HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, Sept. 4
ACTING SECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT A. LOVETT warns that Europe's economic structure is fast breaking down... says the Old World must have help this year to hold out until the Marshall plan gets started next spring... this view is held by British and French statesmen and economists also... a great handicap has been the spirit of despondency that pervades broad elements of European society and the people's unwillingness to help themselves.

EAST-WEST TRANSCONTINENTAL FLIGHT TIME LOWERED to 7 hours and four seconds by Paul Mantz, Bendix Race winner this year... beats previous world record for LaGuardia Field-Burbank, Calif., flight, 2,536 miles, by 27 minutes and 58 seconds.

GOLD STRIKE is reported on the Firth river in Arctic Canada, 400 miles due north of the famous Klondike strike of a half century ago.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN notifies the International Cancer Research Congress in St. Louis that the United States will export radioactive chemical elements by-products in the uranium stockpile that produced the atomic bomb, to contribute to the world's fight against cancer. No materials will be shipped abroad that can be converted to weapons of war and the Nation's atomic bomb secrets will be closely safeguarded.

DROUGHT may curtail meat supply in 1948 and prices of both grain and meat soar.

FOREIGN MINISTER ERNEST BEVIN's proposal that the United States redistribute its Fort Knox monetary gold meets a cold reception among American statesmen... Treasury Secretary Snyder says that the disposition of America's gold hoard at Fort Knox is not a subject for discussion by foreign powers... It's for sale; at the same price we paid for it; $35 an ounce... it is the gold reserves we have in this country which largely give character and stability to the American dollar, the last remaining sound currency on earth... minor finance officials of the government call the Bevin proposal "reckless."

Friday, Sept. 5
ITALY MAKES AN URGENT APPEAL to the United States for financial help to buy fuel and food... country is so desperately short of funds it may have to cancel American coal deliveries scheduled for October... our State Department reported to have endorsed Italy's application for a $200,000,000 loan from the World Bank. Marshall may recommend calling Congress in special session to meet the World's thickening economic dilemma.

ROY B. HICKS, a State Fair Sideshow barker, is charged in Recorder's Court with administering the kick which cost 10-year-old Dick Hanson the sight of one eye when he was trying to peek under the sideshow tent. Parents will sure the freak show for $50,000 damages.

PULLMAN PORTERS, Red Caps and other car employees are given a wage raise of 15 1/2c per hour and the Pullman company is given Interstate Commerce Commission's permission to raise its charges for sleeping car services on a sliding scale ranging from one per cent to 48.9 per cent.

THE FRENCH COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF LABOR calls upon 500,000 Paris workers to stage a 90 minutes strike today as a protest against skyrocketing living costs and the dwindling bread ration.

MOSCOW ALL DOLLED UP to welcome a group of distinguished guests, including the Mayors of many of the world's greatest cities, in celebration of the 800th anniversary of the founding of the city.

EMIL MAZEY, regional director of the UAW-CIO and three fellow pickets must go on trial for resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty, growing out of a recent strike.

Vacation Days Are Over

School bells tolled last Thursday for all the Pointe's public and parochial institution pupils. This picture taken at Richard School was typical as sad students wended their way back to classrooms after the long carefree summer months. All buildings are filled to capacity by the record enrollment this year.

One of Pair Who Beat Up Pointe Youth Surrenders; Witness Fails to Appear

Police Charge Brothers Out on Bond in Conspiracy Case with Brutal Assault on Young William Rogers on August 29

Danny Bruno, the driver of the car carrying the assailants of William Rogers at Bedford and St. Paul on August 29, appeared in Judge George Beauchamp's court in the Park with his attorney, a Mr. Louissell, and surrendered on Wednesday, September 3.

He had his preliminary hearing and was remanded for trial on Wednesday, September 10, under $1000 personal bond, and was released in custody of his attorney.

Mr. Louissell, promised also to produce Mike Bartello, rider in the car who is charged with making the second assault on Rogers, for the hearing on Wednesday, the 10th.

The attorney gave the residences of both of the men as 1068 Bedford. The men are brothers and use each other's names as aliases indiscriminately, the police say. They are related to Mrs. Michael Rubino, the Bedford address being the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rubino.

Rubino is wanted by the Federal Government to answer a charge of counterfeiting gas coupons and is now at large.

The Park police say the two men use the names of either Bruno or Bartello as seems most expedient under the circumstances.

Both "Bruno" and "Bartello" are now out on $5,000 bond to answer a charge of conspiring to violate the gaming laws of the State of Michigan.

In Park police court Wednesday morning, September 10, Danny Bruno was fined $25 and $9.40 costs.

An essential witness who got cold feet at the prospect of being called upon to testify against such a formidable opponent as Mike Bartello, the rider in the car who made the second assault on young Rogers, failed to show up and the case against him fell. He was discharged.

Police Rescue Dog From Lake

A beautiful Boxer dog was in such evident distress at the foot of Trombley at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, Sept. 10 that neighbors phoned the police.

When the officers arrived they found the dog was in the water struggling to get up on the seawall. He had cut his paws severely.

They fished him out and took him to his home, the J. L. Rupels at 784 Berkshire.

Balked in Safe-Cracking Attempt, Thieves Steal Car

The manager of the Packard Motor Sales and Service at 15205 E. Jefferson, notified the Park police on the morning of September 4 of a near successful burglary at their place the night before or early that morning.

Burglars had broken into the place through a rear window and had gone to work on the office safe with such tools as were about the place.

Finding this a harder job than they had calculated on, they then started to move the safe from the front of the building to the rear where it would be convenient to the cutting torch. For some unexplained reason, they suddenly gave up the job and left.

The police think the hour had grown so late they feared someone might be coming in the office unusually early.

They were deliberate enough however, to steal a '46 Packard sedan belonging to Mrs. Louis C. Bowen of 16828 E. Jefferson, that had been brought in for service. They also gathered up a few dollars in small change they found in the stock room.

The car belonging to Mrs. Louis C. Bowen which was stolen from the Packard Service and Sales Station when the safe blowing job was attempted was found by the Detroit police in an alley in the rear of 9233 Cameron, Detroit, on Monday night.

Youths Given Long Time to Ponder Folly

Pair Caught After Wild Chase; Lose License; Get Year's Probation, Fines

The two boys who were caught by the Farms police on August 23 after a wild chase during which they overturned their car, will have plenty of opportunity during the next year to ruminate on their folly.

The youths, Charles O. Bartlett, of 570 Lincoln road, and Russell Anderson, Jr. of 334 McMillan road, were given a hearing in Farms police court before Justice George Beauchamp on Sept. 3.

They were fined $20 and $5 costs each and their driving licenses were revoked for a year. In addition, they were ordered to be in their homes not later than 9 p.m. every night during a year's probation period, and to report every two weeks to Sgt. Elmer Labadie of the Farms police, who was named probation officer.

Bartlett was charged with reckless driving and Anderson as a disorderly person.

The boys were chased when they fled in the Bartlett car after the police saw them tampering with a car in Moran road. After they were caught they said they were simply about to lift the hood on the car to settle an argument between them as to whether the motor was of the straight-8 or V-8 type.

The same night between 60 and 70 windows were broken in the high school building and the Bartlett car had been seen in the rear of the school. They denied having anything to do with the window breaking and the police said they were convinced the boys were innocent in that instance.

While trying to elude the police in the chase from Moran road, Bartlett was unable to negotiate the turn at Moran and Williams and upset his car. They ducked between houses but gave themselves up when they saw escape was impossible.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

In Park police court Wednesday morning William H. Kildow, Jr. of 2168 Pennsylvania avenue, Detroit, was fined $5 and $5 costs for reckless driving on August 15. He had driven through a guard rail at the foot of Trombley road.

Barrier Erected In Road by Kids

A worried resident called the Farms police at 3:24 a.m. on September 6 to say that some boys were erecting a barricade of cinder blocks in the street at Hall place and the Boulevard.

The boys had fled before the police arrived. The police undid their handiwork and piled the blocks back at the construction site from where they had been taken.

Youth Loses Hand and Eye In Explosion

John Allmand, Jr. and Edward Butler, Jr. injured playing with chemicals

An accident which shocked the Pointe last Friday afternoon cost John Allmand, Jr., 14, of 88 Touraine road, the loss of his right hand and right eye and injured his playmate, Edward Butler, Jr. of 33 Hendrie lane.

The boys were playing with chemicals in the basement of the Allmand home when a mixture of red phosphorus and potassium permanganate exploded. Edward, who told his parents he was not taking part in the experiment, was standing back in a corner, 15 feet from the jar containing the dangerous mixture. He suffered cuts on his face, head, body and arms and glass entered one of his eyes, but doctors were able to save the sight.

The boys were rushed to Cottage Hospital where they were attended by Dr. Herbert C. Allison, Dr. Donald G. Ross and Dr. R. G. Martin, house physician. Young Allmand was in the operating room more than 10 hours as the doctors sought vainly to save his hand and eye. He also had bad cuts in his neck, face and body.

Edward was released from the hospital Tuesday, at which time officials there reported John's condition was satisfactory and he was improving.

The Allmand family had been staying at their cottage at the Old Club at St. Clair Flats and John had been spending several days with Edward at the Butler home. They disappeared about lunchtime and Mrs. Butler said she had no idea where they had gone. Edward had a chemistry set of his own but had been forbidden to use it after making a stench bomb about a year ago.

The doctors were to perform another operation on John, Wednesday or Thursday, this time for the removal of glass from his left arm.

Since the accident the police have been checking the boys' sources of chemical supplies. Much resentment has been expressed over the fact that youngsters are able to obtain such dangerous ingredients for their experiments.

Sergeant Elmer Labadie of the Farms, police reported that a large quantity of phosphorus, potassium permanganate, sulphuric acid and other chemicals were found in the Allmand basement. On Mr. Allmand's suggestion, they were turned over to George Lance, chemistry instructor at Grosse Pointe High School.

Some of the chemicals used were bought from the Biological Supply Company of Rochester, N. Y. One of the cans carried the label of the A. J. Meyer Pharmacy on Mack avenue in Detroit.

Sergeant Labadie said that the Pointe drug stores he has so far contacted have denied selling the boys any of the chemicals. They pointed out that most of these are poisonous and it would be necessary for the purchaser to sign for them. The books that the police have so far checked do not contain either John's or Edward's signature.

There is no state law which prohibits the sale of such chemicals to youngsters, the police stated.

Brick Tossers Break Windows

Fred Ward of 1175 Grayton phoned the police at 2:30 Monday morning, Sept. 8, that he had just returned home and found windows broken in his house.

Patrolman Dilloway and Kesteloot discovered nine panes of leaded glass broken in the library and 11 similar panes broken in the living room. They also found two full sized bricks in the house that had done the damage. A neighbor told of hearing a crash about 11:20 o'clock that evening.

A brick thrown by some miscreant at 12:25 o'clock in the morning of Sept. 8 through a window in the Lorne Norton home at 902 Rivard, not only broke the window but seriously scarred a piano on the other side of the room.

Police Seeking Young Molester

Mrs. Francis Miller of 492 Neff road saw a boy 14-15 years old on a bicycle in front of her house about 5 p. m. on Sept. 4 talking in a suspicious manner with a little child. Not liking the looks of the situation she rescued the child and learned from her childish prattle that the boy had offered her candy to get on his bicycle with him and had used obscene language with the little girl. The child was only five years old.

Mrs. Miller notified the parents of the child and the father in turn reported it to the police. The boy was unknown to Mrs. Miller but she informs the police she would be able to identify him if she sees him again. She has promised to tell the police if she sees him.

The police are anxious to remove to safe keeping this young degenerate if they lay hands on him.

Wants Reckless Driver Arrested

William H. Pemberton of 376 Neff road has asked the Farms police to try and locate a group of boys whom he charges with reckless driving. He says he will sign a complaint.

Mr. Pemberton related that on the night of September 7 he had stopped for the light at Kercheval and Fisher. An Oldsmobile containing five or six boys drove up behind him and banged into the rear of his car twice.

He got out to demand an explanation and the car sped away. He was able to get only the letters on the car's license.

MUDBALL VICTIM
Hit in the eye by a mudball Tuesday night, Sandra Strahler, of Washington road, sixes grade Richard School student, was operated on in Cottage Hospital Wednesday morning by Dr. Duane Beam. Her condition was reported as satisfactory Wednesday afternoon.

Building Permits Totaling $474,000 Issued by G. P. Park

Construction Tempo Picks Up During July And August With Two-Month Aggregate of $307,350 Shown; Residences Lead.

Building operations in the Park for July and August show total construction aggregating $307,350. These are broken down into single family residences, $260,500; minor buildings, $4,150; alterations and repairs, $24,700; commercial buildings, $18,000.

The same report notes that during the week ending Sept. 8, controls on building construction covering certain amusements and recreational facilities were further exempted from regulations requiring Federal construction permits.

Among the types of construction from which controls were removed were swimming pools operated by municipalities. This might have had some bearing on the recommendation for the proposed Park self-contained swimming pool.

At the same time structures still requiring permits are dance floors, orchestra stands in restaurants, buildings for fraternal organizations or lodges, service bars, night clubs and outdoor skating rinks.

The Park's fiscal year starts on April 1. In April, May and June permits totaling $167,625 were issued, making the total for the five months period to September 1 $474,000.

Park Spends Big Sum on New Sewers

Projects Already Completed Cost $175,000; With New $87,000 Job Soon To Start

The complete sewer projects in the Park for the season 1946-47 aggregate a cost of $175,384.70.

The contract tentatively let on September 8 to William D. Pompolo and Sons for the area bounded by Vernor and Jefferson and Beaconsfield, Lakepointe and Maryland; known as District 2, Project 2, will add $87,730.30 to this total. The Pompolo bid was the lowest of four submitted and was referred to the sewers committee with power to close provided other conditions of the bid are determined acceptable.

This amount will be provided for out of $75,000 still available in the Village Improvement Reserve Fund. This was money accumulated by the Park during the war years for the express purpose of being applied to village improvements after the war. The balance will be met from the general fund and returned next taxing period.

Deluge of Taxis Baffles Resident

Mrs. Lillian Dirksen of 834 Rivard, complained to the City police on September 4 that her home address was suffering from a plethora of taxicabs.

Within recent days 22 taxis had called at the house. Four had come within the last half hour preceding her call.

Mrs. Dirksen can only account for the calls as the mysterious technique of high school-age courting. She has a daughter "of that age," she said.

The police advised her to call the different tax cab companies and request them to send no more cabs to her address unless the call for them came in a clearly authenticated message from herself. She said she would do this.

Streets in Park Being Repaired

Street resurfacing on Berkshire from Jefferson to Windmill Pointe drive was completed on August 22. A double seal coat on Cadieux road from Mack to Jefferson is now being laid.

In this the City and the Park are sharing the cost as Carieux is the boundary line.

The work on Maryland, Beaconsfield, Nottingham, Bishop and Grayton will be completed on or about September 25.

High Butter Cost Baffles Pointe Farmer-Merchant

Joe Corbat, owner of the Roslyn Market in Grosse Pointe Woods, would like to know what he would like to do about the high cost of butter. As a farmer as well as a market proprietor, Joe is in a position to be more than a little baffled by the mounting costs of food.

Joe sells a lot of milk to the dairymen from his farm near Lexington. Three months ago he was informed that the price paid to him would henceforth be 60 cents less per hundredweight, "so the dairies could lower the price of butter and other milk products."

This seemed like a good idea to the farmer-merchant and he was glad to go along on the deal. Now he would like to know why the proposed lowering of butter prices has never materialized. On the contrary the price has been mounting steadily during the period since his cut was put in effect. He paid 90 cents per pound wholesale for butter Tuesday morning.

Joe adds that he knows the workers in the dairy industry have had no raise in wages, so labor costs can't be blamed for the phenomenon.

Lane Offers Plan to Park Commission

Would Redesign Pool To Permit Chlorination and Make Swimming Safe

The prospect for continuously safe bathing in the lake waters in front of Grosse Pointe is so uncertain, within any appreciable range of time, that the Park village will probably have in operation by the opening of the bathing season about June 1 next year, a municipal bathing pool wholly independent of general water conditions in the lake.

The Park is in a favorable situation to do this as it already has a cement pool. The water coming into it would be chlorinated and it would be possible to effect a complete change in five or six hours by pumps.

When the matter was brought before the Board of Commissioners of the Park village by Manager Lane at the meeting on Monday, Sept. 8, it was most favorably received, although no formal action was taken. This will await detailed plans and an estimate of cost, which Mr. Lane, in conjunction with the State Health authorities, will submit later.

This decision of the Park & divorce itself, once and for all, from the worries and uncertainties of the condition of the lake water, may be the spearhead for similar action by the other Pointe communities.

With the recent acquisition of a lakefront park by the Woods village all five of the Pointe municipalities now have lake front property.

Manager Lane's report, which brought this matter to a head Monday afternoon, is published in full as follows:

"On August 20, 1947, Dr. Thomas Davies, Health Commissioner of Grosse Pointe Township, closed swimming at the beaches in Grosse Pointe Shores, Farms, City and Park. This action was taken because of high coliform indexes and high contamination. During the swimming season, water analysis showed coliform indexes from 23,000 to 24,000 per cubic centimeter. At all times the nine mile sewer had not been in operation, so this was not a factor in the situation.

"Commissioner Koenig authorized some additional water tests made in the Grosse Pointe Park area. Samples were taken from different locations in the swimming pool, near the diving dock and small dock. A report from the Central Laboratories indicated germ counts from 540 to 5,634 per cubic centimeter with a report analysis stating that the water was not fit to swim in, was highly contaminated with..."

Light-Breaking Spree Reported

Three complaints about street lights being shot out by boys were phoned into the Farms police during the week. On the night of September 7 a resident said he saw some boys playing about a new building at Hall place and Grosse Pointe boulevard. They fled in a convertible after breaking a globe on the light there.

On the night of September 8 lights were shot out at Beaupre and Mt. Vernon and at Radnor circles and Hall place. The boys drove off in a car in both instances.

Farms to Vote On Bond Issue

Qualified electors of Grosse Pointe Farms will go to the polls next Thursday, September 18, to vote on a proposed $400,000 bond issue to improve the village's sewer and drainage systems. The only polling place will be in the Farms Municipal Building or Kerby road and the polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

This will be the second time the bond issue will go before the voters, it having been rejected previously. When a group of residents got out petitions recently to have it resubmitted, the village trustees agreed. The group tired of having flooded basements during every heavy storm, is circulating the entire village, asking for an affirmative vote.

Youths' Jaunt in Stolen Car Halted By Country Ditch

New Pontiac Stolen from McLean Sales and Service by Pair Who Also Confess Robberies of Radio and Furniture Store

A brand new Pontiac stolen from the R. L. McLean sales and service station at 15210 Mack, presumably about 10 o'clock Saturday night, did not stay long in hiding.

Some time on Sunday two boys in a new Pontiac got stuck in a ditch at Crosswell, Mich. The garage men called, suspicious of them, notified the sheriff of Sanilac county and Sheriff Meredith took them in hand. They confessed to him they had stolen the car in Grosse Pointe Park. The sheriff notified Chief Louwers and that same day the Chief and Detective Enders went up and took the boys off the Sheriff's hands at Sandusky, Mich., and drove the car back.

The boys confessed also to rob-

Dog Retaliates After Teasing

Little Charlotte Porter, aged 2½ years, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter of 936 University place was badly bitten by a Toy Boston Bull belonging to Louis De Keyser of 316 University place on September 2.

Mr. DeKeyser had confined the dog to his yard but some of the older children had been teasing the little animal, a three year old female, and when Charlotte opened the gate and started to go in the animal jumped at her and bit her severely.

She was taken to Bon Secours hospital where she was treated for multiple lacerations on the face and lower lip.

The dog had not been vaccinated and will be held under observation for the usual period.

Picture Believed Worthless Appraised at $7000-$10,000

An Atlantic City hotel owner is convinced that Grosse Pointe has one of the country's greatest art critics in Joseph deGrimme. While walking through the lobby of the Glaslyn-Chatham hotel in the seaside resort recently, Mr. deGrimme recognized the work of a famous Dutch painter in a badly-hung, unlighted picture.

Inquiry developed that the picture had been found in the basement when the hotel changed hands some time ago. The manager had rather unwillingly hung it, to hide a bad spot in the wall.

Mr. deGrimme identified it as an original John Steyn, 17th century Holland artist, and appraised it as worth between $7,000 and $10,000. He suggested that other critics be called in to corroborate his opinion.

Mr. deGrimme was right, the other critics averred. He has brought it back to the Pointe to be completely restored before being sent back to the delighted owner.

St. Paul Enrolls 652 Students

When the old familiar school bell rang out 652 students tramped into Saint Paul School last week to resume their classes. Of this number 403 are grade school and 249 are high school pupils.

Saint Paul School is conducted by the Sisters of Saint Dominic from Adrian, Michigan. It is recognized by the State Department of Public Instruction, accredited by the University of Michigan, and affiliated with the Catholic University of America. The school is staffed by three Priests, seventeen Sisters and by two lay teachers.

Gardener Halted On Rabbit Hunt

When neighbors complained of someone shooting a gun at the Dodge estate on Lake Shore road on the evening of September 8, Farm Officers Boylan and Allor investigated.

They found Frank Tickle, gardener at the Anderson estate, was hunting rabbits which had been chewing up his produce. On the advice of the policemen, he promised to desist.

Scottie Makes Unhappy Debut

A black scottie dog owned by Dr. E. Kovach, who recently moved to 263 Mt. Vernon, Grosse Pointe Farms, made an un auspicious debut in his new neighborhood by biting two youngsters.

Janet Carlson of 281 Mt. Vernon, the first victim, was bitten in the right forearm and John Lyons of 287 Mt. Vernon received a nip on the cheek. Both bites occurred on September 2.

The dog was ordered tied up under observation for the customary 10-day period and Dr. Kovach was told to get a license for him immediately.

Show to Honor Retired Teacher

On Sept. 10, the Tom Brenneman show will honor Miss Mary Lodge of 1746 Littleton road, Grosse Pointe.

Miss Lodge is a retired school teacher. She taught the 8th grade at Majeski school and retired last June.

The letter, nominating her for the Good Neighbor Award will be read over WXYZ, (ABC), between 11 and 11:30 a.m. It has been arranged that she will receive the traditional orchid from Tom Brenneman at the time she is being honored on the program.

Kids Raise Hob With New House

A neighbor observing three boys playing about a new house under construction at 741 Lincoln on Sept. 4, notified the police. Officers Moffat and Smith of the Maumee station brought in the youngsters who confessed they had used a pair of pliers to cut every wire they saw in the house. They had also dented the hot water ducts and had turned on the water in the basement and left it running.

The parents of the boys were summoned to the police station. They were also instructed to get in touch with F. M. Lewis of Dearborn, the owner of the property and consult with him about the settlement of the damages.

Responsibility isn't something to preach to others. It's something to accept yourself.

State Pays Park Total of $73,419

The Park village's balance sheet with the state on state aid revenue to September 8, shows the following figures:

Anticipated revenues from Gas and Weight tax $26,000; received to date $22,762.

Anticipated revenues from Liquor tax, $10,000, received $6,526.45.

Anticipated from Sales Tax, $60,000; received, $20,233.60. Total anticipated $96,000. Total received, $49,522.95.

It is believed that with the end of the year all of the village's estimates of receipts will have been achieved.

On the sunny side of the ledger are receipts not anticipated, but already received from Intangible tax of $16,692.72 and from Liquor License refund of $7,203.75, or a total of $23,896.47.

Total receipts from the state to date are $73,419.42.

Two Cars Crash On Boulevard

Two passengers were given first aid treatment following an automobile accident at 5:25 p.m. on September 8 in front of 114 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Helen Parker, 15, of that address, was driving her father's Nash east on the boulevard and tried to make a right turn into her driveway. Another car, also going east, driven by Mary M. Stockard of Toles lane, was unable to stop and hit the right hand side of the Parker car.

Marjorie Stockard and Mrs. Stockard were taken to Dr. Scott's office for treatment but were not seriously hurt. Damage to the cars was estimated at $75 each.

Lovers' Quarrel Brings Out Cops

The screaming of a young woman in the alley in the rear of the Sweitzer Creamery on Mack at 2:45 o'clock in the morning on Sept. 8 caused neighbors to phone the police.

Officers Hoyer and Dilloway, who reported on the call, said they found everything all right. The young lady had merely had a strenuous disagreement with her young gentleman escort. "Everything is all right now and went you please go and leave us alone," she said.

The Park police, with their usual gallantry, obliged.

many different kinds of bacteria, organisms and fungi.

"The United States Public Health Service has been working in the Grosse Pointe area and on Lake St. Clair for some time, making water tests on eight different ranges. Although no official reports were submitted, giving bacteria or germ count, they reported that the germ count in the range from Fox Creek to the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club was comparable with the coil indexes presented by Dr. Davies.

"Other reports made by bacteriologists and sanitary engineers indicated that Lake St. Clair is highly polluted and high pollution was found north of Anchor Bay, and in the vicinity of the North Channel.

"On final analysis we find this pollution problem very large in scope, not confined only to local but regional areas. Surveys show that this polluted area extends into two counties along the Lake and shore line and even east to the international boundary line.

"Under the existing conditions there can be no assurance that safe swimming will be available in any area at any time. During heavy rains, high winds and tide changes, quiescent waters are stirred, agitating polluted sedimentation on the bottom, which is carried down-stream, depositing along the shoreline and in shallow areas.

"It appears that the State Health Department or the Stream Control Commission does not have a specific plan for remedying this condition immediately. As long as outlet sewers to the lake are used for intermittent discharge of mixtures of storm water and sewage without treatment, the waters of the lake will continue to be highly polluted and unsafe.

"It is reasonable to believe that for a number of years it will be impossible to clean up, compel municipal and private corporations to install sewage disposal and treatment plants in the metropolitan area.

"During the interim, it will be necessary for each community to protect itself by abandoning swimming or devising other means of protection.

"I would like to make the following recommendations for solving the swimming problem in Grosse Pointe Park—

"Fortunately, our swimming pool at the Park is completely closed in by substantial revetment walls of solid concrete construction which gives us direct control of the water used for swimming. By re-designing the system and making certain mechanical changes, the swimming water in the pool can be sterilized by chlorination.

"Tentative plans are, as follows: It will require a new intake pipe at the up-stream side of the pool, sufficiently large to fill the pool in a five or six hour period. (Lake water will be pumped in or will flow by gravity.) At the outlet point, chlorine will be fed through an automatic control apparatus, dissolved in a relatively small quantity of water and then mixed with the main flow. All water entering at this point will be chlorinated sufficiently for swimming purposes.

"The water in the pool will be circulated by a continuous flow, or pumped full and pumped out at intervals for proper turnover. (This to be determined after a study of the turbidity and the rapidity of sedimentation is made.) Suction pipes at the down-stream toe inside the pool will be installed and connected to vertical lift pump for cleaning purposes and de-watering the pool.

"I have submitted the general plan of design and operation to the Bureau of Engineering—State Health Department, which has endorsed it as sound and practical. The Health Department is vitally interested in our plans and has offered its assistance in design and computation.

"Upon completion of the plans with cost estimates, the project will be presented to the Commission at a later date.

"It is my recommendation that this work be installed early next spring in preparedness for the swimming period beginning June 1, 1948.

"I am confident that the plan will assure the residents and taxpayers of this community, safe swimming for the future.

Respectfully submitted,
 EVERETT B. LANE,
 Municipal Manager."

Parties Planned For Jane Oyler

Farewell Stag Dinner Given by Frank Reid

Several parties are already planned for Jane Oyler, daughter of Mrs. Scott Oyler of Trembley road, and Arthur C. Bodeau Jr. of Chicago who will be wed Oct. 4.

The Richard Andersons have reserved Sunday for their party at their Beaupre road home honoring the bridal party. Barbara Weeks will be hostess at cocktails and dinner at the Detroit Boat Club on Sept. 20.

An informal party for the bride-elect and her former classmates at Sacred Heart convent and their dates is scheduled for Sept. 28 by Jane Savery of the Parkhurst, and the following day, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Terry will entertain at a cocktail party in their home on Doremus drive.

Marion Wilberding will be hostess at the spinster dinner Sept. 30 in her home on E. Outer drive. The bridegroom-elect's parents, the Arthur C. Bodeaus of Chicago, will entertain on Oct. 2 at the rehearsal dinner.

Backwater Gate Doing Good Job

During the intense rainfalls on July 15 and 16 and on September 1, an examination was made by the Park officials of the functioning of the new backwater gate at Jefferson and Barrington.

The rain gauges indicated that on the west side of the gate, on the Detroit side, the height of the water in the manhole was far above the top of the 7-foot sewer, while on the east side of the gate in the Grosse Pointe Park area the height of the water in the seven foot sewer did not exceed 4½ feet at any time.

This was proof that the backwater gate is functioning properly and the relief connections were carrying the surplus water to the intake chamber in the pumping station.

Frank Van Hove Hurt Working on Building

Mrs. Walter DeSimpel of 1264 Buckingham road, phoned the Park police station on Thursday forenoon, September 4, that a man working on a house at 1035 Harvard had fallen and hurt himself.

Sergeant Mead was notified by radio and removed Frank Van Hove to the Bon Secours hospital. Dr. Tamblin ordered him held there for further examination for possible fractured ribs.

Van Hove was an employe of the Walter DeSimpel building firm.

Of course, we're talking about the "Ring" that tells the sweetest story ever told . . . the Engagement Ring. And we also might mention the Bridal Band which makes its first appearance at the Altar.

At Kent's, the full meaning and tradition of the "Ring" is a treasured heritage. Through the centuries these bands of precious metal have come to have a significance all their own. In the days of Roman Emperors, there was a decree that the "Ring" designated a promise to be kept. To Kings and Potentates it meant an official seal . . . but when we think of a "Ring" today, we think of Kent's where hundreds of Grosse Pointers in the past have selected their jewels.

In a friendly atmosphere, where every consideration is given to quality and the family budget, you may choose a single Gold or Platinum band or a "Ring" bejeweled with Diamonds, Emeralds or Rubies. But in any case you're sure to find the Ring of your choice . . . for the girl of your choice . . . at Kent's, one of the fine Names in Jewelry.

Safe Public Swimming

The proposal of City Manager Lane of Grosse Pointe Park that that municipality should proceed at once with the treatment of its municipal swimming pool so as to make it safe for public bathing, independent of the varying sanitary conditions of the lake waters, is worthy of serious consideration by all of the Grosse Pointe communities.

It is a simpler matter for each one of our municipalities to provide always safe bathing for its people than it is to await the uncertain and yet far distant moment when State or Federal authorities will be able to prevent the pollution of the waters of the whole mid-Great Lakes water course by the exclusion by all deleterious human or commercial effluent.

The periodic prohibition of public bathing by our local health authorities, which has come with increasing frequency in recent years, is a nuisance and irritation.

The health authorities have only performed an unbecomingly public duty. They would not have prohibited bathing this year at the very height of the bathing season in a period of sweltering weather unless they felt it imperative. There is no criticism of their action.

The necessity, however, emphasizes the urgency of the Pointe's meeting this issue head-on. The opinion of the Park Manager is that safe bathing can be provided for his village. If it can be done there it can be done in any other Grosse Pointe community.

We have thousands of residents who cannot afford the luxury of betaking themselves to pure mountain lakes for their open water bathing. They must have it here at home, such as it is, and it is the duty of the people to provide safe bathing at public expense if it can be had without waiting for the completion of a long ranged program which may be decades in coming, if ever.

Jimmy's Distribution Idea

A United Press story carried in the current newspapers says that Jimmy Roosevelt, oldest son of the late President, says that if he is a delegate to the next national convention of the Democratic party in 1948 he will press for the adoption of a plank calling for the redistribution of wealth in the United States.

We hope with deepest sincerity that Jimmy is a delegate to the next grand convulsion of his party, that he does introduce such a proposed plan and that it is adopted uproariously by all the hosts of the untortured.

Let's put this crackpot issue to the test as soon as possible, and the initiative could not come from a more fit source than from the son of the man who did more to plant this communist doctrine in this country than all of the other similarly minded leaders here before or since.

The Roosevelt clan's idea of distribution, however, was always a one-way, one-tracked process; from the other fellows towards themselves.

If Jimmy could have his way with his great idea we would scarcely expect him to redistribute the early year profits he made out of his presidentially inspired association with the Boston insurance firm, nor the profits which himself, brother Elliot or Mama wheeled out of private individuals with no better leverage than membership in the reigning White House family.

Deportation

The report out of New York that the Federal Department of Justice is about to launch a drive to deport all alien communists has the ring of common sense.

To the native born American and even to the long resident foreign born, the widest possible leeway of free speech and political interest may be accorded. This is the American way and no clear thinking American would have it otherwise.

This does not mean a license, however, to plot the overthrow, by violence if necessary, of the Government of the United States. This is the identical purpose which communists have preached and aimed at for 30 years. World revolution is the very breath of their whole economic and political preaching.

If some of these worthies happen to be fellows who have gained a leadership in labor unions in this country, that is just the unions' misfortune or, possibly to put it more accurately, their good fortune to have this sleazy leadership firmly grabbed by the seats of their pants and booted out of the country.

This deportation of undesirable aliens is not the new thing in this country that some of our people may imagine. It has been going on for years. Usually these fellows have been sent back to their jumping off point in a foreign land because of their criminal records there or here, but no better excuse for deportation of these undesirables could be given than that they give first loyalty to a group which conspires for the overthrow of this government.

Growing Tourist Trade

One of the most comforting signs of a sane world economic recovery is seen in the gradually increasing rate of foreign tourist travel. Even in Britain, where her simplified living program would not tend to stimulate in-borne travel, the volume has exceeded the early season estimates. The British figured on a possible influx of foreign visitors of about a quarter million this year. They have now hiked the estimate to 310,000. Some of this increase is undoubtedly due to the drawing effect of the coming royal wedding, but this must be a negligible proportion of the whole.

World air lines are adding to equipment and extending their lanes into hitherto unserved regions. Hawaiian hotels are exhibiting new energy in luring the profitable American tourists and while this mid-Pacific drawing point cannot be classed as foreign, the new awaking there to the coming world tourist trade is significant.

When people reach a composure that prompts them to again venture on the sea routes and air lanes of the earth for pleasure, it is a sign of growing confidence and stability.

And the thrifty Scot, long aware of the advantages of close contact with visitors from this side, is reported to be putting on the most attractive native culinary exhibit ever shown in the Highlands and the Lowlands.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

*"A few can touch the magic string,
And noisy Fame is proud to win them . . .
Alas for those who never sing
But die with all their music in them."*
(Oliver Wendell Holmes)

As we sit trying to type this column, we are surrounded by kittens. One is sitting in our typewriter's garage . . . pouncing every now and again on the ribbon. The other two are at either side of the typewriter helping us pound out some odd words of their own making. It will take us three times as long as usual to do the job but we wouldn't miss the fun for anything in the world. A cat expert once remarked that a hundred kittens could kill a man. That may be . . . he'd probably die laughing.

And to jump from the small of it to the large of it, a woman whose ten-year-old daughter is but CRAZY over horses . . . called to tell us of the child's latest plea. It seems that for two years the youngster has talked nothing but horses. She can't understand why expense has anything to do with her parents not buying her a horse. One day recently, mother went to the pantry to get the shopping list of groceries etc. needed for the day . . . a list kept in the pantry for the cook or mother or grandma or anyone who needs something from the market. At the top of the list in a child's fancy scrawl were the words: "One horse."

The following letter (in part) was received by a local woman who happens to own ONE race horse. It was written by a gent who lives in Connecticut and who is quite unknown to the little woman. Here is the letter: "Dear Madame, I read an interesting news item about your racing stable which should be as commended. I respectfully and most honestly apply to a person of your high standing for reference to someone for financial guidance and I am sure you will excuse me."

"I am employed as a supervisor but want post war work on my own and with my meagre savings, I hope to secure a small loan to be added together and invested in a proposition open to strict investigation, possibly a 'Hamburger Mary' spot similar to the New York place so named and right now there is a spot available and I am sure it will produce enough profits to repay principal with interest."

"I hope this is the turning point of my career and out of a rut and oblige, Yours very truly,"

The woman tells us she wrote the man saying that her horse was still running for "stakes" and was not quite bad enough yet to turn into hamburger. Anyone reading this has our permission to send it to the New Yorker where it will probably be reprinted!

The pals of a prominent local man are still snickering at the story his wife told on him recently. It seems the gent made a little "hay-hay" last Saturday night but in spite of his precarious condition . . . decided to do his setting up exercises before going to bed. By George he'd been doing them night and morning . . . man and boy . . . and he wasn't going to slip up now because of a few drinks. His wife woke up at 8 a.m. and finding her spouse missing from his bed, looked where all wise wives look first . . . on the floor. Sure enough, there was our hero sprawled out on his exercise mat, flat on his face where he probably landed hours before. He was asleep.

Madame yelled (in a lady-like voice, to be sure) . . . "If you've finished your exercises, why don't you get into bed to sleep?" Our little man came to with a start . . . meekly said, "Yes, dear, of course" . . . and quickly slipped into bed. He doesn't wish to discuss it any further.

In these days of hectically grabbing up any "help" to pinch-hit at a party, one is apt to run into peculiar situations. A woman called to tell us of a dandy temporary butler she snagged for a cocktail party she gave a few Sundays ago. The sepia gentleman had been recommended to her as an excellent bartender, which was right to the point.

She had some misgivings when he arrived a good half hour AFTER all her guests were assembled and had a drink each, made by her husband . . . but he "looked" efficient, so she showed him to the pantry and suggested he familiarize himself with the makings.

In less time than it would take to say "paraphernalia" . . . he marched into the living room bearing a large tray on which rested 15 warm looking martinis and 15 equally warm Jooking Manhattans. The hostess promptly collapsed and had to take to her bed. He had used all the gin they had left, to make the martinis and nearly all the rye they had to make the manhattans . . . neither of which ANY of the guests was drinking. The drinks they already had when he arrived . . . drinks of their choice were gin toddys, old fashioned, rye highballs, etc. Later, the butler explained that he had ALWAYS made martinis and manhattans and was told to pass them and the devil take the guest who wouldn't drink what was passed!

The party ended with the guests refusing the mixed concoctions which at this writing are STILL reposing in Madame's refrigerator . . . unwept, unhonored, unsung, and undrunk!

Pointe Lecture and Travel Series Offering Top Talent

The fifth annual Tuesday Evening Series of Grosse Pointe Lectures to be held in the John D. Pierce Junior High School will open on October 14 with Louis P. Lochner as the speaker. Mr. Lochner is recognized as one of the outstanding news correspondents of the past 25 years.

He was Chief of the Berlin Bureau of the Associated Press for 15 years, and is author of "What About Germany," a Pulitzer Prize winner in 1939. One of his greatest honors was to have been selected by Ex-President Herbert Hoover to assist him in making his latest survey of the occupied countries of Europe.

Mr. Lochner will be followed in order by: Teresita and Emilio Osta, who will present a program of Latin American dances and folk music; Ex-Governor Arnall of Georgia, Henry L. Scott, hilarious virtuoso of the piano, featured in both Collier's and Life during recent months, and one of the greatest box attractions in the country today.

Carl Van Doren, long recognized as one of the ten most important contemporary writers in the United States, a Pulitzer Prize winner in 1939 and author of many books, will conclude this outstanding series in which only the personalities who are recognized as leaders in their field have been selected to appear.

The second annual Sunday afternoon Travel and Adventure Series, illustrated in color, will open on November 9, with Francis Raymond Line's "Southwest Story." This is a portrayal of a pioneer community in the wilds of Utah, where some of the most scenic and colorful country is to be found. It is the land of the Hopi and Zuni Indians, the Zion and Bryce Canyons, the Kaibab Forest, where many of the film's beautiful scenes are located.

Other attractions to be presented on this series include Sasha Siemel, "The Tiger Man," recently featured in Collier's, See and the Magazine Section of the Detroit News. Mr. and Mrs. Siemel and their three children have been in the Brazilian jungle for the past nine years, during which time the film "Jungle Family" was produced. The film includes camera studies of beautiful flowers, strange birds, tigers, mountain lions, anteaters, tapirs and wild boars, in addition to the dangerous life of the Siemels.

Karl Robinson will bring "China Journey," one of the very few travel pictures of China. Robinson has long been a favorite of illustrated lecture goers. Robert Friess with "Cuban Holiday" will conclude the series. This story of our sister country to the south will show scenes of Havana, Rio Cristal, Varadero Beach, Santiago, Isle of Pines, in addition to a hurricane at its height.

Information or reservations may be obtained by calling the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, N1 2000, Ext. 25.

Rotarians Hear Exposition on Jewish Problem

The members of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club were privileged to listen to a most informing exposition of the Jewish problem in Palestine last Monday by Dr. Hartman A. Lichtwardt, of Detroit. His subject was "Palestine in Today's World."

Dr. Lichtwardt was born in Detroit and is a graduate of the Wayne University College of Medicine. He and Mrs. Lichtwardt went to Iran in 1919 as medical missionaries, after he had first served as an officer in the American Army Medical Corps in World War I.

They were attached to the American Christian Hospital at Meshed, Iran, from 1919 until 1933. Meshed is near the borders of Afghanistan and Turkestan.

During the years of his service there he had ample opportunities to observe at first hand, life in Palestine, Egypt and Northern Africa.

He made it clear at the outset of his talk that he approved of England's work in Palestine. He explained that the Balfour Declaration, which figures so largely in all current discussions of Palestine, was definitely not a pledge of England to establish a Jewish state in the Holy Land. It was only a declaration of intention to assist in such an effort insofar as it could be accomplished without infringing on the rights of the Arab peoples who had been there for many centuries.

He acknowledged that his many years of residence in that region had not left him with any fixed notion for the settlement of the Palestine-Jewish problem.

After Allenby had broken Turkish rule in Palestine, the British took over under a mandate from the League of Nations. Friction has always existed between the Arabs and the Jews. The country, when the English went in was poverty stricken and in a wretched state. The Jews who came in under the aid and encouragement of the Zionist movement, purchased their land from the native Arabs and with their superior instinct for development and progress did more to improve the country than had the Arabs in all their centuries of possession. By the same token this improvement inspired jealousy and regret on the part of the Arabs who had sold their lands, and they wanted them back.

It was only with the problems of displaced persons that arose immediately after World War II that the Palestine situation became acute. Prior to this both Arabs and Jews had lived together in comparative peace and amity. The sudden pressure exerted by hundreds of thousands of Jews to get into Palestine immediately brought the pot to the boiling point.

No country can afford to admit outsiders en masse without a necessary screening process. It was the defiance of this proper restriction that caused much of the present trouble. This has led to the British intercepting thousands of these would-be forcible entrants and taking them to Cyprus and other places for a screening process. This has been done continuously, and even now the British are admitting Jews at the rate of about 500 a week. They cannot admit diseased persons or known criminals and there are naturally many of this category among the Jews as with any other nationality.

Palestine is a very small country, only about the size of the state of Rhode Island. Already it has about 500,000 Jews and nearly a million Arabs.

Not all displaced Jews even in Europe want to go into Palestine. He ventured if the choice was given any of them of going either to Palestine or Brooklyn they would all choose Brooklyn.

In this connection he thought we should admit a reasonable number of them here now.

He had small respect for President Truman's proposal to admit some here and frankly said that if the Arab vote in the United States approximated a small part of the Jewish vote or influence, we should have heard nothing of this proposal. He had even less respect for Mr. Truman's suggestion that the British should let 100,000 of them into Palestine at once. Britain is responsible for the orderly development of that country and likened it to a British suggestion that we admit 100,000 Jews into this country instantaneously.

He believed the Palestine-Jewish problem would be settled by the United Nations, and thought the most probable solution would be on the basis of a Jewish state along the western coast and northern part of the country where their chief developments have taken place, with the western and southern ends reserved for an Arab state. Jerusalem, with a corridor to it should be preserved as a neutral state, preferably under the permanent administration of the United Nations. This to be preserved as a sort of neutral or sacred ground for all the Christian, Jewish and Arab peoples.

One of the great handicaps against the settlement of the question is the Jewish insistence on the political implications. The religious aspects of the problem, he said, were of comparatively minor importance to both sides.

He predicted that if the British should suddenly withdraw before the U.N. was set to take over, a civil war of frightful proportions would break out at once.

In this the Jews, he said would be successful at first because of their better preparation, but the Arabs who are a race of fighting man and of unquestioned bravery would; with the aid of the whole neighboring Arab world pledged to their support soon overwhelm the Jews.

In the chaos which would ensue a great peril to the western world would arise in the sudden determination of Russia to move in, ostensibly to preserve order, but in reality to establish another outpost for Russian power and communism in the Eastern Mediterranean.

STRENUOUS OBJECTOR

Officer Moffat of the City Police was so badly scratched and bitten by a cat he was taking to be disposed of at the request of its owner, on September 3, that he had to have his hands treated at the Bon Secours Hospital.

COLLECTOR REBUFFED

James F. Kelly, of 1528 Fairview, Detroit, a collector for a life insurance company, was bitten by a dog at a home in St. Clair avenue on September 4. As he was going up the steps of the house the dog bit him in the calf of the leg. The owners was notified to keep the dog confined for a 12 day period and the Department of Health was notified. The dog had not been vaccinated.

Allergies . . . Causes and Effect

FRED M. KOPP, R. P.

Diseases of the nose are quite common, the best example perhaps is hay fever; but there are many others, seasonal or continual, that are not so easily detected.

Seasonal allergies come from pollens; continual allergies are caused by bacteria, dust, animals, or food.

Allergy not only effects the nose but also all tissues of the body which will react to the allergic substance, causing rash or itching in many cases.

In determining the cause and relief of any allergy, expert medical advice should be sought.

Self medication may do more harm than good so rely on the advice of a dependable doctor and druggist for the best in medication.

This is the 1700th of a series of Editorial Advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

Public Invited To Family Night

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, pastor of Central Methodist Church, Woodward at Grand Circus Park, and nationally known orator, will be the guest speaker at a family night of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, September 18 at 8 p.m.

The general public is cordially invited to this meeting, which will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bugbee, 36 Beacon Hill, Grosse Pointe Farms.

All those who will be present are invited to remain after the meeting for light refreshments and for a fellowship period with Dr. Crane and the members of the local Methodist congregation.

The secret of a good iced beverage, made from tea or coffee, is to pour it while hot over the cracked or cubed ice.

Jane Griffiths Weds George Armstrong, Jr.

Balden Reception Follows Ceremony in Christ Church; Young Couple on Honeymoon at The Homestead in Hot Springs

In a ceremony at 4 o'clock last Thursday afternoon Constance Jane Griffiths exchanged vows with George Alexander Armstrong Jr. in Christ Church.

The Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman officiated. The altar was decorated with vases of white flowers and burning tapers.

Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Griffiths of Edgemoor road and George is the son of George Alexander Armstrong of New York and the late Mrs. Armstrong.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin with a bodice of Point de Venise lace and a portrait neckline. Panels of the lace swept down the full skirt, which ended in a long train.

Jane's long ivory illusion veil fell from a Mary Stuart cap of ice. She carried a gardenia and Nephrolepis bouquet.

Mrs. Henry Braun of Pasadena, Calif., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Stuart Butphin Jr. of Cincinnati, Mrs. Stephen Strasburg of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. William D. Lertzen Jr. and Mrs. Charles B. Johnson Jr.

The matron of honor was gowned in American beauty; the bridesmaids in heaven blue. The dresses were of faille, designed with fitted bodices, oval necklines, cap sleeves and full skirts. The attendants wore matching set tiaras with velvet streamers in the same tones as their dresses. The matron of honor carried a bouquet of American beauty-edged white gladioli and trailing ivy and the honor maids' bouquets were of American beauty gladioli and ivy.

Eustace W. Stewart of New York was best man. Seating the guests were the bride's brother, Fred J. Griffiths of Washington, D. C.; Oscar Nohowel of New York, John S. McAndrew of Schenectady, N. Y.; W. E. C. Eustis of South Stratford, Vt.; and Douglas Cooper.

The reception was held in the garden of the Griffiths home.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Griffiths wore a grey crepe gown with a lace bodice and draped skirt. Her hat was of turquoise ostrich tips and she wore a corsage of white orchids.

When the couple left for a trip to the Homestead in Hot Springs,

Honored on 82nd Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. John P. VerLinden of Wayburn avenue entertained at dinner on Tuesday, September 2, at the Village Manor in honor of the 82nd birthday of Mrs. VerLinden's mother, Mrs. Mary Colburn, also of Wayburn avenue.

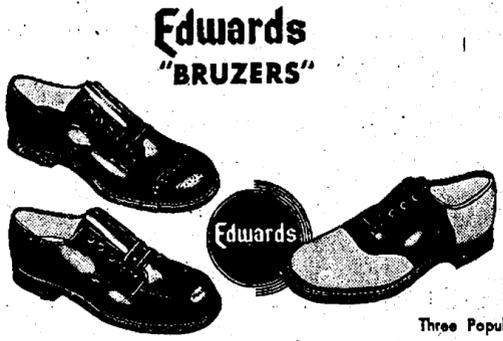

The dinner was followed by an "open house" at the home of Mrs. Colburn's other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony L. Schneider. Guests included Mrs. Colburn's nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The honor guest's table was centered with a huge pink and white candle-bedecked birthday cake, while the other tables were decorated with china figurines holding miniature bouquets of white roses. Each place was marked with a dainty handmade pink and white basket with gold accents.

Mrs. Colburn was born in Detroit on old Columbia street on September 2, 1865, and has lived all her life in Detroit and Grosse Pointe Park. She enjoys reminiscing about life in Detroit in the early days and her family and friends greatly enjoy the many colorful tales she tells. She spends many pleasant hours engaged in her hobby of crocheting.

The right hand may not know what the left hand is doing and the Right often does not know how it is playing into the hands of the Left.

va, the bride was wearing a hunter green wool suit and matching hat. Her accessories were dark brown. The new Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will live in Princeton, N. J., while George completes his studies.

Henrietta Kernan Wed To Charles Williams

Wedding Solemnized in St. Paul's on the Lake with Reception Following in Home of William Rust Pierce

The new Mrs. Charles Casgrain Williams was Henrietta Kernan, niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Rust Pierce of Beverly road, before her marriage at St. Paul's-on-the-Lake last Saturday noon. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William Kirkwood Williams of Beaupre road and the late Mr. Williams.

Shimmering ivory toned satin formed the Renaissance style bridal robes selected by Henrietta. The Elizabethan décolletage of the bodice was embellished with crystal and pearl embroidery, and the long sleeves extended to points over the bride's hands. The long Cathedral train swept back from the deep fullness of the circular skirt.

Her full length rose point lace veil was first worn by the bride's great-grandmother and has been worn by family brides down through the years. Its mellowed ivory shade was matched by the cap of rose point lace caught with clusters of orange blossoms. White roses and fugi mums combined in the bridal bouquet.

Matron of honor was the bride's cousin, Mrs. Walter James Sears Jr. of Washington, D. C. Three pairs of bridesmaids preceded Henrietta to the altar—Mrs. Vincent Rabaut, Leontine Keane, Suzanne Manning, Joan Stringer, Ann Brown and Natalie Belden of Cyracuse, N. Y., another cousin.

The attendants' gowns of winter blond satin repeated the Renaissance motif. High round necklines and long pointed sleeves finished the fitted bodices and the full corded skirts extended into court trains. Rembrandt green velvet trimmed with ostrich tips formed the maids' headresses. Mrs. Sears carried American Beauty roses and the bridesmaid's bouquets combined the same roses with fugi mums and ivy.

Little Chrissie Sears of Washington was the flower girl in a miniature replica of the bridesmaid's gowns. She wore a circlet of green velvet entwined with sweetheart roses in her hair and carried a frilled nosegay. John Huntington Jr., small cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Pierce received at the home reception in a floor-length silk crepe gown of blue spruce. A matching velvet hat and orchids in a blending tone completed her costume. Mrs. Williams chose sapphire blue crepe for her son's wedding. Crystal paillettes were scattered over the pleated skirt of the gown and also formed a design on the bodice. She wore a crownless hat trimmed with a large velvet bow across the front. Her corsage was of harmonizing orchids.

Bouquets of white flowers decorated the house for the reception. A cloth of duchess lace made from the wedding veil of the bridegroom's grandmother, the late Mrs. Charles W. Casgrain, covered the bride's table. White flowers and waxy greens surrounded the tiered wedding cake.

The new Mrs. Williams donned a honey beige suite and green and brown hat with brown accessories for traveling. Their wedding trip will take them through the East by motor, ending in Washington, D. C., where the bridegroom is in training at the Georgetown School of Foreign Service.

Out of town guests at the ceremony included Mrs. Arthur B. Belden and her son, Robert, aunt and cousin of the bride, from Syracuse, N. Y.; Edward F. Kernan of Utica, N. Y., the bride's uncle and the bridegroom's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley Porter of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. O. Wisner Williams of Oak Park, Ill.

Esther Palmer Bride of William L. Newnan

Country Club reception follows ceremony in Memorial Church; young couple motoring through south on honeymoon

The new Mr. and Mrs. William Loring Newnan are motoring through the south on their wedding trip following the beautiful candlelight service which united them in marriage at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church last Wednesday evening.

The former Esther McGraw Palmer is the daughter of Mrs. Longyear Palmer of Washington road and the late W. Beresford Palmer Jr. Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Newnan of McKinley place.

The Rev. Frank Fitt heard the couple's vows before an altar banked with white delphinium and rubrum lilies. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Howard Longyear Palmer.

Her loom rosepointe lace formed the inserts in the round yolk of the ivory satin bridal robes, and cuffed the long fitted sleeves. The Honiton lace veil, worn by Mrs. Palmer at her wedding, fell to the end of the circular train from a tiana of the lace and seed pearls. The lovely dark-eyed bride carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and roses centered with a white orchid.

Faillie in a soft shade of apple green made up the bouffant frocks of the five attendants. The circular collars of the dresses were of faille and net and head-dresses were of matching maline with tiny ostrich plumes.

Mrs. Heindon Wagers, as matron of honor, carried delicate pink water lilies framed in gardenia leaves. The bouquets of the bridesmaids — Mrs. Cleveland Thurber Jr., Mrs. William R. Mahierre, Judy Bosson and Mrs. Aram Pakradooni of Philadelphia — were of white water lilies. Henry L. Newnan Jr. was his

Pointer Marries In East Tawas

Evanston, Ill. will be the home of the new Mr. and Mrs. William S. Stipe—now honeymooning in Wisconsin after their marriage last Thursday at East Tawas, Mich.

The former Sally Watkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Watkins of University place. Bill, an instructor at Northwestern University, is the son of the William F. Stipes of Clarinda, Ia.

The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth of Grosse Ile heard the couple's vows at Christ Church in the northern resort spot where the Watkins have summered for many years.

The bride wore a gown of white moire taffeta, designed with a dropped shoulder line and a yoke of marquisette. Seed pearls embellished her Juliet cap and the bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white with trailing ivy.

Sunshine bright yellow was worn by Sally's three attendants. The maid of honor, Margaret Watkins—a cousin of the bride—wore a bouffant frock of illusion net. Susan French of Bay City and Mrs. Fernando Leon of New York were maids in gowns of faille.

Crownless hats of matching velvet with green streamers completed their costumes. They carried bouquets of ivy.

Edwin Eul of Chicago served as best man and James K. Watkins Jr., Fernando Leon, Douglas Barre and Hubert Stacy Smith Jr. seated the guests.

For travelling, the new Mrs. Stipe wore a suit of maroon gabardine with beige accessories.

Florida and New Orleans attract about one per cent of all travelers even in hottest summer months, Automobile Club of Michigan records show.

Plans Fall Wedding

BETTY ANN NEUBAUER whose engagement to LT. B. DUFFIELD SLAYMAKER, USN, is announced by her mother, MRS. WILLIAM MILLS NEUBAUER of Grayton road. The lieutenant, an Annapolis graduate, is the son of MR. AND MRS. ROBERT SLAYMAKER of Kensington road. Plans call for a late fall wedding.

Alger Auxiliary Plans For Dessert Card Party

Alger Auxiliary, Post No. 895, on Thursday, September 18. There will be table and door prizes. The Dessert Card Party at 12:30 p.m. public is invited, friends.

Peggy Erne Wed Syd Robert Scott

The Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony in Christ Church which solemnized the nuptials of Margaret Jeanne Erne and Syd Robert Scott on Saturday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Erne of Fisher road and Syd is the son of the Syd R. Scotts of University place.

Margaret wore a gown of candlelight satin designed with a sweetheart neckline. Seed pearl embroidery accented the short pleated over the flowing skirt and train. A soft halo of antique lace held in place her veil of French illusion. She carried a white orchid tied in showers of white satin ribbon.

Nancy Flinteman, as maid of honor, wore a frock of white moire taffeta, and Mrs. Reynold William Semmler Jr., honor matron, wore gold moire. All of the attendants were identically styled dresses with fitted bodies, sweetheart necklines, cap sleeves and small peplums which formed bustle bows in the back over the full skirts.

Jean Malcolmson and Cynthia Book were in gold and Jacqueline Ewing and Virginia Love of Shaker Heights, O. wore white. Miss Lowe was a roommate of the bride at Marjorie Webster Junior College in Washington, D. C.

Gerald Lee Scott waited at the altar with his brother and William Erne, the bride's brother, Reynold W. Semmler Jr., John Park, Thomas Hatcher and Thomas Candler seated the guests.

The Pontchartrain Room at the Detroit Athletic Club was the scene of the reception.

For the wedding trip in northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Scott wore a red wool suit with black half hat and black suede accessories.

James Finkenstaedts Honeymoon in Cuba

Pointer Weds Rose Lindsey Harvey in Church of Redeemer in Baltimore; Many Localites Among Wedding Attendants

Honeymooning in Cuba following their marriage in Baltimore, Md., Saturday, are the new Mr. and Mrs. James Clements Finkenstaedt. They were married at 5:30 o'clock in the Church of the Redeemer and received their reception guests in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Barton Harvey of Brightside road, Woodbrook, Md. The groom is the son of the late Harry S. Finkenstaedts of Woodland place.

The former Rose Lindsey Harvey wore the mellow ivory satin gown worn by her mother. Rose point and duchess lace combined to form a deep yoke and cap sleeves on the fitted bodice and the circular yoke of the hipline. The bride wore matching lace mitts.

The circular skirt of the gown swept into a long train over which fell the long veil of lace held in place by a frilled halo of lace and a cluster of orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Ellen W. Harvey was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. William P. Boswell of Cincinnati was honor matron. Bridesmaids were Jean H. Harvey, Betsy Finkenstaedt, the groom's sister, Mrs. F. Barton Harvey Jr., Katherine K. Bartlett and Carol Stettinius of Baltimore, Nancy Thomas of Washington, Lucille Nichols and Hope Dillon of New York and Jean C. Lane of Annapolis. Katherine Hopkins, tiny cousin of the bride was flower girl.

The nine attendants were gowned identically in turquoise blue. The bouffant skirts of white net over the turquoise accented the fitted bodices of the gowns.

Harry S. Finkenstaedt Jr. was his brother's best man. William C. Finkenstaedt, Walter Buhl Ford II, Otis Wardell, Henry S.

Reynolds, Henry Munroe Campbell III, Howard Freeman Smith Jr. and Douglas Campbell Jr., F. Barton Harvey Jr., Robert Harvey, Alexander Harvey, Morris Gray of Cambridge, Mass., William Gordon Lyle Jr. of New York, William P. Roswell of Cincinnati, Joseph P. Downer of Newport, L. I. and Chester W. Jenks of Manchester, N. H., seated the guests.

Mrs. Harvey chose a gown of peach colored lace for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Finkenstaedt was in gray lace.

The newlyweds will return from Cuba to Ann Arbor where James will continue his studies at the University of Michigan.

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

Saw the attractive MRS. ROY CHAPIN, JUNIOR keeping cool in a pretty play-suit of linen. The white background had a design of amusing figures in shrimp, lime and olive green . . . I was reminded of the decor of the new shoe salon at Jacobson's and this decor was right cute on Rux, but what decor wouldn't be? She's a right cute gal.

I liked the black crepe dinner dress MRS. JOHN H. FRENCH, JUNIOR was wearing recently at the Country Club. The bodice was covered with sheer black lace which extended below the waist to make a perky peplum. Trina is so slim that she was quite the envy of all the well colored girls and her dress didn't do anything to quell the green eyes either.

I hardly dare mention it due to MRS. HARLEY EARL'S aversion to having her name in print but she has been seen wearing a most becoming brown tulle dancing frock. The skirt was composed of layers and layers of brown tulle over a brown taffeta underskirt and the bodice was fashioned of the two materials in a chic combination. The brown made a good foil for Sue's blondness.

PILFERINGS

Newspaper Talk . . .

SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE is exhibiting a clipping from a newspaper published in Leeds, a city in Yorkshire whose traditional rival is the nearby city of Bradford. The newspapers of each city always denounced the people and activities in the rival city. Recently the Leeds and Bradford editors held a meeting and decided to end this foolish rivalry and to enter upon a new state of friendship and good will. A few days later a Bradford resident decapitated his wife, shot his two sons, hurled his mother-in-law from a window and set fire to himself. The Leeds paper headlined the story—"Strange Behavior of Bradford Man."

TALENT DEPARTMENT

ALFRED GWYNNE VANDERBILT was introduced to a violinist who asked him about his racing stable and stud farm. "I'd like to know one thing," said the violinist. "How come you didn't have a horse entered in the Kentucky Derby or in the Santa Anita Handicap?" . . . "For the same reason you don't play Carnegie Hall," Vanderbilt shrugged—"not enough to go with."

The story is being told of a child driving with her mother and asking: "Mommy, where are all the dirty no-good so-and-sos today?" The mother answered gently: "Oh, they're only out when your Daddy is driving."

RAISED EYEBROW DEPARTMENT—(Thanks to the New Yorker) In a recent ad in one of the Detroit dailies appeared a large ad for a well known store in which were listed a number of bargains among which were the following: $10.95—Misses' maternity dresses, $6.88 and Junior maternity dresses, $10.95, now $6.88.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. WILLIAM R. BRYANT AND SON JOHNNY, OF MAUMEE AVENUE
—Picture by Fred Rumlund

By Olive H. Henry

Mrs. Bryant's interest in astronomy is definitely a mother and son affair. It began when Johnny was 11 and his grandmother presented him with a book called "Seeing Stars," which she had picked up as a "time passer" from the 5 and 10 cents store. He has always found science to be the most interesting of his school courses so it was natural that his interest should be whetted by what he found in this book. He asked so many questions that Mrs. Bryant said in self defense she had to have the answers, and so began their study of astronomy.

Johnny covered the school library and they subscribed to "Sky and Telescope" which is known as the astronomer's Bible. They found the meetings of the Astronomical Society most interesting as guest speakers from the University of Michigan, Wayne University, Cranbrook Institute of Science and the McMath-Hurlburt Observatory addressed them at their monthly meetings. Johnny joined as a junior member and Mrs. Bryant derived so much enjoyment from the meetings that she soon became a member and is now the assistant secretary of the Society. There are 125 adult members and 20 junior. Mrs. Bryant laughingly attributes her position of assistant-secretary to her owning a mimeographing machine.

It is the aim of the Scientific Society's Museum Committee to have a museum and planetarium in Detroit as Detroit is the only city of its size lacking such facilities. To arouse interest in this project and the purpose of the various societies, exhibits were shown at the spring Flower Show in Convention Hall and during the summer at the Zoo.

A telescope-making class was started and will continue this winter under the able direction of Doctor Hart, the Director of the Institute of Science at Cranbrook. Mrs. Bryant says refractor telescopes are too complicated and expensive for the average person to make or buy. The lens in a refractor has to be ground and polished on both sides and requires optical precision. The mirror has only one side to be ground and polished. All that the amateur requires to start his telescopic mirror are two ground pieces of glass the same diameter. By grinding one against the other with abrasives, the one to be the mirror is made concave and the other convex. The mirror one is then polished, aluminized and made into a mirror. These mirrors are mounted in many different ways, some complicated and others very simple.

The Stellafane Club in Springfield, Vermont, started the hobby of telescope making because they felt telescopes should be within the range of any man's purse. They compiled a book called "Amateur Telescope Making" which everyone making a telescope studies.

Mrs. Bryant and Johnny have started grinding their mirrors and are excited and pleased at the prospect of producing their own telescope. Mrs. Bryant said "The first look through a telescope is the thrill of a lifetime—it's so unbearably beautiful." Many of the veterans became interested in astronomy due to their education and work in the services during the war. It was found in the Pacific area that the stars were visible to their setting, that is to the horizon, whereas stars disappear from our view due to our climatic conditions. One veteran said that he kept shooting at what he thought was a Jap plane, until he discovered that he had been wasting his ammunition on Venus.

Mrs. Bryant is secretary of the Visitors Corps of International House, whose job it is to call on all newly arrived foreigners and re-patriots. During the war she did secretarial work for the America Women's Voluntary Services and served at the Ration Board. She is a member of the Junior League and has served in that organization in various capacities. She is on the board of Women's Hospital. This should prove that though her heart and head may be in the clouds part of the time, most of the time they are engaged in very much down-to-earth activities.

In speaking of astronomers as a whole Mrs. Bryant remarked that they were one of the most religious groups she had ever known, and that they discussed anything in or out of this world when together. Food seemed to be a very important part of their lives and the minutes of one of the meetings of the Stellafane Club consisted of a list of the food served for dinner at a previous meeting.

The only additions to the minutes were picillili and mustard pickle which the Secretary had neglected to mention. When Mrs. Bryant repeated this to one of the professors from Ann Arbor he said it sounded "gastronomical instead of astronomical!"

CRABMEAT MORNAY

- 4 1/2 lbs. butter
- 3 lbs. flour
- 3/4 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup chicken stock
- 1/2 cup milk
- Yolk 2 eggs
- 1 1/4 cups crab meat
- 1/2 cup grated American cheese

Melt butter, add flour and salt and stir until well blended; then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly chicken stock; bring to the boiling-point and let boil three minutes. Add milk gradually, again bring to the boiling-point and add egg yolks, slightly beaten. Butter a casserole dish or 8 individual casseroles, cover bottoms with crab meat, cover meat with sauce and sprinkle with cheese. Run under gas flame to melt cheese and brown.

Scientists Open Nursing Home

Christian Scientists in Detroit and Michigan announce the opening of the Concord Nursing Home at 528 East Grand boulevard, corner Vernor Highway, Detroit.

The project had its inception more than a year ago when a group of individual Christian Scientists recognized the need for a place where those under Christian Science treatment and needing nursing could be accommodated in surroundings in keeping with the teachings of their religion.

A committee was formed and trustees were appointed to organize and establish the Concord Nursing Home, which has been incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Michigan.

While not in any way connected with any Christian Science church in Detroit or elsewhere, it is operated by Christian Scientists for the care and benefit of those of their faith needing the special facilities which the home affords. Nurses who are graduates of one of the Christian Science Benevolent Associations are on duty twenty-four hours a day.

The building, formerly a large solid brick, slate-roofed dwelling on the northeast corner of Vernor and East Grand boulevard, has been completely renovated, altered and furnished to accommodate ten to twelve patients. As the need grows and finances permit, additional patients may be accommodated through alterations which will be made when building conditions are favorable.

The entire project has been financed by voluntary contributions. The cost of the building site, together with the alterations and furnishings so far authorized, approximate $50,000.00.

The idea back of this activity is to provide an accommodation as nearly like a home environment as possible so as to avoid the atmosphere of an institution. In accordance with this thought, the home has been furnished tastefully with all new furniture and equipment. The grounds are being landscaped in keeping with the setting of the home and will add much beauty to the neighborhood.

A CHILD'S SEA MELODY

If I were to write a song to the sea
There are things that I would not miss:
The dash, the dash, and the splash of the waves,
And the foam—like a sweet ocean kiss.
Oh, if I were to write a song to the sea
I'd make of my rhythm one beat;
With the moans and the groans of the food
bunting gulls,
And the swelling of tide at my feet.
Then I'd weave the salt air
Into trebles of notes,
With the creek and the chug
Of the fishing boats.
Oh, if I were to write a song of the sea
There are so many things I would say
Of the glory and wonder of God's great work;
Of the sea with its roar and spray.
Mary Baldwin Van Doren

ON BEING HUMAN

You press me, my love
To heights which I can not attain;
Mount Olympus, no less,
A dwelling place for me.
And I, being human,
Do thrive on earthly fare.
The gods would rant
That you should think me such a one
Beyond reproach—like they.
For I, being human,
Am but the one you love.
Mary Baldwin Van Doren

By OLIVE H. HENRY

The old woman who lived in a shoe would have considered it Paradise had the shoe been in the lovely new salon at JACOBSON'S. The olive green walls make a perfect background for the chaiseuse and coral used in the decorating scheme and the white trim. You will see a new and different treatment in the ceiling as modern as the Palazzo shoes you'll want to see on your feet, and the bag in your hand . . . Oh yes, Palazzo plays Cupid and makes the perfect match with their flattering footwear and bags in fall's newest shades—Jungle red, brown and green. Never let it be said that JACOBSON'S has a one-track mind . . . they have shoes by Bally of Switzerland . . . Premier and Palazzo of New York . . . if you know shoes you have respect for these names and they have respect for your good taste in footwear. You will find the latest in shoe styles from $16.95 to $23.95 at JACOBSON'S where your feet will be flattered by the attention given them.

Like to play games? Frigidaire is the magician who has made the drudgery of laundry days do a disappearing act. How? You don't have a Houdini to understand how this is done with their new Automatic Washer . . . All you have to do is set the dial and the washer automatically washes, rinses, spin dries—all without hands touching the garments. Not only that but you can adjust the dial so that any operation may be lengthened, shortened, repeated, or skipped—you can blue, starch, or bleach clothes exactly as you wish. You can add clothes anytime during washing and rinsing through the convenient extra large opening top without stopping the washer. The Frigidaire Automatic Washer is made of rust-proof lifetime porcelain and can be installed anywhere—the GROSSE POINTE HOME APPLIANCE COMPANY at 15222 Jefferson in the Ray Whyte Building, will be glad to install one in your home, along with the Frigidaire Electric Dryer and Ironer. The Dryer is what every woman has wished for . . . especially on wintry or rainy days! It removes the drudgery of hanging out or taking down heavy wet clothes . . . no clothesline or pins to be bothered with . . . just put in clothes, set the automatic timer . . . and forget it. In 15 to 25 minutes a whole washful of clothes has been fluff-dried by circulating fresh air action, finishing by ironing by the new Frigidaire Electric Ironer. It irons clothes faster and neater without any effort on your part. It has selective heat control (too bad we couldn't use that on the weather!) and many other conveniences that the GROSSE POINTE HOME APPLIANCE COMPANY will be glad to show you. The Frigidaire Complete Laundry—Automatic Washer—Electric Dryer and Ironer can make a game for you and fun too out of laundry days.

There are signs of fall at PASEL'S . . . the choice mum plants and African violets are coming out in as pretty a fashion as you will be glad to see. This is the time to do a bit of house cleaning in the potted plant department . . . About this time of year most of the "greenery" in the house begins to look a little bedraggled and PASEL'S has a new shipment of such beautiful green and shiny Chinese evergreens, pothos, ivy and "good old" philodendron. The plants all look as though they had spent the summer at camp and have returned full of vim, vigor and vitality with their freshly scrubbed faces. These are charming additions to the home everyone can afford and there are no restrictions attached.

Did you know that HAWTHORNE HOUSE bakes on Sundays and you can get their delectable cakes, cookies, rolls and pies any time after 11 a. m.? The restaurant is open on Sundays from 12:30 p. m. to 8 p. m. A new "goodie" which is making everyone drool on Saturdays is the coffee cake . . . it is yummy! But then that goes without saying about all the food at HAWTHORNE HOUSE—the very thought of those honey and cinnamon rolls—chocolate brownies—and their delicious ice cream make it impossible for me to write further . . . I'm going to HAWTHORNE HOUSE to get them for my house.

It's Happy Birthday for YORK JEWELERS—the Grosse Pointe shop is celebrating its first year and a very nice year it has been for them and their patrons. Instead of their receiving gifts at this time they are giving them for the month of September in two very special specials—an aluminum chop platter which sold for $11.95 is now $6 and the Mat-Matic Iron priced at $9.95 is now being "birthdayered" for $5.95. A complete new line of Kremenitz jewelry provides a "line" that you can use to advantage—Happy birthday to YORK JEWELERS and thanks for your birthday for us.

On the way to the train we stopped at The News stand of Cyrus, the magazine magnate, from whom we've been buying hard-to-get magazines for more years than we'd be silly enough to tell you.

Cy looked at us with an X-ray eye, as we asked him for the college number of MADEMOISELLE.

"So, today," says he, "it's MADEMOISELLE you want. What next. Are you in your second—maybe even third—childhood?"

"Cy, we only buy MADEMOISELLE once a year to get the inside information on the college situation. After all, this year it's a big publishing event—432 pages—the largest magazine ever published in the world."

Cyrus was not impressed.

"I can't understand it—your jumpy taste in literature," he sighed. On Monday morning, you're apt to ask for that French thing LA MODE L'OFFICIEL. On Tuesday, it's THE WALL, ST. JOURNAL. Come Wednesday, it's THE HOBO NEWS. On Thursday, you cry for VARIETY. On Friday you ask for THE LONDON TIMES. And by Saturday, it's time for THE RACING FORM. Can't you make up your mind, Mary? Jumpy, I call it—plain jumpy!"

"Some people call it cosmopolitan," we challenged him.

"COSMOPOLITAN is one I've never sold you," says Cy. "Like to have the new September Number?"

"No thanks. We're holding out for MADEMOISELLE."

"Well, seeing it's you, I have it. You going back to some college maybe—or what, maybe you're going night-schooling up at Wayne in a new evening gown for evening classes? I wouldn't put it past you."

Look, Cy—just give us that MADEMOISELLE. We gotta go.

"Maybe you'd also like us to slip in a copy of the new CROCHET PATTERN BOOK as a bonus."

"Stop kidding kidders, Cy. On the day we buy the CROCHET PATTERN BOOK from you, you'll know we've retired. We've retired because we've made a measly little fortune. Maybe five hundred dollars."

"Say, you're not broke—"

"Maybe not broke—just slightly chipped. We've got it all figured out. The moths come out and eat those old dollar bills during the hot weather. You just have to throw them away because they're not fit to use. But look, Cy, on the day we buy that CROCHET PATTERN BOOK, do us a favor, will you? Just shed your tears on VARIETY and dry them with THE HOBO NEWS."

"Don't ever be a corny capitalist, Mary. Money isn't everything."

"No," we agreed. "Money isn't everything. Only 99 per cent!"

Well, we really got good and round shouldered, carting those 432 pages of MADEMOISELLE—with interludes of sauntering through college shops to see what the B. A. Babes were about to buy. The truth is there are a lot of girls of all ages clamoring for college clothes all over the country. Some of them never got any closer to Vasser than the whistle stop at Poughkeepsie. Some of them think Shakespeare is a staff writer for Sir Laurence Oliver. But they are all sharp as The Razor's Edge when it comes to sizing up smart clothes at smart prices. And whether they're interested in college or college men, here's all they need for that bright young look:

First—The New Shape for the long fitting, waist pinching little numbers. If you haven't the shape for the dangerous curves ahead, why Warner Brothers will fix you up—the girle, not the movie brothers. The little corselets are a cinch to lace up, the bras may be false as your pearls, and the new pettiskirts padded to a hip-hip-hooray—but you really look and feel like News to yourself—as if you'd taught the old girl a few new tricks.

Second—The actual college are very Gibson Girlish. Some of them so frilly as to blouse and sweeping as to skirt, you'll do well to practise swooning soon. Even the classic sweater-and-skirt duo comes in more luscious, ladylike colors. Both British and New York designers are again yarn dyeing skirts and sweaters to match. The colors in The Gay Nineties mauves and magentas in daytime dresses are enough to make any professor beg for a color blind date. Oh, you can still get gray if you want to that correct and classic.

Third—The coats, capes and dolmans also run to more intriguing colors. WHY do college girls dole on purple, unless it's because their mothers say it makes them look older, and can you think of a more solid reason? All the better coats are miles around. Some of the capes are cut in one circular piece like those Italian Opera Capes. And some really deluxe models are lined in not-too-costly and oh-so-cuddly fur pelts.

Fourth—The Three-Day-Pass Wardrobe into New York calls for a really sleek suit and some dance dresses. Sherman Billingsley will bow you in at The Stork in an ankle swirling little black number. Still, seeing he says he sees so much black, he always looks at a girl in color, you might try wearing on Saturday night one of the new gaga winter prints—Paisley or Plaid, preferred.

Returning from the train, we stopped at the old corner of Cyrus, the magazine magnet.

"Can we have THE DUBLIN DIGEST, Cy?"

You and your jumpy taste in reading," he shook his head. "Here it is. And, by the way, Mary, did you miss reading the new CROCHET PATTERN BOOK?"

"We didn't read it, Cy—but we didn't MISS it!"

Cole Blasler to Marry
 Champaign Girl Sept. 20

The chapel of the First Methodist Church of Champaign, Ill., will be the scene of the Sept. 20 wedding of Martha Ellen Hiett and Cole Blasler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart D. Blasler of Village Lane.

The couple are rushing plans for the ceremony because Cole has been awarded a Rotary International Fellowship to study in Santiago, Chile.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Harry F. Merry of Monticello, Ill. and the late Earl Hiett. She has asked Mrs. H. Morley Hitchcock of Mentor, O. to be her matron of honor and Marjorie Perkins of Chicago, will attend her as maid of honor.

Mr. Blasler will be his son's best man. John Watkins and Carl Stringer of Worcester, Mass. will be ushers.

Fifty-five per cent of the 334 billion miles driven by American motorists in 1946 was for business purposes, according to a survey of the American Automobile Association.

Connie Arnoldy Picks Attendants

Latest announcement of wedding attendants and pre-nuptial party rounds concern Connie Arnoldy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Arnoldy of Neff road, who will wed Charles Robert Butler on Oct. 4 at St. Paul's on the lake shore.

Connie has asked Patricia Wunsch to be her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Edward W. Thomas, Mrs. Marshall S. Berdan of Toledo, Jean Campbell and Florence Murphy of Providence, R. I.

The best man has not yet been named but ushers will be William F. Arnoldy Jr., brother of the bride, Alan Rose and King Cayce of Cleveland and William F. Butler of Rochester, N. Y.

Parties are already well under way—and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hanger will continue the series with a dinner party at their Beaconsfield road home tomorrow evening, Friday, Sept. 19, is the date set aside for Mrs. A. R. Peter Ford's luncheon and handkerchief shower in her Moran road home.

Mrs. Henry Kuhlman and Mrs. William A. McKinley will combine their talents for a luncheon and linen shower at the Country Club on Sept. 24. Mrs. Frank Pettit of Fort Wayne is to be hostess Sept. 26 at a tea honoring Connie.

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will be the scene of the rehearsal dinner on Oct. 3 and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sutherland of Colonial road will be hosts.

Jean Campbell and her mother,

Mrs. C. D. Campbell entertained at a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect in their Harvard road home last Tuesday. Mrs. Edward W. Thomas held first party honors when she hosted a personal shower last Thursday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fred Hofmann on Windmill Pointe drive.

Although superintendents of schools from Michigan communities of over 10,000 population have given unanimous approval to the AAA principle of teaching students how to drive while in high school, only 18 Michigan schools now offer complete driver training courses.

Pennimans Off to Aberdeen, Md.

The L. W. Pennimans of Washington road are off to Aberdeen, Md., with their son, David. David will be best man on Sunday at the wedding of his brother, John Bruner Penniman, and Mary Elvora Brandhoff of Aberdeen.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brandhoff. Grace Methodist Church in Aberdeen will be the scene of the 4 o'clock ceremony. Mary's sister, Mrs. William B. Cregar, will be her matron of honor, and two other sisters, Mrs. Thomas Monahan of Newburgh, N. Y., and Rose Lee Brandhoff, will be bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaid is to be young Betty Ann Cregar.

On the usher list are John's cousin, George H. Davis of New York and two brothers of the bride, Edward Brandhoff Jr. and Carl Humphreys of Baltimore. The reception will be held in the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds will live in Evanston, Ill., while John continues his studies at Northwestern University.

Courage is honesty about your fears. Cowardice is pretending you don't have any.

Pointe Memorial Church by Dr. Frank Fitt. The former Mary Malow, daughter of the Arnold Frederick Malows of University place, chose a classic bridal gown of antique satin. Soft folds extending from the shoulders to a point at the waist accented the fitted bodice of the gown. Her full length illusion veil fell from a headdress of heirloom lace. White rubrum lilies and stephanotis made up the bridal bouquet.

Turquoise and gold were the colors of the attendants' dresses. Ann Strawbridge, sister of the groom, was maid of honor in a frock of gold moire. Chrysanthemums ranging in shade from gold to deep bronze made up her bouquet.

Mrs. Raymond Semmler Jr., matron of honor, wore a similar dress of turquoise and carried yellow chrysanthemums. In identical gowns were bridesmaids Peggy Ernie Janice Lee Hoffman, Bobbin Lowitz of Greenwich, Conn. and Jeanne Malcomson of Washington.

Allan Rutter waited at the altar with William and ushers included Frederick Eutton Jr., James Waldron, William Madrack, Robert Kirby, William Wallace and Edwin J. Kidd.

Seafair aqua satin was worn by Mrs. Malow. A matching hat trimmed in cinnamon brown mink and lace completed her ensemble. Mrs. Strawbridge was in gray crepe with a hat of turquoise feathers.

The reception followed the ceremony and was held at the Country Club.

The blond Mrs. Strawbridge wore a plaid taffeta dress and matching hat for travelling. On their return, the couple will be at home in Lansing where the bridegroom attends Michigan State College.

Ecru ret formed the gowns of the attendants. Betsy Dixon was her sister's maid of honor and her sash and satin picture hat were in honey tones. Bronze sashes and hats were worn by the bridesmaids — Mrs. Woodruff Boyd Crouse and Mrs. William P. Harris III of the Pointe; Mrs. James F. McClelland Jr. of Hamden, Conn., sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. John Scott Welles, Clarissa Haffner and Joan Clement, all of Lake Forest.

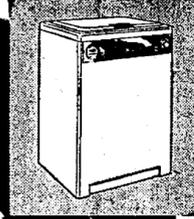

The maids carried bouquets of autumn flowers and trailing ivy. Woodruff Crouse served as best man for Richard. Ushers included William P. Harris III, Henry L. Newman, Ernest Kratzel, Fred Higbie, John and Ernest Turner, brothers of the bride, Wesley Dixon, the bride's cousin, Harry Chandler and John Millett of Lake Forest, Lawrence Renehan of Darien, Conn., James F. McClelland Jr. of Hamden, and Henry Lee of Beverly Farms, Mass.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple will return to Ann Arbor where the bridegroom will continue his work at the University of Michigan.

Kid Bits

By Mary Prevo

Friends of MARY ELLEN HEINER and KATY NEBEL had a grand time at the Farms' park roasting hot dogs and exchanging latest gossip with the girls! Those two peppy gals planned the party and arranged that Sally Shepler, Lila Binney, Janet Gregory, Helen Maiden, Marian Ortolfo and Janet Weinheimer meet at the park to spend the evening there.

Then MARIAN ORTOLF entertained the same crowd plus a few others at a luncheon in her home in University place.

JAN WALKER rounded up the festivities honoring her house guest SUE SAYLOR by packing up the family picnic basket and trekking down to the park to eat with Joan Rollings, Alice Savage, Margo Gessler, Barb Otto, Gretchie Kiehammer, Alice Anne Sickler, Joyce Wiek, Jeanne Smith and Nancy Doherty.

The picnickers must have had a dandy time, for they lingered by the fire long after they had eaten to tell ghost stories and to finish up that splendid potato salad!

A school teacher asked the pupils to write a short essay and to choose their own subjects.

A little girl sent in the following paper:

"My subjek is 'Ant.' Ants is of two kinds, insects and lady uncles.

"Sometimes they live in holes and sometimes they crawl into the sugar bowl, and sometimes they live with their married sisters."

Your scribe's heart is with the families who are sending young ones away to college—and particularly with the younger brothers and sisters who have been pushed into the background on this momentous occasion! For weeks, it seems, the attention of the Prevo family was focused upon HARRIETT who left September 2nd for the University of Arizona, at Tucson.

Excitement is really running rampant in the KENNEDY home on Lakepointe. Joe left August 30 for Tarkio college, Missouri, but flew back to be best man at his brother's wedding September 6.

ALSO heading Missouri way are JOANNE RUSSELL and JOAN BAUMAN. Christian college is to be their alma mater.

There is a long list of Grosse Pointers who will be at Ann Arbor this fall—Jim Brown, Jennie Quirk, Ellie Hewitt, Bill Penoyar, Virginia Skau and Diane Faulk. Ileana Lindh, Barb Rising, Hugh Bleckie, Doris Buser, Sally Dalton, Bob Cogan, Shila McComb and Sallie Slocum are also looking forward to days at the University of Michigan.

Lawrence college, Appleton, Wisconsin, will soon be the address of HELEN MANSON, and the friends of Barb Stoerckel, Kaye Kernkamp, Sue Campbell and Vonnie Wegman will send mail to Michigan State college.

Grade crossing accidents take the lives of approximately 50 men, women and children every week in the year, says Automobile Club of Michigan. Take it easy when approaching railroad tracks, and stop, look and listen.

Wernet Faces Big Problem Replacing Ed Isbey, Rummel

Line Looks Good With Veterans In All Positions and Two Promising Transfers Added To Picked Squad Of 88 Players

By Fred Rummels
Eighty-eight football candidates accepted Coach Ed Wernet's invitation to try out for Grosse Pointe High School's 1947 edition football team last week at opening practice.

Wernet, starting his second season as head football coach at the school on Fisher road, sent invitations only to those boys who have had intra mural, reserve or varsity experience. The limited call streamlines the squad and facilitates his job of trying to mould a championship team into shape before the opening game against Ferndale September 28 which will be played under the lights at Ferndale's home gridiron. The game will start at 8 p.m.

After one week's practice the squad has been split up into four groups, the blue, gold, white and mixed. The blue squad is made up of returning lettermen and a few outstanding lettermen from last year's reserve squad. The gold squad is comprised of reserve players and a few varsity players in order to even the squads. These two squads have 25 members each.

The white squad is made up of a combination of reserve and intramural boys, while the mixed squad is strictly intramural boys and transfers from other schools. Let's analyze Grosse Pointe's football picture.

There are fourteen returning lettermen from last year's team. Of these fourteen only five are backfield men. Ken Christianson, Dan Drader, Jim Flom, Herb Gerhard and John "Pig" Flaughner. Jerry Allen has joined this group at the coach's request. Allen played a lot of center on last year's team and Wernet believes he can be successfully converted into the backfield. Of the five regular backfield men only Flaughner saw any regular action, that being in the role of a place kicker for points after touchdowns.

Christianson is a big boy but slow of foot, while Dan Drader is the exact opposite, small and fast. Gerhard is the "unknown quantity". He injured his knee early last season and saw most of the games from the bench.

Not one of these boys has the stamina of Eddie Isbey, Harry Garman, Nick Serra, Louie Champagne or Johnny Rummel, last year's regulars, and it is doubtful if they can take a full sixty minutes of the rugged brand of ball played in the Border Cities League.

Wernet's only hope of moulding a backfield combination lays in the fact that he has some good boys coming up from the reserve squad in Tom Folski, But Spurrier, Cal Purdy, Ed Laitner and Stu Ward.

The biggest problem this year will be in finding a boy who can come somewhere near filling the shoes left vacant by the graduation of "Fireball" Eddie Isbey, one of the best backfield men in the league last season. Isbey was outstanding for his broken field running and passing and was an excellent field general. Several times last year the coaches of the teams the Blue Devils met remarked "If I had Isbey on my team we wouldn't lose a game."

Isbey goes to Dartmouth. Aside from finding a boy to replace Isbey, Wernet must find a capable kicker to replace big Johnny Rummel who also was graduated last June.

Now that we have painted a very gloomy picture of the backfield situation we turn to the brighter side.

In the line the Blue Devils are exceptionally strong from end to end with the return of lettermen for all positions. Heading the list of linemen is captain elect Tom Dewey, Alex Bardy, Lee Barlow, Bruce Bray, Allan Kidd and Lee Walker. Ted Mmford and Matt Peterson are the flankers for this group and are able performers, having proved themselves in last year's campaign.

In addition of this list of varsity men is Tom Fenski a transfer from Cass Tech, where he won his letter at center position. Fenski is a big boy weighing 190 pounds and looks every bit the part of a rugged performer. It was for this reason that Wernet decided to convert Jerry Allen into the backfield.

The squad gained another boy via the transfer route in Bill Jackson. Jackson played his football at Muskegon last year and comes to the team highly recommended.

Other reserve players who have hopes of landing in the select circle are Dick Spei, Bob Hansen, Bill Beardlee, Bob Colman, Jim Hiskings, Don Miller, Clark McPhail, (not relation to Don), Cliff Ammon, Bob Bolo, John Corfield, Harvey Reyst, Bob Temple and reserve captain Tommy Anton.

Coaches Harold Fisher, Frank Banach and Pat Kaulitz are assisting Wernet with the large squad. Kaulitz will coach the reserve team this year since Coach Peterson has given up his teaching job at the school.

Pfc. William H. Gracey Now Serving in Japan

WITH THE EIGHTH ARMY IN KOKAHAMA, JAPAN - Private First Class William H. Gracey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Worthly, 1450 Grayton road, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan, is now serving as an occupational soldier in Japan. His job as an occupational soldier is assistant checker in the Shipping and Receiving Section of the 793rd Transportation Base Depot Company. This job consists primarily of checking on all shipments to see that the correct and proper amount of material is shipped and that the destination is correct.

Before entering the service Pfc. Gracey attended the Grosse Pointe High School. He plans to continue his education after his discharge. Upon arrival in the Far East Theater, Pfc. Gracey was shipped to Atsugi, Japan, for eight weeks of intensified basic training. After completion he was assigned to his present unit, the 793rd Transportation Base Depot Company. The initial occupational duties of the 793rd Depot is to keep all the Eighth Army floating craft equipped and maintained. This depot also serves as a disbursing point for Transportation Corps supplies in Japan and Korea.

Really Starting from Scratch

COACH EDWARD WERNET of the Grosse Pointe High School football team figured that his squad is so green this fall he might as well start right at the beginning. With the candidates lined up he holds the pikskin aloft and explains: "This, boys, is what is known as a football."

Title Defense St. Paul Grid Team's Goal

Squad of 40 Hard At Work In Contest Drills; Whole Backfield Lost

Coach Ed Lauer issued a call for football candidates at St. Paul High School last Thursday, September 4, and already the squad of forty boys is into contact drills in an effort to build another championship team to defend its East Side Class B Parochial football title.

This year's team will be strong from tackle to tackle with the return of last year's varsity veterans.

Coach Lauer confesses he doesn't know what the rest of the team will be like as he lost his entire first string backfield in Ray Huettmann, Art Smith, Howie Meathe and Bob Cooke, in addition to his two first string ends, John Fushman and Don Simpson.

Don Williams, Jimmy Law and John Bingham appear to have the inside track for backfield berths at this writing. Despite the early start on the contact work, Coach Lauer's boys have sustained no injuries in scrimmage. Only one casualty has shown up, that being sustained by Jim McCarthy on opening day when he sat on his foot and broke his ankle during calisthenics.

Farms Employes In Golf Tourney

The Village of Grosse Pointe Farms began its annual municipal golf tournament Monday at the Country Club. The tournament will last until September 18. All village employes are entitled to compete. All contestants must have completed their play before the eighteenth. The tournament will consist of 36 hole medal play.

All contestants will compete for the H. O. Dehner trophy which is being offered for the seventh year. There are numerous other prizes also.

Harold Allor, the 1946 champion and this year's chairman reported a large number of entries. At this time all the contestants are checking with Allor to try and obtain more strokes.

Gene Boylan, general Farms policeman, opened the tournament with a sizzling 75 Monday.

Yacht Club Set For Pin Season

Another bowling season is getting underway at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Alleys open for practice September 21 and regular league bowling starts September 28. From then until March 29 weeks with the exception of two holiday weeks at Christmas and New Years, there will be league matches.

There will be seven leagues including men's stag, ladies, mixed and junior, with teams competing every day of the week excepting Sunday. Jeff Reekie is bowling chairman at the club.

AT H-I-Y CONFERENCE Attending the annual State H-I-Y Training Conference held from August 22 to 29 at Camp Hayo-Went-Ha on Torch Lake, were the following members of the Grosse Pointe High School H-I-Y Club: Don Lewis, Wally Joachin, Bill Siebert and Tom Wilson.

Lack of Wind Forces Extra Day to End NYC's Regatta

By Fred Rummels Seldom does one see a regatta requiring two days before all the results are tabulated, but that is what happened last Saturday and Sunday, September 6 and 7, when the Detroit Yacht Club held its 50th annual Sweepstakes race.

Twenty-three classes of boats went to the starting line off the Detroit River range light at the head of Peche Island. Twenty three classes crossed the line BUT only 10 classes finished within the time limit when the light northeasterly wind diminished to a zephyr leaving the boats drifting on an oily, flat Lake St. Clair.

The committee shortened courses in an attempt to get all the boats back to the finish line in front of the NYC dock so the sailors could partake in the evening festivities planned for 7 p.m.

Only the Cruising A, eight meters, six meters, A-Handicap, B-Handicap, K-Class, L-Class, C-Boats, Team, Thistles and International Classes finished.

Sunday brought forth even less wind than the day previous and many of the skippers had a hunch it would be another drifting match and as a result only 45 boats came out to play. About 90 failed to finish Saturday's race.

It was not, the crews were biting and skippers and crews were slapping and the judges were fretting and a fuming as they waited for the boats to inch their way toward the weather mark. After three hours of drifting the committee decided to shorten the courses to windward-leeward to cut short the agony of sitting in the broiling sun.

The writer's "Brat" was the first boat to round the weather mark and receive the good news to proceed to the finish line in front of the NYC.

The "Brat" was first to finish in the entire fleet and had a wide margin over Alex Allard's "Thistle" to win the huge J. T. Wing trophy.

Dave Sloss won the Gardner Bowl, one of the perpetual trophies, in the Cruising C class.

Howard Punched's "Dolphin" topped the Cruising C class.

Art Dannecker, sailing out of St. Clair Club, topped the CK-Free-For-All. He was first home in the Saturday race but missed getting credit for the victory because he finished two minutes beyond the 8 p.m. time limit so justice was meted out to him in the sail-off.

The big Mercer Cup went to Harold and "Lib" Misteles who sailed their 22 square meter "Sonja" home first. Al Grundy decided to sit this one out. Grundy is the weekly winner in this class, having been unbeaten in three years.

Dick Cook sailed his "Melodie" around the course all alone to win a cheap victory and take home the old Pingree Bowl, one of the old trophies raced for since the nineties.

Ray St. John's "Starling" was first home in the 30 square meter, beating her only other rival, Les McIntosh's "Mistress", which was disqualified.

Fleet Captain

FRED RUMMELS, Grosse Pointe News sports editor, who was unanimously elected Captain of the Detroit River Star Fleet at the annual meeting Monday night. The fleet is the second oldest Star fleet in the world, having been founded 26 years ago, six months after the Long Island Sound fleet was started. Fred won the J. T. Wing perpetual trophy last Sunday in the sail-off of the NYC Sweepstakes, in his Star "Brat." William Walker of Windsor was elected secretary of the fleet and Arnold Streit of Detroit was named treasurer.

FAREWELL STAG PARTY

Frank Reid of McMillan road gave a stag dinner party last Saturday night honoring his cousins, Fred and John Keydel. Fred soon sails for his junior year at the University of Zurich in Switzerland and John leaves to start his freshman year at Amherst. Other guests included Dick Arnold, who will return to Valley Forge Military Academy; Jim Tetzell, who will leave soon for Proctor Academy in Andover; and Bos Fosmore, Bob Van Haltern and Bob Peterson, all of Grosse Pointe High.

Saigon's "Indian Drum" in the B-Handicap, Dave Williams' "Smile II," in the K class; Dean Schoenbeck in the Club sloops; Ted Kuhn's "Surprise" in the L-Class; Fred Hayes and Fred Stickle's "Vif" in the C-Class; Howard Boston in the Thistle class; and J. G. Briner in the International 14 Class.

Dick Leighton of St. Clair Sail Club led his club's catboat team to victory with a win in the WK-Team race, which was won by St. Clair with 26 points.

Detroit Firemen's League Champs Beat Pointe Stars

Battalion 7 Team Downs Aggregation of Class E Players By Score of 5-1 in Sunday Game at Kerby Field

By JOE FROMM Battalion Number 7, champions of the Detroit Firemen's League, in the role of giant killers defeated an all-star team of members of the five teams in Class E of the Grosse Pointe Baseball League Sunday 5-1 before a large turnout of fans at Kerby Field.

The age limit for the Firemen's League is 16 while the age limit for Class E is 17.

Battalion 7 won 16 straight games in the Firemen's League winning the championship at Briggs Stadium several weeks ago. Sunday's win over Class E was the seventeenth without a loss.

Battalion 7 is managed by Ray Campbell of 183 Lakeview, Grosse Pointe Farms. This is the third year for Campbell as manager of this team. He managed it for one year before his entry into service. He took over again last year and put the team into the city semifinals.

Campbell's first string pitcher, Richard Tarys who was chosen the leading pitcher in the league, was out of town so he put in his second pitcher, Dick Kniga. Kniga allowed eight hits, struck out 13 and walked two.

Kniga won seven games and lost none in the Firemen's league, one win behind Tarys, who won eight. Eleven of Battalion's players were chosen on the league's all-star team.

Allan Bryant, News hurler, started for Grosse Pointe and gave up two hits and two earned runs in the three innings he pitched. Bryant's control was off, walking four batters.

Bryant was responsible for the lone Grosse Pointe run when, in the third frame, he blasted one of Kniga's pitches into Chalfonte road for a home run.

Harry Edsall of Tom Boyd followed Bryant and gave up two hits and three runs, striking out seven batters. He walked three batters and two errors resulted in an unearned run. John Sullivan, Harper Auto ace left hander, finished the game and held. Battalion 7 scoreless although the visitors made four hits off him.

Grosse Pointe had the bases loaded in the seventh and eighth innings, with one and none out respectively but still failed to score.

A walk and hits by Dick Roland and Hill Pierce, both of Tom Boyd, loaded the sacks in the seventh but Kniga bore down and struck out the next two batters.

Hits by Sullivan, Greg "Pee Wee" Grove of Tom Boyd, and Roger Muller of Grosse Pointe Valet, filled the bases in the eighth but Kniga tightened once more. He disposed of Clark Coon on strikes and forced Burt Von Allmen to hit into a double play. Kniga and Harry Chief of the winners each got two safeties with one of Chief's going for two bases. Dick Roland of Tom Boyd also got two hits.

The All Stars were coached by Werner Von Allmen, Buzz Cronin and Russ Gragg. Von Allmen was instrumental in arranging the game and handled all the details.

Battalion 7 used all of its 13 players and Grosse Pointe used all its 23 players. Tom Boyd had seven players represented. Kiwanis had three, Grosse Pointe Valet 4 and Harper Auto two.

Metropolitan League Teams In Title Tilt

Farms and Woods Team Each Have One Win in Three Game Series for Crown

By JOE FROMM

The Metropolitan Club Baseball League of Grosse Pointe has chosen an all-star team and will play Battalion 7, champions of the Detroit Firemen's League, Sunday at Kerby Field. The game will start at 2:00.

Last week Battalion 7 defeated an all-star team from Class E of the Grosse Pointe Baseball League.

The age limit for the Firemen's League is one year less than the Metropolitan Club League.

Battalion 7 is coached by Ray Campbell of 187 Lakeview, Grosse Pointe Farms. Battalion 7 has won 17 games this season without having been defeated.

They won 16 straight to win the Detroit championship and last week added another victory to their string at the expense of the Grosse Pointe League.

The Metropolitan Club League is made up of teams from the five Pointe communities, Farms, Woods, Shores, Parks, and City. The Metropolitan team will be coached by Don Coates of the Woods and Charles Kypros of the City.

All players will wear the shirts of their prospective teams. The Farms and City lead the teams with six members each. The Woods and Shores follow with four each and the Parks has three players on the team.

The Metropolitan Club will serve refreshments at the game. The starting line-ups will be:

Grosse Pointe: Grove, 2b. Green, 3b. Hafer, c. Roland, cf. Kypros, ss. Schoeck, 1b. Coon, lf. LaFave, rf. Battalion 7: Snyder, 2b. Snyder, 2b. Campbell, ss. Pawlusiak, 1b. Schultz, cf. Kniga, c. Newman, lf. Truss, rf. Radmer, 3b.

The complete Grosse Pointe roster is:

Pitchers: Harry Edsall (City), Allan Bryant (City), Bob Wallace (Park), Bob Ruck (Farms).

Catchers: Bob Hafer (Farms), Hill Pierce (Farms).

First Basemen: Vince Schoeck (Farms), Dave Donnelly (City), Russ Gragg (Woods).

Second Basemen: Greg Grove (Woods), Bill Mason (Farms).

Third Basemen: Bob Green (Shores), Bob Sabo (Shores).

Outfielders: Dick Roland (Woods), Clark Coon (Shores), Don LaFave (Farms), Sam Martens (Parks), J. Neours (Parks), Roger Muller (City), Jim Law (Shores), Ronnie Knope (Woods).

A daughter, MARGUERITE SKIRVIN, was born to MR. AND MRS. J. M. RICHARDSON LYETH JR. of Audubon road on September 1. Mrs. Lyeth is the former HARRIET ELIZABETH TYSON of Newport, R. I.

CONTRACTOR KICKS: The contractor constructing two new homes at 102 and 106 Hall place has complained to Farms police that children have been destroying building material on the premises and scattering lumber around. A special watch is being kept on the property.

Metropolitan Club League Team to Play Battalion 7

The Metropolitan Club Baseball League will have its baseball championship game on Saturday at 2 p. m. at Kerby Field. The game will pit the Farms against the Woods and will be the climax of a three-game series in which to date each team has won one game. Both games were won on a one-run margin.

The two teams battled Saturday in a double-header at Kerby Field. The Farms captured the first game 6-5 and the Woods came back in the nightcap with a 5-4 triumph.

The Farms broke a 5-5 deadlock in the seventh inning of the first game when Woods pitcher, Eddie Martens, walked in a run. He started the frame with a walk to Bill Mason. Bob Hafer, Farms hurler, helped his own cause with a base hit. Martens then walked Vince Schoeck. On a three-and-two pitch, Martens walked LaFave to force Mason across with what proved to be the margin of victory.

Hafer and LaFave each got two safeties for the Farms and Greg "PeeWee" Grove and Dick Roland did the same for the losers.

In the second game the Woods overcame a 2-1 deficit in the sixth with two runs for the victory.

Roland's single, an error, a single by John Gusmano, a walk and a fielder's choice netted the tying and winning runs.

The Farms loaded the bases with nobody out in the sixth but the Woods' pitcher, Ronnie Knope, bore down and forced the next three men to pop up.

Roland got a double and a single in the second game to give him four hits altogether.

SUMMARIES First Game

Woods 6, Farms 5. RHE: Woods 10, Farms 10. Errors: Woods 1, Farms 1. Bases on balls: Woods 4, Farms 3. Struck out: Woods 3, Farms 2.

Second Game

Farms 5, Woods 4. RHE: Farms 10, Woods 10. Errors: Farms 1, Woods 1. Bases on balls: Farms 4, Woods 3. Struck out: Farms 3, Woods 2.

New Plant Built By Paul Morrow

Word has been received here of the success in West Chester, Pa., of a native son, Paul E. Morrow, son of Lieut. B. T. Morrow of the Grosse Pointe Shores police department.

Morrow, who was graduated from Grosse Pointe High in 1927 and Michigan State College in 1932 with a degree in business administration, was employed by the Ford Motor Company until he moved to West Chester two years ago to start his own business, the manufacture of steel shelving and auto parts.

The West Chester paper recently carried a story of his acquisition of a site on which he is building a completely new plant to handle his increased business. The Morrow home is at 511 Lake Shore road.

Woods Players Call for Actors

The Grosse Pointe Woods Players will begin their fall season with open tryouts for three one-act plays on Thursday evening, September 18, at 8 o'clock in Room 219, Mason school. Any person who is interested in joining the group or visiting the tryouts will be welcome.

The three one-act plays are in humorous vein. A farcical comedy, "Rumors Wanted," by Jay Tobias, offers excellent opportunity for a cast of six to overcome the self-imposed invalidism of one, Aggie Spratt. "Mrs. Harper's Bazaar," by Babathe Hughes, depicts a group of eight women in an amusing satirical comedy. "Elizabeth's Young Man," by L. S. Hasbrauck follows the tale of misunderstanding which results from a misplaced letter about an insane patient, two maiden ladies, a young trained nurse, and Elizabeth's young man.

Parts are to be read from each of these one-act plays tentatively selected for January production. Casting will continue each Thursday evening until October 2, when parts will be allotted and rehearsals will begin. Most of the more important roles may be double-cast in order to present ample opportunity for all possible talent.

The Grosse Pointe Woods Players are part of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education Adult Education program. Rehearsals are held once each week at Mason school, with occasional workouts and final production in the Grosse Pointe High School auditorium. The group is directed by M. Haythorn Bambas.

For further information or reservations for this group, call the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, N.L. 2000, Ext. 25.

Peggy Kirchner Becomes Bride

At high noon in St. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Peggy Kirchner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Kirchner of Balfour road, became the bride of Howard T. Keating Jr., son of the Howard T. Keatings of Chicago boulevard. The bride chose a gown of candlelight satin with a long court train. The sweetheart necklace was embroidered with seed pearls in a lover's knot design and the same embroidery was repeated on the long fitted sleeves. The long veil of illusion was held in place by an antique lace Juliet cap. Her flowers were staphanotis centered with an orchid, arranged in an arm bouquet.

Prenuptial Whirl Honoring Couple

With their marriage set for Saturday noon at St. Paul's-on-the-Lake, Frannie Oberbauer and her fiancé, Jim McDonnell Jr., are in the midst of a whirl of prenuptial parties. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford II will be hosts tonight at the Little Club at a cocktail party and buffet supper in honor of their brother-in-law and sister-to-be. Tomorrow has been reserved for a luncheon and swimming party given by Mrs. Edsel Ford in her Lake Shore road home. Mrs. Ford has just returned from her summer home at Seal Harbor. Her guests will include members of the wedding party and Jim's family, who will arrive tomorrow from Southampton.

The bride-elect's parents, the Reece B. Oberbauers, will be hosts at the Country Club tomorrow evening for the rehearsal dinner, which is to be preceded by a cocktail party given by the senior McDonnells.

Tuesday was another busy day for the pair—Mrs. Cassius G. Selden honored Frannie at a luncheon at the Detroit Club at noon and Helen Livingstone entertained at cocktails in her Lake Shore road home. Chris Caulkins was the hostess at a dinner party at the Little Club Tuesday evening.

Hundreds of workers are urgently needed to help harvest crops such as apples, peaches, mint, tomatoes, potatoes and other vegetable crops in Southern Michigan. Many areas need workers immediately. In most all cases housing is offered and good prevailing farm wages are paid.

Single men, boys not in school and family workers desiring such jobs should contact the Farm Labor Office at the Detroit Eastern Market, 1445 Adelaide Street, or call Randolph 5371 for full details and information.

The best in human nature is still not good enough, for it can always be corrupted by self-interest.

Robert True of Saginaw served his brother as best man. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Martin chose a suit of beige

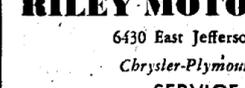

At an early morning ceremony performed by the Rev. W. S. Press, on Aug. 29, Madalynne Martin Himes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Martin, of Lakepointe avenue, spoke her marriage vows to John LaRue True, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. True, of Saginaw, Mich.

The bride was charming in a suit of powder blue gabardine, with a large brown off-the-face hat, trimmed in heavy brown veiling. Accessories were brown, and her corsage was of white glamelias.

Miss Irene Newberry of St. Clair-Shores, was maid of honor, and she wore a grey suit with brown accessories and corsage of rubrum lilies.

Thieves Irked By Bum Steer

Pair who robbed Park home given sour tip about $10,000 in safe

The burglary at the Bockstanz residence on Grayton road last July has been solved. Recently Detroit detectives arrested three men on another charge and in the course of their drilling learned that they were involved in a robbery in the Park. They notified the Park detectives who got a confession from two of them, which cleared up the Bockstanz robbery. They had been tipped off, they said, from the inside, that there was a safe in the place which contained $10,000.

Bidding their time they visited the place when the family was not there. Much to their chagrin there was no safe at all. They gathered up only about $10 they found in the house, and roundly cursed the tipster who had given them the false steer about the treasure loaded safe.

Driver Admits Tearing Up Lawn

Hugh Eigt, 15, of 785 University place, reported to the Farms police on September 3 that he was one of the drivers who had run over the lawn of Dr. John Cobane at Kercheval and Merriweather on the night of August 30 in avoiding a crash.

Dr. Cobane had previously reported to the police that about 75 feet of lawn had been torn up as two cars left the road trying to miss each other. They had just missed a tree and a light pole. Eigt said he was contacting Dr. Cobane to make arrangements for repairing the damage to the lawn.

To Give Lecture On Family Life

"Is Your Marriage A Success?" is the title of a lecture to be given by Rev. James Hayes at St. Ambrose Hall, Hampton and Maryland avenues, on Wednesday, September 17, at 8:30 p.m. This is the first of a series of family life conferences sponsored by the eastern Deanery of the Detroit Council of Catholic Women.

Entertainment, cards, dancing and refreshments will follow the lecture. These lectures are open to all, married and single, young and old, and should prove of special interest to young married couples and those contemplating marriage.

Members of the following parishes are particularly invited: St. Ambrose, St. Philip Neri, St. Martin, St. Rose of Lima, St. Clare of Montefalco, St. Paul, Grosse Pointe and St. John Barchmans.

783 Park Trees Take Trimming

Seven hundred trees in Grosse Pointe Park on Beaconsfield, Balfour, Devonshire, Harvard, Nottingham and Yorkshire have been trimmed thus far this year. Other trees on Three Mile and Whittier south of Jefferson, now being trimmed will bring the total to 783. This work is costing the village $3,191. Tree spraying, tree removal and repairs to date have cost $950.

Club to Hear Aviation Talk

Hal Hixon of the American Airlines will address the Grosse Pointe Optimist Club at its next meeting on September 16, in the Alger Clubhouse on St. Paul. His subject will be air transportation as it affects the world today and particularly as it is about to affect the Detroit Metropolitan area. The following week, Sept. 23, Clifton Johnson will talk to the club on the Michigan Humane Society.

Cabbies' Conversation Disturbs Neighborhood

Mary Mary Zimmerman, of 14950 E. Jefferson, complained to the Park police station at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, Sept. 9, that the cab drivers at the stand between Pemberton and Barrington were making such a noise talking and laughing as to disturb the neighborhood. When she asked them to be more quiet they had only laughed at her, she said.

When Patrolmen G. Boone and P. Conlon investigated every cabbie was sitting in his seat and everything was suspiciously quiet and orderly. Similar complaints of this same nature have come in several times before.

UNHURT, BUT SCARED
 Mark Warner, aged 8, of 272 Newport, ran his bicycle into a car at Jefferson and Bedford on Sunday afternoon, August 31. He was taken to Bon Secours hospital by the police where an examination showed the youngster was badly scared but not injured. No fault attached to the driver of the car.

Sweeper Saving Money for Park

The report of the Highway Department of the Park village submitted on September 8 shows that 1000 feet of curbing has been replaced and fifty catch basins have been replaced or repaired.

Eight miles of street surfacing has been repaired and maintained. The use of the mechanical street sweeper has reduced the cost of street sweeping by one-third, with four times the coverage as compared with the hand method.

Bar Holdup Nets Bandits $1,000

The stickup at the Kerns' Bar on the Detroit side of Mack between Nelf and Woodall at 2 o'clock on Thursday morning, Sept. 4 was witnessed by several young people of Grosse Pointe.

They were a badly frightened lot when the shooting was going on but first thought it was a wild western scene put on for strenuous devilry until they saw the bullet holes being peppered in the ceiling.

Much to their relief there was no attempt made by the gangsters to rob the patrons of the place. They concentrated on the money in the till and such other money as they got out of the owners. This amounted to an estimated $1,000.

FIGHTERS FLEE
 A neighbor reported that four boys in a fight had broken the fence at the Theodore Buttrick residence at 346 Ridge road shortly after midnight on August 24. They fled in a 1936 Plymouth before the police arrived.

Three Cars, Pole Figure in Crash

Patrolman Pat Conlon, on the desk at Park police headquarters at 5:50 o'clock Friday morning, September 5, heard a crash in the vicinity of Lakepointe and Jefferson avenue.

He notified Patrolman Dilloway and Kesteloot on patrol, by radio, and they found that a car driven by Paul Beckowitz of 2327 Brooklyn, Detroit, going west on Jefferson had struck a car parked at that point with such force it had caused it to strike another parked car, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willinburg and their baby of 7511 Berry avenue, Detroit.

Mr. Willinburg suffered a bruised lip and the baby got a severe bump on the head. Beckowitz was given a ticket for reckless driving. Beckowitz also broke the village light pole in front of 15135 Jefferson.

GOOD CUSTOMERS
