

CITY ELECTION TUESDAY

Grosse Exaggerations?

By A. PRYOR

When we left the hurly-burly of N. Y., the thought of the peace and quiet of our hometown carried us away to the extent that we wouldn't have been surprised to see Michigan Central Station littered with cows and chickens—but we neglected to consider the Yale-Michigan-football-week-end! Now that it's over, we feel, (and probably look), like something that grew up in a damp cellar. The City has been up to its ears in out-of-town guests for days; how many, we can't recall, but one morning Grosse Pointe woke up, yawning, stretched—and there they were; from the North, East, South and West. After that morning everybody stopped yawning because they didn't have time. If you DID get your mouth open that far, the idea was to put a drink in it. Guest-i-cisms:

At one of the large parties, we saw a male visitor piloting one of our most elegant ladies through the crowd and onto the dance floor. As he passed a table loaded with sandwiches, he put a few of them in his pocket. His partner noticed this un-Emily Postish gesture and asked the reason. "Well," drawled the young man, "The last time we danced together, it went on for so long that I thought if that happened again, I might get hungry."

Another o. o. t. g. (from Texas), decided to leave one of the parties early, so he called a taxi, but when it came he dismissed it and called another. He kept this up for sometime until it occurred to someone to ask him what was wrong. "I ain't goin' until I get a taxi with a Texas license plate," was the reply.

One local host telephoned all of his friends in the teeny-weeny hours of the morning after the game and asked them if by chance they were storing away one of his guests. As far as we've heard, the man hasn't been found yet!

We spied a visitor from Chicago, who, (someone told us), is a Mr. Cummings. ("Oh, boy!") We rushed home and tore up our picture of Lawrence Olivier and wrote to Yale, asking them to come back and play Michigan again as soon as possible.

Not to be outdone by the visiting firemen, many of the home-folks "went to town" in a veddy un-Grosse Pointe manner. One sedate and bespectacled gent of the private car group, threw his inhibitions to the wind and held a bunch of scallions just inside of an electric fan which was going full blast. Little sprays of onion covered everybody in the car, except the villain who perpetrated this dastardly trick.

Another Grosse Pointer, guesting at a swank dinner party, was so carried away by the lilting tones of his Alma Mater, that he proceeded to "tackle" everyone who went through the living room doorway, where he had stationed himself for just that purpose.

Anyway, it was all fierce fun and as that hilarious cartoon in the New Yorker a few years ago read, "You Easterners needn't think we don't know how to have a good time—we do—even if it kills us."

DR. M. R. SULLIVAN IN NEW OFFICE

News has reached us this week that M. R. Sullivan, D. D. S. whose office for the past 10 years has been located at Mack avenue and Three Mile Drive is now established in his own building at 16321 Mack, between Three Mile Drive and Courville. Associated with Dr. Sullivan, as in the past, will be F. B. Watts.

Dr. Sullivan's new quarters will be a revelation to his patients. The building of early American architecture, represents the last word in up to date facilities for the practice of dentistry. It appears certain from all reports reaching us that Dr. Sullivan's new venture will receive the hearty approbation of his friends and clientele.

Economy Group Endorses City Candidates Urges Voters to go To Polls Tuesday

Pointing out:

(1) That the tax rate of the City of Grosse Pointe for the ensuing year is $16 per thousand dollar valuation as compared with $19.60 for each of the past four years;

(2) That the cost of the city government has decreased from $588,306.95 in 1932 to $346,046.74 for the year ending March 31, 1939, and to an estimated cost of $333,593.12 for the year ending March 31, 1940;

(3) That the bonded indebtedness of the city is approximately $600,000 under the amount allowed by law!

(4) That from 1932 to date the bonded indebtedness has been lowered 44 per cent;

(5) That for the past six years the annual earnings in the sinking fund investments, together with net gains from security transactions, has been about 5.3 per cent per year on the average balance in the fund, a remarkable figure during these times;

(6) That approximately $4500 less than the budget was spent during the past year; and

(7) That while all these, and other economies in government, were being made the city adequately provided for all necessary municipal services;

A substantial committee of voters of the City of Grosse Pointe are urging the re-election of the following officials as councilmen:

Chester F. Carpenter, Hugh L. Dill, M. D., D. M. Ferry, Jr., Walter C. Hartwig and Edward F. Spitzer. Each has played a large part in the above program, the committee claims.

There are six to be elected to the council out of nine candidates. The committee is calling upon all these who favor good government economically administered, to include these five among the six for whom each registrant will vote. Their past records are such that the committee not only feels that they are entitled to re-election but that with the program of economy in government which these men advocate for the future it would be disadvantageous to every taxpayer and citizen to omit any one of them for the ensuing two years.

Each of the five candidates is a taxpayer.

Mothers' Club Gives School New Trophies

First to be engraved on the new, golden trophies presented by the Mothers' Club to Grosse Pointe High School at the parent-faculty frolic last Monday night will be the names of the honor boy and girl of the January graduating class.

These beautiful trophies presented by Mrs. J. C. Danforth, first vice president of the Mothers' Club, to Mr. Charles Salter, assistant principal, are 33 inches high. They are now being displayed in a case on the first floor along with the first pair, presented ten years ago.

The older cups are now filled with names of the honor graduates. The school's honor girls are Jean Rankin, Margaret Balfour, Pearl Latimer, Phyllis Johnson, Isabelle Brandt, Rosabelle Schuman, Jean Harding, Janet Moffat, Eileen Beever, Alice Horn, Barbara Allington, Doris Willis, Betsy Honhart, Betty Shaffer, Martha Clise, Helen Jean, Mary Flitt, Jane Baits, Elizabeth Goodrich, Jean Trombley, and Catherine Raupagh.

The honor boys are: William Mohr-hoff, William Buran, Norvell Trombley, George Belanger, Edwin Wright, Joseph Black, Donald Van Marter, Edward Chase, Edward Wernet, Henry Parsons, Roger Dolese, Joseph Spitzley, Hunter Hendee, Jay Sorge, Edward King, James Watson, Donald Van Hoek, William Muehl, Richard Talcott, Charles Armstrong, Eric Gottschalk, and Carl Schaening.

On top of the new trophies are two figures representing victory for a boy and victory for a girl. Mrs. Danforth said in her presentation speech that the club hopes these symbols will not mean victory in a competitive sense but rather personal victory which the student has achieved.

Dean Murphy Heads Show at Royale

Dean Murphy, Broadway's ace impersonator, headlines this week's show at the Club Royale, fulfilling the engagement which he has had to postpone since the club opened six weeks ago because of his New York bookings in a six-week vaudeville tour which he is making with Constance Bennett. Murphy is packing them in at the Royale just as he did at the Paramount theater in New York, where he was held over for four additional weeks. Murphy has also played recently at the International Casino, where he was retained at doubled salary to take Milton Berle's place when Berle left to open in his new comedy, "See My Lawyer." He was next signed by the Shuberts for their new Ziegfeld Follies which has to be postponed after because so many foreign stars were in the cast.

Because his mimicry of the First Family so amused President Roosevelt's mother, Dean has played a command performance in the White House, and also entertained the King and Queen of England when they were here on their recent tour. Still in his early twenties, the boy from Wisconsin wanted to be a lawyer, but found it more profitable to make folks laugh, and has had an income steadily rising from $150.00 to a present $2000 a week.

Delta Carroll, who left Austria when Hitler tried to make her wear clothes in her dance stays for a second week. The supporting entertainers are Betty Guyon, swing and ballad singer; Chene and Armstrong, comedy dancers; Elizabeth Housten and Dan Harden, song stars of musical comedy. New dance ensembles by the eight Royale dancers and Danny Demetry's music complete the bill.

The Review is the only advertising medium covering the entire Township of Grosse Pointe, which is read in every home for its local news.

Final Garden Club Meeting November 6 At Neighborhood Club

The last meeting of the Garden Center at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo, until the first of the new year, will be held on Monday, November 6, at 8 p. m. The subject will be "Evergreens for Michigan Gardens," by Mr. Ralph Peterson of the department of parks and boulevards. Mr. Peterson has charge of the city nursery at Dearborn and knows by practical experience which evergreens will thrive in our climate and will be able to answer any questions about the care of the evergreens used as plantings for the front of so many houses in Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Horace B. Peabody, president of the Garden Center, will preside at this meeting.

On Thursday, November 9, at 2:30 p. m. at the Russell A. Alger House a "Discussion and exhibition of Thanksgiving and Christmas tables and table decorations" will be held. Mrs. Wm. Berosford Palmer will discuss and comment on both tables and table decorations. Among those who will enter tables will be Mrs. L. Rothe Farr and Mrs. Richard W. Jackson and those planning to bring centerpiece for the table will be Mrs. Phillip O. Mulkey, Miss Marie Louise Anderson, Mrs. Julian P. Bowen and anyone interested may bring a centerpiece if they call Mrs. George Bouton, the director of the Garden Center, Tuxedo 2-0284 not later than Wednesday, November 8, from 1 to 5 o'clock so that enough tables will be prepared.

Both of these meetings are free and open to the public.

Marygrove Tower Dance Nov. 10

Six Marygrove students from this section are members of various committees for the annual Tower Dance to be given at the College, Friday, November 10.

Miss Mary Kathleen Schrage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendelin C. Schrage, 1321 Devonshire avenue, is chairman of the patron committee. Assisting her will be Miss Betty Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Kennedy, 77 Moran road.

Miss Lorraine Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer, 1417 Beaconsfield avenue, is on the music committee.

Miss Mary Padelt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph M. Padelt, 1265 Buckingham road, is on the refreshment committee.

Miss Mary Louise Berns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Berns, 1240 Bedford road, is on the program committee.

Miss Margaret Mary Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Daly, 1303 Beaconsfield avenue, is on the publicity committee.

All six are seniors at Marygrove.

Tax Authority To Address Women's Republican Club

The Hon. Wm. B. Campbell, an authority on Michigan taxation, will address the second monthly meeting of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe, on Wednesday, November 8. The meeting will come to order promptly at 2:30 p. m. at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo street, and will conveniently be held on the first floor.

Mr. Campbell, the speaker, is well known to the people of Michigan. Retiring as general manager of the Commercial Milling Co., he was induced to enter public life. He served several terms in the state legislature where he became known as a keen student of tax matters. Mr. Campbell's address will be of the greatest interest to stockholders and home owners, who will be startled at the facts which he will disclose.

Mrs. Douglas Crane will give a three-minute talk on "Ham and Eggs in California."

After the meeting tea and sandwiches will be served and you may discuss politics over the tea cup with your neighbors.

The safety of America lies in women's interest in things political, with its freedom, and open debate and wholesome discussion.

Bring your friends and come to the meeting.

'Snake Dancers' Riot, Hurl Eggs at Police

Angered because police broke up their Halloween celebration, 300 Grosse Pointe High School students last night bombarded four carloads of Grosse Pointe Farms policemen with rotten eggs and over-ripe tomatoes; tore radio aerials off scout cars, threatened to break down the municipal building, and were finally driven off with tear gas and fire hoses.

The youngsters were given the nod over the harassed policemen in the riot, which for color and smell will be unequalled for many a month to come.

At 8:30 p. m. 300 youngsters, including about 75 girls, doing a "snake dance" at Fisher road and Kercheval avenue, were accosted by three carloads of police.

They were ordered to break up. The crowd retaliated quickly. Aerials were yanked off scout cars and the policemen became targets for accurately hurled tomatoes and eggs.

In the wholesale arrests that followed, 25 boys were taken to the Grosse Pointe Farms police station.

The crowd quickly reassembled about the building and when demands for their buddies' release were ignored they renewed their bombardment.

The fire department was called to aid the police and a fire hose was turned out of the crowd which quickly retreated down its barrage.

Then the policemen threw tear gas bombs. However, the wind blew the gas back in their faces.

The fight ended when the youths' ammunition gave out.

Chief Albert O. Fluit of the Farms police said that all of the arrested youths were released.

Blue Devils Meet Fordson in Last League Tilt

If the games played during the past four years are any indication, Saturday's battle between Grosse Pointe and Fordson should be one of the best.

Although Fordson holds the advantage over the Blue Devils in games won, each meeting was closely contested. Neither team cinching victory until the final minutes. The real thriller was in 1937 when Fordson eked out a 13-13 tie with a last minute pass in the end zone.

Saturday's game, the last 1939 Border Cities League game for the Pointers, will begin at 2 o'clock at the High School Athletic Field.

The 59-Piece Band under the direction of Mr. Kalembor, and led by Hubert Strem and Marion Bishop have planned an exceedingly entertaining program for between the halves. Five intricate formations are scheduled.

Officials: Eddie Barbour (U. of D.); Referee, John Neville (U. of Cin.); Umpire, Arthur Carty (Alma), Headlinesman.

Special Propositions To Be Voted On in General Election

Electors of the City of Grosse Pointe are to ballot upon two special propositions at the City General election next Tuesday, November 7. Both of these special propositions bear the approval of the officials of the City.

One such proposition contemplates the paving of Chalfont and Goethe streets and the issuance of bonds in the total sum of $12,500 to pay the cost thereof. This appears to be a much needed improvement in view of the fact that the dust and mud originating from the present unpaved condition, is highly unpleasant to the residents living on or near to these two streets and such nuisance will be eliminated if the electors approve the bond issue proposition.

The other special proposition concerns a more or less routine matter, upon which, however, it is necessary to secure an approval by ballot. There will be submitted to the voters the question of whether the City should give a deed to a piece of property in Lakeland Court Subdivision.

The property referred to lies at the north end of Lakeland Avenue and on the southerly side of the old Black Marsh Ditch. The subdivision through which Lakeland Avenue runs was platted by John M. Dwyer in 1920. The southerly end of the subdivision was at Jefferson avenue; the northerly end of a line 240 feet north of Charlevoix. This line was the southerly side of a triangular area bounded on the northwest by the Black Marsh Ditch. This triangular piece was dedicated by Mr. Dwyer as a public park.

The Village of Grosse Pointe determined that the site was not suitable for park purposes and deeded the property back to John M. Dwyer and his wife in 1927. The Village rejected the park for several reasons. The location was not thought desirable and the area was not entirely satisfactory in shape or size also after the Black Marsh Ditch was filled in, it was apparent that the property to the north would ultimately be subdivided and developed. If a park was then established lying north of Charlevoix, the street through any subdivision to the north would either come to a blind end or would run through the park with the resulting hazard of children running across from one side to the other.

Dr. Warren Reports Good Health Condition in Pointe

The health conditions in Grosse Pointe are exceptionally good, with a very small per cent of absentees from any of our schools because of illness of any kind. The three cases of polio reported in October were of a mild type and are recovering with every indication of no bad after effect.

Contagious diseases reported in October were: six cases of mumps, three of chicken pox, three polio, two whooping cough, one pneumonia.

Although the anxiety about polio has subsided, Dr. Warren suggests that parents do not send a child to school if he has a bad cold or shows any signs of illness, but to be on the safe side in consulting their doctor.

E. R. Van Kleeck Presided at M. E. A.

"Mental hygiene" for school children doesn't mean that the teacher lets Johnnie "express himself" to the extent of throwing spitballs at her.

"Progressive education" doesn't mean what most of the public think, either.

Good mental hygiene is good teaching, and the good teacher practices it regularly. It isn't just something she "slaps on around the edges."

These were some conclusions drawn from Wayne County teachers attending a Saturday morning convention of the M. E. A. regional meeting at Cass Technical High School.

Presided over by Dr. E. R. Van Kleeck, superintendent of Grosse Pointe schools, the discussion panel included Dr. Fritz Redl, educational adviser at the Cranbrook School; Dr. John C. Sullivan, Wayne University; Miss Helen Farley, Pershing High School, Detroit, and, from the Grosse Pointe schools, Dr. Marion Fitzsimmons, psychologist; Josephine Bartlett, Trombley School; Ruth Pace, Richard School; Eudora Frazee, Pierce Junior High School, and Paul Young, dean of boys, Pierce School.

Mental hygiene and really progressive education aren't just something for the "little kids," the group seemed to agree. College standards make their practice more difficult with older scholars, but the good teacher can surmount even these problems, they decided.

"Nobody thinks of going to a thirteen-century dentist," Dr. Redl declared. "Nobody should want any teaching for his child that is not also up-to-date and modern and in line with the best educational thought."

The teachers discussed at length the dangers of pushing children to compete with one another. Achievement, not outdoing one another, should be stressed, they said. Teachers were urged to create a friendly atmosphere in their classes. Pupils should work for reasons other than fear, although a comfortable class atmosphere shouldn't be confused with a boring one. Homes and parents cause many problems of children, but unwise teachers often fail to lessen these stresses and strains. Teachers should aim to find chances for the less able boys and girls to accomplish something, and they can do this only by studying each child as an individual.

Mental hygiene materials from the Maire and Richard schools in Grosse Pointe were distributed.

MACK AVE. STATION UNER NEW MANAGEMENT

Of interest to many in the Pointe is the announcement of Fred W. McMann that he has recently purchased the service station and property located at Mack avenue and Harvard Rd., Grosse Pointe Park. Associated with him in the operation of the station, which will be known as McMann's Friendly Service will be his son, Frederick McMann a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School. Both gentlemen extend a hearty invitation to all their friends, as well as residents of the Pointe in general to drop in on them. All are assured of prompt, courteous and efficient service.

Poetry Week Was Observed at Mason

An assembly program at Mason School to which all the children were invited marked the close of Michigan Poetry Week. Many mothers attended.

Elinor Corfield introduced the program, telling the audience that the poetry selected concerned itself with telling a story, teaching a lesson, telling something funny, making us visualize beautiful pictures, and expressing march rhythms. All the children in the 1A and 2B grades with the teacher, Pauline Sagala, participated in the program. The poems which were read, sung, and dramatized by the children included the following: The Huntsmen, by Walter de la Mare; The Elf and the Droomouse, by Oliver Herford; The Flag, by Mary Howlston; The Turtle, by Vachel Lindsay; Susan Lane, by Kate Greenway; Quintus O'Quillikin, by Laura E. Richards; Moral Song, by John Farrar; The Marching Song, by R. L. Stevenson; The Policeman, author unknown; and Resting, by E. M. Tucker.

23rd Annual Mum Show November 11, 12

Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society will stage their twenty-third annual Chrysanthemum Show on Saturday and Sunday, November 11 and 12, at the Neighborhood Club, City of Grosse Pointe.

This is by far the most colorful of Michigan fall shows and the large gymnasium at the club provides a perfect setting for such an exhibit.

The competitive schedule calls for over fifty classes in cut flowers and potted plants, with many additional classes in artistic arrangement, and embraces every type and variety from the baby pom-pom to the giant exhibition kinds which often measure 28 inches or more in circumference.

Apart from chrysanthemums, visitors will see exceptionally well grown roses and carnations and specimen pots of winter flowering begonias.

Roy Berry, who is general show chairman, announces for judges in the private growers section: James W. Hopton, of Grosse Pointe; Alex Lamond, of Grosse Pointe; Cyril E. Hayman, of New Baltimore.

The show is free and open to the public and will be open Saturday, November 11 from 4 to 10 p. m., and Sunday, November 12 from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

To The Citizens of The City of Grosse Pointe PLEASE VOTE

We heartily recommend, in the name of good government, that you do two things

Tues., Nov. 7th

Vote at the election of the City of Grosse Pointe at which city officials will be chosen for the next two years. The polls will be open at the Fire Hall from 7:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m.

2.

Among other officials six councilmen are to be elected. There are nine candidates for the office. Of the present officials of the city the following have consented to run for the council, and we heartily endorse them as five for whom you will vote, each being a tax payer:

- Chester F. Carpenter
- Hugh L. Dill, M. D.
- D. M. Ferry, Jr.
- Walter C. Hartwig
- Edward F. Spitzer

The accomplishments for the City of Grosse Pointe of each of these men merit their elections.

They have aided in decreasing the cost of city government from $588,306.95 in 1932 to $346,046.74 for the year ending March 31, 1939, and to an estimated cost of $333,593.12 for the year ending March 31, 1940.

Due to the various economies practised, the tax rate for the ensuing year is $16 per thousand dollars valuation as compared to $19.60 for each of the past four years.

As the Grosse Pointe Review of September 14, 1939, stated: "No better example of what can be accomplished by economy in government and at the same time adequately providing for all necessary municipal services exists than what has been done by the administration and employees of the City of Grosse Pointe, according to the last annual audit of Ernst and Ernst, recently filed."

Please show your appreciation by voting for these men and insuring continued good government, economically administered.

Property owners and citizens of Grosse Pointe who are proud of the City and its advantages.

And now that we're in a party-moody, we'd like to tell you about the new Gold Cup Room at the Whittier. Stopped in there the other night on the way home from the theatre and found a surprisingly gay atmosphere for these here parts. The lighting is kind to Madam's complexion and the little leather upholstered booths are very entre nous. There is soft, sweet music and a dance floor no bigger than your husband's golf medal—but it's fun. They tell us that the cocktail hour is just as popular because the 'tally' makes such a small dent in the budget of the young.

Had lunch at Al Green's on Tuesday and found the place brimming over with people who came to see the first of Grace Wright's bi-monthly fashion shows. The models were, Mrs. John Bloom, Mrs. Clifford Taylor, Mrs. Frazer Sullivan, Jane Frazer and June Meder. They modeled some very attractive dinner gowns, sports togs and afternoon dresses. Grace Wright plans on having these fashion parades every OTHER Tuesday at Al Green's, and we can think of no better way of getting that luncheon debt off your conscience than by taking your guest there to revel in good likka, good food and good looking clothes, all in one fell swoop!

We have run across a magazine called the "Staff," which we understand is published by the Staff Club, a social organization of household help. We found it chiefly for, by, and of, "domestic assistants," as the Staff calls them, and it proved to be interesting AND enlightening. If you employ domestic assistants, we'd suggest your reading it—IF you can get a copy!

Far be it from us to hesitate to remind you that somewhere in the distance we hear a reindeer! Soooooo, if you can afford to spend only a kroning on your Xmas—oops! now we've said it—presents, we know of a swell little gadget that would make a hit in any household. It's a tiny flower pot, whose lone flower acts as a weather barometer that really works. We'll have one in the office of the Grosse Pointe Review, from now on—just in case you're curious.

And so we leave you with a thought for this week: A woman is an angel—until she starts harping! (We trust that a word to the wives is sufficient.)

Weaving Class At Defer School

On Wednesday afternoon, November 8, at 1 o'clock, a class in weaving will start at the Defer school, Nottingham at Kercheval. All women in the community who are interested in this class are invited to attend.

The enrollment fee is only 50 cents for the course of 11 lessons. For further information call Mrs. Dale at Lenox 1034.

New England Women Supper Nov. 3

Members and friends of Detroit Colony, National Society of New England Women, will attend the Society's annual baked bean supper and gift sale, Friday, November 3, at 6:30 o'clock, at the Nazareth Lutheran Church, Vicksburg and Grand River avenues. Mrs. Horace B. Loveland, president, will be present to greet guests. Mrs. Grace Hauber is in charge of the supper. Tickets may be obtained from any member.

Christian Science Church

"Adam and Fallen Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 5, 1939.

The Golden Text (Ephesians 5:14) is: "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Romans 8:16): "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (p. 258): "Mortals have a very imperfect sense of the spiritual man and of the infinite range of his thought. To him belongs eternal life."

Grace Church Harvest Festival

Grace Church, Lakepoint at Kercheval, will celebrate Harvest Festival at the 11 a. m. service, Sunday, November 5. The church will be bedecked with the bounties of the field, fruit, grain, flowers, vegetables, etc. The whole service will be one of praise and thanksgiving for God's blessings.

On Monday evening, November 6, at 6 o'clock, a harvest supper will be served in the church basement.

The general public is invited to both worship service and supper. Anyone desiring to contribute to any of the above named things for decorating the church and use for the supper may do so by bringing the gift to the church Saturday afternoon, November 3.

Trombly News

The 5B class of Trombly School is studying communication. The boys and girls are corresponding with the fifth grade of Freeport, Long Island. They are becoming very good friends. Many have received pictures of their friends. They have discussed and read many kinds of communication used through the years.

October 26 they took a trip to the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. The mothers furnished the transportation. They found out how the automatic dial system works, what the switchboard operators do to assist people when they have trouble. Mr. Petz, the manager, presented each child with a booklet—"The Birth and Babyhood of the Telephone." This experience gave each pupil a better understanding of the part telephones play in communication today.

Costly Imported Art
Paintings and drawings imported to the U. S. between 1930-35 were valued at more than $25,000,000.

The Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church

Mrs. Wilbur M. Brucker, wife of former Governor Brucker, will deliver the address at the special Armistice Day services at the Grosse Pointe Lutheran Church, Richard School auditorium, Kercheval and McKinley, Sunday morning, November 12th, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Brucker, a well known lecturer, will speak on: "The Foundation for Lasting Peace." There will be special violin, piano and vocal numbers. The various Boy and Girl Scout Troops in Grosse Pointe municipalities and their leaders will be the guests of the congregation at this service. The service will include a grand procession, placing the Colors, reciting the Scout pledge, singing the Scout song and allegiance to the Flag. Taps will be sounded at the close of the service. The public is cordially invited.

novel idea, a party without alcoholic beverages, has proven popular and this party marks the first step in a new direction which the Post can build up as time goes on. Charlie Bishop should be congratulated for his untiring effort, also contributing were: the Martin Nielsen, the Judge Thomases, the Hoys, the Endres, the Nicholases, the Thompsons (one Post, one unit), the Bakers, the Vana den Heuvels, Bishops, the Huyskens, the Strouds, the Craigs, the Simms, friends and children of the above, Commanders What-eley, Zarb, and a few unattached Legionnaires.

On the same day it was the sad duty of Post members to escort Comrades Atcheson and Joyce to their last resting place. Full military rites were held at the graves under the direction of Chaplain Cross. Thus the roster of honored dead becomes longer: Comrades Sadirovich, Monaghan, Poole, William and Leonard Neff, De Naey-art, Atcheson and Joyce.

Requiescat In Pax.
Comrade Clair Craig was recently elevated in position to full charge of 267 C. F. Smith stores in the northwestern area. The Post wishes him success in his new duties and regrets that the traveling necessitated by them will curtail his attendance and active participation in Post meetings and affairs.

The Post will lose a member shortly who holds perhaps the attendance record, Charter Member Bill Van den
Heuvel, who is to move to Muskegon.
Our loss is Muskegon's gain. Euchre players beware.

Next calendar event in the Armistice Day Jamboree at the Hartung Airport.

Chairman Nielsen must have 67 paid up dues by November 10th. (Contact Halvar Johnson, bus driver.) Martin says if he could collect dues in as short a space of time as it took for the Secretary of State to dispose of 100 303
Vv license plates, national citations would be easy to win.

Meetings first and third Wednesdays.

Legion To Dance
Armistice Night

The ninth annual ball of the Judge
John Faust Post No. 113, American Legion, will be held this year in the Fort Wayne Hotel, according to Glen Shields, commander. This is a departure from the past eight years, as all the previous balls were held in the Naval Armory. The change is due, says Shields, to a desire to have the refinements that only a hotel can offer.

Faust Post invites the general public to participate this year in the ball, which will be held in the ballroom
Saturday, November 11th. Dance music will be furnished by Ungers Elk Club orchestra.

ject of the sermon at the Grosse Pointe o'clock, preached by the Rev. M. Luth-

In this sermon Dr. Canup will answer from Scripture the following questions
Does this Commandment forbid capital punishment? Is killing in war justifiable?

Election Proposals

The proposal at this election is for the City to give a deed which will confirm the deed given by the Village. The reason for the approval is that a legal question arose concerning the validity of the 1927 deed because it was supported only by action of the council of the Village and not by a vote of the electors. It was decided that the title would be in doubt unless the conveyance was confirmed by the voters of the City. The grantees in the deed given by the Village and their successors have paid taxes on the property. If the proposal to confirm the title should not carry there will be a question as to the validity of any future tax assessment.

Mr. J. M. Dwyer's children, who are the parties whose title will be cleared if the new deed is given, and all residents of the City of Grosse Pointe, they are: Mrs. Annette D. Keane, Mrs. Elizabeth D. Whalen, Mrs. Melinda D. Parker and John Vincent Dwyer

The Lions remained in sole possession of first place when they defeated the highly regarded Dodgers 26-13. Jack Milligan, captain and hard running fullback of the Juniors smashed over for two of his team's touchdowns. The first came in the initial stanza and the second in the third quarter. Ray Miller, star end of the Dodgers, caught a 40-yard pass and raced the remaining 30 yards to score his team's first touchdown and keep them in the running. Bob McQueen was by far the best ground gainer of the day. He put the ball in scoring position for both of Milligan's touchdowns and scored one himself on a 15-yard end run.

The Rams lost their second game in two starts when a revised Red Wing team came back strong in the last half and scored two touchdowns in rapid order to go into the lead 26-6. On the last play of the game Joe Rivard, husky fullback of the Rams took the ball two yards behind his own goal line and raced 102 yards for a touchdown which proved to be the most spectacular play of the entire season thus far. Rivard also rushed over the extra point making the final score read 26-13 in favor of a highly improved Red Wing eleven.

The Cardinals are holding first place in the Midget Loop but have just played the one game, beating the Bears 33-0. With Don Place, shifty halfback of the Cards, doing most of the running, the league leaders completely outclassed a lighter and inexperienced Bear team. Place tallied 18 of his team's points with runs of 65 yards, 40 yards, and 1 yard respectively.

The Rangers, Saints and Club Fifteen are already preparing for the coming basketball season. The Rangers and Saints were members of the "Club" league last year. The Fifteen Club will be new as a team but the boys that go to make up their aggregation are all familiar faces around the Club. Such former high school stars as "Honey" Marsack, "Bonehead" Halahan, Don Morrison, Geo. Roberts, Geo. Braund, Frank Queenan, and Butch Beaver will be the nucleus of this new organization as far as athletic competition is concerned.

Everybody is invited to attend the Cranberry Jam given by the Girls' Clubs of the Neighborhood Club. The date of this big event is Friday, November 3, and the dance starts at 9 p. m. This dance will take the place of the regular Woolworth Dance this week.

A junior girls' basketball class is being conducted on Wednesday afternoons from 4 to 5 p. m. for all girls between the ages of 12 and 14. Here's your opportunity to learn the fundamentals of basketball and prepare for future team work.

The junior Girl Guards are seeking new members for their club. Any girls interested in hiking, singing, cooking, winter sports, etc., are welcome to join. The ages are 10 and over. This club meets every Friday from 4 to 5 p. m.

Girls interested in dramatics are invited to take part in a class held every Thursday from 4 to 5 p. m. This group is responsible for the theatre parties held every second and fourth Fridays of the month. If you have any special talent, such as piano playing or other instruments, you are requested to come to the club on Thursday afternoons and contribute your abilities to the program.

Art Institute To Show War Scenes

Some of the most spectacular war pictures ever filmed will be shown at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward at Kirby, Sunday afternoon and evening, November 5, when A. T. Hull, Jr., foreign correspondent and motion picture photographer, lectures on "I Covered Asia" at 3:30 and "The Fighting Lines of Asia" at 8:30.

Hull brings the only pictures of both sides of the conflict between China and Japan, showing front-line action pictures of both armies. His motion pictures are so exceptional that he was awarded the coveted National Headliners Club plaque for the best foreign newsreel coverage of 1939. They show actual bombing and machine gun attacks in the front lines and cover Mongolia, Manchukuo and China. His story and pictures cover not only war, but also the movement of millions of Chinese with their families, homes, universities and factories into the interior.

Mr. Hull's motion picture lecture is sponsored by the World Adventure Series, the public lecture course at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Alec Templeton Will Be Presented At Detroit Symphony

Alec Templeton, whose fame both as a musical satirist and as a musician of unusual attainment is a matter of common knowledge, will be presented as soloist at two of the three concerts scheduled by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in Masonic Temple for the coming week. The blind 29-year-old English genius of the keyboard will be heard at the first in the series of Young People's concerts at 10:45 a. m. Saturday, November 11, and at the first of the popular-priced Saturday night concerts that same evening. The other offering of the week will be the second program in the series of Free Concerts for School Children, to be played at 2 p. m., Wednesday, November 6.

Victor Kolar will conduct all three concerts, while Edith Rhett Tilton, educational director, will lecture at the Wednesday afternoon and Saturday morning programs.

Since Templeton first came to these shores in 1935 as solo pianist with Jack Hylton's orchestra he has been an overwhelming favorite of concert, recital and radio. His success as entertainer and artist combined is unique in present-day music and for several years he has enjoyed the distinction of appearing before capacity audiences. When Templeton played with the orchestra last year, demand for tickets was so great a special repeat performance became necessary. This, too, was sold out.

At the Saturday night pop concert Templeton will be soloist in the Schumann A Minor Concerto, one of the best-loved of all the important works for the piano. He will follow this with an unscheduled series of improvisations and musical caricatures, the "show" that Templeton fans flock to see and hear.

This holiday concert (Armistice Day) will take on special significance because of the world premiere of a work entitled "Armistice Day," by the New York composer and musical authority, William J. Reddick. Based on a war poem by a Captain John J. Willoughby, an Englishman who is said to have fallen in the World War, "Armistice Day" is a Phantasy for tenor and baritone solos, male chorus and full orchestra. Frank Wrigley has prepared the chorus and the soloists will be Avery Crew, Detroit tenor, and Walter Cassel, New York baritone. Reddick chanced on the poem in a magazine in 1923 and became impressed because of its dramatic possibilities. It requires 17 minutes to perform.

Other compositions on this evening program will be a first performance in Detroit of Michael Brusselmann's Suite for Orchestra, on the Caprices of Paganini, and Wagner's Prelude to "Die Meistersinger." Brusselmann is a Belgian contemporary who was born in Paris February 12, 1886. The Saturday morning concert is titled "Music and Moods" and in addition to Templeton as the feature, will include works of Wagner, Bizet, Novak, Gounod, Tschaiikovsky, White, Grieg, Ponchielli and Schumann. Templeton will play the first movement of the Schumann Concerto and present his incomparable improvisations.

The following composers will be represented on Wednesday afternoon's program: Grieg, Jannefelt, Tschikovsky, Ippolitov-Ivanov, Gounod, Goldmark.
