Sunday, February 3 Is Date Set for the Sixth Lutheran Caravan

The story of the Lutheran Caravan: To create good fellowship between all people and to learn to love and to enjoy our great Michigan outdoors in summer and winter, a small group of young people, assisted by their parents, Mrs. R. Leideck.

East Detroit in February, 1947 the first Lutheran Caravan to Silver Valley.

One hundred and forty-seven passengers took part in our first Lutheran Caravan. Everyone enjoyed this great winter sport in Northern Michigan near East Tawas. It was time for fun—time for a rousing romp through snowy playgrounds—skiing down broad slopes with the snow, speeded pines flashing by as you and twist and turn skating—class smooth rinks—rock-toboggan slides with exciting dips—hiking cross through the crisp clean air with the promise of a hearty meal; these are some of the thrills that await you every year with our Lutheran Caravan.

February 8, 1949, seven buses with 296 passengers followed the great spirit of good fellowship and traveled once again to Silver Valley. Again in 1949, February 13, in spite of rising temperature and rainy weather, eight busloads of winter sports fans started the third Lutheran Caravan to Silver Valley. Miss Dorothy Leiniger of Mt. Clemens was chosen by the Silver Valley Committee to be the first unofficial Lutheran Winter Queen for 1949. The only marring event of the day was a broken leg received by Art Rockness from East Detroit, when several of the youths were riding in a toboggan down the tin-pan slide and struck a tree.

February 12, 1950 was the fourth Lutheran Caravan. Ten large busses traveled on a beautiful winter day to Silver Valley. The highlights of the day was the selection of the Lutheran Queen for 1950, Miss Alice Rotermund from St. Paul, Royal Oak received the award. Queen Alice was presented with a ski jacket and ski mittens, and each member of her court with ski mittens by the Silver Valley Winter Sport Committee.

February 4, 1951 we celebrated the fifth Lutheran Caravan. In the early hours at six o'clock a special service by Pastor Peterson at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in East Detroit, again the Lutheran Caravan with 11 buses was on its way to Silver Valley. Again through the good fellowship the Lutheran Caravan made friends all over Detroit and Suburban and in Northern Michigan. We had many guest with us and all enjoyed the trip, in spite of all the troubles we had, one bus collapsed in Bay City but was replaced at once, another broke down completely in Silver Valley, 2 buses got stuck in the snow, etc. But in all we came home safe and had a wonderful time. Miss Ruth Rudy from Outer Drive Faith was chosen by the Silver Valley Committee to be the Lutheran Queen for 1951. A Ski jacket to the Queen and Winter scarfs to the court of 10 girls were presented by the Committee.

Everybody do their part and work for Christian fellowship—good neighbor policy—and let's make the 6th Lutheran Caravan bigger and better. To give everybody more time at Silver Valley, the starting time will be 1 o'clock in the morning, returning over Frankenthum (maybe dinner at Frankenthum) return home 8 p.m., same day, February 3.

Chorus of 60 Support Stars in Fledermans

A new English version of Johann Strauss' most popular opera, "Fledermaus," absent from the Metropolitan Opera since 1905 until its triumphant success in its present paraphrase at the Metropolitan last season, will be presented at the Masonic Auditorium on Thursday, December 24, for four nights and Saturday matinee.

The present adaptation is by Carson Kanin who has also staged the production. New lyrics have been provided by Howard Metz. Tibor Kozma is the musical director and Rolf Gerard has designed the scenery and costumes.

Jack Gilford, theatre and night club comedian, has joined the Metropolitan roster in the singing role of Frosch, the waiter, and the ballet troupe, directed by Zachary Solov, will sing Strauss' "Roses from the South."

Appearing in the leading roles are Brenda Lewis as Rosalinda, Donald Dame as Eisenstein, Virginia MacWatters as Anna, Vera Bryner as Prince Orlofsky, William Horne as Albin, John Peters as Dr. Falke, Joseph Schorn as Frank, the Baron, Howard Jarratt as Dr. Spaloni, and Jack Gilford as the waiter.

The typical Metropolitan Opera singing chorus of 60 and the corps de ballet.

Friends of Modern Art Open Second Exhibition

The second annual Friends of Modern Art Exhibition is the largest of three new exhibitions opening Tuesday, January 8 at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The Friends of Modern Art Exhibition, in charge of John S. Newberry, Jr., curator of graphic arts, will consist of 102 water colors and drawings, and 12 pieces of sculpture by contemporary American and European artists, lent by six prominent New York art dealers.

From the collection which will be on view through February 10, the Friends of Modern Art organization will make a purchase for the permanent collection of the Art Institute. None of the artists included in the exhibition are at present represented in the Museum's permanent collection although 11 are leading figures in contemporary art.

Last year, the Friends of Modern Art purchased "Composition for Clarinet and Tin Horn" by Ben Shahn from the first exhibition sponsored by the organization, which includes persons interested in helping the Museum acquire important contemporary works.

Also opening Tuesday are the Clayton S. Price Memorial Exhibition, the work of the cowboy mystic who was the grand old man in art of the northwest coast region, and Joseph Nash's Views of Windsor Castle, a collection of colorful aqua-tints which are a famous landmark of England's Romantic Period, during the first half of the last century.

Accident Toll Sets New Mark During Year

Activities of the Michigan State Police reached their highest point in 1951, with the various divisions and bureaus setting new records of performance.

Traffic, of course, continued to be the big problem, and despite all safety efforts, the accident toll established a new mark. Final figures for December are not yet tabulated but it is estimated that for the year there were more than 50,000 casualties—or 1,660 persons killed and 48,548 injured in 171,935 accidents. In 1950 the toll included 1,607 deaths, and 45,734 injured in 161,750 accidents.

During 1951 motor vehicle travel exceeded 23 billion miles, a billion miles more than in 1950. Car and truck registrations increased 124,000 to a new high of more than two and one-half million. The death rate per 100 million miles of travel, however, dropped from 7.30 to 7.12, which was slightly under the 1949 rate of 7.17, the lowest previously recorded in the state.

The State Police made 32,750 arrests during the year and of these 72,500 were for traffic offenses. In 1950 there were 70,881, of which 62,200 were for traffic offenses. Not included in these arrest totals are 3,000 arrests made in 1951 for traffic offenses.

Complaints handled in all matters, including criminal offenses other than traffic, totalled 73,000 as compared to 71,088 in 1950. In addition, 271,000 property inspections and 40,000 liquor inspections were made.

Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, who also served as state civil defense director during World War II and continued in that capacity at the outbreak of the Korean conflict, withdrew from the first of the year because increase State Police administrative duties did not permit him to devote enough time to the expanding civil defense and blood-typing program.

The State Police, however, regarded as a front line force in civil defense, made additional preparations to render aid in the event of emergency. A disaster battalion was organized and was given a test run in the mock atomic bombing exercise at Sault Ste. Marie early last spring. The State Police also have the responsibility of alerting the state, or sections of it, in case of any enemy attack.

A new squad—rockets and narcotics—was also organized during the year to combat gambling and the dope traffic.

In December a new in-service training course for municipal and county police in addition to State Police was instituted. Schools in breaking and entering and fingerprint identification are now being held in various sections of the state. It is to be a continuing program, with similar schools being arranged later on other subjects.

As the year drew to a close the State Police were hoping for an increase in their present enlisted strength of 678. With the traffic problem steadily becoming greater and many other law enforcement and criminal investigation duties to be performed, the department has set a goal of 1,250 men which it hopes to attain over a three-year period. Even this size force, however, would still be below national safety standards.

POINTE PARAGRAPHS

Here's a New Year's resolution that may save your life. If you are worried about your health, if you have any vague ache or pain, any lump or growth, any difficulty in breathing, any bleeding, or if you just don't feel good, resolve to see your physician in the first month of the New Year, the Michigan Department of Health urged today.

Better still, call for an appointment now, the Department said.

After four months with the 2nd Infantry Division's Artillery survey team, Pvt. Arthur R. Van Steeland, 1447 Anita, Grosse Pointe Woods, is still reminded of one of his early misadventures.

The survey crew had gone out to place the firing batteries when Van Steeland was ordered to go over and "flag that hill."

Some time later the tired and disgusted soldier returned to find that the three hills he had flagged were not the proper ones.

"Besides being wrong three times, I learned I had picked the highest hills in that area," said the sadder but wiser soldier.

"BUILD MICHIGAN," SAYS WILLIAMS

Says Governor G. Mennen Williams in his weekly column released to the newspapers of Michigan:

"The year 1952 will be a year of decision for Michigan. We face very serious problems. Upon the solution of those problems will depend a future prosperity and happiness of our people.

"At the same time we have a great opportunity. If we meet our problems with courage and good will, we can build here in these two peninsulas, a standard of living which will surpass any other in the world.

"If I have anything to say about it, 1952 will be a year of building. I don't mean only physical buildings of brick and stone. Our state needs plenty of these if we are to meet the growing problems of our population which has expanded by more than 21 percent in the last five years. And we have a gigantic construction program under way.

"In all these ways, and many others, 1952 must be a year of building Michigan."

Nurses Will Have Course

Jepson's musical career began with the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company. Radio offers followed, and one particular engagement as featured soloist of the Paul Whiteman program brought her to the attention of the late Gatti-Casazza, then general manager of the Metropolitan. She made her Metropolitan debut opposite Lawrence Tibbett. Among her musical triumphs were starring roles in the operas, Faust, Manon, and Martha.

At Town Hall, Miss Jepson will tell how she attained stardom, how an opera is produced, and some of the tragic and comic experiences connected with an opera star's life.

Phone Co. To Distribute 1952 Almanac

As it does every year, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company this week is distributing more than 100,000 copies of the 1952 edition of the "Telephone Almanac," given out free of charge at business offices of the company.

The cover of the new book features the latest Bell System development, the cross-country telephone and television radio-lynk link called the "electronic pony express."

Commenting on the relay link, the Almanac says, "Distance has always been a challenge to Americans. This Almanac tells of some of the efforts of fast communication that have been made since earliest Colonial days."

Also making its appearance again in this edition is the familiar rebus, which has always been popular with Telephone Almanac readers.

Clear Up Misunderstanding on Social Security Act

Apparently there is some misunderstanding of the self-employment tax provisions of the amended Social Security Act. Old-age and survivors insurance is not optional for people who are working for themselves or their own trade or business, or as partners in such concerns. It only is self-employed and derive as much as $400 in net profit from your business or business in any taxable year after December 31, 1950, your social security coverage is compulsory by law.

The only exceptions are income derived from self-employment as owner-operator of an agricultural enterprise, and self-employment income derived from practice as a physician, lawyer, dentist, optician, chiropractor, optometrist, naturopath, veterinarian, architect, CPA, licensed realtor or full-time practicing public accountant, Christian Science practitioner, professional engineer, or funeral director.

However, as a self-employed person you do not report yourself along with your employees. Your self-employment income must be reported annually on your income tax return 1940 Schedule C, especially revised for this purpose. Your first such report is due March 15, 1952, covering your self-employment income for the taxable year 1951 and payable along with the report is your self-employment social security tax, which is 2 1/2% of his net $3,600 of your net business profit. If you are a partner in a business, the tax is levied on the share of your distributive share of the partnership net profit, whether or not the profits are distributed.

However, if you have had wages in covered employment during the year, on which social security taxes have been held, the amount of your self-employment taxes due against the amount of taxes due on self-employment income.

The new booklet "Do You Work for Yourself?" explains coverage of the self-employed, gives instructions for reporting and explaining the insurance benefits. You can secure a copy of this booklet free by writing or telephoning the Social Security Administration, 8700 Mack Avenue, Detroit 14, Michigan, WAHut 1-8714.

It may be Dec. 15 before all of the 100,000 signatures of the anti-gasoline tax referendum petitions are checked. No more talk of a grand jury investigation into lobby methods of the Good Roads Federation, which supported the gas tax boat.

TRYING TO BEAT THE CONDUCTOR!

Library Spotlight

By Jean Taylor

There is a convention that book lovers, established in New York City in 1884. It is divided into five decades. In the first decade, books are listed by year; in the second, by author; in the third, by subject; in the fourth, by decade; 27 books are noted for the 1952 to 1950 years; in the fifth, by decade and the last decade has only 12.

The list that is being prepared for the 1952 to 1950 years, and never will be that is as it should be since books are essential material in any career. It is a list to discover which books the Grosse Pointe Library has and which it does not. The criteria which this committee uses in making its selection was not disclosed. The provision "in English" rules out, of course, many twentieth century titles of lasting interest. Roman Roland's "The Chick of Gold" is Kristin Lavransdatter, Thomas Mann's "Joseph and his Brothers" on the list.

The dedication of the new Woods Branch of the Grosse Pointe Library slated for January 12, will be the first of the library will be on Monday, January 14, however, as previously announced.

Mondry's 995 Is Tops in Rotary Loop

A new league mark was chalked up by Mondry Cleaners last Friday night at the Woods Branch, Bowling against second place Middle All Trapp Co. Mondry lost two of the Middle but salvaged two points by rolling their record breaking 900 game which gave them total pins. The Middle more or less backed into first place as P & J Crockery lost to the Middle in a rough time with Motor City Tires and finally had to relinquish, the lead they had held since the start of the season. These "firemen" have a habit of bowling their heads off when the chips are down. They also had a shut-out victory over Middle Atlantic, and P & J Crockery was the winning factor.

Kop's Pharmacy, very much in the running, again cast their spell over Steiner Ford, winning 4-0.

Howard Ewald's 253 spirited Farms Market to a 4-0 shut-out over P & J Crockery, who were many thought were on their way. Pines met the Wolverines Tuesday night and maybe they'll start another track.

The Wolverine Potato Chips, led by captain, Stuart Village Wine Shop who seemed to be headed for that coveted spot, first place. Wolverine won, 2-1.

In the other match, the Michigan Motors missed a shutout over Auto Club when they dropped the opener by 3 pins.

Some very important games will take place tomorrow night. P & J Crockery Lounge vs. Village Wine Shop and Pines Barber Shop vs. Kop's Pharmacy.

Holiday Party

The James Masons of Severn road had a rather gay holiday party Thursday evening, December 27. List of guests included Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rilling, formerly of Grosse Pointe Park; Mr. and Mrs. Preston and Mildred Yallant, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. C. Class of Colonial Court, Grosse Pointe Farms; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gates of Colonial Court, Grosse Pointe Farms; Mr. and Mrs. William Gray of Monte Vista avenue, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Marston of Severn road, Grosse Pointe Woods; and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ducasse of Severn road, Grosse Pointe Woods.

Colonel and Mrs. Scott Kentucky, of Prestonburg, Harlan, Ky., were here due to the severe weather.

Most noteworthy of 1951 was the howling of the wolf at the Capitol doors. His footprints track through most every state department...

Michigan is not likely to forget the year soon. The Legislature boosted $6 million dollars into the federal government swooped in to grab 400 million more in income and excise taxes. It finds little larger profits in revenue, the state treasury deficit rose 40 million dollars on June 30 and is expected to reach 60 million next year.

And more taxes to come—state government's finances appear insupportable without another major nip at the taxpayer's wallet. The Legislature, due back in Lansing Jan. 8, should be prepared to face a spin-jugging budget from the governor. In 1952, the state treasury deficit rose 40 million dollars on June 30 and is expected to reach 60 million next year.

A suggestion from the budget office to discontinue the Michigan Veterans Vocational School, Lansing, Mich., and re-entered from the state office of vocational rehabilitation which closed such a move would be "illogical and wasteful." At the same time, an additional appropriation was requested by the G.V.V.

Michigan manufacturers look for materials and added $7,000,000 to their value by manufacture last year. Michigan ranked fifth in the national as a manufacturing state, third among the east-north central states.

During 1951 the state highway department contracted for $41,000,000 worth of state and county roads and expects a $45,000,000 construction program in 1952.

The state treasury has suspended investment of public funds in long term securities pending a revitalization of bond markets. State Treasurer D. Hale Brake says more than $100,000 worth of assets will bear "the closest watch if the state is to obtain its maximum earnings."

Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State College, says MSC enrollment could reach 50,000 by 1958 if present birth and college entrance trends continue. Present enrollment is some 15,000 students.

The conservation department warns ice fishermen that using the top or the bottom of lakes for public water sports is punishable as a misdemeanor.

Col. Marshall To Be Speaker

S. L. A. Marshall, military critic and editorial writer for the Detroit News, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Neighbors Club Monday, January 7 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center at 2 o'clock.

Colonel Marshall has had a long and interesting record in military service. He was active overseas for two years during World War I and re-entered service in June, 1942, as expert consultant to the Secretary of War. Since that his duties have been many and varied. His most recent appointment was Operation Analyst for the 8th Army in Korea.

Mrs. Fred Adams will head the program for this meeting. It will follow the program with Mrs. Stephen Kozlowski as social hostess, assisted by Mrs. D. Cannon, Mrs. A. B. Baylis, Mrs. K. C. Kohn and Mrs. William Rochelle.

Ballet Coming

Ballet Theatre — the largest American dance organization, which has been called by Life magazine "the best ballet company in the U.S.," is now scheduled to appear at the Masonic Auditorium, February 1 and 2, 1952, on its 13th transcontinental tour of 61 cities in the United States and Canada following four successful seasons last year at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. These performances by this celebrated dance group are announced by C. W. Van Lope, Musicale Temple manager.

Local Dimes March Opens

The campaign for polio-fighting funds got underway in this community last week as volunteers scoured themselves for the doubled effort. It will be necessary to help the March of Dimes keep pace with the march of polio.

The campaign period has been doubled this year because the National Foundation has been forced into short four years in succession by surging polio incidence. The drive started Jan. 2 and will continue until the end of the month.

During the last four years the National Foundation and its chapters have won over 100,000 new members. The March of Dimes funds for patient care charges alone, as compared with $10 million in the previous ten-year span.

Meet Your Michigan

UNIQUE NEWSPAPER: FORT SANILAC WAS THE HOME OF THE BARK SHANTY TIMES IN THE MIDDLE 1800'S. THIS WAS MICHIGAN'S ONLY NEWSPAPER WITHOUT REPORTERS, EDITORIAL STAFF, PRESSES OR DEADLINES. A STOREKEEPER PLACED SHEETS OF PAPER ON HIS COUNTER AND ASKED CUSTOMERS TO WRITE THEIR OWN NEWS.

PREHISTORIC MONSTERS: THE MICHIGAN WOODS ARE FULL OF STRANGE BEASTS NEAR OSSINEHE. HERE, IN PAUL DOMKE'S PREHISTORIC GARDENS, LIFE-SIZE MODELS OF DINOSAURS AND OTHER PREHISTORIC ANIMALS HAVE BEEN SHAPED FROM WOOD AND STONE AND ARE A FAVORITE ATTRACTION WITH TOURISTS.

TIMBER-B-B-B: YOUR STATE AIMS TO PERPETUATE ITS VAST FORESTS. SINCE 1904, WHEN MICHIGAN'S REFORESTATION PROGRAM WAS INAUGURATED, ABOUT 750 MILLION PINE, SPRUCE AND OTHER TREES HAVE BEEN PLANTED ON 873,000 ACRES OF MICHIGAN LANDS. THIS SURPASSES THE NEXT NEAREST STATE BY OVER 125,000 ACRES.

DO YOU KNOW? MARQUETTE COUNTY IS MICHIGAN'S LARGEST, 48 MILES FROM EAST TO WEST AT THE FURTHEST POINT, AND 63 1/2 MILES FROM NORTH TO SOUTH. IT ENBRACES 1841 SQUARE MILES, AN AREA ALMOST TWICE THE SIZE OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND.

List Plentiful Foods for Month

Here is a reminder on the foods you will find most plentiful as we start the new year.

In protein foods, look to pork, turkeys and fish. Dairy plentiful are nonfat dry milk solids and cottage cheese. Fruits in heaviest supply this month are fresh oranges, tangerines, prunes, raisins and dates.

Orange and grapefruit juices are in heavy supply, and more are being packed from current production. Canned tuna is plentiful. So are dry beans and honey, rice, and two kinds of nuts—peanuts and almonds.

These are the foods the U.S. Department of Agriculture points to as the ones you will likely find more reasonably priced than comparable foods because they are in abundant supply.

STRICTLY BUSINESS

Betrothal Announced

At a Christmas open house given by Mr. and Mrs. James O. Hoyt in their home on Roosevelt Pl. guests discovered the engagement of their daughter Sallie Ann to Stuart H. Ward Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Ward of Devonshire Rd.

Two hearts surrounded with festive decorations and pierced with an arrow bearing the names "Stu and Sal" greeted the guests as they entered, and over the dining room table hung a large gold engagement ring which also helped to reveal the news.

For the occasion, Sallie chose a waltz length gown of champagne taffeta under net. The mother of the bride-to-be wore a navy blue taffeta cocktail frock trimmed with tiny pearls and sequins.

Stu will be a senior at the University of Michigan and is affiliated with Chi Psi fraternity. The couple plan a June wedding and will reside in Ann Arbor until Stu is graduated.

Respirator Center Graduates Patient

Unable to breathe without aid for nearly a year, 11-year-old Charles Watts, of Napoleon, Mich., now needs a portable respirator for only four hours a day. He was the first patient discharged from University Hospital's new respirator center, established with a $27,000 March of Dimes grant. Miss Elizabeth Clark, occupational therapist, is shown teaching Charlie to play checkers on a special board.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wulz, of Audubon road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Ruth, to James John Flom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Flom, of Rivard boulevard. A June wedding is planned.

Tips Given on Picking A Builder

Selection of a builder is an important step in the process of becoming a home owner. Take the time to find a man or firm with a sound reputation.

There are several ways to choose a reputable, responsible, experienced builder:

- 1—Your banker or mortgage lending institution usually will have a good idea of the caliber of work done by local builders.
- 2—You can call the executive officer of the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit and inquire about member builders. Members of the National Association of Home Builders adhere to a stringently worded Code of Ethics which assures the public of high standards.
- 3—Lumber yards and material dealers know the relative merits of a community's builder.
- 4—The best check of all is a number of satisfied customers for whom a builder has erected houses that have stood the test of years of useful life with low maintenance and repair costs.

Visit past projects erected by the builder. Talk with people for whom he has built. New owners are inclined to be critical, so kind words and apparent satisfaction speak volumes.

Seek a building firm which has an abundance of good, modern equipment of mechanical tools that are time and labor savers.

The care a builder gives to materials delivered to the job site and waiting for use tells much. Window frames an sash, interior doors and kiln-dried lumber for trim should be stored under a roof.

NEWCOMER

Nancy McCollom, after proving her dramatic talent in stock and television, is making her radio debut in the featured role of teenage Nancy Parker in CBS Radio's "It's Always Sunday," weekly situation comedy about a minister and his parishioners.

'Baby! Do I Love My Orange Juice!'

Babies do love their orange juice, and they should have plenty of this natural, Vitamin C-rich food from about the age of two weeks right on through childhood. Government tests show that the Florida frozen concentrated orange juice is ideal for babies, as well as for grownups, so when you're in a hurry about food preparation, you can safely rely on this convenient product. This is the height of the fresh fruit season, and Florida's thin-skinned oranges are so juicy that you'll probably be using those now. When you prepare juice for infants or young children, don't exert too much pressure—too much peel oil may change the naturally sweet flavor of the juice. Hand reaming is the best method of preparation of juice for children who need the whole nutritive value of fresh fruit. Recent studies prove that it creates allergies in practically no cases if properly prepared.

Salvation Army Pot Luck Lunch Auxiliary Meets

Salvation Army officers, with Col. T. M. Larsen, speaker, will feature the program of the Auxiliary to the Salvation Army for the meeting on January 8, at Evangeline Residence, at 1:30 p.m.

Pot Luck Lunch

Southeastern Woman's Club will meet in St. Mark's Methodist Church January 7 at 12 o'clock. Pot luck luncheon will be served. George F. Pierrot, world adventure series "Stories of Celebrities I Have Known," will be the entertainment. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Claude Jurgensen at 1211 Bedford road.

Mothers of Men Topic for Talk

"Mothers of Men" will be the subject of an address to be given by Rev. Hugh F. Smith S.J. of the University of Detroit to members of the Mothers Club of the University of Detroit High School on Tuesday, Jan. 8, at 2 p.m.

Following the meeting, faculty members will be available for consultation in the library where tea will be served by the Freshman Mothers. Mr. Linus Foster and Mrs. Gerald Baysinger are in charge of arrangements.

The Board of Directors will meet at 1 p.m.

Catholic Theatre To Give Play

"The Velvet Glove," the comedy-drama by Rosemary Casey which enjoyed a long run on Broadway two seasons ago, is the Catholic Theatre's adult-stage offering for January.

Directed by Guy Morel, director at Southwestern High School and character actor of the Catholic Theatre for many seasons, "The Velvet Glove" is replete with a cast of experienced and capable actors and actresses.

Lenore Marshall, graduate of Marygrove College, professional radio actress, and leading lady in many Catholic Theatre productions is playing the lead role of "Mother Hildebrand." George Weiler, president of the Catholic Theatre, and amateur actor of many years standing both in the Catholic Theatre and Marygrove College plays, is cast in the lead male role of "Bishop Gregory."

"The Velvet Glove" will be presented at the Knights of Columbus Auditorium, Woodward at Forest, on Friday, January 18 at 8:30 p.m., on Saturday, January 19 at 2:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. and on Sunday, January 20 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are available downtown at Grinnell's, McDevitt's and the Catholic Theatre office, WO. 1-1700. Tickets are given to students at a reduced rate. Special rates are also given to theatre parties.

When might makes right the job can never be satisfactory to both parties concerned.

Seven College Committee Arrange Demonstrations

The Seven College Committee has announced its scholarship fund project for the current year, 1951-1952. The Committee has engaged Dione Lucas, famous as the author of "The Cordon Bleu Cook Book," to give a series of cooking demonstrations in Detroit this winter. Mrs. Lucas will give two series of five demonstrations on consecutive Tuesdays beginning February 12, 1952. She will give a morning and an evening series of two-hour demonstrations in the auditorium of the Veteran's Memorial Building.

Mrs. Lucas is English, though she was born and brought up in France. She is a well-known graduate of the Cordon Bleu Cooking School in Paris. Her diploma makes her one of the few people authorized to use the name in her own work. Before the war she owned and operated a restaurant in London. While there she catered to many famous hosts and hostesses including the Prince of Wales.

During the war she came to Canada and began a restaurant there. She opened the Cordon Bleu Restaurant in New York after the war and now makes her headquarters in that city. She did then and continues now to operate a cooking school for adults and classes for children. Her time is currently divided among the school, television demonstrations in New York and appearances in other cities in the United States. In her series here, Mrs. Lucas will demonstrate completely many of the favorite recipes from her own book, as well as many which are not available in print. In addition to the excellence of her cooking itself, Mrs. Lucas is a charming and entertaining person and will afford her audience a good time as well as instruction.

The Seven College Committee is an association of the local alumnae clubs of Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley Colleges. The clubs cooperate each year on a project to raise funds for scholarships which are awarded to local girls.

The Committee wishes each year to have its project accomplish a two-fold goal—to bring to Detroit someone who would not otherwise be seen here, and to apply the money thus raised to the education of girls from the community. An average of from seven to ten girls are benefited each year by these funds.
