Grosse Exaggerations?

By A. PRYOR

Ed Sullivan, on the "Good News" hour last Thursday night, brought back many memories, but none so poignant as when he introduced Fannie Brice, singing "My Man," just as she did in the Follies of 1921, when she was married to Nick Arnstein. Nicky was in trouble at the time and Fannie was very much in love with him. She never gave a performance without crying during the "My Man" song. It passed for a good piece of acting, but Fannie WASN'T acting.

We are sorry that one who signs herself "Grosse Pointe Reader," didn't give us her name and address, because we'd like to have answered her letter personally. Since we cannot do so, we'd like her to know: That we appreciate her interest; That Solvental CAN be bought at many five and tens; That we didn't mean to imply that Amos' looks had any bearing on the merit of his program, but merely described him with the idea that his fans might be interested in his appearance; Lastly, as to our lack of education—we agree one hundred percent.

A veddy 'hostess' hostess gave a large dinner party recently, to which a young man about town, was invited. He arrived so early that his host and hostess had not yet appeared, so the young man, feeling cold, drew up a nearby chair to the cheerfully blazing fire and proceeded to make himself comfortable. He had just started to seat himself, when the chair, a priceless antique, creaked, groaned and subsequently fell apart. The startled m. a. t. frantic with alarm and weakened by 'one too many,' threw the chair into the fireplace and fiddled with his conscience while the antique burned. The disappearance of the chair would still be a mystery to the hostess, had the young man not unburdened his soul, (over a quart of Scotch), to several friends, who promptly relayed the story.

We'd be happy to become a "Best" dressed woman, if Best's continue to display those cute little suspender dresses that decorate their windows this week. We can picture ourselves wearing one, as we stand beneath a tree with the wind blowing our permanent way and that, while we laughing twist a long piece of grass between nearly teeth!

Since way back in '33, when prosperity sneaked up an alley and ducked into a side-door, to stay hidden indefinitely, the canned dog food sales have increased about twenty five percent a year. This hasn't very much to do with an increase of dogs. The food has been sold for human consumption, because it's cheap and contains pure food. These are not statistics, but the result of a superficial survey among the poor, who find they can feed a

City Amends Building Ordinance

At a meeting held Monday, May 15, 1939, the council of the City of Grosse Pointe adopted an amendment to the building ordinance prohibiting the construction of a garage upon a lot within the city unless the building permit shall provide for the immediate building of a residence thereon or unless a residence shall have been already built or is being constructed at the same time. This action being taken to prevent the erection of a garage upon a lot and the use thereof for other than purposes strictly incidental to residential use of the premises. No so-called garages-homes being permitted.

Miss Donna Williams Returns from Chicago

Miss Donna Williams has returned from participating in Jean Ferrell's new studio opening in Chicago. Jean Ferrell, originator of the famous reducing creams and also Concentra health food, has arranged with Donna for the Michigan distributorship of her products.

New Store Building in City of Grosse Pointe

Fisher road opposite the Grosse Pointe High School is the site of a pronounced building boom at the moment, there being three structures now being erected, composed of seven individual store units. In connection with the development some of the older frame dwellings in the City are being razed to make room and the transformation is expected to add a great deal to the sightliness of the neighborhood.

Opposite Viewpoints on New Wage-Hour Law

Fred C. Perkins, left, the battery firm owner who was convicted by a federal court jury and jailed for a short time in 1933 on a charge of violating the National Industrial Recovery act, has announced himself a foe of the new federal wage-hour law. "I defy them to enforce it," he said. He is shown in jail in 1933. This attitude was one of the minor worries of Elmer F. Andrews, right, wage-hour administrator, as he conferred with his secretary, Miss Eugenia Pope, during the first hours of the act's effectiveness.

High School to Present Concerts on May 26-27

The following information is given regarding the two concerts to be given at the Grosse Pointe High School on May 26 and May 27:

These two concerts are a duplication of the concerts of June 2 and 3, 1938. At that time we had the assistance of the University of Michigan Symphony Orchestra and soloists from Ann Arbor.

This year we will again have the same active co-operation of the University. The program of each concert will be in two parts. The first part will present the orchestra alone in a program of symphonic music under the baton of Mr. Thor Johnson, the orchestra's regular conductor.

The second half of the program will feature a quartet of vocal soloists, the Grosse Pointe High School Choir of 124 voices, and the University Symphony as accompaniment. The work to be performed is Mendelssohn's Oratorio, "Elijah," a work of great dramatic intensity. The chorus has been working on this music since February and there is every indication that it will be well done. The soloists are exceptionally fine. The leading role, that of Elijah, will be sung by Mr. Hardin Van Deusen, member of the School of Music faculty and an excellent baritone. The soprano is Bonnie Ruth McInnes, also of Ann Arbor; the tenor is Mr. Warren Foster, who will be remembered as the tenor soloist of last year's St. Cecilia Mass; the contralto is Hope Bauer Eddy of Ann Arbor and one of the better known contraltos of this area.

Mrs. Eddy and Mr. Van Deusen were soloists when it was produced at Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor last December by the University Choral Union under the direction of Dr. Earl V. Moore.

The Saturday night performance, (May 27) will be broadcast in part over Station WWJ. It is therefore imperative that the audience be seated in order that the concert may start promptly at 8 p. m. Adherence to a strict time program will not be necessary for the Friday performance but it is hoped that the concert on that evening will get under way not later than 8:15 p. m.

Price of tickets for either night, for adults, is 50 cents and for students, 35 cents. A footnote on the Saturday ticket points to the necessity for audience co-operation for the broadcast.

These concerts are more imposing than anything we have yet attempted. Such fine things were said of last year's work that we are encouraged to do an even better job. The musical value and worth of the music to be performed is unquestioned and those of us who are rehearsing and working for musical excellence fully realize that our efforts will be reviewed by the critical judgment of our contemporaries in school music from a large surrounding area. We feel confident that with a capacity audience our efforts will be well received.

The choir will make its first appearance in the new burlundy robes which the Mother's Club presented to them this spring.

Public Hearing on Proposed Amendment

In accordance with a Notice of Public Hearing appearing in this issue of the "Review" certain changes in the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe are proposed to be submitted at a hearing to be held on Friday, June 2, 1939. Such proposed changes being as follows:

Amend Section II as amended February 22, 1937, so as to change the "Building Zone Map" to allow the use for open parking space of twenty feet in width of property north of the proposed alley in the rear of local business frontage on the north side of Kercheval between Cadieux and Notre Dame, the use of the twenty feet to be restricted in the deed to open parking space.

Amend Subdivision (1) of Section VII so as to read "(1) Any use permitted in a residence district, provided the portion of the building to be used for residence complies with subsection (D) and (E) of Section VII hereof." instead of as it now reads: "(1) Any use permitted in a Residence District."

Add a new subsection as follows: "(H) If the entire building is used or to be used for such business purposes as are permitted under Section VII hereof, compliance with subsections (D) and (E) of this section shall not be required."

Farms Ball Club to Open Season Sunday

The committee in charge of the opening is trying to have Judge Ira W. Jayne, one of the originators of recreational pursuits in Michigan to pitch the first ball and Commissioner Strittmatter will try his luck to catch the first ball pitched.

The boys deserve a good turnout for their opening and you will see a good game.

Felix Francois Features Air-Conditioned Salon

The Felix Francois Beauty Salon, one of Grosse Pointe's most popular, are stressing the fact that they have the entire beauty shop air-conditioned. This will surely be most welcome to the ladies of Grosse Pointe, especially during the warm summer months, and considering the fact that Felix has only the most expert operators in his employ, should make this a rendezvous for the most fastidious women when in need of any branch of beauty culture.

This popular salon is located in the PUNCH and JUDY Theatre building.

Do You Play Bridge?

We are pleased to note that our many readers have shown an interest in the "Bridge Players Aspirin" column. Mr. P. G. Munro, author of the column, will gladly answer any of your bridge problems, so if you have any, be sure to send them in and watch for the answers each week in the Grosse Pointe Review. Mr. Munro will also be interested in any unusual hands and the manner in which they were played. Of all card games, bridge is the most consistently popular, so if you've never played, start now! If you do play, surprise your friends by improving your game easily, with the help of Mr. Munro, who is an expert. Don't let this be said of YOU: "Does your wife play contract bridge?"

"Well, judging by what it costs her, she must play toll bridge."

family of ten, on one can of dog food mixed with navy beans. We were shocked on first hearing this, until an amusing incident changed our so-called mind. A married man, living in Grosse Pointe, who fancies himself quite a 'connoisseur' of food, said to his wife one morning, "I ate some of that cold hash I found in the refrigerator last night. It's great! Why don't we have that more often?" His wife still hasn't the heart to tell him that he had eaten Fido's dinner—a half can of it that she'd emptied into a bowl, to be used the next day.

The first of our series of weekly silhouettes: Her friends use the words "chic" and "smart" to describe her. Always well dressed, she puts more glamour into our silly new hats, than anyone we know. Her popularity as a hostess is widespread and no entertainment committee is complete without her. She is intensely interested in various charity organizations, discusses world affairs with the intelligence and diplomacy of an ambassador and never forgets that a sense of humor plays an important part in the scheme of things. Her hobby is meeting people and everyone who knows her admires her vitality, enthusiasm and good humor. Her house, of authentic Italian decor, is a perfect background for her dark, vivid beauty. Her name—Mrs. Charles A. Dean.

We have just had the pleasure of meeting Morris Frank, the blind boy from the South, who introduced the "Seeing Eye" into this country. We visited for an hour with Mr. Frank and Buddy, his German Shepherd dog and have never been more more impressed with anything in our lives. It would take pages and pages to tell even a part of the work that this wonderful organization does for blind people. There will be a complete article on the subject in next week's Review, and we hope you'll all read it.

Well, the King and Queen have arrived, so if you'll excuse us we'd like to brush up on our English and practise our curtesy—just in case!

Christian Science

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 21.

The Golden Text (Isaiah 58:10) is: "If you draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Deuteronomy 10:12): "And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 273): "Man is harmonious when governed by Soul. Hence the importance of understanding the truth of being, which reveals the laws of spiritual existence."

Marygrove College to Sponsor New Catholic Women's Publication

The Catholic Women's World, the first national Catholic magazine for women, will make its appearance with the June issue, out next week. The magazine is published by Marygrove College, Detroit, under the technical supervision of Maier and Hubbard, Inc., of Chicago. This firm also acts as business manager and promotional consultant. Florence E. Cox, of Cox Associates, Advertising Counsel, and former president of the Women's Advertising Club of Detroit, is the editor. The editorial offices are at Marygrove College, Detroit. The office of publication is at 610 W. Elm avenue, Monroe, Mich.

Although owned and published by Marygrove College, The Catholic Woman's World will be neither a campus publication nor an organ for publicizing Marygrove College activities. It will be a Catholic woman's magazine of national scope, and will cover all the fields usually included in such periodicals, fiction, features, fashions, foods, home making and child care, beauty, reviews of books and drama, women's clubs. While not a religious publication in the commonly accepted meaning of the term, it will be characterized in all its departments by Catholic thought and a Catholic attitude. The Catholic Woman's World will seek to synthesize and give national voice of the activities, opinions and interests of American Catholic women, and by doing so will make itself an active ally of growing movement among laymen and clergy, both Catholic and non-Catholic, against periodical literature subversive to good taste, morals, and social decency.

The staff of contributing editors, each of whom is included in the June issue are: Caroline A. Chandler, M. D., of Harvard University Medical School, home hygiene and child training problems; the Rev. Walter Farrell, O. P., Washington, D. C., popularized philosophical feature articles; Jane Frances Downey, confidential counselor on problems involving human relationships; Lenore Collins, Detroit, fashions, as illustrated by Bernadette Lowery, also of Detroit; Marigold Hunt, New York, motion picture reviews; Eileen Surles, New York, the children's page; Mary Perkins, Boston, esthetics and liturgy in words of one syllable. Besides the usual departments covering home, house and garden, the June issue will feature short stories by

This is the last call for poppy salesmen and women. If you have failed to contact Chairman Nielsen, do so now. The telephone is Murray 5407. He will give you a corner and see that poppies are delivered to your home. Do your share.

Comrade Clarence Schwartz is happy once more. His car, stolen last week, was located in New Hudson, Mich. The hold-up men are still at large.

We are patiently waiting for some of the house warmings to be given by the new home owners in the Post. To mention a few—Leo Weil, Lou Baldwin. The Earl of Cramer and several others. What's the delay boys?

June 17th is the date of our next dance to be held at the old home on Mack avenue. Many of our patrons at the St. Patrick dance requested another along the same lines. Leo Weil is chairman and reports everything set. More of this later.

We sincerely urge our Grosse Pointe friends to purchase their poppies in Grosse Pointe. All monies received goes toward welfare in our community. Salesmen and salesladies will be stationed at principal corners throughout the Township. Remember the date—the evening of May 24 and the morning of May 25. Your scribe will be at Grosse Pointe Blvd. and McKinley road and I'll be seeing you.—T. E. X.

Today's column marks the end of this year's scribe reports. TROOP 180 The cooking group gave a dinner last Monday for Troop 180 at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. It was from 6 to 8 o'clock. Guest of honor was Mrs. Arnold, who is acting as advisor for the badges. The table was decorated with a silver basket filled with little bouquets of candies. —M. S.

ImPLY—InFER The speaker implies something, the hearer infers a meaning to his words. To imply is to suggest something not directly or specifically mentioned; to infer is to conclude that the meaning is so-and-so. In his speech the mayor implied that he was tired of working with a council that always opposed him. His hearers inferred that he would soon retire from office.

New Bait and Fly Casting Game May Rival "Skeet" in Popularity

WITH AN ESTIMATED total of 12,000,000 anglers in the country, "Fish-O", a new accuracy game just introduced for fly-fishermen and bait-casters is expected soon to rival "skeet" in popularity. Sponsored by the American Wildlife Institute and the Izaak Walton League of America, it may be played both indoors and out. An enthusiastic booster of the sport, because it simulates actual conditions and rules out special equipment, Tony Accetta (center), U. S. professional all-around bait- and fly-casting champion and star of "Let's Go Fishing", new 2-reel sound motion picture being distributed by the Fisher Body division of General Motors, explains the fundamentals of the fly-casting game to Dr. Charles A. Wilson, president of the American Camping Association, at the Michigan Sportsmen's and Boat Show in Detroit, while little Larry Baus Long awaits an opportunity of playing his first game of "Fish-O" as developed for bait-casters. The 4½-year-old boy, grandson of the hunt- and fishing editor of the Indianapolis Star, shows exceptional ability with the rod and reel as evidenced by the fact that he appeared on the same program with the champion. Hollow metal rings, or bicycle tires, placed at unknown distances from the caster form the targets used in both games. They are scattered from 20 to 40 feet away for fly-casting, and from 40 to 80 feet for bait-casting.

Bridge Players Aspirin

By F. G. MUNRO (The Autobiographer)

Frank and May, who have repeatedly declined to take instructions in Contract Bridge, were invited to a bridge party at Helen's home. Frank and Helen were partners against Jim and May at one of the tables. Helen opened the bidding with one-heart; Jim passed; Frank responded with one-notrump; May passed; Helen passed; Frank played the hand at one-notrump but made three-notrump.

"Why didn't you rebid your heart suit?" Frank asked. "Because my hand contained even distribution with only 2 1/2 honor-tricks and no six-card or longer suit."

"Honor-tricks mean nothing to me. I bid according to card-sense. If you had rebid two-hearts instead of passing my one-notrump, I would have then bid two-notrump."

"And I would have been compelled to pass," Helen retorted.

"But the hand made three-notrump, which proves that you should not have passed my one-notrump response."

"No, Frank; the only reason why we did not arrive at a three-notrump (game) contract is: your response was not correct. Let's reconstruct the hand and I'll explain the difference between 'card-sense' bidding and scientific bidding."

The Hand:

Jim S-10 6 3 H-7 6 D-K 10 6 3 2 C-A 4 2 Helen S-Q 9 5 H-A Q 10 7 5 D-7 5 C-K 9 7 Frank S-K J 7 H-8 4 2 D-A Q 9 C-J 10 8 5 May S-A 8 4 2 H-K 9 3 D-J 8 4 C-Q 6 3

"You responded with only one-trump hoping that I would rebid two-hearts so you may then bid two-notrump, and still further hoping that I would raise to three-notrump. That's so-called 'card sense' bidding which conveys no information whatever. Scientifically, however, your response should have been a forcing-to-game bid of two-notrump conveying the information that your hand contained 2 1/2 honor-tricks including stoppers in at least two-unbid suits. I would then have been compelled to rebid three-notrump since my hand was of even distribution and without a six-card suit. Truthfully, Frank, I have never been able to understand why most men are so persistent in their refusal to learn the science of Contract Bridge."

Bill, who had overheard the discussion from an adjoining table, came over and looked at the hand. "Helen is right, Frank. You boys will have to learn to bid correctly."

"What do you mean by—You boys? Why exclude yourself?"

"Because I am a convert to the principles of scientific bidding, and this is my instructor—The Autobiographer. Let's see what it says regarding Helen's pass of your one-notrump response. See how easy it is to find the rebid. You simply pull this slide so that the number of the response, which is number 4, appears in this opening and, presto, there is the rebid: 'With 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 honor-tricks, rebid a six-card suit; no six-card suit, pass with even distribution, etc.' Helen's pass was therefore correct. Now let's see what you should have bid with that hand. Here, under Partner's Responses number 5, it says: 'Bid two-notrump (forcing to game) with from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 honor-tricks, etc.' And what should Helen have rebid had you correctly responded with two-notrump? You find it, Frank."

Frank pulled the slide so that number 5 appeared in the opening, and read: "With even distribution, rebid a six-card suit; otherwise, bid three-notrump. With uneven distribution, show another biddable suit or rebid the original suit."

"I clearly see how impossible it is for my partner to understand the strength or weakness of my hand from 'card-sense bidding,' Frank remarked. "From now on, I'm for better bridge. Where did you get that Autobiographer, Bill?" "It's on sale at gift shops and department stores for only fifty cents."

Bockstanz Climbs 12 Points to .400

By BILL HOOVER

Six members of Grosse Pointe High School's baseball team fattened up their batting averages considerably when the Blue Devils defeated Royal Oak last Friday afternoon by the score of 9-4.

Bruce Bockstanz, Grosse Pointe third-sacker, climbed 12 points to .400 and maintained his batting lead. Dick Bodycombe started on the mound for the Blue Devils, but Larry Shock finished the game and got credit for the victory. Here are the latest averages:

State Ferry System Deemed Adequate

Michigan's white fleet at the Straits of Mackinac will not be enlarged in 1939.

It will be the first time in three years that a new boat will not be added to the fleet of ferries operated by the state highway department between the upper and lower peninsulas. Commissioner Van Wagoner said this week the saturation point has been reached in the number of boats that can be handled efficiently.

Five state-owned and one leased vessel are now operated at the Straits during the summer tourist season. The railroad ferry Chief Wawatam is also available for emergency duty.

The two largest boats in the fleet have been added the last two years. In 1937, the department purchased a former railroad ferry, reconditioned it, and christened it the City of Cheboygan. Last year another railroad ferry was purchased and christened the City of Munising.

Michigan, the only state in the Union with ferry service as a function of its highway department, has a capital investment of $1,080,000 in its white fleet. Traffic at the Straits has grown from 10,000 vehicles in 1923 when service was started to about 275,000 vehicles annually at this time.

road, Grosse Pointe Woods. The Rev. O. W. Burdette Olson, assistant minister at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, will preach.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at this service, and will be administered by the Session of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Worship service and Church School will be held as usual, for the Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary and Junior groups, at 9:30-11:15 a. m., and for Intermediate, Senior-Young People and Adults, at 10:45-11:15 a. m.

In his sermon Dr. Canup will answer the following questions: What is Prayer? When should we pray? Why should we pray? How often should we pray? Are all prayers answered? Are Christians praying less today than formerly? What is the relationship between prayer and healing? Should

Michigan State Fair to Be Held Sept. 1-10

Agricultural Michigan and its subsidiary interests will definitely be a headline attraction at the 90th annual Michigan State Fair, Sept. 1-10, to emphasize the importance of this vital industry to the state, Dr. Linwood W. Snow, general manager, and Robert P. Buckley, executive secretary, announced. All early details now under formulation are pointed to this goal with definite promises to feature agriculture and its allied products and equipment.

Michigan's farm income in 1938 according to U. S. Department of Agriculture figures was $214,215,000. While ranking 27th in the amount of land devoted to agriculture, Michigan ranks 14th among all states in cash farm income, and 15th among all states in total crop value. Michigan farm lands and buildings are valued at $826,260,594.

In comparison to other states Michigan has assumed leadership, or ranks high in many divisions of agriculture. Among the firsts held by Michigan are production of mint, acreage in beans potatoes and alfalfa seed. Michigan is third in production of grapes, acreage sowed in alfalfa hay, production in clover seed, sugar beet acreage and buckwheat. In addition this state ranks fifth to 13th place in field peas, cash income in apples, acreage in rye, tame hay, peaches, oats, barley, winter wheat and corn. Michigan ranks to other states. Eighth in milk production and ninth in cash income from milk in comparison to other states.

With all these predominating assets claimed by Michigan agriculture, it is fitting that the 90th milestone of Michigan State fairs should feature this large state industry in its exhibits and programs. This prospective goal has become a pledge of state fair officials in arranging the numerous details of the 1939 Michigan State Fair.

Haber to Head Refugee Relief

Dr. William Haber, University of Michigan professor of economics and one of the States leading relief administrators during the last decade, has been granted a leave of absence for the coming year so that he may become the director of a national committee to provide relief for refugees from Nazi Germany.

When he leaves the University Campus at the end of the current school year, Dr. Haber will go to New York City where he will be Executive Director of the National Coordinating Committee and the National Coordinating Committee Fund, Inc. With the co-operation of 19 other Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, professional, and vocational groups, these organizations will spend several millions of dollars of private funds in distributing the refugees throughout the United States and helping them adjust themselves to American life. Dr. Haber's broad experience in relief matters is shown by the following list of positions which he has held in the last six years: Field Representative of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation; Emergency Relief Administrator for Michigan; State Relief Administrator; Deputy Director of the Works Progress Administration; State Director of the National Youth Administration; and Consultant of the Social Security Board.

In addition to the responsibility of administering an emergency relief program with expenditures of over $230,000,000, Dr. Haber has given many years of study and research to problems of labor relations, unemployment, public welfare, and social insurance.

U. of D.'s Ace Golfer To Seek 8th Straight Win in Meet Today

Bob Babbish, University of Detroit's No. 1 golfer, as well as the nation's fourth ranking amateur and Western Amateur Champion, will seek his eighth straight victory in collegiate circles this afternoon at South Bend, Indiana, when the Titan linksmen tangle with Notre Dame on the latter's home course.

Undeclared to date this season, Babbish will meet one of his toughest opponents Thursday, when he tees off against Tom Sheehan, Irish No. 1 man and long rival of the Titan's ace linksmen. Sheehan and Babbish both shot a 77 a year ago in Detroit when the Red and White handed Notre Dame its first Titan licking by a score of 16 to 11. Whether or not the fact that Sheehan will be playing on his own course will make any difference in this year's score remains to be seen. However, Babbish himself considers the Irish golfer a real threat to his undefeated record, and there it little doubt but what he will really turn on the heat in today's match.

Coach William Kelly Joyce indicated yesterday that Augie Fogoros, Charles Talbot and Bob Temple would probably complete Detroit's starting lineup for the Notre Dame match. Fogoros is a junior, Talbot a sophomore, and Temple, a senior.

Following the Notre Dame match, the Titans will journey to Kalamazoo, Michigan, on Saturday for a return match with the Western State Teachers. The teams finished with a tie score of 9 to 9 last week in Detroit.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The archery season will be officially opened by the Hannan "Y" boys Wednesday evening when the club will elect its officers and appoint its committees for the coming year. Mr. Frederic D.

Hess will again teach archery craft with the assistance of Ted Clifford and several dads of boy archers. In a course of six lessons boys will make bows and arrows for their own use.

Indoor and outdoor range work will be organized and plans for providing equipment for boys who do not own their own will be made. All boys and dads who are interested in archery are invited to attend the meetings of the club.

The club leaders of Hannan Y. M. C. A. are sponsoring a Maytime Splash Dance party Friday evening, May 19, at 8:30. The party will start with lobby games and social dancing leading up to the swim which will be enjoyed by boy members and their invited guests. Following the swim, social dancing and light refreshments will be enjoyed.

Over 100 men athletes of Hannan Y. M. C. A. will be awarded medals and letters on Thursday evening, May 18, at a special recognition dinner.

Gordon Heylin, of the Detroit Edison company and member of the committee of management of Hannan Y. M. C. A. will act as toastmaster. A special program for Recognition Night has been secured. Michigan Bangtails Predicted to Win the Heavy Dough in Meet

The Kentucky colonels can have the juleps—Michigan's racing stables will take the cash.

That will be the story during the 49-day horse racing meeting that opens at the State Fair Grounds Saturday, May 20, according to Racing Secretary Charles Henry.

The Kentuckians who have invaded the Detroit track and taken away many of the biggest purses during the past seasons are certain to be repelled this year. Detroiters or outside horsemen own almost half the 900 horses which will be on the grounds when racing starts Saturday, including the largest and most powerful stables.

Henry predicts that more than half the $340,000 purse melon will be cut up by Michigan owners, and it won't surprise him a bit if most of the 11 stake races on the eight-week program go to the Michigan turfmen.

The Detroiters are set to go after their triumphs with a fine lot of horses, some of them Kentucky bred, but many of them testify to the fact that Michigan is a good state for horse breeding.

The largest and most powerful stable on the grounds is that of Charles T. Fisher's Dixiana Farm. The motor magnate's string of 27 includes 11 two-year-olds which will make their first starts at the Detroit track and which are declared to be the finest crop ever produced at Dixiana. They are in charge of Jimmy Smith, the new trainer whom Dixiana hired away from Col. E. R. Bradley.

Other large Detroit stables are Otto Jehr's string of 22, John A. Anhut's Imperial Farm with 16, the Bomar, C. C. Winters, H. E. Yorke and Jake Angner Stables with 14 each. I. S. Shaffer of Brighton has 15 horses ready to go while James Collin's Collinsbrook Farm has nine. Fred M. Alger, Jr., has seven, and T. D. Buhl, six. There are many smaller stables, the entire group representing more than 50 Michigan horses.

Alger Post Activities

Posts of the entire third District of Michigan Veterans of Foreign Wars have been invited to join in memorial services to be held Sunday, May 28, at St. Ambrose Church in the Park. This will be the 20th anniversary of the return of the Veterans from France and will no doubt bring together the largest delegation of veterans of this generation in Grosse Pointe.

The services will be conducted by Father Van Antwerp, a brother of the National Commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and attended by the Gen. Russell A. and Col. Frederick M. Alger Post of the V. F. W., the Burns Henry Post of the American Legion and their auxiliaries, as well as representatives from at least 10 other Posts in the district. The parade to the church will be led by the Centerline Veterans Band and the Alger Post Sons of Veterans Drum and Bugle Corps. Services will begin at 10 a. m. with the Alger Post Octette assisting the choir. All veterans participating are requested to meet at Lakepointe and Jefferson avenues at 9:30 a. m. before services.

On Memorial Day the veterans will hold services in Grosse Pointe's cemetery on Kerby road. All those participating are to report there at 10 a. m. Veterans graves will also be decorated in White Chapel and Mt. Olivet cemeteries after the services.

Health Education Is Main Purpose of The Michigan T.B. Assn.

Health education, prime function of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, has been the means of dispelling many popular fallacies regarding tuberculosis, according to Theodore J. Werle, executive secretary of the association. Mr. Werle pointed out this week that many of the common misconceptions people once had about tuberculosis have been righted through the intensive program of health education conducted in Michigan—a program financed entirely through tuberculosis Christmas seal funds.

"Of the many misstatements made about the White Plague, the one regarding the true cause of the disease has probably been the most difficult to change in the public mind," Mr. Werle explained. "Years ago when people saw tuberculosis claim first one, then another, member of single families there was but one logical explanation—heredity. Even today, despite the proved fact that tuberculosis is caused by a germ, the tubercle bacillus, and is spread only through contact, some hold to the old belief that it is inherited."

"It is the purpose of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association," declared Mr. Werle, "to give Michigan people modern, reliable information concerning every phase of tuberculosis. Literature distributed from the Lake Superior region to the southernmost counties makes up an important part of the health education campaign. There is constant demand from all parts of the state for leaflets and posters on tuberculosis. Every request is filled with up-to-date publications, prepared and published for the benefit of Michigan residents through funds raised in the annual sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals."

Richard School Has Successful P-T-A

The year 1938-39 has been an extremely successful one for the Pere Gabriel Richard School Parent Teacher Association. Its officers have been: William Keese, president; Grace MacLeod, vice president; Clara Blank, secretary, and Lawrence King, treasurer.

Besides having a good program for its meetings, it has sponsored, with the teaching staff, a bridge party from which $250.00 was realized for new playground equipment. It gave $25.00 to the school for beautifying the grounds. It assisted in the work of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council with Mrs. Hughes as the representative. It spent about $75.00 for milk, shoes, and clothing for undernourished and poorly clad children. It developed a fine spirit of community action for worthwhile social projects.

It met five times and will meet once more in June. At the first meeting, the big issue was the new junior high school. Superintendent E. R. Van Kleeck presented the plans for the proposed new school. There were 300 persons in attendance.

At the second meeting in November,

Paul Rehms, principal of the high school, spoke to 180 persons on the problems of the education of youth. William Watkins brought over the high school a cappella choir.

In January, Montague Clark of the U. S. Rubber Company, spoke on the subject, "Education and Business." There were 275 in attendance. The Richard School chorus sang.

At the fourth meeting, Charles Parcells of the Board of Education spoke on budget problems. He gave the figures of our school budget, indicating the amount spent for salaries, maintenance, new buildings, and indebtedness. As a result, the 240 present left with a much better understanding of how that part of their tax dollar which went to education was spent. Samuel Trickey presented the school band.

In April, the meeting was devoted to the presentation of activities of the school in motion pictures and slides. Clarence Messner gave an introductory talk, pointing out two facts that the pictures revealed, one being a usage on the part of the children of community resources. The second fact was the happy classroom atmosphere. Marian Norris then gave a running commentary with her film of an arithmetic project in grade one. Blanche Clark did the same for a film titled a "Day With Grade Two." Ernest LaPquette, with the assistance of Charles Pettis and Robert Lackinback, presented in slides the hobbies of junior high school pupils. Dr. Loranger, a former Board of Education member, spoke briefly as the representative of the Field Army for the Control of Cancer. About 270 persons attended.

At the next meeting on June 6, the band and chorus under the direction of Samuel Trickey and Elizabeth Ellis will perform.

For its 1939-40 officers, the association has selected Lawrence King, president; Mrs. Swenson, vice president; Elizabeth Ellis, secretary; and George Schlapfer, treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. J. Randolph Kennedy will represent the association on the Grosse Pointe P. T. A. Council. It is looking forward to another successful year.
