WRDR Serves Four Grosse Pointe Villages

By MAYA GRUHZIT

It has returned small boys, wandering out for adventure in less than 24 minutes after they were reported missing. It has returned four cars out of four cars reported stolen. Within two minutes it can have garage doors open; and it has also been called out to settle family arguments. This paragon of diverse accomplishments is the two-way radio police broadcasting station located on Verner road in Grosse Pointe Woods.

This station, which after nine years, is finally installed in a modernistic building, is a central station supported by equal tax contributions from the four incorporated villages of Grosse Pointe Park, Farms, Shores and the Woods. Protecting a total property valuation of $75,000,000, this system involves 20 police radio cars, each equipped with the two-way communication units. For these services, the appropriation from the general tax is $16,000 a year, or in other words, two cents a year per thousand assessed valuation.

And this is only a small price to pay when one realizes that in less than 90 seconds a squad car can be at any place in the Township to take charge of a disturbance.

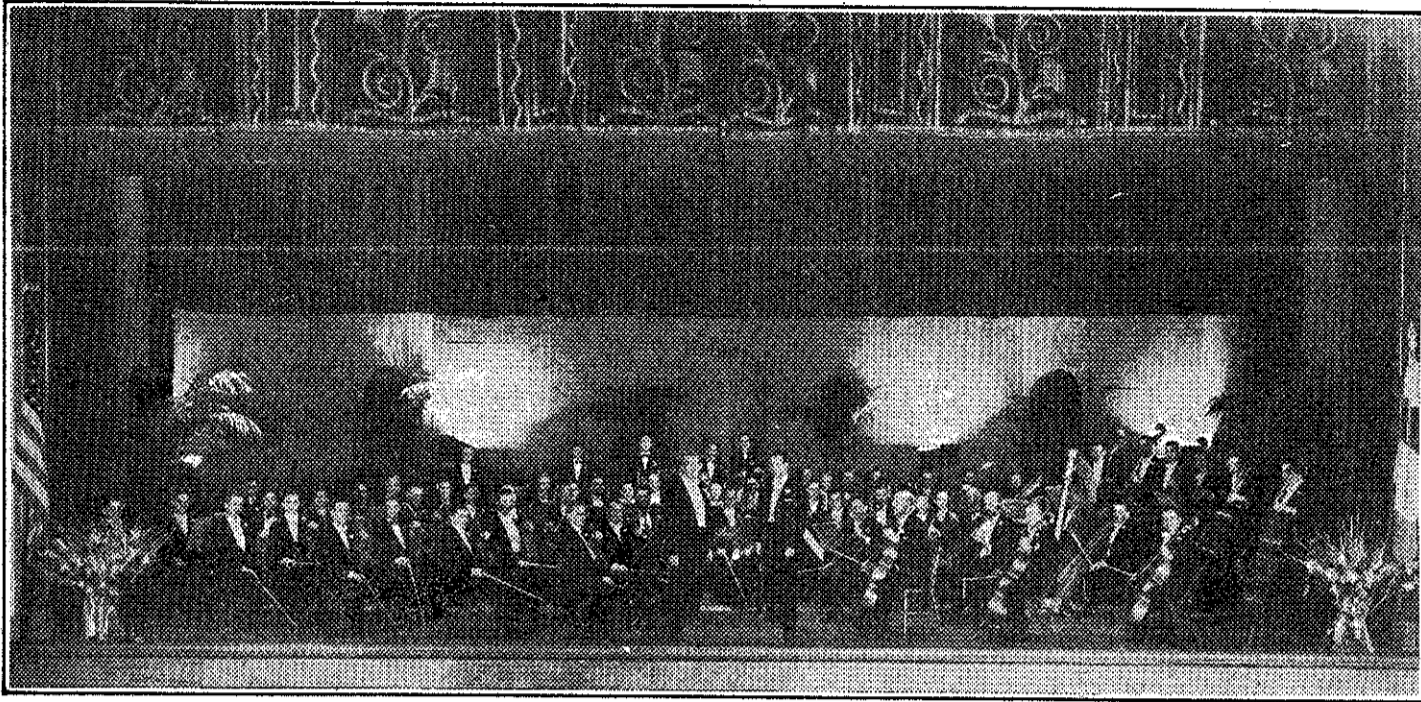

The station itself has two receiving and transmitting sets so that in case any trouble develops WRDR will not have to go off the air. It is also equipped with a modern teletype machine from which news could be sent so as to reach any part of the state on other broadcasting systems. Headed by Mr. Peter Clark, a staff of five men take charge of sending and receiving over 5,000 calls a day. These men have built and assembled practically every bit of equipment in the station and cars. They also take care of the grounds and other mechanical difficulties which might arise.

WRDR also gives free service to the Coast Guard, although so far this year there has been no trouble. Also for a nominal fee, the neighboring villages of St. Clair Shores, Roseville, and Centerline receive the services of the station.

Starting in one room over a garage on Roosevelt place and Maumee avenue, and then moving once more before going to their new building, the station has experienced many incidents which although exciting to the outside public have become merely routine by now. The most exciting period, according to one of the operators, was in 1932 when a gangster element was being run out of Grosse Pointe for bootlegging and other minor crimes. The criminals would work in Detroit and then slide into the villages.

Concerning the organization of WRDR, there were many who lent a strong helping hand. As members of the Township Board, the following men were most constructive: Norbert Denk, supervisor; Walter Schweikart, justice; Carl Schweikart, clerk; Rudolph Schmidt, and J. Nelson McNally, Justice of the Peace; and Adolph Dammann, treasurer. They have established something which is one of the greatest aids in the community and a great barrier to lawlessness.

R. president, and her daughter, Elizabeth, who is junior state treasurer, have been invited, as well as Mr. Kerr and Mrs. Kerr's father, as it is a family picnic. There will be a special table for the recently organized "Grandmothers' Club" of the Society; and other tables for the "Parents' Group," just being organized in Cadillac Society. These adult groups assist the C. A. R.'s in attaining their objectives. Lyons Howland, new junior national president, is invited.

Big Gains Shown In Local Schools As The Review Prints Report

(Editor's Note: Our children are closest to our hearts and nothing is more important of their welfare than our schools. For that reason, the Review has obtained for publication the full annual report prepared by Dr. E. R. Van Kleecck, Superintendent of Grosse Pointe Schools, for presentation at the recent annual school district meeting. We urge our readers to peruse it themselves and pass it on to their friends. The report will be published in these columns in three installments, of which the following is the first.)

In the absence of Mr. Parcels, the President of the Board of Education, who is prevented from being here by reason of the graduation from college today of his elder daughter, the Superintendent's report which is customarily made at this meeting will include certain materials that ordinarily might be touched upon by the President. Perhaps I should say also that, since the present Superintendent has not been here sufficiently long to be able to claim any share of the credit for the achievements to be reported, he will allow himself a degree of freedom in appraising and commenting which might otherwise be unavailable.

Dr. Brownell
At the end of the last school year, the school system and community suffered a loss of major importance in the resignation of Superintendent Brownell. The achievements of Dr. Brownell's eleven-year administration are sufficiently known and appreciated to need no elaboration. To him as a school man, I should like, nevertheless, to give oral expression to another school man's high estimate of his predecessor's contribution, and again to record thus publicly my gratitude for the admirable condition in which I found Grosse Pointe's schools. Especially, I wish to express my thanks for the patient and helpful guidance given me by Dr. Brownell both last July and since.

Teaching and Learning
The chief function and purpose of the schools is the education of boys and girls. It would take too much time to discuss in even a cursory fashion the year's efforts in the improvement of the teaching-learning process, in course of study construction, and the efforts for better school-home relationships. Despite the necessity for handling an unusually large number of problems in connection with such special projects as the junior high school, the staff has accomplished much with the more significant instructional activities. More important than these activities themselves is the desire for improvement which permeates our faculty so generally. This "divine discontent" plus the continually higher degree of professional training possessed by our teachers and other staff members, leads to an almost continual reappraisal of our educational goals, our teaching methods, and our instructional materials. Especially productive this year has been the work of the new kindergarten-first grade teachers' committees, of the textbook committees, and of the elementary school principals committees. Under the stimulation of the Director of Instruction, progress has also been made in improving instruction in arithmetic, penmanship and spelling.

The high school has had the distinction of being the only Michigan school selected for participation in both the national Cooperative Study of Secondary School Standards and the Michigan Study of the Secondary School Curriculum. The latter study will be in progress for some years yet, but the report concerning the Cooperative Study has already been rendered. It paints the Grosse Pointe High School in extremely glowing and flattering colors. To maintain and if possible

Farms Property Owners Association Met July 7th

A regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farms Property Owners Association was held Friday evening, July 7. Plans were formulated for the uniform handling of building restrictions throughout the area served by the association.

DeBruyne—Serruys

Miss Suzanne Helene Serruys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Serruys of 1371 Nottingham road, Grosse Pointe Park, was united in marriage Saturday morning, July 8, at St. Paul's Church with Mr. William G. DeBruyne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeBruyne, of 213 McKinley road, Grosse Pointe Farms.

The church was decorated with palms and calli-lilies. The bride wore a white lace gown fashioned with net inserts in the skirt which extended fanwise to form a long train. The bodice was gathered with a heart-shaped neckline clasped with a pearl clip. The fingertip length white illusion net with lace veil fell from a coronet of sea pearls and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Jocelyne Serruys, sister of the bride, wore hyacinth blue net of princess style with short puffed full sleeves. She wore a large pink hat of horsehair banded with pink velvet ribbons that fell in streamers to the waist. Blue delphiniums and pink asters tied with matching ribbons were her bouquet.

The bridesmaids, Elsie DeBruyne, sister of the groom and Irene Sans, cousin of the groom, wore outfits like the honor attendants.

Charles Boutelgier was best man and the ushers were Arthur Boyden and Harold DeClerk.

A reception was held in the evening for relatives and friends.

The couple left for a Great Lakes cruise and on their return will reside at 259 Belanger, their new home.

Farms Village Pier Gets New 'Dress-Up'

Built 18 years ago under the sponsorship of Mr. Theodore Beaupre, then president of the Grosse Pointe Farms Council, the Farms village pier has been further developed this year, again under the direction of Mr. Beaupre, this time pier superintendent.

One change, although it is not as evident to the public's eye as are many of the other improvements, is the issuance of Ordinance No. 54. This is the first time in the life of the pier that a regulating law has been passed. Previous to this ordinance, problems were dealt with by the pier officials as they arose.

Out of the appropriation of $12,361.14 for this year, a $1,777.48 increase over the $10,583.66 appropriation of last year, comes the maintenance of the entire pier, including salaries of attendants and any planned improvements. Besides the passing of the ordinance, there has been the installation of a matron for the supervision of the women's lockroom and checkroom. The hiring of the matron, Mr. Beaupre stated, has been one of the moves for the convenience of the patrons of the pier.

Although there has been no actual extension of the pier, much has been added. For the children's pool, a water slide and a float are the new attractions. To provide for those people who don't want to be over their heads while swimming, a section along the outer edge of the pier has been roped off. The depth is from three to five and a half feet.

Over the end of the pier, a canopy has been built and benches and chairs provided for those who merely wish to sit and enjoy watching the swimmers. New chairs for the seven life-guards have been erected at strategic points along the pier. The parking lot has been widened and improved, and more room has been provided for the mooring of boats.

Attendance at the park has increased over 15 per cent of that of last year, Mr. Beaupre averred. Yet he said that this was mostly due to the increase in building in the Farms. No doubt, however, that the park with its new improvements is attracting more residents than before.

Farms Ball Team Takes Doubleheader from Royal Oak

Grosse Pointe Farms won a double-header Sunday from Royal Oak Merchants, the score of the first game being 10-3 with Speier pitching and Marion Henry catching.

Vicent Smith got a four-hit shutout in the second game. Warren Piche and Bobbie Govin and Russ Cragg got two blows each in the first game, while Speier got four hits in the second game.

Grosse Pointe will meet St. Clair Shores Sunday in a double header at Kerby Field, starting at 1:30.

Pfeffer Urges Residents To Stop Feuding — To Settle Differences Sanely

Bulletin: At a special meeting of the Council of the Village of Grosse Pointe Park, Tuesday, July 11, the ordinance governing the Recreation Park was amended. Among the changes, Section 30-d was amended to provide two (2) Park tickets to each non-resident taxpayer, "which tickets may be used by members of such taxpayer's family."

The revised ordinance is printed in full on page three of this issue.

Jamming the council room of the Grosse Pointe Park Municipal Building, over 80 residents of the Park attended the meeting of the council last Monday night. To a disinterested spectator, it would seem that the residents of the Park were all imbued with a great civic interest. Yet after waiting impatiently through the reading of the minutes of the last six meetings of the council, then staying only for a fiery discussion on the park situation involving political and personal issues, practically the whole audience left the meeting.

The residents seemed to be ignoring the true purpose of a council meeting. Instead of staying and taking an interest in the disbursement of any monies or letting of contracts, and other matters which are of vital importance to the proper management of the village, the people of the Park have aroused themselves on purely personal and therefore prejudiced issues.

Northeastern Woman's Club to Hold Bridge-Luncheon on July 26

The ways and means committee of Northeastern Woman's Club will sponsor a bridge luncheon on Wednesday, July 26 at 12:30 o'clock at the cottage of Mrs. Henry Neumann, Algonac (The Nook) which is one mile this side of Algonac. Members may bring swim suits and enjoy the water too.

The party is to swell the Student Loan Fund, so that when September rolls around we may make loans to worthy students. It is this type of interest that Northeastern women have been doing for the last 24 years.

This summer the club gave vacations to four under-privileged children that they may enjoy two weeks of camp life at Port Huron.

Mrs. Thos. L. Thomson is chairman. Tuxedo 2-2928 for reservations.

Indeed, the arguments were very heated, pro and con, on the park situation, several men speaking from the audience. Yet despite the statement by Dr. John R. Pear that the council was ignoring the wishes of the people as evidenced by the sentiment at the last meetings, no matter on which side one is on, it ought to be evident that merely 80 people at each of two meetings does not constitute a majority opinion on the case.

Other statements from the floor brought up the fact that although the property had been both bought and condemned by the village, there was still some doubt as to whether the village had complete control over the park. It was also mentioned that by crossing the non-resident taxpayers in their desires to have park permits, the village might lose the park in toto. It was then suggested to fight the situation right to the Supreme Court, if necessary, to determine who was definitely right, and purchase the case be lost by the Park, to do away with it for good, which seems a purely selfish attitude to advance. Especially, inasmuch as the park WAS ORIGINALLY created to keep the children off the streets.

Finally President Alfred Garska moved that a meeting be held at 8 o'clock the following evening to consider passing a park ordinance and to consider the petition which the non-resident taxpayers had signed. At this point the meeting was temporarily adjourned and the meeting disbanded as far as the public was concerned.

The next ladies' bridge luncheon at Western Golf and Country Club will be held on Wednesday, July 19, at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. John H. Abbott is in charge of reservations. Members of the committee for this luncheon are Mrs. Raymond C. Griffith, Mrs. J. M. Kisselle and Mrs. George H. Fisher.

Detroit Federal Symphony Orchestra Presents Program July 13th

ALL FRENCH

The Detroit Federal Symphony Orchestra, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, will present a program in commemoration of Bastille Day, Thursday, July 13, at 8:15 p. m., on the campus of the Grosse Pointe High School, with Valter Poole conducting.

Anticipating the annual celebration of Bastille Day throughout France tomorrow (July 14), Mr. Poole has selected an all-French program of revolutionary music for tonight's concert. This international tribute will be under the local sponsorship of Club Amical Francaise, of which Mrs. Paul Cevey is president. To Mr. Cevey, goes credit for the idea, as well as for many another cultural expression forwarded by the community's French colony.

The music heard tonight is self-explanatory and the idea of the program should make it one of the most novel of the summer season.

Future plans for the Detroit Federal Symphony Orchestra include a program devoted exclusively to music written around the dramas of Shakespeare, which will be presented with the aid of a dance group, and an all-Beethoven concert.

Song of the Earth

By FLORENCE POWELL

A messenger on herald wing
Lingers till buds and flowers sing,
And harmony is varied hue
In fragrant music earth and dew.

The robin turns his nesting bowl,
In deep rich rhythms from his soul.
The quiet pulse of earth and air
Abounds in joyous answered prayer.

The jaunty daffodil, the rose,
And forest paths will lend repose.
Hear! though the fern fronds intervene,
Wondrous speech from flowers unseen.

Contract Bridge

By P. G. MUNRO

(Originator of The Autobidder)
Many remarkable contracts are defeated by one trick simply because the declarer fails to plan a definite line of play.

South played the following hand at four hearts and was defeated one trick:

North
S-Q 4	S-A 10 6 3
H-Q 6 3	H-8 5
D-A 8 5 4	D-9 6 3
C-K 9 7 2	C-J 8 5 3
South
S-9 7 5	H-A K 9 7 2
D-K 2	C-A 6 4

West opened with the Queen of diamonds which declarer won and immediately took three rounds of trumps to draw the adverse trumps. Accordingly, he won only nine tricks—five trumps, two diamonds, and two clubs. If declarer had stopped to plan a definite line of play before playing from Dummy, he would have counted nine visible winning tricks and a losing spade trick and, therefore, should have planned his play so as to ruff a spade for his tenth trick.

By so planning, he would have realized that by immediately drawing the adverse trumps he would also take out all of Dummy's trumps, and must be left with a losing spade trick.

After winning the first trick, declarer should have played a small spade with the intention of losing two rounds of spades and ruffing his last spade in Dummy before drawing trumps.

Christian Science Churches

"Life" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 16.

The Golden Text (Amos 5:14) is: "Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (I John 5:20): "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 264): "When we realize that Life is Spirit, never in nor of matter, this understanding will expand into self-completeness, finding all in God, good, and needing no other con-

Alger Post News

A day made to order and a large, fine crowd at the picnic Sunday. Quite a day for the kiddies, particularly the Sons of Veterans organization, which had charge of several concessions that kept its members busy from early 'til late. Very few members of the Post attended the meeting Monday night, case of too much picnic. Sorry we could not permit our guests, the House of August ball team, to win the game Sunday. But after running into a 12-hour downpour at our last picnic the day was meant for Alger and we did get a break all the way round. The winners on the grand cash drawing were as follows: F. G. Carney, first prize; Brownlee, second prize; and Troy Reeves, third prize. Exciting were the racing events, particularly the fat man's race, where the old time atmosphere completely disappeared, there being but one fat man in the Park, so the only fat woman was entered. She won the race.

The absence of party folks was further noticeable in the low consumption of beverages. Either the Vets are growing too old, or are more concerned about their figures. Van Wormer and his cain gang really went to town, not many were seen walking with them. Del Barba and Art Van did a fine job of feeding the multitude, and if you were fortunate enough to get any of that spaghetti, you really received a treat.

Bill Christie certainly must have put in a lot of hard work at the bar, as relief had to be summoned for him at 2:30 p. m.

Some of the boys can do better on three legs than two. A fellow with a broken leg won the three-legged race. And that tug of war, the winners are still looking for their cigars; they were passed to the losers by mistake, (or trick). All in all it was a great day and folks seems to agree that it was a fine event and trust that the weather and crowd will be as lovely next year.

Carpet wools come from central Asia, Tibet, China, Russia, India, South America and Scotland, in fact from many mountainous countries of the world, where rigorous climatic conditions produce strong, resilient wools. Still another group went on a nature hike to collect leaves which they used used to make plaster of paris plaques. Everyone brought their own lunch and enjoyed a friendly chat at noon, followed by a Campfire song.

Next Thursday afternoon the entire group will prepare their own lunch. They plan to cook chili over the campfire.

Major Burns Henry Post, 303, Auxiliary

Our party is something of the past but will not be forgotten very soon. A committee of five, Bety Hoyt, Hazel Allor, Adele Baker, Sylvia Sharpe, and Mary Del Barba sponsored a card party at the home of Mrs. Hazel Allor Saturday, July 8, and we are very happy to state that our party was a grand success. It swelled our treasury quite a bit and gave us courage to plan a larger party in their near future.

We want to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you who were very generous to us and for the nice way you turned out for our first party and especially some of the boys from the Burns Henry Post. Tex Hoyt worked until I thought he was going to sleep on his feet; Earl Cramer for the use of his trailer to bring chairs and tables back and forth; Charles Bishop for delivery of the same, and not to mention Ray Allor for moving furniture from front porch, living room, and dining room to set up card tables and chairs. Mr. Baker was quite busy Doing What? I don't know. Hal Hal Baker. Also we were very glad to have one of our Post boys from out of town. None other than Bill Korte, at our first party and enjoying himself as best he could for his wife is in the hospital with a new baby girl. Congratulations!

We hope our sick members Ethel Clark and Kate Porter are doing very nicely and will be able to attend our next meeting as we miss them very much.

I'll be seeing you!

—Mary Del Barba.

Much benefit is also expected from a four-year plan of reorganization for fourth, fifth and sixth grades, worked out during the year by the administrative staff members.

Lip-Reading

A tiny beginning in teaching lip-reading to hard-of-hearing pupils has been made in the last few months under the direction of the Department of Child Accounting and Adjustment. Much remains to be done. The psychologist attached to this Department broadened her work this year to include more attention to adjustment problems in the high school. More attention has been paid visual education during the year; some of this work will be omitted next year, but it is hoped that it may be resumed thereafter. Increased library service at the high school, long necessary, was provided this year and is to be continued. Improvements were made in the Maire School's library.

Cooperation with the Alger House branch of the Detroit Institute of Art was continued during the year, with classes from both elementary and high schools visiting the museum for guided tours. The first system-wide art exhibit was held during recent weeks at Alger House with an attendance of more than one thousand persons. The educational possibilities of this type of cooperation have only been tapped.

The summer school and summer recreational programs served larger numbers last summer than ever before. Supplementing the playground program last summer was a series of orchestras and band concerts by Federal musical groups. These attracted large audiences and it is planned to repeat them.

Progress in Music

Strides have been notable in music instruction. Friday night last this work culminated in an outdoor concert by our six school bands and eleven choruses—a presentation which, we believe, attracted the largest audience ever to attend a school function in this community. The high school had the pleasure of acting as host to bands and orchestras from twelve cities at a musical festival this spring and last December the first annual Christmas concert was presented.

Parental Cooperation

Much financial aid has been given elementary schools, and especially elementary libraries, by Parent-Teacher Associations. The Mothers' Club of the High School presented gowns to the A Cappella Choir, and the High School Student Association furnished nearly two thousand dollars to buy uniforms for the band. Not merely material help but a stimulus to greater effort are given the schools and teachers by these and numerous other evidences of parental interest and sympathy. Another illustration of this helpful morale was the action just the other day of the 6A class of one of the elementary schools (Richard) in presenting a drinking fountain as a farewell gift from the pupils to their school.

New materials designed to help prepare elementary school pupils for a smooth transfer to higher grades were prepared and introduced. The guidance activities of the school system and the placement program continued to evoke much attention and favorable comment in the teaching profession.
