Woods Presbyterian Church Conducts Ground-Breaking Services for New Building

Structure at Mack and Torrey Road to Cost $100,000; Additional Units Planned for Future Construction

Ground was broken on Sunday, March 23, for the first permanent church building to be erected in Grosse Pointe Woods, that of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

The structure that is now being built will be part of the main church. It will have a seating capacity of 420 and will cost $100,000. Two other units, an educational center and an auditorium, will be built at a future date, and the main church will be enlarged to seat 650. The church property, the gift of the late Dr. H. N. Torrey, and Mrs. Torrey, is located at Mack avenue and Torrey road.

Alois A. Ghesquiere, chairman of the executive committee of the church building committee and president of the Woods Village, presided at Sunday afternoon's ceremonies. Following a prayer by the minister, the Rev. Andrew F. Rauth, the congregation joined in prayer and the Doxology. The Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church spoke.

Ground breaking was done by the building committee chairman and representatives from all church boards and organizations. There were also representatives from the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church present.

The church was organized on October 2, 1939. Plans call for the completion of the building by the end of the year.

Only Entrance To Hospital Disgraceful

Patients Suffer While City Continues to Neglect Caroline Avenue

The sight of a truck stuck in the pot holes and mud on Caroline avenue last Monday set in motion a chain of inquiries about this little one-block street which had much unfavorable publicity just a year ago. The street runs from Cadieux to Notre Dame and is the only service entrance for Bon Secours Hospital. All of the hospital's ambulance cases have to be taken in over it.

It was the bitter complaint of a citizen in March 1946 that brought its deplorable condition to the attention of the NEWS. This citizen had been rushed into the hospital as a emergency case suffering a hemorrhage. His doctor who accompanied him feared that the terrific polting he received in going the few rods over this abominable road would aggravate the hemorrhage. He complained of the road condition at that time to the NEWS and the paper made an investigation which verified his complaint. The paper took a picture of the roadway and published it in its next issue.

By a coincidence this same complainant had occasion to take his wife to the hospital with a broken arm one year later almost to the day. We understand the day was March 21, 1947. The road was still in terrible condition as a hospital entrance and his wife suffered great additional pain in her broken arm because of the jolting she received.

Cool Greenhouse Sets Off Alarm

The Carl Breers, of 15600 Windmill Pointe drive, are in Florida and in their absence the house is being occupied by relatives who are not familiar with the protective alarm system which guards the property. Friday night about 6:30 o'clock they heard what they thought was a burglar alarm going off.

March Slaps Pointe with Snow Blast

Drifts Snare Many Motorists; Peppets Lose Great Show Window

The late March blizzard that hit Grosse Pointe in the early hours of Tuesday morning raised havoc with traffic. Stalled cars and trucks were dotted all over the area. Some damage was done to buildings and trees.

The street clearance crews of all the villages and the City were on the job early and did their usual good job in keeping the main highways and principal cross streets, open but the force of the wind in many cases piled up drifts faster than they could be removed.

Some of the less traveled streets which the plows had not been able to reach in time were hopelessly blocked up.

The large plate glass window in the Peppert and Blockert store on Kercheval, which is said to be the largest single pane of seamless plate glass in the Detroit area, blew out at 9:45 a.m. The suction created by the whirling winds seemed to suck it out and within a few moments the beating snow had ruined all of the merchandise in the window.

Miss Peppert, of the firm, had just stepped out of the door as the big pane gave way and a piece of the flying glass cut her quite severely on the leg.

The store said it would be able to replace the pane quickly as one of corresponding size happened to be available in stock in the city. At noon on Tuesday they said the only problem was the transportation of the extra large pane.

The safe transportation of such a big piece of glass is a delicate problem even under favorable weather conditions.

The cab companies through the area were swamped with calls from patrons who feared to venture out with their own cars, or in many cases from car owners who had become stalled early in their outward journey from home.

In the Woods where there are more open areas, wind swept up great drifts and stalled cars were numerous.

Youths Admit Hell-Raising

Gang of 14 Face Serious Charges for Actions at Country Day School

A group of 14 Pointe youths ranging in age from 16 to 18 have admitted to raising particular hell in the Grosse Pointe Country Day School on March and may be charged by juvenile court officials with malicious destruction of property.

"The Time is Now"

It is high time that some community-wide decision was reached on whether or not Grosse Pointe is going to have a suitable memorial to its soldier dead of World War II and for the permanent preservation of the names of the more than 3,000 of our young men and women who were active participants in that war.

When this matter was under discussion an honest effort was made to learn what the wishes of the people were and, if in favor of a memorial, what form it should take. The question was never satisfactorily answered.

A committee appointed to examine the proposal and make recommendations, while disappointed with the volume of public interest aroused, believed in the main that a memorial, in the form of a library should be erected.

The library idea admitted of many developments. Space for the deposit and permanent preservation of manuscripts and war relics of the war now lying neglected in many Grosse Pointe homes and eventually destined to be lost or destroyed. Quarters for the Grosse Pointe Historical Association were also discussed.

Substantial assurance was given during these discussions that if such a memorial was erected it could be located on the property of the Grosse Pointe School District near the corner of Kercheval and Fisher road. Every member of the committee believed this would be an excellent location.

Since this recommendation was made Mr. Murray Sales has given his property at Jefferson avenue and Lincoln road to the school district to be used, after his death, as a school library or public library, as we choose to call it.

It can never be a library honoring our soldier dead, as the title "The Jessie Sales Memorial Library" is one of the conditions of the gift.

This is not to question the fine spirit of Mr. Sales in donating his homestead to Grosse Pointe. It will remain a beautiful memorial to a family which has already contributed so much to the community. It will be especially appreciated by the school authorities who have long hoped for a fine library property.

It is a far cry however from being the answer to the spirit of the original quest for a war memorial.

That proposal is still unanswered. The question is, does Grosse Pointe wish to provide a beautiful memorial to its soldier dead, or does it not?

Will it have a memorial of some character especially designed to honor its war dead and those who went forth to battle for their country, so placed as to stand forever under the eye of the public of this and future generations, or will it be content with a makeshift memorial room, tucked away somewhere in the recesses of the future public school library, forever unseen except by relatively few?

Such a solution would be unworthy of this fine community. It would never be an object of pride to the people here nor of admiration to the stranger who visits us.

Grosse Pointe cannot afford to dispose of this responsibility and privilege in this apologetic way.

A few short years ago we hailed these young men as our heroes who were marching away to battle for us and the preservation of our way of life.

Are we going to haggle and hesitate now over the manner of honoring those who did not return?

Or, are we going to implement the sentiments of a son of Michigan more than 60 years ago when he propounded a similar query and offered its answer?

"And does Columbia love her dead? . . . No word of praise or honor can be said, No language has been given to our race, No monument has majesty or grace, No music filling with weird sweet the air, No maid or matron eloquently fair, Naught that can feeling to expression wed, May say how well we love our soldier dead."

Planning Expert Engaged by Park

As the result of the meeting of the Park's planning committee with J. Martin Frissel of Lansing last Thursday, the Board of Village Commissioners authorized Mr. Frissel at their meeting Monday afternoon to make a complete survey of the village with respect to its future planning.

Mr. Frissel's work will fall into three phases. He will first prepare a land use map, followed by a zoning map, and finally the preparation of a revised zoning ordinance. The whole is to be the basis for the systematic planning for the village's progressive development within established lines.

This is the first step in comprehensive planning for future development undertaken by any of the Pointe Communities. The City is now considering the same undertaking.

preparation of a revised zoning ordinance. The whole is to be the basis for the systematic planning for the village's progressive development within established lines.

Kim Sigler To Address Open Meeting

"Threat of Communism" to Be Subject of Talk by Chief Executive

Governor Kim Sigler will be the speaker at a mass meeting in the Pierce Junior High School at 8 p. m. on Saturday, March 29, in connection with the intensive campaign that will culminate on April 7 in the biennial election of a large number of state and county officers.

The meeting is being sponsored by the 14th District Republican Committee and former Governor Wilbur M. Brucker will preside.

Governor Sigler will talk on the "Threat of Communism." The Governor comes to the meeting fresh from testifying before the Special Congressional Committee investigating Communism in the United States. He will doubtless have some interesting information on this all-important subject that will be new to his listeners.

State Senator Matthew F. Callahan will introduce Governor Sigler.

The election this year is of special importance as it will see the election of 18 Circuit Court Judges, seven Recorder's Court Judges, four Common Pleas Judges and three Judges of the State Supreme Court. In addition there is a numerous list of State and County officers to be elected.

Park's Trees Pose Problem

Village To Tackle Big Job This Year; Improvements Made at Beach

The Village of Grosse Pointe Park has a considerable tree problem on its hands, it was revealed in a "Progress Report" submitted at the meeting of the board of village commissioners on March 24 by Village Manager Everitt Lane. The report also covers other items and is published here in full.

TREES—Just recently a complete tree survey was made in the Village. The records show that there are approximately 8,000 shade trees in the community. The area in Group I, from Barrington through Nottingham with a total of 1,969 trees, is badly infested with Elm Leaf Beetle and Elm Case Borer. During the early summer months the leaves turn completely brown and fall. The balance of the Park has not been too badly affected. Group II includes all trees east of Nottingham to Cadieux with a total of 4,014 shade trees. In this group, the trees on three streets are most urgently in need of trimming—Balfour to Jefferson, Harvard from Jefferson to Kercheval and Yorkshire from Jefferson to Mack. Other trees in this section are in need of repair and particularly all the Soft Maples on Trombley and Park Lane are dying and must be removed.

We propose to spend a portion of the Gas and Weight Tax money, held as a surplus from last year, for this project this summer.

STREETS—It is estimated that $25,000 will be received from the Gas and Weight Tax appropriation. (Continued on Page 4)

Fluent Swearer Pays $20 Fine

Late Thursday night an obstreperous citizen from Detroit, aged 53, made a nuisance of himself at the Shell Gas station at Barrington and Jefferson by his indulgence in some heavy swearing and much foul language. There were several women present about the station, which didn't mitigate his offense in the minds of the police who took him in charge.

The next morning in police court Judge Victor DeBaekle didn't exactly wash out his mouth with soap, but he did frisk his pockets for a $20 fine, with wholesome costs added.

"Known to Detroit now as an able, distinguished jurist, Judge Jayne was a valuable public servant . . . a doer of civic deeds . . . years before he was pronounced to the bench. "His career in Wayne County's public life began 38 years ago. He had no long string of college degrees. He had been a country school teacher who studied law nights. "He started in as secretary and attorney for the old Society for the Prevention and Cruelty to Children. Early in his career he sounded his philosophy by saying he put human rights above property rights. "He founded the now widely known Children's Aid Society. He started free legal service to the poor which grew into the now well known Legal Aid Bureau.

"He started the first boy's detention home. As Detroit's first Recreation Commissioner he began the city's vast playground systems. When the city couldn't provide funds for the playgrounds, he roped off the streets so the children could play safely. "For the past 16 years he has been its presiding judge, the wheelhorse in making it outstanding among the nation's courts.

"He worked out methods of speeding up the docket so that bar associations everywhere come to Wayne County to study the efficiency of its Circuit Court. "The City and the County have recognized his rare abilities and manifold contributions by paying him tribute as 'the highest type of public servant.' Judge Jayne deserves re-election."

EXTENSIVE PROGRAM OF Telephone Number Changes NOW UNDER WAY

THESE CHANGES ARE NECESSARY—to provide for telephone growth, to prepare for direct dialing between Detroit and suburbs, and to pave the way for even faster long-distance service.

MICHIGAN BELL is now taking the first steps in a long-range program of changing thousands of Detroit and suburban telephone numbers. For the most part, the changes will be limited to new central office designations (for example, VALley 2-2099 instead of LEnox 2099). Eventually, all numbers will consist of two letters and a numeral, representing the central office name, followed by four numerals.

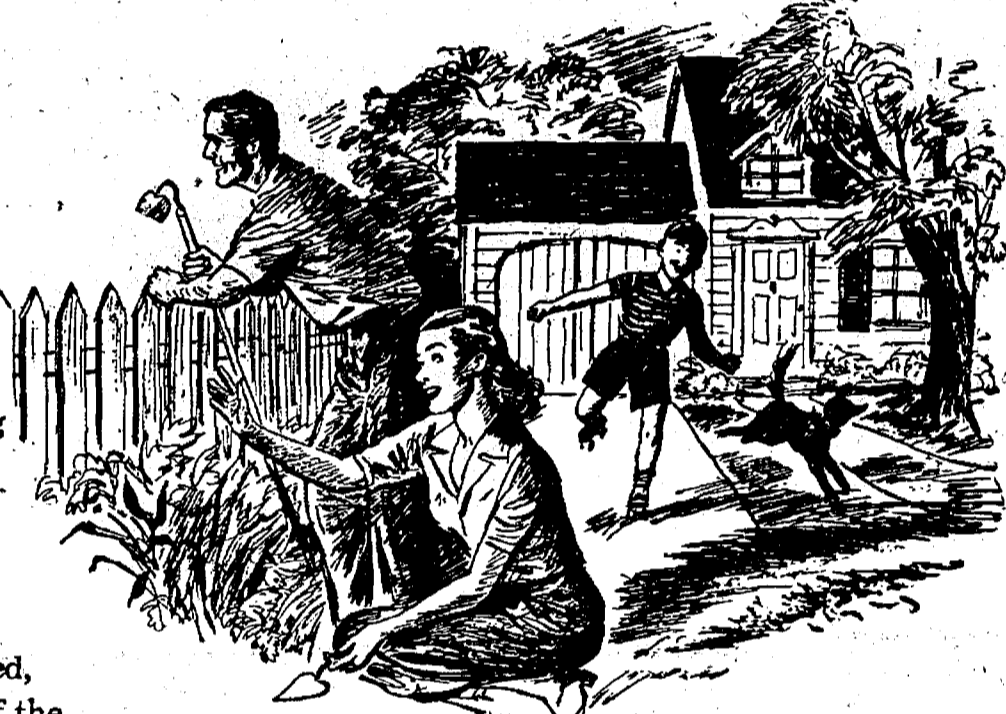

The entire job will take several years to complete. Because the present telephone system has grown beyond the old numbering capacity, the immediate purpose of the change-over is to make available more combinations of numbers to accommodate the continuing growth of telephone service in the Detroit area. It ultimately will contribute to two far-reaching improvements in service:

1. Within a few years, Detroit telephone users will be able to dial suburban telephones direct, and suburban users will be able to dial Detroit numbers direct.
2. Eventually, long-distance operators will be able to dial direct to telephones throughout the country, further speeding your long-distance calls.

With the issuance of the new Detroit Telephone Directories next month, LAfayette, LEnox, TEnnyson 5, TEnnyson 6 and TEnnyson 7 numbers will be changed. At the same time, the numbers of Weather and Time services will be changed. Please watch for further announcements during the next few weeks.

Detroit to Construct New Sewer Under Park Streets

Permit Granted for Big Tunnel Job Beneath Kercheval, Audubon and Vernor, to Connect at Cadieux Road

The request made some months ago by the city of Detroit to run a deep sewer line under certain parts of Grosse Pointe Park was formally approved by the Board of Commissioners of the Park at its meeting Monday afternoon, March 24.

The sewer will run under Kercheval to Audubon, thence under Audubon to Vernor Highway and thence to Cadieux where it will connect with the big Cadieux sewer. It will be a tunnel job the whole distance and will not interfere with any of the Park village's own sewer lines. There will be no open cuts at any place.

With the granting of this permission the problem largely passes into Detroit's hands but there was a lengthy informal discussion whether Detroit would decide to convey this excess flow into the Connor or the Fox Creek outlets. If it goes into Fox Creek that vent would probably have to be enlarged as had been agreed to by Detroit some years ago but never done.

It was the inadequacy of the Fox Creek outlet to care for the surplus flow in time of rains that led the Park village recently to install the back water gate at Barrington and Jefferson, so whatever disposition Detroit may make of the flow that will go down the drains it is going to lay under the Park, the village will lie comparatively unaffected by reason of the back water gate.

Either of the dispositions represents large sums for Detroit. It is estimated the Connor Creek outlet will represent in the neighborhood of $6,000,000; the Fox Creek outlet probably not much more than half that sum.

Store Loses Loot Valued At $2500

Choice Liquors and Cigarettes Disappear In Night Robbery on Kercheval

Sfire Brothers store at 16822 Kercheval was entered sometime during the night of March 24-25 and $2500 worth of choice liquors and cigarettes was stolen. In addition $40 or $45 in small money was taken.

The theft was discovered when Ellis Antoun, an employee of the store, reported for work at 5:17 a. m. to open up for the reception of wholesale merchandise.

George Flanders Takes Own Life

George E. Flanders, Sr., a well known resident of Grosse Pointe Park, committed suicide some time Monday afternoon in the basement of his home at 784 Barrington road. His body was found by his son Walter, when he reached home about 5 o'clock.

He called the police at once and they removed Mr. Flanders to the Bon Secours hospital where he died soon after admission.

Before shooting himself Mr. Flanders had shot his pet dog, Barney, a cairn terrier, through the head. The weapon used was a .32 calibre automatic pistol.

Mr. Flanders is said to have for some time been suffering from a nervous ailment, which his family now thinks was more serious than he had represented.

Mrs. Flanders was away from home visiting her sister in Virginia.

Other survivors include two sons, George E. Jr., aged 19, and Walter, aged 16 who discovered the body; and two daughters, Nan and Betty, both living at home. Mr. Flanders was 47 years old.

The coroner's office and the Park police pronounced the case suicide.

All planes were grounded at Washington because of the weather and Mrs. Flanders was compelled to start from there by train on Tuesday.

Mr. Flanders was born in Newark, N. J., but had lived most of his life in the Detroit area, coming here with his parents when a small child. He attended Culver Military Academy and later, when his father, a pioneer in the automobile industry, had retired from active business and bought a plantation along the James river, he attended and was graduated from William and Mary college in Williamsburg, Va.

Farms Bowlers Bowl Over "Braggers" in Alley Brawl

The Farms bowlers forced the "City Braggers" to change their name to "The Five Alibis" in a recent challenge match on the Vogue Alleys.

Chief Tom Trombly of the City, bowling 428, the lowest total in the match, was easily downed by Alonzo O'Connor, Farms Treasurer, with 440.

The Farms Engineer, Murray Smith, with 526, took City Fireman Coridon's 451. The Farms Mailman Farnum, although not up to par, defeated Postmaster Lindow, bowling with the City, 492 to 451. Harry Furlon, Farms Clerk with 596, high total for the match, swamped Lieutenant Van Becelaere's 464 and the City's star bowler, L. Johnston, Police Officer, was defeated by S. Deboer, Farms Chemist.

The scores were: L. Johnston ... 127 153 187 469 Total 698 742 824 2263

These intercommunity matches are infrequent and come only as an eruption of accumulated words. The score between the communities now stands, Farms 2, City 1.

The City's rooting section led by Charlie Miller, (old faithful), and Chief Chauvin of the Fire Department, became bored with the mediocre bowling of the City team, deserted its team at the end of the second game and joined the Farms rooters to cheer that team to victory.

An early return match is expected as a result of the defeat handed out by the Farms.

an American Red Cross flag into shreds. Several of them spat at a teacher, (Mary Frances Gould), when she asked them to leave or be quiet. They used obscene language and ended their lawless rampage by tearing down the goalposts on the athletic field.

Final disposition of the case depends on action of the juvenile court authorities.

The youths listed by Sergeant Labadie as admitting to taking part in the proceedings are: Tom Barrow of 1427 Harvard road, Jack Carridan of 847 St. Clair, James Flom of 660 Rivard, Jack Flattery of 466 St. Clair, Ted Osius of 503 Washington, Nick Serra of 750 Lakepointe, John Sarvis of 904 Lakepointe, Bill Beardslee of 841 Whittier, Dan Drader of 1147 Bishop, Garhart Gaensler of 320 Fisher, Ted Mumford of 278 McKinley, Thomas Dewey of 294 Ridgmont, Dick Bracken of 315 Moross and Tom Fenske of 1340 Torrey.

A scout car quickly overtook the man within a few steps of the house. The officers found an old colored man, feeble in both body and mind, who had become lost and had wandered far afield from his home in downtown Detroit. They placed him in a bus and sent him carefully on his way.

Mrs. E. K. Penn of 1415 Beaconsfield discovered a man walking off her front porch about 7 o'clock Friday night, and called the police.

The residents at 871 Fisher reported to the police that someone had deposited a speed limit sign on their front porch and made a quick getaway.

Many Stars Cast In New Comedy

A brand new comedy-mystery, entitled "Trouble For Rent" will open a two weeks' engagement at the Shubert-Lafayette Theatre Sunday evening, April 6. The comedy will have a stellar cast including Estelle Taylor, Lyle Talbot, Carole Hughes, John Shay, Raymond Bond, Charles Jordan and others.

Described as a comedy, replete with thrills and chills, "Trouble For Rent" concerns itself with a bachelor veteran who is seeking a place to live.

"Trouble For Rent" is the first laboratory tested original play to be presented. First tried out in a little theatre before invitational audiences, it proved an instantaneous success; and is being importantly considered by several motion picture studios.

Immediately following the Detroit engagement, "Trouble For Rent" will be taken to Broadway.

FURNACE EXPLODES

A gas furnace explosion occurred in the home at 16841 Cranford lane on Friday. The furnace had three pilot lights and one of these having gone out, the escaping gas formed a pocket when the furnace was turned on and exploded. Some badly scorched paint was the only damage.

City Neglect

by the husband to the NEWS office over the phone led to further inquiries by this paper, which were further pursued when the bogged down truck was seen on Monday.

A long time after the first complaint was made last year the city highway department made some very temporary repairs to the roadway, which scarcely survived the next rainfall.

The highway department officials were much peeved that the condition of the roadway had been publicized in the paper, especially with the picture of the road, and told the complainant and also the hospital authorities that it would have been repaired sooner if the adverse publicity hadn't been given the situation.

The hospital authorities also confirm all of this. They have complained repeatedly to the city about the road but with the exception of the minor repairs mentioned the city has done nothing about it.

Recently the hospital authorities asked the City if it would be agreeable if they made the repairs themselves. They had in mind to pay for it out of the $600 which the Park pays them annually to care for their police emergency cases as a voluntary contribution by the Park municipality. What the answer to this request has been is not yet known. The City uses the hospital for all its police emergency cases also but does not contribute anything to the hospital for this work.

The hospital happens to be on the City side of Cadieux but is operated for all of the people of Grosse Pointe without favor or discrimination. Caroline avenue which serves it is a duly platted and accepted street of the City. Its maintenance in a passable and usable condition is a responsibility of the City. The fact that it is the only service entrance to the institution makes its maintenance in good condition the more necessary.

Since this roadway was first complained of a year ago the City has felt able to spend upwards of $300,000 on new pavement and repairs on its streets but practically nothing on this little street so necessary to the health and wellbeing of the Grosse Pointe community.

It is understood the hospital authorities have called Mayor Netting's attention to the matter.

Independent Gal Escorted to Bus

A 28-year-old Detroit girl who jumped out of the car of a would-be attacker in the Farms, doesn't want any help in squaring accounts. She says she'll take care of it herself, in her own way.

The Farms police received a telephone call at 11:55 on March 19. The young woman had sought refuge after she had eluded the ardent swain with whom she had been riding.

She told Officers Boylan and D'aveloose she didn't want to prosecute and wouldn't divulge the name of her departed escort. They put her on a bus at Moross and Mack and wished her luck.

Police Chiefs to Open Traffic School in Pointe

Chiefs of Police of the four villages and the city of Grosse Pointe will open a Traffic School in the near future for traffic violators and student drivers.

The place of the school and the hours of instruction will be announced later. It may be that in the case of chronic offenders attendance at the school will be required before they are permitted to resume driving.

Another Taxicab Permit Granted

Come one, come all, seems to be the order of the day towards cab companies in the Pointe lately.

At the Park village, commissioners' meeting Monday afternoon a permit was given to the Farms Cab company to operate in the Park. The concern is already established in the Farms.

This makes four cab concerns that are licensed to do business in the Park. All told throughout the Pointe there are nearly forty cabs in public service, where there were not a single one two years ago.

Daughter Returns Safely, Noisily

Residents in the neighborhood of Kercheval and Notre Dame were awakened early Saturday morning by the raucous and continued blowing of an automobile horn.

Complaints went into the police station and the officers found that a young man, not of the immediate neighborhood, was bringing a young lady home who lived nearby.

As he drew up he gave a cheery little toot with his horn to notify papa and mama of the safe though belated arrival of daughter. But his auto horn stuck and despite his frantic efforts it wouldn't stop.

Eventually everybody within hearing of the horn knew that daughter had gotten back home. They also knew that she had arrived home at 2:45 a. m.

The police succeeded in muting the embarrassing blasts. While going on it sounded like an old fashioned Charivari of rural America a half century ago, when returning honeymooners were given the works with horns, drums, tin pans and many other noise producing implements.

tion this year for street improvement.

Our present plans have provided for approximately 1 1/2 miles of resurfacing and one mile of double seal coat. At present, street drainage is being improved, holes filled and short sections of curbing replaced.

WATERFRONT PARK — The large swimming dock, 18' wide by 150' long, east of the swimming pool, which was destroyed by high seas last fall has been completely rebuilt. Steel sheet piling will be driven along the face of the dock to prevent destruction from the heavy seas.

The diving platform and guard stands are being replaced and new fulcrums placed under the diving boards. All park equipment has been repaired and painted.

In the various swimming areas, the old split and dangerous wood piling is being removed and the areas will be designated by float lines. Signs will be placed at each swimming area designating the depth of the water for safe swimming.

New waterfront equipment has been purchased and a new program has been scheduled for the summer activities.

SEWERS—Mack Avenue-Balfour district. Considerable progress has been made in sewer construction during the past two weeks despite the weather and ground conditions. The large junction chamber at the point of outlet at corner of Balfour and Vernon Highway has been completed. Approximately 900 ft. of 42" sewer has been laid between Vernon Highway and Charlevoix, including manholes and other service connections. Excavation is now being made on Charlevoix running west to Somerset Road.

Regarding the Grayton-St. Paul project which is being constructed by the Village, approximately 60 of 18" sewer has been laid, including catch basin drains and intersecting lateral connections.

A sewer cleaning program is now in progress. The community has been divided into districts and all sewers in sizes from 12 to 24" will be dragged and flushed on a rotating schedule, or cleaned every two years. Sewers recently cleaned on Cadieux, Redford, Jefferson Avenue and in the easement between Yorkshire and Bishop were running only 1/2 capacity due to collection of roots, sand and foreign matter; which indicates that a continuous sewer cleaning program is necessary.

Honeymoon in Northern Canada Follows Candlelight Ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church

Miss Marilyn Ann Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Thomas of Nottingham road, was married on March 22 in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to Dr. Jack Weston Mandeville, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Mandeville of North Muskegon, Mich. Dr. Frank Pitt officiated at the candlelight ceremony at 8 p. m.

Mrs. John F. Sergent was matron of honor and the bridesmaids included Mrs. Leonard Reus, Miss Eleanor Szymanski and Miss Phyllis Tower. Dick Mandeville was best man and the ushers included Dr. Leonard Reus, Dr. Robert Kugel, Dr. Herbert Fowler and Dr. Donald Nenko.

The bride wore an unusual white satin gown of the 1890 period. The small gores of the gown, sheared the full length, ended in a scalloped effect at the hem. The yolk illusion was also outlined in the scallops. Her two-tiered veil had a long train, of illusion with clusters of orange blossoms at the temples.

The bridesmaids and matron of honor wore aqua faille of the same 1890 period, with high necklines, apron front and slight fishtail effect in back.

The bride's mother wore powder blue silk crepe and a matching blue hat with pink illusion trim, and orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore an ensemble of soft blue and orchids.

Following a wedding trip to Northern Canada the young couple will live in Tacoma, Wash. The bride attended Grosse Pointe High School, the University of Michigan and the Harper Hospital School of Nursing. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

The bridegroom attended the University of Michigan Medical School and is a member of Phi Chi medical fraternity.

WHAT SPRING GLORY IN THE LITTLE STORY MR. AUSTIN WYNNE TELLS OF THE CARDINAL BIRDS AT the bottom of their garden. It seems the male Cardinal stayed north this winter while his mate—like all fine feathered ladies—went South. The Wynnes made friends with the lone Cardinal and served him meals during his mate's sojourn.

This week the Lady Cardinal new home, via Nature's Non-Stop Aviation Route. She is sporting her new scarlet, gilt and tall feathers, looking vaguely indeed. The Master Cardinal is singing duets with her, greeting each dawn with lush and lyric rhythm.

And—they are both shopping around in the nearby trees for shining new twigs to refurbish their nests.

That about sums up, for both birds and humans, the eternal spring story. Spring feathers, spring songs and spring nests.

APROPOS THE SPRING FEATHERS, THE AMERICAN Collections are ready and the models are available here at the same time they hit New York. The Big Word in all the collections is the release of fabulous fabrics, providing a freedom of inspiration for designers. In the hands of inartistic designers this very release might prove a pitfall—like a person who has suddenly inherited so much money she becomes profligate. But be it said to the credit of the top houses—Hattie Carnegie, Henri Bendel, Sophie of Saks and Adrien—this freedom of fabric has resulted in clothes as beautiful as they are conservative. The three vital changes of pace that turn up in all of these collections are longer skirts, natural shoulders and a wealth of subtle detail in design.

As a kaleidoscopic example take the Hattie Carnegie Collection—and who wouldn't, pets, Carnegie places emphasis on wonderful fabrics in intoxicating colors, especially variation of blues such as peacock, hydrangea and orchid tones. The shoulders of daytime models are so sparingly padded that they follow the natural curve of femininity; the skirt lengths are individually regulated to the wearer's legs, with a tendency toward ankle length for afternoon and cocktail models; and the bodice detail runs to enchanting fuschia and bertha and to band appliqued motives. Carnegie still makes her subtle little black models for sophisticates. This season's prize is the cocktail number of black taffeta with its white linen jacket embroidered in rhinestones. The evening look here is the wired bodice with veiled shoulders. With the evening gowns come their own head scarfs to make one look like the Queen Descending the Stairs.

The spring influx of Fashion Shows hereabouts culminates in the Smith College Promenade of Fashions to be given for the benefit of their fund in The Women's City Club on March twenty-ninth—with the most wonderful models by Walton-Pierce.

APROPOS SPRING SONGS, WHAT COULD BE MORE appropriate timing for the culmination of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's season than the widely acclaimed debut of Miss Margaret Truman. Karl Kreuger will continue to conduct these nationwide broadcasts of the orchestra through March and April. He hopes to accept the invitations from the Vienna Philharmonic and the Budapest Orchestra to conduct concerts in those cities in May. Dr. Kreuger has also been invited to appear as guest conductor in Rio de Janeiro, Rome, Venice, Milan, and in Johannesburg and Cape Town, Africa. All of which will immeasurably broaden the international fame of our Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

APROPOS THE SPRING NEST FURNISHINGS, THIS IS the season when strong men are slinking into art galleries to pick up a bronze for their offices or that painting that's been haunting them all winter.

We glimpsed a number of Grosse Pointers blissfully browsing in the Gullian's New Uptown Gallery, adjacent to their executive haunts in the Fisher Building. In this collection the treasures of the Old World have come once more to the New World. It is both significant and heart warming that since America is being so generous in a practical way to the peoples of Europe, these treasures with all their precious lore of history now rest sympathetically—and safely—in America. One of the prizes of this Gullian Collection is the group of Sevres Consolide Vases of the Napoleonic Period, on pedestals of gold hand-carved wood with onyx slabs—a grouping that with its Romance Painting hanging between the vases makes one of the most imposing entrance arrangements ever enjoyed by connoisseurs.

Ever since we fell under the spell of the Dresden Clocks and Royal Vienna Urns, we've been dreaming we dwelt in marble halls, and an invitation might be forthcoming any day to dance at the Congress of Vienna. These are, indeed, objects of art for the motor magnets of today who appreciate the craftsmanship of yesterday. In fact, there's one painting of the barefoot boy in the meadow, dreaming his childhood visions, that really embodies the life story of Detroit's own dynamic dreamers. No wonder The Motor Boys enjoy acquiring objects of art, now that their dreams have come true.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by
Jane Schermerhorr

There's only one kind of true charity... giving—more than you can really afford...

And there's one kind of loyalty—to an organization... attending a meeting on a day like last Tuesday... when the wind was whipping and howling... the streets were icy... and it was biting cold outdoors...

It was the kind of day when tea in front of your own fireplace was the ONLY way to spend the afternoon...

Yet a number of Grosse Pointers... braved that weather to attend a meeting of the board of directors at Detroit Red Cross chapter house... way down on East Elizabeth...

LOYALTY IN ACTION

Among these loyal folk was one of the Pointe's first ladies... Mrs. Henry B. Joy... who arrived with her knitting bag over her arm... stood in a vote of thanks to retiring Red Cross chairman, Herbert B. Trix... and applauded the new chairman, Col. Emmet F. Connelly...

There was Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan... whose way with people has made her famous as the gal who can muster thousands of volunteers to work at the drop of one of her own cute hats...

Mrs. Kinnucan, may we say again, puts in longer-than-working-girls hours daily in volunteer service to the Detroit Red Cross...

Besides her own large audience of enthusiasts in Detroit society... Mrs. K. is loved and respected in tiny, humble cottages tucked away in the foreign populated sections of the city.

NEW OFFICERS OF DETROIT RED CROSS

To match Mrs. Joy's knitting bag for industry... we saw Mrs. Jewett Dwyer sewing away as she listened to annual reports being given by the various chairmen...

Busy executives like Henry T. Ewald... left conferences and were unmindful of the storms... to attend the meeting...

So with a salute to this kind of loyalty to an organization they really serve, we'll get on to telling you about the new officers of Red Cross...

Col. Connelly, as we mentioned, was elected chairman of the Detroit Chapter of Red Cross...

Joseph B. Schlotman is first vice-chairman... William J. Norton, second vice-chairman... and vice-chairmen include Fred M. Butzel... Mrs. Jewett Dwyer... Mrs. John B. Ford... Alvan Macaulay Jr... Jean T. Sheefer... Henry T. Ewald is chairman of the executive committee...

Secretary of the board of directors is Mrs. William S. Turner... with Raymond T. Perring, treasurer...

Pointers named to the board of directors include Henry Ford II... and Edwin K. Hoover...

OF COSTUMES AND SPRING HOLIDAYS

At the D. A. C. the other noontime... We saw Mrs. Wallace S. MacKenzie... and Mrs. Frederick S. Ford... chatting about one of their pet interests... the Protestant Childrens Home... which claims the patronage of many Pointers...

One look at Mrs. MacKenzie and we reminded ourselves anew what an elegant combination black and white is in a costume...

Her black frock... had stark white collar and cuffs... and her black felt chapeau was gracefully ornamented with a white ostrich bouquet...

(She and Mrs. MacKenzie will leave soon for their annual Spring holiday at the Homestead in Hot Springs, Va.)... LILY DACHE FORD

Mrs. Ford... whose talents are claimed by a growing list of Detroit organizations... was her usual chic self in a gray suit with black silk blouse clipped at the round neckline in diamond pins...

She wore a small gray sailor with white nosegay blossoming from its black band...

Selection of Good Movies Responsibility of Parents

The responsibility of parents in the selection of motion pictures to be seen by children in the Grosse Pointe area is stressed by the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council, which solicits the co-operation of every mother and father in attempting to bring better movies for children to the Pointe.

A list of recommended movies being shown in the neighborhood theaters is compiled every month by members of the Council," said Mrs. Donald C. Hollister, president. "This selection is based on ratings listed in Consumers' Research and Parents Magazine. It is designed to fit children in the 8-12 age bracket. About 3,000 of these lists are distributed to parents each month through the schools and churches."

Mrs. Hollister said that motion pictures are rated with the radio and newspapers and magazines as an educational medium, and that the Council is "organized to stimulate interest in better film production and to develop critical standards in the selection of motion picture entertainment."

"Psychologists agree that the family should find its recreation together," said Mrs. Hollister. "Too often these days do the various members of the family find their recreation separately. The movies can well tend to cement family relationships and help solve the problems of our younger people."

Emphasizing the need for parents to assume responsibility in connection with the selection of movies which their children may see, Mrs. Hollister cited a "Movie Check List for Parents," prepared by Dr. Edgar Dale, of Ohio State University. One of the questions asked of parents on this list is:

"Do I know the possible good effects and the bad effects of movies on the information, attitudes, health and conduct of my children?"

Other questions on the list, which should be considered by all parents, are:

1. Do my home and my community provide a wide variety of recreational opportunities for children other than going to movies?

2. Have I seen to it that my children have a wide variety of experience in the field of dramatics, music, good reading and the like?

3. Has our family policy in regard to the motion picture been one of drift and inertia?

4. Have I given my children continuous experience in thinking-through any new experiences, so they are not unduly influenced by what they see in the movies?

5. Have I, with the help of the parents of my children's friends, set up clear-cut standards as to the age when my children should begin going to the movies; frequency and the time of day or week?

6. What source of information do I use in my selection of films for myself and my children?

7. Do I help my younger children choose the right kind of movies to attend?

8. Am I sympathetic with my children's preference for Westerns or other types of films that I consider unsatisfactory, realizing that I must start with their present tastes and guide them to more intelligent selection?

9. Do I try to discover whether the desirable film is being shown on a double feature with a poor film, if it is accompanied by objectionable shorts, "bank night," objectionable newsreels?

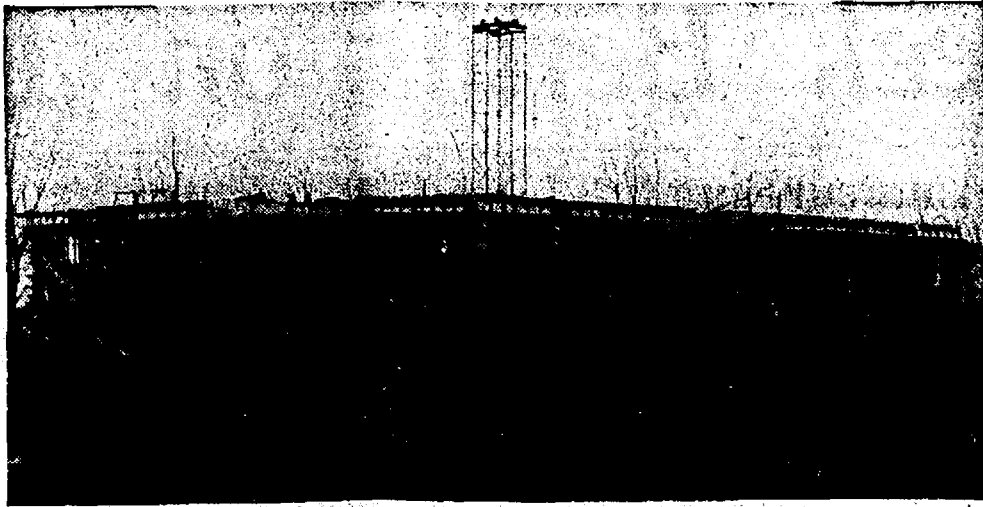

10. Do I park my children at the movie merely to get rid of them?

11. Have I worked with other parents to see that wholesome, interesting and entertaining movies are available over the weekend?

12. Do I sometimes accompany my children to the movies, helping to point up certain things, to explain others, and to see that the general effect is wholesome?

You can push a car—that's a dictatorship. You can pull it—that's incentive. Or you can fill the tank with a new spirit and it goes by itself.

New School Starts to Take Form

The first unit of the new school building at Mack avenue and Vernier road is under construction and there is hope that it will be completed in time for the opening of the fall term. The unit will contain 18 rooms and is expected to help alleviate the congestion in that area and save a lot of students from having to be transported to distant buildings in the school district.

The John D. Pierce Junior High School Auditorium will be the meeting place for the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church on Easter Sunday at 11 a. m.

Starr L. Wade, chairman of the Board of Deacons, has announced that due to the large number attending Easter Service last year in Richard School, that this year the Easter Service would be held in the Pierce Auditorium, which will provide 900 seats.

The Church School pupils will attend the service with their parents. Provision has been made to care for the Nursery department children in room 127 and the Kindergarten children in the Girls' Gymnasium.

Our pioneering days aren't over. Our greatest discovery is still to be made—how to get along together.

Last Minute Push Needed In Annual Red Cross Drive

This is the final week of the Red Cross 1947 Fund Campaign and campaign officials urged fellow-citizens to put their shoulders to the wheel to raise the necessary $1,334,400 before March 31, when the drive ends.

Detroit has never failed a Red Cross campaign.

A little better than three-quarters of a million dollars has been contributed to the 1947 drive, chairman Alvan Macauley, Jr., announced this week.

One of the largest donations to the fund came from employees of the Ford Motor Company, $110,000. This was approximately the same amount the Ford workers gave last year to the Red Cross.

Another gift received during the week was from teachers and employees of Detroit Public Schools who gave $32,356. They also gave substantially better than the 60 percent (based on the 1946 quota) Detroit is asked to contribute.

In the County Branch division, chairman Fred C. Fischer reports that three of the branches had "gone over the top" in their quotas when the campaign reached the half way mark. Allen Park with 145.3 percent; Melvindale with 120 percent and Plymouth with 100 percent.

If contributions continue to roll

HOW DOES CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEAL?

The disappearance of organic and functional disease, as well as of trouble in other forms, is continually recorded among those who have turned to Christian Science for help.

The method of such overcoming of difficulty is prayer—a spiritually scientific manner of thinking based on the teaching of Christ Jesus.

What this prayer is and how anyone can understand it and use it effectually in accordance with his need are fully explained in the Christian Science textbook, SCIENCE and HEALTH with Key to the Scriptures.

by Mary Baker Eddy. This remarkable book, other works by Mrs. Eddy, and all other authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased at the Christian Science Reading Room, 14730 Kercheval Ave., corner Manistique. Open to the public at the following hours: 11 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Another Pointe of View

We heard the other day . . . that busy as she is . . . Mrs. Ford finds time to try her hand at millinery . . . And it herself the designer and creator of many of her perky bonnets . . .

We giggled a little when we overheard a friend say to her, that very noontime,

"Such a cute hat . . . did you make it yourself?" . . . And she answered,

"Yes, but oh, dear! does it look as if I had made it!" . . . FAMILIAR TWOSOME

At another table that same day . . . We saw a familiar twosome . . . undoubtedly deep in plans for one of their own favorite organizations . . .

Mrs. E. Livvy Ecclestone of Lincoln road . . . in fashionable black costume . . .

And Mrs. Tom Petzold of Edgemont Park . . . whose suit was worn with a flame felt chapeau boasting the tallest quill we've seen . . .

THEIR GENEROSITY APPRECIATED

Mrs. Forman Johnston . . . who has been engrossed in Red Cross 1947 Fund campaign work since long before the actual drive started . . .

Told us the other day . . .

That two of the outstanding contributions from the Pointe to the campaign this year . . . were the very beautiful windows done by Arthur L. Pasalk (and in addition to this, making it possible for Red Cross to have a table at the recent Flower Show in Convention Hall) . . . and Pappet & Blockert . . .

Reminding all of us that it was time to support the Red Cross . . .

Auxiliary Plans For "Army Week"

Plans for American Legion Auxiliary participation in "Army Week," April 6 to 13, were begun at a meeting of the Auxiliary's National Defense Committee at the Legion Home.

The Auxiliary will cooperate with the American Legion and other veteran, civic and patriotic organizations in observance of the week, said Mrs. Viola Farnum, committee chairman of Unit No. 303 of Grosse Pointe. "A strong America is a peaceful America," will be the theme of the week's observance. Activities will emphasize the need for maintaining the armed forces at a strength adequate to protect the nation's peace.

New York City will entertain the 1947 national convention of the American Legion Auxiliary, it has been announced by Mrs. Norton H. Pearl, national president. Convention sessions will be held concurrently with those of The American Legion, August 29 to September 1.

The convention will be followed by a pilgrimage to the battle fields and war cemeteries in France, to be participated in by both Legion and Auxiliary members.

The Department of Michigan will hold its annual convention in Detroit from July 3 to 6. Three delegates from Grosse Pointe's Unit, will attend.

Support Asked For Marschner

The following statement has been made on behalf of the candidacy of Judge Adolph F. Marschner, seeking reelection on April 7. "Born, raised and educated in Detroit, Judge Marschner has devoted his life to the civic improvement of his native city. "While trained as a lawyer, Judge Marschner, upon being elected to the Circuit Court bench, turned his attention to the human side of legal problems. After much study, he set up the Conciliation Division of the Circuit Court, which greatly speeded the settlement of law suits and saved the litigants much time and money. Courts all over the country have adopted similar divisions patterned on Judge Marschner's idea.

"Realizing the problem of minor children involved in marriage difficulties, Judge Marschner has also taken a keen interest in the office of Friend of the Court. His close attention to the welfare of these children has earned him special praise for his service in that department.

"Law and justice do not end in the court room or with the verdict, Judge Marschner has stated. They stretch out and identify themselves with every social agency in the city. It is, therefore, the duty of every Judge to become informed of these agencies, to take a lively interest in them and to work with them hand in hand when necessary.

"Many Detroiters will remember Judge Marschner's activity in the bank investigations of the '30's. It was through his activity that early pay-offs were made possible to the small depositors. "His record for fairness and impartiality, and his fine judicial temperament qualify him for reelection on April 7.

"Judge Marschner has received the indorsement of the Detroit Citizens League, organized labor, the Bar Associations, and other social and charitable agencies."

The important thing in democracy is not the idea that the majority rules but the idea that rules the majority.

Former Seabee Back in Uniform

To maintain his efficiency as an officer in the Navy's Seabees, Harry B. Miller, of 1060 North Oxford road, is attending a two-weeks' seminar for Civil Engineer Corps officers in Washington.

Mr. Miller has again donned his uniform as a lieutenant commander while on this temporary active duty. With other Civil Engineer Corps officers, he is studying shore facilities at naval bases in the Washington and Norfolk areas, as well as attending classes at the Navy's Bureau of Yards and Docks.

During the war Comdr. Miller served at Trinidad, Hawaii, and the Philippines, with the 83rd Naval Construction Battalion.

On being released to inactive duty he returned to Grosse Pointe and is with the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation.

BACKS INTO TROUBLE
When William Mackie of Fort Wayne, Ind., backed his car out of the drive at 174 Fisher road on the night of March 23, he collided with another driven by Leon H. Waegaert of 18199 Mack avenue. Damage to the Mackie car was estimated at $50 and to the Warguert car at $100.

Murphy Receives Bar Endorsement

Though one of the youngest Wayne Circuit Judges, Judge Thomas J. Murphy, a resident of Grosse Pointe Park, was rated by the lawyers of Detroit and Wayne County in the spotlight of all incumbents and candidates for that bench in a recent poll conducted by the Detroit Bar Association.

Less than three percentage points separated Judge Murphy from the top of the list of all candidates, which was headed by Judge Arthur Webster, a veteran of nearly half a century of law experience.

Judge Murphy said, "Intelligent and informed voters are really the answer to the demands for a high grade judiciary. It isn't easy for voters to know their candidates in a city the size of Detroit. For that reason, I feel that the Detroit Bar Association is fulfilling a definite need, in giving to the voters their unbiased and considered views as to the qualification and rating of candidates for judicial office."

Judge Murphy was graduated from Western High School in 1918; the University of Detroit Literary School in 1922; the Law School in 1924; and taught school at the University for several years. He was associated with Sidney Doyle, Ernest P. LaJoie and Philip J. Neudeck in the practice of law until December of 1932 when he was elected to the Wayne Circuit Bench. The Detroit News, Times, and Free Press strongly endorsed his candidacy when he ran for re-election.

Judge Murphy is married to Marie Riopelle, daughter of former Senator Oscar A. Riopelle. They have five children, ranging in age from 5 to 11 years, and live at 1010 Buckingham Road, Grosse Pointe Park.

Pointers in First Detroit Dance Telecast

The first dance-telecast from Television Station WWDT (currently housed in WWJ's building in downtown Detroit) was bristling with angles of interest to Grosse Pointers. The dancers selected for this important event included Elaine Arndt and three of her most gifted students. They were seen on "home ground" by others of Miss Arndt's students at the Elaine Arndt School on Alter road where a recently-installed television machine relayed the event. Among the onlookers was Anton Dolin, internationally-famous dancer of the Ballet Russe (at the Arndt School to get in some practice during the Ballet's Detroit stay), who, in turn, admitted that he had participated in the first dance-telecast in England. Down at WWDT's studio, while all this was going on, another important member of the Ballet Russe, Rosella Hightower, was applauding the terpsichorean talents of Miss Arndt and her little troupe and receiving a great deal of adulation from the studio staff for her flawless performance at Music Hall the evening before.

Top Photographer To Address Club

Charles Phelps, president of the Photographic Society of America, international salon exhibitor, and famous photographic judge, will address the Grosse Pointe Camera Club at its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, April 1, on the subject of "Photography in All Its Glory."
Lester McDowell, president of the club, who made the arrangements for the famous lecturer to address the meeting, states that the talk promises to be the outstanding event of the club's season.
At the last meeting, a most interesting demonstration was given by Charles Huber, well-known glamor photographer, on Glamor Lighting.
In addition to Tuesday's meeting, there will also be a judging of photographic prints submitted by the members.
The public interested in the subject is invited to attend.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

J. P. Cencer of 3680 Wayburn, for failure to have car under control, causing accident and damage to city fire hydrant and tree, was placed on probation and paid costs of $10.
William Edward Tholl, Jr., of 11783 Wiltshire, Detroit, for failure to stop at Kercheval and Three Mile, causing accident, was placed on probation, paid $5 costs and ordered to pay damages to other car.

Audiences Thrill To "Balalaika"

"Balalaika," a spectacular hit here two years ago as a Civic Light Opera production, is being done in the Barrie O'Daniels manner at the Masonic Auditorium this week with the biggest cast and production of the season.
Rosemarie Brancato, who launched the current season so successfully in "The Firefly," returned to play the vocally rich part of Lydia. Harry Stockwell, one of the best of the big baritone, the same Stockwell of "Oklahoma" fame, is cast for the handsome Count Peter, who is given to romance and melody.
Ian Keith, the terrific black-robed king of "Vagabond King," is featured hold-over for "Balalaika" as Prince Karagin. Song and dance artists Jack Goode and Ollie Franks, whose specialty is running off with laugh honors, are having a delightful reunion.
With three scenes in the first act, five in the second, and two in the last act, the sumptuous "Balalaika" opens in the Paris twenties, with former aristocrats of Imperial Russia earning their living as menials. Romantic interest comes from colorful flashbacks to the Czar's domain in 1914.

MORE HOME HUNTERS?
Wanted! A home for two pet o'possums. Mrs. Lang of 281 University place phoned the city police on March 20 that two o'possums, most friendly and apparently tame, had been hanging around their premises for the past several days.

WATCH THAT KITE!

WATCH where you're flying it, fellows. Keep it away from electric wires!

WATCH out for metal ribs in kites and for metallic-wound kite strings. They may be dangerous conductors of electricity!

Don't take chances with wet cotton kite strings; either. If your kite hits a high-tension wire, you may be badly shocked!

WATCH that kite—but look out for wires and cars. Play it safe... and play it smart!
