State Department releases a 10,000 word report on Japanese atrocities revealing an unbelievable story of bestiality and cruelty towards American prisoners of war . . . the report was withheld prior to the surrender because the Japs would have charged we were building up a world prejudice against the Japanese nation.

Judge DeBaeke Fines Two Offenders

Judge DeBaeke in Park Police Court Wednesday morning had but two cases to dispose of. One was for speeding where John H. Fisher of 268 Cloverly road was fined $25 and $5 costs for speeding on Kercheval on August 1. The other was the case of the party who resisted an officer and kicked a hole in the window of the Scout car while being taken to the police station. He was Joseph J. Hice of Manistigue. He drew a fine of $40 and directed it pay for the damage to the police car.

Calls Bicycles Street Menace

An excited citizen barged into the NEWS office late Thursday afternoon and said he had narrowly escaped killing a boy who had been riding in traffic on the street as he drove by on returning from his downtown office.

He said that all the alertness and driving skill in the world could not prevent imperiling the lives of these free-riding youngsters who seem to take a special delight in winding in and out in traffic. He said the "little devils seem to take a special delight in terrorizing auto drivers," depending on the alertness of the man at the wheel to protect them.

The complainant requested the NEWS to give publicity to the matter to have parents give orders to their children to stop their monkey shines on the streets when riding their machines. He also said he proposed to personally see that his complaint got to the Police Chief of the City in the hope it would lead to closer supervision of the boys.

Be thorough in all you do and remember that though ignorance often may be innocent, pretension is always despicable.

Home from the Wars Party Jars Elders' Nerves

The Grosse Pointe boys returning home from the wars are certainly getting a wholehearted reception these days. A party staged for one of them in the 300 block of Rivard one evening last week progressed into such hilarity that some sedate neighbors phoned the police who muted the festivities. Public sentiment is all with the boys and their young friends. The general verdict is that the elder statesmen could well afford to overlook the jangle of these once-in-a-lifetime celebrations.

Increases in Food Prices Will Be Fault of Customers

OPA Chief Wants Help of Consumers in Keeping Inflationary Prices Out of Necessity Picture.

To enlist consumer aid in preventing food price increases, W. E. Fitzgerald, OPA district director, announced Aug. 30, that "Anti-Inflation Shopping Lists" will be distributed to thousands of housewives from local War Price and Rationing Boards beginning September 4, 1945.

"The OPA is calling upon housewives to help their government prevent a repetition of the disastrous inflation that followed the first World War," Fitzgerald said. "Prices rose twice as fast after the armistice of the first World War as they did while the actual fighting was on. For example, a five-pound sack of potatoes increased 3-1/2 during the war and an additional 35 cents in the year and eight months following the armistice.

"The same set of factors that started the inflationary spiral following that war are again here. Consumer goods, including certain foods, are scarce. Everyone wants to buy the things he couldn't get during the war and people have money to spend.

"We are going to do everything in our power to prevent price increases in cost-of-living items by maintaining price controls as long as they are needed. We can't do the job alone. That is why we are asking housewives to help us at this time by making a spot check of food prices. We are asking them to report to local boards their personal experience with overcharges or price compliance in the stores they patronize.

"OPA has distributed consumer meat price lists, which show the top ceiling prices for every cut and grade of meat sold in retail stores. The housewives who have these lists are being asked to check store prices for meat against the legal ceilings and to report any overcharges to their local boards.

"Ceiling prices for practically all other foods are posted in retail stores."

"We want housewives to write on the Anti-Inflation Shopping Lists the prices they have actually paid for various kinds of food over a period of a week. The housewife will send her report to her local board. This will give the board a pretty good picture of food price compliance in its area and point out some of the stores that need investigation."

"I think most shoppers know that OPA's enforcement staff is short-handed. We've got to go to the people for the facts we need. These lists are one very simple way of getting that help."

"While a retailer occasionally may make a mistake and charge an above-ceiling price for an item, the vast majority intend to sell at the correct ceiling price. They realize the dangers of inflation—many from sad experiences after the first World War."

"Unfortunately, there are a few retailers who would take advantage of their customers by charging above-ceiling prices. Such retailers rob their competitors of trade and are a discredit to the industry. It is this small group of retailers that we are after, and OPA will prosecute them. But, we must have facts to work on."

"By striking at above-ceiling prices, we are not only protecting the pocketbooks of businessmen and consumers, but we are helping to avoid a disastrous inflationary period that couldn't help but end in just such a crash—the era of soup lines and street corner apple selling—as followed the first World War."

"The Anti-Inflation Shopping Lists will be distributed by Community Service Panels of local boards to civic associations, women's clubs, consumer groups, and other organizations for the use of members. Additional copies will be handed out to consumers who call for them at board headquarters. Each board will be responsible for notifying the public when the lists are available locally—probably many boards will be ready to distribute them next week."

"This is how the housewife uses her list: She writes down all the food purchases she has made during the week, showing brands, weights, sizes, and, if possible, ceiling prices. Then she puts down the price she actually

PCA to Spend Ten Millions

A ten million dollar financing program was announced today by PCA (Pennsylvania-Central Airlines) through Raymond G. Lochiel, vice-president and treasurer of the airline. The proceeds are to be used by PCA to meet the cost of a fleet of four-engined planes now on order.

The new type planes which PCA has on order are termed the "Super Planes of Tomorrow" and will provide more than double the capacity of the airline's present ships, will be considerably faster, and will offer new passenger comforts, Mr. Lochiel said. The PCA treasurer pointed out that this financing will meet only the anticipated expansion of its present system and does not contemplate any new routes for which applications are now pending.

Wet Pavement Causes Two Quick Skids

On Wednesday midafternoon of last week the wet pavement on Grosse Pointe streets accounted for two automobile accidents that happened in rapid succession, and at very near the same spot.

Marie Weigand of 17051 Kercheval, had stopped her car at a red light at the crossing into the City Beach park at University place and Jefferson when another car driven by Elmer H. Heck, aged 16, of 790 Pemberton, skidded and struck the back of her car. Young Heck was given a ticket for failure to have his car under control.

Five minutes later Fred S. Krzeminski, of 3526 Scotten, Detroit, driving west on Jefferson, skidded into a car belonging to Catherine Hatchett of 1,924 Cranford lane, that was parked in front of the Grosse Pointe bank. Krzeminski was given a ticket for reckless driving. All four cars were more or less crumpled.

paid for such grocery or meat item."

There are spaces at the bottom of the list for the name and address of her store, its group number, and the shopper's name and address. The shopper's name, however, will be kept confidential, if she requests it.

"The list, with instructions and brief facts on the inflation threat and the responsibilities of citizens under price control, includes a self-mailer. This makes it easy for the housewife to mail her list if she doesn't want to take it to her local board in person."

Boys and Bottles Crowding Roosters Smelly Hens

"Boy nuisance" is the terse story on the City police docket which recounts the fact that Mrs. Frank P. Book of 354 University place had entered a complaint of four small boys who threw glass bottles at her doorway and ran away early one night last week.

Another nuisance complaint appearing on the same page bears the brief legend, "Chickens." Someone in the 900 block of Fisher has chickens that are doubly offensive. They all smell badly but only the roosters crow in unholy morning hours.

The offending party had been notified on July 3 to abate the trouble and in response to the second complaint, the police orders were to get out of the poultry business, Pronto!

Illness Fatal To Mrs. Barnard

Helen C. Barnard, wife of Attorney Harry E. Barnard, died at her home at 181 Merrilweather road on Wednesday morning, August 29. Mrs. Barnard had been seriously ill for the past two months.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon at the Verheyden Funeral Home at Mack and Whittier. The services were in charge of Rev. Charles S. Scheid of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church with burial in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Barnard had filled an active role in the cultural and social service life of the Grosse Pointe community ever since she came here to live about 10 years ago. She was a member of the Board of Trustees of Priscilla Inn and a member of the Fort Pontchartrain Chapter of the DAR. She was active in the organization of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church.

One of her greatest interests had been the Girl Scout work. She had been Commissioner in that organization in Jackson, Mich., prior to her coming to Grosse Pointe. She was a former student of Oberlin College and a graduate of the Oberlin course in kindergarten training. She was born at Forreston, Ill.

Mrs. Barnard is survived by her husband, a son, Robert, two daughters, Margaret and Mary, and her mother, Mrs. Lyman Coleman of Chicago.

The Woods village engineer was authorized by the Council Tuesday night to proceed with the installation of two gas heating units for heating the Marter road pumping station.

State Tax Board Stalls On Reduction Appeals

State Board Remains Silent on What It Will Do in Further Five Million Cut Asked

The work on spreading the tax roll for Grosse Pointe Township is being held up by the failure of the State Tax Board to take action on the petition of a group of large mansion-type properties for a further reduction in these assessments.

About 66 of these property owners are represented by Attorney Fred Behr and a smaller group of eight or 10 other petitioners are represented by Maxon and McMahon.

On the first request of these property owners for reductions amounting to about $6,000,000, the State Tax Board recommended that a reduction be made. On this pointed recommendation the Township Board struck off a million dollars from the total petitioned.

It is a second appeal for the further reduction of the $5,000,000 remaining that has led to the delay. It is said there is no indication of early action by the State Board. Until word comes from it, the Township people are held up in making out the tax bills. As the township also collects the County taxes in the township as agents for the county, Wayne county is also directly concerned.

The taxes are due on December 1 and payable without penalty up to January 20. At this season the preparation of the rolls would be well advanced. The meat of Township Supervisor Schweikart's objection to granting these reductions is that by allowing them he would automatically place a heavier burden on the owners of small properties to make up the deficit that would otherwise result in tax revenues.

Kid Bits

By Katie Kalbfleisch

By KATIE KALBFLEISCH
Hello, hello, hello! Pull up your fire-sides and let's have a wee bit of a chat, huh? People are hurrying to and fro from these parts like mad these days trying to get set for school. Margie Granse, Janie Heron, Bixie Mitchell, and Joan Terry are all heading for Western in a couple of days so last week-end Marge called the gang together for a last big get-together before they all shove off. Kathy Stuart, Booley Bowen, Karin Lindh, Pat Hall, Joan Clark, Carole Castricum, Margie Kalbfleisch, and Barb Sickles were all on hand for the big gabfest. Bixie and Marge K. are just back from a week's vacation in Canada, so they had lots of tales to tell the kids about Niagara Falls.

Margie Wolfe invited some of her pals in for bridge the other night. Bidding their lives away were Dolores Massey, Nancy Moesta, Barb Webb, Peggy Erne, Bonnie Tait, and Lois Gehrig. The same bunch all traveled down to Nancy's the next day for much the same reason.

Camp's out, and all the kids are hitting the trail for home with lots of tales to tell about their summer vacations. Alden Edgar was at Bryn Afon, "Butch" Edgar camped at Byers Peak in Colorado, Pam Henry hung out at Camp Interlochen, and Nancy Foster went out to the wild and woolly west at San Luis Ranch in Colorado. When Nancy came home she brought Jo Paton of Hagerston, Indiana, with her to spend a few days in our bustling metropolis.

Clark Camp claimed quite a few of the local gang for eight weeks this summer. Buster Knope, Dick Phillips, and Paul Freise were counsellors in the boys' camp and Ginny Granse, Barb Werner, Jannie Olivier, and Maryella Andrus haunted the girls' camp.

Joann Russell called in some of her pals the other night for talking n' eating. From all reports not a word was said about the end of summer vacation, which is coming up very soon. One last fling, eh? Marilyn Smith, Annie Davis, Caroline Orr, Janet Reid, Dodie Buser, and Marilyn Kaiser were all on hand.

Barbie Landis and Beth Kalver have arrived home from New York where they visited with Char Johnson in Bronxville. Until this last June Char was one of the local gang, so the three had a pretty swell time talking over old times.

The letters are flying fast and furious between Grosse Pointe and South Bend these days! Carole Smith, who moved there recently with her family, has lots to tell the local crowd about her new home.

Gail Whitehead whipped back to G. P. a week or so ago to talk over old times with her old friends and to tell 'em all about her new home in Highland Park, Illinois.

The Navy passed out a lot of leaves lately. The lucky guys on the receiving end of said leaves were Rosie Thorne, John Foley, Skippy Dewey, Tom Blacklock, and Jack MacKenzie. We'll soon have a Naval Training Station of our own!

Well, that's about all. Keep those parties rolling, kids!

Popular Couple Wed in St. Paul's

Sixteen and one-half months in the South Pacific with two Jap Zeros chalked up to his credit netted Lieut. Raymond A. Sofaly a home leave and an opportunity to claim Lenore Mary Shaw as his bride Saturday morning at an 11 o'clock ceremony at St. Paul's on the Lake.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Shaw, of Washington road, and bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sofaly, of Pittsburgh, Pa., repeated their vows before Father Joseph J. Bohr.

As her "something new" the bride wore a single strand of pearls, a wedding present from the bridegroom, which complimented the sweetheart neckline of her gown. The bride's dress was further distinguished by a bodice of lace which topped her bouffant marquisette skirt.

Jean Shaw, sister of the bride, led the bridal procession as the bridesmaid. Her frock was of watermelon marquisette and was fashioned along lines similar to those highlighting the bride's gown. She was followed by Mrs. Leonore Campbell, aunt of the bride, who wore heavenly blue marquisette as the matron of honor. Both attendants chose matching colored feather head-dresses.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sofaly were hosts at a wedding breakfast at the Whittier.

For their wedding trip the young couple proceeded to Pointe Aux Barques. They plan to return about Sept. 10 when the bridegroom is to report at Greensboro, S. C., for reassignment. He served in the Pacific Theater as a fighter pilot and wears two oak leaf clusters and the Presidential Citation.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

In a slight way we know how an atomic bomb must feel . . . An engraved marriage announcement stirred us to telephone the bride's daughter . . . for further details just recently . . . Inasmuch as the whole thing was a case of mistaken identities . . . we must say the daughter was offily decent about it all . . . But for a few moments . . . the thought of her mama . . . all remarried without a word to the family . . . must have been earth crashing! . . .

THIRD DIVORCE OF INTEREST TO POINTE
Along the lines of marriages and other vital statistics . . . We understand that the former, former, former Virginia Moran . . . whose dark and exotic beauty was familiar to the Pointe ten years ago, when she was a schoolgirl here . . . Is about to take her third trip to the divorce courts . . . This time she is separated from Kalamazoo's Alfred Humphrey . . .

And to keep the record straight . . . Ginny's first marriage was to the Chicagoan, Leon Mandel (what a furor their postponed wedding reception was . . . held on a great, sleek yacht which pulled into Detroit Yacht Club for the sole purpose of the reception, getting all the local talent pleasantly if thoroughly squiffed on champagne, and then carrying the newlyweds off on their wedding trip! . . . And her second marriage was to Allen Ransom . . . also of Kalamazoo . . .

PLEASANT THOUGHTS IN SPARE MOMENTS
Things we like to think about:
That Mrs. Fred T. Murphy is a pretty constant fan out there at Briggs Stadium . . . watching the Tigers . . . Mrs. Carter Sales strolling on the first autumn crisp morning . . . in a good looking dull gold boucle suit . . . her dark locks flying with the breezes . . . Catching a glimpse of Mrs. A. D. Wilkinson in a motor car for once . . . we most always see her strolling briskly along Lake Shore . . . and the motor picture was very pleasing to the eye! . . . she wore a dusty bittersweet costume . . .

HAS YOUR MAID A CRYSTAL BALL?
We enjoyed our little encounter last week . . . with psychic members of households . . . And it was a lot of fun being sent on a telephone tour because:

The butler HAD A HUNCH we'd find Madame at such and such a residence . . . The cook just HAD A SUSPICION that Madame would return to the house in about twenty minutes . . . Inasmuch as both seers proved to be correct . . . we'd now like to have our fortune told . . .

MRS. LANDIS COMES TO TOWN
Mrs. Otis Walker of Cranford lane . . . who's been holidaying with her husband in the North . . . Will be off again the latter part of this week . . . to spend a few days with Mrs. Cullen Landis at Mullet Lake in upper Michigan . . . Miss L herself paid a visit to town this past week-end . . . (looking too elegant and slim in all black, we must report) . . . and was glimpsed sipping her sherry at Al Green's on the Labor Day noontime . . . While here . . . Mrs. L. was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Arlon B. Clarke of the Indian Village . . .

PARTIES ON FOR MRS. ALGER
We're not even attempting to keep up with Mrs. Frederick M. Alger Jr.'s social schedule since her return to By-Ways . . . And we consider ourselves fortunate to be able to report just one of the many soirees that honor her . . . (We understand the Lid Will Be Off even to greater extent, when Commander Alger returns here in a fortnight for Mrs. A. has asked that plans wait until his arrival) . . . So . . . many Pointers said "welcome home" to the vivacious "Suzy" Saturday evening at cocktails with the Ray Johnsons as hosts at their home . . . The group continued . . . subscription fashion . . . to the Holiday Dinner Dance that evening at the Little Club . . .

THE STAY-AT-HOMES HAD FUN
Those in town for the Labor Day week-end . . . spent a lazy, enjoyable time at such gatherings as:
Mrs. T. D. Buhl's buffet supper and swimming party at the pool house of her home on Ridge road . . . Chisholm N. Macdonald's barbecue supper in the gardens of his home on Mirabeau place . . . Sunday night . . . Cocktails at the John T. Woodhouses Saturday night thence (we have NOT lost a front tooth) to the Grosse Pointe Club for dinner dancing . . . Ditto festivities at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell W. Anderson . . .

Short and To The Pointe

DR. AND MRS. V. J. TURCOTTE of Lakeland avenue and their family have been vacationing at Presque Isle.

Other holidayers from the Pointe are DR. AND MRS. V. P. JOHNSON of Pemberton road and their son, JOHN, who are at Fireside Inn on Grand Lake, Mich.

Now that the Virginia heat wave has subsided a bit, MRS. JOHN LORD BOOTH, of University place, has headed South for Hot Springs and Roanoke, where she plans to bide three weeks with her cousins.

Week-ends at Northport Pointe were MR. AND MRS. LEAVITT JAMES BULKLEY, of Edgemont park.

MRS. LYNN McNAUGHTON, of Kenwood road, took advantage of the Labor Day holiday to join the Tawas Beach Club colony at East Tawas.

Much festivity is in progress in the Beverly road home of MRS. WILLIAM H. HERBERT, whose daughter, MRS. JOHN J. CARSON, and her small ELIZABETH, are reuniting with her. CAPT. CARSON was here for the week-end's merrymaking, but had to return to his Royal Canadian Artillery base at Ottawa Tuesday.

Back in the Pointe are the JOHN W. FINKENSTAEDT'S, of Harvard boulevard, who spent last week at their summer home on Higgins lake.

Lake Shore road's fishing enthusiasts, the HARLEY G. HIGBIES and the SEABOURN R. LIVINGSTONES, hid themselves to their lodge near Wolverine for a session of their favorite sport and arrived back in town Tuesday to report their luck.

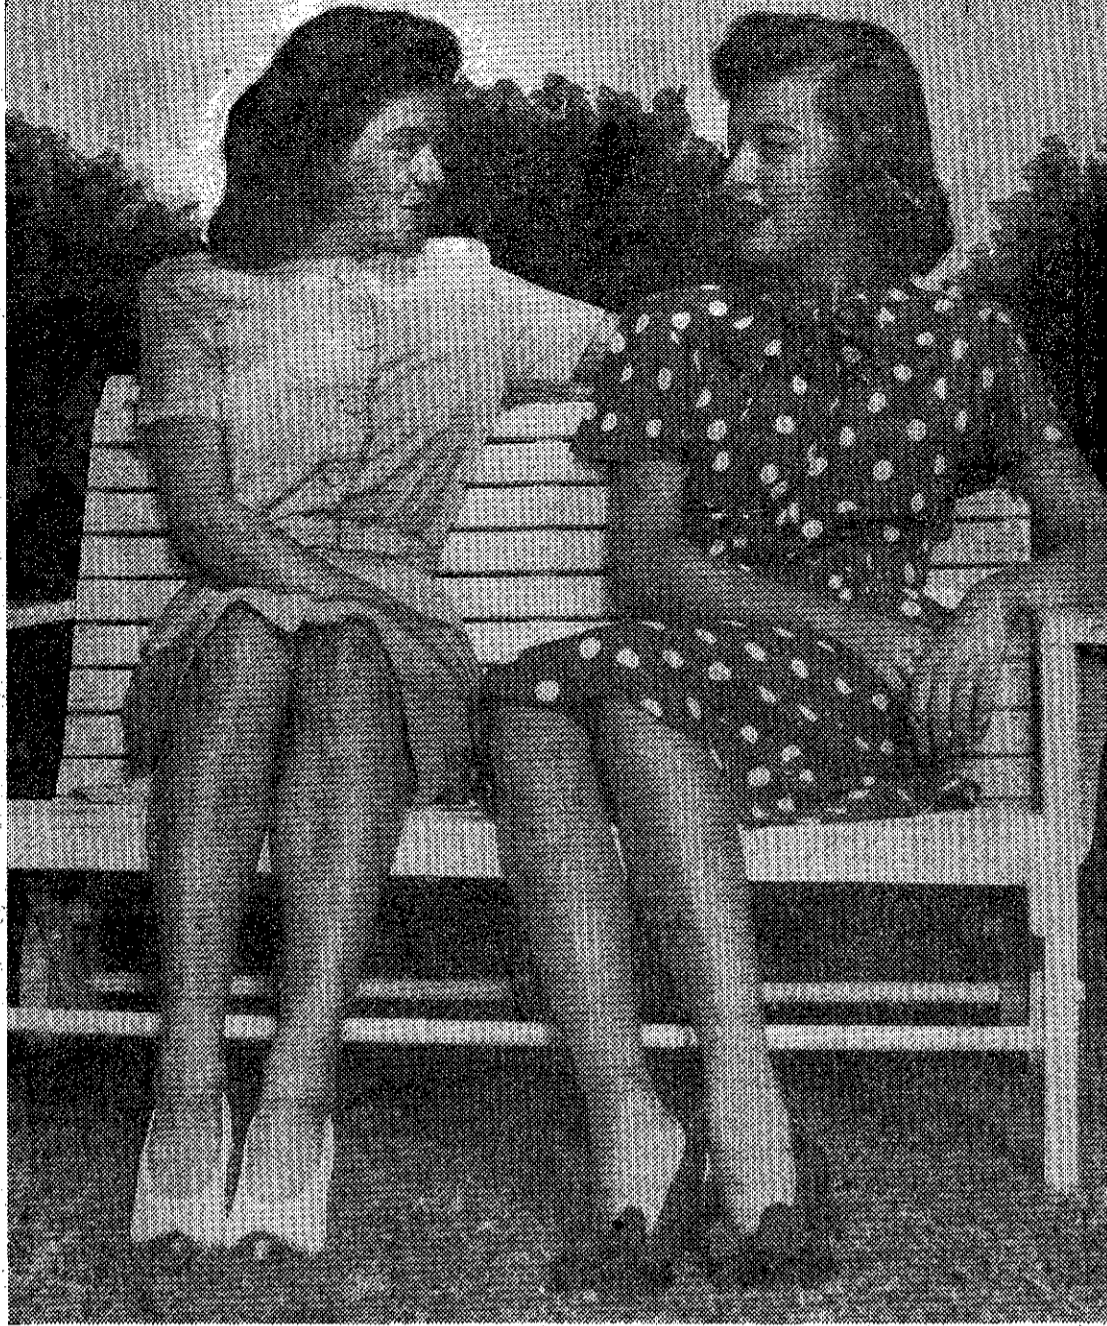

RAY KRAUSE and CARL STEIN, both of Barrington road, are enjoying a two weeks motor trip. They plan to spend most of their time on Neesh Island in the Upper Peninsula.

Farewell parties are in vogue these days for MRS. CECIL H. HOBBS, of Vendome road, who leaves next week with Mr. Hobbs for California where they plan to make their home. Among the fetes held in her honor was the tea given recently by the Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross where she served as chairman of nutrition during the war. Ques of friends gathered during her twenty-eight years as a Detroit volunteer passed through the receiving line, which was augmented by Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan, Mrs. Gilbert Whelden, Mrs. Harold B. Tyree, Mrs. William R. Hamilton II, Mrs. Elroy Jones and Mrs. Thomas Ingram.

With the ending of gas rationing signaling the downbeat for relaxing late summer vacations, JOHN MARSHALL HINCHMAN II packed up for a motor trip east. His amblings will include a stop in the White Mountains, a favorite with the Hinchmans, as his mother, MRS. THEODORE H. HINCHMAN has just returned to her Vendome road home from the identical spot after a five weeks' visit.

Colchester, Ont., was the setting for the recent party hosted by MR. AND MRS. ROY E. DEHART, of Harvard road, at their summer home. Bids to the informal gathering went to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert N. Bumpus, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walk and the George Vawters.

Eastern Girl Visits in Pointe

The arrival of MRS. MARZIEH GAIL commanded much festivity at the Moran road home of MRS. GEORGE RUSSEL TRUE. Mrs. Gail, who was one of the celebrated translators at the San Francisco conference, came in recently from Pedro Valley, Calif., for a short visit with the Trues before proceeding on to New York where she will guest her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ali Kuli Khan. Luncheons and open houses have been the order of the day for the noted guest.

Shaker Heights, Cleveland beckoned MRS. EVERETT CASTLE who returned home last week following a brief visit with MR. AND MRS. CYRIL J. EDWARDS at their Provencal road home.

Les Cheneaux Club will relinquish MR. AND MRS. LESLIE A. WEARY and their son, PEYTON, of University place, this week among its list of summer vacationers.

MR. AND MRS. FRANCIS E. BROSSY, JR., of Cadieux road, journeyed over to Leland last week to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Brandon.

The Lakeshore road home of MRS. JOHN T. NICHOLS effervescenced with excitement over the week-end holiday with the arrival on Friday of her son-in-law and daughter, MR. AND MRS. STEPHEN BRIGGS, who came in from Lake Forest, Ill., with their nine year old son, STEVIE. Highlight of their visit was the cocktail party given by Mrs. Nichols on Sunday afternoon. Following a ten day New York whirl which immediately precedes Mr. Briggs' business trip to Europe, Mrs. Briggs will return to the Pointe for Stevie preliminary to returning home later in September.

It was a momentous occasion last Saturday for LIEUT. COL. SANFORD W. FRENCH III who returned after ten months' duty in the ETO to greet his wife and to meet for the first time his tiny daughter, HELEN. After a short visit with Mrs. French's brother-in-law and sister, MR. AND MRS. READ HARTZ, of Rivard boulevard, with whom she and the baby have been making their temporary home, the three will journey down to San Antonio for a visit with his parents, Col. (retired) and Mrs. S. W. French.

The CHARLES M. FOSTERS, of Kenwood court, are entertaining houseguests on practically a hotel scale these days. Guesting MIKE FOSTER, who is just back from camp near Charlevoix, is his campmate, JACK McGUIRE, of St. Louis, Mo. Almost simultaneously with brother Mike's arrival, NANCY FOSTER came in from San Luis Ranch, Colorado Springs, Colo., where she has been spending the past two months. She stepped into the role of hostess with JO PATON, of Hagersville, Ind., as her guest. Four star event was her birthday party last week at which she introduced Jo around to her Pointe pals.

Big news at the FORD H. WHELDEN home on Merrivether road revolves about the Lieutenant Commander's release from the Navy. Cheering the return of their civilian father will be ROXANE and BONNIE who were beckoned home from Virginia Beach where they have been vacationing with their grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Darden, immediately following the long distance call which relayed the glad tidings to their mother, MRS. WHELDEN.

Engagement Told At Spinster Dinner

Dorothy Hofmann's Engagement to Pfc. Ed Thomas Comes as Surprise Announcement at Friend's Spinster Party

Only close friends of Dorothy Hofmann were in on the surprise announcement of her engagement to Pfc. Edward Wheeler Thomas which climaxed the spinster dinner given August 21 by Jean Campbell at her Harvard road home preceding Barbara Craig's marriage to C. Carl Thrasher.

A rose on each dessert plate fluttering streamers with the announcement "Dody and Ted" gaily revealed the news to the intimate circle of guests.

The formal announcement came last Thursday afternoon at a tea given at the Hofmann home on Windmill Pointe drive. There, white gladioli framed pictures of Dody and her fiancé spotlighted between gleaming candelabra pictured the betrothal for the Hofmanns' afternoon guests.

A lovely arrangement of pastel flowers accented the tea table about which white tea napkins printed with "Dody and Ted" continued the engagement theme. The bride-elect's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hofmann and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas, of Merrivether road.

Dody welcomed her guests wearing a sheer frock of navy which she highlighted with an orchid corsage. Her mother was gowned in Alice blue and black printed crepe.

Mrs. Edward Diehl, charming in beige with black accessories, and Mrs. G. A. Hofmann, who chose a gown of red and blue printed crepe, presided at the tea table during the afternoon. They were assisted by Maria McKnight and Jean Campbell.

The popular bride-to-be schooled at Randolph Macon in Lynchburg, Va., and was graduated in June from the University of Michigan where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma. Ted attended Washington and Lee where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Ted, who has been spending a month's leave at home with his parents, will report back Aug. 9 to Billings General Hospital in Indianapolis, where he has been stationed following an injury incurred during the Battle of the Bulge.

Dody will begin service this

week with the Social Service division of the American Red Cross.

Joining in Thursday's festivities was Ted's sister, Sally Thomas, who is just back from Pasadena, Calif., where she has been the guest of Mary Lou Meginnity. She is playing hostess this week to a Rogers Hall classmate, Nancy Jones, of Wakefield, Mass.

Pointe Parties Fete J. P. Sullivans

A general's leave rates all the trimmings and so the return of Brig. Gen. Joseph P. Sullivan from the ETO has been hailed by a gala fanfare of parties with Pointe prominents doing the honors.

The General and Mrs. Sullivan were feted last week by the Matthew Careys at a cocktail and supper party at their home on University place.

This week's hosts include Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Conrad Wunsch, who entertained at a breakfast party at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Sunday. Others number Mr. and Mrs. Karl Behr and their supper party Tuesday evening at their Bishop road home and the William J. Heils of East Jefferson avenue, who will also be entertaining.

Candy Bars and Ginger Pop Too Much for Teen Ager

The various petty breaking and entering incidents that have annoyed the Neighborhood Club in recent weeks are explained.

The numerous small boys involved ranged in age from 13 years down to nine. When the last raid on the ginger pop and candy bar counter was discovered on Wednesday night of last week Chief Trombley decided to do a little major sleuthing on his own and had no great difficulty in gathering together a numerous company of youngsters.

The youngsters had gained admission to the place by about every means of entry from basement to skylights. Some had even secreted themselves in the Club until after closing hours.

Use Stolen Car For Hit-Run Escapade

A car belonging to B. E. McConnell of 704 Washington road was stolen from in front of his house, sometime between 6 and 7 o'clock on Thursday evening and a short time later found by the Farms police in front of 81 Lakeshore drive.

The car had had hard usage by the thieves and its condition led the City police to believe it might have been the same car that figured in a hit and run collision that happened to a car in front of 917 University place at about the same time the McConnell car was missing.

Vandals Break Windows at Christian Reform Church

The caretaker at the First Christian Reform Church at Maryland and Goethe reported to the Park police a circumstance of malicious destruction of property at the church on August 28.

Windows had been broken on the north side of the church edifice and on the east side of the school which is conducted in conjunction with the church. A brick that had been thrown through one of the school room windows was found in the room.

Piel Plays No Favorites

Chief of Police Henry W. Piel of the Park, disturbed by reports that have reached him that residents on Harvard who petitioned against the Cupids Restaurant, think that he was unduly interested in defending this establishment, emphatically states that he is playing no favorites.

The petition that came before the Park Council at its last meeting alleged that noise and boisterous conduct emanated from the place at all hours of the day and night and wanted it closed by the village authorities.

Chief Piel was present at the meeting and was called upon for his opinion. He stated that he had had the place kept under surveillance by the police and that none of them had brought him any reports thus far that would even remotely justify police action.

If any circumstance arose that called for police attention, he assures it will be given.

Kings and Queens League Forming

Rene DeGriek, proprietor of Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, 20422 Mack Avenue, announces a Kings and Queens league is being formed. This league will bowl Saturday nights at 7 o'clock and there are still openings available.

Major Theft in Park, Case of Whiskey Gone
Norman Olson, of 706 Lakepointe, reported to the police Friday noon a major theft that had occurred at his place some time prior to its discovery that morning.

The thief made away with a case of whiskey in pint bottles, two valuable wrist watches and a chauffeur's uniform. The stealing of the whiskey and the watches was readily explainable but the taking of the chauffeur's uniform causes Mr. Olson to think the thief had been or hoped to be a hired car driver in private capacity.
