CRITICAL campaign against polio, William R. Howard, Wayne County Chairman said today.

"In the past four years polio has accounted for 133,000 victims, and has cost the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis $70,000,000.00 for patient care alone."

"Here in Wayne County, more than a million and a half in March of Dimes funds has been spent on more than 2,200 patients for hospital care, respirators, wheelchairs, crutches, and all of the medical and nursing care involved. We haven't raised half enough money to keep pace with the disease's number of cases of polio.

This year must call forth the greatest volunteer effort ever in Wayne County, Michigan and the United States called for a great volunteer effort on January 2 and 3 and 4, 1951, throughout the month.

Youth Work at Christ Church Is Increasing

On Monday evening, January 7, the parishioners of Christ Church crowded into the Assembly room for the Annual Meeting of the Church. The Rev. J. H. Anderson, reported all expenses for the past year had been met with the exception of $1,000. Anderson also reported that this year's Budget had been raised $1,000. The Rev. J. H. Anderson also reported on the progress of the parish during the past year, pointing out the increased enrollment in the Church School which is now over 600; also the rapid growth in the work among young people.

The following men were elected to office: Senior Warden, John R. Ford, Jr.; Junior Warden, Dr. Arthur McGraw, Secretary of Parish, Henry Ledyard, Jr.; Secretary of the Vestry, Joseph Starnitz, Assistant Secretary, Harrison D. Watson, Treasurer, Wendell Anderson.

Assistant Treasurers: C. F. K. Swartz, Vestry Secretary, Wendell Anderson, Dr. Arthur McGraw, Secretary of the Vestry, Harrison D. Watson, Treasurer, Wendell Anderson.

The induction of the new vestry will take place this Sunday at 11 o'clock.

POINTE PARAGRAPHS

Miss Gretchen Westervelt, of Potsdam, N. Y., was entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. George R. True on Friday.

Mrs. Westervelt, librarian of the State Teachers College in Potsdam, was also interested in the new library at Grosse Pointe as they are in the process of building a new library at the college in Potsdam.

George N. Couillard, 21625 Utland Drive, St. Clair, Mich., returned recently from Hartford, Conn., where he was graduated from the Hartford College of Business and earned a degree in the North Atlantic and Pacific Theaters of Operations.

Mrs. Couillard is associated with his father in the insurance business in this vicinity in the Hartford-Couillard Agency.

He is a veteran of three years active duty with the United States Navy and served overseas in the North Atlantic and Pacific Theaters of Operations.

View Pointe, "Grosse Pointe High School's semi-annual pictorial publication patterned after Life Magazine, is a substitute, and probably a unique one—for the traditional high school annual.

View Pointe doesn't attempt to review the whole year's activities, but tells interesting picture stories about the school program. Because of its design and coverage of student life, View Pointe has a very wide appeal.

'52 Series of Dances Begins

The first in the 1952 series of Square Dances under the sponsorship of The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will be held in the Community Room at the church, 211 Morris road, on Friday evening January 18 at 8:15 p.m.

The Wesley Rars, well known callers, will be on hand to officiate.

Free tickets call either Mrs. Harry E. Rinefort at TU 4-2220 or Mrs. K. P. Leipprandt at TU 5-5009.

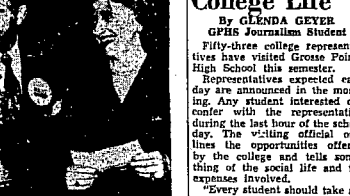

To Lecture at Sixth Church

That complete safety for the individual and the world is available in this age through spiritual understanding of God will be discussed in the free lecture to be given in Sixth Church of Christ, Scientist, on Monday evening, January 14 at eight o'clock. This lecture entitled, "Christian Science: The Basis of True Safety" challenges the assumption that we can rely on physical force or material conditions for safety. But outward protection does come through right thinking and action, based on knowing God's law and is brought about in the act of prayer.

C. Ayres, a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

COOK OF THE YEAR

Mrs. Samuel P. Giesler (left), La Jolla, Calif., accepts from Miss Margaret Truman a check for $25,000 and a replica of the complete General Electric kitchen which she won as senior finalist in the third annual Pillsbury Bake-off contest held at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York. Art Linkletter, radio and TV star, is seated at center, and Mrs. Giesler is standing to the right. Mrs. Giesler, who is a member of the Pillsbury Club, offers his congratulations. Mrs. Weston named her entry, a devil's food cake termed the "Sweet Thing" in cake contests, "The Double Delight Cake."

Various Topics Interest Legue of Women Voters

Congressman Lewis C. Rabaut, of the Fourth District, spoke on the morning of January 2, at the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe East at War Memorial Center.

Mrs. Edward Gehring, chairman of Voter's Service, introduced the speaker, who reviewed his action on several governmental issues. After a question and answer period, Mrs. Gehring's constituents to write to him in Washington regarding their problems.

Valuation for 947 Permits to Build at Over 17 Million

According to a report just issued by L. M. Bartlett, director of pupil personnel for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, 947 permits for new dwellings units were issued during this year's history of the district. The next largest number of permits issued in any year was 838 in 1948, followed by 825 in 1941 and 820 in 1946.

During the five year period 1947-51 inclusive a total of 4,282 residential dwelling permits have been issued. Records show that building has taken place in this area for this period the major amount of building has been done in the total of 172 or 76 percent of permits issued were in this area. Of this number issued in 1951, 339 or 37.9 percent were in Grosse Pointe Woods; 121 or 12.1 percent in Grosse Pointe Park; 150 or 15.1 percent in the Park; 100 or 10.1 percent in the school district's portion Harper Creek; 100 or 10.1 percent in the City of Grosse Pointe; and 19 or 2.0 percent in Grosse Pointe Shores.

New Speakers Bureau for Civic Groups

The Michigan employment security committee has set up a new speakers bureau to address civic, veteran, labor, educational or business groups. Walter Hammer, manager of the East Side branch office, said today.

Subjects include job, unemployment insurance, the market conditions, or the complexities of the employment security act.

These services are all rendered without charge, but speakers and the Michigan job-finding and benefit payment programs are regarded as models for other states in the union.

Senior Prom Plans Laid in Deep Secrecy

By JANE ROWE

GEIS Journalism Student

The Grosse Pointe High School has laid its plans for the traditional senior prom to be held at the home of Mrs. George R. True on Friday, January 12, at 9 o'clock. The prom will honor the January '52 graduates.

Tinney Metting and Carol Ford who have gotten the 12B artists' committee are busy planning the prom. They are getting last minute jobs done.

Carol Lundgren has seen to it that there will be enough refreshments for all the couples in the 12B and 12A.

Key Catchick, 12B treasurer, and her committee are putting the last-minute touches on the intermission entertainment.

The 12B artists are being selected to 12B, 12A, sponsors, chaperons and Board of Education members.

The intermission committee headed by Jan Rowe.

The best artists of the prom have put their heads together to have the best dance program under Susan Smith's direction.

The 12B officers, Chuck Sweet, president, John J. Giesler, vice-president, Jan Rowe, secretary, Key Catchick, treasurer, and their committees are busy planning the prom.

The music will be provided by Billy Galy's orchestra. There will be no admission charge.

Pointe's Ballet Lovers See Lemanis-Tillak Group

An evening of ballet and piano preludes will be offered Grosse Pointe on Saturday, January 12 at 8:15 p.m. in the Grace Auditorium, when the Lemanis-Tillak Ballet Group in connection with the Lemanis-Tillak Ballet Group in "The Girl with the Flaxen Hair" and divers entertainers, plus Mrs. Anne Husband as piano soloist.

Miss Husband, on the graduate instrumental faculty of Wayne University, has chosen to perform a program of preludes two selections from the work of Dr. Richard Wye, daughter of the residents, Mrs. Wye, Mrs. C. R. Wye.

Dr. Wye is also on the faculty of Wayne University. The Detroit Symphony Orchestra chose to perform one of her symphonic compositions in concert last spring.

The Lemanis-Tillak Ballet Group is directed by Oswalds Lemanis, choreographer and Mirza Tillak (Lemanis), ballet mistress.

Mrs. Lemanis has an outstanding background in ballet, originating in Riga, Latvia, where he was premier dancer and later ballet master and choreographer for the Latvian National Grand Opera Ballet. Here he produced the program of development of the Latvian Ballet that he not only knew but also felt the vitality of the classical ballet, but he also led the ballet into a new, independent era by means of his original works.

Frank E. Dorch will continue in the capacity of Executive Secretary.

It's Smart to Re-Do Resort Hats for Winter, Spring

This double-brim felt cloche in navy blue is faced with falla in white, has Morocco's wings of ribbons and is an eye-catching headpiece.

BY EDNA MILLER

THE resort hat that can be fitted into a winter budget provides a real tonic for the spirit, when the days are long and the nights are short by filling a spot in a spring wardrobe.

The type of spring bonnet that you choose will depend, first, on your hairdo. Just as there is great variety in hair styles, there is great variety in hat fashions. For the smooth, closely-cropped hair, there are many variations of the tricorne. The girl with the poodle cut will find lots of tiny hats that are worn sideways or straight on. And for the short and backwashed hairstyle, the best hat choice is one that flairs forward.

The resort hat is often a white hat. Happily, it's the simple and untrifled while hat that provides a dramatic accent for winter furs or for fabric coats in dark colors.

Many women find that the best antidote for winter snowstorms is the flower hat. This year, they're smaller than ever. Some of them are so tiny that they just cap the ears. They may be entirely indoors if they may be done in green leaves with flowers.

The small and shiny straw sailor is another resort fashion that's a good bet for wear right now. This, in navy, red or white and will bring for wear, with suit.

Small flower top of purple and mauve violets is set on a shallow crown. Velvet petals are worked with feather-stitch to make a hat that's right for winter wear with fur.

DAR Chapter To Celebrate 59th Birthday

When Louise St. Clair Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution celebrates its 59th birthday at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 10th, with musical tea, Mrs. Henry Burns Joy will welcome the members at the door of Newberry House, her own glorious home. Mrs. Joy is not only honorary Regent and Parliamentarian of the chapter, but also honorary Vice-President General of the National Society of the D.A.R. Assisting her as co-hostess will be Mrs. Frederic Zelen.

Regent's neighboring D.A.R. Chapters and State Executive Board members will be present in honor, according to Mrs. Sidney C. Probert, regent of Louise Chapter.

Dean Taylor, Detroit soprano who is soloist at the Woodward Avenue Christian Church, will entertain with a group of songs by American composers since D.A.R. tries to promote interest in and understanding of our American music, past and present.

During the tea, background music will be furnished by the three chapter members who comprise the Louise St. Clair Quartet—Mrs. Frank A. Loblich, cellist, Mrs. Harold W. Mohr, Harvard pianist, an Mrs. John W. Fetousky of Pemberton, Violin.

Tea will be served by members of the social committee, Mrs. William E. Lantz, of Fisher road, chairman, while reservations are being taken by Mrs. Henry A. Cook and Mrs. Floyd W. Dargel.

Everyone is more or less foolish—but only a few insist upon proving it.

STRIPED FOR ACTION—Smartly tailored for swimming, playing or tanning under the Southern sun, Claire McCordell's three-piece cotton suit is done in sophisticated beige stripes against a dark green background. The sleek halter tops a pair of very brief diapher shorts (for serious sun bathing) that are modestly covered by a slim, wrap-around skirt.

Jaycees Mark 32nd Year

When members of the Detroit Junior Board of Commerce celebrate Jaycees Week this year, from January 14 to 21, they will be participating in a nationwide observance of the founding of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce 32 years ago. The National Jaycee Group, which now numbers nearly 2,000 clubs and 175,000 individuals, was established in 1920 in St. Louis, Missouri.

First national Jaycee president, and the man who started the Jaycee idea, was Henry Geisselbauer. Geisselbauer, a popular youth, used his dancing club contacts to get started. He called the new organization "Young Men's Progressive Civic Association."

It was making a name for itself in St. Louis when World War I came. Nearly the entire membership enlisted, and the club went into mothballs for the duration.

When the war ended, the "Y.M.P.C.A." found itself short of funds. It survived through the help of Clarence E. Howard, an older St. Louis businessman, who was president of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce.

In gratitude for Howard's assistance, the "Y.M.P.C.A." members changed their organization's name to the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

By the young men's movement spread over the nation, the club was reactivated. On January 21, 1921, the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed by various local Junior Chambers meeting in St. Louis.

Art Institute To Show Novel Film Exhibit

The Detroit Institute of Arts announces its Midwest Premier of "Picture Adventure in Color," Sunday, January 13, through Saturday, January 19. Based on the promise that great art can produce great motion-picture entertainment, "Picture" recreates the masterpieces of six famous artists: Bosch, Carpaccio, Goya, Toulouse-Lautrec, Gauguin, and Grand Wood.

Presenting scenes from paintings valued at millions of dollars and hanging in museums and private collections throughout the world, the film exhibits a novel approach to its art-subjects. The camera moves from point to point within the scene as the observer's eye would naturally follow the picture—bringing to life all the dramatic expressed by the artist.

Services of eminent film directors, technicians and advisors in American and European art centers are recruited for the production. Original musical scores for the six episodes were composed of distinguished composers: Darius Milhaud, Isaac Albéniz, and Roman Vlad. Andres Segovia, world famous guitar artist, plays the Albéniz music for Goya scenes. Narration is by Gregory Peck, Henry Fonda, Lilli Palmer and Martin Gabel. Live action shots between episodes feature Vincent Price, who explains the sequence.

Pictura Films Corporation, producers of "Picture," began their venture into art films with the idea that drama in great painting can be made exciting movie fare for the general public—not only for art-lovers.

"Picture" will be shown in the Auditorium of the Institute of Arts for one week beginning Sunday evening, January 13, at 8:30. Daily showings Monday, January 14 through Saturday, January 19, will include matinees at 2 and 4 p.m. and evening performances at 7 and 9 p.m.

Prices: matinees, Adults 80c, children under 16 and students 50c. For evenings: Adults $1.20, children and students 80c.

Alumnae Meets

The Greater Pointe Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi will meet at 8 o'clock Monday evening, January 14th, at the home of Mrs. Arthur E. Wilson of St. Clair avenue. Mrs. Wilson will be assisted by Mrs. R. L. Duncan and Mrs. Albert P. Teestel, Jr.
