The boat was built originally by the Ventnor Boat Works as a 135 cubic inch hydroplane. Bartlow has redesigned the hull and replaced the smaller engine with two 300 horsepower Fageol Sweepstakes engines which turn in opposite directions and are in direct drive with the propellers. Features of the boat are a foot rudder control bar and two individual throttles which control the speed of the motors. D'Eath claims he will be able to negotiate the turns at greater speeds than the more powerful boats entered in the second annual Henry Ford Memorial Race next Saturday, July 10, which is sponsored by the Detroit Boat Club.

G. P. Park Now Has Largest Chlorinated Swimming Pool In State to Serve Residents

Park Commissioner Peter Koenig Prepares Statement Detailing Steps Taken to Give Village Safe Swimming

With the opening of the Grosse Pointe Park swimming pool, Commissioner Peter J. Koenig has prepared the following statement so the residents may know the steps taken by the village officials to provide safe bathing facilities:

To: The Residents of Grosse Pointe Park:

You have undoubtedly watched the progress of the renovation of your swimming pool during the past several months. The things we have done might be of interest. After the ice was gone, we could begin cleaning the pool—approximately 1700 yards of contaminated sand and muck were removed from the pool and 1500 yards of clean lake sand were put back. Your Village Manager and the State of Michigan Health Department held numerous meetings on the best possible method of chlorination so that your children could swim in un-contaminated water at all times in the future. A plan was drawn and approved by the State Department of Health. A new pump with a capacity of 3,000 gals. per minute was installed, which circulated 1,500,000 gallons, every 9 hours. A liquid chlorine machine which operates eighteen hours per day discharges a required amount of chlorine into the discharge chamber of the pump, sterilizing the water which is pumped through twelve hundred feet of pipe placed underground at the bottom of the pool. Orifices placed 10 ft. apart along the pipe spurt the water in a circulating motion which surges the entire pool and returns to the pump intake for re-circulation. The State of Michigan Health Department has inspected and approved your pool. Water tests will be made at regular intervals and closely checked. The installation of the pumping and chlorinating system was made by Village employees and they deserve your praise for their efforts. Your pool is the largest chlorinated pool in the State of Michigan. It will provide a safe place of recreation for your children. The swimming program is supervised by a waterfront director, and life guards are on duty during the hours the pool is open. We sincerely regret the many delays in opening your swimming pool, but equipment and materials necessary for construction were very critical items and although orders were placed many months ago, deliveries were very slow. We are sure that the delays will be well compensated for considering the disease prevention work we have accomplished for your protection.

The home of Herbert Schwartz, 15205 Essex, was burglarized while the Swartz family was away on July 4. Entrance was gained by breaking a small pane of glass in the rear door and reaching through to unlock it. The family was gone during the afternoon until shortly after 10 p. m. The house was ransacked and some jewelry was taken.

Stricken on Golf Course, Richard Fyfe Barnum Dies

Richard Fyfe Barnum, 54, of 1012 Yorkshire road, was fatally stricken with a heart attack Monday on the 18th green at the Detroit Country Club, after finishing a round of golf. He had just picked his ball out of the cup when he collapsed. Mr. Barnum, a widely-known business executive, was secretary-treasurer of the Detroit Automotive Products Corp. for the past 15 years. He served 12 years as treasurer for the R. H. Fyfe Co., founded by his uncle, prior to his association with Detroit Automotive Products.

Anonymous Donor Gives Fund $10,000

Other Substantial Contributions Announced by Special Gifts Group

An anonymous gift of $10,000 to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Fund was announced this week by the Special Gifts Committee, Carsten Tiedeman, chairman. The NEWS hopes, when the canvass has been completed, to be able to print the names and amounts pledged by all contributors of $100 or more. In the meantime, it is possible only to obtain the names of those who have donated $1,000 or more to the campaign. Additional substantial gifts reported during the week include $3,000 from Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walton, $1,500, Dr. Ernest Tappan, $1,000, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buhl, Jr., $1,000; Mrs. Roy D. Chapin, $1,000.

Two Injured In Car Crash

An accident injuring two persons occurred at Kercheval and Bedford on July 5. A 1947 Ford sedan owned by the Pointe Cab Co. and driven by Marcel E. Davids, 610 Notre Dame, collided with a Chrysler sedan driven by Jerome J. Thomas, 3828 Courville. Two passengers in the Thomas auto, John Marion, 33, 963 E. Larned, and Gertrude Konan, 24, 1946 E. Congress, were taken to Bon Secours Hospital. Miss Konan was treated for lacerations of both arms and left knee. Marion was treated for bruises of the right eye and nose. Both cars were badly damaged and towed away. Damage was also done to a fire hydrant struck by the Chrysler. Both drivers were issued tickets for not driving with due care and caution. They are scheduled to appear in court July 28.

Alger Candidate For Lt. Governor

Petitions are now being circulated for Secretary of State Frederick M. Alger, Jr., of East Jefferson avenue, City of Grosse Pointe, who announced last week that he will be a candidate for the office of lieutenant governor of the state in the fall elections. Both cars were badly damaged and towed away. Damage was also done to a fire hydrant struck by the Chrysler. Both drivers were issued tickets for not driving with due care and caution. They are scheduled to appear in court July 28.

PICK ON DETECTIVE
Detective Sergeant Elmer Labadie of the Farms, reported that someone stole a hubcap from his car while it was parked at St. Paul's Church on July 3.

Stay-at-Home Crowd Enjoys Big Holiday

Majority of Pointers Find Fun and Entertainment in Own Community

Although a large number of Grosse Pointers packed up and left town over the July 4th holiday, many more remained in town and enjoyed the local swimming and recreational facilities. The largest turnout of the weekend was an estimated crowd of 15,000 that witnessed the tenth annual fireworks display sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club at Mason School on Monday night. Large crowds were reported at the municipal beach parks. Programs were held for the young children of the Pointe by the Optimists Club at Kerby Field Monday morning and by the Kiwanis Club Monday afternoon at Mason Field. A fireworks display was held by the Grosse Pointe Park at the Park beach Sunday evening.

Arnold Dissing, a member of the Woods Villages Commission and Kiwanis fireworks chairman, said, "The turnout Monday was the largest from my point of view and that of other observers, in the ten years the fireworks displays have been held." George Gardner, president of Kiwanis Club commented, "The Woods police reported to me that Monday night was the largest turnout so far. I would like to

Alger House Again Vacant

Detroit Abandons Museum As Branch of Art Institute; Returned to Owner

"No Trespassing" signs have been erected on the Alger House Museum grounds in Lake Shore road as the property has been turned back to its original owners. The beautiful old home has been used for a number of years as a branch of the Detroit Institute of Arts. This year Detroit failed to include funds for its upkeep in its budget, forcing the closing of the museum. The Alger family is keeping a caretaker on the place. The museum was for years the center of a tax fight between Detroit and Grosse Pointe Farms, the village trying unsuccessfully to collect taxes from Detroit. The latter won out and the Farms eventually gave up on the argument.

With the property now officially turned back to its former owner, Mrs. Russell Alger of Provincial road, it will probably be back on the Farms tax rolls next year. The many art treasures which the building has housed have been removed to the Art Institute.

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Study Group probed the possibility of converting the home into a public library as a memorial, but found that both its construction and its location were against the plan. The building is of reinforced concrete and it would have cost more to convert it into a functional library than to erect a new building. Studies have also shown that public libraries should be located like department stores, where traffic is the thickest. The Alger House was not even served by the bus routes and was judged too far off the transportation lines to make it accessible to the majority of the residents of the Pointe, especially the school children.

Car Jumps Curb; Hits Light Pole

When the tie rod broke on a car being driven on Moross road between Kercheval and Ridge road on the night of July 4, the car jumped the curb and crashed into a light pole. The pole was not damaged, but the car, owned and driven by William A. Pettey of 618 Notre Dame, suffered damage to its front end. He was not injured.

Urges Garden Clubs To Act to Preserve Beauty of Pointes

Assistant Director of Housing and Planning Council Urges Over-All Plan to Keep Community from being Spoiled

At the invitation of the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club, representatives from the other six Garden Clubs in Grosse Pointe met for luncheon on Tuesday, June 29, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club with Mrs. Morgan J. Sherman as hostess. There were 16 in attendance.

The purpose of the get-together was to create interest among members of all Garden Clubs in the community to further the project recently presented in a letter from the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club Civic Beautification Committee for improvement of the entire Grosse Pointe area, addressed to Homer C. Fritsch and presented to the Board of Commissioners at their meeting on June 14.

Marion Holden Bemis, Assistant Director of the Citizens' Housing and Planning Council, was guest speaker of the day.

The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club has led the way by suggesting improvements for their own village and by the Town Council's recent action in appointing a City Plan Commission. If each village had its own planning commission, an inter-town commission can easily be set up with a representative from each Town Council and one from each planning commission.

Mrs. Bemis commented that "the five Grosse Pointe villages have everything to gain and nothing to lose by cooperating on a Master Plan for the whole area. If the villages try to plan individually as separate units, the necessary coordination of roads, parkways and parks cannot be achieved. The first lesson in town planning is to 'look at your village,' try to estimate the trend in building and traffic, and try to decide what improvements should be made. Always you end by deciding that there should have been an over-all plan for the village and for any group of villages that are closely inter-related, as are the Grosse Pointe towns."

Mrs. Bemis further stated that because the term "Grosse Pointe" means order and beauty to most people in the metropolitan area, residents of the villages should plan now to maintain these qualities whether they live in the Park, the City, the Shores, the Woods or the Farms. "Detroit," she pointed out, "had no zoning ordinance until 1941, which is the reason so many people moved out here. Detroit's main residential streets could have stayed as beautiful as they were in 1900 had they been protected from the fumes of industry and the noise and rush of traffic."

The two items she underlined as an immediate worry to the Grosse Pointe towns are traffic and commercial zoning for shopping centers. "Already the shopping center in the city of Grosse Pointe is becoming too congested for comfort, and another downtown Birmingham may result unless something is done quickly to provide more off-street parking." She also suggested that the garden clubs of this area are eminently fitted to explore a way to work together for the benefit of all the villages. Stating that although an over-all plan for the

Continues Musical Studies At Fred Waring's Workshop

Miss Hilda Martin, 925 Harcourt rd., Grosse Pointe, head of the Fine Arts Department of Denby High School, is attending the Fred Waring Music Workshop at Shawnee-on-Delecto, Pennsylvania, during the period of June 27-July 10. The Workshop is under the personal direction of Mr. Waring, whose entire group of singers, musicians, arrangers and writers broadcast their weekly schedule of six half-hour radio shows from the village community center, Worthington Hall. Miss Martin is observing all the daily rehearsals and broadcasts of the Pennsylvanians, taking part in intensive choral rehearsals, studying methods of choral conducting, program building, sight reading and

Drive Leaders Confident of Reaching Goal

Half of Quota Seen in Partial Returns; Many Still Unsolicited

With half the quota of $525,000 already reported or in sight, and many returns still to come, leaders of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Fund campaign reached two conclusions over the Fourth of July weekend. The drive is destined for ultimate success, but to achieve the goal a continuing campaign will be necessary.

While it was originally planned to have the drive conducted from Memorial Day to July 4, it was later decided that a concentrated campaign from June 1 to June 15 would achieve the desired results. A number of contributing factors have worked against the success of a short campaign.

The long Memorial Day holiday weekend took many residents and drive workers out of town. The annual graduation period which immediately followed accounted for the absence of many others. The volunteer canvassers found it was necessary to make a number of return calls. This has slowed up the collection work considerably.

The Special Gifts Committee had a list of 400 names to canvass. To date contact has been made with only about 250, leaving some 150 among those counted on for larger donations, still to be heard from.

The geographical, house-to-house canvass, has met with the same difficulties. Not one of the five Pointes has been thoroughly covered and in most of them the Division leaders report the returns from most of the districts are incomplete.

No canvass of the Pointe's many business establishments has yet been made. A few of them have already made voluntary, unsolicited contributions, but the organization to cover these places thoroughly is just now being set up.

The partial detailed reports of the geographical canvass shows that $39,156.55 has so far been gathered by the five divisions. These are divided as follows:

G. P. Park, F. C. Ford, Jr., chairman, $11,338.25, reported by the various district heads, James R. McDonnell, $2,667; John R. O'Dell, Jr., $380; Lansing M. Pittman, $3,214; Earl L. Heenan, Jr., $7,337.75.

G. P. City, John Kenower, chairman, $11,222, reported by district heads Ed J. Hickey, III, $1,022; Harvey A. Fischer, $330; Ed T. Ives, Jr., $4,615; Marion Kellogg, $5,255.

G. P. Farms, William C. Roney, chairman, $11,964.35, reported by district heads Victor P. Dnooge, Jr., $1,291.85; John K. Worley, $3,538; R. Gervoy Goylis, $1,834; William H. Fries, $4,700.50.

G. P. Woods, Elmer Benzin, chairman, $11,338.25, reported by district heads George Beachamp, $221; David S. Bennett, $90; Marshall Jamison, $1,927.25.

G. P. Shores, Coschaerman, Ballantyne-Halkuthen, $1,345. Carsten Tiedeman's Special Gifts Committee has already reported $121,485. This committee particularly has found a number of eventual donors who have asked for more time to sign their pledges. A number of cases are reported where the prospect has said if he has to make a pledge right now it would have to be a smaller amount than he hopes to be able to pledge later in the year. There have also been numerous cases where the donors have said they expect to increase the pledges already made, next year.

Treasury gifts, which include amounts turned over by organizations, clubs, societies, etc., total $4,575. The school students and employees have already turned in $6,824.17 and the students have stated they will carry in another drive when school is resumed in the fall.

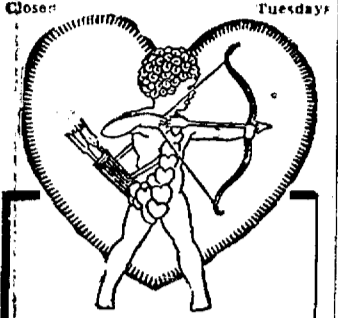

With these definite returns already in, the campaign leaders find many reasons to be optimistic about the eventual outcome of the drive. The continuing campaign means that every resident of the Pointe will be contacted before final reports are made. Those who cannot be solicited by the volunteer workers will be on week sessions.  On this day in 1747 John Paul Jones, American naval hero of the Revolutionary War, was born in Scotland; in 1908 Commander Robert E. THE BIG NEWS the country has been waiting for broke today when Eisenhower made a statement: "I won't run!" He has turned down all party bids and added, "I cannot identify myself with any political party." A few die-hards, however, are still holding out for Eisenhower and believe if the country drafts him, he cannot and will not refuse.

GLAMOROUS, 29-year-old Carole Landis, cinema star, was found dead in the bathroom of her Beverly Hills home. An overdose of sleeping tablets caused her death, which the police call suicide. She left a note for her mother, but didn't disclose the reason for her act. She had recently filed suit for divorce from her fourth husband, producer Horace Schmidlapp.

HOLIDAY WEEKEND deaths in the country totaled 465. Michigan was second in number with a total of 38 deaths due to drowning, car accidents, plane accidents and fireworks. Despite the great odors of Michiganers to vacation spots elsewhere... it is estimated that during the holiday 175,000 people jammed Belle Isle; 85,000 crowded River Rouge Park and about 40,000 visited the zoo. At the race track, the betting topped the million dollar mark for the first time since Memorial Day.

 area done by an expert planner may be expensive today, in the long run it will save money for everybody and preserve those intangible values important to the people who have taken the trouble to move out here.
 "A good town planner," she said, "like the good architect on a remodeling job, will start with the structure of the area, coordinating and inter-relating the road and parkway system; he will also suggest parkways, green areas and buffer strips, and would recommend that a system of small parks and playgrounds for the villages, be related to each other. It is already obvious that these areas should be purchased, at least, as soon as possible before every vacant space is built up as it has been in Detroit."
 She pointed out that many vacant lots along Jefferson and Kercheval might be purchased by the villages and planted with trees and shrubs which would make buffer strips to protect the fine residences on side streets from the noise and dirt of traffic.

"It is obvious that these vacant lots which are zoned for residences will never be purchased and built up with houses, because people do not come this far out and then submit to living beside heavy streams of traffic." The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority," she pointed out, "might be willing to help on highway development of this type."

Another project might be a cooperative nursery where trees and shrubs for these buffer strips could be nurtured.
 "The important thing now," Mrs. Bemis emphasized, "is for all the garden clubs to start thinking about the benefits of inter-village cooperation in planning for beauty, stability and circulation. One of this thinking-a plan that would be good for the whole area could easily develop."
 She further offered the help of the Citizens Housing and Planning Council at any point in the development of a cooperative plan, since this organization works on a regional level, and is not a government agency but a volunteer organization of citizens interested in the development of better town planning throughout the entire metropolitan region.

Robert Tobin of 285 Stephens road, reported to the Farms police that someone had hurled a brick through a picture window of his home while the family was out on the night of July 4. The brick also knocked over a lamp on a table inside the house.

Carl Schweikart Given Draft Job

Carl Schweikart, supervisor of Grosse Pointe Township, and chairman of the Board of Wayne County Supervisors, has been named one of the 16 temporary draft boards which will induct 19-26-year-olds under the new federal draft law.

Col. Glenn B. Arnold, state selective service director, said the men were chosen without state direction, by representatives who served on Wayne County's 63 draft boards during World War II.

With many fewer boards being established this time, the territory over which each will have jurisdiction will be much larger. It is reported that the district which includes the Pointe, will run all the way over to Gratiot avenue.

It has not been determined yet where the local board will have its headquarters. During World War II the draft board which served this area was set up in the Park Municipal Building. With elections scheduled for the fall, it will probably be impossible to provide room for the draft board in the same location, even if such a spot was feasible to serve the larger territory.

The names of the 16 temporary chairmen will be sent to Governor Sigler for approval, and after official appointment, the chairmen will appoint members to serve with them, Colonel Arnold said.

New Car Stolen From Dealer's

A new 1949 dark blue Oldsmobile sedan without a license was stolen from the Ray Whyte Sales, 15218 East Jefferson, on June 30. The car had been brought in that day and had not been serviced.

On July 1, the sales manager discovered the theft of a license plate from another car in their lot.

Park police sent out the alarm for both the stolen car and license and State police found them abandoned in Clare, Michigan.

Business Men Hear Inside Stories on Work of F.B.I.

Inside stories of the work of the FBI were related to the members of the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association at its meeting in Harvard House on Thursday night, July 1. Frank Parker of the Pfeiffer Brewing Company, formerly with the FBI, was the speaker.

Mr. Parker worked on the case which was the basis for the famous documentary movie, "The House on 59th Street," and was able to tell the Pointers some of the exciting experiences encountered in solving that case. President John Hannan presided.

The next meeting of the association will be a combination outing, dinner and business session on the first Thursday in August. The Beverly Hills Golf Club will be the scene of the gathering. There will be golf matches during the afternoon, with dinner and the business session following.

The association has announced that it will accept applications for membership, (which can be made by invitation only), at the rate of 20 per month. The lack of facilities for holding its meetings, all of which are dinner sessions, makes it impossible for the organization to accept applications for memberships at a faster rate than this.

THEY TELL US A CHARMING LITTLE TALE, FROM BACK IN THE OLDEN, GOLDEN, BOLDEN DAYS WHEN "The Saturday Evening Post" was the country's best Nickel's Worth of Literature, and George Horace Lorimer was its editorial genius. Mr. Lorimer pioneered the first stories and novels of America's most brilliant young authors, some of whom were also pioneering with a new found freedom of hot plots.

Katherine Brush was one of Lorimer's pets, and at the time was running a serial in The Post. Now it seems that the dashing Miss Brush left her hero and heroine in a big clinch at the end of one To-Be-Continued issue. In the next installment, she casually picked up her story with them eating in a breakfast room.

No one today would give the situation a second thought, much less dream of pelting the editor with pan mail. But Mr. Lorimer found himself in a paper storm of protesting letters and wires—all about running this compromising matter in the Saturday Evening Post. Subscriptions would be cancelled unless an adequate explanation or apology were offered the irate readers.

Mr. Lorimer, thereupon, came forth in the next issue with a little classic of an editorial code, which we like to recall when the moralists become slightly maudlin.

"THE SATURDAY EVENING POST," Mr. Lorimer headed the next installment, "IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR WHAT HAPPENS BETWEEN ISSUES."

The readers found this explanation not only legal but logical. The fearless editor had wiped the brittle black slates of their consciences clean. The Post soon hit the first million mark of circulation among magazines in the country.

IN THE SAME NOSTALGIC MOOD, WE FOUND OURSELVES mooning through other nostalgic memorabilia and came across a reprint of a menu from Delmonico's restaurant in New York, when the beaux and belles of the town could have a bottle, a bird and a big time on Saturday night and have enough money left from a five dollar bill to put in the collection plate on Sunday morning.

Ripley or not, kiddies, you could have the regular dinner at Delmonico's or 12 cents!

Or you order from the Bill of Fare, which contains these incredible items:

- Bowl of Tea or Coffee...2 cents
- Soup.....2 cents
- Corn Beef and Cabbage... 2 cents

- Beef Steak.....4 cents
- Pork Chops.....4 cents
- Fried Eggs.....5 cents
- Ham and Eggs.....10 cents
- Roast Chicken.....10 cents
- Puddings.....4 cents
- Pies.....4 cents
- Half Pies.....2 cents

All of this, obviously, was long before the days when Venus de Milo's figure was considered just another Stylish Stout.

IT WAS CORABELLE MORTON WHO PROVIDED US with a collector's copy of Munsey's Magazine. This gave us a hilarious half hour, reveling in the advertising section which reads more like fiction than the stories themselves.

You could get a Gentleman's Suit, of Fine All-Wool, Cashmere or Worsted, Made-to-Measure for $12.00. In case you were wondering how to be measured out of town, they helpfully suggested that your wife could take your measurements. Along with the order, one establishment sent a Free Suit Case—presumably to clope in the new suit with the star of The Old Opry House.

Ladies' Tailored Suits—invariably—ran a bit steeper. For a Mohair and Brilliantine Tailored Model you plunk down $8 to $49. But R. H. Macy would supply you with a ready-made "Shirt-waist Suit for $3.96."

In this hey day of unrestricted drug advertising, one enterprising firm headlined their ad with the offer which was obviously taken with a grainload of salt in these words "A New Stomach for Rocketteer—or any other person."

The ad which really had us puzzled was the one that promised to "Increase Your Height From Two to Five Inches, with a Free Book to explain it all."

And the big Inside Cover spread for Hayner's Whiskey headlined as an endorsement writer Senator Stewart, of Washington, who declared he found it "Exceptionally fine for table and Medicinal Purposes." The Senator—or anyone else—could have 4 Full Quarts of Hayner Whiskey shipped prepaid for $3.20."

Ah me! Them were the days when Men were Men — and Women had Fainting Spells!

Kid Bits

NANCY VOORHEES

Now that so many kids are heading for the wide open spaces and cool clear water 'til school starts again come September, the social doings around Grosse Pointe are more or less being left undone!

Marlene Hutton invited four lucky gals to spend a week with her up at her Port Austin cottage, so with their heads full of plans for coming fun, Bev Bolin, Mary Ellen Antrim, Joan Blanchard and Margie Simon left with Marlene Saturday.

Jim Mast asked a few of his special friends over Friday evening to roast hot dogs over his backyard grill. Some of the kids seen munching hungrily were Marti Watkins, John Weed, Nancy Voorhees, Dick Lord, Mary Stover, Clarence O'Dell, Alice Savage, Fred Lineman and Jamie Lundgren.

We also hear that Elpis Katros had a combination birthday and graduation party a while ago over Devonshire way.

One group of people who are working hard this summer are the Simians. They have chosen their play, "THE BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE," by Saroyan, and are planning on presenting it the last week in July at the Schlottman estate with some of the proceeds going toward the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Butch, Alden and Lauren Edgar of Washington road, left Thursday on the Buffalo boat for a summer of sailing at their summer home, "The Cabins," on Lake Wallenpaupack in Pennsylvania. Sister Gay joined them there on Saturday from her school in Langhorne, Pa. Butch comes back to the Pointe in August for a day or two before leaving for Chest Sampson's station wagon cavalcade on its trip to California.

Household Hint

Wash your linens in mild soap and lukewarm water. They should be dried away from the hot sun, and ironed while evenly damp, with a hot iron. Iron on the right side if you wish to give the linen a polish; or on the wrong side if a dull effect is preferred. Be careful not to scorch linens.

Pointers Given Big Chest Jobs

Richard W. Jackson, of Merriweather road, Grosse Pointe Farms, vice-president of Hudson Motor Car Co. and Benson Ford, of Three Mile Drive, Grosse Pointe Park, president of the Lincoln-Mercury Division, Ford Motor Co., will head the Industrial Unit of the 1948 Community Chest Campaign in the fall, Edward T. Gushue, Red Feather chairman, has announced.

The first organizational meeting of Division Chairmen and volunteer secretaries of the Industrial Unit was held at 12:15 p.m. Monday, July 5, at the Detroit Club, Jackson said.

Jackson has been active in War Chest and Community Chest drives for several years. He was a member of the Corporation Gifts Committee of the War Chest and Red Feather drives and in 1947 was chairman of the Industrial Unit of the Red Feather campaign. He is a member of the board of directors of the Council of Social Agencies, a Red Feather agency.

Ford served as chairman of the Automotive Division, largest division of the Industrial Unit, during last year's campaign.

The Industrial Unit solicits contributions for the 125 Community Chest agencies from major manufacturing companies and employers in the Detroit area.

Postage Reduced On Gift Parcels

Effective July 6, 1948, the postage rate on relief parcels for Austria, Belgium, China, France, Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Greece, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, and the zones of Germany and Trieste under occupation by the United States, was reduced by 4 cents per pound.

The items which may be included in these relief parcels are limited to non-perishable food, clothing and clothes-making materials, shoes and shoe-making materials, available medical and health supplies, household supplies and utensils if permitted under existing postal regulations.

The weight and dimensions of each relief package must conform to the regulations applicable to parcel post for the particular country of destination.

The combined total domestic retail value of all soap, butter and other edible fats and oils must not exceed $5.00 in each parcel; and the combined domestic value of all streptomycin, quinine sulfate, and quinine hydrochloride must not exceed $5.00 in each parcel.

Each parcel must bear the customs forms required by the country of destination and be plainly endorsed "U. S. A. Gift Parcel."

Basic Color Plan For Furnishings

Welcome as a cool summer shower is the news for homemakers about the new way of harmonizing the colors in carpets, drapes, wallpaper and upholstery fabrics.

"Basic Home Furnishings" is the name which the Home Furnishings Style Council has selected for the eleven colors which they recommend for home furnishings. With these basic colors you can choose the right furnishings for any room.

Ruth J. Peck, home furnishings specialist at Michigan State College, describes the colors as clear and muted and reports that each color comes in a range of nine values from light to very dark.

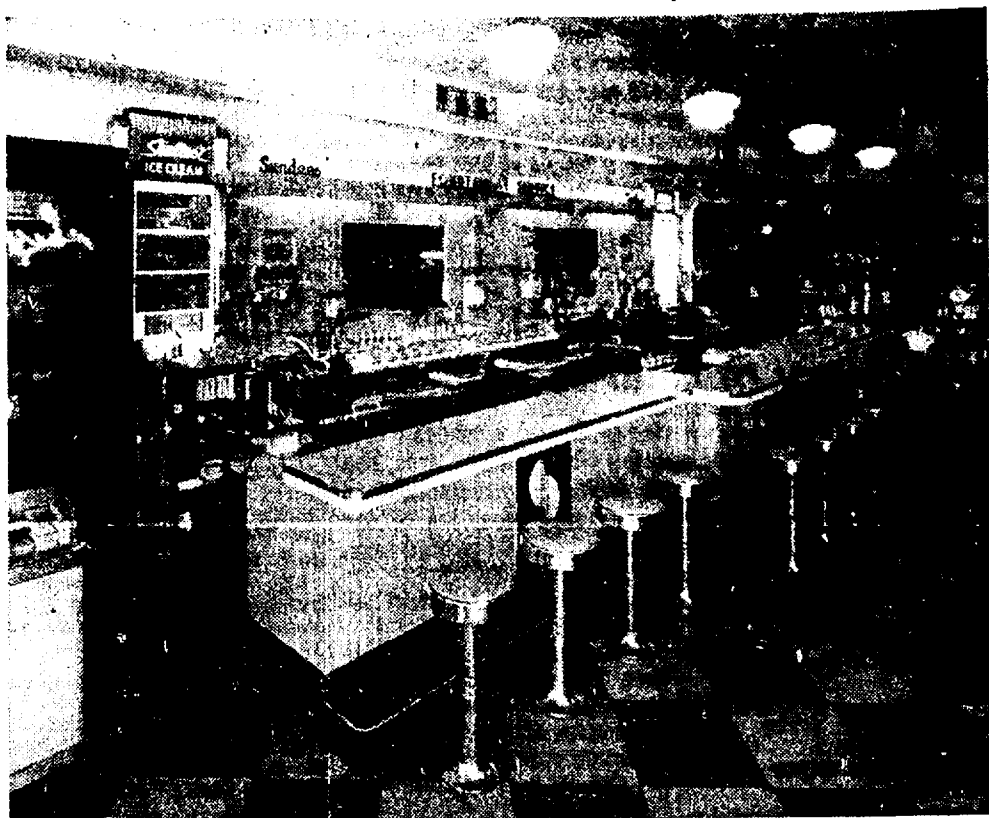

Here is a typical conversation by a housewife who knows about Basic Home Furnishings colors: "May I look at some drapery material with Grand Canyon rose background?" asks Mrs. Conner. "My rug is Shenandoah green and my color scheme is green with rose as a contrasting color."

With this information a clerk can be of real service, for Mrs. Conner has given him the fundamentals necessary. Grand Canyon rose and Shenandoah green are two of the 11 home furnishings colors. These colors were selected with the thought that colors in a room do not have to match but should harmonize.

Carpet manufacturers, wallpaper companies and textile firms which use the Basic Home Furnishings colors are a great help to the homemaker who is trying desperately to furnish a room with pleasing color harmony.

None preaches better than the ant, and she says nothing—Franklin.

This brand new soda fountain and lunch counter has just been installed in the Grosse Pointe Drug Store at Kercheval and St. Clair in The Village. The attractive fountain is proving a most popular gathering place for many Pointers, young and old.

Rhubarb Recipes By Housekeeper

Rhubarb pie "like mother makes" is easy if you follow the recipe of the Red Feather Visiting Housekeeper.

Cut the stalks of rhubarb into 1/2 inch pieces and measure 1 1/2 cups. Mix 3/4 cup of sugar, 2 tablespoons flour and one egg together. Add the mixture to the rhubarb.

Use your favorite pie crust recipe and place the filling in the unbaked crust. Make a lattice top for the pie so that the pink rhubarb shows through. Bake until rhubarb is tender.

Some people prefer to scald the rhubarb before using. If you do that, use less sugar.

Instead of the old "siphur and molasses" dose that grandma gave her children, modern housewives give their families stewed rhubarb to prove that spring is really here.

STEWED RHUBARB
Select firm young rhubarb with fresh-looking leaves. One pound makes about two cups when cooked. Cut off leaves and stem end and wash. If rhubarb is young and the skin is tender, do not peel. Cut in one-inch pieces.

Sprinkle with sugar and add just enough water to prevent burning. Cook until soft and add more sugar if needed.

Rhubarb can also be baked or prepared in a double boiler. The Visiting Housekeeper points out that if the fruit is baked it has a rich red color. For two pounds of rhubarb, add 1 cup of sugar and cook until tender in a covered casserole in a slow oven (300 degrees) or in a double boiler. Add more sugar if needed.

Old Traveler Suggests Good Recipes for Outdoor Meals

By the Old AAA Traveler

As summer moves in more and more Michiganders will head for the open spaces polka-dotted over the state... camping spots... trailer camps... roadside cooking areas... beaches... forests... all woven into one of the country's greatest summer playplaces.

Michigan is the greatest "outdoor" state east of the Rocky Mountains, and right now the blue smoke from campfires is rising skyward as nature-lovers head into the forests and pause beside azure lakes to cook their own breakfasts and lunches and dinners.

Use skewers made of steel wire and sufficiently long to extend across the fire. Slice veal and liver into 1/2-inch pieces about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Cut bacon into 1 1/2 inch pieces. Slice tomatoes and onions and cut green pepper into proper sized pieces. Take off mushroom caps (save stems for soup or seasoning). String meat and vegetables on wire. Dip into sauce made from olive oil, lemon juice, dry mustard and salt and pepper.

For super-super-hamburgers use 2 pounds ground round steak, 1 cup celery, 1 tablespoon parsley, 2 eggs, 1/2 pound ground lean pork, 1 large onion, 2 medium tomatoes, 2 cups rice krispies or corn flakes, 1 tablespoon black pepper and salt to taste.

Into beef and pork, well mixed, cut the onion, celery, tomatoes and parsley. Add salt and pepper. Mix thoroughly. Work in the eggs, unbeaten. Finally, work in the krispies or corn flakes. Form into four patties and fry in a bit of fat, covering the pan tightly that middle of patties will cook. This requires a tart salad, possibly a tossed salad with lemon juice and olive oil dressing. Serve with potatoes boiled in their skins. Grated raw potatoes may be substituted for the krispies or

For four liberal servings you will need 1/2 pound lean veal, 2 medium tomatoes, 1 pound mushrooms, salt, 1/2 pound calf's liver, flakes, this giving you a potato-burger. A new egg dish requires 8 eggs, 6 slices bacon, 2 medium tomatoes, 2 small onions, 1 green pepper, 4 teaspoons milk or cream and salt and pepper.

Cut bacon into very small pieces and fry until brown. Spread browned bits of bacon over bottom of pan and cut over the tomatoes, onions and green pepper. Beat cream or milk into eggs and whip in salt and pepper. Pour over vegetables, cover tightly and cook until eggs are thoroughly firm. A bit of grated American cheese may be sprinkled over whole after eggs have been added. With this potatoes boiled in jackets. No salad required.

Maybe YOUR automobile is in good mechanical condition. But how about the "other driver"—the fellow who is driving the automobile you meet on the road?

Secretary of State Fred M. Alger Jr. believes Michigan could save both money and lives by requiring the other driver to keep his car in safe driving condition. By this Alger means the following: Brakes should work; headlights should light up the road; tires should have some tread; the windshield wiper should function.

Aside from the initial investment in testing equipment, the cost of periodic automobile inspections would be made self-supporting through a modest fee—50 cents every six months. "It should be worth 50 cents to know that the other automobile on the highway is in good running order," said Alger. "And it's worth something to know your own car is able to stop at a reasonable distance in an emergency."

What is the highway traffic problem in Michigan? State police report that traffic accidents climbed to a new high in 1947. The accident total climbed 25 per cent over 1946. Not so many people were killed. Property damage was up 29 per cent. All in all, the highway toll ran into many millions of dollars in property damage and hospital bills, not to mention the tragic snuffing out of human lives and the suffering of survivors.

All these facts were reviewed recently by a group of Michigan newspaper editors. The editors met to study ways to arouse the public to the need for better law enforcement, a high school driver education, and periodic vehicle inspection. The legislature in 1947 raised the age of drivers from 14 to 16.

As shown by a reduction of highway death in 1947, much progress has already been made in Michigan. But there is still much left to do, in the opinion of Secretary of State Alger and the newspaper editors' committee.

"It is significant to note that New Jersey cut highway deaths 30 per cent in one year by requiring the 'other driver' to keep his car in safe condition," said Alger. "New automobiles are potentially more dangerous than ever before. They run faster. My assistant, Charles Creedon, went to New Jersey and investigated the system there. He reported that motorists were well pleased. The inspections serve as a double check for their safety."

A uniform code of Michigan traffic laws is now under consideration by the state legislature for the 1949 general session at Lansing. Centralized licensing of drivers has also been proposed. Plates, licenses and mechanical inspections would be handled at one location under direct supervision of the State of Michigan through the Secretary of State's office.

One formidable barrier to periodic mechanical inspection is the initial heavy investment in equipment to check the automobiles. A substantial appropriation of state money would be needed, and the State of Michigan faces a deficit in the new fiscal year.

And yet a rise in the cost of highway accidents, as shown by the 1947 toll, is costing someone—the other driver, now and then—far more in the aggregate than the amount required to buy the inspection equipment.

Here is another problem that affects everybody.

Emil C. Piochs Motor to Coast

Miss Sarah Jane Nickel, daughter of William Nickel of Ida, Mich., and Emil C. Pioch, Jr., of Barrington road, Grosse Pointe Park, were married on June 17 at 7 p.m. in Our Saviour Evangelical Lutheran Church in Detroit, in a candlelight service.

The bride wore a white satin gown with a fitted bodice with bustle and a full train. The high mesh neckline was met at the shoulder by three tiers of folded satin caught in front with a bow of seed pearls.

Mrs. Elmer Ziesma was the matron of honor and Mrs. Raymond Pioch and Evelyn Lapping were maids of honor. Diane Downey, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Truman Pioch, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the ushers included Walter Foraker of Detroit, and John Nickel, brother of the bride.

A reception in the Monroe Country Club followed the ceremony. The young couple are motoring to California, returning by way of Canada, following which they will live in Detroit.

Mrs. James B. Schumacher, of Cincinnati, O., as matron of honor, wore blue marquisette with matching picture hat. Her bouquet was of American Beauty roses.

Acting as flower girl was Gene Ann Light, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Light. Chantilly lace trimmed her white organza frock which was fashioned like the bride's. She wore a garland of roses in her hair.

Billy J. Cook, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Neville seated the guests. Coy G. Eklund served as best man.

A reception in the Wapakoneta Women's Club followed the ceremony, after which the newlyweds left on a motor trip to New Hampshire.

For traveling, the bride wore a white linen dressmaker suit accented with eyellet embroidery, a black picture hat and black patent accessories.

Mary Jane Pollock's Betrothal Disclosed

At a recent Sunday afternoon reception in her home on Hawthorne road, Mrs. Adele Pollock revealed the betrothal of her daughter, Mary Jane Pollock.

Miss Pollock is the bride-elect of David A. Scully, Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Scully of Nottingham road.

THE DANCING CHAPINS

Marian Chapin is the dancingest debutante of Summer 1948 . . . according to all we've heard . . .

Her twinkling feet haven't missed a dance since the parties started . . .

And another belle of the ball in the same family . . . is Sammy Chapin . . . whose dances were eagerly claimed by her own special stag line at a recent evening dance . . .

Understand Roy Chapin Jr. had scads of informal and candid pictures taken at Marian's ball the other evening . . . and hear they're so "Town and Countryish" it's a shame that only the family will have the fun of seeing them . . .

They'll be bound in a handsome album and presented to the debutante by her brother . . .

OFF TO MAINE

The Tom Paddocks will be quitting the Pointe . . . when August comes along . . .

They'll go again . . . to Biddeford Pool in Maine . . . one of the oldest . . . and most delightful of the NorthShore's Summer spots . . .

Famous for its Beach . . . its sunsets and sunrises . . . its tiny golf course . . . and lazy, lovely Summer life . . . Biddeford Pool may attract daughter, Nancy, too . . . before Summer's over . . .

OF SUN TANS AND SPORT

Summer reminds us of: The deep tans Mrs. Henri Hopkes always affects . . . collected at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club pool . . . her tan is invariably one of the most stunning at the Pointe . . .

How cool and fresh Mrs. Jackson Bingham always looks on even the most sweltering of days . . .

The morning golf sessions at the Country Club . . . and we wonder how Mrs. Freddie Alger is doing with her golf this year . . . she was a real enthusiast before Mr. A. became secretary of state and they became local at Lansing . . .

Those who go in for constitutions . . . walking briskly and breathing deeply . . . along the lake shore . . .

SUMMER FUN

The fact that Mrs. Samuel Heffelfinger Bell . . . and Mrs. Jonathan Latimer discovered the Summer they were debs . . . that no costume is more effective with a sun tan . . . than brown and white . . .

The gay activity at the pool houses of the T. D. Burls . . . the C. Henry Buhls . . . Mrs. Edsel Ford etc . . .

And the equally charmed gatherings at "playhouses" on the Pointe estates . . . the John B. Hartzells coming immediately to mind as the scene of wonderful steak suppers on hotter evenings . . .

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Regatta Attracts 164 Boats

Five Clubs Join in Sponsoring Events Which See Champions Crowned In Every Class; Cawthra Wins All Five Races

By Fred Runnells

The second annual DRYA Race Week is history and the skippers and their crews went back to their jobs to rest up after a hectic five days of racing which produced winners in 23 classes. Light breezes and broiling sun featured three of the five days and produced a multitude of candidates for sunburn lotion among the hundreds of sailors who participated.

Seven hundred and twenty-nine boats sailed in the five regattas, with Grosse Pointe Yacht Club drawing the largest entry on the last day, Monday, July 5, with 164 yachts. This figure missed by six of tying the all time record turnout of 170 in DRYA regattas established in the Detroit Yacht Club Sweepstakes regatta last Labor Day.

Five clubs sponsored the series and each day a larger fleet turned out. Here's how it went. Thursday, July 1—Detroit Y. C., 111 boats; Friday, July 2, Bayview, 134; Saturday, July 3, St. Clair, 161; Sunday, July 4, Edison Boat Club, 159, and Monday, July 5, Grosse Pointe Y. C., 164.

One of the hottest series of the event was staged by those amazing Stars. Merly Amo's "War Paint," by winning the final race of the series squeezed out a three point margin over Bill Douglas' "Mondovi" and the writer's "Bral."

In the third race the Stars gave the judges a busy time at the finish line when 45 seconds separated the first and last place boats.

Probably the hard luck skipper of the week was Arden Poulson, who won 3 of the 5 races in the L class, but had to be satisfied with second place behind Ted Kuhn who won two races and finished second in the other three races. Kuhn nipped his rival by one and one-half points.

Charley Busee's 44 foot sloop from DYC gave the big boats something to think about in the coming Port Huron-Mackinac race, a week from this Saturday, when he won four of the five races to capture top honors in the Cruising A division.

In the Schooner-ketch class, Bob Neesley's big black "Malabar" walked off with the first place trophy but John Rogers' "Jolly Roger" won its first race here, thus making Race Week a huge success for her owner.

Sterling Martin won his first race in the eight meter class since buying "Thisbe" from Freddie Temple this spring. However, rotund Charley Beck sailed "Conwego" into the championship by getting four winning guns.

Hank Cawthra was the only skipper to win five first places

Finals Reached In Net Tourney

Hugh Dill and Bob Stritzinger will team up to meet Jim Barker and George Beatty in the semi-finals of the District qualifying rounds of the National Junior Tennis Championship this week.

The winners of the match will automatically become the champions because the other finals entry of George Kennedy and Frank Reid will default. Kennedy has left town for a month's vacation.

Kennedy and Reid reached the finals by downing Bud Golla and Alex Mann in the semi-finals, 10-8, 2-6, and 6-3. Dill Stritzinger, Mann, Golla, Reid, Barker, and George Kennedy all played for the Grosse Pointe High tennis squad last semester.

The complete results are: Quarter-Finals: Hugh Dill and Bob Stritzinger defeated Parker and Preston (6-1), (8-6); Barker and Beatty defeated Fushman and Wild (6-7), (6-3); Kennedy and Reid defeated Toenjus and Kennedy (6-1), (6-0); Golla and Mann defeated Smart and Licklider (7-5), (6-4).

Semi-Finals: Kennedy-Reid defeated Mann-Golla (10-8), (2-6), (8-3); Dill-Stritzinger vs. Barker-Beatty.

Sail Interest On Increase At Park Pier

First Regatta Held On July 4 With Nine Yachts Entered; More Scheduled

By FRED RUNNELLS

Dave Beauvais, Grosse Pointe Park recreational director, has the sailing enthusiasts really hepped up this season and the boys got out last Sunday, July 4, for the Parks' first sailing event of the season. It was won by Dr. A. M. Yeager and Ralph Johnson on corrected time.

It is planned to hold regattas every two weeks over a triangular course in front of the Park pier.

Dates for the regattas are as follows: July 18, August 1, 15, 29, September 5 and 19.

In order to keep the interest up, Beauvais awards a prize to every boat that finishes the race. The prizes are purchased from the two dollar entry fee collected from each competing boat before each race. Only the first three boats received prizes in the July 4 regatta, which was sailed under handicap rules because of the difference in the size of the boats.

Eighteen boats are berthed at the Park pier, although only nine sailed in the first race. Fred Buckbinder captured second place and J. W. McCarthy, whose boat was the scratch boat of the fleet, finished third, failing to save her time by five minutes and 48 seconds.

Frank Miller is race committee chairman and is assisted by Bud Wellman, who also doubles as publicity chairman. Frank Edner is in charge of the protest committee and Ralph Johnson and E. R. Kalinge handle the handicap committee. Carl J. McPail is in charge of the prize committee.

It is hoped that in the near future some "angel" will donate a perpetual trophy for the boys to sail for each year.

During the off season Beauvais is a coach of swimming and basketball at Durfee Junior high school. He took over the director's duties at the Park pier last summer and since that time has succeeded in creating interest in competitive swimming and sailing.

The Park's second annual swimming race will be held August 2 under Beauvais' supervision.

Something like this could work itself into inter-community affair if the other recreational directors would organize swimming teams composed of youngsters from their own communities. Not only would this give the youngsters good clean competition but it would help in keeping them off the streets and out of mischief during the summer months when time seems to lag for students.

It would also be an incentive for our youngsters to keep fit and build good strong bodies while having fun.

Metropolitans Leading League

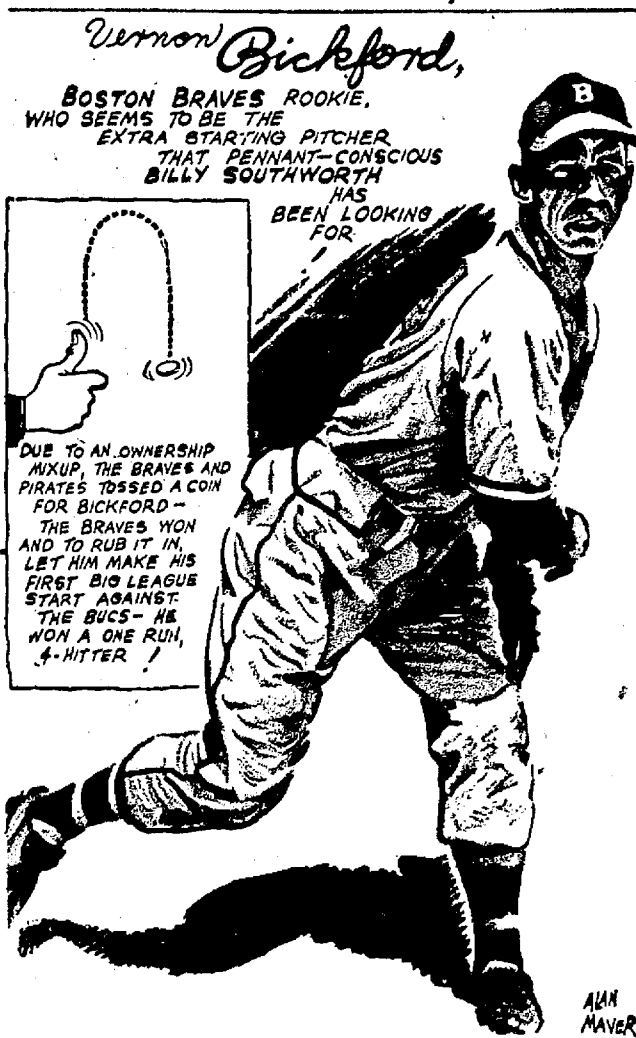

Metropolitan remains the only undefeated team in the Pointe Junior Baseball League after the first week of play. Metropolitan captured both games last week.

Wednesday Metropolitan downed Lions 9-5, behind the pitching of Ryan. All five runs scored by the losers were unearned. Sunday Metropolitan swamped Kiwanis 15-7.

Optimist won its first game of the season Wednesday by downing Kiwanis 5-3. Monday the Lions dumped Optimist 8-2 behind the brilliant pitching of young Mike Wallace. Wallace retired the first ten men to face him before the Optimists collected a safety on a freak hit to right field. Wallace received excellent support.

Table with 2 columns: Team Name, Wins/Losses. Metropolitan: 2-0, Lions: 1-1, Optimists: 1-1, Kiwanis: 0-2.

HELPING OUT . . . . . By Alan Maver

Boat Banter by Fred Runnells

Great Lakes crews who participated in the 1948 Bermuda race got a pat on the back for the great job they did in this blue ribbon ocean classic. The drinking water boys showed the ocean skippers that the kind of sailors we have around the Great Lakes can find their way around in any kind of water by finishing well up in the 31 boat fleet that sailed the 635 mile race down to the onion patch.

A Grosse Pointe boat, J. B. Ford Jr.'s big "Royono," turned in the best showing of the boats manned by the fresh water sailors by finishing second. "Royono" was followed in turn by "Escapade" (Wendell Anderson, third); "Kitty Hawk" (Bob Timken of Cleveland, fifth); "Valkyrie" (skipped by Tom Petzold, eighth); "Tigress" (Frank White of Vermillion, Ohio, twelfth); "Stormy Weather" (Freddie Temple of Toledo, seventeenth).

The Detroit boys were entertained by Wendell Anderson and J. B. Ford at the swank Reefs Club before they took off to fly back to their jobs in Detroit.

It is reported all were sporting long, red English shorts at the time.

The five sponsoring clubs, Detroit Y. C., Detroit Boat Club, Bayview Yacht Club, Edison Boat Club and Grosse Pointe Y. C. really gave the competing skippers and their crews a grand round of parties during the DRYA second annual "Race Week" just concluded.

Boat Club Crew Captures Crown

The Detroit Boat Club jumped back into the National rowing spotlight when its intermediate crew stroked its way to victory in the joint 74th annual National and Peoples Regattas held at Philadelphia Monday, July 5.

The Detroit crew, stroked by John Eichenlaub, moved into the lead at the start of its race, increased its advantage to two boat lengths at the three quarter mile mark and crossed the finish line of the mile and a quarter race at a steady 40-stroke per minute beat.

Mel Free, Dan Sullivan, John Raynor, Bill Taylor, Pat Costello, Lou Braun, Ed Grabowski, Eichenlaub, stroke, and George Hubbard, coxswain, made up the winning combination coached by Bob Toomey.

The Boat Club's 145-pound eight oared shell of Bill Pound, Bob Pounds, Jim Connor, Pat Crane, Jr., Gene Clysdale, Jerry Smith, Bob Palmer, Fred Palmer, stroke, and Dick Ryan, coxswain, finished in second place behind the West Side Boat Club of the Buffalo Fairmount Rowing Association, after the two boats had tangled at the half way mark.

Errors Cost Helin Team Losses 9, 10

Pointers Make Total of 14 Miscues in Two Confests During Week

By JOE FROMM

WANTED: One baseball glove without holes. Call Bill Mesmer, manager of Helin Tackle, Juniors, baseball team.

Any replies to this want ad will be greatly appreciated by Manager Bill Mesmer of Helin Tackle, Juniors. In two games last week Helin made a total of 14 errors to lose their ninth and tenth games of the season.

On Wednesday Helin was swamped by Fireman's 14-4, and Sunday the team lost to Nutt Motor, 6-4. The hapless Helin players made nine errors in the initial game and five in the Nutt Motor contest.

Helin now has a record of five wins and ten losses. The squad needs to win the five remaining games on the schedule in order to make the playoffs. A .500 average is necessary.

Sunday Helin came from behind three times to tie the score but lost, 6-4. The local squad, which is playing in Class D of the Detroit Baseball Federation, offset a 1-0 deficit in the first with a run on singles by Joe Hipfel and John Pervis and a fly out by Ken Christianson.

Nutt Motor scored two more in the second, but Helin came back to tie the score in the bottom of the second. Guarasimon was hit by a pitched ball, and Bryant and Allen singled, Guarasimon scoring on Allen's hit.

Hanjaras was hit by a pitched ball to load the bases. Hipfel walked to force Bryant over the plate. Miller and Christianson struck out and Jervis flew out to end the inning.

Nutt Motor took a 3-4 lead in the fifth, but Helin tied it again with a run in the sixth. Allen singled for the second time in the game and Hipfel scored him with a triple.

Nutt Motor put the game on ice with single runs in the eighth and ninth. Allen, Hipfel and Jervis each collected two hits.

Allen led the Helin attack Wednesday with two singles and a double. Don Miller collected two singles. Only six of the Fireman runs were earned. The rest scored on the nine errors.

Table with 2 columns: Team Name, Score. Firemans: .050 014 4-14 10 5, Helin: .000 021 2-4 9 9, Wallis and Sieloff; Bryan; Christianson and Allen.

Table with 2 columns: Team Name, Score. Nutt Mot: 120 010 011-6 7 5, Oshinash and Thimakis; Bryant and Allen.

New Team Captures Crown In Junior Ball Tournament

Broncos from Grosse Pointe Shores Walk Off with Honors at Mason Field in Fourth of July Celebration

The Broncos, a new team, captured the championship of the Grosse Pointe Woods Junior Baseball League tournament held at Mason School Field July 5. The team, which is from Grosse Pointe Shores, defeated the Lions 9-3 in the final game.

The tournament was held for the first time for the six teams in the league. The Lions are the champions from last season's play. The Broncos captured the initial game of the tournament by defeating the Bears, 8-7. The Lions downed the Cubs, 7-2, behind the combined pitching of Wayne Von Allmen and Marv Gragg.

VonAllmen pitched the first three innings and did not yield a hit. He received credit for the win. Gragg pitched the last two innings and gave up one hit and two runs.

The Broncos reached the final game by downing the Tigers in a wild 18-10 game. The Lions earned the right to meet the Broncos by defeating the Wolves 10-4 in the fourth game of the day.

VonAllmen started on the mound and pitched four innings. He yielded to Gregg after his teammates had given him a 6-run lead. VonAllmen got the credit for the win, his second of the day.

Broncos downed the Lions in the final game behind the pitching of Norm Brothers. Dale Ewart was the hitting star of the tournament by collecting seven hits in nine trips to the plate. Ewart caught all three games for the winning Broncos.

In regular season games last week in the league the Cubs defeated the Tigers, 3-2. The Bears-Lions game was rained out after three innings.

Dame Nature Plays Havoc With Club Softball League

The Neighborhood Club Softball League once more has been badly upset by Mother Nature and the rain. Only four out of eight scheduled games were played last week.

Monday Fisher Record came through with three runs and three hits in the seventh to break a 4-4 deadlock and defeat P. G. Lunch, 7-4. DeFoures downed Pagota Soda Bar 4-2. DeFoures held the opponents to three hits, all made in the initial two innings. In the third game that day AmVets defeated Grace Church 4-1.

In the lone game played Tuesday in the South division Hudson swamped Chrysler MoPar 12-2. Stone of Hudson allowed only two hits.

The schedule for next week includes: Monday, July 12 (North) Diamond No. 1: DeFoures vs. Fisher Record; Diamond No. 2: Pete Moor's vs. Pagota Soda Bar; Diamond No. 3: Eastern Heating vs. Grace Church; Diamond No. 4: P. G. Lunch vs. AmVets. Tuesday, July 13 (South) Diamond No. 1: Roose Vanker vs. G. P. Merchants; Diamond No. 2: Hudson vs. Service Grinding; Diamond No. 3: Chrysler MoPar vs. Rustic Log; Diamond No. 4: Uptown Cleaners vs. Old Brick Inn.

Pointers Drop Mound Battle

A delayed double steal failed in the last half of the ninth inning and Grosse Pointe dropped a tough pitcher's battle to Roose Vanker, 1-0, at Belle Isle Sunday, June 27.

Trailing by one run going into the last half of the ninth, Grosse Pointe attempted a delayed double steal with two out. Bayard Johnson, on first, broke for second to draw a throw from the Roose Vanker catcher. As the throw sailed toward second in an attempt to get Johnson, Gregg broke for the plate with the return throw and Gregg ending in a dead heat. A near riot broke out when the umpire called Gregg out. Grosse Pointe followers were irate and stormed the field. "John Law" stepped into the picture to quell the angry group.

The play was the third out and gave Roose Vanker the ball game. Roose Vanker's lone run came in the sixth inning on two singles and a stolen base. Bob Ruck went the distance for the Pointers and struck out 15 and issued eight bases on balls and allowed four hits. Paul DeMulleer went all the way for Roose Vanker and got credit for the win. He struck out five, gave up three bases on balls and allowed five hits to get credit for the win.

It was announced after the game that 14-year-old Russ Gregg, Pointe first baseman, and Pitcher Harry Edsall were named on the American Legion All Star team. The game will be played at Briggs Stadium during the month of August. The date has not been set at this writing.

THEY'RE HIS HOBBIES: Bob Saari, recruit tackle on the Detroit Lions football team, directs most of his hobby interest in photography toward picturing his four-months-old daughter, Katherine Claire.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS: Your youngster won't slip on newly-waxed floors if you apply a small strip of adhesive tape to the soles and heels of his shoes.

A thought for July—
From a cook book, vintage 1912:
"One little simple song we sing,
"To brides but newly wed.
"Just make the best of everything,
"Especially of bread."

And from another cook book, circa 1910—evidently a period when the mood was "let 'em have it straight from the shoulder" . . .
"Beauty is the first present Nature gives to women . . . and the first it takes away."

Mr. George McManus (of Bringing Up Father fame) on humor: "If you were to ask me my favorite joke, I'd probably, depending on the day of the week, quote one that has whiskers longer than Santa Claus. I might tell you this was my favorite: 'Is your wife entertaining this winter?' said one social swell to another. 'Not very,' was the answer.

"I might recall the time an ambitious poet sent a poem to Eugene Field entitled, 'Why do I live?' Gene immediately wrote back: 'Because you sent your poem by mail.'

"Or I might quote the bible (II Chronicles, 16:12): 'And Asa in the thirty-ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceedingly great; yet in his disease he sought not the Lord but turned to his physicians—and Asa slept with his fathers.'

Dorothy B. Hughes, the popular whodunit author, wanted a maid for a small flat she had taken in New York. She went to an employment agency and made known her requirements. Next day an applicant was at her door. She was a girl newly arrived in the country from Finland.

"Here," thought the novelist, gazing on the innocent countenance, "is a fresh, unspoiled creature—exactly what I want."

But to each question—"Can you cook? Can you scrub floors? Can you wait at table? Can you sew?"—there came an emphatic shake of the head and an equally emphatic "No!"

"Then, what can you do?"

A broad grin crossed the Finish girl's face, and, in a tone of pride and triumph, she said, "I can milk reindeer."

Thrift Garden Drive Aim Is Saving on Home Food Bill

Grow a garden and save money is the theme of the thrifty householder this season, according to the National Garden Institute, which is launching a drive for Thrift Gardens. Consumer resistance to high food prices is mounting, surveys show, and unless the level of retail food prices falls considerably an organized movement to boycott costly food items may result.

The Thrift Garden movement was first launched in the spring of 1947 by Lester J. Norris in St. Charles, Ill. From there on it spread rapidly to other cities and was given recognition by Governor Dwight Green of Illinois. The consumer really started the present drive as a check on inflation and the high cost of living according to Rodney H. Brandon, newly elected president of the National Garden Institute.

"When tomatoes are selling for 50 cents a pound and prices of other vegetables and fruits are soaring towards all-time highs," Brandon said, "it is time to start something. The only answer to the threat of high food prices that the average man has is to grow his own vegetables. That is just plain common sense. Besides, the home-grown things are incomparably better in quality. Such luxury crops as garden peas and sweet corn never taste so good as when picked fresh from the garden."

Seed Sales High

"Although the season is very backward and many gardens have not yet been spaded," Brandon continued, "the advance sale of garden seeds and supplies indicates that there will be many gardens planted this year, possibly as many as during the war years. Interest in flowers and home grounds improvement is also very keen. We need a vast

Commission Urges Zoning Law Change

Amendment to the zoning ordinance to permit the city to remove non-conforming buildings and land uses which blight the adjoining property was urged today by the City Plan Commission at a public hearing before the Common Council.

Under the procedure proposed by the Commission, the blighting structures could be acquired by the city by condemnation, and the cost of their removal would be paid for by special assessments levied against owners of adjacent property benefited by the removal.

Speaking in favor of the proposed amendment, George F. Emery called it one of the most useful devices ever proposed for improving residential neighborhoods.

"It is well known," he said, "that isolated commercial structures on a residential street decrease the value of nearby homes and hasten the deterioration of the surrounding area."

"This amendment will make it possible to get rid of such blighting structures without cost to the city and at small cost to the nearby property owners. At the same time, the owner of the non-conforming property will receive fair compensation when it is removed."

Non-conforming buildings and uses consist principally of industrial and commercial buildings constructed in residential areas before the zoning ordinance was enacted in 1941. Some others are operating under special permits issued during the war.

Legislation to authorize cities to remove non-conforming uses was approved by the state legislature in 1947.

Check Speed In Effort to Halt Crashes

Traffic accidents caused by speed will be the target of an intensive educational and enforcement program in Detroit and the Metropolitan area starting next Monday and continuing for six weeks.

Motorists will be reminded through newspaper articles, radio programs, billboard posters and other media that "Speed Kills—Take It Easy." This is the general theme of the program.

The program in the Metropolitan area is linked with a statewide program being conducted by the Michigan State Police, local law enforcement agencies throughout the state and the Michigan State Safety Commission.

Speed perennially is Detroit's greatest killer, and accidents caused by speed rise to a peak in June and July. For this reason the program is being conducted at this time.

Detroit police will be particularly alert for motorists violating the speed law, which may be violated either by exceeding the legal speed limit or by driving too fast for conditions. The legal speed limit in Detroit is 25 miles per hour, unless otherwise marked.

More than 1,100 posters bearing the general theme "Speed Kills — Take It Easy" will be placed on street-side standards throughout Detroit and in other municipalities in the Metropolitan area. In addition 4,000 smaller posters pointing out the little-realized fact that it takes 60 feet, or four car lengths, to stop a car going 25 miles per hour, the legal limit, will also be posted in strategic locations throughout the area.

Both posters have been obtained by the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit for distribution.

Lists Proper Water Care

Are you sure that the drinking water supply at your cottage is safe? Dr. Bruce H. Douglas, commissioner of health, says modernization of sewage disposal systems in cottages has been greatly increased in the last year and sometimes in re-arranging sewage disposal systems, proper care is not taken to protect the water supply. These changes make it even more necessary to have samples of drinking water examined. Already some persons have been ill from dysentery contracted from drinking water at their own cottages.

Dr. Douglas advises prospective vacationers to have a sample of drinking water from their cottages tested now. Detroit residents may have this done without cost by bringing the sample to the laboratory of the Detroit Department of Health at Herman Keifer Hospital. Sterile containers supplied by the Department of Health must be used to collect these water samples. The containers and information about taking a sample will be supplied by the Department and may be picked up at the laboratory at Herman Keifer Hospital or at the Department of Health, 334 Bates Street.

Until you are sure that the water is safe, boil drinking water for ten minutes or add five drops of common liquid laundry bleach to each gallon of clear water, or add ten drops if the water is turbid. The bleach must be in contact with the water for at least 30 minutes.

SEEKS MASTER'S DEGREE

FALLS OFF LADDER

Furman Gust of 5600 Coplin, Detroit, suffered a back injury when he fell from a ladder while he was painting the Henry B. Joy residence on the afternoon of July 1. He was taken to Cottage Hospital by Officers Pelkey, Lyford and Beaupre.

FALLS OVER GRILL

Nancy St. Amour of 869 Ellair place, suffered a badly cut knee when she tripped over a grill at 185 Beaupre road on the night of July 4. She was taken to Cottage Hospital in the Farms patrol wagon by Officers Backman, Boylan and Sylvester.

HURT AT BALL GAME

Janice Judge of 115 Muir road, fell while watching the ball game at Kerby Field on Monday, July 5, and cut her leg. She was taken to Cottage Hospital by Farms Police Officer Dhaveloose. Twelve stitches were required to close the wound.

Sportsmanship Council Is Formed in Detroit Schools

In the interest of promoting better sportsmanship among the Detroit Public High Schools, the Intra-Metropolitan Student Sportsmanship Council was organized.

The council, in which Detroit's 17 high schools are represented, is undertaking to alleviate and solve many of the problems which naturally arise in athletic competition among schools.

It consists of 34 regular members, each high school contributing two representatives. In addition the school selects one alternate. Meetings are held every two weeks during the school year.

Each public high school has within its own building its own sportsmanship sub-council. Its membership consists of the senior class president, cheerleader captain, editor of the school paper, student council president, captains of both the boys' and girls' athletic teams, as well as captains of the ushers and the safety council. It is from this group that the representatives to the Metropolitan council are chosen.

STRONG PROGRAM

The IMSSC has undertaken a comprehensive program. Besides its chief work of promoting good feeling and better sportsmanship among schools, it stirs up interest in sports events and attempts to get greater support from the student body for these events. It promotes school spirit and campaigns actively against rowdiness at games. In addition, it is educating pupils and their parents in the rules of the various sports.

Its Sportsmanship Code reads: "We consider all athletic opponents as our guests. We will accept all decisions of the officials. We do not utter abusive or irritating remarks or attempt to rattle an opposing player. We applaud opponents who make good plays or show good sportsmanship."

June 2, Chadsey was host for the day to six members of the MacKenzie council, while MacKenzie will in turn have six Chadsey students. This is the exchange plan drawn up by the main council whereby a selected number of students from each of the high schools will be guests of another school. It fits in well with the general scheme of promoting general good sportsmanship.

For the current semester, Iolanda Iannazzi and Frank Greenlee are Chadsey's representatives to the Metropolitan council, with Bernice Cygan acting as alternate.

Mr. and Mrs. Emidio Iannazzi of 7379 Wheeler, are the parent of Iolanda. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenlee, 1503 Blaine, and Bernice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cygan, 5904 Florida.

"Good lights are vitally important for night driving. Two out of three fatal accidents occur at night when a pedestrian or another vehicle is more difficult to see. Check now to make sure both headlights and taillights are working properly."

National accident records show that vehicle defects, caused by owners' neglect, are contributing factors in 18 per cent of all fatal traffic accidents. Yet this figure does not tell the whole story. Information on vehicle condition is available in less than half of all reported fatal accidents.

A recent survey, in which more than 2,000,000 cars were checked, showed that one in every three cars tested had one or more mechanical defects.

Woman's World Accessory Guide Is Valuable In Planning Spring Wardrobe

By Erta Haley

MANY women tell they don't know just how to select their accessories for a costume; others say they are not familiar enough with the trend to look for something fresh and new.

For this reason, I've compiled a picture of accessories for spring. When you need something, check the list and you'll easily find what's best to seek.

You'll find that this year, fashion needs the finishing touch and nothing completes the ensemble more than feminine effects at the wrist, throat, soft shoulder and slim waistline.

If your budget is limited because you spent heavily last fall and winter to achieve the new look, you will do well to make your basic dresses new again by buying proper accessories.

It's a four star year for collars, cuffs, capelets and cummerbunds, worn separately or teamed together with each other and with blouses, dummies, plastrons, fichus and jabots.

And please don't forget the lingerie and eyelid petticoat ruffles that peek out of hemlines. Everything is headed toward the ensemble look in fashions, and scarfs score highly, too.

Why not dress up a black or navy dress with a soft flattering capelet?

Faille Favorite

Rayon faille rates high with teen-agers because it's young, crisp and perky. This rayon faille dress has all the new features—full skirt, gathered back and a wide bertha collar that is reminiscent of grandmother's best frock.

Woman's World New Slipcovers Will Relieve Jaded Look of Tired Rooms

By Erta Haley

SLIP covers, whether you are planning them as part of a redecorating scheme or using them to cover new furniture pieces done in muslin, are an important part of a dramatic decorating scheme, so it's a good idea to create styles that will enhance their surroundings.

Today, many newcomers to the homemaking ranks prefer to buy chairs, sofas or chaise longue with only the muslin cover so they can use their own choice of style and fabric for either a traditional slip cover or a permanent slip cover to resemble the upholstery.

Even though you may be new to sewing, don't be afraid to tackle a slip cover project. The size need not overwhelm you as there is not much difficult sewing essential. And, if you want professional advice, there's a local sewing center which can give you latest decorating tricks and shortcuts to making them.

Plan Style, Select Fabric First First decision in a sewing project of this type will be to decide the style you want to follow in decorating. After that you will know what to ask for in a fabric since patterns differ depending upon modern, 18th century or colonial.

Fabrics, you'll find, are plentiful, and there's a wide choice of floral, striped and plain designs. You might find it effective to carry out a sofa in a striped fabric, another chair in plain and still mix stripes, floral and plain designs scheme in the room.

Finish With Trim Of Cording or Fringe Before joining the sections of slip cover, make trimming for seams and bottom edge. Applique cut-out flower clusters across back, seat or arms will have decorative appeal. The zigzag attachment on the sewing machine can be used for this stitching job.

To give a corded finish to slip covers, make a welting and use it to join slip cover sections and bottom edge of plain box finish. Welting is a cotton cord covered with a bias strip of material. Cut bias one and one-half to one and three-quarters of an inch wide, depending upon cord used. Place cord in center of bias strip. Fold strip over, bringing the edges together.

Stitch close to the cord with cording foot attachment on sewing machine. The same fabric as used in the chair or sofa can be used for this finish or it can be contrasting. Closings for slip covers should be slide fasteners. Insert them at side of back leg, applying it as you would on a placket.

Spring Rayon Blouse

This attractive skirt and blouse combination is neat enough for office wear and feminine enough for an after-work date. The ruffled blouse is of soft, washable, one-denier spun rayon made of Avisco rayon yarns. The skirt is navy blue rayon crepe which goes with any of the new spring blouses.

Touch of Elegance

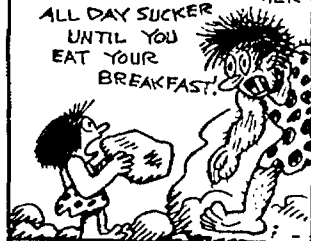

A touch of ruffle either for day or evening is good and currently the vogue. It's being seen in abundance on petticoats, dressmaker swim suits, blouses and new print dresses. The ruffle may be self fabric, crisp white organdie, embroidery, lace or contrasting solid color.

Wife Preservers

If you want an extra flavor for your lemonade or other long drinks, use long sticks of cinnamon as "sizzle sticks" to stir them.

Jack Williams Has Anniversary

Jack Williams, of Colonial road, Grosse Pointe Shores, vice-president and account supervisor of Brooke, Smith, French & Dorrance, Inc., Detroit and New York advertising agency, celebrated his 25th anniversary with the agency on July 1.

Mr. Williams joined BSF&D immediately after graduating from the University of Michigan, where he was captain of the basketball team. He is a member of the Officers' Committee and of the Plans Board of the agency.

Fellow officials of BSF&D helped to celebrate the occasion with a luncheon in his honor at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Siebert Named WJR Director

William G. Siebert, 259 Merriweather, Grosse Pointe Farms, is now one of the five directors of Radio Station WJR. His promotion to a directorship was announced recently by G. A. Richards, chairman of the board.

Coincidental with his appointment as a director, Siebert, present WJR treasurer, also assumed the additional duties of secretary of the corporation.

Siebert has been a resident of Grosse Pointe for 12 years. He is also one of the oldest employees of WJR from the standpoint of service with an excellent record of accomplishment. He first came to WJR in July 1929, as auditor and supervisor of the station accounting department. He was appointed assistant treasurer of WJR in 1946 and became treasurer January 1, 1947.

Siebert assumed his new duties as director and secretary-treasurer immediately.

Wood Offering Imported Cars

Jack Wood's popular service station at Mack avenue and Cook road has become the headquarters in the Pointe for fine imported motor vehicles.

Wood Motors is the center for sales and service of the famous M. C. Sports Car and Hillman Minis, (both of English manufacture, the popular Jaguar car and the renowned James and Jawa motorcycles.

Paul Russo, famous racer, says of the M. C. Sports Car, "Here at last is a stock car with racing car performance and a new appeal to all motoring enthusiasts. In my opinion it is truly a great car."

Big Swim Meet Starting Today

The entire State of Michigan is looking forward to the greatest aquatic event ever held in the state. Never before in the history of the Olympics has the country produced such a great group of stars who are pointed and geared to make a bid for a world title at London.

From the west coast, where a series of championship meets have just been concluded, new stars have emerged; new records written in the book as swimmers from Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle, splashed over the Olympic distances.

A large group has trained at Yale under Olympic coach Bob Kipphut, and every other day new world records have been made by such great stars as Joe Verduin, Allen Stack and others. Fifty boys have trained at Yale.

The Hawaiian team has arrived, and this squad of nine boys and girls is the greatest ever turned out in the islands, where swimming is one of the territory's finest traditions.

New York, Miami, and Brooklyn have their stars... Michigan has a seven-man team; Ohio State has six. Ann Curtis, Brenda Heiser, Nancy Merki, Bill Smith, Jimmy McClane, Miller Anderson and Suzanne Zimmerman are headed for Detroit. More than 450 swimmers will be here, and never before has there been such an entry list of stars.

There will be four great days of thrilling events—every morning at 9:30 and every afternoon at 5 p.m.—eight thrill-packed sessions!

Tickets for the United States Olympic Swimming and Diving Finals to be held at Rouge Park on July 8, 9, 10 and 11 may be purchased at the following places: Young Women's Christian Association (Wetherell); Young Men's Christian Association, (Wetherell); Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, (Bagley); Detroit Edison Company, (Washington Blvd.); Michigan Bell Telephone Company, (Cass Ave.); Convention Bureau Information Booth, (Campus Martius).

Tickets are $1.20 - $1.80 and $2.40 for each session.

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

MRS. THEODORE DE LONG BUHL . . . having a wonderful time at a garden reception . . . looking as smart as her repletee . . . in a brown pure silk handpainted in white figures. A high neckline buttoned to the waist in pearls. Material bows finished the neckline and were used effectively at the neckline. Her tiny rolled brown straw bandeau has a wispy brown veil and was trimmed with matching maline blossoms on one side. White gloves, a brown shoulder bag and brown completed the costume.

We keep seeing MRS. JOHN GORDON HILL in the most dazzling Summer costumes this season. One afternoon last week she was glimpsed wearing a dreamy and dressy turquoise linen frock with effective ballerina skirt. At the midriff, the frock had a wide insert of turquoise lace.

Junior fashion at its best was shown by little LOUISE SYMINGTON . . . better known as "Weezie" to the quite-a-bit-younger set. Noted at a Summer party, Louise's pink linen frock (short for six year olds) was dainty with an ivy motif as trim. In her locks she wore a halo of real ivy with tiny pink rosebuds blossoming out from the green every now and then.

That cute young matron, MRS. FRANK N. MORAN, is one of the legion of smart women to go in for the veddy 1948 gold sandals this season. Saw her the other morning strolling along the boulevard in gold sandals, the gold being repeated in the kid belt on her navy linen sun frock. The frock had a low square back to catch the ultra violets. It was long and sleeveless.

Noel Coward: Little Nell of Old Drerey.
Robert Benchely: Louisa M. Woolcott
George Jean Nathan: A Seidlitz Powder in Times Square.
Edna Ferber: A New Jersey Nero who mistook his pinafore for a toga.

Harpo Marx: Just a big dreamer with a remarkable sense of double-entry bookkeeping.

Of the Hollywood columnist, Louella Parsons, Howard Dietz once remarked: "Lolly can spell anything but words."
And Dietz on the subject of L. B. Mayer, "The Czar of All The Rushes."

Heywood Brown on the subject of Westbrook Pegler.
"The trouble with Peg is that he was bitten early in life by an income tax."

When Cornelia Otis Skinner opened in a revival of George Bernard Shaw's Candida, he cabled, "Excellent. Greatest." Miss Skinner, overwhelmed, cabled back, "Undeserving such praise." Shaw answered, "I meant the play." Miss Skinner bristled, and replied, "So did I!"

George Oppenheimer of Hollywood was once invited for a weekend at the fabulous San Simeon ranch of William Randolph Hearst. His mother made him render a prompt and detailed report of the goings-on.

The morning after his arrival she received the following wire: "Two things have happened to me here already that never happened to me before. My car was stopped by a camel and I fell downstairs in my own bathroom."

LYNN JOHNSTON OF LOTHROP ROAD AND ANN HARTZELL OF RIDGE ROAD

By Kitty Carney

The Pointe younger generation believes in hobbies, too. Two eleven-year-olds who puppetry as a hobby have made it interesting and entertaining for themselves and others. The youngsters are Lynn Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Johnston of Lothrop road, and Ann Mayo Hartzell, whose parents are Dr. and Mrs. John B. Hartzell of Ridge road.

Lynn first became interested four years ago when she received a couple of puppets as a Christmas present. They were only wartime puppets, she hastens to explain, and they are wearing out now. But their young mistress has made good use of them.

"Little Red Riding Hood" and other themes popular with children have been among the plays which the girls (and their puppets) have presented for their families and friends. Lynn has each of the plays, say Lynn and Ann. First of all, they must decide on their play and then learn the various parts, changing their voices to conform to each of the characters. They dress the puppets themselves for the productions.

When Lynn selected a story from a third grade reader and made it into a play for her classmates at Grosse Pointe Country Day School, the pupils liked it so well that she had to give it again in each of the classrooms from kindergarten through the sixth grade. Ann attends Richard School.

Although Lynn and Ann have given up puppetry during the summer months, they expect to return to their puppets with renewed vigor in the fall. Their experiment, which began as a sort of rainy day project, has developed into an enjoyable hobby.

Pointe Counter Points

By C.M.C.

EVERY day is baby day at JACOBSON'S—as you'll know if you have visited their stylish infants' department. It's enough to make Baby coo with delight at the items provided for his comfort . . . from bottles, diapers and infant apparel right on up through furnishings for his nursery.

An all metal baby stand in white drew our attention. It had three nice roomy shelves, large enough to hold all those articles needed in Baby's room, an adjustable rack on each side for towels and wash clothes and, at the top, a tiny shaded night light just perfect for the nursery. Price, only $4.95. (Right in the midst of all our admiration, it came to us that this particular stand would be veddy practical for the bathroom in any home.)

JACOBSON'S "baby buoy" for "baby boy . . . or girl" will save many a back ache for the mama of the growing infant, old enough for a man size bathtub but not so old as to be left alone. The safety belt holds Baby securely in the chairlike steel contraption, while suction cups on the bottom of the buoy grip the tub to keep him from traveling in the water. A floating duck which comes with the set will occupy Baby's attention when mama is called from the room ($3.50).

We also fell in love with the little white lamb which guards a tiny bulb so that Baby can have a night light all his own ($1.95) . . . Adjustable safety strap and self-locking foot rest are features of the lightweight plastic toy ($6.95) in JACOBSON'S baby department.

Another "must mention" is JACOBSON'S collapsible play pen ($22.95). The sturdily constructed pen, which rests on casters and is built high off the floor, boasts rounded mental corners to guard against Baby's hurting himself, and is a merry sight with each of the vertical bars painted in a bright color.

A gift which Baby's mother will appreciate is a bath apron from JACOBSON'S. The full size apron ($5.95) is of Turkish toweling with detachable rubber lining. It's available in peach, blue or white with contrasting binding.

Most of these furnishings come in baby colors—pink, blue or white—to suit the nursery color scheme. Anyone who has a baby at home or a baby on her gift list will find a grand selection of reasonably priced and attractive articles in JACOBSON'S infant department.

Junior League Scribblers' Column

OPERATION MIDNIGHT

By Elizabeth S. Stephens

Where am I? Why is everything black? Ah, I know now. It is sometime in the night. I'm in bed now but not for long, that coughing and sputtering I hear is not coming from the outboard motor I was just dreaming about; instead it's my darling daughter warming up to a good cry.

All right, Angel, I'll get your bottle right away. Can't you just lie there quietly and politely now that you know I'm awake and wait until it's ready? Oh, I guess not. Now let's see, the slippers are under the bed — check — and the bathrobe is at the foot — double check; everything's ready but me. Please don't scream like that, Sweetheart. You'd think that I never fed you, even when you ask for it so prettily. As I recall I spend at least five hours out of each twenty-four pouring your formula into you, and heaven knows how many more hours putting it together. Besides, you'll wake your Daddy in one more minute, and that would not be at all sensible of you, my pet.

Ouch, that hall light is blinding, and my feet must be asleep still, as I can't walk in a straight line. Thump, thump, thump, am I hitting each step on the stairway or are they coming up to hit me? I believe the ice box used to be right over here. Oh yes. Ugh! What did I feel? Lettuce. Here we are. This bottle seems heavy but it may be because of my weakened condition. Hmmm. Detroit Creamery Coffee Cream — try again, Betty.

Yes, Lady Stephens, here I come with your bedtime snack or early breakfast or whatever you want to call it. Here I come, Little One. What! No, no, this is too much for your Mother. You're sound asleep again!
