Veterans to Hold Auction To Honor Settlement Dead

The Franklin Street Settlement Alumni Clubs are asking Pointers to help them raise $1,000 to complete their memorial to 12 members killed in World War II. More than 500 alumni of this great organization served in the armed forces of their country.

While the war was still in progress, as the boys received news of the deaths of their fellow alumni, they began sending small donations back home to be made part of a memorial fund. After they returned, they sponsored various events to swell the fund and raised a total of almost $2500. This money was spent to build a trophy room at the Settlement House. The Franklin Street veterans contributed their cherished war souvenirs to make a memorial honoring the 12 alumni. The plan will be completed when the veterans have erected a beautiful outdoor memorial at the settlement. To do this they need another $1,000 and they hope to raise it at an auction to be held at the Settlement House on Sunday, February 13.

Pointers are asked to contribute anything which can be sold for $1.00 or more at the auction. Canned goods, skates, golf clubs, tennis rackets, curtains, are a few of the items mentioned that would be most acceptable. Anything that can produce a dollar at the auction will be most gratefully received. George Elworthy, director of the Neighborhood Club, has agreed to accept donations for the action at the club on Waterloo. It would be a big help if the articles could be taken there. If this is not convenient, a phone call to the Settlement, LOraine 7-1452, will assure a pickup. Articles could also be left at the Settlement House, 3360 Charlevoix.

having to exit through the narrow, crooked shaft kept them from carrying off a number of canned hams they had piled up to take with them.

Carted Away No Loot
They admit that they ate a few items in the store, but deny taking anything out of the store with them. It was stated last week that some $300 had been taken from cash boxes in the store. The pair stoutly deny this. They said they intended to crack the safe in the manager's office until they saw that it was wired by ADT for a silent alarm. They stated they planned to return to the store at a later date, tape the alarm and get into the safe. But they were caught at Hanson's before they could carry out this plan.

Didn't Rob Home
The pair also denied they knew anything about the Morrison job, where several thousands of dollars worth of clothing, jewelry and cash were taken.

The police are inclined to believe their stories inasmuch as they had nothing to lose by coming clean on every detail of their activities.

With the double charges they now face in Detroit, it will probably be a long time before the Woods police get around to pressing charges on the Wrigley B. and E.

Township Primary Election to Be Held on February 21

The Grosse Pointe Township primary election will be held on February 21. Carl Schweikart, the present township supervisor, and Don Goodrow, present township clerk, are candidates to succeed themselves without opposition.

Adolph Damman, the township treasurer, is running to succeed himself but he has opposition for the nomination from William Wetherbee of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Township Justices of the Peace C. Joseph Belanger and Victor H. DeBaeke are candidates to succeed themselves but they have opposition in the primaries by James H. Dingeman of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Judge John Potter, who was named as township judge when Don Goodrow was elected township clerk, is running to fill the unexpired term, which has two years to run.

Running concurrently with the township primaries are what is known as the Biennial Spring Primary Election. The only county office to be filled this year is one of County Auditor. For this Archie Leadbetter is a candidate to succeed himself.

No Park Primary
Grosse Pointe Park will not have any primary election this year. The candidates who have filed for nomination do not exceed more than two for each office to be filled and hence those filed go over as the regular ticket to be voted upon at the election

The last date for filing for the elections this year is February 26. Election Day will be March 14.

It is understood that all of the officers whose terms expire this year will be candidates to succeed themselves excepting George Burgess. He will not run again.

The Woods this year will elect a president, three village commissioners, a clerk, an assessor, and a treasurer.

New Candidate in Farms
It is not yet known whether the Farms will have to hold a primary. The last date for filing in that village is this coming Saturday. To date only incumbents have filed, with the exception of one new candidate to fill a vacancy which will exist on the board of trustees.

Of the three trustees whose terms expire, William Connolly will run for president and Henry Hubbard and William Kirby will seek reelection. President James Watkins is retiring after six years in office. John Richardson of Moross place has filed as a candidate for trustee.

Two New Candidates
The present commissioners, James McMillan, Elmer F. Ulrick and William Gillett, are candidates to succeed themselves for the two year term. Two new candidates for commissioner are Peter D. Burgess and Raymond J. Dierickx.

Woods Is Unique
Grosse Pointe Woods is unique among the Pointe municipalities in its election routine in that it does not have any primary election for village offices. This was a provision written into its charter. Anybody can run for election and can get his name on the regular election ballot by merely filing within the prescribed period.

threaten the health of the great city.

Only at Flood Time
It is conceded that it is only at time of high water that any pollution is carried into the open lake, when the flood water carries a portion of the sewage with it. The sanitary sewage is carried during all normal times down to the Detroit sewage treatment plant, for which the Grosse Pointe communities pay Detroit.

If the issue however, should be pursued to a point where Grosse Pointe might be faced with the legal responsibility of cooperating with Detroit in this great and expensive project, the Pointe Communities will begin to take serious reckoning of the proposal of installing their own complete self contained sewage system, drainage, treatment and all.

Furs by Robert to Stage DAR Party Fashion Show

The annual charity bridge of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held on Thursday, February 3, in the auditorium of the Women's City Club at 12:30 o'clock.

Bridge will start at 12:30. Furs by Robert will stage a Fashion Show at 2 o'clock and at 3 o'clock the club will serve dessert.

The proceeds from the affair will go to the chapter's charity projects.

Informal Discussions
This outcome of the drainage tangle, has already been discussed informally, if not officially, by many residents of the Pointe.

One important taxpayer has even suggested that the only final solution of the problem will be the installation of a great tube along the lakefront to gather up and control all the drainage, from the lake shores as far up as Lake Huron and deposit it far beyond the line of any water intakes. This project, it was said, might receive substantial Government aid.

Snowball Causes Car to Hop Curb

Snowball-throwing youngsters in the 14-year-old age bracket, who seemed to be especially numerous around Vernor and Balfour on Thursday and Friday of last week, were the cause of vigorous protests that came into the Park police station.

One car driver narrowly escaped a serious accident when a snowball smashing against his windshield caused him to jump the curb.

The boys were warned by the police.

Walk in the light, and thou shalt see
Thy path, though thorny, bright;
For God by grace shall dwell with thee
And God Himself is Light.

Death Car Driver Mute at Hearing

Richard Seymour, 605 Rivard boulevard, the driver of the car in the fatal accident which happened on Lake Shore road on the morning of January 21, in which Jerry Scott of 616 University place was killed, had a hearing on Wednesday night, Jan. 28, before Judge Victor H. DeBaeke in Shores police court.

He stood mute at the hearing and was released in $2500 bond with his father, Harold D. Seymour, as surety. His examination will be held on February 2.

In the statements of the boys who were passengers in the car, taken by a representative from the Prosecuting Attorney's office, Seymour, Barty and Weaver all acknowledged that they had been drinking. John Hooker, whose statement was taken in the hospital, said he did not know of any drinking by any of them.

Cleaning Plant's Boiler Explodes

What was first reported as a fire at the Whittier Cleaners at 15012 Charlevoix near midnight on Saturday, January 29, was found to have been a boiler explosion in the heating plant. The water had become too low.

The force of the explosion was such that it blew a hole through the roof of the building and did considerable damage to the interior of the place. No fire resulted from the explosion.

League for Handicapped Holds Annual Elections

Other new officials include Mrs. George Lackey and Mrs. Wendell Goddard, vice presidents; Mrs. Clarence Johnson, secretary; and Mrs. Burdette Ford, assistant; Mrs. David Wallace, treasurer, and Mrs. B. E. Taylor, Jr., assistant treasurer.

Park Approves Joint Radio Plan

The Park Council at the meeting on January 31, passed a resolution joining up with the plan to have an inter municipal police radio service. The central control station would be maintained in and by the Farms and other villages would pay their prorated share of the cost of operation to that municipality.

It is not known exactly when the new service may become operative. The Woods Village is well satisfied with the present township radio and has so stated to the proponents of the new scheme, but in the event that the City and the Shores also go into the new setup, it is questionable whether the Woods could stay out. Neither the Woods or Township could afford to maintain the township service for that village alone.

Legion citizenship medals and certificates in recognition of their outstanding qualities of good citizenship.

Follis Wins Honor
The dictionary awarded by Trinity College alumni went to Thomas Follis as the most outstanding athlete not only on the basis of varsity letters won but also on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship and sportsman-like contribution to the teams and the school. He has won two letters in football and two in track.

A number of other awards to which the January graduates are eligible along with the June class will be announced at the June commencement.

On Honor List
The January class listed 18 students whose scholastic record was B or higher for three years of senior high school work. They were: Dona Lee Davenport, Joseph Fromm, Stephen Hosmer, Harriet Hunt, Gloria James, Kathleen James, Maryanna Larson, Patricia Liddle, Donald MacKinnon, Patricia Martin, Robert Phillips, Lloyd Ratz, Robert Sharp, Addison Smart, Barbara Smith, Charlotte Simmons, Robert Thompson, and Jerry Webster.

Along with the regularly enrolled students, six veterans were given diplomas under special provisions set up by the Board of Education.

Musical Program
Music for the commencement exercises was provided by the high school orchestra under the direction of Mr. Dewey D. Kalember and by two student soloists, Ann Young and Sharon Gates, under the direction of Mr. John E. Finch.

Reverend Paul F. Ketchum of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church offered the invocation and benediction.

Mothers Entertain
Following the exercises the High School Mothers' Club entertained the entire assemblage at an informal reception in one of the school gymnasiums. Approximately 700 guests were received.

Good Committee

A fine, well balanced committee has been named to pursue the enquiry into the development of the Alger House property as a War Memorial and Community Center.

The committee of fifteen that has been named by the Memorial Fund is composed of men and women who have been in close touch for years with the community life of the Pointe and with the professional, industrial and cultural interests of its people. They can be depended upon to make a thorough examination of the ways and means of starting and carrying on this splendid enterprise.

The work of this research group, more than that of any other that has been associated with the War Memorial project since its inception, will determine the success or failure of the movement.

Those who have been urging a War Memorial for Grosse Pointe for the past three years are especially heartened by the latter phase of the movement to couple it up with a Community Center. They feel that this committee recently named is happily chosen to effectively work out the dual features of the plan.

A big step has been made in advancing this project which lies so near the heart of all Grosse Pointe.

Supply and Demand at Work

The drop in the price of commodities, particularly in foodstuffs, that has been underway for several weeks, should have a wholesome effect on the national economy. The old laws of supply and demand seem to be working.

The arguments of the proponents of removal of price controls apparently are proving out. There was considerable discouragement felt as prices continued to soar but since the peak figure was reached sometime last August there has been a noticeable recession. This is as it should be, both as a stimulus to national morale and as progress along the only road that leads to a healthy, balanced economy.

The great labor unions seem also to be wisely recognizing this downward movement. There is no longer the emphasis being laid on the necessity for higher wages to meet living costs. Such argument would be untenable in the face of the present downward movement. Instead, the auto unions, after a stereotyped gesture for higher wages, are expected to let this issue drop out of sight and try to cash in on the general prosperity to build up pension and retirement systems. With this the public will have more sympathy than with senseless demands for higher and higher wages which automatically operate against the levelling off of wages and living costs.

One great corporation, General Motors, wisely taking into account the turn of the tide on living costs, predicated its last wage increase grant on the basis of a reversal of the order when living costs began to drop. General Motors employees may soon be face to face with this situation. It is expected they will be agreeable to this looming cutback.

The habit that has laid hold on so many of the American people to classify luxuries as necessities is a mood which operates heavily against the safe and just economic balance of the whole people.

Truman Marks His Course

President Truman has swung far to the left in his first steps in his own administration. This is particularly noticeable in his determination to make good on his prelection promise to repeal the Taft-Hartley Law. He even aims to do more than he dared to promise during the heat of his campaign.

The same general movement which his great preceptor inaugurated sixteen years ago is, apparently, to go on during the term which he has said is to be his first and last.

Sticking out all over his proposed substitute for the Taft-Hartley Act are innumerable indices of what he proposes that go far beyond the purview of any mere labor laws.

He would give free rein to pressure groups to work their will to the full extent of their ability in legislation and government.

He directly invites treason to the American way of life and our national political existence by proposing to abolish the non-communist oath, now required of labor leaders and others. This is direct encouragement to every crackpot college professor in the land.

He strikes a blow at personal liberty and the right to work by proposing to do away with the ban against the closed shop.

He invites what might well be national disaster by asking to take away from the courts the power of injunction against strikes which endanger the national safety.

He would substitute sweet moral suasion for the power of the courts based in law.

One would think that after the experiences he had in trying to head off strikes which threatened the safety of the country early in his inherited administration he would well come every shred of legal authority which a Congress would entrust to him.

Apparently he is more concerned with catering to the wishes of pressure groups than he is with the general welfare.

Fortunately there still exists in the Congress a robust element which will yet have much to say before Mr. Truman's surrender to the pressure groups, which is a betrayal of the general welfare, is incorporated into the law.

The only apparently qualifying element in Mr. Truman's proposals is that they must be applicable to issues which arise in commerce between the states, and hence are subject to national control.

Any sap knows that anything produced from a mousetrap to a hill of potatoes can be construed as entering into interstate traffic and hence be nicely grooved into the interstate channel.

A. PRYOR

*"Whether we wake or we sleep,
Whether we carol or weep,
The Sun with his Planets in chime, Marketh the going 'of Time."
(Edward Fitzgerald)*

We are slowly going "Canasta Happy" which is the equivalent of slap-happy or better still... punch drunk. It's just like that first peanut... you're going to eat only ONE, but as soon as it hits your larynx (whatever that is), you're a sucker for forty or fifty more. Also, YOUR book of rules is the best, or the person who taught YOU is the last word on Canasta. You know how people look at you with ill-concealed scorn when you talk about how wonderful is YOUR Doctor or YOUR Dentist or your dressmaker or your butcher. You can talk your ear off... but to them, THEIR Doctor and Dentist etc., etc. are the best, of course. So goes it with Canasta... and every one claims to have learned HIS way of playing right from the horse's mouth. We understand that since Americans have taken up the game, Argentina (where it originated) wouldn't recognize it for the same game. Excuse us while we reach for another peanut!

The little man who has no "small talk" at his disposal ought to get a chuckle out of this supposedly true story told about one of the great Shahs of Persia. This particular Shah, stupid as he was, felt he ought to say something to his people every five years or so.
Couriers or Haut boys or the local Paul Reveres, would gather together the millions of people the Shah ruled and ordered them to be on the palace grounds at a certain time to hear the Shah's message.

The first day, after his people had gathered, the Shah appeared on his balcony and spoke: "My people... do you know what I am going to say to you?" In unison, they muttered a great "NO". Whereupon, the Shah, with pretended hurt feelings, turned on his heel and went back into the palace without another word. The next day they were summoned again. This time the Shah again asked if they knew what he was about to say to them. THIS time, his flock answered with a great "YES"... and waited expectantly. Once more the Shah shrugged and entered the palace without another word.

Finally, on the third day when they were again summoned to appear before their Ruler, they were asked the same question:
"Do my people KNOW what I am about to say to them?" This time, a court interpreter advised the Shah that half of the people were answering "Yes" and half "No." This time they had him... or so they thought. The Shah finally spoke. Said he: "Very well. Those who know what I am going to say can tell it to those who DON'T know"... and he disappeared again for another five years!

Now if you will step into the culinary department with us for a moment, we will tell you about a super-deluxe soup followed by a gag concerning same. The soup tastes much better than it sounds on paper, so don't start pooh-poohing until you've tried it. First you make a clear beef broth, seasoned to your own taste. Then you make tiny marrow-balls, not any bigger than the end of your thumb, and dump them in the soup. Serve the soup in your largest soup bowls but don't fill them to overflowing because there is more to come.

On a separate platter, pass a "group" of peas, a group of carrots and a group of leeks (but keep them separated from each other)
... so that each guest may help himself to as much as he wants of each vegetable... to put in his own soup at the table. If the vegetables are fresh and cooked properly... you have no idea what a difference it makes in the soup course. None of your soggy vegetable soup in which the vegetables have been soaking for a decade.

Now for the soup story. A woman we know served this dish one evening to about twelve guests. The soup bowls containing the steaming broth and marrow-balls were brought in and placed before each guest. While the hostess was busy talking to her dinner companion, the guest of honor (a lady who was served first) started to eat the soup or drink it or taste it or whatever one does with it, before the vegetables were passed. Soooooo, when the waitress marched in with the colossal dish of vegetables and held them out to the lady guest, that non-plussed creature helped herself to a couple of them and puffed them on her butter plate! HER dinner partner following her lead did the same thing. It wasn't until the third guest was about to do likewise... that the hostess noticed their dilemma and explained what they were to do with the vegetables. Be sure you don't do the same thing. Tell your guests what to expect, then watch their faces light up with joy at the first mouthful... as they say in the "home-making" mags.

In case you've wondered how the other half live, here's a small example. A local gent recently had a short story of his career printed in a National publication. The ink was no sooner dry on the paper than he began getting letters from a lot of screwballs... all of them wanting something and hoping he would see that they got it. Among the requests he received were: to help some religious society scatter pamphlets; to support a colony of Indian children in Oklahoma; to rent a room to a woman from the East who would look after his wants if she could bring her dog along to live with her; a Chicago woman sent him a poem she hoped he could get published for her; a man from Boston sent him a manuscript he wanted three hundred dollars for; a woman in California wanted to sell him her farm; another woman wrote a twenty page letter, hand, telling him of all the hard luck that had befallen her during the past ten years and ended the letter with an itemized account of her doctor bills... hoping he would see fit to pay them! Oh Brother!

Hospital Fund Gets $1,500,000

A $1,500,000 subscription to the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund, described by Fund leaders as one of the largest single gifts ever made for hospital construction in Detroit, has been pledged by the Kresge Foundation.
The contribution to the $19,720,
000 Hospital Fund was announced by Cleveland Thurber, chairman of the Fund's foundations committee.
At the same time, a statement supporting the aims of the hospital building program was made by Sebastian S. Kresge, founder of the S. S. Kresge Company chain of retail stores who established the Kresge Foundation in 1924.

"Many factors," he said, "were considered by the trustees of the Kresge Foundation in determining the Foundation's participation in the program of the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund."
"We are genuinely concerned about the hospital problems of Greater Detroit. The overcrowded conditions of our hospitals, the need for modernizing and re-equipping, outdated structures and the inadequate hospital facilities available to serve certain newly developed and rapidly growing neighborhoods are all possible sources of a serious decline in the health standards of our city."

Know The Cause Of Indigestion

By FRED M. KOPP, R.Ph.
Indigestion is one of the most common of human ailments. An occasional attack may be the result of over indulgence in eating or drinking. Since indigestion is a symptom rather than a disease, when repeated attacks occur
you should see a physician.
He can locate the cause and recommend treatment.

Until you have removed the cause of indigestion you cannot hope for permanent relief.
Self-medication at best is uncertain. It can be harmful.
Why live in constant discomfort when your physician's advice can help you attain permanent relief.

Buy whatever medicine the physician orders from a pharmacist with a reputation for excellent prescription compounding.

Suspect Youths In Purse Theft

Two suspicious looking young men who were apparent patrons of the Frost Coffee Shop at 15406 Mack on Jan. 29 are credited with the disappearance of a pocket-book belonging to Mrs. Frost.

One of them wandered about the place too freely, and shortly after they left, the purse, which Mrs. Frost had placed on a mantel over the counter, was missing.

Both of the young men were strangers to the Frosts. The purse contained $15 and small change.

The new shopping center growing up on Kercheval avenue between Fisher and Muir roads will have three new openings within the next few weeks. The first will be Denny's Men's Store, with the Benny McIntosh's Sunoco station and the Edw. J. Pongracz jewelry shop openings following closely thereafter.

The Chemical Sewer Cleaning Co. has a new chemical for cleaning blocked sewers and drains, which they unconditionally guarantee. TWinbrook 1-5464 will reach them.

The Kadur Standard station, Mack at Roslyn, is headquarters for welding about everything that breaks in Grosse Pointe homes. They have the needed equipment, too.

The Lakeshore Cab Co. whose offices are at Jefferson and Nottingham and who serve so many Grosse Pointers so often and so well, is celebrating its second anniversary this week. Its phone number, as you no doubt already know, is TU. 5-5400.

Very few people have known till now that the Wolverine Storage Company's plant at 11850 East Jefferson, right at our own doorway, is the largest, fireproof constructed warehouse in Michigan.

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

VIVID Virginia Ford Bell and her tall, handsome husband, Samuel, occupy lead space in the new Vogue which shows the attractive couple and three of their tots at the Bell ranch in Arizona...

We are puzzled that the fashion magazine didn't touch on another facet of Mrs. B.'s personality... her love of clothes... and her decided flare for wearing them...

Her hats and costumes are originals... and Lily Dache and Mainbocher became a "part" of the West the day the Bells decided to make their home in Arizona...

PATRIOTIC JUNKET

MEETINGS will occupy the time of the Pointe's Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith who left Sunday for New York... There to attend the Founders Day luncheon and meeting of the General Society of New England Women which was held at the Waldorf...

And on Tuesday... she traveled to Washington to be a member of the hostess committee at the Women's Patriotic Conference of National Defense...

In the capitol... Mrs. S. is stopping at the Mayflower... and will return to her Grand Marais home this coming Sunday...

FLORIDA BOUND

SUNSHINE AHEAD for the Arthur J. Rohdes... who'll be leaving in about two weeks with the Henry Forsters Jr. to motor to Belleair, Fla., which is the ultra violet paradise owned by their friends, the Bernie Powells of Bloomfield Hills...

The Bob Kellers, Ray Whytes and Bill Slaughters will come up from Fort Lauderdale to spend a 10-n-g weekend with the group...

And then the Rohdes will motor on to Fort Lauderdale for an extended visit...

When they return... their new Colonial farm house on Oxford road... will be all ready for the Rohdes... and their two young sons... Chip and Jimmy...

JUDITH IS SIX

SPECIAL DARLING of the Ray Malmborgs of Balfour road... and of course we mean Judith Ann of the blond locks and big brown eyes... celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday...

It was observed at a special anniversary frolic in the Pickwick Room of the Whittier...

Where the proud parents caused Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck and many other delightful Sindy cartoons to scamper over the silver screen for the assembled tots...

Who enjoyed birthday cake, ice cream, milk, before being fruddled back to their respective homes, and to bed (the grownups, who included Judith Ann's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Chicago, went back to the Malmborgs for a quiet buffet supper...)

Guest of honor wore an aqua poplin frock, with white yoke and collar, and dainty flower embroidery...

Helping to celebrate the big day were Denny Brennan, Richard Roberts, Christine Stuart, Vince Ryerson, Michael Mannone, Angeline Rubino, Sharon Adams, Gail Herron and Beth Church...

Pointe Motion Picture Council Hears Talk by Judge D. J. Healy

The annual luncheon of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council was held at the Women's City Club Monday, January 24, with about 50 members and guests present.

Miss Roemer, of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, reported that the Library has bought five sound films with the money the Council has turned over to the Library proceeds from the Fashion Show given in September.

Miss Roemer reported that there was already such a demand for the films that they will have to buy some more very soon.

Mrs. Louis Marick introduced the speaker, Judge D. J. Healy of the Juvenile Court. He explained that up to 50 years ago there was not the need of a separate court to handle juvenile crime, as the family was a much closer unit of discipline, and in most cases the parents were able to handle most misdemeanors. Where there was a case of serious crime committed by a child, it was handled in the regular courts, and the sentence meted out was the same as that of an adult.

However, as juvenile delinquency increased, women of civic and church organizations banded together to get legislation enacted to have juveniles handled in a separate court. As the Probate Court is so closely tied up with the life of families, the Juvenile Court became a division of the Probate Court.

Judge Healy could cite only one case in his experience that had any relation to the direct influence of movies on juvenile delinquency, but he said that there is no doubt as to the indirect influence of the movies. The movies are setting a moral pattern for our society that is entirely undesirable. He cited the divorce rate, teen-age drinking, etc. He said that it is the responsibility of every one to see that decent movies are shown, and refuse to accept inferior movies just as we refuse inferior goods.

There has to be a national movement to get good movies, to abolish the block sale of films, whereby a good movie is shown with a second-rate picture, and refuse to patronize pictures made by actors who do not conduct themselves in private life under the generally accepted moral code.

Others on the committee are: Mrs. Edward McKernan, Mrs. Frank Lockman, Mrs. William Tenbusch, Miss Grace Monaghan, Mrs. Herbert Edit, Mrs. Raymond Huetteman, Mrs. Catherine Sweeney, Mrs. Joseph Leinweber, Mrs. Harold Frear and Mrs. Kenneth Smith.

The public is cordially invited. There will be card games and other entertainment.

Play to Benefit Local Hospital

"The Song of Bernadette," Franz Werfel's reverent novel about a French peasant girl who saw the Blessed Virgin and with her help discovered a healing spring at Lourdes, France, will be dramatized by the Junior Guild of Bon Secours Hospital on February 12 and 13 in Pierce Junior High Auditorium, 15430 Kercheval.

To accommodate the large crowd expected to attend this fine play, the Guild has planned two evening performances at 8:00 and a matinee on Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Tickets may be purchased at the hospital, at Grinnell's, 1515 Woodward avenue, and at the door. The price is $1.00 for adults and 50c for children.

When Bernadette first saw, or believed she saw, her beautiful lady, the local rationalists hauled her before the police, hired a psychiatrist for her, boarded up her healing spring and did everything possible to discredit her. At first only the primitive, the wretched, the poor believed in her with the intensity of their deep Catholic faith. Bernadette's pastor found it painfully hard to believe her. The Roman Catholic Church was cautious, but at last was convinced, and Bernadette spent her last years in a convent.

Reign of Houston Brothers Ended by Ninth Place Team

Punch and Judy Aggregation Stages Upset and Lets Middle Atlantic Transportation Keglers Take Over Top Spot in Bowling League

It took a ninth place team, Punch and Judy Cocktail Bar, to knock Houston Bros., Inc., out of first place in the G. P. Bowling League, last Friday night at the Woods Recreation.

The Houston Stars were not up to par, and that, too, helped matters little for the team that has been on top since the bowling season started. The Judges won all but the middle game to cause this upset.

Middles in First Place The Middle Atlantic Transp. Co., bowling on the next pair of alleys and only one point out of first place, went to work on Motor City Tires to win a sweep from the "rubber men."

Piche's Barber Shop continued on where they left off the week previous and trimmed Kopp's Pharmacy, 3-1. In this one, Bob Gross, with 224-213 in 605, was high. Forrest Piche, his teammate, had 512. Carl Allemand hit 535 for the Koppers but the rest of the team, not much.

Auto Club Gets Sweep Auto Club, anxious to get back in the running, blanked G. P. Review, 4-0. The "Safety Boys" led by Devilee, Groening, and McCarron, mustered 552, 535 and 648 in that order. Henry Pepinski, league ace, had 209-210 in 897, for the Printers.

Kopp's Leading in Ladies' Loop

Farm's Grill, which has climbed to second place in the St. Paul's Ladies Bowling League, is now only one point out of first place, followed closely by Service by Bassinger.

Kammer Beauty Salon lost three points and is now in fourth followed by Grosse Pointe. Radio which picked up four points.

Pick All-Star Five to Meet Tech's Frosh

Neighborhood Club Offering Three Basketball Games On Saturday Night

Managers and referees of the Neighborhood Club Basketball League last week picked the second annual All Star team which will meet the Lawrence Tech Freshmen quintet in the feature game of the bargain rate triple header basketball program which will be staged at the Neighborhood Club Saturday night, February 5.

The program will get underway with a girls game at 7 p. m. between two teams from the girls League at the club.

The game was one of those ding-dong affairs with the Swishers holding a 9-8 first period advantage only to find themselves trailing, 18-15, at the half time. The third period ended in a 25-25 tie to make it a new ball game.

Heading the All Star roster is Dan Malkovitch of East Side Sports, who is currently the league's leading scorer. He was the unanimous choice of the managers and referees as were Red Mason and Ed Lauer of Old Brick, Bob Schoot of St. Clare, Bob Meldrum and M. Scavo of St. Elizabeth and Leroy Guaresimo of the Francois Bulldogs.

Boat Banter

Every now and then, despite the freezing temperature, boat news crops up.

The first thing on the docket is the Detroit River Star Fleet's annual Trophy Banquet which will be held at the Penobscot Club Saturday, February 5, according to Fleet Captain Jack Tighe.

Break Three-Way Tie

The Van Steen team and the Dansbury outfit scored four big points to crack last week's five way tie for third place and moved into a two-way tie for second place.

Ren's made a clean sweep of points to move from fourteenth to eighth place as did Ed Lauer's aggregation who advanced from tenth to seventh.

The M. Smith team also made great strides in the standings when it captured three points and moved from fifteenth to eleventh.

Twelve bowlers posted thirteen better than 200 scores with C. Van Steen going over the top with games of 203 and 214. C. Manino's 236 game gave him third place in the high single game bracket and dislodged J. Rotole who had held that honor with a 283 game rolled earlier in the season.

Other 200 bowlers were A. DeRiemaker, 226; J. Riegler, 217; F. Dansbury, 213; B. DeBueschere, 213; E. LaBadie, 213; T. Brecht, 210; J. Schepka, 207; R. Piche, 206; V. Champine, 205; W. Kerby, 203.

Two pets were killed in the City on January 24. A dog belonging to M. Levidits, of 610 Notre Dame, was hit and killed by a Detroit City Fuel and Ice truck, and Patrolman Ontsweider and Martin found a tiger-striped grayish cat that had been killed by an auto at Kercheval and St. Clair.

Four-Way Tie Now Exists in Neighborhood Club Loop

Bulldogs' Victory Over League-Leaders Knots Standings In Minor Division; Tracy Motors Holds Undisputed Top in Major Division

The up and down Francois Bulldogs played a major roll in the current four-way tie in the Neighborhood Club Basketball League during the past week.

The Bulldogs, with a record of two wins and three losses, annexed their third straight victory by upsetting the league-leading Hanson Chevrolet quintet, 46-36, in the third game of the triple header program at the Neighborhood Club Tuesday, January 25.

In Two-Way Tie Hanson's defeat, the second of the season, dropped the leaders into a two-way tie with the fast moving St. Clare aggregation.

Francis star Leroy Guaresimo amazed the meager crowd with his one handed push shots from far out on the court to capture individual scoring honors with 18 points. Bob Messier led the losers' attack with 8 points.

Another upset occurred in the first preliminary game when the third place Swishers (minor division) handed Tom Boyd its second defeat, 38-30, in eight starts.

The victory moved East Side Sports into a three-way tie for first place with the idle Hanson and St. Clare teams.

Old Brick Inn continued its jinx over the Francois Bulldogs, to win the final game of the night, 39-31. Joe Schaffner, 6' 4" Old Brick center, paced the winners attack with 16 points and moved his team into a four-way tie for first place in the Major Division of the league standings.

League standings as of January 31, 1949.

Table showing league standings for Minor and Major divisions

Team Tracy Motors 6 1, Francois 6 2, Swishers 5 2, St. Clare 3 2, St. Paul 2 6, St. Ambrose 0 7

Team Hanson 5 2, St. Clare 5 2, East Side Sports 5 2, Old Brick Inn 5 2, St. Elizabeth 4 3, Francois 3 4, Jefferson-Nash 1 4, Robots 0 6

Tracy Motors received quite a scare from the revamped St. Ambrose quintet in the 1:30 Saturday, January 29, game and was hard pressed to win, 38-32.

The victory gave Tracy sole possession of first place in the Minor division standings.

The defeat was St. Ambrose's seventh in a row but with their new lineup and a new style of

Good Defense Lets Reserve Quintet Win

Lew Neeb Paces Blue Devil Second Team To Victory Over Dearborn

Grosse Pointe High's reserve basketball team, minus two of its better players, Al Mann and Wayne Peterson, threw an airtight defense around its goal in the final quarter to chalk up a 25-17 victory over the Dearborn reserves in the preliminary game of a double header program on the local court Tuesday, January 25 before a huge partisan crowd.

Mann and Peterson were missing from the reserve lineup for the first time this season due to their promotion to the varsity squad by Coach Ed Wernet to bolster the Blue Devils' weak guard positions.

Lanky Lew Neeb paced the Blue Devils' attack in the non-league contest with 10 points on three field goals and four free throws to take top scoring honors.

Grosse Pointe's accuracy at the foul line, making nine out of twenty-three attempts, eventually proved to be the Pioneers' undoing.

The Pioneers were less fortunate on the free throws, making only three out of twenty-one tries.

Just Like His Name Little Bill Coole (pronounced Cool) was everything his name implies in the early stages of the game, when he dunked his first three-four shots. He led the game at 2-11 and then gave the Pioneers a one-point lead which they relinquished only once, that being in the first two minutes of the second period.

Dearborn held a 13-10 lead at the half-time intermission and remained in front until half-way through the third quarter.

Count Knotted Again Neeb tied the score with two buckets in the first two minutes and forty-five second of the third quarter and Bill Rupp moved the Pioneers into a two-point, 18-14, lead forty-five seconds later with his only score of the game. Neeb dunked a charity toss to give the Pioneers a three-point lead in the fading seconds of the period but Dearborn's Fenske connected on a free throw and a field goal to knot the count at the end of the third period.

Defensive Display In the final quarter the Blue Devils put on a beautiful display of defensive basketball, holding the Pioneers scoreless while rolling up their winning margin on baskets by Neeb, Bruce Allen and Jim Schoeck, and foul shots by Neeb and Allen.

Jim Schoeck and Bill Coole turned in two of the best defensive performances by reserve players seen on the local court this season.

Dearborn's scoring was fairly evenly distributed between Myers, Fenske and Simins, who scored 6, 5 and 4 points respectively.

The Blue Devils' next test will come Friday, February 4, when they tackle Royal Oak on the Acorns' home court.

A total of 1,903 million yards of rayon broad woven goods were produced in 1947.

Dearborn Downs Blue Devils In Thrilling Overtime Tilt

Vince Schoeck Stands Out As Star, But Points Guards Are Unable To Stand Up Under Pressure During Final Seconds of Game

A stolen ball and a successful breakaway by Layman in the last thirty five seconds of the final quarter of the Grosse Pointe-Dearborn game Tuesday, January 25, tied the score at 46-46 and set the stage for the first overtime contest to be played on the local court in the last five years. The Pointers lost, 51-50, in the fading seconds of the overtime session.

Led by versatile Vince Schoeck, who scored 19 points for high point honors, the Blue Devils held a commanding lead throughout thirty of the thirty two minute regulation game.

It wasn't until big Spike Quirk was banished from the game on five personal fouls that the Pioneers were able to knot the score at 44-44 with a minute and a half remaining in the final quarter. Wright knotted the score when he made good on a free throw, after dunking a field goal which put Dearborn hot on the heels of the Blue Devils.

Bayard Johnson put the Pointers in front, 45-41, on a free throw at 6:45 and Schoeck gave the Pointers a two-point, 46-44, lead on a charity toss with one minute remaining in the game.

Thirty-five seconds later Layman stole the ball as the Pointers attempted to freeze it and tied the score at 46-46.

Vince Schoeck put the Blue Devils out in front again, 49-46, when he hooped a field goal and a free throw thirty seconds after the start of the overtime. He added another free throw thirty seconds later, which, incidentally, were the only points scored by the Blue Devils in the overtime, to give Grosse Pointe a four-point, 50-46, lead.

Dearborn moved out in front halfway through the three-minute overtime period on a basket by Noce, a free throw by Nutt and the game winning goal by Wright.

Successful Freeze The Pioneers successfully froze the ball in the final minute and a half to protect their precious one point margin amid tumultuous boos. The partisan crowd didn't get full use out of the seats in the last five minutes of play.

Noce Leads Attack Noce led Dearborn's scoring attack with 12 points; Schleh of Dearborn and Blue Devil "Sparky" Farquhar tied for third place scoring honors with 10 points each.

Currently Dearborn is rated ninth in the state basketball ratings, having tripped up the highly rated Jackson quintet just a week previous.

Regardless of how well the Blue Devils performed, the fact still remains the Pointers are weak at the guard positions. This has spelled defeat in four of the five Blue Devil losses to date.

The weakness first appeared in the Fordson contest, 35-33. Then came the Alumni game, 45-28, then league-leading Wyandotte, 40-25, and finally the Dearborn contest. In the Highland Park game, it was the clock that saved the Blue Devils.

In four of the five games the Blue Devils were either leading going into the final period or within close striking distance. In each case the opponents began pressing and the Blue Devil guards were unable to cope with the pressure.

On Tuesday, January 25, the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club had Julius L. Berns, attorney for Grosse Pointe Woods, as the speaker.

Mr. Berns' talk was on the Grosse Pointe Woods Park. He said that it would be foolish to spend any money on improvements except for equipment that was absolutely necessary to make the park usable, until the tax case with St. Clair Shores has been settled by the Michigan Supreme Court.

Mr. Berns also spoke about the pension for municipal employes and stated that the cost would not be too great for the taxpayers.

To Replace Old Piling at Park At the Park Council meeting on January 31, Village Manager Lane asked for and received approval for an appropriation of $1,000 to replace worn out piling at the Park beach front park.

It will be used chiefly to replace piling at the small boat and swimming areas.

PILFERINGS

Add to your headline hysteria collection:
 From the Denver Post, "SEVEN NAZIS SENTENCED TO LIFE IN TEXAS."
 From the Hollywood Citizen News, "EGG-LAYING CONTEST WON BY LOCAL MAN."

A Chicago banking house once asked a Boston investment firm for a letter of recommendation about a young Bostonian they were considering employing. The investment concern could not say enough for the young man. His father, they wrote, was a Cabot, his mother a Lowell; further back his background was a happy blend of Saltonstalls, Appletons, Peabodys, and others of Boston's First Families. The recommendation was given without hesitation.

Several days later came a curt acknowledgment from Chicago stating that the material supplied was inadequate. "We were not," the letter declared, "contemplating using the young man for breeding purposes."

On his first trip to Ireland some years before the war, a Philadelphia Congressman met and talked to one of the ancient ferrymen on the Lakes of Killarney. "Would you mind telling me how old you are?" asked the visitor.

"Indeed not. I'm 75," was the answer.

Recently, the Congressman made another trip to the "auld sod" and found the same boatman plying his trade. When asked what his age was now, the old man replied promptly, "I'm 75."

"But you were 75 when I was here eight years ago," said the Congressman. "How do you explain that?"

"Explain it?" sputtered the ferryman. "There's nothing to explain. Do I look like the kind of a fellow that would be telling you one thing one day and something else another?"

Pointer of Interest

MRS. ARTHUR HUSSEY OF MARYLAND AVENUE

by Kitty Carney

The Pointe owns a candlestick-maker who has gone so far as to patent her favorite hobby. Mrs. Arthur Hussey, who says she's been fussing around with candles ever since she was big enough to hold a knife, designed a candle and matching candlestick which are so unique that she has secured both a design patent and a mechanical patent.

"Wax Track" candle is the name which Mr. Hussey coined to describe his wife's invention. The tall graceful candle, carefully carved with a knife, follows a deeply grooved corkscrew pattern (although "corkscrew" is an unlovely description of the perfectly shaped candle), so that the wax flows smoothly down the "track" to the bottom without overflowing.

Designed of Clay
 Mrs. Hussey designed the candlestick of clay to match the form of the candle. While the wax track pattern is her "baby," she has decorated candles in other ways. One candle is V-shaped with a large bow-tie carved right between the V and the base. Another squat specimen is so well carved that it resembles two braided pieces of rope.

Her Christmas candles are cut with an angel design, often with the angel painted in subdued tones. For a while, Mrs. Hussey secured used candles from churches and melted them herself. She poured the wax into paper milk cartons or Planter's peanut cans, inserted wicks and carved her candle designs from these block forms. Because the uncertain boiling point of wax made it too dangerous (the wax itself catches fire at a certain temperature), she was obliged to discontinue this portion of her hobby.

Always Intrigued Her

"I always have been intrigued with candles," Mrs. Hussey remarked, as she explained that cheap candles are better for carving purposes than fine dipped ones, because the former have no bubbles.

From wax in one peanut can, Mrs. Hussey has carved a lovely white lily bud. Four green petals, made on spoon forms, are between the lily candle and a rose base which was formed over a saucer. A small pen knife is her most cherished tool, although the usual modeling tools are also a part of her carving kit.

Hours Just Fly

Her pet, the wax track candle, requires from 12 to 16 hours of work. The bow-tie candle, on the other hand, takes only three hours, and "they just fly by" when Mrs. Hussey has her carving knife in hand.

Although Mrs. Hussey studied painting for a year at the Art Students' League in New York, she carved candles for her own enjoyment until friends began making special requests. She even carved candles to match crystal for weddings and various other occasions. She still prefers working with candles and modeling clay to actual painting, but "anything I can do with my hands" rates high.

Cool Weather Job

Because the candles readily take heat from the hands, candle-carving is strictly a cool weather proposition. In her years of experience, Mrs. Hussey has never heard of anyone else who makes a hobby of carving candles.

One of her most devoted fans is her 12-year-old son, Mike, who expressed nothing but the truth when he said with pride dripping from every word, "Gosh, isn't she great?"

The sentimental day of St. Valentine is fast approaching . . . and so full of hearts and flowers and cupid's darts . . . is our shopping trip today . . . that we hope you'll be inspired to give the loveliest Valentines this Feb. 14.

They've been saying it with flowers on Valentine's Day since time immemorial . . . but somehow GROSSE POINTE FLORISTS . . . say it best because their flowers are so beautiful. A telephone call today (NI. 3000) will put your Valentine order in early . . . and on the Big Day . . . Grosse Pointe Florists messengers will deliver your choice of gay, colorful cut flowers . . . orchids, gardenias or corsages . . . or charming potted plants such as saucy cyclamen, jaunty tulips, crisp daffodils, and romantic azaleas.

Lacy as your first Valentine is the lingerie JACOBSON'S is showing for Valentine gifts . . . or just to stock up on yourself. A special Valentine slip is a white crepe one with top edged in narrow lace, a small opening at the bodice top edged in the same frothy lace and tied with bow. The right side of the bodice is embroidered in a red heart design. Fitted midriff slips, with top and hem lavishly lace trimmed, come in white, black or pink. And there are exquisite crepe gowns, trimmed in val lace. The skirts are beautifully long and full. Another style gown has slim crepe shoulder straps, border of lace at the top and bottom with a second row of wider lace insertions along the top, two rows of lace around the skirt just below the waist. Many of these items have been reduced and besides making lovely gifts are wonderful buys. So, remember . . . it's Jacobson's for Valentine lingerie.

A triovanity is THE 1949 Valentine gift according to those nice authorities on the subject, GROSSE POINTE DRUG. They are specially proud of the Richard Hudnut one which has full size lipstick, compact rouge and loose powder compartment. The compact is gold and oblong with lily design at the top. The lipstick fits through the top of the case so that the compact doesn't look awkward. In fact, it looks too small to have these three features.

And now . . . to inspire all these tender thoughts on Valentine's Day . . . and all the other days of the year . . . you must look like a light o' love. Best way to do that, is to begin at ANTHONY'S SALON where all the secrets of perfect hair styling and care belong to the patrons. If you haven't followed the lead of the fashion famous gals and had a short hair cut, get in line for Valentine's Day. Or, if it's a new permanent for you, by all means make your appointment at Anthony's . . . where not only the new and special Anthony permanent is given (looks as if you're having your hair "set" instead of all the old fashioned permanent lokus pokus) . . . but great attention is paid to shaping and styling the hair before the actual curling is done. Be an Anthony Valentine this year.
