GPHS Journalism Student

The Grosse Pointe High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Dewey D. Kalember, will present its first formal concert this Friday night, April 14, in the Pierce auditorium at 8:15 o'clock.

Three soloists will make their appearance Friday night, among them Dick Osius, cellist, who will play an excerpt from the Concerto No. 4 for Cello by G. Paganini. The string section of the orchestra will play the novelty, "Jazz Pizzicato." A tone poem, "Keltic Lament," will feature the full orchestra. The finale from Beethoven's "Fifth," excerpts from several Wagnerian operas, and a symphonic paraphrase on "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" from the Broadway hit "Oklahoma!" will help round out the program.

This is the first time that the orchestra has ever attempted to put on a full-fledged concert of its own, and the orchestra members, under the baton of Mr. Kalember, have been working for it since last fall.

Men's Club of Grosse Pointe's Episcopal Christ Church hears Reverend Clarence Haden demand greater participation of congregation on society's reclamation. Cites rarely invoked duty of church members—to participate as unordained ministers. Indoctrination as ministers to start soon.

To an astonished and surprised group of some 55 men, representing about half the membership of the Men's Club of Christ Church of Grosse Pointe, the Reverend Clarence Haden, candy salesman-turned-Episcopal-minister, and now one of the church's top organizers, dropped a verbal bomb with the announcement that the familiar Golden Rule is not religion. He called on the Men's Club to transform itself into ministers, and as rapidly as it felt qualified, to spread the word, the deeds to come later.

The Reverend Haden, from the staff of the Presiding Bishop headquartered at Greenwich, Connecticut, was the principal speaker at the recently re-created Men's Club of Christ Church. Mr. Haden is the Episcopal Church's leader of lay instruction, operating through a committee headed by Harvey Firestone, Jr., of Akron, Ohio. Purpose of the committee is to awaken interest and knowledge in the whole idea of Christianity, without which, according to Clarence Haden, the many activities of churches, both at present and in the future, have little meaning. For the Episcopal Church, or any other church for that matter, to penetrate the community even further, the Reverend Haden made it clear that the first step is for the intensifying of Christian knowledge among those who already have some information on this great force. Information on this great force, Christians, said Haden, overestimate the amount and depth of information they already have, and underestimate their intelligence.

The second step in penetrating the community with Christianity, Haden declared, can be those material aids for the furtherance of Christian thought such as clubs and Sunday schools.

The desirability of a Sunday School building for Christ Church is certainly obvious, said Haden, but before any organized drive for such material additions is made, Haden felt it highly important that the full purpose of Christianity, and thus the place of a Church School in the religious forces, be understood.

Most people, according to Haden, understand the relationship of man to man. This is the Golden Rule. What they don't understand is the relationship of man to God. One reason people don't understand this is because there are not enough qualified people to explain it. Thus the request for additional ministers at Christ Church, and the emphasis placed by Mr. Haden on the Men's Club as the source for these ministers.

Kendrick Brown, president of the Christ Church Men's Club, accepted the challenge that the club provide extra ministers after first undergoing intensive training. Indoctrination classes will be held starting early in April with the Men's Club teaching itself through self-sappedointed students and leaders of religious thought.

Next meeting of the Men's Club is scheduled for 9 a.m. Sunday, March 23. This will be a breakfast meeting, at which the Men's Club will be addressed by the Dean of the Episcopal Cathedral in St. Louis.

By Delphine Walgenbach
GPHS Journalism Student

The Y-Teens at Grosse Pointe High School, a junior branch of the YWCA, inducted 108 girls into the school's two chapters last Monday.

Miss Millie Quon, a YW social worker, spoke on the purpose of Y-Teens.

Well Known Minister Holds Lenten Services

Dr. Perry Eppler Gresham, minister of Central Woodward Christian Church will conduct a series of Lenten services at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, beginning March 20. The subjects of Dr. Gresham's sermons will be: March 20—"Life's Final Imperative"; March 27—"When the False Gods Go" and April 3—"Unshakable Faith."

When Dr. Gresham came to Detroit to succeed Dr. Edgar Dewitt Jones at the Central Woodward Christian Church, Sheila Wood wrote of him as follows: "Philosopher, educator, and poet, as well as clergyman, the tall man who has come out of the west to ride herd on the tensions of the madhouse that every modern city has become is, praise be blessed with the saving grace of humor, that just balance of all faculties of man, the best security against the pride of knowledge and the conceits of the imagination."

Dr. Gresham is regular summer preacher to the Church of Scotland in old Renfield Street Church in Glasgow, where it is necessary to lock the church gates a quarter of an hour before the services on account of an overflowed church.

In 1950 he toured the Middle East, covering the political, economic and social conditions of this area. He serves as a representative of the Commission on

Parcells and New Kerby To Hold Open House For District Residents

The Board of Education announces open houses to be held at the new Charles A. Parcells Junior High School and at the New Kerby Elementary School in Sunday afternoon, March 16, between the hours of two and five p.m. All residents of the school district are cordially invited to visit these new schools.

The first unit of Parcells which consisted of eighteen rooms opened in September of 1947. This first unit operated as an elementary school from September of 1947. The completion of the building was authorized by a special vote of the residents of Grosse Pointe in February 1950. Construction of the final unit was started by June of that year.

At the time that contracts were awarded for the completion of the building it was hoped that it would be completed and ready for occupancy by September of this school year. Due to certain material shortages and other delays, this was not possible. Even though much remained to be done when school opened last September, the building was far enough along so that classes started according to schedule, although it was necessary to operate on a double session basis for the first few weeks.

Work has been going on continuously in the building until now, with the exception of a few minor details, the building is completed. There are 40 classrooms in the building, which include special rooms for Science, Music, Speech and Dramatics, Industrial and Household Arts, a Pupil Library, Gymsnasiums, Arts and Crafts and a Community Room.

In addition, there is a completely equipped auditorium with a seating capacity of 900. One wing of the building is designed for a Public Library. This new Public Library which is comparable in size to the Park Branch of the Public Library located in the Pierce School, will also be open for inspection and visitation during the same hours as the rest of the building. A special dedication program will be held at three o'clock in the library under the sponsorship of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Library.

This school which is located at the corner of Mack Avenue and Vernier Road is named after the late Charles A. Parcells. Mr. Parcells was a member of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education for 21 years and served as President of the Board for 16 of these years.

The architectural firm that designed, planned an and supervised the building of Parcells School was Giffels and Vallet, Inc. and L. Rossetti. The General Contractor was the O. W. Burke Company, the Mechanical Contractor was the L. L. McConachie Company, and the Electrical Contractor was the Hamill Electric Company.

The first unit of the New Kerby Elementary School was opened in September 1949. Ground for the addition was broken in August 1950. Children moved into the new unit on November 19 of this school year. This completed building consists of 17 standard classrooms, a Pupil Library, an all purpose room, a gymnasium, an office suite and other auxiliary rooms.

The architectural firm for this building was Derrick and Gamber, Inc., the general contractor was the Joseph A. Krausmann Company, the mechanical contractor was Alban G. Brinkman, and the electrical contractor the Maryland Electric Company.

James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools, stated that it is the hope of the Board of Education that many residents of the school district will visit these new schools in order to see the many fine features which are available for the boys and girls and the residents of this community.

Kopp's Pharmacy possessed on Farms Market and purchased four big points in the G.P. Rotary Club Bowling League, bowling at the G.P. Woods Recreation, last Friday night. Farms, lost without their captain, Ed Taube, he being on a much needed vacation down south. Bill Kopp and Irv Schoof were tops for the winners. Jack Grady and Howard Ewald . . . for the depressed "farmers."

Charlie Bray and Nick Schubeck had a big hand in Piches Barber Shop's four-pointer over the Auto Club. With seven more weeks of bowling, Piches, although halfway down in the standings, could surprise, although the Middies and Judies are away up there. The Barbers do most of their good bowling in the run down the stretch.

Wolverine Potato Chips bowled miserably in their first game but really came back with a bang to wallop Steiner Ford, 3-1. Murray and Lutzau had 244 and 218 in the closer, which helped Wolverine to a 9-6 closer.

Village Wine Shop stayed in the running by winning from Motor City Tires, 3-1. Chuck Heise and Art Louwers were a big help to the winners while Russ Piche and Al Meyer rolled over their heads for the losers.

The two teams on top of the league, split with their opponents. Earl Holzbaugh won two from the leaders and Mondry Cleaners held P & J Cocktail Lounge to a draw.

In tomorrow night's schedule, two matches stand out. Middle Atlantic tangles with Mondry Cleaner and Mondry will have to win if they intend to challenge, they're not too far behind. Village Wine Shop will have to stop Wolverine Potato Chips, who have their eyes glued on that top position. Next in order will be the Steiner Ford and Kopp's Pharmacy match, this too, will be a humdinger. Auto Club and Earl Holzbaugh Motors will go through the motions but their results won't hurt anyone. P & J has a soft touch and will probably take the whole shebang from Moto: City Tires. There is a lot of rivalry between the Farms Market and Piches Barbers contest. At this time of the year the edge goes to Piche.

Wrathful Wrestling Fans Vent Ire on Referee Friday As Favorite Is Counted Out

Their blood boiling as they witnessed their heroes taking a shellacking in the first two bouts last Friday night at Chesterfield Arena, Gratiot near 10-Mile road, the fans staged a wild demonstration against referee Al Thomas as he counted out their favorite.

In the first match, Steve Zold, returning here after a long absence proved he was not improved in temperament as he gouged, kicked and beat Russ Bishop into submission in 22 minutes. Johnny Gates, as usual the roughest of villains, clawed, gouged and kicked out a draw in 30 minutes against Scotty McWilliams.

Climax was capped when Jan Gotch ran Ferenz Saksay into the ring post, knocking him senseless. Not content with this, Gotch put a pile driver on the KOed wrestler to really finish the job. As the referee tolled out the ten count, the fans rushed to the ring trying to appeal to Thomas to disqualify Gotch. When he refused, they wildly demanded his scalp.

In the feature bout the "Ghost" took 30 minutes to dispose of Stanley Hollick.

This Friday: Louie Klein meets the "Ghost"; Paul Orth mixes with Stanley Hollick; Jan Gotch meets the Sheik of Araby and Steve Zold tangles with Jim Hady.

Open your Heart when he calls!

Someday this month, a neighbor will knock at your door with an opportunity you won't want to miss. An opportunity to give help to the helpless, hope to the hopeless. An opportunity to shelter the victims of fire and flood . . . to help a wounded veteran back to health . . . to save a life by making sure that needed blood is there. That neighbor who knocks is your Red Cross representative. And remember—he's not only contributing money, as he'll ask you to do. Family Nite

Eighty-three parents and children attended a "Family Nite" at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club Monday evening, March 3, at 7:00 p.m. Playing host and hostess for the occasion were the Monday Boys' Club, the Tuesday Girls' Club, and the Wednesday Boys' and Girls' Club, the children ranging in age from six to ten years old. The party which lasted only one hour as "younger" brothers and sisters were invited included entertainment, refreshments and community singing.

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," a puppet show, was given by the Tuesday Girls' Club who followed the script except for the addition of a part for a dog as there was one too many girls in the group. The puppets had been made by the girls at a regular meeting from asbestos, paper, and scraps of material. Appearing in this twenty minute production were Misses Judy Myers, Karen Bertrand, Catherine Gulevich, Toni Bottine, Sharon Bernth, Eva Duncan, Marjory Burns, Patsy Marley, Marjory Patterson, Sue Kaltenbach, Joanne Storz, Nancy Forsythe, Linda Williams and Phyllis Page.

Mr. George Newport and Mr. Gary Sande representing the Monday Boys' Club spoke in a few minutes on "What We Do in Our Club."

The parents reciprocated in the entertaining by singing "old, historical" tunes like "Shine on Harvest Moon" and "For Me and My Gal," much to the amusement of their offspring. The evening ended with refreshments, apple juice and cookies, being served by the older girls.

Tuesday, March 4, marked the first meeting of a new young men's club started at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club under the leadership of Mr. John DiBiaggio, staff member. A weekly group, it has undertaken as its first project the designing and constructing of model cars, looking forward to racing them in competitions. The possibility of a public demonstration of outstanding models is being considered.

Members of the new group are Duane West, 2181 Ridgmont; Tom Fisher, 20725 Nesbit, Dovie Martins, 2132 Roslyn; Bruce Sellers, 21751 Roslyn; Bob Duross, 2080 Nesbit; Merrel Hodgson, 2088 Ridgmont; Robert Richardson, 20860 Ridgmont; Denny Preston, 20844 8 Mile; Ronnie Southerland, 20876 Nesbitt; Ray Beveridge, 2216 Nesbit; Jimmy Cirei, 2044 Ridgmont; Donnie Rogers, 2160 Roslyn. The boys range in age from fifteen to twenty.

CAMERAS CATCH PICTORIAL NEWS OF INTEREST FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

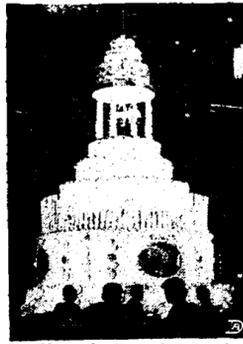

JUST DESSERT—Cpl. Jene Weaver (left) of Columbia, Ohio, shows perfect pie-pitching form as he connects with a lemon chiffon strike right in the face of Sgt. Leroy E. Ferringer of Sharon, Pa. Men of the 26th Infantry Regiment, stationed at Frankfort, Germany, threw more than 20 pies at $18 a toss—with top-kicks for targets—to increase their March of Dimes contributions to a total of more than $21,000.

FLED SOVIET SHACKLES—Edmundas Paulauskas (left), Llonginas Kublickas, and Juozas Grismanauskas (right) emerge from a plane at Idlewild Airport after their escape from behind the Iron Curtain. The three seamen are among the first to flee from Lithuania since the Reds occupied that country in 1944. They did it by overpowering the three Soviet guards on their trawler in the Baltic Sea. By dinghy they escaped to Sweden, where they were given political refuge. A Lithuanian relief agency managed to get them to Western Germany and from there they were flown to the U. S.

PRE-OPERATION TEST FOR AIRMEN—An airman, scheduled to undergo an operation, has his lung capacity determined by a pre-operative device as a Randolph Field doctor watches. The mechanism reveals whether a patient can survive removal of all or part of a lung. The Randolph base hospital has been designated as the Air Force's center for general surgery and non-tuberculosis chest surgery.

CHICAGO—Towering twenty-feet tall and aglitter with 161 candles (there's one on top to grow on), this giant cake rises to the occasion of Marshall Field & Company's one-hundredth birthday. Since its founder first declared, "Give the lady what she wants!", the Chicago store has grown with this city, the Midwest and the nation. Now visitors from all over the world gather around the century cake at Field's to help celebrate.

DOWN AND UP—Designed by hair stylist Joseph Fleischer of New York, this pony tail (left) is for your "Alice in Wonderland" moods. The versatile hairpiece can also be styled in all manner of sophisticated chignons. At right, the long pony tail is shown in a flat cartwheel with a rosette of curls springing forth from the center for a hairdo that is at once daringly original and refreshingly young.

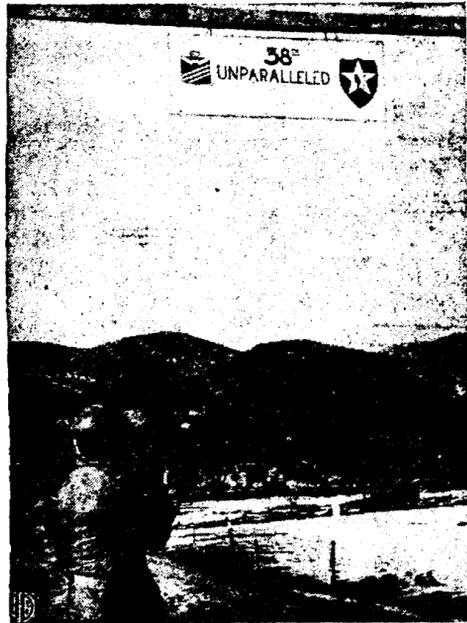

GETTING A PIE FILLING—Other champions have to train hard to develop their skills, but all Robert Noble, 10, had to do to win his was show up and dig into those pies. Still, Bobby looks like he's working as hard as any boxer who ever went 10 rounds—this is serious! He's champ of a unique pie-eating and clean-up contest held at Kips Bay Boys Club, New York, and won a two-weeks summer vacation at the club's camp.

BLONDE BEAUT—Oscar-winning Judy Holliday admires her reflection in a white tulle and embroidered lace formal gown. She's currently starring in Columbia's "The Marrying Kind."

HIGH FLYER—Dick Button, 21-year-old Harvard University student from Englewood, N. J., and 1948 Olympic figure-skating gold medal winner, performs a high-flying leap on the ice at Garmisch, Germany, where he put in some practice sessions for the Olympic Games at Oslo, Norway. Smooth is the word for his performance.

SIGN OVER KOREA—In Korea, that sign might make someone think it marks the 38th Parallel, which divided Korea. But this soldier points out that it very definitely says, "The 38th Unparalleled Regiment, 2nd Division."

G. I. EYEFUL—Called off the set of 20th Century-Fox's "Don't Bother to Knock," curvaceous Marilyn Monroe expresses delight upon hearing that the soldiers at nearby March Field have joined other service groups in selecting her as their No. 1 pin-up girl. To date, more than 15,000 requested photos of Miss Monroe have been forwarded to service men all over the world.

JENSENS RAISING NEW TALENT—Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Jensen and their daughter, 16-month-old Jan, gather at the piano for family fun. Jackie is the New York Yankee outfielder contending for the starting position vacated by Joe DiMaggio, and Mrs. Jensen is the former Zoe Ann Olson, star swimmer in the 1948 Olympics, returning to the limelight this year as a member of the current Olympic team.

ATHLETE OVERCOMES BLINDNESS—Though almost totally blind, Wilfred (Bill) Bangerter is making a name for himself as a shot-putter. Bangerter, blind except for a little light perception at short range with his left eye, stands 6 feet 5 inches tall and weighs 260 pounds. He can get the 16-pound shot away in good style (left) after being placed in the circle by a friend, Jack Taylor (photo at right).

SEEKS HEIR TO $4,000,000—Theodore Roth, who is looking for a man who is an heir to $4,000,000 but doesn't know it, muses over the newspaper clippings of other cases he has handled. Roth, whose business is looking for people who have money coming to them, has spent 17 years at this work, but says his attempt to find a "thin man named William E. ..." is the toughest case of his career.

BACK IN CIRCULATION—Eva Peron, following her husband, President Juan D. Peron (wearing bow tie), exchanges greetings on her arrival at the Argentine Governors' Conference in Buenos Aires. It marked the First Lady's initial public appearance since undergoing a major operation last November.

MOST CHARMING—U. S. Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and TV's Faye Emerson receive Charm Institute's awards as the most charming women in government and television, respectively. In ceremonies in Washington, Dorothy Shames, stylist for Florida Fashions, makes the presentation of the statuettes.
