First Christmas Is Full One

KAREN LEE MURPHY'S first Christmas, (she's just 10 months old), proved a very busy one for her and her six cocker spaniel puppies, aged seven weeks. Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Murphy of 973 University place. This picture was one of the last to be entered in the NEWS contest for pictures of children and their pets. All six puppies are in the basket. Can you count the heads?

Detroit Asks Permission To Tunnel Under Park's Streets for Drain Relief

Addition to Fox Creek System Planned to Care for Waters That Accumulate Under Flood Conditions

Detroit is having troubles of its own on the storm water drainage problem in this general area. The inability of Fox creek to care for all of the water which comes with flood conditions, and against which the Park has lately provided for the erection of a backwater gate on Jefferson avenue near Barrington, has led Detroit to ask permission of the Park to lay some deep storm water drainages in certain of its streets.

Detroit wants to use parts of Kercheval, Vernor Highway, Audubon and Sadioux leading down to Manistique, and call the whole project a Fox Creek relief enterprise. It is to provide more adequate drainage for those parts of Detroit immediately impinging on the northwest.

A communication to this effect was read at the Park Council meeting Monday night. The drainage line would be laid very deep, much lower than any of the local pipes, and would be all tunnel work in its construction. There would be no open cuts at any time.

Village Manager Lane said the Detroit request was in no way related to the Park's problem, but nevertheless several of the Commissioners thought the Park should thoroughly examine the matter to ascertain whether some kind of quibb might not appear whereby the village might profit from the request.

Commissioner Gillett offered a resolution declaring that the Park village agreed in principle with the Detroit request but desired to go into the matter to clarify certain details before committing itself to formal approval. Detroit and the Park have been cooperating in good spirit in trying to work out their common problem. The resolution was unanimously approved.

Aside from the local goodwill that may be felt however, there is probably no question of the right of Detroit to run under the streets of the village as the right of eminent domain as held by one municipality within the limits of another is pretty well recognized throughout the country on the issue of getting water in or sending sewage out, subject of course to the assumption of all accruing damages.

Just prior to the Christmas holidays the safety engineers of the Wayne County Road Commission readjusted the traffic lights to shorten the GO time for cars crossing Kercheval in the business section in the village. This was done to expedite through traffic on Kercheval.

The Road Commission is co-operating with the City police to increase safety for auto traffic in the City's most congested area.

THREE-CAR TANGLE

There was a three-car tangle at Barrington and Essex on New Year's afternoon about 4 o'clock, involving cars driven by W. T. Gard of 730 Washington, Joseph R. Ciszerowski of 12290 Rosemary, Detroit, and Cecil E. Eastman of 780 Piper boulevard. There was no great damage to any of the cars and no personal injury.

from the Country Club parking lot while a debut party was in progress there.

The circle part of the ornament is hinged and when separated from the rest of the gadget can be worn as bracelet, univalued but gaudy. The separation process was easy for the youngsters, solved by the simple method of breaking the circle free from its holder.

Membership in the club is scattered among a number of schools and it was a teacher who discovered the strange goings-on. Remarkable to state, none of the owners of cars stripped has reported the matter to the police. Take a look at your 1946 Buick. Maybe you are a victim and don't even know it.

California's Cops Toned to Pointe Radio

And City's Bluecoats Get Beverly Hills Calls on Clear Nights

Obviously Grosse Pointe and Beverly Hills, Cal. have their police radios on exactly the same channel. The police at the Maumee station say they frequently hear the Beverly Hills calls very plainly and letters from the Beverly Hills police tell the same story of their reception of Grosse Pointe City calls.

In City Police Court on Jan. 13 Judge Leslie P. Young handed the following cases: Lawrence Sney, aged 45, of 15137 Jefferson, for not having car under control and causing accident, was fined $10 and $5 costs.

FIRE DOES $50 DAMAGE

A small fire in the residence of Mr. Sidney Marder, 2038 Roslyn road, on January 14 was caused by an overheated furnace. It resulted in $50 worth of damage.

Resignations Submitted By Planners

Park Commission Reduced to Two Members as Others Quit Futile Job

The Park Village Planning Commission which was launched with such high hopes a year or two ago, seems to be in process of a rapid disintegration.

Some months ago one of the planners, Richard Courtville, resigned, followed quickly by Mrs. Pear, the secretary. Last Monday night along came the resignation of Bruce N. Tappen, the chairman of the planning board.

The appearance of the resignation did not seem to be wholly a bombshell to the commissioners. The planners have as a matter of fact exercised little or no real power. They have been little more than a subcommittee of the village Board of Commissioners, and no action could be taken by them without approval of the Board. One provision of its creation was that the board of commissioners should be ex-officio members of the planning commission which left a rather lopsided authoritative setup with six village commissioners and only five planners.

In addition to this the members of the board of commissioners were exceedingly lax in attending the meetings of the planners, a fact that was freely acknowledged by the commissioners themselves. They have mutually criticized themselves in this respect on numerous occasions. On one recent occasion President Parshall appealed to the members of the board to take a deeper interest in the planners' work, but apparently the commissioners reckoned that time they gave to the village without compensation was a sufficient sacrifice for the public. The Planning commission also worked without compensation, making a loss and loss situation in this respect.

It is also quite possible that one or two proposals which were forthcoming from the planners on which the commission turned thumbs down didn't add to the serenity of the official atmosphere.

At any rate the Park planning commission at the present writing appears as dead as the Dodo. It has only two members whose resignations are not in, yet. Whether it will be revived later with more real power and cooperation, time only can tell.

A Planning Commission in the Park has plenty of places to go, but as yet is decidedly not dressed up.

Mr. Tappen's resignation was an interesting subject of debate at an ultra hush, hush executive session of the Commission in the little smoke-filled back room after the public session.

Tempting Target Attracts Youths

An open window at the Country Club, and an unlimited supply of snowballs proved too much of a temptation for a bunch of kids on the night of January 10.

After the target had been hit unnumbered times, the Farms police rounded up a half dozen of the gang and turned them over to Mr. Sleeper, club manager. They were released after receiving a sound lecture on where not to toss snowballs.

FIRE DAMAGES CAR

A 1946 Pontiac belonging to Hiram Hees, of 1316 Bishop, caught fire while standing in the driveway at his house about 4:30 p. m., January 14. The fire started from the ignition wiring and considerable damage was done to the car.

New Skating Rink At Defer Approved By School Officials

Agitation for Additional Facilities Leads to Action by Board of Education; Park Employees Construct Pool 175 x 75

The agitation that has been underway for some time through the News and by some of the progressive village officials, for the utilization of the school play grounds for public ice skating rinks has borne fruit.

Last Thursday the Board of Education gave permission to the Park Village to convert a substantial part of the Defer School ground into a rink, and on Friday morning a gang of municipal employees were busily putting up the embankment for a rink 75 feet by 175 feet. This will provide a considerable skating plot for a lot of youngsters and for some fathers and mothers who might wish to go with their children.

Manager Lane of the Park is hopeful that before another skating season sets in next year, the Board of Education will have adopted as its permanent policy the utilization of as much of the playground space as can be spared from other midwinter activities, throughout the whole Pointe area.

He says that it would be a simple job to have wooden forms made that could be quickly set up on school grounds that would contain water hosed in by the firemen and the first good cold spell of freezing weather would do the rest.

Such forms would be a cheap investment for the different municipalities and could be used for many years. The method heretofore followed has been to erect an earth embankment on a level plot, but this is expensive and ruptures the level surface of the surrounding plot.

Numerous skating places of this character would be a welcome addition to the winter sport facilities of the community and would relieve hundreds of anxious parents of the worry that follows their children when they essay to skate on the lake.

Pointe Veterans To Meet Jan. 20

The January meeting of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of the Reserve Officers' Association will be held in the Neighborhood Club next Monday night, January 20. The guest speaker will be Col. John W. Totten, regular army infantry officer. Refreshments and a social session will follow.

Maj. Charles F. Delbridge Jr., president of the Pointe chapter, is anxious to have veteran officers know that this organization has no connection with the War Department and there is no chance for the members being called for any duty because of their affiliation with it.

Veteran officers of all branches of the armed services are eligible for membership in the association, which offers the opportunity for the men to have periodic gatherings with their fellow veterans. The association has just recently been formed, so those joining now will get in on the initial activities of the group.

FALL LAYS UP CHIEF

Chief Trombly was confined to his home for several days last week with injuries to his back from a fall on the ice.

Nostalgia and Curiosity Produce Identical Results

Mrs. Alexander Girard, who last week was busily preparing for the opening of her new business establishment on Fisher road, was extremely annoyed by the rough and ready tactics of some of the boys from the high school who craved a preview of some of the exhibits within.

Possibly they merely wished to renew acquaintance with the old resort where they had passed many happy if boisterous hours when Lena Checkeroff, since removed to California, used to keep her gingerpop and ice cream bar.

Whatever the motive, whether urged by their admiration, or merely to retravel a sentimental journey, they greatly bothered Mrs. Girard. They persisted in going in and out the door which

Park, Farms, Woods, Plan For Election

Heads of Municipalities, Officers and Councilmen to Be Voted On

The Park Village Board of Registration will be in session from 8 o'clock a.m. to 8 o'clock p.m. on Saturday, January 18, and Saturday, January 25 in the office of the Village Clerk in the Park Municipal Building to receive the registration of voters for the Primary election to be held on February 10.

These sessions are for the convenience of voters who are not already registered. It will apply to all voters who have not voted at a municipal election within the past two years.

If not convenient for the voters affected to appear before the Board of Registration on either one of these two designated days, they may register with the Village Clerk on any day other than Sunday or a legal holiday or the day of holding any election, up to and including Saturday, February 1, between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. in his office in the municipal building.

For the primary election itself on February 10, the two village polling places will be open from 7 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock in the evening. There are two polling places for village elections; No. 1, in the municipal building, for all residents south of the center line of Kercheval for the whole length of the village, and No. 2, for residents north of Kercheval.

This year the village will elect a village clerk for a two year term, three commissioners for two year terms, and one commissioner for a one year term, (to fill an unexpired term). This applies to Peter J. Koenig, who is filling out the term of Joel C. Sage, resigned, until the next election, at the request of the Village Commissioners.

If not more than two candidates file by January 27 for each of the offices to be filled, it will not be necessary to hold a primary election and in that case all of the candidates will appear on the ballot for the regular election which follows on March 10. If as many as three candidates file for any one office to be filled it will be necessary to go through with the primary election.

The commissioners whose terms expire this year are William Gillett, James McMillan and Elmer Ulrich and it is understood they will all run for re-election. The same applies to Commissioner Peter Koenig who will run to fill Sage's unexpired term.

Grosse Pointe Farms will also hold an election on March 10, with the primary on February 10 if a primary is necessary. A president, three trustees, a clerk, a treasurer and an assessor will be elected.

The trustees whose terms expire this year are President J. K. Watkins, William G. Kirby, William Connolly and Gervey's Grylls. No word has been heard from them on their intentions to run, but it is customary that no commitments are made until the last council meeting before the primary date. This meeting will be held next Monday night.

To date no candidates have filed in opposition to the incumbents. The last filing date will be February 1. It is a very easy matter to file for office in the Farms, as a minimum of only 10 signatures and a maximum of 25 are required on the petitions.

Clerk Harry Furton will be a candidate to succeed himself, and the same is undoubtedly true of Treasurer Alonzo J. O'Connor and Assessor Francis Beupre.

The trustees are elected for two year terms and all other officers, including the president of the board, for one year terms.

In the Woods village, which under its charter has no primary election, the terms of three commissioners expire this year. They are Commissioners Paul Marco, George Burgess and Paul Rowe. It is understood that all of them will be candidates to succeed themselves. The village will also elect a President, Clerk, Assessor and Treasurer. It is presumed these too will be candidates. A. A. Ghesquiere has been the village President for a number of terms, and Philip Allard has been the clerk.

Winners in News Picture Contest to Be Announced

Next week the News will announce the winners of the "Children and Their Pets" contest, which closed on January 1. A twenty five dollar savings bond will be given the winners in the various municipalities and Gratiot Township. A grand prize winner will be awarded an extra fifty dollar bond.

The judges of the contest are making their choices without knowledge of the children's names or addresses and the pictures will be judged purely on their "appeal." Winners' pictures will appear in the News from time to time and will be displayed in the Grosse Pointe News office window.

Hunting Instinct Highly Cultivated

A dog with an instinct for hunting and a nose that definitely turns up to prey in the higher brackets, took home a fine but unusual catch last week.

W. E. Fear of 267 Lewiston road, owner of the dog, was surprised when the pooch appeared with a valuable fox pelt.

Anything Goes

When the smoke had cleared away after Farms police broke up a battle between two employees at the Country Club in the early hours of January 9, both of them had to be taken to Cottage Hospital for repairs. The police report lists such injuries as badly cut ears and bitten arms.

The combatants were released the following morning to Club Manager Sleeper.

Surplus Lowers RC Drive Quota

Because of the generosity of contributors in the previous American Red Cross drives, the quota for the 1947 Detroit Campaign which begins March 1 will be only $1,334,400, Alvan Macauley, Jr., of Kenwood road, campaign chairman, has announced. The average above quota from previous Red Cross campaigns here was placed in reserve, Macauley explained, and 50 per cent of this overage—or $300,000—will be turned into the 1947 Detroit campaign to bring the net down to $1,334,400. While the work for the next fiscal year will require an overall budget of $2,000,000, the 50 per cent overage from previous campaigns that will be thrown into the 1947 drive will bring the net national campaign down to $60,000,000. Both national and chapter quotas have been sharply reduced since 1945. In 1945, the national quota was $200,000,000; in 1946, $100,000,000; and in 1947 it will be $80,000,000. In 1945, the Detroit Chapter quota was $5,137,000; in 1946, the quota was $2,400,000; and in 1947 the quota will be $1,334,400. "Some of the work of the American National Red Cross and the thousands of local chapters has 'shunk', explained Macauley, 'but not at all to the extent the average American believes. There is still a gigantic job to be done—in 1947 and for several years following.' "There are still about 2,000,000 in our armed forces. The army and navy requested the Red Cross to take over all club services in foreign countries. We are doing this. There is still the big job to be done in our hospitals for wounded veterans. "That the war is over for the Red Cross, even on the home front, is indicated by the fact that approximately 75 per cent of next year's quota will be devoted to the work of helping service men and veterans—those still in service, in hospitals, and those who have returned to civilian life."

Lakefront Property Owners' Tax Assessment Case Heard By State Supreme Court

Sixty to Seventy Properties Involved and 33 Appellants; Threatened Loss to Township Rolls Nearly $8,000,000

The case of the lakefront property owners seeking reduction of their assessments by the township was argued before the State Supreme Court on Friday, Jan. 10. There are between 60 and 70 such properties involved. The appellants are represented by Attorney John R. Watkins while Attorney Jules Berns is representing the Township Board which made the assessment. Thus far the property owners have lost every round of their case.

The cases argued Friday are based on the assessments of 1945 but already the same charges of injustice and inequality are alleged in suits brought against Carl Schweikart, Township Supervisor, based on the assessment of 1946.

These suits are an attack on the assessments on lakefront properties in the Shores, Farms and Park. The City lakefront properties are not involved directly in them as the City is not a part of the township.

There are 33 suits representing the owners of twice that number of properties. The threatened loss to the township assessment rolls, should the contention of the appellants be sustained would be in the neighborhood of $8,000,000. The possible stake of the schools in these cases runs as high as $150,000 a year, based on current millage.

Just being hearty doesn't mean you have a heart.

Icy Streets Pile Up Cars

One Four-Car Crash Reported in Park; Light Pole Stops Another Driver

What the icy cross streets have done to automobile traffic in the Pointe in recent days was nicely demonstrated by a four-car mixup that happened Saturday night at 7:55 o'clock in front of 1046 Devonshire.

Theodore F. Sharp of 4393 Bedford, going south, collided with a 1946 Pontiac going north driven by Douglas A. Long of 1041 Harvard. At that moment Car No. 3, a new Olds sedan owned and driven by Kenneth A. Winters of 246 Lakeland, also going south, crashed into the rear of car No. 1. Car No. 3 then skidded on the ice and its rear end struck car No. 4, a new '46 Chevrolet parked on the east side of the street, owned by Elinor Krum of 620 Prentiss, Detroit.

All four of the cars were considerably damaged but no tickets were issued. The police charged it off to an act of nature.

At 12:30 a.m. Patrolman Dilloway found a new 1946 Mercury with its front end against an electric light pole in front of 15135 Kercheval. The car was locked with no visible attendant. By 1:20 a.m. Detective Enders had brought in the owner who was given a ticket. He claimed that he was in the neighborhood all the time and was merely trying to find a telephone to summon haulage relief.

The Village of Grosse Pointe Park was also a sufferer from the slippery ice. One of its trucks located at Charlevoix and Kensington was rammed by a skidding car driven by Andrew F. Ulrich of 2564 Parker, Detroit.

Ulrich got a ticket for les majeste, or something.

High School Band Concert Friday Night

Glee Club Will Also Participate in Program Scheduled to Start at 8:15

The curtain will go up on the annual winter concert at 8:15 o'clock Friday evening in the Grosse Pointe High School auditorium.

The senior high band under the direction of Mr. Dewey D. Kalember will play "Martinique," Morton Gould's arrangements of "Yankee Doodle" and "Beguine," "Fairest of the Fair," "Kindergarten March," and Fantasy and Fugue, which is based on Stephen Foster's "Oh Susanna."

"Harlem by Night," another piece the band plans to play, delves into the city within a city and suggests what happens when night falls. Through the various melodies one can hear a circus side show band playing, spirituals from the Bayous of Louisiana, and of course, Boogie-woogie.

Sally Grylls and Hazel Allie, 12A's who are appearing with the band for the last time as they will graduate this January, will play a clarinet duet, "Pierrot and Pierrette."

The Brownell Junior High Band which will appear for the first time in new uniforms, will add to the program by playing "Diane Dverature," "Freshman March," "Mannequins' Festival," and the "Three Bears," which will be narrated by Dan Webb, 7B.

The Brownell players will be under the direction of Mr. Kalember and John Titus, 12A.

The Boys' Glee Club under the direction of Mr. John Finch will also participate in the program and will sing "Blow Trumpets, Blow," "Your Land and My Land," "Come Roam With Me," "Hallelujah," "Moonlight Bay," "Stouthearted Men."

Tickets maybe obtained from members of both bands and at the door for 25 cents the night of the concert.

Crash Causes Park to Buy Car

The Park village police patrol car in which Sergeant Frank Snay lost his life a few weeks ago, was made such a wreck by the collision at Lakepointe and Fairfax that the best offer the village has been able to get for the remains is $372. It would cost $450 to repair it according to the insurance company, and Manager Lane recommended to the Council Jan. 13 that the village buy a new car. A new car, he said, would settle the problem of any more new police cars this year.

The commissioners authorized the purchase of a new car. The $450 insurance money plus the money for the wreck will make an offset of $822 against a new car, bringing its cost down to approximately $600.

Two Cars Damaged In Skid on Waterloo

Paul Balan, of 1240 Lenox, while driving east on Waterloo on Jan. 14, was struck by a car being driven west on Waterloo by Raymond John Bolo, aged 14, of 81 Lochmoor, Grosse Pointe Shores.

Young Bolo's car got out of control at Washington and skidded across the street, hitting the 1946 Pontiac driven by Balan. Both cars were considerably damaged. Bolo was given a ticket for car not under control.

Holder of Navy Citation

Terry, love of the Grosse Pointe News office, and owned by Dick McDaniels of the advertising staff, is much more than a beautiful Labrador Retriever. He's a very remarkable dog, as he proved at Fort Pierce in Florida during the war.

Terry had gone into a dark corner to escape his tormentor, the four-year-old son of the skipper of the station, and the little boy wandered off to do a little exploring.

Terry must have sensed danger to his little friend, so he followed him, right into the Everglades. The child tumbled off a narrow foot bridge into the deep swamp.

The commander's wife missed the young heir and patrols were sent out by land and air. Four hours later a pilot sighted a black object paddling and keeping something afloat. A land patrol found Terry, holding up the child. About them were a score of black moccasin snakes which Terry had killed during his vigil.

"For bravery beyond the call of duty," the Navy award concluded.

Permanent Citation for Air Medal Given Pointe Flier

Lt. Frederick Clifford Ford Jr., USNR, of 1032 Bishop Road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., has received a permanent citation for the Air Medal from Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal, for the President.

Lt. Ford, who has been released to inactive duty, earned the award as pilot of a fighter plane in action against the enemy at Wake and the Japanese homeland.

During the war, citations were temporary, or incomplete, for security reasons.

Text of the full citation is as follows: "For meritorious achievement in aerial flight as pilot of a fighter plane in Bombing Squadron 86, attached to the USS Wasp, during operations against Japanese forces in the Pacific War Area, on March 18 and 19, and from July 18 to August 10, 1945. ### Disabled Vets' Cash Jar Stolen

Three boys in the 15-16-year-old bracket are suspected of having raided the Disabled Veterans' cash jar on the counter of Tony Koinis' candy store on Jefferson avenue, sometime late Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 8.

A young woman clerk in the store was quite certain that the three, one of whom she described as a pimply faced boy, were the culprits. They all wore dark colored jackets. The jar, was about three quarters filled with nickles, dimes and quarters and represented a considerable sum. The exact technique of the theft is not known.

Park Puts Beach On Rental Basis

Village Manager Lane, of the Park village, reported to the Board of Commissioners on Jan. 13 that he had been importuned recently by clubs and social groups seeking permission to use the village's water front park. He approved of the idea in general and recommended certain conditions whereunder such request might be met.

He proposed that such permission be given groups of not less than 20 nor more than 100 persons; that a fee of $10 be charged for such use; that flood lights for skating be maintained by the village until not later than 10 o'clock on such nights; that no beer or other intoxicants be permitted on the premises and that gambling of any kind be prohibited.

He also recommended that the season for such rentals be limited to November 1 to May 1. Commissioner Fritsch suggested that if the Park village was to derive a rental from such use that better heating facilities should be provided by the village. He thought that two more heating units should be installed. Manager Lane said that could easily be provided on the present heating capacity of the building.

With this understanding the manager's proposal for renting was approved.

If there's no one you have scoured there is no one to be scared of.

Our New Chinese Policy

Senator Arthur Vandenberg made his first speech as the Republican chairman of the Senate Foreign Affairs committee last Saturday and in it advocated direct change of attitude in our dealings with China.

General Marshall, acting as special envoy of the President, has been in China more than a year working along those lines. General Marshall is now our new Secretary of State and unless he has gained a new understanding of the problem there which has caused him to change his mind, a serious clash between the Republican and the Nationalist Government of Marshall Chiang Kai Shek.

There is reason to believe however that Senator Vandenberg and General Marshall may not be so far apart in their China thinking. Marshall's immediate purpose and hope was to settle the civil war. He instantly pursued the position of an impartial mediator, aiming only at peace, with a complete willingness to let the Chinese people settle their internal affairs as they might develop.

Mr. Vandenberg's position now is that as a constitutional government is being set up on the initiative of Chiang Kai Shek, which appears to be workable and acceptable to real democratic ideals, his Nationalist government should be openly and vigorously supported by us.

Probably the most ill-omened aspect of the whole Chinese problem to the American mind has been the lurking fear that the Communist group in China was being supported by Russia. This fear should be much allayed by both Senator Vandenberg's speech at Cleveland and General Marshall's statement at Honolulu on his way home.

The writings of Mr. Luce and the speeches of both Senator Vandenberg and retiring Secretary of State Byrnes, who spoke at the same occasion with Mr. Vandenberg, breath a new virility into America's future relations with China and Europe.

The suspicion that has existed here that Chiang Kai Shek's espousal of democracy was a temporizing and insincere gesture to win American support for his side in what appeared to be merely a continuation of the interminable giant squabbles of the war lords that has endured almost unbroken since 1911, has largely been mollified by the constitution which he has recently sponsored.

Labor Legislation

The new Congress is seething with rumors and plans and for legislation to lay the strike menace. In view of the narrow escapes the Nation had from the ruination of its whole economy by nationwide stagnation of its transportation and mining industries this can be understood, and the anxiety of our lawmakers to do something about it is well founded.

The elections which returned the Republicans to power meant that something should be done. Whatever legislative action results from the present state of mind it should be clearly framed on a general basic structure which recognizes certain needs and bounds. Such labor legislation as may be enacted should be clearly and indisputably in the interest of the entire country.

But when labor unions representing entire nationwide industries go on the rampage on a course obviously against the welfare of all of the people and the national safety, it is time that certain checks be imposed which will guarantee this safety.

When these unions come under the dictatorial leadership of men who make capital for themselves out of defying the authority of the land and its highest courts, it is apparent that legislation, backed by the full power of government, should be directed towards that kind of leadership.

But not a move should be made which bears the least tinge of economic slavery for the working men and women who constitute the strength and backbone of this Nation of free men.

Bilbo's Exit

The Bilbo episode in the United States Senate may well be written off as closed. Friends of the Mississippian who vowed they would filibuster against the swearing in of the new Senators and the organization of the Senate until his case was disposed of, thought better of their scheme after a 48 hour tieup and minority leader Barkley finally proposed a compromise whereby the new Senators might be sworn in and the Senate business proceed. This suggestion was un-

"But we who remain shall grow old, We shall know the cold Of cheerless Winter and the rain of Autumn and the sting Of poverty, of love despised and of disgraces, And mirrors showing stained and aging faces, And the long ranges of discomforted years And the long gamut of human fears..."

'Tis reported that when Princess Julianna of Holland gives a birth to her expected baby, fifty hefty Hollander will run a relay race, carrying scrolls bearing the congratulations of the populace! Gee Whizz!

There is a company in New York that will fill your book shelves on the installment plan, at the drop of a postage stamp. They have been littering our desk for years with pamphlets, brochures and lurid advertisements. (How does one make this sucker list, anyway?) They have endeavored from time to time, to interest us in button-hole making, War pictures, sex... ad nauseum. This week, they are trying to get under our skin with a set of medical books. Once we got beyond the large FREE! FREE! FREE! printed all over the place, we read some startling things... the least startling of which was the fact that nothing is really free in the long run.

On the first sheet under the caption "Free! 2 complete anatomical manikins"... are pictured a nude woman and her counterpart (as to face), who is standing next to her with the "innards" completely exposed. This is to give you a bird's-eye-view of one of the WONDERS in this set of books... called "The most precious books to enter your home. A new kind of Candidly Illustrated home medical adviser." !!! A paragraph explaining the "manikins" reads as follows: "Here in these two folding manikens (one male, the other female), you have the very best way ever devised to learn the anatomical structure of your body AT A GLANCE! You simply fold aside the skin of the manikin and the body's amazing inner structures are revealed step by step"... Horrendous thought to start with.

On the hind side of this little wonder, in ten inch letters, we read: "Test yourself... then accept gift offer." Beneath this is a long list of "Quizzes and a place to score your answers. We didn't get beyond the first question, which was: "That pain between your shoulders may be caused by a disease of the stomach. Yes or No?" The second sheet which is newspaper size, is composed of a border of several "cheat" pictures among whose accompanying captions are: "Causes of rheumatism and related ailments clearly explained"... "Anatomical knowledge made crystal clear with wholesome frankness"... "How to recognize illness"... etc.

The "New People's Physician" (which we believe is the name of this nightmare), boasts over a million words... 2560 revealing pages... 2700 candid pictures. A centre picture, showing various stages of the innards and outwards of man... is captioned "Do you heed nature's warnings? Have you any of these aches and pains? See what they mean." Don't tell US things have changed since grandma's day. We can still remember the door-to-door "barker" who used to come around with a book the size of a large Webster's, filled with gruesome pictures of fainting and dying women who would have been all right had they referred to "the handy home manual of common diseases and home cures."

But hold! We have not finished with this subject YET. The Pasadena-rrayistawnee is an enclosed photographic copy of an unsolicited letter from a constant reader of the New People's Physician. The letter, in which the writer encloses her final payment (of course), tells the publishers that she feels her little girl wouldn't be alive today had it not been for this miraculous book. She states that late in November her child became ill... a thing they knew without the book, no doubt... and TWO doctors were summoned who told her the child had a stomach upset. But the old skeptics poured over their "Book" and decided the child had meningitis... so they sent for another doctor who agreed to take her to the hospital. SURE ENOUGH, the book was right... and the child was cured by sulphadiazine and was home in time for Christmas!

Get us out of here! We have a pain in the neck and we don't need the "Book" to tell us what's causing it.

imously agreed to and Senator Barkley's provision that Bilbo's case be taken up at a later date "without prejudice" was accepted without debate.

Bilbo is out of the Senate, and doubtless for keeps. Until his case is definitely settled he will remain on the payroll. It is surmised this latter situation was a matter of considerable importance for the unhappy man who faces a serious operation in the near future for a malignant disease.

One by one those who fall by the moral wayside in high public office meet their end; some by the outraged sense of decency felt by their associates, others via that court of last resort, the ballots of their fellow citizens on election day.

Dangerous and Unsightly

For a normally clean and well policed area like Grosse Pointe, the condition of the sidewalks in its limited commercial areas have been a disgrace.

Some business places apparently do not bother to dispose of the waste paper that accumulates within their premises further than to sweep it out onto the sidewalks.

The indifference of some of these establishments to the snow and ice which they let lie on their sidewalks from the beginning of winter to its end unless an occasional kindly sun melts it for them, are the worst offenders. This is a menace to public safety. The municipal authorities cannot sidestep their responsibility. It is the duty of the police to see that these pedestrian thoroughfares are kept clean, but above all else, safe.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

Illustration of a man in a military-style uniform with a hat. Text includes: 'FRESH WATER PONDS AROUND WITH MINUTE ANIMAL LIFE OF WHICH THE ROTIFER IS A SPECIMEN' and 'SCRAP. Talley Rant

Helen Talley

I had a soiree the other night. It was the worst night of the winter; slush six inches deep at the curb and rain and sleet flying in four directions. A lot of people didn't get here, but quite a few of the fragile types and hardy bits did. We lit the fire, drowny the sound of the storm in the gurgle of champagne, and the party went on till milking time.

THELMA FOY, who, as you know, has just again been voted one of the TEN BEST DRESSED—sure was. Black lace cut down to here on one side and there on the other framed a chain of baguette diamonds from which was suspended the largest pear shaped diamond I've ever seen outside the Tower of London. JULES GLAENZER was flirting with her and I couldn't make up my mind whether he sold her the stone or only wanted to feel it or steal it.

JACQUES FRAY, whom you remember as half of the piano team of FRAY and BRAGIOTTI, played divinely. MICHAEL STRANGE was going to recite to music some of her amusing poems, but she fell a victim to the death of her jangle and the storm, and never made the party at all. AL CAPP, my favorite LIL ABNER, showed up late with a beautiful hour. One of the prettiest was PEGGY THAW. She wore a gown of gleaming cloth of silver tissue shot with palest pink. I think it was the most beautiful material I have ever seen. It was given to her by an INDIAN MAHARAJAH when she and LARRY were touring INDIA in that first air-conditioned trailer we used to see in the colored news reels.

We have all been reading about the slump that has hit the GAY SPOTS. Well it has hit with a vengeance. I went on the town last night with NILS FLORMAN. Three months ago you couldn't beat your way into the COLONY without a reservation well in advance. Last night you could choose your spot and have four waiters for your very own. Among the interesting NAMES: There were the ROBERT SHERWOODS dining with IRVING BERLINS. It is an optical illusion I guess but ELLIN BERLIN seems to get taller and blonder as the years go by, while IRVING grows smaller and darker. LADY FURNESS and her sister GLORIA VANDERBILT were there, due to the fact that the QUEEN ELIZABETH had put off her sailing a few hours. RICHARD GULY was very attentive in a corner to VENITA VARDEN.

From the COLONY we went for a stinger to 21. There were a few regulars around, but no excitement except for the fact that a high ranking army officer and his wife were being given the beave ho for too much, not pretty, loud talk. So we did, HEC, let's go to the HORSE PIE—known to all you NICE PEOPLE as LE CHEVAL PIE—there is always fun and company where MARCEL and LOUISE are. Not so my poppets. KOEBOE, the bartender, said that MARCEL and LOUISE were indisposed from a little injudicious drinking and had retired—a thing unheard of at the HORSE PIE. The retiring, not the drinking.

The next time we looked up we were at the new PENGUIN CLUB. DAVE COWLES runs it as a sort of winter annex to his summer Long Island PENGUIN. It certainly wasn't doing a flourishing business, but then neither was any place else. When we left we said, BETCHA the STORK will be fun—and it was. It was. It was full and gay. That darlin' BERT LAHR was there. He has received wonderful notices for his work in the revival of BURLY LESQUE. That darlin' SHERMAN BILLINGSLEY made with the champagne and the perfume—a gesture I dearly love. MARLENE DETRICH came in smothered in sables. What a whale of a way to smother.

The STORK was the only place in town that was really humming, but I wanted to hear JEAN SABLON so we went to the VERSAILLES. When little JEAN appeared and broke out the first big toothy smile, you could practically hear the spines of the housewives unravelling. "E gets 'em, 'e does—and I don't mean! When the lights went up the empty tables were exposed, the captain said, "Temporary seasonal slump." We said, "the 'ell with it—let's slump home."

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Editor, Grosse Pointe News

You ask the question, "Why not have community Ice Skating Rinks," and you are entitled to an answer.

Because the Board of Education has no more imagination in the winter than they have in the summer, is the answer.

The children of Grosse Pointe are entitled to MORE recreational places and the Board of Education is sitting on the ground pictured on page one because some old fogey is afraid of the children playing on organized playgrounds, just like the gang around the Pierce school playing field which lies idle both winter and summer.

Thanks for your fine work to open the eyes of the Board of Education. It's a funny thing that a few can control so many in this area. Let's open up some of our potential playgrounds. Grosse Pointe is still a fine place to live—regardless!

Sincerely yours, Hil F. Best

Dear Sir: It would be appreciated if your paper could carry some information relative to the Grosse Pointe Chapter No. 914, of the U. S. Coast Guard League.

This is a veterans' organization, membership being open to former members of the Coast Guard, Coast Guard Reserve, and the temporary members of the Coast Guard Reserve. The Grosse Pointe Chapter is holding its meetings at the Club Lido on East Jefferson in St. Clair Shores on the second Thursday in every month. The meetings begin with dinner at 7 and the meetings start at 8 p. m.

All ex-members of the Coast Guard are invited to attend the meetings of this chapter and to become members of it. It being a veterans' organization devoted to promoting the interests of all ex-members of the Coast Guard exclusively, a great deal of good work has already been done by it, and as its membership increases more will be accomplished.

At present this Chapter is promoting a dance for all present and former members of the Coast Guard and their friends in the Detroit area, to be held on February 15th.

Thanking you for any assistance you can give us from time to time in your estimable newspaper, I am Yours truly, J. F. WILKINSON, Commander, Grosse Pointe Chapter No. 914, U. S. Coast Guard League, 836 Cadieux Road, Grosse Pointe 30, Mich.

Prisoners Help Keep State Clean The State of Michigan through the Department of Corrections keeps itself clean and saves the taxpayers a substantial sum of money each year by its soap manufacturing activity. Toilet soap, soap chips, floor wax, DDT spray, and other soap products are manufactured in the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia by inmate labor and the finished product is used exclusively by various state institutions and agencies.

Vacation Planners

By FRED M. KOPP, R.P.H. People need vacations this year. Many will arrange holiday trips, in order to meet the strains and tensions of forthcoming months. A visit to the doctor's office is almost a prerequisite. His advice is essential to sound vacation planning. Certain medical protection may be advisable. Asthma and hay fever patients should seek certain areas where the climate is helpful. Those who are sensitive to sunburn need caution against too much sun. It is important to choose, with the aid of an expert, simple medical aids, cosmetics to which one is not allergic, those extra shaving accessories which will make life more comfortable away from home. Choose, with care, a competent druggist to advise you. This is the 136th of a series of Editorial Advertisements appearing in this paper each week. Copyright

PEOPLE WHO NEVER LIKE WHAT THEY GET NEVER GET WHAT THEY LIKE.

This gory little personal guidepost—which sometimes lands us in delirious detours—is again being buffeted about by the Experts hanging like a milestone around our neck. (Your Honor, could you commute that sentence, or aren't you a commutator?) All the communting the Expert are doing these days is between the frying pan and the fire. In our book, anyone with a microphone, a tripewriter, or even a clean table cloth and a broker's pencil is an Expert.

The boys behind the eight-ball point pens are the worst. They'll draw you a diagram representing a cross section of the public—and what section isn't crossed—and then they'll just lean back and let you listen like the Willing Ear against the Wailing Wall.

THEY'RE LIKE THE ALLEGED GENT IN "21" WHO kept sending back all the bottles of wine as fast as the irate Keeper of the Keys opened them. From where we sat we could see the Keeper of the Keys getting so foaming mad he practically had a double head on him.

Then Jack Kreindler, who only owns the place, sidled suavely up to the table at which the alleged gent was lounging. Jack sat down with a jack-knife bow and proceeded to drink the last bottle served, himself, which happened to be his best Almeda Brut.

"This," he smiled, "is on the house—seeing it's my house."

The other bottles were on the alleged gent's bill, which required two accountants and an adding machine to compute.

Whereupon Jack table-hopped over to our corner.

"Who is he?" he asked him. He must be important."

"Important to himself—but to no one else," he quipped.

"Your technique is suave," we said. "Instead of putting him out of the place, you put him in his place."

Jack laughed: "If you think I put him in his place, you should have heard how subtle our salad chef was about it—you know Tony? Well, this international heel ambles in for lunch one day at rush hour and asks to see the salad chef, with a pad of paper.

"Is this an order—or one of them interviews?" demanded the salad chef, as he waddled to the table.

"An order," the big boy tells him. "And I want you to take it down."

"Yes, sir," said Tony.

"An order for a Chef's Salad," he began, dictating.

"But I'm the Chef—I make the salads—"

"Mine I want made this way," rambled on the big boy. "You got some miniature heads of Belgian lettuce?"

"Yes, sir," nodded Tony.

"Well, split one miniature head of Belgian lettuce into twelve equal parts in a wooden Swedish bowl. You got some San Marzano tomatoes?"

"Yes, sir," from Tony.

"Well, slice two into segments. Then quarter four small Gherkin cucumbers—and they must be Gherkins. Break up two hearts of California celery, and then slice one Burbank avocado. I presume you have some chives?"

"Yes, sir," said Tony.

"Toss in eight chives and twelve capers. Now, marinate all the ingredients. Run the bowl with a soupcon of garlic—and toss up the salad!"

"So," we prompted Jack, "Tony tossed up the guest instead of the salad?"

"Nothing so crude," said Jack. "Tony drew himself up to his Romaadiator's height, bowed low and smiled down upon him."

"You got that all down?" demanded the International Heel.

"Yes, sir," said Tony.

"And you'll make it?"

"I'll make it for you, sir," finally scoffed Tony, "but I gotta make an appointment with you first."

"An appointment?" demanded the big boy.

"Yes, sir. What I gotta know is WHEN WILL YOU BE IN FOR A FITTING?"

kids what NOT to do—well, Anita's iced off Clark Gable (who's going to star in The Hucksters) for Skitch Henderson—and who's HE? End of sentence.

It was at Slapsie Maxie's that Frank Sinatra reconciled with his Nancy. That's Hollywood Home Life—at least life!

All the gals in Glamour Gulch are ordering the first post war fireproof robes and negligees, so even the Hottest Numbers won't burn.

By
The
Timely Scholar

Amid mirth and cheer, the New Year was appropriately welcomed in by crowds of merry teenagers during the dance at Grosse Pointe High School. Father Time with his traditional scythe and white beard, along with the gay New Year representing 1947, decked the gym walls. Noise makers, horns, paper hats, confetti and balloons were provided and at 12:00, 1947 was ushered in in the proper way. Swirling around in their party best were Joyce Aief and Phil McGahey, Henrietta Sutton and Tom Blondell, Marion McLaughlin and Joe Mannino, and Nan Stahl and Ross Johnson.

ELEANOR ALLARD was one of the many who opened wide her doors to her many friends in the form of an open house on New Year's Eve. Attending the gala session were Do Backman and Wally Brey, Sally Nacy and Vic Oliver, Betty Sheridan and Al Moir, Marty Mauer and Bill Ernie, Pat Van Tiem, Pat Rabaut, Ellen Bout, Nornie Schaefer, and Isabel Rabaut.

JUDY ATHMAN'S gathering on January 3 was one of the outstanding social affairs of the holidays. She provided a gay evening of fun for her friends by offering dancing music and a few games of cards for the group. Sandwiches, cake and pop were served to Rita Leithauer, Jim Law, Sally Murphy, Harry Hammond, Joanne Schummer, Joe Cavanaugh, Nan Bergmann, Dick Hoskins, Dot Hillebrand, Dick Morketter, Marg Clark, John Heyo, Barbara Sutton, Bob Post, Marion McLaughlin, Lou Brys, Christine West, Joe Inesch, Patsy Brys, John Gallagher, Peggy Labadie, Ray Brys and Beverly Labadie.

Another unique idea was the progressive dinner planned by a group of Junior girls on January 2. The first course of appetizers was provided by JOANNE KREHNBRINK. Next the group traveled to Devonshire Road and DONNA DUBEAU'S abode for a delicious salad. The main course of chicken, with all the usual trimmings, was supplied by NANCY SCHUMACHER. PEGGY WORTLEY topped the meal off with a tempting dessert of peaches and ice cream with whipped cream.

Later in the evening the girls wended their way to JOAN WHYTE'S dwelling for a perfect ending to the day with a completely feminine gathering. Gathered in the recreation room, we noticed Ellen Kelly, Peggy Wagner and Nancy Rockwood along with the dinner hostesses.

The "Melodiers" were entertained at a luncheon given by JOANNE SCHUMMER. This Thursday afternoon affair beckoned to Nan Bergmann, Pat Trombley, Dot Hillebrand, Marg Clark and Marilyn Muerer. We have been told that fruit cocktail, sandwiches, cocoa and cookies were served to the hungry guests.

To wind up the week's festivities, a group of senior girls make their way to the Grosse Pointe Woods Bowling Alley for a few games. We say Joanne Athanson, Jo Mannino, Do Backman, Marty Lou Mauer, Nan Stahl, and Paula Beaupre trying very hard to make a strike but it seems that they were unsuccessful.

The St. Paul-St. Ambrose basketball game on Friday provided much fast-moving action for the interested spectators. Among the huge crowd that thronged to the gym for the first home game of the season, we noticed Nancy Stahl, Joanne Athanson and Joe Mannino, Rosemary Wruble, Marilyn Otto, Nora Allard, Sally Nacy, Joan Betzing, Do Backman and Wally Brey, Betty Sheridan and Al Moir, Carolyn Engelhardt and Steve Adams, Al Campenhout and Mary Sparr, Jimmy Cavanaugh, Anna Marie Tamm, Von Tamm, Day Sutherland, Rita Leithauer, Stan Jursek, June Allard, Ellie Wade, Dot Ardito, Ralph DeCorder, Mary Smith, Jo Mannino and Ray Evans, Bob McBride, Art Smith and Sandy Sittinger, and Ted Vernier.

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

The ski trains to Gaylord are attracting droves of young society this winter...

The trains to the North leave on Friday afternoon... and return Sunday evening... with thoroughly exhausted and happy crowds...

The trails are super elegant... and the atmosphere much more casual...

This week, the ski train will have passengers including: Ray and Jerry Dykema (Daddy Dykema broke his ankle) while skiing a couple of weeks ago but is fine now, we understand Mary Tiedeman... Chris Caulkins... Frances Obersteuffer... Barbara Nobis... Mrs. Frederick S. Ford Jr... Joyce Middleditch...

Sammy Chapin... Hammy James... Paul Brown... Peter Stroh... And the "bachelors of Lincoln road" Bill Calloria... Jake Fabian... Forbes Howard... and Jim McDonnell...

MICHIGAN'S SUN VALLEY The crowd all piles in to Marge Campbell's house at Vandербilt... for meals and sleeping... And skiing hours are spent at the Otsago Ski Club and on the trails...

A new-round house... at the end of number four tow line... is beginning to have great possibilities, our agents inform us...

PLAN SUN VALLEY JUNKET

A part of this Gaylord group... Has magnificent plans afoot... For a Sun Valley Junket in mid-February... They'll leave Detroit on the twelfth... and upon arrival at Sun Valley will stop at The Lodge for two weeks... John Warren has been the leading light... making all the reservations, etc.

DRAMATIS PERSONAE

In the Sun Valley party will be: Sammy Chapin... Mary Tiedeman... Chris Caulkins... Frances Obersteuffer... Betsy Holton... Joe Standart... Forbes Howard... and John Warren... The Henry Fords II will be at Sun Valley while the Grosse Pointe skiers are there...

And they also expect to be joined by the Jack Hollies... After a fortnight at Sun Valley... the same group will travel to Aspen, Colorado... for another two weeks of sport on the ski trails...

EASTERN TRAILS

Heading in quite another direction... but with skiing in mind... Is Mrs. John O'Keefe Jr. who left today (Thursday) for Long Island... to visit Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hutton at Westbury...

Mrs. O'Keefe... and Mrs. Hutton (Joan Chapin that was) will go up on the week-end... To Manchester, Vt. for winter sports... SMORGASBORD AND MUSIC

The wonderful smorgasbord... and delightful music... of the anniversary party the James J. Phelans Jr. gave last Thursday night...

Is still a favorite topic of conversation among their Pointe guests... The party took place at the Phelans home on Moross and Lake Shore road...

And among those present were their houseguests (who are well known to the Pointe)... Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hinkley of Warrenton, Va... ALGERS REMODEL HOME

There's much commuting between the Frederick M. Alger home on East Jefferson and Lansing these days... The dashing Mrs. A. returned yesterday to spend a short time at the Pointe... deciding some of the things she'll take to the new home they've bought in Lansing...

We hear it's one of the very old homes in Lansing... of the mansion impression... with much atmosphere... And that Mrs. A. is doing it over completely... She and Mr. Alger are at the Olds while the house is being remodelled...

And when it is finished... there is much hope abroad... that there'll be a gay housewarming for scads of Grosse Pointe friends... MACAULEYS ENTERTAIN VISITOR

There have been many small and intimate parties to greet Mrs. Orr of Cincinnati... Who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Macauley Jr. at their home in Lake Shore road... The Macauleys were hosts at a supper party last Friday night... And Dr. and Mrs. Charles Merkel of Kenwood road... entertained at cocktails for Mrs. Orr on Saturday evening...

Gourielli SULFO CREAM for oily-disturbed skin

I never seemed to be able to master those minor blemishes that occasionally used to break out on my face. Then I used Gourielli Sulfo Cream. Happy day! It gave my skin just the help it needed in controlling those distressful flaws like surface-clogged pores, scalliness and externally caused pimples. What's more—I no longer try to "cover up" a shiny face with constant re-powdering. Now, I prevent the shine with my marvelous Sulfo Cream. 1.50

Before applying the cream, I wash with Gourielli Emulsion Soap, a mild but scrupulous cleanser, so essential with oily skin. 1.50

Christian Science Lecture by Will B. Davis, C. S. B.

Given Under Auspices of Sixth Church of Christ Scientist, January 14, 1947

A Lecture on Christian Science

Entitled Christian Science: The Way of Freedom from Human Disorders by Will B. Davis, C. S. B. of Chicago, Illinois

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

The lecturer spoke substantially as follows:

Perhaps no word so quickly attracts human attention as the word "free." Almost everyone is seeking a way out of some situation that is irksome or unsatisfactory. When all of our bodily functions are acting normally we say we have gained freedom from sickness; and when our material needs, including food, clothing, and an adequate dwelling place, are being supplied, we rejoice in freedom from want. But seldom do we find anyone who will admit being perfectly satisfied with every condition and circumstance which concerns human welfare. To gain and maintain a sense of harmony and freedom requires much more than a free acceptance of the unlimited benefits of God's boundless goodness. We call this a free lecture on Christian Science, meaning that there is no admission charge, and that no collection is to be taken. But even that which is available for the taking requires something to be earned, and if it is to continue, it must be accepted, utilized, and maintained. Paul in his epistle to the Galatians emphasized this point when he wrote, "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not enticed again with the yoke of bondage" (Gal. 5:1). Earlier, when Paul was devoting all his time and energy to persecuting the Christians, he was no doubt sincerely in the belief that his actions were justified. Then, as he journeyed toward Damascus, intent on capturing and imprisoning any followers of Jesus he could find there, we read there suddenly "shined round about him" a light from heaven. This Christ-light awakened him spiritually, and even though he had never seen the human Jesus he learned to express the Christ-consciousness so fully that he was ready to bring his God-appointed task of bringing freedom, healing, and regeneration to men and women everywhere.

Healing as Jesus Did
There is ample evidence in Paul's writings that he had learned that the true followers of our great Master can express the Christ and thereby heal as Jesus did. It was this discovery that the Christ may be entertained in human consciousness that enabled Mary Baker Eddy to bring to this age the way of freedom from human disorders and limitations. When we learn how to keep our human thinking in close communion with the one supreme intelligence, the one Mind or Principle called God, we are letting in the healing Christ. Mrs. Eddy not only discovered how this may be done, but she proved the accuracy of her discovery by bringing freedom from all manner of sickness and inharmony to thousands who were in need. It was in 1856 that she rose from that which she considered to be her death-bed as she contemplated the Bible account of one of the healings of Jesus. It was thus that Mrs. Eddy discovered Christian Science, but until nine years later, in 1875, did she publish the first edition of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." With unwavering and resolute devotion she revised this textbook over and over again until she completed the task which was given her to do. In the final edition published in 1910 she writes on page 361, "I have revised SCIENCE AND HEALTH only to give a clearer and fuller expression of its original meaning." The Christian Science textbook explains fully just how healings were accomplished by Jesus and his early followers, and how the same method may be successfully utilized today.

In the Preface of Science and Health you will find an interesting exposition of some of the steps which were taken by Mrs. Eddy before she was ready to publish a complete statement of Christian Science. On page ix she makes this significant observation: "She had learned that this Science must be demonstrated by healing, before a work on the subject could be profitably studied." On the next page she declares: "By thousands of well-attested cases of healing, she and her students have proved the worth of her teachings. These cases for the most part have been abandoned as hopeless by regular medical attendants. Few invalids will turn to God till all phys-cal support have failed, because of their little faith. His opposition and power to heal disease."

We soon learn that something is required of us if we are to benefit fully from the privilege of having access to the teachings of Christian Science. A willingness to drop any sense of willfulness or antagonism and to approach the subject in a spirit of sincerity and humility will hasten our progress. We hear someone remark, "Christian Science will no doubt help in some cases of trouble, but it will not help me." I can only say to such a doubting Thomas, "Try it."

In the thousands of cases of healing and regeneration through Christian Science which are being recorded day after day, there are a great many in which the trouble had seemed incurable, insurmountable. Whether the discord concerns a sick bodily condition, an unsatisfactory business situation, or an unhappy home, an open-minded approach to the teachings of Christian Science will solve the problem.

Perhaps the reason for the resistance which is sometimes shown toward using Christian Science is that our method of treatment is utterly opposed to human material systems. We do not begin a Christian Science treatment with a human material subject to disease and discord, but we are taught to start our prayer-healing with the true cause. We then accept the conclusion that the image and likeness of God, the real spiritual man, is now expressing the harmony and perfection of his creative Principle, or Mind. In other words, the truth which seems very real and disturbing from a human standpoint we learn to view as unreal, in fact, nonexistent, from the standpoint of spiritual reality.

While was serving as a Christian Science Welfare Worker, a Navy Chaplain asked me one morning, "How does it happen that a Christian Scientist has the mumps?" I replied that Christian Scientists seem to have difficulties along with the rest of mankind, but that we overcome them in a different way. The Scriptures contain many accounts of the troubles of the early Christians and how they were corrected through the teachings and the material of our Faith-showers. The Psalmist wrote, "Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivered him out of them all" (Ps. 34:19). Jesus overcame the crucifixion, and we are profoundly glad that he found the way through Christian Science to heal as he did, through spiritual means alone.

New Christian Science Heals

What is it, then, that is accomplished through Christian Science treatment when it brings salvation from the material of disease and other human disorders? Through her diligent perusal of the Bible, Mrs. Eddy discovered the mental nature of all that seems physical and materially substantial. She learned that the material of disease, including the mortal body, is only the Adamantine dream about the real, spiritual, perfect, God-made universe. She learned how to reason from perfect cause to perfect effect—from God to the real mind that created the human body which she had thought to be the cause of her trouble. She learned that she began to manifest a more healthful, abundant, harmonious, happy human experience, but through the same process of thought she was able to bring freedom to others.

It is not plain, then, that Christian Science does not attempt to create a perfect creation? The method in Christian Science is to awaken or regenerate human consciousness so thoroughly that the externalization of that thought becomes harmonious and well. But let us not forget that in reality, the difficulty never resided anywhere but in the human mind. To clarify a point it is sometimes helpful to compare the efforts of the medical profession with the methods of Christian Science. The major effort of the medical profession is to attempt, by additions, subtractions, or alterations to make some change in the human body through the use of material remedies, appliances, operations, diets, or changes in climate. Unless we are extremely watchful we gain the impression that through Christian Science treatment "we are endeavoring to do the same thing; that is, produce a physical change. However, our method is to start with God—to understand that a perfect creator never made anything imperfect which needs changing. From this it follows that what we call a healing is in reality a mental awakening. When this is realized, and it does, through this scientific process of thought, we learn to rejoice because we have begun to understand a little more clearly that perfection is all there is.

Christian Science teaches us to realize that man is spiritual, perfect, normal, and rightly active, even when humanly the very opposite appears real and true. We know that the good God gives cannot be lost. But suppose the same discord is tempting us today as yesterday. We may understand that inharmony which has never been true about the real man cannot come back or be repeated. Man continues to be well, joyous, and free, because that is the way God made man. The joy has not been there, therefore, but a lapse from this perfect state of being. Accept these true facts and you will find yourself living them. It is scientific to ask, when inharmony of any kind seems to be manifesting itself, "Did God give it to me?" and to answer with conviction, "No"; it follows that you do not have it. That which divine Love has not sent has not been received. Does that thought sound new? John the Baptist put it in these words, "A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven" (John 3:27). Let me give you an example. A man who had been having treatment from a Christian Science practitioner for quite a period became discouraged because the trouble did not seem to yield. In talking with the practitioner one day he was voicing his disappointment. The practitioner asked him what he was doing about it, reminding him that it was his understanding that needed to be awakened. To this the patient replied, "I am knowing each day that I must remove properly whatever is offensive." "What truth?" asked the practitioner. It was then pointed out that he had been using only part of the sentence he had been quoting to himself from Science and Health. The entire sentence reads (p. 463): "A spiritual idea has not a single element of error, and this truth removes properly whatever is offensive."

Immediately the patient realized what he had been doing. He had been dwelling on the trouble as a reality, as something that needed to be removed, as something that seemed offensive, instead of holding to what he knew about the perfect status of spiritual man. He resolved to remind himself again that again that God's man is a spiritual idea, and as the image and likeness of a perfect God could not manifest "a single element of error." He maintained this stand every time the trouble came, and the trouble in the discord, and shortly found that he was expressing the perfection that he was understanding. I put it in plain English, he was well and knew why he was well.

You will see from this illustration that prayer as taught in Christian Science may be at times a reasoning process. Starting from the premise that God, divine Principle, is the only cause and creator, and that His created regimentation, or Law, Principle, Life, Truth, Love" (Science and Health, p. 465). For example, man cannot be separated from an Instant from Mind. Because of man's continuous at-one-ment with the only supreme cause, or Law, Principle, Life, Truth, Love, we are in the feet of our Master, and heal through the prayer of "enlightened understanding."

Obedience Brings Freedom

We learn through experience that obedience and freedom are closely allied. It has been well said, "Obedience to law is liberty." Freedom must not be confused with license. Mrs. Eddy found that through the ages have found a rich measure of freedom and protection through obedience to the moral law as set forth in the Commandments by Moses. Similarly, obedience to just Love gives us to live sensibly and harmoniously together. Through the teachings of Jesus we have learned that, through obedience to spiritual law, we can dispel the bondage of poverty, sickness, sin, disease, and fear. "For the law is the law of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death" (Rom. 8:2). Christian Science shows us how to become obedient to spiritual law, and it is significant to understand that in a land where our Constitution gives us all the privilege of making our own decision as to what God is, and how He is to be worshiped.

Let us not allow the present tendency toward regimentation, or law, to enter into our spirit and indifference. Through scientific, corrective thinking let us vigorously protest against injustice and greed, however it presents itself. We obey the laws of the land, but if we are clear, we are in a country whose Constitution gives us all the privilege of making our own decision as to what God is, and how He is to be worshiped. ### Tree Security

I remember that for many years I entertained a sort of latent fear about my business situation. With the needs of a family to be supplied, and a house and automobile to be maintained, I had formed the habit of thinking of my business connection as the source of supply. All sense of business bondage was eliminated when I awakened to the joyous realization that the vocation of a Christian Scientist is to serve God, to be employed in His vineyard. When our thought is so uplifted and enlightened that we are in contact with whom we come in contact, we are pursuing this God-ordained vocation, and the reward comes from Him. In the words of the last chapter of II Kings: "And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life." Please do not think of Christian Science as merely a method of producing a desired physical comfort or supply. Until we begin to study this Science for the sheer joy of learning more about God and man's inseparability from Him, we never fully demonstrate the freedom God has in store for us. It may seem to our effort in Christian Science to be concerned with securing better health, a better position in business, more satisfactory surroundings, more money, more clothes, or more harmony at home. Even though these things are desirable, and humanity longs for them, they are not the real life and example of its Discoverer and Founder are a constant inspiration. We are imbued with such a sincere appreciation of the privilege of living in the age in which the method of healing employed by

Release from Human Bondage

Are you being tempted to believe that you have many disorders things which the Father does not have, and therefore, which He has not given to you? Poverty, sensiveness, hate, greed, unhappiness, sickness, and other types of human bondage are not being expressed by our Father-Mother God, and, therefore, could not be manifested by spiritual man. God has not given to man the freedom from evil and danger which is the God-given heritage of spiritual man as the image and likeness of God. You have the strength and ability to defy the challenge of mortal man, and to stand where others may receive the Comforter and be restored and regenerated, but that you must resign yourself to the dictates of a material body, a material business, or an erroneous habit.

All human bondage stems from the notion that man can be separated from God, at least temporarily. The Comforter, divine Solace, has come and has emphasized the fact that man and God are not separated from creator. As Mrs. Eddy declares, "Man cannot be separated for an instant from God, if man reflects God" (Science and Health, p. 306).

Here it will be illuminating to return to the word "God" in this sentence each of the seven synonyms for God which our Leader uses throughout her writings to express God's nature and completeness. It will be found that the Principle, Life, Truth, Love" (Science and Health, p. 465). For example, man cannot be separated from an Instant from Mind. Because of man's continuous at-one-ment with the only supreme cause, or Law, Principle, Life, Truth, Love, we are in the feet of our Master, and heal through the prayer of "enlightened understanding."

Christ Jesus has again become available that we often ask ourselves whether we are expressing fully enough by our efforts to let our light shine before men the day of gratitude we feel for the freedom and regeneration which have come into our experience through Mrs. Eddy's discovery. Earlier in the lecture I referred to the Preface of Science and Health. On page ix our Leader's profound humility is beautifully shown in these words: "To-day, though rejoicing in some progress, she still finds herself a willing disciple at the heavenly gate, waiting for the Mind of Christ." She had always been an earnest student of the Bible, and had early formed the habit of listening for divine direction. Parking Law Violators Receive Jog to Memory

Lately there has been a disposition on the part of some car drivers to ignore the new parallel parking regulations for Kercheval val avenue between Neff and Cadieux.

To jog the memory of these offenders the city police on the afternoon of Jan. 7 ticketed five of them in five minutes flat. They were all in the Notre Dame-Cadieux block.

Parked Car Hit On Moross Road

A 1946 Chevrolet, parked on Moross road at Ridge on the night of January 8, was struck by a Ford driven by Louis Earl Vance, of 850 Piper boulevard.

Damage to the Chevrolet, owned by George Watkins of 594 Notre Dame and being driven by Normie Schaefer of the same address, was estimated at $25. Damage to the Ford was said to be about $50 and the drivers agreed to settle payment between themselves.

Request for Tax Refund Is Denied

A communication was read at the Park council meeting Monday night when William T. Harris, of 15410 Windmill Pointe drive, requesting a refund of $1680 of village taxes paid by him on his 1946 taxes.

He alleged that the taxes were illegal, discriminatory, etc. This is assumed to be a phase of the general attack made by lakefront property owners on the township assessment which has been the subject of litigation for more than a year. The lakefront owners have thus far lost all of the rounds, but the Supreme court yet has a shot at it.

The request was denied by the commissioners and referred to the village attorney and placed among his archives awaiting the outcome of the actions against the township. The village's assessment is based on that of the township.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rippberger of 20650 Vernier circle, Grosse Pointe Woods, announce the engagement of their daughter, MISS BETTY JANE AUMAITRE, to Charles M. Spangenberg of Detroit.

Girl Scout News

Last Saturday, Capt. Henry Robinson of Selfridge Field played host to 17 Wing Scouts from Grosse Pointe. Accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Harry Findlay, the girls made a general tour of the field, spending considerable time in the "link-trainer", and at the gunnery range.

Captain Robinson was not only extremely cordial to the girls, but was also greatly interested in Wing Scouting. On Thursday, he is going to attend a meeting of Wing Scouts at Miller Hall, and will show his aviation films.

During the holidays, our air-minded lasses entertained the Air Scouts from Royal Oak and Detroit at Miller Hall. The girls brought box suppers for their guests, and were evidently very successful hostesses, as the boys were already planning a return engagement even before they said their good-byes!

Troop 237, our orphan troop still struggling along without a leader, is planning a three-day camping trip at Metamora, the week-end of Jan. 31. Mrs. Harry Findlay and Mrs. T. E. Foster, former leader and assistant leader, are seeing that these girls get a long-hoped-for wish—being at Metamora in the winter, and are already helping them make their plans. Let's all pray for snow that week-end!

$380 in Loot Taken from Car

A car belonging to Mrs. Jeanette W. Dains of 4824 Courville, Detroit, parked in front of 1018 Harvard Friday night, Jan. 10, was thoroughly ransacked by car thieves.

They stole a heavy leather pigskin man's traveling bag with gold initials, valued at $100. The bag contained a man's suit of clothes which had cost $135 and a man's woolen robe costing $65. The thieves also took a man's toilet case valued at $30 and a leather brief case, with no value listed on the case but containing an assortment of private papers of no value whatever to the thief but of great value to the owner. The total value of the articles taken was $380.

Parked Cars Hit As Driver Skids

As Albert L. Wettlauffer of 514 Lincoln, was driving south on Lincoln on Jan. 7, and attempted to turn east on Kercheval, the road conditions were so bad that his car skidded and struck two parked cars on the opposite side of the street.

That of Mrs. Justine C. Wood of 695 Rivard, had its radiator grill bent in, but the one owned by Karl E. Cutlip of 830 Cadieux, escaped injury.

TOO MUCH SWEET

Sigma Gamma Elects Mrs. Currie President

Annual Meeting of Organization Held in Detroit Orthopedic Clinic; Mrs. David Gillis First Vice-President

Mrs. Gilbert S. Currie was named president of Sigma Gamma Association when the organization held its annual meeting last Saturday at the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic.

Other officers for 1947 include: Mrs. David Carter Gillis, first vice-president; Mrs. H. Gordon Wood, second vice-president; Mrs. Lloyd Marentette, recording secretary; Mrs. William C. Tost, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edwin R. Stroh Jr., assistant secretary; Mrs. Francis Palms Boyer, treasurer; Mrs. Frederick S. Ford Jr., assistant treasurer; Mrs. William H. Ledyard, custodian and Mrs. Phyllis Smylie Thompson, historian.

Mrs. John L. Kenower, president of Sigma Gamma for 1946, presided at the meeting and heard the annual reports of the standing committees. Reports were read by Joanne Waldo, bulletin and Christmas activities; Mrs. Angus Goetz, gifts; Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis Jr., volunteer services; Mrs. Ford Ballantyne Jr., membership; and Mrs. Francis Palms Boyer, social activities.

At the same time, Sigma Gamma Juniors announced their officers for the coming year.

These include: Jeanie Hovenstein, president; Jean Wright, first vice-president; Dorothy Singelton, second vice-president; Sally Ann Hubbard, recording secretary; Peggy Hatch, assistant; Molly Connelly, corresponding secretary; Julie Thuber, assistant; Virginia Robb, treasurer; Betty Adams and Nancy McMenimen, volunteer chairmen; Molly Moll and Donna di Marco, party chairmen.

Following the meeting, tea was served.

POST-XMAS FUN

Some pyromaniacally inclined youths started a fire of discarded Christmas trees in a vacant lot near 543 Lakepointe at 8 o'clock Sunday night which brought out the village fire department. No damage was done and the firemen merely stood by until all danger was past.

Words' Sources Lecture Subject

Maxine Berlitz Vollmer, witty granddaughter of Maximilian Berlitz, founder of the famous School of Languages, will make her Detroit speaking debut at Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theater, Wednesday morning, January 22, at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Vollmer's unique lecture subject will be "Why Do You Talk the Way You Do?" She will tell the strange sources of current words and phrases, and show how they are affected by climate, history, fashion.

The speaker's early years were spent in Paris where the Berlitz apartment was frequented by Anatole France, Camille Flammarion, and other French celebrities. Upon her return to the United States, Maxine Vollmer was graduated from Vassar and took post-graduate work at Columbia.

She began to be in demand as a lecturer in critical Westchester county, and her reputation for wit and vivacity is now established from coast to coast.

Billy Baxter, State Administrator for the Sister Kenny Foundation chats with stage and screen star John Carradine about Carradine's new play The Rope, playing at the Shubert-Lafayette, as they late lunched at the London Chop House.

Claims in Snay Death Discussed

The subject of the settlement of claims which Mrs. Frank Snay, widow of the police sergeant, killed recently in an automobile accident, may have against the Park village, came up for consideration at the council meeting Monday night.

It was then disclosed that Mrs. Snay had already hired an attorney to represent her in any negotiations, before an opportunity was given the village officials to adjust the matter by private negotiations with her. It was assumed from Mrs. Snay's action that she had elected to contest her claim.

She would be entitled under the compensation insurance which was held by the sergeant to about $8400, without question or contest. She cannot elect however to take this sum and proceed with a contest to obtain more from the village.

Commissioner Gillett raised the question of the widow being allowed legally to set aside the assured benefits and so compromising the rights of a minor child. No action has been taken as yet and the whole matter referred to the village attorney awaiting further action by Mrs. Snay.

In fairness to Mrs. Snay, Commissioner Bloodworth moved

German, Japanese Mails Increased

Effective January 2, additional mail service to Germany and Japan was available. Postmaster Roscoe B. Huston announced.

Business communications, limited to the ascertainment of facts and exchange of information may be mailed in letters not exceeding one ounce in weight.

Documents, such as birth, death, or marriage certificates, wills, legal notices, etc., are authorized.

The closing of business deals and contracts by mail and the inclosure of checks, drafts, securities or currency are not permitted.

Letters and post cards to Japan may be written in English, Chinese, Japanese, French, Korean, Russian, Spanish or Portuguese, but must be addressed in English.

Unlocked Door at Movie Is Tempting Invitation

"Unlocked doors" in business places are common reports of Pointe police in their nightly rounds, but unlocked theater doors where the public pay to get in instead of doing the paying after they get in is another thing again.

The Park police found the doors of the Aloma theater conveniently unlocked Saturday morning at 3:35 o'clock. It might have been a long wait for some urchin bent on a preferred seat for the afternoon matinee, but it has been known among our forward Grosse Pointe youth.

Veterans of World War II account for one-fourth of all sales made by War Assets Administration.

Here's Pointing At You!

By A. Dooley

Now that the holidays have been tucked away for another year and what's left of the Christmas tree ornaments have been stored away we start to look forward to the new year. Most of the fellows and gals have settled down to their usual routine of living and we find things a bit quiet in the Pointe. EILEEN HICKEY and MARY FRAN PEEZ, two lassies who were here during the holiday season, have returned to their respective colleges. Eileen to the University of Michigan and Mary Fran out Illinois way at Northwestern. Both will return here on February 15 for the wedding of SALLY HICKEY, Eileen's sister. Sally, one of the loveliest brides-to-be, will be married in St. Paul's Church to Michael O'Donnell.

ANN LEINWEBER... of 696 Rivard, also a student at the University of Michigan... gave a "gals only" party last week for Bernadette Tamm... who is leaving the Pointe—Marygrove College, as well as the University of Michigan, was well represented at the gathering... May Lou Babcock... Mary Ann Busch... Jean Kennedy... Joan Seymour... Mary Millenback... Betty Hay... Barbara Condon.

BETTY FLANDERS... one of the prettiest gals in these parts... was seen a few days back with TED JOHNSON... formerly of Grosse Pointe... seems Ted heard the song, "Go West, Young Man"... so he headed California way... found a position with 20th Century Fox... and is now a script writer there... Many of the Pointers will remember his dramatic ability in the plays given at Grosse Pointe High School... he also gave the commencement speech to the Class of '42.

FRED RANNELLS... our photographer here at the News... gave a party Saturday that proved to be quite a success... Betty, his wife, should be given a medal for her unique ideas in cooking... she prepared dishes of all description but the one that topped them all was a delicious chocolate cake with thick, gooey white icing that makes you feel you want to dive in head first. Fred... who has been patiently waiting for the delivery of his new car... received the glad tidings the other day... drove his proud possession home for the family to see... even Kara, the dog, came out to pass approval... she must have given her OK, for I see Fred still has the car.

Hear where the DELTA GAMMA SIGMA fraternity... which has been inactive for some time... has been reorganized by a group of Grosse Pointe boys. They held their first meeting this month... officers have been elected... plans being made for a dance. Those participating are: George Cardella, Frank Messing, Tom Verbiest, Tom Freeman, Parker Manger, Bill Wild, Jim Hollerbach and Chuck Carroll.

GO TO THE PUNCH AND JUDY THEATER... you're bound to see someone you know Bumped into DOROTHY PELKY and TED JONES the other night... both with that "stars in their eyes" look... Dotty is now the proud owner of a beautiful diamond ring... just fits her third finger... left hand. Also saw BOB and LAURIE PARENTI: Up until six months ago she was Laurie Sullivan... Bob is now attending the University of Detroit... they were lucky enough to find an apartment on that side of town... so it isn't very often that we get to see them.

JOY REED... who was fortunate to have six weeks vacation... left last week for Boston... where she is studying merchandising at Chamberlin... Joy was here visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. K. Reed... of Fisher road.

MARY LONDES and BARB BERANEK... the two gals who write one of our fine columns... came into the office last week for a friendly chat... Barb, who is going to Michigan State, was home for a few weeks' vacation... the gals spent most of their time looking for new material for their column... by the way, they call it "SALT OVER OUR SHOULDERS"... if you haven't read it... do it now... don't know what you are missing!

Grosse Pointe High schoolers' top social news this week centers without question on the senior prom. That exciting hook-up of dinner and cocktail parties and then going to the dance has made prom time a gala event for the many attenders.

FAY PANKOW entertained at a dinner in her home before the prom. Places were marked for Fay and her date—Mort Eldridge, Peggy Maiden, Hank Badger, Marilyn Kirby and Paul Cady at the flower-decked table. Mr. Pankow took color-movies of the happy group seated at the chicken a-la-king dinner.

After whizzing over to the dance and spinning away several hours, the same six gathered at MARILYN KIRBY'S for a wind-up breakfast of scrambled eggs and sausage.

The spirit of George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" pervaded the boys' gym at the high school Saturday night for the SENIOR PROM. Huge silhouettes of musicians played from the wall opposite the silhouetted skyline of a city at night. As a back-drop for the band there was an appropriate magnified manuscript of the song itself, and at the other end of the room there was a fluctuating keyboard. In his ethereal setting, danced Ileana Lindh with Ken Vanderbush, Nancy Steuer with Bill Waugh, Sara Stephenson with Clarke Stevenson, Judy Harger with Louise Dyll, Mary Waterreall with Bob Campbell, Mary Hudson with Bob Halbrook, Barb Stoerkel with Phil Skillman, Marge Smith with Bruce O'Neil, Myra Hahn with Bob Vincent, Shirley Drake with Dave Kaiser, Sylvia Teeg with John Cowan, Pat Wilson with Chuck Eberly and Janie Gehlert with Bill Wolfe.

The eight diners who enjoyed dinner at 45 Edgemere road were MEGS VIERLING, Bud Baldwin; Ann Armour, Roger Shepherd; Joan Crowley, George Curran; Jo. Armour and Bryant Brieden.

Dining together at BOB MACKENZIE'S were Bob and his gal for the big affair—Dottie Lander; Sallee Slocum, Don Graham, Marilee O'Brien, Dave Fairless, Vonnie Wegman, Bob Clarke; Gerry Morse and Bud Racicot.

"Coketails" were served along with sandwiches and cookies in LOIS RIECK'S house to Lois and her escort Bob Giffin, Jennie Quirk and Ed Neitzke, Marilyn Hirt and George Cherpeis, Alice Sellers and Mal Sutherland, Dee Lindquist and Bill Penoyer, Mickey Smiley and John Rummel, Ileana Lindh and Ken Vanderbush, Betty Graham and Dan Musetti, Ellie Hewitt and Doug Long, Cynthia Blean and Jerry Thiede, Mary Hudson and Bob Halbrook and Helen Manson and Bill McBride.

There was a large dinner in the Village Manor at which BUSTER KNOPE was host. Sue Johnson was with Buster, and their group included Jim Brown with Marge Stoerkel, Rich Winkler with Jean Collinson, Bud Horsesley with Mary Ann Queen, Doug Krieger with Kathie Strek, Whity Haigh with Mary Verbiest, Phil Skillman with Barb Stoerkel and Corky Dykstra with Dorothy Davis. Joan Schmidt was the dinner guest of DICK PHILLIPS, who also entertained Barb Molyneux and Jack Wilson, Jean Shortkroff and Jim Findley, Fannie Kretschmar and Paul Friese, Joey Johnstone and Ray Schumann, Rose Schroeder and Buster Pinkston, Sally Grylls and Ed Schaub.

BREON took over from these trimmings. They ended up at and invited the crowd to her house for turkey and all the lemon pie.

Grosse Pointe will say goodbye for a while to Robert Cudlip and Chet Sampson as they leave by station wagon for a trip to Central and South America on Friday, Jan. 17.

The first two stops will be New Orleans and Miami.

On Jan. 25, Bob and Chet will board a plane for a nine weeks' trip through both Central and South America. They will visit Cuba, Mexico, Guatemala, San Salvador, Costa Rica, Panama and each country in South America.

Bob will take along his sketch book and Chet is taking colored film, so both of them will have a lot to remember this trip with.

E. K. Ford's Death Shock to Pointe

The Pointe was shocked on January 8 by the death of E. Kay Ford, of Oldbrook Lane, in Jennings Hospital after an illness of three weeks. Funeral services were at 2 p. m. Friday, in Christ church.

Mr. Ford, who was 57, was nationally known in the steel industry. He joined the Hannah Furnace Corp., in 1920 as a salesman and has been vice-president since 1929.

He is survived by his wife, Emma Bracken Ford, and two daughters, Nancy (Mrs. Hugh Martin), and Jean.

Mrs. Van Damme Fatally Stricken

Mrs. Edward J. Savage, president of Detroit Colony, National Society of New England Women, will attend the National Board Meeting of the Society Thursday, January 23, and the annual Founders' Day luncheon, both at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. George J. Grohs, first vice-president, will conduct the regular meeting, Wednesday, January 22, at the Ingleside club. Reservations for the 12:30 o'clock luncheon preceding the meeting should be made with Mrs. A. C. Pasini, of Bedford road, corresponding secretary.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Imogene Leonard, whose topic will be "Hobbies." Mrs. Edward A. Davy, chairman for the day, will introduce the speaker. Each member will bring a cherished heirloom and give a one-minute explanation about it.

Unitarian Young People Plan International Party

The Young People of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian church are giving an International Dinner on Sunday, January 19, at 6:30 p. m.

Dr. John Rose of the Congregational church, Lothrop district, formerly assistant minister of the North Woodward Congregational Church, will speak.

Among the guests will be Miss Hazel Sadac, representing India; Covina Cabral, representing Brazil; Kristen Coweow and Ingrid Waagaard, students of Merrill-Palmer, to represent Norway; and Mr. Robert Benian and Miss Mae Mikjian of the Romanian group.

Driver Cooled Off Following Accident

Russell Gragg, of 1804 Anita, collided with William A. Donahue of 27010 Koerber ave., St. Clair Shores, on the corner of Mack and Huntington on January 10. Gragg was driving a 1940 Packard sedan, and Donahue a 1942 Chevrolet.

Both parties were taken to the Woods police station to be ticketed. Donahue had been drinking heavily and resented being ticketed, the police said. He became nasty and used such language that the police decided that a night in jail might do him good, and he was forthwith locked up.

On Saturday the establishment was open to the public with a complete display of all lines of Chrysler products in the spacious showroom. On hand for the opening was Ed Batchelor, formerly one of Detroit's favorite sports writers. The show room doors were kept open till 11 p. m. with an almost record attendance of 2,500.

Nearly 20 million yards of piece goods, including percale, flannel, melton cloth, netting, sheeting and poplin are being currently offered for sale by War Assets Administration.

REVIVED BY RESPIRATOR

The Grosse Pointe Woods police department received a call on January 9 to take the respirator to 1696 Hampton road.
