This date marks the day six years ago when the charter of the United Nations came into force. It is a day to recall the aims and achievements of the organization and to combine our efforts to realize its purpose.
Quantities of reading material which explain the history and services of the United Nations have been placed in all Grosse Pointe libraries where everyone may obtain copies to take home.

Scout Leaders Meet Today at Conference

Adult leaders of Explorer Scouts in District 3 will meet Thursday evening, October 18th at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 1950 Mack Avenue, to discuss Explorer activities for 1952.
Two questions will be put to the conference: (1) How many activities to undertake; and (2) What kind of activities to be selected. More than 150 advisors, Senior Crew Leaders, Secretaries, and other Explorer Representatives will be called to order by Mr. G. Sam Zilly, 380 Merriweather road, Grosse Pointe Farms, at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Zilly is a member of the District 3 Executive Committee, in charge of Boy Scout Advancement.
Last year's conference resulted in a very successful program, highlighted by a canoe trip down the Au Sable, an International Campout, and a Sportsmen's Outing.
One of the things to be discussed will be how to select the 20 fortunate Explorers for the opportunity to attend the Philmont Scout Reservation in New Mexico.

DEFENSE BOND DRIVE IS ON

The following is a message from General Matthew B. Ridgway: "I am a member of the United States Army. It has been my privilege to share service with your sons in battle in Korea. You can be proud of these men. Men from every walk of life and from every corner of America. I have seen them fight with indomitable courage. I have known their strength of soul and spirit. They deserve the best. If you support and serve them as they, in battle, protect, preserve and defend you, they will have the best. The best in arms, in clothing, in food, in equipment, the best of everything that will make their task easier by a little, for no one can make it easy in truth. You can make your support count by purchase of United States Defense Bonds."

Ford Congratulates Boy Scout Winners in Race

At a mass turnout of Grosse Pointe men, women and children Tuesday evening at a United Foundation torch-lighting rally on the High School grounds, Henry Ford II called personal sacrifices in home communities the best way to guarantee survival of freedom and personal liberties, as we know them in America. Mr. Ford reminded hundreds of Grosse Pointe neighbors that when a community or a city can't take care of its own local needs, a government agency steps in to take over the job for once and for all.
Mr. Ford called the United Foundation drive a "measuring stick" of community loyalty and pride, which is "simple to read and easy to understand." He predicted achievement of the U-F goal, based on the 100 per cent civic spirit which he believes exists.
The rally got off to a resounding start when Grosse Pointe High School band leader, D. D. Kalember, raised his baton at 7:15. Spirited music stirred the crowd's enthusiasm, while relay runners were warming up at their posts, two miles away.
Six relay teams, each made up of twelve Boy Scouts, raced to the giant torch at the corner of Grosse Pointe Boulevard and Fisher Road. The anchor runner of the winning team used the small torch-baton his team had carried to light the giant torch. Mr. Ford personally congratulated the winning scouts, all of whom were on hand at the finish line.
First place was won by Troop 61 team from St. Paul's, under Ed McKernan, coupled with a team from Troop 74 from Gabriel Richard School, under Jack Beever. Their course was from the intersection of Fisher and Grosse Pointe Boulevard.
Second place went to the team from Troop 96, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, under Jim Lowmaster, coupled with the team from 156 of Christ Church under Ted Grouper. Their course was from Westchester and Jefferson on Jefferson to Rivard to Maumee and to Fisher.
Third place was won by the team from Troop 86 from Trombley under D. Thompson and the

A Subcommittee of the House Committee on Education and Labor will this week look into the possibility of having priorities granted on materials needed throughout the country on school construction.
Congressman Louis C. Rabaut brought the Subcommittee investigation to the attention of East Siders with the comment that "a number of school building authorities have contacted me on this problem, and I have invited them to submit up-to-date information which I can pass on to the Committee, enabling it to get the picture as to the effect of this problem in Detroit, the Grosse Pointes, and Grosse Pointe Township."
"I am informed," Rabaut said, "that this information will be weighed by the Subcommittee and will form the basis for action necessary in securing proper recognition of school building requirements under strict allocation regulations."

Tubb and Red Foley frequently join forces to produce such outstanding songs as "Goodnight Irene," "Hillbilly Fever No. 2" and others.

Series of Articles Explain Social Security Act Fully

A little more than a year ago, Congress passed several amendments to the Social Security Act. One of these changes brought 10 million more people under Social Security beginning with Jan. 1, 1951. An estimated 5 million businessmen, including sole owners and partners, represent the largest single group of the newly-covered persons.
Every type of business is represented—grocers, butchers, bakers, barbers, operators of filling stations, and retail shops of all kinds. In the near future, these individuals will find it necessary to file their social security reports for the first time. This series of articles is designed to explain some of the responsibilities and rights of the businessman under social security.
While most self-employed people are covered by the new social security law, several groups, mostly professional, are exempt. These include the farm owners and operators, physicians, dentists, lawyers, osteopaths, chiropractors, optometrists, naturopaths, veterinarians, architects, professional engineers, certified, licensed, registered and full-time practicing accountants, Christian Science practitioners, mineral, electrical and utility engineers, commissioned, or licensed ministers of churches or members of a religious order.
Earnings from real estate do not count unless the person is in the real estate business. Likewise, income from personally-owned stocks or bonds is not counted for social security purposes.
In case a husband and wife enter into a formal partnership agreement, each will receive credit on his social security account for his own proportionate share of the net earnings of the business. The maximum amount subject to tax in one year is $3,600. Anything earned over that figure by the owner or partner will not be shown on the social security report.
All self-employed individuals should obtain their social security numbers now to avoid any difficulty later on. If you are in business and already have a social security card, there is nothing else you need to do until the time comes to make out your report. However, if you do not have such a card, you should try to obtain one as soon as possible. This can be done very easily. Just go to the nearest Social Security office for your number. If there is no Social Security office near you, you can get an application blank from your local post office.
The person who had a social security card and lost it should get in touch with the Social Security office to obtain a duplicate of the original number. Nobody should have more than one social security number. Social security payments are based on the total wages or income credited to an individual's account. A person with more than one social security number runs the risk of not receiving all the payments he may have earned.
(In the next article we will discuss the tax rate and manner of reporting self-employment income under the social security system.)

Following the panel presentation, Laura Ault, YWCA associate metropolitan executive director, will lead a discussion on the international relations aspect of the public affairs program of the YW.

SPEND, SPEND, SPEND

Raymond Moley devoted one of his recent Newsweek columns to Senator Paul Douglas's valiant and almost totally unsuccessful effort to bring a little of the water out of the Federal budget. In conclusion he wrote: "It will take more than name calling, phony statistics, and wise-cracks by the President to dissipate the feeling over this country since people are being forced by higher taxes to practice self-denial, the government should set the example. All through the country there are too many glaring examples of Federal extravagance to escape notice. The country is a rich one, but it cannot stand military expenses of the size that will be essential, unless there is economy in non-military spending. Taxes will not suffice, and inflation must be the deadly harvest."

Every proposal to economize has been steamrollered to death in Congress. That is true of the huge rivers and harbors bill, which is the pork-barrel deluxe. It is true of such lesser matters as Senator Douglas's proposal to abolish the old practice of maintaining, at the taxpayers' expense, a free barber shop for Senators. The number of Congressional voices which have been raised against waste are pitifully few, and can hardly be heard over the roaring "spend, spend, spend; tax, tax, tax" chorus.

If there is any better way to destroy a country from within than to countenance waste, extravagance and corruption in government, no one has thought of it. The people are being bled white by taxes now, and the incentive to work, to save, and to achieve is being destroyed. If we keep on going in the present direction there can be only one end — and that is national bankruptcy and national ruin. It happened to great empires of past times. It can happen here.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor
The Grosse Pointe Review
Grosse Pointe 30, Michigan

Dear Sir:

I am deeply indebted to those citizens of the City of Grosse Pointe who were interested in the coming election and submitted nominating petitions on behalf of my name for the position of Mayor. Their activity was spontaneous and without my knowledge.

The city of Grosse Pointe has been without a competitive slate of candidates for some years. Good government is served by a thorough discussion of issues and of past performances by candidates for office.

The elective positions of the City of Grosse Pointe require candidates whose business occupations will permit devotion of sufficient time to the City's affairs so that its citizens may have an efficient and economical government representative of Detroit's finer suburban communities.

I regret that travel requirements of business would not permit me to accept the nomination. I appreciate most deeply the confidence expressed.

Sincerely,
Clarence D. Blessed

Edison Names Cisler as New Director

Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the board of the Detroit Edison Company, today announced the election of Walker L. Cisler, executive vice president of the company, to membership on the Board of Directors. This election is preparatory to Cisler's taking over as president and general manager on December 1, 1951, when James W. Parker, president since 1944, reaches retirement age. Parker will be engaged as a consultant.

"This action was taken at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors held in Detroit today. The Company is in the midst of a large expansion program made necessary in part by need of maintaining a power output adequate to meet any war emergency. Because of the importance of this effort, with which Parker is intimately acquainted, it was believed that this service in a consulting capacity would be advisable.

Parker went to work for Detroit Edison in 1910. Except for one year with the War Department in 1918, his service has been continuous. He was chief engineer for 20 years, became vice president in 1935, a member of the Board of Directors in 1940 and president in 1944.

Cisler, after long experience in electric power production and notable service with the War Department in the Second World War, was employed by Detroit Edison in October 1943, and granted a leave of absence to serve in the Army. There he attained the rank of colonel. He has been chief consultant on electric power for the Economic Cooperation Administration and has served other government and military agencies in similar capacities.

Included among the many features of the Gay Nineties will be several hilarious comedy skits and blackouts.

Leader Dogs Vital To Blind

Leader Dogs of The Blind are known to too few people. This training school for dogs and their new masters is one of the finest in the world. Located in Rochester, Michigan, the school trains students from all over the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Each dog receives "obedience training" and "traffic training" totaling three months. The dog is then joined by his future owner who trains with the dog for one month.

Any blind person in adequate physical and mental health is eligible to receive training and a dog from "Leader Dogs of the Blind." The total cost for the student is $150, which includes ownership of the dog. These carefully selected leader dogs normally cost close to $1,000 each, in their original purchase by the school.

Recently the Plymouth Dealers of Greater Detroit donated a new 1951 Plymouth to the school. The car will be used by Paul Knowles, Director of Field Activities, to seek out new students as well as solicit contributions to the school.

Pointe Motion Picture Election—Annual Meeting

At its annual meeting Monday afternoon the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council elected Mrs. Frank Seydler as president, Mrs. David Leach as secretary, and Mrs. H. T. Snowday as treasurer. Mrs. Howard Kaser will continue her term as vice president.

Mrs. Daniel Hembel, the retiring president, has served in that office since 1947. Throughout her tenure Mrs. Hembel's main objective has been to continue to promote "the development of critical standards in the selection of motion picture entertainment for children."

To help finance this objective Mrs. Hembel planned a fashion show at the Woods Theatre in 1948. A sum of almost $1,500 was raised from this project and turned over to the Grosse Pointe Public Library for the establishment of a 16mm sound film library. Since then under her leadership two smaller money making projects have been held to help support the 16mm sound film library on a rental basis. These films are available to any holder of a library card and may be drawn free of charge.

To further stimulate interest in the Council among its members and among local theatre managers, she inaugurated an annual luncheon to which members, local theatre managers and presidents of all member organizations are invited in order to become better acquainted with the Council and its objectives.

During Mrs. Hembel's tenure membership has increased from 19 to 27 organizations, the constitution has been amended to open the Council to members-at-large, and to require the monthly bulletin to represent the views of all members.

In 1950 the Council promoted a Theatre Ordinance regulating theatre attendance of children at the Woods Theatre. This ordinance which became effective in June 1950 prohibits children in the theatre after certain hours.

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council recognizes that a legitimate one and the Council has always exercised its prerogative in pointing out its good products for children. The monthly bulletin carries this information into every family home in the Pointe.

The Council under Mrs. Hembel's leadership has tried constantly to maintain friendly relations with the managers at local theatres, to point to them the values of good programs for children at Saturday matinees, and to help them improve these programs.

GPHS Students Hear of Life in Finland

"I like it very, very much — more so all the time," declared Miss Margareta Grigoroff, a teacher from Finland, who is observing American teaching methods in weekly visits at Grosse Pointe High School.

Miss Grigoroff divulged interesting facts about Finnish life in answer to the questions of journalism students last Tuesday.

She stated that Finnish students begin at the age of 7 and continue until they are 18. They must meet extremely high academic standards, and they spend the last two years of high school preparing for stiff examinations. Miss Grigoroff is an instructor of English for six different grades.

The visitor also told about Finnish sports. Football is a milder sport than American and is a lot like soccer. Because of the cold climate the most popular sports are skiing, skating, and bandy, a form of hockey. Many of the children ski to school.

Miss Grigoroff said that she likes best of all the friendliness of Americans and would like to come here again some day. However, she expects that she will "have to stick to old Finland."

She will be here until January.

Blue Devils Lose To Tough Wyandotte Team

By WAYNE MILLER
GPHS Journalism Student

Touchdowns in the second and third periods provided the winning margin for the Wyandotte Bears, who avenged last year's score by defeating the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils 14-8. The game, which was played under sunny skies, may prove to be the decisive game in the conquest of the Border Cities League Championship.

Grosse Pointe was the first team to break into the scoring when Al Catarino, much publicized Wyandotte quarterback, made the mistake of attempting to run back a punt taken inside his own 5-yard line. While circling to try to elude Devil tacklers, Quarterback Catarino was nailed behind his own goal line by alert Don Button, Grosse Pointe end. The safety, good for two points, gave Grosse Pointe an early lead.

Although the first quarter gave the Grosse Pointe fans plenty of excitement when the Blue Devils were within inches of the goal line and when the safety was scored, it was in the second period that the Bears started their march.

After moving the ball from their own 25-yard line, where Jerry Goebel, defensive line backer, intercepted a Catarino pass, to the midfield stripe, Grosse Pointe felt victim to a fumble. It was promptly pounced on by Larry Lerew and Jim Adams, defensive linemen for Wyandotte, on the Grosse Pointe 42-yard line. After a drive up through the middle gained 3 yards, a Catarino special hit Ed Noel Buffe and picked up 18 more yards placed the ball on the Grosse Pointe 3. Following a Kopp's Pharmacy tied Wolverine Potato Chips for second place in the G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League. Their sweep over Steiner Ford was the only shutout registered last Friday night. The week before, Farms Market were the victims of this same Kopp team.

Village Wine Shop won their opening game with Wolverine Chips but that was all as Wolverine came on to win the next two and total pinfall and a tie for second place.

Motor City Tires were on their way to a clean sweep over the league-leading Judys, winning the first two games with ease. The Judys, alarmed at the situation, struck back with a vengeance and when the smoke had cleared, the front runners had pulled up even with the "tiresmen" by taking the last game (908) and total pinfall. Don Kammer was the hero for the Judys, closing with 223.

Middle Atl. Transp. Co. got off to a good start by winning the opener but Monday Cleaners closed the door on the champs and exited with the next two. Volpe's 228 helped the Middies to their only win. Gene Mertz's 223 in 595 aided by Roy Kraebber's big series, tipped the scales in Monday's favor, 3-1.

Farms Market and Piches Barber Shop put on a ding dong battle on alleys 9 and 10. Pat Patrick had a turkey up and drew the 6-7-10 split. "Ole Deadeye" converted and with the help of Howie Ewald's 236 game, Farms Market took the opener. The barbers came back to take the second one, shooting 901 and from then on it was anybody's game. Despite Ewald's 626 series Forrest Piche and Company took the remaining points for a 3-1 win over Ed Taube's sharpshooters.

Earl Holzbaugh Motors thought they had things much their own way after winning the opener from the Auto Club. Milt Hansen thought differently and with the help of "2-finger" Barber and Geo. VanDeVelde, smeared the "fiver mechanics" in the next two to take a well earned 3-1 victory.

quarterback sneak which picked up 2 yards. Catarino sent Left Half Allen Robertson crashing the remaining 1 yard. Tom Erwin, offensive end, added the extra point.

The third period saw Mister Catarino break into the clear for a 35-yard run to the clear for a 22-yard line, where he was stopped by safety man Dale Ewart. The run set up Wyandotte's final score, which resulted in a 12-yard sprint to the 4 by Half Back Robertson and a plunge into the promised land by Terry Brucker, Wyandotte right half. Erwin converted the extra point, to make the score 14-2.

The remaining part of the third period and the entire fourth period were filled with Ewart passes. Grosse Pointe's final tally came in the third period when Ewart led his team 54 yards to paydirt. A pass to Dan Siowe and to end Len Anderson did the trick.

Although Grosse Pointe threatened in the fourth quarter, the Bear's defensive proved to be too much.

Businessmen Bowling

SCHOOL NEWS

Field trips out into the community are a part of the experiences of the school children in all of the schools of the Pointe and Richard School makes full use of this very worthwhile kind of learning situation. Within the past two weeks Mr. Maben took his class on a nature walk, Miss Robertson sponsored a visit to the police station for her second grade, and Mrs. Drew, Miss McCormick and Miss Kerr together took their first grade youngsters out into the country to see a farm. Soon Miss Nault will take her group to the Detroit Historical Museum and Mrs. Stringer plans on going to the Michigan Central Station with her group. In the course of the school year probably every classroom in the building will have had several of these field trip experiences.

Field trips hold an important place in the modern program of education. It has been known for a long time that children like to learn about things which are interesting. And what presents more fun and interest than seeing a railway engine as well as reading about it; or learning about the habits of the monarch butterfly by actually watching it; or finding out the source of the breakfast milk by seeing the cows being milked out on the farm. Not only do youngsters enjoy learning when the subject is appealing but they also remember these situations better and thus their learning is more effective and longer lasting.

Learning by the field trip method is also realistic. Sometimes pupils misunderstand by textbook reading alone, especially if the material is remote to their actual experiences. In the modern home too parents are continually enriching their children's experiences through travel and actually doing things in addition to reading about them.

The eighty Richard School children who went out to the Wayne University Farm and saw the harvesting, the milking of the cattle, and the feeding of the poultry, will have a much better idea of the importance of the farm in their daily lives. City children need to know that practically everything they wear, most of the items making up their housing, and all of their nourishment comes from the soil. They can thus learn some of the basic elements of conservation at first hand.

Field trips also contribute to democratic citizenship. In our modern technology everyone is dependent upon others for the necessities of life. The principles of interdependence are more effectively learned when youngsters actually have the chance to see them in operation.

The second graders who visited the police station now see better the need for this important department of our government. The Michigan Central Station visitors will be observing rains, watching the passengers, noticing the constant flow in and out of all kinds of supplies including the US mails. By doing this they appreciate better what others contribute to their own state of well being. Children go on these instructional trips by walking, when they take place in the neighborhood, and by bus, when the distances are greater. They personally share with our Board of Education funds the cost of such important ventures. Significant values are realized from them.

KIRBY SCHOOL

Kerby Kindergarten mothers met at Old Kerby School on Tuesday, October 10. Eighty mothers were present at a Tea sponsored by home room mothers, Mrs. Robert Christian, Mrs. Theodore Collioud, Mrs. Erie Steil, Mrs. Omer Stotts, Mrs. Ralph Dissar, and Mrs. Albert Klick.

The objectives of the Kindergarten program were explained by Mr. Hicks. Miss Wager described the specific activities of the Kindergarten school day, and Mrs. Marilyn Gushee lead a discussion on the possibility of improving the method of reporting pupil progress to parents. A

Pupils have listened to certain musical selections, discussed them with their teachers, and then drawn their interpretations of the music during their art periods. Several of the pictures made by students at the Richard School, Dance Macabre was the first selection interpreted.

Pupils are also working on the Grand Canyon Suite; in addition to art integration, this study will be emphasized in science and social studies periods.

On Wednesday, October 11, Mr. William B. Ferry, instrumental music instructor met with Kerby parents of the 4th grade pupils who are enrolled for band or orchestra. Mr. Ferry discussed the following topics with parents: Encouragement of pupils by parents, attitude toward practice and how parents can help in supervision of pupil practice, care of instruments, reporting pupil progress to parents, and the objectives of the music program for elementary pupils. Newlyweds on Trip East After Rites

At a nuptial High Mass in St. Brigid's Church on Saturday morning, October 6, Dorothy Frances Mace became the bride of Frank G. Ebner, Jr. A breakfast at Botsford Inn followed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Mace of Sorrento avenue and the late Mr. Mace. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Ebner of Barrington road.

The bride's gown was of traditional light ivory satin embroidered with seed pearls. Her nuptial veil of illusion fell from a satin Juliet cap embroidered with pearls, and she carried a single white orchid on her satin prayer book.

Mrs. Clifford Joslin of Rochester, New York, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Louis Stemer and a cousin of the bride, Frances Stuckell. The honor attendant wore a gown in a lime shade fashioned with a full net skirt and lace bodice. Bridesmaids were similarly gowned in shrimp net and lace. They carried nosegay bouquets of yellow baby mums and roses. Kathleen Schumer of Hinsdale, Illinois, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore white organza over shrimp taffeta fashioned in a princess style with an embroidered ruffle at the neckline.

Charles Ebner was best man for his brother. Ushers were Jack Doherty and James Schumar of Hinsdale, Illinois.

The bride's mother chose a gown of cocoa taffeta with lace bodice for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were plum colored, and a corsage of roses completed her outfit. Mrs. Ebner was gowned in navy faille crepe with plum taffeta and navy accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses.

Following a wedding trip to Washington, D.C., and Virginia, the newlyweds will make their home on Glastonbury road.

Local DAR Chapter To Hear Speaker on Conservation at October Meeting

Because the Daughters of the American Revolution are always active in conservation work, Louisa St. Clair Chapter is devoting its October meeting this next Thursday, October 18 to that theme. Following the business meeting at 10:30 presided over by the Regent, Mrs. Sidney C. Probert, the chairman of the Nature Conservation Committee, Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, will present Miss Helen Martin, Research Geologist with the Michigan Geology Survey of the Department of Conservation who will speak on "Historic Michigan" illustrated by colored slides.

The Human Conservation Committee, Mrs. Frederic Zeigen, Chairman, is in charge of the luncheon.

Louisa St. Clair Chapter has played a very active part in all types of conservation. For several years representatives have attended the D. A. R. and National Farm and Garden Conservation Conference held two or three days each September at Higgins Lake.

Mrs. Walter C. Pomeroy, State

Regent and also a member of Louisa Chapter, recently dedicated "Memorial Pines" as a permanent memorial to deceased D. A. R. members. This is a stand of 60,000 pine trees planted several years ago on M55, 25 miles west of Cadillac. The Daughters donated $10.00 per acre to pay for the cost of the trees which are under the supervision of the U. S. Forest Service. The Michigan memorial is a part of the national D. A. R. project through which more than five million trees have been planted in D.A.R. forests in 40 states.

Last year individual Detroit chapter members also donated their time and cars to drive Girl Scouts out to their camp for tree planting ceremonies.

Since people need to be educated in conserving natural resources, in reforestation and soil protection, members of the Nature Conservation Committee have shown movies on these subjects at the D.A.R. general meetings and before other groups of interested women. They also help to beautify highways, establish bird feeding stations, protect wild life and distribute literature on forest fire prevention.

In 1944-45, 12,157 packages of flower and vegetable seeds were shipped by the D. A. R. to the U. S. Army Hospitals in the tropics. During World War II members aided in salvage campaigns for clothing, fat, iron, tin, tinfoil, tur, gun cleaners, cancelled stamps, and milkweed floss for life preservers.

Mrs. Zeigen's Human Conservation Committee meets regularly to sew cancer pads and make layettes for the Red Cross. In addition the committee aids Becker boys and girls to obtain their education, cooperates in public health activities, juvenile delinquency, rehabilitation and accident prevention. They give aid to Girl and Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, Youth Centers, 4-H Clubs, orphans homes, crippled children, Save the Children Federation, public playgrounds, settlement houses, old folks homes, hospitals, libraries, clinics for babies and hot lunches for children.

Last spring several members of Louisa St. Clair Chapter attended the public hearing at Lansing on proposed legislation for enrichment of white bread and flour, in addition to the chapter having sent a letter to the senate and house agriculture committee chairmen urging its passage.

Hostesses for Louisa Chapter meeting on the 18th at Newberry House will be Mrs. E. Quimby Smith and Dr. Neile G. C. Deffenbaugh, while reservations for the luncheon following the meeting are being taken by Mrs. Fred W. Lidbloom and Mrs. Everett G. Wright.

All the attendants wore imported blue azure net over taffeta with matching headpieces and muffs which held an orchid and gold tinted ivy streamers.

Best man for his brother was Alfred Peters. Seating the guests were James Frisch, William Kramer, Benjamin Weir and Melvin Godmaier. Another brother, Dr. William Peters, was unable to be in the wedding party. He is serving with the U.S. Army in Korea.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dyson wore a full length gown of American Beauty crepe, with matching maline turban and a corsage of purple orchids. The mother of the groom wore a grape colored crepe with small matching hat and a corsage of bronze orchids.

Following the 11:30 ceremony in St. Ambrose Church, a breakfast was held at the Barlum Hotel, and in the evening a reception was held at the hotel before the young couple left for Miami Beach.
