Independent Community Grocers Are Selected to Market Coronet Coffee

The Neighborhood, locally owned, Grocers have been selected by the House of Gehlert to stock and distribute Coronet Coffee because of the many conveniences and friendly, personalized service offered to housewives by these Grocers.

Independent Neighborhood Grocers are residents of the community they serve which adds to their dealings with their customers, a neighborly spirit which creates confidence and results in mutual satisfaction for all concerned. Besides being a member of the community the Independent Neighborhood Grocer is permanently located and contributes to the neighborhood prosperity by paying taxes, employing neighborhood help, participating in community and city-wide doings and always giving customers satisfaction in quality and price—his foremost consideration.

For these and many other worthwhile reasons—for the best in food products and values, it is suggested that housewives trade in their Independent Grocers ... those grocers who are part and parcel of your community
