Baseball Bat Hurts Visitor

Linda Swartzberg, 8 years old, of 9238 Bedford road, was injured while playing ball when she was accidentally struck on the forehead with a bat, Grosse Pointe Woods police reported.

Summer School Session Registrations to Begin

The Board of Education will offer a six-weeks summer school session instead of the former eight-weeks period so that classes will not interfere with family vacations as has happened in previous years.

hunters, jumpers, will judge these two categories at the Grosse Pointe event.

Mr. Wadsworth, generally considered tops in his field, has officiated at almost every big national show, handling as many as 45 and 50 a year.

L. R. Duncan of Bowling Green, Kentucky, who has agreed to judge the saddle and harness classes, has handled the same assignment at such big-time shows as Louisville, Lexington, Kansas City Royal, World's Fair Horse Show in San Francisco, Devon and the Garden.

Mr. Duncan, affectionately known throughout the saddle horse world as "Dick" Duncan, is also a member of the American Horse Shows Association rules committee, this time on saddle and harness horses.

The much-sought-after Theodore E. Buell, executive secretary of the American Horse Shows Association, will preside at the Grosse Pointe microphone.

The very nature of Mr. Buell's position gives him an easy familiarity with horse lore and horse show rules which will be most helpful to the neophyte show-goer.

C. Arthur Searle has been named Ring Master and Ernest C. Putnam will be the steward representing the American Horse Shows Association at the event.

Chairman Dowling is being assisted by the following Hunt Club members: exhibitors' welfare, Joseph A. Vance, Jr.; house, Dr. Arthur W. Kritz; entertainment and program advertising, W. Mulford; printing, Jack Wilderman and Walter Stewart.

Records show that students get better marks during the summer session than they do during the regular semester although the same standards are maintained.

Congratulations GRADUATES

Highlighting the activities in the Grosse Pointe area this week are graduation exercises at all local schools. Elsewhere in today's issue of the Review are listed local merchants who are cooperating in wishing these young men and women graduates the best of health, happiness and success as they go forth to face the future.

Michigan Stars Vie For Fencing Titles

The Neighborhood Club will be filled with fencers battling with foils, sabres, and epees, for eight solid days, June 16th through 23rd, when the National Fencing Championships are decided here that week.

Champions from all over the country will invade Grosse Pointe to compete in the contest. This will be the first time that Michigan has ever been host to the Nationals, and this event is one of the official sports features of Detroit's 250th Birthday Festival.

The sport of fencing is no stranger to the Neighborhood Club for it has had an enthusiastic fencing group for many years. Several of the club's stars will be seen in action in this National Tournament where they will be representing Michigan.

Gregory Flynn, Jr., the State Epee Champion, is chief among the Neighborhood Club's representatives who will be competing. Greg has won the State Epee Crown more than any other fencer with four titles to his credit, and has captured the Midwest Epee Championship twice. In 1944 Flynn was runner-up in the National Epee championships at New York, his best effort to date.

Richard Wegert, newcomer on the fencing scene will be the third Neighborhood Club representative. Dick will fence epee in the team and individuals, and in the 3 weapon team competition.

Byron Krieger, current State Sabre Champion and Midwest Foil and Sabre titleholder, has won a combined total of 35 State and Midwest crowns in the three weapons. Byron was a member of the 1951 U. S. Pan American Team that competed

Medical Kit Robberies Continue

In spite of the warning issued last week by Grosse Pointe police, the theft of doctors' medical kits continues.

A Grosse Pointe Park doctor reported the theft of his medical bag from his automobile last Sunday.

This marks the sixth such robbery reported within the past few weeks.

Grosse Pointe police last week asked the cooperation of all doctors in this area in thwarting the attempts of persons who may be taking the bags in hopes of finding narcotics. Police urge doctors to remove their kits from automobiles at all times.

Ambulance Replaced In Farms

The "black maria" patrol type ambulance which has served Grosse Pointe Farms for approximately 12 years was replaced this week by a new ambulance.

The new ambulance, placed in service this past week, will be assigned to the Fire Department for driver and rescuator work.

Both Police and Fire Departments will work cooperatively for fast service in case of emergencies.

Included in the list of boys attending Catholic parochial schools who have received the Don McCullagh Safety Patrol Award are three from this area.

They are James Almond, of 1600 Beaconsfield, who attends St. Jude's School.

Governor G. Mennen Williams heads the honorary committee of the Don McCullagh Safety Patrol Award with Mayor Albert E. Cobo.

On the committee on awards are Herman J. Browe, Rev. Carroll F. Deady, S. J. Roth, Gordon C. Graham, James B. Kennedy, Hon. John D. Watts, Hon. Geo. T. Murphy, George F. Boos, Sanford W. Shoultz and Donald Slutz.

Cub Scout Pack Gets Charter

Newly-formed St. Paul Cub Scout Pack 61 was formally presented with their charter at the monthly pack meeting held Tuesday evening, June 5, in St. Paul's School gymnasium.

Edwin Groshko, Cubmaster, representing Akela, presented Bobcat pins and Cub insignia to Matthew Kubitsky, Terrence McDonald, Peter Whyte, Louis Zimmerman, Edmund Brady and George Haggerty in an Indian induction ceremony.

Graduates Make Plans For College

"Hail to the victors valiant, hail to the conquering heroes..." and "Green and white, fight, fight..." These lines now arouse a special glow for the members of this June's graduating class at Grosse Pointe High School who are planning to attend the University of Michigan and Michigan State College.

It would take a complete trip around the country, to spot the places where the rest of the 235 members of the class of June '51 will be in college. In the east, will probably be Tom Lamb at Yale, Sam Armstrong at Union, and Jack Westphal and John Brabb at Dartmouth.

Moving westward and into Ohio, a traveller would come across Jim Davison at Ohio State, Grace Olert at Wooster College, and Bill Dettlinger at Kenyon College.

Next in line is Northwestern, which is to be the alma mater of Patti Jones, Tom Marick and Bob Morgan. Notre Dame isn't too far away, where Gene Marquette will be working busily. Close by will be Bambi Wigton and Susie Sharrer at De Pau.

Jumping up to the University of Missouri, one would stop in on Lincoln Godfrey, before hopping to Montana State College to see Marilyn Axford. Up in the north, too, will be Mary Ann Gibson at Carleton in Wisconsin.

One long step into sunny California and there will be John Mackenzie at Stanford.

Back in Michigan, just stop by Western Michigan, Central Michigan, Western College for Women, General Motors School, Alton Lawrence Tech, Michigan State Normal, or Ypsilanti State Normal, where regular Grosse Pointe reunions will be held.

Some aren't even budging that far. No. it's Wayne, U. of D. Marygrove, Business Institute, Mt. Carmel School of Nursing, Highland Park Junior College, and various other business and nursing schools.

Municipal Parks Show Many Improvements

Grosse Pointe is ready for summer with all its Municipal Parks either open or being readied for opening soon.

The water has been tested and found free of pollution.

The usual activities are planned for the Park's Municipal park. During the season, tennis tournaments, swimming, and life saving schools will be held.

The Council also approved the establishment of a concession at the Pier Park. Every precaution will be taken in the operation of the concession to preserve the club-like atmosphere of the area.

There was a considerable list of disappointed applicants, after the 127 boat mooring spaces were all assigned.

It is anticipated that the popularity of the Park will attract a great portion of the residents, said Mr. Furton, and we will find facilities overtaxed on many occasions.

All pier cards on applications this week. Many persons still had not applied for their permits and will be refused admittance at the gate.

Thursday, June 14, is the official opening day for the Grosse Pointe City Municipal Park.

Several improvements have been made, including a new building nearer the beach housing dressing rooms, locker rooms and toilet rooms.

In the picnic area new tables and two charcoal stoves have been installed. Swings and stainless steel chutes for the kiddies are in place, and construction of a steel bathing pier 140 feet long and 10 feet deep across the front of the present breakwall is expected to be completed shortly.

The Grosse Pointe Woods Park will have its official opening on June 16. The park will be open this Saturday and Sunday, also.

Improvements in the Woods park include the installation now under way of an additional 10,000 square feet of cement in the pool. Government restrictions on this type of work limited the outlay to $5,000. This restriction must be complied with for the present.

Two inches of new, clean lake sand has been installed in the portion not cemented.

Available in the picnic area are 47 picnic tables, and 25 grills. There are horseshoe pits, slides, sandboxes and swings, including baby swings.

According to Philip F. Allard, City Administrator, a five foot sidewalk and floodlights around the pool have been installed.

An additional drinking fountain with a tap for filling jugs, etc. has also been installed.

It is hoped that toilet facilities at the bathhouse will be ready in time for the official opening.

Resident passes have been issued. Mr. Allard has asked all Woods residents who have not already done so to stop at the City Clerk's office and fill out applications.

Graduation Exercises Scheduled

The class of June, 1951, at Grosse Pointe High School, will conclude its high school years with the commencement exercises next Thursday, June 14, at 8:15 o'clock on the high school lawn, as parents and friends look on.

The highlight of the program will be the discussion of "The Inevitability of Problems" by three members of the graduating class. Patti Jones will speak on "Recognition," Taylor Obold will discuss "Rectification," and Thomas Lamb will talk on "Results."

These three students were chosen to speak by their classmates and the faculty.

The Reverend Frederick H. Olert, the father of Grace Olert, a member of the graduating class, will give the invocation and the benediction.

Lois Jongens, also a member of the graduating class will sing a solo, "I Love You," by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein. Lois is a perfect-pitch soprano.

Mr. Walter R. Cleminson, principal of Grosse Pointe High School, will present the class and give the class honors and awards.

The new ambulance, placed in service this past week, will be assigned to the Fire Department for driver and rescuator work.

Both Police and Fire Departments will work cooperatively for fast service in case of emergencies.

Teacher at Center to Direct Dancers

Miss Olga Fricker, 22911 Gary Lane, has been chosen dance director and choreographer for Detroit's 250th birthday show, "City of Freedom."

The attractive blond dancer, whose appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra a few seasons ago endeared her to the city's balletomanes, will direct nearly 300 dancers. Miss Fricker stated that the dance sequences are being built around a nucleus of 28 professionals. About 250 talented amateurs will also take part in the show at the University of Detroit Stadium, July 13 through 23.

The dance groups will rehearse in their own auditorium using arrangements of the score and simulating the stage settings. They will supply their own direction for their type dance—tap, ballet and modern. Then a few days before the first performance all groups will meet for dress rehearsals.

Miss Fricker is a Canadian, born in Kitchener, Ontario. She has studied modern dance under Mary Wigman in Germany; ballet under Mary Skating of the Sadler's Wells Ballet and Kathleen Forbes of the Cecchetti School.

Upon her arrival in Detroit, after two seasons of concert work in Canada, Miss Fricker joined the Jessie Bonstelle School. She served six years as associate teacher to Victoria Cassan and

Mr. Harold Strong, director of Children's Village at Dobbs Ferry, will be the principal speaker. All persons who have been instrumental in the establishment of the orphanage are expected to attend.

Tea will be served from 4 to 8.

On Friday night at 7 o'clock a charity show sponsored in part by the Northeast Lions Club will be given at the home. A feature of the show will be an animal act with a trained Brahma bull.

John B. Martin of Grand Rapids, state auditor general, has revealed his candidacy for the senate seat recently vacated by the late Arthur H. Vandenberg. It was no surprise. The big G.O.P. battle for nomination to the chair, now occupied by Williams' appointee, Blair Moody, is expected to be between Martin and Arthur Vandenberg, Jr., son of the famous bi-partisan policy supporter.

Vandenberg has the name but Martin for a year has been dropping not too subtle hints concerning the job and may pack more power than is expected. Young Vandenberg was his father's secretary and undoubtedly will use "experience" as the backbone of his campaign—if he runs.

There is no reason to assume he won't enter the race.

Meanwhile, Democrat Moody is allowing no moss to grow on his new senatorial shoes. Invading Grand Rapids itself (evidence of where G.O.P. opposition to him will stem) the new senator advocated restoration of unity on the same bi-partisan policy pioneered by the late senator.

A Washington reporter for many years, Moody knows politics inside out.

A movement to eliminate the last minute legislative jam which again has featured the state legislature's 1951 session has been launched by Speaker Victor A. Knox of Sault Ste. Marie, sparked off by Rep. Louis C. Cramton of Lapeer. Reform proposals: All bills must be introduced by March 1; each committee must act on bills within 30 days; additional compensation for members of the House and Senate Finance committee for budget hearings prior to convening of the legislature. Cramton favors a 90-day legislative session. Indiana legislators do the job in 60 days.

It is expected that the 1952 legislature will be asked to appropriate funds for a long-term program to erect roadside markers to designate Michigan's historic sites and geographic features.

The request will be but one of many similar ones. Latest grab bag is the $65,000,000 approved last fall to improve mental and tuberculosis hospitals. Counties have been standing in line to get on the gravy train. How far will $65,000,000 go?

Already bids on six projects in the state are $1,484,500 over funds appropriated for the jobs. Contracts are being held up pending word from the legislature concerning additional financing.

A new state office building may be nearer than we think. State administrative board has ordered vacating of homes on the site of the new structure—just west of the capitol building. It is expected to cost $5,000,000.

In 1950 the nation had 25,103 medical students enrolled—101 more than in 1949. Despite military demands the 72 four-year medical schools are continuing to accept only one of every 3.6 qualified students who apply.

Says Dr. Hugo Aach, Kalamazoo: "It seems today that all the institutions want is bigger and better buildings. I feel that what we need rather than more facilities is better use of the present ones and sounder judgment in choosing our medical students." He blames the A.M.A.

Unemployment insurance receipts hit a new high in Michigan in 1950. Insured workers in the state earned $6,077,697,743 during the year. Insurance benefits paid out in the entire nation last year was only $1,400,000,000.

Chuckle of the season is the comment of Chelsea farmer Hilarijan Bibicoff, who after attending a farm meeting in Ann Arbor returned the $7.50 paid him by the government for being present saying, "They didn't tell me anything I didn't already know."

OBITUARIES

Fred Brys, 58, died at his home, 1756 Brys drive last Tuesday, June 5, after a brief illness. Mr. Brys was born in Grosse Pointe and was a lifelong resident of the Pointe. He was one of the first officers of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Department, retiring in August of 1949.

Surviving are his wife, Hilda; three daughters, Florence, Patricia and Esther; four sons, Alfred, Edward, Marvin and Louis; two sisters, Mrs. Martha Vernier and Mrs. Natalie Post; a brother, Henry, and eight grandchildren. Services will be held at Verheydens Funeral Home, 16300 Mack at Outer Drive, Saturday at 8:15 and to St. Joan of Arc Church at 9. Rosary Friday evening. Burial will be at St. Paul's in Grosse Pointe.

Nippon Pursues the U.S. Dollar

"Japan will become the Switzerland of the far East" avows the Japanese Trade Bureau, and certainly Nippon is making a strong play for tourist business, using some very potent trumps in this travel game.

Before the war as many as 40,000 travellers visited Japan each year. Most of the sights they went to see are still there. Hotels suffered during the war, and many were taken over for a time by the occupation forces. Now, a string of hotels in the main resort areas have, and are being, refurbished, modernized, and are now doing business on the old basis. Present target is 100,000 a year.

Travel to Japan now is a comparatively easy thing — just 32 hours from the U. S. mainland via a luxury Strato-Cruiser operated by several major airlines. And although it's still an occupied country, the necessary permits and visas have been reduced to a painless minimum for the tourist.

Within Japan, the government travel bureau takes over. It has a list of packaged tours for the visitor, varying in length from two days to a month, depending on how well the traveler would like to see the land of the proverbial cherry blossom.

Tours range in cost from $33 to $450, and the cost includes everything but personal shopping—first class hotel rooms and meals, rail and bus fares, transfers, guide fees, and tips.

Nikko, not far from Tokyo and one of pre-war's best sightseeing areas is untouched by bombing. Here can be seen the best example of decorative art in Japanese architecture. There is also a sacred bridge at Nikko, the "God Bridge" which is used only by imperial messengers.

Dutch Elm Disease Must Be Controlled

Are the municipalities of all the Pointes going to sit idly by and let the dreaded DUTCH ELM DISEASE destroy the beauty of their fair cities or band together as one community to combat this deadly fungus that is destroying trees in Grosse Pointe.

True the cost may sound enormous, considering that in the past there has been no effective spray material to combat the bark beetle. However, at present a special spray of a high concentrate DDT has been designed to combat and control the beetle. To replace the trees, once they are destroyed would be far costlier than to control the disease NOW.

Once this fungus is established on an elm, there is no recourse except to cut the tree down. The fungus is known to be carried to other trees by the Elm Bark Beetle. This tiny insect (about 1/8" long) seems to prefer dead elm wood rather than good sound elm wood.

The adult female, a reddish black beetle, deposits eggs along a gallery in the sap wood. The small white larvae hatching from the eggs tunnel out at right angles to the main gallery. There are tiny holes visible in the bark when the adult beetles finally emerge.

The first essential step would seem to be a concentrated and combined effort on the part of the municipalities and residents to remove all dead wood from their elms. Definite steps should be taken to control the spread of the disease and preserve our stately and beautiful elms.

Although the high concentrate DDT has been found to be effective in combating and controlling the beetle, certain trees and shrubs are allergic to it, and suffer severe defoliation when contact is made with DDT. Competent tree surgeons can supply valuable information regarding this treatment.

Complete control should be established over this disease by some carefully prepared plan whereby trees on residential property and municipal boulevard trees are all sprayed, as well as carefully maintained. Take care of elms by proper feeding, pruning and spraying for other insects and disease. This will help to check the spread of Dutch elm disease.

The purpose is to break the cycle of the Dutch elm disease by lessening the breeding places for its carrier. For egg laying purposes bark beetles are attracted to elms weakened from any cause. The control of fungus diseases, leaf chewing insects, girdling roots or any of the many other tree weakening influences keep an area or property from attracting the disease carriers. A combined effort in the Pointes can and will control this dreaded Dutch elm disease.

This Is Fishing

Sparkle of sunlight on water, the lonely cry of a loon... pines, dark green against the sky, a sudden pelt of rain... solitude... good companions. Thoughts that drift slowly as pipe-smoke; day dreams cradled in the drumming of your outboard. This is fishing.

The feel of eternal things. The fierce joy of pitting hand and skill, not against a score or game, but against living, fighting, cunning. The feathered lure singing like a bullet in a perfect cast, the answering swirl of water, the savage tense NOW as the fish strikes... the screaming reel and tortured rod, the last long moment before victory. Primitive passions these, that purge all frustration.

Comradeship of the campfire; the hunger zest of the outdoors. The good smell of bacon and of hickory embers... wind in the balsams and the tale of the one that got away. And this is fishing.

Library Spotlight

By Jean Taylor

Which of today's books for children are worthy of note? The book evaluation committee of the Children's Library Association considers the following titles the most distinguished children's books of 1950, with text, illustrations and bookmaking considered. The list includes fare of wide interest range. There is something for every age, from the youngest to the almost grown-up.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN by Ingrid and Edgar G'Alaire. Illustrated by the authors. "Here is a simple but comprehensive picture story biography of the fun-loving boy who became one of our most versatile statesmen. Hand lithographed illustrations in gay colors and decorative page borders from "Poor Richard" enhance the liveliness and humor of the text."

DICK WHITTINGTON AND HIS CAT by Marcia Brown. Illustrated by the author. "Marcia Brown has brought to this perennial favorite a new freshness with her excellent retelling and distinguished illustrations."

GHANDI by Jeanette Eaton. "A sincere, well balanced wholly readable biography of the great spiritual and political leader. Good format and illustrations add to the book's attractiveness."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN by Genevieve Foster. Illustrated by the author. "Although written for younger children, this biography has a dignity and beauty of writing which, together with the illustrations, presents a full portrait of Lincoln."

FARM BOY by Douglas W. Gorsline. Illustrated by the author. The plot is convincing and exciting, and the descriptions of the countryside unusually lovely."

BETTER KNOWN AS JOHNNY APPLESEED by Mable Leigh Hunt. Illustrated by James Daugherty. "Scholarly research and story telling ability are united in this definite well-arranged Johnny Appleseed, which successfully distinguishes between fact and fiction."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN by Clara Ingram Judson. "A very human and skillfully narrated biography based on the most up-to-date and accurate sources and illustrated with kodachromes of the Chicago Historical Society Lincoln dioramas."

THE EGG TREE by Katherine Milhous. Illustrated by the author. "Pictures rich in design and color, combined with simple narrative, catch the spirit of the old Pennsylvania Dutch celebration of Easter in the story of a family's making an Easter Egg tree." Caldecott award winner for the best picture book of 1950.

SONG OF THE SEASONS by Addison Webb. Illustrated by Charles L. Ripper. "How the changing seasons affect the lives of the more familiar wild creatures is told with vividness and touches of humor. The beautiful illustrations have the photographic and dramatic qualities that appeal to children."

Mary J. Shaeffer Styles Bridal Gown

When Mary Jane Shaeffer exchanged marriage vows with Richard Gambel Knight, Jr., Saturday afternoon, she was wearing an ivory satin gown she designed.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marion Shaeffer, of Audubon road. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Knight, Sr., of York-shire road.

Mrs. Richard Knight, Jr.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Sheridan

Bride Wears Ivory Satin for Wedding

Nancy Marie Joos became the bride of Dr. Robert Bookmyer at a recent ceremony in St. Paul's Church.

Later, they greeted guests at a reception in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

When the newlyweds left for their wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., the bride was wearing a yellow gabardine suit with brown accessories.

Upon their return, they will make their home in the Hibbard Apartments on E. Jefferson Ave.

For the ceremony, the bride selected an ivory satin gown. It was fashioned with a yoke of Chantilly lace and a small round collar.

Two panels of the same lace accented the full skirt and the motif was repeated in the cathedral length train.

A small cap of matching lace and satin secured her fingertip veil. She carried an arrangement of lilies of the valley.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Joos, of Bishop road, asked Virginia Roney to be maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Sue O'Leary, Ann Leinweber, Mrs. Edward O'Leary and Bonnie Kistner.

All attendants wore ballerina dresses of white embroidered organdy.

They carried American beauty roses and wore matching velvet headresses.

Thomas Bookmyer assisted his brother as best man. They are the sons of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hugh Bookmyer, of Afton road.

The guests were ushered to their seats by Dr. Thad Joos, brother of the bride, James Rison, Peter Finn and John Emery, Jr.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Joos selected a gown of mauve chiffon trimmed with lace. Her matching hat was accented with forget-me-nots. Her flowers were green orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue organdy ensemble and a small matching velvet hat. Her flowers were white orchids.

New Officers Introduced at Luncheon

The Service Group of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held their annual social meeting at Plum Hollow Golf Club last Friday.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Gilbert K. Pulliam, the retiring chairman, introduced her successor, Mrs. R. E. Huetlich, who will lead the 40 members through the coming year.

One of the charitable and philanthropic projects of the group the past year was the presentation of six Picturescraft sets to Colonel Martin E. Griffin, commanding officer at Percy Jones Hospital, for the use of disabled servicemen there.

Hostesses for the June meeting was Mrs. Donald G. Robinson. Co-hostesses were Mrs. R. B. Gripman, Mrs. Don Homer, Mrs. Hubert Hartman, Mrs. John L. S. Scrymgeour, Mrs. Claire L. Straith and Mrs. E. G. Wemp.

The bridesmaids wore the same flowers in a lime shade. They were Mrs. Robert Ingham, Adelaide Klingbeil, Gretchen Riggs and Helen Hubbard.

The bridegroom asked Kenneth Franz to be best man.

The guests were ushered to their seats by Leon Alveraz, Robert Ingham, Richard O'Hara and Bruce Paxton and Walter Albrecht.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

When the newlyweds return from a two week motor trip through Northern Michigan, they will make their home on Bedford road.

Neighborhood Club News

After a week of postponements because of rain, the Neighborhood Club's Senior Fastball League got underway with the first full evening's schedule being played on Tuesday, May 29th.

Eastern Heating, last year's champion, opened with a decisive 8 to 3 victory over Onyx Bar. The Heaters jumped on pitcher Severs to score 3 runs in the first inning on a pass to Dillon and three straight hits by Morell, McLane and Huvsare. Then they put the game on ice in the fifth inning with another three-run barrage that sent Severs to the showers. McLane and Huvsare again lashed out clutch singles.

Last season's runner-up, Hudson A.A., came out on the short end of a 1 to 0 shut-out in the third inning to chalk up its initial victory of the season. With two out in the third, singles by DeBack and Argo put runners on first and third and a timely double by Piche scored DeBack with the only run of the game. That was all that pitcher Doug Sigfried needed as he set Hudson down with three hits.

Silver Boat Bar unleashed a ten-hit barrage which sank Paragon Bar 8 to 3, in the third game of the evening. Silver Boat was never in trouble after the first inning in which they scored two runs. They picked up four more in the third and topped off their evening's performance with two in the fifth.

In the only game played Monday evening, May 28th, Club L.A. scored a run in the last of the seventh inning to defeat Glenn Walker DeSota 2 to 1, in a pitcher's duel between Willis of Club L.A. and Joe Sind of Glenn Walker's.

Sind allowed only two hits and neither figured in the scoring. Errors put runners on second and third with two out and a bunt which pitcher Sind himself bobbled while trying to field allowed the winning run to cross the plate. The victory was the second of the season for Club L.A., as the previous week they drubbed Steiner Ford 10 to 5.

as the six teams of the league played their second game of the season last Thursday evening. Last year's champion Dart In Bar got off to a flying start with victories over Turner Buick 9 to 4 and Continental Aviation 19 to 9. La Salle Cafe lashed out 25 hits, including a double, triple and home run by Eddie Albert to trounce Southeastern Recreation 10 to 7 for their second victory without defeat.

Pointers Get Special Motor Aide Awards

Grosse Pointe residents were among those who received special service awards from the Red Feather Motor Aides at the annual meeting Tuesday (May 22) at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Among those receiving awards were Mrs. George Abbott, 328 Touraine; Elisabeth Cady, Parkhurst Apts.; Judge Neal Fitzgerald; Mrs. S. J. Fitzsimmons, Jr., 66 Stephens; Mrs. Ed T. Goodrich, 102 Handy; Mrs. J. R. Kennedy, 102 Handy; Mrs. C. M. Mabley, 83 Mapleton; Mrs. C. R. Verbiest, 1072 Balfour and Mrs. Eleanor Johnson Williams, 1317 Bishop.

Red Feather Motor Aides, who are a part of the Central Volunteer Bureau of the Council of Social Agencies, are volunteers giving their time and the use of their cars for the transportation of ill children and adults to and from clinics and hospitals. Without the help of the Red Feather Motor Aides many of the people could not continue their regular medical treatment.

Some of the people that the Motor Aides transport are children who are getting training and medical treatment which will help them become healthy and happy adults. Other of the patients are old people. All of the patients are worthy and need help.

The Red Feather Motor Aides are needed because these people have no other forms of transportation available. They cannot use public transportation. Their relatives have no cars and they do not have enough money to ride in taxi cabs.

Judge Neal Fitzgerald, Common Pleas Court, who is himself a Motor Aide, in telling of his experiences, said at the meeting that "it never occurred to me that there was a child in Detroit who had not ridden in an automobile."

"Because their families do not have cars some children find it an adventure to ride. They do not mind having their medical treatment—which is sometimes painful—because they can ride in a car."

"It is watching these little people develop which is one of the repayments for the hours that are spent as a Red Feather Motor Aide," the judge said.

Assignments are given to Motor Aides through the Central Volunteer Bureau. Social agencies who have clients who need transportation call the bureau in the Community Chest Bldg., 51 West Warren and the Motor Aide Committee assigns a driver to make the trip.

Motor Aides made 1,558 trips during 1950 and carried hundreds of patients.

Blue Hi-Y Pays Visit To Mackinac

By Bob Schaller

A gang of fifty-three Blue Hi-Yers journeyed to Mackinac Island last weekend, accompanied by leader Chet Sampson.

The group departed from the High School drive in seven station wagons immediately after school Friday.

The procession halted for the evening in the Hartwick Pines State Forest, Michigan's largest stand of virgin pine trees.

After eating breakfast at Cheboygan, the group took the early boat across the Straits of Mackinac to Mackinac Island.

The boys were very fortunate in being able to visit the Grand Hotel, for this is the earliest date it has ever been opened in the summer.

Some of the members sat in on sessions of the Oxford Group, a world-wide moral rearmament organization which was convening at the Grand Hotel for the weekend. There they met and talked to representatives from all over the world.

Well remembered was the bare-footed Indian who remarked about "this Michigan weather." (By the way, it rained most of the weekend!)

The boys spent most of their time hiking, cycling, visiting curio shops, ignoring the rain, and in general, having a rowdy good time!

Saturday evening, induction services were held for the fifteen new members in the Boy Scout lodge where the gang was parked for the night.

Sunday, the whole group stopped in Frankenthum for the big feed before they reached home. This was a weekend long to be remembered!

Marine Theme Marks Prom Decorations

By Jeanne Rydholm

Grosse Pointe High's Junior Prom, Class of June 1952 was held Saturday, May 19, in the boy's gym. The gym was transformed into an under water scene. Fish, corals and other sea fantasies bedecked the walls of "Deep Sea Drums," the theme of the prom.

The big attraction of the evening was the intermission entertainment. Gloria Anton sang two popular songs accompanied by Cynthia Netting at the piano. Carol Lovless and George Bashara directed prom antics as Molly Murphy, George's date, drew five names from a fish bowl, to select a Prom King and Queen.

Every couple present was entered and out of the five drawn a committee of judges (Bill Dettlinger, 12A, Dick Scalles, 11A, Don Button, 11A, and Tom Lister and Glenn Thompson also 11A's) picked George Parker and Hat Spalding, 11A's. They were crowned by Jeanne Rydholm, class vice-president, and Bill Jones, class treasurer. (Hat's crown was of pink carnations and sprays of lily of the valley.)

The four remaining girls were made the attendants of the queen's court. They were Laurie Smith, 11A, Irmgard Schlagel, 11A, Carol Lundgren, 11A, and Sandra Porter, 10A. They received small pansy corsages with gold streamers.

GPHS Grads Earn College Honor Marks

Thirty seven graduates of Grosse Pointe High School who entered college in 1950 earned honors marks in their first-semester college work. As freshmen in 18 different institutions, they attained a scholastic average of B or better.

They are: Marlene Hesse, Albin; Stuart Friesema, Alma; Suzanne Kilson, DuWayne Peterson, and Joan Wozniak, Demion; Lawrence Sullivan, Detroit Institute of Technology; Bruce Terris, Harvard; Robert Anslow, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Alan Robertson, Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

More are: Adele Huebner, Joan Rexford, Ford Slater, and Janet Weinheimer, Michigan State College; Lila Binney and Robert Hafer, Michigan State Normal College; Carolyn Bauer, John Chase, Glenn County, Harry Eason, Carleton Keith, John Redfield, Keneth Rice, Susan Riggs, Diane Schleicher, Donald Schmitz, and William Whittingham, University of Michigan.

Alice Schlaepfer, Oberlin; Janet Gregory, Betty Scales, and Armin Seiselard, Ohio Wesleyan; Richard Lowery, Purdue; Catherine Nebel, Rosary; Elizabeth Sutton, Stephens; Ronald Hutton, U. S. Merchant Marine College; Marion Orloff and Joy Perry, Wayne, and Peter Roll, Yale.

These 37 honor students were part of the group of 140 recommended graduates who entered 44 different colleges and universities as freshmen in 1950, including 65 boys and 75 girls.

The scholastic average for the entire group in their first-semester college work was 1.52 below points. This is a little better than the average for a B and a C. This is the highest average achieved by a beginning group since the number of graduates recommended by Grosse Pointe High School in a single year exceeded one hundred.

Of the marks awarded these 140 recommended graduates almost 50 per cent were A's and B's. Only 1 percent were E, or failure.

Taft School to Hold 61st Graduation

Taft School will hold its sixty-first annual Commencement Program Friday, June 8, at 11 A.M. in the Bingham Auditorium. Dr. Halford E. Luccock, Yale University, will deliver the Commencement Address. Prizes and diplomas will be awarded by Headmaster Paul Cruikshank.

The graduating class of ninety-six includes Henry Caulkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Caulkins, 552 Rivard boulevard; Dan Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, 266 Lewiston road; Peter Fink, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Fink, 69 Cloverly road; Henry Sheldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon, 16628 East Jefferson Avenue; Stephen Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Yates G. Smith, 854 Edgemont Park; and Cullen Sweeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sweeney, 122 Moran road.

THE CRADLE OF GOLF

Like all golfers in the world, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and countless others, hope to fulfill their ambition to play in the Amateur Championship on the world famous "Royal and Ancient" golf course in St. Andrews, Scotland.

For a town of some 8,000 inhabitants, St. Andrews is more than adequately served by its four public golf courses. These figures relate back to 1938, when the last public count took place, and should therefore be treated as strictly temporary.

"Every seventy years," a learned professor of Geology once told me, "the sea builds us a new golf course," which only goes to show just what a public concern the "Royal and Ancient" game can be.

The people of Scotland took to golf a long time ago. An eleventh century parish church window depicts two monks equipped with clubs. By the fifteenth century, the game had become so popular that the Scot's parliament was busy passing laws against excessive indulgence in it. Golf was now interfering with the practice of Archery; and King James IV had a continuous demand for skilled archers for his perpetual wars against England rather than for champion golfers.

It is the game which is "Royal and Ancient," not the St. Andrews Club, which was founded as late as 1754. Because of its distinguished past, and illustrious connections, the "R and A" is today widely accepted as the pre-eminent in the world of golf.

A caddy once described to me how the tournament is opened annually when the captain for the year drives his first ball off the tee. "All the caddies are lined up alongside the course," he explained, "and the first one to retrieve the captain's ball is rewarded with a golden sovereign." ($3)

He shook his head sadly. "When the Captain is a prominent man like the present King of England, who was elected in 1930, or the Duke of Windsor (then the Prince of Wales, in 1922) we find ourselves in a dilemma. Shall we stand far away to flatter the Captain, or closer in, for a better chance of the money?"

St. Andrew's is a beautiful city famous for its golf courses and also the home of Scotland's oldest University. It blends progressive ideas with centuries old tradition. For instance, women have been admitted to the University since before the present century, but even today, the Scottish Sunday holds sway in the grey city by the Northern Sea. No trains arrive in the railroad station on the Sabbath day, and there is no golf on St. Andrews most famous course.

In the words of a well known Scots golfer, "If the people need a rest, the course does. Yes, this is indeed the cradle of God."

St. Paul Hi-Lites

By DIANE ZEMPER

"Torch night ended our High School Days and started us down our separate ways."

This is what the Seniors are saying after last Friday evening, for now, at long last, their work and play in St. Paul High School is over, and they are starting out on their own. At the formal ceremony last Friday, June 1, each class took over a completely new job: the Frosh, now no longer Frosh, burned their greens, and thus became tenth graders; the Sophs, by accepting the blue and silver banner of the Juniors of '51, became the Juniors of '52.

The Juniors are now the leaders of the school, and the Seniors—they are now the graduating class of '51. The program itself was chaired by Carl Rauhen, with many noted speakers to grace the ceremony. Among these were Mr. Ross Roy, who delivered the address, Father Melvin, and students, Audrey Haley, James Keller, Dennis Furton, William Murphy, Connie Molitor, Bob Walker, Dolores Wise, Joe Meier, Bob Thurlie, Nancy Mason, Mike Sheehan, and Arlene Froehlich.

In spite of the late showers, the program went off without a hitch in plans, and everyone was completely and proudly satisfied with the results. And thus, one more of the looked-forward-to ceremonies is in the past.

Note: This wasn't printed last week, so here it is again— Again the St. Paul Flyers have come through to bring home another trophy to grace the trophy stand of their alma mater. Yes, the golf team definitely is a credit to St. Paul High, for at Kalamazoo last weekend, they won the state finals. Dick Gallagher, Harvey Divens, John Huettman, and Tom Pelkey made the jaunt for the weekend, and came back with a trophy and numerous individual medals. Congratulations, boys, you've really worked hard for your honor, and you deserve it!

Last week, the Senior girls were galivanting—this time to Theresa Lyford's in honor of one of their classmates. It was quite a group, including Judy Beaupre, Sally McCarron, Pat Yott, Catherine West, Audrey Haley, Joan Rabaut, Carolyn Lou, Celestine Blondell, Mary Lou Fisher, Mary Lou Cavanaugh, Joan Schwartz, who assembled beforehand in order to shout "Surprise!" to the

High School Squad Takes Fordson, 6-3

By BOB SCALLER

The Grosse Pointe High School baseball squad conquered the once-victorious Fordson aggregation 6-3 last Thursday on the Blue Devil's home field. The Tractors had defeated the Point, men 15-2 in an earlier contest.

Bill Winkler collected three hits for the Pointers to lead the team in batting. Pitcher Lou Hribar went all the way, giving only three hits to Tractor batsmen.

The Blue Devils marked up their first tally in the second inning.

Leadoff batter Winkler smashed a hard double between the fielders; Hagen then hit a hard smash through the shortstop's legs, allowing Winkler to score from second with ease.

After two were out in the bottom of the third, DiCicco singled sharply to left. Martin and Winkler followed with successive bingos to tie the score at two apiece.

The fourth was the big inning for the Devils. Nine men came to bat.

After two were out pitcher Hribar singled to center. Clancy then singled to right. Smith followed with a single to deep center, scoring both Hribar and Clancy. Smith advanced to third on an error by the centerfielder. DiCicco then singled to left scoring Smith.

At this point, Cyres replaced starting pitcher Greener. The reliever promptly hit Martin with a wild pitch. Winkler followed with his third straight hit of the game, scoring DiCicco. Hagen then grounded out to end the inning.

Grosse Pointe collected 6 runs on 9 hits. The Devils made 7 miscues.
