

Pointe's Postwar Projects Costing Over Two Million

venture any estimate on this project as it will properly come before the Trustees in a short time. It will undoubtedly be a considerable item which will need to be financed by the village. It will solve the sewage and drainage problem which has long perplexed the trustees.

In response to a request addressed to the Shore village Thomas K. Jefferies, the Grosse Pointe Shores superintendent, sent in his views in the following letter:—

January 24, 1947

"There has been little talk at the Shores regarding any projects as being specifically 'post-war.' As you know, we do have plans being prepared for our sanitary interceptor sewer and good progress is being made on them. At the present time our engineer, Mason L. Brown and Son, is doing field work for preparation of the plans. I believe their survey is largely complete insofar as the sewer along Lake Shore road is concerned, and during the past few weeks they have been surveying on the side streets of our Village. After they complete their work the plans will go to Lansing for formal approval, and on receipt of that, to the council for their acceptance. We possibly will ask for bids at that time, since in these times figures on construction of this type fluctuate widely.

"Another project, of much smaller proportion but also in the nature of public works, is a waterloss survey which we are having made at this time. For the past year our losses of water have been excessive, and a firm of engineers, the Pitometer Company, of New York is making a survey of our water distribution system to discover underground leaks, slow meters, and other faults that contribute to loss of water. This survey is similar to the one made a year or so ago by the same firm for Grosse Pointe Park, and which resulted in the discovery and repair of a number of underground leaks. Following completion of the survey we intend to repair the faults and to undertake a program of testing, replacement and repair of the inaccurate meters.

"Any program of this type entails planning and work over a period of a few years."

Although the problem of drainage into Lake St. Clair has been the subject of frequent discussion between all of the Pointe communities and the state authorities, it has been more pressing in the Shores village than in any of the other five municipalities. There they had been draining directly into the lake, and the issue reached such a pass within the last year that the state people finally withheld permission for any further extension of their present sewer system until adequate provision had been worked out for its disposal in some manner conforming in general terms with the state's requirements.

This position of the state authorities in the Shores is only the local repercussion of a problem that the state has been investigating for a long time, and which has in fact drawn the attention of both the American and Canadian Governments.

There still remain about 20 miles of streets to care for at a present estimated expense of $240,000. This however is to be spread over a future five year program. Running with these street improvements there will be about ten miles of curbing to be laid at an estimated cost of $80,000.

Along with the sewer and paving projects the village will handle a tree trimming project which contemplates an expenditure of $5,000 a year spread over a five year run.

The municipal garage and service station in the rear of the Municipal Building on Jefferson avenue is to be enlarged and rebuilt at a cost of $22,000.

The old wooden pier at the beach park was built about 25 years ago and is badly worn out. Preparations are under way to supplant this with a steel and concrete causeway running out into the lake about 850 feet, with the end turned down the stream. On the inside of this will be provision for numerous boat wells.

On extension of water mains there are about 3,000 additional feet to be laid which with gates and connections will cost about $12,000.

The village is also committed to a replacement program for its vehicular apparatus to run over a five year period at a cost of about $6,000 a year.

It is the village's determination to carry through these projects without recourse to a bond issue. It has been greatly aided in the initial stages of its postwar work by prudently hiving up about $120,000 in an account which Manager Lane designated a Capital Improvement Reserve. This was an item which had recurred in the annual budget each year for the past three and a half years of about $30,000 per year. Without this to start off with Mr. Lane says it would not have been possible to plan confidently at this time for its elaborate improvement program.

The work already done in the Grayton area was paid for in cash out of this fund.

The Woods, the newest of the Pointe municipalities, has shown a deal of courage in going ahead with its needed improvements.

It issued $285,000 worth of bonds two years ago to provide for betterments and extensions to its sewer and drainage, and that work has been completed. In addition to that it made about $35,000 additional outlay on its sewer system, bringing this item alone to $300,000.

Since then it also bought and paid for a 43 acre tract in the Torrey Woods section intended at the time as a public park and recreation grounds. The purchase was completed when this was bought have been changed somewhat by the later contract to buy the Edsel Ford estate lakefront acreage almost identical in size to the Torrey Woods tract. It was the pressing need for a lakefront park that prompted the Village Commissioners and the citizens to take advantage of the offer Mrs. Edsel Ford made.

The actual consummation of this deal has been delayed by the adverse action of the St. Clair Beaconsfield, Wayburn, Three Mile, Devonshire and Buckingham have been treated.

Shores officials who are opposed to the subtraction of this substantial piece of real estate from their taxable area. It is in Macomb county and the St. Clair Shores people say their village and school board stand to lose about $2,000 a year in taxes.

The Torrey Woods tract may be converted into an inland park area, or it may be sold by the village and the sum realized applied to the reduction of the debt incurred for the purchase of the Ford tract. The price to be paid Mrs. Ford is $80,000, on which $1,000 has already been paid to her to bind the bargain. Mrs. Ford is playing along with the village until the St. Clair interruption is cleared up.

Recently the Woods put out two other bond issues; one for $70,000 to pay for the Ford property, plus $10,000 for a green barrier between it and the remainder of the Ford property, and certain tax adjustments amounting to about $15,000; the other one for $90,000 to pay for the village's share of protecting its Marter road and Torrey Woods pumping stations against lightning interruption. The remainder of the issue will go into the Charlevoix sewer area and the hookup of the Sunningdale and Lochmoor laterals for conversion into the big interceptor.

The projects completed and to be finished, have committed the Woods village to an extension of its debt by more than a half million dollars.

The Woods village has also about decided to make an addition to its present municipal building on Mack by utilizing all or a part of its adjoining 80 feet on Mack towards Eight Mile, which it has owned for several years. When this is done the new part will be used for a City Hall and the present old structure used exclusively for fire and police quarters. The cost of this has not yet been figured but may run somewhere around $20,000 and $30,000.

An approximate estimate of the outlay to which the five municipalities have committed themselves in the near future, or have already done, may run about as follows:

Woods, spent and to be spent on sewers, parks and municipal building $ 532,000
Shores, sewers 250,000
City, pavements and sewers 500,000
Farms, unestimated figures 300,000
Park, sewers, paving, curbing, pier, tree trimming equipment replacement, garage... 600,000

$2,182,000

ANOTHER POSTMAN BITTEN

William H. Shoenig, a letter carrier who lives at 15856 Manning, Detroit, was bitten by a dog belonging to Mrs. Bennett of 15003 Jefferson. The animal sprang at him as he stepped inside the doorway, inflicting a severe puncture wound in his left leg. He was treated at Bon Secours hospital.

DEADLINE NEARS

World War II veterans' survivors, who may qualify for social security benefits on the deceased veteran's service record should apply for benefits at once to avoid loss of money, Francis L. Pendergast, manager of the Mack Avenue office of the Social Security Administration, has warned. Eligible survivors of veterans who died after their discharge from the armed forces and before August 10, 1946, have only a few more days to file their claims to receive benefits payable back to the time of the veteran's death, Mr. Pendergast said.

DETROIT'S MOST FAMOUS STUDENT...

OF THE hundreds of thousands of boys and girls who have studied in Detroit, Thomas Alva Edison is the most famous. Yet the man who did so much for humanity never went to school here... never, in fact, had more than a few years of formal education.

You may have read that Edison, the boy, was banished from the Port Huron schools for dreaminess in class—that his teacher called him "addled"—and that he learned the three R's from his mother. Later, when in his teens, he worked on the Grand Trunk railroad. Fortunately for every one of us, his train had a daily lay-over of nearly five hours in Detroit.

For Thomas A. Edison, high school and college were an ancient building, the Young Men's Society Library, on Jefferson Avenue, just a few doors east of Woodward.

Between runs, he buried himself in its books, devouring them, not by subject or author, but by shelf and section.

Throughout his life, this thoroughness was characteristic with him. It was the quality that carried him through three thousand unsuccessful theories before he invented the incandescent lamp—fifty thousand abortive experiments before he created the storage battery. "Genius," he was fond of saying, "is one per cent inspiration, ninety-nine per cent perspiration."

Few of us have Mr. Edison's thoroughness, his patience, his capacity for concentration. But we at Detroit Edison realize that our heritage from him is both an inspiration and an obligation—an obligation to continue his efforts to make life more comfortable. That is why we are constantly trying to develop new and better ways for electricity to serve you.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

IN HONOR OF MR. EDISON...

You are cordially invited to these exhibits Feb. 10 through Feb. 15: the Edison Institute Museum at Greenfield Village, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, admission 25c, and the

J. L. Hudson Co.'s special display. Bring your friends to see electricity in the making at any Detroit Edison power plant, 12 noon to 9 p.m.—Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Park Primary Eliminated By Dearth of Candidates

Farmer Also Hopes to Escape Trouble of Running Primary On Feb. 10; Hubbard Seeking Grylls' Post On Board

Because the Park village has been spared a multiplicity of candidates this year for the commissioner's vacancies and the clerk's office, there will be no primaries. The election will be held on the scheduled date, March 10.

The candidates running again this year at the earnest solicitation of their fellow citizens are: Commissioner for two-year term, William Gillett, Elmer F. Ulrich and James McMillan. Commissioner for one-year term, Peter Koenig (to fill unexpired term of Joel C. Sage, resigned).

Village Clerk for two-year term, William G. Staman.

In the Woods village no primaries are held under their village charter. Anybody may run for any village office that wishes to and there they have until February 21 to file.

Up to date, there is no apparent opposition to the re-election of President A. A. Phequiere for the usual one-year term and of Commissioners Paul Marco, George Burgess and Paul W. Rowe for two-year terms. The president is the only village official who is elected annually.

There is no opposition as yet to the clerk, assessor or treasurer. Phil Allard has been the village clerk for many years.

It will not be known until after the deadline for filing on Saturday whether or not the Farms will have to hold a primary on February 10. Unless additional petitions are filed the primary will also be eliminated in that village.

To date, President James K. Watkins is unopposed. Present trustees William F. Connolly and William G. Kirby have filed for re-election. Henry G. Hubbard, of Muskoka road, has filed to fill the vacancy to be created by Gervey's Grylls' retirement. Mr. Grylls has decided not to run. Horace E. Farmer of Moross road has also filed for trustee.

Harry Furton is unopposed for clerk. Francis J. Hock has filed to run against incumbent Alonzo J. O'Connor for treasurer. Russell Labadie is the only candidate who has filed so far for the assessor's office. Present assessor Francis Bœupre has recently moved from the village and will not be a candidate.

Dan Beck Bowled Over By Hit-Run Car Driver

Dan Beck, aged 17, of 25 Roslyn place, stepped out of the Francois cafe on Fisher road at 11:20 Tuesday night and was bowled over by a hit-run driver.

He was taken to Bon Secours hospital where a hurried examination showed he was not seriously hurt and a police car took him home.

Lt. Stuart William Reed's Citation Made Permanent

Lt. Stuart William Reed, USNR, of Elma, N. Y., husband of Mrs. Nancy M. Reed of 724 Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., has received a permanent citation for his Silver Star Medal from Secretary of the Navy, James Forrestal, for the President.

Lt. Reed, who has been released to inactive duty, received the award for conduct as Commanding Officer of the LCI (L) 416 during the invasion of Normandy, France, on June 6, 1944, and subsequently as a Staff Engineering and Operations Officer in directing the transportation of troops from the United Kingdom to France.

During the war, citations were temporary, or incomplete, for security reasons.

Text of the full citation is as follows:

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action as Commanding Officer of the LCI (L) 416 during the invasion of Normandy, France, on June 6, 1944, and subsequently as a Staff Engineering and Operations Officer in directing the transportation of troops from the United Kingdom to France. Charged with the execution of plans for sailing to the Baie du la Seine, Lt. Reed skillfully directed his ship through difficult swept channels and discharged troops on the beaches. When LCI 416 was hit by gunfire while beached and rendered inoperative by an underwater explosion, he supervised the abandoning of the ship with only two casualties and, after all able hands had reached the beach, remained behind to assist a wounded crew member to safety, saving him from increasingly intense gunfire which followed. During the subsequent months, as one of the officers in charge of the outbound shuttle and escort service on the English Channel, he assisted in transporting troops to France and in escorting LCT's. By his initiative and skill, Lt. Reed contributed materially to the success of these vital operations, and his devotion to duty was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Another Taxicab Service Started

Another taxicab service for Pointers has been started. The newest line to operate in this section is owned by a group of veterans and is a new division of the Veterans' Cab Company, which started in Detroit some time ago.

The company will operate about 16 taxis in the Pointe area and they are marked "Veterans' Cab Co. . . Operating in Grosse Pointe." Headquarters are being maintained at Mack and Wayburn.

Park Commission Adamant In Major Tool and Die Case

Residents of Charlevoix - Maryland Area on Hand to See That Officials Stick by Decision to Evict Concern from Neighborhood

The Major Tool and Die company whose plant is at Charlevoix and Maryland, and which had been denied permission to extend its plant by the Park Board of Commissioners two weeks ago, made a request at the Board meeting Monday night to be permitted to continue business in its present location for a reasonable time to enable it to dispose of the property. The company has declared its intention of vacating this property, which it owns, and presumably continuing in some other location.

The village recently addressed a letter to the 20 property owners as to the continuation of the business whose property is within 200 feet of the plant. Of these, four had of plant to ascertain their wishes lodged no opposition, but all of the others who replied were opposed.

At the council meeting Monday night a goodly number of the objectors were present to again voice their opposition should any move appear to continue its stay. Consequently when the request appeared for a stay on the eviction of the company, the residents unanimously opposed it.

The commissioners made no change from their previous action. When it became evident that the days of the tool and die company in its present location were numbered, a citizen giving the name of Thomas Hoffer, of 2229 Eastlawn, Detroit, asked council whether it would be opposed to his using the same property for a small manufacturing business making auto trimmings and seat covers. The presence of the objectors to the tool company gave the council an opportunity to sound out their opinion on the proposed new enterprise. When Mr. Hoffer explained that his business would be a sewing machine enterprise, probably never employing more than four or five persons and would be conducted without noise to the neighbors, they all expressed their willingness to accept the new neighbors.

Inasmuch as the proposed business is legally acceptable in that area and no opposition was expressed by the neighbors, President Parshall and several of the commissioners believed the business would be granted permission, although no formal action was taken.

The commissioners refused to alter their former action with respect to the tool concern, fearing that to extend the stay now might prejudice the village's case in the event it became necessary to take court action to get the concern out.

This concern, like several other small industries was permitted to operate as a war emergency business on condition of its moving out within six months of the end of the war. The tool company had lingered on and even enlarged its plant, using up to 50 horse power motors and employing many more than the 50 employees permitted.

Goodwill Industries Face Serious Material Shortage

"There is a serious shortage of materials at Goodwill Industries, and something must be done about it, or temporary layoffs of handicapped workers will result." This blunt announcement was made by Executive Secretary Harold H. McKinnon, of the Goodwill Industries of Detroit, to members of his staff.

Contributions of cast-offs are normally below average during the winter season. This year the drop has been more general and severe than usual. The stockpile of accumulated materials is rapidly diminishing.

The training program for handicapped young people in approximately 30 trades, skills, and jobs is a major activity at Goodwill. The payroll of the handicapped public and everyone is invited. Thirty-five percent of the $100,000 Detroit quota will be allocated for education and research. Sixty-five percent will be retained in Michigan to expand the services of the 14 clinics and 6 referral services already being maintained throughout Detroit and Michigan and for additional facilities to meet the increasing demand.

Within the last five years, Planned Parenthood has developed into a family agency including in its services not only family planning for healthier children but also marriage counseling and aid to childless couples.

Mr. Buhl has appointed Harry W. Kerr chairman of the Special Gifts Committee for the local drive. A meeting of this group was held last Thursday in the Savoyard Club, at which time the committee heard talks by Mr. Buhl and Mrs. James McEvoy, honorary chairman of the Detroit League.

Mrs. McEvoy said the main over-all objective of the campaign is to reduce the appalling number of deaths associated with childbirth, and to develop the marriage counseling services which have a direct relation to the alarming divorce rate.

Vice-chairmen of the men's special gifts committee are William C. Davis and John Veech.

Other members include: Sidney Allen, Andrew W. Barr, C. Henry Buhl, Theodore D. Buhl, John Dodds, Henry Earle, Edward S. Evans, Jr., J. Crawford Frost, Edward P. Caulkins, John Garlinghouse, W. S. Galbraith, Jr., Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., A. R. Glancy, Jr., Forrest Heath, Nelson Holland, Henry W. Large, Nelson McCormick, Joseph J. McFawn, Chisholm Macdonald, Lawrence J. Kiwanians Plan Events for Kids

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club is sponsoring an Ice Skating Meet for boys and girls under 16 years of age in February.

There will be several races for both boys and girls in age groups and relays. There will be suitable prizes for each race.

Watch this paper for the time and place of this event, and also for the Model Airplane Show scheduled for some time in March.

This club has planned for one very interesting event for every month, so kids come on out and enjoy the fun.

A distinguished trio from the Chicago Round Table of the National Conference of Christians and Jews will speak at Grosse Pointe High school for a special 9:30 a. m. convocation, Monday, February 10, under the auspices of the Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Jews and Protestants, Michigan regional office of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, it was announced last week by Stanley Cook, director of assemblies, Grosse Pointe High school.

Dr. Harold W. Roupp, pastor of the historic Central Church of Chicago, formerly a professor at Boston University; Rabbi Charles E. Shulman of the North Shore Congregation, Glencoe, Ill., who served as a navy chaplain during World War II, and James O. Supple, religious editor of The Chicago Sun and noted Catholic layman, will be the guest speakers.

In the afternoon of that day, the guest speakers will address the members of the League of Jewish Women's organizations and guests of the Catholic and Protestant churches at the annual meeting of the League of Temple Beth El, Woodward and Gladstone, Detroit.

Mrs. Samuel B. Kaufman Citation Made Permanent

Commander John H. Kaufman, USN, husband of Mrs. Charlotte H. Kaufman of 1143 Buckingham road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., has received a permanent citation for the Silver Star Medal from Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal, for the President.

Commander Kaufman, currently serving with the Atlantic Fleet, earned the award while serving as First Lieutenant of the USS Santa Fe, during operations against the Japanese in the vicinity of Shikoku, Japan.

During the war, citations were temporary, or incomplete, for security reasons.

Text of the citation is as follows:

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity as First Lieutenant of the USS Santa Fe, during operations against enemy Japanese in the vicinity of Shikoku, Japan, on March 19, 1945. When his ship went alongside a burning carrier which had been damaged by enemy air attack, Commander Kaufman immediately organized and supervised fire fighting teams, personnel transfer, line handling and towing details. Constantly exposing himself to danger, he assisted materially in carrying out the rescue mission. Commander Kaufman's professional skill, resourcefulness and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Mary, Mary, quite contrary

by Mary Madison

"When I reach sixty, I shall probably marry a girl of eleven or twelve—innocent, barley-sugar-loving, in a pinafore."

By GUESS WHO?
Come one, come all to SNOBBY LOBBY!
Just in case you think, kiddies, that we've been delving into TRUE STORIES or gnawing on THE POLICE GAZETTE, we rush to reassure you that the unexpurgated quotation above is from the first edition of the recently and reluctantly published LETTERS AND PRIVATE PAPERS of none other than William Makepeace Thackeray—God rest his restless bones in Westminster Abbey.

And from out of the past (where forgotten things belong) his words keep coming back like a song—the song of the hungry heart of that great, shaggy, subtle English genius. Perhaps the words prove that Thackeray was a century ahead of his time. Perhaps they prove that he and Tommy Manville are brothers under the skin. But, most significantly, they prove that England's shrewdest scornor of Snobs was himself a Snob. A Middle-Aged Snob, and a Snob who refuses to be left in the Middle. And not just a Middle-Aged Snob, at that—but a Muddle-Aged Snob.

If Thackeray himself suspected this—outside of this one blunt outburst—he gives no indication of it, according to our annual reading of his brazing BOOK OF SNOBS.

The Muddle-Aged Snob, indeed, seldom suspects his muddled motives. He may be old enough to know better from worse—but why bother? Why bother if the "innocent, barley-sugar-loving girl in a pinafore" does have the hard, hard heart of a child. A child interested only in that sugar daddy—and are we glad to trace that shoddy phrase back to English literature!

Why bother when it's worth the price of admission?

The Muddle-Aged Snob it is who yesterday, was a friend of the family, dandling little Susie on his well-trained knee and who today may find himself up and marrying her—the most debauching dish in town.

The Muddle-Aged Snob it is who, with the critics writing in the aisles, puts the little fluff from Winetka into the star billing and cooling role of a million dollar production.

The Muddle-Aged Snob it is who, having given his wife the gate-plus the gate receipts—proves himself not such a very big business man by wedding the little redhead who's in love with his lawyer.

The Muddle-Aged Snob can take a bow for sponsoring and stimulating these amorous All-American activities: the Pent and Repent Houses along Park Avenue; the stop-and-go light rubies and emeralds along Fifth Avenue; the microphony torch songs; the hundred dollar hats; the Uphill-and-Down Dale Carnegie philosophy which blows up his mind like air in very flat tires; the football-paddling tailors and the all-night-sucker prices of Cafe Society night clubs.

You can't help liking the poor old chap with his pipe, pursuing his Dream Girl. The only thing worse than not getting her is getting her. Thackeray himself died without the barley-sugar-loving babe. A circumstance as lucky for literature as for himself.

One of these gay days Hollywood is going to discover his garrulous genius. Discover that his Becky Sharp of Vanity Fair can make Forever Amber seem as dull as a Campfire Girl with no sticks to rub together.

When they do discover him, they'll find he still comes high. They'll find his granddaughter has heard about Hollywood—that she is not, as Artie Kober puts it, "any incomepoop." Memorable, here's to all the Muddle-Aged Snobs! Won't you join us in a Bowl of Waffles?

ADRIAN, THE INCOMPARABLE

is again out to prove he is not only one of the most sensational but one of the sanest of American designers. With masculine vigor, he views the present frenzy for looped, hooped, pleated and re-pleated gowns. The American woman, he points out, is not "geared" (and there's a nice gutsy word for you) to wear bulky clothes in her daily life.

Why use all the fabric you can lay your hands on simply because it's on the market again? In his After-Five-P.M. Adrian will make you any gown you can walk in, provided the yardage is all in the skirt. But he sees no reason for drastic changes in the contour or length of his fluid and flattering daytime dresses.

Besides, he will tell you, with the last masculine thrust of truth, bulky clothes will only minimize your good points and emphasize your bad points. And just to please the papas, Adrian adds that he's against the "unhealthy spiraling of prices." Quite a lad—Adrian!

Here's Pointing At You!

By A. Dooley

Just forward my mail to such and such, Miami, or send it in care of so and so at Silver Springs, Florida. There was a time when just the birds went south but now it seems everyone is. After this week of "O" weather I can well understand. Sandy beaches, blue skies and sun—big beautiful sun. Pass me my water wings James, I'm off to ride the waves. O! well, I can dream.

One Grosse Pointer, JOANNE GAY by name, heard the call of the south and headed West Palm Beach way. Received one of those picture post cards with "having a wonderful time, really wish you were here" written on it. Now that's going too far.

Dispensing with the south for the moment—let's see what happened in the Pointe last week.

UNIVERSITY OF DETROIT'S annual J-PROM given last Friday in the Masonic Temple was well populated with Pointers. With the aid of Al Whyte from the Club B&B, the New Yorkers from the Mardi Gras and the Arthur Murray Dancers, the ball turned out to be a gallant affair. DON MAHLMEISTER of Devonshire road gave a cocktail party for some of his friends before the dance. Those ringing his door bell were: Joe Valenti and Mary Ann Schaltenbarnd... Chuck Kelleit and Ann Cavanagh... Jack and Dierdre McGahey... Peggy Schaltenbarnd and Jack Kessel and Don's fiance, Mary Drolshagen. After the dance the DELTA SIGMA PI fraternity gave a breakfast in the crystal ballroom so everyone "stuffed" themselves on ham and eggs.

MORE J-PROM ATTENDANTS: Some of the guys and gals seen dancing to Victor Lombardo's music were: Bob Frear and Shirley Eschig... Moby D'Heane and Mary Lou Carr... Bill Mass and Elizabeth Wilhem... Joe Padgett and Tess Kozlowski... Leo Desimple and Marylin Meier. After the dance they all trekked over to Jim Dikes' home on McKinley road where everyone "dug into" a hardy breakfast. Dorothy D'Heane was Jim's date for the evening.

GOODBYE VACATION... HELLO SCHOOL (ugh!) BOB FISHER had a farewell party in his home on Cloverly road last week... he is leaving for Duke on January 27... most of the fellows and gals are heading back to school so this was a "till we meet again" affair. Bob's date was Dot Donnell... Joan Gehlart was there with Eddie Baker... Libby Powell with Bob Fox... John McNaughton with Barb Klenk and last but not least, Grubby Dickson.

Last Sunday from 3 to 5, a cocktail party was given in the home of MR. and MRS. RUEHA MYERS on Courville road, honoring CAPTAIN and MRS. RALPH YOUNG... she is the former Barbara Nevens... they are here on a furlough visiting with his parents on Neff road... friends who dropped into say hello were: Helen and Donn Kipka... Pat and Fred Jean... Harriett and Bob Jean... Dr. and Mrs. Richard Wunsch... Mr. and Mrs. William Cadington... Dr. and Mrs. Charles Belanger... Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers... Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gibson.

MONDAY, JANUARY 27, six little gals boarded a train that would take them to Boston and back to school... Barbara Burritt... Dawn Osius... Sally Potter... Barbara Klenk... Nancy Hughes... Julia Hudson and Sue Boogie... tucked their books under their arms and waved goodbye to the Pointe for a few months. All the gals are returning to Endicott Junior College, located in Beverly, Mass. Things really will be quiet now!

Harmes' Hosts At Tea, Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harmes, who have just moved into their new home in Ford court, were hosts at a tea followed by a dinner party on Tuesday evening, January 28.

Guests at the tea included Mrs. George Dis, Mrs. Leo Lesinski and Mrs. John Henkel. Dinner guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kundinger, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Bullock, Mrs. Harmes' brother, Robert Kundinger, and Mrs. Clara C. Kundinger.

People speak of "the middle way." Any half-way way of life can only be half-dead.

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club . . . where all manner of news is originating these days . . .

Took on a romantic note last Saturday . . . when Mrs. M. O'Connor Dodge of University place . . .

Entertained at a large cocktail party . . . in one of the drawing rooms . . .

And announced the engagement of her daughter . . . Mary Anne . . . to Francis Neville Moran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Croul Moran of Grosse Pointe boulevard . . .

Mary Anne's father was the late John Duval Dodge . . .

PHOTOS TELL ENGAGEMENT

Spring blossoms were used throughout the drawing room . . . And on a large table, centered with a particularly lovely disposal of blooms . . . there were carved white frames holding photographs of the affianced pair . . .

Mrs. Dodge greeted her guests in a black silk crepe cocktail gown fashioned with short sleeves and a yoke of sheer black net . . .

She wore purple orchids . . .

Mary Anne was lovely in a navy blue satin cocktail frock with the new uneven hemline high, slit neckline and short sleeves. Diamond clips sparkled on the bodice of her frock . . . and the little "bride-elect" wore white engagement orchids . . .

SCHOOLS ATTENDED

And now for some vital statistics:

Mary Anne is a graduate of Liggett School and Sarah Lawrence College at Bronxville, N. Y. . . .

She is a member of the Alumnae Association of both schools . . .

Frank attended Detroit University School . . . Detroit Institute of Technology . . . and the University of Chicago . . .

OFF TO HARRISBURG

Mary Anne was a "war time" deb . . . and like the other Grosse Pointe girls of her season . . .

Did not bow formally to society . . .

This next week . . . Mary Anne and Frank will go down to Harrisburg, Pa. . . .

Where on Saturday . . . February 1 . . . Mary Anne's former roommate at Sarah Lawrence . . .

Doris Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Wolfe of Harrisburg . . . will become the bride of Fred Dewey of Grosse Pointe . . .

WILL TAKE PART IN WEDDING

Fred is the son of Mrs. Franklin H. Dewey of Cranford lane. The wedding is to take place at 7 p. m. in the Methodist Church of Harrisburg . . .

And will be followed by a reception in the Penn-Harris Hotel . . .

Also going down for the wedding . . . will be Mary Anne Dewey, the bridegroom-elect's sister . . .

Mary Anne Dodge will be matron of honor for Doris . . . while Frank will be Fred's best man . . .

Mary Anne Dewey is also to be a bridesmaid . . .

REHEARSAL FOR A WEDDING

This evening (Thursday) a trim young lady in sparkling royal blue costume will skip into St. Paul's on the Lake for the wedding rehearsal of the formal ceremony on Saturday morning . . .

She is Marilyn Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Wall of Devonshire road . . . who will become the bride of William C. Breer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breer of Windmill Pointe drive . . .

After the rehearsal . . . members of the wedding party will go to the Breer home for the rehearsal dinner . . .

PARTY-A-DAY PACE

Beginning last Friday (when Bill returned from his exams at the engineering school of the University of Michigan) there's been a party-a-day pace for Saturday's bridal pair . . .

The exams lasted so long . . . that the John Weikers' cocktail party scheduled for that evening . . . set something of a record for being the latest hour cocktail party on record so far in 1947 . . .

to the extent that he has made the conduct of his profession the primary use of the premises and the residential use of the premises secondary; that the permission granted by the village authority . . . (January 1946) . . . to alter and change the premises, if carried to extreme, would allow all the physicians in Zone A to add to their "residences" additions which would change the character of their premises . . .
Judge DeBaeke says however, that as long as the village authorities granted permission to go ahead with alterations which cost thousands of dollars, and the public authority and residents stood by and did nothing about it, until long after the additions were completed and the defendant was using the premises in accordance with the permit and with disclosures made at the time the permit was granted, he cannot find him guilty of violating the ordinance. Dr. Usher's discharge was ordered.
Judge DeBaeke found that the addition to which the residents objected consisted of at least four examination rooms, halls, a waiting room, a reception office and file room, a library used as a physician's office, a laboratory and x-ray room, a dark room for developing x-ray plates, a lavatory, a garage which includes a storage room and heating equipment for the addition, and two sleeping rooms and a bath above.
The original portion used by Dr. Usher contained one examination room, one file room, a waiting room and laboratory.

The guest speaker of the afternoon will be Harold F. Warman of the Leader Dog League.

Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall In Catholic Theater Play

Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall of 1580 Fairholme, Grosse Pointe Woods, will play the role of the lively maid, Toinette, in the Catholic Theatre's forthcoming production of Moliere's hilarious farce, "The Imaginary Invalid." The play will be presented at the Art Institute February 6, 7 and 8.
Mrs. Marshall has long been active in the Catholic Theatre, serving as publicity director for several seasons. She has written, directed and acted in radio programs and served on the play-reading and casting committees. Her past performances in the Catholic Theatre include parts in "Barter," "The Royal Family" and "Ladies of the Jury."

Car Washing Job Has Sad Ending

Frederick E. Harris, Jr., of 1380 Oxford road, via a couple of boys, he did not know, the sought for job of washing his car on Jan. 26. They took the car with them and that same afternoon got mixed up in a hit-run accident on Mack avenue. Their movements from then on are not known but at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, Jan. 28, the car was found abandoned in front of 1438 Kensington. The Woods had sent out a teletype on the car and was identified by the Park police. The radiator had been punctured and was dry. This probably led to the involuntary abandonment of the car. The boys have not yet been identified.

Neighbors Fight Planned Terrace

Plans have been made by some unnamed party to erect a 17-family terrace on St. Clair north of Charlevoix.

Already the proposition has raised a furore among the property owners in that area. Their objection seems to be to the minute proportions of the proposed apartments in the terrace.

Normally the terrace type of dwelling would be more favorably regarded than the ordinary apartment house structure but the residents thereabouts fear that a structure of this limited size, housing so many persons, would affect the values of other residential property in the neighborhood.

Harvard Road's Residents Mad

Residents on Harvard north of Kercheval, who were affected by the prohibition passed at the last Council meeting against parking on both sides of the street, which was taken to prevent blocking of the street against fire apparatus, were represented at the Park council meeting Jan. 27 to protest against the application of the new ruling to Harvard road. This ruling took in five or more such streets and was made following a recommendation of the police and fire department officials.

In the case of Harvard road the residents claimed that the reason there had been complaint about their street was not because of hazard to public safety but because the heavy trucks from Detroit had been making it a practice to choose Harvard instead of Cadieux for their routes in this direction. They were apparently doing it to avoid the interruption by the red lights which liberally sprinkle the Cadieux route.

Chief Louwers, who was present at the meeting, promised to take the matter up with the Harvard residents and see what could be worked out. He also agreed at the same time to look into the vocal habits of three dogs in the neighborhood whom the residents said had the practice of sleeping all day and condensing their twenty four hour barking exercises into the hours when humans wanted to sleep.

HOW DOES CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEAL?

The disappearance of organic and functional disease, as well as of trouble in other forms, is continually recorded among these who have turned to Christian Science for help.

The method of such overcoming of difficulty is prayer—a spiritually scientific manner of thinking based on the teaching of Christ Jesus.

What this prayer is and how anyone can understand it and use it effectually in accordance with his need are fully explained in the Christian Science textbook, SCIENCE and HEALTH with Key to the Scriptures.

By Mary Baker Eddy. This remarkable book, other works by Mrs. Eddy, and all other authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased at the Christian Science Reading Room, 14730 Kercheval Ave., corner Manistique.

Ford Chosen Man of Year

Junior Chamber of Commerce Bestows Honor on Resident of Pointe

Henry Ford II, of Provençal road, Grosse Pointe Farms, was named last Thursday night as Detroit's "Young Man of the Year". Presentation of the gold medal emblematic of the honor was made by Federal Judge Arthur F. Leder, in behalf of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, at a dinner in the Book-Cadillac Hotel.

Ray D. Michaels, board president, cited Ford's taking over the leadership of one of America's largest concerns, the Ford Motor Company, at the age of 30. He said this leadership has affected the lives of thousands of men and women of Detroit and of the whole nation.

Park Renews Hospital Plan

The Park village has continued for a second year its arrangement with the Bon Secours Hospital, under which it cares for all of its emergency police accident cases.

The hospital had been doing this for a number of years without any charge to the municipality and it was not until last year that the Park village voluntarily proposed that it pay the institution a nominal sum for the work. This amount is $600 per year.

In presenting the proposal to the Commissioners' meeting Monday night Manager Lane took occasion, to remark on the very efficient and cheerful manner in which this institution performed this work. On Commissioner Homer Fritsch's motion the arrangement was continued for the year 1947.

Dorr to Address P.T.A. at Kerby

The Kerby P.T.A. will hold a meeting next Wednesday evening, Feb. 5. The parents are invited to visit the classrooms from 7:30 until 8 p.m., to discuss problems and to become better acquainted with the teachers. At 8 o'clock there will be a short business meeting and a talk on "Adult Education in a Democracy" by Harold M. Dorr, Ph.D., Professor of Political Science at the University of Michigan. Professor Dorr was born in Ionia, Mich., attended the Lake City public schools, and later studied at the University of Michigan where he received his A.B., A.M., and Ph.D. degrees. He went to the University in 1928 as assistant in the Department of Political Science and now holds the rank of professor in that department.

He is the author of "Michigan Constitution of 1935" and co-author, with Edward H. Litchfield, of the booklet, "Facts About Your Job as a Voting Citizen." Although Professor Dorr's field is American Government, and he has been prominent in the organization of the Citizenship program in Oakland county, he is also a student of foreign affairs and gives lectures on "America's International Responsibilities" and "Problems of the United Nations."

Following the program refreshments will be served in the gymnasium.

Park Acquires More Insurance

At the Park Council meeting Monday night Village Manager Lane presented the final report of the special committee named some months ago to examine into the village's insurance protection.

This work has now been completed and under the new arrangement the village has acquired $195,000 of additional protection at an additional outlay of only $895. This includes not only its property protection in all its phases but liability insurance as well, whereunder the village is protected in every place where work is carried on as a village function.

The property insurance has been rewritten on a 90 per cent co-insurance basis.

Hits Pole Wire to Miss Smacking Another Car

When he swerved to avoid a car coming out of Fisher road into East Jefferson early in the morning of January 29, H. C. Jackson of 1586 Hawthorne road, Grosse Pointe Woods, rammed his car into a guy wire on a service pole and did damage to it estimated at $125.

Mr. Jackson, who was driving west on Lake Shore, said the other car apparently had stopped at Jefferson, then proceeded to drive out into his path. He did not identify the other driver.

It is more important to keep the right spirit than to get things done.

Elections Planned By Camera Club

The eighth annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club will be held in its club rooms in the Neighborhood Club on Tuesday evening, February 4, at which time the election of officers will take place.

Community singing has also been arranged and will be led by the outstanding voices of the club who have been banded together for that purpose and have been spending long evenings practicing.

The program will terminate with a lunch served by the ladies of the club. Due to the nature of the meeting, it will be limited to the club members only.
