children. The pictures are rich in design and color.

Little children may learn to clear numerals in JEANNE MARIE COUNTS HER SHEEY by Francoise, Scribner, $2.00. The illustrations are playful, gay and imaginative. MR. T. W. ANTHONY WOO by Marie Ets, Viking, $2.00, is an amusing story of a cobbler who lived happily with his dog, his cat and a mouse until his sister arrives to "tidy them up." Her efforts are not appreciated and it is the mouse, Mr. T. W. Anthony Woo, who saves the situation and restores peace to the household. The black and white illustrations capture the fun of the story.

THE CAMEL WHO TOOK A WALK by Jack Tworkov, Alladdin, $2.00, is a nonsense tale with plenty of repetition. The bold, colorful illustrations by Roger DuVoisin have life and humor.

STRIPE: THE STORY OF A CHIPMUNK by R. M. McClung, Morrow, $2.00, is a picture story book with man illustrations and large print. Children, seven to nine years old will be able to read this, themselves. Children in the third through half mud, the D.U.S. footballers and Krajenke recovered. were guests at Bloomfield Hills. The game meant a great deal to D.U.S., for if they won it, they would become Conference Champions, and they would also be undefeated in league

D.U.S. won the toss, and elect ed to receive. The lrst two plays from scrimmage ended in penalties for D.U.S., before Dave Rentschler and Don Ohmart hit the left side for eleven yards each. Dave Wark then fumbled, but only lost a down, as he recovered it at scrimmage line. Rentschler and Ohmart produced gains of 2 to 6 yards respective ly, before Becherer punted to the Bloomfield 23. Two penalties followed, each for 5 yards, one against D.U.S. for holding, anl the other against Bloomfield for offsides.

Bloomfield then punted themselves out of trouble, Garbut receiving the ball on his own 40, and returning it 20 yards to the Bloomfield 40. Once again D.U.S. was penalized, this time twice, 15 yards for holding, and 5 more for offsides, before Renschler hit left tackle for 4. Another D.U.S. penalty, and an incompleted pass followed, before Rentschler hit Becherer with a pass good for 20 yards. Dave was stopped cold at scrimmage, but Ohmart made steady gains of 3 and 5 yards over center.

Bechererthen punted to the Bloomfield 10, from where it was returned to the 18. Bloomfield then suffered a 15 yard penalty for illegal use of hands, moving the ball back to the 3. Dick Bingham, playing defensive left crashed through and recovered a Bloomfield fumble in the enl zone for a touchdown. his first of the year. Birgbauer's extra point kick fell short, so D.U.S. was six points closer to the championship. Becherer then kicked off to Bloomfield, and after some nice line play by tackle Tom Mackey, and the end of the first quarter. Bloomfield punted to Garbutt standing on his own 18, and he returned the ball to the 26. D.U.S. really looked strong, for Rentschler ran right end for 12. Brown hit center for 1, Ohmart smashed left tackle for gains of 2, 4, and 8 yards, Wark hurdled left guard for 8, Becherer scootover right guard for gains of 12 and 2 yards, and Rent-schler then outran his opponents around right end for 6 more. However, on the next play, the familiar red flag appeared on the field, and D.U.S. was penalized 15 yards for holding.

Rentschler picked up around left end, and on the next play fumbled, but an ever-alert Krajenke, D.U.S. center, picked up the fumble, and two yards. Bloomfield took over, and strong line play by D.U.S., featured by Stalker, Krajenke, and Mackey forced a hurried Bloomfield pass which Becherer intercepted on the Bloomfield 40, and returned it to the 25, before he was dropped by four eager Bloom-

Rentchler, after breaking through center for 5, and hitting Ohmart with a pass good for 1, raced 15 yards around left end on a Statue of Liberty play. No sooner had he gotten up, than a 15 yard penalty was assessed against D.U.S. for elipping. Dave then fumbled, and a scrapping Bloomfield team recovered. However, Tom Mackey, playing a good game, recovered a Bloomfield fumble on the 3. Rentschler lost 4 around right end, but Ohmarty smashed over left tackle to pick up 12, putting the ball on the 1, as the third quarter ended.

On the first play in the fourth quarter, Rentschler bulled his way over left tackle for the remaining one yard to pay dirt. and the third D.U.S. touchdown. Birgbauer's extra point kick failed, and with that scoring ended.

The remainder of the fourth! quarter found D.U.S. mainly on defense, with its second and third teams in.

A fast, specially equipped oil tanker, with its deck covered by an extra cargo of oil drums, has fuel lines slung across to a sleek destroyer as the latter is refueled far from shore.

66 THE WAR WAS WON on oil, beans and bullets," said Adm. Chester W. Nimitz at the end of World War II. These three commodities again are playing a major role in a fight for freedom. They have united to aid United Nations land, air and sea forces in the struggle against communist aggressors in Korea. The accompanying photos show how oil products are helping to win that struggle. Without oil, today's military force would be stripped of all its striking power. Tanks, ships, planes and other mechanized weathers and equipment are immobilized if a sufficient amount of oil is not available. A military plane burns almost 1,000 gallons of high octane gasoline in an hour. In the first year of the Korean war, it is estimated, some 50 million barrels of oil products were shipped to the fighting front from America.
