Three Injured in Head-on Crash on Mack

Critically injured in this badly demolished car when it collided head on with another on Mack avenue near Bournemouth early Sunday was the driver Joseph W. Coniglio, 22, of 4829 Newport, Detroit. Also injured were the driver and passenger of the other car.

Admits Theft of 2nd Vehicle from Man Whose Car He Stole in 1947

Stealing automobiles belonging to C. A. Dean, of 221 Lewiston, apparently developed into habit for a 16-year-old Detroit youngster.

The boy was apprehended last Friday by Farms Detective Sgt. Elmer Labadie and Detective George Champagne, who reported he made a full confession of the theft of Dean's Lincoln Oct. 5.

The 1941 convertible was stolen that evening from the driveway of the Dean home and was found the next evening in front of 256 McKinley.

On Probation
According to Labadie and Champagne, the youth was on probation at the time from Star Commonwealth where he had been sent June 30, 1947, for stealing Mrs. Dean's station wagon.

He was taken before juvenile authorities after the second theft and placed on probation for the remainder of his high school days.

During that time, he is forbidden to drive, must be home every night by 9 and must report weekly to a probation officer.

Thief Steals Dean's Car
If he violates the probation, he will be returned to the Star Commonwealth.

According to Labadie, the youth met three teen-age friends, 15 and 16, from Detroit and St. Clair Shores, in a "hamburger bar" that night.

He told them, Labadie related: "I'm going to steal Dean's car."

He left them and returned 25 minutes later to pick them up, the confession states.

Went Driving
They went driving for about two hours and then dropped off one of the boys at his home.

Then they drove to the McKinley location where the car was found and abandoned it. The auto was not damaged.

The boy still had the keys to the car on him when he was arrested, Champagne said.

The other three teen-agers also were placed on probation.

Cars Demolished as Driver Swerves to Wrong Side, Apparently Dozing at Wheel; Both Motorists Get 'RD' Tickets

Three persons were injured, one critically, in a head-on collision early Sunday on Mack avenue, near Bournemouth.

Joseph W. Coniglio, 22, of 4829 Newport, Detroit, was taken to Cottage Hospital in critical condition with a badly fractured skull, concussion and lacerations.

According to Farms police, who handled the accident, Coniglio was driving west on Mack at about 3:45 a. m. Sunday when he suddenly swerved to the left side of the road.

His late model automobile collided with one driven east on Mack by Joseph Coppola, 21, of 4922 French road, Detroit, practically demolishing both cars.

Coppola and a passenger in his car, Matthew Zerilli, 22, of 3068 Harding, Detroit, also were taken to Cottage Hospital.

Several Stitches
Zerilli was released after several stitches were used to close a gaping wound in the right side of his face.

Coppola, who suffered multiple bruises and concussions, was held overnight for observation, being released Sunday afternoon.

By a peculiar quirk, it became a Farms accident.

Had it been Coppola who crossed over to the wrong side, it would have been a Woods case since the center of Mack is the boundary line between the villages.

As a matter of fact, the Woods police got the first call and it was their ambulance which took the victims to the hospital.

Still Unconscious
Farms police still had been unable to get Coniglio's version Tuesday of how he happened to cross over to the wrong side, as he still was having intermittent spells of unconsciousness.

He was listed as "not good" by Cottage Hospital doctors late Tuesday.

Both drivers were ticketed for reckless driving. Police theorized that Coniglio may have gone to sleep at the wheel.

$1,000 Smashup; Driver Unhurt

A reckless driving ticket was issued to John A. Theuerkorn, 35, of 20721 Alger, St. Clair Shores, after his car suffered about $1,000 damage in a 2:15 a. m. mishap last Friday.

According to Farms Patrolmen George Van Thien and Harold Seelow, Theuerkorn's car hit the center island curb on Lake Shore road, near Provençal, and slid sideways about 500 feet on the island, knocking down three trees.

The officers said he was driving east on Lake Shore when the accident occurred. No other cars were involved. They added that Theuerkorn had been drinking. He was unhurt.

Woods Chief Cracks Down On Speeders

Goulette Also Issues Order for Stricter Parking Enforcement

A crackdown on speeding and parking violations on Mack avenue, in Grosse Pointe Woods, has been ordered by Woods Police Chief Walter J. Goulette.

In written order "to all officers," Friday, Goulette declared: "Your enforcement in general (in regards to traffic on Mack) has been poor in the opinion of many."

He cited a recent check on traffic which showed that the thoroughfare is used by 14,000 cars per day.

"This is quite an increase," he observed, "as a year ago, a check showed 8,000 cars used it."

Public Interest
"It might be interesting to know," he went on, "that a check made a year ago on Warren showed only 11,000 cars."

In other words, Mack Avenue, at times, carries a maximum load.

"We have posted this road well and have at all times worked with County traffic engineers and have followed their advice," his directive continued.

"When I urge the department to ticket all violators, especially during dangerous periods, I believe I am acting in the best interests of the public."

Under his signature, indicating his strong feelings on the subject, he wrote, in blue pencil, the notation, "Do it!"

Every Violator!
As an added postscript to the order, he also ordered closer checks of the parking in the Bournemouth-Mack area around the Woods Theater, pointing out "parking restrictions are plainly posted."

"You are ordered to ticket every violator!"

It was explained that parking violations often add to other traffic hazards.

Many parking regulations, authorities point out, are set up as safety measures. Violations of parking rules have been known to cause serious accidents.

2 City Workers Bitten on Job

The hazards run by municipal employees who have to enter private property regularly in the collection of waste materials were demonstrated last week when two city employees were bitten by dogs.

On Oct. 12, Frank Heabert, 64, of 643 Notre Dame, an employee of the Highway Department, was bitten on the calf of his right leg by a cocker spaniel on the Kuhlner premises, at 488 St. Clair.

It was a puncture wound and the dog was placed under observation and the case reported to the Board of Health.

A more serious bite was received by Matt Mikuska, of Mt. Clemens, also a member of the Highway Department.

Mikuska and his crew were on the property of Keran McCarthy, 753 Rivard, when a Doberman Pinscher in an enclosure stood on his hind legs as Mikuska passed and "nearly bit off his right ear."

Mikuska was taken to Bon Secours hospital where he underwent an operation to restore his ear to its normal contour.

Disturber Doesn't Relish Mustard, So It's Spread

A troublesome customer, an irate waitress and a mustard pot got all tangled up in an altercation in a lunch room at 15412 Jefferson avenue at 3:40 p. m. Oct. 17.

The police were summoned but before they had arrived the mustard had quelled the disturber but unfortunately had also garbished the Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes of several perfectly innocent customers.

PLASTER DAMAGED
Because the plaster was being "ruined by vandals as fast as it was applied," Woods police were asked Oct. 13 to watch the first new house in the first block on the north side of Hollywood.

Schools and P-TA, Supervisors Take Opposing Positions

Board and Teachers Favor Amendment 5, But Dislike No. 2

Both the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and the P-TA Council of Grosse Pointe have gone on record with respect to their position for the Amendments No. 2 and No. 5 to the State Constitution which are to be voted upon next month.

Both bodies have collaborated closely in their study of the two amendments. Each has issued a statement for the information of the people of the Pointe.

The statement of the Board of Education is largely an amplification of the statement of facts carried in the P-TA appeal.

P-TA Statement
It represents the argument of President Bert Wicking of the Board and of Prof. John R. Barnes, superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Schools in conjunction with other members of the Board.

The P-TA statement is issued over the signature of Remington J. Purdy, president of the Grosse Pointe Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

It follows: "PROPOSAL NO. 2 is an attempt to repeal the present constitutional provision which guarantees the public schools of Michigan one-sixth of the Sales Tax receipts.

The Reasons
"The Grosse Pointe Council of Parent-Teacher Associations and the Grosse Pointe Board of Education (Continued on Page 15)

Schweikart, Carpenter Blast No. 5 as Indefinite; No View on '2'

Wayne County Supervisor Carl Schweikart, representing the Township of Grosse Pointe and Supervisor Chester F. Carpenter representing the City of Grosse Pointe on the County Board of Supervisors, have issued a statement urging the "citizens, and particularly property owners to vote 'NO' on amendment No. 5 at the forthcoming election."

"It seeks to remove the two-thirds majority now required and would give a simple majority the right to act on expenditures of the taxpayers' money without a definite purpose stated.

Doesn't Say So
"The proponents of the amendment say that it would be used for capital improvements only but the amendment does not state this or declare this.

"So a school district with enough pressure from interested sources could raise up to 50 mills and divert same to payment of salaries, etc.

The 15-mill limitation was adopted many years ago for just the purpose of protecting the taxpayer and property owner against the wild spending of officials who sometimes forget to control other peoples' money like they would their own.

Uncontrolled Spending
"Again, this is a definite step towards the return of uncontrolled spending and the abandonment of the property owners' and taxpayers' control of spending.

"So we urge a 'No' vote on Nov. 5.

"The proponents of the measure state that their reason for urging the adoption is the extension of the period for payment of bonds, but the amendment makes no mention of what the expenditures can be used for."

Thieves Take Cash Only

A burglary which occurred sometime after midnight last Saturday was reported to the City police at 12:55 p. m. Sunday.

It occurred in the Howard G. Quinney home, at 932 Lincoln road.

The family was away and the house was on the watch list. An officer on his rounds had examined the house at midnight and nothing was disturbed then.

The thieves took only cash, finding about $50 in an upstairs drawer. They had also moved a heavy refrigerator away from the wall apparently to learn whether there was anything hidden behind it.

This Individual Is Tough-Fisted

The City police had an obstreperous customer Saturday afternoon whom they picked up on Kercheval in the Village where he was making passes with bare knuckles at the windows of passing cars.

He actually broke the glass in the window of Ruth Ellis' car.

His condition verged close to the mania a potu status and when they locked him in a cell he did all the damage he could with head, knuckles and feet to the property in the cell.

The police booked him as Bruno Traczynski, 38, of 2420 Florian, Hamtramck.

SALBOAT VANDALS

Miss Lodge, of 60 Lake Shore, reported to Farms police that between Oct. 11 and 15 somebody had damaged her sailboat at the Municipal Pier, foot of Moross, and stole some tools.

The general sentiment of the Council on the 20-year bond limit of Amendment No. 5 was favorably opposed to lowering the required percentage of vote for a millage raise.

Assessor Blondell said that if the city's share of the sales tax should be lost it would be necessary to jump the City tax $2 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

Plan on Radio Tantamount To Demise

Letter Read to City Council Calling for Combined Police Setup

What amounts to the first official notice of intent to kill the Township, was conveyed in the draft of a letter read before the City Council Monday night.

The Township's death would result from the simple process of abandonment by the four Grosse Pointe villages which constitute it.

The letter, as drafted, is to be signed, if approved by the four villages. The copy exhibited to the City Council meeting by Mayor Netting was chiefly a matter of information, although it does suggest that the City should join the movement.

The letter is addressed to Carl Schweikart, supervisor of the Township.

Notice of Intent
It is a notice that the villages intend to install a police radio system of their own and asks the Township to take notice accordingly.

It goes much farther, in that it requests the township to notify the Federal Communications Commission of its readiness to abandon the channel it now possesses, and in general, recommend the change.

The letter acknowledges that a central control station would have to be maintained in some municipality in the Pointe which would also have issued to it, as a municipal corporation, the ownership of the channel.

Chiefs to Control
The general plan is that the radio service for all of the Pointes would be under the supervision and control of the five chiefs of police.

The township board now controls the radio for the four villages. The City has had its own separate radio for a number of years.

The general reception given by the City Council to the proposal was that when the arrangements for the new radio system have been advanced to a point where their consummation is assured the City will surrender its channel and join in with the rest.

But until there is positive assurance that the plan will go through, the City will hang on to the system it now has.

Questions Remain
Many questions remain to be answered. One is whether the unnamed municipality, which is understood to be the Farms, will be able to persuade the FCC to allocate it a channel.

The fact that the letter proposes that Supervisor Schweikart be asked to quit the township channel and even join in with the others in getting one of their own, implies some doubt on the village's part.

The reasons advanced for the change is that it would be a better service and cheaper. It was estimated that the new system would cost about $20,000. The cost of the township radio last year was $20,429.27.

Adding to this the cost of the City's radio, which the City claims is a ridiculously low figure of $500 or $600 a year, the total costs of either plan for the whole Pointe would be about the same.

Five-Watt Station
The City's radio is, however, a small five-watt station sufficient for the City's small area but capable of a very limited radius of action.

The present system of the City is wholly cut off from the Township radio except as provided by ordinary telephone service with the township control station on Verrier.

It developed in the talk at the Council meeting that the police chiefs of the Pointe are not a unit in approving the proposed system in all its details.

Public Safety Commissioner Clarence Blessed was authorized to represent the City in future negotiations with the four villages.

MUST GET PERMIT

Polk McMeese, of 4506 Trumbull, Detroit, a blind man, was ordered by Patrolman Leroy Tobian, to quit begging in the Woods unless he gets a permit from the Village clerk's office. There had been complaints of his activities in the vicinity of the Woods Theater.

Lot of Smoke---Small Fire; Big Scare---Little Damage

A smoke-filled house recently caused quite a scare and an early morning rush trip to 1824 Roslyn by Patrolman Donald Coats, of the Woods police.

When Coats arrived, the owner, Alex Marshall, had extinguished the fire in the basement of the one-and-a-half story brick bungalow with a fire extinguisher and garden hose.

According to Coats, the fire apparently started from a cigaret left on a shelf in the basement recreation room. It appeared to have smoldered all night, the smoke finally rousing the family at 6:05 a. m.

Damage, including two holes burned in the partition of the recreation room and partially destroyed lumber on the basement floor, was estimated at $50.

GEORGE C. MARXER

Death Takes G. C. Marxer

Native Detroitier Was Active In Social, Finance Circles

George Carl Marxer, 47, of 242 McMillan road, collapsed of a heart attack in his home Sunday and died a few minutes after being admitted to Bon Secours Hospital.

Mr. Marxer was born in Detroit and long has been identified with the social and financial life of the Detroit area. He was a member of the firm of Marxer, Jones and Co.

He was a member of the Detroit Boat Club and in his earlier years a champion carsman. He was a member of the Security Traders Association and the Bond Club of Detroit.

Mr. Marxer is survived by his wife, Marian; a son, George Carl, Jr.; his mother, Mrs. Frank Marxer, and a brother and sister.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Hamilton Funeral Home. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Charity Begins at Home, Says Collector; Jailed

Two collectors for the Goodwill Industries came to the Middleditch home, at 473 University, Oct. 13, to pick up some furniture. The call was by appointment.

Immediately after they left, $20 in two $10 bills was missing from one of the rooms they had "serviced."

A call went to the City police and patrolmen Moffat and Kelly picked up the two collectors.

They were George Allen, 29, of 22828 Hillock, East Detroit, and Joseph Duane Narbets, 21, of 3526 Seventeenth street, Detroit.

Confesses a Lot
When taken to the police station and searched by Chief Trombly and Detective James Flanagan, two $10 bills were found in Narbets' shoe. Following this embarrassing revelation, Joseph confessed he had taken the money. He also confessed a lot more.

Ever since he was nine years old, he had spent most of his life in reformatories and similar institutions, he said.

In fact, it was in such places he had received his education—at least enough to accurately decipher the figures on a piece of Uncle Sam's money.

On Probation

He has been out on probation since July 19, 1948.

The $20 was returned to Mrs. Middleditch and Narbets was held at headquarters pending a discussion with County authorities on his future.

Mrs. Middleditch said she had no desire to prosecute. Allen was cleared of suspicion.

Hunting Won't Be Tolerated In G.P. Woods, Chief Warns

With the advent of the hunting season, Woods Police Chief Walter J. Goulette issued a stern warning that hunting would not be tolerated in the Village. He notified other municipalities that game wardens had been hired and that any violators would be prosecuted.

And, also with the advent of the season, complaints already have started to pour in of hunters in Gratiot Township venturing too close to the Woods. According to police they must stay at least 500 feet from the Woods limits.

Little Danger Of Damage From Blasts

Sewer Work Tremors Called Too Mild; Builders Are Liable

The complaints from citizens in the Park, City and Farms that came into the police stations a few weeks ago about the blasting on Bluehill and Mack were revived in heavy volume over the past weekend.

Last Saturday and Sunday the desk sergeants were swamped with inquiries and complaints. These varied from mere concern regarding the safety of their properties to caustic criticism about the police not being on the job.

The noise and ground tremors were caused by blasting in connection with construction of the big Detroit relief sewer. It is one of the most important engineering jobs that has been undertaken in this part of the County in many years.

It was explained to all complainants that the blasting was necessary to the work and it was specifically permitted by the Detroit Department of Public Works and the Fire Marshall of Detroit.

Make Examination

Unless there is complaint of actual damage to properties in Grosse Pointe there is nothing that the Pointes can do about it. There is no defense against the mere noise of the blasting.

On Saturday, however, Park Village Public Works Commissioner William Gillett, and Herbert Heger, the Park's building inspector, visited the source of the blasting and made an examination.

The excavation is about 100 feet deep and the blasting is too far down to permit any property damaging concussions. All earth tremors accompanying the blasting are carefully recorded.

The contractor said there had been no report of damage of any sort to even the nearest properties.

Seismograph Readings

Not satisfied with this, Commissioner Gillett and Inspector Heger took seismograph readings themselves at the corner of Cadieux and Charlevoix, the Park's nearest approach to the point of the blasts.

This disclosed nothing remotely dangerous to wall foundations or window glass.

There is a slightly perceptible earth tremor accompanying each blast but examination indicated that was not severe enough to cause damage.

The contractors have agreed to compensate for any damage. In addition, they offered to place a seismograph on the property of any nervous householder prior to a blast to record the intensity of earth tremors.

Crash at 2:45 a. m. Proves To Be Just Falling Tile

Pointe Archer Gets Doe

Tom Handlon laid claim to the honor of being the first Pointer to bag a deer in the 1948 season when he drove up to his home, at 1875 Allard last Sunday night with a 165-pound doe strapped to the front end of his car. Handlon, a member of the East Detroit Archers' Club, shot his prize with a 57-pound bow and a four-blade diamond broadhead arrow on the plains near Fairview, Michigan. It marked the climax of six years of hunting with bow and arrow for Handlon.

Bingo Benefit 'Hot Potato' Lands Back in Ulrich's Lap

HANDY NEIGHBOR

A neighbor had extinguished the fire under the hood of the auto belonging to Thelma Todd, of Yale, Mich., with a bucket of water, in front of 1976 Lancaster, when Woods firemen arrived. Damage was $50.

Ulrich is the fire commissioner of the Park and the wishes and benefits of his firemen are near to his heart.

The commissioner's personally did not desire to stand in the way of the party which is for the sole purpose of paying death benefits to the firemen's families, but neither did they care to go on record on an issue which has since last year received almost national notoriety.

Last year, when a similar affair was held, there was some criticism from citizens over the Village firemen being allowed to distribute the tickets.

Being nicely out on a limb, the commissioners decided to 'toss the ball back to Commissioner Ulrich for him and his smoke eaters to figure out a way.

Descendent of Liszt Talks At Town Hall Tomorrow

Friedelind Wagner, talented descendant of world famous composers—great granddaughter of Liszt, granddaughter of Richard Wagner and daughter of Siegfried Wagner—will be the speaker for the Detroit Town Hall, at the Cass Theater, at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Miss Wagner has dedicated herself to the destruction of all that the Nazis stood for. She was forced to flee Germany at the outbreak of the war and has written a revealing book, "Price On My Head."

Pointers Busy Planning LIT Frosh Fling

Sophomore Chief, Freshmen Vice President Active In Program

The Frosh Fling, featuring Woody Herman and his original band, at the Fair Grounds Saturday night, marks the opening of another big dance athletic season at Lawrence Tech.

Last season 12 of the nation's leading dance orchestras, including Woody Herman, played for Lawrence Tech affairs.

Another similar parade begins with the Frosh Fling, sponsored by the Sophomore Class as a get-acquainted dance for the Freshmen.

3 on Committee

Also helping out in the tub-thumping for the dance are Jim Rex, of Hampton road, and Jim Donahue, of Prestwick avenue, both sophomores from the Pointes.

Coast-to-Coast

Other forthcoming events include the Horace Heidt concert, and coast-to-coast amateur broadcasts on Sunday night, Nov. 21, at the Fair Grounds.

The entertainment following the opening of the basketball season on Dec. 3 at the Coliseum will feature Louis Armstrong's Orchestra.

An added attraction will be Ethel Waters and Fletcher Henderson. The opening game will be between Lawrence Tech and Carnegie Tech.

Pathetic Figure: Eloise-Bound

It was a pathetic little figure of a man that the City police brought into the Mamee station about 7 p.m. last Friday.

He had a bundle of clothes which he carried over his shoulder on a stick. It seemed almost an overload for his five foot high, 110 pound frame.

He spoke very indistinctly in some foreign tongue which the police figured to be Belgian-French. They learned he came from Harbor Beach and was trying to get into Eloise hospital.

They communicated with the Detroit 15th Precinct Police who agreed to deliver him safely at Eloise.

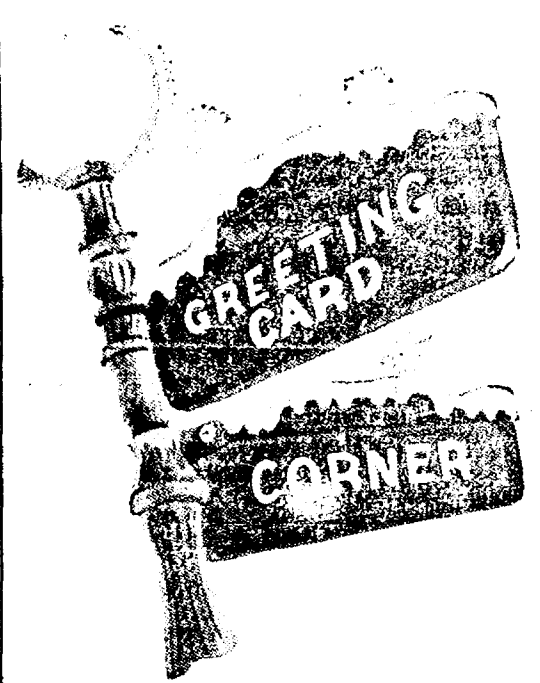

UNCLAIMED BIKE

Woods Patrolmen Everett Plumb and Leroy Tobian found a bicycle in front of the Harkness Drugs, Lochmoor and Mack, at 4 a.m. Oct. 9. It's still unclaimed.

HARD HEAD!

When Woods police answered a recent family trouble call, they took the husband to the hospital for stitches. His wife had eloped him over the road with a skillet!

Pranksters' 'Atom Bombs' Are Merely Light Bulbs

Halloween pranksters in Grosse Pointe this season are carrying their own "atomic bombs." When Mrs. Arthur K. Hurlbert, of 1160 Balfour, went to her room on the evening of Oct. 12 in answer to a ring, an incandescent light bulb was exploded against the door with a loud bang.

Through-Street Driver Gets Ticket in Collision With Bus

A collision with a Lake Shore Coach Lines bus at Mack and Oxford, netted a reckless driving ticket for Maurice Posen, 31, of 3342 Courtland, Detroit. The ticket was forthcoming from Woods Chief Walter J. Goulette and Patrolman Albert Abend despite the fact Posen was driving on Mack, the through street, while the bus was crossing Mack on Oxford, the stop street.

According to Goulette, Posen admitted he didn't see the bus, driven by Arthur R. Frank, 50, of 1339 Beaconsfield, until just before the impact. He skidded 24 feet, the report stated. Frank told Goulette and Abend he stopped and saw nothing coming before he proceeded across Mack. He was nearly across when struck by Posen, who was just entering the intersection.

Posen was ordered to appear in justice court Nov. 9. His car suffered $300 damage; the bus, $50. Nobody was injured.

Park to Decide On Vacating of Goethe Monday

Nothing came of the public hearing to determine whether the Park should vacate that portion of Goethe which abuts on the First Christian Reform Church. The hearing followed the last regular meeting of the Council.

Commissioner Gillett, who presided in the absence of President Fritsch, explained before the hearing was opened that no decision on the vacating ordinance would be made at that meeting.

An understanding on several details would first have to be reached with the church.

More than 20 persons were present at the hearing. The great majority of them favored the vacating, as determined by a raising of hands called for by the chairman.

The church now owns all of the property abutting on that part of Goethe proposed for abandonment by the Village. It wants to use the abandoned part of the road for extension of its property for additional school and playground site.

The matter definitely will be passed upon by the Council at the next scheduled meeting, Monday, Gillett stated.

Scranton Guests Feted at Parties

A series of weekend parties feted Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Axford, who arrived from Scranton, Pa., to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Parker, Jr., of Washington road.

Mrs. J. Farwell Maycock and Mrs. Henry Mackay were co-hostesses at a Boat Club luncheon for Mrs. Axford Thursday.

Mrs. Wills Nester, of Lincoln road, gave a luncheon Friday and that evening, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. Robinson, of Merriweather road, entertained at a dinner party for the visitors.

Saturday and Sunday cocktail parties were hosted by Mr. and Mrs. James J. Trudell, Jr., of Lincoln road, and the E. Litwyd Eccleston, also of Lincoln road.

Chapel to Mark 1st Year Sunday

Special services Sunday will mark the first anniversary of St. Michael's Episcopal Chapel, Lochmoor boulevard and Fairway drive.

Started by Christ Church, under the leadership of Dr. Francis B. Creamer, rector, to meet the needs of a rapidly growing community, the chapel has experienced a splendid growth during its first year.

The congregation now numbers 112 families with more than 200 confirmed persons.

At the 11 a.m. service Sunday the Vicar, the Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman, will dedicate two Alma Basins and a Receiving Basin in sterling silver, the gift of Mrs. Hazen Martin and Miss Margaret Harley in memory of their mother, Edyth Nobelle Harley.

The choir is preparing special music for the occasion.

Failure to Control Bus Costs Its Driver $32.20

Failure to have his bus under control Sept. 18, causing an accident on Mack, between Somerset and Balfour, cost Howard M. Day, of 360 Philip, Detroit, $25 and $7.20 costs.

The penalty was levied in Park traffic court Oct. 13 by Judge Belanger.

Also fined at the same session was Gustave Bahlen, of 1068 Devonshire, who paid $5 and $5 costs for failure to stop at an intersection.

Women's Republican Club Meets Monday Afternoon

Mrs. Roy D. Chapin will open her home in Lake Shore road to a pre-election meeting of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe at 2 p.m. Monday.

Club members will hear Martha Taft speak Monday evening in the ballroom of the Statler Hotel. Mrs. Lewis Smart is president of the organization.

Miss McFarland, Of News, to Be Wed Saturday

Mary McFarland, of Ridge road, a member of The News Staff, will become the bride of Kenneth G. Dennis, of Detroit, at a 4 p.m. ceremony Saturday, in Bushnell Congregational Church.

MISS MCFARLAND

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. McFarland, of Jamestown, Ky. Dennis' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dennis, of Rockford, Mich.

The bride will wear a cocoa brown charmie gabardine suit. She will wear yellow orchids in her hair and carry a matching bouquet.

Mrs. Milton Sinclair, of Van Dyke avenue, and Donald Dennis brother of the bridegroom, are to be the couple's attendants.

Following the ceremony, a buffet supper will be served in the Fenmore avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Olson.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Dennis will honeymoon for a week in New York, Washington, D. C., and along the East Coast. Upon their return, they will reside on Van Dyke avenue.

Dennis, a junior at Wayne University, is employed as an electrical engineer by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Detroit OSU Women's Club Schedules Benefit Party

The Ohio State University Women's Club of Detroit will entertain the OSU Alumni Association, former students and their guests at a games party to be held in the home of Mrs. Stanley M. Hanley, at 1336 Lochmoor boulevard at 8 p.m.

The get-together is for the benefit of the Alumnae Scholarship House.

Mrs. Hanley will be assisted by Mrs. Harold Davison, president of the club, Mrs. Clyde Oakley and Mrs. Lew Kreglow. Mrs. Davison, at Jordan 4,781, will accept reservations.

Woods Police Recover Auto

Alertness on the part of Woods Patrolmen Don Coats and Fred Messer resulted in Byron Ferguson, of Mt. Clemens, getting his car back last Friday, five days after it was stolen.

Actually, had it been a rush order, he probably could have got it back three days after after the theft.

Coats noticed the empty car parked across from 1028 Severn at 4:10 a.m. Oct. 13. A check of the records showed it had been stolen from a lot at 12500 East Warren, Detroit, Oct. 10.

Before showing the auto to the Woods headquarters — the keys were missing — the officers put a "plant" on it and searched the neighborhood, suspecting it perhaps was being used in a burglary.

Nothing was found amiss, however—and Ferguson was pleasantly surprised later in the day, when notified of the find.

Youngblood Has Talk With Dewey

Congressman Harold F. Youngblood, of the 14th District, was in Owosso over last week-end to confer with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

They met Sunday in the home of Dewey's mother.

Youngblood declined comment on the subject of the discussion other than to say that he had extended a personal invitation to Dewey to visit Detroit, and particularly Detroit's east side and Grosse Pointe, during the current campaign.

According to Youngblood, Dewey stated that a visit to Detroit is being considered but that no final decision has been reached as yet.

A campaign spokesman said Youngblood was the only Representative to confer with Dewey.

Complaint Over Debris Follows Fall by Maid

Complaint came from the George Schemm home, at 16845 Maumee, Oct. 11 that a maid had tripped and fallen in the muck and debris left on the sidewalk where the terrace is under construction at Jefferson and Cadillac.

The contractor was warned that he must keep the sidewalks clear of encumbrances and minimize the dirt dragged onto them.

"Her House looks JUST like Her!"

You may not realize it, but in this prize platitude from the bag of the old Cliche Collector, you're uttering a minor truth. People DO look like their houses, or their houses get to look like them.

And the professors who know all the psychia-tricks of the trade tell us that living in the wrong house can do all sorts of things to your life.

People who live in stone houses may start throwing glasses or vice versa. The housing problem can become the sousing problem. Or you may just wind up in a bed of neurosis.

So powerful is the pull of environment that if you've inherited your grandmother's house, you may get to look and feel like your grandmother—which may either be a blessing or a breakdown.

The urge, not only to be oneself, but to LIVE like oneself, is the reason, we have always charitably believed, why so many ancestral pieces are gracing the museums.

This reflection of oneself in the house, or apartment or even room may be either conscious, sub-conscious or at times snub-conscious, if the reflection is only an urge to splurge.

With artists and actresses, self-expression has always been as charmingly conscious as their Narcissus-complex dictates. They enjoy in the reflected glory of their own tastes and triumphs.

The Sutton Place home which Katharine Cornell and her husband, Guthrie McClintic, have occupied for a quarter of a century is an enchanting example.

Serenely beautiful in decor and rich in furnishings, it is personalized with choice pieces from their own productions.

Here you may see a teakwood table from The Letter a damask chair from The Barretts of Wimpole Street or an Italian screen from Romeo and Juliet. And their own precious book collections on shelves to the ceiling.

Helen Hayes MacArthur has likewise enhanced her homes with mementoes of her stage productions. Both her Long Island place, Pretty Penny, as she fondly calls it, and her River House apartment in New York have the authentic aura of Victorianism from her own Victoria Regina role.

Many actresses carry their own personalized props on tour with them. The first time we encountered Gertie Lawrence in the Book-Cadillac, she had so transformed the bedroom of the suite with her gold picture frames, satin throws and brilliant bric-a-brac we thought she was carrying her own stage setting with her.

Tallulah Bankhead is another expressionist, who could change an Arctic igloo into a Park Avenue penthouse simply by moving into it with those floating negligees of hers.

Valentina, the designer, inspired the decoration of her New York apartment with her own exotic tastes and that you tread ankle deep in the quick sand of Aubusson rugs, and taking in the party, decide that even the guests are collectors' pieces.

Actors' homes, you might expect to be less of a personalized background, but I ain't so. You see, there's usually The Little Woman around to publicize their preferences.

The Humphrey Bogart's ranch is as casual and extravagant as both he and "Baby" Bacall—right down to the gold whistles they use to call one another when out of earshot.

We've heard the comment that Edward G. Robinson's modernist home, with its Picassos and Roualts and Cezannes doesn't look like Eddie himself.

But actually, there's a very rat-a-tat-tat and mechanical air about the paintings and the whole place that actually SOUNDS like Eddie talks.

Funeral Delegates Make Mecca Of Verheyden's

Grosse Pointe Park was the mecca of many of the reported 5,000 funeral directors and families who attended the convention of the National Funeral Directors' Association in Detroit Oct. 9-16.

They came to the Park to visit the Charles Verheyden, Inc., Funeral Home, termed one of the largest and finest in the world. Verheyden has been a leader in the trend away from accenting austere colors. The home features many pastel shades in its furnishings.

Clayton P. Alandt, manager, also had an active part in the convention.

St. John's Benefit Tea Plans To Be Discussed Friday

Mrs. Roy Fruehauf will give a tea Friday in her home, on Kenwood, to discuss plans for a Nov. 11 tea to benefit St. John's Hospital Auxiliary.

He served as chairman of the entertainment committee. It was his job to keep the visiting delegates occupied in their off moments.

Mrs. Ray Whyte, Mrs. Thomas Fisher, Mrs. Edward Frawley, Mrs. Sam Keller and Mrs. Leo Fitzpatrick will be present.

The Amendments

Of all of the numerous amendments which are proposed to the State Constitution which will be voted upon on November 2 only two stand out as of most immediate concern to the people of Grosse Pointe.

Amendment No. 2 represents an attempt by the State Government to repeal the amendment passed only two years ago whereunder the State was compelled to share the Sales Tax, of which it had previously had a complete monopoly, with local governments, including School Districts.

The State Government and all state agencies having to do with collection of state taxes and the disbursement of the State's revenues want the old whole hog or none method reinstated. In this they will also probably get a certain measure of support from rural school districts which figure they can do better with their school fund allotments direct from the state than by being compelled to do a part of their local school financing because of receiving this sales tax share.

Prior to the receipt of its share of the sales tax the Grosse Pointe School District raised about 85 per cent of its school money by local taxation. Even with the receipt of the sales tax money for the past two years it has still had to produce 72 per cent of the schools' costs locally.

In round figures instead of percentages the amount we get here from the sales tax is $200,000 to $250,000 annually. If the sales tax reverts again to state uses this sum will go on the local taxpayers' back. It will not take the people here long to decide their position on Amendment No. 2. It will be an emphatic NO!

Amendment No. 5 will produce a divided opinion among our citizens. That part which permits school districts to extend the run of their bonds from the five year limit now fixed to as long as twenty years, should be approved. It is unfair to the present generation of taxpayers to finance all capital improvements on what is practically a pay-as-you-go basis. It is fair and proper that the parents and taxpayers of a few years hence should be compelled to pay their share towards the school buildings and facilities which their children will then be enjoying.

This quick pay scheme was hit upon some years ago when many school boards about the state were going hog wild in school financing and running into debt utterly over their heads. The five year debt payment plan brought many of these too-liberal school boards up standing. The law probably served a good purpose at the time and protected many communities against themselves, but the sentiment now is that the state school system can safely revert to a more progressive and equitable manner of school financing.

The other provision which would permit reducing the vote by which a millage may be adopted in excess of the present limit of 15 mills by a simple majority vote instead of the two-thirds vote as now required, will arouse strenuous opposition in many quarters.

The school authorities and the PTA advocating dropping this vote percentage cite the narrow squeak the recent five mill five year levy had two years ago when it only passed by 13 votes more than the required two-thirds. Of this five mill special tax 1 1/2 mills were for increase in teachers' salaries and other operating costs.

Opponents of this provision allege it will open the door to unwarranted increases in taxes. They say that an over active group among teachers, educators in general and PTA zealots could foist an unjustified tax burden on the people by a bare ballyhooed majority. They claim it would largely nullify the whole protective principle contemplated when the two-thirds law was adopted. Such increases in millage might go as high as 50 per cent.

The school authorities and PTA associates claim that the will of a bare majority of the voters should prevail against the adverse action or indifference of an uninformed minority.

In discussing details of the cost and method of operations of the Pointe schools last week Superintendent Barnes said that the cost was high but not in specific classification of service. It was expensive because the citizens of Grosse Pointe wanted and demanded the superior public school service they are getting.

Supporting this contention of economy, Mr. Barnes said that the average pay of a public school teacher in Grosse Pointe was approximately $4,000 per year, while in Detroit it was $4,300. Grosse Pointe pays its first year teacher with a liberal arts degree $2,500; Detroit pays $2,983. In this category of pay in the fifteen school districts in the Detroit area he said Grosse Pointe stands eighth in the list.

The greatest single item of difference in our school expenses compared with many other communities is in the lower ratio of pupils per teacher. Grosse Pointe aims at an average maximum of 25 pupils per teacher while in many other places this ratio runs as high as 40.

This is expensive, Mr. Barnes said, but the more intimate contact it permits between teacher and pupil and the increase in individual attention, more than warrants the greater cost.

The Disciples of Marx

Since the Communists first seized power in Russia more than thirty years ago they have never ceased to proclaim their inseparable adherence to the principles of government elaborated by Karl Marx a century ago. His work, "Das Capital," is in effect their constitution, if such an instrument can be credited to a system of government which claims for itself the supreme power and which denies any right of appeal from its edicts.

An article in the current number of Life by Hubert Kay on Marx, giving an intimate personal insight to the character of the man as well as a reasonable explicit detail of the social and economic theories he advanced, offers informing reading for Americans at this time.

It is not a pleasant picture which the author draws of this embittered and "insolent and intolerantly arrogant" man,

"O suns and skies and clouds of June, And flowers of June together, Ye cannot rival for one hour, October's bright blue weather." (Helen Hunt Jackson)

This is the saga of a poor tired business man who hates juke boxes and how he was hoisted by his own petard.

Our hero lives on the top floor of a two story flat . . . and until recently, he was as snug as a bug in a St. Bernard's coat . . . but his first floor neighbors have acquired a juke box, which they play all night every night, until daybreak.

Having to get up every morning at 7 is bad enough . . . but having that dang-blasted oomp-ba going right underneath his mattress (so to speak) was too much.

He started out with all the polite hints in the book; he then came right out and ASKED them to cut the thing off at a reasonable hour; then he threatened to complain to the landlord.

They just called him an old fuddy-duddy . . . and besides, the landlord was their uncle. The poor little man was beside himself, until one night he hit on a brilliant idea.

It was around midnight and the juke was going full blast as usual. Our hero crept out of bed and like a thief in the night . . . he lit a candle, made his way to the nearest light socket, unscrewed the bulb and inserted a penny in the socket; he then replaced the bulb, turned the light switch on . . . and WHAM . . . the lights blew all over the flat. (He knew the lights downstairs were all on the same fuse, so that ought to fix Mr. Juke Box for the rest of the night.)

But alas . . . the box played on! He could hear his neighbors scurrying around and calling to each other . . . so he knew they were in the dark but not so, the box.

Our hero in bed in the darkness cursed the fate that put the music box on another fuse . . . BUT, he thought, they can't have much fun playing the darned thing in the dark, so they've just GOT to go to bed soon. However, that was not the case. Adding insult to injury, the neighbors finally came upstairs and knocked on our hero's door. He paid no attention. They rapped louder, then they called to him, then they banged on the door, then he could hear them entertaining thoughts of calling the police because he might be dead!

There was nothing left for our poor little man to do but get up and answer the door pounding. They asked if he knew the lights had blown out? Did he know how to put in a new fuse? Did he know where the fuse box was? Were HIS lights out? (They tried his switch) . . . yes, his lights were out too. What was he going to do? "DO," he shouted . . . "I'm going back to sleep. I don't need any lights to sleep by and neither do you. Just go to bed!"

"But," wailed the female half of his neighbors, "Don't you see . . . we've GOT to fix it before we can go to bed . . . the REFRIGERATOR is off too! Your's must be off also . . . everything in it will spoil!"

That got him. The poor goop donned his bathrobe and together the little parade descended to the basement where they finally located the fuse box and inserted a new fuse. Back to bed he trudged, wearier than ever . . . and back to their music went the Juke Boxes. Sometimes life can be terrible!

The betting seems to be two to one that Truman will carry Kentucky. However, these odds . . . like a piano tuner in the White House . . . are subject to a quick change.

By the way, if, on November 4th, 5th, and 6th, you happen to be in the Village and see a forlorn looking female in black-face, leading a cow down the street, don't give it a second thought. It will just be Pryor . . . who thinks that Truman may carry four States outside the South. Ouch!

If you are one of that large group of women who are cursed with having to make their own beds . . . watch out! It ain't only the bathtub, or the newly waxed floor or the lowly banana peel that causes those bone-breaking Brodies. No sir! A local woman broke her shoulder last week, while turning the mattress!

Reading something recently about John Charles Thomas brought an incident to mind that happened here when he dined one evening at one of the Gold Coast Manors. It seems that the butler employed by Mr. Thomas' hosts . . . had a habit of singing in the pantry as he went about his chores.

Sometimes he got a little LOUD . . . but the family was so used to it they paid little attention. The housekeeper "got after him" on occasion, but that's all that was ever done about it.

On the night John Charles was the honor guest . . . the housekeeper suddenly rushed into the kitchen and hissed at the butler . . . "Can't you EVER stop that dang singing? I could hear you way upstairs in my room. What will the guests think?"

As it turned out, the poor butler hadn't opened his mouth all evening. What the housekeeper heard was Mr. Thomas singing in the living room for the guests! The butler later told Madame . . . who in turn told John Charles . . . who didn't think it was very funny.

Speaking of medium-long-haired singers, we heard a dandy crack on the radio the other day . . . one we wish we had thought of first. Some wag said that Lawrence Tibbett sang "Shortnin' Bread" as if he HAD a mouthful of it! TEE-hee.

who advocated the utter destruction of free enterprise and private property, the denial of all political freedom, the destruction of religion and the creation of an atheistic state.

That the preachments of such a man could, in the course of a century, have laid such a hold on numerous elements of the human race, is a sad commentary on the state of mankind's average political morality.

The adoption of the Marx doctrines explains much of the devious wanderings of the Russian leaders in their contacts with the peoples of western democracy.

Lies, deceit, broken promises and strife and turmoil in other lands are the weapons which he invented to prosecute his cause. These are the same weapons which his followers of today are using.

Passing of the Magic Voice

The mellifluous voice which American radio listeners harkened to in the "Fireside Chats" for 12 long years will not be heard this year, as originally planned by the Democratic tacticians.

The New Dealers who sailed high, wide and handsome a few years ago on the honeyed and chummy cadences of the late President suffer a pained nostalgia in the recollection of the happy days a short time back when the persuasive and friendly accents of the "master" could surmount every hurdle of logic and plain common sense that arose.

As one well-known local Republican put it one time during the era of "tax and tax, and spend and spend, and elect and elect", while speaking to a friend, "I'm going to listen to FDR on the radio tonight and I hate to like hell; I am afraid the sun-of-a-gun will convert me."

They say the canned transcriptions of the Great Voice have become scratchy and unreal. For the same reason their pull began to wane when last tried out in 1946.

Letterbox

To the Voters of Grosse Pointe: On Tuesday, Nov. 2, the people of the State of Michigan will vote on five proposed changes in the Michigan Constitution, two of which vitally affect all public schools.

Proposal No. 2 would, if adopted, repeal a provision now in the Michigan Constitution which guarantees the public schools of the state one-sixth of the State sales tax receipts.

The adoption of Proposal No. 2 would have disastrous effects upon the financial support of our local schools. The Grosse Pointe Council of Parent-Teacher Associations urges a NO vote on Proposal No. 2.

Proposal No. 5 would, if adopted, permit a majority of the voters in a school district to vote millage tax levies above the 15 mill constitutional maximum (at present a two-thirds vote is required), and would permit school districts to pay for needed new school buildings in 20 years rather than the five-year period which is now the maximum.

The Parent-Teacher Association Council urges a YES vote on Proposal No. 5.

Discuss this important matter among your friends and business associates. Advise all voters relative to these vital issues. A change on these two subjects, in our State Constitution, will have a definite effect on your public schools.

Sincerely, Remington J. Purdy, President Grosse Pointe Council of Parent-Teacher Associations

Your Child's Eyes

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

Good eyesight and sound teeth are the proper heritage of healthy childhood. Both must be protected in the early years of your child's life, or trouble will come of neglect, in later life.

Be sure that your child's eyes are not weakened by poor lighting, or by overstrain. Guard against deficiencies of diet, or poor mouth hygiene. Obtain expert advice from your physician and from your dentist. Safeguard these important factors in your child's well being.

Dentifrices, as well as medication, are obtainable from a responsible druggist. Select him with care.

Ed Russells, Jr., On Honeymoon

Elizabeth Madeline Newitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Newitt, of Lakepointe road, and Edward J. Russell, Jr., were married at an evening ceremony Oct. 8 in the Burns Avenue Baptist Church in Detroit.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Russell, of Sunningdale drive.

The bride chose a gown of Belgian lace over satin, the net skirt falling in folds into a long train. Her veil of French illusion was attached to a lace headpiece and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered by a white orchid.

Mrs. William Trinkaus, matron of honor, wore a copper-colored metallic gown and carried a crescent bouquet of yellow roses and bronze daisies.

Mrs. G. B. Newitt, of South Bend, Ind., and Mrs. Gordon Orthner were in gold metallic gowns. Carlene Brunner, of Hope, Ark., and Mrs. Edward R. Newitt were attired in metallic silver. The four bridesmaids carried roses and daisies.

Attending as best man was the bridegroom's father, Edward J. Russell, Sr., George Newitt, of South Bend, Ind., Edward R. Newitt, John Newitt, Richard Russell and George Knopf ushered.

A reception was held at Devon Gables, after which the couple left on a honeymoon through the New England states. They will occupy their new home in Huntington drive after Nov. 1.

Warning Issued On Beetle Spray

In view of the fact that agents of the Michigan Department of Agriculture have been spraying in Grosse Pointe recently to check the spread of the Japanese beetle, the police of Grosse Pointe City wish to have attention called to a circular issued recently by the State Agriculture Department.

The spray used is a 50 per cent DDT solution and the Department says it is poisonous.

Pets, such as cats and dogs should be kept in on the days the spraying is going on in their neighborhood. Last week the operators were spraying on Neff road.

Trips for beetles had been set both in the Park and City and the pest does occur in the City it was positively determined that in limited areas.

THEATER FOR LITTLE FOLKS

"The Season" started Tuesday afternoon (all performances are for half after four in the afternoon with the exception of The Snow Queen, which will be presented Dec. 28 at 2:30 p.m.) . . .

"Little Women" opened the Clare Tree Major Children's Theater (it's from New York, incidentally, and the productions are elaborate, charming and professional) . . .

Coming attractions are "Toby Tyler or Ten Weeks With the Circus" on Nov. 23 . . . "Hansel and Gretel" on Feb. 8 . . . "The Poor Little Rich Girl" on March 15 . . . and "Pinocchio" on April 12.

ST. JOHN'S HOSPITAL HELPERS

The cause of Mrs. Roy Fruehauf's newest interest is such an inspiring one that some of her friends who do not even belong to the Font Bonne Auxiliary have offered their time and help to make it a success . . .

Now that's inspiration!

"The Cause" happens to be St. John's Hospital which is to be built on Moran road and Chandler Park drive in the very near future and the first event to help raise funds for the new hospital will be a musicale and tea given by Mrs. Fruehauf in her Kenwood road home on Nov. 11 . . . and then there's a special meeting on the twenty-second of the month to plan further fund raising ways and means . . .

Those non-members who are aiding in the fund raising projects include Mrs. Sam T. Keller . . . Mrs. Leo Fitzpatrick . . . Mrs. Thomas Fisher . . . Mrs. Ray Whyte . . . and Mrs. Edward Frawley (and may we pause to say right now . . . that since we've known them, these wonderful gals have always been more than generous for all good causes and it's very like them to help along here!) . . .

TO AID AT MUSICAL TEA

Among those who'll be asked to pour at the musicale tea will be: Mrs. Stewart Cogsdill . . . Mrs. Harry R. Fruehauf . . . Mrs. Harvey S. Fruehauf . . . Mrs. George Gagnier . . . Mrs. A. J. Fisher . . . Mrs. Ed Fisher . . .

Mrs. Herman Koestlin . . . Mrs. Fred M. Zeder . . . Mrs. Charles T. Fisher . . . Mrs. William C. Rands . . .

Membership chairman for the Auxiliary is Mrs. Gerald Sweeney . . . and other active workers include: Mrs. Harold Freer . . . Mrs. Earl Miller . . . Mrs. Thomas Rossen . . . Mrs. Louis Braun . . . Mrs. Ralph Bookmyer senior . . . Mrs. Ralph L. Bookmyer, Jr. . . . Mrs. Elwood Sharp . . . Mrs. James Mutschell . . . Mrs. Harold Knack . . . Mrs. George Noble . . . Mrs. H. FLORIDA PENTHOUSE SUFFERS

And after the most recent Florida hurricane . . . we called the Harry R. Fruehaufs to see if their beautiful penthouse atop the Sea Villa at Surfside had escaped the rages of the weather . . .

But even at its fourteenth floor loftiness . . . the penthouse did suffer . . . and those marvelous white carpets (which are part of the lush decor) . . . must be replaced . . .

So the long distance communication between the Pointe and Florida has been extensive . . .

The Fruehaufs will leave right after the holidays to spend the winter at their penthouse . . . and will be joined at Easter vacation by son, Dick . . . who is a student at Michigan State College this year . . .

The intermediate and upper schools at Country Day will give two other teas at later dates.

Cottage Hospital Trustees Entertain Nurses at Tea

The board of trustees of the Cottage Hospital of Grosse Pointe entertained the nursing staff at a tea in the nurses' residence Oct. 12.

Mrs. William M. Joy was chairman. Her committee of hostesses included Mrs. Edwin S. Harbour, Mrs. Henry T. Bodman, Mrs. Harry M. Jewett and Mrs. William P. Stevens, members of the honorary advisory board of the hospital.

Bazaar Their Big Project

Making the rounds to collect items for the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church bazaar in Kerby School to-morrow night were (left to right): Mrs. Hugh Delfs and Mrs. Melville Santmyers, co-chairman, and Mrs. Virgil L. Walling.

Methodist Hold Bazaar Friday

The first bazaar and musical entertainment of the Women's Society of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church is scheduled at 7 p.m. tomorrow, Oct. 22, in the Kerby School.

Following the bazaar, the choir will present an original parody. Choir officials believe this is the first time anything of this nature has ever been attempted. The title is "Methodists in Their Madness." It is a parody on church life presented in the musical comedy mode.

There will be a small admission fee to the choir program, the proceeds of which will be used to purchase music for the choir, according to Mrs. Willis Bugbee, musical director.

The bazaar is the Woman's Society's first venture toward raising funds for the new church furnishings, according to Mrs. Melville Santmyers, co-chairman.

Mrs. Hugh Delfs, the other co-chairman, said there would be a wealth of aprons, candy, baked goods, fancy work, hankies, "white elephants," greeting cards, novelties and antiques for sale at the several booths.

Robert Liebolds (Margaret A. Ide) Honeymooning

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Liebold are honeymooning in Quebec following their Oct. 8 marriage at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The Rev. Frank Fitt heard the exchange of vows at a 4 p.m. ceremony.

Mrs. Liebold was Margaret Ann Ide, daughter of Judge and Mrs. O. Z. Ide of East Jefferson avenue.

Wearing a long-sleeved gown of candlelight lace with tiers of lace ruffles falling from the hip-line, the bride had a lace-edged mantilla and carried white baby chrysanthemums on her prayer book.

Margaret Ann asked her sister, Mrs. William A. Tucker, to be her honor matron.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. George W. Cosper, Jr., another sister of the bride; Evelyn Durber, Patricia Larkin and Agnes Caulfield, of New York. Carol Lyn Tucker, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

William Liebold served as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Liebold of Oxford road. Dr. Dean Nykerson, Nelson Liebold, William Farrell and Albert Grinnell were the ushers.

A reception at the Detroit Club followed the wedding service. The newlyweds will make their home on Dumbarton road.

Rita Stroup Becomes Mrs. Carl H. Engel

Saturday Wedding in St. Paul's Church On-the-Lakeshore Precedes Fortnight Honeymoon to New York; Couple to Reside on Eastlawn

Carl Henry Engel claimed Rita Ann Stroup as his bride Saturday at St. Paul's Church On-the-Lakeshore. The Rev. R. T. Parish officiated at the 11 o'clock nuptial high mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Howard Stroup, of Maross road, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Christian Engel, of Woodhall avenue.

Seed pearls accented the candlelight satin bridal gown which was trimmed with Chantilly lace. Chantilly lace also formed the veil which was held by an illusion mantilla. Rita carried a fan-shaped arrangement of baby chrysanthemums centered by a bronze orchid.

The bride asked her sister, Mrs. Harlan Pease, of Oakdale, Calif., to be her matron of honor. Carolyn Ann Pease acted as her aunt's flower girl. Mrs. William B. Stroup and Ruth Saunders were bridesmaids.

Empire frocks of iridescent taffeta were worn by the attendants, and they carried contrasting arrangements of chrysanthemums. The flower girl wore buttercup yellow marquisette over satin. Her bouquet was a miniature replica of the other attendants'.

Robert Engel performed the duties of best man for his brother. Leo Murray and Fred Stroup, Jr., seated the guests.

When the couple return from a fortnight's honeymoon to New York, they will make their home on Eastlawn avenue.

Sarah Lawrence Alumnae Hear College Chief Tonight

Alumnae of Sarah Lawrence College will gather this evening in the Clovery road home of Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough. Dr. Harold Taylor, president of the college, will discuss the Harvard Report on Education in this country.

About 40 of the alumnae, local educators and others interested have been invited to hear Dr. Taylor. The meeting begins at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. Taylor will be feted at dinner in the University Club earlier in the evening.

Elementary School Notes

RICHARD SCHOOL
On Oct. 12 the Richard School PTA had the largest attended general meeting in the history of the association, when 400 persons came to the very interesting and challenging program.

The secretary, Mrs. Dombrowski, and the treasurer, Mr. Jakle read their reports. Mr. Barnes, superintendent of schools, discussed the proposed constitutional amendments to be voted upon in the November general election. Mr. Newberry, the 1947-48 president, announced the Grosse Pointe lecture series and asked for their support.

It was decided that the parents would sponsor a Halloween party for the children of the neighborhood Oct. 30.

Because there will be a teachers' institute on Friday, Oct. 22, there will be no school for the pupils.

Of interest to the parents of the school, there will be held in connection with the Michigan Education Association Teachers' Institute a special session, titled a Parent-Teacher meeting.

This session is held in the downtown YWCA at Montcalm and Witherell, beginning with a luncheon.

The speaker at the luncheon will be Mrs. Tewes of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, who will talk on the subject, "Planning a Healthful Home Program."

At 1:30, in room 701, there will be a panel discussion of this same problem. Parents of the Grosse Pointe area are invited to this meeting.

The children of the school are beginning to save their waste newspapers and magazines in anticipation of the annual fall paper drive to come in about another month.

Slumber Party Follows Blue Devils-Monroe Tilt

Following the Blue Devils-Monroe football game, Saturday, Madge and Brenda Winter entertained a group of girls at a slumber party in their home on Berkshire road.

Among those who sipped hot chocolate and reviewed highlights of the game were Betsy Arnold, Janet Zur Schmiede, Carol Krause, Helen Reed, Pat Goyette, Jackie Climie, Carol Roemer and Bev Martin.

If you were the President of A&P...

What would you do to make your A&P a better place to shop?

Have you ever said to yourself, "If I were the President of A&P, I know what I'd do"? I think there are many A&P customers who would like the opportunity to express themselves on the subject of their A&P. I really believe that from your side of the counter, you know A&P best. That's why I ask your opinion. You can help to make your A&P an even better place to do all your food buying by sending me your suggestions ... criticisms ... and opinions. For instance, what about our service? Is it as courteous and helpful as you would like it to be? Is it prompt and efficient, too? Do you always find all items plainly and correctly price-tagged - as they should be? What in your opinion are we doing that we could do even better? Or what are we not doing that you feel we should do?

I INVITE YOU TO WRITE AND TELL ME HOW YOUR A&P MAY SERVE YOU BETTER

We of A&P want to make our stores the finest places of all in which to shop. That is why your suggestions, criticisms and opinions will be gratefully received and acknowledged. You see there are 100,000 employees of A&P from coast to coast jealously guarding the A&P reputation for courteous, honest, and efficient service. They never want to fail you in any way, but if they do, I am sure that they, as well as I, would appreciate your writing me.

Underdog Wyandotte Hangs Shroud Over Pointe Fans

Listless Blue Devils Outplayed All the Way by Bears; Outlook Bad for Highland Park Encounter on Home Grid Next Week

By FRED RUNNELLS

The once beater, and once tied Wyandotte Bears cast a big cloud of gloom over Grosse Pointe High's second annual Dad's Day celebration last Saturday.

The downriver eleven whipped an uninspired Blue Devil squad, 12-6 on the local gridiron before a capacity crowd.

Pre-game dope favored the Pointers to win by at least one touchdown but uninspired first half play by the Blue Devils tossed the favorite's role into a cocked hat.

The results were disastrous to any hopes Grosse Pointe followers might have had for their team's chances to win the Border Cities League title.

It is true Wyandotte was lucky in some respects, mainly the tipped pass on the Pointers 15-yard line which was snatched out of the air by Simmons on the eight-year line for Wyandotte's final score.

It was just this sort of a play that enabled the Pointers to defeat Monroe a week previous.

Attack Bogs Down The first half was an uninteresting affair which saw the Blue Devils attack bog down on the Wyandotte 25 after quarterback Pat Brogan had completed a 30-yard pass to "Big Bill" Beardlee.

Wyandotte then held the Pointers to a mere three yards in four plays to halt their only threat of the first half.

Going into the third period, the Bears were first to emerge from the dormant state solely through the efforts of Quarterback Art Gresser and End John Jaciuk.

Jaciuk took a 19-yard Gresser pass on the Pointers' 15-yard line and picked his way through a wall of would-be tacklers to score. The kick was no good and Wyandotte held a 6-0 advantage going into the final quarter.

The third quarter play was strictly Wyandotte and the Blue Devils only had the ball for one play, which was good for three yards.

Snatches Ball, Scores Wyandotte struck again early in the fourth quarter after an exchange of punts gave the Bears the ball on the Grosse Pointe 44.

Gresser completed a pass to Jaciuk on the Blue Devil 25 and on the next play flipped a pass intended for Malcolmson on the Pointers 15-yard line.

Malcolmson never laid hands on the ball as the Blue Devil pass defender knocked the ball high in the air attempting to bat it down.

Simmons, a Wyandotte tackle, snatched the ball out of the air on the eight-yard line and scampered over the goal unmolested for what proved to be the clincher for the Bears. The kick was wide of the uprights.

The Blue Devils avoided being shut out when Brogan tossed a beautiful desperation pass from his own 44-yard line to Stu Freisema.

Great Running Freisema picked the ball out of the air on the Wyandotte 30 and ran like crazy into the end zone with one of the nicest bits of running displayed on the local field this year.

Grosse Pointe showed spurts of good play but the spurts were so few and far between they didn't aid the Pointers' cause. Probably the best all around Blue Devil player on the field was end Bill Beardlee.

On several occasions "Big Bill" knocked down passes that were labeled for big gains, especially in the early stages of the third quarter when Grosse Pointe halted a Wyandotte threat on the Blue Devil one-foot line.

Wyandotte's team was strictly a two-man affair, Art Gresser, the passer, and John Jaciuk, the receiver. It was this combination that kept the Pointers deep in their own territory all afternoon.

Grosse Pointe entertains Coach Jerry Neumann's high scoring Highland Park Polar Bears at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

In last year's game Grosse and Highland Park battled to a 6-6 tie but this year it is likely to be different unless the Blue Devils can shake the "sleeping sickness" which apparently gripped them in the Wyandotte game.

In the other league game, Royal Oak squeezed out a 7-0 victory over Monroe to take over the league lead.

The standings: Royal Oak 2 0 1 5 Highland Park 2 0 0 4 Wyandotte 1 1 1 3 GROSSE POINTE 1 2 0 2 Monroe 1 2 0 2 Fordson 0 2 0 0

BOYS ON BOAT Three boys, 15-16 years old, found on a boat at the Municipal Pier, foot of Moross, were brought to the Farms police station by Patrolman Ignatius Backman and lectured by Sgt. Lester LaBrosli.

Divided Interest at Grosse Pointe High's Dads' Day

Piche Knocks Rotary Pin Leaders Off

Shuts Out Houston at Woods Enabling Mondry to Grab Top Spot

Piche Barber Shop, which has a habit of knocking off the stronger Rotary League pin teams did it again last Friday night at the Woods Recreation.

Pitted against first-place Houston Brother's Inc., the barbers really meant business when they won the first game by 100 pins.

They went on to win the next two easily and their second consecutive shutout. It was the Punch and Judy Cocktails the week before.

Jay June and Irv Schoof rolled well for the losers each having 532. Piche's five had no stars but all rolled above their average.

Middle Atlantic Transport Co., also gave a good account of itself by blanking the strong Auto Club, 4-0.

Comfortable Margin The Middies opened up with 891 and coasted through the next two to win by a comfortable margin. This loss proved costly for the "Safety Salesmen," who wound up in fourth place.

It looked as though all the leaders would take a beating, especially after Mondry Cleaners lost the first two games to last place Harrison Carpets. But Charlie Castle came to the rescue for the cleaners with a 198 game, enough to win the last game and total pins, each team winning two points.

Punch and Judy Cocktail Lounge bowled Farms Market and came out on the short end of a 3-1 decision. It was Carless and Taube for the "Marketeers"; Dever and Jenkle for the Judies.

Ovesen Elected Ovesen, who shot a new low in bowling, registered a new high in prestige when he was overwhelmingly chosen president of the league. He will be assisted by W. B. Strittmatter, Secretary, and Carl Thompson, treasurer.

G. P. Review, with Hickey rolling 205-203 in 564 and Peplinski, 193-197-212-602, turned back Kopp's Pharmacy, 3-1. Carl Alleng had 217 in 555 for the losers.

After losing the opener, Earl Holzbaugh's "mechanics" came back to take the next two and total pins for a 3-1 win over the Motor City Tires. John Potter starred for the "tiremen"; George Dettloff Sr., for the "V-8s."

DEEPER CUT The Research Institute of America warns that if war comes, a return to wartime footing would cut much deeper into non-military business than during World War II.

Divided interest is displayed in the two pictures above of activities at the Dad's Day program at Grosse Pointe High School as the local eleven absorbed a beating. Above, a few of the football players' proud fathers who were guests on the bench. Below, four youthful rooters for the home team evidently found the Michigan-Northwestern game more exciting as play here lagged. They are (left to right): Don Drader, Robert (Butch) Edgar, Alex Bardy and Walt Romanski.

Skip Pessel Beats Tom Auch In G. P. High Tennis Finals

Fred (Skip) Pessel employed a smashing service to defeat Tom Auch in the finals of the fall tennis tournament at Grosse Pointe High last Friday.

The match was strictly a spectators' match and found the boys battling for hard-earned points in net volleys.

In the first set the match remained even until Auch pulled in front, 5-4. Apparently Auch got a little overconfident and relaxed just for a moment.

That's what Pessel was waiting for and he evened the match at 5-all, with three forcing shots and then went on to win, 7-5 by forcing Auch into errors.

The second set was much the same as the first. Pessel held a 5-4 advantage and then temporarily blew his service. It was here that Auch grasped a slim thread of hope and squared the match at 5-all.

See-Saw Play It see-sawed back and forth until Pessel finally crashed through to grab a 7-5 advantage.

Bulldog Cagers Are Organizing The Francois Bulldog basketball team is reorganizing for the coming season. All players wishing tryouts, call Fred Runnels at NI 8405.

Team practice will begin in about two weeks. The Bulldogs will play in the Neighborhood Club Mens' League which will start around the middle of December. Games will be played on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Roland Gray's Sports Shop has donated a trophy for the champion.

St. Paul Loop Is Marked by Pin Upheaval

Renos Finally Desert Cellar; Walters Team Drops Into Tenth

There was a great upheaval in the St. Paul Bowling League last Thursday night as the Reno squad, habitual cellar dweller since the season started copped four points to move to 12th place.

Other things also were happening at the top of the standings. The Walters' squad hit the skids when it scored only one point and dropped from fifth to 10th place.

Scores 4 Points Trombley lost its second-place rung to the high-flying Van Steen aggregation which scored four points to move up from third. Trombley now rests in fifth place.

Another team which scored the maximum total of points was Al-lard, which moved up from sixth to take over the vacated third spot.

Gouin was the only other team in the loop to capture four points, climbing from eighth to seventh.

Drops to Cellar The Smith team was one of two which failed to score a point and as a result, it dropped from 15th to the cellar, 16th.

The Sweeney team's points remained the same but it moved up from 11th to 10th.

Bowlers who hit the 200 circle were: L. Greet, 214; Pete Martin, 206; N. McEachin, 205; J. Donovan, 204, and V. VanSteen, 202.

C. Club Bowlers Dine Tomorrow Captains of the Tuesday and Wednesday men's bowling leagues at the Country Club will attend a stag banquet Friday evening.

Larry Pittman has been named chairman for the dinner. Among the bowling captains who will attend are George E. Villerot, Erwin B. Dixon, Neil McMillan, John P. Danahar, H. E. McClure, H. E. O'Leary, John C. Frost, Jr., Elroy O. Jones and Sherwood Reckie.

Also present will be Walter Meek, A. Ingersoll Lewis, Jr., Ellis Merry, Johnny Drummy, David M. Whitney, Marion Kellogg, J. Harold Murphy, E. T. Ives, Jr., H. I. Mack, Miles O'Brien, James M. Frye II and Thomas Mann.

St. Paul's Title Hopes Dashed By St. Martin Eleven, 25-0

Winner Seems Sure of East Side Parochial Championship After Out-running, Out-passing Flyers in Every Period to Score Almost at Will

Hopes of the St. Paul football team for the winning of the East Side Parochial championship were shattered Sunday as the result of a 25-0 trouncing by St. Martin. Led by Don Furtaw's brilliant performance in the backfield, the victors out-played, out-ran, and out-passed the Flyers in every quarter.

The first score came in the opening minutes when Furtaw ran from the St. Paul 31 wide around left end to cross the stripe for six points.

Furtaw's score came only five plays after the initial kick-off. The extra point was missed in an attempted line-back through the right side of the line.

Another Furtaw score, from his own 28, came the first time he had his hands on the ball after the initial tally.

On First Play On the kick-off, Jimmy Law ran the ball to the mid-field stripe where Bob Berg was forced to punt on fourth down. He got a good kick down to the St. Martin 28.

Furtaw, in the first play from scrimmage ran 72 yards for the longest run of the afternoon, to score the second touchdown. Once again the extra point was missed leaving St. Martin in front 12-0.

In the second quarter, St. Martin started what looked to be another goalward march but it was stopped on the Flyers' 11 when they recovered Higgins' fumble.

Bounds to 11 Later in the second stanza, St. Martin was forced to kick from the mid-field stripe and it bounded to the St. Paul 11.

Berg's flat pass, intended for Dave Sherwood, was intercepted by St. Martin's Al Mercurio who ran 10 yards for the third tally in the first half. Again the attempt for the extra point was missed.

St. Paul brought the ball down to the St. Martin 20 as the first half ended.

A refreshed and spirited St. Paul team took the field as the second half began with crowd cheering for action.

A Yard Pass The Flyers held their own through most of the third quarter but during the closing minutes, the constant pass combination of Higgins-to-Furtaw was too much for the Flyers.

Higgins winged a 19-yard pass to Furtaw which set up the fourth touchdown. It flipped off a St. Paul lineman and Furtaw made a brilliant shoe-string catch on the five-yard stripe.

The St. Martin backfield crashed through right tackle for another six points. Paul Greene made the conversion. The score at the end of the third period: St. Martin, 25; St. Paul, 0.

Near State-Mate The warriors achieved a near stalemate throughout the fourth quarter as neither team drove very deeply into the other's territory.

St. Martin is the defending champion in the East Side League and has but one more game to play this season. St. Vincent will supply the opposition Sunday afternoon at Mack Park.

The kick-off is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Experts expect an easy win for the St. Martin eleven which would assure them of the championship.

Traffic deaths in the nation for the first seven months of 1948 totaled 16,390.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnels

With chill wintery winds sweeping across Lake St. Clair, many of the local tars are plagued with the chore of putting their ships in drydock for another long winter and turning to other fields of recreation.

Yep, all sailors are alike, they're always on the move. The younger set takes up school studies, the lads a little older take to hunting, bowling, etc. And the oldtimers just sit around remembering the races sailed last summer.

With the boys of the blow boats all tucked away for another season power boat racing news developed last Saturday with the announcement that George M. Slocum, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club member, and J. Lee Barrett, of Detroit, are on their way to Brussels, Belgium, to attend the annual meeting of the International Motorboating Union which opened Oct. 20.

Twenty-eight nations will be represented. Racing rules are formulated and world records recognized at the conference.

Barrett is the secretary of the Yachtsmen's Association of America which is the group that would supervise a Harmsworth race if one were held in Detroit next summer.

Jack Grosjean, of the American Powerboat Association, disclosed the sanctioning of mile trials to be held at Gull Lake, Mich., Sunday. All inboard hydroplanes are eligible.

Jack Schafer's "Such Crust" will attempt to break Gar Wood's American record of 124 miles per hour on the same day.

Chester S. Ricker will be in charge of timing. Other officials are: Jack Hyde, R. Mack Krebs, Harry Gardner, John H. Carter, Roy Grenier, Howard Stannard and Ralph M. Hansen.

That jovial, rotund yachting editor of the Detroit Times, George E. Van, has discovered taking the long shots doesn't pay off in football predictions like they sometimes do while sailing in D.R.Y.A. regattas.

At this writing, George is holding the cellar spot in the Times' football experts predictions with 62 right and 36 wrong.

It is this writer's guess George would be leading the league in a sailing match with his colleagues.

The Grosse Pointe Sail Club's first annual "Frost Bite" race was sailed Oct. 10 over the Detroit River Yachting Association's Course No. 3.

Bob Connelly's cutter won the perpetual Silver Cup presented to the Grosse Pointe Sail Club, for this event, by Ralph Dodge Johnson.

MORE BUILDING VANDALS. Woods police were asked Oct. 15 to watch a new store at Mack and Ridgmont after some tile and cement blocks were broken by vandals.

G.P. Reserves Beaten, 12-6, By H. Park

Opening Drive of 65 Yards Nullified by Foe's Rallies

By JOE FROMM

Highland Park's reserve squad started out slow but came on fast in the second and third quarters to overcome a 6-0 deficit and down Grosse Pointe reserves, 12-6, on the winner's gridiron last Thursday.

Grosse Pointe took the opening kickoff and marched 65 yards in a sustained drive for the initial score of the game. Fullback Ted Barnes carried the ball over the goal from the 3.

Not a Hand

Ben Gray, Grosse Pointe's brilliant left half, sparked the drive with two gains of 10 yards. The kick for the extra point was not good.

Highland Park found itself in the second quarter and roared to a touchdown. The Parkers' left half, Jones, sprinted around his own left end 20 yards for the score without a hand being laid on him.

Score in 2 Plays

Highland Park scored the deciding marker in the third period. Grosse Pointe lost the ball on downs on its own 35-yard line.

The quarterback and coach said afterwards they both thought that fourth down was third down and ran a line play. Highland Park took over and scored in two plays.

From Joe To You

by Joe Fromm

Don DeWolf, former Grosse Pointe resident and Grosse Pointe High student, is the starting right guard for St. Martin. He returned to the Pointe for the last two weeks to help his team beat St. Ambrose and St. Paul, Pointe parochial schools.

St. Ambrose drew a bye in the schedule Sunday and did not play. The squad meets St. Charles at Grosse Pointe High field Sunday in a St. Charles home game.

A new sport originated in Grosse Pointe last week. It's girls' football.

The idea was taken from the "Archie" comic in a Detroit daily paper.

Two teams from the senior class at Grosse Pointe High, the "Amazing Amazons" and the "Powerful Petunias" played to a 6-6 tie last week. Cliff Ammon and John Corfield, varsity players, coached the teams.

'Suckers' Boost Bowling Lead

Bowling in the newly-formed St. Michael's Chapel Bowling League at Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, the Suckers, piloted by Ray Amlexen, increased their first place lead by picking up three points from Capt. Harry Findlay's Scallops.

Good anchor bowling by Bill Teeter of the Shrimps and Capt. Bob Bell of the Snappers enabled these two teams to split their points.

Capt. Sam Cato's 210 game sparked the Smelts to an even break with Capt. Quellette's Shanks. The standings:

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Points. Suckers 7, Scallops 4, Smelts 4, Snappers 4, Shrimps 3, Sharks 2.

Country Day Wins Two Field Hockey Games

Grosse Pointe Country Day School defeated Liggett School, of Detroit, yesterday in both ends of a doubleheader field hockey contest on the home field, postponed from last Friday.

The varsity, with Joan Dryden and Elsa Barr getting the goals, won its contest, 2-1. Elise Hahn scored both times as the Reserves also triumphed, 2-0.

MISS BRITT
A family dinner party Oct. 15 in the Bedford road home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Britt simultaneously celebrated the 20th birthday anniversary of their daughter, Sandra Sue, and her betrothal to Clarence Robert Rothwell.
Sandra schools are Kingswood, Westlake School for Girls, in Los Angeles, and Ward-Belmont Junior College.
Her fiance, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brooke Rothwell, of Waters, Mich., is a junior at Michigan State College.
The pair will be married Dec. 20 in the Church of the Messiah. A reception will follow at the Detroit Athletic Club.

D.U.S. Alumni To Meet Oct. 29
Detroit University School will hold its annual Fall Alumni Association meeting Friday, October 29.
Some 550 alumni have been invited to be at the school at 2:30 p.m. to witness the Detroit University School-Grosse Ile football game.
Dinner at 6:30 will be followed by a business meeting.
E. P. Wright, president of the board of trustees of the school, and members of the faculty will be guests of the association for the evening.
Since Detroit University School is commemorating its 50th year, H. Gordon Wood, president of the Alumni Association, expects a large turnout.

ELECTION PARTY
A special buffet dinner and music by the Charlie Auld Trio are scheduled for the "Election Special Open House" at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club the evening of Nov. 2. Full election returns are promised.

Crippled League Fair Due Nov. 3
The annual Christmas Fair of the Michigan League for Crippled Children will be held Wednesday, Nov. 3, in the Masonic Temple.
Mrs. Franz Georgi, the general chairman, is bending every effort to make it the biggest event of the year for the league.
Mrs. A. H. Wilson and Mrs. Louis Pfaller are in charge of the prizes to be used for the bridge party which starts at 1 p.m.
Mrs. William Hoffman, program chairman, announces Ross Mutholland will serve as master of ceremonies.
The fashion show, arranged by Mrs. Theodore Schwartzek, is one of the special events.
Also of interest will be the special booths. Mrs. Ralph Roselle is in charge of the needle work booth. Mrs. C. R. Schimmel and Mrs. Otto Strek are working together on the baked goods booth.
Mrs. Emil Hanson will secure the white elephants and Mrs. W. L. Emery the costume jewelry. Mrs. Stanley Withee, decorating chairman, will work with the other chairmen for unification of the decorating scheme.
The League's Junior Auxiliary will assist the senior organization with its Sweet Shoppe. Mrs. John Yost expects to have an almost unbelievable array of gifts for the treasure chest.
The various chairmen promise it will be a Christmas Fair to remember.

Detroit 'Ringers' Suspected in School Ruckus
Three young mavericks in the form of boys 16-18 years old raised such a racket stomping around in the halls of the Grosse Pointe High School at 3 p.m. Oct. 13 that police were summoned.
Before the police arrived the boys were seen to enter a restaurant across the way.
They evidently had decided not to linger there either, as they were gone when the police trailed them to the lunch counter.
None of the boys was known to anybody who saw them and the opinion was they were "ringers" from Detroit.

School Board, P-TA Favor No. 2

offer nothing to the public schools of the State as a substitute for the revenues now being received from Sales Tax diversions. "The Michigan Legislature, which is dominated by rural interests, has been notoriously hostile to the interests of school districts such as Grosse Pointe. "Even WITH the present revenues from state sources, Grosse Pointe is straining every resource to maintain top quality education for our children and youth. "A decrease of $200,000 to $250,000 in annual revenues would make it necessary to reduce both the quantity and the quality of educational services by such dubious means as greatly increased class sizes, elimination or curtailment of many important services, and lower salaries for all school employees. "Vote 'Yes' on No. 5

"PROPOSAL No. 5 would, if adopted, make two important changes in the present constitutional provisions affecting tax limitations. "The first change would be to permit a majority of the voters to approve tax millages above the 15 mill constitutional maximum. "The present requirement for approval of such 'excess' millages is a two-thirds vote. "The second change would permit the voters to approve bond issues for school house construction for periods up to 20 years. "At the present time, all such buildings must be paid for in five years."

Reasons on No. 5 "The Grosse Pointe Council of Parents and Teachers and the Grosse Pointe Board of Education urge a YES vote on Proposal No. 5 for the following reasons: "1.—A rapidly growing community and an existing shortage of school housing for children living in the area greatly increased demand a greatly accelerated building program in the Grosse Pointe school district. "The cost of such a program would be almost prohibitive if it must be paid for in five years. If spread over 20 years, the cost would hurt no one. "2.—Many school districts in the State have been unable to do any school house building in the last 15 years because of the five year maximum period for bonding and the requirement of a two-thirds vote to approve such bond issues. "As a result, approximately 150,000 children in the State are attending schools only half days, or in store buildings, garages, or school houses which are a menace to health and physical safety. "3.—The existing requirement of a two-thirds vote to approve millage levies above the 15 mill limitation is grossly unfair and undemocratic, since it makes the vote of one citizen who is opposed to adequate support of public schools equal to that of two citizens who favor adequate support. "Facts on No. 2

The Board of Education's argument is simply labeled "Facts on No. 2" and "Facts on No. 5."

"1.—Grosse Pointe received in 1947-48 fiscal year, a total of $412,874.61 in State Aid of all types. Of this total $183,086.16 was directly from Sales Tax diversion. "If we had not received this money from the State last year, local real estate taxes would have had to be $1.60 for $1000

"2.—The year 1948 will probably see a record number of residential building permits issued in the Grosse Pointe school district. "This means that by the fall of 1949 we must be prepared to house a greatly increased number of children in our public schools. "Woefully Short "Unfortunately, the lion's share of this new home construction is in the area that is already woefully short of school buildings. "5.—War-year birthrates already are pushing elementary enrollments to record heights. The full effect of this greatly increased birthrate will not be upon us until 1953, but we already have evidence of the seriousness of the problem in our Kindergarten, Grade 1 and Grade 2 enrollment. "Each of these school grades has an enrollment more than 100 larger than any grade from 3 through 12. "6.—The Board of Education and the school staff are convinced that there is no possible way to catch up on our present school construction needs and prepare for greatly increased enrollments which the facts cited in 4 and 5 insure unless the existing limitations are liberalized by the adoption of Proposal No. 5. "No Unreasonable Burden "If we could finance our building needs with a bond issue to be retired serially over a period of 10, 15 or 20 years, we could provide badly needed buildings without asking our taxpayers to carry an unreasonable burden for a period of five years. "7.—The effect of the two-thirds majority and five-year limitation requirements on school districts out-State has been even more disastrous than in Grosse Pointe. "Many schools are being conducted in remodeled garages, lodge halls, church basements, store buildings, unsafe and unsanitary over-age buildings because many communities lack the financial ability to meet building needs in a period as short as five years."

Threatens Closing "3.—The largest amount of State Aid ever received by Grosse Pointe prior to adoption of the Sales Tax Diversion amendment was $214,543.34. "That sum is approximately half of the amount anticipated this fiscal year in State aid. "4.—Many poor school districts in the State of Michigan are so dependent upon State aid that a repeal of Sales Tax Diversion provisions of the Constitution would seriously threaten the closing of some schools. "5.—The Sales Tax Diversion Amendment, adopted by a large majority in November, 1946, is particularly important to Grosse Pointe since it guarantees us far more generous State Aid than we were ever able to get from a Legislature dominated by rural interests. "We now get 26 per cent of our school support from State sources. In 1941-42 a hostile legislature gave us only 15 per cent of our revenues. "Facts on No. 5

"1.—Grosse Pointe is far behind in providing for housing pupils in the area east and north of Fisher road. "We have approximately 1,200 children now enrolled in three buildings serving the Grosse Pointe Woods, Grosse Pointe Shores, and Gratiot Township area. "We have a proper working capacity for elementary children in this area of only 700-750 in the Mason and Vernier Schools. This means that we are now 450-500 pupil stations short. "Three hundred fifty of this shortage is being cared for temporarily in the Parcels School, which when completed is to be used for junior high school, not elementary pupils. The remainder of the shortage is being made up by use of attic rooms at Mason and basement rooms in Vernier. "2.—The Parcels School should be completed at the earliest possible date and available for junior high school use. "Transport 325 "We are now transporting 325 junior high pupils from the Grosse Pointe Woods and Gratiot area to the west end of the district (Pierce). This number will increase rapidly as home now under construction are completed and occupied. "3.—The money raised by the 3 1/2 mill excess levy voted by the people of Grosse Pointe in 1948 will not be sufficient to complete the Parcels School and the new Kerby School. This is due to the fact that building costs have increased so much since March, 1946. "4.—The year 1948 will probably see a record number of residential building permits issued in the Grosse Pointe school district. "This means that by the fall of 1949 we must be prepared to house a greatly increased number of children in our public schools. "Woefully Short "Unfortunately, the lion's share of this new home construction is in the area that is already woefully short of school buildings. "5.—War-year birthrates already are pushing elementary enrollments to record heights. The full effect of this greatly increased birthrate will not be upon us until 1953, but we already have evidence of the seriousness of the problem in our Kindergarten, Grade 1 and Grade 2 enrollment. "Each of these school grades has an enrollment more than 100 larger than any grade from 3 through 12. "6.—The Board of Education and the school staff are convinced that there is no possible way to catch up on our present school construction needs and prepare for greatly increased enrollments which the facts cited in 4 and 5 insure unless the existing limitations are liberalized by the adoption of Proposal No. 5. Halloween Party Planners Getting Things in Shape

Representatives of eight Grosse Pointe schools met with Mrs. E. F. Gehrig, chairman of the Student Advisory Committee, at the Board of Education office Oct. 14, to discuss further plans for the Halloween parties to be held at Grosse Pointe High School and Pierce Junior High Oct. 30. It was decided to have the refreshments include hot dogs, ham sandwiches, potato chips, doughnuts, cider, pop and ginger ale. Plans for entertainment have not yet been completed, and will be announced later.

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

That fashion flash we printed last week can be corrected now... for it wasn't a topper the chic MRS. RICHARD P. JOY, JR. is wearing... but a two piece suit. The plaid has a bright navy background (with quite a bit of bright red in it) and when we saw her in town, she had also donned its matching jaunty chapeau which is trimmed in the gayest scarlet feather. Better than ever!

The always decorative and good looking MRS. FRANK W. GOLDIE... presiding at President's Day program of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club... wearing a stunning navy wool suit AND elegantly sheer navy hosiery! Pinned to the suit lapel were two lovely shaggy white chrysanthemums. White gloves and a small navy hat completed the outfit.

At home... MRS. THOMAS F. PADDOCK... chose a soft shade of rose gabardine for her trig two-piece suit, the solid tones being relieved by a gold square link necklace... MRS. RICHARD S. WEBBER wore a long sleeved royal blue silk frock with extra large and attractive silver buttons from neckline to waist. A single silver button was used on each turned-back cuff of the frock's sleeves.

PILFERINGS

"Howlers From The Press"... and elsewhere (thanks to Louis Untermeyer)... "Frank Cape is at the Massachusetts General Hospital. He is suffering from head injuries and shock caused by coming into contact with a life wife."

The prize for moral standards must be awarded that combination of primness and fashion, Godey's Lady's Book. A household authority about the middle of the nineteenth century, the journal even told its readers how to arrange their bookshelves properly. "The perfect hostess," wrote the editor, "will see to it that the works of male and female authors are strictly separated. Their proximity on the shelves—unless they happen to be married—should not be tolerated."

Freud insists that our subconscious self prompts us to commit errors which reveal our hidden desires. This certainly seems to be true of the writer who inserted "not" in the following brief newspaper item: "Rudy Vallee, the well-known crooner and radio singer, was shaken up and bruised when his car left the highway and turned over. It is feared his vocal cords were not injured."

The substitution of an "i" for a "d" turned a dull statement into a startling truth: "Mrs. Robbins, president of the Women's Club, announces that on Wednesday, June 15, the final meeting will be hell."

The substitution of an "a" for an "o" caused something even more dramatic. "Gypsy Rose Lee," so ran the announcement, "the well-known strip-tease artist and author, has turned playwright; she is having her navel dramatized."

In a country newspaper: "Having broken both ankles in a collision, Mrs. McKnight is recovering under the car of her physician."

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD WEBER, OF LAKE SHORE ROAD

by Kitty Carney

Because the Richard Webers are a nautical-minded family, they built the house of their dreams right on Lake St. Clair, at 988 Lake Shore road.

There are many unusual features, not only about their ranch house, but about the site itself.

With Weber's brother, Robert Weber, and his family, and the Winthrop Faulkners (Mrs. Faulkner is Mrs. Dick Weber's sister), they have formed a three-family colony on the large plot of ground overlooking the lake.

The three couples, who have been Pointe residents for years, often talked of such a venture. Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner were pioneers on Lake Shore road; the two Webers bought their lots and started building in September of 1947.

The Robert Webers and their three children moved into their ranch house in June. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Weber with Richie, 11, and Janet, 7, settled next door in August.

Form Triangle

Thus, the three homes form a triangle on the lake. In the center of the triangle is a large flagpole from which fly the American flag and pennants from the Detroit Yacht Club and Power Squadron. The pole is flanked by a play yard for the children.

Dick Weber supervised the construction of the two ranch houses. He and Mrs. Weber made a cardboard model of their home according to scale and found that a good way of correcting possible building mistakes.

They wanted a large picture window in the living room overlooking the lake, and they got it. Most of that wall is window.

The wood-paneled den resembles the interior of a ship's cabin. Marine's loupes set in the wall provide the light.

Scale Picture

One wall of the den consists completely of built-in bookcases. On another has been installed a canvas painting done by a friend, which gives an accurate picture of Lake St. Clair, with the channel marked from Grosse Pointe to the Flats.

Two small houses are painted in to mark the Weber's location and another for the Robert Weber's cottage at the Flats. Mount Clemens, Selfridge Field and the lighthouse in the lake are other highlights on the map.

Boating means much to the Weber family (there are even nautical lamps on the outside of the ranch home) and their new location on Lake St. Clair links their favorite hobby to their everyday life.

Our Cops Equal To Any Squirrel!

Mrs. Frank J. Crane, of 523 Barrington, found a squirrel in her recreation room late last Thursday afternoon which had already done considerable damage when discovered.

Calling on the police, who in Grosse Pointe, are accustomed to all sorts of unusual assignments, they repaired to the scene of invasion and scooped up Mr. Whiskers with a fine-mesh landing net. It was considerably released in strange territory.

CUB SCOUTS

Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Heenan, of 1264 Three Mile drive will give a costume Halloween party in their home from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Oct. 28 for all the Cub Scouts of St. Clair Parish.

Dr. and Mrs. Heenan will be assisted by Mr. Anderson, Eugene Douville, Richard Distel, and James Flowers. There will be movies, refreshments and games.

FUNERAL BAKE MEATS

Contributed by Mrs. Edwin Baker

Take the amount of ground hash of any kind, or fish, that most of us throw out. Mix it with a sauce made of vegetable water, butter, touch of flour.

Throw in that tablespoon of vegetables which you also have saved from an untouched plate—a little curry, if you like it, or marjoram or basil—some cut-up parsley, chives or mint. Put it in individual turbot dishes.

Top with buttered and seasoned bread crumbs (the kind you make).

Put in hot oven until bubbling—and your guests won't know they are eating what was always known in mother's house as Funeral Bake Meats.

'Spring Again' Due Tomorrow

The Little Theatre Group of junior members of AWVS will present the three act comedy, "Spring Again," on Friday and Saturday evenings in the Players Playhouse on East Jefferson.

Mrs. E. Wilson Wardell, of Merrivether road, is chairman of the project.

Proceeds from the performances will aid disabled veterans. Dallas Chapin is director, assisted by Joseph Greenhoe. Mrs. J. R. Applegate is ticket chairman. Mrs. John H. Wilke and Sally O'Connor are handling publicity.

Members of the cast include Mrs. William Wallace, William McGiffin, Leslie Joy and Leslie Joy, Jr., Dr. Arthur V. Diedrich, Mrs. Jules Schneider, Dolores Dossin, Mrs. Ardyth Thompson, Dr. Charles Gibbons, Russell Poisson, Ellen Berg, Rossiter Potter, Malcolm McLellan and Theodore L. Sedwick.

All this chatter we've heard in the pre-election days about the Family Purse hasn't impressed us h-a-l-f as much as the Autumn and Winter handbags we saw at WALTON PIERCE, GROSSE POINTE BRANCH, the other day. The Family Purse and the tug upon it is something horrible. Milady's handbags at Walton Pierce tug upon your fashion fancies and are wonderful. For the busy Pointers with lots of meetings and "Things To Do In Town" there's a sturdy and smart leather with extra deep envelope flap that fits into a dependable loop at the bottom. Loads of room without that elephantiasis look, has wide strap for the arm and comes in black, cinnamon brown and dark brown leather. Another charmer was the purse that looked like a Vogue impression of old Dobbin's "feet bag." The leather is marvelous quality (W.P. had them in brown and black leather) and two parallel leather straps can be augmented by a longer strap (that comes with the purse) turning it into an "over the shoulder" affair. The top of the handbag (which must be seen to be appreciated) snaps together without aid of zipper or clasp, just with a flip of the wrist, and stays fast as a strong box.

HAMLIN'S, INC., the Cartier of grocery stores on Kercheval has added the famous Pepperidge Farm products to its already amazingly complete stock of good things to eat. Whole wheat bread (the nuttiest and best we've ever tasted), white bread, and dinner rolls are to be had and tomorrow you'll be able to buy Pepperidge Farm white or brown Melba Toast. Plus this, Hamlin's also has the same house's Herb Seasoned Stuffing for fowl. That it is extra delicious was attested to by the three prominent Pointe hostesses we saw buying it the other morning. Better try some today.

We read a noted beauty's book the other day and then dashed to SCHEITLER'S on Fisher road to lay in a supply of Celestine's Vichy Water which is back again after war-year's absence. The Beauty told us that Vichy water (France's finest, natural table water) puts sparkle back in tired eyes and definitely alkalizes the system. It's far better than coffee at lunch... and if drunk with a twist of lemon before breakfast... Hollywood will be sitting on your door step with contracts after a week. Scheitler's have it in nice sizes, too... seven and fourteen ounces.

Beauty is being featured at JACOBSON'S this week, too. All sorts of exciting cosmetics to add to your Autumn allure. There's news in Revlon's "Orchids To You," harmony in the specially toned nail polish, fashion plate and powder. Incidentally Fashion Plate, which is sensibly priced, is wonderful foundation for dry skins! Helena Rubenstein's Color Keys to Beauty... four tiny lipsticks dangling from a heart shaped key chain (which also serves as mirror)... There are special sets for blondes, brunettes, red heads and the glamorous white-coiffured ladies. Jacobson's has the very new silk tone (liquid) and silk-film (cream) with which Rubenstein has just rocketed the feminine world. It's the cosmetic that gives the skin a silken appearance. For your tiny gift list: the cute little Daisy ladies' razors. Look exactly like a gold lipstick, the razor collapsed in the case when not in use. Five rust resistant blades come with the set. No federal tax and The Thing for traveling! All at Jacobson's!
