

LIBRARY PROJECT APPEARS DEAD

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, Dec. 2
GOVERNOR SIGLER orders a one-man grand jury investigation of a raid made by 300 men (goon squads) on two plants of the struck Shakespeare Company in Kalamazoo.

INSTALLMENT CREDIT soars to a peak of $7,748,000,000 in October, according to a report of the Federal Reserve Board.

MADAM CHIANG KAI SHEK arrived in Washington yesterday to urge firmer American backing for the Chinese Nationalist Government against the communists.

Friday, Dec. 3
FRANK E. HOOK, recent Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate from Michigan, says he will challenge the election of Senator Ferguson. Hook says he lost by only 19,000 votes. Ferguson elected by 35,000. Hook charges a 7,500 vote error in Genesee county and irregularities in other counties.

THE GREATEST QUANTITY OF COUNTERFEIT MONEY in history is flooding New York City in bills of $10 and $20 denomination. Called "dangerous" by the Federal Reserve Bank because of their perfection.

Saturday, Dec. 4
A SMALL STEAMER loaded with 4,000 refugees from China explodes and sinks in the mouth of the Yangtze river at Shanghai. Reported that only 400 survived, indicating the worst marine disaster in history.

SECRETARY OF LABOR TOBIN awaits the views of the CIO as the prepares legislation to substitute for the much-assailed Taft-Hartley law.

SENATE OFFICIALS stated today the efforts of Frank Hook to obtain an investigation of the election in which he was defeated by Senator Homer Ferguson are legally worthless and cannot be the basis of court action in Michigan. Unofficial returns show that he lost to Ferguson by 45,000.

Sunday, Dec. 5
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA was shaken by an earthquake yesterday from Ventura to San Diego. Damage extensive in Palm Springs. Center of quake in Coachella Desert 100 miles east of Pasadena.

CLAIMED IT IS NOW KNOWN who stole the Government secrets from the State Department and that names will be revealed in the hearings which begin next Tuesday.

THE MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE meets tomorrow to fix legislators' and State executives' salaries, under the constitutional amendment voted by the electors last month.

Monday, Dec. 6
THE MURDER OF ANTHONY MICHALOWSKI, by a burglar he surprised in his home at 11038 Whitehill, believed to have been the work of a zoot suit gang which has been operating on the east side principally on Saturday and Sunday nights.

ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER Juan A. Bramuglia, active in the United Nations Assembly, has been invited to come to Washington for conferences with President Truman and Secretary Marshall. He will leave Rome tomorrow for U. S.

Tuesday, Dec. 7
THE STATE SENATE at Lansing has approved pay of $25,000 yearly for the Governor with $12,500 for the Attorney General, the Secretary of State and the Auditor General.

The Knight Before Christmas in the Pointe

For the third year in a row the stores in The Village, the Pointe's favorite shopping center, are making it easy for the local knights to dispose of their Christmas lists with dispatch and delight. Monday, December 13, will mark the third annual observance of Men's Night, the event that became a Pointe institution by popular demand. Put yourself in the position of the bright young man above. Within the three short blocks of Kercheval between Notre Dame and Neff, he has completed all of his yuletide shopping except that last and most important gift, the present for his wife. While he relaxes impervious to the charms of the young ladies attempting to interest him in selecting a handbag or a negligee, he is engaged with a purchase he just made across the street... an electric train for Junior.

Alger House Vote Called Wrong Move

Dougherty Says Referendum Should Be on Recalling School Board

Franklin D. Dougherty, one of the members of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education whose action in refusing the gift of the Alger House property has been so severely criticized by many citizens of this area, has addressed a letter to Alger Shelden, President of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Fund, explaining his feelings in the matter.

Mr. Dougherty brought a copy of this letter into the NEWS office personally, with his implied willingness that it should be published.

New Angle
Mr. Dougherty presents a new angle on the proposed advisory referendum which was called for at the meeting of the directors of the Memorial Fund and interested citizens on Friday, Dec. 3 at the Neighborhood Club.

It will be noted in his letter that he thinks if the citizens have not enough confidence in the judgment of the school board members to abide by their decision, this petition, instead of being directed at a referendum vote, should be framed as a recall directed at the board members who voted for the rejection of the property.

Would Repeat Vote
He also quite clearly implies that if such an advisory vote (Continued on Page 5)

Goodfellows Again Seeking Funds to Keep Christmas Faith Alive All Year Long

Lions Club Aided by All Pointe Police and Firemen in Soliciting Funds for Gifts for Children and Help for Community's Needy

Monday, December 13, marks another Goodfellows' Day for Pointers and all others in the Detroit Metropolitan area. The local campaign, with a goal again this year of $5,000, is being carried on under the leadership of Carl Schweikart, chairman, and the Grosse Pointe Lions Club.

The Pointe drive is wholly dependent upon the sale of newspapers which will be available on every important corner of the community. Carrying the burden of this important selling job will be the police and firemen of all the Pointe municipalities. From before dawn until noon they will be stopping motorists and pedestrians, soliciting funds to guarantee there will be no children in the Pointe forgotten by Santa Claus this year.

The work of the Goodfellows goes far behind the mere insurance that no child will be without a Christmas. Throughout the year this organization utilizes its funds to purchase fuel for homes that would otherwise be cold, provide medical care for those who would otherwise go unattended; buy glasses for those whose sight is failing; but who are unable to pay for the services of an oculist; see that dental care is available to those who need it but cannot pay.

The spirit of the Goodfellows is not a one day thing. Help them carry on their great work. Give generously to bring joy to little hearts at Christmas time, to keep faith alive and families together.

Stores Save Monday Nite For Men Only

Pointe Males Afforded Great Opportunity to Do Shopping and Have Fun

The knight had a thousand ayes when asked by the stores in The Village whether they should conduct "Men's Night" this year. And so the shopkeepers checked Monday, December 13 on their calendars. And out in the margin they wrote in bright red crayon: "For Men Only... 7 to 10 p.m."

Just three years old, this merry holiday season, Grosse Pointe's Men's Night is a very well established institution. It became exactly that the very first year when the harassed husbands and sweltering swains of the community discovered how peaceful and pleasurable this Christmas shopping business can be when artistically arranged with only one thought in mind... "Make it so easy they'll love it."

"Men's Night" is that annual occasion when all the merchants in The Village dedicate themselves to the task of seeing that the Pointe's males can discover the wonder of what a cinch it is to go buy-why right at home. Not even a list is required.

The shops are full of the most wondrous array of most wonderfully beautiful gifts it has ever been the Pointe's stores' privilege to offer. Augmented staffs will be on hand to help with suggestions and put your selections into gift packages that will be the envy of your whole family.

Board of Education Eliminated From Alger House Tangle

Taking Over of Property by Township Might Be Final Solution to Grosse Pointe War Memorial Project

Developments following the mass meeting held in the Neighborhood Club last Friday night to discuss the Alger House issue, indicate that the action of the School Board in rejecting the offer of the property, has relegated the proposed project of creating a War Memorial Library maintained by the schools to the land of the Dodo.

The Alger heirs have withdrawn their offer to the Board of Education, it has been announced. In addition to this action, President Alger Shelden of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Fund has disclosed that many of the large contributors to the fund, irked by the action of the school board, have phoned him stating they do not want their gifts used for the proposed library at Kercheval and Fisher.

Hazardous Predicament
Mr. Shelden stated at Friday night's meeting that the rejection of Alger House placed the library project in a very hazardous predicament. He pointed out that the campaign had produced less than half the amount needed to build the proposed library, including pledges not yet paid, and that already there were rumblings that not a few of these pledges would be cancelled.

He stated that it appeared the only way the Pointe could now get a library would be to float a bond issue, and surmised that this would be an exceedingly difficult item to sell in the face of the great wave of opposition which followed the action of the school board.

Swamped With Calls
Mr. Shelden said he had been swamped with phone calls during the weekend protesting to the rejection of Alger House and stating that the callers no longer wished to have their gifts or pledges used for the building of a much smaller library than was originally planned. Many of those who called, Mr. Shelden said, had stated that if Alger House had been accepted as the memorial, they would have been willing to increase their original gifts.

With the announcement that the Alger heirs had withdrawn their offer to the Board of Education, it appears that the referendum planned for February would be useless. The vote was to be based on whether or not the majority of the people of the Pointe wanted the board to accept the property.

These later developments lend added importance to the suggestion made at Friday night's meeting by Township Supervisor Carl Schweikart, that the township could take over the Alger property.

Alger House Gift Sought By Township

Board Unanimous in Desire to Take Over Property as War Memorial With Public's Approval

The Township Board of Grosse Pointe Township has stepped into the breach in the effort to save Alger House for the people of Grosse Pointe.

At a meeting of the Township Board held in its offices in the Park Municipal Building at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday night, December 7, the following resolution was unanimously adopted, with every member of the board present, as well as the board's attorney, Julius L. Berns.

THE RESOLUTION
WHEREAS, The Alger family has recently indicated their willingness to make a gift of their homestead property on Lake Shore Drive in the Village of Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan, for the sole use and benefit of the residents of Grosse Pointe, and

WHEREAS, in the interest and general welfare of all the people of Grosse Pointe, such a generous gift should be seriously and conscientiously considered by this municipal corporation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Township Board of Grosse Pointe Township, for and on behalf of the citizens of Grosse Pointe Township, does hereby sincerely solicit from the Alger family, a gift of the Alger property to be used for the general benefit and welfare of all of the residents of Grosse Pointe, and if such a proffer is made, this board will do all in its power to legally effect the acceptance of such a gift for the sole use and benefit of the residents of Grosse Pointe, as a War Memorial.

Legally Possible
Attorney Berns advised the board there was no question of its legal ability to accept the gift. Its use as a memorial will have to be voted by the citizens of the township. The township board went as far as it could in declaring its intent to so use it. With the voters' approval, its perpetual maintenance by the township would be assured.

While the board in its official action could speak only in the name of the township it is noticeable that in the rest of the resolution it uses only the name of Grosse Pointe.

The resolution was purposely framed in this manner as the spirit of the board is to treat this memorial as representative of all Grosse Pointe.

Post Office Sees Records Broken Again

Lindow Predicts New High in Cash Receipts as Yule Rush Begins

The first unmistakable wave of the rush of outgoing Christmas mail from the Grosse Pointe Post Office appeared on Monday, December 6. From then on it will steadily mount until December 22, when it will begin to recede, Leland Lindow, the local postmaster, said.

Mr. Lindow says his office is well staffed this year with a capable group of workers to handle the heavy holiday outgoing mail. He says however it will greatly facilitate their work if the residents of Grosse Pointe will, so far as they are able, deposit their letters and particularly parcel post packages in the morning hours. This will ease the work of the employees when they are called on to face the great volume which pours in the middle and late afternoons.

Open Longer Hours
Beginning on Wednesday, Dec. 15 and continuing through Tuesday, Dec. 21, the office will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Exceptions to this will be on Saturday, Dec. 18 when the office will be open from 7 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. and again on Sunday the 19th when it will be open from 1 to 5 p.m.

Starting again on December 22 the office will resume its usual hours of 7 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. Asked for his opinion on the services of the Grosse Pointe Post Office to the Pointe community, Mr. Lindow quoted several figures, emphasizing that these showed only the actual cash receipts of the office from sale (Continued on Page 3)

No Job Too Hard For Pranksters

At 8:11 p.m. on the night of Nov. 30, a man living on Lakeview, Detroit, went into the Park police station and said when calling at a home on Beaconsfield a few minutes before he found two large pieces of concrete masonry in the middle of the road. He had removed one of them but the other was too heavy for him to remove unaided.

The police found a heavy piece of concrete intended to be used as a corner guard at the entrance of a driveway. They concluded there must be giants among the juveniles of the Pointe, judging from the exertion they were put to to move the heavy monolith out of the roadway.

'Stolen' Dog Found Locked In Garage Full of Venison

The smell of fresh killed deer, which proved too strong for the sensitive nostrils of a Park dog, led to the entry of possible "dog napping" on the Park police docket at 4 o'clock in the morning on December 2.

John Walker of 1221 Kensington phoned the Park police station that his dog had been missing from home for nearly a day. Just within the last half hour he had heard his well remembered bark coming from some nearby point, but evidently in duress.

Mr. Walker believed he had very nice neighbors—but still, he craved police assistance to make

Police Radio Report Shows What Keeps Officers Busy

The November report of the Grosse Pointe Township Police Radio Station WRDR shows there were a total of 8631 calls broadcast by the station during the month.

Police cars of the four villages served by the station made 1535 runs, 412 of them being in answer to orders to return to their stations for instructions.

Stores Alerted For Shoplifters

Messengers sent out by the station. Fifteen fire reports were sent out, three drunks were the subject of broadcasts, 15 calls were made to take sick children home from schools, 16 suspicious men were investigated. There were nine reports of reckless driving and broadcasts on eight stolen cars.

One of the items on the report is labeled "Meet a Woman", 32 cases. For public edification, these are cases in which the lady of the house requests assistance from the police in such matters as getting her car started, chasing a dog out of the yard, getting her in her house when she has forgotten the key, etc.

Residents Air Views on Alger House Issue at Town Meeting

 The Alger House property on Lake Shore road as a war memorial library site. This offer, according to Mr. Sheldon, appeared to be the one way in which the campaign could be happily concluded and a fitting memorial retained. The officers of the memorial organization felt that the money already paid in or pledged could be devoted to altering Alger House for library purposes, a magnificent center could be created which would fittingly honor the Pointe's war heroes and at the same time serve the entire community in many cultural ways.

Mr. Sheldon said the rejection of this gift by the school board had not only been a very keen disappointment to the officers of the memorial association, but had placed the entire project in a most critical situation. He said that under the circumstances it was very doubtful if a suitable memorial library can be built here as pointed out that the approximately $250,000 raised in the campaign must be devoted primarily to a memorial and only secondarily to the creation of a library.

Shelden Places Blame
 Mr. Sheldon was most outspoken in placing the major share of the blame for the rejection of Alger House on the shoulders of Superintendent of Schools John Barnes, and Pointe Librarian Miss Florence Severs. He said it was chiefly because of their advice to the board that the offer was turned down. This advice was fully covered in letters written by Miss Severs and Mr. Barnes and printed in the NEWS of November 25.

The association president read a letter from Carsten Tiedeman, co-chairman of the Special Gifts committee of the memorial campaign, stating the latter's keen disappointment at having the Alger House offer rejected. Mr. Tiedeman wrote that while canvassing for larger gifts he had encountered many persons who stated that if they were being asked to donate for the purpose of converting Alger House into a memorial, they would be willing to contribute substantially more than for the proposed new library.

Not Available Then
 (At the time the drive was being carried on Alger House still was the property of the City of Detroit and a branch of the Detroit Institute of Arts, but already reports were spreading that Detroit was going to turn it back to the Alger family.)

By the time Mr. Sheldon had concluded his report it was evident that the atmosphere was charged with fireworks. While the great majority of those present were obviously supporters of the Alger House plan, there were also more than a few, presumably members of the Friends of the Library, who were staunchly behind the action of the school board and there to defend the stand taken by Miss Severs and Mr. Barnes.

Explosion Averted
 Before the potential explosion of acrimony and bitter accusations was fully ignited, the Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church rushed from the back of the hall and asked for the floor.

Dr. Fitt said he had had a similar experience in another community where he had served as a minister before coming to the Pointe. He said he had seen shocking results from just such a controversy and pled that every possible step should be taken to keep the Pointe from being divided into bitterly opposed factions over the Alger House question.

Dr. Fitt suggested that the first step should be the taking of a referendum of all the qualified voters of the Pointe, following a period during which complete information on both sides of the question could be obtained through the local press and other methods.

Resolution Adopted
 The directors adopted a resolution offered by Dr. Fitt, himself a director of the memorial organization, providing that a ballot would be submitted to the voters at the township election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in February. The question to be voted upon will be: "Should the Grosse Pointe Board of Education accept the gift of Alger House?"

There was considerable debate over whether or not the words "as a memorial library" be added to the question, but these conditions were deleted after President James E. Watkins of Grosse Pointe Farms declared: "The Alger House couldn't be accepted and sold and the money used to build a field house on the high school grounds. This query produced no answer."

Supervisor Schweikert tossed a suggestion into the proceedings which was hailed by Mr. Sheldon as the possible solution to the entire problem. He said if the school board felt it couldn't accept the offer, Grosse Pointe Township could. He pointed out that the upkeep of the memorial must come from the taxpayers and suggested that it doesn't much matter whether these taxes come from the schools or the township. He said the laws of Michigan would permit the township to undertake the support of a library provided it were requested to do so by the people.

Mr. Watkins argued heatedly that some or all of the present villages of the township might be converted into cities shortly, which might put the township out of business. Mr. Schweikert countered with the statement that although the City of Grosse Pointe had quit the township 14 years ago, it still continues to pay the township for health services and on the same basis, it and the other municipalities could contribute to the township for the upkeep of a war memorial serving the entire area.

Shelden Had Promised
 Mr. Sheldon stated he had promised the members of the school board, and Mr. Barnes and Miss Severs, that he would not call on them to take the floor, thus putting them on the spot before what was expected to be, and was, a hostile audience. However, the Friends of the Library contingent, after considerable remonstrance that only one side of the question was being heard, prevailed upon Miss Severs and Mr. Barnes to speak.

Both spoke sincerely in defense of the advice they had given the school board, largely reiterating the views expressed in their published letters. Mr. Barnes said he felt there had been some aspersions cast on his patriotism and pointed out that he himself was a veteran of World War I, that his two sons served in World War II and that his nephew had been lost in a flaming death during the last war. He said he was heartily in favor of a memorial and had contributed to the best of his ability to the memorial fund, but that as superintendent of schools it was his duty to advise the board according to his interpretation of his obligations to the community.

Financial Difficulties
 Mr. Barnes dwelt at length on the financial difficulties faced by the school board and laid great stress on the objections to Alger House from the maintenance cost angle. He said it would cost at least $30,000 per year to keep the place up and said the schools simply couldn't afford this.

When asked how much it was going to cost to maintain the proposed new library, Mr. Barnes could offer no figures.

After hearing Mr. Barnes' statements concerning the financial condition of the schools, Mr. Sheldon suggested that perhaps the school board couldn't afford a library at all and maybe the goal of the campaign has been wrong from the start.

Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., wanted to know who was going to buy books for a new library if there wasn't enough money to maintain one. This query went unanswered.

Want Community Center
 There were many present who advocated abandonment of the library idea entirely. Mrs. M. E. Mann argued that Alger House could be turned into a magnificent community center at very little cost.

Associate Librarian Mohrhardt of Detroit, one of the experts called in by the school board to submit a report on the feasibility of converting Alger House into a library, was present to defend his stand that the idea was impractical. He put great emphasis on his belief that Alger House is too inaccessible.

Mr. Mohrhardt based his report largely on comparisons between Alger House and plans for the proposed new library which was to cost $250,000. It is not known whether he had been informed that only $250,000 had been raised and that this must be used primarily for a memorial.

Only Advisory
 It was pointed out that the vote taken could only be an advisory one. The school board would then know the wishes of the people of the community, but could follow their wishes or not, as they saw fit as elected public officials.

The next act of the directors was to adopt a resolution calling for the polling of all donors to the memorial fund, asking permission to use their gifts for the conversion of Alger House, providing Alger House is finally accepted as the memorial. The gifts already received and pledged were solicited for the purpose of building the proposed library at Kercheval and Fisher. This poll will be started immediately.

Varied and Vociferous
 General discussion heard during the long session was as varied as it was vociferous. President Alois Ghesquiere of Grosse Pointe Woods asked if the Alger might not be willing to donate the property even if it was not to be used for a memorial. In the latter event it could be sold and the money received added to the funds for building the new library. None could answer this question, which produced laughter.

(The school board had pointed out that although the offer was unconditional it could not, honorably, accept the gift knowing the Alger favored its conversion into a library, then turn around and immediately dispose of it.)

Paul Maxon said the whole memorial idea was being lost and that anything created by the residents which they themselves would benefit from could not be a true memorial. He suggested that Alger House be converted into a center for the sole use of the veterans themselves. When asked by Ernest Kanzler who would pay for the maintenance of such a center, Mr. Maxon said he would suggest the formation of an association for this purpose.

Wants Field House
 Harry N. Phillips, president of the Grosse Pointe High School Dads' Club, wanted to know if Alger House couldn't be accepted and sold and the money used to build a field house on the high school grounds. This query produced no answer.

Supervisor Schweikert tossed a suggestion into the proceedings which was hailed by Mr. Sheldon as the possible solution to the entire problem. He said if the school board felt it couldn't accept the offer, Grosse Pointe Township could. He pointed out that the upkeep of the memorial must come from the taxpayers and suggested that it doesn't much matter whether these taxes come from the schools or the township. ### Approach of Winter Slows Down Building in Pointes

Renewal of Unprecedented Boom Confidently Expected Next Spring; See Ultimate Population of Over 75,000

The new building season in Grosse Pointe is about over for 1948. Properties that were started this summer and early fall are now all under roof and these are being rapidly finished off.

In the Woods, which had one area yet available in Grosse Pointe for new home development indicates a population eventually of between 75,000 and 100,000, with the continuation of the same generous light and land spaces that now prevail.

If it should ever happen that some of the large properties along the lakefront were devoted to large modern apartment houses, the present estimates of future population would be greatly exceeded.

Here, as in the other Pointe municipalities, it is expected that by next March a new season of building will start again in big volume.

There has been some inquiry as to whether builders who have erected houses for sale have not overshot the mark this year. Several such properties have remained empty unduly long.

The belief in the continuation of the home building boom into next year is based largely on the ample land yet available for home sites and the magnet which Grosse Pointe continues to be for new home makers.

The excellent job done here by realtors and the municipalities in keeping Grosse Pointe a restricted and desirable place in which to live and raise families is going to pay dividends to the area for many years to come.

It has been calculated by local planning commissions that the

Kiwanis Club To Give Kids Xmas Party

All Children Up to 12 Years Invited to Event in Mason School Dec. 18

The Kiwanis Club of Grosse Pointe is sponsoring a party for the children of the community up to 12 years of age, at the Mason School on Saturday, December 18, from 2 till 5 in the afternoon.

Features of the party will include a very large assortment of cartoon movies, a magician and of course good old Santa Claus with a present for each child.

This is an annual affair of the Kiwanis Club, which is proud to be able to serve the community in this manner. The support of the community for such events as the recent party in the Neighborhood Club have made events like this possible.

The Kiwanis Club meets each Tuesday evening in The Early American Restaurant, Mack at Oxford Road at 6:30 p.m. Visitors cordially invited to attend.

Beauchamp Fines Reckless Drivers

Four drivers paid fines in Farms traffic court on December 1, and three other cases involving reckless driving were dismissed for lack of evidence. Justice George Beauchamp presided.

Stella M. Bondy of 1427 McClellan, Detroit, was fined $50 and $5 costs when found guilty of reckless driving resulting in an accident.

Genevieve Trimble of 739 Lake Shore road, Port Sanilav, Mich., paid $25 and $5 costs for causing an accident by her reckless driving.

Frank J. Beltram, Jr. of 571 E. Grand Boulevard, was fined $50 and $5 costs for speeding 60 miles per hour on Moross road and driving a car after he had been drinking.

Fayette R. Shepherd, of 22624 Dorian street, St. Clair Shores, paid $25 and $5 costs for speeding on Lake Shore road.

The moment an overseas cable arrives at their Moross road home, MR. and MRS. MARK C. STEVENS will head for New York where they are to meet MRS. ALVIN B. BENTLEY and her two children, BIDDIE and CAB, en route home from Budapest. The Bentleys are to be on the Queen Elizabeth, whose sailing was so long delayed. Mr. B. is a member of the diplomatic service, will join his family in Washington in a few months.

Post Office Expects to Break Receipts Records Again

(Continued from Page 1) of stamps for letters and parcel post. They did not include such items as money orders, postal notes, savings stamps and the infinite variety of transactions which flow through the office.

1945 First Full Year

The year 1945 was the first full year of the Grosse Pointe office. That year the receipts from stamps alone were $128,000. In 1947 these figures were $192,000. For 1948 Mr. Linn says they will be approximately $30,000 more. He places the receipts of the office this year at between $220,000 and $225,000.

This little office on Maumee has proved one of the greatest conveniences ever brought to Grosse Pointe. The business it does for this limited population is extremely large. Unknown to many, a considerable proportion of its foreign bound mail is in the forms of food and clothing packages which thoughtful Grosse Pointers are constantly sending to relatives and friends in Europe, England, Holland, Belgium and France are the principal destinations of these packages.

Not Too Modest The NEWS is not too modest to mention that it was largely through agitation kept alive by Grosse Pointe, the business of this little office was obtained for this community.

Individuals who cooperated earnestly in getting it were Norbert P. Neff, the Clerk of Grosse Pointe City, Hon. Louis C. Rago, our Representative in Congress and Roscoe Huston, the Postmaster of Detroit, of whose office the Grosse Pointe office is a branch.

Grosse Pointe City also cooperated effectively by arranging for its property across the court from its municipal offices to be rented to the Post Office Department at a nominal rental.

Attention is the wholesome and patient, where necessary, and calm. Let us take root and strongly flourish—David Mallet.

Extraordinary afflictions are not always the punishment of extraordinary sins, but sometimes the trial of extraordinary graces.—Matthew Henry.

Two Cars Tangle On Chalfonte Rd.

Two cars tangled at Chalfonte and Mt. Vernon on the afternoon of Dec. 5, with slight resulting damage and no personal injury.

Flora L. Anderson of 387 Mt. Vernon, driving her Ford west on Chalfonte, slowed down to make a left turn into her home street. A Cadillac behind her, driven by E. P. Dubois of 761 Lincoln road, crashed into the rear of her car. Mr. Dubois accepted blame for the crash.

Damage to the Ford was $30 and to the Cadillac, $70.

Direct Hit Leads Youth into Court

An aggressive youth stood well out in the street at Kercheval and Fisher on Dec. 3 wig-wagging his finger vigorously for a free ride.

The police officer on the corner told him to get out of the roadway and do his semaphore work from the sidelines.

Just to show his contempt for the majesty of the law the youth spit at the side of the scout car.

This was something different again. The youth promptly got a ticket.

Just what the current price is for misdirected expectation in Grosse Pointe City will be adjudged at the next session of City police court.

Park Residents Lodge Kick Against Charlevoix Paving

At the Park Planning Commission meeting on December 2 a petition signed by 16 persons was received protesting about the road and curb conditions on Charlevoix east of Somerset and of the noise and rumbling caused by the heavy buses traveling that route.

Chairman Ellington named a committee of four of the members to make a special investigation of the matters complained about.

This is a part of the general picture of bus rerouting which confronts the commission and will be considered as a part of the whole problem.

The commission is also considering the naming of a planning expert to act in a consulting capacity. Communications were read from several firms whose services are available for this work. One in particular from Wilcox and Laird of Detroit, was especially considered, but the conclusion of a contract with this firm will await the study of several of the conditions which the tender cited.

A letter was also read from Mrs. Marian Holden Bemis, speaking for the Grosse Pointe Garden Club, expressing the willingness of that organization to work with the Village Planning Commission in its projects for beautification.

Dance Planned By Church Club

The Men's Club of the Grosse Pointe Congregation Church has planned another square dance for Friday, December 10, to be held in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church gym. Dancing will begin promptly at 8:30 p.m. to the calling and music by the Brennans and their orchestra.

Sam Toepel and Don Clark have charge of the food. William Budds, who is in charge of general arrangements, announces there will be door prizes and plenty of dancing. Paul Kolvoord is in charge of the sale of tickets and can be reached at MU 1517.

TOO MUCH FRICTION

A car belonging to Mrs. Lloyd Hooker of 445 University place took fire on December 6. When the firemen arrived they found that the car had been driven with the hand brakes set.

Driving Without License Costly

In the Park Police Court on December 1 Judge Joseph Belanger disposed of the following cases:

Neil Allen Greiner, 3600 Maryland, for car not under control in front of 1259 Maryland on Oct. 29, causing an accident, was fined $15 and $5 costs. For driving with a license which had been revoked he was fined an additional $50 and $5 costs.

The Judge also directed that with the expiration of his three-months' probation, which was imposed by a Detroit court which does not run out until sometime this month, an additional six-months probation will be imposed.

Lillian June Walker, 12222 E. Outer drive, for driving without due care and caution on Nov. 5 causing an accident, was fined $10 and $5 costs.

Raymond Gamboni, 4152 Nottingham, for speeding 42 m.p.h. on Mack on October 24 was fined $10 and $5 costs.

Dr. Frank T. Cyman, Jr., 20104 Binder Street, Detroit, for failure to have car under control causing an accident at Bishop and Charlevoix on Oct. 31, was fined $35 and $5 costs, or, within 30 days to make full restitution to Grosse Pointe Park for damage done to village property.

Similar disposition was made in the case of Charles J. Reudisili, 4090 Townsend, Detroit, who was found guilty of damaging village property at Charlevoix and Devonshire on November 6. He too was fined $35 and $5 costs, or the option of making full restitution for damage within 30 days.

Patrick Callan, 105 Muir road, Grosse Pointe Farms, for speeding 40 m.p.h. on Kercheval on Oct. 20, paid $15 fine and $5 costs.

Young Hunters Relieved of Gun

Two boys, one 15 and one 16, were picked up by Sergt. Jack Paisley of the Farms police on Dec. 3, for questioning concerning complaints that they were carrying firearms.

One of the youngsters has a home made single shot pistol he said he had manufactured himself to try to shoot pheasants.

He was relieved of the weapon and cartridges and the pair were released pending further investigation.

Dougherty Backs School Board Stand

should be passed, he and the others who voted the rejection would simply repeat their action.
The letter to Mr. Sheldon is as follows:

December 6, 1948
Dear Mr. Sheldon:—
“On December 3, 1948, I attended a meeting of your association at which a resolution was passed by your directors requesting that the proposition of whether the Alger property be accepted by the Board of Education for use as a Memorial Library be submitted to the voters of this school district by referendum.

“I feel that before action is taken on such a resolution, my position in the matter, as an individual member of the Board of Education, should be made clearly known to you and your associates.”

“When the Alger property was offered to the Board of Education by the Detroit Trust Company, acting for the Alger interests, I gave the offer my careful consideration, and after much deliberation, I reached the conclusion that it would not be for the best interest of the school district to accept such an offer at this time.

“Regardless of the result of a referendum, as proposed by your association, any further action which I might take in the matter could only be dictated by my best judgment as an elected trustee, and as being, in my opinion, for the best interest of the school district.

“I should therefore like to suggest that, if the members of your group do not have implicit faith in the judgment of any member, or members, of the board of your school district, then a referendum should be had for the purpose of recalling such of those members whose decisions you do not believe are in accord with the best interests of the school district, in order that they may be replaced by those who will act in accordance with the wishes of your association.

Yours very truly,
Franklin D. Dougherty.”

V.F.W. Plans Big Carnival

Alger Post 995, VFW, 17145 St. Paul, Grosse Pointe, will present a spectacular and unusual carnival at 8 p.m., Saturday, December 11. Commander Lou Pohorsky invites all veterans, their friends and neighbors to attend. Proceeds will be used for the television set now installed in the club refreshment room.

George J. Tilton, Jr., is chairman of the Carnival Committee. “The Grosse Pointe Frogs, Cootie Pup-Tent No. 10 will amuse the patrons with acts that are humorous and hilarious. The Cooties will have an extraordinary booth, which everyone can enjoy,” said Chairman Tilton.

The Carnival Committee includes the Auxiliary President, Dorothy Frick, and numerous other active members of the Board of Directors, Post, and Women's Auxiliary combined.

One of the main prizes to be awarded will be a table model combination radio and phonograph.

Hot dogs, coffee and other refreshments will be available. There is no admission charge.

Police Blame Big Wind In Two Open Door Cases

The strong wind which swept the Pointe on December 5 was blamed by Farms police for at least two open doors which at first appeared to be signs of burglaries.

The doors were found open at the residence of Lawrence Gotfredson, Jr., 470 Colonial court North, and at a new house at 379 Chalfonte. The police investigated and found everything in order in both instances.

Police Subdue Spurned Spouse

A young woman who is suing her husband for divorce and meanwhile living with her mother on Loraine sent a hurry call into the Maumee police station on December 4 for police protection.

Her husband, had returned to the house and demanded admittance. He called from the outside that he wanted to see his youthful son and heir. No answer from within. He then proceeded to kick the door with apparent promise of early entry.

When officers Onstwedder and Martin arrived they convinced the anxious father that such disagreements in Grosse Pointe were customarily settled after consultation with a lawyer, not via the boot and spur route.

Drinking Driver Hits Parked Car

As Park Patrolmen Charles Slusser and Art Boone were cruising near Charlevoix and Lakepointe at 9:30 p.m. on Dec. 1 they were hailed by a resident who stated a man had just run into a parked car, and “there he goes.”

Slusser and Boone also “went” and quickly overtook the fleeing one. They took him to the police station, discovering meanwhile that the man had been drinking.

The next morning in police court, Judge Potter fined Heinz Werner Berndt, aged 27, of 1251 Beaconsfield, $5 for leaving the scene of an accident, plus $75 for driving a car while intoxicated, plus costs.

Thinking, not growth, makes manhood. A custom yourself, therefore, to thinking.—Isaac Taylor.

Two Accidents Blamed on Frost

Streets made extremely slippery by the very heavy frost on the night of December 2-3, accounted for two accidents reported in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Raymond C. Moore of 352 Moran road had not driven 200 feet from his home at 8:22 a.m. when his car went into a skid that carried him onto the lawn at 384 Moran, back across the street and up over another lawn and against the house at 387.

Damage to the car was estimated at about $100. Damage to the house, lawns and shrubs was not stated.

At about the same time Sterling Sanford, of 279 Hillcrest, was driving west on Ridge near McMillan when his car went out of control and crashed into one driven by Charles Moret of 1373 Maryland avenue.

TARGET FOR TONIGHT

Adelbert Findly of 809 Barrington reported to the police on Dec. 1 that at 11:30 o'clock the evening before several young men passing his house had thrown a gin bottle at his door with enough force to make a deep dent in the woodwork and damage a brass door knock. He saw the young men but too late to follow them in his car.

Maid Confesses to Pointe Robberies Not Yet Reported

Pointers who were the victims of an itinerant, thieving maid some time ago, and failed to report their losses to the police, are invited to get in touch with Detective Sergeant Elmer Labadie of the Farms police department.

The Detroit police are holding a woman they arrested for similar depredations in Detroit, particularly in the Palmer Woods area. She has confessed to robbing some 60 homes.

Her technique included answering ads for help. She worked just long enough to be left alone in the house, then appropriated anything valuable which was handy, and vanished. Sometimes, she didn't spend more than a few hours in a home before getting the chance to grab and run.

The Detroit police have recovered about $4,000 worth of merchandise she stole.

Sergeant Labadie asked the Detroit police for permission to question her, thinking he might be able to clear up some old cases in his files. She was most obliging.

She said she had stolen from three homes in the Pointe, but she could give no names, addresses nor dates. She said she took a blue-stoned ring, set with diamonds in platinum from one residence. She said the ring was tied to a fountain pen. She claims she turned the ring over to the Detroit police.

From another Pointe home she says she took a Keystone 8 mm. movie camera, which she later sold in Toledo. From another, she pilfered between $12 and $18 in cash.

Sergeant Labadie has checked with all of the local police departments, but none have a report of any of these losses.

Maiullo Shooting Has Local Echo

Echoes of the recent attempted assassination of Anthony Maiullo reached Grosse Pointe on December 1 in the request of the Detroit police of the 9th precinct to the Grosse Pointe City police that they should exercise a special protective watch over the home of Joseph Maiullo at 722 University place.

Joseph Maiullo is a son of Anthony Maiullo and the Detroit police, fearing that there might be an extensive plot to do harm to Maiullo, Sr., took this precautionary step to safeguard his son.

Fire Damages Home in Park

There was a fire in the two-family flat at 1314 Maryland at 10:30 a.m. on December 6, which burned out a dormer window and did considerable damage to the top floor.

The property was occupied on the lower floor by the H. Streiber family and on the upper floor by that of L. Crawford.

Congregational Women to Hear Edgar A. Guest

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Women's Association will have its first evening meeting on Tuesday, December 14, at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Lyndie R. Martin, 628 Middlesex boulevard.

Edgar A. Guest will be the speaker of the evening. His popularity as a speaker and writer has grown with the years until now it is estimated that between three and five million persons hear his radio broadcast weekly, and millions more read his poems daily in more than a hundred and thirty newspapers throughout the country.

The annual Christmas Shower for patients at Herman Kiefer Hospital, is to take place on that evening. The Grosse Pointe Congregational women have had an active part in this custom each year since it was inaugurated by the Detroit Council of Church Women in 1941. Mr. Guest will participate in the dedication of the gifts which will be delivered later to the patients under the direction of the Council Hospital chaplain.

Carolers in costume will help to create a yuletide atmosphere.

Birthday Party Given For Carol Ann Walker

Carol Ann Walker, of Nottingham road, was hostess at a party celebrating her 10th birthday on December 1, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walker.

Among the guests were Anne Canniff, Kathie Stackpole, Sharon Oulette, Sandra Riley, Martha Slowin, Judy and Candy Curran, Karen Benson, Mary Virginia and Janie Walker.

Rear End Crash At Farms Corner

Two cars, both going east on Kercheval, crashed at Touraine road at 1 p.m. on Dec. 4.

Jane Scott Mitchell of 330 Rivard, driving a Dodge, hit the rear of a Packard being driven by Edna Ione Tucker of 82 Kerby road, when Miss Tucker slowed down to turn into Touraine.

Damage was estimated at $45, the Dodge suffering $40 worth and the Packard $5. Farms Police Officer Backman investigated the crash.

Garden Clubs Volunteer
The garden clubs are understood to have volunteered to keep up the grounds and the money available for the memorial could be used to furnish the beautiful residence as a community center.

It is not known whether the Alger heirs might be persuaded to turn over the property to the township, nor just what the legal mechanics of such a transfer would involve, but many have expressed the hope that Mr. Schweikart's suggestion is the solution to the whole memorial project.

Business Group Has Yule Party

The Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association conducted its first mixed social function Monday night in Harvard House, with Christmas features dominating the program.

S. Willard Hosking was chairman of the event which was attended by about 60 members and their wives.

Yacht Club Christmas Party for Kids Dec. 18

A Children's Christmas party will be held at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club from 2 until 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Dec. 18. Besides Santa Claus, three big entertainment features will be presented on the program.

Reservations for children 12 years and younger should be made early.

The Rev. Dr. E. K. Seymour of St. Mark's Methodist Church presented the story of "Silent Night." The Grosse Pointe High School Carolers, under the direction of John Finch, presented a delightful program of Christmas songs. Members of the children's classes of Miss Elaine Arndt's School of the Dance gave an exhibition of various types of dancing, under the direction of Miss Arndt.

Campau Will Address Genealogical Society

M. Woolsey Campau, a native of Detroit and a descendant of one of the earliest settlers of Detroit, will be the speaker at the monthly meeting of the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research, Saturday, December 11, at 2 p.m. on the third floor of the Detroit Public Library, Woodward at Kirby. The subject will be "Some Notable Detroit Families." These public is invited.

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

Christmas . . . In the good old-fashioned spirit . . . awaits those who have been invited to the Ernest-Kanzler supper party this Dec. 25 . . .

And it's delightfully old-fashioned . . . to be able to gather 60 members of one's family around the holiday board . . . which will be the case at the Kanzlers' Lake Shore road home Christmas night . . .

Besides members of the family in town several are coming from out of town . . .

The Kanzler sons will be home from prep school . . .

Ernest Jr. comes from Eagle Brook, Deering, Mass. . . . and Robert comes from St. Paul's at Concord, N. H. . . . "arriving home" date for the young men is Dec. 15 . . .

Sub Deb daughter Katrina . . . is attending school here this season . . . but is off to Farmington a year from now . . .

OUT OF TOWN GUESTS AT KANZLER SUPPER

From out of town coming to the Kanzler Christmas supper will be . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Holland . . . of Belchertown, Mass. . . . who'll stop with the Nelson Hollands of Cambridge road . . .

Mr. and Mrs. E. Herrick Low of New York City . . . with their daughters . . . Elizabeth and Holly . . . who will be guests of Mrs. Edsel Ford at her Lake Shore road home . . .

And Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson II of Buffalo . . . who with their children, Margaret . . . Joseph L. Hudson III . . . and Gilbert . . . will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Webber of Lake Shore road during their holiday visit . . .

OLYMPIC ENTHUSIASTS AT MOVIE

The Country Club showing last week of the Olympic games and skiing movies had two veddy interested spectators who practically had a personal interest in the films . . .

They were Sali Booth . . . and Merrill McClintock . . . who attended the games in England this year . . .

Sali . . . with her parents . . . Mr. and Mrs. Warren Booth of "Nobrook," Bloomfield Hills . . . was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tyree at the Country Club movie . . .

We noticed her chic hair do . . . the hair really skinned up and tied below the crown the way the European beauties are affecting it this season . . .

Incidentally . . . the young lady is just returned from 16 months in Switzerland . . .

YALE WHIFFENPOOFS TO SING

When chic calendars were surveyed . . . it was discovered that the visit of the Yale Glee Club and Whiffenpoofs (at Music Hall Dec. 18) coincided with the Junior League's holiday membership dance at the Country Club . . .

And since so many of the Leaguers' husbands are Yale Alumni . . . the two events are being considered practically as one . . . with Leaguers turning out en masse for the concert . . . and the Yale men doing the same for the Country Club fete . . .

There are many dinner parties before the concert . . . which raises funds sending Michigan lads to Yale on scholarships . . .

Famed Yale Glee Club To Sing December 18

Whiffenpoofs Will Appear With Singing Organization; Members Will Be Guests of Pointe Alumni Overnight

The Yale Glee Club, consisting of fifty-three undergraduates of the University and their famous leader, Marshall Bartholomew, will journey here from New Haven, Conn., on Saturday, December 18, to present a concert at Music Hall. The Whiffenpoofs, a small informal singing organization, will also sing.

Proceeds from the ticket sale for the concert will go to the Yale Scholarship fund of Michigan. Through the efforts of the Yale Alumni Association of Michigan, the fund provides a scholarship for a Michigan boy in each of three classes at Yale, and a fourth scholarship is in the process of being established.

December 18 will mark the Yale Glee Club's first appearance in Detroit since before the war. This year the concert replaces the annual Yale dance. However, the committee states that it is hoped that the dance will be repeated any year that the Glee Club is not able to include Detroit in its itinerary. This Christmas holiday, the Glee Club's schedule includes Albany, Syracuse, Detroit, Toledo, Grand Rapids, and Chicago.

The Yale Glee Club is internationally as well as nationally famous, having appeared not only in every principal city in the United States, but having been four times to Europe, singing before kings and dictators as well as fellow students. In 1941, Yale singing did its best to cement hemisphere good will with a trip to South America which included 13,000 miles of travel and 25 concerts.

The fact that the Yale Glee Club is highly regarded in musical circles is substantiated by its having won on two occasions the national championship in the intercollegiate Glee Club Contests participated in by student choruses from all parts of the United States. All this was accomplished under the direction of Marshall Bartholomew, who has been directing the Yale Glee Club since 1921.

Applications for tickets may be obtained at the Junior League Shop in Grosse Pointe.

George B. Hefferan, president of the Yale Alumni Association

Ski Films Shown At Country Club

Country Club members saw films of skiing in the Alps and the Olympic games Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Howard were cocktail hosts in their Moran road home before going on to the club.

The Seabourn R. Livingstones, R. Lockhart Wilbur, Mrs. Wilfred V. Casgrain and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Crouse were in one group who dined together before seeing the movies.

Penn's Famed Mask and Wig Show Coming on New Year's

The Mask and Wig Club of the University of Pennsylvania will bring its sixty first annual musical extravaganza to Detroit on January 4. The single performance will be staged at the Art Institute Theatre. This will be the first time since 1925 that this famous organization has appeared in Detroit.

The return of this organization to Detroit follows close upon the selection of a midwestern man, former Governor Harold E. Stassen as president of the University of Pennsylvania. Western alumni of the institution founded by Benjamin Franklin feel that the trustees of the conservative eastern university are now looking toward the west instead of centering their attention entirely on the east.

In the east are students from Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Florida, Cuba, Maryland, California, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Panama Canal Zone, New Jersey, and New York.

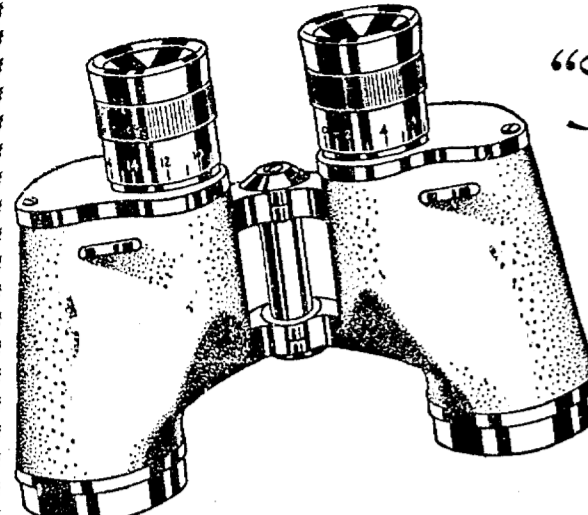

The show will be in fine working shape when it reaches Detroit. A run of nine performances has just been completed in Philadelphia. On December 18, the road tour will start and 18 cities in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Maryland, New York and Virginia will be visited. The show will close in Washington, D. C., January 8. Eastern critics have acclaimed the show as the greatest in the 61 years history of the club. A special train of seven cars will carry the cast of 55 undergraduates, the professional orchestra and the crew of professional stage hands on the long trip.

Among the members of the Michigan Society of the Alumni Association of the University of Pennsylvania, active in sponsoring the local performance are a number of Grosse Pointers. These include John J. O'Brien, Sidney S. Hall, Olney Jones, Howard Walton, Dr. William N. Moffet, William Cook, Lawrence K. Butler, Tom S. Green, Frank J. Hoder, Jr., Harry G. Mook, Jr., Dr. Rudolph J. Noer, Robert T. Schaller, Bertram T. Shover, John G. Van Cile, George N. Bashara and Edwin W. Owrld.

The local organization will honor the members of the cast with a cabaret party and dance in the main ballroom of the Book-Cadillac, immediately following the performance.

DOG BITE VICTIM

Robert Coe, aged 16, of 1115 Beaconsfield, was severely bitten by a dog belonging to C. H. Brown of 1020 Wayburn on December 2. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment and the Board of Health and the Park Veterinary were notified.

"Fore-Sight" IN Christmas Gifts

For him: If he's a nimrod or an outdoor sports enthusiast, nothing will please him more than a Bausch & Lomb binocular. Here's a gift of year-round usefulness to delight any man. Available in powers of 6 x 30 and 8 x 30. If he's a sailor, we recommend the Bausch & Lomb marine binocular in 7 x 50 power as a glass second to none.

For her: If she's a first-nighter or a devotee of the symphony and opera, we suggest an opera glass in mother of pearl or glossy black finish. These glasses will enable Milady to see who's there and what who's wearing and they have even been known to be trained on the stage when the house lights are dimmed.

For him or for her: At any sporting event a Sard pocket size binocular, because of its smallness and light weight, will add considerably to spectator enjoyment. Of amazing power and field range for its size, here's a gift that can't fail to please either sex.

Police Break Up Street Argument

Park Patrolmen Hoyer and Kesteloot, while cruising early in the morning of Dec. 3, ran into a fight in progress in front of a cafe on Mack avenue. Three men were engaged in it, two brothers and one non-relative. It had started in a family argument greatly abetted by the drunken condition of one of the men.

The officers took them all to the police station, where after questioning and a warning they were released. No charges were preferred and only personal injuries of a minor sort were inflicted.

Restrict Parking In McMillan Rd.

With the completion of St. James Lutheran Church's new building at 170 McMillan road, parking has been prohibited on the easterly side of the street in the block between Kercheval and Ridge.

Richard School is directly across the street. Farms Police Chief Walter Hoyt pointed out that churches often have daytime functions which draw crowds. Parking on both sides of the street would not only endanger the children going back and forth to the playground and joining the church, but would also make it difficult for fire equipment to get through the comparatively narrow street if the need arose.

The new signs, "No Parking This Side . . . Five Route", were erected with the hearty approval of the church board.

Jefferson M. E. Church Will Present "Messiah"

The Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church has made arrangements for the Detroit Community Symphony Orchestra and the combined choirs of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Highland Park, to present Handel's "Messiah."

The program is scheduled for Sunday, December 12, at 7 p.m., in the sanctuary of the church, East Jefferson at Marlborough. The choral group of 70 voices is under the direction of Mr. Donald Tromans of St. Paul's.

Cub Scout Craft Exhibit Success

An impressive ceremony, the Pledge of Allegiance, marked the opening of the Cub Scout Crafts Exhibit at Denby High School on Friday evening, December 3. The remarkable display, which was presented by 82 Dens from 19 of the District III Cub Packs, attracted the admiration of the 500 or more people who attended.

Practically every type of handicraft was represented, including leathercraft, woodcraft, papercraft, metalcraft, Indian-craft, pottery and ceramics. Finished articles, as well as materials actually being processed, were evidence of the amazing skill of busy, boyish fingers, under helpful and trained leadership.

The exhibit was intended to demonstrate the various craft skills used in Cubbing, and the participation of nearly 400 enthusiastic boys was a tribute to the careful planning of the committee and other adult Cub leaders. Mr. H. D. Nixon was chairman of the group, assisted by Messrs. Dayton Dailey, Leonard Galbraith, Leo Cote, and Bob Kilmer. Mesdames Edith Gauss and Helen Vanderways were in charge of decorations, and Mr. E. A. Anderson handled the space arrangements.

The Cub Scout Packs which exhibited their handicraft were: Packs 98, 113, 115, 129, 246, 309, 354, and 425 of Denby Community; Packs 74, 147, 156, 290, and 399 of Grosse Pointe Community; Packs 118, 148, 288, and 412 of Barbour Community; and Pack 185 of Southeastern Community.

The outstanding success of this Crafts Exhibit promises to make it an annual highlight of East Side Cubbing activities, with even greater participation being planned for next year.

Three-Car Tangle Occurs on Mack

A three-car accident occurred on Mack between Buckingham and Devonshire at 6 p.m. on Nov. 30, which was attended only by property damage. The riders in all three cars escaped personal injury.

Car No. 1 had slowed down for a left turn and was run into by car No. 2. While the mechanical mess was being untangled car No. 3 plowed into the other two.

Thieves Visit Woods Home

A burglary occurred at the home of Carl Mann, at 2016 Norwood, Grosse Pointe Woods, on Friday night, Dec. 3, between the hours of 7:30 and 11 p.m.

There had been no forcible entry and the belief is that Mr. Mann had not pulled the door firmly enough to spring the lock.

Miscellaneous jewelry was taken from a dresser drawer and also a suit case, a watch and a child's bank. A quite valuable collection of old coins was also taken. The value was placed at $250.

Father Carrying Paralytic Slain

The fatal shooting of Anthony Michalowski, aged 31, of 11038 Whitehill, Detroit, on Saturday night by a supposed "telephone" burglar, the culmination of an epidemic of burglaries in the 15th Detroit police precinct. The 15th precinct immediately adjoins Grosse Pointe on the northwest.

The Grosse Pointe police say that there have been between 80 and 90 burglaries of various character reported in the area within the past month. Mr. Michalowski had told friends that his house had been called on the phone several times recently, which is the basis for the theory that it was a "telephone" burglar who had killed him. The practice of this variety of burglar is to first call a house to learn whether the occupants are at home. If there is no answer it appears to be an open field for the criminal.

The killing of the young father and husband was especially shocking to the whole Detroit community. He was carrying in his arms his infant paralyzed daughter when he and Mrs. Michalowski returned home to see a light burning in a bedroom.

He chased the man and was fired at by him twice before the third and fatal shot entered his brain. Mrs. Michalowski, who was soon to become a mother again is in a critical condition from shock.

Editor's Note: Could better argument be advanced for the revival of capital punishment in this state. If this wretch is found and convicted the maximum punishment that can be inflicted will be to clothe, shelter and feed him for the rest of his life, or, more likely for a limited number of years.

UNSUCCESSFUL THIEF
An attempted burglary at the Schervish market on Mack avenue was reported to the Farms police on December 4 when a broken panel was discovered in the rear door. Entrance had apparently not been gained.

Are you and your family protected against rising hospital costs?

Chances are 1 in 4 you or a member of your family will have to go to a hospital this coming year!

The cost of hospital care, like everything else, has gone up. Think of the bills you pay at home—most of them larger today than ever. Virtually every item of expense in a home—food, supplies, maintenance and wages—is duplicated a hundred-fold in a hospital. To go to the hospital today costs far more than it used to—over 98% more in typical cases since 1941.

BLUE CROSS—Michigan's most widely used health plans . . . best possible protection at the lowest possible cost. 1,600,000 people in Michigan are now protected by the Blue Cross Plans so that they will not be faced with the catastrophic cost of illness. Blue Cross provides the greatest possible protection at the lowest cost because it is a non-profit organization operated by Michigan's hospitals and doctors themselves.

No other health-care plans offer so much for so little

For only pennies a day, you and all enrolled members of your family can be protected now and whenever sickness might strike in the future. Regardless of what the hospital charges may be, Blue Cross pays the hospital bill in full for a broad range of Blue Cross services to which you are entitled when a bed patient in a participating hospital. And Blue Cross Medical-Surgical Plans give added benefits for surgical operations and doctor's calls at the hospital.

BLUE CROSS PAYS FOR ALL THIS

Hospital Plan Pays up to 120 full days of hospital care per disability for Ward or Semi-Private accommodations. No cash limit for maternity care

(after nine consecutive months of membership) and such extra services as general nursing . . . meals and special diets . . . operating room . . . drugs (incl. Penicillin and Streptomycin), dressings, use of radium when furnished by the hospital . . . anesthesia . . . laboratory . . . many other features—when a bed patient in any one of the 160 participating hospitals in Michigan which operate the Blue Cross Plan. Liberal allowance toward your hospital bill in non-participating hospitals.

Surgical Plan Pays stated amounts for over 370 surgical procedures . . . maternity care (after nine consecutive months of membership) ; : : up to $15 per year for diagnostic X-rays ; : : emergency operations.

Medical-Surgical Plan Pays (in addition to surgical benefits) stated amounts for doctors' bills when hospitalized for reasons not requiring surgery.

Talk over with your employer how your company can provide this protection for you

Blue Cross is available to employed people, without physical examination or health statement; through the group enrollment plan. Ask your employer to contact the nearest Blue Cross office for full details.

The Future of Alger House

The hope for the utilization of Alger House for a Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library is dim, despite the overwhelming sentiment that this should be done which developed at the meeting on Friday night in the Neighborhood Club.

Paralleling this shrinking hope for a memorial library however, the flame of the determination that this magnificent property shall be preserved for the use and enjoyment of this community and as a memorial to its soldier dead, burns stronger than ever.

Since the Friday night meeting in the Neighborhood Club it has been learned on excellent authority that the Alger heirs, hurt and offended by the rejection of their property, even as an unconditional gift, by the Board of Education, has determined them not to give it to the school district under any circumstances.

If this is true, finis may be written to the hope of having a memorial library to be maintained and administered by the school district.

In this connection it is timely to state at this juncture that a lot of senseless and unjust talk has been bruited about in this community about the action of the Board of Education in refusing this gift. Our school board is composed of four men and one woman who give of their time and best efforts to conduct our school system. It is the general consensus that they have been doing a good job.

In the case of Alger House they felt they were compelled to judge solely from the standpoint of public officials who were to take the responsibility of dispensing public funds for the maintenance of a school library. Individually they were undoubtedly conscious of the memorial quality of the project which was its genesis, but, with the exception of the stand of the President of the Board, this was not exhibited in their decision.

What our Board of Education may be justly criticized for is that they permitted themselves to be too greatly influenced by the advice of their professional advisers before this was thoroughly examined and pursued to a definite conclusion.

It can also be criticized for its failure to make any allowance for the cultural and aesthetic values to Grosse Pointe which the Alger House location offered. This is a very real part of education in its broader implications for the whole community. They could have well recognized that they had a wider responsibility to the whole Grosse Pointe Community. They need not have adhered to the strict letter of their responsibility to carry on a school library primarily for children and only incidentally for adult citizens. They could have gone farther and recognized the many uses to which this property, operating as a public library, could be put in the service of the whole population, which were not possible in the new structure at its proposed location.

The overwhelming majority opinion of the people of Grosse Pointe is that this property could have been adapted to very satisfactory use as a functioning library, despite the contrary opinion of the experts called in.

This now, however, looks like water over the dam. Persons in Grosse Pointe who have the cause of a Memorial to our soldier dead deeply at heart are already taking counsel together and it is the devout hope of most of our people that something tangible will come of their deliberations which will yet save this magnificent spot as a lasting memorial to our dead and to those who served.

Communism's Spade Work

The latest statement to issue from the un-American Activities Committee in Washington should make every thoughtful American stop, look and listen.

They should banish from their minds any lingering prejudices that they inherited from the emanations from the original Dies committee whose ill-timed statements often caused it to forfeit the confidence of the people.

This statement is not the expression of a village reform society. It comes direct from a duly constituted committee of the United States House of Representatives.

When it goes on record with an explicit statement of the objects, activities and methods of the communist group in this country it should command the instant and thoughtful attention of every citizen who is concerned with the welfare and safety of his country.

This committee charges that an estimated 800 Moscow-trained American communists are already scheduled to take command of a secretly raised army to overthrow this government.

It says that education is one of the ripest fields for communist activity, explaining that many communists and fellow travelers have bored into the American school system and constitute "a deadly danger."

It gives as reasons why communism attracts so many learned men: frustration, greed or love of power, and sometimes misplaced idealism.

The committee says carefully selected communists from the United States and other countries get a free course in factory sabotage, bomb making, kidnapping, train wrecking, mutiny, civil warfare, espionage, infiltration and other methods of wrecking a country. The chief school for this diabolical training is the Lenin School in Moscow.

This does not mean that every teacher in this country should be given a screening, but it does mean that suitable examination should be made wherever significant signs appear.

The communist plan for training the American child for treason and destruction, bears a striking similarity to the

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"A thousand golden sheaves were lying there, Shining and still, but not for long to stay... As if a thousand girls with golden hair Might rise from where they slept and go away." (Edwin A. Robinson)

Some time ago, we printed a list of "You're getting old WHEN" tips and (as the radio boys say) we've had many requests for more of same, so here goes. First we'll start with the gals: You're getting old when:

You reach for your compact and lipstick when a man enters the room!

You bend down to pick up something... in a manner suggesting a Yogi exercise!

You think the two people laughing together across the room, are laughing at you.

You think you're pretty lucky to have the husband you've got.

Your chief topic of conversation (among the girls) consists of diets, face creams, massages and girdles!

Now for the "boys." You're OVER THE HILL BROTHER, when:

You'd rather go someplace "lively" than sit home by the fire-side watching your little woman knit.

You begin to think the ties you've been wearing for years are too conservative.

You start brushing what's left of your hair... night and morning.

You pretend you've forgotten your overshoes, because you're afraid your office pals will think you're a sissy for wearing them.

You start most of your conversations with: "When I was a boy..."

But cheer up boys. There will come a time when you'll admit you're over the hill, then you can sit back and really enjoy life.

Our pet, Arthur Godfrey told a story the other day that we pass on here, in case you missed it. A man and his small son were seated in a crowded bus... when, during one of those "public" silences in crowds... the boy piped up with, "Daddy, is our cat a man cat or a girl cat?" You could tell the people on the bus were as curious to hear the answer as was the boy. Finally the father replied, "He's a man cat," in a tone that plainly implied the subject was now closed. But not so with the boy. He then asked, "How do you KNOW?"

At this point there was no mistaking the silent attention of the entire busload who were wondering how pa would get around this one. After what seemed like ages and ages, the worried parent said, "Because he has whiskers!" Everyone audibly let out his breath and settled back in his seat... confidence renewed in the parents of the world.

A woman we know has a little difficulty in getting her dachshund to "take the air" when it is cold or raining. He refuses to do his daily dozen while wearing a sweater... so Madame was up a tree, so to speak, until she saw an ad in the paper for raincoats, for dogs, from an Eastern store. She wrote ordering the raincoat and received the following reply (in part):

"Dear Madame: You are not alone in your problem because dachshunds simply don't like rain. You should have and will have to have one custom made. We make them for $8.50 per coat and I am glad to say they are not only made of real rubber, but are smart and distinctive looking." (There followed directions for measuring.) Then: "If you desire pajamas, would suggest you order same along with the raincoat." (Now we've heard EVERYTHING!) And while we're on the subject of dachshunds... for pity sake, pronounce it or them "Docks-unds." We've heard everything from dash-hounds to dash-hoots and on behalf of the docks-und, we resent it!

Now that we've started a class in pronunciation, we may as well continue it. Two other words mispronounced more than most, are: Chaise Lounge and Hors D'oeuvre. So all right, they're French words... but if you're going to use them all the time you might as well know how. The first is pronounced, "Shaaaazee-long," holding a clothespin over your nose as you say the "long." That's as near as we can get to it in print... but it's STILL better than saying "Chasey-Loungy" or "Chaze-Lounge."

The little hors d'oeuvre really suffers at the hands of most of us... the two favorites being "horses doovers" and "hore doves." Tsk, tsk, tsk. You'll never get a raise out of the boss talking like THAT! They are "aw-derves" or a reasonable facsimile thereof. If you can swing that "derves" around on your palate to sound like Mrs. H. Thumpington Horsecollar saying, "nerves"... you'll hit it right on the button.

methods of Mussolini with his nine-year-old Balilla in Italy and Hitler's Youth Movement in Germany. It is the spiritual aftermath of the latter which is making it so difficult for us to effect a reformation at this time in the moral character of the German people.

The committee report says that the Communists plan to take the American from the nursery, put him in uniform with the hammer and sickle flag in one hand and a gun in the other and send him out to conquer the world.

If they have their way, the committee says, "he will be guided from the kindergarten straight through college so that he will have everything but a mind of his own." "If Communists have their way in this country," the committee says, they "would smash the existing school system, dismiss, jail or shoot teachers who resist, and train pupils to obey, to love and to hate."

If this committee of your House of Representatives is only half right in its findings, the net result is enough to send a thrill of horror through every American.

This committee is not designed to shape or give direction to our foreign policy.

It is concerned solely with uncovering and exposing plots against the American way of life.

Its findings and opinions however should be a tremendous factor in shaping our foreign policy.

It is merely the latest exhibit of the fact that the world is fast being resolved into two hostile and irreconcilable groups. We cannot afford to stick out heads in the sand. The issue must be faced on every front where it occurs. We believe that our national leaders are aware of this dark-aged movement. They can only act effectively, however, if backed by a positive and clearly defined body of opinion among the people of this country. That opinion should be expressed at every turn. This nation cannot drift with an evil tide. Civilization itself may be at stake.

Pointers Air Views on Alger House Issue

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Why has the responsibility for the preservation of the Alger House been placed on the Board of Education? Surely in a community like Grosse Pointe there are ways of preserving the Alger House and grounds for community purposes other than as a library.

As a taxpayer in Grosse Pointe, as one who has always lived in this community, and as the principal of one of the elementary schools, I wish to express my appreciation for the decision which the Board of Education made relative to the Alger House as the War Memorial Library.

We all feel that taxes are high enough now and I, for one, appreciate the careful consideration which the Board gave of the cost to the taxpayer for the maintenance of the building and grounds.

I have always lived in Grosse Pointe and appreciate the beauty of the estate in question, but I am not surprised at the great number of people who have never been in the Alger House, although it was open for years as an Art Museum. I am afraid the same thing would happen if it were a library.

As the principal of Mason School I fully appreciate the inaccessibility of the Alger House to the residents of Grosse Pointe Woods, with whom I have worked for the past twenty years; and I know that a library, if it is to be functional, must be easily accessible to the majority of the people.

Very truly yours, ETHEL M. TUCKER

December 5, 1948

To the Editor:

The "Open Forum on the Alger House" is, I believe, the best possible first step toward the discovery of ways and means to save the Alger House for the use and benefit of this community. The lack of "any strings attached to" the offer opens up all manner of worthy possibilities for the building's constructive and permanent use.

As a representative of the Grosse Pointe Theatre and as a private citizen, too, I was particularly encouraged to find that others were considering the use of the building as a community center rather than solely as a library.

In consideration of the character of the building—its architectural distinction, its landscaping, and its location—and also the needs of the community, I confidently believe there are thousands who would agree that its most advantageous and most appropriate use would be as a Center of the Fine Arts; a place where music, drama, painting, sculpture, and all manner of fine arts and crafts could be studied, practiced and performed.

Financially burdensome as the large building now appears, I would hazard the guess that a Fine Arts Center, properly inaugurated and managed at Alger House, would, in several years, be not only ready but able to expand its facilities. From talks with Miss Weddock, who managed the House as a museum, I know that if the building were made available tomorrow at encouragingly low rental charges, its many rooms would be quickly booked by a multitude of worthwhile cultural organizations which have in the past sought vainly for suitable space to hold meetings, present recitals, lectures, forums, and plays.

Assuming that the Alger might allow such alternatives, the paramount question contingent upon acceptance and utilization of the building for community purposes is, of course, simply this: from where will the funds come for the building's conversion, management and upkeep?

Should it be a public, municipally owned and operated enterprise supported by taxes; and if so, how can an absence of selfish political maneuvering be guaranteed?

Is there a person, are there persons, or is there an established foundation ready, willing, and able—NOW—to finance and manage the building privately as a cultural center or school; and if so,—where?

Are the residents of Grosse Pointe sufficiently desirous to preserve the building, expand the community's facilities and promote the general cultural welfare to support a new foundation specifically instituted to manage the building in the community's best interests; and if so, would such a foundation be prepared to underwrite deficits which might well occur in the first years of operation?

Lastly,—and this, perhaps, is the "64 question"—would the people who, after conscientious and thorough debate, resolved to build a War Memorial Library, reconsider their purpose, in the light of all the new evidence at hand, to the extent of accepting a monumental gift which, while remaining a most impressive War Memorial, would serve better as an all-round center of cultural activity than as a library; and if so, is it legally possible that the fund could so be used?

I ask these questions only in the hope of stimulating further thought on the matter, aware that the answers cannot be given tomorrow; but I would like to suggest concretely that another open meeting be held in the near future.

The purpose of such a meeting would be to reveal all pertinent facts concerning the Alger House and to determine as concretely as possible the extent to which local groups and organizations would unite to establish a new and greatly needed civic asset upon the magnificent "head-start" gift which may not yet have been irretrievably rejected.

RUSSELL WERNEKEN.

December 4, 1948

Dear Sir:

In my opinion, the Board of Education was more than justified in rejecting the gift of Alger House. I can see no valid reason why Grosse Pointe should content itself with a pre-Victorian white elephant as a main library building.

Certainly the expert judgment of such qualified persons as Miss Severs, Mr. Mohrhardt and Mr. Derrick should bear more weight than the emotional reaction of poorly informed, though well-meaning, private citizens.

One cannot help regretting that the trustees of the Alger Estate have not had the wisdom to dispose of the property at the publicized advantageous terms given the proceeds to the Board of Education. Such proceeds could have been applied to the building of a modern, functional library at the logical Kercheval-Fisher site.

Very truly yours, EDWIN W. OWRID

1120 Lakepointe Grosse Pointe Park

Dear Mr. Edgar:

You have published quite a few letters condemning the Board of Education for their action on the Alger House. I should like to side with Mr. Wendin and present a few reasons why I think the Alger House is unfit for a library.

First of all, a library should be in a convenient location. The Alger house is a mile from the Charlevoix bus line and not much nearer from the Kercheval line. This means that a large percentage of our community will have to rely on cars or long walks to reach the library.

Second, consider the cost of maintaining such a building. The Alger house, although beautiful, is bulky and ornate and would require much more money to keep it up than would a conventional library.

Third, it has been proved time after time that houses are generally not suitable for use as libraries. The rooms are too small for adequate storage space and study facilities. Why not start out on the right foot and construct a building designed as a library instead of trying to put a square peg in a round hole.

Finally, I think that some people are not analyzing the facts merely because they hate to refuse a gift. But like the little Indian boy who was given a brass elephant, we can look at it but hardly use it.

Sincerely, EARL BRABB.

December 3, 1948

Gentlemen:

Since you seem to be welcoming comments on the Alger house, here's mine.

If the donors of the property and the subscribers of the funds are agreeable, I believe it would be appropriate to forget the library idea and to accept this beautiful property as a memorial to the veterans. I think that a public library, no matter how

A Valuable Aid In Illness

FRED M. KOPP, R.Ph. There is no one instrument in the practice of medicine that is more valuable than a thermometer—and it is perhaps the only medical instrument the average person can use and interpret successfully, once he has learned how.

Any noticeable increase in temperature is a definite sign of illness and the doctor should be consulted at once. Regular temperature readings will tell the doctor a great deal regarding an illness and may save him unnecessary trips.

A thermometer should be a permanent item in every medicine chest—it will pay for itself many times over. Your druggist can supply you with a well made one that will give long and accurate service. This is the 24th of a series of Editorial Advertisements appearing in this paper each week. Copyright ticketed, cannot be a thorough-going memorial, because it is partly for the givers own use.

To cling so hard to the library idea that the veterans lose this fine property would seem to forsake the original purpose of this movement, namely to honor the War Dead and to benefit the War Survivors.

If it is not thought advisable to devote this property entirely to the veterans, perhaps a compromise, providing a small branch library suited to this location combined with a real Veteran's building could be arranged.

Later the main library could be paid for by taxes as public building usually are.

Sincerely yours, PAUL MAXON

December 3, 1948.

Dear Mr. Edgar:

Will you add our protest to the action of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education in rejecting the offer of Alger House as a war memorial library.

I have read carefully the statements of the opposition as published in the News but they appeared to me to be very shortsighted.

We have a very unique community in this Grosse Pointe area and it should be obvious that the location of a memorial anywhere except on our beautiful lake front could be only because our taxpayers would look upon the purchase of lake frontage as an unjustified extravagance. But to turn down the offer of the Alger property, magnificently located and easily adaptable for the purpose under consideration, would be the height of folly.

Certainly the Grosse Pointe News is to be congratulated on its leadership in challenging an action which this community would have good reason to regret in the years to come.

Most sincerely, GEO. M. SLOCUM.

December 3, 1948.

Dear Sir:

As a taxpayer, I regret very deeply the action of the four School Board members in rejecting the offer of Alger House for a memorial library. It does not seem right that four members of a community can block the acceptance of this magnificent gift of the Alger family. Certainly the preponderance of feeling seems to be overwhelmingly in favor of accepting it.

In my opinion, the action of the School Board was taken much too hastily and on the advice of only two librarians. Certainly a matter of such importance should not be decided in this manner.

As I understand it, the School Board had committed itself to the maintenance of a memorial library. If the Alger House were accepted, and altered with the money already raised, would the upkeep be more than the upkeep of the proposed new building? The maintenance of the beautiful grounds and gardens of Alger House would be more, of course. But if the many garden clubs, Parent-Teachers Associations and other civic organizations were given the opportunity to contribute to this maintenance, I feel sure it would be done, well done, with great enthusiasm. A project of this kind is a very healthy thing for a community, and not only would the memorial library benefit from it, but so would the people from all the Grosse Pointes.

I sincerely hope the School Board will reconsider its action. Cordially yours, ELIZABETH W. PIERSON.

December 3, 1948

Dear Editor:

We of the 1948 Red Feather Community Chest Campaign wish to thank you for the very fine cooperation which you have given to the Red Feather during the entire fall season.

Never has the coverage of what the Chest and its 125 Red Feather agencies have been doing been so complete. Prior to the drive in October, during the campaign, and after the close of the drive last month the space that you gave to the work of the Chest has been large.

I think that everyone who knows what the Chest is and what work is being done by the Red Feather agencies, approves of the businesslike methods of raising money and the very real need for that money. As long as publications like yours continue to inform the public of what the Chest is, we can continue to support our Red Feather agencies.

Although we did not reach 100 per cent of our goal we did reach 97.8 per cent—a percentage which exceeds the average for other Community Chests in the nation. In addition, Greater Detroit raised more money for its local social service agencies than has ever before been raised in its history.

Again let me thank you, for myself, the campaign organization of 20,000 volunteers and the hundreds of thousands of our citizens who use Red Feather services each year for your assistance in putting the Red Feather in the public eye.

Very sincerely yours, 1948 Community Chest Campaign, Edward T. Gushee, Chairman.

Dear Sirs:

Your active interest in this project, (the saving of Alger House), is appreciated.

TIMOTHY TOBIAS MUSSELMAN, 2085 Van Antwerp, G. P. Woods.

Dec. 4, 1948.

To the Editor:

May I add my appreciation for the generous offer of Alger House? There should be no hesitation in accepting this gift. We have only to look to the future to see how much it will add to the cultural education of this, and coming generations. We can hardly call the location remote when we compare it with distances some of our older scholars traveled (by foot) to secure an education.

With the earnest hope that the many voices in favor may carry to success the gift of Alger House.

Respectfully yours, MADELINE D. McMATE.

Gentlemen:

It has come to our attention through your columns that the offer to accept the Alger house as a war memorial library has been turned down. It is my opinion that the best interests of all would be better served if this most generous offer were to be accepted in lieu of putting up a new building for that purpose. It would be difficult to imagine a more appropriate setting, and the fact that most of the facilities are already there would seem to me the logical choice, thus ending this most controversial subject.

Sincerely, FREDERICK L. COLBY, Jr.

Alliance Plans
Music Program

The regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Women's Alliance will be held at the church house on Jefferson at Rivard, Tuesday, December 14, at 1:30 o'clock.

Music will play an important part in the program of the day. Mrs. Richard Palmer, violinist with the Scandinavian Symphony, will present several selections accompanied by Mrs. Richard Wilkinson at the organ and piano. A medley of Christmas carols will also be played by Mrs. Wilkinson.

Mrs. W. G. Stohrer, formerly with the Grosse Pointe libraries, will review Alice Tisdale Hobart's recent best seller "The Cleft Rock."

Following the program, tea will be served by Mrs. Knox Hearne and her committee. Friends of the church are cordially invited.

CAR to Hold
Xmas Parties

December 11 will be Christmas Party day for the John Paul Jones Society, "Children of the American Revolution."

At 2 p. m. the Junior group will meet at the home of Nancy Kay and Gail Artner, small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Artner in the Kerby road home.

At 8 p. m. the Senior Group which is made up of Junior and Senior High School students will have as its host Paul Jones, at his home at 1325 Bishop road.

Christmas songs, music and games will be included in both programs. Both groups will have a gift exchange and the Junior group will have Christmas movies.

Each Christmas John Paul Jones members pack a box for the Kate Duncan Smith Mountain School. Gifts of toys and clothing for this box will be collected at both group meetings.

At the Parents' Pot Luck dinner party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Probert Dec. 5, the parents voted to assist the C. A. R. with their Christmas Box.

Adult Education Day
Set for December 9

Members of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs have set aside Thursday, Dec. 9, as Adult Education Day.

The day's program will include sessions on art, garden, literature, drama, international relations, radio and social welfare.

The Madrigal Singers of the Tuesday Musicals will present a Christmas program, and a movie preview will be featured at another meeting.

Mrs. H. L. Caulkins Hostess
At Tea to Benefit Home

Mrs. Henry L. Caulkins of Lewiston road was hostess Tuesday afternoon at a charity tea for the Protestant Children's Home.

TAE Alumnae members who gathered at the tea were Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, Jr., Mrs. Eugene Moffat, Mrs. Harold Noack, Mrs. Noble D. Davis, Mrs. Hemmeter White, Mrs. James Bragaw, Mrs. Bethel B. Kelley, Mrs. Donald Hutton and Mrs. Karl Behr.

Co-chairmen of arrangements were Mrs. Edgar A. Guest, Jr., and Mrs. Franklin Graham.

CAR CATCHES FIRE

Farms firemen were summoned when a short circuit in a car owned by Mrs. G. R. Maitland of 518 Washington road, started a small blaze in front of 131 Moran road on the afternoon of December 3. Damage was slight.

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

For the first of the pre-holiday brunches, MRS. LEWIS FISHER BROWN, titian haired hostess with Mr. B. to over 250 at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, was stunning in a sheer bewixt lace and embroidered white long sleeved blouse worn with floor length twirling skirt of heavy black silk. At her throat, a strand of lustrous pearls with diamond pendant and at her shoulder, a beautiful white orchid.

MRS. WILLIAM RUST PIERCE . . . whose personal and "public" Christmas has kept her whizzing between Manhattan and Detroit . . . looking approvingly at one of her own models at the City Club the other noon. Mrs. Pierce was trim and chic in a black two piece suit, the short jacket flaring pertly at back. Her black high-necked blouse was banded in horizontal bars of black satin and pearls brightened the neckline. With this, a lady-like beanie (this description will probably make Mrs. P. swoon for the chapeau undoubtedly was one of those simple, million dollar affairs) of the most becoming stone blue touched with a gay globby pearl ornament.

PILFERINGS

Voice on Phone: John Smith is sick and can't come to class today. He requested me to notify you.
Professor: All right. Who is this speaking?
Voice: This is my roommate.

Street Car Conductor: How old are you, little girl?
Little Boston Girl: If the corporation doesn't object, I'd prefer to pay full fare and keep my own statistics.

A man came to a psychiatrist and proceeded to unfold his life story to the doctor, he covered his childhood experience, his emotional life, his eating habits, his vocational problems, and everything else he could think of.

"Well," said the doctor, "it doesn't seem to me there is anything wrong with you. You seem as sane as I am."

"But doctor," protested the patient, a note of borrow creeping into his voice, "it's these butterflies. I can't stand them. They're all over me."

"For heaven's sake," cried the doctor, recoiling, "don't brush them off on me!"

Absent-Minded Professor (to pharmacist): Give me some prepared monacetic-acidester of alicylic acid.

Pharmacist: Do you mean aspirin?
Absent-Minded Professor: That's right! I can never think of that name.

Fred Allen reminds us of the girl who worked as a hostess in Roseland. She was complaining to her friend, also a hostess, that she was never invited out to swell parties. "I get invited once—but that's all." Her friend took her aside and said, "The reason that you're never invited again is that you can't discuss any subject with people. Read a book and you'll become an interesting conversationalist." So the social climber read a book. When she was invited to a party a few days later, she was all prepared. She listened to the conversation for a while and then cut in, "Say, wasn't that tough about Marie Antoinette?"

Danny Kaye's favorite story is about the Scot who spent his last dollar to come to this country and failed to find employment. He became discouraged and went down to the Battery where he sat on a dock and looked out to sea, dreaming of the money he had spent to come to America. Just then a diver working under the dock came up, unscrewed the headpiece, and took a deep breath. The Scot looked at him regretfully and said, "Well, well, if I had known that, I would've walked over myself!"

ELLEN ROSE KAPPEL, OF LAKE SHORE ROAD
By Kitty Carney

The piano—any piano—has fascinated 18-year-old Ellen Rose Kappel ever since she was old enough to toddle. Ellen has always felt that she can express her thoughts far more fluently at the keyboard than with written or spoken words.

"Since I was knee-high," she says, "I've just wanted to be a composer." Being a concert pianist holds no allure for her; she wants to devote herself to her own compositions.

Ellen's attraction to music com-could repeat the melody. Ellen could and did. To this day, she can play the musical tune which she entitled, "Christmas Chimes." The piece itself sounds like something a youngster would be playing after he had taken lessons for a year or more.

In all, Ellen has written about 14 compositions . . . a sonata in three movements, several classical and semi-classical numbers and a few tangos. She composes a piece at the piano, memorizes as she composes and then writes it down.

Her older sister, Mary Lou, has written lyrics for three of the compositions; the rest are piano solos. Recently, Ellen explains, she has tried to make each of her pieces as different as possible.

'Enchanted Waters'

Probably the most interesting of Ellen's works is "Enchanted Waters," stormy moods of Lake St. Clair which lies almost at the doorstep of the Kappel home. It took Ellen about three months to write this while she was in the ninth grade. She has lived all her life in the house on Lake Shore. In fact, her family history can be traced back to the Navarres, one of the 12 families who came here with Cadillac.

Classical music is Ellen's favorite, with Rachmaninoff heading the list. She is in her senior year at Nazareth Academy near Kalamazoo, Mich. Kalamazoo, which is a college center, now has its own NBC symphony hour, so Ellen has the opportunity to see and hear many guest artists and concerts. She plays for the Nazareth glee club and for recitals and informal entertainments around Kalamazoo.

Ellen's twin brother, Louis, attends Grosse Pointe High School. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Kappel.

Ellen attended Brownell Junior High School and Grosse Pointe Convent of the Sacred Heart before going to Nazareth. Only in the last four years has she taken piano lessons, but she has done so intensively. Now she plans to go on to college and major in music with her ultimate goal, composing.

Hurt Playing Around Lumber

Dr. Lawrence A. Kroha of 15124 Kercheval, phoned the Park police on December 6 that he had a small boy who had been brought into his office for treatment for an accident, and advised his removal to the hospital.

He was little Paul Stewart, 3½ years old, of 1115 Buckingham. He had been playing around a pile of lumber when some of the boards fell on him. He was taken to Bon Secour Hospital by Patrolman Donald Dean, where, after x-rays were taken, it was reported he was not seriously injured.

Pointe Counter Points

By JANE FOR MEN ONLY

It's next MONDAY that all the shops in the Village are going to stage that special shopping night when only your handsome lads will be permitted inside the portals to buy the loveliest Christmas gifts this side of heaven.

Special pretties are going to be on display for you . . . helpful sales people will be on hand to make your shopping easier . . . you won't bump into stately dowagers as you wander through the stores . . . the ladies are barred . . . and on Christmas morning you won't find the Light Of Your Life opening her gifts from you with that strained, kind of expression which says so plainly, "Oh, dear, he didn't do his shopping on the Annual Men's Night in the Village!"

The daintiest, most feminine shops in the village . . . usually a Woman's World . . . will take on such mannish tone Dec. 13, that the most bashful among you will feel right at home, and can do his shopping with ease. Remember, then, MONDAY. Shop at the third Annual Men's Night in Grosse Pointe Village.

PEPPETS . . . so pastel and fragile and lovely with feminine, exquisite gifts will be filled with pipe smoke come Monday. The smart lads at the Pointe KNOW this is the place to find gifts as delightful as the person to whom they go. (Involved, but you understand.) Let Peppets help you select lingerie sets . . . heavenly bed jackets . . . comforts . . . electric blankets . . . evening bags . . . compacts . . . handsome linens for luncheon or dinner use . . . sheerest handkerchiefs . . . bath towel sets . . . Distinguished and possessing that air of being gifts filled with thought and love you'll find for mothers, wives, daughters, sweethearts . . . at Peppets!

Your Christmas belle must have one of the wonderfully dressy blouses being worn these gay, holiday afternoons and evenings! Topping great black or dark taffeta skirts, the blouses sparkle and have a really festive air. JACOBSONS has a glorious array of all different types of the blouses. Three golden Christmas stars for the husband who puts one of these under the Christmas tree. Loved a gleaming white blouse, short sleeved, buttoned down the back and trimmed in front with rich silver and pastel gunmetal sequins! There are all colors . . . holly greens . . . the pastels . . . black . . . blues. And a lush pale pink nylon with long sleeves, the turn over cuffs fastened by two tiny crystal buttons which match the down-the-back buttons of the blouse. In front, this same pet has inset rectangular yoke embroidered in softest pink satin. She'll whiz through the holidays with one or several of these beauties which . . . combined with a forementioned great skirt . . . gives a gal a seemingly endless wardrobe!

Special Aside To The Ladies: There's Merry Christmas in the air at ANTHONY'S as the lovely ladies of the Pointe dash in to keep appointments that will enhance their beauty for the holidays. The new, soft short hair cuts and Anthony's veddy new and special permanent wave go on at great pace as debs prepare for their coming out parties and mammas are equally as particular about their appearances at the holiday parties. The idea at Anthony's is all built around the hair cut. The permanent wave preserves the becoming outlines of the hair cut . . . and weekly "settings" freshens its loveliness.

The beautiful gifts that glisten and gleam are to be found at YORK JEWELERS where the Grosse Pointe male contingent will wisely head come Monday evening. Handsome sterling silver . . . flatware and in other kinds of gifts . . . twinkling diamond rings and other precious stone jewels . . . all await Monday's shoppers. From tiny gifts to extremely precious ones will be found at York's!

Does she use a cigarette holder? GROSSE POINTE DRUG CO. has just received a supply of the popular Mary Dunhill gold cigarette holders with two changes of tips. The holders are combined with a gold oval compact to make a charming gift indeed! Mary Dunhill's fragrant colognes . . . "Flowers of Devonshire" and "Bewitching" . . . are combined in another attractive gift called the Golden Jubilee Duet. It's marvelous to be able to find just the right atomizer (or any atomizer at all) once again . . . they were nonexistent during the war. A great array of DeVilbiss atomizers are at Grosse Pointe Drug as well as the most alluring scents to fill them . . . Famous name perfums from the houses of Adrian, Prince Matchabelli, Lenthéric, and Lelong to mention a few.

For the Hinting Department . . . and also for your own men friends . . . PROPER'S seems to have a corner on quality gifts this season. The neckwear is particularly fine at this good shop. Ask to see the Bronzini line which boasts those "refined" or conservative patterns drawn by Brooke Cadwallader and signed by him. Tiny patterns on rich silken backgrounds. Don't forget the Mark Cross gifts at this same shop.

It's lucky to give handbags so do combine luck with extreme elegance and give her a W'ALTON PIERCE GROSSE POINTE SHOP handbag. Choose from such beauties as: a russet or dark olive green leather bag piped in gold, saddle bag style; a chic brown, black or chocolate kid "mailbag," with two strap handles with fascinating lock clasp to keep Madame's treasures safe and sound; the red leather and cobra bags which are so festive looking. One good sized red leather bag has the adjustable straps, the flap comes down like a saddle bag but a leather latch slides through a small leather band to close it. There are black broadcloth bags with gold hinges and for evening shimmering bronze beaded bags. These are just a few of the really stunning handbags to be found in Walton Pierce's Grosse Pointe Shop where many other gifts will be displayed on the third annual Men's Shopping Night At The Village. Jewel boxes, ever so good costume jewelry, evening sweaters, and hard-to-find perfumes from Glamor Houses are all to be found here.

HAYDON HOUSE is a man's paradise of gifts . . . those She'll adore . . . and those He'll enjoy himself! Take the rolling cocktail bar, for instance (no cracks) of white metal with top and bottom trays, rubber tired wheels, smart to carry cocktail accessories which Haydon House also has in overwhelming abundance. The electric gifts here are always the last gasp. Once again mixmasters are on the shelves, toasters for "top drawer" toast; electric blankets, modern blenders, and waffle irons that make you want to get up for an early breakfast. Lamps, radios (television and just radios), radio clocks, games room furniture, coffee tables . . . all at Haydon House, boys, where Don Schilling and Harry Esling want to wish you a Merry Christmas anyhow.

Gifts that pay compliments to her good Taste
