THE POINTES CRITICS

Pearl Adams Case Thoroughly Aired By Presiding Judge

Infant Publicity Places All of Grosse Pointe in Ugly, Un-patriotic Light; Comment on Rooming House Operator Is Nation-wide

By JOSEPH P. UVICK
The Judge Who Imposed Sentence

A newspaper is not the proper place to try or retry a case. The case of Mrs. Pearl Adams, however, may deserve even require comment because of the publicity it has received and the sustained interest in the trial.

From Mrs. J. F. S. of Philadelphia: "All those people (including the judge) who were so full of indignation and indignation of stigma which was a natural result of sensational publicity aimed at making a woman who is unquestionably a heroine and a martyr seem the commonest of mortals to defy the law of her country."

Pointe Service Club Plans Full Program

More Than 600 Members and Wives from Michigan and Canada Expected to Attend Functions on Sunday and Monday

Grosse Pointe Rotarians have all their plans whipped into shape to play host to the annual conference of District 133 of Rotary International here this week.

Members of the host club heard the final plans at their weekly meeting in the Whittier clubroom and at 4 p. m. reports from these assemblies will be heard in the men's grill room.

The banquet will start at 6:30 o'clock, with Governor Harry Kelly as the principal speaker. The newly elected district governor will preside. The grand march for the ball is scheduled to begin at 9:30.

Chairman of Committees Ernest Provo heads the transportation committee, Joseph Todd is in charge of publicity, Dr. Lawrence Dunsforth has arranged the entertainment, and Alphonse Meyers is chairman of the reception committee.

Vincent DePetrus heads the decorations group and is also in charge of the new-arrivals reception which will be part of the program at the buffet supper to be held in the High School Sunday night.

Entertainers from Detroit eight clubs will provide the music and dance numbers. Ray Gornell's orchestra will play for the ball following the banquet Monday night.

There was a strong disposition manifest among all the Commission to take these matters up as soon as normal conditions arrived, which they anticipated would occur soon after the ending of the war.

Commissioner Marco also called attention to the new municipal building for the Village which has been regarded for a long time as a coming necessity.

Two of Titus Robbers Held For Sentence

Fallowfield and Volf Will Learn Their Fate at Next Court Session

Christian Volf and Wallace Fallowfield, two of the four young gangsters who held up the Wynn drug store on the night of February 18, 1942, and got away with $200 at the point of a gun, made a confession in Circuit court on April 1st and threw themselves on the mercy of the Court.

They will be up for sentence at the next session of sentence court on the 12th. They were not implicated in the robbery are now in service, one in the Army and the other in the Navy.

Diggers Inspired By Bataan Legend

Whether it is the war atmosphere or just the primordial urge a lot of youngsters about the Pointe have taken to digging holes in back yards and vacant lots like a lot of woodchucks.

Bob Rubin of 673 Notre Dame saw a good sized snake as busy as a company of miners and supporters of the Pointe were in an adjoining lot and notified the police.

When they remained to the scene one of the youngsters said they were digging "fox holes."

Another youngster who was present said he had seen a Batam penetrated even into the nursery of war-minded America.

Houtekier Wins Gratiot Election

Otello Houtekier was elected supervisor of Gratiot township for the third time Monday when he defeated two opponents in an election that brought out 600 voters.

A Democrat, Houtekier pulled more votes than his combined opponents. E. J. Frenck, former township clerk who was running on the Republican ticket, and Frank Jones, long-time township treasurer who had been elected to office as a sticker candidate.

Ed Jole was again elected clerk. He was defeated by Otello Houtekier, who was elected supervisor. Albert Jones was re-elected without opposition to the single ward position.

The polls followed: Supervisor Houtekier 511, Frenck 213, Jones 93.

For Clerk: Jole 529, Clark 12.

For Treasurer: Frenck 362, Eppler 213.

There is no record in Gratiot township history to show that a Republican ever held as many votes as Eppler did Monday.

For Justice of the Peace: Albert H. Jones 314.

Steen's Bike Into Auto: Young John Allard Hurt

Seven-year old John Allard of 225 Ludlow road, wrecked his bicycle on the path of a car on Ridge road last Saturday afternoon and suffered a cut chin and bruised left knee, being very lucky. Baker Johnson of 304 Hillcrest was the driver of the car. The child was taken to the hospital and treated by Dr. K. M. McCall. Farms police estimated damage to the bicycle at $40.00. The automobile was not damaged. The accident occurred on a bridge between Merriweather and Leans.

Upset Cab Brings Double Dose of Grief to Driver

The Park police are recommending the cancellation of the taxi-driver's license of Chris Janoplis, 24, of 2541 Cadillac, Detroit, who was seriously injured Saturday night when his cab overturned on its side on a street in front of 15500 on the drive.

When Sergeant Verrier of the Park police found the cab about 12:30 a. m. it was standing upright, but evidently has turned over two or three times. Giannoplis was unconscious. He was taken to Cottage hospital, where he did not regain consciousness until 8:30 Sunday morning, same day as his accident.

Dr. McColl of the hospital staff who is also Giannoplis' own physician, said the cab overturned on its side and he suffered deep cuts, but Giannoplis was not willing to spend the $25 which the hospital said would be the cost. His sister, Mrs. Katie Reusch, paid her brother's $18 hospital bill. He also was badly bruised about the left hip.

Giannoplis signed a release to the hospital Monday afternoon and was taken home by the Park police. When interviewed Tuesday he said he intended to have X-rays made as soon as he was able, as he was not satisfied with his condition.

TEARS DISAPPEAR

"Tears disappeared" that was the close of the Farms police report which stated that Barbara Houtman, a 5th grade student at the Pointe school, who had the left leg pierced with a bullet in the Park-Whittier area, was found, intact, at Angelo's.

Sunday, April 4, 1943.

Dear Chief and Gang—

Here is the latest news from the Pointe. I am an ex-News photographer.

I'm in the Signal Corps attached to the Army Air Corps and that they don't think it necessary to send me to photo school.

When I came before the classification officer I showed him an album of pictures, a book of clippings, and did a little talk. He asked me some questions, gave me a test, and I made it.

After six days at Custer I've been here for a month of basic training, (and KP), after which I'll be assigned to a post. In fact they may ship me out any day now, because rumor has it that photographers leave here in a hurry and get their basic while on the job.

The barracks is an ex-city hotel with floors striped down to the concrete for easy scrubbing. Besides the KP and scrubbing, we do a lot of great life though, no kidding!

$1474,150,000 Must Be Raised in Wayne, Macomb and Oakland Counties

Monday morning (April 12), the people of Grosse Pointe and Wayne County will be asked to buy bonds "for Victory."

The Second War Loan, with $13 billion as its goal, will be launched that day.

Michigan's share of this largest fund-raising campaign in the nation's history is $220,000,000. Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties must subscribe $147,415,000 of this amount.

Walter C. Jennings, Michigan chairman of the Victory Fund Committee, said that there were three major purposes of the drive and the amount of money to be raised.

"First, and most important, is winning the war," Mr. Jennings said. "Second, by putting our money into the war effort, we will resist inflation. Third, by buying bonds, we will be building up a manufacturing and purchasing reserve that will make any after-the-war slump in business."

Plenty of Help Answers Alarm

A basement fire in a candy store at 1505 E. Jefferson last week sent in an alarm at the moment when the Park apparatus was out fighting a grass fire at Chittier and Charlevoix.

Chief Rector got to the fire immediately and the volume of smoke pouring out indicated the possibility of a serious fire before the fire department could reach the neighboring Detroit station. He was unaware that prior to his reaching the fire a similar request had been turned into Grosse Pointe City. Everybody responded promptly so there was plenty of apparatus to keep the situation in hand.

The fire was in a store kept by George Genetos and originated in defective wiring. The loss was about $200.

War Clubs Insure Complete Participation in War Work

The War Clubs were organized to insure complete participation of every family in anything pertaining to the war effort and to civilian welfare.

The Block Plan is a technique for spreading information and directing every last person into constructive action; more than that, it is a working philosophy—a way of breaking down artificial barriers between people.

Many feel that the War Clubs are just another organization or club. This is not true. They form a clearing house for all organizations now functioning—so that there will be no duplication of effort. They furnish a medium of reaching all the people to explain problems that arise from the war and get from them questions that are bound to arise concerning things they have observed and problems solved through the War Club by the organizations already established.

A summary of the purposes of the Grosse Pointe Neighborhood War Club Plan from its charter:

To promote Participation in the war effort by every citizen of Grosse Pointe, Mich.

To carry forward civilian war activity, quickly and effectively.

To get vital war information into every home, rapidly and accurately.

To collect information which may be needed for community war planning, and to bring back to homes answers to questions which may have been raised.

To promote a spirit of cooperation in neighborhood enterprises, such as neighborhood discussion meetings, rallies, car-sharing plans, the sharing of scarce mechanical and household equipment, and any other activity of the community's war service.

If such a group is at work in your neighborhood, co-operate with it to the limit of your ability. If not, help to organize one.

Engineers Retained For Pumping Station

The firm of Pale and Hurn, consulting engineers of 523 Michigan building, was retained by the Woods' council at the meeting Monday night preparing plans and specifications and supervise the building of the Torreyville sewer pumping station.

The compensation stipulated in the proposal of the firm, which becomes a part of the contract, was 3 per cent of the cost of the work.

Center of Discussion

At the Woods' committee meeting Tuesday night William R. Hudson presented a letter and was present in person, asking permission of the council to make certain alterations and improvements including wiring and installations, in a small property he had built about 1931 at a real estate office at 2028 Mack avenue. He desired to put it in connection where it might be continued either as a real estate office or suitable as a doctor's office or for similar professional uses.

The original structure had been erected under a temporary permit which contemplated its use only as a real estate sales office and with the understanding that it would be dismantled when this need had passed.

Mr. Hudson acknowledged that he hoped to rent it for other purposes if he found no further need of it for its originally intended use. Village Attorney Debra recommended the council that any changes or alterations in the building would imply the violation of the Neighborhood Club when permission was originally given for its erection.

The question, he stated, involved the building code rather than this need had passed. He made the property a permanent and legally acceptable structure in that section it would be necessary to enclose it in brick. Mr. Hudson was unwilling to commit himself to such alteration alterations in his property, or to its continued use as a real estate office, and his request was denied.

Choir Will Entertain Departing Draftees

The A Capella mixed choir of about 40 voices, under the direction of its organizer, William J. Watkins, musical director of the Grosse Pointe school, will furnish the musical entertainment for the send-off of the departing soldiers at the Neighborhood Club on Wednesday, April 13, at 6:45 A. M.

The Home Front committee anticipates a group of 30 to 35 boys in this crowd. The committee urges again that any service men now on leave or furlough in the Pointe area attend these farewell celebrations.

Busy Season Planned By Pointe Hunt Club

Horse Show Tentatively Scheduled for June; Activities Move Outdoors With Special Musical Rides and Sunday Parties

Plans are now under way for the annual Grosse Pointe Club horse show, now tentatively scheduled for June. The show is for members, for children and for mothers and is open to the public.

The show has always been one of the highlights of the year and the committee members are taking steps to see that this year is no exception.

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club sponsors special musical rides for children of members and other guests, to be held each Saturday morning under the direction of Riding Master Zichen.

It is expected that this will be one of the most popular events on the Club calendar. Requests are asked to make arrangements now to attend these Saturday rides.

Classes are now being formed for student riders, non-members of the club, which are open to anyone who will make application and be acceptable to the Club committee. These classes will include riding instructions, lane work and certain supervised social events, during the summer months. This is an innovation so far for the Club and is being done with a view of increasing the membership of the Club among those who take advantage of the facilities.

Members of the club are laying plans to inaugurate the outdoor season with the same zest and enthusiasm that have characterized the winter activities in the club hall.

A Western Party and barbeque among the social activities being planned. Other events on the calendar include Sunday parties and motion pictures.

Women Helping In Cancer Drive

Letters of solicitation have been mailed this week by the Committee of the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Putney Wright.

The drive will be conducted through April and there will be a public solicitation on the streets of Grosse Pointe April 20 and 29. "I am hoping," said Mrs. Wright, "that we obtain enough money to aid with the research work now being carried out by the Field Army at Wayne University which now supports Doctor Myrnes Curtis in her research with rats in the cancer field."

The story of Doctor Curtis and her associate worker, Doctor Wilhelmina Dunning, reads like the story of Marie Curie in her research with radium. These women were the first to breed about 1500 special pure strain rats who are carrying the dread strain of cancer in the cancer field.

When the Crocker Institute dissolved, these two women brought these rats to a hundred year old farm which Doctor Curtis had when she was a child at Mason, Michigan. Here in absolute privacy the women somehow managed to raise enough garden vegetables to support themselves and their child, the young Dr. Curtis.

Although she is still a student at Marquette College, Miss Rabaut has gained nationwide recognition through this song.

The author is the daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Louis C. Rabaut.

Leona Hahnke will begin a series of Sunday evening concerts by giving an informal piano recital in the Recital Hall of the Grosse Pointe School of Music at 17028 Kercheval Avenue on April 11th, at 7 p. m.

Silhouettes

About three years ago, she moved here from Utica, N. Y. Since then she has learned to like Grosse Pointe. She graduated from Dominican High School, and subsequently entered the Detroit Commercial College, which she is still attending. Last Tuesday, she was sworn in as a WAVE in the U.S.N.R. and is waiting to be called for active duty.

Her favorite pastimes are reading and dancing. She loves outdoor sports of all kinds; enjoys motoring and rides a bicycle nearly every day. Tailored suits are her favorite form of dress, blue her favorite color. She says that her only extravagant tastes are orchids and diamond bracelets—(basse take note!).

She leads a very simple life—and likes it. Just now she can hardly wait to be called for duty—because—"I am anxious to serve my country. Her friends call her "Betty"—she is twenty-year-old Elizabeth Jane Ryan.

League Redoubles Efforts in Drive

Members of the St. Joan of Arc unit of the League of Catholic Women are concentrating on their annual membership drive, under the direction of Mrs. J. R. Ballew, league director, and the pastor, the Rev. C. A. Dorberry.

Returns have been good, but Ballew has asked her solicitors to redouble their efforts. Demands of the war effort have greatly increased the obligations of the league and the help of every eligible woman is urgently needed, the director has stated.

Mrs. Ballew asks all prospective members to contact one of the solicitors and make an appointment for her to call. The solicitors are: Mrs. J. E. McCaskey, TU 2-4125; Mrs. C. Y. Moffett, NL 1195; Mrs. Norman Soper, TU 2-6039; Mrs. Al Kingsbury, TU 2-7820; Mrs. J. R. Ballew, TU 2-8383; and Mrs. George Glenswall, TU 2-7702.

AWVS News

The Grosse Pointe Unit of AWVS is cooperating with other groups and organizations in raising their quota of the Thirtieth Billion Dollar Second War Loan Drive for April, asked of the United States Treasury War Finance Committee. The quota for Michigan is $20,000,000, and our own quota in Grosse Pointe is $2,768,000. For the Michigan quota, the Sixty Thousand Gallants are called upon a volunteer enlisted group comprising one per cent of the men, women, and children of Michigan who are each responsible for selling one thousand dollars or more War Savings Bonds in April.

Those in this AWVS Unit acting as recruiting agents for "Gallants" are: Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, Mrs. Charles H. Hodge, Jr., Mrs. Edward K. Isbey, Mrs. A. Buel Quick, and Mrs. Claude Brooks. Anyone willing to help sell Bonds for this drive who is not already listed is urged to call TU 6-1050 to volunteer as a Gallant. To quote from the letter of appeal from Mr. Frank N. Isbey, Chairman of the War Savings Committee of the State of Michigan:

"Your enrollment will be recorded at State Headquarters immediately upon receipt of your report form. If your sales were One Thousand Dollars or more—you will receive a Certificate of recognition, which you can keep as testimony that you responded to your country's call in its hour of need."

The Consumer Division on Tuesday graduated seven instructors qualified to teach Mrs. Frazer's course in "Understanding Consumer Leadership." This class was taught by Mrs. Hiram Walker, and the graduates are as listed: Mrs. Walter Biedin, Mrs. F. A. Prince, Mrs. W. H. Tenney, Mrs. Edward Herbert, Mrs. Nellie Bell, Mrs. Erma Constantine, and Mrs. George Schaeffer.

Consumer Demonstrations announced this week in the series "War Savings for War Needs" Friday, April 9, 3:30 P. M.

Gals Learn How To Cover Chairs

Stopped in at the AWVS headquarters on Kercheval on Tuesday and we were amazed to see the number of women who were there learning how to make slip covers. The women who were demonstrating the finer points of slip-cover making, sounded very professional as she yielded the most divine piece of quilted blue satin in and about the arm chair.

We understand that these classes will be held twice a week and by the expressions of the class we saw, it ought to be a very popular movement—and one that can easily be adopted by most women. In fact, we who have not threaded a needle in some twenty years, are about to go home and see what can be done with grandpa's oldchesterfield, with its coating of tired green hosiery!

Seriously though, if all of Grosse Pointe isn't slip-covered by the end of the summer, it won't be because the AWVS ladies aren't trying, and when they try—they get places.

Mrs. Frances Heintz from the Home Economics Staff of Wayne University will speak on the "Conservation of Clothes" Tuesday, April 13, 3:30 P. M. Mrs. Augustin Nutter will speak on "Home Repairs—Plumbing." This will be a material condensed from her course on Home Mechanics which was so much in demand.

The demonstrations are held at the AWVS headquarters, 17027 Kercheval.

Celebrating Trio Settle For Pickles and Drinks

Harry J. Peters, Harold Ernst and Mike Hainall, employees of the United States Rubber Company, were out for an evening's enjoyment the other night and dropped in Amie's cafe at 15110 Mack.

Not too serious, but when another member of the celebrating trio took a bottle of whiskey and deposited it in his car parked outside, this was crowding the mourners.

Uvick's Instructions to Jury in Adams Case are Reprinted

The Pearl Adams rooming house case which has brought both Mrs. Adams and, more important, the Grosse Pointe community into the national headlines is succinctly set forth, so far as its legal aspects go, in the charge which Judge Joseph Uvick made to the jury in the case which tried the case in city court.

The defendant has pleaded "not guilty." The prosecution says she is not guilty of any crime with respect to the case until she has been found guilty by the jury in this case. It is the fact that she did not take any action, except in this connection, that if she wanted to deny or explain certain things she had the opportunity, No one but her own lawyer, or herself, told her not to take the stand. She has a right not to take the stand and they have their reasons for it and we have no right to delve into it.

ing roomer, as that was her business on Tronbridge avenue in Detroit. That is in reality her business here and it's not an out reflection upon her or anyone else in such a business. In point of fact, even if she had been only one of five cases involving the housing ordinance. One, Mrs. Adams, was the only one of Grosse Pointe, owner of her own home and was accommodating. The case was dismissed with no fine or costs. The other four cases were tried before me. Two of them against a woman owning and living in her own house on New road in the very best part of the city. She was not guilty, but agreed to abide by the ordinance, and no sentence was suspended, and no fine or fine imposed. Several months later the second complaint was received. She pleaded in this case that she was not guilty without a jury. Defendant was found guilty, fined $20 and $3 costs.

How much easier it would be for her to become a "heroic patriot" via the route of hypocrisy and demagoguery that is now so prevalent. What an opportunity with newspaper reporters pressing for statements. How easy it would be to become a "heroic patriot" via the route of hypocrisy and demagoguery that is now so prevalent. Reasonable doubt is common sense. Is there such a doubt that she has violated the ordinance and hasn't to pick more than one family, but the ordinance reads by Mr. Meder is the correct one, and one family only. Doubt would play a part, if there is any, if you think she is not guilty, but the ordinance says whether or not there were more than one family, there is not a doubt that she is not guilty, and that it is patriotic and that it is in your community. Charge is not shown by a violation of any law in any charge. That is not courage and that is not good Americanism regarding the purpose, and if that is called patriotism I wish we could get different teachings as children of what patriotism is."

"There was some comment on the fact that you find her 'not guilty' and that the ordinance was made. The court instructs you in that respect that there are no arrangements to be made. The Court can't make arrangements with the Council nor with anyone else. Our Bible here is the ordinance and we don't make that we follow the law as it is. I can't change the law, and you can't change the law. If you want to say to your Council and convey the message, as Mr. Smolker said, to find her 'not guilty' and that would be a message that I want to instruct you that that would be a message in effect saying to your Council, 'Effie on your laws—they don't mean anything.'"

Now to examine the facts as they present themselves to the jury. The ordinance is read by the city attorney, Mr. J. P. Meder, in his own name, and one family only.
