One of the many things which has impressed me favorably during my short time here is the fine work of the Police Departments of the several Grosse Pointe communities, especially as it relates to the suprevision and safety of children. LARRY CHENE

Larry Chene, who a number of years ago worked for the circulation department of this newspaper, gets a headline spot on the professional wrestling card Friday at 8:30 o'clock at Chesterfield Arena, Gratiot avenue near 10-Mile road.

Chene, whose hectic bouts with the Sheik of Araby at the local arena have endeared him with fans, will team up with an equally popular figure. Eddie Lee, in a tag team match against Johnny (Rough-and-Ready) Gates and Laddie Hollick. All comparatively young men, this most exciting of all wrestling events should really send the crowd.'

Johnny Clark, who gave an excellent performance in his only other appearance at Chesterfield. meets Lais Laison, a newcomer, in the semi-final match.

A whing-ding opener has been carded when one of Detroit's most popular grapplers, Louie Klein, mixes with Steve Nenoff. The latter, an old-timer, will have a weight advantage of nearly 20 pounds when he weighs in at near the 230-pound mark.

D. U. S. won the toss, and elected to receive. The kickoff skidded to the 13 where Rentschler picked it up and twisted his way to the 29. Then, Don Ohmart, running from his usual fullback position, racked up gains of 12 and 15 yards through the line. Almost as suddenly, D. U. S. was stopped cold. Hans Becherer punted from his own 40 to the 9, where it was downed by Jerry Jaglowicz.

The D. U. S. defense looked good, and North Shore quickkicked to their own 49. D. U. S. was unable to pick up a first down, so Becherer punted from the North Shore 42 to the 15, where Coussement recovered a Winetka fumble. Two plays later, a pass from Rentschler to Osbeck, but Osbeck fumbled, North Shore recovered, breaking up a potential touchdown drive.

Bruce Garbutt then intercepted a North Shore pass on his own 41, and was dropped immediately, to end the first quarter. After a 15 vard penalty, two losses of one yard each, and an incomplete to punt. Krajenke's pass from Hans was unable to get a good hold of the icy ball, so he was forced to drop on it immediately. on the D. U. S. 17.

Three plays later Pete Stalker, playing right defensive end for D. U. S., recovered a North Shore fumble on his own 11.

However, again the ground attack for D. U. S. was weak, so Becherer punted once more, this time 32 yards to the D. U. S. 46. A bad pass from center moved North Shore 21 yards back, and three plays later they punted to Garbutt, standing on his own 30, and he returned the ball 16 yards to the 40. Ohmart picked up a first down around left end, and then a pass from Rentschler to Oh-mart was good for 7 more plays, D. U. S. was thrown for short losses, so once again Becherer punted, this one being his best of the day. His kick started on the D. U. S. 47, and went out of bounds on the North Shore 8.

Dick Bingham, playing defensive left end for D. U. S. then recovered a North Shore fumble on the North Shore 11 yard line. Ohmart then ran left end for yards, followed by Rentschler, getting two. Ohmart then fumbled on a handoff, and North Shore recovered on their own 4. At this, the half ended.

The second half started off slowly, with each team forced to punt once, before D. U. S. reeived the ball on their own 49 vard line due to Coussement's recovery of a North Shore fumble. Garbutt then hit Rentschler with nass good for 35 yards. Two North Shore penalties, and some nice running by Ohmart and Rentschler put the ball on the North Shore 16. From there, a beautiful pass by Rentschler and an equally pretty catch by Garbutt produced the only D. U. S. touchdown of the day. Irwin's extra point kick was low, so D. U. S. led, 6 to 0.

Becherer again kicked off to North Shore on their 30, and it was returned to the 39. North Shore then produced a sustained ground attack all the way-61 yards — for a touchdown. Their try for the extra point also failed, and the scoreboard showed a 6 to 6 deadlock.

North Shore then did the kickoff chore, and D. U. S. could do nothing with the ball, so once more Becherer had to punt their way out of trouble. North Shore. received the punt on their 48, and another sustained drive took them down to the D. U. S. three, from where they kicked an 11. yard field goal. The game ended with the same score - North. Shore Country Day School 9, D. U. S. 6.

Tomorrow the D. U. S. eleven meets Vaughn School from Bloomfield Hills, If D. U. S. wins that one, they are undisputed league champions, and if they lose, they can end up no worse than co-champions in the Southeastern Suburban Conference.

Elbert Richmond, Wayne University's leading ground gainer. is a real workhorse. Richmond has carried 69 times for 266 yards for a 3.9 average.
