crime prevention efforts, Mr. Berkey said. As the slogan indicates, emphasis will be placed on aid and comfort which crime gives to America's enemies.

Rabaut Announces Advance of Funds for Detroit Bulding

Rep. Louis C. Rabaut this week announced that the Community Facilities Service of the Housing and Home Finance Agency has made an advance of $300,000 to the Detroit-Wayne Joint Building Authority for the completion of detailed construction plans for the proposed City-County Building in Detroit.

The advance was made under a law passed by Congress in 1949 to provide for the advance planning of public works.

In May, 1950, $150,000 was made available for preliminary planning, and, at that time, the Federal Government committed itself to pay the cost of the detailed planning now to be completed.

"The purpose of this legislation," said Rabaut, "was to provide a backlog of well-planned public works to be implemented during recessionary economic periods.

"By the development of the Korean situation and the tightening manpower and materials market, this idea has been ordered to a large extent and the federal government has made wholesale cutbacks in approving these projects."

Rabaut said the cutbacks would not affect the Detroit-Wayne Project because of the prior commitment.

He added, however, that "This construction will relieve the acute shortage of office space in the Detroit area and make available to military authorities facilities now occupied by branches of our local government that have spilled out of the ancient City Hall and the overcrowded County Building.

"This is not a federal hand-out proposal," Rabaut said, "because as soon as it begins construction on the project, the Detroit-Wayne County Joint Building Authority must, under the law, immediately reimburse the federal government for the planning advances."

Broadway Manager Lends Talents to Local Show

Once a play goes into dress rehearsal the stage manager reigns supreme! For its next-week presentation of "Ten Little Indians," Wednesday and Thursday, February 21 and 22, in the High School Auditorium, the Grosse Pointe Theatre is fortunate in having a stage manager with a wealth of professional experience.

Mrs. William L. Yeager, who has been a teacher at DUS and Country Day since 1947, is officiating as stage manager of the production.

A graduate of Sarah Lawrence, she went to New York immediately after finishing college and enjoyed a series of interesting assignments up and down the great White Way!

For a while Mrs. Yeager assisted scene designer Cleon Throckmorton and Jo Melziner. Then, followed the job of stage manager of the WPA Opera Company, which produced such ambitious vehicles as "Tales of Hoffman" and "Carmen."

She was also technical director of Ballet Theatre, stage manager of a short-lived Broadway show, "To See Ourselves," and secretary to conductor-composer-singer Robert McArthur Crawford. Perhaps the most thrilling period of all was, however, the three months Mrs. Yeager spent as assistant stage manager of Helen Hayes' "Victoria Regina" company on Broadway.

Mrs. Yeager, who has attended almost all the "Ten Little Indians" rehearsals and has been a good right hand to director Louise Candler, has the responsibility, during dress rehearsals and the actual productions, of coordinating all on-stage and backstage activity, lighting, properties, sound effects, curtains.

Mrs. Fisher Resumes Post with Red Feather Service

Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., 5 Lake Court, was re-elected vice-chairman of the Community Chest Women's Committee at its recent annual meeting at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Mrs. Fisher will continue in her leadership of a group of almost 7,000 women who are interested in the operations of the 125 Red Feather services. The Women's Committee was begun 16 years ago when it was discovered that citizens of Metropolitan Detroit were interested in knowing more of the services which are given year-round by the Community Chest agencies.

Red Feather services encompass child welfare agencies, family welfare agencies, health services, recreation centers and youth organizations.

The Women's Committee is instrumental in the operation of the Tribute Fund, which is supported by private donations of Detroiters in memory of a friend or relative or to celebrate a birthday. The Fund is used to buy needed equipment for less fortunate people when established social agencies do not have the funds for it. The Women's Committee also advises the School Program on Community Services, an educational program in public, private and parochial schools. Flyers Win Over Hoosiers Puts Team in Second Place

By HANS VON BEERNTHAL

Last Friday night at the Neighborhood Club Coach Eddie Lauer's St. Paul basketball squad took its seventh victory of the season from a slower St. Catherine five.

It was a close and heated contest all the way. In the first half the Flyers outshot the Hoosiers by a slim 25-22 score. But in the third quarter, St. Catherine deadlocked the score at 37, with a couple of fast baskets by Mickey Martin.

However the Flyers, urged on

The opener at 8:30 p.m. will see Al Warshawski in action against Johnny (Rough-and-Ready) Gates.

Middies Shrinking

The Grosse Pointe Club Bowling League will start its third and final round tomorrow night and if we can judge by what has happened in the past, the Middies won't be around to receive the plaudits offered the winner at the close of the season.

Last year, eighth place P and J Cocktail Lounge won out in a may round ruck and who knows, maybe Motor City Tires will repeat the act this year; they're plenty strong, although the standings don't show them to be.

They'll have their chance tomorrow night to start something as they bowl Middle All Transp. Co.

Middle Atl. Transp. Co. had their hands full trying to beat last place Kopp's Pharmacy last week. The Middies came through by taking the opener but petered out in the next two. They did manage to take total pinfall and split with Kopp's.

Her mother's family were early settlers of Sarnia, Ontario, and came originally from the Province of Quebec.

Deeply rooted as she is in Michigan and Canada, it is only natural that Miss Howard turns to the old days of the Wolverine State for her stories.

She is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and returned there for her master's degree in history.

Her first novel, "Sabina," was published in 1941, and was followed by "Adventure for Alison," "Dorinda," "Summer Under Sail," and "North Wind Blows Free."

In "Peddler's Girl" Miss Howard is writing on a subject that has fascinated her for some time—life on the road in those expansive days when whole families pulled up stakes and journeyed westward.

The little group in this story centers around the itinerant ped-

Elizabeth Howard, of Grosse Pointe, will have her sixth novel for young people, "Peddler's Girl," published by William Morrow and Company, New York, on February 28.

It is the love story of a young Detroit society girl of a century ago who shocked most of her relatives and friends by leaving her home to travel over the countryside in her uncle's peddler's wagon and who fell in love with an itinerant artist on the journey.

Miss Howard is a native of Detroit, and her father's family has lived in the city for nearly a century and a half, since they came by wagon and schooner from New England and New York State.

Attending from Grosse Pointe will be Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, Mrs. Sidney C. Probert and Mrs. E. J. Savage.

Luncheon at 12:30 o'clock will be followed by the meeting, over which the new state president, Mrs. Marvin L. Hoagland, will preside.

Mrs. Albert E. Stewart will give a book review.

Reservations should reach Mrs. McKittrick by noon, February 19.

Orientation activities are under way for approximately 200 freshmen, including three Pointers, who were admitted to the University of Michigan for the Spring semester starting February 12.

The localities are Wanda Michaels, 404 Manor Road, James Judson Schoeck, 237 Chalfonte, and Donald William Jones, 447 McKinley.
