Pioneers of Pointe Church See Dream Come True

Most of the members of the small original group which started to work seven years ago on plans for a permanent building for the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, were present Sunday afternoon when their pastor, REV. CHARLES W. SCHEID broke ground on the site of the new structure at Chalfonte and Lothrop roads in Grosse Pointe Farms. Left to right are: ALEXANDER M. MEIKLE, MR. AND MRS. J. T. HUETTE, MRS. ALTON HUNTINGTON, REVEREND SCHEID, DR. AND MRS. LYNLE R. MARTIN and MRS. MARCUS KALBFLEISCH. Missing from the original pioneers were Mrs. Wilford Lindburg and Mr. Kalbfleisch.

Asks Three Pointes To Pay $5,620,000 For Sewer Project

Detroit Wants City, Farms and Park to Signify Willingness to Assume Proportionate Cost of Relocating System

At the Grosse Pointe City and Farms council meetings on November 15, a letter was read of even date from G. R. Thompson, City Engineer of Detroit setting forth Detroit's side of the project for diverting the present storm water Fox Creek outlet to the Conner outlet.

This is the project which Detroit claims rests primarily on the Grosse Pointe communities of the Park, City and Farms.

If the allocation of costs which Detroit makes to the Pointe communities should prevail the cost to these three Pointe municipalities would aggregate $5,620,000.

Figured on Use
The cost is figured by Detroit on the proportionate use of the conduit by the three communities.

It is common knowledge that Detroit's chief motive in carrying this overflow down to Conner creek is to deliver it into the Detroit river opposite or slightly below Detroit's water intake at the head of Belle Isle instead of above it, as now occurs with the Fox Creek outlet.

Engineer Thompson's letter gives the Grosse Pointe public its first official knowledge of the cost of the project as figured by Detroit. Addressed to Norbert Neff, clerk of the City, and Harry Furton, clerk of the Farms, it reads as follows:

CITY OF DETROIT
Department of Public Works
November 15, 1948

Dear Sir: The City of Detroit has by agreement with your community operated certain Detroit sewer structures and an open channel of Fox Creek as a storm water outlet for the drainage from your community tributary to Fox Creek via the so-called Fox Creek Enclosure. Recently Detroit employed a board of three nationally recognized engineers to report on water supply and sewage for Detroit and the related area. A copy of this report has been sent to you and we call your attention to the findings in regard to the continued use of Fox Creek as a storm outlet.

Something might be accomplished next year but even this was uncertain.

He told Mr. Carpenter that the County Commission had recently adopted a new procedure which called for local participation in such improvements on roads within their municipal confines. This share for the community would be about 50 percent of the cost.

He estimated the cost of resurfacing Jefferson for the 4,000 feet of its length within the city would be about $40,000, leaving the city's apparent share $20,000.

He believed that the increased gas and weights tax which was almost a certainty would return a substantial addition to the city's revenue which would be available for this work and sufficient to amortize the city's share over a short term of years.

Mr. Brown stated also that the County Board would expect the city to discourage any additions or changes on properties on the southern side of Jefferson avenue which might infringe on the ultimate widening of Jefferson to 120 feet, as now planned.

The plan outlined by Mr. Brown is in effect much the same as pursued in the paving of Kercheval some years ago.

After the Farms had repeated its offer of $10,000 for the 125-foot plot on the alley north of McMillan and Kercheval, the Newberry Estate Company refused to reduce its price below $12,500. It originally had asked $15,000.

The Council authorized the president and clerk of the Village to conclude negotiations for the plot at the $12,500 figure after receiving the Estate's final offer and deciding the parking lot was a necessity.

Known as the "Easterly 125 of Oak A in the Radnor Park Subdivision," it will be ceded, ever shortly, Village Engineer Murray M. Smith, announced.

Seek Deferment For Patrolman
A resolution asking the draft department of Patrolman Guy Lyford, who has passed his selective service physical examination, was passed by the Farms Council Monday night.

The request for deferment was sought by Chief Walter R. Hoyt. It was pointed out that the Village has a big investment in the officer, who was appointed in June, 1948.

Also suggested was the fact that any replacement for Lyford would undoubtedly be likely to be called later in the draft.

Decision on Sales Property Taxes Dampens City's Hopes
A letter from the State Tax Board, addressed to Glenn M. Condon, attorney for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, considerably dampens the hope of the city to collect taxes on the Murtagh Sales property at the corner of Lincoln and Jefferson, which was given by Mr. Sales to the School Board some months ago.

The letter stated it was based upon an opinion of the Attorney General, following the hearing before the Tax Board on September 21 in Detroit. After studying the letter, Al-

Line Wants To Eliminate Reduced Fare

Pointe Officials Asked to Arrange Parley to Discuss Proposal

An increase in bus fares looms for Grosse Pointers who commute to downtown Detroit via the Lake Shore Coach Lines busses.

This was disclosed at City, Farms and Woods council meetings this week when letters from the coach company president, Walter Schweikart, were read asking a parley on the subject.

Approaching wage negotiations with the coach operators were given as the reason for the necessity of an increase.

The proposed increase would not affect occasional riders since actual fares would not be changed.

The increase would result from elimination of the reduced ticket rates which amounted to a cent and a half per ride.

Seeks Meeting
The company seeks a meeting next week of representatives of the various municipalities to get their okay on elimination of the ticket rates of 10 for $1.35 to the Park, City and Farms, and 10 for $1.85 to the Woods and Shores.

Cash fares of 15 cents per ride to the Park, City and Farms, and 20 cents per ride to the Woods and Shores would remain unchanged.

According to John J. Tierney, general manager of the coach lines, the amended fare schedule must be filed with the State Public Service Commission by Dec. 1.

Effective Jan. 1
This is required, he said, in order for the new rates to go into effect Jan. 1, when anticipated wage raises will become effective.

Tierney said the operators had notified the company they would seek wage increases in a new contract, effective Jan. 1. The present pact expires Dec. 31.

While they have not indicated their demands as yet, Tierney said it was anticipated the company would have to raise the scale from the present $1.35 to $1.45 or $1.49 per hour.

Similar Operation
He said he based this estimate on the contract under which Dearborn Coach Company operators are working, since their's is a similar operation.

The Dearborn operators now receive $1.45 and are due to be increased to $1.49 Jan. 1.

The contract under which the Dearborn line is operating was negotiated recently after a severe strike of several days' duration which had thousands seeking other means of transportation.

Increase 'Justified'
Schweikart, in his letters to the councils, termed a wage increase "justified" in line with increased cost of living.

Tierney said it wasn't expected that elimination of the special ticket rates would make up the additional operating expense resulting from the expected wage raise.

However, he added, it was hoped that other economies could be effected to offset the wage increase without necessitating further fare boosts.

Connolly Named
The Farms council, without expressing any opinion, pro or con, appointed Councilman William F. Connolly, Jr., to meet with the bus company officials on the question.

The City council passed a motion stating it would cooperate with the other Pointe communities on the fare question. No representative was named to meet with the company.

JOINS DRAMA CLUB
James Sanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford of 279 Hillcrest road, a freshman at Alma College, has become a member of the Alma College Drama Club.

CONFINED BLAZE
A fire blazing in a barn was placed on the front porch of the house at 245 Ridgmont on the night of Nov. 10. Farms officers Hilgendorf and Roland were unable to find the culprits.

Grosse Pointe Rotary Club's annual benefit party is next Monday evening, November 22, at the Neighborhood Club, 8 o'clock sharp.—Adv.

Churchgoers See Dreams Coming True

Pointe Congregationalists Break Ground for New Building in Farms

At the conclusion of the morning worship on Sunday, November 14, the congregation of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, meeting in Richard School, adjourned to their new church site at Chalfonte and Lothrop for a ground breaking ceremony in preparation for the erection of their new edifice.

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church started as a mission church in 1939 with an adult membership of seven. It was incorporated in 1940 with a membership of 17 and called its first and present minister, the Rev. Charles W. Scheid. Under his leadership the membership has increased to 383 and the church school to an enrollment of 190 children.

The new church will have a seating capacity of 425 and will cost an estimated $178,000 including furnishings. The building was designed by George D. Mason Co., represented by David H. Williams, Jr., architects. The contract has been let to the C. H. Risdorf Co.

Rev. Scheid officiated at the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. A. A. Meikle, Supt. of the Detroit Congregational Association; and the chairman of the church departments. These are Edgar H. Sims, Trustees; I. Harold Hubbard (building committee); Elmer Norman, deacons; Mrs. Harold W. Beattie, deaconess; Don T. Lester, church school; Mrs. Albert Schlorff, choir; Mrs. Lloyd (Continued on Page 10)

Farms Officials Start Move To Have Fluorine Added to Water Supply; Study Ordered

Engineer Smith's Suggestion Heartily Endorsed by Trustee Hubbard; Dentists Endorse Method Fighting Decay

If a move initiated Monday night by the Farms Council at its regular meeting is carried to fruition, Grosse Pointe will be one of the world's leaders in a new health program.

It is a proposal to add sodium fluoride salt—popularly known as fluorine—to the Farms water supply as a method of reducing tooth decay.

The subject was presented to the Council by Village Engineer Murray M. Smith, who pointed out that only nine municipalities in the United States and Canada thus far had adopted the new method.

The City of Detroit recently has been studying a proposal to add the salt to its water supply. Grand Rapids (Mich.) already has done so.

'Would Be Negligent'
The question was raised whether or not fluorine still was an experimental stage—whether or not there would be any danger and whether or not there would be any objections.

Trustee Henry H. Hubbard remarked that it very apparently was beyond the experimental stage since such cities as Grand Rapids had adopted the program.

He suggested that the Farms would be negligent if it didn't adopt the fluorine process and it later proved to be beneficial.

Losing Benefits
"The real proof probably won't be forthcoming for 10 years or more," Hubbard added, "but our people will be losing 10 years of benefits if we wait until it's proven beneficial beyond all doubt."

Village President James K. Watkins appointed Hubbard and Trustee George Schlaepfer as a

Service Club Parties Will Aid Charities

Rotary and Kiwanis Organizations Ready for Annual Events

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club's eighth annual benefit party will be held next Monday night, November 22 at the Neighborhood Club, at 8 o'clock. All of the proceeds of the party are devoted to charity and social betterment work within Grosse Pointe. There is no offset of any description for expenses.

In the literature advertising the affair among friends and members of the club a formidable list of beneficiaries by the club last year is published as an illustration of the range of the club's charitable activities. This list varies naturally from year to year.

One of the principal beneficiaries of the club this year will be the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library, to which the club has pledged $2,500.

Jack Eigel is the general chairman of the party this year, but every member of the club is allocated to some particular service the night of the party.

These parties have been notably successful in the past and the club anticipates a larger community participation this year than ever before. Tickets can be obtained at the door by those who have not already procured them from members or from the numerous stands in the Pointe where they are available.

KIWANIS PARTY FRIDAY
The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club's annual benefit party will be held on Friday night, November 19 at the Neighborhood Club at 8 o'clock.

Arnold Deising is the general chairman of the event but practically the entire membership of the club is enrolled for special service for the night of the party.

The Kiwanis Club's chief charitable activity is in behalf of the underprivileged child, although its good work does not stop at this.

One of the chief beneficiaries of the party will be the spastic paralysis ward at the University Hospital at Ann Arbor. The club has been an important contributor to this ward for some time.

Police Request Cooperation From Baby Sitters, Parents

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers has issued a plea for cooperation from baby sitters and parents who employ them.

Chief Louwers says his department often receives calls relating to either real or suspected criminal activity about premises where baby sitters are employed. In most cases the calls come from someone other than the baby sitter, usually from the sitters' parents or the sitters' employers.

Meter Checker Double Checked

Suspicious aroused by a man who said he was a meter checker for the Farms Water Department, appeared to be well-founded on Nov. 9.

Leo Kennedy of 87 Moran road, did some checking of his own after the visit of the alleged village employee. He found a basement window open, which looked suspiciously like a planned robbery.

When the village clerk's office informed him it had had no meter checkers out that day, he applied for a special watch by the police. At last report, the "meter checker" had not returned.

Grosse Pointe Rotary Club's annual benefit party is next Monday evening, November 22, at the Neighborhood Club, 8 o'clock sharp.—Adv.

Would Put Teeth in Rubbish Law to Enforce Rat Control

Farms Engineer Asks Amendment to Make Property Owners Responsible for Infestation of Their Premises

An amendment to the present rubbish ordinance making property owners responsible for prevention of rat or vermin infestation of their premises was recommended to the Farms Council Monday night.

Murray M. Smith, village engineer, in making the recommendation, pointed out that the problem was not overly severe, but that present regulations were inadequate.

"At the present time our worst offenders," Smith declared, "are restaurants and grocery stores which can obtain the services of exterminating agencies to carry out this work if we have some way of forcing them to do so."

He pointed out that the City of Cleveland (O.) has what is termed a "model" ordinance similar to his suggestion. The matter was referred to the public works committee with the recommendation that it contact Cleveland to get a copy of that city's ordinance.

Police Intercede In Family Fight

A woman living in the Park apartment building at 3:20 a.m. on Nov. 15, asking for help in settling a family argument.

When the police arrived they learned that a well-matured daughter of the woman, i.e., somewhere between 30 and 40, had arrived home, sepulchral, or, in other words, as the case may be. Mother had reproved the daughter in positive language and daughter had replied in kind.

The police placed the car in the garage, took the keys from daughter, hustled her into the house and left the pair to fight it out on that line if it took all summer, or at least all night. Grant in the Wilderness could have done no more.

Blames Neighbor For Fire Damage

Mrs. C. J. DeLaura, of 788 Notre Dame, complained to the police on November 8 that a neighbor burning leaves in his back yard had burned two of her rose bushes and had also seriously damaged an evergreen tree which had cost $27.50.

The police told the man he would have to pay for the damages his fire had caused his neighbor's property.

Luncheon Session Held By College Women's Club

College Women's Club had a luncheon Tuesday at the Engineering Society headquarters in the Rackham Building, preceding a 2 o'clock lecture with slides of "Detroit's Nineteenth Century Architecture."

William Woolfenden, curator at the Detroit Institute of Arts, gave the talk.

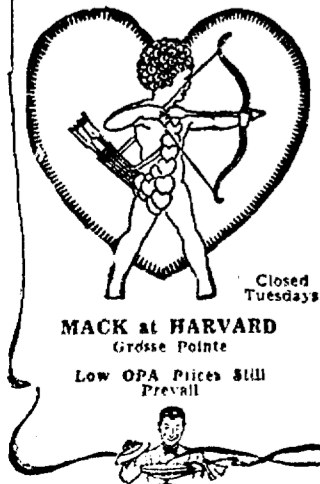

Mrs. George Beranck was chairman of the day. Among those present were Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann, Mrs. Arthur E. Fleming, Mrs. Richard Larwin and Mrs. Edgar B. Cooper.

Pointe Loses Ted Beaupre

Former Farms President Fatally Stricken on Duty at Village Pier

Theodore A. Beaupre, former president of the Farms Village, and its building inspector and pier superintendent for many years, was fatally stricken by a heart attack at the municipally owned beach park Saturday afternoon. He was 62 years old.

"Ted," as he was familiarly known to thousands of Pointers, died in harness. He was supervising the drydocking of a number of boats at the pier when he keeled over.

Pronounced Dead
Rushed to Cottage Hospital by Patrolmen Dhavelose and Jarrett, he was pronounced dead on arrival. He had apparently been in good health and had never suffered any serious illnesses.

Mr. Beaupre was president of the Farms from 1922 to 1925, having served as a trustee of the village previously. He resigned as president in 1925 to take on the duties of building inspector when the first big boom in building hit the village. In 1932 when the depression had halted much of the building here, he assumed the added duties of pier superintendent and held both posts up to the time of his death.

Funeral Tuesday
Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in St. Paul's Church, followed by burial in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Most of the village officials and his fellow employees attended the services.

The village trustees passed a resolution at their meeting Monday night, offering sympathy to the family and praising the long and faithful service Mr. Beaupre had rendered to his village. Survivors include his wife, two sons, Samuel and Joseph, and a daughter, Mrs. Florence Gardner.

Store Burglar Has Good Taste

Proper's store on Kercheval avenue reported to the police on Nov. 8 that a 100 percent camel hair natural color overcoat had been stolen. The store was unable to state whether it had been stolen on Nov. 4, 5 or 6.

The clerks suspected a large man, weighing about 225 pounds and well over six feet tall and about 40 years old, who had been in the store on November 4. He was interested in the coat but did not buy. He was accompanied by a woman of about the same age.

The coat trade mark was "Regis Rex." It bore a registration number which, however, Mr. Proper could get only by writing to New York. The coat was valued at $150.

Two Cars Tangle In Mapleton Rd.

Damage estimated at about $100 was done at 9:50 a.m. on November 11 when two cars tangled in Mapleton road. Mrs. Henry Barbas of 128 Mapleton, driving her Plymouth south on Mapleton, attempted to turn into her driveway when she ran into the side of a 1947 Ford owned and driven by Mrs. Theresa Randisi of 272 Ridgemont. Mrs. Randisi's car got the worst of the deal, $75 worth of damage. Mrs. Barbas agreed to pay for all damage.

Pointes Asked to Shoulder Sewer Costs of $5,620,000

proposed an amendment to the statutes prohibiting the discharge of storm overflows from a combined sewer system, unless a volume equivalent to a 10% of a ten year frequency storm runoff is either diverted to a sewage treatment plant or otherwise treated by sedimentation, skimming and chlorination.

Not unmindful of the present agreement with your community relative to the operations of the Fox Creek open channel as an outlet for storm overflows from your community, Detroit finds that the continuance of the use of Fox Creek channel as an outlet for storm overflows from a combined sewer system, such as the Fox Creek Enclosure, has been declared a hazard to public health, a detriment to the use of Lake St. Clair and the Detroit River for recreational purposes, and inimicable to the public interest.

In due consideration of the foregoing and in order to satisfy the requirements of the various agencies under whose jurisdiction matters of this nature are decided, Detroit proposes to abandon the use of Fox Creek open channel as a storm outlet and to divert all flows tributary to Fox Creek open channel to Conner Creek through an enclosed sewer structure.

Under these conditions the responsibility for constructing a new outlet for Fox Creek is joint between the several parties now using the creek as a storm outlet and each should bear its proportionate cost of the improvement. On November 15, 1948, Mr. Palmer left with you a marked copy of blueprint of our drawing No. 67-1-B, showing diagrammatically the new outlet proposed for Fox Creek, via new sewers in Freud and Essex Avenues. The sewer in Essex Avenue will be for use of Detroit sewage only. The sewer in Freud Avenue will be for the joint use of Detroit and the three Grosse Pointe Communities upstream.

We have also left a memorandum of estimated distribution of the Freud Avenue sewer showing the estimated proportion thereof to be allocated to each of the parties enjoying the use of this sewer which is as follows:

The preliminary estimate for the Fox Creek Double Box Sewer, in Freud Avenue, is $8,000,000, to be allocated as follows:

770 c.f.s. Detroit (Ashland), 770 c.f.s. Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe City, 1050 c.f.s. Grosse Pointe Park.

2590 c.f.s. Total capacity of Fox Creek Double Box Sewer. 770 x 8,000,000 = $2,380,000 — Detroit.

2590 Farms 2/3 — $2,380,000 — Farms and City, 2590 Farms 1/3 — $1,586,667 City 1/3 — 793,333

1050 x 8,000,000 = $2,380,000 — 1050 x 8,000,000 = $3,240,000 — Park.

Under the terms of the Circuit Court decree for the County of Wayne in Chancery entitled "City of Detroit, a municipal corporation vs Village of Grosse Pointe Farms, a municipal corporation, City of Grosse Pointe, a municipal corporation, and Village of Grosse Pointe Park, a municipal corporation, Defendants, No. 257,612" and of existing agreements entered into pursuant thereto, and because of the legal obligation of all communities to provide for its drainage without imposing additional burdens upon any other community, it is imperative that the City of Grosse Pointe indicate its

Burglars Saved By War Records

Norman Fallowfield and William Potts, who confessed to holding up Alexander Sutherland some time ago at pistol point in his car in the rear of the Schettler Drug store on Jefferson, and robbing him of $31, were placed on two years' probation in Circuit Court last week.

The men were let off with this easy sentence because neither had any previous criminal record and both had excellent records for service in the war, one in the Pacific area and the other, in Europe. They pleaded desperate need of money for their families and the Court's lenient treatment of their cases was approved by the Park police.

Both of them were much chagrined by their escapade and solemnly promised they would never make such a slip again.

'Nuts,' Said He
The general attitude of the City Council was reflected by the remark of one of the Councilmen that it should be treated in the same spirit as the answer of Captain McAuliffe to the Germans' demand for surrender at the Battle of Bastogne. "Nuts," said he.

However, it was agreed to get together with the other two Pointe communities affected and decide on a plan of common defense against the exorbitant cost which Detroit would impose.

The opinion of the Farms trustees was much the same. It was decided to advise Mr. Thompson that the letter had been received and would be studied by the village attorney.

Damage Slight as Bus Hits Car on Mack Ave.

Damage was slight when a DSR bus and a passenger car had a minor skirmish on Mack avenue near Moross at 8 p.m. on Nov. 14.

Robert Earl Tate, driver of the bus, was attempting to make a U-turn to head west on Mack, when he collided with a Chevrolet sedan driven east on Mack by Donald Korpseff of 726 Manistique.

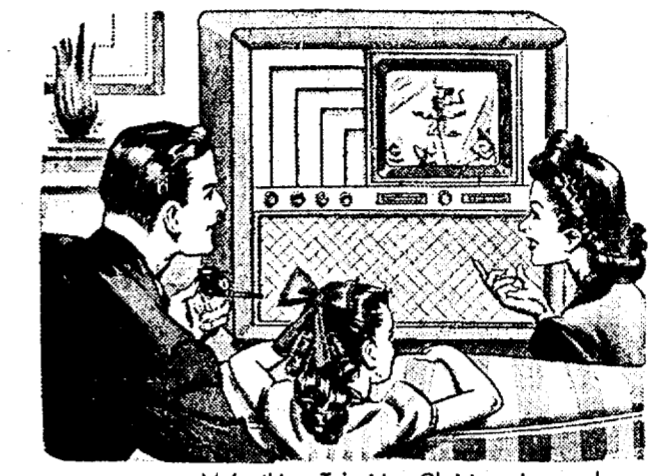

Tickets were issued both drivers by Patrolmen Lyford and Beaupre.

Auto Club Still Ignoring Park's Demands That it Fulfill Promise to Build

Organization Fails to Answer Letter Sent in Mid-Summer Asking for Definite Information on Construction Plans

The action initiated by the Garden Club of Grosse Pointe on Nov. 3 for the beautification of the Pointe and the early adoption of a master plan to be pursued by all of the Pointe villages has instantly revived queries as to what has happened to one of the principal plans for local improvement in the creation of a beautiful clubhouse by the Automobile Club of Michigan which clubhouses thought had been settled nearly three years ago.

It was on February 2, 1946, that a contract was signed between the Park Village and the auto club which stipulated that as soon as the village had amended its zoning law so as to make available for a clubhouse site out lot "A-1" on the NE corner of Somerset and Jefferson, the club would erect a handsome building on the lot as soon as materials were available.

Since then hundreds of private home builders not to mention scores of commercial building projects, have been able to get materials and have gone ahead with their building.

At a meeting of the Park Village Board of Commissioners in tongues is why, if private enterprise has not hesitated to erect hundreds of private homes and scores of commercial properties despite the high cost of building, an auto club which is not supposed to be operated for a profit, should stall and wait for a cheaper building period, which may never come.

Discontent over the dilatory tactics of the Michigan Automobile Club is mounting. There is an undercurrent of talk that this permit should not be a perpetual grant by the village, and that a way should be quickly found to terminate the agreement and return that site to its original residential purpose.

This property is in the same general area that is under serious consideration by the Park for beautification. The Park village authorities hope to make this section an attractive and beautiful entrance gate into Grosse Pointe, in which all of the Pointe community is interested.

The delay by the auto club in fulfilling its promised improvement is a serious check in the overall picture of the plan.

There is increasing talk among the citizens that the Village authorities should move quickly to bring this issue to a head one way or the other.

Unlocked Car Stolen From Garage in City

Mrs. Neta N. Weadock of 442 Nuff road, reported that her Cadillac sedan had been stolen from her garage sometime between 8 p.m. on Nov. 11 and 12 o'clock noon the next day.

Mrs. Weadock said that her garage door was unlocked and she had also left her keys in the car.

The case was put on the police teletype and at 2:45 o'clock the next afternoon the Detroit police phoned they had the car. Held were three youths who will have to answer in Detroit criminal court for car stealing.

Parked Car Stripped Of Hub Caps and Rims

James S. David, of 1101 Lakepointe, reported to the police on Nov. 10 that sometime between 10 o'clock the night before and 7 o'clock that morning, someone had tampered with his Chrysler '47 while parked on St. Paul, just west of Lakepointe.

The right front vent window had been broken and the car stripped of four hub caps and four metal tire rims.

City Officials Cite Reasons For Unification of Pointes

Separate Decisions on Police Radio and Sewer Matters Pointed Out as Arguments for Consolidation

During the discussion of the $6,000,000 sewer bill which Detroit would drop in Grosse Pointe's lap, and later when the proposed Police radio was discussed at the City Council meeting on Nov. 15, two officials, prominent in the government of Grosse Pointe City, emphatically endorsed the advantages of common community action by all Grosse Pointe as a governmental unit.

When sewers were discussed Councilman John Mack pointed the "advantage of the establishment of a general sewer authority for the area, if such arrangement could be legally set up." He raised the question whether it might not be found to the advantage of the Pointe community to provide a complete sewer system of its own and have within its own confines the disposal of storm water into the lake and the treatment of sanitary sewage through its own sewage treatment plant.

When Detroit was making plans to bypass its water intake by taking Pointe storm water, and such sewage as it contains in time of high water, by transferring the Fox Creek outlet to Conner Creek and "touch us up with three quarters of the expense," Mr. Mack thought "it is high time to see what we could do here by taking care of our own drainage and figure what this expense would be against what Detroit is now trying to assess us."

When the police radio was being informally discussed Attorney Albert Meder, the City's legal counsel, bluntly stated that "such experiences as this directly pointed to the advisability of all five of the Pointe communities getting together as one city."

City Taking Independent Stand Over Police Radio

At the City Council meeting on Nov. 15, City Clerk Norbert P. Neff reported that Karl B. Goddard, one of the Commissioners of Grosse Pointe Park, and Clarence Blessed, the City's Public Safety Commissioner, and he had discussed the common police radio service which is now being studied by the four villages.

Mr. Goddard's idea seemed to be that the City should join in with the four villages and set up a radio service to supplant that now furnished by the township.

Mayor Netting expressed himself emphatically on this matter. "We now have a chance of our own," he said, "with small prospect that it will be taken away from us by the FCC. The Township has one which serves the rest of the Pointe. It may be a difficult matter to get the township to surrender its radio channel."

He suggested that the other communities be notified that when they have agreed on some concrete plan for radio service they come to the City and talk it over.

Mr. Neff said this was in effect what he and Mr. Blessed had said.

The Council approved the position of the Mayor and the City Clerk.

Winkelman's Newest Store Opens Today

Every Woman Visiting Smart New Establishment to Receive Rose

Today marks the opening of the beautiful new Winkelman's Grosse Pointe store, 16834 Kercheval, near Cadieux, in the Village. The formal opening will be at 12:00 with open house extending throughout the day.

The new store will carry fashionable styles in women's apparel, accessories and millinery. Each woman visiting the store today will be given a rose.

Here for the opening will be Mr. I. Winkelman and Mr. Leon Winkelman, executives of the company; Mr. M. M. Hartman, sales manager; Mr. Charles Baldwin, manager of the new store; and Mrs. C. Monihan, assistant manager.

The new store is the 16th in the Winkelman chain which extends throughout Detroit and suburbs.

Joseph V. Buck New ROA Head

The Detroit Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association (Navy) recently elected Joseph V. Buck, 1725 Allard road, Grosse Pointe Woods, as its president for the coming year. ROA is a national organization of Army, Navy, and Marine Reserve Officers. The Detroit Chapter of ROA (Navy) is the representative organization for over 6000 Naval and Marine officers in this area of Michigan.

"Joe" Buck is a 1st Lieutenant in the USMCR with a record of two years service in Bougainville, Philippines, and Okinawa with the 1st and 2nd Marine Air Wings which were awarded the Presidential Unit Citation.

ROA (Navy) is having its monthly meeting on Friday, November 19 and all Grosse Pointe Navy and Marine officers are invited to attend. Plans for the coming year will be outlined and several excellent Combat films will be shown. The meeting place is the wardroom of the Naval Armory at 2000 hours. Any Naval or Marine officer interested in active membership is requested by Mr. Buck to call him at his office WO 1-3847 or at his home in the evenings, NI. 0249.

Cord Meyer, Jr. To Speak Here

Cord Meyer, Jr., president of the United World Federalists, will speak Sunday evening, November 21, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Assembly Hall of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe boulevard.

James K. Watkins will introduce the speaker. The meeting has been arranged by the executive committee of the Michigan Branch, United World Federalists.

Local members of the committee include Nelson McCormick, Donald Thurber, Walter B. Ford, III, Hiram Walker and Courtney B. Rankin.

Mr. Meyer was wounded on Guam while serving as a captain in the Marine Corps. He was later chosen by Harold Stassen as an aide at the San Francisco conference. Since then he has devoted himself to studying the problems of international peace.

He recently returned from Luxembourg, where he attended an international conference of groups interested in world government.

Infant Slightly Injured in Crash

John J. Williams, of 20017 Elkhart, Detroit, driving north on St. Clair on Nov. 7, hit a car driven by Mrs. Mariette Dhaveloose of 177 Muir road, going west on Charlevoix.

Mrs. Dhaveloose had her infant daughter, Dianne, aged 5 months with her. Dianne suffered a slight bump on her head. Both mother and daughter were taken to Eon Secours Hospital for examination and released.

Williams was given a ticket for reckless driving. Both cars were somewhat damaged and were towed to the rear of the police station.

mary, mary, quite contrary

Mary Madison

WHAM! What a CONTRARY month, boys and girls! In fact, everything's gone so contrary to form that some of us are now getting up in the morning and taking up-setting instead of setting-up exercises.

Not the least of the reverse trends—though this time on the sunny side—is the Big News Among The Muses that for the first time in 10! these many months, show business is booming. That Fabulous Invalid—The Stage—is once more so alive and kicking that we can only conclude the drama must have democratic blood. 10 NEW HITS! 9 LONG RUNS!!

32 SHOWS ON NATIONAL TOUR!!!

That's the box-office score! And that at a time when everyone is blabbing about the high cost of low living. With other businesses sticking pins into salesmen's charts (AND INTO THE SALESMEN) theatrical cash registers are playing the dough-re-me and the checks are popping out of mail orders like confetti on parade day.

Of the new shows, Grosse Pointers have been privileged to sit as critic-audience on Life With Mother and Summer and Smoke prior to their New York premieres. They likewise approved Madeline Carroll's Goodbye-My-Fancy, rushing on to Broadway with great fanfare, and are about to see the Theatre Guild's first offering, The Silver Whistle, starring Jose Ferrer as a philosophical tramp, before it bows into the big town. And not an Opening Nightmare among these shows. The significant thing about these pre-Broadway tryouts is that on the much maligned "Road", according to official figures, the grosses have been running even AHEAD of Broadway.

Well, there MUST be a reason. There is, pet. A reason so obvious that it would only appear to the worm's-eye-view of a contrary kid. It is simply that people don't spend money when they have it—they spend it when they Don't have it. That is, they spend it on Entertainment. They spend it on Escape.

Ever since Euripides wrote Medea (or did he?) the Fabulous Invalid, The Stage, has been "dying". She started expiring again centuries later, in France, when Moliere rushed in with his pulmotor of plays. She was wobbling on her last legs in England when a young man whose duty it was to hitch the horses outside The Globe Theatre in London heard her dying moans and dashed off a series of dramas for her. The name of this young man was William Shakespeare—and fortunately he's STILL writing for her.

They said she'd never survive Radio. But she not only survived it—she saved it. So now they are saying she'll never survive Television. But they're borrowing all her authors and actors.

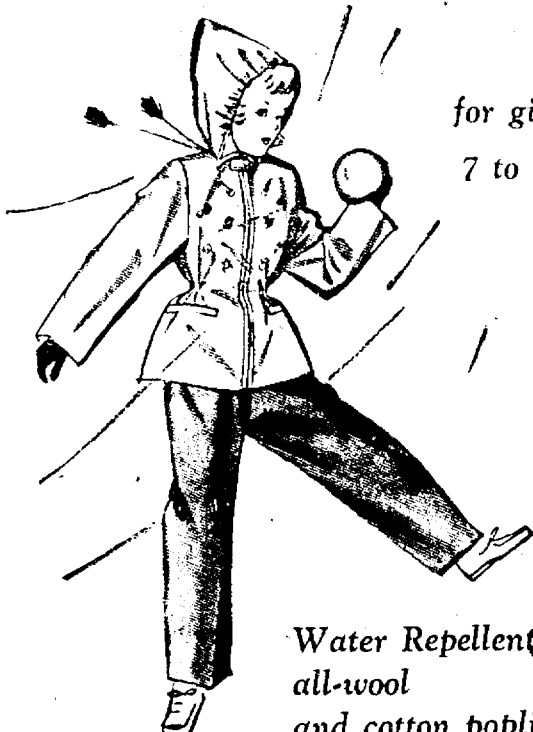

And The Fabulous Invalid herself is running all over the Rialtos of the country like a stage struck schoolgirl, even if she is over 2000 years young.

The fact is, kiddies, that even if there IS no place like home that's probably the very reason we want at times to get out and stay out. Radio and television may go the way of all flash, but somehow we'd rather spend a few magic hours with The Fabulous Invalid—and go the way of all flesh.

STOP THE PRESSES is no catch phrase in the weekly and monthly magazine offices this November. Millions of typed words have been filed in the wastebaskets by editors whose crystal balls cracked with their heads the morning after the big Republicanizing out of office. Frankly, folks, we still have a charming little piece, all set to run on Frances Hutt Dewey. All about how she was going to set the fashion pace in Washington, re-decorate The White House (which she's never been inside) and start a lush, plush era of brilliant entertaining. We had all the data, from the time she was singing in George White's Scandals to her latest picture in Vogue. At least we didn't risk and run the story, as did Drew Pearson, who'd probably pay all his wages of syndication to have avoided that last laugh on himself.

CLARE BOOTHE LUCE is responsible for the fad that's sweeping the country, via The Junior League Shops and other genteel marts of merchandise. Are YOU wearing your tortoise shell glasses, a la Luce, dangling from a moire ribbon with rubber suction clasps holding the glasses thumping against your chest? Clare dreamed up this contrivance because she was always losing her reading glasses on lecture platforms.

We tried the gadget but it just gave us the rakish air of a fugitive from a race track, wearing her binoculars into town. On La Belle Luce, they're chawming, and now if she can only invent some little trick to keep her jewelry on, we'll all be set for life. Taking the bread right out of the poor burglar's mouths, that's what it would be.

Fine New Furniture Store Opens in Woods Tomorrow

Roesch-McKnight, Inc. Has Beautiful New Building on Mack Avenue at Prestwick; Owners Both Pointe Residents

Grand opening of Roesch-McKnight, Inc., Grosse Pointe's newest furniture store on Mack avenue at Prestwick, will be held Nov. 19, with the general public invited.

The co-owners, Carl Roesch and Claude A. McKnight, are long-time Grosse Pointe residents who said today they will feature "fine traditional and colonial furniture in this store, which represents many years of planning and the realization of a dream of going into business for ourselves."

The store, two blocks east of the Woods Theater, occupies a new one-story building, colonial in style, with 85-foot frontage on Mack and 100 feet on Prestwick. The especially-designed structure, which blends with the architecture of new homes in the neighborhood, contains 6,000 square feet of selling space. Flush-type lighting, with special lenses, has been installed to display furniture to the best possible advantage.

Have Leading Lines
McKnight who has 15 years' experience in buying and selling fine furniture, said the store will offer selected lines of the nation's leading manufacturers.

"We decided to locate in Grosse Pointe, rather than anywhere else, because we're convinced the future in the Pointes is bright—and we intend to grow with this community," McKnight said. "This has been our home for many years. We know Pointe people and believe we know what they like in furniture."

"The store is within easy driving distance of all the Pointes—away from crowds and pressure. Here, people can find parking space easily and examine furniture suggestions at their leisure."

Ultimate In Service
"We're in this business to stay and, therefore, will seek always to provide the ultimate in service and counsel to those with furniture needs."

The store, McKnight added, will be open every evening until Christmas, so "everyone will have ample opportunity to come in and

Report Robbery Of Pier Locker

Sometime between the night of Nov. 10 and the morning of the 11th someone forced the lock on the No. 5 locker at the City pier. The locker is held jointly by Million Geiche, 733 St. Clair, Wilfred J. Barbret, 17030 Waterloo and Edward J. Pontraz, Jr., of 782 Notre Dame.

The thieves stole a large assortment of fishing tackle and a 16 h.p. Evinrude outboard motor belonging to Mr. Geiche.

The police theory is that the thieves came to the pier by boat which would enable them to get away with the heavy motor with the least chance of being observed.

get acquainted." Later, he said, the store will be open two nights weekly for the convenience of those unable to shop at other times.

McKnight, who lives on Kenmore drive, has been a resident of Grosse Pointe since 1939. Roesch, widely-known industrial executive, has lived on Barrington road in Grosse Pointe Park for 16 years.

League to Give Children's Play

Performances of the old favorite "Rumpelstiltskin" by the Children's Theater Group of the Junior League of Detroit, Inc., will be given twice at the John D. Pierce Junior High School on Saturday, Nov. 27, 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

The Junior League has been giving this production for the past month to many of the Detroit public schools. It will be the first time in many years that the League has brought any performance to the Pointe.

There are two casts for the production. One includes Mrs. James I. McClintock, Mrs. Allen F. Edwards, Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Van Doren, Miss Mary Martin Semmes, Mrs. George T. Hall, and Mrs. James M. French.

The other includes Mrs. Alfred L. Marks, Mrs. Geiger Smith, Miss Patsy Posselius, Miss Christine Caulkins, Mrs. Edward Metzger, and Miss Mary Martin Semmes.

Behind the scenes doing an important job of production are: Mrs. George T. Hall, chairman; Mrs. Daniel H. Buell II, vice-chairman of the production; Mrs. Kenneth Van Doren, scenery building; Miss Lois Murphy, scenery design; Miss Molly Cameron, costume design; Miss Barbara Hughes, costume sewing; Miss Patricia McKee, properties; Miss Lydia Kerr, lighting, and Miss Barbara Simonds, publicity.

Mrs. Louis Bambas, who is already familiar to many Grosse Pointers for her work in theater production in connection with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, is doing a very capable job of direction.

Proceeds of Rotary Club's benefit party are spent wholly within and for Grosse Pointe. Neighborhood Club, 8 p.m., Monday, November 22. Nothing withheld for expenses.—Adv.

Three Time Winner in Show

MINDA LYNNE, red tabby Persian owned by Alice Lynne Martin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lyndle R. Martin of Middlesex road, Grosse Pointe Park, took three prizes in the recent Persian Cat Show held in Detroit. She captured first prize for Best Red Tabby Female Novice, a Premium Rosette for Best Red Tabby Novice and a Winner's Ribbon which gave her four points towards her championship. She comes from a family with 12 champions and two double champions. She started taking prizes in the kitten class last year.

Steal Articles At New House

Thieves broke into the new house being built at 1366 Bishop on November 12 or the night before and stole various plumbing articles, including a heavy metal base in the shower room.

Boys had broken into the place before but the police think this latest theft was the work of mature professionals, judging by the valuable brass articles taken and the weight of the shower base which was carted away.

Motorcyclist Hurt in Crash

John Dolan of 19585 Lake Shore, St. Clair Shores, was taken to Bon Secours hospital at 10:30 Saturday night for treatment of injuries suffered when he collided with a car at Jefferson and Kensington while driving his motorcycle down Jefferson. Both Dolan and the driver of the automobile, whose name was not stated, were given tickets for not having their vehicles under control. Dolan's injuries were not serious.

Pastures should be considered as a valuable part of the crop program on Michigan farms. Pastures must be planned in advance as to amount, type, and acreage.

Ardis Lucille Cabot Weds Albert Chester

A candlelight service at St. Columbia Episcopal Church Saturday evening, Nov. 13, united in marriage Ardis Lucille Cabot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Cabot of Belanger road, and Albert S. Chester. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay L. Chester, of Morganston, N. C.

The bride chose a Victorian gown of ivory slipper satin with cameo neckline and trimmed with Chantilly lace. Her mantilla style headpiece was of Alencon lace. She carried white orchids and Stephanotis on a fan of Chantilly lace.

Virginia Goldman, sister of the bridegroom, from Athens, Ga.,

was honor matron and Elaine Cabot served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Annabelle Chavey and Pearl Campbell.

The two honor attendants wore apple green marquisette frocks and the bridesmaids were in matching lilac gowns. Susan Darling, the flower girl, wore a lilac taffeta frock over a hoop skirt. The maids carried cascade bouquets of yellow mums and the flower girl had a colonial bouquet.

Richard Leitz, of Brighton, Mich., was Albert's best man. Alvin Cabot, Jr., Robert Taylor and Harley Dell ushered.

A reception for 250 guests was held at St. Clair Shores Civic Center. When the couple left on a honeymoon trip to California, the new Mrs. Chester was wearing a glen plaid suit with black accessories.

Hospital Benefit Attended by 400

Four hundred guests attended the benefit and autumn musicale for St. John's Hospital which was held Thursday afternoon in the Kenwood road home of Mrs. Roy Fruehauf.

Mrs. James Mutschall, Mrs. Elwood Sharp, Mrs. Gerald Sweeney, Mrs. Ray M. Whyte and Mrs. Leo Fitzpatrick assisted the hostess in meeting guests at the door.

Alternating at the tea services were Mrs. Harvey Fruehauf, Mrs. Alfred J. Fisher, Mrs. Charles L. Palms, Mrs. Herman F. Koestlin, Mrs. G. Ogden Ellis, Mrs. W. Dean Robinson, Mrs. William O'Neill Kronner and Mrs. Harold Freer.

Hicks Addresses Health Council

William V. Hicks, Physical Education Director of the Grosse Pointe Elementary Schools, was guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Mother's Health Education Council held Tuesday, Nov. 16, at the home of Mrs. Lynn Babcock on Balfour road.

The Council was formed for the purpose of providing a link between the school and the home in carrying on a health education program, knowing that the work of the schools could not be as effective without the cooperation of the parents.

The Council is composed of three delegates from each P.T.A. organization and the Grosse Pointe Mother's Club. Personnel from the Grosse Pointe school system or experts in other fields of health education are brought to the monthly Council meetings and important information gained from them is assembled in a leaflet which is sent to the various schools for the pupils to take home to the parents.

In his talk, "Relationship of Physical Education to Health," Mr. Hicks defined the meaning of Physical Education, emphasis being on character education rather than the building of more muscle.

"In physical education, in organized games, etc., pupils learn that goals can be accomplished only through cooperation and working together," Mr. Hicks said.

Hostesses for the luncheon with Mrs. Babcock were Mrs. James Bleau, Mrs. Earl Myers, Mrs. Earl Walke and Mrs. Ray Schrage, Jr.

British Empire Daughters Plan Bridge Lunch Bazaar

The Princess Beatrice Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, will hold a bridge-luncheon and bazaar Friday, Dec. 3, at the home of Mrs. Vernon Johnson, on Pemberton road.

Proceeds will be used to make the club's donation to the Community Fund and the Save the Children Federation.

Features of the bazaar will be sales of baked goods, home canning, sewing and an attic sale. Co-chairmen for the project are Mrs. Douglas V. Montgomery, Mrs. L. G. DeSpelder and Mrs. Henry Chall.

BILLFOLDS RECOVERED

A set of billfolds, found on Grosse Pointe boulevard on Nov. 13 by Henry Hubbard Jr., of 61 Muskoka road, was turned in to the Farms police station by him and later claimed by the owner, J. H. Zimmers of 774 Westchester road.

Substantial part of proceeds of Rotary Club Benefit Party will go to War Memorial Library Fund, Monday, 8 o'clock p.m., November 22, at Neighborhood Club.—Adv.

At Opening of New Beck Store

MRS. ZAIID WOODFORD SCHROEDER, president of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs, cut the traditional ribbon and made the first purchase at the company's newest store in The Village at 16844 Kercheval avenue. STORE MANAGER EDWARD VEZINA fits Mrs. Schroeder with a pair of the very latest button models while GENERAL MANAGER J. DOMASK of the entire Beck chain, here from New York, looks on. Next to Mrs. Schroeder is MISS MARIE COLLINS, in charge of the Accessories Department in the new store.

Michigan-Ohio State Game Film to Shown Alumni

Monday, November 29, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Grosse Pointe High School movies of the Michigan-Ohio State game will be shown to members of the University of Michigan Club and their families and friends. No admission is charged.

A small voluntary contribution is solicited to defray expenses. This is the third football movie sponsored by the club. Although the attendance has not been large at the two previous showings, those who came enjoyed both the movies and the coffee hour afterwards in the school cafeteria.

For the program on November 29 a special feature is anticipated. Bob Morgan from the national Alumni Association headquarters in Ann Arbor will be at the high school, to give one of his well-known running accounts of the game as the film is being shown.

Those who attend the movies are urged to go upstairs afterwards and get acquainted with other Michigan alumni in the community, over a cup of coffee. Since Bob Morgan is one of the members of the Alumni Association staff in Ann Arbor who was in at the beginning and assisted in helping this group to organize in September, 1935, the club has always felt a close personal relationship with him.

One hundred and eighty-five Michigan graduates have paid their dues for the current year, 1938-49. The membership is actively at work and anxious not to overlook any Michigan graduate living in Grosse Pointe who would be interested in joining the club.

Any Michigan graduate who has not been contacted and who would be interested in learning of the club's activities, may contact either one of the Membership Committee co-chairmen, Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., 1210 Hampton Road, Niagara 5855, or Mrs. Robert H. Patterson, 696 University, Niagara 3237.

Proceeds of Rotary Club's benefit party are spent wholly within and for Grosse Pointe. Neighborhood Club, 8 p.m., Monday, November 22. Nothing withheld for expenses.—Adv.

To Make Debut At Famed Ball

Jan McMillan, debutante of last season and a student at Smith College, is one of nine out-of-town girls who received an invitation from the board of governors to make her debut to Baltimore society at the famed Bachelors Cotillon, Dec. 6, in the Lyric Theater.

The deb's father, Hugh McMillan of Woodland place, and Mrs. McMillan will go to Baltimore for the festivities.

In Baltimore, Jan will stay with her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wise. Her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William McMillan, have also planned a dinner party in her honor at the Mount Vernon Club.

Farms police were notified on Nov. 15 that a number of windows have been broken with a BB gun at the residence under construction at 281 Stephens road.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Given at Shangri-La

For the third consecutive year, the eleven young men who make their home at Shangri-La on East Jefferson avenue entertained at a Sadie Hawkins Dance Saturday evening. Lil Abner, Daisy Mae and other Dogpatch characters attended the costume party.

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

Behind Detroit's headlines this week . . . Worked a crew of well known society girls . . . quietly . . . and unheralded doing an important and really noble service for the sick people of Detroit . . .

For a number of former Nurses' Aides responded quickly to the "help needed" call when Harper Hospital was struck . . .

And have been doing their best ever since . . . that the critically ill need not suffer too much any effect of the heavier load the strike causes the professional staff to carry . . .

A few of those we saw signing up for the various "duties that could be performed by more or less laymen, were:

Mrs. Robert Lerchen Jr. . . Mrs. Edwin A. Skae Jr. . . Mrs. Howard Freeman Smith Jr. . . Mrs. Dan Simmons . . . Mrs. Reuben Waterman . . . Mrs. Woodruff B. Crouse . . . and Mrs. William H. Ledyard . . .

A case in point . . . for those who think that society girls lead an idle, play-filled and self-centered existence . . .

DEB INDUSTRY ON SKIDS?

According to the N. Y. Star (formerly the tab PM) and Time Magazine, the "debutante industry is on the skids" . . .

The industry, says the Star, is trying to recover but is still reeling from the news that tall, lissome Joanne Connelley was going to forego her debut and get married instead . . .

Time continued with an anecdote about N. Y. Society's Pamela Curran, who went to France instead of coming out last season, declaring before sailing:

"The idea used to be that you never went out at all until your debut, and then it was something to look forward to. But now people start going out when they're twelve and it's a farce."

TWELVE YEAR OLDS STAY HOME

Just a casual check-up revealed that on the contrary, Grosse Pointe will whirl through its biggest deb season of all times this very approaching holiday time . . .

And that the number of buletts this year . . . far exceeds all others . . .

About local girls going out at the age of twelve . . . we were answered with viddy raised eyebrows on all fronts . . .

And a young matron said to us:

"Why, that's ridiculous. At least it is as far as Grosse Pointe girls are concerned. My sister is fourteen and except for meeting and listening to records and consuming gallons of coke on the odd evening, she doesn't spend any time with boys!"

SHUTTING THE TOP DRAWER

Time goes on with:

"For one thing, New York 'Society' has never been able to shut its top drawer (as more settled towns have, or pretend to have); socialites, cafe socialites, climbers and hangers-on buzz across the city's night life like a queenless swarm."

We are relieved that even Time put quotes around society . . . Our slight grasp of the Manhattan scene (as culled from various books written by aged society men(?) and from the columns of the giddy writers) envisions people who, should they appear at the door of our humble cot, would prompt us to call the police . . .

Detroit is cool to cafe society . . . which predominates the New York scene . . .

Detroit debbs do not commercialize debuts . . .

Few local night club proprietors know what a "society person"

Carole Englehardt Weds Robert Bowden

Ceremony Performed in St. Paul's Church on Saturday Morning, Nov. 13; Young Couple to Live in Norfolk, Va.

Carole Englehardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Englehardt of University Place, became the bride of Robert Bowden Saturday, Nov. 13 at a 10 o'clock double ring ceremony at the side altar of St. Paul's Church on-the-Lakeshore. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bowden, of Norfolk, Va.

The bride wore a gown of white brocaded satin with sweetheart neckline, net overskirt and a long train. Her fingertip veil of heirloom lace fell from a tiara headpiece, and she carried a white shower bouquet.

Mary Ellen Krutch was her cousin's maid of honor, wearing pale orchid taffeta with net insertion at the neckline fitted which she wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony an afternoon reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Out-of-town guests who came from Norfolk for the wedding included Mrs. Mary Bowden, Mrs. J. L. Massitt, Mrs. Cora Sykes and George Bowden. The newlyweds honeymooned to Milwaukee on route to Norfolk, where they will make their home.

Announce Betrothal Of Sally Whitehead

Daughter of James Frazer Whiteheads to Become Bride of James Clarke Murphy, Jr., of Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. James Frazer Whitehead of Cloverly road have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Sarah Booth Whitehead to James Clarke Murphy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clarke Murphy, of Roland Park, Baltimore, Md.

Sally, a graduate of Grosse Pointe Country Day School, is in her senior year at Connecticut College for Women. She made her bow to society during the 1946 Christmas season with Sali Booth, of Bloomfield Hills, at a Country Club dinner party. The bride-elect is an associate member of Sigma Gamma. Her fiancé was graduated from Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland Law School. He is affiliated with Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and served as a first lieutenant in the infantry during the war. Clarke is now a special assistant attorney general for the state of Maryland. Sally will be home from college Dec. 18, and Clarke will spend the week before Christmas in the Pointe.

Scholarship Fund Swelled By Club's Tea and Tableaux

The scholarship fund of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club blossomed beautifully Monday when members, contribution envelopes well in hand, arrived at the home of Mrs. Alvan Macauley on Lake Shore road for tea and a afternoon of costumed tableaux.

Mrs. Frank W. Goldie was co-hostess of the event which swelled the fund to send a girl to Michigan State College to study horticulture. Miss Blanche Murphy is chairman of the education committee in charge of scholarship fund raising.

Members visited the trunk rooms of their homes for the lovely old costumes used in the tableaux. The script for the entertainment, entitled "Pictures From An Old Album" was written by members Mrs. Jack Huntress and Mrs. J. Nall Candler. The talented Mrs. Goldie, who seems to have a flair for everything, arranged and played the musical accompaniment which added greatly to the afternoon's tableaux.

To mention a few of the players:—Mrs. Burt E. Taylor Jr. (a beautiful bride) . . . Mrs. Wilson W. Mills . . . Mrs. Ward DeWitter, . . . Miss Mary Louise Anderson . . . Mrs. Henry L. Caulkins . . . Miss Gail Smith . . . Mrs. Charles McNaughton . . . Mrs. Richard Durant . . . Mrs. Frederick S. Ford Jr.

Pouring tea in lovely other day costumes were Mrs. Standish Backus . . . Mrs. Henry E. Candler Sr. . . Mrs. Burt Eddy Taylor Sr. . . Mrs. William Fries, president of the G. P. Farm and Garden Club. Some 60 members attended the event.

Park Garden Club Hears Lecture by Mrs. Leidich

Members of the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club held a luncheon meeting Monday in the Audubon road home of Mrs. Windsor S. Davies.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Emil Leidich, who told about her recent trip to Europe.

Woods Church Fair Scheduled For Tomorrow

Event Will Culminate Months of Labor by Presbyterian Women

At 10:30 a.m. tomorrow, Nov. 19, Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will open its doors for a most important event, the annual fall fair, sponsored by the Women's Society. The event represents months of labor and careful planning under the guidance of Mrs. Stuart McIntosh, fair chairman; Mrs. Winston Lancaster, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Robert W. Smith, ways and means chairman.

The sale will continue until 9 p.m. with a hot plate supper served from 5-7 p.m. The proceeds from this project will benefit the organ fund.

This year, the ladies will offer a greater variety of gifts than ever before, including handiwork of all kinds, children's apparel and gifts, Christmas cards, plants, and a "white elephant" table. In the culinary department, special interest will center in home-canned and baked goods made from treasured recipes.

Special arrangements are being made to entertain the young folk while mothers shop.

Assisting Mrs. McIntosh are the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Henry Totcke and Mrs. Herbert Matthews, supper; Mrs. Joseph Paxton, aprons; Mrs. Charles Shannon and Mrs. Ralph Trustham, juvenile wear; Miss Gerald Schroeder, fishpond; Mrs. Cecil Patterson, country store; Mrs. Lawrence Marr, white elephants; Mrs. Frederick Hicks, plants; Mrs. Arthur Witherell, gifts and toys; Mrs. Charles Schenk, Mrs. Vincent Ayres and Mrs. Joe Craig, service; Mrs. William Shaffer, cards and wrapping, and Mrs. Frank Dettmer, stationery.

St. Paul's Altar Society Fashion Show is Today

Mrs. George Herbert Zimmerman is chairman of the luncheon and fashion show which the Altar Society of St. Paul's Church is sponsoring today at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Current fashions will be presented by Walton-Pierce.

Mrs. William Keane, president, Mrs. John Klein, Mrs. Leo Kennedy and Mrs. Harold Frear also head committees. Members include Mrs. William J. Tenbusch, Mrs. Frank Lockman, Mrs. Louis Marick, Mrs. Nelson McBride, Mrs. W. VanHusan Moore, Mrs. Warren Piche, Mrs. John Schmitt and Mrs. Ward Richardson.

The list continues with Mrs. Dalton Snyder, Mrs. John Corbett, Mrs. E. E. Tracy, Mrs. Buell Doelle, Mrs. Charles Hewitt, Mrs. F. J. Houlihan, Mrs. George Haggarty and Mrs. Michael J. Kearins.

Junior League Players Rehearse

Officers Elected By Garden Club

The Village Garden Club's November meeting, held in the DAC last Friday, was a luncheon session with the annual business meeting and election of officers following.

Mrs. Walter Tant, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a slate including all former officers with the exception of Mrs. Frank J. Crane, recording secretary, who will be moving to Chicago soon after the first of the year.

The officers for the coming year are: Mrs. Charleton Mewborn, president; Mrs. Sidney Barrett, first vice-president; Mrs. Sidney Ferris, second vice-president; Mrs. Francis H. Phelps, recording secretary; Mrs. William J. Young, assistant recording secretary.

Mrs. E. A. Wooten, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Herman D. Searney, treasurer; Mrs. Harvey Fruehauf, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Clarence Avey, Member-at-Large.

Education does not supply the answers, it only poses the questions.—Anonymous.

Shirley Vanderzee Weds D. J. Watson, Jr.

Reception in Lochmoor Club Follows Ceremony in Christ Church; Young Couple Honeymooning in North Carolina

Ivory satin was worn by Shirley Jean Vanderzee for her Saturday marriage to David James Watson, Jr., in Grosse Pointe Christ Church. Seed pearls trimmed the bridal gown which had a fitted bodice and full skirt extending into a train. The silk illusion veil fell from an orange blossom and seed pearl coronet, and Shirley carried white roses centered by an orchid corsage.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. George Crockett, Jr. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vanderzee, of Neff road, Gloria Vanderzee, a cousin of the bride from Newburgh, N. Y., was honor maid. The two honor attendants were gowned in green faille and wore matching feather headbands.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. John Barlow and Elizabeth Meurer, of Menominee, were in coral faille. The four attendants carried bouquets of copper baby chrysanthemums and ivy.

Mr. Watson, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Watson of McMillan road, asked Lt. Comm. Robert Wilson, USN, of New Orleans, to be his best man. Robert Shelley, of Flint; George Crockett, Jr., of Chicago, and Robert Winter, of Chicago, seated the wedding guests.

A smoky gray dinner gown with matching hat was Mrs. Vanderzee's choice for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Watson selected a green dinner gown and matching hat. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

followed the ceremony. The new Mrs. Watson wore a gray suit with dark green accessories, when the couple left on their North Carolina honeymoon.

Shirley Kramer To Wed Nov. 27

Shirley Ann Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Kramer of Bedford road, has completed plans for her Nov. 27 marriage to William Carter Dages, son of Mrs. John Dages of Lincoln road, and the late Mr. Dages.

The couple will be married at a 4 o'clock ceremony Saturday in the rectory of St. Clare de Montefalco Church. Shirley has asked her sister Elaine to be her attendant and James Dages will be his brother's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Kramer will entertain members of the family at dinner in their home following the wedding.

A buffet supper Sunday in the Bloomfield Hills home of the Joseph M. Preece honored the couple. Shirley's aunt, Mrs. Oliver W. Sturdevant, entertained at supper and a linen shower last evening.

A buffet supper next Sunday will be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Scott. Mrs. James F. Hollis, another aunt of the bride-to-be, will also entertain before the wedding.

Richard Parents Want New Walk

The Farms Council, at its meeting Monday night, informally expressed its willingness to construct a sidewalk next to a driveway at Gabriel Richard School—if the Board of Education will move a fence.

The request had been made by a group of parents at a previous council meeting. The parents had cited the danger to children of having to walk in the driveway.

The Village engineer reported there wasn't sufficient room for a sidewalk because of the fence. However, he said, the fence could be moved.

The Council referred the matter to the school's Parent-Teacher Association, with the comment that that group undoubtedly could get action on moving the fence.

Substantial part of proceeds of Rotary Club Benefit Party will go to War Memorial Library Fund. Monday, 8 o'clock p.m., November 22, at Neighborhood Club.—Adv.

Mrs. Hay Heads TB Seal Drive

Appointment of Mrs. Dudley C. Hay as general chairman of the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium's 38th annual Christmas Seal Drive is announced by Dr. Burt R. Shurly, president.

Mrs. Lewis E. Schultz is assistant chairman to Mrs. Hay, who is serving for the ninth consecutive year. Mrs. Hay declared that the actual period of the drive will be November 15 through Christmas. Policy of the Sanatorium officials again this year is to bring before the people of Detroit and Wayne County its practical work in the prevention and treatment of tuberculosis and ask for their financial support, Mrs. Hay said.

Given Plenty of Room To Look for Lost Car

A man giving his name as Jack Porter and his address as the Field Hotel, called up the Park police station at 3 o'clock in the morning of Nov. 11.

He craved help in finding his car, which he said he had parked "somewhere between the Field Hotel and Grosse Pointe on November 8."

His query covered considerable territory both in space and time but the police promised to do the best they could for him.

Wellesley Club Plans to Hold Flower Festival

The Detroit Wellesley College Club will sponsor a flower show for amateurs only, to be held from May 17 through May 22, at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

As Detroit has never held a purely amateur flower show this will offer a welcome opportunity for all flower lovers, including the Garden Clubs, the horticultural groups and novices, to participate. This will be open to the public and there will be no admission fee.

The Great Hall of the Museum will be the setting for the colorful entries. Saturday will be reserved for children, while the other five days will be given over to adult exhibitors.

Mrs. Stuart Hilton Smith will be chairman of this event, with Mrs. Malcolm Campbell as her vice-chairman. Mrs. John W. Taylor is chairman of finance and Miss Jane Beyster will handle secretarial details. Mrs. George E. Villerot, whose reputation in garden groups is well known, will be chairman of schedules.

No charge will be made for the attractive programs given to all who attend the Flower Festival. They will serve as helpful guides to all interested gardeners.

The revenue from the advertising in the program will be a contribution of the Detroit Wellesley Club to the Wellesley College Anniversary Fund.

Fire Truck Bids In $15,000 Range

Five fire truck bids were opened by the Farms Village Council Monday night at its regular meeting.

Due to the complicated nature of the bids and the narrow range of the figures, they were referred to a committee.

The bids ranged from $14,785.81 to $17,089.10, F.O.B. Grosse Pointe Farms.

Clerk Harry A. Furton was instructed to seek more bids on the printing of the new Farms zoning ordinance, when only one was forthcoming. It wasn't opened.

RED FEATHER STOLEN
Someone of easy conscience wanted to display his charity in a big way.

George Elworthy, director of the Neighborhood Club, reported to the police on November 7 that the large Red Feather displayed in the front of the clubhouse had been stolen during the night.

Facts are very often stubborn things and well concealed.

Annual Artist Concert Held in Costley Home

The annual artist concert of the Musicale Art Club was held Saturday evening in the Pemberton road home of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Costley.

Pianist John Sweeney III and Rose Suzanne der Derian, soprano, were the guest artists. Mr. Sweeney, a Pointe resident, is official pianist for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Many to Attend Lochmoor Dance

An old time square dance will be held at the Lochmoor Club on Saturday night, Nov. 20.

Dancing will be from 9 to 12, with professional callers and instructions for beginners. A snack supper will be served at midnight.

Among those who have made reservations are: Mr. and Mrs. John Staudt, Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. David Sichelstele, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wild, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brigbauer. Also: Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sorensen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buck, Dr. and Mrs. John Pagel, Mr. and Mrs. John Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. James Forester and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Zimmerman.

Where material standards rule, moral standards slide.

Memorial Church Women Will Hear School Singers

The Evening Group of the Women's Association will meet on Tuesday, November 23, in the church parlors of the Memorial Church at 8 o'clock.

The members are asked to bring a contribution toward the general collection of clothing for the needy.

Mrs. Fred W. Adams, program chairman, will present Miss Marie Joy Curtiss, director, and Miss Helen Douglass, accompanist, with 25 talented young people from the Southeastern High School in a program consisting of piano and vocal solos and a variety of numbers by a mixed vocal ensemble. The soloists will be Star Azablar and Kaye McCarthy.

The hostesses are Mrs. F. S. Robinson, president; Mrs. I. W. Mills and Mrs. C. W. Rinker.

How to smile your way through a traffic snarl

Come in—find out how Packard takes the tension out of city driving!

Here's a car that meets all the demands of downtown traffic. And handling ease is only an ever-present part of the story.

What impresses you first, in this sleek, roomy Packard, is the way you can see—the wonderful feeling of always knowing exactly where the front, sides, and rear of your car "are at!" It puts an end to all the old "squeeze plays" ... whether you're cruising or parking.

Next you'll marvel at the turbine-smooth trigger-quick responsiveness of Packard power. You simply point to a sudden opening in the traffic jam and—you're through it!

Above all, you'll prize the restful riding ease ... the sure-footed roadability ... the husky construction that brings relaxing comfort in any rush-hour snarl.

And when you head this eager, road-worthy Packard down an open highway—!

But come in first for the city story. It's one of the big reasons why the new Packard Eight is the greatest ever built!

Mothers' Club Nears End of Big Campaign

Parents of High School Students Urged to Join Worthwhile Organization Before Drive for Members Terminates

The membership drive of the Grosse Pointe High School Mothers' Club is scheduled to end on November 20 and it is reported that a good many more mothers will have to sign up if the organization is to reach its goal of 1000 members.

A corps of 66 women have been attempting to contact by telephone every mother of a high school or Brownell student who has not yet joined, to remind her of her opportunity to become associated with this great organization.

Mrs. Henry H. Hubbard of Muskegon road is chairman of the campaign with Mrs. Frank D. McIntyre as vice chairman and Mrs. Wallace Jensen as treasurer. Co-chairmen of the twelfth grade are Mrs. S. N. Smith and Mrs. A. R. Peter Ford. Assisting them are Mesdames C. R. Jenks, F. W. Munro, James Later, A. D. Webb, A. S. Voorhees, C. O. Watkins, J. W. Greig, J. M. Setzer, F. Buck, E. H. Sichter, E. K. Isbey, Chas. Murphy and D. T. Webster.

In the eleventh grade, under the direction of Mrs. C. C. Gregory and Mrs. F. M. Clements, the following women have been busy at their telephones: Mesdames R. C. Leonard, B. H. Martin, B. E. Jacobson, G. C. Schleicher, K. N. Higgs, H. N. Mair, Ford Slater, L. Crawford, C. G. Loranger, S. H. Manson, C. Z. Ferris, C. Giles, H. D. Schmitz, E. Roemer, F. K. Winter, S. G. Bordner, H. J. Wyckoff, R. Long and E. L. Morrison.

Mrs. Gordon Maitland and Mrs. Sydney DeBoer share the responsibilities for the tenth grade and on their committees are Mesdames P. R. Rice, S. R. B. Barnes, F. B. Kurth, F. W. Dettlinger, R. K. Ballentine, E. F. Kihen, H. Rose, J. H. Ross, F. W. Flacksmann, W. E. M. Murray, G. A. McBride, J. R. Whittenburg and C. T. Obold.

For the Brownell High School, three women have charge of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, respectively: Mrs. Albrecht T. Watson, Mrs. F. H. Albrecht and Mrs. Roland P. Ewart. Their committees include Mesdames Arthur Koebel, L. F. Vollmer, Burdette Hagerman, C. V. Mover, J. F. Purvis, H. S. Barrett, A. G. Denison, T. A. Davidson, Howard Kaser, Ralph Cross, Floyd Sieber and Leonard Fackner.

The annual dues are one dollar and this money is used to benefit the students socially and financially as the Mothers' Club seeks to bring about a closer relationship among the student, the teachers and the parents.

The work of the Membership Committee will be greatly lessened if mothers will send their dollar to the school office in an envelope addressed to "The Mothers' Club, in care of Mrs. Flom." It is hoped that every mother will not only feel it her duty, but also her pleasure to become a member of this organization.

Cecil Watsons Hosts at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil C. Watson of Meadow Lane entertained at cocktails and a buffet supper on Saturday.

Included among the guests were Mrs. William Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Senff, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dickoff and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Reeves.

Mrs. Watson and her mother, Mrs. Charles F. Lawson, have just returned from a week in New York.

Tuesday Musicales Group Planning Winter Concert

Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge of Kensington road and Mrs. Henry B. Joy gave a tea last week in the Joy residence on Lake Shore road. Members of the Tuesday Musicales' ways and means committee met to plan their concert to be held Jan. 25 in the main auditorium of the Art Institute.

Seymour Lipkin, Detroit pianist who won the 1948 Rachmaninoff Award, will be the featured artist. Musical programs for hospitalized veterans and other special projects of Tuesday Musicales will benefit from the proceeds.

Mrs. Donald McMillan, Mrs. Vernon L. Venman, Mrs. William J. Coulter and Mrs. Donald Melville are other members of the planning committee.

Frederic Sibley, Jr.'s Home Scene of Party

The St. Clair avenue home of the junior Frederic Sibley was the scene of a pot-luck bridge Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mason, Jr., as hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sorge, Joe Mason and Ann Lilley were among the guests. On Saturday the Masons attended the Michigan-Indiana game at Ann Arbor with Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Thomas as their guests.

Completing a full week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Mason were in Bloomfield Hills Sunday for the supper party at which Mrs. Herbert Mason, Sr., and her son Joe entertained for bride-elect Shirley Ann Young, and her fiancé, Howard H. Robinson.

Proceeds of Rotary Club's benefit party are spent wholly within and for Grosse Pointe. Neighborhood Club, 8 p.m., Monday, November 22. Nothing withheld for expenses.—Adv.

The Women Lead

A group of women representing the various garden organizations in Grosse Pointe met the other day and sounded one of the first sensible notes that has been heard in this community on the broad subject of planning.

The ladies pleaded for a coordinated program of beautification for all of Grosse Pointe and in doing so urged that all of the Grosse Pointe municipalities should adopt some agreed-upon plan for the common development.

The subject of a planned development has been receiving increasing attention by the governing bodies of the five municipalities. The Park village, largely under the urgings of City Manager Lane, has carried its preparatory work farther than any of the other communities. Discarding their original local planning commission, which was cumbersome and inefficient, it has set up a commission based on the pattern suggested by the state, and is now well launched on working out a master plan which will cover every angle of progressive development for that village.

With the exception of the City all of the other Pointe municipalities have already set up planning commissions.

The purpose is worthy and marks a big step forward in this important field of municipal government, but unless some fixed program is set up for the coordinated progress of the work it will fail in its overall application to Grosse Pointe.

This is one closely knit community similar in every essential detail. It merely suffers the handicap for common development in that its municipal administration reposes in five separate and distinct local governments. This can be partially overcome if they will get together in a spirit of mutual compromise and concession to work out the common problem of the whole. It will require more grace however than was shown a couple of years ago when two of them tried to agree on a pooling of their fire protection facilities and failed for no better reason than some piffing questions of jealousy, or what not.

However well one Pointe community might plan for its future development it will fail with respect to its relationship to the rest of the Pointe unless some overall development program can be agreed upon and consistently pursued.

The question is too important for this beautiful community to ignore. Every resident here is a Grosse Pointer before he is a Parkite or Cityite or Shoreite. Its future should be planned in that spirit.

The Outstanding Fact

As the American people view their national scene after the election there is one score on which they can give profound thanks. Due to the patriotic action of leaders in both parties our position in foreign affairs has already been pretty well marked and charted.

Our own Senator Vandenberg deserves much credit for this fortunate position but in this he was patriotically supported by far visioned leaders in both parties.

We stand now more firmly dedicated to the cause of real democracy and human freedom and human dignity than ever before. This will not escape the notice of those who plan their destruction in other parts of the world. Whatever issue the future holds for us as a nation it will be faced with a common front. Present peace and its future security remain our chief goals. The exhibit set forth by the American elections will strengthen this beacon light for the distressed and terrified peoples of all the world.

While the foreign field remains still our chief concern our inherent capacity to compose our own domestic differences has already been shown to the world and in this there is a vast assurance to those threatened peoples who are already drawing from this strength and looking towards us as their tower that will not fail them.

The outstanding fact in the world of politics and economics—yes, of morality, today is that America is not only able to feed, clothe and shelter its people in the highest scale of living ever known in history but at the same time furnish an overplus for the distressed people of other lands, and is able to give a large part of this away without hope or suggestion of return; and does this all under a system of free enterprise.

This is the hardest nut for communists and all advocates of state capitalism to crack. They are losing the fight and will continue to lose it. They are the ones who are on the real defensive.

If Stalin Should Come

The Soviet press is playing up the rumor of a coming conference between President Truman and Premier Stalin. There is little of this rumor on this side; rather a quite direct intimation that there will be no meeting of our seeking.

Would not this be a timely moment to send word over to Moscow, in such blunt Anglo-Saxon that even a thick Moscovite cranium would be penetrated, that if it is the wish of the Soviet for such a talk President Truman will be agreeable to meeting M. Stalin in Washington.

Ever since the first talks began, both during and after the war, our Presidents and the heads of State of half the countries in the world have been skeddaddling over to Moscow or wherever the Soviet dictated, for just such talks. It has apparently got us exactly nowhere in all these interminable conferences.

This is the sort of appeasement which feeds the appetite of intolerance and arrogance. There has been enough, too much, of this attempted approach to accord. The people of this country will not approve any more journeyings of their President to foreign lands for discussion of world problems, especially those of Russian making.

It would be nice to see Stalin, BUT IN WASHINGTON. If he should come, which is not seriously expected, it would be profitable, for Mr. Stalin at least to have a quick glance at some of our industrial plants and grain elevators and meat processing plants. It's ten to one he would get the point.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"From too much love of living,
From hope and fear set free,
We thank with brief thanksgiving
Whatever gods may be
That no life lives forever;
That dead men rise up never;
That even the weirdest river
Winds somewhere safe to sea."
(Swinburne)

We are getting to be such a big shot that our mail this week will practically take care of the column. From Los Angeles, we received a few classified ads clipped from a local paper, that ought to be good for a chuckle or two. One, on which the Editor commented "Shades of the Roaring Twenties", read: "Lady wishes to contact a few refined ladies who play Mah Jongg." Another read: "Tractable young man wants to contact understanding woman to finance him while he writes a book. No obligation." (That's nice work . . . if you can get it!)

Our favorite is the following: "Refined, reliable, white Christian woman desires position as companion or sousse-keeper. Gentleman preferred." (NO, that SOUSSEKEEPER is NOT a typographical error . . . leastwise it isn't in THIS paper.)

Received another postcard from Mr. Rall . . . from Korea. He is glad we cleared up the mystery of our sex, which seems to be a mystery to a lot of people. Can we help it if we sometimes think of ourselves as a small boy? Anyway . . . Mr. Rall can clear up a mystery for us. His card carried an American airmail stamp, but the stamp wasn't canceled! . . . Come now.

A local business man of Harvard vintage told us that when he was a freshman there, the Dean was one G. W. Cram. It seems that one of the Professors, whose classes were far from dull . . . rose to his feet one day and apropos of something else, announced to the class that in his opinion the two greatest anti-climaxes in the English language were: "For God, For Country and For Yale," and "George Washington Cram."

We have one he can add to the list. A headline in a daily hit our eye recently (that is, the headline hit our eye, not the daily). It read: "$43, 183, 624 Estate left by Soandso." The article underneath listed assets of the deceased; his shares and holdings in various companies, who was going to get what . . . and the whole thing was splashed and dotted with dollar-signed figures a yard long. We were so impressed that we felt rather like the Harvard Professor when JUST beneath all this money talk was the following item: "Jamaica has just started its first cement plant."

In the Christmas gift suggestion lists in most of the current magazines, is pictured a snappy looking tome that can be had in brown, blue, pink, green, et al leather binding . . . and it turns out to be "Vogue's Book of Etiquette." Now, that interests us strangely. How does one go about giving ANYONE a book of etiquette? It reminds us strongly of a girl we knew in our teen days, who didn't leave her house for days and days because someone had sent her a few cakes of Life Buoy soap for her birthday! Just WHO or WHOM does one give a book of etiquette TO? Certainly not to your grandmother . . . or your husband or your boy friend or your best pal; and who or whom is going to spend that kind of dough on an enemy? We give up.

Now HERE'S a book you can give . . . or better still, buy it for yourself. It should be available right now and it's as handy a thingum-e-bob as we've seen in years. It's a pocket size (or smaller) directory with everything in it from Airlines and Alterations down to Water Softeners and Zoos. Instead of running around hunting for your glasses before you can see the microscopic print in the telephone book, you open this cute little trick . . . and there in letters and figures you can read are all the important phone numbers you will ever have use for.

The local ladies of impeccable taste, who compiled this little gem, are Mrs. Louis Groch and Mrs. Wick Henry. For good measure they have "thrown" in such vital numbers as Hospitals, Police and Fire departments and various local departments of the Court House. If your purse isn't the Swiss Family Robinson type (carrying everything from a shoe horn to a trowel) you can always keep this little directory hanging somewhere near the phone. If you want a shoemaker or plumber or glass blower you will find one or two or three of the top ones in this job. If that isn't better than playing cenny-meeny-miney-mo in the classified section of the phone book . . . we don't know what is. The book's formal name is "YOUR HANDBAG DIRECTORY" and it can be had for fifty cents.

Labor's Anti-Communist Move

The program announced by both of the great labor unions to squelch the communist movement in their organizations, almost before the echoes of the presidential election had ceased, should be heartening to those timid souls who had interpreted the endorsement of Truman by the labor unions as a drift to the left.

It is also an earnest of the anti-communist sentiments expressed by the principal leaders of labor throughout the country.

The right and left wings in the CIO, which branch of labor had been most affected by the communist ideology are rushing to a show down in the national convention which opens in Portland, Ore., on November 22. Observers from the great news agencies predict the radical element is in for a thorough beating.

The communist group in the CIO has been losing ground for the past two years and suffered a tremendous setback in the poor showing made by Wallace. He had had well high unanimous support by the labor commies. The decisions will revolve around several issues within the ranks that have come up in recent months in which there has been a rather clear cut cleavage between the communist and anti-communist groups. The preliminary skirmish on these issues will get its airing before the 51-man CIO Executive Board which started its sessions in Portland yesterday.

The American Federation of Labor, which had not been so seriously infected with communist virus, is making ready to clean out the communists from important posts in its Canadian affiliates. This will start with a purge of communists from the Canadian Trades and Labor Council. These will be thrashed out in the coming Cincinnati meeting.

Better in Germany

By way of the Reuter's News Agency in Europe, General Lucius D. Clay sends word of the economic situation in the Anglo-American zone in Germany.

He says, "Unless unusually severe cold intervenes, the present high level of economic activity should be maintained, although no marked advance should be expected.

"Imports and a good harvest should sustain the food situation through the winter, and coal production has resumed its upward climb after a five-months' halt.

"By the end of September the Bizonal area had reached its strongest economic position since the end of the war."

O Lord, Remove Rancor in Our Hearts; Democracy Still Rules

By ROELIF LOVELAND
(Reprinted from Cleveland Plain Dealer by permission.)

Lord of all Nations, great and small, remove whatever rancor may be in our hearts today.

Grant that one clear thought perheate our stubborn old hearts, namely; that this is a democracy and that in a democracy all the people do what the majority of the people want done.

Let us recall in this melancholy hour that when we were riding high (there are a few living who can still remember it) the Democrats probably felt bad too, but they went along because this is a democracy and the majority rules.

Bless the president of the United States and give him wisdom to match his courage. Bless the Congress of the United States. Bless them, O Lord, even though they be Democrats, and give them courage and wisdom, for never in the history of this country has unity in thought and action been so vital.

Let us remember, O Lord, that a successful administration in Washington is no longer just a feather in the cap of the incumbent, as it once was, something which is life blood to the United States of America, now beset with awful problems.

We thank Thee, O Lord, for Henry Wallace, who stood as a shining knight in red armor for those who prefer that color, for by the smallness of his total it became evident that most Americans love America best. And because Henry was there to head the party it will be a little difficult for the Reds to say that they voted Truman in. We thank Thee doubly, O Lord, that President Truman owes them nothing whatsoever.

We ask Thy blessing, O Lord, on the unhappy makers of public opinion polls and the political experts of the American press and radio. Ease their pain and confusion; suffer the red to depart from their flushed faces; re-

Dwight Cooke To Give Lecture

National and international affairs of the moment will be discussed by Dwight Cooke, radio news analyst, who will speak at Detroit Town Hall Wednesday morning, November 24, at 11 o'clock in the Fisher Theatre.

Cooke is moderator for the "People's Platform" program, and narrator-producer of Columbia's radio feature, "Cross-Section, U.S.A."

The well known commentator is a former editor of Time magazine. He resigned from this publication to engage in a schedule of free lance writing, producing and directing. The famous Charlie McCarthy show was his brain-child. One of his plays, "Plain Mr. President," appears in the Harper Prize Plays collection.

Cass Town Hall Books Clawson

Joseph Clawson, psychologist and author, will be the Detroit Town Hall speaker in the Cass Theatre Friday morning, November 26, at 11 o'clock.

Since 1934 Mr. Clawson has worked with the FBI, studied government, economics and psychology at Harvard University, watched the Chinese and Japanese delegates struggle at the Institute of Pacific Relations for mutually acceptable peace formula.

He entered the diplomatic service and traveled all over South America studying the civilization and attitudes of Latin America. He helped the State Department in the waging of economic warfare.

Town Hall is offering for the lecture this week, November 19, Dr. Walter H. Judd the United States Congressman from Minnesota. Dr. Judd is the nationally recognized authority on the United States Foreign policy and on our interests in the Pacific and the Orient.

Rheumatoid Arthritis

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

A chronic joint disease known as rheumatoid arthritis occurs most frequently in women in their twenties and thirties. The disease begins slowly and several years may pass before the stiffness and soreness of the joints seems at all serious. Swelling of the joints is a part of the disease, also.

Fatigue, loss of appetite, and loss of weight are often the patient's physical reaction. Like all forms of rheumatism, this disease is seldom fatal, but does cause some degree of disability.

Early attention by your doctor offers the greatest hope for any illness.

Medicine, when prescribed by your doctor can do much to relieve pain, and restore health. Have a trusted pharmacist fill your prescription.

strain their impulses to walk in the direction of high-level bridges, open windows, docks and railroad tracks.
The roof simply fell in, O Lord, and the rock formation was only sand, and very few political experts are practicing geologists. The branch broke and they toppled down and great was the fall thereof, but not one of them had ever been a Davey tree surgeon, and they didn't suspect the branch. They simply did the best they could, and verily, the anguish of an expert who has flopped is pitiful to behold.
A month from now or six months from now or a year from now, may we not forget our high resolves of this day.

May we never say, "These so and so's in Washington," but rather, "These whom the people elected." We die hard, O Lord, but grant that we may have the grace to take our licking like men and women.

Do Thou, O God, bless the United States of America and every one of her duly elected officers.
And in particular, O God, do Thou bless the little man who didn't have a chance—the president of the United States!

19-6 Victory Chalked Up By Mt. Clemens' Listenbee

Fumbles Prove Costly to Pointers, Tossing Away Ball Six Times With Bathers Recovering on Four Occasions

By Fred Runnells

A Mount Clemens "blitz" ground attack aided by a Blue Devil fumble and a pass interception scored three first half touchdowns which proved to be the Bathers' margin of victory over Grosse Pointe before 1,500 at Memorial Field, Mt. Clemens, last Saturday afternoon, November 13. The final score was 19-6.

But for a holding penalty midway in the first period the Bathers could have enjoyed a four touchdown margin at half time.

It was Bob Challice's 52 yard touchdown sprint that was called back when the officials caught a Mount Clemens player holding on the play. Incidentally the touchdown was the first of the season for Challice and this was his last game for the Bathers.

The Pointers were gripped by fumblyitis all afternoon, fumbling six times. The Bathers recovered four times.

The Bathers scored their first touchdown when they recovered Coleman's fumble on the Pointers' 47 yard line.

It took the Bathers only six line plays to cover the distance and chalk up their first score. Fred Listenbee, Mount Clemens' big colored, left half, and Reggie Trombley ripped the Blue Devils' forward wall to shreds and were the only boys to carry the ball in the successful drive which was featured by Listenbee's bull-like rushes through center and Trombley's 22 yard end run, from the 28 to the 6 yard line.

Listenbee went over center on the final play, was stopped but fell over the goal line. Listenbee was stopped on the same play when he attempted to rush for the extra point.

Mount Clemens notched its second score near the end of the first quarter on Fred Listenbee's outstanding one man show. He carried the ball on six of the eight plays the Bathers used to cover 49 yards. His last try was a one yard smash over center for his second touchdown of the game. Listenbee climaxed his one man show by kicking the extra point.

Hill Pierce made a nice run-back of Listenbee's kickoff, taking the ball on the Blue Devil 35 and returning it to his own 28. Tom Follis picked up the Blue Devils' first down of the game when he found holes in the Bathers line on two successive plays. The ball rested on the middle field stripe as the first quarter ended amidst the howls of approval of the Pointe fans who sensed their team was on its way.

The cheers turned to groans on the first play of the second period when Pat Brogan's pass over center was intercepted by Bob Challice on the Mount Clemens' 46 and went all the way without a hand being laid on him for the Bathers' third score. A holding penalty by the Bathers canceled Challice's beautiful run and the ball was put in play on the Mount Clemens 32 yard line.

A fumble by Follis turned the Grosse Pointe drive into the Bathers' third touchdown. Listenbee recovered in the 33 and set sail for the sidelines and went all the way without a Pointer getting within fifteen feet of him.

Listenbee's kick was wide of the uprights and Mount Clemens led, 19-0, with three minutes and forty-five seconds remaining in the first half.

Listenbee's kick off touched a Blue Devil receiver and the Bathers recovered on the Pointers' 25 yard line.

A series of Mount Clemens pass plays moved the ball to the Blue Devils 17 yard line but a fourth down pass by Listenbee was too long and the Pointers took over with seconds remaining in the second period.

As the game moved into the second half it was apparent that Coach Ed Wernet had set up a defense to stop Listenbee's scoring antics. Time after time Listenbee tried the Blue Devils' forward wall, which he had found to his liking in the first half of the game, but each time he was swarmed upon by a host of Pointers for no gain and Mount Clemens was played to a standstill during the final two quarters.

Grosse Pointe got its first break of the game early in the third quarter when Bill Pierce blocked Jack Tyson's kick and Steve Hosmer recovered on the Bathers' 14 yard line.

Tom Follis smashed over the right side of his own line to the Bathers' 10 yard line. Coleman lost 4 yards on the next play but Mount Clemens was off side and penalized back to its own 5 yard line. The Blue Devils kicked away their scoring chance when Follis fumbled and Fisher recovered for the Bathers on the 1 yard line.

Listenbee's pass from deep in his own territory was intercepted by Coleman on the Bathers' 36 and he ran it back to the 28 yard line.

Again the Pointers kicked away a scoring chance when Brogan fumbled on the Bathers' 20. Roger Knight recovered for Mount Clemens.

Two line plays lost two yards and on third down Jack Tyson attempted to get off a punt. Jim Lemen charged through to block the kick and End Barry Munro fell on the ball on the Bathers' two yard line which set the stage for the Blue Devils' first and only score.

Tom Follis smashed over center on third down after he and Brogan had combined on the first two plays to move the ball to the 1 yard line. Brogan's kick was wide and the score stood at 19 to 6 in Mount Clemens favor as the third period ended.

The fourth period was all Grosse Pointe, Mount Clemens never got past the middle field stripe as the Blue Devils filled the air with passes in an attempt to get back into the ball game.

A pass from Purdy to Beardslee brought the Pointe fans to their feet but they sat right down again as Beardslee dropped the ball on the Bathers' 5 yard line with no one near him. On the next play Moore intercepted. A Purdy pass on his own 16 and ran it out to the Mount Clemens' 34 to halt the Blue Devil threat.

One of the outstanding features of the final quarter was the passing of Listenbee. He didn't connect with any of his tosses but if he had they all would have gone for touchdowns. He repeatedly hurled the ball far over the heads of his receivers and on one occasion he tossed a 65 yard pass.

Listenbee's performance was by far the most outstanding this reporter has seen this season and if it had not been for Listenbee the outcome of this final game could have been in favor of the Blue Devils.

Listenbee scored fourteen touchdowns for the Bathers this season and is being considered for all-state mention.

Grosse Pointe will meet Mount Clemens in the first game of the 1949 season but Listenbee will not be among those present. He graduates this semester.

Local 210 Skipper Sells Sailing in Detroit Short

By Fred Runnells

Hank Cawthra, local Lawley 210 skipper, did nothing to popularize himself among Detroit racing sailors when he was down East for the 210 championship last summer at Marblehead, Mass.

Here is what Cawthra said in a newspaper clipping which I recently acquired: "I used to think Detroit racing was hot stuff until I came here. But, brother, this is something. The light air fooled me but this competition is all I've ever read about."

"I'm not kidding about competition. Out in Detroit we have only five 210's and we don't have much fun. People out there sail only for pleasure, it seems, after seeing how people sail here. The 22 square meters are a hot class and the L Class competition is good. But you people race for blood. You put zip into every race."

Editor's Note: It could be that Cawthra doesn't like the local racing because he is in a class that hasn't really gotten a foothold in this area. It was Cawthra who introduced the first 210 here and he has dominated the class for the past three seasons.

The two classes Cawthra mentioned as being good competition in local sailing circles, the 22 square meters and the L Class, are dominated by one sailor in each class. Al Grundy has only lost two races in the past five seasons in the 22's and has practically broken the spirit in that class and the boys are racing for second place. Ted Kuhn has dominated the L Class to the extent of winning the Detroit River Championship five consecutive years.

Cawthra failed to mention the fast growing and ever popular Star Class which will boast 23 active boats next season. In the Star Class the River Championship has never been won more than once by any one skipper and only once has the Star Class fleet championship been won twice by one skipper. Dick Miller turned the trick five years ago when the fleet was first revived and had only three boats. In six years of Star competition here four skippers have won the title which proves what hot competition this class affords. Maybe if Cawthra wants "hot competition" he should buy a Star or get into the rapidly growing Lightning class which has three fleets here and claims about forty-five boats.

Cawthra continued, "The trouble on the lakes, I think, is people have too much money. They can't see anything smaller than a 50-foot ocean racer or cruising boat. The small boat man doesn't get the break he deserves in the East. The important trophies go to the big boats or power-boats. Our Race Week drew 170 small boats but nothing was said about it because the Mackinac racers weren't in it."

The big boats used the Detroit Race Week, July 1 to 5, as a tune-up series for the Port Huron-Mackinac race on July 16.

Detroit boat yards came next on Cawthra's complaint list. "We don't have any good boat yards like you fellows have. Fisher's yard in Detroit is okay but it's just for repairs now."

It is true Detroit doesn't boast of having perfect boat yards but the ones that are in existence apparently are ample for the local trade. All are filled to capacity or near capacity each winter.

Near the end of the article Cawthra really hit the nail on the head when he said, "We have to send East for our sails."

It is true Detroit does not have a decent sail maker at this time although there are a couple of outfits just starting up and in a couple of years should be experienced enough to build good racing sails.

In Chicago there are a couple of good sail making concerns which have repeatedly built winning sails for small boats. Toronto, Ontario, has a concern which has built some very good Star sails which are the most difficult to build and make fit because of the flexible rigging used in a modern Star.

When asked if he would stay in the East if the opportunity presented itself, Cawthra said, "Absolutely, if we could get the right spots, we'd stay in a minute."

League Grid Title Taken By Royal Oak

Acorns Bounce Back With Three Touchdowns After Trailing Highland Park

After trailing 13-0 late in the second quarter the Royal Oak Acorns bounced back to score three touchdowns to upset the highly favored Highland Park Polar Bears 19-13 last Friday night November 12 on a soggy Ives Field to win the Border Cities League football championship.

With the game less than three minutes old Coach Jerry Neumann's high powered Polar Bears moved into a 7-0 lead when Bill William went over from the 9 yard line to climax a 56 yard sustained drive.

Four minutes later Ted Zegorous blocked a Royal Oak punt on the 28 yard line and then fell on the ball in the end zone to give the Polar Bears a 13-0 lead.

Half way through the second period Royal Oak connected for the first of its three touchdowns when Chuck Gibbs flipped a 25-yard pass from Highland Park's 37 to Roy Leet who gathered the ball in on the 12 yard line and scampered into the end zone without a hand touching him. It was Gibbs and Leet who gave the Acorns their second score when Gibbs completed a 20 yard pass on fourth down.

Royal Oak got its winning touchdown the hard way, going 80 yards after intercepting a pass on their own 20 yard line.

Leet was the big gun in this score by completing two passes to Manley Wilson which set the ball on the Polar Bears 40-yard line from where Leet wheeled his way through the Highland Park team to notch the winning marker.

It is rumored that Coach Jerry Neumann will give up his Highland Park coaching job at the end of the semester and go into the insurance business. If this is true it will end a friendly rivalry between Grosse Pointe's Coach Ed Wernet and Neumann which started two years ago. Neither one has gained a football victory over the other. Grosse Pointe and Highland Park played to a 6-6 tie in 1947 and a 7-7 tie this year.

It was Grosse Pointe's surprise tie game with the Polar Bears this season that robbed Highland Park of its first championship since entering the Border Cities League three years ago. If Highland Park had won the Grosse Pointe game, as everyone figured, it could have lost its game to Royal Oak and still won the title.

Neighborhood Club's Court League Enrolls Eight Teams

Already Bigger Than Last Year, Loop Has Room for More Own Sponsors

By Fred Runnells

Eight basketball teams have already filed their entries in the Men's Division of the Neighborhood Club Basketball League with the first game of the season just a month away. With eight teams already in the fold the league is larger by one team than it was last year and three larger than it was two years ago.

Bill Desrocher, athletic director of the Neighborhood Club, says, "the league is still open for more teams but only those teams that have definite backers should apply."

All the teams in the league are sponsored by some concern or organization which has provided proper uniforms and this season should see the league come into its own as far as style is concerned. The brand of basketball played in the league was never in doubt and in the past has been on a par with the best in the Metropolitan area.

The teams entered at present are Hanson Chevrolet, 1948 champions; Francois Bulldogs, 1947 champions; St. Clair, East Side Sports, St. Elizabeth, Eagles Club, Jefferson Nash and Old Brick Inn.

The last six teams are new entries in the league this year although the Old Brick Inn team is composed of members of St. Paul's old team.

The Minor Division of the league will start play in three weeks.

Four Minor Division teams are entered at this writing and there is room for two more teams according to Desrocher. Those entered are Apaches, defending champion, Swishers, St. Paul and Tracy Motor Sales. The latter two are new to the league this year.

The Neighborhood Club will inaugurate the 1948-49 season with a doubleheader bill when Hanson Chevrolet takes on the Jerry Lynch aggregation, coached by the colorful, former Detroit Falcons coach, Cincy Sachs.

The Lynch team is composed of former high school and college stars. Probably the best known to local basketball fans is Norm Zauchin, 6' 3" 210 pound 19 year old former Royal Oak High School star.

While playing for Royal Oak, Zauchin made All-State two consecutive years and established the all time Border Cities League scoring record with 42 points in one game. He also made the all-Oakwood County Conference

Capacity Crowd of 58,000 Expected to See Grid Game

A capacity crowd of 58,000 Detroit sports fans are expected to jam Briggs Stadium to see the high school gridiron classic of the year in the Annual Old Newsboys' Goodfellow Football Game.

This will be the first night game in the history of the series when the Metropolitan League and Catholic League champions take the field Friday night, November 26—under the lights at Briggs Stadium.

Detroit's own sons and future college gridiron stars are expected to play the game of their lives in this spectacular event. As a special feature, there will be numerous marching bands from all over the city to perform before the game and at half-time. And as usual, the entire proceeds of the game will be turned over to the Old Newsboys' Goodfellow Fund to make sure that there is "No Kiddie Without a Christmas."

The tickets are priced at $1.20, $1.80 and $2.40 and may be purchased from any Detroit policeman. All seats are reserved.

John Worcester Makes Williams Squash Team

John P. Worcester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Worcester of 576 Lincoln road, is on the squash team at Williams College. The team began practice last week for its first match on December 17.

A junior, Worcester is on the tennis squad, and he is active on the Gul, college year book. He is a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Autumn Revery

Burning leaves, whose sacrificial smoke fills all the autumn days with fragrance rare, A drifting haze of spicy, sweet perfume, Arising slowly from a hundred fires Along the length of every village street, Marks Summer's ending, with such pageantry As mocks the human artist's wildest flight Of daring resources, in his palette's use.

Each year, when early frost has browned the ferns And gardens have surrendered to its blight, The trees of field and forest slowly yield Their summer vigor, to the approaching cold Of sterile Winter's months of dominance.

The languorous softness of the autumn air, The sunshine, filtering through the golden leaves, Give rise, in Nature-loving souls, to pangs Of sadness, that such beauty cannot last, To gladden eyes grown weary at the sight Of human failure, likewise, to display A corresponding climax to each life.

Just as the lure of winding, wooded road, Beckons the wanderer along his course Of rapturous surprises, which await His eye, around each bending of the lane, So do the hopes of men of vision, look To better, brighter years of peace to come, For all the peoples of this strife-torn world.

Runs Up Mileage In Stolen Truck

Park Patrolman Arthur Conlan observed a truck parked near a new building under construction at Cadieux and Jefferson at 5:40 a. m. on November 14. He picked up for investigation the driver, Thomas Hayes, colored, aged 24, of 20004 Griggs, Oak Park, Mich.

The truck he was driving was listed to the Michigan Sweeping Compound Company.

They learned that Hayes at one time had worked for this company but was not now employed by it. He had driven the car away without permission.

Further inquiries drew out the information that earlier that evening he had taken his family to a movie in the truck. Leaving them there he had sought further company with another woman and had driven far and wide over Wayne County, and then finally deposited her at another movie. He was too hazy to be positive whether it was the same movie where his wife and family were awaiting his return.

From then on he visited friends on both the west and east sides of greater Detroit and finally found himself alone where Patrolman Conlan caught up with him.

Next morning Chief Louwers said to him "You had yourself quite a time last night". "Ah sho did boss", said the colored gentleman. "I sure covered a lot of territory last night".

The 14th Detroit Police Precinct wanted to see him on the suspicion that he was wanted in their bailiwick for some unsolved strong-arm work pulled off there in the last few evenings.

The Park police sent him down to the 14th precinct for investigation on these charges, but if they do not want him he will be returned to the Park to answer for unlawfully driving away a vehicle; in simple parlance, car stealing.

Two Cars Crash On Mack Avenue

An accident occurred on Mack avenue in Grosse Pointe Farms at 5 p. m. on Nov. 14 when one car which had been parked on the shoulder of the road, pulled into the path of another.

Marshall De Bruyne of 22321 Madison, St. Clair Shores, was driving his Hudson east on Mack when an Oldsmobile convertible wheeled out from the south side of Mack into his path.

The Olds was driven by John A. Schnor, Jr., of 1534 Lemay, and is owned by Lorn Raymond of Radnor circle.

Damage to the Hudson was estimated by Farms Patrolmen Beaupre and Lyford at $75, and the Oldsmobile at $100. Schnor assumed blame for the crash and said he would pay for the damage.

Says Shores and Yacht Club Dump Raw Sewage in Lake

Farms Clerk Harry A. Furton was instructed Monday night by the Farms Village Council to address a communication to both the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club board of directors and Shores Superintendent Tom Jeffers seeking correction of pollution abuses.

The decision was reached after a report by Village Engineer Murray M. Smith calling attention to pollution beyond the "standard of moderate pollution established by the State Board of Health."

Tests by himself and Dr. Thomas S. Davies, Township health commissioner, Smith said, showed "19 per cent of beach samples and 7 per cent of pier samples" taken in the vicinity of the Village Pier "reached or exceeded" that standard.

Raw Sewage Smith asserted it was his opinion, after an inspection, that the yacht club was dumping raw sewage into Lake St. Clair.

"If they are using a septic tank," he declared, "it isn't working."

He also cited other large Shores sewer outlets as contributing to the pollution, "such as Hawthorne road."

Agreed to Meeting "Dr. Davies has agreed to call a meeting of representatives of all the Pointe communities to discuss ways of improving these conditions."

"For example," he went on, "we believe that certain large sewer outlets in the Shores, such as Hawthorne road, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, etc., are directly responsible for the high average bacterial counts reported by us."

"Some corrective measures of chlorination or sewer construction similar to our recently-constructed Pier Park sewer should be carried out by the Shores," Smith concluded.

Report Rifling Of Mail Boxes

Rifling of private residence mailboxes in the Woods brought a stern warning from police of severe Federal penalties for such activities.

The vandalism was disclosed when Mrs. Jaglowicz, of 1317 Sunningdale, reported to Woods police that Ruth Ann Merrick, of Lochmoor, had found mail addressed to Mrs. Jaglowicz and others in the vicinity strewn in a field.

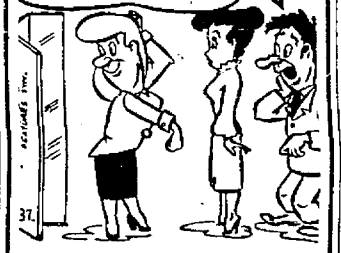

The mail, postmarked Nov. 4, was found by Miss Merrick on Nov. 10.

Mrs. Jaglowicz was advised to report the incident to U. S. postal inspectors.

PILFERINGS

If you aren't TOO fed-up on election talk, John O'Donnell, one of the country's better political writers...

"The very perfection of the Dewey picture made us wonder whether the American male wouldn't turn against him simply because he dreads the idea of tardily toddling to dinner some night...

"But most of the gals, it is said, either voted against Dewey or just did not vote at all because of some strange and sexy political trend."

"Note that the most cruel and lingering wounds ever inflicted on Dewey have been launched from lipstick. Over a decade has passed since Mrs. Kenneth Simpson, wife of a late political associate of the young Mr. District Attorney, caustically observed: 'You really have to know Tom Dewey to dislike him.'"

"And it was Alice Roosevelt Longworth who, the day following the past election, ground out her cigarette, turned down the radio that carried news of the Republican disaster and issued the acid bon mot: 'You can't raise a soufflé twice.'"

Jones was in bed with a severe chill. His friend Brown called on him to cheer him up. After making the usual sympathetic remarks, Brown's eyes wandered around the room and came to rest on the doorway.

"What are you looking for, old man?" asked Jones. "Nothing," said Brown. "I was just thinking how dashed awkward it would be to get a coffin out of here."

Leon Henderson tells this story: A firm had the following notice inscribed on its salary receipt forms, "Your salary is your personal business, and should not be disclosed to anyone."

A new employee, in signing the receipt, wrote: "I won't mention it to anybody. I'm just as ashamed of it as you are."

Caswell Adams laughs about the little fellow in the bar who refused another drink because he had to go home.

"What are you—man or mouse?" taunted one of his companions.

"I'm a man!" the little fellow replied, hotly. "All right, how do you know you're a man?" "Because my wife's afraid of mice!"

The last time Thomas Lamont was in London he checked on the story that Lenin, many years ago, spent a long period of study in the British Museum. Mr. Lamont challenged an aged and fragile attendant of the Museum. "Do you remember seeing a little man named Lenin around here several years ago? He had a small reddish beard, and he probably spent most of his time in the sociology and political philosophy alcoves."

"Lenin? Lenin?" mused the old attendant. "Why, yes, now that you mention it, I do remember a gent by that name, sir. Read a powerful lot of deep books 'e did, sir. You know, I've wondered what became of that little man!"

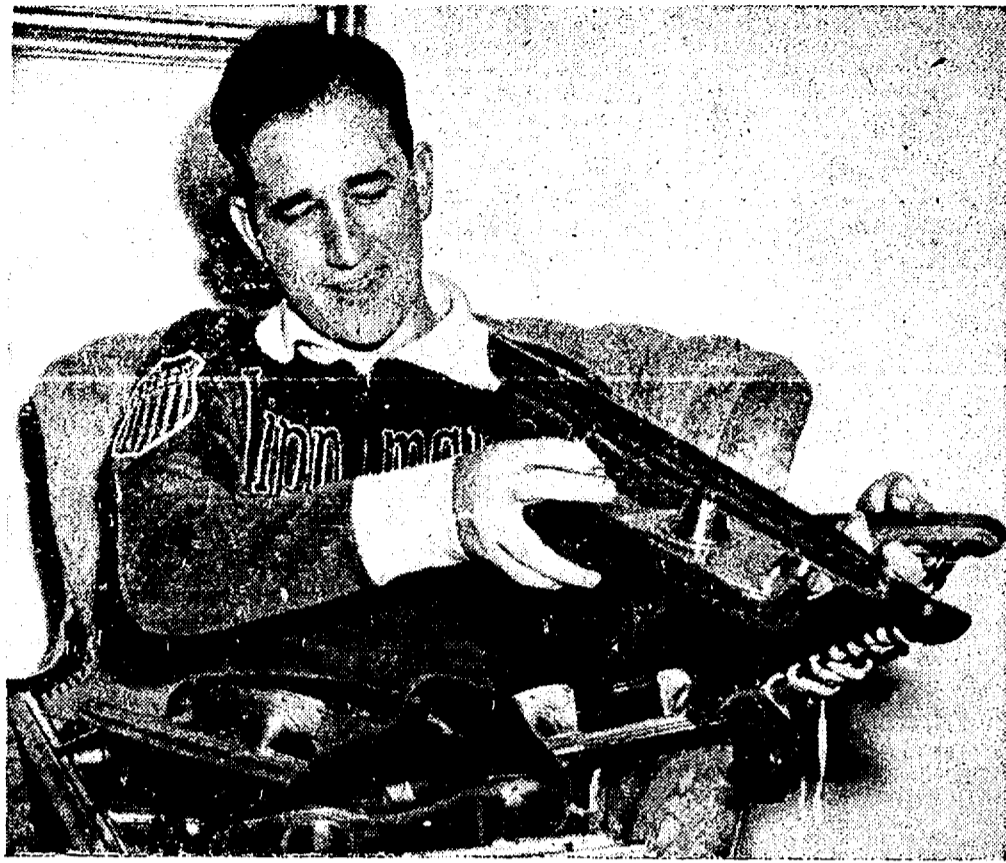

Olin Clark reports the story of a mother who lost her young daughter in the week-end confusion at Penn Station. After a frantic search, she finally located her in the midst of a group of nuns. Both the little girl and the nuns seem to be having a very good time. "I hope my daughter hasn't been giving you too much trouble," exclaimed the relieved parent. "On the contrary," chuckled the Mother Superior. "Your little girl seems to have the notion that we are penguins."

Study Group of AAUW Meeting at Luncheon

The International Relations Study Group of the Grosse Pointe branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at the home of Mrs. James G. Morrison, 66 Hall Place, on Thursday, November 18, at 1 p. m. Tea will be served by the co-

Pointer of Interest

ALBERT DIMMER, JR., OF RIVARD BOULEVARD

by Kitty Carney

"I haven't been out on New Year's Eve for the past 15 years," Al Dimmer remarks laughingly. "The first amateur ice skating meet is always held on Jan. 1." Al, who has won the Wayne County speed skating championship for six consecutive years, started competitive skating in Detroit meets when he was only 15 years old.

While he was first learning, however, Al took the city intermediate and junior boys' championship four times. He also won the Michigan indoor state title twice, the Michigan outdoor championship and the international speed skating title at Toronto.

A graduate of St. Philip's High School, Al took a post-graduate course at Grosse Pointe High. In 1939, a school counselor saw him skating at Schenectady and offered him a two-year scholarship at St. Thomas College in Minnesota. From there he went to the University of Detroit. He was an assistant coach at both Detroit University School and U. of D.

After three years' service during the war, Al came back to compete in the Senior "A" Skating Division. Al won the Northern Michigan outdoor state championship in speed skating at Che-championship by only 10 points. He is probably more pleased about that than any of his other feats. In fact, the mention of Minnesota and Michigan skating competition is enough to launch him on a bitter harangue. Minnesota, this Pointer contends, has the best facilities in the world for speed skaters. Michigan and Detroit skaters, on the other hand, he insists, are the most enthusiastic in the world because they labor under such adverse conditions.

Constant Training Since cups, trophies and medals are awarded in each of the meets, Al Dimmer has a sizeable collection of these items. Although the first big skating meet is more than a month away, Al and his buddies have been skating since early October and have been in training since July.

How do ice skaters train during the summer? They ride racing bikes several times a week and do a good deal of fast walking. Then, as soon as the indoor ice rinks open, they take to skating again. Late last spring when the indoor rinks had closed but the speed skating meets were not yet over, Al and several Detroit skaters drove to Toledo every other night to do their skating at the one indoor rink which was still open.

Al plans to compete in the meets again this year, about 14 of them in all. His showing at the North American indoor races should rate an invitation to the big meet which will be held in California this season, he believes.

A member of the Detroit and United States Skating associations, Al rates his skating as a hobby only. He is employed as a sporting goods salesman in a downtown Detroit store.

HATE An evil incense—spreading—spreading— Filling soul and mouth and eyes: Your veil becomes a mask, and still it Permeates your poor disguise.

An all consuming fire of coal-dust Crackling, smoldering, underground; And still you linger on the earth-top, Warned, but careless of the sound.

THE LITTLE THINGS

We said "Good-bye" I said I'd lead my life—and then Would soon forget. But dormant in my heart There lay The little things That time can not expell. My life is full, The time goes swiftly day by day And hurries on, But scents and sound sometimes Awake The little things That still have power to hurt.
